LSU Tigers (7-4) vs. #15 Georgia Tech (9-2)

TIGERS FACE GEORGIA TECH IN CHICK-FIL-A PEACH BOWL TO CAP TURNAROUND SEASON

LSU makes its first bowl appearance since 1997 when the Tigers face 15th-ranked Georgia Tech in the Chick-Fil-A Peach Bowl on Friday, December 29 at the Georgia Dome in Atlanta. Kickoff for the contest is set for 4 p.m. CT and the game will be televised live by ESPN. The Georgia Tech contest will cap a remarkable season for the Tigers, a year that saw LSU go from winning a combined seven games over the last two years combined to a 7-4 mark and a runner-up finish in the SEC Western Division. The Tigers posted a pair of wins over Top 25 teams in #11 Tennessee (38-31 in overtime) and #13 Mississippi State (45-38 in overtime) as well as beating Alabama (30-28) in Baton Rouge for the first time since 1969. Overall, the Tigers closed the year by winning four of their last five games, including a four game SEC winning streak, the longest streak since the 1988 team won five in a row. TURNOVERS HAUNT LSU IN SEASON-FINALE LOSS TO ARKANSAS

Arkansas turned a pair of LSU turnovers into 14 points as the Razorbacks upset the 24th-ranked Tigers, 14-3, on cold and rainy afternoon in Little Rock on November 24. The loss ended LSU's hopes to clinching a share of the SEC Western Division title and it also snapped the Tigers' four-game winning streak. The Razorbacks got all the scoring they would need on LSU's first play from scrimmage as linebacker Quinton Caver intercepted a Josh Booty pass and returned it 33 yards for a touchdown and a 7-0 lead. LSU marched down field on its next possession, however, the drive stalled inside the Razorback 10-yard line and the Tigers were forced to settle for a John Corbello 27-yard field goal. Arkansas added another TD midway through the fourth quarter after LSU fumbled a punt. The Tigers managed a season-low 149 yards of total offense, including only 36 yards in the second half. LSU's defense held Arkansas to just 253 yards of total offense.

NOTES ON THE TIGERS

* LSU sophomore wide receiver Josh Reed had one of the best years in school history as he caught 65 passes for 1,127 yards and 10 TDs. The 1,127 yards and 10 TDs both rank second in school history, while his six, 100-yard games tied the school-mark held by Wendell Davis in 1986.

* LSU junior quarterback Josh Booty completed 145 of 290 passes for 2,121 yards and 17 TDs. The 17 TD passes rank fourth in school history and Booty's career passing yardage total of 3,951 ranks sixth at LSU.

* Tailback LaBrandon Toefield led all freshmen in the SEC with 682 yards rushing and 5 TDs. Toefield, a first team Freshman All-America pick, had 100-yard rushing games against both Tennessee (120 yards) and Mississippi State (119 yards).

* LSU led the SEC by having eight players named either first or second team All-SEC this season in the league's coaches poll. First team selections for the Tigers included Josh Booty (QB), Robert Royal (TE) and Josh Reed (WR), while the second team consisted of Brandon Winey (OL), Trev Faulk (LB), Bradie James (LB), Fred Booker (CB) and Ryan Clark (FS).

TIGERS SET FOR 32ND BOWL APPEARANCE

LSU will be making its 32nd overall bowl appearance (14-16-1), including its third in the Peach Bowl. Eighteen of LSU's 32 bowl appearances have come on New Year's Day. LSU beat Clemson, 10-7, in the 1996 Peach Bowl with the help of a three-yard touchdown run by All-American Kevin Faulk and a 22-yard field goal from Wade Richey. The Tigers also posted a 31-27 victory over Florida State in the first-ever Peach Bowl in 1968 despite being 13-point underdogs. LSU is one of only 14 schools in the country to have made better than 30 bowl appearances. This is the first bowl appearance for an LSU team since the 1997 Independence Bowl. The Tigers avenged a regular season loss to Notre Dame defeating the Irish 27-9 behind a 222-yard rushing effort from Rondell Mealey.

LSU VS. GEORGIA TECH

The Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl matchup marks the 18th time LSU and Georgia Tech will meet with the Yellow Jackets leading the all-time series 12-5. The Tigers, however, have won four of the last five meetings. Georgia Tech was a member of the SEC from 1933-1963 during which the two teams met 14 times as conference rivals. The first meeting between the two teams was in 1915 with Georgia Tech capturing a 36-7 win in New Orleans. The two met twice more before the Yellow Jackets joined the SEC. The last time the two teams faced off was in 1963 with LSU grinding out a 7-6 victory in Baton Rouge. The last three times the teams played Georgia Tech was ranked in the top 10 each time, but the Tigers still managed to win all three games. LSU beat No. 3 ranked Georgia Tech, 10-0, in Baton Rouge in 1961, then followed that with a 10-7 win over No. 5 Georgia Tech in 1962 and a 7-6 victory over the No. 7 ranked Yellow Jackets in 1963, the last time in which the teams played. The Peach Bowl will mark the first meeting between the teams in a bowl game.

LSU NOTES OF INTEREST HEADING INTO THE PEACH BOWL

LSU posted a 6-1 mark at home this year, however the Tigers were only 1-3 on the road with the lone victory coming against Ole Miss by a 20-9 count on November 11 ... LSU hasn't played on turf since a 7-6 win over Vanderbilt in 1997 ... LSU hasn't played in a Domed stadium since the 1996 Peach Bowl, a 10-7 win over Clemson ... LSU has won four of its last five games ... The Tigers are 2-2 this year against Top 25 teams -- wins over No. 11 Tennessee (38-31 in overtime) and No. 13 Mississippi State (45-38 in overtime) and losses to No. 24 Auburn (34-17) and No. 9 Florida (41-9) ... LSU played in the very first Peach Bowl, a 31-27 win over Florida State in 1968.

THE SABAN RECORD

LSU coach Nick Saban won the 50th game of his collegiate career when the Tigers beat Ole Miss in Oxford on Nov. 11. Saban enters the Georgia Tech game with an overall mark of 50-30-1. Saban, who is in his seventh season as a collegiate head coach, guided Michigan State to four bowl games in five years. Saban opened his head coaching career at Toledo in 1990, where he guided the Rockets to a 9-2 mark and a share of the Mid-American Conference title.

LSU TOUGH TO BEAT IN RECENT BOWL GAMES

LSU has won four of its last five bowl appearances, including a string of three consecutive victories. The Tigers beat a Nick Saban-coached Michigan State team, 45-26 in the 1995 Independence Bowl and they followed that with a 10-7 win over Clemson in the 1996 Peach Bowl and a 27-9 victory over Notre Dame in the 1997 Independence Bowl. LSU beat South Carolina 30-13 in the Gator Bowl in 1987 before falling to Syracuse, 23-10, on New Year's Day in the 1989 Hall of Fame Bowl in Tampa.

TIGERS LEAD LEAGUE WITH EIGHT ALL-SEC MEMBERS ON COACHES POLL

LSU was rewarded for its 7-4 season by having a conference-best eight players selected either first or second team all-SEC in the Coaches Poll. Heading the list for the Tigers as first team selections were quarterback Josh Booty, wide receiver Josh Reed and tight end Robert Royal. Booty became the first LSU quarterback to be named All-SEC since Tommy Hodson won the award in 1989. Reed becomes the first LSU wide-out named by SEC coaches since Todd Kinchen was honored in 1991, and Royal becomes the first tight end to be named to the Coaches first team David LaFleur in 1996. LSU players named to the second team in the Coaches Poll include Brandon Winey at offensive line, linebackers Trev Faulk and Bradie James, cornerback Fred Booker and free safety Ryan Clark. In addition to the Coaches Poll, Louis Williams and Reed were named first team All-SEC by the Associated Press, while Royal and Faulk were members of the second team.

SABAN NAMED LOUISIANA COACH OF THE YEAR

LSU coach Nick Saban was honored for his turnaround of the Tiger program by being selected at the Louisiana Coach of the Year by the Louisiana Sports Writer's Association (LSWA). In his first year with the Tigers, Saban turned around an LSU team that won a combined seven games over the past two years to a 7-4 overall mark and a 5-3 SEC record. The Tigers, who were picked to finish sixth in the SEC Western Division, finished second in the SEC West.

REED AND FAULK NAMED HONORED BY LSWA

Josh Reed and Trev Faulk were both singled out by the LSWA for their performances this year with the Tigers. Reed, who led the SEC with 1,127 yards receiving, was named the Louisiana Offensive Player of the Year, while Faulk was named Louisiana Defensive Player of the Year. Faulk led the Tigers with 113 tackles, which included nine for losses.

BOOTY WAS ON A ROLL DURING LSU'S FOUR-GAME WINNING STREAK

LSU quarterback Josh Booty had the hot hand during the Tigers four-game winning streak in late October and early November. During that four-game stretch, the junior completed 73 of 132 passes for 1,036 yards, 10 TDs, and just three interceptions. On a cold and rainy day in Little Rock, Booty closed out the regular-season by completing just 6 of 27 passes with 2 interceptions and only 65 yards against Arkansas. Booty tied a school-record with four TD passes in LSU's 30-28 win over Alabama on Nov. 4. He was named SEC Player of the Week for his efforts vs. the Crimson Tide. He followed that with a 16 of 30 performance for 290 yards and 1 TD in LSU's 20-9 win over Ole Miss. For the season, Booty has thrown 17 TD passes, which is tied for fourth in school history, and his career total of 24 ranks seventh in LSU history. Tommy Hodson holds both the season TD pass mark (22 in 1989) and the career mark (69). This year, Booty has completed 145 of 290 passes for 2,121 yards, 17 TDs and 13 interceptions. Booty was named first team All-SEC in the Coaches Poll.

TURNOVERS (OR LACK OF) HAVE BEEN THE DIFFERENCE

The secret to LSU's success this season may be pretty simple - turnovers. LSU is +9 in the turnover column in games in which they have won compared to -10 in losses. In LSU's five SEC wins this season, the Tigers have turned the ball over just five times, while LSU has eight turnovers in its three league losses. LSU has gone without a turnover three times this season, including two of its last five games. LSU didn't turn the ball over in wins over Kentucky (W, 34-0), Western Carolina (W, 58-0) and Alabama (W, 30-28).

HIGH-OCTANE OFFENSE AT HOME

LSU's success at home this season can be in partly contributed to the Tiger offense. In its seven home games this year, LSU is averaged 34.7 points a contest compared to averaging 12.25 points in road games.

LSU'S RED-HOT IN THE RED ZONE

LSU enters the Georgia Tech contest having scored 22 of the last 25 times in which it has entered the Red Zone. LSU had scored in 16 straight visits into the Red Zone before the Tigers missed a field goal in the third quarter vs. Alabama. The streak of scoring 22 of the last 25 times in the Red Zone dates back to the Tennessee game on Sept. 30. Since then, LSU has been in the Red Zone 25 times and the Tigers have responded with 16 TDs and 6 field goals. For the season, the Tigers have been in the Red Zone 38 times and they've scored 22 TDs (11 pass/11 run) to go with 9 field goals for an 81.6 scoring percentage.

LSU'S "D" HAS BEEN GOOD ON OPENING DRIVES

LSU's defense has done a good job of keeping opponents scoreless on its opening drive as the Tigers have allowed only one touchdown this season on an opening drive. Mississippi State is the only team to score on its opening drive against the Tigers this year as the Bulldogs scored on their second play from scrimmage against LSU on Oct. 21. LSU has kept its opponent from scoring on the opening drive in 15 of the last 16 games, a streak that dates back to the Kentucky contest in Week 6 of the 1999 season.

WINEY NAMED THIRD TEAM ALL-AMERICAN BY THE SPORTING NEWS

LSU offensive tackle Brandon Winey was named to The Sporting News' All-America Third Team. Winey becomes the first Tiger named an All-American since noseguard Anthony McFarland and center Todd McClure were named in 1998.

REED, TOEFIELD AND LAVALAIS NAMED FROSH ALL-AMERICAS BY SPORTING NEWS

Offensive lineman Rodney Reed, tailback LaBrandon Toefield and defensive tackle Chad Lavalais' contributions to this year's LSU team didn't go unnoticed as the trio has been selected to the Sporting News' Freshman All-America team. Reed and Toefield both earned first team status, while Lavalais, who came on late at defensive tackle, earned a spot on the third team. Toefield rushed for 682 yards and five touchdowns, best among all freshman in the SEC, while Reed started seven games on the offensive line for LSU and was instrumental in the Tigers allowing just 12 sacks for the season. Lavalais started the final three games and posted 22 tackles, including three for losses and one sack.

REED HAS REMARKABLE SEASON AT WIDE RECEIVER FOR TIGERS

In just his first full season at wide receiver after being converted from tailback in Week 9 of the 1999 season, sophomore Josh Reed threatened to break every receiving record in LSU history. Reed came up just short but he did manage to catch 65 passes (third most in school history) for 1,127 yards (second most in school history) and 10 touchdowns (second most in school history). Reed also tied an LSU record by having six 100-yard receiving games, five of which came in SEC action. Reed, a first team All-SEC pick in three different polls, led the SEC in receiving yards per game with just over 102 per contest and he also ranked second in the league in total receiving yards as well as receptions. Of Reed's 10 TD receptions this season, four have been 45 yards or longer, including a 75-yard score against Auburn. Reed caught a career-best 10 passes in the win over Mississippi State, he scored caught a career-high three TD passes against Tennessee and he had a career-high of 173 yards receiving with a TD against Ole Miss. Reed closed the year by recording 100-yard receiving games in three of the last four contests.

Reed seems to save his best for SEC games as in eight league games this season, he caught 53 passes for 688 yards and 9 TDs.

PEANUT BUTTER AND JELLY SANDWICHES

One of the most popular stories to come out of LSU this season is the one involving peanut butter and jelly sandwiches. The point of the story is that in past years LSU players would have a choice between cold cuts and peanut butter and jelly sandwiches for a snack prior to lights out on the Friday night before the game. Not being aware of how popular the peanut butter and jelly sandwiches were with the players, LSU coach Nick Saban just offered cold cuts (as he has always done in his five years at Michigan State) to the players for the Friday night snack. Somewhere along the way, the players pleaded for the return of the peanut butter and jelly sandwiches and then the deal was struck - win three straight SEC games and they'll return as the Friday night snack. LSU's win over Alabama marked the winning of the bet for the players so the PB&J sandwiches returned to the snack menu for the remainder of the season.

ROYAL SETS SCHOOL MARK FOR TD RECEPTIONS BY A TIGHT END

Senior Robert Royal, a first team All-SEC selection, set the school-record for TD receptions in a single-season by a tight end with his two scoring grabs vs. Alabama. For the season, Royal has five TD receptions, breaking the previous record of four held by Doug Moreau (1964) and Brian Kinchen (1986). For the season, Royal has caught 22 passes for 340 yards and 5 TDs.

TIGERS POST SECOND BIGGEST TURNAROUND IN SEC IN 2000

LSU and Auburn tied for the second biggest turnarounds in the SEC, both improving by four games over its win totals of a year ago. LSU jumped from 3-8 in 1999 to 7-4 in 2000, while Auburn went from 5-6 to 9-2 before its SEC Championship Game loss to Florida. South Carolina posted the biggest turnaround, going from 0-11 to 7-4.

LSU SHATTERS HOME ATTENDANCE MARK

With the stadium expanded to 91,600, LSU easily broke the school's single-season attendance mark as the Tigers drew 614,704 fans to Tiger Stadium for their seven home games. LSU averaged 87,815 fans per home contest, which included sellouts against Alabama, Tennessee and Mississippi State. LSU reset the Tiger Stadium record three times during the year and the Tigers capped their home season with a school-record crowd of 778 for the Alabama game.

FANTASTIC FINISHES

Not only were the Tigers good this year, but they also became a team that was fun to watch and one that left you hanging on the edge of your seat until the final horn sounded. This season alone, LSU had three of its games decided on the final play. UAB kicked a field goal to beat LSU, 13-10, on the game's final play back in September. A week later against Tennessee, the LSU offense scored on its first play from scrimmage in overtime and then watched as the Tiger defense held Tennessee on fourth down inside the 15 for the victory. The same was true against Mississippi State as the Tiger offense scored a TD on its first possession in overtime and watched as the defense turned away the Bulldogs on a fourth down play to end the contest. LSU also scored 16 fourth quarter points to comeback to beat Alabama in a game that made the Tigers bowl eligible.

ROBINSON EXTENDS RECEPTION STREAK

With one catch vs. Arkansas, LSU's Reggie Robinson kept his streak of games with at least one catch alive. Robinson has caught at least one pass in his last 28 games, the longest active streak on the team. Josh Reed has also caught at least one pass in 14 straight games, while Robert Royal has caught at least one pass in 11 consecutive games.

LSU DEFENSE HAS YIELDED JUST TWO FIRST QUARTER TDS THIS YEAR

The LSU defense has allowed only two first quarter TDs this year as only Florida and Mississippi State have found the endzone in the opening stanza vs. the Tigers. Dating back to last season, LSU has held 10 of its last 11 opponents without a first quarter TD.

TIGER STADIUM IS ALIVE AND WELL

Contrary to some reports earlier this year that said that Tiger Stadium had become an easy place for opponents to play, LSU has proven otherwise as the Tigers finished their home slate with a 6-1 mark in Death Valley, which included a 4-0 mark in SEC games. Dating back to last season, LSU has won three straight games in Tiger Stadium over Top 25 teams - def. No. 17 Arkansas, 35-17, in 1999 finale, def. No. 11 Tennessee 38-31 (ot) on Sept. 30 and def. No. 13 Mississippi State, 45-38 (ot) on Oct. 21. Also, dating back to last year, the Tigers have won five straight SEC games at home, the longest streak for LSU since a 5-game streak over a span of the 1995 and 1996 seasons.

LSU FINALLY STARTING TO GET SOME CONTINUITY ON O-LINE; SAME COMBINATION TO START FOURTH STRAIGHT GAME

After shuffling the offensive line around for the first six games, the Tigers have finally settled on a starting lineup and LSU will start the same unit on the offensive line for the sixth straight game on against Georgia Tech in the Peach Bowl.

Through 11 games, the Tigers have used four different combinations on the offensive line. Prior to Week 7 of the season, LSU wasn't able to go more than two games without making a change on the offensive line. Since the Kentucky game, however, the Tigers have been able to stay with the same combination of Rodney Reed (LT), Rob Sale (LG), Louis Williams (C), Dwayne Pierce (RG), and Brandon Winey (RT). That combination has started five straight games, four of which are victories, and they have helped produce 34 points vs. Kentucky, 45 points to go along with a season-best 220 yards rushing vs. Mississippi State and 30 points vs. Alabama.

So far this year, the Tigers have had three season-opening starters on the offensive line miss significant time. For the last seven games, the Tigers have been without three players on the offensive line that were starters when the season-opened. Senior tackle Trey Langely (torn ACL) is out for the season after suffering his injury vs. Houston. Sophomore guard Bob Wynne (neck) hasn't played since the Houston game, while senior center John Compton (concussion) hasn't played since the UAB contest.

The following is a look at LSU's offensive line combination in each game this year:

Game	LT	LG	C	RG	RT
W. Carolina	Langley	Wynne	Compton	Williams	Smalling
Houston	Langley	Wynne	Compton	Williams	Smalling
Auburn	Winey	Williams	Compton	Pierce	Smalling
UAB	Winey	Williams	Compton	Pierce	Smalling
Tennessee	Winey	Reed	Williams	Pierce	Smalling
Florida	Winey	Reed	Williams	Pierce	Smalling
Kentucky	Reed	Sale	Williams	Pierce	Winey
Miss. State	Reed	Sale	Williams	Pierce	Winey
Alabama	Reed	Sale	Williams	Pierce	Winey
Ole Miss	Reed	Sale	Williams	Pierce	Winey
Arkansas	Reed	Sale	Williams	Pierce	Winey

LSU ON TURF

The Tigers will be making their first appearance on artificial turf since the 1997 season when LSU beat Vanderbilt in Nashville, 7-6. Prior to that, LSU beat Clemson on the carpet in the Georgia Dome in 1996 in the Peach Bowl, which also marks the last time in which the Tigers have played a game indoors. LSU has won five straight games played in domed stadiums, four of which have come against Tulane at the Louisiana Superdome. LSU's last loss indoors came against Nebraska by a 30-15 count in the 1987 Sugar Bowl in New Orleans.

THREE TIGERS EARN SEC PLAYER OF THE WEEK HONORS IN 2000

Three LSU players earned SEC Player of the Week honors this season as quarterbacks Rohan Davey and Josh Booty along with running back LaBrandon Toefield were cited for their performances in LSU wins over Tennessee, Alabama and Mississippi State. The following is a look at what each player did to warrant SEC Player of the Week honors:

Rohan Davey - SEC Player of the Week vs. Tennessee on Sept. 30.

Completed 23 of 35 passes for 318 yards and a school-record tying four touchdowns in the 38-31 overtime win over No. 11 Tennessee. Hit Robert Royal with a 25-yard TD pass on the first play of overtime for what proved to be the game-winner for the Tigers.

LaBrandon Toefield - SEC Player of the Week vs. Mississippi State on Oct. 21

Rushed for 119 yards and two touchdowns in LSU's 45-38 overtime win over No. 13 Mississippi State. MSU entered the game allowing just 25 yards rushing a contest, a number that ranked No. 1 in the nation. Clinched the game in overtime with a 13-yard run.

Josh Booty - SEC Player of the Week vs. Alabama on Nov. 4

Completed 18 of 31 passes with no interceptions for 275 yards and a school-record tying four touchdowns as LSU beat Alabama in Baton Rouge for the first time since 1969. Rallied the Tigers to 16 fourth quarter points to win the contest.

LOUIS WILLIAMS IS MR. VERSATILE ON LSU'S O-LINE

When Louis Williams lined up as LSU's starting center vs. Tennessee in Week 5 of the season, it marked the fourth different starting position that the senior has played during his career. Williams, who has started 33 straight games for the Tigers, has started at the following positions during his career: center (7 starts), left tackle (22 starts), left guard (2 starts) and right guard (2 starts).

WILLIAMS EXTENDS STARTING STREAK

LSU senior center Louis Williams made his 33rd straight start vs. Arkansas. Williams, who has been in the Tiger starting lineup since the 1998 season-opener against Arkansas State, has the longest current starting string of any LSU player. Other starting streaks of significance are senior cornerback Fred Booker (27 straight), and sophomore split end Jerel Myers and junior free safety Ryan Clark each with 21 consecutive starts. Sophomore linebacker Trev Faulk has started 18 straight games.

THIRTEEN TIGERS EARN SPOT ON SEC ACADEMIC HONOR ROLL

A total of 13 LSU football players earned a spot on this year's SEC Academic Honor Roll. To be named to the team, a player must at least be a sophomore academically and must have at least a 3.0 overall grade point average or a 3.0 grade point average over the last academic year. The following is LSU's list of SEC Academic Honor Roll members:

GAME 1: LSU 58, WESTERN CAROLINA 0

September 2, 2000 - Tiger Stadium - Baton Rouge, La.

LSU RIPS W. CAROLINA, 58-0, IN SABAN ERA OPENER

The Tiger offense sizzled, amassing 507 yards of offense in the opening 30 minutes while building a 37-0 lead before ultimately defeating Western Carolina 58-0 before an LSU record 87,188 fans last Saturday. Josh Booty threw for a career high 291 yards and a pair of touchdowns passed, while Rohan Davey was a perfect 11-for-11 for 194 yards and three TD strikes as LSU wracked up a school record 485 yards passing. The Tigers wound up with 680 yards of total offense, the second highest total in LSU history and the most since 1977. Booty hit Reggie Robinson over the middle for an 80-yard strike on the third play of the game and the Tigers never looked back. Jerel Myers caught six balls for 117 yards and a pair of touchdowns, while Josh Reed hauled in five balls for 137 yards.

Notes on the game:

* The 485 yards passing LSU had set a new school record, breaking the old one of 456 set in the Tigers 52-7 win over Rice on Sept. 23, 1995. It is also tied for the 10th most passing yards ever by a Southeastern Conference team.

* LSU's 680 total yards is the second highest total in school history behind the 746 put up by LSU in a 77-0 win over Rice on Sept. 24, 1977. It is also the 11th highest total in Southeastern Conference history.

* LSU set a school record by completing 82.1% of its passes on 23-for-28 passing. That percentage ties LSU for 4th in SEC history.

GAME 2: LSU 28, HOUSTON 13

September 9, 2000 - Tiger Stadium - Baton Rouge, La.

JAMES' INTERCEPTIONS HELP TIGERS GET PAST HOUSTON

Damien James came up with a pair of interceptions late in the fourth quarter to help the Tigers to a 28-13 victory over Houston last Saturday at Tiger Stadium. James intercepted a pass in the endzone with just over three minutes left in the contest and he picked off another pass and returned it 56 yards for a touchdown with just under a minute left to seal the LSU win. After a scoreless first quarter the Tigers struck for 21 points in the second quarter as Josh Booty fired TD passes to Joe Domingeaux and Robert Royal, followed by a short TD run by LaBrandon Toefield. The Tigers appeared to have the game under control before a late charge by the Cougars. LSU won for the first time since 1997 when being out-gained by the opposition. Houston had 438 yards of total offense compared to 297 for the Tigers.

Notes on the game:

* The Houston touchdown reception in the fourth quarter snapped an LSU streak of eight consecutive quarters without a point that began with last year vs. Arkansas. That matches a streak of eight consecutive quarters dating back to 1985 with back-to-back shutouts of Kentucky and Ole Miss.

* This is the first time since the Vanderbilt game in 1997 that LSU totaled less yards than their opponent and still won the game. In '97, the Commodores gathered 248 total net yards, while the Tigers gained 230 total net yards.

GAME 4: UAB 13, LSU 10

September 23, 2000 - Tiger Stadium - Baton Rouge, La.

TIGERS FALL TO UAB ON LAST-SECOND FIELD GOAL, 13-10

UAB's Rhett Gallego kicked a 32-yard field goal as time expired to lift the Blazers to an unlikely 13-10 win over LSU in Tiger Stadium. Gallego's field goal came just seconds after UAB's Chris Brown intercepted a Josh Booty pass and returned it 25 yards to the LSU 17-yard line. with 25 seconds left in the contest. UAB defeated the Tigers despite picking up just 178 yards of total offense, which included only 57 yards of offense in the second half. UAB led 10-0 at halftime before the Tigers managed to tie the game at 10-10 on a 35-yard field goal by John Corbello with 10:33 left in the contest. The two teams traded possessions before UAB kicked the game winner as time expired. Domanick Davis led the Tigers with 226 all-purpose yards and their only touchdown of the evening, a one-yard run at the 3:04 mark in the third quarter. Linebacker Trev Faulk led the LSU defense with 13 tackles.

GAME 5: LSU 38, #11 TENNESSEE 31 (OT)

September 30, 2000 - Tiger Stadium - Baton Rouge, La.

DAVEY'S FOUR TD PASSES LEAD TIGERS PAST VOLS IN OT

Rohan Davey delivered one of the more memorable performances in recent Tiger history, capping a 318-yard, 4 TD performance with a 25-yard strike to Robert Royal on the first play of overtime to lead LSU past Tennessee 38-31. Damien James broke up a fourth down pass in the Tigers' end zone by A.J. Suggs to secure the victory for the Tigers. Davey threw a pair of first half TD passes to Josh Reed, while LaBrandon Toefield came up with a career-best 74-yard run to help the Tigers grab a commanding 24-6 lead at the half. Tennessee mounted a furious comeback, rallying for 16 fourth quarter points to knot the game at 31 with 1:30 to go. After LSU had a 46-yard attempt blocked as regulation expired, Davey calmly led the Tigers to the deciding touchdown. Reed finished with 146 yards and three touchdowns, while Toefield had his first career 100-yard rushing game, piling up 120 yards.

GAME 6: #9 FLORIDA 41, LSU 9

October 7, 2000 * Gainesville, Fla. - Florida Field

TIGER MISCUES LEAD TO 41-9 LOSS AT FLORIDA

There has been one common theme in LSU's roller-coaster start this season - when the Tigers turn the ball over they don't win. The Tigers turned the ball over four times and got none in return last weekend en route to a 41-9 loss at Florida. Gator quarterback Rex Grossman completed 18-of-28 passes for 276 yards and 3 TD passes, all to Jabar Gaffney, while Robert Gillespie came up with 120 yards rushing on 19 carries to pace Florida. Grossman hit Gaffney with a pair of first half TDs to help the Gators to a 17-3 lead. The two hooked up for the third time less than five minutes into the third quarter on a 59-yard strike to move the lead to 24-3. The Tigers cut the lead to 27-9 on a 5-yard TD pass from Josh Booty to Robert Royal before Florida added two late touchdowns for the final margin of victory.

GAME 7: LSU 34, KENTUCKY 0

October 14, 2000 * Baton Rouge, La. - Tiger Stadium

TIGERS GROUND KENTUCKY AIR ATTACK WITH 34-0 WIN

Behind three touchdown passes from quarterback Josh Booty and an outstanding overall defensive performance, LSU evened its Southeastern Conference record at 2-2 and moved to 4-3 overall with a convincing 34-0 win over Kentucky at Death Valley last weekend. Booty connected for TD passes with three different receivers, hitting Josh Reed, Reggie Robinson and Eric Edwards with TD passes, while Devery Henderson added a touchdown and John Corbello kicked two field goals. Defensively, the Tigers were led by its standout linebacker tandem of Bradie James and Trev Faulk, who recorded 17 and 13 tackles respectively. The Tigers handed Kentucky coach Hal Mumme the first shutout of his tenure as Wildcat's coach. LSU finished its swing against SEC Eastern Division teams with a 2-1 mark.

GAME 8: LSU 45, #13 MISS. STATE 38 (OT)

October 21, 2000 * Baton Rouge, La. - Tiger Stadium

TIGERS USE 4TH QUARTER RALLY TO BEAT MISS. STATE

LSU overcame a 14-point fourth quarter deficit to knock off 13th-ranked Mississippi State, 45-38, in overtime in Tiger Stadium. The Tigers, behind 119 yards rushing from LaBrandon Toefield, torched the nation's top-rated rushing defense to the tune of 220 yards on the ground. LSU rushed for four TDs, including the game-winner by a Toefield, a 13-yard jaunt in overtime. For the game, the Tigers racked up 466 yards of total offense in scoring the most points in an SEC game since a 63-28 win over Kentucky in 1997. LSU trailed 31-17 heading into the fourth quarter but the Tigers used a combination of rushing and passing to tie the game at 31-31 on a 20-yard TD pass from Josh Booty to Josh Reed. LSU took the lead, 38-31, on a 3-yard run by Domanick Davis with 5:24 left before State sent the game into overtime with a score with less than two minutes left in the contest.

GAME 9: LSU 30, ALABAMA 28

November 4, 2000 * Baton Rouge, La. - Tiger Stadium

BOOTY TOSSES 4 TD PASSES AS LSU ENDS BAMA JINX, 30-28

Josh Booty threw four touchdown passes and the Tigers once again came up with a big fourth quarter as LSU ended its 31-year drought to Alabama in Baton Rouge with a 30-28 victory over the Crimson Tide on Saturday in Tiger Stadium. Trailing 21-14 with just over 12 minutes left in the contest, the Tigers scored 16 points over a five-minute span to take control of the game. Booty connected with tight end Robert Royal for a pair of fourth quarter TD passes and John Corbello added a 28-yard field goal to give the Tigers a 30-21 lead before holding on for the final margin of victory. The Tigers guaranteed their first winning season since 1997 by outgaining the Tide by a sizable 408-314 margin before an LSU record 91,778 fans. Josh Reed caught eight passes for 129 yards and a pair of TD receptions, while Royal's two TD receptions gave him five for the year, an LSU record for tight ends. LaBrandon Toefield paced the Tigers with 85 yards on the ground, as LSU ran for 133 as a team.

GAME 10: LSU 20, OLE MISS 9

November 11, 2000 * Oxford Miss. - Vaught-Hemingway Stadium

DAVIS AND REED LEAD LSU PAST OLE MISS, 20-9

Domanick Davis rushed for 106 yards and two touchdowns and Josh Reed caught eight passes for a career-high 173 yards as the Tigers snapped a 10-road game losing streak with a 20-9 win over Ole Miss in Oxford. After the Tigers spotted Ole Miss and early 3-0 lead, LSU took the lead for good when Josh Booty hit Eric Edwards with a 32-yard touchdown pass for a 7-3 lead at the 12:29 mark in the second quarter. LSU led 7-3 at halftime. LSU increased its lead to 14-3 on a 1-yard run by Davis late in the third quarter and the Tigers sealed the victory on another 1-yard run by Davis with 4:08 left in the contest. LSU's defense limited Ole Miss to just three field goals for the contest and the Tigers held Ole Miss Heisman Trophy candidate Deuce McAllister to just 48 yards rushing on 24 carries.

GAME 11: ARKANSAS 14, #24 LSU 3

November 24, 2000 * Little Rock, Ark. * War Memorial Stadium

TURNOVERS HAUNT LSU IN 14-3 LOSS TO ARKANSAS

Arkansas turned a pair of LSU turnovers into 14 points as the Razorbacks upset the 24th-ranked Tigers, 14-3, on cold and rainy afternoon in Little Rock. The loss ended LSU's hopes to clinching a share of the SEC Western Division title and it also snapped the Tigers' four-game winning streak. The Razorbacks got all the scoring they would need on LSU's first play from scrimmage as linebacker Quinton Caver intercepted a Josh Booty pass and returned it 33-yards for a touchdown and a 7-0 lead. LSU marched down field on its next possession, however, the drive stalled inside the Razorback 10-yard line and the Tigers were forced to settle for a John Corbello 27-yard field goal. Arkansas added another TD midway through the fourth quarter after LSU fumbled a punt. The Tigers managed a season-low 149 yards of total offense, including only 36 yards in the second half. LSU's defense held Arkansas to just 253 yards of total offense.
