< Fleur-De-Lis

In the fall of 2005 Hurricanes Katrina and Rita devastated Louisiana and the Gulf Coast. In light of the disasters, LSU added a "Fleur-de-lis" decal to the helmets for the remainder of the 2005 season to represent Louisiana and the city of New Orleans, one of the most affected areas by the hurricane. The "Fleur-de-lis" has been traditionally used to represent French royalty, and in that sense it is said to signify "perfection, light and life." The symbol is synonymous with the city of New Orleans.
