One of the best all-around football players to ever play at LSU ... Is listed as a wide receiver, but also plays on kickoff coverage as well as serving as LSU's backup holder ... Also toyed with the idea of playing in the defensive secondary early in the season ... Brings a certain toughness and attitude to the field ... Separates himself from others by the intangibles he brings to the field ... Is an excellent downfield blocker who prides himself in the big hit ... Is the only player in LSU history to have at least 700 yards receiving in three straight seasons ... Led the SEC in both receptions (74) and yards (1,041) and ranked second in the SEC with 10 TD receptions, which is the second-highest single-season total in school history ... Became only the fourth 1,000-yard receiver in school history this season, joining Eric Martin (1,064 yards in 1983), Wendell Davis (1,244 yards in 1986) and Josh Reed (1,127 yards in 2000 and 1,740 yards in 2001) as the only players in school history to reach the milestone ... Played and started all 13 games for the Tigers ... Currently holds the school record for career TD receptions with 21 and ranks second in LSU history in receptions (178) and is fourth in career receiving yards (2,544) ... Needs only 6 catches to move past Wendell Davis for first place on LSU's list for receptions ... Ranks seventh in school history with 7 career 100-yard games, which includes 4 in 2003 ... Opened the 2003 season with three straight 100-yard games - 152 yards and 2 TD on 6 catches vs. Louisiana-Monroe, 109 yards and 1 TD on 6 catches vs. Arizona and 162 yards and 1 TD on 11 catches vs. Western Illinois ... Set a career-high with 12 receptions for 130 yards and 1 TD in win over Alabama ... Enters the Sugar Bowl riding a streak of 6 straight games with a TD reception ... Has also caught at least one pass in all 38 games of his career ... Had 14 special teams tackles for the Tigers in 2003 ... Rated as the No. 1 player in the SEC who can change a team's game plan by the Sporting News prior to the 2003 season ... Called by ESPN analyst Bill Curry and former collegiate head coach as "a great, great football player who can walk on the field and change the game. He's that good."

- 2002 SEC OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK (VS. KENTUCKY)

Speedster who had an outstanding second season as a wide receiver after playing as a running back as a freshman and sophomore for the Tigers ... Earned Second Team All-SEC honors in 2003 after ranking among the league leaders in receptions (51) and yards (837) ... Led the SEC in receiving touchdowns with 11, which is the most in LSU single-season history ... Started all 13 games for the Tigers and caught at least 1 pass in each game that he played, which included a season-best of 7 catches for 114 yards and a TD in the win over Mississippi State ... Added 100-yard games against Florida (5 catches for 109) and Auburn (6 catches for 101 yards and 2 TDs) ... Hauled in the game-winning TD pass against Ole Miss, a 53-yard reception in the fourth quarter ... Five of his 11 scoring plays covered 40 yards or more, including a season-long reception of 64 yards vs. Auburn on LSU's first possession of the game ... Also had scoring plays of 55 yards vs. Arizona, 53 vs. Ole Miss and 50 and 46 yards vs. Louisiana Tech ... Currently ranks tied for second in LSU history with 19 career TD receptions ... Was on the receiving end of perhaps the most memorable play in school history in 2002 as he hauled in a 75-yard TD pass from Marcus Randall as time expired to beat Kentucky last year ... Dubbed "The Bluegrass Miracle," The Associated Press called it the play of the year in college football and the play later went on to win an ESPY in the "Best Play" category ... Also a member of LSU's 2001 National Champion Indoor Track and Field team.
