Academic Achievement

Since his arrival in 2005, LSU has seen 116 players earn their degrees.

Compete for Championships

Under Miles, the Tigers have won a national title, an SEC title, two SEC Western Division titles and a total of 51 games, which is the most in any 5-year period in school history.

Community Involvement

As part of the Miles Plan, community involvement is a must. LSU players annually spend hundreds of hours

Alma Mater

Where stately oaks and broad magnolias shade inspiring halls,

There stands our dear Old Alma Mater who to us recalls

Fond memories that waken in our hearts a tender glow,

And make us happy for the love that we have learned to know.

All hail to thee our Alma Mater, molder of mankind,
May greater glory, love unending be forever thine.
Our worth in life will be thy worth we pray to keep it true,

And may thy spirit live in us,

Forever L-S-U!

LSUsports.net/media Credentials

Credentials for LSU home games are issued to working media only. Because of severe space limitations and demand, the deadline for all season credential requests is Aug. 14. Individual game credentials must be requested two (2) weeks prior to the date of the game.

Game Notes

Media and fans can access the current media guide, updated statistics and game notes all in one location at www. LSUsports.net/media. Each category is updated daily throughout the season.

Images

Members of the media can obtain photos on all LSU coaches and athletes as well as official LSU logos on the Internet at http://media.lsusports.net. The site features head shots and action shots of all LSU's football players. The site will be updated weekly throughout football season. To gain access to the database, please contact Michael Bonnette in the LSU Sports Information Department for a login and password.

Wide Receiver Rueben Randle

TIGERS

The LSU Offense

LSU returns six starters and 21 letterwinners on offense from a unit that averaged 24.8 points and 304.5 total yards (122.8 rushing, 181.8 passing) a game last year. The Tigers, behind fourth-year offensive coordinator Gary Crowton, feature a multiple attack - in attempt to take advantage of its speed. Crowton is joined on the offensive staff by three new coaches – Billy Gonzales (passing game coordinator/wide receivers), Frank Wilson (running backs), and Steve Ensminger (tight ends). Greg Studrawa returns for his fourth season as LSU's offensive line coach.

Offensive Tackle Alex Hurs

Ouarterback

Jordan Jefferson is back as LSU's starting quarterback after leading the Tigers the Capital One Bowl a year ago in his first season as a starter. Jefferson, who has the ability to both run and throw with equal effectiveness, passed for 2,166 yards and 17 TDs a year ago. He added another 171 yards and one TD on the ground as he ran his record as LSU's starting quarterback to 9-4 (1-0 in 2008, 8-4 in 2009). In 2010, Jefferson will become the first quarterback to return as a starter for the Tigers since JaMarcus Russell in 2005-06. Jarrett Lee gives the Tigers a backup at the position with plenty of experience as he's started nine games during his career (8 in 2008 and 1 in 2009). Lee brings a big arm and a high football IQ to the field. For his career, Lee has tossed for 2,070 yards and 16 touchdowns. Freshmen Zach Lee rounds out LSU's stable of quarterbacks. Lee is a two-sport standout who was selected in the first round of the Major League Baseball Draft in June. Lee will play both football and baseball (pitcher) for the Tigers.

Running Back

Senior Richard Murphy and junior Stevan Ridley get their turn to take over the running back spot for the Tigers in 2010 due to the departure of Charles Scott and Keiland Williams. Murphy, who has shown flashes of brilliance during his brief stint at the position during his career, suffered a seasonending knee injury in the second week of the 2009 season. Murphy, who is fully recovered and practiced during the spring, has rushed for 442 yards and two TDs during his career. Ridley emerged as LSU's starter late in 2009 when the Tigers lost its top three running backs (Scott, Williams, and Murphy) to season-ending injuries. Ridley, who started against Penn State in the Capital One Bowl, finished the year with 180 rushing yards and three TDs. Michael Ford, a redshirt freshman, brings both power and speed to the position and he goes into the 2010 season coming off an outstanding spring one that saw him rush for over 100 yards in each of LSU's three scrimmages.

Fullback

Dominique Allen and Kellen Theriot – both sophomores – came out of spring practice as LSU's top two fullbacks. Allen, a big and powerful blocker, weighs in at over 270 pounds, but he's athletic enough to carry the football if needed. Theriot is a converted linebacker who caught on quickly during spring practice and goes into the fall in listed on the two-deep at the position. Travis Dickson, the brother of former Tiger tight end Richard Dickson, is a true freshman who could step in a see action at fullback during the fall.

Wide Receiver

LSU returns two starters - senior Terrence Toliver and sophomore Rueben Randle - at wide receiver in 2010. Perhaps the most talented position on the team, LSU also moved former quarterback Russell Shepard to wide receiver on a full-time basis during the spring. Toliver and Randle are both big targets who display exceptional hands along with breakaway speed. Toliver goes into his final year with the Tigers with 85 career receptions for 1,241 yards and seven touchdowns. Randle caught 11 passes for 173 yards and two scores as a true freshman in 2009. Shepard, who is a threat to score every time he touches the football, brings versatility to the position as he can lineup anywhere from the slot, running back or even as a Wildcat quarterback. Last year as a true freshman, Shepard rushed for 277 yards and had 34 receiving yards.

Tight End

The tight end position is another spot on the field where the Tigers have multiple options. Junior Deangelo Peterson is a converted wide receiver who gives LSU a playmaker at the spot. Peterson, who has bulked up to over 240 pounds, caught two TD passes from the position a year ago. Mitch Joseph and Tyler Edwards are more suited for the running game as both have shown to be excellent blockers. Chase Clement moved over from defense during the spring and showed signs that he could be the complete package at the position with both exceptional blocking ability as well as good hands in the passing game. Travis Dickson, a true freshman, will also be in a position for playing time at the position that his brother (Richard) started at for LSU for three years.

Center

LSU goes into 2010 with two players who have experience at the center position – junior T-Bob Hebert and sophomore Patrick Lonergan. Hebert started 11 games at center in 2009, playing a total of 606 snaps at the spot. Lonergan stepped in for an injured Hebert against Louisiana Tech and then started the Capital One Bowl against Penn State. Both players are expected to battle for the starting position in fall camp for a second consecutive year.

Offensive Guard

Josh Dworaczyk, a junior, returns as the starter at left guard after playing all 13 games at the position in 2009. Will Blackwell, a versatile junior who can also play center, came out of spring practice as the starter at right guard for the Tigers. Blackwell is a former defensive lineman who brings a hard-nosed attitude to field. Matt Branch, a sophomore who started his career at LSU as a tight end, will backup Dworaczyk at left guard, while redshirt freshman Josh Williford, who is the biggest player on the team at 6-foot-7, 336 pounds, goes into the fall as the No. 2 right guard.

Offensive Tackle

The most experienced player on the offensive side of the ball for LSU is senior Joseph Barksdale. Barksdale, who started at right tackle in both 2008 and 2009, moves to the left side this year, taking over for the departed Ciron Black, who started a schoolrecord 53 straight games at the position. Barksdale goes into 2010 riding a streak of 26 consecutive starts (longest on the team). He played every snap from scrimmage in 12 of LSU's 13 games and led the Tigers with 784 offensive plays. Alex Hurst, a sophomore, will start at right tackle after seeing action in a backup role at right guard. Junior Greg Shaw will backup Hurst at right tackle, while redshirt freshman Chris Faulk will backup Barksdale on the left side.

2010 LSU FOOTBALL MEDIA GUIDE

The LSU Defense

The Tiger defense again looks to take another step back to the dominance that it enjoyed for the first three years under Les Miles in 2010 as veteran coordinator John Chavis returns for his second season at LSU. In his first year with the Tigers, Chavis turned around an LSU defense that ranked near the bottom of the SEC in every significant category. In just a year's time, Chavis had turned around the Tiger defense as LSU regained the swagger that made them so successful in previous years. Chavis returns only four starters from last year's defense that allowed just 16.2 points per game and 327.6 total yards (133.4 rushing, 194.2 passing). However, of the four starters that LSU returns in 2010, two of them are among the best at their position in college football - cornerback Patrick Peterson and middle linebacker Kelvin Sheppard. The two other returning starters for the Tigers are defensive tackle Lazarius Levingston - who started at defensive end last year - and safety Brandon Taylor.

Defensive End Lavar Edwards

Safety Brandon Taylor

Defensive End

The Tigers will have two new starters at defensive end in 2010 as Lazarius Levingston moves inside to the defensive tackle spot, while Rahim Alem has moved on to the NFL. LSU has five players who can fill the void at defensive end led by sophomore Lavar Edwards (23 tackles, 4.5 TFL, 2.5 sacks), who played in 12 games with one start a year ago. Junior college transfer Kendrick Adams joined the team during the spring and emerged as a potential candidate to fill the other defensive end spot. A pair of redshirt freshmen - Barkevious Mingo and Sam Montgomery - both had outstanding practices during the spring and will see action in the fall as will sophomore Chancey Aghayere, who started three games in 2009.

Defensive Tackle

LSU's most experienced position on the defensive side of the ball could the tackle position as the Tigers return senior Drake Nevis (50 tackles, 11.0 TFL, 4.0 sacks) and sophomore Josh Downs (9 tackles, 3.5 TFL), both of which saw significant playing time there a year ago. In addition, Lazarius Levingston moved inside to the tackle position during the spring giving the Tigers another experienced veteran on the line. Last year, Levingston started 10 games at defensive end, recording 28 tackles and 8.0 tackles for losses. Redshirt freshman Michael Brockers could be LSU's breakout player in 2010 as he is coming off a spring that saw him dominate the defensive front. Other players who could contribute at tackle in 2010 include redshirt freshmen Chris Faulk and Bennie Logan as well as junior Dennis Johnson.

Linebackers

Kelvin Sheppard returns to lead a talented. but youthful group of linebackers in 2010. Sheppard led the Tigers in tackles a year ago with 110 stops and he's been mentioned by some publications as an All-America candidate this year. Sheppard, the undisputed leader of the LSU defense both on and off the field, will be joined on the field by junior Ryan Baker at will linebacker and junior Stefoin Francois at same linebacker. Baker will see his first extensive action at linebacker in 2010 after serving as a special teams standout in his first two years with the Tigers. Francois moved from safety to linebacker last year and has yet to play a down at the position. A trio of redshirt freshmen - Lamin Barrow (sam), Kevin Minter (mike) and Tahj Jones (will) will serve as the hackuns.

Cornerback

Patrick Peterson is widely considered one of the best overall cornerbacks in college football going into 2010. With outstanding cover skills and sub-4.4 speed, Peterson has all of the tools to become a dominant player at his position. Entering his third year as a starter, Peterson ranked among the SEC leaders last year in passes defended with 15 (2 interceptions, 13 PBUs), Peterson also ranked second on the team in solo tackles with 43. Morris Claiborne, a sophomore. will start opposite Peterson at the other cornerback position. Claiborne is a former high school sprint champion who possesses tremendous speed. Claiborne played in seven games as a true freshman in 2009. Sophomore Ryan St. Julien will backup Claiborne at one cornerback spot, while junior Ron Brooks and redshirt freshman Drayton Calhoun will backup Peterson on the other side.

Safety

Brandon Taylor returns as LSU's strong safety after starting 10 games there a year ago. In his first season as a starter in 2009, Taylor recorded 41 tackles and two interceptions for the Tigers. Senior Jai Eugene was shifted from cornerback to free safety during the spring and goes into the fall as the starter at that position taking over for Chad Jones, who left school early to enter the NFL. Eugene has been on-and-off starter in the secondary during his career and brings experience and a good grasp of the Chavis defense to the field. Craig Loston, a highly-touted safety who redshirted last year as a true freshman, will backup Eugene at free safety, while juniors Karnell Hatcher and Derrick Bryant will fill-in behind Taylor at strong safety.

The LSU Special Teams

Special teams has been a difference maker for LSU under Les Miles and things shouldn't be any different in 2010 as the Tigers return two key components - placekicker Josh Jasper and punter Derek Helton - from a unit that ranked among the best in the SEC last year. Gone from last year's team are return specialists in Trindon Holliday and Chad Jones. In 2009, behind Holliday and Jones, LSU led the nation in punt return average with 18.9 yards on 27 returns. The Tigers were also first in the SEC in kickoff coverage with a 44.5 net average Last year, LSU returned two punts for touchdowns and they also returned a blocked punt for a score. In five years under Miles, LSU has accounted for 12 special teams touchdowns and blocked a total of 11 kicks or punts.

Placekicker

Josh Jasper returns for his senior season, handling both field goals and kickoffs for the Tigers. Last year, Jasper connected on 17-of-20 field goals and all 34 of his pointafter-touchdown conversions to lead the Tigers with 85 total points. Jasper hit six field goals of 40-yards or better, including two from 50-yards out. For his career, Jasper has connected on 19-of-22 field goals and 38-of-38 PATs. For the fourth year, Jasper will also be responsible for kickoffs for the Tigers. Drew Alleman, a walkon, will backup Jasper on both placekicks and kickoffs.

Punter

Derek Helton is back in 2010 as LSU's punter after taking over the duties last year in his first season with the team. Helton, a junior college transfer, averaged 40.0 on 46 punts a year ago. As a unit, LSU ranked third in the SEC in net punting with a 38.9 average. Jasper serves as LSU's "pooch" punter where 10 of his 15 punts in 2009 were downed inside the 20-yard line.

Kickoff Return

With the departure of return specialist Trindon Holliday to the NFL, the Tigers will be faced with replacing one of college football's most dangerous return men in 2010. In Holliday's absence, the Tigers will turn to Patrick Peterson and Ron Brooks to handle kickoff returns this year. Brooks joined Holliday as a return specialist for the Tigers, returning 13 kickoffs for a 19.4 average. Peterson will be making his debut as a kick returner for LSU this year. Russell Shepard and Morris Claiborne are listed as backup kickoff returners.

Punt Returns

In addition to his duties as kickoff returner, Patrick Peterson will double as a punt return specialist for the Tigers this year. Peterson, who has tremendous hands and an explosive first step, will replace Trindon Holliday and Chad Jones, who combined to average 18.9 yards on 27 punt returns a year ago. Peterson will be making his punt return debut for the Tigers in 2010. Peterson will be backed up by Morris Claiborne, Russell Shepard and Rueben Randle.

Les Miles hoists the 2007 Coaches' Trophy crystal football as the Tigers claimed the BCS National Championship with a 38-24 win over Ohio State on Jan. 7, 2008. FOOTBALL

The Miles Method The goal is to run the finest football program in the country where our players can have an experience that is second to the where our players can have an experience that is second to none.

In 2010, Les Miles becomes the first LSU head coach since Charles McClendon over four decades ago to enter a sixth season with the Tigers. Under Miles, the goal at LSU is to run the finest football program in the country - one where student-athletes can have an experience that sees them develop academically, grow personally through community service endeavors, and compete for championships on the field.

With an unwavering commitment to his players and the program, Miles has been the driving force behind LSU's continued dominance at the national level since his arrival in 2005. The results under Miles have been staggering, graduating 116 players, winning 51 games - the most in any 5-year stretch in school history, and the team spending numerous hours as volunteers at community service events in the Baton Rouge community.

As LSU goes into 2010 coming off the most successful decade in the history of the program, Miles has the Tigers firmly entrenched among the elite in college football.

Miles Traveled A look into the football career of Les Miles

Les Miles letters two years at the University of Michigan. During those two seasons, Michigan was a combined 18-3-2 and participated in both the Rose and Orange Bowls.

(2)1980-81

Miles begins his coaching career for his former coach, Bo Schembechler, at Michigan. The Wolverines post a 19-5 record with a Big 10 title during his two-year stint.

(3)1982-86

Miles serves on Bill McCartney's Colorado staff for five seasons. earning berths to the Freedom and Bluebonnet Bowls in 1985 and 1986.

1987-94

Miles returns to his alma mater for the next eight seasons. Michigan won 71 games during that span, made eight-straight bowl appearances, including four Rose Bowl trips. During the eight years, Miles coaches (4)2001-04 10 All-Americans and 12 NFL draftees.

1995-97

Spends three seasons at Oklahoma State as the offensive coordinator for head coach Bob Simmons. The 1997 (5) 2005 season saw the Cowboys go 8-4 with a trip to the Alamo Bowl, the school's first bowl appearance since 1988.

1998-2000

Miles is the tight ends coach for the NFL's Dallas Cowboys for head coaches Chan Gailey and Dave Campo. The Cowboys win the division title in 1998.

Takes over as head coach of the Oklahoma State program. Guides the Cowboys to threestraight bowl games, including a victory in the 2002 Houston Bowl.

On Jan. 3, 2005, Les Miles is named the 32nd head coach in LSU Football history. Went on to guide the Tigers to 11 wins in his first season, becoming the first LSU coach to defeat Alabama, Auburn and Florida in the same season.

(6)2005

Les Miles and the Tigers accept the 2005 Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl trophy after defeating Miami, 40-3. LSU finished ranked No. 5.

7 2006

Les Miles, along with the Tigers, accepts the 2007 Allstate Sugar Bowl trophy after defeating Notre Dame, 41-14. The Tigers finished ranked No. 3.

(8)2007

In one of the most remarkable seasons in school history, Les Miles and the Tigers capture the school's third national title with a 12-2 overall record and a 38-24 defeat of No. 1 Ohio State in the BCS National Championship Game in New Orleans. Miles improves to 34-6 in his three seasons, marking the best start for a coach in LSU history.

(9)2008

Les Miles and the Tigers claim the Chick-fil-A Bowl with a convincing 38-3 win over No. 14 Georgia Tech in the Georgia Dome. Miles remains unbeaten in bowl games at LSU with his fourth straight win in as many seasons.

2009

LSU capped off its most dominating decade of football in the history of the program as Les Miles led the Tigers to another New Year's Day bowl game. LSU's 99 victories in the 2000s ranked second in the SEC and represented the fourth-most wins of any SEC team in any decade.

Path to the Draft Since the 2006 NFL Draft, LSU has led the SEC in total NFL Draft picks.

DECADE OF DOMINANCE

The 2000s marked an era of achievement for LSU football unlike any decade in school history. The 10-year period saw LSU claim a pair of BCS National Championships (2003, 2007), three SEC titles (2001, 2003, 2007), and seven bowl victories, including four in BCS bowls (Sugar in 2001 and 2006; BCS Championship Game in 2003 and 2007).

The Tigers compiled a 99-31 record from 2000-09. The 99 victories were the second most in the SEC during that span, trailing only Florida's 100 wins.

Rings of Success

LSU's storied football success includes championship rings from three national championships, 10 SEC titles and seven SEC Western Division championships. The 2007 national championship ring (front) commemorates the Tigers' most recent national title.

Media Training

LSU is one of the few schools where student-athletes go through media training to enhance their communication skills. Dr. Tommy Karam and Dr. Shirley White are two experts in the field who give training sessions to student-athletes here on campus. The Academic Center features a mock press conference setting to get student-athletes acclimated to giving interviews in front of both print and electronic media. Karam and White record the mock interviews on camera and then provide feedback, allowing student-athletes to become more comfortable and confident when doing actual interviews.

Louisiana State University and Agricultural & Mechanical College has, throughout its 146-year history, served the people of Louisiana, the region, the nation, and the world. LSU is creating a revolution, one of pervasive change and advancement. For the past six years, the focus of the LSU community has been an increased commitment to excellence. Our progress has been dramatic and shows no sign of stopping.

Having witnessed many of yesterday's possibilities become today's tangible realities, the LSU community set forth to capitalize on its success. The goal was to improve our standing as a nationally competitive flagship university. Following intense discussions among the LSU Board of Supervisors, campus administrators, faculty, and student leaders, the objectives required to reach this status crystallized, providing the impetus for LSU's National Flagship Agenda.

Why LSU?

Bradie James Linebacker (1999-2002) Dallas Cowboys

"I was basically an in-state guy and had always thought about going to LSU for football and to get a good education. I made a lot of visits to different schools in my selection process, but everything always pointed toward LSU. My heart and my family guided me in that direction not just for the athletics, but for the academics as well. From top to bottom LSU has good people from the coaches on down the line."

"It was really quite an honor to be able to play for LSU. Being from Lockport, everybody down there is a big LSU fan. Once I graduated from high school and had to make the decision where I was going to play, LSU was the obvious choice because I had grown up an LSU fan and it was a place where my family could watch me play. LSU really helped me grow both as a player and a person. I have nothing but fond memories of the place."

"Throughout the entire recruiting process I always knew LSU was the best choice. Being from the great state of Louisiana, LSU was a home away from home. I knew that this would be a place I could grow as a student-athlete and a young man. The coaches, faculty, and the 92,000 marvelous fans only help to make the decision much easier. Looking back on it, I couldn't have asked for more from the experience."

"As far back as I can remember (riding bicycles, playing little league baseball), I have literally bled purple and gold. It never crossed my mind that there was anywhere else to go other than LSU. The experiences and relationships that I developed at LSU have been an integral part of my life. No other colleges existed in my mind. I am fortunate to have attended a place that I considered a dream and look forward to my association with the University until the day I die."

Did You Know?

- In the 2009 and 2010 editions of U.S. News & World Report's America's Best Colleges, LSU is ranked in the first tier for "Best National Universities."
- LSU is the only public university in Louisiana designated as having very high research activity (RU/VH) by the prestigious Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching, the highest ranking awarded to doctorate-granting institutions.
- LSU was named to the 2009 President's Higher Education Community Service Honor
 Roll, the highest federal recognition a college or university can receive for its commitment to volunteering, service-learning and civic engagement, by the Corporation for National and Community Service.
- LSU earned the prestigious Carnegie Community Engagement and Outreach classification in 2008, one of 68 public institutions nationally with this elective classification based on community engagement.

- LSU is one of only a handful of universities in the nation having land-grant, sea-grant and space-grant status.
- LSU currently ranks among the top 30 public universities in total research awards. The University's total federal funding; from
- agencies such as the National Science Foundation, National Institutes of Health, and the Department of Homeland Security; has increased 86 percent or more than $90 million over the last five years.
- Newsweek magazine named LSU the "Most Diverse" school in the nation in the Sept. 3, 2003, issue. The enrollment consists of 24 percent minority students.

Community OUTREACH

Gulf Coast Oil Spill Relief

Head coach Les Miles got a first-hand look at the efforts taking place to protect the Louisiana coastline from the oil spill that has devastated fishing communities in South Louisiana. Miles joined Louisiana Governor Bobby Jindal in June 2010 to provide morale to the men and women who were taking part to save the coastline. Miles also witnessed what was being done to save wildlife in the area, including a bird rescue center.

Mission Man

Offensive guard Lyle Hitt attended a medical mission trip in the Dominican Republic in the summer of 2009. Hitt and his brother worked at a medical clinic and triage center for four days, providing service and emotional support to people of the village. Hitt's clinic saw close to 90 patients a day. "People down there have next to nothing, so something I really took from the trip is that, in any circumstance, make the best of the opportunity that presents itself," he said.

Day For Kids Festival

Caring Heart

Jacobs Trophy winner Ciron Black became close friends with 8-year-old cancer survivor Mikey Conger in December 2007 and the two have been close friends ever since. Black posted a message on Mikey's page at CaringBridge.org and later visited him at St. Jude Children's Research Hospital in Memphis. The Future

Plans in the future call for an improvement to the area surrounding Tiger Stadium on North Stadium Drive. New state-of-the art lighting, landscaping and a complete overhaul of the facade on Tiger Stadium are in the works. Windows will be replaced, a paved, cobblestone road will be constructed and graphics honoring LSU greats will be designed. The improvements are geared to making Tiger Stadium and the surrounding area a modern showplace.

"Tiger Stadium should be a showplace for the whole campus. It should be like Fenway Park, Wrigley Field or Lambeau Field. That whole area between North Stadium Drive and the PMAC should be a showplace."

"LADIES AND GENTLEMEN, IT'S

SATURDAY NIGHT IN DEATH VALLEY

AND HERE COME YOUR FIGHTING TIGERS OF LSU!"

"It has turned the knees of All-Americans to goo. It has caused coaches to lose their coaching minds. Dark. That combined with Tiger Stadium on a Saturday night is something loud, strange and holy. There is noise in stadiums everywhere from Eugene to Tuscaloosa. Only in Baton Rouge is there a living, breathing being lurking in its grand, old stadium."

- Dennis Dodd, CBSSports.com, Oct. 8, 2009

"(Tiger) Woods pumped both fists and yelled, as jacked as you'll ever see him. But the crowd explosion drowned out whatever was coming out of his mouth. It was the closest golf has ever come to sounding like fourth-and-goal at LSU's Tiger Stadium on a Saturday night."

- Pat Forde, ESPN.com on Tiger Woods' putt to force a playoff at the 2008 U.S. Open, June 14, 2008 "Three SEC coaches I spoke with who have worked in other leagues say that Tiger Stadium is, by far, the loudest stadium in the country." - Bruce Feldman, ESPN.com, Oct. 1, 2007

"Baton Rouge happens to be the worst place in the world for a visiting team. It's like being inside a drum."

- Paul "Bear" Bryant, Former Alabama Coach

"My first on the bucket list will be a night game at LSU. I don't know if I'm ever going to get there. Of all the things in college sports, that would be No. 1."

- Beano Cook, ESPN (2008)

"LSU students are the best. Part of being the best, is knowing when to be loud, when to be quiet and where to channel your energy. When they are on, they just wreck the other team."

- Glenn Dorsey, LSU All-American

"I get asked about the best games I've called, and as far as college football goes, the Florida-LSU (2007) environment was as good as I've ever been around. I had always heard about night games at Tiger Stadium and had never gotten the chance to call one. It was really special to be a part of that."

- Verne Lundquist, CBS Sports

"Best stadium - Tiger Stadium, LSU. The pregame festivities. The deafening noise - there's no other place like it. ... it's the freakiest, funkiest, most frenetic place in all of college football." - Matt Hayes, Sporting News Today, July 8, 2009

"It's like walking into a movie set. Your ears become sensitive to what you hear and the thousands of people around you are screaming at the top of their lungs. It's mindboggling to see this as you walk through those doors and onto the field."

-- Former DE Tyson Jackson, 2009 NFL Draft No. 3 pick

"It is really hard to explain just how loud Tiger Stadium is when you're standing on the field ... I've always loved empty stadiums, none more than this one. It feels alive when it's packed, and now it looks like it's resting, waiting for next week. This building has seen a lot of things. Gameday IN TIGERTOWN

"We'll just begin here, knowing full well that any other campus can't possibly touch the magic of a night game in Death Valley. If tradition is tailgating, the LSU band and – if you're lucky – a Mike the Tiger sighting, then I'm all in."

- Matt Hayes, Sporting News; May 25, 2010

"I'd been warmed prior to my first visit to Baton Rouge that the legendary Death Valley mystique was a myth. The assessment couldn't have been more wrong. Tiger Stadium was as loud as any I've heard during the dramatic fourth quarter of Saturday's Georgia game, the festivities surrounding it as advertised.

The streets were lined with purple and gold. Smoke emanated from the grills in the parking lot. Shouts of "Go Tigers" and "Tiger Bait" echoed from the stadium deep into the heart of the campus.

And that was just Friday night."

TAILGATING AT LSU

A COLLEGE FOOTBALL EXPERIENCE LIKE NO OTHER

The LSU tailgating experience is second to none. The campus becomes one of the biggest and best parties in the nation on Saturday's in the fall.

Each weekend, an estimated 120,000 fans gather to tailgate around campus in recreation vehicles, sport utility vehicles, pick-up trucks, cars and buses. The anticipation begins as they roll into town on Thursday night and fire up their grills on Friday afternoon.

"Nothing like tailgating on the Bayou. LSU is my personal favorite. Maybe it's my penchant for the spicy stuff. But there's nothing like sampling a little gumbo, a little jambalaya and then diving face-first into a shrimp boil. The aroma just walking through the parking lot to Tiger Stadium stays with you the whole day, and the LSU fans get there early and stay late."

- Chris Lowe, ESPN.com; Sept. 26, 2008

"Walking among the tailgaters here is like strolling through one of Emeril Lagasse's restaurants. RW once joined a group serving jambalaya, duck and oyster gumbo, stuffed quail, deer sauce picante, wild duck, cochon de lait, Cajun sausage, crawfish etouffee, rabbit, alligator stew and marinated pork tenderloin. And that was for a non-conference game.

- Jim Caple, ESPN.com; August 19, 2008

"The scene is college football's Mardi Gras – beads, music and more tasty creations than the best culinary school. Some evenings, tens of thousands of fans show up to party and stay in the parking lot during games. That's pretty cool."

- Dave Curtis, Sporting News; May 25, 2010

National Television

LSU football and televised games have become synonymous. Last season, 11 of LSU's 13 games were broadcast to a national audience. Since 2005, Les Miles' first season, a total of 51 LSU games have been nationally televised.

CBS Primetime

CBS televises one primetime regular season football game every season, and LSU has been a part of the telecast the past three years. In 2007, CBS televised its first primetime contest in Tiger Stadium since 1981 when LSU defeated Florida. The LSU-Florida game was also televised in primetime on CBS in 2008 and 2009.

ESPN, SEC and LSU

In 2009-10, ESPN and the Southeastern Conference reached a milestone 15-year agreement. ESPN acquired rights to every SEC home football game -- excluding those on the CBS network broadcast package -and serves as the exclusive national cable home and the syndication rightsholder for the conference. LSU made three appearances on ESPNU in 2009 as part of that package.

The facility features four 100-yard football practice fields as well as an indoor practice facility. On Sept. 9, 2002, LSU formally named its football practice facility for Charles McClendon, the winningest football coach in school history. McClendon, $\,$ a member of the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame, served as head coach at LSU for 18 seasons, a span that saw the Tigers play in 13 bowl games, compiling a 137-59-7 overall mark. He was named SEC Coach of the Year twice, in 1969 and 1970, and National Coach of the Year in 1970. In the spring of 2009, Momentum Field Turf by Sport Exe was installed on one of $\,$ the four fields. Bowl Game Dominance Under Les Miles

The months of December and January have seen the Tigers play their best football at the right time of the year. Since 2005, LSU is 4-1 in bowl games under head coach Les Miles. Miles was the only current coach in the SEC to have won his first four bowl games at a school. He is also the second-winningest coach in school history in terms of bowl games.

21 All-Time Victories

LSU owns a 21-19-1 mark all-time in bowl games. The 21 wins ranks 10th among all schools nationally and fourth in the Southeastern Conference. LSU won seven bowl games in the previous decade, cementing the Tigers as one of college football's elite programs. LSU has appeared in more Sugar Bowls (13) than any team in America.

Great — MOMENTS

LSU, the No. 2 team in the Bowl Championship Series rankings, beat No. 1 BCS ranked Oklahoma in the Nokia Sugar Bowl to win the 2003 National Championship, the Tigers' first title since 1958. Freshman RB Justin Vincent, named the game's MVP after totaling 117 yards, scampered 64 yards on the first play of the game to set the tone as LSU never trailed, winning 21-14. The LSU defense, ranked No. 1 in the nation, stifled the Sooner's top-ranked offense, holding Oklahoma to 154 yards and sacking Heisman winning QB Jason White five times.

Cannon's Halloween Run Tiger Stadium - Oct. 31, 1959

Billy Cannon's 89-yard punt return for a touchdown against third-ranked Ole Miss is not only one of the most memorable plays in LSU football history, but it also ranks among the most memorable in college football. Trailing 3-O late in the game, Cannon, the 1959 Heisman Trophy winner, fielded the punt at the Tiger 11-yard line and began his run into immortality. He eluded seven would-be tacklers down the east sideline and crossed the goal line of Tiger Stadium for the only touchdown of the game, giving the top-ranked LSU Tigers the 7-3 victory.

1966 Cotton Bowl Cotton Bowl - Jan. 1, 1966

LSU entered the 1966 Cotton Bowl as a heavy underdog to the second-ranked Arkansas Razorbacks, but the Tigers knew they had nothing to lose and lot a of respect to gain. Arkansas, which entered the game riding a 22-game win streak and knew a victory over LSU meant a possible national title, struck first, but LSU's Joe Labruzzo reached the endzone twice in the second quarter to give the Tigers a 14-7 lead that would stand and foil the Razorbacks' hopes of a title.

Jones to Davis Tiger Stadium - Nov. 4, 1972

In one of the most exciting endings to a game in LSU football history, QB Bert Jones connected with RB Brad Davis in the corner of the endzone as time expired and PK Rusty Jackson nailed the extra-point to give the Tigers a 17-16 victory over Ole Miss and keep an 11-game win streak alive.

The Earthquake Game Tiger Stadium - Oct. 8, 1988

QB Tommy Hodson connected with TB Eddie Fuller in the back of the endzone for the touchdown that vaulted LSU to a 7-6 victory over Auburn on Oct. 8, 1988, to help lead the LSU Tigers to their seventh SEC crown. The moment will forever be known as the "Night the Tigers Moved the Earth." The play caused such a thunderous explosion from the 79,341 fans in Tiger Stadium, the LSU Geology Department registered vibrations on a seismograph machine at the exact moment the touchdown was scored.

No. 1 Falls! Tiger Stadium - Oct. 11, 1997

Oct. 11, 1997, marked the first time LSU defeated the No. 1 ranked team in the nation when the Tigers upended top-ranked Florida, 28-21, in Tiger Stadium. LSU jumped out to an early lead, but the Gators would score a touchdown with 6:44 remaining in the fourth quarter to cut the lead to single digits. LSU's defense sealed the victory when Raion Hill intercepted a Florida pass with less than three minutes to play and the Tigers ran out the clock to set off one of the greatest celebrations in Tiger Stadium history.

game tied at 10-10 and swung the momentum completely in LSU's favor the remainder of the game.

Bluegrass Miracle Commonwealth Stadium - Nov. 9, 2002

Trailing 30-27 to Kentucky with 11 seconds to play in the game, LSU mounted a two-play 87-yard drive that will forever be known as, "The Bluegrass Miracle." QB Marcus Randall connected with WR Devery Henderson on the game-winning 75-yard pass as time expired to give the Tigers a 33-30 victory.

First Rounders

LSU has produced 32 first round picks in its history. Glenn Dorsey was the fifth overall pick by the Kansas City Chiefs in the 2008 NFL Draft. Tyson Jackson was the most recent, becoming the highest LSU defender to ever be picked in the NFL Draft when he was taken with the No. 3 overall pick by the Kansas Chiefs in the 2009 draft.

TIGERS

Pipeline to the Pros

LSU is a springboard to those players aspiring to play in the NFL when their college careers are complete. Proof of that lies in the number of NFL Draft picks the Tigers have produced since Les Miles' arrival at LSU. Since 2006, LSU has generated seven first round selections. That figure is tied for first in the SEC and ranks third nationally. In 2010, LSU produced the fifth-most draft choices in the nation with six. Chad Jones was the highest selection going No. 76 overall (third round) to the New York Giants.

Pro Day at LSU

LSU's NFL prospects spend one day each spring showcasing their talents in front of nearly 100 NFL representatives, including scouts, coaches and general managers who converge on the LSU campus for Pro Day. Pro Day gives NFL scouts and executives an opportunity to view potential LSU pro prospects first hand through a series of drills. The LSU Indoor Facility is the ideal setting, giving both prospects and scouts all the necessary resources to conduct a productive session. The NFL Network, ESPN, USA Today along with other members of the media are annually on hand for the event. Super Bowl Tigers

News following the Indianapolis Colts' Super Bowl XLI victory in 2007.

A total of 41 former LSU players have played in pro football's ultimate game. Super Bowl XLIV was no exception as the New Orleans Saints claimed their first NFL championship over the Indianapolis Colts and provided the state of Louisiana with one of its finest moments. Four former Tigers were on rosters for Super Bowl XLIV and three players saw extensive playing time. WR Devery Henderson caught seven passes for 63 yards for the Saints and CB Randall Gay had two tackles. Indianapolis starting RB Joseph Addai had 77 yards on 13 carries and one touchdown in the 31-17 defeat. At least one former LSU player has won a Super Bowl title in each of the past nine years dating back to 2002.

LSU FOOTBALL TRADITIONS A TO Z

The rich history of LSU football is impossible to portray in only a few pages. However, below are tidbits from the Tiger Football annals that have contributed to the story that is LSU Football. These items are presented as background material with the hope that they will encourage a better understanding of the many traditions that are associated with Tiger football and LSU Athletics.

Y.A. Tittle is a member of both the Pro and College Football Halls of Fame.

Alma Mater

In 2005, head coach Les Miles established a new tradition at LSU as the Tigers began singing the school's alma mater on the field following a victory. Miles and his team first sang the school song following LSU's dramatic 35-31 win at Arizona State in the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina on Sept. 10, 2005. For home games involving an LSU victory, Miles and the team gather in front of the student section and join the student body in a rendition of the alma mater that has grown into quite a spectacle.

Where stately oaks and broad magnolias shade inspiring halls, There stands our dear Old Alma Mater who to us recalls

Fond memories that waken in our hearts

a tender glow, And make us happy for the love that we have learned to know. All hail to thee our Alma Mater molder of mankind, May greater glory, love unending be forever thine. Our worth in life will be thy worth we pray to keep it true.

And may thy spirit live in us, forever L-S-U.

Billy Cannon, No. 20

The great Billy Cannon, two-time All-American and Heisman Trophy winner, played at LSU from 1957-59. He led the Tigers to the 1958 national championship and is best known for his 89-yard punt return to beat Ole Miss in 1959. In his career, Cannon rushed for 1,867 yards on 359 carries, an average of 5.2 yards per carry and scored 19 rushing touchdowns. He also scored two touchdowns by receiving and one each by punt return, kickoff return and interception return. LSU went 24-7 during Cannon's stay on the Baton Rouge campus, including 19 straight victories from the end of the 1957 season to the eighth game of the 1959 campaign. Following that 1959 season, Cannon's jersey was retired into the LSU Athletics Hall of Fame. A sign honoring Cannon was unveiled in the southeast corner of Tiger Stadium during LSU's game against Ole Miss on Nov. 22, 2008. Cannon was enshrined into the College Football Hall of Fame in the summer of 2009.

Cheerleaders

Cheerleaders have long been a part of college football tradition, and the LSU Varsity Cheerleaders are no exception in their role in Tiger gridiron lore. Pregame ceremonies feature the LSU cheerleaders atop Mike the Tiger's cage as it circles the field. The cheerleaders also traditionally lead the Tigers onto the field before and after halftime of every game. The 1989 Tiger cheerleaders captured the National Championship in the annual Universal Cheerleading Association competition. LSU has finished in the top 10 of that competition in each of the past nine years.

GO ONLINE: LSUsports.net/cheerleading

Special thanks to Peter Finney of the New Orleans Times-Picayune who has documented the history of LSU football in his book "Fighting Tigers", Marty Mule' of the New Orleans Times-Picayune who penned "Eye of the Tiger" in celebration of LSU's football centennial in 1993, and to the late historian H. Warren Taylor whose relentless pursuit of accurate information and record-keeping in the early years of LSU athletics has kept alive the accomplishments of Tiger athletes in football, basketball, track and boxing dating back to the late 1800s.

Chinese Bandits

The nickname of one of the three units utilized in Paul Dietzel's three-platoon system that vaulted the Tigers to the 1958 national championship. That year, the first team was named the White Team, an offensive unit was named the Go Team and a defensive unit was tabbed the Chinese Bandits. The White Team, naturally, wore white jerseys and was so named. The Go Team wore gold jerseys as the word "gold" was eventually shortened to "go." The name "Chinese Bandits" actually originated when Dietzel recalled a line from the old "Terry and The Pirates" comic strip that referred to Chinese Bandits as the "most vicious people in the world." In their heyday, the Chinese Bandits were featured in Chinese masks in Life magazine. In 1980, the LSU band revived the "Bandit" tune played when the LSU defense stalls any opponent's drive.

Cotton Bowl (1966)

One of the most notable games in LSU football history was the 1966 Cotton Bowl against powerful Arkansas. The Razorbacks went into the New Year's Day tilt ranked No. 2 in the country and riding a 22-game winning streak. LSU owned a meager 7-3 mark compared to the Hogs' perfect 10-0 record, but little Joe Labruzzo silenced many a disbeliever to spark the Bayou Bengals to their greatest bowl win. The Tigers left Dallas with a 14-7 win over the Southwest Conference host Razorbacks. The Tigers have appeared in three other Cotton Bowl classics, tying Arkansas 0-0 in the 1947 game beating Texas 13-0 in 1963 and losing to Texas 35-20 in 2003.

On Dec. 25, 1907, LSU was the first college team to play on foreign soil in Havana, Cuba.

Cuba: Tigers on Foreign Soil

LSU was the first college team to play on foreign soil when, in 1907, coach Edgar R. Wingard took his Tigers to Havana for an international gridiron bout. The University of Havana team had dominated every American service team it had played, but had never encountered football collegiate style. The finesse of the Tigers took the big Cuban team by surprise on Christmas Day at Almendares Park and LSU walked away with a convincing 56-0 victory before 10,000 fans.

Dormitories

Tiger Stadium is unique in that it once housed some 1,500 dorm rooms, home to many LSU students over the years. This concept was introduced in 1928 by T.P. "Skipper" Heard, who can also be credited for bringing night football to Tiger Stadium. Heard learned that LSU president James Smith proposed to use $250,000 to build new dormitories on the LSU campus. Heard sold Smith on the idea of raising the stands on both the East and West sides of the stadium and extending them to the end zones, then constructing the dorms inside the stadium. Thus the University got its dorms and Tiger Stadium's capacity increased by 10,000 seats in 1931. Today, the dorms are used for storage.

Earthquake Game (1988)

QB Tommy Hodson connected with WR Eddie Fuller in the back of the endzone for the touchdown that vaulted LSU to a 7-6 victory over Auburn on Oct. 8, 1988, to help lead the LSU Tigers to their seventh SEC crown. The moment will forever be known as the "Night the Tigers Moved the Earth," as the play caused such a thunderous explosion from the 79,341 fans in Tiger Stadium, the LSU Department of Geology registered vibrations on a seismograph machine at the exact moment the touchdown was scored.

Fighting Tigers

In the fall of 1896, coach A.W. Jeardeau's LSU football team posted a perfect 6-0-0 record, and it was in that pigskin campaign that LSU first adopted its nickname, Tigers. "Tigers" seemed a logical choice since most collegiate teams in that year bore the names of ferocious animals, but the underlying reason why LSU chose "Tigers" dates back to the Civil War. During the "War Between the States," a battalion of Confederate soldiers comprised of New Orleans Zouaves and Donaldsonville

The Golden Band from Tigerland

The grandest band in all the land, the Golden Band from Tigerland, is as much a part of Saturday nights in Tiger Stadium as the team itself. Among the many favorites of LSU fans is the band's traditional pregame march down North Stadium Drive from the Band Hall to the tune of "Hold That Tiger." That tradition is a carry-over from the old pregame parades through downtown Baton Rouge. Castro Carazo was the man handpicked by Louisiana Governor Huey Long in 1935 to revamp the Tiger band. Carazo and Long together wrote fan favorite "Touchdown for LSU," and two years later, Carazo also penned the official LSU fight song, "Fight For LSU." The tradition of the LSU Tiger Marching Band continues today. The LSU Tiger Marching Band is made up of some 325 musicians, Golden Girls and Colorguard members. In 1997, the band was selected as the top band in the Southeastern Conference by SEC band directors. In December 2001, the band was awarded the Sudler Trophy, the highest honor a collegiate marching band can receive. The award has been called "the Heisman Trophy of marching bands," according to Frank Wickes, former director of LSU bands.

The Golden Boot

The Golden Boot is a trophy awarded each year to the winner of the Battle for the Golden Boot football matchup between LSU and its SEC rival Arkansas. The trophy was introduced to the series prior to the 1996 season. Molded from 24-karat gold in the shape of the states of Arkansas and Louisiana, the trophy stands four feet in height, weighs nearly 200 pounds and is valued at $10,000. It is believed to be the heaviest trophy awarded in a college football rivalry. After a win in the series, the victorious team keeps the trophy until the following year's matchup.

The Golden Girls

Taking the field with the Tiger Band at LSU for the first time in 1959, the prestigious LSU Golden Girls represent the oldest and most established danceline on the LSU campus. The line consists of a very talented group of young ladies who are chosen each spring by a special audition. The Golden Girls are one of the feature units with the LSU Tiger Band and perform for all home LSU football games and selected campus events, as well as, away games with the full Tiger Band. The 2009 season represented the 50th anniversary of the group's foundation.

Hall of Famers

Twelve members of the LSU football community have the distinction of being inductees into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame that was established in 1947. In 1956, former end Gaynell Tinsley was enshrined in South Bend, Ind., as LSU's first Hall of Famer. Ken Kavanaugh (1963), Abe Mickal (1967), Doc Fenton (1971) and Tommy Casanova (1995) all have the privilege of being members of such a prestigious class. Billy Cannon became the sixth LSU player to earn the honor when he was officially enshrined in the summer of 2009. Jerry Stovall is the newest member of the Hall of Fame as the 1962 Heisman Trophy runner-up was inducted in the summer of 2010. Five LSU coaches are members of the NFF Hall of Fame, a list that includes the legendary Charles McClendon. Three former LSU players have earned the highest honor of being inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. Steve Van Buren was the first in 1965. Y.A. Tittle, who went on to become one of the greatest quarterbacks in history, was inducted in 1971 after a storied career with the Baltimore Colts, San Francisco 49ers and New York Giants. Four-time NFL championship winner and 1962 NFL MVP Jimmy Taylor was enshrined in 1976. Twenty-eight LSU football players are also members of the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame with Leonard Marshall as the most recent inductee in the summer of 2008.

H-Style Crossbar

Unknown to many Tiger fans, the LSU football team still runs onto the field under the same crossbar that stood as part of the north end zone goalpost in Tiger Stadium as early as 1955. It had long been a tradition that the LSU football team enters the field by running under the goalpost when the new "T-style" goalposts came into vogue. By virtue of tradition, the old "H-style" posts stood on the field of Death Valley until they were finally removed in 1984. Part of the crossbar, however, was kept and mounted above the door of the Tiger Den through which the Tigers run onto the field each game. In 1993, in celebration of the centennial of LSU football, the "H-style" goalposts were returned to the end zones of Tiger Stadium. Today, Tiger Stadium is one of only three college stadiums in the nation who still use the "H-style" crossbar. Doak Campbell Stadium at Florida State and Martin Stadium at Washington State are the other two.

Halloween Night

Drama on Halloween is as traditional as pumpkins and goblins for LSU and Ole Miss. These schools have met seven times on Oct. 31 with the series tied at 3-3-1. The most notable game on All Hallow's Eve was the 1959 thriller that saw Billy Cannon return a punt 89 yards to spur a 7-3 Tiger victory. The Tigers and Rebels next met on Halloween in 1964. Ole Miss led 10-3 late in the fourth quarter in Death Valley when LSU scored a touchdown to make it 10-9. Quarterback Billy Ezell then threw to Doug Moreau in the front corner of the endzone on the two-point conversion, at nearly the exact point where Cannon had crossed the goal line five years earlier for an 11-10 win. There was a 17-year drought before the teams played on Oct. 31 again, this time at Jackson in 1981. A seesaw battle ended with a 46yard field goal off the foot of LSU's David Johnston as time expired for a 27-27 tie. In the most recent meeting, the teams engaged in the first overtime game in LSU history at Oxford in 1998, but Ole Miss emerged with a 37-31 win. LSU is 8-6-1 all-time on Halloween night, including a 42-0 shutout of Tulane in Tiger Stadium in 2009.

TIGERS

Halloween Run

There have been longer scoring plays in LSU football history, but Billy Cannon's 89-yard punt return against Ole Miss in 1959 is simply, and undeniably, the most famous play in Tiger gridiron records. In fact, some consider it one of the most memorable in college football history. It was an eerie, misty and humid Halloween night, and the Rebels of Mississippi took a 3-0 lead into the final quarter, threatening to end an 18-game LSU win streak. On third and 17 from the Ole Miss 42, the Rebels' Jake Gibbs punted 47 yards to the Tiger 11 where Cannon hauled it in on the bounce. Cannon careened off seven tacklers down the east sideline and darted 89 yards to immortality. Some say it may have been that run that assured Cannon of the Heisman Trophy he received at season's end. LSU celebrated the 50-year anniversary of the legendary play in 2009 as Cannon was recognized on the field during the Tigers' game with Tulane on Halloween night.

1947-55 1972-76 1977-present 1958-64 pre-1947

Helmets

LSU's helmet is a striking tradition that has seen its share of changes since the program's inception. From 1947-55, a dark gold helmet was used by the Tigers. Then in 1956, head coach Paul Dietzel entered his second season by introducing a new helmet design. The helmet was changed to a yellow gold, similar to that of the Green Bay Packers, that featured a white one-inch center stripe and purple three-quarter-inch flanking stripes. It is a look that has become synonymous and identified with LSU football since its unveiling. The 1957 Tigers had the addition of black two-inch "NCAA style" identifying numerals placed on each side of the helmet and that size expanded to three inches in 1958, the year of LSU's first national title. In 1972, a logo first appeared on the helmet. In 1977, the look of the helmet that is used today was adopted.

Ice Bowl (1946)

The Tigers of 1946, though not one of Bernie Moore's two SEC Championship teams, was surely one of Moore's finest squads. Only a 26-7 loss at the hands of SEC foe Georgia Tech spoiled the season and the Y.A. Tittle-led Bayou Bengals landed in the Cotton Bowl against Arkansas and star Razorback Smackover Scott. But ice, sleet and snow pelted Dallas on that Jan. 1 as LSU filled oil drums with charcoal and started fires for makeshift heaters on the field. Fans built fires in the stands and watched the Tigers roll to 271-54 advantage in total yardage and a 15-1 lead in first downs. Those numbers, however, didn't equate on the scoreboard that showed 0-0 at game's end. The Tigers finished the season with a 9-1-1 record in Moore's penultimate season as head coach.

The Kingfish

No single person can be credited for building LSU football into the entity it is today, but one of the men who most influenced the popularity of Tiger football was neither a player nor a coach. The "Kingfish," Louisiana Governor Huey P. Long, never shied from using his political influence to aid the cause of LSU football. Two examples: In 1934, athletic director T.P. Heard reported low advance sales for the LSU-SMU game because of a circus coming to town the night of the game. Long contacted the proper Barnum and Bailey representatives and informed them of a nearforgotten animal-dipping law. The show was canceled and LSU-SMU ticket sales took off. Later that same year, Long used his influence to "entice" passenger agents of the Illinois Central Railroad to lower fares for LSU students traveling to a road football game. When Long threatened to reassess the value of railroad bridges in the state from $100,000 to $4 million, the railroad generously agreed to give LSU students a $6 roundtrip fare for the Vanderbilt game that season.

Night Games in Tiger Stadium

The tradition of playing night games in Tiger Stadium began on Oct. 3, 1931, when LSU downed Spring Hill, 35-0, under the lights. The idea of night football was introduced by T.P. "Skipper" Heard, then graduate manager of athletics and later athletics director. Several reasons were cited for playing LSU games at night, including avoiding the heat and humidity of afternoon games, avoiding scheduling conflicts with Tulane and Loyola and giving more fans the opportunity to see the Tigers play. An immediate increase in attendance was noted, and night football soon became ingrained in LSU football lore. LSU has also traditionally played better at night than in the light of day. Since 1960, LSU is 215-60-4 (.775) under the lights of Tiger Stadium and only 21-25-3 (.459) during the day at home. That 1908 team, coached by Edgar R. Wingard, soared through a 10-game schedule without a loss or tie as Fenton scored an incredible 125 points on the year. It was 50 years before LSU would post another perfect season, winning the national championship in 1958 with an 11-0 mark.

Numbering System

LSU, in 1952, introduced a unique - and short-lived - jersey numbering system. The idea of coach Gaynell "Gus" Tinsley and publicity director Jim Corbett, the system utilized an abbreviation of the player's position on his jersey. Thus, ends, guards and tackles wore the letters "E", "G" and "T" followed by a single-digit number. The right side of the line wore even numbers, the left side odd numbers. In similar fashion the centers, quarterbacks, left halfbacks, right halfbacks and fullbacks wore"C", "Q", "L", "R" and "F", respectively, followed by single-digit numerals. The 1953 LSU yearbook the Gumbo, boldly predicted that the new system "may revolutionize the football jersey manufacturing industry." It didn't.

1902 Tigers

Ole War Skule

LSU began in 1860 as the Louisiana State Seminary of Learning and Military Academy, shortly before the beginning of the Civil War. In fact, LSU's first superintendent was Civil War commander William Tecumseh Sherman. "Ole War Skule" was formerly a popular reference to LSU, as was the term "Old Lou."

Perfect Seasons

LSU has had six unblemished seasons in its history. The Tigers first went undefeated and untied in 1895 under head coach A. P. Simmons with a 3-0 record, but the first truly great LSU team is considered to be the 1908 squad led by one of the most legendary players to wear the Purple and Gold--Doc Fenton. That 1908 team, coached by Edgar R. Wingard, soared through a 10-game schedule without a loss or tie as Fenton scored an incredible 125 points on the year. It was 50 years before LSU would post another perfect season, winning the national championship in 1958 with an 11-0 mark.

_ TRADITIONS ATOZ

Purple & Gold

There is some discrepancy in the origin of Royal Purple and Old Gold as LSU's official colors. It is believed that those colors were worn for the first time by an LSU team in the spring of 1893 when the LSU baseball squad beat Tulane in the first intercollegiate contest played in any sport by Louisiana State University. Team captain E.B. Young reportedly hand-picked those colors for the LSU squad. Later that year, the first football game was played. On Nov. 25, 1893, football coach/chemistry professor Dr. Charles Coates and some of his players went into town to purchase ribbon to adorn their gray jerseys as they prepared to play the first LSU gridiron game. Stores were stocking ribbons in the colors of Mardi Gras -purple, gold, and green for the coming Carnival season. However, none of the green had yet arrived at Reymond's Store at the corner of Third and Main streets.

 Coates and quarterback Ruffin Pleasant bought up all of the purple and gold stock and made it into rosettes and badges.

The Rag

The Rag was the traditional spoils of victory in the LSU-Tulane rivalry for many years. This flag, decorated half in LSU's colors of purple and gold and the other half adorned in the green and white of Tulane, was held for one year by the victorious school until the game the following season. The whereabouts of the original flag are unknown; however, a new version of The Rag was awarded to the LSU squad after the Tigers defeated the Greenies, 48-17, in the 2001 season opener in Death Valley.

The Rivalry: LSU vs. Tulane

LSU's rivalry with the Green Wave of Tulane was a natural from the game's infancy. The Greenies won LSU's first football game in 1893 by a 34-0 count, but over the ensuing seasons, the Tigers have dominated the series and own a 68-22-7 margin over their neighbors from New Orleans. The proximity of the schools made for the development of the rivalry in its early years and, by 1913, fans began to travel the distance by automobile instead of by train. Today's Tiger fan can traverse the distance from Tiger Stadium to the Louisiana Superdome in less than 90 minutes, but in the early years, according to the New Orleans Times-Picayune "with a good car, it can be negotiated in perfect comfort in six hours." The two schools renewed the series in 2007 as LSU defeated Tulane, 34-9, in the Superdome. The most recent meeting occurred in 2009 when the Tigers shutout the Green Wave, 42-0, on Halloween night in Tiger Stadium.

Songs of LSU

Hey Fightin' Tigers

Hey, Fightin' Tigers, fight all the way Play Fightin' Tigers, win the game today.

You've got the know how, you're doing fine, Hang on to the ball as you hit the wall And smash right through the line

You've got to go for a touchdown Run up the score. Make Mike the Tiger stand right up and roar.

Give it all of your might as you fight tonight and keep the goal in view.
Victory for I-S-U!

"Hey, Fighting Tigers," was adapted from the Broadway show tine "Hey, Look Me Over" by Cy Coleman. The song appeared in the musical Wildcat starring Lucille Ball. LSU obtained special permission to use the melody that can be heard in and around Tiger Stadium on Saturday nights in the fall.

Fight for LSU (Official Fight Song)

Like Knights of old, Let's fight to hold The glory of the Purple Gold.

Let's carry through, Let's die or do To win the game for dear old LSU.

Keep trying for that high score; Come on and fight, We want some more, some more.

Touchdown for LSU

Tigers! Tigers! They've come to town, They fight! They fight! Call a first down, Just look them over, and how they can go, Smashing the line with runs and passes high and low.

Touchdown! Touchdown! It's Tigers' score. Give them hell and a little bit more. Come on you Tigers, Fight them, you Tigers, Touchdown for LSU. Rahl II. Rah!

Following a victory, the LSU football team sings "Hey Fightin' Tigers" in the locker room.

Tiger Rag (Hold that Tiger)

Long ago, way down in the jungle
Someone got an inspiration for a tune,
And that jingle brought from the jungle
Became famous mighty soon.
Thrills and chills it sends thru you!
Hot! so hot, it burns you too!
Tho' it's just the growl of the tiger
It was written in a syncopated way,
More and more they howl for the "Tiger"
Ev'ry where you go today
They're shoutin'
Where's that Tiger! Where's that Tiger!
Where's that Tiger! Where's that Tiger!
Hold that Tiger!

South End Zone

Whether it be the 1959 goal line stand that sealed victory for the Tigers against Ole Miss on the "Billy Cannon Run" night or Bert Jones' pass to Brad Davis as time expired to beat the Rebels in 1972, the south end zone of Tiger Stadium has become somewhat of an enigma for the sometimes strange and often memorable plays in LSU football. The Tiger defenders have put together numerous goal line stands at the south end zone, including the following games: 1985 Colorado State, 1985 Florida, 1986 North Carolina, 1986 Notre Dame, 1988 Texas AGM, 1991 Florida State, 1992 Miss. State and 1996 Vanderbilt. In 1988, the Tigers stymied the Texas

AGM Aggies at the LSU two-yard line despite the distraction of a bank of lights going dark midway through AGM's series of plays. For that series, LSU's defense was nicknamed the "Lights Out Defense." The first great goal line stand at that end of the field may have been in that 1959 game when Warren Rabb and Billy Cannon halted Ole Miss' Doug Elmore at the one-yard line for the 7-3 victory. Then, in 1971, the first and most memorable of LSU's three goal line stands against Notre Dame was at the one-yard line at the South end of the field as Louis Cascio and Ronnie Estay hit the Irish's Andy Huff at the goal en route to a 28-8 Tiger victory.

COACHES

Super Bowl ChampionsSuper Bowl champion is a phrase that has become synonymous with former LSU football players. A total of 41 former Tigers have played in pro football's ultimate game and 23 have claimed a Super Bowl ring. At least one former LSU player has won a Super Bowl title in each of the past nine years dating back to 2002. LSU greats Jimmy Taylor of the Green Bay Packers and Johnny Robinson of the Kansas City Chiefs played in the first Super Bowl in 1967. Robinson and offensive lineman Remi Prudhomme were the first to win a Super Bowl as the Chiefs claimed Super Bowl IV with a 23-7 victory over the Minnesota Vikings. Wide receiver Devery Henderson and cornerback Randall Gay were the most recent former Tigers to win a ring as the New Orleans Saints beat the Indianapolis Colts, 31-17, in Super Bowl XLIV. Kevin Faulk has claimed more Super Bowl rings than any former Tiger in school history with three - all with the New England Patriots.

Former LSU defensive back Ryan Clark celebrates victory in Super Bowl XLIII by lying in confetti on the field.

Tailgating

It has often been pondered whether the attraction of night football is because of the excitement of the atmosphere created by a game under the lights, the more pleasant weather of an evening after the sun has set, or because it allows more time for tailgating. If it is not football that people of South Louisiana crave, then it is food. Tiger fans arrive as early as Thursday evening for Saturday games, set up their motor homes and kick back for a weekend of cooking and enjoyment for two days until kickoff. A stroll across the LSU campus and through the parking lots is a veritable connoisseur's treat. Common entrees include crawfish, boiled shrimp and jambalaya and, on occasion, one will run across a cochon-de-lait (pig roast). In 2008, ESPN.com ranked LSU as the top tailgating destination in America. In 2010, Sporting News, proclaimed "Saturday Night in Death Valley" and Tiger tailgating as the top traditions in all of college football.

Victory Hill

A pregame ritual for many Tiger fans is to line North Stadium Drive in the hours before kickoff to see the Tiger Marching Band in its walk from the band hall. The band pauses each game on the hill next to the Journalism Building to play "Tiger Rag," to the delight of the LSU throngs. Former head coach Curley Hallman began the tradition in the early 1990s of leading the team by foot down Victory Hill from Broussard Hall two hours before the game. That practice became so popular that Gerry DiNardo, Nick Saban and Les Miles have continued the tradition, even though the team began to stay in a hotel the night before home games. The team buses drive from the on-campus Lod Cook Hotel to the top of Victory Hill between the Academic Center and Journalism Building in order for the players to make their traditional walk down.

John Ferguson

Jim Hawthorne

Voice of the Tigers

For more than 40 years, John Ferguson was known as the "Voice of the Tigers." Ferguson's distinctive baritone voice could be heard nationwide as few teams played night games during his tenure, which began in 1946. The most famous call of all plays, though, belongs to J.C. Politz who was the "Voice of the Tigers" in 1959 when Billy Cannon made his legendary 89-yard Halloween run. Ferguson later returned to the broadcast booth doing television for TigerVision broadcasts beginning in 1984. At that time, Jim Hawthorne took over the radio duties and remains today the football, men's basketball and baseball "Voice of the Tigers." Hawthorne has called some of the greatest moments in LSU history, including play-by-play for the Tigers' 2003 and 2007 national championship seasons. Ferguson passed away at the age of 86 on Dec. 19, 2005.

"Billy Cannon watches it bounce, he takes it at his own 11, he comes back upfield to the 15, stumbles momentarily, he's at the 20, running hard at the 25, gets away from one man at the 30, still runs at the (inaudible) ...at the 35, at the 45... he's on the 50, he's in the clear on the 45, the 40 (inaudible due to crowd noise)...the 15, the 10, the 5 he scores!

"Billy Cannon raced some 89 yards for a touchdown. Listen to the cheers for Billy Cannon as he comes off the field...great All-American!"

Winning BCS national championships carries the privilege of visiting Washington D.C., and touring the White House. The Tigers have taken part in Champions Day at the White House following its two recent BCS titles. Head coach Les Miles and his team had the chance to meet President George W. Bush on the South Lawn in April 2008. Miles presented President Bush with a No. 7 jersey, in reference to the 2007 season, and Jacob Hester gave the 43rd president of the United States a bronze football. LSU also took a tour of the National Mall area which including visits to the Lincoln Memorial, the Washington Monument, the National World War II Memorial, the Korean War Veterans Memorial and the Vietnam Veterans Memorial. The Tigers visited the Walter Reed Army Medical Center, toured the Pentagon and witnessed the changing of the guard at the Tomb of the Unknowns at the Arlington National Cemetery.

White Jerseys

LSU is one of the few college football teams that traditionally wear white jerseys for home games. The tradition originated when LSU won its first national championship in 1958. Head coach Paul Dietzel had a habit of tinkering with the uniform every year. In 1958, he chose to wear white jerseys for LSU's home games, and the Tigers subsequently won the national championship. A superstitious man, Dietzel didn't change the uniform after that season. LSU continued to wear white jerseys for home games throughout the Charlie McClendon Era. When Jerry

Stovall took over as head coach in 1980, he said the Tigers would occasionally wear purple jerseys so that home fans could see a different color. In 1982, the NCAA changed its jersey rule, requiring teams to wear dark colored jerseys for home games. The Tigers wore purple jerseys for all home games from 1983 to 1994. When Cerry DiNardo became head coach in 1995, he vowed to change the NCAA jersey rule. After petitioning the rules committee of the American Football Coaches Association, he personally met with each member of the NCAA Football Rules Committee. DiNardo's efforts were successful and the Tigers were allowed to wear white jerseys again beginning in 1995. A stipulation of the new rule was that the visiting team would have to give the home team permission to wear the white jerseys. The first team to deny LSU's request was DiNardo's former team, Vanderbilt. Instead of going back to purple jerseys, the Tigers took to the field in new gold jerseys. The SEC later adopted a league rule stipulating that the home team has sole discretion in determining its jersey color. Nick Saban became LSU's head coach in 2000 and continued the white jersey tradition, but with a twist. Saban decided that LSU would wear purple jerseys for all non-SEC games, except the home opener. That tradition continues today. In 1997, LSU donned gold jerseys against Notre Dame in the Independence Bowl. In the 2009 regular season finale against Arkansas, the Tigers sported white Nike Pro Combat uniforms trimmed in purple and gold accents. LSU was only one of 10 schools across the country to wear the uniform. Nike designed the Pro Combat uniform to address the evolution of the game.

HISTORY

LSU

The 2009-10 athletic year saw LSU claim a pair of SEC regular championships. Volleyball won its first SEC title since 1991 and the women's outdoor track and field team was crowned SEC champions for the 11th time in program history. Baseball followed up a national championship with a third straight SEC Tournament title, becoming the first school in league history to achieve that feat. Gymnast Susan Jackson received the highest individual honor as she was named SEC Female Athlete of the Year after winning two individual national championships.

History of Mike

Few mascots in the country are as admired as Mike the Tiger. LSU's live Bengal mascot serves as the graphic image of all LSU athletic teams. The school has had six mascots, with the most recent, Mike VI, taking over the reign prior to the 2007 national championship football season. LSU veterinarian Dr. David Baker began the search for the young tiger after his predecessor, Mike V, died in May 2007 of renal failure at the age of 17. The five-year-old Bengal/Siberian mix, formerly known as "Roscoe," was donated to LSU by Great Cats of Idaville, Ind., a nonprofit sanctuary and rescue facility for big cats and other large carnivores.

Mike's ride through Tiger Stadium before home games in a cage topped by the LSU cheerleaders is a school tradition. Before entering the stadium, his cage on wheels is parked next to the opponent's locker room in the southeast end of the stadium. Opposing players must make their way past Mike's cage to reach their locker room.

Tradition dictates that the Tigers will score a touchdown for every growl issued by Mike before a football game. For many years, Mike was prompted to roar by pounding on the cage. Objections of cruel punishment brought about the use of recorded growls to play to the crowd before the games. That practice was discontinued shortly afterward and today Mike

In the mid-1980's, pranksters cut the locks on Mike IV's cage and freed him in the early-morning hours just days before the annual LSU-Tulane clash. Mike roamed free, playfully knocking down several small pine trees in the area, before being trapped in the Bernie Moore Track Stadium where police used tranquilizer guns to capture and return the Bengal Tiger to his home.

The incident was reminiscent of a kidnapping of Mike I many years ago by Tulane students before a Tiger-Green Wave battle.

Prior to kickoff Mike VI and the LSU cheerleaders parade around the field of Tiger Stadium.

Mike I

The original Mike was purchased from the Little Rock Zoo in 1936 for $750, with money contributed by the student body. Originally known as "Sheik" at the time of his purchase, his name was changed to Mike to honor Mike Chambers who served as LSU's athletic trainer when the first mascot was purchased. The first Mike was housed in the Baton Rouge Zoo for one year before a permanent home was constructed near Tiger Stadium. Mike I reigned for 20 years before dying of pneumonia.

Mike's Habitat

In 2005, a new environment (above) was created for Mike that is 15.000 square feet in size with lush planting, a large live oak tree, a beautiful waterfall and a stream evolving from a rocky backdrop overflowing with plants and trees. The habitat has, as a backdrop, an Italianate tower - a campanile that creates a visual bridge to the Italianate architectural vernacular that is the underpinning of the image of the entire beautiful LSU campus. This spectacular new habitat features state-ofthe-art technologies, research, conservation and husbandry programs, as well as educational, interpretive and recreational activities. It is, in essence, one of the largest and finest Tiger habitats in the United States.

Mike II

The second Mike served a brief reign, lasting only through the 1957 season before dying of pneumonia in the spring of 1958. He was born at the Audubon Zoo in New Orleans and came to LSU on Sept. 28, 1956. The young tiger was held overnight in Tiger Stadium and unveiled Sept. 29, the opening day of the football season.

Mike III

Just in time for the 1958 national championship season, Mike III was purchased from the Woodland Park Zoo in Seattle, Wash., following a "national search" by then-athletic director Jim Corbett. The student body contributed $1,500 for the purchase of the tiger. Mike III served as mascot for I8 seasons, dying after the only losing season of his reign, as LSU posted a 5-6 record in 1975.

Mike IV

Mike IV reigned over Tiger athletics for 14 years after being donated to the school by August A. Busch III from the Dark Continent Amusement Park in Tampa, Fla, on Aug. 29, 1976. Born on May 15, 1974, Mike's age and health were determining factors in his retirement to the Baton Rouge Zoo in 1990. Mike IV died of old age in March of 1995 at the age of 21.

Mike V

Mike V was donated by Dr. Thomas and Caroline Atchison of the Animal House Zoological Park in Moulton. Ala. Dr. Sheldon Bivin of the LSU School of Veterinary Medicine traveled to Alabama and brought the baby tiger back to Baton Rouge. Born Oct. 18, 1989, the new tiger was introduced to LSU fans at a basketball game against Alabama in February of 1990. He officially began his reign on April 30, 1990, when he was moved into the tiger habitat across from Tiger Stadium. Mike V died on May 18, 2007, at the age of 17.

Mike VI

Mike VI arrived in Baton Rouge on Aug. 25, 2007, thanks to the donation by Great Cats of Idaville, Ind. He was officially designated as the successor to Mike V on Sept. 8, when LSU played host to Virginia Tech. Six days later, on Sept. 14, 2007, a ceremony was held to honor Mike V and dedicate the habitat to Mike VI. The five-year-old Bengal/Siberian mix, formerly known as "Roscoe," reigned over a football national title in his first year.

LSU

The following nine individuals are the only athletes to have their jerseys retired by LSU. Men's basketball has retired the No. 23 for Pete Maravich, No. 50 for Bob Pettit, Jr., No. 33 for Shaquille O'Neal and No. 40 for Rudy Macklin. Women's basketball retired the No. 33 for Seimone Augustus. Football's only two retired jerseys are the No. 20 worn by Billy Cannon and the No. 37 worn by Tommy Casanova. Baseball retired the No. 15 in honor of longtime coach and former athletics director Skip Bertman and the No. 20 for Ben McDonald. Casanova, Macklin and McDonald joined the prestigious list in May 2009. Augustus became the first woman in LSU Athletics history to have her jersey retired in January 2010.

Pettit led LSU to its first NCAA Final Four in 1953 and he later became the first player in NBA history to exceed the 20,000-plus point barrier. Pettit is a member of the NBA Hall of Fame, and in 1997, he was named as one of the top 50 players in NBA history.

23 Pete Maravich

"Pistol Pete," Maravich still holds the NCAA record for career points with 3,667 and for career scoring average with 44.2 points a game. He was selected the National Player of the Year in 1970 after leading the Tigers to the NIT Final Four. He scored 50-plus points an amazing 28 times. He went on to a 10-year professional career and was selected as one of the NBA's 50 greatest players in 1997.

20 Billy Cannon

One of the true legends of college football in the South, Cannon was the 1959 Heisman Trophy winner and helped the Tigers to the 1958 national title. Cannon's most memorable performance came in 1959 against Ole Miss when No. 1 LSU trailed No. 3 Ole Miss 3-0 in the fourth quarter. He fielded a punt, broke seven tackles and returned it 89 yards for the 7-3 victory. He went on to a successful 11-year professional career.

33 Shaquille O'Neal

O'Neal was the first pick in the 1992 NBA Draft. He was named MVP of the league in 2000 and was a three-time NBA Finals MVP after leading the Los Angeles Lakers to three World Championships. At LSU, O'Neal averaged 21.6 points and 13.6 rebounds for his career, and in 1991, he was named the World's Amateur Athlete of the Year as well as SEC Athlete of the Year and National Player of the Year. In 1997, he was named as one of the top 50 players in NBA history.

15 Skip Bertman

A legend in the college baseball ranks, Bertman created a dynasty at LSU, guiding the Tigers to five national titles in a 10-year stretch from 1991-2000. He also coached the United States to a bronze medal at the 1996 Olympics in Atlanta and was an assistant on the gold medal-winning U.S. squad in Seoul, Korea, in 1988. Bertman retired from coaching following the 2001 season and served as LSU's athletics director for seven years. Bertman was inducted into the College Baseball Hall of Fame in 2006.

About LSU Retired Jerseys

The retirement of the jerseys of Casanova, McDonald, Macklin and Augustus comes under a new provision of the LSU jersey retirement bylaws that says the retirement of an athlete's jersey in a particular sport does not preclude a current student-athlete in that sport from wearing the jersey number in that or any other sport, subject to the discretion of the head coach. This provision applies only to jerseys retired after January 1, 2007, so the numbers worn by Maravich, Pettit, O'Neal, Cannon and Bertman may never again be worn by future student-athletes in their respective sports. To have a jersey retired at LSU, an athlete must have completed intercollegiate competition for LSU a minimum of five years prior to nomination. Athletes must have demonstrated truly unusual and outstanding accomplishments, exceeding and in addition to all criteria used for Hall of Fame selection. Nominees must have a unanimous vote of support from the Hall of Fame committee.

Rudy Macklin 40

Rudy Macklin was a two-time basketball All-American selection during his Tiger career from 1976-81 during which time he became LSU's all-time leading rebounder with 1,276 boards and the second-leading scorer in school history behind only the legendary Pete Maravich with 2,080 points. He led the Tigers to two Elite Eight appearances and the 1981 Final Four in Philadelphia. He still holds the school single game rebound record with 32, a mark like some of the great records in any sport that may never be broken.

Tommy Casanova 37 Tommy Casanova is the only three-time All-American in Tommy Casanova is the only three-time All-American in the history of LSU football and is a member of the College Football Hall of Fame. During his Tiger career from 1969-71, Casanova personified versatility for his myriad of talents as he played offense, defense, returned punts and kickoffs. One of just two three-time All-SEC performers at LSU, he played six seasons with the Cincinnati Bengals of the NFL while earning his medical degree.

Ben McDonald 19

Ben McDonald won the prestigious Golden Spikes Award, given annually to the nation's most outstanding player, in 1989 and is a member of the College Baseball Hall of Fame. He led LSU to two College World Series appearances. In 1989, McDonald was named National Player of the Year by Baseball America, The Sporting News and Collegiate Baseball. He was selected by the Baltimore Orioles as the No. 1 pick in the major league draft in 1989 and went on to enjoy a 10-year major league career with the Orioles and the Milwaukee Brewers.

Seimone Augustus 33

Seimone Augustus is the only women's basketball player in school history to earn State Farm Coaches Association All-America honors three times: 2004, 2005 and 2006. Augustus became LSU's first NCAA National Player of the Year and she claimed the honor twice in 2005 and 2006. A 2006 graduate of LSU, Augustus was the WNBA's No. 1 draft pick in 2006. She went on to lead the United States to a gold medal at the 2008 Beijing Olympic Games.

Les Miles

- HEAD COACH

LSU goes into the 2010 season coming off the best decade in the history of the program – winning a pair of national titles along with 99 games - and the driving force behind the Tigers' continued dominance at the national level has been head coach Les Miles.

Now in his sixth year with the Tigers, Miles has guided the Tigers to unmatched success – both on and off the field - in his first five years at the school, winning more games than any other coach in LSU history during a 5-year span and claiming both the BCS National Championship and the Southeastern Conference title in 2007.

It's been under Miles' leadership that LSU has established itself as one of the elite college football programs – winning 51 games overall, including four bowl contests, graduating 116 players, having 31 players selected in the NFL Draft, seven of which were first round picks, and producing nine first-team All-Americans.

Under Miles, the Tigers have also posted at least 11 victories in a season three times and they've finished ranked among the top five in the nation three-straight years (2005, '06, and'07), a first at LSU. With an astonishing 51-15 record in his first five years with the Tigers, Miles has climbed to the thirdwinningest coach in school history, while his four bowl victories rank second among all LSU head coaches.

In addition to his 51
victories, some other notable accomplishments during his first five years with the Tigers include:
only coach in LSU history to beat Auburn, Florida and Alabama in same season - and he's done it twice; only first-year coach in SEC history to lead team to league's title game; nine wins over coaches who have won national titles; and the only coach in LSU history to lead Tigers to threestraight top-five final rankings.

LSU's success under Miles hasn't just been on the playing field as the Tigers have also excelled in the classroom, as well as being active participants within the community. With an approach that demands his players strive for excellence and pursue an education while representing the University in first-class fashion, the response by the players has been overwhelming. Since the 2005 season, LSU has placed 89 players on the SEC Academic Honor Roll with another 116 earning their college diploma.

Going back to the 2007 season, LSU has graduated 52 of its 65 seniors, including 19 of 24 from the national championship team, 16 of 18 from the 2008 squad, and 17 of 23 from the 2009 team. Ten of the 13 players during that stretch who haven't completed their requirements for graduation are currently playing in the NFL.

The Tigers also played an instrumental role in the recovery efforts following Hurricanes Katrina and Rita in 2005, two of the most devastating natural disasters to hit the Louisiana coast.

On the field, Tigers have produced 31 NFL Draft picks over the past five years, including a school-record four first-round picks in the 2007 draft. In 2007, senior defensive tackle Glenn Dorsey became the most decorated defender in school history, winning four national awards – the Lombardi, Outland, Nagurski and Lott Trophies – as well as being named the SEC Defensive Player of the Year and a consensus All-American. A year later, Tyson Jackson became the highest drafted defensive player in LSU history, going No. 3 overall to the Kansas City Chiefs.

Now, with the Tigers becoming the first school in the country to have won two BCS National Championships, the foundation for the LSU football program continues to be solid. After 51 wins, including 18 over foes ranked among the nation's top 25, and with five-straight recruiting classes ranked among the top 10 in the nation, including the nation's No. 1 group in 2009, Miles and the Tigers continue to solidify their standing as one of college football's premier programs.

The LSU Years

Les Miles was named LSU's 32nd head football coach on Jan. 3, 2005, and his impact with the program was immediate as he directed the Tigers to an 11-2 mark in his first year. That 11-2 record in 2005 served as the starting point for the best five-year stretch of football in school history, one that has seen the Tigers win more games than all but one school in the SEC during that span.

Miles goes into the 2010 season with a record at LSU of 51-15, including a 27-13 mark in SEC regular season games. He's also won 18 games against top 25 teams and eight against teams in the top 10. On 13 different occasions, Miles has led the Tigers to a comeback win in either the fourth quarter or overtime.

The Tigers capped a sub-par 2008 regular season by LSU standards with a 38-3 win over 14th-ranked Georgia Tech in the Chick-fil-A Bowl, setting the stage for a 9-win season in 2009. The Tigers managed to win nine games, highlighted by its first road win over Georgia since 1987 and a 31-10

trouncing over Auburn, in the rugged SEC despite losing their top three running backs at various points during the season to injury. With a first-year starter at quarterback, LSU won its first five games and climbed as high as No. 4 in the nation in 2009. Of LSU's four losses, two came against teams ranked Nos. 1 (Alabama) and 3 (Florida) in the country as well as top 10 opponent Penn State.

After two of the most successful seasons in school history in 2005 and 2006, Miles again led the Tigers to a season of firsts in 2007. LSU became the first school in the Bowl Championship Series era to claim a second BCS National Title with its 38-24 win over Ohio State. LSU's first BCS title came in 2003 when the Tigers beat Oklahoma, 21-14.

With a 12-2 final record in 2007, the Tigers became the first team in school history to win at least 10 games in three-straight years. The 2007 Tigers also set the school record for wins over top 25 teams (7), won the SEC Championship with a backup quarterback and were ranked No. 1 in the BCS Standings during the regular season for the first time in school history. LSU finished the year ranked No. 1 in the nation in both the USA Today Coaches Poll and the AP Poll.

The road to the 2007 SEC title was anything but easy for the Tigers as LSU faced a total of seven top 25 teams, winning six of those games. After spending most of the season ranked among the top three teams in the nation, including a four-week stay at No. 1, the Tigers quickly found out that they had a target on their back each week. Time after time, week after week, LSU was getting the best shot from their opponents.

It didn't help matters that LSU played key stretches of its season with injuries to standout players. Star wideout Early Doucet missed five games; quarterback Matt Flynn wasn't healthy for close to a month; and All-American Glenn Dorsey played hurt for the final five games of the regular season. Still, LSU, with outstanding depth and a will to overcome adversity, found a way to win. Four times in 2007 the Tigers had to come from behind in the fourth quarter to win games, including its 21-14 victory over Tennessee in the SEC Championship Game.

LSU scored a touchdown with a second left to beat Auburn at home and then followed that by scoring two touchdowns in the final three minutes of the Alabama game to record a comeback win over the Crimson Tide.

Against top 10-ranked Florida, LSU scored with just over a minute left, capping a drive that saw the Tigers convert on a pair of fourth down attempts, to beat the defending national champions, 28-24, in Tiger Stadium. Perhaps its best game of the season came in week 2 when a completely healthy LSU squad dominated No. 9 Virginia Tech in all phases of a 48-7 victory.

LSU didn't lose a game in regulation during the 2007 regular season, falling to both Kentucky and Arkansas in triple overtime.

When it mattered most, playing without an injured Flynn, the Tigers overcame the adversity that followed in the wake of week-long media speculation leading up to the SEC Championship Game about Miles perhaps leaving LSU to take the head coaching position at Michigan. In the end. Miles remained true to his word. staying at LSU and leading the Tigers to a 21-14 win over Tennessee in the SEC title game, a victory that helped propel LSU into the BCS National Championship contest. In the BCS Championship Game, the Tigers spotted top-ranked Ohio State an early 10-0 lead, but LSU came roaring back to take a convincing win over the Buckeyes by a 38-24 count. The win gave LSU its third national title and it also marked the fourth time this decade that the Tigers were victorious in a BCS bowl, the most of any SEC school.

After leading LSU to an 11-2 mark and a top five national ranking in his first year as LSU's head coach in 2005, many wondered just what Miles would do for an encore. His second year with the Tigers proved to be another year full of milestones and firsts as he guided the Tigers to another 11-2 overall record, culminating with a 41-14 dismantling of 11th-ranked Notre Dame in the Sugar Bowl.

The Tigers finished their second year under the direction of Miles ranked No. 3 in the nation, marking the first time since the 1958-59 seasons that LSU was ranked in the top five in the country in back-to-back years.

LSU's at-large berth in a BCS bowl was a first in school history and it also represented the third time during the decade that the Tigers ended their season in the Sugar Bowl.

In 2006, Miles became the first coach in LSU history to lead the Tigers to back-to-back 10-wins seasons, something that he added to with another 10-plus win season in 2007.

He became the first LSU coach since Jerry Stovall in 1982 to beat two top 10-ranked teams on the road in the same season as the Tigers posted a 28-24 win over No. 8 Tennessee in Knoxville followed by a 31-26 victory over No. 5 Arkansas in Little Rock. All four of LSU's road game opponents were ranked in the top 10 at the time of the game, a first in school history.

Even though the Tigers had to go on the road to face four top 10-ranked teams in 2006, year two under Miles seemed somewhat ordinary compared to what the Tigers had to endure during his first year in Baton Rouge.

In Miles' inaugural season at LSU he led the Tigers to only the third 11-win season in school history, a top five national ranking and a berth in the SEC Championship Game, despite numerous distractions that covered most of the months of September and October.

The Tigers, playing without starting quarterback and future No. 1 overall NFL Draft pick JaMarcus Russell, put an exclamation point on the year with a 40-3 win over No. 9 Miami in the Peach Bowl to finish with an 11-2 overall mark and a No. 5 national ranking.

To appreciate just how adverse the conditions that Miles and the Tigers had to overcome in 2005, you have to go back to late August and Hurricane Katrina, the first of two storms to devastate Louisiana during the fall.

Days before LSU's originally scheduled season opener against North Texas in Tiger Stadium, Hurricane Katrina blew ashore, packing tremendous winds, and turned the state, in particular New Orleans and southeastern Louisiana, upside down.

Massive flooding followed in the wake of the storm as more than 30

LSU players had their families and their homes affected by the hurricane and Miles' first game in Tiger Stadium against North Texas was postponed. With the LSU campus serving as the recovery center for those sick, homeless and displaced due to Hurricane Katrina, football seemed to be the farthest thing from most people's minds. However, Miles was able to successfully manage a delicate situation, one that saw his team and coaching staff volunteer time to those in need, while still attempting to focus on football for at least two hours a day.

After a week of trying to minimize the distractions for a football team that had their apartments and dorm rooms filled with displaced family members and friends due to the storm, it appeared that the Tigers would finally get to play a home game, this time against 15th-ranked Arizona State.

However, just as the Tigers began to prepare for the Sun Devils and the season opener in Tiger Stadium, it was learned that the devastation to New Orleans was much greater than originally thought. With the Maravich Center on the LSU campus serving as what would become the largest field triage unit in United States history, it was mutually decided to move the LSU-Arizona State game to Tempe.

With many in Louisiana under the distress of Hurricane Katrina, the Tigers were going to have to take to the desert to face a powerful offense in their first game of the season.

These were certainly trying times for everyone in the state of Louisiana, but even more so for a football coach who now had his team carrying the banner for a state in need of a diversion. LSU football had become a release for those consumed with the hurricane. LSU even re-stated its team goals, putting playing for the state of Louisiana at the top of the list.

The Tigers didn't disappoint as Miles and his LSU team used a 28-point fourth-quarter rally to come back to beat Arizona State, 35-31, in Tempe.

Now with the Arizona State game behind them, it looked as if things for the LSU football team would gradually get back to normal as the Tigers had a week off before facing Tennessee in Tiger Stadium on Sept. 24.

Then, the unthinkable happened. Another storm, this one named Rita, hit southwest Louisiana, causing severe damage to more homes, leaving thousands without electricity and displacing even more Louisiana natives. The combination of Hurricanes Katrina and Rita forced LSU to again shuffle its schedule. Instead of playing Tennessee on a Saturday night in Tiger Stadium, the Tigers would now be forced to face the Volunteers on a Monday night. An emotionally drained LSU team saw a 21-0 halftime lead evaporate into a 30-27 overtime loss to the Vols.

There was no coaching handbook for Miles to refer to when it came to dealing with the hurricanes and preparing a team for competition during extreme adverse conditions. Miles was on his own, forced to navigate his LSU team through a treacherous stretch of games, while also being sympathetic to those still affected by the natural disasters.

With just five days between the Tennessee loss and the Mississippi State game, Miles and the Tigers were obviously dealt an unfair hand, however, he asked his team to respond and they did. The Mississippi State contest was the starting point for a stretch of games for the Tigers that saw LSU win nine contests in nine straight weeks of play. The 37-7 win over the Bulldogs was followed by a 34-6 road victory over Vanderbilt as the Tigers had re-established themselves as one of the nation's elite on the football field.

During what would be 11-consecutive weeks of play, the Tigers posted a win over Florida, along with overtime victories against Auburn and Alabama. In all, the Tigers beat four teams ranked among the top 15 in the nation, then a school record for regular season victories over ranked opponents.

After 10-straight weeks of play during the regular season, the Tigers fashioned a 7-1 conference mark and earned a berth in the SEC title game.

Miles became the only coach in his first year in the SEC to lead his squad to the league's title game. He also became the first coach in LSU history to beat Alabama, Auburn and Florida in the same season.

Following a loss to Georgia in the league's title game, Miles and the Tigers re-grouped, this time to beat No. 9 Miami, 40-3, in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl. The win gave the Tigers 11 victories for the year, making Miles the winningest first-year coach in school history.

Oklahoma State Years

TIGERS

In four short years, Miles turned the Oklahoma State football program into one that was nationally competitive, despite competing in-state against one of the country's dominant programs.

Miles honed his head coaching skills at Oklahoma State. Under Miles' direction, the Cowboys were the only team in the nation to beat Oklahoma twice in the four-year period, and he was also the first coach in Oklahoma State history to post wins over Nebraska and Oklahoma in the same season.

Miles led the Cowboys to three-straight bowl appearances, an accomplishment Oklahoma State had not achieved since Jimmy Johnson started a string of three-straight post-season games beginning in 1983. In addition, Oklahoma State's appearance in the Cotton Bowl to cap the 2003 season marked the first time in 55 years that the Cowboys appeared in a January bowl game.

As head coach at Oklahoma State, he built a consistent winner out of a program that had recorded only one winning season since 1988, and had posted a record of 13-20 in the three years prior to his arrival at OSU. After going 4-7 in his first year as head coach in 2001, he took the Cowboys to consecutive winning marks of 8-5 in 2002, 9-4 in 2003 and 7-5 in 2004.

Miles led Oklahoma State to a four-year record of 28-21 for a winning percentage of 57.1, the best career winning percentage for an OSU coach since Jim Lookabaugh ended his career in Stillwater in 1949.

Miles was the 2002 Big 12 Conference Coach of the Year after directing his second Oklahoma State team to an 8-5 record and the school's first bowl appearance since 1997.

The Cowboys, who averaged 34.4 points per game, closed the 2002 season with wins in six of their last seven games, including a 38-28 victory over then-No. 3 ranked Oklahoma in the regular-season finale. The Cowboys capped the 2002 season with a 33-23 win over Southern Miss in the Houston Bowl.

Assistant Coach Years

Prior to his tenure as head coach at Oklahoma State. Miles was the tight ends coach for the Dallas Cowboys for three seasons from 1998-2000. During his three years with the Cowboys, Dallas won one divisional title while participating in the playoffs twice. In Dallas, Miles learned of LSU and the charm of the school from tight end David LaFleur, who starred for the Tigers in the 1990s. In three years of coaching tight ends for the Cowboys, Miles' players combined for 136 receptions for 1,287 yards and 16 touchdowns. LaFleur, a former LSU All-America selection, had his best year under Miles in 1999, starting 16 games and catching 35 passes for 322 yards and seven touchdowns.

Before going to Dallas, Miles served as Oklahoma State's offensive coordinator for three seasons from 1995-97, including an 8-3 season and Alamo Bowl berth in 1997.

Miles' college playing and coaching career includes experience under some of the most noted coaches in college football. At Michigan, he played for legendary coach Bo Schembechler and later served on Schembechler's staff. He also worked with Gary Moeller at Michigan and Bill McCartney at Colorado.

Success has followed Miles at every stop of both his playing and professional career. He was a twoyear letterman at Michigan (1974-75). During those two seasons, Michigan was a combined 18-3-2, had final Associated Press national rankings in the top 10 and participated in the Orange Bowl.

He joined Schembechler's Michigan coaching staff in 1980 for the first of two stints as a coach in Ann Arbor. In 1980 and 1981, Michigan combined for 19 wins and just five losses, won the Big 10 title in 1980 and played in the Rose and Bluebonnet Bowls, respectively. Miles left Michigan for Colorado, where he served on McCartney's staff from 1982 through 1986. In his final two years at Colorado, the Buffs earned bids to the Freedom Bowl and Bluebonnet Bowl.

In 1987, he returned to Michigan, where he would spend the next eight years as part of one of the most successful eras in Michigan football history. From 1987 to 1994, Michigan won 71 games, made eight straight bowl appearances, including four trips to the Rose Bowl, and finished no lower than No. 21 in final Associated Press national rankings.

The 1989 Michigan squad finished 10-2, won the Big 10 championship and finished ranked No. 7 in the country. That would be Coach Bo Schembechler's final season as Michigan's head coach.

When Moeller took over the

Off the Field

(Top) In 2006 Miles took part in the USO Tour, where he visited American Troops in Kuwait and Iraq. (Bottom) Miles took time out of his busy Sugar Bowl preparations schedule to spend time with the patients of New Orleans' Children's Hospital.

Michigan program prior to the 1990 season, Miles remained on the staff. The 1990 team finished 9-3, winning the Big 10 title and the Gator Bowl. The following season (1991), Michigan finished 10-2 and with a No. 6 national ranking. Miles coached some of the best players to wear the Michigan uniform, including eight first-team All-Americans, 10 total All-Americans and 12 players from Wolverine offensive lines that were NFL draftees.

Philanthropist At Heart

One of Les Miles' most impressive qualities is that of the time he spends giving to and helping causes that benefit others. Each year, Miles and his wife Kathy host an event that raises close to $100,000 for the Children's Miracle Network. In addition, he is active in other community service events such as the Mary Bird Perkins Cancer Center annual fundraiser, the Special Olympics and the Baton Rouge Children's Advocacy Center Celebrity Waiter Event.

Miles spent a week in June of 2006 taking part in the USO Tour, where the Tiger head coach visited American Troops serving in Kuwait and Iraq. Miles was joined on the tour, which serves as a morale booster for the troops serving abroad, by former Notre Dame coach Lou Holtz and Tampa Bay Devil Rays owner Vincent Naimoli.

The week-long trip took Miles to several U.S. bases in Kuwait and then on to Iraq, where he visited with hundreds of American troops and even flew over the city of Baghdad in a Black Hawk helicopter.

The Family Man

When Miles isn't overseeing his LSU football family, he can most likely be found in the bleachers supporting his wife and kids at their sporting events. His oldest daughter Kathryn, who is commonly referred to as "Smacker", is one of the top junior swimmers in the nation, while his two sons – Manny and Ben – are avid athletes who participate in everything from football to baseball to wrestling. Coach Miles also gets his share of time with the youngest of the Miles family, 7-year old Macy Grace.

Coach Miles' wife Kathy, who is a former assistant women's basketball coach at the collegiate level, spends time serving as a coach for Smacker's AAU basketball team.

Welcome Home Troops

LSU coach Les Miles and his youngest son Ben were among hundreds of family and friends who welcomed back 175 members of the Louisiana National Guard's 769th Engineer Battalion at the Baton Rouge Airport.

A veteran defensive coordinator in the nation's premier conference, John Chavis returns for his second season at LSU after turning around a Tiger defense that ranked near the bottom of the SEC in 2008 to regaining its position among the top units in the league in 2009.

Chavis, who has 21 years of experience in the Southeastern Conference, has spent 15 years as a defensive coordinator in the league – 14 at Tennessee and one at LSU. In his 14 years at Tennessee, the Vols ranked among the top four in the league in total defense 10 times.

LSU finished the 2009 season ranked third in the league and 11th in the nation in scoring defense and they were fourth in the SEC in rushing defense. LSU allowed only six rushing TDs all year, the second-lowest total in the league.

In addition to his duties as defensive coordinator. Chavis also coaches the Tiger linebackers, a position that proved to be the strength of the LSU defense in 2009. LSU's top four tacklers in 2009 were all linebackers, a first for the Tigers since the 1985

Following the 2009 season, Tiger linebacker Perry Riley was selected in the fourth round of the NFL Draft by the Washington Redskins, becoming the first LSU linebacker picked in the draft since Bradie James in 2003.

Prior to his arrival in Baton Rouge, Chavis spent 14 seasons as the defensive coordinator at Tennessee, helping the Vols to at least nine wins in a season 11 times. The Vols won at least 10 games in a season eight times during his stay at defensive coordinator, which included a school-record 13 victories on its way to capturing the BCS National Championship in 1998. The Vols had 11 wins in, 1995, 1997, and 2001 and they won 10 games in 1996, 2003, 2004, and 2007,

The Vols also participated with Chavis as defensive coordinator, including three appearances in BCS bowl games and five appearances in the SEC Championship Game, winning the league title in 1997 and 1998.

Some of the highlights during his career with the Vols include leading the SEC in yards allowed (236.6) and scoring (14.3) in 1996; two years later during their national championship run, the Vols ranked No. 2 in the SEC in total yards allowed, passing and rushing yards allowed and scoring defense.

Chavis oversaw a Tennessee defense that was first in the SEC in rushing yards allowed in both 2000 and 2001, holding opponents to 74.3 and 85.3 yards, respectively. The Vols again led the SEC in rushing defense in 2005, limiting opponents to 82.5 yards a contest.

Despite a 5-7 mark in 2008, Tennessee's defense was not only among the best in the SEC, but also one of the top units in the country. The Vols ranked No. 2 in the SEC and No. 3 in the nation in total defense, allowing 263.5 yards per game. The Vols were also No. 2 in the league and No. 4 in the nation in pass defense with 160.4 yards per

Other coaching accomplishments for Chavis at Tennessee include coaching four linebackers to first-team All-America honors in Leonard Little (1997), Al Wilson (1998), Raynoch Thompson (1999) and Kevin Burnett (2004). All four of those players were selected in the NFL Draft with Wilson being a first round selection. Chavis also coached Jerod Mayo, who was the 10th player taken in the 2008 NFL Draft and recently named as the 2008 NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year.

On the conference level, Chavis has helped develop 24 players into first-team All-SEC selections since 1995.

Individually, Chavis was named the recipient of the coveted American Football Coaches Association Assistant Coach of the Year honor in 2006.

A 32-year coaching veteran at the collegiate level, Chavis got his start as a graduate assistant at Tennessee in 1979. After a year with the Vols, Chavis then moved to Alabama A&M from 1980-83 as the defensive line coach. Chavis jumped to Alabama State from 1984-85 serving as the defensive coordinator before moving back to Alabama A&M from 1986-88. Alabama A&M ranked No. 1 in Division II in total defense in both 1987 and 1988

Chavis returned to his Alma Mater in 1989 season, serving as the defensive line and linebackers coach. He held that position until 1995 when he was promoted to defensive coordinator.

Chavis, who is originally from Dillon, S.C., is married to the former Diane Crisp. They are the parents of sons, John and Jason.

Ron Cooper, who has nine years of head coaching experience at the collegiate level. enters his second year as LSU's defensive backs coach in 2010.

In his first year with the Tigers in 2009, Cooper coached a Tiger secondary that featured second-team All-America cornerback Patrick Peterson along with safety Chad Jones, who was a third-round draft pick by the New York Giants.

Cooper joined the LSU staff from South Carolina where he spent five years coaching on the defensive side of the football. As South Carolina's safeties coach in 2008, Cooper assisted with a defense that ranked No. 1 in the SEC and No. 2 in the nation in pass defense allowing just 160 yards per game.

In addition to his role as safeties coach in 2008, Cooper's other responsibilities during his stay at South Carolina included coaching the defensive backs in 2004, serving as the outside linebackers and special teams coordinator in 2005, and holding the position of secondary coach and assistant head coach in 2006 and 2007.

Prior to his stay in South Carolina, Cooper spent the 2003 season as the defensive coordinator at Mississippi State and 2002 as the secondary coach at Wisconsin.

Cooper broke into the head coaching ranks in 1993 when Eastern Michigan hired the Huntsville, Ala., native. Cooper spent two seasons at Eastern Michigan, going 4-7 in 1993 and 5-6 in 1994.

Following two years at Eastern Michigan, Cooper was appointed as the head coach at $\,$ Louisville, a position he held for three years from 1995-97. During his three years with the Cardinals, Cooper posted a 13-20 record, which included two wins over Kentucky and a victory over Michigan State.

Cooper's 1995 Louisville team led the nation in turnovers forced and finished No. 9 in the nation in scoring defense. A year later, Louisville ranked No. 4 in the country in both total defense and rushing defense.

Alabama A&M hired Cooper as its head coach in 1998, a position he held through the 2001 season. Cooper guided Alabama A&M to the championship game of the Southwestern Athletic Conference in 2000. His 2000 squad led the nation in rushing defense and they ranked No. 8 nationally in scoring defense. Cooper posted a combined record of 22-23 in four years at Alabama A&M, which included a 6-5 mark in 1999 and a 7-5 record in 2000.

Prior to becoming a head coach at Eastern Michigan, Cooper served as an assistant coach at Notre Dame, helping the Irish to victories in the 1992 Sugar Bowl over No. 3 Florida and in the Cotton Bowl a year later against No. 4 Texas A&M.

Other coaching stops for Cooper include serving as the defensive coordinator at UNLV in 1990; assistant coach at East Carolina in 1989; defensive coordinator at Murray State in 1987-88; assistant coach at Austin Peay from 1985-86; graduate assistant at Minnesota in 1984 and a graduate assistant at Appalachian State in 1983.

Gary Crowton, who has served as the head coach at Louisiana Tech and BYU and is considered one of the top offensive minds in all of football, enters his fourth season with LSU in 2010.

In three years at LSU, Crowton's offense has set numerous school records despite starting each year with a first-time starter at quarterback. In 2010, Jordan Jefferson becomes the first returning starter at quarterback for the Tigers since Crowton's arrival in 2007.

Nicknamed "The Wizard" by the LSU players, the Tigers have scored at least 30 points in a game 25 times (39 games) and compiled a 29-10 overall mark under Crowton's direction.

The Tigers averaged over 30 points a game in both 2007 and 2008, which included a school-record 38.6 points a contest in 2007. Only four times in school history LSU has scored over 400 points in a season and two of those have came under Crowton's watch - 541 in 2007 and 402 in 2008.

Crowton went into the 2008 season with an offense that had three quarterbacks who had combined to play in one college game. By the end of the season, LSU's offense was among the best in the league as the Tigers, despite starting three different quarterbacks, averaged 30.9 points and 368 yards per game.

Crowton's first year with the Tigers in 2007 resulted in arguably the best offensive production in school history as LSU set 10 offensive school records on their way to claiming the national title. The offensive school records set under Crowton in 2007 include: points in a season (541), points per game (38.6), touchdowns scored (64), rushing TDs (35), passes attempted (442), passes completed (256), total yards (6,152), total plays (1,054) and first downs (316). LSU also scored at least 40 points a school-record seven times in 2007 as the Tigers posted a 12-2 overall mark.

The 2007 LSU offense produced one of the top rushing and passing seasons in school history as Jacob Hester ran for 1,103 yards and 12 scores, while Flynn threw for 2,407 yards and 21 touchdowns. It marked only the sixth time in school history that LSU's offense has featured a 1,000-yard rusher and a 2,000-yard passer in the same season.

Four players on the LSU offense were drafted following the 2007 season, with Hester going in the third round to San Diego, wide receiver Early Doucet going in the fourth round to Arizona, Flynn going in the seventh round to Green Bay and tight end Keith Zinger going in the seventh round to Atlanta.

Crowton joined the Tigers after a two-year stint as the offensive coordinator at Oregon, where he overhauled the Ducks offense into one of the best in the nation. In 2006, Oregon ranked No. 9 in the nation in total offense, averaging 422.8 yards per game, which included 241 through the air and 182 on the ground. Oregon led the Pac-10 in both total offense and rushing.

In his first year with Oregon in 2005, Crowton produced an offense that tallied the second-highest totals in school history in passing yards (304.5 per game) and points (34.5 per game). The Ducks ranked No. 8 in the nation in passing, No. 12 in scoring and No. 18 in total offense on their way to posting a 10-2 overall mark and reaching the Holiday Bowl.

Crowton joined the Oregon staff after a four-year stint as head coach at Brigham Young from 2001-2004. During his four seasons at his alma mater. Crowton guided the Cougars to a 26-23 record to run his head coaching career mark to 47-36 in seven years. Crowton's best year with BYU came in 2001 when he led the Cougars to a 12-2 overall mark, capped with an appearance in the Liberty Bowl. Crowton's BYU offense scored 40 or more points 10 times that year, including 70 points in a win over Tulane and 44 in a victory over California. BYU led the nation in total offense (542.9 per game) and scoring (46.8 per game) in 2001 as the Cougars captured the Mountain West Conference title. Crowton was named the MWC Coach of the Year for his efforts in his first season at BYU.

Other highlights for Crowton during his stay at BYU include a 44-16 win over California and a 41-38 victory over Mississippi State in 2001, and a 20-17 win over Notre Dame to open the 2004 campaign.

Prior to taking the head coaching job at BYU, Crowton served as the offensive coordinator for two years with the Chicago Bears. In his first year with the Bears in 1999, Crowton's offense ranked No. 3 in the NFL in passing with an average of 258.5 yards per game. That year, the Bears established a franchise record with 4,136 passing yards behind a trio of quarterbacks.

Crowton joined the Bears after a four-year stretch at Louisiana Tech, three of which were as head coach of the Bulldogs. Crowton served as head coach at Louisiana Tech from 1996-98, leading the Bulldogs to an overall mark of 21-13, which included a 9-2 record in 1997. In three years at Louisiana Tech, Crowton's teams scored at least 35 points 16 times. He also posted some of the biggest wins in school history - beating Mississippi State, 38-23, in 1995; and beating California, 41-34, and Alabama, 26-20, in 1996.

Crowton's 1998 Louisiana Tech team proved to be one of the most potent offenses in the nation that year as the Bulldogs ranked No. 1 in the nation in passing yards with a 432.1 average behind All-American quarterback Tim Rattay. Tech finished the year ranked No. 2 in the nation in total offense, averaging 542 yards per game.

The 1998 Bulldog offense also featured future first round draft pick in wide receiver Troy Edwards. Rattay and Edwards teamed up for what was one of the most explosive offensive displays against a nationally-ranked team to open the 1998 season. In that game, Rattay threw for 590 yards, while Edwards caught 21 passes for an NCAA record 405 yards against fourth-ranked Nebraska.

In 1997, a year that saw Crowton lead the Bulldogs to wins over California and Alabama, Louisiana Tech ranked No. 3 in the nation in passing (360.5 per game) and total offense (496.0 per game).

Crowton began his 24-year coaching career as a student assistant under LaVell Edwards in 1982 at BYU, where he earned his bachelor's degree in physical education in 1983. He proceeded to serve as secondary coach at Snow (Utah) Junior College in 1983 before becoming offensive coordinator at the school for the next three seasons.

He then served as passing game coordinator at Western Illinois for one year (1987), followed by offensive coordinator at New Hampshire (1988-90), quarterbacks coach at Boston College (1991-93), co-offensive coordinator at Georgia Tech (1994), and offensive coordinator at Louisiana Tech (1995). Crowton was elevated to head coach at Louisiana Tech the following

Among the standouts he has tutored include BYU running back Luke Staley, who was the recipient of the Doak Walker Award as the nation's top running back and led the nation in scoring in 2001: Troy Edwards, Louisiana Tech's 1998 Biletnikoff Award honoree as the top collegiate receiver in the country; Louisiana Tech quarterback Tim Rattay, who finished 10th in balloting for the Heisman Trophy in 1999; and Boston College quarterback Glenn Foley, who finished fifth in the Heisman Trophy voting in 1993.

Crowton has coached seven quarterbacks who have gone on to be selected in the NFL

The former all-league quarterback at Orem High School earned All-America acclaim at Snow Junior College before completing his football career as a quarterback, wide receiver and defensive back at Colorado State in 1978. He then ran track for one year at Idaho State before earning his degree at BYU.

Crowton and his wife Maren have four daughters - Tara, Jenessa, Mikauli and Toriana and three sons - Dane, Quinn, and Macloud. Crowton was born on June 14, 1957, in Provo, Steve Ensminger, a former starting quarterback for LSU, enters his first year as the school's tight ends coach after joining the Tiger coaching staff last spring.

Ensminger, a 1982 graduate of LSU, played quarterback for the Tigers under head coach Charlie McClendon from 1976-79. Ensminger played in three bowl games at LSU and followed that by coaching in 10 bowl games as an assistant at the collegiate level.

Ensminger comes to LSU after serving as an assistant coach at Auburn from 2003-08. Ensminger spent the 2009 season as the passing game coordinator at Smiths Station High School in Auburn, Ala.

During his six seasons at Auburn, Ensminger coached the quarterbacks one year (2003), followed by five years as the tight ends coach from 2004-08. As the quarterback coach at Auburn, Ensminger helped develop Jason Campbell, who went on to become an NFL first round draft pick.

While at Auburn, the Tigers led the SEC in scoring offense in both 2004 (32.1) and 2005 (32.2) and they were first in the league in total offense in 2005 (409.8).

Ensminger has also had major college coaching stops at Georgia (1991-93), Texas A&M (1994-96) and Clemson (1997-98).

At Georgia, he served as the quarterbacks coach as well as the passing game coordinator. In 1992, Georgia posted a 10-2 overall record and led the SEC in both scoring (32.0) and total offense (450.4).

Ensminger followed that with a three-year stint at Texas A&M where he was $\ \,$ the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for the Aggies. The Aggies were 25-9-1 during Ensminger's three years in College Station, which included a 10-0-1 mark in 1994 and a 9-3 record in 1995.

Following his three years at Texas A&M, Ensminger coached for two seasons at Clemson, holding the title of offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

Ensminger returned to Louisiana in 2000, serving as head coach at athletic director at Central High School for nearly three years before taking the wide receivers job at West Monroe High School for the 2002 season.

The Ensmingers: son-in-law Drew Knight, daughter Krystalin, Amy, Steve, daughter Brittany Rose and son Steven, Ir.

After a brief career in the NFL and CFL, Ensminger got his start in coaching in 1982 at Nicholls State as the receivers coach. After two years at Nicholls State, he moved to McNeese State as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach from 1984-86 followed by three years from 1988-90 at Louisiana Tech in the same capacity.

As a player at LSU, Ensminger threw for 2,770 yards and 16 touchdowns during his career with the Tigers. He was named Freshman All-SEC in 1976.

Ensminger, a native of Baton Rouge, is married to the former Amy Gonzales and the couple has three children - Krystalin, Brittany Rose and Steven.

Billy Gonzales, who spent the past five years coaching the wide receivers at Florida, enters his first full season at LSU in 2010 where he will serve as the passing game coordinator and wide receivers coach. Gonzales joined the Tigers in December of 2009 and helped LSU prepare for its Capital One Bowl contest against Penn State.

As passing game coordinator, Gonzales will work with offensive coordinator Gary Crowton in developing strategies for LSU's passing attack.

Prior to joining the LSU staff, Gonzales coached under Urban Meyer at three different schools – Bowling Green, Utah, and Florida – since 2001. Gonzales coached for two years at Bowling Green under Meyer, and alongside current LSU offensive line coach Greg Studrawa, before moving on with Meyer to Utah for the 2003 and 2004 seasons.

Gonzales arrived at Florida in 2005, and during his five years with the Gators, he sent seven players to the NFL Draft, including 2009 first round pick Percy Harvin and Chad Jackson, a second round selection by the New England Patriots in 2007.

In 2009, Gonzales helped the Florida offense rank first in the Southeastern Conference and 12th in the nation in total yards with 442 per game. The Gators averaged 217 passing yards per game.

In 2007, Gonzales assisted Andre Caldwell in becoming Florida's all-time leader in receptions with 185 for his career, while a year earlier, Dallas Baker set the school record for single season catches with 88.

From 2005 to 2008, Florida produced two first-team All-SEC wide receivers and a pair of second-team all-conference receivers.

In two years at Utah, Gonzales helped the Utes to a 22-2 overall mark and a pair of bowl victories, including a 35-7 win over Pittsburgh in the 2005 Fiesta Bowl. Offensively, Utah averaged 499.8 yards and 45.3 points per game in 2004, both of which ranked No. 3 in the nation that year.

In addition to his role as Utah's wide receivers coach, Gonzales also served as the special teams coordinator for the Utes. In 2003, Utah led the nation in kickoff returns with a 28.2 average and they were third in the nation in net punting (40.8 yards) and fifth in the country in kickoff returns (26.2) in 2004.

Gonzales spent 2001 and 2002 at Bowling Green, serving as wide receivers coach and co-recruiting coordinator. The Falcons were 17-6 in his two years at the school and in 2002, Bowling Green ranked No. 3 in the nation with 48.0 points per game. The Falcons also averaged 448.9 yards per game in 2002, a figure that ranked No. 9 nationally.

Billy and Julie Gonzales with son Cole and daughter Caylynn.

Gonzales broke into full-time coaching at the Division I level in 1997 at Kent State, where he spent four years with the Golden Flashes coaching running backs in 1997, before moving to wide receivers for the next three years. Gonzales coached for two years as a graduate assistant at Kent State from 1995-96, where he received his Master's Degree in Sports Administration.

Gonzales' first coaching job came in 1994 at MacMurray (III.) as the wide receivers coach

A four-year letterwinner at Colorado State and a two-year starter at wide receiver, Gonzales helped the Rams to a 9-4 record in 1990 and a win over Oregon in the Freedom Bowl that year. Gonzales is a 1994 graduate of Colorado State University. He's married to the former Julie Hall and the couple has two children, Cole and Caylynn.

Brick Haley, a veteran defensive line coach with both NFL experience and 10 years on the sidelines in a BCS conference, enters his second season at LSU in

In his first year with the Tigers in 2009, Haley continued LSU's tradition of defensive line excellence, seeing defensive tackle Al Woods picked in the fourth round of the 2010 NFL Draft by the New Orleans Saints. It marked the seventh straight year in which the Tigers had a defensive tackle picked in the NFL Draft.

On the field, Haley's front four helped lead the way for a Tiger defense that ranked No. 11 in the nation in scoring. LSU's defensive line combined for 44 tackles for losses and 14 sacks in 2009.

Haley joined the Tigers in the spring of 2009 after a two-year stint as the defensive line coach with the Chicago Bears.

In two years in the NFL with the Bears, Haley coached a defensive line that helped Chicago rank No. 5 in the league in rushing yards allowed per game in 2008. The Bears finished sixth in the NFL in sacks in 2007 with defensive end Tommie Harris earning a spot in the Pro Bowl that year.

Prior to his stop in the NFL, Haley spent three years as the defensive line coach at Mississippi State from 2004-06. At Mississippi State, Haley helped improve a Bulldogs defense that finished 41st in the nation in 2006 after finishing 113th a year before his arrival. Under Haley's watch, Bulldogs defensive end Titus Brown developed into a Second-Team All-SEC selection after leading the team and ranking fifth in the conference in sacks in 2006.

In 2005, Haley coached the SEC leader in sacks (third in NCAA) and tackles for loss (fourth in NCAA) in Willie Evans, who spent four years in the NFL.

Before arriving at Mississippi State, Haley coached linebackers for two years (2002-2003) at Georgia Tech, where he helped the Yellow Jackets to a pair of postseason bowl games. In 2003, he coached a First-Team All-ACC performer after Tech's trio of starting linebackers finished the 2002 season as the team's top-three tacklers.

Previously, Haley was the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Baylor (1999-2001) after coaching outside linebackers for one season each at Clemson (1998) and Houston (1997). The defensive line coach at Troy State from 1994-96, he was promoted to defensive coordinator following the 1996 campaign before leaving for Houston. Haley coached the defensive line at Austin Peay from 1991-93 after starting his college coaching career as a graduate assistant at Arkansas in 1990. His first coaching job was at Enterprise (Ala.) High School in 1989.

The Gadsden, Ala., native played linebacker at Alabama A&M from 1984-88 and was inducted into the school's Athletic Hall of Fame in 2005. He received Alabama A&M's Inspiration Award in 1987 and was named football MVP for the 1988 season. He and his wife, Tina, have three sons: Adrian, A.J. and Jeremy.

Joe Robinson, a 1985 graduate of LSU, enters his third year with the Tigers in 2010. serving as the special teams coordinator while also working with the defensive line.

In his first two years with the Tigers, Robinson has helped LSU establish itself as one of the top all-around special teams units, putting on the field a group that has excelled at both returns and coverage.

In 2009, LSU's special teams combined to rank No. 1 overall in the SEC as the Tigers led the league in both kickoff coverage (44.5 net average) and punt returns (18.9). LSU was also No. 3 in both field goal percentage (85.0) and punting (37.4 net) as the Tigers were the only team in the league to rank among the top three in the conference in four special teams categories.

Individually, Trindon Holliday led the SEC and ranked No. 2 in the nation in punt returns with an 18.1 average in 2009. Holliday capped his career ranked among the alltime leaders at LSU in punt return yards (7th at 647) and kickoff return yards (2nd at 1,806). Holliday went on to become selected in the sixth round of the 2010 NFL Draft by the Houston Texans.

In his first year with LSU in 2008, Robinson oversaw a special teams unit that featured place kicker Colt David, who capped his career as the school's all-time leader in scoring with 369 points.

During his four-year stay at Arizona, Robinson earned the reputation of putting together standout play in the area of special teams. In 2007, Robinson had one of his former players taken in the first round of the NFL Draft as cornerback/return specialists Antoine Cason was picked by the San Diego Chargers.

A year earlier, punter Nick Folk was a First-Team All-Pac 10 member and was picked in the sixth round of the 2007 NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys, while kick return specialist Syndric Steptoe, also a First-Team All-Pac 10 selection, was drafted in the seventh round by the Cleveland Browns.

Another one of Robinson's standout punters at Arizona was Danny Baugher, who earned All-America honors in 2005 and was a finalist for the Ray Guy Award after leading the nation in punting. Baugher is currently a member of the Denver Broncos organization.

Robinson's coaching career came full circle with his return to LSU in 2008 as he got his start as a coach at the prep level in Louisiana during the mid-80s before moving on to the collegiate ranks. In all, Robinson's career has seen him serve as a football coach in Louisiana at the prep and collegiate level for eight years, four of which were spent with Louisiana Tech. Robinson's first coaching job came as an assistant at Catholic High School of Pointe Coupee in 1986. He was promoted to head coach in 1987.

Robinson spent the 1988 season as the defensive coordinator at Bastrop High School before spending the next three years at Louisiana Tech. Robinson followed that stop with seven years at Southern Mississippi, along with stints as the special teams coordinator at Houston in 2002 and Central Florida in 2003.

Joe and Abby Robinson with daughters Alexandra, Madeline, and Valerie.

During his career. Robinson's been a part of some of the nation's most productive special teams units, which includes leading the nation in kick return average at Southern Miss in 1997, ranking second in the nation in net punting at Central Florida in 2003, and having the nation's top-rated punter at Central Florida in 2003. In addition, Central Florida led the country in blocked kicks in 2003 with seven - four punts and three field goals.

As a defensive coach, Robinson assisted with a 1994 Southern Miss unit that led the nation in turnovers gained.

A native of Abilene, Texas, Robinson earned his bachelor's degree from LSU in 1985 followed by a master's degree from Southern Mississippi in 1994. Robinson and his wife Abby have three daughters - Alexandra, Madeline and Valerie.

Greg Studrawa, a former offensive coordinator who guided a record-setting offense at Bowling Green for four years, enters his fourth season as LSU's offensive line coach in 2010.

In three years at LSU, Studrawa's line has produced three first-team All-SEC honors as well as one first-team All-America and a second-team All-America. Herman Johnson, a fifth round pick by the Arizona Cardinals in the 2009 NFL Draft, earned first-team AP All-America honors in 2008, while Ciron Black was a second-team selection by the Walter Camp Foundation. Johnson earned first-team All-SEC honors in both 2007 and 2008, while Black earned the recognition as a senior in 2009.

In addition, Black, who set a school-record by starting in 53 consecutive games (every game of his career), was named the recipient of the 2009 Jacobs Blocking Trophy, which goes to the top offensive lineman in the SEC.

Studrawa's offensive line helped pave the way for a pair of 1,000-yard backs – Jacob Hester in 2007 and Charles Scott in 2008.

In 2008, LSU used the same starting line for each of the Tigers 13 games as the unit helped contribute to a squad that averaged 30.9 points and 368.1 yards per game.

In his first year with the Tigers in 2007, Studrawa helped mold the Tiger offensive line into one of the most consistent in the SEC as LSU went on to capture both the national and league titles that year Featuring a pair of first time starters at right guard (Lyle Hitt) and right tackle (Carnell Stewart), LSU averaged nearly 440 yards of offense per game, including 214.1 yards a game on the ground. As a unit, the Tiger offense set a total of 10 school records in 2007, including total points and total yards.

Prior to joining LSU, Studrawa held the position of offensive coordinator at Bowling Green from 2003-06, overseeing some of the top offenses at both the national and Mid-America Conference level during that time. He was also the assistant head coach for the Falcons during the 2006 season.

In his four years as the offensive coordinator, Bowling Green played in two bowl games – beating Northwestern, 28-24, in the 2003 Motor City Bowl and defeating Memphis, 52-35, in the 2004 GMAC Bowl - and posted a combined record of 30-19. Studrawa also helped lead the Falcons to two of the biggest wins in school history as they beat 16th-ranked Purdue, 27-26, in 2003 and followed that with a 34-18 victory over 12th-ranked Northern Illinois later that year.

In 2005, Studrawa led a Bowling Green offense that ranked second in the MAC in both passing (283.9) and scoring (33.8) and was third in the league in pass efficiency (142.4). In 2004, BGSU finished second nationally in total offense with a MAC record 506.3 yards per game. The Falcons were also third in the nation in passing (338.3) and turnover margin (1.25) and fourth in scoring with a MAC record 44.3 points per game.

In 2004, the Falcons had four games of scoring at least 50 points as they averaged 49.4 points over their final nine games of the season. The 2004 season saw the Falcons go 9-3 overall, which included the 52-35 victory over Memphis in the GMAC Bowl in Individually, quarterback Omar Jacobs was named the 2004 MAC Offensive Player of the Year after leading the nation in TD passes with a league record 41. Jacobs was second in the nation in passing yards per game as well as total offense. In addition, his 41 TD-to-4 interception passing ratio set an NCAA record. Jacobs went on to become a fifth round NFL Draft pick by the Pittsburgh Steelers in 2006.

Studrawa also guided an offensive line that allowed a league-low 11 sacks in 2004 as three members of that interior line were named All-MAC, including left tackle Rob Warren, center Scott Mruczkowski and left guard Kory Lichtensteiger. Mruczkowski was selected in the seventh round of the 2005 NFL Draft by the San Diego Chargers where he is currently a starter on the offensive line.

In his first year as Bowling Green's offensive coordinator, Studrawa guided the Falcon offense to a No. 3 national ranking in total offense. The Falcons were also ranked 11th nationally in passing, 14th in pass efficiency and No. 18 in rushing.

The 2003 Bowling Green offense broke a total of 10 school records during the season – six team and four individual – on its way to an 11-3 overall mark, which was capped with a 28-24 win over Big Ten member Northwestern in the Motor City Bowl.

Studrawa served as the offensive line coach at Bowling Green in 2001 and 2002 before being elevated to the offensive coordinator position in 2003.

Prior to his return to Bowling Green, he spent three years as the offensive line coach at Arkansas State. Other coaching stops for Studrawa include serving as an offensive line coach at Cincinnati in 1989 and 1990 as well as holding offensive coordinator duties at Wilmington (Ohio) College from 1991-96. He followed that with a one year stint as a graduate assistant at Ohio State in 1997.

As a player, Studrawa was a two-year starter at left tackle for Bowling Green in 1986 and 1987. Studrawa was named the recipient of Bowling Green's Coaches Award following the 1987 season for his outstanding attitude toward Falcon football. Studrawa is a 1987 graduate of Bowling Green.

A native of Fostoria, Ohio, he is a graduate of St. Wendelin High School where he was a first-team All-Ohio selection as a senior. Born on Nov. 3, 1964, Studrawa and his wife Cindy have three daughters – Samantha (18), Katelin (15), and Allison (12).

Frank Wilson, who has spent four of the past five years coaching in the Southeastern Conference, joined the LSU coaching staff last December as the Tigers' running backs coach and recruiting coordinator.

Wilson, came to LSU from Tennessee, where he coached the wide receivers for the Vols in 2009. Wilson, a native of New Orleans, joined LSU in time to take part in the Tigers' bowl preparations for Penn State last year and then later helped engineer a 2010 recruiting class that ranked among the top 10 in the nation.

Prior to joining the Tennessee staff, Wilson spent the 2008 season at Southern Miss as running back coach and recruiting coordinator. He also served as running backs coach and special teams assistant at Ole Miss from 2005-07.

In his second year with the Rebels, Wilson's primary pupil, BenJarvus Green-Ellis, member of the New England Patriots, finished third in the SEC in rushing at 83.2 yards per game. Green-Ellis was named All-SEC first team by Associated Press. Under Wilson's tutelage, Green-Ellis finished the season with 1,000 yards, fourth on the Ole Miss season charts.

Wilson joined the Ole Miss staff after serving one year as Director of Athletics for the New Orleans Public School System. He served 3½ seasons as head football coach and offensive coordinator at O. Perry Walker High School in that city prior to his stint as director of athletics.

While at O. Perry Walker, Wilson led the Chargers to the 2002 Class 4A state finals and to District 10-4A championships in 2001 and 2002. He was honored by the NFL as the 2002 Coach of the Year for the state of Louisiana and was voted by his peers as the Louisiana Class 4A Coach of the Year. Wilson also was a 2002 Nike National Coach of the Year finalist.

Wilson coached the Orleans Parish All-Star team against the Jefferson Parrish All-Star team in 2002, leading his group of players to the win in the Louisiana Superdome. He also was honored as 2001 state metro area and district coach of the year.

During his three-year at O. Perry Walker, Wilson helped guide 22 players to Division I scholarships, including 11 in 2002 to rank as the nation's largest class of Division I signees by any one high school.

Wilson spent three years as an assistant coach at Edna Karr High School, also in New Orleans, from 1997-2000. He served as offensive coordinator at Edna Karr during the 1999 season in which the team reached the Class 3A state finals and the offense recorded the best statistical season in the program's history.

Wilson got his start in coaching as a student assistant at his alma mater, Nicholls State University, working with the running backs while he finished his degree. While at Nicholls State, Wilson helped coach the first 1,000-yard rusher in school history and was part of the biggest turnaround in NCAA history for the Colonels, who improved from 0-10 in 1995 to 8-2 in 1996.

A three-year letterman on the football team at Nicholls State, Wilson earned honorable mention all-conference honors as a running back his sophomore year. He was also named preseason all-conference as a defensive back his junior year and as a running back his senior year. Wilson attended Geneva University in Beaver Falls, Pa., his freshman season, earning conference Freshman of the Year honors as a tailback and kick returner. He also earned first team all-conference honors and was an NAIA Division II All-America honorable mention.

Wilson received his Bachelor of Arts degree in general education from Nicholls State in 1997. He then went on to earn a certificate of education in biology from Southern University in New Orleans in 2002.

Wilson and his wife, Tiffany, have four children: Ormani, Alaina, Sa'bree and Frank IV.

Dr. Sam Nader Assistant AD/Football Operations

A long-time member of the LSU football staff, Sam Nader is in his 10th season as Assistant Athletic Director for Football Operations after being promoted to the position during the summer of 2000. Nader is in his 36th season overall with the LSU football program.

Nader is responsible for overseeing all of the day-to-day administrative duties for the LSU football team.

Nader joined the LSU staff as a graduate assistant in 1975 and was hired by head coach

Charles McClendon as a full-time assistant coach in 1977. He was named recruiting coordinator in 1980 and served in that role through the 1993 season.

When the NCAA eliminated the recruiting coordinator's position, Nader assumed the position of administrative assistant for football operations in 1994 and remained in that role, handling a myriad of responsibilities for the LSU football program, until his promotion to assistant athletic director in 2000.

Nader was a quarterback for the Auburn Tigers from 1963-67. From 1968-69, he served as assistant coach at Jordan High School in Columbus, Ga., and was promoted to head coach and athletics director in 1970. He served in that capacity until 1974.

In his role as recruiting coordinator, Nader spearheaded the recruiting efforts of 32 players who developed into first-team All-SEC players, plus seven who became All-Americans.

Nader is married to the former Ann Gardner of Montgomery, Ala., and they have three children, Breaux, Lauren and John Ryan, and five granddaughters, Brooks Claire, Mary Holland, Grace Ann, and Sarah Jane, who are the daughters of Breaux and his wife Holland

Charles Baglio Director of External Football Relations

Charles Baglio, one of the most successful high school football coaches in Louisiana over the last 20 years of his coaching career, enters his eighth season with the LSU athletics department as the director of external relations for the Tiger football team.

Baglio came to LSU in 2002 after coaching at Independence High School for 34 years, 22 of which as head coach. While at Independence, Baglio posted a head coaching record of 205-69. He won nine district titles and led his team to the state championship game twice.

Baglio also had numerous players go on to play collegiate football, including former Tiger running back LaBrandon Toefield, who spent several seasons in the NFL with the Jacksonville Jaguars and the Carolina Panthers.

Baglio, who goes by the nickname of "Coach Bags", graduated from Southeastern Louisiana University in 1967 with a degree in health and physical education and followed that with a master's degree from SLU in 1973 in supervision and administration.

Baglio, an avid golfer who regularly shoots in the 70s, is a native of Independence, La.

Tommy Moffitt Strength & Conditioning Coordinator

Considered by many in college football to be one of the nation's premier strength and conditioning coaches, Tommy Moffitt enters his 11th season at LSU after coming to the Tiger staff from the University of Miami.

In 10 years with the Tigers from 2000-09, Moffitt help strength train and condition an LSU football team that won 99 games during the decade, which ties for the fourth-highest total in SEC history. It was Moffitt's offseason program that helped pave the way to national titles in 2003 and 2007 for the Tigers.

Moffitt was named the 2003 College Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year by America Football Monthly. Moffitt has been part of national championship football teams at LSU (twice), Moffitt was appointed LSU's Strength and Conditioning Coordinator on Jan. 10, 2000. In February 2000, Moffitt was named the 1999 Collegiate Football Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year by the Professional Football Strength and Conditioning Coaches Society.

In 10 years with the Tigers, Moffitt has developed LSU into one of the most durable teams around by combining a program that focuses on both strength and speed. Moffitt has also incorporated yoga and karate routines in the Tigers' offseason program, which increases the player's flexibility, while forcing the team to stay focused for a lengthy period of time.

Moffitt served as the head strength and conditioning coach at Miami for two years, helping head coach Butch Davis rebuild the Hurricane program. While at Miami, Moffitt was named the 1998 Big East Strength Coach of the Year. Moffitt went to Miami after four seasons, 1994-97, as associate head strength and conditioning coach at Tennessee.

A 1986 graduate of Tennessee Tech, Moffitt started his career as an assistant football coach at John Curtis High School in River Ridge, La., from 1987-94, earning the 1992 National High School Strength Coach of the Year award given by the Professional Football Strength and Conditioning Coaches Society.

Born in Springfield, Tenn., Moffitt is married to the former Jill Beron and they have three children, Clay, Aaron and Brady.

Derrick LeBlanc Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coordinator

Derrick LeBlanc returned to LSU in 2008 and is now in his third year as the assistant and strength and conditioning coordinator for the Tigers.

LeBlanc returned to Baton Rouge after serving a two-year stint as the defensive line coach at Missouri State. LeBlanc spent the 2000 season as a graduate assistant in the LSU weight room.

LeBlanc is a 1997 graduate of Northwestern (La.) State and received his master's degree from LSU in 2002. A four-year football player at Northwestern State as a two-way lineman, he spent three seasons at Breaux Bridge (La.) High School as an assistant coach, working with the offensive and defensive lines.

After his year as a graduate assistant at LSU, LeBlanc moved to Henderson (Ark.) State University, where he coached the defensive line coach from 2001 to 2004. LeBlanc was defensive line coach in 2005 at Arkansas Tech University.

LeBlanc and his wife, Niema, have two sons - Dayton, and Derrick.

Jack Marucci Director of Athletic Training

Jack Marucci enters his 15th season as director of athletic training at LSU. Since joining the Tigers, Marucci's leadership and vision has moved LSU to the forefront of athletic training at the collegiate level.

As director of athletic training, Marucci oversees the athletic training operation for all 20 varsity sports, which includes supervising a staff of six full-time trainers and 10 graduate assistants.

An experienced trainer with a strong background in collegiate athletics, Marucci helped design the Broussard Center for Athletic Training at Tiger Stadium as well as the one located in the Football Operations Building, which the football team operates out of on a daily basis.

Marucci served as an assistant athletic trainer at Florida State from 1988-96, a stint that included eight bowl trips with the Seminoles. While in Tallahassee, he also served as the host trainer for two NCAA regional baseball tournaments.

Marucci graduated from West Virginia in 1986 with a bachelor's degree in athletic training and then gained his master's from Alabama in 1988, serving as a graduate assistant trainer for the Crimson Tide from 1986-88. He also worked with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1987 and the Cleveland Browns in 1985.

Off the field, Marucci has mastered the art of crafting wooden baseball bats and founded his own company, the Marucci Bat Company. The bat company, which originally started with a workshop in his backyard, now has hundreds of Major Leaguers swinging its bats, including Albert Pujols, David Wright, Chase Utley, Brad Hawpe and the 2006 NL MVP and home run champion Ryan Howard.

The Marucci Bat Company has also been represented in both the Major League All-Star Game and the World Series in recent years with numerous Major Leaguers swinging the Marucci Bat.

Marucci is married to the former Leah Gaines and they have a son, Gino, and a daughter, Sarah.

Andy Barker Senior Associate Athletic Trainer

Andy Barker enters his 15th season as senior associate athletic trainer at LSU. Barker came to Baton Rouge following a six-year stint at

Since coming to LSU, Barker has been an integral part of designing and implementing a state-of-the-art computer tracking program that assists the staff in following the progress and rehabilitation of injuries. The program produces daily injury reports for a variety of sports and it also tracks and monitors purchasing and inventory as well as tracking insurance and medical bill payments.

In April 2000, Barker received the Southeastern Athletic Trainers Association "Backbone" Award, which recognizes the top collegiate assistant athletic trainer from the seven states included in the Southeastern district of the National Athletic Trainers Association.

A 1988 graduate of Clemson University, Barker became a graduate assistant trainer at Florida State in 1988. After two years as a graduate assistant, Barker was named an assistant athletic trainer at FSU in 1990 and served in that position until coming to LSU in August 1996.

While at Florida State, Barker worked seven bowl games and served as host trainer for the 1995 NCAA Regional basketball tournament, seven NCAA regional baseball tournaments and the Junior Pan-American Games in 1990.

Barker, a native of Clemson, S.C., enjoys playing golf in his spare time. He's married to the former Andrea Conerly

Shelly Mullenix Senior Associate Athletic Trainer

Shelly Mullenix begins her 13th year as part of the LSU training staff in 2009. As LSU's senior associate athletic trainer, Mullenix plays a key role in servicing the athletic training needs of the football team on a day-to-day basis.

In addition to Mullenix's role as a trainer with the football program, she plays an integral role in the education and development of nutritional programs for all LSU sports. This nutritional information is given in a team format as well as through one-on-one individualized counseling.

With the use of state-of-the-art computer analysis, Mullenix is able to perform body fat analysis, customize dietary intake and exercise prescription to suit the specific needs of the athlete. Administratively, she is responsible for the recruitment of student athletic trainers and the development of the athletic training curriculum.

Mullenix joined the LSU training staff in January 1997, coming to Baton Rouge from Florida State University, where she worked as a graduate assistant athletic trainer from 1992-93. She was promoted to assistant athletic trainer at FSU in 1993 and served in that capacity until December 1996.

REVIEW

She is married to Matthew Mullenix and has two children, Maggie and Briana.

COACHES

Greg Stringfellow Equipment Manager

Greg Stringfellow enters his seventh season as LSU's equipment manager after being elevated to the position in the spring of 2004. Stringfellow served as the interim equipment manager during LSU's National Championship season in 2003, stepping in for longtime equipment manager Jeff Boss, who passed away in the fall of 2003 after a lengthy battle with cancer.

Stringfellow, one of the many equipment managers who learned the trade under Boss, enters his 13th season overall with the Tigers. He previously served as a student assistant in the LSU equipment room for five years.

As a member of the equipment staff, Stringfellow is responsible for the ordering and maintaining of equipment and facilities for the LSU football team as well as LSU's 19 other sports.

Stringfellow lettered two years in football at McGill-Toolen High School in Mobile, Ala., before coming to LSU, where he earned a degree in construction management in 1997.

An avid golfer, Stringfellow is a member of the Athletic Equipment Managers Association and annually works the Senior Bowl in Mobile.

He is married to the former Ashley Mitnick, a former LSU soccer standout. The couple has two children, Sarah Elizabeth and Lily Grace.

Ferrell Shillings Assistant Equipment Manager

Ferrell Shillings is now in his 19th season on the LSU equipment staff after joining the Tigers in 1991.

A native of St. Amant, La., Shillings oversees the LSU athletics central receiving department. He is also responsible for the daily delivery of overnight packages within the athletics department, while also working closely with the Tiger football team.

Shillings lettered four years in football, four years in basketball and once in baseball at St. Amant High. He worked for 33 years as a supervisor at South Central Bell Telephone in Baton Rouge before he turned his attention to the field of athletic equipment.

Shillings is a member of the Athletic Equipment Managers Association and the SEC Equipment Managers Association. He is also a lifetime member of the Telephone Pioneers.

George Branigan Assistant Equipment Manager

George Branigan begins his fifth year as a full-time member of the LSU equipment staff, where he serves as the head manager for baseball, softball, gymnastics, soccer, cheerleading, and assists with the nationally-ranked football team.

Prior to his full-time post, Branigan spent six months helping family members rebuild their personal businesses devastated during Hurricane Katrina.

While attending LSU, Branigan spent five years as a student equipment manager, working with the baseball team during his entire tenure and the football team during the 2002-03 season.

A native of Kenner, La., Branigan prepped at Brother Martin High School before earning his degree in general studies from LSU in May 2005. He is a member of the American Equipment Managers Association and the SEC Equipment Managers Association.

Daniel Waguespack Assistant Equipment Manager

Daniel Waguespack enters his third year as a full-time member of the LSU equipment staff. He serves as the head manager for men's and women's basketball, men's and women's tennis, volleyball, track and field, swimming and diving and assists with football.

Waguespack, a native of Norco, La., graduated from LSU in May 2007 with a degree in sociology. He worked as a student manager for four seasons with the Tigers.

Waguespack attended Destrehan High School where he was a fouryear letterwinner in soccer. Waguespack is married to the former Katie Militello.

Doug Aucoin Videography Director

Doug Aucoin enters his 14th season as LSU's video coordinator. During that time he has developed LSU's football video department into the one of the finest in the nation.

Aucoin was named the 2010 Bob Matey National Video Coordinator of the Year by the Collegiate Sports Video Association in June. The award, which is voted on by other video coordinators in the profession, is presented to the individual who possesses the qualities and attributes of the late Bob Matey. the former video coordinator at Texas A&M.

Aucoin, who is also a three-time SEC Video Coordinator of the year in 2000, 2007 and 2010, oversees LSU's multi-million dollar video department that rivals that of most NFL teams.

Aucoin, who joined the Tigers in 1997 after a stint with Tulane, is responsible for analytical support of computer and video technologies including the taping of games and practices, opponent video exchange, self-scout and opponent breakdowns, and tape cut-ups used as a teaching tool.

Aucoin also manages the computer network that the football coaches use for statistical analysis as well as self-scouting and the scouting of opponents. Another of Aucoin's responsibilities is the production of a weekly highlight and motivational video for the football team.

Aucoin oversees a staff of eight people, which includes one full-time assistant, one graduate assistant and six student assistants.

Prior to working for Tulane, Aucoin was employed by the New Orleans Saints as an assistant to his brother, Albert, who was video director for the Saints. Their father, Erby, is a member of the Saints Hall of Fame for his pioneering analytical film work in the early years of the National Football League.

A native of New Orleans, Aucoin graduated from Riverdale High School and the University of New Orleans, earning his degree in business administration in 1995. In the summer of 1998, Aucoin married the former Angela Bordelon and the couple has three children, Ryan, Shane and Chanler.

Brad Mendow Assistant Video Coordinator

Brad Mendow enters his sixth year as LSU's assistant video coordinator. Prior to his appointment as a full-time employee, the Covington, La., native spent five years as a student worker with the LSU video staff.

Mendow assists videographer director Doug Aucoin with the dayto-day video operations and the maintenance of the coaching staff's computer network for the LSU's football program. He also serves as the SEC's Instant Replay Technician for all of LSU's home football games.

A 2004 LSU graduate with a degree in business administration, Mendow has three older brothers and a younger brother who worked as equipment managers or videographers for the LSU football team.

Sherman Morris
Director of Player Personnel

Sherman Morris enters his fourth season at LSU, serving as the director of player personnel for the Tigers.

The south Florida native joined LSU in 2007 after serving as the assistant athletic director and assistant head football coach at Glades Central High School

Morris served as Glades Central's run game and special teams coordinator and he helped his team to the 2006 Florida 3A State Championship as well as a regional title in 2005.

Morris began his coaching career in 2000 as the offensive line coach at Deerfield Beach High School. During his tenure at Deerfield Beach, the team won three district titles, one regional championship and reached the semifinals in the 6A state playoffs.

He is a former member of LSU's men track and field program and winner of the 1991 SEC Championship in the 55 meters hurdles. Morris was a member of the 1991 All-SEC team.

Morris has earned a bachelor's degree in Professional Studies and a master's degree in Business Administration

LSU Capped Decade of Dominance In 2009

LSU put an end to the most successful decade in school history in 2009 by posting a 9-4 overall record and advancing to a major New Year's Day Bowl. LSU's 99 wins during from 2000-09 ranked second to only Florida (100) in the SEC. The decade saw LSU claim a pair of national championships in 2003 and 2007 and three SEC titles (2001, 2003, and 2007). LSU played in a bowl game each year, winning seven, four of which were BCS games. Five national award winners, 18 first-team All-Americans, six Academic All-Americans, 53 NFL Draft picks and 180 college graduates highlight a decade that has seen LSU establish itself as one of the premier football programs – on the field, in the classroom and in the community – in college athletics. Some other highlights for LSU during the decade include:

- Tied for first in the SEC in bowl appearances (10), SEC Championships (3) and Top 25 final rankings (9).
- Won more home games (59) than any other team in the SEC.
- Had the best regular-season non-conference record in the SEC with a 34-2 mark.
- Led the SEC in shutouts with 10
- With 99 wins from 2000-09, only three teams in the history of the SEC have won more games in a decade than LSU Alabama (103) in the 70's, and Florida, who won 102 games in the 90's and 100 games from 2000-09.
- \bullet The Tigers played 111 of its 130 games from 2000-09 ranked in the top 25.

Black Named Second Team All-America by Walter Camp; Peterson Second Team All-American By Sporting News

Senior offensive tackle Ciron Black was named a second-team All-America by the Walter Camp Foundation, while cornerback Patrick Peterson earned second-team recognition from Sporting News. In his first full season as a starter for the Tigers, Peterson was also named first-team All-Southeastern Conference by ESPN.com as well as being a second-team pick by both the Associated Press and the SEC Coaches.

Black Claims SEC's Jacobs Trophy

Ciron Black was named the recipient of the 2009 SEC Jacobs Blocking Trophy, presented annually to the league's top blocker since 1935. Black became the fifth Tiger in school history to claim the award and the first since All-American Alan Faneca did so in 1997. Black started a school-record 53 consecutive games at left tackle for LSU during his career. LSU's other Jacobs Trophy winners include, Billy May (1936), J.W. Brodnax (1958), Robert Dugas (1978) and Alan Faneca (1997).

LSU Records 13th Fourth-Quarter Comeback Under Miles

For the 13th time under Les Miles, LSU won a football game despite trailing in the fourth quarter as the Tigers from a 30-27 deficit with just over a minute left in the contest to beat Arkansas in overtime on Nov. 28. It marked the second this year that Tigers came from behind in the final two minutes of a game to win. Earlier in 2009, LSU rallied in the final minute to beat Georgia, 20-13. The following is a look at LSU's fourth quarter comebacks under Miles, how many points the Tigers had to overcome in the final frame to win and the quarterback who engineered the comeback:

Miles Is Third Winningest Coach In School History

With 51 wins in five years, LSU coach Les Miles is the third-winningest coach in school history, trailing only Charles McClendon (137 wins in 18 years) and Bernie Moore (83 wins in 13 years). Miles' 51 wins came in five years, giving him an average of 10 wins per year with the Tigers. Miles was also the fastest to the 30, 40, and 50-win total in LSU history. Miles also tied for the most wins after 50 games (41) in SEC history.

With Win Over Georgia, Miles Has Victories Over Every SEC Team

With its win over Georgia in 2009, LSU coach Les Miles has recorded at least one victory over every team in the SEC. In addition, Miles has faced 47 different teams during his head coaching career and he's beaten all but two of them – Texas and Penn State.

Five Tigers Named To AP All-SEC Team, Four Named To Coaches All-SEC Squad

Five Tigers were named to the Associated Press All-SEC Teams and four players earned spots on the Coaches All-SEC Teams in postseason awards that were announced by the league office. Senior offensive guard Ciron Black was named to the AP and Coaches first team. Senior wide receiver Brandon LaFell, sophomore cornerback Patrick Peterson and junior safety Chad Jones earned spots on the AP and Coaches second team. Senior return specialist Trindon Holliday was an honorable mention selection on the AP team. LSU has placed 16 players on the AP All-SEC first team since 2005 and 24 players on the first and second teams since head coach Les Miles' first season. LSU has now placed 16 players on the Coaches' All-SEC first team since 2005 and has combined for a total of 29 players on the first and second teams since Les Miles was named head coach. LSU has placed at least one player on the first team All-SEC offense dating back to

LSU's Won At Least 8 Games For 10 Straight Years

By going 9-4 in 2009, LSU ran its streak of consecutive season with at least eight wins to 10 straight. LSU won at least eight games every year from 2000-09, and its current streak ranks as the fifth-longest in the nation. Here's a look at those teams with a current streak of winning at least eight:

Rank	No.	Team
1.	13	Georgia
2.	12	Texas
	12	Virginia Tech
4.	11	Boise State

Tigers Open Season With 31-23 Win Over Washington

Jordan Jefferson threw for 172 yards and 3 touchdowns as he helped lead the No. 9/11 Tigers to a hardfought 31-23 non-conference win over Washington in Seattle to open the 2009 campaign. LSU spotted the Huskies an early first quarter TD when UW went 85 yards on 10 plays to take a 7-0 advantage over the Tigers. LSU responded with a 24-yard field goal at the 6:03 mark. The Tigers took their first lead 14 seconds later when Jacob Cutrera returned an interception 29 yards for a score giving LSU a 10-7 advantage. The Huskies tied the game at 10-10 early in the second quarter before the Tigers took the lead for good on a 45-yard pass from Jefferson to Terrence Toliver at the 1:15 mark. UW added a field goal as time expired in the first half. Jefferson and Toliver hooked up for another score in the third quarter, this time a 39-yarder, as LSU stretched the lead to 24-13. The Tigers increased their margin to 31-16 on a 6-yard TD pass from Jefferson to Brandon LaFell. The Huskies added a touchdown as time expired for the final margin. Washington outgained LSU on offense, 478-321, as the Huskies ran 83 plays compared to just 48 for the Tigers. LSU rushed for 149 yards and added 172 through the air. Toliver had his best game in an LSU uniform with four receptions for 117 yards and two scores. Charles Scott rushed for 51 yards, while Keiland Williams added 51 and Jefferson 42 to pace the Tigers offense.

Strong Defensive Effort and Efficient Offense Lead LSU Past Vanderbilt, 23-9

Keiland Williams rushed for 71 yards and a pair of TDs and the LSU defense limited Vanderbilt to just 210 total yards as the Tigers opened conference play with a 23-9 win over the Commodores on a rainy night in Tiger Stadium. LSU never trailed in the contest, taking a 7-0 lead on a 6-yard TD run by Williams late in the first quarter. LSU stretched the lead to 10-0 on a 32-yard field goal by Josh Jasper at the 10:22 mark in the second quarter. Vanderbilt responded with a 12-play, 80-yard drive to pull to within 10-7 on a 6-yard run by Larry Smith at the 7:20 mark in the second quarter. LSU need just over a minute to go 64 yards just before halftime as another Jasper field goal extended the lead to 13-7 at in termission. A third Jasper field goal stretched the margin to 16-7 midway through the third quarter. With the Tiger defense holding Vanderbilt in check, the LSU offense couldn't put the Commodores away though. An errant snap on a punt deep in LSU territory resulted in a safety for Vanderbilt, pulling the Commodores to within 16-9 with 1:35 to go in the third quarter. LSU's defense stepped up again the $\,$ fourth quarter, halting a Vanderbilt drive at the LSU 23-yard line on an interception by Brandon Taylor. LSU put the game away with a 7-play, 46-yard drive capped on a 14-yard TD run by Williams with 6:05 to play. Jordan Jefferson completed 20-of-29 passes for 138 yards, while Charles Scott added 49 yards on the ground for LSU. LaFell led all LSU receivers with 7 catches for 38 yards. Harry Coleman paced the defense with 10 tackles, while Rahim Alem added 7 tackles and a sack.

Defense Leads Tigers Past UL-Lafayette, 31-3

Another solid defensive effort combined with a pair of touchdown receptions by Brandon LaFell helped lead LSU to a 31-3 win over Louisiana-Lafayette in Tiger Stadium. The win was the 21st straight nonconference win by the Tigers. LSU got on the board first, going 62 yards on six plays capped with a 16-yard TD pass from Jordan Jefferson to LaFell to give the Tigers a 7-0 lead at the 3:09 mark in the first quarter. After a Chad Jones interception gave the Tigers the ball deep in UL-Lafayette territory, the Tigers needed just one play - an 11-yard run by Trindon Holliday - to stretch the lead to 14-0 at the $14:52\ mark\ of\ the\ second\ quarter.\ LSU\ led\ 17-3\ at\ halftime\ after\ \textit{\textbf{\textit{josh jasper}}}\ connected\ on\ a\ 52-yard$ $field\ goal\ as\ time\ expired\ in\ the\ second\ quarter.\ LSU\ took\ the\ opening\ kickoff\ of\ the\ second\ half\ and$ drove 58 yards on seven plays capped with 20-yard TD pass from Jordan to LaFell to give the Tigers a 21-3 lead. A goal line stand highlighted the defensive effort by LSU in the third quarter as the Tigers turned back the Cajuns on three straight rushing attempts from the 1-yard line. LSU added its final points late in the fourth quarter when Jarrett Lee hit Charles Scott for a 1-yard TD pass. Jefferson finished 16-of-25 for 165 yards and a pair of TDs. Scott led the Tigers rushing attack with 63 yards and LaFell was tops in receiving with six catches for 68 yards and a pair of scores.

Jones Punt Return and Last-Minute Goalline Stand Help Tigers Past Mississippi State, 30-26

Chad Jones returned a punt 93 yards for a touchdown to start the fourth quarter and a last-minute goalline stand by the LSU defense helped the Tigers hold off Mississippi State, 30-26, in Starkville. Patrick Peterson opened the scoring for the Tigers, returning an interception 37 yards on State's first offensive play to give LSU a 6-0 lead. Mississippi State responded on its next possession to take a 7-6lead. The Tigers struck back, going 66-yards on seven plays, capped with a Brandon LaFell 4-yard TD reception from Jordan Jefferson, putting LSU up 13-6. After an errant snap on a punt gave Mississippi State the ball at the LSU 1-yard line, the Bulldogs needed just one play to regain the lead at 14-13 on a 1-yard run by Anthony Dixon. The Tigers took a 16-14 lead at halftime courtesy of a Josh Jasper 22-yard field goal midway through the second quarter. LSU extended its lead on the first play of the third quarter when Jefferson connected with LaFell on a 58-yard TD pass to extend the lead to 23-14. The Bulldogs responded, going 73 yards on six plays to pull to within 23-21 on a 50-yard TD pass at the $6:33\ mark.\ Jones'\ 93\ -yard\ punt\ return\ to\ open\ the\ fourth\ quarter\ gave\ the\ Tigers\ a\ 30\ -21\ cushion.\ After$ a State field goal at the 10:13 mark pulled the Bulldogs to within 30-24, LSU's offense couldn't sustain drives on its next two possessions, opening the door for a Bulldogs possession that had State driving ${\sf S}$ all the way to the Tiger 2-yard line with just over a minute left in the game. LSU's defense turned back State on four straight downs, including three from the 1-yard line, preserving the victory.

Tigers Rally for Last-Minute Win Over Georgia, 20-13

Charles Scott ran for a 33-yard TD with just over a minute left to lift LSU to a 20-13 comeback win over 18th-ranked Georgia. It was LSU's first win in Athens since the 1987 season. LSU's defense dominated the first three quarters of the contest as the Tigers took a 6-0 lead into the fourth quarter. Georgia took its first lead of the game at 7-6 less than a minute into the final quarter when Joe Cox hit Shaun Chapas with a 1-yard TD pass to cap an 18-play, 60-yard drive. The teams went back-and-forth for the next 11 minutes before the Tigers cashed in on a 13-play, 88-yard drive capped on a 2-yard plunge by Scott at the 2:53 mark to regain the lead at 12-7. Georgia needed just a minute and 38 seconds to take back the lead, 13-12, this time on a 16-yard pass from Joe Cox to A.J. Green with 1:09 to play. An excessive celebration penalty combined with a 40-yard kickoff return by Trindon Holliday setup the gamewinning score for the Tigers. Holliday's return gave the Tigers the ball at the UGA 38-yard line with just over a minute left. LSU needed just two plays - both rushes by Scott - to take the lead for good. Scott's 33-yard run proved to be the game-winner, giving the Tigers a 20-13 advantage with 46 seconds left. LSU linebacker Perry Riley clinched the win with an interception on Georgia's last possession. The fourth quarter scoring barrage came after both teams entered into a defensive battle - the Tigers winning the first half and Georgia the third quarter. LSU led 6-0 at halftime after holding the Bulldogs to just one first down and 49 total yards in the first half. Scott led the Tigers with 95 rushing yards and a pair of TDs, while QB Jordan Jefferson connected on 18-of-27 passes for 212 yards.

Florida Defense Too Much For LSU As Tigers Fall To Top-Ranked Gators, 13-3

LSU's defense limited the SEC's top offense to only 13 points and just 327 total yards, but it wasn't enough as top-ranked Florida stymied the Tiger offense in a 13-3 win in Tiger Stadium. LSU managed just a second quarter field goal - an 18-yarder by Josh Jasper - as the Tigers suffered their first loss in a Saturday night game in Tiger Stadium since 2002. Florida never trailed in the contest, taking a 3-0 lead late in the first quarter on a 28-yard field goal by Caleb Sturgis at the 3-50 mark. The Tigers responded two drives later, going all the way to the Florida 2-yard line before settling for the Jasper field goal to tie the game at 3-3 with 5-16 to play in the first half. The Gators extended their lead to 10-3 just before halftime when Tim Flowh the Riley Cooper on a 24-yard TD pass. After both teams went scoreless in the third quarter, Florida stretched the lead to 13-3 on a 32-yard field goal by Sturgis at the 7:27 mark. A Jai Eugene interception of a Tebow pass at the LSU 5-yard line with 4:55 left in the game, kept the Tigers' chances alive. However, LSU turned the ball over on downs on the ensuing possession and Florida was able to run out the clock for the victory. Charles Scott led the Tigers with 53 yards rushing, while Jordan Jefferson connected on 11 of 17 passes for 96 yards and one interception. LSU managed just 162 total yards, including 44 in the second half, in the loss. Defensively, Kelvin Sheppard led the Tigers with 13 tackles, while Perry Riley and Chad Jones added 12 each.

LSU Puts It All Together In 31-10 Win Over Auburn

The offense clicked and the defense shut down one of the most potent attacks in the SEC as LSU rolled to a 31-10 win over Auburn. LSU had its most productive offensive outing of the season with 376 total yards (122 rushing, 254 passing). Defensively, the Tigers limited Auburn to just 193 total yards (112 rushing, 81 passing), which included only 42 total yards in the first half as LSU built a 17-0 lead at halftime. Jordan Jefferson had perhaps his best outing, connecting on 21 of 31 passes for 242 yards and a pair of TDs (he also rushed for a score). LSU never trailed in the contest, taking a 7-0 lead on its first possession when Jefferson hit Terrence Toliver with a 14-yard TD pass. Jefferson added a 15-yard run later in the first quarter for a 14-0 LSU advantage. LSU extended its lead to 24-0 on its first possession of the second half when Jefferson connected with Brandon LaFell on a 17-yard TD pass. Russell Shepardscored his first TD as a Tiger with a 69-yard TD run late in the third quarter to extend the lead to 31-3. Shepard led the Tigers in rushing with 71 yards on six carries, while Toliver caught nine passes for 86 yards and a score. Kelvin Sheppard (13 tackles) and Harry Coleman (9 tackles, 2 sacks, 2 FF) paced the

LSU Cruises Past Tulane, 42-0

Charles Scott rushed for 112 yards and a pair of scores as LSU had its best offensive outing of the season in its 42-0 win over Tulane on Halloween night in Tiger Stadium. LSU produced season highs in total offense (455 yards), rushing yards (267) and points (42) as the Tigers had little trouble with their in-state rival. Defensively, LSU limited Tulane to just 216 total yards and only 26 rushing yards. It was LSU's first shutout of the season and the first by a Tiger team since the 2007 season. LSU wasted little time in taking control of the game as the Tigers capitalized following a blocked punt when Russell Shepard scored on a 19-yard run at the 8:05 mark in the first quarter. LSU made it 14-0 when Jordan Jefferson found Brandon LaFell all alone in the endzone for a 39-yard TD at the 2:32 mark. Scott's 4-yard TD run made it 21-0 at halftime. LSU stretched the margin to 35-0 when Jefferson connected with LaFell on a 13-yard TD pass early in the fourth quarter. Stevan Ridley added the final score for the Tigers, a 10-yard run late in the fourth quarter. Ridley finished with 73 rushing yards, while Shepard added 48 yards. Jefferson completed 11 of 17 passes for 163 yards and a pair of TDs. LaFell led the Tiger receivers with four catches for 85 yards and two TDs, while Terrence Toliver added four catches for 59 yards. Defensively, Kelvin Sheppard paced the Tigers with 13 tackles, three tackles for losses and one sack.

Alabama Grinds Out 24-15 Win Over LSU

A rash of injuries, including a season-ending one to running back Charles Scott, along with the running of Alabama's Mark Ingram proved to be too much to overcome as the No. 3 Crimson Tide beat No. 9 LSU, 24-15. LSU led 15-10 going into the fourth quarter, however, Alabama scored 14 unanswered points during the final stanza to record the victory. After a scoreless first quarter, LSU got on the board first, taking a 7-0 lead when Jordan Jefferson connected with Deangelo Peterson for a 12-yard TD pass at the 9:12 mark. Leigh Tiffin kicked a 28-yard field goal for Alabama's only first half points as the Tigers led 7-3 at halftime. Alabama took its first lead of the game, 10-7, on its opening possession of the second half on a 21-yard TD pass from Greg McElroy to Darius Hanks. An LSU safety closed the gap to 10-9 at the 5:55 mark and then the Tigers regained the lead on an 8-yard run by Stevan Ridley two minutes later. Alabama pulled to within 15-13 on another Tiffin field goal early in the fourth quarter and the Crimson Tide took the lead for good, 21-15, when Julio Jones raced 73-yards for a TD at the 10:24 mark. LSU played the final quarter without Scott and Jefferson due to injuries. Scott finished with 83 rushing yards but was injured late in the third quarter after a 34-yard run. Jefferson finished 10-of-17 for 114 yards and 1 score, most of which came in the first half. Jacob Cutrera tied a career-best with 11 tackles to lead the Tiger defense. Ingram led Alabama with 144 yards, 106 of which came after halftime.

Short-Handed LSU Overcomes Slow Start To Beat Louisiana Tech, 24-16

Down four offensive starters due to injuries, LSU overcame a sluggish first half to post a 24-16 non-conference win over Louisiana Tech. Keiland Williams, starting for an injured Charles Scott, rushed for a season-high 116 yards and two second-half touchdowns to lead the Tigers to the victory. The Tigers played the game without offensive starters in OB Jordan Jefferson, RB Charles Scott, TE Richard Dickson and C T-Bob Hebert. LSU scored first, taking a 3-O lead on a 35-yard field goal by Josh Jasper. Tech tied the score on its next possession before LSU stretched the lead to 10-3 when Jarrett Lee connected with Brandon LaFell on a 38-yard TD pass at the 1:55 mark in the first quarter. After pulling to within 10-6 at the 5:39 mark on another field goal, the Bulldogs took the lead at halftime when Daniel Porter hit Dennis Morris on a 1-yard TD pass on fourth down as time expired in the first half. LSU regained the lead, 17-13, on a 3-yard run by Williams at the 6:59 mark in the third quarter. Williams extended the lead to 24-13 on a 9-yard TD run with 7:01 left in the contest. Tech added a late field goal for the final margin of 24-16. Lee, filling in for an injured Jefferson at quarterback, connected on 7-of-22 passes for 105 yards and one score for the Tigers. Defensively, Perry Riley led the Tigers with 14 tackles, while Jacob Cutrera added 11. As a unit, LSU recorded five sacks and had a total of 10 tackles for losses.

LSU Rally Falls Short At Ole Miss, 25-23

A late fourth quarter rally by LSU fell just seconds short as the Tigers dropped a 25-23 decision to Ole Miss in Oxford. Trailing 25-17 after an Ole Miss field goal with just over three minutes left in the contest, the Tigers went 65-yards on 10-plays, capped with a 25-yard TD pass from Jordan Jefferson to Rueben Randle to pull to within 25-23 with 1:17 left in the game. LSU missed the 2-point conversion which would have tied the score. LSU regained possession of the ball when Brandon LaFell recovered the onside kick at its own 42-yard line giving the Tigers one final chance at victory. A 26-yard completion from Jefferson to LaFell got the ball to the Ole Miss 32-yard line with just over 30 seconds left. However, the next three plays resulted in a combined 16-yard loss, leaving the Tigers with a fourth-down at the Ole Miss 48-yard line with just nine seconds left. On the fourth down play, Jefferson hit Terrence Toliver on a 43-yard pass to the Ole Miss 5-yard with just one second left. Out of time outs, the clock expired and Ole Miss held on for the victory. The Tigers led 17-15 at halftime after Patrick Peterson returned a block field goal 53-yards for a touchdown and Randle scored on a 17-yard pass from Jefferson finished with 250 passing yards and a pair of TDs, while Keiland Williams led the ground game with 40 yards before breaking his ankle late in the fourth quarter.

Jasper Kicks LSU Past Arkansas In Overtime, 33-30

Josh Jasper kicked a 41-yard field goal with four seconds left in regulation to send the game into overtime and he then clinched the victory for the Tigers with a 36-yarder during the extra period as the Tigers used a last-minute rally to come-from-behind and beat Arkansas, 33-30, in the regular-season finale. After spotting Arkansas an early 3-0 lead, LSU led the rest of the way before Arkansas took a 30-27 lead with just over a minute left in the contest on a 14-yard TD pass from Ryan Mallett to Joe Adams. LSU quarterback Jordan Jefferson responded by guiding LSU on an 8-play, 41-yard drive capped with Jasper's 41-yard field goal with four seconds left to tie the game at 30-30. LSU won the contest when Arkansas kicker Alex Tejada sent his overtime kick wide right. LSU jumped out to a 17-6 halftime lead thanks in part to an 87-yard punt return by Trindon Holliday. The Tigers led 24-13 midway through the third quarter following a Jefferson-to-Deangelo Peterson TD pass. Arkansas cut the deficit to 24-23 early in the fourth quarter before a Jasper field goal extended the LSU advantage to 27-23. The Razorbacks then responded with a drive to regain the lead at 30-27, setting up Jefferson's last-minute drive. Playing without its top three running backs, LSU still rushed for 147 yards, led by Holliday's 57 yards. Jefferson threw for 179 yards and a pair of touchdowns. Harry Coleman paced the LSU defense with nine tackles and a sack.

Late Penn State Field Goal Defeats Tigers, 19-17

No. 11 Penn State hit a game-winning 21-yard field goal with 57 seconds to play and time ran out on No. 13 LSU as the Nittany Lions handed head coach Les Miles his first bowl loss at LSU, 19-17. The Tigers scored two touchdowns in 3:02 to overcome a 13-point deficit and take a 17-16 fourth-quarter lead. With 6:54 to play, Penn State answered with a 12-play, 65-yard drive that took 5:57 off the clock and regained the lead. After sputtering through the first half, LSU's offense found life in the second half with a pair of scores against the No. 4-ranked scoring defense in the NCAA. A 24-yard touchdown pass from Jordan Jefferson to wide receiver Brandon LaFell, a 1-yard touchdown run by running back Stevan Ridley and a pair of PAT's by Josh Jasper gave the Tigers their first lead with 12:49 left to play. LSU was outgained, 340-243. Jefferson was sacked twice while completing 13-of-24 passes for 202 yards and a touchdown. Wide receiver Terrence Toliver had 81 yards on six catches, while LaFell added five receptions for 87 yards. the Tigers had 41 yards rushing on 25 attempts including 17 sack yards. The longest run of the game was for 11 yards by Trindon Holliday. Chad Jones led the way defensively with eight tackles 2010 opponents in bold.

- * 1975 and 1976 games forfeited to LSU by NCAA
- 1 Formerly Southwestern Louisiana
- 2 Formerly Northeast Louisiana
- 3 Formerly Louisiana Normal

LSU's all-time record is 709-387-47. In addition to each of the opponents listed above, LSU has fashioned an 18-4 record against a group of opponents consisting of military and club teams, which balances the all time won-lost record with the aforementioned total.

TIGERS

End - 1935, 1936 Associated Press

The Tigers' first consensus All-American, Gaynell (Gus) Tinsley was a unanimous selection in both 1935 and 1936. He played both ways as an end and led LSU to two SEC titles and three Sugar Bowl appearances. After earning three letters with the Tigers from 1934-36. he went on to a successful NFL career where he was twice named an All-Pro selection while playing for the Chicago Cardinals. Tinsley later returned to LSU where he served as the Tigers' head coach from 1948-54. During the 1949 season he led LSU to an 8-2-0 season that included wins over the Southern, Southeastern and Southwest Conference champions and a Sugar Bowl tilt versus Oklahoma. He was a charter member of the LSU Athletics Hall of Fame.

Center - 1935, 1936 Helms Foundation

A three-year letterwinner for the Tigers (1934-36), Marvin (Moose) Stewart was selected to the Helms Foundation All-American team in 1935. Later named an All-SEC selection by the Associated Press in 1936, he helped the Tigers to back-to-back SEC titles in 1935 and 1936. Stewart was a charter member of the LSU Athletics Hall of

Ken Kavanaugh, Sr.

Associated Press

A standout receiver for the Tigers from 1937-39, Ken Kavanaugh, Sr., was selected as an All-American by the Associated Press and finished seventh in the Heisman balloting during his senior season. A two-time AP first-team All-SEC selection (1938-39), Kavanaugh was known for scoring all four touchdowns in the Tigers' 28-7 victory over Holy Cross in 1939. He went on to an outstanding professional career with the New York Giants, where he continued with the organization as a scout after his playing career. A superb athlete, Kavanaugh also enjoyed a brief stint in baseball's professional ranks after lettering on the diamond at LSU. His son, Ken. Jr., lettered at LSU from 1969-71 as a receiver on the football team.

George Tarasovic

National Editorial Alliance

George Tarasovic was a junior college transfer who, although playing and lettering only one year at LSU, was named both an All-America and All-SEC selection that season. An all-around athlete in high school, Tarasovic's college career was abbreviated because of military service during the Korean War. However, after returning from the service Tarasovic resumed his playing career at the professional level where he saw over a dozen years of action in NFL and AFL.

Sid Fournet

Tackle - 1954 Associated Press, UPI, Look, Football Writers Association of America, National Editorial Alliance, Williamson, INS

An extremely durable performer, Sid Fournet played guard and tackle on both sides of the ball. Earning All-America distinction in 1954, Fournet was credited with seeing action in 83 percent of the Tigers' total plays that season. Also a two-time first-team All-SEC selection, he was honored by both AP and UPI in 1953 and 1954.

Football Writers Association of Viewed as one of the most complete football players to have ever played the game, Jimmy Taylor was named a All-American by the Football Writers Association of America-Look in 1957. Voted the MVP of the 1958 Senior Bowl, he went on to a legendary pro career with the Green Bay Packers (1958-66) and New Orleans Saints (1967) and was later inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1976. Taylor is also a member of the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame and the LSU Athletics Hall of Fame.

Billy Cannon

Halfback - 1958, 1959 1959 Heisman Trophy

Associated Press (1958-59), UPI (1958-59), National Editorial Alliance (1958-59), Central Press (1958-59), American Football Coaches Association (1958-59), The Sporting News (1958-59), Football Writers Association of America-Look (1958-59), New York Daily News (1958-59), NBC (1958-59), Time (1958), Leahy (1958), Hearst (1959).

The greatest football player ever to don the Purple and Gold, Billy Cannon was awarded the Heisman Trophy in 1959. He was given virtually every honor that could be bestowed on an individual, including All-America accolades in 1958 and 1959. Cannon was considered almost as valuable on defense as he was on offense. His 89-yard punt return in 1959 against Ole Miss has become a gridiron legend, but few remember that he and Warren Rabb stuffed Ole Miss at the goal line of a fourth and inches to preserve the dramatic 7-3 victory. A three-year letterwinner for the Tigers (1957-59), he was also a two-time first-team All-SEC selection (1958-59).

Max Fugler

Center - 1958 Football Writers Association of America-Look,

A bulwark for the White Team, Max Fugler was instrumental in the Tigers' 1958 national championship run. Named an All-American by the Football Writers Association of America-Look and NRC that same year he was heralded as an outstanding blocker on offense and incomparable down lineman on defense. His defensive work was exemplified by the number of goal line and fourth down stands the Tigers had during the glory years of 1958 and 1959. He was also named a first-team All-SEC selection by UPI in 1958.

Roy (Moonie) Winston

Associated Press, UPI, National Editorial Alliance, Central Press, Football Writers Association of America Look, Kodak/American Football Coaches Association, New York Daily News, The Sporting News, Time

A 1961 All-America selection at guard, Roy (Moonie) Winston excelled on defense with a strong initial charge, plus speed and agility. Soft-spoken, Winston was a born leader that was elected by his teammates as the Tigers' team captain in 1961. Winston also earned first-team All-SEC honors from the AP and UPI that same year. In addition, he played on LSU's SEC champion baseball team in the early 1960's before enioving a brilliant NFL career in Minnesota.

TIGERS

Fred Miller

Tackle - 1962 All America Organization

A stellar lineman for the great LSU teams of the early 1960s, Fred Miller originally signed with Tulane after finishing at Homer High School, but he found out he was one English credit short, so he was bound for Texas A&M until Paul Dietzel sold his family on LSU. He played alongside Moonie Winston in 1961 and was a blocker for Heisman runner-up Jerry Stovall in 1962. In his three seasons, LSU played in two bowls, the Orange (25-7 over Colorado) and Cotton (13-0 over Texas). He was drafted by the Colts and later earned All-Pro honors. He is a member of LSU's Modern Day Team of the Century.

Jerry Stovall

Halfhack - 1962

Associated Press, UPI, National Editorial Alliance, Central Press, Football Writers Association of America Look, Kodak/American Football Coaches Association, New York Daily News, The Sporting News. Time. CBS

Ironically, Jerry Stovall was the last recruit signed by LSU after he graduated from high school. Once with the Tigers he earned All-America accolades and finished second in the 1962 Heisman Trophy balloting. Also a two-time All-SEC selection, Stovall went on to play nine seasons with the St. Louis Cardinals before becoming an assistant coach at South Carolina. He later returned to LSU as assistant coach and was named head coach after tragic death of Bo Rein in 1980. He took LSU to 1983 Orange Bowl and was named National Coach of the Year by the Walter Camp Football Foundation after the 1982 season

Billy Truax

End - 1963 Football News

Billy Truax was an excellent blocker, but LSU's offense in that era was geared towards the run and, consequently, his talents as a pass receiver were never exploited. Football News honored him as an All-American in 1963, the same year the UPI recognized him as a first-team all-conference honoree. Truax's son, Chris, was an offensive lineman at LSU from 1988-91.

Remi Prudhomme

National Editorial Alliance, New York Daily News, Football News

A stalwart of the Chinese Bandits, Remi Prudhomme was an unusually strong player. His size and weight made him unique and his aggressive temperament was ideal for the role in which he was cast. Named a 1964 All-American by the National Editorial Alliance, the New York Daily News and the Football News, he also garnered all-conference honors from the UPI. Prudhomme went on to a brilliant pro career with the Buffalo Bills, Kansas City Chiefs and New Orleans Saints.

Doug Moreau's pass-catching ability was heralded, but his place kicking had to be recognized. In his junior season, his talented toe was responsible for the first two victories of the year, a 9-6 win over the Texas Aggies and 3-0 victory against Rice. The AP named him a first-team All-SEC pick in 1964 before he earned All-America honors from the Football News in 1965. Moreau went on to play professional ball with the Miami Dolphins, earned a law degree and served as a district judge in Baton Rouge. He currently works as the city's District Attorney.

George Rice

Tackle - 1965 Time, The Sporting News

A local lad, George Rice's prowess in high school overlapped three sports: football, basketball and track. Extremely powerful, his specialty in track was the shot put. On the gridiron he was a devastating blocker and tackler who played in three bowl games during his career. Rice was named a first-team All-SEC selection by UPI in 1964 and an All-American by Time and The Sporting News a year later. He participated in the Hula Bowl and went on to a long, successful career in the NFL before returning to LSU as a graduate assistant.

Kodak/American Football Coaches Association

An incredible athlete whose talents typified his play and teamwork, John Garlington had excellent speed and lateral pursuit. Opponents were timid when it came to attacking his side of the defensive line. Even with his size, he was a speed merchant. In the 1966 Rice encounter, Garlington picked off an errant pass and returned it 42 yards for a touchdown. A 1967 Kodak/AFCA All-American, he was also a two-time first-team All-SEC selection (1966 and 1967).

George Bevan

Football Writers Association of America-Look, Kodak/ American Football Coaches Association

Possibly the finest all-around linebacker ever to play at LSU, George Bevan's size had absolutely nothing to do with his desire, competitiveness, leadership and commitment. In the first game of his junior year, he injured his Achilles tendon to such an extent that he underwent several surgeries and spent 32 months on crutches. There was little hope he would ever play football again, but by the summer of 1969, his determination had earned him a starting role. Although Bevan had many notable moments, his blocked extra point against Auburn in the classic 21-20 victory by LSU had to be his crowning achievement. He was named both an All-America and All-SEC (AP and UPI) selection in 1969. Bevan earned his law degree and works as an attorney in Baton Rouge.

Tommy Casanova

Cornerback - 1969, 1970, 1971 Associated Press (1969-70), Kodak/American Football Coaches Association (1969-70), UPI (1971), Central Press (1971). Football Writers Association of America (1971). Walter Camp (1971), Football News (1971), Time (1971)

Versatility personified might be the best description of the myriad talents of Tommy Casanova. During his three-year LSU career, he played offense and defense, returned punts and kickoffs, and did everything except handle the water cart. A fearless competitor, he led the team by example through three brilliant seasons and entered immortality as a result of his actions, both on and off the field. A three-time All-American. Casanova is one of just six three-time All-SEC performers in LSU history (1969-70-71). Following his collegiate career, Casanova played several seasons with the Cincinnati Bengals while pursuing his medical degree. He is now is an ophthalmologist in his hometown of Crowley. La.

Associated Press, UPI, Central Press, Football Writers Association of America-Look, Kodak/American Football Coaches Association, Football News, Time

Mike Anderson started every game during his three years as a linebacker at LSU. In fact, he was the second of three straight All-America linebackers produced by the Tigers: George Bevan in 1969; Anderson in 1970; and Warren Capone in 1973. Anderson was noted for one great play -- at Auburn in 1970, LSU was leading 17-9, the Plainsmen had the ball, fourth and one inch and 6-2, 225-pound fullback Wallace Clark drove for the TD. Anderson met him head-on short of pay dirt and his feat became that of which legends are made. Named an All-American in 1970, he was also recognized as a first-team All-SEC pick by the AP and UPI that same year.

REVIEW

Ronnie Estay

Tackle - 1971 Kodak/American Football Coaches Association

One of the quickest defensive linemen ever to play at LSU, Ronnie Estay, a true Cajun, anchored a defense that allowed fewest yards in the nation. During his junior year, he tackled both quarterbacks Pat Sullivan of Auburn and Archie Manning of Ole Miss for safeties. In 1971, he was recognized as a Kodak/AFCA All-American as well as a first-team All-SEC selection by the AP and UPI.

Bert Jones

UPI, National Editorial Alliance, Kodak/American Football Coaches Association, Time, The Sporting News

Bert Jones possessed as strong an arm as any quarterback in college history. He finished fourth in the balloting for the 1972 Heisman Trophy, won an SEC title as a sophomore and played in three bowl games while compiling a 26-6-1 career mark. He started only two games prior to the next-to-last game of his junior season, but started every one after that. Jones' most notable feats came against Notre Dame in 1971 (28-8), and Ole Miss in 1972 when, with time expired, he threw a touchdown pass to Brad Davis for the 17-16 LSU victory. A 1972 All-American and first-team All-SEC selection, he was the first pick in 1973 NFL draft by Baltimore Colts.

Warren Capone

Football Writers Association of America (1972-73), Kodak/ American Football Coaches Association (1973)

Warren Capone was another in the long line of Baton Rouge natives who starred at LSU. He played in the Sun, Bluebonnet and Orange Bowls during his years as a starting linebacker. For his efforts, he was named an All-American in 1972 and 1973 as well as first-team All-SEC by the AP in 1972 and both the AP and UPI in 1973. Capone played for Birmingham in the World Football League and the Dallas Cowboys in the Super Bowl. He is the past president of the National

Tyler LaFauci

Associated Press, National Editorial Alliance, Walter Camp

During Tyler LaFauci's three-year career, LSU compiled a 27-8-1 mark and participated in three bowl games: Sun, Bluebonnet and Orange. His lack of height didn't inhibit his determination and competitiveness as he excelled both as a pass blocker and a pulling blocker. A 1973 All-American, he was also a first-team All-SEC pick as voted on by the AP and UPI that year. Also a brilliant student, LaFauci went on to postgraduate work and earned a physical therapist degree, a profession he practices in Baton Rouge.

Mike Williams

Kodak/American Football Coaches Association, The Sporting News, Time

Feisty, aggressive, determined and unvielding; those were the adjectives that best described the play of Mike Williams. Named Sports Illustrated's Back-of-the-Week for his play against Kentucky in 1973, he was also named an All-American by Kodak/AFCA, The Sporting News and Time during the 1974 season.

UPI (1977), Kodak/American Football Coaches Association (1977-78), Football Writers Association of America (1977-78), Walter Camp (1977-78), The Sporting News (1978), National Editorial Alliance (1978)

At the end of a stellar career that included a pair of All-America and All-SEC (AP and UPI) honors, Charles Alexander's name sat atop nine SEC categories, tied for another conference mark and topped 27 LSU records. In two bowl games, he was responsible for 330 yards. Alexander still holds the school records for most rushes in a game (43), most yards in a season (1686) and most yards gained per game in a season (153.3). He was drafted in first round by Cincinnati and played in the Super Bowl.

Robert Dugas

Offensive Tackle - 1978 Football News

Suffice it to say, Robert Dugas' academic prowess surpassed his athletic ability, which was considerable. He was a member of the self-named "Root Hogs" which cleared the way for many of Charles Alexander's record setting performances. Dugas was named to the Football News' All-America team in 1978, the CoSIDA Academic All-America Team in 1977 and to All-SEC teams both in 1977 and 1978.

James Britt Cornerback - 1982

Cornerback - 1982 National Editorial Alliance

After three seasons, James Britt appeared ready to blossom. But in the second game of the 1981 season against Notre Dame, he intercepted a pass to set up a field goal, and a few minutes later, a broken arm ended his year. He went on to have an outstanding senior season in 1982 that was capped with All-America honors from the National Editorial Alliance. Britt was a second-round pick by the Atlanta Falcons and played there several years before entering a successful business career in the Georgia capital. Named an Academic All-American by CoSIDA in 1982, he was also a first-team All-SEC pick by the AP in 1982.

Albert Richardson

Linebacker - 1982

Albert Richardson still holds the LSU records for most tackles in a game (21 vs. South Carolina, 1982) and a career (952) and for 21 years, he also held LSU's single-season record for tackles (150, 1981). Named an All-American by the Football News in 1982, Richardson was also selected as a first-team All-SEC performer by the AP and UPI that same year. His genes fitted him for a role in football as his father, Albert, Sr., was a Baton Rouge High School assistant coach.

Split End - 1983 The Sporting News

A converted running back, Eric Martin compiled a brilliant record during his four years in varsity competition. At one time he was the school record holder in season (52) and career (105) receptions, yards in a single game (209) and most yards in a season (1,064). At the conclusion of his career he was second only to former teammate Wendell Davis in career receiving yards in the SEC. As a freshman, he was second in the nation in kickoff returns, a total that included a 100-yarder for a touchdown against Kentucky. A 1983 Sporting News All-American, he was also a two-time first-team All-SEC selection. He was inducted into the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame in 2006.

Lance Smith

Offensive Tackle - 1984 UPI, Kodak/American Football Coaches Association, Football News

Lance Smith's size and quickness ideally suited him as he was named to the SEC All-Freshman team. Smith matured both physically and emotionally during his first two years in Tigertown and was strong as a bull by the time his junior season came around. He earned All-America honors from UPI, Kodak/AFCA and Football News in 1984, in addition to first-team All-SEC honors from the AP and UPI. Later, a third round choice by Phoenix, Smith quickly earned a starting role with the Cardinals.

Michael Brooks

Linebacker - 1985 Associated Press, Scripps-Howard News Service

Michael Brooks stepped in from the very first game and showed his potential. His impressive play on the field earned him All-America honors as a junior and it was thought he would be a cinch to become one of the few two-time All-Americans in LSU history. But a knee injury in the Florida game sidelined Brooks for the remainder of the season. He was named first-team All-SEC in 1985 by the AP, UPI and SEC Coaches. The Denver Broncos drafted him in the third round.

Wendell Davis

Split End - 1986, 1987 Football Writers Association of America

986-87), The Sporting News (1986-87), Washington Post (1986), College and Pro Football Newsweekly (1986), UPI (1987), Kodak/American Football Coaches Association (1987), Football News (1987), Scripps-Howard News

> One of the most prolific receivers in LSU history, two-time All-American Wendall Davis had 100 or more receiving yards in 12 games during his career. He finished his career with a then SEC record 2,708 yards receiving, a mark that still ranks second in LSU history and ninth in SEC history. Davis also still ranks among the top 10 in the SEC in single season receiving yards (1,244), single season receptions (80) and career receptions (183). He was also named a first-team All-SEC pick by the AP, UPI and SEC Coaches in 1987 and 1988 and was later drafted by the Chicago Bears.

Nacho Albergamo

Center - 1987

Associated Press, UPI, Walter Camp, Kodak/American Football Coaches Association, Football Writers Association of America, The Sporting News, Football News, Scripps-Howard News Service

Nacho Albergamo was LSU's most decorated player in 1987. Along with guard Eric Andolsek, they comprised LSU's "A" team which anchored the fearsome Tiger offensive line that helped pave the way to a school record 4,843 offensive yards. Also a quality student, Albergamo was named the 1987 Toyota Leader of the Year and was one of 11 recipients of the 1987 National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame Schola-Athlete awards. He was twice named an Academic All-American by CoSIDA (1986 and 1987). Also a member of Omicron Delta Kappa leadership fraternity, he maintained a near 3.5 GPA in pre-med/zoology and attended LSU Medical School. Albergamo was also named a first-team All-SEC selection by the AP, UPI and SEC Coaches in 1987. He is currently a doctor of internal medicine in Baton Rouge.

Greg Jackson

Gannett News Service

Greg Jackson led the nation in interception return yardage in 1988 after tying the NCAA record with a 100-yard return versus Mississippi State and later adding a 71-yard return for a TD against Tulane. Jackson's 219 interception return yards for the season have only ever been exceeded once in SEC history, by Mississippi's Joe Brodsky's 244 yards in 1956. He also returned punts for LSU, taking back 11 for 99 yards in 1988. Named first-team All-SEC by the AP and SEC Coaches, he was later drafted by the New York Giants.

Kevin Faulk

All-Purpose - 1996 Associated Press

ISII's all-time leading rusher and a three-time All-SEC choice Kevin Faulk led the SEC in all-purpose yards and ranked No. 2 in the league in rushing as a sophomore. Named an AP All-American as an all-purpose player that year, his 246 yards in the season opener against Houston set an LSU single-game record. Faulk was a consensus AII-SEC choice in 1996, 1997 and 1998, and the SEC Freshman Offensive Player of the Year in 1995. He led the SEC in rushing during both his junior and senior seasons and also topped the league in scoring as a senior. He was selected by the New England Patriots in the 1999 NFL draft and was a member of their 2002, 2004 and 2005 Super Bowl Champion teams.

David LaFleur

Tight End - 1996 Walter Camp

An imposing figure who was both a punishing blocker and a fine pass catcher, David LaFleur helped lead a resurgence of LSU football in the 1990s. The Tigers' receptions leader as a senior in 1996, he earned All-America honors from the Walter Camp Foundation that same year and was named All-SEC during both his sophomore and senior seasons. He finished his career with 71 catches for 881 yards and five touchdowns, but he was also instrumental in LSU's place as the top rushing team in the SEC in 1996 because of his blocking abilities. Following his graduation from LSU, he was chosen in the first round of the NFL draft by the Dallas Cowhovs.

Alan Faneca

Associated Press, Football Writers Association of America Walter Camp, The Football News, The Sporting News

A dominating run blocker, Alan Faneca was the first Outland Trophy finalist in LSU history and LSU's first winner of the Jacobs Trophy (given to the best blocker in the SEC) since 1978. Faneca, a 1997 All-America selection, anchored a heralded offensive line that helped pace LSU to SEC rushing titles in 1996 and 1997. Following his junior season, Faneca chose to enter the NFL draft where he was selected in the first round by Pittsburgh and went on to win the 2007 Super Bowl with the Steelers.

Chad Kessler

contract with Tampa Bay out of LSU and then decided to pursue a career in medicine. He is now a doctor of Otolaryngology in Charlotte, N.C.

American Football Coaches Association

An All-American and two-time All-SEC center, Todd McClure also served as LSU's offensive team cantain. The Tigers' starting center beginning midway through his freshman year, LSU rolled to a 25-12 record with McClure as a starter. He played an integral role in LSU's team rushing in 1996 and 1997. McClure was selected by the Atlanta Falcons in the 1999 NFL Draft.

Anthony McFarland

Noseguard - 1998 Associated Press, The Football News

colorful linemen in 1998 Anthony McFarland earned All-America honors from the Associated Press and Football News that year. A four-year starter and a defensive co-captain as a senior, he finished his career ranked sixth in LSII history in quarterback sacks with 17. He was a first-team All-SEC pick as a senior, a secondteam selection as a sonhomore, the Defensive MVP of the 1996 Peach Bowl and the 1995 SEC Freshman Co-Defensive Player of the Year. McFarland was drafted as the 15th overall pick in the 1999 NFL Draft by

Iosh Reed

Wide Receiver - 2001 Walter Camp, Associated Press, Football Writer's Association, American Football Coaches Association, The Sporting News, ABC Sports online, SportsIllustrated.com

Josh Reed re-wrote both the LSU and SEC record books in 2001 as he caught a school-record 94 passes for an SEC-record 1,740 yards on his way to becoming a consensus first-team All-American. Reed led the nation in both receiving yards and yards per game. Reed, who won the Biletnikoff Award as a junior in 2001, wrapped up his career as the SEC's all-time leader in receiving yards. In his final game in an LSU uniform. Reed set Sugar Bowl records with 14 receptions for 239 yards and a pair of touchdowns in the Tigers' 47-34 victory over Illinois. Reed capped his career by setting 17 school, SEC or Sugar Bowl records as a junior. He was drafted by the Buffalo Bills in the second round.

Bradie James

Linebacker - 2002 American Football Coaches Association, The Sporting News, CBS Sportsline

Bradie James capped his career as one of the most outstanding student-athletes in LSU football history. As a senior in 2002, James earned first-team All-America honors and was named a National Scholar-Athlete by the National Football Foundation. He finished his career ranked second in LSU history with 418 tackles, which included a school-record

154 in 2002. James earned first-team All-SEC honors twice and was also named the Defensive MVP of the 2000 Peach Bowl. He was drafted by the Dallas Cowboys in the fourth round.

Stephen Peterman

Offensive Guard - 2003 SportsIllustrated.com, ESPN.com, The Sporting News

One of the nation's top offensive linemen as a senior in 2003, Stephen Peterman put the finishing touches on his LSU career - SportsIllustrated.com, ESPN.com and The Sporting News. A three-year starter on the offensive line, Peterman played in 48 games, including 29 starts. In a season that culminated with LSU winning the national title. Peterman allowed only one sack while being whistled for just nine penalties in all of 2003. He was drafted in the third round by the Dallas Cowboys.

Defensive Tackle - 2003 Walter Camp, Associated Press, Football Writer's Association of America, SportsIllustrated.com, ESPN. com, The Sporting News

The anchor on the LSU defense in 2003, Chad Lavalais was the driving defensive force behind the Tigers' run to the 2003 BCS National Championship. Lavalais, a finalist for both the Nagurski and Outland Awards, earned first-team All-America honors from six publications, while also being named the SEC's Defensive Player of the Year by the league's coaches. Lavalais earned National Defensive Player of the Year honors from The Sporting News after leading an LSU defense that ranked first in the country in scoring and total defense. He went on to be drafted in the fifth round by the Atlanta Falcons.

Skyler Green

Return Specialist - 2003. 2005 SportsIllustrated.com, ESPN.com (2003), Rivals.com (2005)

The first punt Skyler Green returned in college resulted in a 62-yard touchdown against Arizona in week two of the 2003 season. By the time Green's career had come to an end, he had set an LSU record by returning four punts for touchdowns on his way to earning first-team All-America honors in both 2003 and 2005. Green led the nation in punt returns as a sophomore in 2003 with an 18.5 average. For his career, Green finished first in LSU history in punts returned for a TD (4) and second in punt return yards (1,064). He was drafted in the fourth round by the Dallas Cowboys.

Cornerback - 2003, 2004 American Football Coaches Association (2003-04), The Sporting News (2004)

One of the nation's top cover cornerbacks as a junior and senior, Corey Webster became LSU's first two-time first-team All-American since Wendell Davis in 1986-87. Webster capped his career in 2004 by earning first-team All-America honors from the American Football Coaches Association and The Sporting News. As a senior, Webster recorded 33 tackles and two interceptions for the nation's No.

3 rated defense. Originally signed as a wide receiver, the switch to the secondary prior to his sophomore season. Webster tied an LSU single-game record with three interceptions against Florida in 2002 and he holds the school record in passes defended with 49. He was drafted in the second round by the New York Giants and picked off the final pass of Brett Favre's career to secure the NFC Championship Game win on the way to capturing a Super Bowl ring with the Giants.

Webster played his first season with the Tigers on offense before making

Marcus Spears Defensive End - 2004

Walter Camp, Associated Press, American Football Coaches Association

Marcus Spears capped his LSU career in grand fashion, earning first-team All-America honors from the Walter Camp Foundation, the Associated Press and the American Football Coaches Association in 2004. As a senior, Spears led a Tiger defense that ranked No. 3 in the nation with 17 tackles for losses and nine sacks. He also recorded 49 tackles for LSU in 2004 and returned an interception 35 yards for a touchdown. Spears' LSU career concluded with 19 sacks, which ranks fifth in school history, and 34.5 tackles for loss, which ranks seventh at the school. He was the 20th overall pick by the Dallas Cowboys.

Ben Wilkerson

American Football Coaches Association, The Sporting News

A starter at center for the best four-year stretch in school history, Ben Wilkerson capped his career with the Tigers by earning first-team All-America honors in 2004 from both the American Football Coaches Association and The Sporting News. In addition to his All-America honors, Wilkerson was also named the co-recipient of the Rimington Trophy, which is presented annually to the top center in college football. Wilkerson did all of this as a senior despite having his final season with the Tigers cut short due to a knee injury. In four years with the Tigers, Wilkerson was a mainstay on the offensive line, helping LSU to a 33-8 mark in his 41 career starts at center.

National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete Award

In 1959, The National Football Foundation unveiled an entirely new concept in college football -- it's National Scholar-Athlete program. In the history of American sports, this was the first time an organization honored football players, not only for their athletic ability, but also for their academic and civic leadership. The Foundation's National Scholar-Athlete Awards program consists of graduate fellowships that are awarded on an annual basis to a select group of college football players in their senior year of eligibility who have demonstrated outstanding academic success, exemplary community leadership and superior football performance. LSU has had seven players named as a National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete, including Rudy Niswanger, who claimed the 2005 Draddy Trophy, which goes to college football's most outstanding student-athlete.

The LSU Athletics Hall of Fame showcases the finest student-athletes and coaches to wear the Purple and Gold. To be eligible for the LSU Hall of Fame in the Athlete category, an individual must have earned a college degree and gained national distinction through superlative performance. Hall of Fame candidates must also have established a personal reputation for character and citizenship.

To be eligible in the Coach/Administrator category, the individual must have made significant contributions to LSU Athletics and gained national distinction through exceptional accomplishments in his or her field of expertise while establishing an image that reflects favorably upon the University.

The LSU Athletics Hall of Fame presently includes 117 members, which includes the latest Class of 2010: football defensive back James Britt, golfer Jenny Lidback, equipment manager Jeff Boss, head football coach and athletic director Paul Dietzel and head women's basketball coach Sue Gunter. Boss and Gunter were inducted posthumously.

James Britt, a first-team All-American defensive back in 1982, stands with Sam Nader, LSU's director of football operations at the LSU Athletics Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony on April 24, 2010. Britt became the 54th former football player to be enshrined in the Hall of Fame.

Nominations

Nominations for the LSU Athletics Hall of Fame are accepted each fall. Nomination forms may be obtained by calling (225) 578-3600, or may be downloaded at LSUsports.net/ nominations Hearing those words from public address announcer Dan Borne' as the Tigers enter the stadium brings chills to even the casual LSU football fan and sends shivers to those on the opposing sideline. Seven days a year, Tiger Stadium becomes the fifth largest city in the state of Louisiana as over 92,000 fans pack the cathedral of college football to watch the Tigers play.

For LSU fans, there's nothing better than spending a night in Tiger Stadium. LSU home

No Place Like Home

LSU enters the 2010 season having won 37 of its last 42 games in Tiger Stadium, a stretch that dates back to the start of the 2004 season and includes wins over eight top 25 teams. The Tigers won a school-record 19 straight home games from Oct. 15, 2005, through Nov. 10, 2007. LSU is 60-11 at home since the 2000 season -- including perfect home records of 7-0 in 2004 and 8-0 in 2006. Only twice since 2000 have the Tigers lost more than one home game as LSU dropped two games in Tiger Stadium in 2001 and three in 2008. LSU was 6-1 at home in 2009 with its only loss coming to top-ranked Florida on Oct. 10.

LSU averaged over 92,000 fans for the fourth straight year in 2009, as an average 92,489 spectators (647,420 total) piled into Tiger Stadium to see the Tigers play. That was the second highest average in the history of the storied venue. LSU set the single-season average attendance mark during the 2007 national championship campaign with 92,619 fans per contest. In 2008, LSU shattered its total attendance per a season when 739,065 fans witnessed a total of eight home games.

From 2003-07, LSU ranked sixth in the nation in average attendance. During the 2008-09 seasons, the Tigers were seventh in national attendance figures.

On Nov. 8, 2008, LSU eclipsed the 93,000-fan mark for the first time in school history when 93,039 spectators welcomed back former coach Nick Saban and top-ranked Alabama. LSU fell to the Crimson Tide, 27-21 in overtime, in what was then the most to ever see a game in Tiger Stadium. That mark fell in 2009 when once again the nation's top-ranked team, the Florida Gators, played under the football games are events talked about year round and happenings in Tiger Stadium are passed down from generation to generation.

For opponents, however, it's another story as Tiger Stadium is an intimidating venue that has been called one of the most dreaded road playing sites in all of college football. Seating 92,400 fans and nicknamed "Death Valley," poll after poll has proclaimed Tiger Stadium as one of the greatest sites anywhere for a college football game.

lights on Oct. 10. A school-record 93,039 fans watched Florida defeat LSU. 13-3.

The Tigers posted a 6-1 home mark during their 2007 national championship season, including a thrilling 28-24 victory on Oct. 6 over Florida that was played before a crowd of 92,910 and a national primetime audience on CBS.

The 2005 season saw Tiger Stadium play host to its first Monday night game as LSU dropped an overtime thriller to Tennessee after the game was postponed two days due to Hurricane Rita. The LSU-Tennessee contest was the mostwatched college football game in the history of ESPN2 as 2.77 million homes tuned in.

Due to the devastation to New Orleans and the Louisiana Superdome by Hurricane Katrina, Tiger Stadium served as the playing site for four New Orleans Saints games in 2005, as well as hosting the Tulane-Southeastern Louisiana contest. In all, 11 games (seven NCAA and four NFL) were played in Tiger Stadium during the 2005 season.

Part of the lore of Tiger Stadium is the tradition of playing games at night, an idea that was introduced in 1931 against Spring Hill (a 35-0 LSU victory). In 2006, LSU celebrated its 75th year of playing night football in Tiger Stadium. Since that first night game in 1931, LSU has played the majority of its games at night and the Tigers have fared much better under the lights than during the day. Since 1960, LSU is 215-60-4 (.778) at night in Tiger Stadium compared to a 21-26-3 (.450) record during the day over that span. Since 2000, LSU is 51-5 in night games and head coach Les Miles is 24-1 in night games in Death Valley. CBSSports.com's Dennis Dodd wrote in Oct. 2009 of LSU's fabled night history,

TIGERS

"Dracula and LSU Football are at their best after the sun goes down"

"It has turned the knees of All-Americans to goo. It has caused coaches to lose their coaching minds. It only happens at a special space at a special time. LSU can be up, LSU can be down, but LSU's best weapon remains ... sunset."

LSU has averaged 76,410 spectators for each of its 334 battles in Tiger Stadium since the NCAA began compiling official attendance figures in 1957. Since the start of the NCAA's attendance compilations, LSU has finished in the nation's top 10 in average attendance in 46 of the past 52 seasons. The Tigers have drawn 25,521,020 fans since 1957. LSU passed the 25,000,000-mark in all-time attendance in 2009.

Tiger Stadium first opened its gates to fans in the fall of 1924 as LSU hosted Tulane in the season finale. Beginning with that first game in Tiger Stadium, LSU has posted a 372-143-18 (.713) mark in Death Valley. LSU's overall home record since the start of football in 1893 is 452-164-19 (.725).

Testimonials

Tiger Stadium tradition and lore has seen its share of national publicity as one of the most talked about venues in all of sports.

In 1998, Sport Magazine named Tiger Stadium "the most feared road playing site in America," and in 1996, ESPN named LSU's pre-game party the best in all of America. Those surveys supported the previous polls by Gannett News Service in 1995, The Sporting News in 1989 and the College Football Association in 1987, that depict Tiger Stadium as the most difficult place for a visiting team to play.

Sports Illustrated's Rick Reilly, in a column comparing college football to professional football, penned that "College football is LSU's Tiger Stadium at night." ESPN's Chris Fowler called LSU his favorite gameday experience in the Sports Illustrated's On Campus issue in 2003.

In 2002, after a 33-10 nonconference win over Miami (Ohio), UM coach Terry Hoeppner said of Tiger Stadium, "that's as exciting an environment as you can have. I thought the crowd was a factor for us because we had communication problems we haven't had at Michigan and Ohio State."

After a victory before a national television audience on ESPN in 2001, ESPN sideline reporter Adrian Karsten said, "Death Valley in Baton Rouge is the loudest stadium I've ever been in. There are very few stadiums in America worth a touchdown, but the Bayou Bengals certainly have that advantage in Tiger Stadium."

In 2005, ESPN.com ranked Tiger Stadium as the second toughest venue for an opposing team in all of sports. In 2007, the acclaim continued when The Bleacher Report ranked "Death Valley" as the third toughest venue in the world to play in. LSU's run to a national title and record crowds led ESPN.com to proclaim Tiger Stadium as "The Scariest Place to Play in America" for an opposing team in a list of stadium rankings.

Wright Thompson of ESPN.com wrote in 2008, "It was electric. When Death Valley is rocking, it seems as if it might actually take flight. On Saturday, I went back to Baton Rouge to see Alabama barely beat LSU, and was, once again, reminded that Tiger Stadium is the best place in the world to watch a sporting event."

The stadium's sheer noise and tradition has carried into a new decade. In 2010, The Sporting News proclaimed Tiger tailgating and "Saturday Night in Death Valley" as the top gameday tradition in all of college football.

Great Moments

The 2007 national championship season featured some of Tiger Stadium's most exciting moments, including a 28-24 win over Florida on Oct. 6. Top-ranked LSU overcame a 10-point fourth-quarter deficit to beat the ninth-ranked Gators in front of 92,910 fans - then the largest crowd in stadium history - and a primetime CBS national television audience. Just two weeks later, Matt Flynn connected with Demetrius Byrd on a 22-yard TD pass with one second remaining to give LSU a 30-24 victory over Auburn in a game televised by ESPN. LSU rallied from deficits of 17-7 at halftime and 24-23 with three minutes left in the contest to capture the electrifying win.

Though already considered one of the most raucous stadiums in all of college football, the 2003 season saw Tiger Stadium take it to another level during LSU's national title run, as the team, along with the fans, captivated the national media almost on a weekly basis. CBS televised Matt Mauck's last-minute game-winning pass to Skyler Green against Georgia before a crowd of 92,251, while ESPN was on hand for a dominating 31-7 victory over Auburn. The Tigers closed out the 2003 home slate with a 55-24 win over Arkansas before what was then the second-largest crowd in school history (92,213). The contest was televised to a national audience by CBS and the win propelled LSU to the SEC Championship Game.

In 2001, the Tigers clinched a berth in their first SEC Championship Game with a 27-14 victory over Auburn in the season finale in Tiger Stadium. After the contest, thousands of Tiger fans spilled onto the stadium floor to celebrate the victory. The Auburn game was traditionally played earlier in the season, but the attacks of September 11 postponed the contest until the final week of the regular season.

In 2000, the goal posts came down twice. Immediately after the Tigers upset then-No. 11 ranked Tennessee 38-31 in overtime, the capacity crowd of 91,682 flowed onto the field of Tiger Stadium to celebrate the victory. Hundreds of students lined the sidelines and the back of the north end zone as the Tigers held the Vols scoreless in overtime for the victory. The goal posts came down again in the final home game of the 2000 season as the Tigers posted a 30-28 win over Alabama, their first victory over the Crimson Tide in Tiger Stadium since 1969.

INTRO ONLY ONE LSU TIGERS COACHES REVIEW HISTORY LSU / 2010 LSU FOOTBALL MEDIA GUIDE 189

Tiger Stadium played host to its first-ever major concert in May 2009. Bayou Country Superfest, a two-day festival, featured over 45,000 fans on consecutive nights to watch Kenny Chesney, Taylor Swift, Keith Urban and Brooks & Dunn perform.

The goal posts came down for the first time in 1997 as all of America witnessed one of the most explosive nights in the history of the grand stadium when the Tigers upended No. 1-ranked Florida before a national television audience. A sea of Tiger fans swamped the floor of Tiger Stadium as both goal posts came crashing down -- a scene that was replayed countless times on college football highlight shows.

Perhaps the most famous moment in Death Valley history took place on "The Night The Tigers Moved the Earth," Oct. 8, 1988. When Tiger quarterback Tommy Hodson threw to Eddie Fuller for a winning touchdown against Auburn, the explosion of the crowd was so thunderous that it caused an earth tremor that registered on a seismograph meter in LSU's Geology Department across campus.

Then there was the night the Tigers nearly upset No. 1-ranked Southern Cal before a sellout crowd on Sept. 28, 1979. The Tigers came up short, but the crowd roared from kickoff to final gun in a game many ardent LSU followers rank as the loudest in stadium history.

And of course there was Halloween night 1959, when Billy Cannon made his famous 89-yard punt return to lead No. 1 LSU past No. 3 Ole Miss. Legend has it that families living near the campus lakes came running out of their homes in fear of the noise erupting around them

Those are the highlights, some of which have shaped the character of this great stadium. But week in and week out each fall, a new chapter unfolds in the history of Death Valley.

History

The home of one of football's proudest traditions, Tiger Stadium once served as a dormitory for approximately 1,500 students, and while Broussard Hall, then LSU's athletics dormitory, was being renovated during the fall of 1986, the LSU football players lived in Tiger Stadium.

The original phase of construction was completed in 1924. This first phase included the east and west stands, which seated about 12,000. Seven years later (1931), the sides were extended upward to accommodate an additional 10,000 fans, raising the capacity to 22,000. In 1936, the stadium seating capacity was increased to 46,000, with the addition of 24,000 seats in the north end, making Tiger Stadium into a horseshoe configuration.

The next phase of construction took place in 1953 when the stadium's south end was closed to turn the horseshoe into a bowl, increasing the seating capacity to 67,720.

The original upper deck atop the west stands was completed in 1978, and it added 8,000 seats to the stadium's capacity. Additional seating in two club level sections, which flanked the existing press box, brought the total addition to approximately 10,000 seats and raised the stadium's capacity to approximately 78,000.

Refurbishing began on the stadium in the summer of 1985, when the east and west stands were waterproofed, and 25,000 chair back seats were added to replace the older "bench" type seats. Another phase of improvements was completed in 1987 when the north and south stands were waterproofed and newer bleachers were again installed to replace the older ones.

The playing field was moved 11 feet south in 1986 to provide more room between the back line of the North End Zone and the curvature of the stadium fence, which surrounds the field. It also put the playing area in the exact center of the arena's grassy surface.

Prior to the 1987 season, more seats were installed at the upper portion of the west lower stands in Tiger Stadium. Also, the stadium's seating arrangement was renumbered to make all seats a uniform size. The addition of bleacher seating in 1988 brought the capacity to 80,150, but the elimination of some bleacher seating after the 1994 season dropped the capacity to 80,000.

Now the seventh-largest on-campus stadium in college football, Tiger Stadium continues to provide fans with the ultimate college football experience. Eleven years ago, 11,600 seats were added with the installation of the east upper deck, bringing the capacity to nearly 92,000. In addition to the new east upper deck, 70 skyboxes, called "Tiger Dens," were built, giving Tiger fans luxury accommodations. The addition of the 11,600 seats in 2000 marked the first expansion to Tiger Stadium since 1978, when the original west upper deck was completed.

The distinctive environment of Tiger Stadium became even more pronounced in 2005 as the ambitious West Upper Deck project was virtually completed. Construction on the project -- which began immediately after LSU's home finale against Ole Miss in November of 2004 - carried a $60 million price tag and rebuilt over 3,200 special amenity seats as a well as a state-of-the-art press box to Tiger Stadium. The west side renovation, which included the removal and rebuilding of the upper deck to mirror the east side upper deck, was finished during the 2006 season.

In 2009, major technological advances were made when Tiger Stadium added an 80-foot wide high-definition video board to the north endzone of the facility. Called one of the largest video boards in all of college athletics, the HD board measures 27-feet high and 80-feet wide.

Future renovations call for an improvement to the area surrounding Tiger Stadium on North Stadium Drive. New state-of-the-art lighting, landscaping, and a complete overhaul of the face on Tiger Stadium are in the works.

Billy Cannon • HB

1959 HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER

Even by today's standards Billy Cannon was a rare athlete, combining sprinter speed with brute strength. Cannon could consistently run a 9.5 in the 100-yard dash and, at 6-1, 210 pounds, he had the size to overpower his opponents as well as outrun them. In 1957, he was an immediate standout as a sophomore, offensively and defensively.

As a junior, Cannon was the driving force behind the Fighting Tigers as they carved out a perfect season and captured the 1958 national championship. He passed for a touchdown and kicked the extra point in LSU's 7-0 win over Clemson in the Sugar Bowl, and earned MVP honors.

Cannon's most memorable performance came in 1959 against Ole Miss. Top-ranked LSU trailed the third-ranked Rebels 3-0 early in the fourth quarter, when Cannon fielded a punt at the LSU 11-yard-line and broke seven tackles on his way to paydirt. LSU won the contest 7-3. Considered one of the best collegiate backs of his era, Cannon was awarded the Heisman Trophy at the conclusion of the 1959 season. In 2008, the legendary Cannon was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame.

Glenn Dorsey became the most decorated defender in school history as he won four national awards on his way to leading LSU to the national title. As a senior, Dorsey captured the Lombardi, Outland, Nagurski, and Lott Awards, becoming the first player in LSU history to win any of these honors.

A tremendous team leader, Dorsey was also named the SEC Defensive Player of the Year in 2007 as well as earning first-team All-America honors for a second straight-season. Dorsey, who opted to return to LSU for his senior season despite being projected as a first-round NFL Draft pick following his junior campaign, was taken with the fifth overall pick in the 2008 NFL Draft.

He finished his career playing in 52 games, starting 31 times. For his career, Dorsey registered 179 tackles, 27 tackles for loss and 13 sacks.

INTRO ONLY ONE LSU TIGERS COACHES REVIEW HISTORY LSU 2010 LSU FOOTBALL MEDIA GUIDE

2001 BILETNIKOFF AWARD WINNER

When one thinks of some of the finest players in the history of the Southeastern Conference, Josh Reed's name is included on that list. Reed, who is one of the most decorated players in school history, virtually re-wrote both the LSU and SEC receiving record books despite playing only 28 games at wide receiver.

Originally signed out of Rayne (La.) High School as a tailback, Reed moved to wide receiver in week 9 of the 1999 season out of a necessity. The results were immediate as he caught five passes for 100 yards against Houston in just his second game at the position.

A year later, in 2000, Reed earned first-team All-SEC honors after catching 65 passes for 1,127 yards and 10 touchdowns for the 8-4 Tigers. His 102.5 yards receiving a contest led the SEC and he ranked second in the league with just under six catches a game.

Reed put together the finest year for a receiver in SEC history in 2001 as he shattered the league's single-season yardage mark with 1,740 yards on a school-record 94 catches. Reed set a pair of league marks in a 35-21 road victory over Alabama as he hauled in 19 passes for 293 yards and a touchdown. He capped his record-setting career in grand fashion, setting a pair of Sugar Bowl records with 14 receptions for 239 yards and two touchdowns in leading the Tigers to a 47-34 victory over Illinois.

At the conclusion of his junior season, Reed was named the winner of the Biletnikoff Award, which is presented annually to the nation's top collegiate receiver. Reed was drafted with the fourth pick of the second round of the 2002

Ben Wilkerson • C

2004 RIMINGTON AWARD WINNER

Ben Wilkerson put together one of the best careers for a center in LSU history, leading the Tigers to a 33-8 mark in 41 starts at the position during his four years. During his career with the Tigers, Wilkerson helped lead LSU to a pair of SEC Championships as well as the 2003 BCS National Championship.

Wilkerson, a native of Hemphill, Texas, had his career cut short as a senior, suffering a knee injury during the eighth week of the season. Despite the injury, Wilkerson still went on to be named the co-recipient, along with David Baas of Michigan, of the Rimington Trophy in 2004, which goes annually to college football's top center. In addition, Wilkerson was named a First-Team All-American by the American Football Coaches Association and The Sporting News even though he missed LSU's final four games of the season.

Wilkerson graduated with a degree in general studies in May of 2005. He is a graduate assistant on the current LSU staff.

and McWhorter Scholar-Athlete Award, center Rudy Niswanger became the most decorated student-athlete in school history.

In addition, Niswanger became the inaugural recipient of the Wuerffel Trophy, which goes to the college football player who best combines exemplary community service with outstanding academic and athletic achievement. The award is named after former Heisman Trophy winner Danny Wuerffel, who led the Florida Gators to the 1996 national championship. Niswanger capped his career with the Tigers by being named the recipient of the McWhorter Award, which goes to the top student-athlete in the SEC.

Niswanger, who opted to return to LSU for his senior season of football in 2005, graduated with a 4.0 grade point average in kinesiology with emphasis on pre-medicine. He graduated with honors, receiving the University Medal as well as graduating Summa Cum Laude. Niswanger was accepted to LSU Medical School in Shreveport after scoring a 33 on the MCAT, which placed him among the top eight percent in the nation.

Dr. Michael V. Martin

Chancellor, LSU

Dr. Michael V. Martin assumed the chancellorship of Louisiana State University and A&M College on August 1, 2008. Prior to his appointment as LSU's eighth chancellor, Dr. Martin established a distinguished career in higher education, serving most recently as president of New Mexico State University.

Before arriving at NMSU in 2004, Dr. Martin served for six years as vice president for agriculture and natural resources at the University of Florida, leading the university's Institute of Food and Agricultural Sciences. He was elevated to senior vice president of the University of Florida shortly before being selected as NMSU's president. Previously, he was vice president for agricultural policy and the dean of the College of Agricultural, Food and Environmental Sciences at the University of Minnesota. He began his academic career at Oregon State University as a faculty member in the Department of Agricultural and Resource Economics.

An academic leader dedicated to the land-grant mission, Dr. Martin is recognized as a strong voice for higher education. In 2007, he received the Justin Smith Morrill Memorial Award, named after the author of the bill creating land-grant universities, which honors outstanding service on behalf of the land-grant mission. Only six individuals have been designated to receive this award since it was first given in 1980. For his leadership in improving the quality of life for New Mexico citizens and future generations, he was awarded the 2008 Distinguished Leadership Award by Leadership New

Other recent awards include his recognition as a powerbroker by The New Mexico Business Weekly in 2006, being named Outstanding Alumnus of Minnesota State University Mankato in 2006, and receiving the NMSU Social Justice Award in 2005.

Dr. Martin is involved in a wide array of professional and community organizations and activities. An active scholar, Dr. Martin has authored numerous book chapters and articles for academic journals, trade publications, and the popular press and recently published pieces for The Chronicle of Higher Education and University Business.

Some of his philosophy is summed up in the following quote: "It is the tradition of land-grant universities to be non-traditional," written as part of a 2001 article titled "The Land-Grant University in the 21st Century," published in the Journal of Agricultural and Applied Economics. He traced the history of the land-grant movement from the mid-1800s and concluded that "the fundamental landgrant principles of accessibility, practical as well as classical education, research and discovery in the public interest, and connectedness to all the people remain powerful and profound."

A native of Crosby, Minn., Dr. Martin earned a bachelor's degree in business and economics and a master's degree in economics at Mankato State College (Minnesota State University) in Minnesota. He received his Ph.D. in applied economics from the University of Minnesota in 1977.

Dr. Martin and his wife, Jan, have two children, both adopted from South Korea. Amanda, a graduate of the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire, is a graphic artist in Saint Paul, Minn. Sam, who holds a bachelor's degree from the University of Minnesota and a master's from Sarah Lawrence College, is a genetics counselor at Beth Israel Hospital in New York City.

Dr. Michael V. Martin speaks at the opening of the New Alex Box Stadium on February 20, 2009.

Dydia DeLyser

Faculty Athletics Representative

Dydia DeLyser, an associate professor in the Department of Geography and Anthropology, serves in her fifth year as LSU's Faculty Athletics Representative.

DeLyser, a native of Santa Monica, Calif., earned her bachelor's degree in 1992 from UCLA, and her master's and doctoral degrees from Syracuse University (in 1996 and 1998).

DeLyser arrived at LSU in August 1998 as an Instructor before becoming an assistant professor one year later. She was promoted to associate professor with tenure in August 2005.

DeLyser is a cultural-historical geographer. Her research has been both ethnographic and historical, and most of it questions how different built landscapes can help make the past meaningful in the present.

Much of her published research has focused on two different studies. One was a many-year ethnographic study of a ghost town in California (Bodie State Historic Park) where she examined how images and ideas about the American mythic West became meaningful to the tourists who visited the town. The second was an historical study that examined a 19th century novel (Ramona) and how it changed the way people understood (and still understand) southern California's past.

Her current research concerns early women aviators and how they used their practices of flying to advance feminism in the post-suffrage era.

DeLyser teaches graduate courses in cultural geography, qualitative research, and academic and professional writing. She has also taught undergraduate courses in cultural, and urban geography, and an introductory world-regional geography course.

DeLyser is a first-generation American -- her parents were Dutch immigrants and English is her second language. She also has language abilities in Russian and Spanish.

DeLyser's hobbies include driving/riding antique cars and motorcycles. She is also a licensed pilot and co-owns a Citabria, which is a two-place aerobatic airplane.

Joe Alleva

LSU Vice-Chancellor/Director of Athletics

Joe Alleva enters his third year as LSU's Vice Chancellor and Director of Athletics after being hired to lead one of the nation's most powerful athletic programs on April 4, 2008. Alleva joined LSU after 10 years of outstanding leadership as the director of athletics at Duke University. He officially took over at LSU on July 1, 2008.

The LSU Board of Supervisors approved a promotion in August 2009 for Alleva, adding vice chancellor to his title and expanding his role to the academic side of the university. It's the first time at LSU that the director of athletics has also held a vice chancellor position.

"I am honored to be named vice chancellor at this outstanding institution and thank Chancellor (Michael) Martin, President (John) Lombardi and the Board of Supervisors for the confidence they have shown in me," Alleva said. "Athletics is the window through which many people view LSU and it is important that we excel in competition and in the classroom while demonstrating the utmost of integrity. I believe my promotion ties athletics closer to the university and that is a good thing for everyone; we are all on the same team."

Under Alleva's guidance, LSU has reached new heights in terms of athletic success while continuing to be recognized as one of the top enterprises in college athletics.

A veteran leader in college athletics, Alleva is dedicated to athletic and academic excellence. He is committed to providing the opportunities and the resources necessary for student-athletes to excel in competition, in the classroom and in the community.

Alleva, 57, is well-respected for sustaining high standards of excellence and integrity in athletic programs, hiring the finest coaches in the country and the high level of success achieved by student-athletes.

One of Alleva's big initiatives on the LSU campus is the launching of a strategic plan for the continued success and future improvement of LSU Athletics.

LSU Athletics has produced a new booklet called "LSU: Thru and True" designed to introduce a strategic plan for operating a top tier athletics program. The strategic plan booklet is titled "LSU: Thru and True" because, in the words of Alleva, "Our core values run deep and our commitment to excellence is relentless. At LSU, college athletics is an avenue for providing opportunities, for achieving goals, for generating enthusiasm and for nurturing passion." The subtitle of the booklet is "Excellence in Competition, Distinction in the Classroom, and Contribution to the Community." The strategic plan addresses various topics including quality of life for student-athletes; academic and athletic excellence; compliance and ethics; financial responsibility; diversity, inclusion and equity; tradition and history, and service and communication.

The plan also includes a vision for the future of LSU athletics facilities, highlighted by plans to improve North Stadium Drive between Tiger Stadium and the Pete Maravich Assembly Center.

Alleva is an innovator with bold ideas that benefit not only LSU but all of Greater Baton Rouge. Alleva was heavily involved in the planning of the inaugural Bayou Country Superfest, a two-day country music concert and festival held in Tiger Stadium last spring. The event attracted nearly 100,000 visitors to the LSU campus and made a tremendous economic impact upon the local community.

Seventeen of LSU's 20 sports programs participated in post-season competition in 2009-10, including the Tiger football squad that played in a bowl game for the 10th straight season. Six LSU teams posted Top 10 national finishes last season, and 12 were ranked among the Top

25. LSU finished in the Top 20 of the Learfield Director's Cup rankings, which measure overall athletic success for institutions across the country.

Under Alleva's direction in 2008-09, all 20 LSU sports competed in NCAA post-season play for the first time in school history, and it culminated with the baseball team winning the national championship. In addition, six teams finished in the top 10 nationally. LSU was the only school in the Southeastern Conference to participate in a bowl game and the men's and women's NCAA basketball tournaments during 2008-09. Furthermore, LSU student-athletes volunteered a total of 2,360 hours for community service projects.

LSU earned a ninth place ranking in the 2008-09 Learfield Director's Cup, as the Tigers were second only to Florida among SEC institutions. LSU accumulated points in 18 of a possible 20 categories in the standings, also a first for the school.

Upon being hired at LSU, Alleva immediately made an impact by hiring Trent Johnson to lead the men's basketball program. Johnson, the 2009 SEC Coach of the Year, wasted little time in turning the Tigers into a winner as LSU claimed the 2009 SEC regular season title and reached the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

LSU also had top 10 national finishes in 2008-09 in gymnastics, men's and women's indoor track and field and men's and women's outdoor track and field. Thirteen of LSU's 20 sports finished the year ranked among the top 25 in the nation

The Tiger football team capped their 2008 season with a 38-3 win over 14th-ranked Georgia Tech in the Chick-fil-A Bowl. During the offseason, Alleva helped secure the funding necessary for the addition of a state-of-the-art artificial turf practice field, which complements the surface the Tigers have in their indoor practice facility. The addition of the outdoor artificial turf field gives the LSU football program one of the nation's finest all-around facilities.

Not only did LSU teams set records but so did the fans, as over 1.5 million fans filled venues on the LSU campus in 2008-09. LSU set the school record for overall attendance in the sports of football. baseball. and softball.

Alleva oversaw in the spring of 2009 the grand opening of two of the premier baseball and softball facilities in college athletics, Alex Box Stadium and Tiger Park.

In addition, LSU opened a new gift center for its fans – the LSU SportShop. The LSU SportShop, a spectacular, free-standing facility that features the latest in LSU apparel and merchandise, is located adjacent to Mike's Habitat.

Under Alleva's guidance, LSU has one of the most lucrative apparel and shoe contracts with Nike while also having one of the nation's most attractive multi-media rights contracts with CBS Collegiate Sports Properties. LSU athletic budget is now approaching $85 million, which allows the university to compete at the highest level in the nation.

Alleva has a long-term vision for continued improvements to LSU's athletic facilities in order to insure that the Tigers are among the best in the country well into the 21st Century. One of his top priorities is the enhancement of Tiger Stadium and making Tiger Stadium and the North Stadium Drive corridor a showplace for the university. Alleva's innovative plan is to make a plaza area between the Maravich Assembly Center and Tiger Stadium that would recognize LSU's national championship teams and distinguished alumni. This special area, along with Mike's Habitat, and the LSU SportShop, would become the focal point for visitors to campus.

LSU opened in the spring of 2010 a basketball practice facility that houses both the men's and women's basketball teams. The new basketball practice facility features two full length courts as well as locker rooms and other amenities for both souads.

Alleva is also overseeing a major renovation to the golf course at the University Club that will be completed in September 2010, and he is developing plans for a new gymnastics practice facility, indoor tennis center and improved soccer facility. LSU's world-renowned track and field program will receive a state-of the-art running surface this year when a new track is installed in Bernie Moore Stadium.

"Joe Alleva brings a wealth of experience and accomplishment to LSU," LSU President John Lombardi said of hiring Alleva. "I'm confident we've found a new leader for LSU athletics who exemplifies the vision and integrity needed to lead our sports programs to new heights, a champion of student athletes who believes in the highest standards of competition both on the field and in the classroom."

Alleva's impressive tenure as director of athletics at Duke propelled the university into the ranks of America's top all-around collegiate programs. Among his outstanding list of accomplishments includes the greatest 10-year period in Duke athletics, winning more ACC and NCAA championships than in any other decade in school history.

Also, his fundraising reached extensive heights providing new facilities or renovations for all 26 sports at Duke, which enhanced the experience for every studentables.

Alleva is active on the national collegiate athletics scene, having served on the Football Bowl Certification Committee. He sat on several Atlantic Coast Conference committees and served on the NCAA Division I Championships/Competition Cabinet.

Alleva majored in Finance at Lehigh University and received his bachelor's degree in 1975. While at Lehigh, Alleva was the quarterback of the football team and team captain in 1974. Alleva also played on the Lehigh baseball team. He served as a graduate assistant football coach and earned an MBA in 1976.

Alleva began his 32-year career at Duke University in 1976. He spent 28 years in the athletic administration prior to becoming director of athletics in 1998.

Alleva played a key role in Durham's community sports scene. He started Little League Baseball in Durham over 20 years ago, and also began the American Legion baseball program

Alleva is a member of the North Carolina American Legion Hall of Fame, Suffern High School Hall of Fame and the Rockland County Hall of Fame.

He currently serves on the Louisiana State Board of the Special Olympics.

Senior Associate AD/Operations

A former LSU football standout, Verge Ausberry joined the athletics administrative staff in August 2001 as the Associate Athletics Director for Operations. He was appointed to the position of Senior Associate Athletics Director in May 2006.

Ausberry supervises and is responsible for football operations, football scheduling and new projects. He also oversees the LSU men's and women's track and field programs, the equipment staff, the strength and conditioning staff, the Dr. Martin Broussard training room, the video department and football game management.

Ausberry, from New Iberia, La., played inside linebacker for the Tigers, lettering in 1986-89. He was part of two SEC championship teams, playing on teams that went to four bowl games.

Before joining the LSU athletic administration, he was very closely involved in the athletic program, first serving for almost seven years as a member of LSU's highly regarded Academic Center for Athletes.

After leaving the Academic Center, he moved in July 1999 to the Tiger Athletic Foundation staff as part of LSU's fundraising arm.

Ausberry received his Bachelor of Science degree in education in May of 1990, his Master of Education degree in administration, supervision and certification in child welfare in May of 1992 and his specialist in higher education administration in 2004. He is presently a doctoral candidate in higher education administration at LSU. He is married to the former Cheri Morial of New Orleans and they have two boys, Austin and Jaiden.

Miriam Segar Senior Associate AD/Senior Woman Administrator

Former LSU women's basketball player Miriam Segar has been a part of the athletics administration since June of 1995 and was most recently named Senior Associate AD and the department's Senior Woman Administrator after having served as Associate Athletics Director for Student Services since April 2007. She had served as Assistant Athletics Director since 2004.

As LSU's Senior Woman Administrator, Segar's responsibilities include oversight of the highly successful Tiger Olympic Sports program including 17 men's and women's sports. Segar began her administrative career at LSU as the compliance coordinator where she served for three years. Following that, in 1998, Segar was named the director of the CHAMPS/Life Skills Program where she worked until 2001 when she became the Director of Student Services.

While working with CHAMPS/Life Skills, Segar guided the program to the Division I Athletic Directors Program of Excellence Award in 2001.

Prior to returning to her alma mater, Segar spent one year at the SEC office as the championships assistant and the officiating assistant, assisting in the management of all SEC championships and tournaments and the coordination of women's basketball officials.

Segar, the 2006 Athletic Department Female Alumnus of the Year, was a three-year captain for the Lady Tigers basketball team and received four letters from 1990 to 1994. She earned the 1994 NCAA Post-graduate Scholarship and was a member of the 1994 NCAA All-Academic team.

Segar and her husband Jamie have four children -- Grant, Reid, Maggie and Hayes.

Mark Ewing

Senior Associate AD/Business

Mark Ewing, a 26-year employee of Louisiana State University, joined the Athletics Department in January 2001, and serves as the department's Senior Associate Athletics Director for Business.

Ewing is responsible for the athletic business operations including budget, travel, personnel and purchasing as well as responsibility for concession operations. He also handles financial forecasting and management of facility maintenance operations.

Ewing came to athletics from LSU's Office of Budget and Planning. He served as LSU's Budget Director overseeing the development and management of the university's $360 million operating budget.

Prior to his service at LSU, he was employed by Cajun Electric Power Cooperative where he managed accounting for the company's $2 billion plus construction division.

Ewing, who is a native of Pointe Coupee Parish, received a bachelor's degree in finance from LSU in 1978 and a master's degree in public administration from LSU in 1995

Ewing and his wife, Gail, have three daughters, Andrea, Arleen and Molly Sue.

Associate Vice-Chancellor for University Relations Senior Associate AD/External Affairs

Herb Vincent serves in the dual position of Senior Associate Athletic Director for External Affairs in the athletic department and Associate Vice Chancellor for University Relations. He was appointed Senior Associate AD in May of 2006 and assumed the additional duties of oversight of University Relations in August of 2009.

Vincent manages communications and serves as the primary public relations officer for the University and all its entities. In his role in athletics, he supervises the sports information office and marketing and promotions office, serves as the primary liaison with LSU Sports Properties, and is the department administrator for the sport of baseball.

Vincent was the LSU sports information director from July 1988 to July 2000. During that time he was named Assistant AD in November of 1989, and then was elevated to Associate AD for Communications in 1992.

In August of 2000 Vincent became Vice President for Communications for the College Sports Southeast regional cable network, headquartered in Birmingham, Ala., before returning to LSU in 2002.

He earned a bachelor's degree in journalism from LSU in 1983 and worked as a student assistant in the sports information office directed by CoSIDA Hall of Famer Paul Manasseh during his undergraduate years.

After graduating from LSU, Vincent spent the 1984 season as assistant public relations director for the United States Football League's New Orleans Breakers. In 1985, he was assistant PR director for the USFL's Los Angeles Express and was promoted during the season to the public relations staff's top position.

Vincent also served one year as assistant SID and publications director at Louisiana-Lafayette and two years as assistant director of public relations for the Southeastern Conference prior to joining LSU in 1988.

Vincent is the author of a book on the history of LSU football, "The LSU Football Vault." He is married to the former Jamey Cavacini of Versailles, Ky., and they have one daughter, Kennedy.

Sr. Associate AD/Compliance and Planning

Returning in 2009 to serve the department in the Compliance Office, Bahnsen is once again proving to be a very versatile member of the athletic department.

Before moving back to Compliance, Bahnsen served the previous five years, in a valuable role as Associate Athletics Director for Internal Relations, overseeing the ticket office and

Bahnsen oversees the Pete Maravich Assembly Center and game management for all sports except football.

Prior to December of 2003, Bahnsen's primary responsibility for the previous 14 years was to serve as LSU's NCAA compliance officer.

Bahnsen served as manager of the LSU basketball team as an undergraduate at LSU. In 1982, he became the administrative assistant for the men's basketball team, where he worked for five years before moving into athletics administration as director of purchasing and travel for two years.

In July 1987, he became administrative assistant to Athletics Director Joe Dean, overseeing the purchasing office and departmental travel operations until his promotion in 1989. In 1989, he was assigned his primary responsibility as NCAA compliance officer as assistant athletics director, and then was promoted to associate AD in 1996.

Bahnsen has been responsible for overseeing the successful implementation of LSU's Tradition Fund Program, a football-seating plan that requires contributions for the right to purchase approximately 45,000 seats in Tiger Stadium. In 2009, he helped organize the highly successful LSU celebration of the 100th anniversary of the Men's Basketball Program.

A native of Wharton, Texas, Bahnsen attended Wharton County Junior College for two years before transferring to LSU in 1979. He earned his Bachelor of Science degree in physical education.

Bahnsen, 50, is married to the former Karen Mayson, a former LSU golfer and current head coach of the Lady Tigers golf program. The couple has two children, Darren and Devin.

Eddie Nunez

Sr. Associate AD/Operations, Project Development

Eddie Nunez joined the Athletics Department in October 2003 as the Director of Game and Event Management and was promoted to Associate Athletics Director for Operations and Project Development in June of 2007.

Nunez's responsibilities include oversight of the men's basketball program, men's tennis program and the women's tennis program. He supervises the Game/Event Management department as well as directs all capital project for the athletic department. Under his guidance, the athletic department has experienced over $180 million dollars in renovations and construction of athletic facility projects. Most recently this included the renovations of the Maravich Center, the construction of the new baseball and softball stadiums, the LSU SportShop and the new Basketball Practice Facility.

Nunez was the Department's coordinator in the TAF construction of the West Side addition to Tiger Stadium and the new football operations center and also represents the athletics department on various University and community committees.

Nunez came to LSU after two years as the Director of Game and Event Management at Vanderbilt. Prior to that, Nunez served as men's basketball administrative assistant at Marquette University for one year and two years as men's basketball graduate assistant and head equipment manager for coach Billy Donovan at the University of Florida. He also played two seasons on the Florida basketball team in 1997 and 1998.

The native of Miami, Fla., received his associate degree in arts and architecture from Miami-Dade Community College in 1995, his bachelor's in sports management from the University of Florida in 1998 and his masters in sports administration from Florida in 2000. He is married to the former Jane Hess and the couple have a daughter, Elizabeth Kendall Nunez.

Ronnie Haliburton

Sr. Associate AD/Athletic Facility Management

Ronnie Haliburton, who served as director of facility services in the LSU Athletics Department for three years, was promoted to Associate Athletics Director for Athletic Facility Management in March 2007.

Haliburton came to the athletics department in December of 2003 from LSU's facility maintenance department, where he served as manager for five years. He was responsible for the overall management of custodial operations, special events crews, stock room inventory and equipment repair.

Haliburton played as a tight end for the LSU football team from 1986-89, and was a member of two Southeastern Conference championship teams. He later played for the Denver Broncos for three years.

He first joined LSU in an administrative capacity in 1994 as resident assistant of Broussard Hall, then the school's athletic dormitory, before moving to the weight room as a student assistant strength coach.

Haliburton became a resident manager in 1996 before being named coordinator of residence life later that year. In 1998, he became Manager of Facility Maintenance at LSU.

Brian Broussard

Assistant AD/Director of Ticket Operations

A 13-year veteran of the Athletics Department, including nine years as ticket manager, Brian Broussard was promoted to Assistant Athletics Director for Ticket Operations in July 2007.

Broussard is responsible for revenue in excess of $40 million, which includes the management of ticket and parking sales and renewals for all sports, as well as Tradition Fund donations for football and baseball. Additionally, he assists Mark Ewing with the Tiger Gift Center and Tiger Concessions.

Broussard began at LSU in August 1996 as an assistant ticket manager responsible for men's basketball sales and the day-to-day operations of ticket office. In March 2000, he was promoted to ticket manager, becoming responsible for the ticketing in all sports.

Prior to joining the LSU staff, Broussard was the ticket manager at Northwestern State in 1996. He worked as a promotions assistant at the University of Miami in 1995 and was the gameday club manager for the New Orleans Saints in 1994.

The Gretna native earned his bachelor's degree in political science from LSU in 1993. He is married to the former Aimee Hodges of Alexandria.

Craig Pintens
Assistant AD/Marketing

Craig Pintens is in his second year at LSU and serves as the Assistant Athletic Director of Marketing. Pintens comes from Marquette University where he served as the Associate Athletic Director of Marketing and Sales. While at Marquette, Pintens established attendance and revenue records in both men's and women's basketball ranking in the top ten nationally in men's basketball attendance.

Prior to Marquette, Pintens served as the Marketing Coordinator at the University of Texas-Pan American (UTPA), where he managed all sales, promotions, marketing and game day operations while serving as member of athletic department executive (senior) staff. Pintens was instrumental in record corporate sales numbers and successfully negotiated the first ever-Spanish radio broadcast of Bronc Athletics. Pintens has also worked with the Milwaukee Brewers, Beloit Snappers and the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater Athletic Department.

The National Association of Collegiate Marketing Administrators (NACMA) has honored Pintens with awards 15 times in the areas of season ticket campaigns, advertising, ticket sales, new media and corporate sponsorship.

Pintens received his Bachelor of Business Administration in Marketing cum laude from the University of Wisconsin at Whitewater and his Juris Doctor degree from the Marquette University School of Law. Pintens resides in Baton Rouge with his wife, Jill and their daughters Kaitlin and Avery and sons Jackson and Tate.

Credential and Access Guidelines For Media Covering LSU Athletics

LSU's goal is to disseminate information as widely. uniformly and fairly as possible using normally accepted media standards.

Media must meet the following guidelines in order to be granted credentials. Only media that meet the criteria and have approved the SEC Media Policy through the request of credentials on the LSU media site at LSUsports.net/media will be allowed to move forward on the credential site to request credentials and consideration for access to LSU Athletic events. No credential requests by media will be accepted by either email or phone, but must go through the credential site at LSUsports.net/media.

Past coverage and attendance at football games, football media luncheons, men's and women's basketball games, media sessions and baseball and softball games for the 2009-10 season will be taken into consideration for granting of credentials during the 2010-11 calendar year.

The number of credentials issued is limited by available resources. Due to space and facility restrictions, access, seat assignments in the press area as well as sideline photographer will be made on a space available basis. In some situations, pool reporting may be necessary.

General

Each Bearer must be and hereby represents that he or she is acting on a specific assignment for an accredited media agency and has a legitimate working function in connection with the Event attended. The credential is not transferable and may be revoked at

The rights and privileges granted to Bearer may be terminated if any term or condition for use of the Credential is breached. The unauthorized use of the Credential subjects the Bearer to ejection from the Event

While within the Event venue, Bearer shall, at all times, adhere to the policies in place for the Event, abide by and respect access limitations, and accept and follow directions provided by the SEC or the SEC member institution(s) hosting the Event.

Print

Daily newspapers are eligible to apply for credentials and access to media opportunities. The granting and number of credentials will be based on newspaper's circulation on a space available basis.

Weekly Louisiana newspapers must be current members of the Louisiana Press Association and those sports writers must be members of the Louisiana Sports Writers Association to request credentials. Weekly newspapers based on requests will be limited to non-conference games if space exists.

Specialty publications that cover college football or sports in the host site of the two participating schools are eligible to be granted on a space available basis.

Student newspapers from the city of the two teams are able to apply for credentials on the basis of a maximum of two press box seats for dailies and one press box seat for weeklies.

Television

Television stations that have nightly news broadcasts that originate in the locale of the station that includes sports coverage are eligible to apply for credentials. All other stations will be filled on a space available basis.

. Student television stations from the two participating schools are eligible to apply on a space available basis.

The Credential confers on Bearer a limited non-exclusive and non-transferable license (with no right of sublicense) to use broadcast video feeds of the Event only for regularly scheduled television newscasts aired only on television (but not on any form of television available or viewable on the internet, except for a single, non-archived only simulcast by Bearer) within the period expiring at midnight on the seventh day after the Event and NO video used for such purposes shall exceed three minutes. Bearer may not broadcast any video of game action that is broadcast live until the Event has been completed.

Radio

National and regional networks are eligible to apply for

Radio stations that employ a full-time sports director or regularly air sports news or locally-produced talk shows are eligible to apply for credentials. No talk show may have more than one credential and the maximum credentials a station may receive for a game, based on space availability, is two.

Unless short (10 to 30 second) live updates are allowed by the SEC or its member hosting the Event, radio stations that have not licensed rights to the Event shall not broadcast any report from the venue on a live basis or broadcast any live description of any Event while it is still in progress.

Internet sites of the home and visiting school (as determined by the Media Relations or Sports Information Director) are eligible to apply for credentials.

LSU's policy is to issue credentials only to those organizations whose primary purpose is to gather news and disseminating it and for which other commercial activities are ancillary.

Other internet sites from meet each of the following guidelines in addition to meeting the above criteria to be eligible to apply for credentials and access as determined on a space available basis.

- Web site must be a legal, corporate entity.
- Web site must provide daily coverage of LSU or the visiting team with its own full-time staff of reporters, photographers and equipment.
- Web site must travel to and cover a majority of away games and all major post-season events.
- Web site must be accredited by the home university as
- · Web sites that sponsor message boards, message centers or chat room as their primary function where people are allowed to post anonymous information will not be issued credentials.

. The maximum number of credentials that a web site may receive is two based on space available and the discretion of the media relations or sports information director.

Internet Use - Video and Audio

Upon execution of a separate agreement with terms and conditions governing the use thereof, Bearer will be afforded access to video and audio of broadcast Events for use on Bearer's official news website(s), at no premium or charge. Otherwise, except as specifically permitted herein (with respect to online, non-archived simulcasts), Bearer shall not post, place, distribute or make available video (or audio from broadcast feeds) of game action of any Event (including any Bearer Generated Video of game action of an Event) on or thorough the internet or any other new media distribution platform (i.e., any other platform other than print media or a form of television not available or viewable over the internet, except for non-archived simulcasts specifically permitted herein) including, without limitation, wireless handsets, podcasts, cell phones or PDAs.

Blogging

By acceptance and use of an LSU media credential, the holder agrees to the following conditions as established by LSU and the Southeastern Conference:

Blogging, including periodic updates of scores, statistics or other brief descriptions of the competition throughout the Event, is acceptable provided that the Bearer conforms to the blogging policies separately published by the SEC, as such policies may be revised from time to time. No Bearer may produce or disseminate in any form a "real-time" description or transmission of the Event in any manner that constitutes, or is intended to provide or is promoted or marketed as, a substitute for television or video coverage of such Event. Bearer agrees that the determination of whether a blog is a real-time description or transmission shall be made by the SEC in its reasonable discretion. If the SEC reasonably determines that a Bearer is producing a real-time description of the Event, the SEC reserves the right to pursue all available remedies against the Bearer and to revoke this Credential.

The blogging limitations for football as assigned by the SEC are three updates per quarter and one at halftime. No more than 10 still photographs may be used for news coverage of the game and other editorial purposes. Such still photograph must be used on a timedelayed basis.

Unauthorized Use of Credentials

Press credentials will be issued to working press only. Press credentials are not transferable and use by anyone other than members of the working media is unauthorized. Press credentials used in an unauthorized manner will be revoked immediately. News organizations allowing unauthorized individuals to use credentials will have their credentials revoked for the remainder of the year.

All press credentials remain the property of the LSU Athletics Department and must be returned on request.

Credential and Access Guidelines For Media Covering LSU Athletics

The entrance to the Tiger Stadium press box is located through the press elevator, located past Gate 5 on the southwest side of Tiger Stadium. The elevator will be in operation three hours prior to kickoff. Media Will Call and the Media Entrance to Tiger Stadium is located at the southwest corner of Tiger Stadium next to the Lawton Room and near the LSU Athletics Administration Building.

Radio/Television/Coaches

Located on the main press level, there is a primary live television broadcast booth and a booth available for tape-delay telecasts. This level also accommodates booths for both home and visiting radio crews and the LSU and visiting rnarhes' hooths

Photo Deck

This level offers space for network TV cameras and coaches' video crews. Due to lack of space on the photo deck, no video cameras will be allowed on the photo deck other than the originating network cameras, home and visitor coaches' video and scoreboard video cameras. Please contact Director of Television, Kevin Wagner, for setup information.

Sidelines

LSU follows NCAA and SEC rules regarding media representatives on the sidelines.

· Armbands must be worn on the arm - not on the leg or camera – in order to gain access to the field. All photographers/videographers on the sideline must be in a working capacity with equipment. Photographers are not permitted to shoot between the 25-yard lines and must wear armhands at all times. All photographers/ videographers on the sideline must kneel while play is in progress.

• No credentials will be issued to free lance photographers, cutline writers, equipment carriers or radio station representatives, except for the two teams' broadcast originating networks. Armbands will not be mailed or otherwise issued prior to gameday. Armbands must be picked up at Media Will Call, located at the south corner of the west side stands closest to the Athletics Administration Building, no earlier than three hours before kickoff. One armband will be issued ner nerson at the press gate and identification will be requested. Affiliate TV stations are not allowed the services of a grip and armbands will not be provided for them.

- Due to the space restrictions, those media wearing armbands will not have access to the press box at any time without other proper credentials. A box lunch will be served at ground level for photographers. No one under 18 years of age will be issued an armband for sideline access without prior approval of the SID
- · Photographers or videographers are considered working members of the media and they are to refrain from cheering or talking to players, coaches or officials.
- · Photographers needing to send photos from the stadium may do so at the LSU Photo Office, located in the northeast corner of Tiger Stadium, inside Gate 10. Photographers should contact Steve Franz, LSU Staff Photographer, for further information at 225-578-4193 or 225-571-3532 to reserve space.

Press Box

Tiger Stadium is equipped with power outlets at every seat with wireless Internet available throughout the press area and a limited number of Ethernet lines available. If a private telephone line is needed, call 1-800-238-5501. When ordering phone lines for the press box, the physical address for Tiger Stadium is 3800 Highland Road, Baton Rouge, La. 70803. Please allow two weeks for installation.

FAX service is also available. Quarterly playby-play, offensive and defensive statistics and quotes from players and coaches of both teams will be passed out as soon as they are compiled. The Les Miles press conference, and when possible and portions of the the visiting coach press conference will be played over the interior PA in the press box following the game.

Stats and play-by-play of LSU's games will be available on LSU's web site, www.LSUsports.net within minutes of the conclusion of the game.

Parking

Media parking is located in lots near Tiger Stadium. Because of limited space, requests for parking should be made with credential requests. It should not be assumed that parking passes will be provided with all media credentials. Due to construction in some parts of campus, media parking will be adjusted to different lots than in past years.

Pro Scouts

Due to severe space limitations, scouts of professional football teams are not issued press credentials. Tickets will be made available to pro scouts at regular price. Tickets should be requested two weeks prior to the date of the game to guarantee availability and should be requested through LSU Sports Information Administrative Secretary Pam LeBlanc at 225-

Satellite Trucks

TV stations must request satellite truck access and must have a truck in place at least five hours prior to kickoff. Any satellite truck arriving less than five hours prior to kickoff may be denied access to the stadium. Requests for parking area for satellite trucks must be made by noon on Wednesday prior to Saturday games and must be confirmed through Director of Television Kevin Wagner. No other vehicles will be allowed to park with the satellite truck and all credentials for personnel must be included in the online request.

Head Coach Les Miles

Request for interviews with Les Miles should be coordinated through SID Michael Bonnette at 225-578-8226 or mbonnet@lsu.edu.

· Coach Miles, besides his weekly press luncheon and after Wednesday practice, is also available hy request Tuesday through Friday during the season between 12:45 and 1:30 p.m. through Michael Bonnette

Practices

Practices are closed to the media once the regular season starts. Pre-season practices are open to the media during individual drills at the discretion of the head coach.

Plavers

All player interviews must be coordinated through the LSU Sports Information Office at least one day in advance. Player interviews will be held each Monday after Coach Miles' press luncheon at a time TBD and then following practice on Monday and Tuesday. All player interviews will be held at the Indoor Practice Facility.

- · Phone interviews should be requested through SID Michael Bonnette and Associate SID Bill
- · Players are available through Tuesday of game week. No player interviews will be conducted after Tuesday. Team locker rooms and apartments are off limits to media representatives at all times.

Postgame

LSU is committed to a policy of equal access for both male and female reporters and

• Les Miles will conduct his postgame news conference at home games approximately 10 minutes after the game in the Media Interview Room located just off the chute area leading to the LSU locker room.

- The LSU locker room is closed. Several players will be brought into the Media Interview Room following coach Miles' postgame news
- The opponents' coach will conduct his postgame news conference in the interview room located across from the visitors' locker room in the southeast portal of the stadium. TV lighting and adequate electrical outlets are available in the visitors' interview area.

Credentials

All credential requests should be made at LSU's on-line credentialing website: www.LSUsports. net/media. All requests should be made as early as possible and should be limited to working press only. The deadline for season credential requests is August 20. Individual game credentials must be requested two (2) weeks prior to the date of the game.

• The credential authorizes the use by an accredited organization for news coverage of the game. Any unauthorized use of credentials subjects the bear to ejection from the stadium and subjects the accredited organization to revocation of its credentials for future LSU athletic events.

FOOTBALL OPERATIONS CENTER

$15 Million • Fall 2005

The TAF built a stand-alone Football Operations Center to allow all the facets of the Tiger football program to be under one roof. The building includes locker rooms, meeting rooms, coaches offices, video operations, a training room and strength facility. Opened in fall of 2005.

Joining the Tiger Athletic Foundation helps keep LSU Athletics competing at a championship level.

A PART (THE TEAM

MAKE YOUR PITCH $8.5 Million • Spring 2009

The TAF successfully raised funds to partially underwrite the construction of the new Alex Box Stadium and the Tiger Park softball facility. The new facilities feature state-of-the-art team areas along with two of the best stadiums in the country. Both venues opened in the spring of 2009.

COX COMMUNICATIONS ACADEMIC CENTER $12 Million • Fall 2002

The TAF provided LSU with unquestionably the most advanced academic facility in America for its student-athletes. By renovating LSU's old Gym Armory, the TAF allowed LSU to make the emphatic statement that the academic welfare of its student-athletes is its foremost priority. Opened in 2002.

WESTSIDE RENOVATION OF TIGER STADIUM

$60 Million

The TAF renovated the westside of Tiger Stadium in order to provide 3,200 new club seats and a new press box. The new club seats provide additional revenue for the athletics program to invest in future facility projects. Opened in the fall of 2005.

EASTSIDE EXPANSION OF TIGER STADIUM $50 Million

The TAF financed an eastside expansion that created 70 Tiger Den suites and added over 11,000 seats to Tiger Stadium making it one of the largest on-campus stadiums in America. This eastside expansion has allowed over 300,000 more fans the opportunity to see LSU football since the expansion was opened in 2000.

ROOM $1.2 Million

The TAF funded the construction of a squad meeting room attached to Tiger Stadium for use by LSU's athletics teams. Prior to the construction of the Lawton Squad Room, there was no one place in LSU's athletics complex where the entire football team could meet and view instructional and motivational video presentations. Opened in 1997.

LAWTON SOUAD MIKE THE TIGER'S HABITAT $3 Million

LSU's legendary live mascot is now in a new home, thanks to the TAF. This new habitat provides Mike with a 15.000-square foot environment with lush planting, a beautiful waterfall and a stream evolving from a rocky backdrop overflowing with plants and trees. LSU now enjoys one of the finest live tiger habitats in America. Opened in the fall of 2005.
