LSU Looks To Extend Winning Streak To 10 Against Arkansas State

LSU (1-0) will go after its 10th straight victory dating back to 2003 when the third-ranked Tigers host Arkansas State (0-1) tonight at 7 o'clock in Tiger Stadium. LSU is coming off a thrilling 22-21 overtime win over Oregon State last week, while the Indians dropped a 52-20 decision to Missouri. The Tigers will look to start 2-0 for the second straight year and for the fourth time in five seasons under Nick Saban. LSU's current 9-game winning is the longest since the 1973 when the Tigers opened their season with nine consecutive victories. It's also the longest winning streak spanning two seasons since 1971-72 when LSU won 11 straight games. LSU has now won four straight and nine of its last 10 games in Tiger Stadium. Saturday's overtime win against Oregon State was the first for the Tigers since beating Mississippi, 45-38, in an extra period in 2000. LSU is now 3-1 all-time in overtime games, including a 3-0 mark under Saban.

Pair of QBs Lead LSU To 22-21 OT Win Over Oregon State

JaMarcus Russell started the comeback and then Marcus Randall finished it as the Tigers rallied from an 8-point deficit with less than two minutes remaining to force overtime and eventually beat Oregon State, 22-21, in Tiger Stadium in the season-opener for both teams. Trailing 9-0 at halftime, Russell replaced an ineffective Randall and pulled the Tigers to within 9-7 late in the third quarter on a 16-yard TD pass to Skyler Green. OSU answered with a 9-play, 65-yard drive to extend its margin to 15-7. The score remained that way until Russell rallied the Tigers on a 4-play, 64-yard drive capped with a 38-yard TD strike to Dwayne Bowe. Russell then converted the two-point conversion to tie the score at 15-15 with just over a minute left. In overtime and with Russell out with cramps, Randall returned to the field and scored on a 5-yard run to give LSU its first lead at 22-15. OSU followed with a TD of its own, however the extra-point attempt sailed wide right, the third missed PAT for the Beavers, and the Tigers escaped with a 22-21 win. For the game, Russell completed 9 of 26 passes for 145 yards and 2 TDs, while Randall was 7 of 18 for 66 yards and 1 interception. Justin Vincent led the Tigers with 48 yards rushing, while Bowe caught 5 passes for 103 yards and a score.

The Series

LSU and Arkansas State meet for the third time with the Tigers holding a 2-0 advantage in the series ... The teams met for the first time in 1991 with the Tigers posting a 70-14 victory in Tiger Stadium ... In that game, LSU set a school-record by returning three interceptions for touchdowns ... The Tigers then beat the Indians, 42-6, in Baton Rouge in 1998 ... The two LSU-Arkansas State games have featured a punt return for the Tigers in each contest (Todd Kinchen, 73-yard TD return in 1991; Kevin Faulk 58-yard TD return in 1998) ... The Indians, while only scoring a total of 20 points in the two games against the Tigers, have had two 80-plus yard TD receptions against LSU, both coming in 1991.

Nick Saban

HEAD COACH • FIFTH YEAR

2003 Associated Press National Coach of the Year

2003 Bear Bryant National Coach of the Year

2003 Eddie Robinson Award

For years outsiders viewed the LSU football program as an unpolished gem, a potential giant waiting to be reborn in the world of college football. With the wealth of resources LSU has to offer, its tradition and the available talent within the state of Louisiana, all the program needed was the right person to lead it. In four years as head coach of the Tigers, Nick Saban has proven to be that leader.

Since taking over a program that suffered through seven losing seasons in the 1990s, Saban has guided the Tigers to the pinnacle of college football - winning the 2003 BCS National Championship with a 21-14 victory over Oklahoma in the Nokia Sugar Bowl. The victory culminated a four-year ride under Saban that has been unmatched in the history of Tiger football. Since taking the reigns in 2000, Saban has guided the Tigers to a 40-13 overall mark, while claiming a pair of SEC titles in 2001 and 2003. LSU's 2003 BCS National Championship is just the second for the Tigers in football, and the first since 1958.

Saban's ability to successfully lead the Tigers comes from a management style that focuses on the entire program, one that puts his players in position to have success, both on the field and in the classroom. Armed with a plan that starts with recruiting quality people, outstanding football players and good students, Saban and his staff have transformed LSU into a team that is sure to be a fixture among the nation's elite programs for years to come.

On the field, Saban has developed a reputation as a defensive mastermind who is among the best in the game - professional or college - when it comes to game day coaching decisions. His defenses are physical, aggressive and deceptive, while offensively, the Tigers put up staggering numbers with a wealth of skill players leading the way. His teams play hard, make good decisions on the field and have proven that they are confident enough to overcome any type of adversity that is thrown in their direction.

It's a style and system that has proven to be successful, both for the team as well as the individual as six Tigers have earned First Team All-America honors in four years, while 18 of his LSU players have gone on to be selected in the NFL Draft, including six in the 2004 draft.

Off the field, Saban demands excellence from his players in both the classroom as well as the community. While the Tigers were marching to the 2003 national title on the field, the LSU football team combined for a 2.52 grade point average. A few months later, the squad bettered that mark with a 2.76 average for the spring semester as the Tigers had 50 players with a 3.0 or better during the spring and just six athletes that failed to reach a 2.0.

In addition to the honors the Tigers garnered on the field, LSU had 25 players earn a spot in the SEC Academic Honor Roll in 2003. Once again, numbers that show not only is Saban committed to academics, but his players are also dedicated to receiving an education as well. Since December of 2000, 51 football players who played under Saban at LSU have earned their degree, which includes 13 members of the 2003 national championship squad.

A major part of enhancing and cultivating the education experience for the student-athletes at LSU has been the addition of the $15 million state-of-the-art Cox Communications Academic Center for Student-Athletes. Saban spearheaded the fundraising for the center, which included donating $50,000 of his own money to the cause. The center, the best of its kind in college athletics, features a 1,000-seat auditorium with over 100 computers in a 54,000-square foot facility that gives all of LSU's student-athletes the best chance to have success in the classroom.

Saban's mission statement for the LSU football program is simple. He wants his players to become better people for having been a part of the program. He also wants to develop his players so they can reach their full athletic potential, which will enable them to have the opportunity to win a championship. Finally, it's his plan to help each player graduate and launch their career so that when they leave LSU they can have the best opportunities to be successful in life.

Prior to LSU, Saban spent five years as the head coach at Michigan State, where he built the Spartans into a perennial Big Ten contender after going to four bowl games in five years.

Tigers Go After 10th Straight Win Against Arkansas State

LSU will go for its 10th consecutive victory on Saturday when the Tigers host Arkansas State in Tiger Stadium. LSU's current 9-game winning streak, which dates back to week 7 in 2003, is the longest winning streak for the Tigers since 1973. LSU's current winning streak is the nation's third longest, trailing Boise State (12 straight wins) and Southern Cal (10). It's also the longest winning streak spanning two seasons since 1971-72 when LSU won 11 straight games.

About Arkansas State

Arkansas State enters tonight's game with an 0-1 record after a 52-20 loss to Missouri last week. Arkansas State is located on Jonesboro, Ark., and they are members of the Sun Belt Conference. The Indians are coached by Steve Roberts, who spent two years (2000-01) as head coach at Northwestern State University. Roberts is 60-48-1 all-time as a head coach, which includes a 13-15 mark at Arkansas State. ASU is 1-41-3 all-time against current members of the Southeastern Conference, which includes a 0-2 record vs. LSU. ASU's only win against a current SEC team came in 1915 against Ole Miss in Oxford by a 10-0 count.

Who's In and Who's Out For The Tigers

LSU enters tonight's game with only one player questionable for the contest and that's wide receiver Skyler Green. Green re-injured his ankle late in the fourth quarter of last week's game against Oregon State. He's been limited in practice this week. Should Green not play, then Corey Webster would return punts for the Tigers. Green originally injured his ankle in LSU's second scrimmage of fall camp.

LSU Welcomes Back 4 Former Head Coaches And Hundreds Of Players

LSU will welcome back four former head coaches along with over 300 players to tonight's game. The former head coaches, who will be recognized before the game, that are back in Tiger Stadium include Paul Dietzel, Jerry Stovall, Bill Arnsparger and Mike Archer. Dietzel led LSU to its first national title in 1958, Stovall led the Tigers to the Orange Bowl in 1982, Arnsparger guided LSU to two Sugar Bowls and the 1986 SEC title, while Archer coached LSU to the 1988 conference championship. The coaches and former players had a reunion on Friday night and then will sit together for the tonight's game against the Indians.

LSU's Arkansas Ties

The Tigers have two players on their roster with ties to the state of Arkansas and that's true freshman line-backer Matt Stoltz from Little Rock and offensive lineman Brett Helms from Stuttgart.

Tigers Go To 3-1 In Overtime Games

LSU's 22-21 overtime win over Oregon State ran the Tigers' record to 3-1 in overtime games. The Tigers are 3-0 all-time in overtime games in Tiger Stadium with all three of those wins coming under Nick Saban. The Oregon State contest was the first overtime game for LSU since a 45-38 victory over Mississippi State in 2000. LSU's only overtime loss came at Ole Miss by a 37-31 count in 1998.

Taking Note On The Tigers Under Saban

Here is a look at some notable trends for LSU during its first 53 games under Nick Saban ... LSU is 34-2 when leading at halftime and 32-2 when leading after three quarters ... The Tigers are 37-3 when scoring 20 or more points and 34-0 when scoring at least 25 points in a game ... On the other hand, the Tigers are 3-10 when failing to reach the 20-point mark ... LSU is 11-2 in games decided by 7 points or less and 5-1 in games decided by 3 points or less ... LSU is 26-1 when holding opponents to fewer than 100 team rushing yards and the Tigers are 19-0 when having a player rush for 100 yards.

Another Fourth-Quarter Comeback

LSU's comeback from a 15-7 fourth quarter deficit against Oregon State represents the sixth time under Nick Saban that the Tigers have rallied to win a game despite trailing in the final quarter. The last time the Tigers rallied to win in the fourth quarter came against Kentucky in 2002 when Marcus Randall connected with Devery Henderson on a 75-yard TD pass as time expired for a 33-30 LSU win. Over the six fourth-quarter comeback wins for the Tigers since 2000, Randall has been involved in three as he threw the game winning TD against Kentucky and Ole Miss in 2002 and then ran for the game-winning score against Oregon State in overtime. The following is a look at LSU's other fourth quarter comebacks under Saban that resulted in a victory for the Tigers:

Year	Game	4th Quarter Comeback	Results
2000	Miss. State	scored 21 points to force OT	W, 45-38 in OT
2000	vs. Ga. Tech	scored 19 points for win in Peach Bowl	W, 28-14
2001	at Kentucky	scored TD with 13 seconds left	W, 29-25
2002	Ole Miss	scored TD with 6:34 left	W, 14-13
2002	at Kentucky	scored on 75-yard TD pass as time expired	W, 33-30
2004	Oregon State	scored TD with 1:05 left to force OT	W, 22-21 in OT

That Tiger Stadium Mystique Is Back Under Saban

LSU coach Nick Saban has restored the mystique that has made Tiger Stadium one of the toughest places for opposing teams to play. In 4-plus seasons at LSU, Saban has put together a 24-5 mark at home, which includes a 12-4 record in SEC games. LSU finished its 2003 season with a 6-1 at home after going 6-1 in Tiger Stadium in 2002. Under Saban, the Tigers are 6-2 vs. Top 25 teams in Tiger Stadium.

Bowe Has Big Game In First Career Start

Sophomore WR Dwayne Bowe made quite an impact in his first career start, scoring the game-tying TD with just over a minute left in LSU's 22-21 overtime win over Oregon State. Bowe, from Miami, Fla., led the Tigers with 5 catches for 103 yards and 1 TD. Bowe scored on a 38-yard catch and run from JaMarcus Russell late in the fourth quarter. A player earlier, Bowe setup the TD with a 26-yard reception from Russell. Of Bowe's five catches against Oregon State, four accounted for first downs, which also included the 38-yard TD reception. Bowe also had what appeared to be a 57-yard TD in the first quarter called back due to a penalty.

Bowe And Addai Each Catch 5 Passes

WR Dwayne Bowe and RB/WR Joseph Addai became the first two players to record at least five receptions in the same game since Nov. 13, 2003 at Alabama when Michael Clayton pulled down 12 catches and Devery Henderson had 5.

Another Sellout In Tiger Stadium

The Oregon State game marked the sixth straight sellout in Tiger Stadium dating back to the Georgia game last September. In all, LSU played five of its seven home games in 2003 in front of crowds of 91,000 or better. The Oregon State contest marked the first sellout for a season-opener at home for the Tigers since drawing 91,782 for the Tulane game in 2001. It also marked the largest season-opening crowd in Tiger Stadium in school history with 91,828 fans in attendance. The following is a list of the top 10 crowds in Tiger Stadium history, all of which have come in the Saban era:

No.	Att.	Opponent	Date	Results
1.	92,251	Georgia	Sept. 20, 2003	LSU, 17-10

LSU's Won 10 Straight Non-Conference Games In Tiger Stadium

LSU will carry a 10-game winning streak vs. non-conference foes in Tiger Stadium into the Arkansas State contest following Saturday's 22-21 overtime win over Oregon State. LSU hasn't lost a home non-conference game since dropping a last-second 13-10 decision to UAB in 2000.

LSU's 16-3 Against Non-SEC Foes Under Saban

The Tigers ran their non-conference record to 16-3 under Nick Saban following the overtime win over Oregon State. The Tigers, who were 5-0 against non-SEC teams in 2003, haven't lost a non-conference game since dropping a 35-20 decision to Texas in the 2003 Cotton Bowl. LSU hasn't lost a regular season non-conference game since falling to Virginia Tech, 26-8, to open the 2002 season.

Randall Makes First Start At QB Since 2002 Season For Tigers Vs. OSU

LSU QB Marcus Randall made his first start since 2002 and seventh overall against Oregon State on Saturday. Randall, who completed 7 of 18 passes for 66 yards against the Beavers, is now 3-4 as LSU's starting quarterback.

Russell Shines In Debut

LSU QB JaMarcus Russell shined in his much anticipated debut as the redshirt freshman started the second half and rallied the Tigers to an overtime win over Oregon State. Russell led the Tigers on two second half scoring drives, which included tossing a 38-yard TD pass to Dwayne Bowe with just over a minute left in the contest to pull the Tigers to within 15-13. Russell then tied the game with a two-point conversion that sent the game into overtime. In overtime, Russell suffered cramps to his legs and was forced out of the contest midway through LSU's possession. For the game, Russell completed 9 of 26 passes for 145 yards and 2 TDs.

Randall and Russell Each Have Hand In TDs for Tigers

LSU's quarterback duo of JaMarcus Russell and Marcus Randall were each responsible for touchdowns against Oregon State with Russell throwing for a pair of TDs and Randall running for one. It is the first time LSU had different quarterbacks score in different ways in a game since Sept. 6, 2003 at Arizona when Matt Mauck rushed for a TD and Randall tossed a score.

Tiger Defense Tough Against the Run

LSU held Oregon State to 84 net rushing yards extending the streak of holding the opponents under 100 yards rushing to three straight games and five of the last six dating back to last season. A year ago, the Tigers ranked third in the nation in rushing defense, allowing only 67 yards per game. The Tigers allowed only two opponents in 2003 to gain over 100 yards on the ground (Louisiana Tech and Arkansas).

Jackson Does It All Against Oregon State

LSU specialist Chris Jackson did it all against Oregon State serving as the Tigers' punter, placekicker as well as handling kickoffs. Jackson averaged 38.7 yards on six punts, while he was 0-of-2 on field goals and 1-of-1 on extra-points. Jackson becomes the first Tiger to handle placekicks and punting for LSU since 1985 when Matt DeFrank did both.

Webster Plays Both Ways Against Oregon State

LSU senior CB Corey Webster became the first Tiger since Michael Clayton to play both ways in a game when he lined up at wide receiver for one play against Oregon State on Saturday. Webster, who played wide receiver for the Tigers as a freshman in 2001, has practiced on both sides of the ball since last spring. He's also a candidate to return punts or kickoffs for LSU, which could make him the Tigers' first three-way player since Domanick Davis did it early in the season in 2001. Webster, who did not have a reception, finished with 7 tackles on defense.

Tigers Have Kept Opponents To Less Than 20 Points 32 Times Under Saban

By holding Oklahoma to 14 in the BCS National Championship Game last January, the Tigers have now limited their opponents to less than 20 points in 32 of the 52 games they have played under Nick Saban. Under Saban, the Tigers are 29-3 when holding its opponents to fewer than 20 points. Prior to the Florida game, LSU had won 18 straight contests when holding its opponent to less than 20 points. That streak dated back to a 14-3 loss to Arkansas in Little Rock in 2000. Of the 32 times that LSU has held its opponent to under 20 points, 16 of those have been when the opponent scored 10 points or less. LSU has also posted four shutouts under Saban.

Webster Closing In On LSU Career Interception Mark

LSU senior CB Corey Webster enters the Arkansas State game needing only six interceptions to tie Mike Williams' school-record for interceptions at 20. Webster has 14 career interceptions to his credit after picking off seven passes in each of the last two seasons. Webster tied the school-record for interceptions in a single-game with 3 against Florida in 2002. Webster leads all active players in the SEC in both interceptions and pass deflections (42).

Spears Adds Sack To Run Career Total To 11; Oliver Still At 10

LSU senior DE Marcus Spears ran his career sack total to 11 against Oregon State. Spears, who also forced a fumble, recovered a fumble and broke up a pass against the Beavers, finished with 5 tackles against the Beavers. Spears is now just four sacks shy of tying Corey White for 10th place on LSU's career sack list with 15. DT Melvin Oliver has 10 career sacks to his credit. Rydell Malancon holds the school mark with 25 career sacks from 1980-83.

Green's Caught At Least 1 Pass In 18 Straight Games

LSU junior WR Skyler Green ran his streak of games with at least one reception to 18 straight games with two catches against Oregon State. As a matter of fact, Green caught at least 2 passes in 15 straight games, including all 14 of LSU's games in 2003. Green's career high for receptions came against Louisiana Tech with 9 receptions. For his career, Green has 57 passes for 658 yards and 7 TDs.

Green Moves Into 10th Place On LSU Career Punt Return List

Skyler Green moved into 10th-place in career punt return yards in LSU with against Oregon State. Green finished with only one return for nine yards against the Beavers, but it was good enough to move past Chris Williams for the 10th spot. Green now has 471 punt return yards. Domanick Davis holds the school record with 1,126 yards on 94 returns from 1999-2002.

Defensive Line Shuffle

One of the philosophies of LSU coach Nick Saban is keeping players fresh by rotating players throughout the game. On Saturday against Oregon State, the Tigers have eight different players see action the defensive line. The four players who started the contest were Marcus Spears, Kyle Williams, Claude Wroten and Melvin Oliver. They were spelled periodically during the game by Ryan Willis, Glen Dorsey, Kirston Pittman and Brian West.

Tigers Rush For More Than Opponent In Ninth Straight Games

For the ninth consecutive game, LSU had more rushing yards than its opponent as the Tigers had 91 yards on the ground compared to 84 for Oregon State on Saturday. The last time a team gained more yards on the ground than LSU was Florida on Oct. 11, 2003, which happens to be the last time the Tigers have lost a football game. In that game, Florida had 81 yards on the ground compared to just 56 for the Tigers.

Webster and Buckles Are Cap and Gown Tigers

LSU senior CB Corey Webster is not only an accomplished athlete on the field, but he's also done quite well in the classroom as he recently graduated with a degree in general studies. Webster is joined on the Tiger squad by LB Dorsett Buckels, who finished up his course work over the summer earning a degree in general studies.

Four True Freshmen See Action Against Oregon State

Four true freshmen made their LSU debut against Oregon State. LB Ali Highsmith and FB Jacob Hester each played on special teams, while Early Doucet made his debut as a wide receiver and Glen Dorsey as a defensive tackle. Dorsey's debut was a memorable one, recovering a fumble on the first play of his career with 6:17 remaining in the first quarter.

Wilkerson and Whitworth Are The Rocks On O-Line

LSU senior C Ben Wilkerson and junior OT Andrew Whitworth have combined to start 61 games on the offensive line for the Tigers heading into the 2004 season. Whitworth has started every game over the last two years, while Wilkerson started all 13 games a year ago. Dating back to the 2001 season, Wilkerson has started 34 of LSU's last 37 games and the Tigers are 28-6 in those games.

Tigers Picked To Win SEC West, Face Georgia In SEC Title Game

LSU has been picked by the media to win the SEC Western Division title and then face Georgia in the SEC Championship Game in 2004. Georgia garnered 61 first place votes to LSU's 19. Florida picked up five first place votes, while Auburn, Ole Miss and South Carolina each got one first place vote from the media.

Tigers Are Well-Represented On National Preseason Watch Lists

LSU has at least one player mentioned on a preseason watch list for nine different national awards. The following is a look at which player is listed on the watch list for which national award:

First Rounders On The Diamond

LSU's football roster features two former first round draft picks in the Major League Amateur Draft in freshman wide receiver Joe Lawrence and sophomore defensive end Brian West. Lawrence, who saw action in 55 games as a second baseman for the Toronto Blue Jays in 2002, was the 16th overall pick in the 1996 draft. West, in his second season with the Tigers, was picked with the 35th selection of the 1999 draft by the Chicago White Sox and advanced briefly to AAA before developing career-ending elbow problems.

Joe Lawrence at 27-years of age and Andre Gill at 26-years old are the two oldest members of the LSU football team. Lawrence, who is officially listed as a true freshman, is less than two-years younger than LSU defensive backs coach Kirby Smart. Lawrence spent eight years in pro baseball, while Gill spent time in the U.S. Armed Services.

33 Former Tigers on NFL Rosters

A total of 33 former LSU football players have made NFL opening day rosters, including eight from the 2003 national championship squad. Highlighting that group is former All-American wide receiver and Baton Rouge native Michael Clayton, who became the 24th first-round draft pick in school history. Clayton was selected 15th overall by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and is projected to make an immediate impact for his new club. Devery Henderson, the second-round selection of the New Orleans Saints, is also slated to see significant time as a rookie wide receiver. Former quarterback Matt Mauck will go into the season as the No. 3 QB for the new-look Denver Broncos. Houston Texans' running back Domanick Davis, the 2003 NFL Rookie of the Year, looks to pick up where he left off last season after leading all rookies with 1,031 rushing yards, despite not starting until Week 6. Seven veterans have joined new teams this year including Kenderick Allen (Giants), Ryan Clark (Redskins), Trev Faulk (Rams), Howard Green (Saints), Mark Roman (Packers), Denard Walker (Raiders) and Brandon Winey (Giants).

Weeks in the Top 25

(through Aug. 29 polls)

19

Moving on Up

- Corey Webster needs six interceptions to move into a first place tie as the all-time leader in career interceptions with 20. With six, he will tie Chris Williams who recorded six picks during the 1977-80 seasons.
- With two more 100-yard rushing games, Justin Vincent will jump into a three-way tie with Rondell Mealey, Steve Van Buren and LaBrandon Toefield with seven in that category.
- Skyler Green is four yards shy of tying Todd Kinchen for ninth place in LSU history in career punt returns yards with 475.
- Marcus Spears needs four sacks to move into the top-10 in that category with 15.

With a Win ...

- LSU will have won its 10th straight game, the longest winning streak for the Tigers since winning 11 straight during the 1971-72 seasons
- LSU will go to 2-0 for the second straight year and eight out of the last nine years.

Sept. 11 in LSU History

- The Tigers are 2-1 on Sept. 11 in its history.
- LSU last played on Sept. 11 in 1999 with a 52-0 win over North Texas. LSU also beat Mississippi State, 18-16, in 1993 on Sept. 11. In that game, LSU PK Andre' Lafleur kicked a 26-yard field goal with 10 seconds left to lift the Tigers to the win.

LSU

I'd been warned prior to my first visit to Baton Rouge that the legendary Death Valley mystique was a myth. That assessment couldn't have been more wrong. Tiger Stadium was as loud as any I've ever heard during the dramatic fourth quarter of Saturday's Georgia game, the festivities surrounding it as advertised.

The streets were lined with purple and gold. Smoke emanated from the grills in the parking lot. Shouts of "Go Tigers" and "Tiger Bait" echoed from the stadium deep into the heart of campus.

And that was just Friday night. -- Stewart Mandel, SI.com (Sept. 21, 2003)

• LSU began playing football in Tiger Stadium in 1924 and is currently in its 81st year in the venerable stadium on SATURDAY NIGHT.

• Under Nick Saban, the Tigers have posted a 24-5 HOME RECORD, including a 6-2 mark against ranked opponents. Against conference foes, Saban is 11-4 in Death Valley. In home games at night, LSU is 18-3 since Saban took over.

• LSU has won 13 OF ITS LAST 15 games at home, including a current four-game winning streak.

• More than 85,000 FANS have attended each of LSU's last 28 home games. In that span, the Tigers have eclipsed the 90,000 mark 19 times, including a school-record 92,251 for the Sept. 20, 2003 game that pitted No. 10 LSU against No. 7 Georgia. The Tigers won the game 17-10.

• Since national attendance figures began being kept in 1957, LSU has ranked in the top 20 all 45 seasons. The Tigers have been in the top 15 for 43 of the 45 years and in the top 10 on 37 occasions, including 32 straight from 1957-88. Fourteen times, LSU has ranked in the TOP FIVE IN THE NATION, including the last three.

• Since 1960, LSU owns a stellar 188-62-4 (.747) record in traditional Tiger Stadium night games. On the other hand, the Tigers are just 16-21-3 (.438) at home during the day in that span.

• Death Valley is the SIXTH LARGEST on-campus stadium in the nation holding 91,600 fans.

The Legend

"Baton Rouge happens to be the worst place in the world for a visiting team. It's like being inside a drum."

-- PAUL "BEAR" BRYANT

"It makes a body tingle -- these folks go berserk when the band marches on the field."

-- DOUGLAS LOONEY, Sports Illustrated

"The Tiger Stadium sound was like nothing I had ever heard in my life. It's not like any other place."

-- BILL CURRY, ESPN

"College football is never better than when there's a good team in Tiger Stadium."

-- LEE CORSO, ESPN

Earthquake Game

October 8, 1988. Tommy Hodson connected with Eddie Fuller on 4-and-10 with 1:41 to play for the game-winning touchdown as LSU upset No. 4 Auburn. The play caused such a thunderous explosion from the crowd of 79,341 that the tremor caused by the vibrations measured on the seismograph across campus.

Halloween Night

October 31, 1959. No. 1 LSU trailed No. 3 Ole Miss, 3-0, late in the fourth quarter when Billy Cannon fielded a punt off the bounce at the 11-yard line. He raced 89 yards, careening off seven Rebel defenders, to paydirt to give the Tigers victory and all but clinch the 1959 Heisman Trophy.

By the Numbers

92,251 - largest crowd to see a game in Tiger Stadium (vs. Georgia, Sept. 20, 2003)

187-62-4 - night record since 1960

89 -yard punt return by Billy Cannon to beat Ole Miss on Halloween Night in 1959

81 st year of LSU football in Tiger Stadium dating back to 1924

70 - "Tiger Den" skybox suites in the East Upper Deck

39 - years ranked in the top 10 in the nation in attendance

17 - straight wins to set school record from 1935-37

24-5 is LSU's home record since Nick Saban took over

19 times the crowd has exceeded 90,000 for a game

9 undefeated home seasons

7 times the crowd at Tiger Stadium has exceeded 92,000.

6 -the sixth largest on-campus stadium in the nation

4 -trips by the "ESPN College GameDay" crew

3 - times named the toughest place in the nation to play a road game

Faulk, Tigers Win Opener Over Indians, 42-6

Kevin Faulk opened his senior season as only he can, rushing for 180 yards and two touchdowns, while returning a punt for a third score as the Tigers cruised by Arkansas State, 42-6, in Tiger Stadium. Faulk opened scoring in the first quarter with a 14-yard touchdown run, then the Indians kicked a field goal early in the second quarter to pull within 7-3. However, that would be as close as they would get, with Herb Tyler hitting Abram Booty for a 35-yard touchdown, then Tyler scoring himself from four yards out to give LSU a 21-3 halftime edge. Faulk then scored the next two TDs himself, with a 58-yard punt return and a 78-yard run. Rondell Mealey scored from 10 yards out to cap the Tigers' impressive victory.

Pair of QBs Lead LSU To 22-21 OT Win Over Oregon State

JaMarcus Russell started the comeback and then Marcus Randall finished it as the Tigers rallied from an 8-point deficit with less than two minutes remaining to force overtime and eventually beat Oregon State, 22-21, in Tiger Stadium in the season-opener for both teams. Trailing 9-0 at halftime, Russell replaced an ineffective Randall and pulled the Tigers to within 9-7 late in the third quarter on a 16-yard TD pass to Skyler Green. OSU answered with a 9-play, 65-yard drive to extend its margin to 15-7. The score remained that way until Russell rallied the Tigers on a 4-play, 64-yard drive capped with a 38-yard TD strike to Dwayne Bowe. Russell then converted the two-point conversion to tie the score at 15-15 with just over a minute left. In overtime and with Russell out with cramps, Randall returned to the field and scored on a 5-yard run to give LSU its first lead at 22-15. OSU followed with a TD of its own, however the extra-point attempt sailed wide right, the third missed PAT for the Beavers, and the Tigers escaped with a 22-21 win. For the game, Russell completed 9 of 26 passes for 145 yards and 2 TDs, while Randall was 7 of 18 for 66 yards and 1 interception. Vincent led the Tigers with 48 yards rushing, while Bowe caught 5 passes for 103 yards and a score.
