COACH JOHN VAUGHT:

I'm not down-hearted, about the way we played. This is the best LSU team I've seen in some time.

They can really make the long-play.

We let them break 2 or 3 long ones and fumbled away a couple of chances when we were moving late in the game.

I thought our passing was much better; but it still goes back to LSU converting on the long play.

I thought if we could have put some points on the board at the end of the first half, we could really make a go of it in the final 30 minutes.

But this LSU team just has too much speed and quickness.

COACH CHARLIE MCCLENDON:

It's been a long time trying to pay back that 1934 (the last Tiger win in Jackson) ... we had something inside that had to come out...the kids said they would put it on the line today and they did.

We didn't have any mistakes with the exception of maybe one penalty, and Mississippi had a quite a few fumbles that played big parts in the game; it was a big play game for us.

The fans--especially the Ole Miss fans--might have gotten carried away a little bit but they were mostly just noisy fans. Our players had a few things thrown at us...I have a golf ball in my pocket that was thrown at me. I'm glad they threw it, I think I'll be able to use it, it's a good ball.

I said we'd put points on the board, but I don't think anyone in the country thought ~~much~~ we would put this many up, especially me. I knew we'd either explode or fall on our faces from the quiet in the dressing room prior to the game.

Norris Weese is some kind of athlete, I'm glad they used him.

I'm called a conservative coach and then we score like we did here...when we hit 21, that gave us the confidence we needed. Again, it was big plays, like Romain's, Hodgins', Davos', Fakler's, Rodgers'.

The coaching staff did a great job.
