LSU head coach Mike Archer:

"It wasn't a pretty win, but it's a win and we're 2-0. I thought our defense played exceptionally well the entire game. We had some dumb penalties that kept Miami's touchdown drive going. We had good field position, which aided us. Our special teams and our defense gave us good field position most of the night.

"We still have to get better. We're 2-0, and that's the most important thing. Miami played hard; they made some big plays on defense which we thought they would. They blitzed early and it got us out of sync in our passing game. Our offensive execution was not as crisp as it was last week.

"Todd Kinchen showed what type of football he is tonight. He is a very special athlete who has an uncanny ability to make things happen. Sometimes I cringe when he does it. We were able to play a lot of young players tonight. We had some injuries on the defensive line which forced us to go with some younger guys.

"Harvey (Williams) has developed a nose for the goal line. He made some big runs when we needed them. He was able to find an outside seam and beat everyone to the corner. Our ability to run the ball has been what we had hoped prior to the season. Our defense is getting better as our players get older. We still had some breakdowns on special teams which need to be corrected.

"We're 2-0 now and we have to get ready to play in the SEC again (next Saturday at Vanderbilt). We were down at the half tonight, but we came back and made the plays when we needed them.

WILLIAMS TIES SINGLE GAME LSU RECORD

LSU tailback Harvey Williams tied a single-game school record for most rushing touchdowns with four. Williams four TDs tied the record held by Charles Alexander (vs. Oregon - 1977) and Dalton Hilliard (at Kentucky - 1984). The LSU record for most touchdowns in a game (rushing or receiving) is five by Carlos Carson (all by receiving) versus Rice in 1977.

Quotes from Miami coach RANDY WALKER --

"I'm not sure the score indicates the improvement we made tonight. I believe that before its over, we'll have a good football team."

"Right now we're a little fragile. We make some mistakes and it takes a long time to recover from it. But I'm not disappointed in this team. We knew coming in that we were going to face a good LSU team. We rushed the ball real well, in fact it was one of our better rushing nights."

"I believe that down the road, we'll get it right."

On LSU's play --

"I was really impressed with what I saw on tape of Todd Kinchen and he didn't disappoint me tonight. He's going to be a good one for them."

"Harvey (Williams) played really well. If I could have issued some grenades or something we could have stopped him near the goal line. We tried to corral him but he'd either find a crease or jump over us. I believe that on one of the touchdowns he must have jumped from the six yard line."

"LSU is a young team too, but they've got a chance to be really special. If Kinchen and Harvey continue their play, LSU will be a special team. LSU deserves a lot of credit, they didn't do anything fancy, just what they needed to get the job done."

Miami (Ohio) player quotes following game with LSU.....

#15 QB Jim Clement.....

"our offensive greatly improved this game. We came out and moved the ball pretty well."

on the LSU defense.....

"they didn't do anything that we didn't expect. We had them scouted pretty well so we knew about what to expect. We made some mistakes ~~xxxxxx~~ and they took advantage of our mistakes."

"We are going to get better and we are going to win some games."

#49 TB Dennis Pendergrast.....

"I think our offensive line did a great job for us tonight. We had trouble running the ball in our first two games but tonight we came out and moved the ball."

~~xxxxxx~~

on the LSU Defense.....

"they did what we thought they were going to do. they were a little more aggressive in the second half. We made some mistakes and they were able to take advantage of those mistakes."

"I think our offense jelled tonight. It's a big improvement from our first 2 games."

#25 OLB Bennie Caldwell.....

on Harvey Williams.....

"he's allusive. Alot of times I would think I had him and then he would cut back and he was gone. He is a good runner and he's got great vision. He's a good back."

on the humidity.....

"I don't think it caused any problems for us tonight. We are a good conditioned team. In the fourth quarter we all still felt pretty fresh."
