In The Polls

LSU dropped in two of the three major polls this week after posting a 2-2 mark last week. The Tigers remained No. 16 in Baseball America but fell three spots to No. 16 in Collegiate Baseball. LSU also dropped three places to No. 11 in ESPN/Sports Weekly.

RPI Watch

LSU dropped four positions to No. 13 in Boyd's World pseudo-RPI's this week. The Tigers were ranked ninth last week, before suffering losses to Southern (158) and Kentucky (69). Eleven SEC teams are listed in the top 30. Florida leads the way with a RPI of sixth. Tennessee is ranked 22nd.

Regional Projections

SEBaseball.com's weekly regional projections list LSU as a host for the 16th straight season. The Tigers are tabbed the No. 1 seed in the Baton Rouge Regional, followed by Rice, Northwestern State and Vermont. LSU is paired with Texas in the Super Regional round. The Longhorns are listed as the No. 4 national seed.

The LSU-Tennessee Series

LSU leads the overall series with Tennessee, 38-11, and the Tigers have a 19-4 mark against the Volunteers over the past nine seasons. LSU has won six of its last seven SEC series against Tennessee -- the Volunteers' last series victory over the Tigers came in 1999 in Knoxville. LSU has won three straight series over the Vols, including a 2-1 series victory last season in Knoxville. Tennessee recorded an 8-6 win in Game 1 before the Tigers responded with 11-5 and 11-1 victories. The Vols have not won a series at Alex Box Stadium since the two teams began play in 1907.

Senior Day Set For Saturday

LSU's senior players will be honored prior to Saturday's game in a 2:45 p.m. ceremony. Players appearing in their final regular-season series in Alex Box Stadium include catcher Brad Bass, outfielder Rhett Buteau, pitcher Jason Determann, pitcher Jordan Faircloth, infielder Blake Gill, second baseman Clay Harris, infielder Derek Hebert, pitcher Lane Mestepey, outfielder Ryan Patterson, outfielder Nick Stavinoha and catcher Dustin Weaver. Determann, though a junior in athletic eligibility, has completed his four-year course of study in biology, and he will enter the LSU Medical School in Shreveport this fall.

Patterson Named To Golden Spikes Watch List

Senior Ryan Patterson was named to the Golden Spikes Award Watch List on April 26. Recognized as amateur baseball's most prestigious honor, the Golden Spikes Award is presented to the top college baseball player in the country. Patterson is one of 40 players named to the watch list, which will be trimmed to five finalists in early June. The 28th Annual Golden Spikes Award Show will take place in July in conjunction with USA Baseball. LSU has one Golden Spikes Award winner to its credit when pitcher Ben McDonald took home the hardware in 1989.

Smith Finally Surrenders A Run

After 28.2 scoreless innings pitched, Greg Smith finally surrendered a run in the fourth inning against Kentucky last Sunday. Smith's remarkable run covered four outings. He had previously thrown three straight complete games, including two shutouts in wins at Arkansas and at Vanderbilt. Smith's streak dated back to the second inning of the Tigers' contest with Ole Miss on April 17. Smith's streak was the longest scoreless stretch by an LSU pitcher since Ben McDonald hurled an SEC-record 44.2 straight scoreless frames in 1989. Before April 17, Smith had never thrown a complete game in his previous two seasons.

Determann Named LSWA Pitcher of the Week

On Tuesday, Jason Determann became the fourth LSU player to earn LSWA Player of the Week honors this season. The junior left-hander picked up two saves for LSU in the series win over Kentucky, working 4.1 innings and allowing just one hit. Determann recorded no walks and seven strikeouts in the two outings, increasing his saves total on the year to six. He is 3-0 on the year with a 1.93 ERA has allowed just 34 hits in 42 innings pitched. Greg Smith, Clay Dirks and Ryan Patterson have each received the award once this season.

Sticking With Mestepey

After being winless in his last six starts, Lane Mestepey fought off early-inning trouble to pick up a win in the series opener with Kentucky. Head coach Smoke Laval elected to keep the left-hander in the rotation despite his recent struggles. Before last weekend, Mestepey's last victory came in the SEC opener at Georgia on March 18.

Back On Track

Since losing three of its first four SEC series, LSU has responded with four straight league series' wins over Ole Miss, Arkansas, Vanderbilt and Kentucky. The Tigers have won nine out of its last 11 conference games -- eight of those against ranked opponents. On the season, LSU has two SEC road sweeps to its credit -- at Georgia and at Arkansas. The last time an LSU team had two conference road sweeps was 1994 when the Tigers took three games at Auburn and three games at Georgia.

Iron Man

Clay Harris is the only Tiger to start in all 49 games this season. Harris has started 48 contests at second base since making the move before the season. He also started one game at designated hitter. During his career, Harris has made 168 consecutive starts, dating back to 2003. The last time Harris was not in the starting lineup was in a mid-week game versus Southeastern Louisiana on March 5, 2003.

409 Wins And Counting For Laval

Smoke Laval finished the Kentucky weekend with 409 career victories. Laval won his 400th career game in a 19-2 thrashing of Northwestern State on April 12. Laval compiled a 241-159 mark as head coach at UL-Monroe for seven seasons (1994-2000). Since then, Smoke has won 168 games in his fourth season at LSU after taking over for Skip Bertman.

Another Two-Sport Jackson

Redshirt freshman Chris Jackson has sparked LSU at the top of the order since entering the Tiger lineup on April 10 versus South Carolina. LSU has a 10-4 record when Jackson starts. He recently maintained a 12-game hitting streak, which came to an end in the first game of a doubleheader at Vanderbilt. At the same time, the River Ridge, La. native just wrapped up spring football practice as the squad's starting place kicker/punter. Against Northwestern State on April 12, Jackson arrived to Alex Box 20 minutes before first pitch after going through a football workout. Without taking infield or batting practice, Jackson made his first career start at third base and went 3-for-6 with four runs and four RBI. He also belted his first career homer in the bottom of the seventh. On April 16, he competed in the annual LSU spring football scrimmage in the morning before reporting to the Box 45 minutes before a 2 p.m. first pitch against Ole Miss. In his first at-bat Jackson lined a single to right field and finished the game 3-for-5 with a run and an RBI. He also displayed tremendous defense at third base with four critical assists in the Tigers 7-6 triumph over the Rebels.

Hitting Streaks

Nick Stavinoha has the longest current hitting streak on the squad, having hit safely in his last eight games. Blake Gill maintained a 20-game hitting streak, dating back to last season. Gill's run, which began versus Vanderbilt on May 15 last season, is the longest of his career and the longest since head coach Smoke Laval took over the program.

Longest Hitting Streaks (past six seasons)

Player	Streak
Brad Cresse (1999-2000)	24
Cedrick Harris (1999-2000)	21
Blake Gill (2004-05)	20

Mestepey Up To 35 Career Wins

Senior left-hander Lane Mestepey claimed sole possession of second place in LSU career victories with his 34th win over Georgia on March 18. The Zachary, La., native passed Stan Loewer, who tallied 33 wins between 1984-87. Following his win over Kentucky last weekend, Mestepey is now three wins shy of tying Scott Schultz' career mark of 38, achieved between 1992-95. The southpaw also moved into a tie with Mississippi State's Bobby Reed (1987-90) for eighth place in SEC career victories. South Carolina's Kip Bouknight (1998-01) and Mississippi State's Jeff Brantley (1982-85) share the all-time SEC record with 45 career wins.

LSU Career Pitching Victories

Player	Wins
1. Scott Schultz (1992-95)	38
2. Lane Mestepey (2001-present)	35
3. Stan Loewer (1984-87)	33
4. Paul Byrd (1989-91)	31

Going the Distance

Greg Smith's complete game at Vanderbilt tallied the Tigers' seventh complete game outing by LSU pitchers this season. Clay Dirks owns two nine-inning starts to his credit this season, as does senior Lane Mestepey. Smith has three on the year -- in three of his last four outings.

Down But Never Out

A trend in recent games has been falling behind early. Of LSU's 49 games, opponents have scored first in 26 of them. Last Friday night, the Tigers completed their 15th come-from-behind win of the season, erasing a four-run deficit to beat Kentucky 6-5.

Coaches Pick LSU to Win SEC Title

In what has become a common occurrence over the past several seasons, LSU is the favorite to win the Southeastern Conference Baseball Championship, as voted by the league's 12 baseball coaches in the 14th annual preseason SEC poll. In the overall SEC Champion vote, LSU received nine of the 12 championship votes in the poll. South Carolina received two votes while Florida received one. LSU was the predicted winner in the Western Division with a total of 66, collecting the maximum possible points for a single team. Ole Miss was second with 51, while Arkansas finished third with 46.

Houston's Matt Farrington handcuffed LSU for six innings, allowing one run thanks to Bruce Sprowl's sacrifice fly in the fifth. UH scored their two runs in the bottom of the frame on Jake Stewart's two-run single (both unearned) that bounced off of Mestepey's glove into right field. Notes: LSU saw their SEC win streak end at five games as Lane Mestepey's recent struggles continued. Mestepey was tagged for six runs on five hits in 2.2 innings of work. Three LSU pitchers combined for five walks, four hit-batsmen and two wild pitches. Ryan Patterson and Nick Stavinocha collected two hits apiece, while Patterson set a career with his 17th homer. The 17 homers in a season are the most by an LSU player in a season since Todd Linden belted 20 homers in 2001. Chris Jackson's hit streak came to an end at 12 games.

Smoke Laval

HEAD COACH • FOURTH YEAR

Raymond "Smoke" Laval continues to enhance his reputation as one of the country's top college baseball coaches, as, in three seasons at the helm of the LSU program, he has guided the Tigers to two College World Series berths, two NCAA Super Regional titles, three NCAA Regional championships, one SEC title and Top 10 finishes in each of the past two seasons.

Laval, the 2003 SEC Coach of the Year, was named in 2004 the Louisiana Sportswriters Association Coach of the Year for the third straight season.

Laval has directed LSU to the best SEC regular-season record in the past three seasons, posting a 57-31-1 (.646) mark. South Carolina has the second-best SEC record (57-32, .640), and Florida is third (50-39-1, .561). LSU earned its second consecutive final Top 10 ranking in 2004, as the Tigers finished No. 7 in the Baseball America poll and No. 8 in the Collegiate Baseball poll. The final rankings culminated a magnificent 2004 season that also featured record-breaking marks for academic achievements and attendance figures. The 2004 Tigers advanced to the College World Series for the second straight season, recording a 46-19 overall record, LSU's best mark since the 2000 club finished 52-17.

LSU played host to an NCAA Regional for the 15th straight season, winning the tournament with consecutive victories over Army, Southern Mississippi and College of Charleston. The Tigers then played host to an NCAA Super Regional for the third time in five years, defeating Texas A&M in a best two-of-three series to earn a berth in the CWS.

The 2004 Tigers had the best offensive club in the SEC, completing the year with a .333 team batting average, the second-highest in school history. The Tigers were led by two first-team all-SEC players - right fielder Jon Zeringue, the 2004 SEC Co-Player of the Year and a first-team all-America selection, and center fielder J.C. Holt, a third-team all-America choice. Zeringue was selected in the second round of the 2004 draft by the Arizona Diamondbacks, and Holt was the third-round pick of the Atlanta Braves.

LSU placed 12 players on the 2004 SEC Academic Honor Roll, the highest total in the program's history, and the Tigers' 2004 total home attendance with 36 playing dates was 284,328, the third-largest figure in school history. The average paid attendance in 2004 was 7,898, which is the highest average in LSU annals.

Laval guided the 2003 Tigers to the Southeastern Conference title -- LSU's first since 1997 -- and a berth in the College World Series. He was voted the 2003 SEC Coach of the Year, directing LSU to a 45-22-1 overall record and a 20-9-1 conference mark, as the Tigers finished No. 5 in the final Baseball America rankings.

LSU played host to an NCAA Regional tournament for the 14th straight season and captured its eighth consecutive regional title. The Tigers entertained Baylor in an NCAA Super Regional series, defeating the Bears in two of three games to earn LSU's first CWS berth since 2000.

LSU also set an NCAA total attendance record in 2003, drawing 291,676 patrons to Alex Box Stadium.

The Tigers' shortstop, Aaron Hill, was named 2003 SEC Player of the Year and a first-team all-American. Hill was the first-round draft selection (13th pick overall) by the Toronto Blue Jays.

The magnificent '03 campaign augmented the success Laval enjoyed in his inaugural season as LSU's coach, as he led the 2002 Tigers to a 44-22 overall mark, an appearance in the NCAA Super Regional and a No. 11 final national ranking. Laval, named the 2002 Louisiana Coach of the Year by the Louisiana Sportswriters Association, continued the phenomenal tradition of excellence created by his predecessor, the legendary Skip Bertman.

Laval holds a bachelor's degree (1977) from Jacksonville in physical education and a master's degree (1979) from LSU in administration. The McDonald, Pa., native played two seasons at Gulf Coast Community College, where he lettered as a catcher. He completed his playing career at Jacksonville, where he led the ninth-ranked Dolphins in hitting at the 1976 NCAA South Regional.

Laval and his wife, Pam, are the parents of two children, Brandon and Jamie.
