LSU To Face Georgia Tech in Chick-fil-A Bowl

For the ninth-straight year, LSU will cap a football season in a bowl game as the Tigers travel to Atlanta to face 14th-ranked Georgia Tech in the Chick-fil-A Bowl. The game will be played in the Georgia Dome and will be televised, unopposed, on ESPN. Kickoff for the contest is scheduled for 6:30 p.m. CST on Dec. 31. LSU brings a 7-5 overall mark into the game, while Georgia Tech is 9-3 overall. The game between the two teams will mark the 19th meeting with the Yellow Jackets holding a 12-6 advantage in the series.

About the LSU Program

Since taking over in 2005, LSU coach Les Miles has guided the Tigers to a 41-11 overall mark, the 2007 national title, the 2007 SEC title and to three bowl victories, including two BCS bowl wins. LSU has also won the SEC Western Division twice and is second to only Florida in the SEC in total wins over the past four years. Going into this year's bowl season, LSU is the only team in college football to have won two BCS National Championships – 2003 and 2007. LSU is also 4-0 in BCS games, which ranks first among all schools in college football in terms of wins and winning percentage.

LSU's Won 15 Straight Overall On ESPN Family Of Networks; Break At 14 On ESPN

LSU brings a 15-game winning streak on the ESPN family of networks into the Georgia Tech game on Dec. 31. The 15-game streak goes back to the 2005 season when Tennessee rallied for a 30-27 overtime win over the Tigers on a Monday night in a game televised by ESPN2. Since then, the Tigers have reeled off 15-straight victories on the all sports network. Breaking down the 15-game streak has the Tigers winning eight straight on ESPN, six in a row on ESPN2, and one time on ESPN Classic. In ESPN only games, the Tigers have won 14 straight, a streak that dates back to the 2002 season. The Georgia Tech game will mark LSU's third appearance on ESPN this year.

Welcoming In A New Year On The Gridiron; LSU is 1-1 In New Year's Eve Games

LSU's game against Georgia Tech will mark only the third time in school history that the Tigers will play a game on New Year's Eve. LSU is 1-1 in games played on New Year's Eve. The Tigers dropped a 24-14 decision to Stanford on Dec. 31, 1977 in the Sun Bowl and then followed that 10 years later with a 30-13 win over South Carolina in the 1987 Gator Bowl.

LSU Goes For Win No. 700 Against Georgia Tech

LSU goes into the Chick-fil-A Bowl having won 699 games during its 115 years of playing football, leaving the school just one victory shy of reaching the 700-win mark. Currently, only 11 schools have won 700 games during their history. A win by LSU against Georgia Tech will make the Tigers the 12th team in college football's highest-division to win 700 games.

LSU Eyes Eighth Win; Tigers Have Won At Least 8 Games Every Year Since 2000

LSU goes into the Georgia Tech game needing one victory to reach eight wins for the 2008 season. LSU is currently riding a streak of having won at least eight games for a school record eight-straight years. A win over Georgia Tech will run the streak to nine consecutive seasons. Since the start of the 2000 season, LSU is 89-27, which ranks second in the SEC to Georgia's 91 wins during that span.

Tigers Bowl In Bowl Game For Record Ninth-Straight Year

The win over Tulane gave the Tigers their sixth win this year, thus making LSU bowl eligible for a school record ninth-straight season. Since the start of the 2000 season, LSU has played in the following bowl games: BCS National Championship (2007), Chick-fil-A Bowl (2000, 2005, and 2008), Sugar Bowl (2001, 2003, 2006), Cotton Bowl (2002) and Capital One Bowl (2004). In addition, LSU's streak of nine-straight bowl appearances ties for the seventh-longest current stretch nationally. Florida State holds the mark with 27-straight bowl games. Georgia Tech is appearing in a bowl game for the 12th-straight year, which ranks fourth nationally.

LSU To Make 40th Bowl Appearance

When LSU tees it up against Georgia Tech on Dec. 31, the Tigers will be making their 40th appearance in a bowl game, a figure that ties for ninth among all college football programs. Alabama holds the record with 56 bowl games. LSU's 40 bowl appearances ties with Ohio State.

LSU Ranks 10th All-Time in Bowl Wins With 20

LSU's 20 bowl victories ranks as the 10th-highest total, along with Florida State, in college football. Alabama has more bowl victories than any other school with 31 to its credit. Since 2000, LSU is 6-2 in bowl games, which includes three Sugar Bowl victories. LSU is 20-18-1 all-time in bowl games, which includes a 3-0 mark under Les Miles. Miles and the Tigers beat Miami, 40-3, in the 2005 Peach Bowl, followed that with a 41-14 victory over Notre Dame to cap the 2006 season and then beat No. 1 ranked Ohio State, 38-24, in last year's BCS National Championship Game.

The LSU-Georgia Tech Series

LSU and Georgia Tech will meet for the 19th time in the Chick-fil-A Bowl in Atlanta. It's been eight years since the last meeting between the teams, which also came in the Chick-fil-A Bowl. LSU rallied from a 14-3 halftime deficit to win, 28-14, behind a second half rally led by backup quarterback Rohan Davey. Georgia Tech leads the overall series with the Tigers, 12-6, but LSU has won five of the last six meetings. Georgia Tech was a member of the SEC from 1933-1963 during which the two teams met 14 times as conference rivals. The first meeting between the two teams was in 1915 with Georgia Tech capturing a 36-7 win in New Orleans. The two met twice more before the Yellow Jackets joined the SEC. Prior to the 2000 bowl matchup, the last time the two teams faced off was in 1963 with LSU grinding out a 7-6 victory in Baton Rouge. Georgia Tech has been ranked in the top 15 in the nation in the last four meetings between the teams, however the Tigers have pulled the upset all four times. LSU beat No. 3 ranked Georgia Tech, 10-0, in Baton Rouge in 1961, then followed that with a 10-7 win over No. 5 Georgia Tech in 1962, a 7-6 victory over the No. 7 ranked Yellow Jackets in 1963, and the 28-14 win in the 2000 Chick-fil-A Bowl against No. 15 Tech. Johnson, a native of Olla, La., started all 12 games this season for the Tigers at left guard and brings a streak of 36 consecutive starts into the Chick-fil-A Bowl, his final collegiate game. The 6-foot-7 senior was also a member of the 2008 All-Southeastern Conference first team by the Associated Press and league coaches earlier this week. For the season, the senior has played 825 snaps and registered 53 knockdowns. The Walter Camp All-America team is selected by the head coaches and sports information directors of the 119 Football Bowl Subdivision schools and certified by UHY Advisors, a New Haven-based accounting firm.

OT Ciron Black, RB Charles Scott, PK Colt David, DE Tyson Jackson and LB Darry Beckwith earned second-team recognition. LaFell is the first LSU receiver to earn first-team All-SEC honors by the Associated Press since Michael Clayton did so in 2003. With Alem earning the recognition, LSU has placed a defensive lineman on the AP All-SEC First Team for the sixth-straight season dating back to 2003. LSU has placed 15 players on the AP All-SEC first team since 2005 and 21 players on the first and second teams since head coach Les Miles' first season. LSU has placed at least three players on the AP All-SEC first team every season since 2003.

LSU Goes Into Georgia Tech Coming Off Rare Back-to-Back Losses

LSU goes into the Georgia Tech game coming off a pair of setbacks in losing 31-13 to Ole Miss and 31-30 to Arkansas. The back-to-back losses were the first for LSU during the Les Miles era. The last time LSU lost back-to-back games came in 2002 when the Tigers lost to Arkansas, 21-20, in the regular season finale and then followed that with a 35-20 defeat to Texas in the Cotton Bowl. LSU is 9-1 under Les Miles in games following a loss.

LSU Brings 18-Game Non-Conference Winning Streak Into Chick-fil-A Bowl

LSU coach Les Miles is a perfect 18-0 in non-conference games at LSU. The 17-game non-conference winning streak ranks second in the nation to Boston College, who has won 21 in a row. LSU's last non-conference loss came during the 2004 season when Iowa scored on the final play of the game to beat LSU, 30-25, in the Capital One Bowl.

Jefferson Joins List of First-Time Starters At QB; Hatch and Lee Both Won Their LSU Debut

LSU's Jordan Jefferson became the first true freshman to start at quarterback for the Tigers since 1995 when Herb Tyler took over as the starting QB late in the year. To take it a step further, Jefferson also became the first true freshman to have his first start in an LSU uniform come in an SEC game since Jamie Howard got the nod against Tennessee in 1992. Earlier this year, QB Andrew Hatch became the first Tiger signal caller to win his first career start that came in a season-opener since Sol Graves beat Georgia, 18-13, to open the 1990 season. When Hatch started against Appalachian State on Aug. 30, he became the first LSU quarterback to get his first career start in a season-opener since Matt Mauck did it against Virginia Tech in 2002. LSU Falls Out Of Polls For First Time Since 2002

LSU fell out of the national rankings the week following the Ole Miss loss. It's the first time since the 2002 season the Tigers hadn't been ranked in the top 25. Prior to polls which were released on Nov. 16, LSU had been ranked in the USA Today Coaches Poll for a school-record 95 consecutive week and for 94 straight periods in the AP Top 25. The last time LSU failed to make the top 25 in either poll came following the Tigers loss to Texas in the 2003 Cotton Bowl to conclude the 2002 season.

What A Comeback - Tiger Score 37 Unanswered Points To Beat Troy, 40-31

Down 31-3 with 26 minutes left in the game, LSU was looking at suffering one of the worst losses in the history of the program. Instead, the Tigers celebrated the biggest comeback in modern day (SEC era) history as LSU scored 37 unanswered points to rally for a 40-31 win over Troy. Down 31-10 to start the fourth quarter, LSU scored 30 points during the final 15 minutes to record the win. The following is a look at some of the notables from the Troy game:

- LSU scored 30 points in the 4th quarter, which was the most by an LSU team during the final 15 minutes of play since 1958 when the Tigers scored 35 points in a 62-0 win over Tulane. LSU also scored 28 points in the fourth quarter in a comeback win over Arizona State in 2005 and against Ole Miss in 1970.
- LSU's 30 fourth quarter points were the second highest total in a quarter in school history - trailing the 35 points scored in the third quarter vs. Rice in 1977 and the fourth quarter vs. Tulane in 1958.
- LSU's rally from a 28-point deficit was the largest comeback in school history, bettering the 21-0 first half deficit to Ole Miss in 1977.
- It was also biggest fourth quarter rally in school history, bettering the 20-point deficit LSU erased against Houston in the 1996 season opener. LSU trailed Houston 34-14 to open the fourth quarter in 1996 and came back to win, 35-34.

Taking Note On The Tigers Under Miles (Since 2005)

Here are some notable trends for LSU in the 52 games its played under head coach Les Miles ... The Tigers are 38-5 when rushing for 100 yards or more ... On the contrary, the Tigers are just 3-6 under Les Miles when failing to reach the 100-yard mark in net rushing yards ... The Tigers are 29-3 when leading after the first quarter with the only losses during that span coming against Tennessee in 2005, Arkansas in 2007, and Alabama in 2008 - all three of which were overtime losses ... LSU is 39-7 when scoring 20 or more points and 33-5 when scoring 25 or more points ... The Tigers are 29-3 when holding opponents to fewer than 100 yards rushing, while the record goes to 12-

7 under Miles when allowing opponents to go over the 100-yard mark.

Colt David Is LSU's All-Time Leading Scorer; Ranks No. 4 In SEC History

With his second-quarter field goal against Georgia on Oct. 25, LSU senior PK Colt David became the school's all-time leading scorer, moving past Kevin Faulk's total of 318 points. David now has 361 points during his career, a figure that ranks No. 4 in SEC history. David has kicked 53 field goals during his career, second-most in LSU history. Of his 53 field goals, 18 have come from at least 40 yards out, including what was then a career-long 51-yarder he connected on against Georgia to break the school record for scoring. David has three field goals of 50-yards or better during his career becoming just the second player in school history (other is Chris Jackson) to have three field goals of 50 yards or more during a career.

Jefferson Makes Plays With Feet and Arm

In two games of watching QB Jordan Jefferson on the field, one thing is very obvious - the true freshman can make plays with his arm and his feet - giving the Tigers a versatile quarterback that the school hasn't seen since the days of Herb Tyler. Since taking over for an injured Jarrett Lee against Ole Miss, Jefferson has thrown for 272 yards and 3 TDs, while also rushing for 73 yards. Jefferson led the Tigers in both categories - rushing and passing - in games against both Ole Miss and Arkansas. It's the first time The last time an LSU QB led the Tigers in both categories in consecutive games was

Scott Goes Over 1,000-Yard Mark To Become 12th Player In School History To Reach Milestone

With 90 yards rushing against Troy, LSU RB Charles Scott joined the 1,000-yard club at LSU. Scott became the 12th 1,000-yard rusher in school history. Scott goes into the Georgia Tech game with 1,109 yards and 15 TDs. Scott's 1,109 yards ranks as the ninth-highest single season total at LSU. LSU has now had back-to-back 1,000-yard rushers as Jacob Hester made the list with 1,103 yards a year ago.

Chuck The Truck Ranks No. 4 In SEC In Rushing

Charles Scott continues to rank among the best in the SEC in rushing as he's No. 4 in the league with 92.4 yards per game. For the year, Scott has 1,109 yards and 15 TDs on 202 carries. He's averaging 5.5 yards per rush. This year, Scott has six 100-yard games to his credit, which ranks fourth in LSU history for 100-yard games in a season. He's also No. 5 in 100-yard games in a career at LSU with 7. The single-season school record for 100-yard games is seven. Earlier this year, Scott became the first LSU player in school history to rush for 100 yards at Auburn as he racked up 132 yards in the LSU win. By rushing for 100 yards in LSU's first four games, Scott joined Charles Alexander

LSU Does It Again...Records 11th Fourth-Quarter Comeback Under Miles

LSU has won 11 games under Les Miles when they have trailed in the fourth quarter of a contest. The latest victory came against Troy this year when the Tigers trailed 31-10 to start the fourth quarter and came back to win, 40-31. The following is a look at LSU's fourth-quarter comebacks under Miles, how many points the Tigers had to overcome in the final frame to win and the quarterback who engineered the comeback:

LSU Tailbacks Go Into Georgia Tech Game With Streak Of 743 Carries Without Losing A Fumble

Upon further review, the fumble that was charged to Charles Scott against Florida should have gone to QB Andrew Hatch, thus keeping LSU's streak of consecutive carries by its tailbacks intact. LSU's stable of tailbacks - Scott, Keiland Williams, Richard Murphy and Stevan Ridley - go into the Georgia Tech game having combined for 606 carries without losing a fumble. To go a step further, an LSU tailback hasn't lost a fumble since the Arkansas game in 2006 when Alley Broussard fumbled in the third quarter of that contest, a streak that now stands at 743 carries. Charles Scott, the SEC's No. 4-rated rusher, leads the group with 293 carries without a lost fumble, followed by Keiland Williams (224 carries), Richard Murphy (77 carries) and Stevan Ridley (12 carries). An LSU back lost a fumble against Mississippi State, however it was fullback Quinn Johnson and not a tailback who coughed up the football in the second quarter against the Bulldogs. The following is a look at the number of carries LSU's current running backs have toted the football without a fumble:

PLAYER	CARRIES W/OUT A LOST FUMBLE	LAST FUMBLE LOST
Charles Scott	293	none
Keiland Williams	224	none
Richard Murphy	77	none
Stevan Ridley	12	none
TOTALS	606

Here's a look at the break-down of carries by LSU tailbacks since they last lost a fumble:

YEAR	CARRIES BY A TB WITHOUT A LOST FUMBLE	LAST FUMBLE LOST
2006	34	Alley Broussard, 3Q at Arkansas
2007	375	None
2008	334	None
TOTALS	743

(1978) and Steve Van Buren (1943) as the only players in school history to accomplish such a feat. Alexander did it in the first four games in 1978 before having the streak snapped in week 5 against Georgia, while Van Buren did in LSU's first seven games in 1943.

Scott Now Has 15 Rushing TDs This Year; 25 For Career

With a rushing TD against Arkansas, Charles Scott ran his season total to 15. The 15 rushing TDs ties for No. 3 in school history. Scott also has 25 rushing TDs for his career, a figure that currently ranks No. 9 in school history. LaBrandon Toefield holds the LSU record for rushing TDs in a single season with 19, while Kevin Faulk holds the career record with 46.

LaFell No. 2 In SEC In Receptions, No. 3 In Yards Per Game

LSU junior WR Brandon LaFell is turning in quite a season as he's caught 61 passes for 903 yards and eight touchdowns. LaFell goes into the bowl game ranked No. 2 in the league in receptions per game with 5.1 and he's No. 3 in the SEC in yards per game with 75.2. LaFell's 61 receptions rank as the seventh-highest single-season total in school history, while is 903 yards is 10th in school history. LaFell goes into the bowl game having caught at least one pass in 27-straight games. For his career, LaFell has caught 116 passes for 1,699 yards and 14 scores.

Dickson Up To No. 5 In School History For Receptions; He's No. 2 In TDs By A Tight End

Richard Dickson continued his climb up the LSU record charts for receptions by a tight end as he hauled in caught two passes for 19 yards and one TD against Arkansas. Dickson now has 65 receptions in his career, which ranks fifth in school history. Mitch Andrews holds the LSU career mark with 87. In addition, Dickson has nine TD receptions in his career, a total that ranks second in school history. Brad Boyd holds the LSU mark for TD receptions by a tight end with 10 from 1972-74. This year, Dickson ranks third on the team with 27 catches for 274 yards and four scores. For his career, Dickson has caught 65 passes for 745 yards and nine touchdowns.

Alem No. 3 In SEC In Sacks

Rahim Alem goes into bowl season ranked No. 3 in the SEC in sack with a total of eight to his credit this year. The eight sacks ties for 10th place on LSU's single-season charts. In 12 games, Alem's eight sacks have accounted for 66 yards in losses. Alem is also No. 8 in the SEC in tackles for losses with 10.

LSU's Streak of Consecutive Games With 21 Points Snapped At 31 Straight vs. Ole Miss

LSU's streak of scoring at least 21 points in a game was snapped vs. Ole Miss. LSU had gone 31-straight games with scoring at least 21 points, a stretch that dated back to the Florida game in 2006. The Tigers go into the Georgia Tech game having scored at least 21 points in 32 of their last 33 games.

An Experienced Offensive Line; Tigers Front Five Have Combined For 151 Starts

When it comes to the offensive line, there's not a more experienced group on the field for the Tigers. LSU's starting offensive line has combined for 156 starts. The Tigers lost only one starter from their offensive line of a year ago - Carnell Stewart. Senior Brett Helms leads the way with 40 career starts - 38 of those from under center. Junior Ciron Black has started at left tackle in all 39 career games he has played in. Senior Ryan Miller has three starts, senior Herman Johnson has 38 starts, junior Lyle Hitt owns 25 starts and sophomore right tackle Joe Barksdale has 12 career starts. Andrew Whitworth (2002-05) holds the LSU record for career starts with 52.

A Unique Situation At Left Tackle

Starting left tackle Ciron Black made his 39th career start against Arkansas, continuing a unique trend at that position for the Tigers. Since the start of the 2002 season, a stretch that spans 91 games, only two players have started at left tackle for the Tigers - Black and Andrew Whitworth. Whitworth, now a starting guard for the Cincinnati Bengals, set an LSU record by starting 52-straight games for the Tigers from 2002-05. Black then picked up where Whitworth left off, starting the next 39 games at that position for the Tigers.

LSU's Best After Dark - Despite Florida Loss Tigers Have Won 22 Of Last 23 Night Games

Night games in Tiger Stadium seem to bring out the best in LSU. However, lately LSU has been at its best no matter the location just as long as it dark outside. After the win over Troy on Nov. 15, LSU has now won 22 of its last 23 night games. (Note: NCAA determines that a kickoff at 5 p.m. or later is a night game). Florida snapped LSU's streak of consecutive night wins at 19 on Oct. 11. LSU's streak of 22 wins in its last 23 night games includes six games this year, seven games in 2007, eight in 2006 and the win over Miami in the Chick-fil-A Bowl to cap the 2005 season. Prior to the Florida game on Oct. 11, LSU hadn't lost a night game since a 34-14 loss to Georgia in the SEC Championship Game in 2005. Overall, LSU coach Les Miles has guided the Tigers to a 28-3 mark in night games.

LSU Among Nation's Best In Success Away From Home

With a 27-9 record in games played away from Tiger Stadium since the start of the 2003 season, LSU has established itself as one of the nation's best teams in terms of success away from home. LSU's .750 winning percentage away from home since 2003 ranks as the nation's fifth best winning percentage during that span. The following is a look at the college football's best teams in away/neutral site games since 2003:

TEAM	RECORD	PCT.
Southern Cal	35-6	.854
Texas	31-7	.816
Boise State	30-8	.789
Georgia	29-9	.763
LSU	27-9	.750

Miles 8-5 Against Top 10 Teams; 15-8 vs. Top 25 Opponents

LSU coach Les Miles goes into the Georgia Tech game having won 15 games against top 25 teams during his four seasons with the Tigers. Miles is 15-8 overall against top 25 teams at LSU, which includes an 8-5 record against top 10 foes. LSU is 1-3 vs. top 25 teams this year, which includes a 1-2 mark vs. top 10 opponents. Miles and the Tigers won a school-record seven games against top 25 teams a year ago, which included a perfect 3-0 mark against top 10 teams. The following is a look at how Miles has fared against top 10 teams during his four-years with the Tigers:

YEAR	OPPONENT (RANK)	LSU RANK	RESULTS
2005	Tennessee (No. 10)	No. 4	L, 30-27 OT
2005	at Alabama (No. 3)	No. 5	W, 16-13 OT

2008	Auburn (No. 9/10)	No. 6	W, 26-21
2008	Georgia (No. 9)	No. 11	L, 52-38
2008	Alabama (No. 1)	No. 16	L, 27-21 OT

He Must Be A Former Lineman

One look at LSU's results in relation to rushing the football and it's easy to figure out that head coach Les Miles is a former offensive lineman from Michigan. In 52 games under Miles, LSU's success is easy to predict when it comes to net rushing yards. Get to 100 yards rushing and LSU will more than likely win as the Tigers are 38-5 under Miles when that happens. Hold the opponent to fewer than 100-yards and the Tigers are 29-3. An even more telling stat is that when LSU rushes for 100-plus yards and holds the opponents to fewer than 100-yards, the Tigers are 27-0. The following is a look at LSU's rushing numbers during the Miles era and have the Tigers have fared in those games:

YEAR	LSU 100+	LSU 100-	OPP 100+	OPP 100-	LSU 100+/OPP 100-
2005	10-0	1-2	3-1	8-1	7-0
2006	10-0	1-2	5-0	6-2	6-0
2007	11-2	1-0	3-2	9-0	8-0
2008	7-3	0-2	2-4	6-0	6-0
Totals	38-4	3-6	13-7	29-3	27-0

Eight True Frosh Have Seen Action Thus Far For LSU

Six true freshmen saw action in LSU's season-opening win over Appalachian State. QB Jordan Jefferson added his name to the list against North Texas and then Derrick Bryant made the list by playing for the first time against Florida. The following is a look at the true freshmen who have seen action this year for the Tigers:

GAME	TRUE FRESHMEN WHO SAW FIRST ACTION OF CAREER
App. State	CB Patrick Peterson, CB Brandon Taylor, LB Ryan Baker, DB Karnell Hatcher, OT Greg Shaw, WR Deangelo Peterson
North Texas	QB Jordan Jefferson
Florida	DB Derrick Bryant

LSU's Won 30 Consecutive Saturday Night Games In Tiger Stadium

With its win over Troy, LSU has now won 30 consecutive Saturday night games in Death Valley. LSU's streak of consecutive Saturday night wins in Tiger Stadium goes back to the 2002 season when the Tigers beat Ole Miss, 14-13, to get the run started. The last time LSU lost a Saturday night game in Tiger Stadium came against Alabama on Nov. 16, 2002 by a 31-0 count.

LSU Has Used 14 First-Time Starters This Season, Including 3 At QB

LSU has used a total of 14 first-time starters this year, including two at the quarterback position. The Florida contest was the first time this year that the LSU lineup didn't feature a first-time starter. The following is a look at the first-time starters for LSU this year:

GAME	FIRST-TIME STARTERS
App. State	QB Andrew Hatch, RT Joe Barksdale, DE Tremaine Johnson, CB Chris Hawkins, S Harry Coleman, CB Jai Eugene, S Chad Jones
North Texas	DT Al Woods, DB Phelon Jones
Auburn	LB Kelvin Sheppard, LB Perry Riley
Miss. State	QB Jarrett Lee
Alabama	DE Rahim Alem
Troy	CB Patrick Peterson
Arkansas	QB Jordan Jefferson

Finally, A Normal Routine Without Hurricanes

It was like déjà vu for LSU earlier this year as the Tigers must have had flashbacks to the 2005 season when the first month of football season was disrupted by Hurricanes Katrina and Rita. In 2005, LSU didn't finally settle into a normal week of practice followed by a regularly-scheduled Saturday contest until the week the Tigers played at Vanderbilt on Oct. 8. This year, it was eerily similar as LSU's first two games were altered. In week one, the Appalachian State game was moved up six hours to 10 a.m. because of Hurricane Gustav and the following week the Troy contest was postponed until Nov. 15 because of that storm. The North Texas game appeared to be in jeopardy for most of the week before Hurricane Ike took a path away from Baton Rouge. The following is a look at the schedule disruptions for LSU caused by Hurricanes since the start of the 2005 season:

YEAR	GAME	HURRICANE	OUTCOME
2005	North Texas	Katrina	game postponed from Sept. 3 to Oct. 29
2005	Arizona St.	Katrina	game moved from Baton Rouge to Tempe, Ariz.
2005	Tennessee	Rita	game moved from Saturday to Monday night
2008	App. State	Gustav	game moved up 6 hours to 10 a.m.
2008	Troy	Gustav	game postponed from Sept. 6 to Nov. 15

Billy Cannon

2008 COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME INDUCTEE

On Dec. 9, LSU's legendary halfback Billy Cannon, the winner of the 1959 Heisman Trophy, was inducted into the prestigious College Football Hall of Fame in the Grand Ballroom of the historic Waldorf-Astoria Hotel in New York City. Cannon joined five other former LSU greats in the College Football Hall of Fame and was the first Tiger player to be inducted since Tommy Casanova in 1995. Cannon was inducted along with 12 other former college gridiron stars and two coaching legends. A sign honoring the All-American was unveiled in the southeast corner of Tiger Stadium after the first quarter of the Tigers' game with Ole Miss on Nov. 22. The landmark represented Cannon being the only football player in school history to have his number retired. The recognition came on the same day members of LSU's 1958 national championship team were honored, 50 years after claiming the school's first national title.

Top: Billy Cannon during the Hall of Fame press conference on the day of his induction in New York.

Middle: Matthew Sign of the National Football Foundation and LSU's Joe Alleva present Billy Cannon with his Hall of Fame plaque during LSU's on-campus recognition.

Bottom: A sign honoring Cannon's retired No. 20 was unveiled at the Ole Miss game.

During the Ole Miss game this season the 50th Anniversary of the 1958 National Championship team was celebrated at halftime.

"THE SCARIEST PLACE TO PLAY IN AMERICA"

ESPN.COM, OCT. 2007

"(Tiger) Woods pumped both fists and yelled, as jacked as you'll ever see him. But the crowd explosion drowned out whatever was coming out of his mouth. It was the closest golf has ever come to sounding like fourth-and-goal at LSU's Tiger Stadium on a Saturday night."

- Pat Forde, ESPN.com on Tiger Woods' putt to force a playoff at the 2008 U.S. Open, June 14, 2008

"Baton Rouge happens to be the worst place in the world for a visiting team. It's like being inside a drum."

- Paul "Bear" Bryant, Former Alabama Coach

"Three SEC coaches I spoke with who have worked in other leagues say that Tiger Stadium is, by far, the loudest stadium in the country."

- Bruce Feldman, ESPN.com, Oct. 1, 2007

"The best atmosphere that I have ever played in is Tiger Stadium. The Super Bowl is right there with it, but there is still nothing like Tiger Stadium on a Saturday night."

- Anthony "Booger" McFarland, LSU All-American and two-time Super Bowl champion with the Buccaneers and the Colts

Football OPERATIONS CENTER

LSU's Football Operations Center is an all-in-one facility that includes football offices, locker room, training room, weight room, equipment room and video operations center. The $15 million facility is located on Skip Bertman Drive at the Charles McClendon Practice Facility. Built in 2006, the facility is one of the finest of its kind in college athletics, allowing more efficient time for dressing, training and practicing for the LSU football team.

The atrium of the Football Operations Center houses over 50 trophies displaying the great moments in LSU football history. Here the past and present of LSU football is celebrated with memorabilia that dates back to the 1930s.

Ten individual players are honored for national awards in the atrium with the oldest trophy being the 1939 Knute Rockne Award presented to Ken Kavanaugh. Billy Cannon's 1959 Heisman Trophy (above) serves as one of the atrium's most popular displays.

Locker Room

The Football Operations Center locker room has 140 stations with lockable storage bins and a padded sitting area. The room also includes four plasma screen TVs and six 27-inch TVs.

Indoor Field

The Anderson-Feazel LSU Indoor Field is a 100-yard climate-controlled practice facility connected to the Operations Center. Built in 1991, the area is 8,250 square feet with Momentum Field Turf by SportExe similar to the Louisiana Superdome and M&T Bank Stadium in Baltimore.

The main auditorium, that includes 144 spacious theatre-style seats for team meetings and film sessions, has state-of-the-art audio and visual components necessary for meetings, lectures and reviewing of game footage.

One of the most state-of-the-art video centers in the nation is housed in the Football Operations Center, complete with editing equipment to produce highlight videos and review game footage.

LSU's 65 All-Americans are honored in the atrium.

The facility features four 100-yard football practice fields as well as an indoor practice facility. On Sept. 9, 2002, LSU formally named its football practice facility for Charles McClendon, the winningest football coach in school history.
