It has been said that LSU is in the midst of the Golden Era of football at the school and head coach Les Miles has been the driving force behind the Tigers' continued dominance at the national since his arrival in 2005.

Since taking over as head coach at LSU four years ago, Miles has guided the Tigers to the 2007 BCS National Title and to three-straight top five rankings, a first at the school. LSU finished the 2005 season ranked No. 5, followed by a No. 3 national finish in 2006. Last year, the Tigers, with a 12-2 overall record, claimed the school's second BCS title in five years with a 38-24 win over Ohio State in the national championship game.

National Championship Season!

Miles' record with the Tigers is an astonishing 41-11 with those 41 victories standing as the most by any LSU coach over a four-year period. In addition to his 41 wins, some other notable accomplishments during his first four years with the Tigers include: only coach in LSU history to beat Auburn, Florida and Alabama in same season - and he's done it twice; only first-year coach in SEC history to lead team to league's title game; has nine wins over coaches who have won national titles; he's the only coach in LSU history to lead Tigers to three straight top five final rankings; and he's a perfect 3-0 in bowl games, including a pair of wins in BCS bowl games.

LSU's success under Miles hasn't been just on the playing field as the Tigers have also excelled in the classroom as well as being active participants within the community. With an approach that demands his players strive for excellence and pursue an education while representing the University in first-class fashion, the response by the players has been overwhelming. In addition to averaging over 10 wins for the past four years, the Tigers have had 51 players earn a spot on the SEC Academic Honor Roll with another 63 earning their college diploma. Of the 19 seniors on this year's team, 14 will have graduated by the time the Tigers face Georgia Tech in the Chick-fil-A Bowl.

The Tigers also played an instrumental role in the recovery efforts following Hurricanes Katrina and Rita, two of the most devastating natural disasters to hit the Louisiana coast.

On the field, the Tigers have produced 19 NFL Draft picks over the past three years, including a school-record four first-round picks in the 2007 draft. In 2007, senior defensive tackle Glenn Dorsey became the most decorated defender in school history, winning four national awards - the Lombardi, Outland, Nagurski and Lott Trophies - as well as being named the SEC Defensive Player of the Year and a consensus All-American.

Now, with the Tigers becoming the first school in the country to have won two BCS National Championships, the foundation for the LSU football program continues to be solid. After 41 wins, including 15 over foes ranked among the nation's top 25, and with three-straight recruiting classes ranked among the top 10 in the nation, Miles and the Tigers have solidified their standing as one of college football's premier programs. The LSU Years

Les Miles' first three years with the Tigers were unmatched in the history of the program with a national title, 34 victories and just six losses. One would be hard pressed to find a better three stretch in major college football. Miles ran his LSU record to 41-11 overall this year as the Tigers posted a 7-5 overall mark and reached a bowl game for the fourth consecutive year.

Despite the 7-5 mark in 2007, LSU still had its moments, which included comeback road wins over Auburn and South Carolina as well as overcoming a 31-10 fourth quarter deficit to beat Troy in Tiger Stadium. Of the five losses in 2007, three came against top 10 teams.

Miles' 41 victories in his first 50 games at LSU tied with three other SEC coaches for the most in league history during that span. Miles' 41 wins is also the most by any LSU coach in his first four seasons with the school and he's just the third coach in school history to take his team to a bowl game in each of his first four seasons.

After two of the most successful seasons in school history in 2005 and 2006, Miles again led the Tigers to a season of firsts in 2007. LSU became the first school in the Bowl Championship Series era to claim a second BCS National Title with its 38-24 win over Ohio State. LSU's first BCS title came in 2003 when the Tigers beat Oklahoma, 21-14.

With a 12-2 final record in 2007, the Tigers became the first team in school history to win at least 10 games in three-straight years. The 2007 Tigers also set the school record for wins over top 25 teams (7), won the SEC Championship with a backup quarterback and were ranked No. 1 in the BCS Standings during the regular season for the first time in school history. LSU finished the year ranked No. 1 in the nation in both the USA Today Coaches Poll and the AP Poll.

The road to the 2007 SEC title was anything but easy for the Tigers as LSU faced a total of seven top 25 teams, winning six of those games. After spending most of the season ranked among the top three teams in the nation, including a four-week stay at No. 1, the Tigers quickly found out that they had a target on their back each week. Time after time, week after week, LSU was getting the best shot from their opponents.

It didn't help matters that LSU played key stretches of its season with injuries to standout players. Star wideout Early Doucet missed five games; quarterback Matt Flynn wasn't healthy for close to a month; and All-American Glenn Dorsey played hurt for the final five games of the regular season. Still, LSU, with outstanding depth and a will to overcome adversity, found a way to win. Four times in 2007 the Tigers had to come from behind in the fourth quarter to win games, including its 21-14 victory over Tennessee in the SEC Championship Game.

LSU scored a touchdown with a second left to beat Auburn at home and then followed that by scoring two touchdowns in the final three minutes of the Alabama game to record a comeback win over the Crimson Tide.

Against top 10-ranked Florida, LSU scored with just over a minute left, capping a drive that saw the Tigers convert on a pair of fourth down attempts, to beat the defending national champions, 28-24, in Tiger Stadium. Perhaps its best game of the season came in week 2 when a completely healthy LSU squad dominated No. 9 Virginia Tech in all phases of a 48-7 victory.

LSU didn't lose a game in regulation during the 2007 regular season, falling to both Kentucky and Arkansas in triple overtime.

When it mattered most, playing without an injured Flynn, the Tigers overcame the adversity that followed in the wake of week-long media speculation leading up to the SEC Championship Game about Miles perhaps leaving LSU to take the head coaching position at Michigan. In the end, Miles remained true to his word, staying at LSU and leading the Tigers to a 21-14 win over Tennessee in the SEC title game, a victory that helped propel LSU into the BCS National Championship contest. In the BCS Championship Game, the Tigers spotted top-ranked Ohio State an early 10-0 lead, but LSU came roaring back to take a convincing win over the Buckeyes by a 38-24 count. The win gave LSU its third national title and it also marked the fourth time this decade that the Tigers were victorious in a BCS bowl, the most of any SEC school.

After leading LSU to an 11-2 mark and a top five national ranking in his first year as LSU's head coach in 2005, many wondered just what Miles would do for an encore. His second year with the Tigers proved to be another year full of milestones and firsts as he guided the Tigers to another 11-2 overall record, culminating with a 41-14 dismantling of 11th-ranked Notre Dame in the Sugar Bowl.

The Tigers finished their second year under the direction of Miles ranked No. 3 in the nation, marking the first time since the 1958-59 seasons that LSU was ranked in the top five in the country in back-to-back years.

LSU's at-large berth in a BCS bowl was a first in school history and it also represented the third time this decade that the Tigers ended their season in the Sugar Bowl.

In 2006, Miles became the first coach in LSU history to lead the Tigers to back-to-back 10-wins seasons, something that he added to with another 10-plus win season in 2007.

He became the first LSU coach since Jerry Stovall in 1982 to beat two top 10-ranked teams on the road in the same season as the Tigers posted a 28-24 win over No. 8 Tennessee in Knoxville followed by a 31-26 victory over No. 5 Arkansas in Little Rock.

The Tigers were able to accomplish all of this during the 2006 season despite having to face four top eight opponents on the road, also a first in school history. LSU posted a 2-2 mark in those road games, which included November wins over Tennessee and Arkansas that propelled the Tigers to a berth in a BCS bowl.

LSU opened the 2006 season in grand style, posting identical 45-3 wins over Louisiana-Lafayette and Arizona. After a gut-wrenching 7-3 loss at No. 3 Auburn, the Tigers reeled off decisive wins over both Tulane (49-7) and Mississippi State (48-17). Following a 23-10 setback to eventual national champion Florida, the Tigers responded with seven-straight wins to end the season, starting with a 49-0 victory over a Kentucky team that went on to win eight games and beat Clemson in a bowl game.

The Tigers capped the 2006 season with a 41-14 win over an overmatched Notre Dame team in the Sugar Bowl, giving the Tigers their third win in a BCS game since the 2001 season.

With a makeshift offensive line that featured three first-time starters and a pair of true freshmen running backs having to plug holes in a depleted backfield, the Tigers still managed to lead the SEC in total offense (411 yards per game) and scoring offense (33.7 points per game), while ranking No. 2 in the league in rushing offense (165 yards per game). Defensively, the Tigers, despite losing three defensive linemen to the NFL Draft the year before, ranked among the top four in the nation in scoring defense, total defense and pass defense.

In all, the Tigers fashioned their 11-2 record against seven teams who went on to play in bowl games as LSU's schedule was ranked as the 12th toughest in the nation according to the NCAA.

Even though the Tigers had to go on the road to face four top 10-ranked teams in 2006, year two under Miles seemed somewhat ordinary compared to what the Tigers had to endure during his first year in Baton Rouge.

In Miles' inaugural season at LSU he led the Tigers to only the third 11-win season in school history, a top five national ranking and a berth in the SEC Championship Game, despite numerous distractions that covered most of the months of September and October.

The Tigers, playing without starting quarterback and future No. 1 overall NFL

Les and Kathy Miles with their four children, Kathryn, Leslie Matthew, Benjamin and Macy Grace.

Draft pick JaMarcus Russell, put an exclamation point on the year with a 40-3 win over No. 9 Miami in the Peach Bowl to finish with an 11-2 overall mark and a No. 5 national ranking.

To appreciate just how adverse the conditions that Miles and the Tigers had to overcome in 2005, you have to go back to late August and Hurricane Katrina, the first of two storms to

Les Miles

HEAD COACH

Men of Honor

Les Miles and his 2007 LSU national championship team traveled to Washington, D.C. in April 2008. The Tigers' head coach met with President George W. Bush at the White House and visited with soldiers assigned to guard the Tomb of the Unknowns at Arlington National Cemetery.

devastate Louisiana during the fall.

Days before LSU's originally scheduled season opener against North Texas in Tiger Stadium, Hurricane Katrina blew ashore, packing tremendous winds, and turned the state, in particular New Orleans and southeastern Louisiana, upside down.

Massive flooding followed in the wake of the storm as more than 30 LSU players had their families and their homes affected by the hurricane and Miles' first game in Tiger Stadium against North Texas postponed. With the LSU campus serving as the recovery center for those sick, homeless and displaced due to Hurricane Katrina, football seemed to be the farthest thing from most people's minds. However, Miles was able to successfully manage a delicate situation, one that saw his team and coaching staff volunteer time to those in need, while still attempting to focus on football for at least two hours a day.

After a week of trying to minimize the distractions for a football team that had their apartments and dorm rooms filled with displaced family members and friends due to the storm, it appeared that the Tigers would finally get to play a home game, this time against 15th-ranked Arizona State.

However, just as the Tigers began to prepare for the Sun Devils and the season opener in Tiger Stadium, it was learned that the devastation to New Orleans was much greater than originally thought. With the Maravich Center on the LSU campus serving as what would become the largest field triage unit in United States history, it was mutually decided to move the LSU-Arizona State game to Tempe.

With many in Louisiana under the distress of Hurricane Katrina, the Tigers were going to have to take to the desert to face a powerful offense in their first game of the season.

These were certainly trying times for everyone in the state of Louisiana, but even more so for a football coach who now had his team carrying the banner for a state in need of a diversion. LSU football had become a release for those consumed with the hurricane. LSU even re-stated its team goals, putting playing for the state of Louisiana at the top of the list.

The Tigers didn't disappoint as Miles and his LSU team used a 28-point fourth-quarter rally to come back to beat Arizona State, 35-31, in Tempe.

Now with the Arizona State game behind them, it looked as if things for the LSU football team would gradually get back to normal as the Tigers now had a week off before facing Tennessee in Tiger Stadium on Sept. 24.

Then, the unthinkable happened. Another storm, this one named Rita, hit southwest Louisiana, causing severe damage to more homes, leaving thousands without electricity and displacing even more Louisiana natives. The combination of Hurricanes Katrina and Rita forced LSU to again shuffle its schedule. Instead of playing Tennessee on a Saturday night in Tiger Stadium, the Tigers would now be forced to face the Volunteers on a Monday night. An emotionally drained LSU team saw a 21-0 halftime lead evaporate into a 30-27 overtime loss to the Vols.

There was no coaching handbook for Miles to refer to when it came to dealing with the hurricanes and preparing a team for competition during extreme adverse conditions. Miles was on his own, forced to navigate his LSU team through a treacherous stretch of games, while also being sympathetic to those still effected by the natural disasters.

With just five days between the Tennessee loss and the Mississippi State game, Miles and the Tigers were obviously dealt an unfair hand, however, he asked his team to respond and they did. The Mississippi State contest was the starting point for a stretch of games for the Tigers that saw LSU win nine straight. The 37-7 win over the Bulldogs was followed by a 34-6 road victory over Vanderbilt as the Tigers had re-established themselves as one of the nation's elite on the football field.

During what would be 11-consecutive weeks of play, the Tigers posted a win over Florida, along with overtime victories against Auburn and Alabama. In all, the Tigers beat four teams ranked among the top 15 in the nation, then a school record for regular season victories over ranked opponents.

After 10 straight weeks of play during the regular season, the Tigers fashioned a 7-1 conference mark and earned a berth in the SEC title game.

Miles became the only coach in his first year in the SEC to lead his squad to the league's title game. He also became the first coach in LSU history to beat Alabama, Auburn and Florida in the same season.

Following a loss to Georgia in the league's title game, Miles and the Tigers re-grouped, this time to beat No. 9 Miami, 40-3, in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl. The win gave the Tigers II victories for the year, making Miles the winningest first-year coach in school history.

Following his first year with the Tigers, LSU had seven players taken in the NFL Draft, including running back Joseph Addai, who went on to win a Super Bowl with Indianapolis in his first season in the league.

Miles, the 2002 Big 12 Conference Coach of the Year and former assistant with Michigan, Colorado and the Dallas Cowboys who built Oklahoma State into a force in the Big 12, became LSU's 32nd head football coach on Jan. 3, 2005.

During his three years with the Tigers, Miles has put together a 34-6 overall mark, while leading LSU to a 19-5 conference record. LSU has also had 12 players selected in the NFL Draft over the past two years, including a school-record four in the first round in 2007, which included the No. 1 overall pick in Russell. In addition, LSU has had seven players earn first-team All-America status under Miles.

Oklahoma State Years

In four short years, Miles turned the Oklahoma State football program into one that was nationally competitive, despite competing in state against one of the country's dominant programs.

Miles honed his head coaching skills at Oklahoma State. Under Miles' direction, the Cowboys were the only team in the nation to beat Oklahoma twice in the four-year period, and he was also the first coach in Oklahoma State history to post wins over Nebraska and Oklahoma in the same season.

Miles led the Cowboys to three-straight bowl appearances, an accomplishment Oklahoma State had not achieved since Jimmy Johnson started a string of three-straight post-season games beginning in 1983. In addition, Oklahoma State's appearance in the Cotton Bowl to cap the 2003 season marked the first time in 55 years that the Cowboys appeared in a January bowl game.

Miles' success as a collegiate head coach came by combining an explosive offensive system with that of a sound defensive scheme. In his last two years at Oklahoma State, Miles' offenses put up a total of 857 points for an average of 34.3 points per game.

As head coach at Oklahoma State, he built a consistent winner out of a program that had recorded only one winning season since 1988, and had posted a record of 13-20 in the three years prior to his arrival at OSU. After going 4-7 in his first year as head coach in 2001, he took the Cowboys to consecutive winning marks of 8-5 in 2002, 9-4 in 2003 and 7-5 in 2004.

Miles led Oklahoma State to a four-year record of 28-21 for a winning percentage of .571, the best career winning percentage for an OSU coach since Jim Lookabaugh ended his career in Stillwater in 1949.

In 2004, Miles took Oklahoma State as high as No. 15 in the country with five wins to open the season. The 2004 season included road wins at UCLA, Colorado and Missouri, and the Cowboys never lost to a team outside of the top 25. In addition, his 2004 Cowboys ranked 12th in the nation in rushing, averaging 237 yards per game, and Oklahoma State was among the national leaders in scoring offense with 32.3 points a contest.

Oklahoma State's 2003 season was highlighted by victories over eventual Big 12 Champion Kansas State and a bowl-bound Texas Tech squad. Miles and his Cowboys won seven straight in 2003 after a season opening loss at Nebraska, and finished the season with back-to-back victories. The seven consecutive victories marked the longest winning streak by an Oklahoma State team since 1949 when the Cowboys posted a perfect 9-0 record.

Miles' 2003 Oklahoma State team featured one NFL First Round Draft pick in wide receiver Rashaun Woods and second round selection in running back Tatum Bell as the Cowboy offensive attack featured both a 1,000-yard rusher (Bell) and a 1,000-yard receiver (Woods).

Miles was the 2002 Big 12 Conference Coach of the Year after directing his second Oklahoma State team to an 8-5 record and the school's first bowl appearance since 1997. In 2002, Miles' Cowboy offense set the school standard for passing offense (259 yards per game), while averaging 403.3 yards of offense per game, the fourth-highest total at the school.

The Cowboys, who averaged 34.4 points per game, closed the 2002 season with wins in six of their last seven games, including a 38-28 victory over then-No. 3 ranked Oklahoma in the regular-season finale. The Cowboys capped the 2002 season with a 33-23 win over Southern Miss in the Houston Bowl.

Assistant Coach Years

Prior to his tenure as head coach at Oklahoma State, Miles was the tight ends coach for the Dallas Cowboys for three seasons from 1998-2000. During his three years with the Cowboys, Dallas won one divisional title while participating in the playoffs twice. In Dallas, Miles learned of LSU and the charm of the school from tight end David LaFleur, who starred for the Tigers in the 1990s. In three years of coaching tight ends for the Cowboys, Miles' players combined for 136 receptions for 1,287 yards and 16 touchdowns. LaFleur, a former LSU All-America selection, had his best year under Miles in 1999, starting 16 games and catching 35 passes for 322 yards and seven touchdowns.

Before going to Dallas, Miles served as Oklahoma State's offensive coordinator for three seasons from 1995-97, including an 8-3 season and Alamo Bowl berth in 1997.

Miles' college playing and coaching career includes experience under some of the most noted coaches in college football. At Michigan, he played for legendary coach Bo Schembechler and later served on Schembechler's staff. He also worked with Gary Moeller at Michigan and Bill McCartney at Colorado.

Success has followed Miles at every stop of both his playing and professional career. He was a two-year letterman at Michigan (1974-75). During those two seasons, Michigan was a combined 18-3-2, had final Associated Press national rankings in the top 10 and participated in both the Rose and Orange Bowls.

He joined Schembechler's Michigan coaching staff in 1980 for the first of two stints as a coach in Ann Arbor. In 1980 and 1981, Michigan combined for 19 wins and just five losses, won the Big 10 title in 1980 and played in the Rose and Bluebonnet Bowls, respectively. Miles left Michigan for Colorado, where he served on McCartney's staff from 1982 through 1986. In his final two years at Colorado, the Buffs earned bids to the Freedom Bowl and Bluebonnet Bowl.

In 1987, he returned to Michigan, where he would spend the next eight years as part of one of the most successful eras in Michigan football history. From 1987 to 1994, Michigan won 71 games, made eight straight bowl appearances, including four trips to the Rose Bowl, and finished no lower than No. 21 in final Associated Press national rankings.

The 1989 Michigan squad finished 10-2, won the Big 10 championship and finished ranked No. 7 in the country. That would be Coach Bo Schembechler's final season as Michigan's head coach.

When Moeller took over the Michigan program prior to the 1990 season, Miles remained on the staff. The 1990 team finished 9-3, winning the Big 10 title and the Gator Bowl. The following season (1991), Michigan finished 10-2 and with a No. 6 national ranking. Miles coached some of the best players to wear the Michigan uniform, including eight first-team All-Americans, 10 total All-Americans and 12 players from Wolverine offensive lines that were NFL draftees.

Philanthropist At Heart

One of Les Miles' most impressive qualities is that of the time he spends giving to and helping causes that benefit others. Each year, Miles and his wife Kathy host an event that raises close to $100,000 for the Children's Miracle Network. In addition, he is active in other community service events such as the Mary Bird Perkins Cancer Center annual fundraiser, the Special Olympics and the Baton Rouge Children's Advocacy Center

Celebrity Waiter Event.

Miles spent a week in June of 2006 taking part in the USO Tour, where the Tiger head coach visited American Troops serving in Kuwait and Iraq. Miles was joined on the tour, which serves as a morale booster for the troops serving abroad, by former Notre Dame coach Lou Holtz and Tampa Bay Devil Rays owner Vincent Naimoli.

The week-long trip took Miles to several U.S. bases in Kuwait and then on to Iraq, where he visited with hundreds of American troops and even flew over the city of Baghdad in a Black Hawk helicopter.

The Family Man

When Miles isn't overseeing his LSU football family, he can most likely be found in the bleachers supporting his wife and kids at their sporting events. His oldest daughter Kathryn, who is commonly referred to as "Smacker", is one of the top junior swimmers in the state of Louisiana and, as a middle schooler, helped University High School claim the Division IV state title in 2006 and 2007. Smacker won the Division IV state championship in the 200 freestyle and placed sixth overall in the 100 backstroke in 2006. She followed that with two more state individual titles as well as swimming on two relay championships in 2007. Smacker also participates in basketball, volleyball and track and field.

Miles' two sons - Manny and Ben - are also avid athletes as they participate in everything from football to baseball to wrestling. Coach Miles also gets his share of time with the youngest of the Miles family, 5-year old Macy Grace.

Coach Miles' wife Kathy, who is a former assistant women's basketball coach at the collegiate level, spends time serving as a coach for Smacker's AAU basketball team.

LSU Has Little Trouble In 41-13 Win Over Appalachian State To Open 2008

Charles Scott rushed for 160 yards and a pair of TDs and LSU QBs Andrew Hatch and Jarrett Lee combined to complete 13 of 24 passes for 193 yards and 3 scores as the Tigers rolled to a 41-13 win over Appalachian State to open the 2008 season. The game, which was originally scheduled for a 4 p.m. start, was moved to a 10 a.m. kickoff due to Hurricane Gustav. The move had little effect on the Tigers as LSU's first play from scrimmage in 2008 had Scott rushing for a 56-yard gain. A play later, Scott scored from eight yards out giving the Tigers a 7-0 lead. The Tigers scored on their next two possessions, stretching the lead to 17-0 early in the second quarter. LSU extended the lead to 31-0 at halftime after scores by Brandon LaFell - a 31-yard pass from Lee - and Scott - a 29-yard run. Appalachian State scored its only TD on a 44-yard TD pass midway through the third quarter with the game's outcome already decided. For the game, the Tigers rolled up 459 yards of total offense, compared to just 239 yards for Appalachian State. The Tiger defense held Appalachian State QB Armanti Edwards to just 23 rushing yards and only 13 of 31 on passing attempts. Danny McCray led the Tigers with 7 tackles, while DE Rahim Alem added two tackles for losses and a sack in the victory.

Scott, Holliday Lead LSU Past North Texas, 41-3

Charles Scott rushed for 102 yards and a pair of TDs and Trindon Holliday returned a punt 92 yards for another score as LSU had little trouble with North Texas, winning 41-3 in Tiger Stadium. The Tigers showed no signs of having not played a game in two weeks as LSU scored on four of its first five possessions in the first half in building a 27-3 lead at halftime. Scott opened the scoring with a 39-yard run minutes into the contest. Colt David followed with a 41-yard field goal four minutes later to give the Tigers a 10-0 lead. The Mean Green pulled to within 10-3 early in the second quarter, before Scott busted loose on a 43-yard TD run to stretch the margin to 17-3. Another stop by the LSU defense setup the Tigers next score as Holliday fielded a punt on his own 8-yard line and raced 92 yards, untouched, for the score and a 24-3 advantage. Andrew Hatch and Quinn Johnson each added rushing TDs for the Tigers in the third quarter as Les Miles substituted freely in the fourth quarter. For the game, the Tigers racked up 425 yards of offense (216 rushing, 155 passing), while holding the Mean Green to only 199 yards (44 rushing, 155 passing). Hatch connected on 10 of 17 passes for 125 yards, while Lee hit on 10 of 18 attempts for 84 yards. Brandon LaFell led all receivers with seven catches for 69 yards.

Lee Comes Off Bench To Lead Tigers Past Auburn, 26-21

Jarrett Lee spelled an injured Andrew Hatch and rallied LSU from a 14-3 halftime deficit by throwing a pair of second half TDs in the Tigers 26-21 win over No. 9/10 Auburn. It was the first win by LSU at Auburn since 1998. LSU grabbed the early lead in the contest, taking a 3-0 advantage on a 46-yard field goal by Colt David late in the first quarter. That lead was short lived as Auburn responded with 14 unanswered points in the second quarter, which included a 24-yard interception return of a Lee pass for a TD by Gabe McKenzie, stretching the margin to 14-3 at halftime. LSU starting QB Hatch went down midway through the third quarter with a head injury as was not able to return, setting up the dramatic turn over events engineered by Lee, a redshirt freshman. Lee put his first half jitters behind him to light up the Auburn secondary over the final 22 minutes of the contest as he completed 11 of 17 attempts in during that span for 182 yards and two scores. Lee connected with Chris Mitchell on a 39-yard TD pass to pull the Tigers to with 14-10 at the 6:28 mark in the third quarter. LSU took a 17-14 lead on the final play of the third quarter when RB Keiland Williams threw a halfback pass for a TD to Demetrius Byrd. LSU extended the lead to 20-14 on a 32-yard field goal by David with 8:27 to go. Auburn regained the lead at 21-20 with 6:40 left setting up yet another fourth quarter comeback by LSU. After a stop by the LSU defense on Auburn's next possession, Lee and the LSU offense took over at the four minute mark. Lee guided LSU on a 7-play, 54-yard game-winning drive, capped when he connected with Brandon LaFell on an 18-yard TD pass. RB Charles Scott led the Tigers ground game with 132 yards rushing, while LaFell caught four passes for 92 yards and a score.

Scott Runs, Lee Passes Tigers Past Mississippi State

Charles Scott rushed for 141 yards and a pair of scores and Jarrett Lee threw for 261 yards and two touchdowns as LSU remained undefeated with a 34-24 win over Mississippi State. Scott, who rushed for 100-plus yards in his fourth straight game, broke open a tie game with a pair of 1-yard TD runs in the first half. Scott's first TD run capped a 15-play, 88-yard drive that gave LSU its first lead of the game at 10-3 late in the first quarter. Scott added another 1-yard scoring plunge at the 10:10 mark in the second quarter to stretch the lead to 17-3. LSU led 17-10 at halftime. The Tigers extended the lead to 24-10 on its first possession of the second half when Richard Dickson recovered a Brandon LaFell fumble in the endzone. Colt David stretched the margin to 27-10 following a 39-yard field goal at the 4:42 mark in the third quarter. After MSU pulled to within 27-17 early in the fourth quarter, Lee connected with Demetrius Byrd on a 43-yard TD pass to put the game out of reach. LSU racked up 427 yards of offense, including 261 in the air, while limiting the Bulldogs to just 13 first downs and 285 yards of offense. The Tigers were hampered by a pair of turnovers - one interception and one fumble. A year after forcing seven turnovers in a 45-0 win over Mississippi State, LSU did not force any Bulldog turnovers in the victory.

Tebow, Gators Too Much For Tigers In 51-21 Win Over LSU

An emotionally charged Florida team proved to be too much for LSU as the 11th-ranked Gators jumped out to a 20-0 first half lead on their way to a 51-21 victory over the No. 3/4 Tigers in Gainesville. Florida scored on the third play of the game and was up 17-0 before the Tigers had even managed a first down. Trailing 20-0, LSU went 60 yards in 44 seconds for a score to cut the deficit to 20-7 at halftime when Jarrett Lee found Chris Mitchell in the back of the endzone for a 6-yard TD. LSU took the opening kickoff of the second half and marched 80 yards on 12 plays to cut the deficit to 20-14 on a 3-yard run by Andrew Hatch. However, that was as close as the Tigers would get as Florida and Tebow responded with a TD drive to stretch the margin to 27-14. After a three-and-out by the Tigers, the Gators went 60 yards on four plays to increase the lead to 34-14. Florida put the game out of reach on LSU's next possession as Brandon Spikes returned an interception 52 yards for a score and a 41-14 advantage. For the game, Lee completed 23 of 38 passes for 209 yards and 2 TDs. Charles Scott led the Tigers with 35 yards rushing, while Brandon LaFell caught seven passes for 59 yards.

LSU Defense Comes Up Big In Second Half In 24-17 Win Over South Carolina

LSU's defense held South Carolina scoreless and to just 42 total yards in the second half as the Tigers overcame a 17-10 halftime deficit to beat the Gamecocks, 24-17, in Columbia. Keiland Williams (72 yards) and Charles Scott (61 yards, 2 TDs) led a balanced LSU offensive attack as the Tigers racked up 363 yards against the nation's No. 3 rated defense. LSU took an early 3-0 lead in the game with a 48-yard field goal by Colt David before Carolina tied the contest with a field goal of its own early in the second quarter. Scott put the Tigers up 10-3 on a 5-yard run that capped a 12-play, 78-yard drive late in the second quarter. South Carolina scored 14 points in the final four minutes of the first half, the second TD coming with just 22 seconds left after a Jarrett Lee interception was returned to the LSU 8-yard line. After a back-and-forth third quarter, the Tigers finally managed to tie the score at 17-17 when backup QB Andrew Hatch connected with Richard Dickson on a 7-yard TD pass. The Tigers dominated the fourth quarter, holding the ball for over 11 minutes in the final quarter, which included an 11-play, 83-yard scoring drive that ate up over six minutes. That scoring drive was capped when Scott plunged across the goal line from two yards out at the 4:16 mark to give the Tigers a 24-17 lead. The Tigers sealed the victory when Curtis Taylor intercepted a South Carolina pass on its next possession as the Tigers burned the final four minutes of the contest and the Gamecocks never got the ball back. For the game, LSU sacked South Carolina's quarterback six times and held the Gamecocks to just 254 yards.

Turnovers Too Costly As Tigers Fall To No. 9 Georgia, 52-38

Georgia returned two LSU interceptions for touchdowns, including one on the first play of the game, as the ninth-ranked Bulldogs outlasted the Tigers, 52-38, in Tiger Stadium. Georgia never trailed in the contest as the Bulldogs picked off a Jarrett Lee pass on the game's first play and returned it 40-yards for a TD and a 7-0 lead. Lee marched the Tigers down the field on their next possession, tying the game at 7-7 with a 10-yard pass to Brandon LaFell. Georgia extended its lead to 21-7 early in the second quarter before a 51-yard Colt David field goal and a 2-yard run by Charles Scott got LSU to within 21-17 at the 7:23 mark in the second quarter. The Tigers had a chance to take the lead late in the first half, but a Lee pass was intercepted at the UGA 35-yard line. The Bulldogs tacked on a field goal to take a 24-17 advantage at the break. Georgia opened the second half with scoring plays of 49 and 68 yards to increase the lead to 38-17. LSU didn't cave though, getting to within 38-24 on a 1-yard run by Scott with 2:47 left in the third quarter. LSU was still in the game at 45-31 following a 6-yard TD reception by Keiland Williams with 8:47 to go. After a Georgia punt, LSU drove to the UGA 13-yard line before turning the ball over on downs. Another stop by the LSU defense kept the Tigers alive, however Georgia intercepted a Lee pass and returned it 53 yards for a TD on LSU's next offensive play, putting the game out of reach. Scott led the Tigers with 144 yards and 2 TDs, while Lee threw for 287 yards and 3 scores.

LSU Cruises Past Tulane, 35-10

Charles Scott rushed for 114 yards and a score and the LSU defense held Tulane without an offensive touchdown as the 15th-ranked Tigers had little trouble in a 35-10 win over the Green Wave. LSU never trailed in the contest as they took their first possession and marched 86 yards on eight plays to take a 7-0 first quarter lead on a 7-yard run by Scott. Tulane added its only offensive points later in the quarter on a 48-yard field goal. The score remained 7-3 until late in the first half when the Tigers scored two touchdowns in a 30-second span. Jarrett Lee connected with Brandon LaFell on a 14-yard TD pass at the 2:14 mark in the second quarter and then Chris Hawkins scooped up a Tulane fumble and raced 24-yards for a TD just 27 seconds later for a 21-3 halftime lead. LSU stretched the lead to 28-3 early in the third quarter on a 3-yard run by Keiland Williams. Tulane got its only TD of the game midway thru the fourth quarter when the Green Wave returned a Lee interception 43 yards for a TD. The Tigers added a late TD when Stevan Ridley scored from 2-yards out to make the final score, 35-10. For the game, LSU grinded out 231 yards rushing and a total of 330 total yards, while limiting the Green Wave to 72 yards rushing and just 163 total yards of offense.

Top-Ranked Tide Escapes With 27-21 Overtime Win Over LSU

Top-ranked Alabama escaped Tiger Stadium with a 27-21 overtime win over LSU as the Crimson Tide punched across the winning points on their third play during the extended period. The winning points came after Alabama intercepted a Jarrett Lee pass in the back of the endzone to hold the Tigers scoreless on their possession during overtime. LSU sent the game into overtime when Ricky Jean-Francois blocked a 29-yard field goal attempt by Leigh Tiffin as time expired. Trailing 21-14, LSU used a 14-play, 74-yard drive to tie the game at 21-21 when Charles Scott scored on a 1-yard run at the 6:12 mark. After spotting the Tide an early 7-0 lead following Lee's first interception of the game, the Tigers battled back, scoring on consecutive possessions to take a 14-7 lead at the 5:57 mark in the first quarter on a 30-yard run by Scott. LSU's first point came when Lee connected with Demetrius Byrd on a 30-yard pass at the 6:21 mark in the opening quarter. The teams went to the locker room tied at 14-14 when the Crimson Tide returned an interception 54-yards for a touchdown late in the second quarter. Alabama scored the only points in the third quarter, taking a 21-14 advantage on a 3-yard run by Glen Coffee. LSU then controlled most of the fourth quarter, limiting the Crimson Tide to just 51 yards of offense in the final frame. For the game, LSU rushed for 201 yards against the nation's No. 2 rated defense. The Tigers finished the game with 382 yards, compared to 353 for Alabama. Scott led the Tigers with 92 yards rushing and 2 TDs.

Tigers Rally For Biggest Comeback In School History In 40-31 Win Over Troy

Down 31-3 to Troy early in the third quarter, LSU scored 37 unanswered points, including 30 in the fourth quarter, as the Tigers recorded the largest comeback in school history with a 40-31 win over the Trojans. LSU never got on track in the first half, picking up just two first downs and only 63 total yards in falling behind 24-3 at halftime. Things didn't start much better for the Tigers to open the second half as Troy went 79 yards on 10 plays to extend its lead to 31-3 at the 11:09 mark. The Tigers finally got in the endzone when Jordan Jefferson scored on a 2-yard run at the 1:20 mark in the third quarter to start the improbable LSU comeback. After the Jefferson scoring run, LSU went on to add 30 more points, all in the fourth quarter to record the win. Down 31-10 to start the fourth quarter, Jarrett Lee threw a 33-yard TD pass to Brandon LaFell to pull the Tigers to within 31-17 at the 14:00 mark, three minutes later Quinn Johnson scored on a 1-yard run to get LSU to within 31-24. After a Chad Jones interception, Colt David kicked a 27-yard field goal at the 7:51 mark to pull LSU to within 31-27. A fumble by Troy on an LSU punt set up the go-ahead score for the Tigers as Charles Scott went in from 4-yards out giving the Tigers their first lead of the game at 33-31 with 4:50 to play. LSU tacked on an insurance TD with 1:40 left on another 1-yard plunge by Johnson. For the game, Lee connected on 20 of 34 passes for 216 yards and 1 TD. Lee's hit on 18 of 26 passes for 205 yards and a score in the second half alone. LaFell had his best game in an LSU uniform, catching 12 passes for 126 yards and a score, while Scott rushed for 90 yards and 1 TD.

Ole Miss Defense, Passing Game Too Much For LSU In 31-13 Win Over Tigers

Ole Miss QB Jevan Snead threw for 272 yards and a pair of TDs and the Rebel defense limited LSU to just 215 total yards in a 31-13 win over the Tigers in Baton Rouge. Ole Miss scored on its first possession, going 76 yards on eight plays to take a 7-0 lead. The Tigers pulled to within 7-3 on a 46-yard Colt David field goal early in the second quarter. Ole Miss stretched its lead to 21-3 midway through the second quarter before QB Jordan Jefferson, who came off the bench to replace an injured Jarrett Lee, directed the Tigers on an 84-yard drive just before halftime to get LSU to within 21-10 on a 9-yard TD pass. LSU pulled to within 21-13 on a 52-yard David field goal, but that was as close as they would get as Ole Miss limited the Tigers to just 85 yards and only seven first downs in the second half. The Tigers managed just 37 yards rushing for the game with Jefferson leading the way with 23 yards on 10 carries. Jefferson, seeing his first extended action of his career, hit on 10 of 20 passes for 129 yards and one TD. LSU's leading rusher - Charles Scott - managed just 10 yards on 10 carries.

Arkansas Comes Back to Stun LSU, 31-30

In what has become a series known for late-game heroics, Arkansas quarterback Casey Dick hit London Crawford on a game-winning 24-yard touchdown pass with just 21 seconds left on the clock to give the Razorbacks a 31-30 win over LSU at War Memorial Stadium in the regular-season finale for both teams. With the final minutes ticking away, the Razorbacks found themselves without a timeout as they faced a fourth-and-1 from the LSU 24-yard line. Dick took the snap from center and threw a pass down the right sideline to Crawford in the corner of the end zone for the winning score. After a 17-yard return to the Arkansas 46-yard line by Chad Jones on the ensuing kickoff, the potential 63-yard game-winning field goal by Colt David fell short. The Tigers dropped to 7-5 overall and 3-5 in the SEC with the loss. Arkansas completed its season with a 5-7 overall mark, 2-6 in SEC play. While making his first career start for the Tigers, true freshman quarterback Jordan Jefferson finished 9-of-21 passing for 143 yards and two touchdowns to go along with 19 rushes for 50 yards. The Tigers took control of the game in the second quarter to take a 23-14 lead at halftime. LSU wasted no time in adding to its lead coming out of the break as speedster Trindon Holliday returned a kickoff 46 yards to the Arkansas 44-yard line. It only took Jefferson four plays to connect with Brandon LaFell on a 32-yard touchdown pass to give LSU what seemed to be a comfortable 30-14 lead. But the Razorbacks pulled to within six points following a 46-yard touchdown pass by Dick to Jarius Wright late in the third quarter and a 22-yard field goal by Alex Tejada early in the fourth period.
