>Last Time Out

LSU was stunned by cross-town rival Southern in a mid-week game Tuesday night. The Jaguars scored six runs in the final three innings to break open the contest and win 9-5. The Tigers were previously 39-1 all-time against Southern. LSU's only other loss came in 2001. Last weekend, the Tigers won their third straight SEC series at Vanderbilt. After suffering a 9-4 loss in the first game of a doubleheader, the Tigers responded with a 9-3 victory in the nightcap. LSU took the rubber game by a score of 3-0 on Sunday behind Greg Smith's second consecutive shutout.

>Notables

LSU has won seven of its last eight conference games and trails Alabama by one game in the SEC Western Division race ... the Vanderbilt series completed a seven-game road stretch for LSU in which the Tigers posted a 5-2 mark against three ranked teams – Tulane, Arkansas and Vanderbilt ... Greg Smith has fired 25.2 consecutive scoreless innings and recorded three straight complete games ... the scoreless innings streak is the longest by an LSU pitcher since Ben McDonald fired an SEC-record 44.2 straight scoreless innings in 1989.

Patterson Named To Golden Spikes Watch List

Senior Ryan Patterson was named to the Golden Spikes Award Watch List on April 26. Recognized as amateur baseball's most prestigious honor, the Golden Spikes Award is presented to the top college baseball player in the country. Patterson is one of 40 players named to the watch list, which will be trimmed to five finalists in early June. The 28th Annual Golden Spikes Award Show will take place in July in conjunction with USA Baseball. LSU has one Golden Spikes Award winner to its credit when pitcher Ben McDonald took home the hardware in 1989.

In The Polls

LSU moved up one spot this week in two of the three major polls, with its highest ranking being No. 8 in ESPN/Sports Weekly. The Tigers also moved up from No. 14 to No. 13 in Collegiate Baseball. Baseball America still ranks LSU as the 16th best team in the nation.

RPI Watch

As expected with its three-game sweep over No. 11 Arkansas two weeks ago, LSU made a major move in the pseudo-RPI's as compiled by Boyd's World. The Tigers, who were 18th on April 19, moved up to No. 9 in the RPI and still hold the position after taking two of three games at Vanderbilt. Two other SEC teams are rated above LSU, including Florida (5) and Ole Miss (6). Ten SEC teams are ranked in the top 30, while Kentucky's RPI this week is listed at No. 74.

The LSU-Kentucky Series

LSU leads the overall series with Kentucky, 31-14, and the Tigers have a 16-5 mark against the Wildcats over the past 10 seasons. LSU has won six straight SEC series against Kentucky; the Wildcats' last series victory over the Tigers came in 1994 in Lexington. Kentucky has never won a series at Alex Box Stadium. Last season, Kentucky captured Game 1 over LSU in Lexington, 10-3, but the Tigers rebounded to win the series with 11-8 and 15-4 victories. Ironically, the Wildcats' last SEC series opening win was that Friday night contest.

Scoreless Smith

It has been widely publicized that Greg Smith has thrown back-to-back shutouts in his last two starts. Smith has thrown three complete games, as well, dating back to the series finale with Ole Miss on April 17. Did you know that Smith has thrown 25.2 scoreless innings dating back to the second inning of the Ole Miss game on April 17? In that frame, the hard-throwing lefty surrendered a one-out solo homer to Mark Wright. Smith's streak in the longest scoreless stretch by an LSU pitcher since Ben McDonald hurled an SEC-record 44.2 straight scoreless frames in 1989. Before April 17, Smith had never thrown a complete game in his previous two seasons.

Back On Track

Since losing three of its four SEC series, LSU has responded with three straight league series' wins over Ole Miss, Arkansas and Vanderbilt. The Tigers have won seven out of its last eight conference games -- all against ranked opponents. On the season, LSU has two SEC road sweeps to its credit -- at Georgia and at Arkansas. The last time an LSU team had two conference road sweeps was 1994 when the Tigers took three games at Auburn and three games at Georgia.

Sticking With Mestepey

Lane Mestepey is winless in his last six starts. The left-hander's last victory came in the SEC opener at Georgia on March 18. Despite his recent troubles, head coach Smoke Laval has elected to keep Mestepey in the rotation.

Iron Man

Clay Harris is the only Tiger to start in all 46 games this season. Harris has started 45 contests at second base since making the move before the season. He also started one game at designated hitter. During his career, Harris has made 165 consecutive starts, dating back to 2003. The last time Harris was not in the starting lineup was in a mid-week game versus Southeastern Louisiana on March 5, 2003.

407 Wins And Counting For Laval

Smoke Laval finished the Vanderbilt weekend with 407 career victories. Laval won his 400th career game in a 19-2 thrashing of Northwestern State on April 12. Laval compiled a 241-159 mark as head coach at UL-Monroe for seven seasons (1994-2000). Since then, Smoke has won 164 games in his fourth season at LSU after taking over for Skip Bertman.

Another Two-Sport Jackson

Redshirt freshman Chris Jackson has sparked LSU at the top of the order since entering the Tiger lineup on April 10 versus South Carolina. LSU has an 8-3 record when Jackson starts. He recently maintained a 12-game hitting streak, which came to an end in the first game of a doubleheader at Vanderbilt. At the same time, the River Ridge, La. native just wrapped up spring football practice as the squad's starting place kicker/punter. Against Northwestern State on April 12, Jackson arrived to Alex Box 20 minutes before first pitch after going through a football workout. Without taking infield or batting practice, Jackson made his first career start at third base and went 3-for-6 with four runs and four RBI. He also belted his first career homer in the bottom of the seventh. On April 16, he competed in the annual LSU spring football scrimmage in the morning before reporting to the Box 45 minutes before a 2 p.m. first pitch against Ole Miss. In his first at-bat Jackson lined a single to right field and finished the game 3-for-5 with a run and an RBI. He also displayed tremendous defense at third base with four critical assists in the Tigers 7-6 triumph over the Rebels.

Hitting Streaks

Ryan Patterson has the longest current hit streak on the squad, hitting safely in his last nine games. Patterson maintained a 15-game stretch earlier this season. Blake Gill maintained a 20-game hitting streak, dating back to last season. Gill's run, which began versus Vanderbilt on May 15 last season, is the longest of his career and the longest since head coach Smoke Laval took over the program.

Longest Hitting Streaks (past six seasons)

Player	Streak
Brad Cresse (1999-2000)	24
Cedrick Harris (1999-2000)	21
Blake Gill (2004-05)	20

Patterson Tops In SEC In Four Categories

Ryan Patterson currently leads the SEC in four offensive categories, including slugging percentage (.808), doubles (19), home runs (17) and total bases (147). The senior is also third in batting average (.401), second in runs scored (59), second in hits (73) and sixth in on-base percentage (.469). Tennessee's Chase Headley and Ole Miss' Brian Pettway are the only other players in the league who are tops in multiple categories.

Clay Harris Named SEC Player Of The Week Versus Ole Miss (April 15-17)

Senior second baseman Clay Harris was named Monday, April 18 as the SEC Player of the Week by the league office. Harris, a native of Slidell, La., led the 12th-ranked Tigers to three wins in four games last week, including an SEC series victory over Ole Miss (April 15-17). Harris enjoyed a phenomenal week at the plate, batting .625 (10-for-16) in four games with three doubles, two homers and seven RBI. He launched a ninth-inning, walk-off solo homer to lift the Tigers to a 7-6 on Saturday against Ole Miss. Harris also unloaded a grand slam in Friday's game versus the Rebels. For the entire Ole Miss series, he hit .667 (8-for-12) with two doubles, two homers and seven RBI, posting a 1.333 slugging percentage and a .714 on-base percentage. Harris is hitting .392 (58-for-148) on the year with 13 doubles, one triple, seven homers and 38 RBI. The SEC Player of the Week honor is the second of Harris' career. He received the same recognition on April 5, 2004, after leading LSU to a series victory at Auburn. Harris also went 4-for-5 with a homer, two runs and four RBI versus No. 1 Tulane on Tuesday.

Dirks Named SEC Pitcher of the Week (April 22-24)

Clay Dirks was named SEC Pitcher of the Week for his performance at Arkansas last weekend. Dirks, a native of Hernando, Miss., pitched a brilliant three-hit shutout on Saturday at Arkansas as the Tigers posted a 7-0 victory. Dirks, who allowed just three singles in the contest, walked one and recorded a career-high eight strikeouts. He allowed only one Arkansas player to advance to second base, firing 124 pitches in the outing. The shutout was the second of Dirks' career -- he also blanked Tulane last season on four hits. Dirks' performance was the best by an LSU pitcher since April 27, 2002, when Brian Wilson fired a three-hit shutout against Arkansas in Baton Rouge.

Mestepey Second In All-Time Career Wins

Senior left-hander Lane Mestepey claimed sole possession of second place in LSU career victories with his 34th win over Georgia on March 18. The Zachary, La., native passed Stan Loewer, who tallied 33 wins between 1984-87. Mestepey is now four wins shy of tying Scott Schultz' career mark of 38, achieved between 1992-95. The southpaw also moved into a tie for ninth place in SEC career victories with Auburn's Ryan Halla (1993-96). With one more win, Mestepey will tie Mississippi State's Bobby Reed (1987-90) for eighth place. South Carolina's Kip Bouknight (1998-01) and Mississippi State's Jeff Brantley (1982-85) share the all-time SEC record with 45 career wins.

LSU Career Pitching Victories

Player	Wins
1. Scott Schultz (1992-95)	38
2. Lane Mestepey (2001-present)	34
3. Stan Loewer (1984-87)	33
4. Paul Byrd (1989-91)	31

Going the Distance

Greg Smith's complete game at Vanderbilt tallied the Tigers' seventh complete game outing by LSU pitchers this season. Clay Dirks owns two nine-inning starts to his credit this season, as does senior Lane Mestepey. Smith has three on the year -- all in his last three outings.

Patterson Named Top Senior by Baseball America in Midseason Report on April 12

Ryan Patterson was named the top senior in the nation by Baseball America in its midseason edition released on April 12. Patterson was also a unanimous first-team midseason All-American in the outfield. He is one of only two SEC players who made the first-team list. Tennessee's Luke Hochevar also made the list as a starting pitcher. Nebraska's Alex Gordon was named the nation's top player, and Rice's Joe Savery made the list as the top freshman.

Wallace Watch

Lefty Lane Mestepey joined senior outfielder Ryan Patterson on March 8 as a candidate for the Brooks Wallace Award, presented annually to the national college baseball player of the year. Mestepey was one of 38 players added to the watch list. The Brooks Wallace Award was captured by Cal State Fullerton's Kurt Suzuki last season. The Wallace Watch will be trimmed to 12 semifinalists on May 24. The selection committee will then narrow the list to three finalists following the NCAA Super Regionals at a press conference in Omaha on June 16. Vanderbilt's Warner Jones, Cal-State Fullerton's Ricky Romero, Tennessee's Luke Hochevar, Ole Miss' Stephen Head and Georgia's Will Startup also headline the list.

Determann Nominated For Scholar-Athlete Post-Graduate Scholarship

Former catcher Tim Lanier earned the award in 1997.

Junior catcher Matt Liuzza was voted to the 2005 Baseball America Preseason Third-Team. The Metairie, La. native has helped lead the Tigers to consecutive College World Series appearances. He batted .328 (75-for-229) in 2004 with 14 doubles, nine homers, 45 RBI and 37 runs. Liuzza committed just four errors in 370 chances last season, and he threw out 14 base runners attempting to steal. For the entire 2004 NCAA Tournament - including the regional, super regional and CWS - Liuzza hit a sizzling .417 (10-for-24), and he posted a .563 on-base percentage.

New "Box" On Tap For 2008

When the 2008 season rolls around, LSU will move into a new modern facility. LSU athletics director Skip Bertman proposed the construction of a new baseball stadium to open in 2008 to the LSU Board of Supervisors. The stadium would be located at the corner of Nicholson Drive and Gourrier Lane, about 2,000 feet south of the current site of Alex Box Stadium, and would seat approximately 8,000 Tiger baseball fans. The new stadium, which will also be named Alex Box Stadium, will be paid for by the LSU Athletics Department through a combination of the sale of revenue bonds and private donations. The expected cost of the project is approximately $23 million.

Notes: LSU dropped its first game of the season, collecting only six hits during the contest -- three of them from Clay Harris. Lane Mestepey suffered the hard-luck loss, despite becoming the school's all-time leader in innings pitched in the third. He finished the game with 401.1. Houston's Matt Farrington handcuffed LSU for six innings, allowing one run thanks to Bruce Sprowl's sacrifice fly in the fifth. UH scored their two runs in the bottom of the frame on Jake Stewart's two-run single (both unearned) that bounced off of Mestepey's glove into right field. Cougar reliever Justin Vaclavik recorded the save, despite a threat by the Tigers in their final at-bat.

Brandon Nall suffered the loss in his first career start, lasting just two innings and walking three. Biagi finally surrendered a base hit in the seventh, allowing a single to Quinn Stewart. # Smoke Laval

HEAD COACH • FOURTH YEAR

Raymond "Smoke" Laval continues to enhance his reputation as one of the country's top college baseball coaches, as, in three seasons at the helm of the LSU program, he has guided the Tigers to two College World Series berths, two NCAA Super Regional titles, three NCAA Regional championships, one SEC title and Top 10 finishes in each of the past two seasons.

Laval, the 2003 SEC Coach of the Year, was named in 2004 the Louisiana Sportswriters Association Coach of the Year for the third straight season.

Laval has directed LSU to the best SEC regular-season record in the past three seasons, posting a 57-31-1 (.646) mark. South Carolina has the second-best SEC record (57-32, .640), and Florida is third (50-39-1, .561). LSU earned its second consecutive final Top 10 ranking in 2004, as the Tigers finished No. 7 in the Baseball America poll and No. 8 in the Collegiate Baseball poll. The final rankings culminated a magnificent 2004 season that also featured record-breaking marks for academic achievements and attendance figures. The 2004 Tigers advanced to the College World Series for the second straight season, recording a 46-19 overall record, LSU's best mark since the 2000 club finished 52-17.

LSU played host to an NCAA Regional for the 15th straight season, winning the tournament with consecutive victories over Army, Southern Mississippi and College of Charleston. The Tigers then played host to an NCAA Super Regional for the third time in five years, defeating Texas A&M in a best two-of-three series to earn a berth in the CWS.

The 2004 Tigers had the best offensive club in the SEC, completing the year with a .333 team batting average, the second-highest in school history. The Tigers were led by two first-team all-SEC players - right fielder Jon Zeringue, the 2004 SEC Co-Player of the Year and a first-team all-America selection, and center fielder J.C. Holt, a third-team all-America choice. Zeringue was selected in the second round of the 2004 draft by the Arizona Diamondbacks, and Holt was the third-round pick of the Atlanta Braves.

LSU placed 12 players on the 2004 SEC Academic Honor Roll, the highest total in the program's history, and the Tigers' 2004 total home attendance with 36 playing dates was 284,328, the third-largest figure in school history. The average paid attendance in 2004 was 7,898, which is the highest average in LSU annals.

Laval guided the 2003 Tigers to the Southeastern Conference title -- LSU's first since 1997 -- and a berth in the College World Series. He was voted the 2003 SEC Coach of the Year, directing LSU to a 45-22-1 overall record and a 20-9-1 conference mark, as the Tigers finished No. 5 in the final Baseball America rankings.

LSU played host to an NCAA Regional tournament for the 14th straight season and captured its eighth consecutive regional title. The Tigers entertained Baylor in an NCAA Super Regional series, defeating the Bears in two of three games to earn LSU's first CWS berth since 2000.

LSU also set an NCAA total attendance record in 2003, drawing 291,676 patrons to Alex Box Stadium.

The Tigers' shortstop, Aaron Hill, was named 2003 SEC Player of the Year and a first-team all-American. Hill was the first-round draft selection (13th pick overall) by the Toronto Blue Jays.

The magnificent '03 campaign augmented the success Laval enjoyed in his inaugural season as LSU's coach, as he led the 2002 Tigers to a 44-22 overall mark, an appearance in the NCAA Super Regional and a No. 11 final national ranking. Laval, named the 2002 Louisiana Coach of the Year by the Louisiana Sportswriters Association, continued the phenomenal tradition of excellence created by his predecessor, the legendary Skip Bertman.

Laval holds a bachelor's degree (1977) from Jacksonville in physical education and a master's degree (1979) from LSU in administration. The McDonald, Pa., native played two seasons at Gulf Coast Community College, where he lettered as a catcher. He completed his playing career at Jacksonville, where he led the ninth-ranked Dolphins in hitting at the 1976 NCAA South Regional.

Laval and his wife, Pam, are the parents of two children, Brandon and Jamie.
