MEDIA RELATIONS

The TCU Athletics Media Relations Office is located on the main level of Daniel-Meyer Coliseum in room 104. The office is open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday. The main office phone number is (817) 257-7969 and the fax number is (817) 257-7964. Brandie Davidson, TCU Athletics Media Relations Assistant Director, is the media relations contact for Horned Frog Baseball. Any media relations questions may be directed to her by phone at (817) 257-7479 or via e-mail at b.i.davidson@tcu.edu.

JUST TCU, THANK YOU!

Though the TCU Department of Athletics is a proud and integral part of Texas Christian University, it desires to be recognized simply as TCU (acronym only) Athletics. Therefore, we respectfully urge that the university's teams be identified with an appropriate appellation — TCU. In subsequent references of the same presentation, the team may be referred to by nickname — Horned Frogs. A shorter version of the nickname, Frogs, is acceptable in later usage.

NCAA COMPLIANCE RULES

Under NCAA rules, an extra benefit is any special arrangement by an institutional employee or a representative of the institution's athletics interests to provide a student-athlete or the student-athlete's relative or friend a benefit not expressly authorized by NCAA legislation. Receipt of a benefit by student-athletes or their relatives or friends is not a violation of NCAA legislation if it is demonstrated that the same benefit is available to the institution's general student body or their relatives or friends, or to a particular segment of the student body (e.g., foreign students, minority students, etc.) determined on a basis unrelated to athletics ability. Always remember to ASK BEFORE YOU ACT. If you have further questions regarding extra benefits or any other compliance issue, please consult the Compliance Office at 817-257-7525.

BIG 12 CONFERENCE MEDIA RELATIONS

Contact the Big 12 Media Relations Department for any information or questions concerning Big 12 baseball during the 2013 season. The Big 12 baseball media relations contact is Laura Rasmussen. She can be reached by phone at (469) 524-1009 or via e-mail at lrasmussen@big12sports.com. For the most up-to-date information regarding Big 12 baseball, visit the official website of the league at www.big12sports.com.

INTERVIEW REQUESTS

TCU generally holds practices during the week between 2:30 and 5:30 p.m. All media wishing to cover practice or interview a TCU player or coach before or after practice should contact Brandie Davidson before noon of the day they wish to conduct the interview to confirm the availability of the player or coach.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Requests for official working media credentials should be directed to Brandie Davidson. Requests should be made in writing at least one business day prior to the game. Season credentials will be mailed prior to the first game. If time does not allow for credentials to be mailed, they may be picked up with proper identification at the Lupton Stadium ticket booth on game day.

SCOUT PASSES

Professional scouts may obtain credentials through Assistant Coach Kirk Saarloos. Saarloos can be reached via e-mail at k.saarloos@tcu.edu or by phone at (817) 257-5656. Due to limited seating in the press box, scouts will be directed to the general seating area of Lupton Stadium but are welcome to media materials such as updated statistics and an official scorecard. Scouts are asked to be aware of game patrons and respect their desires to watch the game.

2015 MEDIA INFORMATION

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Due to limited space on the field and in the seating areas of Lupton Stadium, all photographers must see Brandie Davidson prior to shooting at TCU home games to obtain rules and regulations.

RADIO BROADCASTS

Lupton Stadium is equipped with two separate radio broadcasting booths. The TCU radio booth is located on the first base side, while the visiting radio booth is on the third base side. Two courtesy telephone lines, as well as two ISDN SPIDS, are available in the visitor's radio booth. The visiting phone line numbers are (817) 257-7265 and (817) 257-7962. The ISDN SPID numbers are 817.314.7091.0101 and 817.314.7095.0101. Commence all outgoing calls by dialing nine first. Please contact Brandie Davidson two weeks prior to the game you are wishing to broadcast.

PRESSBOX SERVICES

Game notes, an official scorecard, complete team and individual statistics and box scores are provided to working media by the TCU Athletics Media Relations Office at every TCU home game. Given proper notice, the Media Relations Office will offer fax services to all interested media. For any other requests, please contact Brandie Davidson.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Following a brief cooling-off period, media may accompany Brandie Davidson to the lower level of Lupton Stadium for postgame interviews with TCU coaches and players. Interviews will take place in the assistant coaches' offices. The TCU clubhouse is always off-limits to the media. Radio wishing to interview coaches and players after the game will be able to plug in a field mike behind home plate to get a live feed from the field. Coach Jim Schlossnagle will be available after all games along with selected players.

TCU ATHLETICS ON THE WEB

TCU maintains a comprehensive athletics department website covering all 20 varsity sports. Gofrogs.com features all the information Frog fans need including:

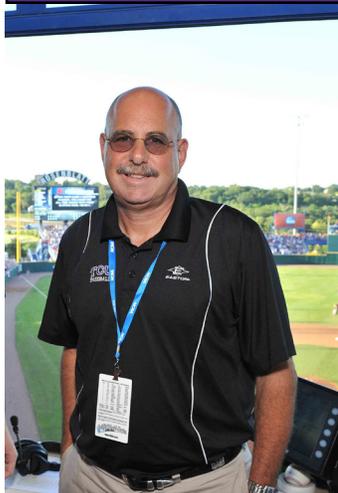

- Schedules/results
- Team statistics
- Rosters
- Press releases
- Game stories
- Facility info
- Online ticket sales
- Gametracker
- Special features
- Webstreaming

In addition, Frog fans can follow the games by listening to the KTCU radio broadcasts as well as follow along with Gametracker on the site.

The 2007 season also brought a new element to the website with the addition of webstreaming of all home contests. Fans will see the game from different angles and can listen along with Chuck LaMendola as he provides the play-by-play of the game.

TCU BASEBALL ON THE RADIO AND INTERNET

For the 19th consecutive season, TCU fans can catch all the excitement of Horned Frog baseball on KTCU 88.7 FM. The broadcasts can also be heard around the world by logging onto www.gofrogs.com. All games are broadcast live with the pregame show beginning 15 minutes before first pitch.

Calling all the action for the Frogs is Chuck LaMendola. The 2014 campaign marks LaMendola's 19th season behind the microphone as the voice of Horned Frog baseball.

A new feature to the world wide web in 2010 saw LaMendola move to the television side as TCU's Radio-Film-Digital Media department broadcast a majority of the last five season's home schedule, providing multiple camera angles and commentary for the webstreaming. The games air either on a live telecast or tape-delayed on Fox Sports Southwest or Fox Sports Southwest Plus, a television station that is part of TCU's third-tier rights package.

As a full time faculty member in TCU's Radio-Film-Digital Media department, LaMendola teaches television and film production as well as classes in the sports broadcasting area within the department. His Remote Sports Broadcasting class is responsible for the images on the video board during Horned Frog football, basketball and baseball games.

LaMendola's play-by-play broadcast of TCU baseball has been honored twice. The broadcaster earned a National Award of Distinction in 2002 and the 2004 Communicator Award.

Chuck and his wife, Kelly, have two daughters, Francesca and Juliana. The LaMendola family resides in Burleson.

Home Sweet Home

Named for Charlie and Marie Lupton in honor of their $2 million gift, Lupton Stadium is one of the premier facilities in all of college baseball. In addition, the playing surface is named after former head coach Roger Williams and local businessman, Michael Reilly. It offers many amenities to Horned Frogs baseball players including a spacious home clubhouse located under the main grandstand as well as indoor batting cages and an on-site training room. It also offers a unique two-deck structure as well as four luxury suites that allow fans to be extremely close to all of the action. The stadium seats 4,500 fans comfortably and features two patios on each baseline for corporate events or birthday parties.

2015 PRESEASON NOTEBOOK

PRESEASON RESPECT

The last 11 seasons have seen the Horned Frogs gradually imprint themselves on the national scene. No stranger to the rankings, the Frogs find themselves in the preseason polls for the sixth consecutive season.

TCU is among the top 10 teams in all of the major polls. Collegiate Baseball has the Frogs ranked highest at No. 2. Perfect Game, the NCBWA and the USA Today/Coaches Poll ranked TCU No. 3. Baseball America tabbed TCU at No. 7, while D1baseball.com ranked the Frogs No. 8.

Additionally, a pair of Horned Frogs have garnered preseason recognition as well. Preston Morrison, Riley Ferrell and Tyler Alexander have been tabbed preseason All-Americans.

2015 SCHEDULE NOTES

TCU's 55-game slate will see the Horned Frogs play 21 road games and one contest at a neutral site. The schedule is highlighted by 21 games against 2014 postseason participants, 10 against Super Regional teams and seven versus College World Series clubs.

Five weekend opponents appear in at least one preseason poll. Arizona State (Feb. 20-22), Cal Poly (Feb. 27-March 1), Oklahoma State (March 20-22), Wichita State (March 27-29), Texas Tech (April 2-4) and Texas (April 24-26) all appear in at least one poll.

While the Frogs won't play a weekend series against them, four teams on the schedule also appear in the rankings in Rice (March 3), UCLA (March 7), Vanderbilt (March 8) and Loyola-Marymount (March 10).

Additionally, two other opponents are receiving votes in the polls.

IT'S TOURNEY TIME!

TCU will make its first-ever appearance in the Dodger Classic when it heads to Los Angeles, Calif. for a trio of contests March 6-8.

A stacked field will see the Frogs face off against USC (March 6) and UCLA (March 8) on its respective fields, before concluding tournament play against defending National Champion, Vanderbilt (March 9), in an afternoon tilt at Dodger Stadium.

The Frogs are 17-14 in regular season tournaments under head coach Jim Schlossnagle.

AMONG THE BEST IN TEXAS

Since taking over the program in 2004, head coach Jim Schlossnagle has done nothing but win. In 11 years under his guidance, the Horned Frogs are 465-221. TCU has posted eight seasons with at least 40 wins and has appeared in 10 NCAA Regionals.

The 465 wins rank third among Division I programs in the state of Texas as does the .679 winnings percentage.

Team	Record	Pct.
1. Rice	503-196	.720
2. Texas	492-206	.705
3. TCU	465-221	.679
4. Texas A&M	431-255	.628
5. Dallas Baptist	395-241	.621
6. Lamar	377-260	.592
7. Texas State	371-275	.574
8. Baylor	378-288	.568
9. Sam Houston State	354-286	.553
10. UTSA	339-275	.552

A MIGHTY RETURN

After seeing a streak of nine straight NCAA appearances come to an end in 2013, the Horned Frogs made a triumphant return to the postseason in 2014 advancing to their second College World Series.

TCU is one of 14 schools to appear in 10 of the last 11 postseasons, one of seven to be in four of the last six Super Regionals and one of 11 to have multiple appearances in the College World Series since 2010.

ANOTHER MILESTONE IN REACH

Winning has become synonymous with Jim Schlossnagle's name since his arrival on campus. It seems every year the head coach is chasing a record of some sorts and this season is no different.

At 465 victories in a TCU uniform, he needs 35 six victories to collect his 500th win. Last season, Schlossnagle picked up his 500th coaching victory as a head coach. At 465-221, Schlossnagle ranks second all-time at TCU in victories behind Lance Brown who compiled a 517-481 record in 17 seasons.

In 13 seasons as a head coach, Schlossnagle has a .669 (542-268) winning percentage. He ranks 10th in winning percentage among active coaches with at least five years of experience.

PASSING THROUGH THE TURNSTILES

Over the past five seasons, the popularity of TCU baseball has reached all new heights. For the fourth straight season, the Frogs averaged over 3,500 fans per game. Since the start of the 2010 season, the Frogs are averaging 3,619 fans per game.

The Frogs ranked 13th nationally in average attendance in 2014 at 3,587 per game. Additionally, 121,957 fans passed through the turnstiles, a mark that ranked 12th nationally. Both marks were tops among private schools. The totals were second-best in the Big 12 behind Texas.

In 2014, the Frogs saw two of the top 10 crowds, while all 10 have come the last four seasons.

2015 PRESEASON NOTEBOOK

HOME SWEET HOME

The Frogs have enjoyed the home cooking of Lupton Stadium since it opened in 2003. TCU has an all-time record of 277-100 (.735) at Lupton Stadium, tallying at least 20 wins in 10 of 12 seasons.

In 2014, the Frogs posted a 27-8 record in 35 home games. As a team, TCU outscored its opponents 189-90.

On the mound, the pitching staff enjoyed the friendly confines to the tune of a 1.93 ERA with nine shutouts. The staff fanned 312 batters and held opponents to a .208 batting average against.

MOUND DOMINATION

The TCU Horned Frogs had one of the most dominating pitching staffs in the country in 2014. Ten of the 12 return in 2015. The Frogs took home the nation's best ERA title (2.22) and finished sixth or better in six other categories: K:BB ratio (2nd, 3:80), WHIP (2nd, 1.03), shutouts (3rd, 14), BB/9 (5th, 2.22), K/9 (6th, 8.4) and H/9 (6th, 7.07).

They were masterful in holding the opponents at bay, allowing one run or less 32 times, three or less 47 times and five or less 55 times. Additionally, the Frogs tallied a school-record 14 shutouts. Just 11 times, the group gave up more than five runs in a contest.

A MOUND OF EXPERIENCE

The bulk of last season's talented pitching staff returns in 2015. Ten of the 12 pitchers who saw time on the mound are back this year. As a group, they tallied 72% of the team's starts and 70% of the innings pitched.

Tyler Alexander and Preston Morrison headline the group of 10 with a combined 34 starts. As a group, they posted a 2.29 ERA and limited opponents to a .216 batting average. They totaled 366 strikeouts as compared to just 105 walks.

LEAVING HIS MARK

Preston Morrison will be looking to put a stamp on an impressive career in the Purple and White. No pitcher in TCU history has accomplished more as he is a two-time league Pitcher of the Year and a two-time All-American.

He needs 37 innings pitched and 12 starts to be the all-time career leader. Morrison will also rank in the top five in victories, strikeouts and ERA.

In his career, Morrison is 25-9 with a 1.62 ERA in 55 appearances.

EXPERIENCED LINEUP

While there are five vacant spots in the lineup, the Horned Frogs still have a wealth of experience returning on the field. The combination of SS Keaton Jones (184), 3B Derek Odell (160), CF Cody Jones (123) and 2B Garrett Crain (49) have a combined 516 starts.

DEFENSIVE PROWESS

TCU set a school-record and ranked 11th nationally with its .977 fielding percentage in 2014. The infield trio of Garrett Crain, Keaton Jones and Derek Odell combined to produce a .960 fielding percentage.

Keaton Jones has tallied 552 career assists and sits just two assists behind Taylor Featherston's school record of 554 set from 2009-11.

THE YOUTH MOVEMENT

The Frogs added 16 newcomers to their roster in the fall. The group includes 11 freshman, one sophomore transfer and four junior college transfers.

Evan Skoug is the lone newcomer to have been drafted as he was tabbed by the Washington Nationals in the 34th round.

SPEED FACTOR

TCU swiped 93 bases a year ago, the most ever by a team under the guidance of Jim Schlossnagle. The 93 stolen bases were 15th most in the nation. Cody Jones' 29 paved the way.

TCU returns nearly 60% of its stolen bases in 2015. The returning group was 55-for-73.

FROGS ON THE AIRWAVES

The Horned Frogs are slated to have 24 games televised this season. Sixteen of the 24 televised games will be home contests. Two road games at Texas Tech (April 2-3) and the entire Kansas State (April 10-12) and Oklahoma series' (May 15-16) will be televised. FOXSports1 will air two games: Oklahoma State (March 22) and Kansas (May 10).

Through TCU's third-tier contract with FOX Sports, 14 games will be on either FOX Sports Southwest or FOX Sports Southwest+. Additionally, the games are often simulcast on one of the three FOX College Sports channels.

Additionally, head coach Jim Schlossnagle will join John Denton once a month at The Woodshed for Talking TCU Baseball, which will air live on KTCU 88.7 FM. The four shows are slated to air Feb. 12, March 19, April 23 and May 7.

FROGS PICKED SECOND IN BIG 12

The TCU baseball team was selected to finish atop the Big 12 standings after receiving eight first place votes from league coaches. TCU is the first team to earn a unanimous vote since Texas A&M in 2012. TCU has been picked to finish second in its previous two seasons in the league.

Reigning champion Oklahoma State checks in at third, while Texas sits at second. Texas Tech was picked to finish fourth. Oklahoma rounds out the top half of the league in fifth place. West Virginia was picked sixth, while Baylor and Kansas tied for seventh. Kansas State rounds out the pre-season poll in ninth.

HEAD COACH JIM SCHLOSSNAGLE

Career: 542-268 (.669); 13 Seasons

#22 @ TCU: 465-221 (.679); 11 Seasons

On July 9, 2003, a new era in TCU baseball began as Jim Schlossnagle became just the program's ninth coach since 1940.

The outstanding work Schlossnagle has done since his arrival was rewarded in September 2014 as the head coach inked a contract extension through 2020.

"Jim Schlossnagle defines what TCU is about," TCU director of intercollegiate athletics Chris Del Conte said. "He has done a phenomenal job in representing our institution and making our baseball program an important part of the Fort Worth community. While his success on the diamond speaks for itself, Jim has been the ultimate team player. He has the big picture in mind for TCU and Fort Worth. His honor of being selected as Team USA's coach in 2013 shows the respect level he has nationally. We are very excited to know we have Coach Schlossnagle guiding our baseball program for many more years to come.

"Everything about Jim is first class. He simply does things the right way."

Schlossnagle has won more games (465) in 11 years than any coach in TCU history after posting the top 10 win totals in school history. He is 465-221 (.679) as the head coach at TCU and 542-268 (.669) in 13 years as a head coach.

"I am continually thankful to Mr. Del Conte and Chancellor (Victor) Boschini for not only giving me the opportunity to be at TCU, but for their continued commitment to our baseball program and its student-athletes," Schlossnagle said. "It is very rare in my profession to find the perfect combination of a university that is committed to excellence across the board, a city that, for me, is the best place to live in our country and a fan base and support group that has allowed our program to become extremely relevant in the community.

"My family and I love TCU and Fort Worth and look forward to continuing to grow this program."

During his tenure at TCU, Schlossnagle has raised the program to new heights. His efforts have not gone unnoticed at the national level and in the fall of 2012 USA Baseball tabbed him the 2013 Collegiate National Team head coach. It marked his second stint with the national team as he served as an assistant coach in 2006.

The 2014 squad took to heart the lessons learned after a disappointing 2013 season and reached new heights as they made history. After a 15-12 start to the campaign, the team went on an impressive run that saw them reel off 33 wins in their final 39 games of the season. Along the way, they rebounded from a 2-4 start in league play to finish second in the regular standings. The group sailed through the Big 12 Postseason Tournament to claim the university's first Big 12 team championship.

NCAA postseason play kicked off with a bang as TCU was awarded its first-ever national seed, earning the right to host both an NCAA Regional and an NCAA Super Regional. TCU swept through the regional and hosted its first-ever Super Regional. A thrilling three-game series against Pepperdine was capped by a 6-5 come-from-behind victory giving the program its second appearance in the College World Series.

TCU finished the season with a 48-18 mark. Morrison was named the Big 12 Pitcher of the Year, while 11 other Horned Frogs earned all-conference accolades. Finnegan headlined a group of six players drafted as he became the third-ever first-round draft pick. The trio of Morrison, Finnegan and Ferrell each earned All-American accolades, while Tyler Alexander was named a Freshman All-American.

The 2012-13 season marked a new era in TCU Athletics with the move to the Big 12. Additionally, the Horned Frogs non-conference schedule was one of the most difficult in the country as the Horned Frogs played 19 contests against teams that went on to participate in the NCAA tournament. Schlossnagle's squad met the challenges head on and posted their 10th winning season under his tutelage.

In continuing with a trend of producing elite players, six Frogs were selected in the 2013 MLB Draft. Finnegan, Morrison and Ferrell went on to be named to the 24-man USA Baseball Collegiate National Team roster.

A host of challenges met the 2012 squad as an influx of youth took over the diamond and key injuries forced many lineup shuffles. At any given point, the Horned Frogs had at least three freshmen on the field and at times there were five. The youth movement didn't slow down the Frogs as they captured their seventh straight Mountain West regular season title, sharing the top spot with New Mexico after compiling an 18-6 conference record.

The regular season growth translated to postseason success as the Frogs rallied from a game one loss to Ole Miss in the NCAA College Station Regional to claim the program's first-ever road Regional championship. TCU advanced to its third NCAA Super Regional in the last four years, putting them in elite company as one of only eight schools to hold that distinction.

In all, the 2012 squad put together a 40-22 record. Preston Morrison was tabbed the MW Pitcher and Freshman of the Year, while five others earned all-conference accolades. Additionally, Morrison was tabbed a third-team All-American as well as a Freshman All-American. At the end of the season, the Frogs saw six players drafted.

2011 saw the Horned Frogs continue a trend that started with the 2009 campaign when they were selected to host a regional for the third straight season. That distinction left them in select company as only five other teams had hosted each of the last three seasons.

The honor of hosting came on the heels of a 42-17 regular season that saw the Frogs win their sixth straight regular season crown. TCU dominated the league field, posting a 20-3 record in Mountain West play. Ten Frogs were honored as all-conference performers, while Schlossnagle was tabbed MW Coach of the Year for the sixth straight season. TCU finished ranked as high as 17th in the national polls.

Schlossnagle and staff set a new standard in the baseball program when a school-record eight athletes were drafted in the 2011 MLB draft. Additionally, two more signed free-agent contracts to join the professional ranks.

When Schlossnagle was hired in the summer of 2003, he made no secret his goal was to take the TCU baseball program to the top. His vision included conference championships, hosting NCAA Regionals, NCAA Super Regionals and taking the Horned Frogs, TCU and the Fort Worth community to the College World Series. That dream was finally realized in 2010.

Schlossnagle delivered on that promise made in July of 2003 when he guided the 2010 team to their first-ever College World Series appearance. Getting there was not easy, but the Frogs did so in record-breaking fashion. Under his direction, the Frogs finished the season ranked No. 3 by all the major polls after compiling a school-record 54-14 record

The Frogs finished the regular season with a 43-11 record. Along the way, TCU climbed to the top of the Mountain West Conference, marking their fifth straight league title with a 19-5 record. Ten Frogs were tabbed all-conference performers, while Schlossnagle took home his fifth straight conference Coach of the Year honor.

TCU reclaimed its hold on the conference tournament title with a 3-0 sweep through the Conoco MWC Baseball Tournament in San Diego. Following the championship, the Frogs officially set off on the "Road to Omaha" when they were selected as a host site and a No. 1 seed for the second straight season. TCU made quick and easy work of the regional field to earn a second shot at Texas in the Super Regionals. In what was billed as the best pitching match-up in the nation, the Frogs came out on top, reversing their fortunes from 2009. The Frogs won the opener and rode a dominating pitching performance to a 4-1 victory in the decisive game three all the way to Omaha, Neb.

Instantly a fan favorite, the Frogs didn't disappoint. Schlossnagle guided the Frogs to a 3-2 record in the series, falling a game short of reaching the championship series.

The postseason accolades were many, headlined by the NCBWA selecting Schlossnagle as its National Coach of the Year. Bryan Holaday was tabbed as the 2010 Johnny Bench Award winner and Matt Purke was named the National Freshman of the Year by all major publications, Purke, Holaday and Steven Maxwell were all tabbed as All-Americans.

The program reached new heights in 2009. One of the nation's most difficult schedules paid dividends as the Frogs earned their first-ever No. 1 seed and hosted a regional. Hosting proved to be just the right combination to propel the Frogs into their first Super Regional after sweeping through the Regional.

TCU finished the campaign with a 40-18 record, its fourth overall and third-straight 40-win season, and came one win away from reaching the College World Series, pushing the national runner-up, Texas, to a decisive third game.

Along the way, the Frogs claimed their fourth straight regular season crown and saw seven members earn all-conference recognition. Schlossnagle took home Coach of the Year honors for the fourth straight season.

After a successful 2007 campaign, the Horned Frogs raised the bar yet again in 2008. Playing one of the most difficult schedules in the nation, the Frogs finished the season with a 44-19 record. The schedule featured the likes of Cal State Fullerton, Ole Miss, Wichita State, Tulane, Pepperdine as well as Big XII power houses, Texas A&M, Baylor and Oklahoma.

TCU's marquee series victory of 2008 was a 2-1 win over the Rebels, who were ranked No. 2 at the time. The 2008 campaign also saw the MWC tournament played at Lupton Stadium for the first time in school history. The home field advantage propelled the Frogs to their fifth-straight tournament crown, enabling them to sweep the conference titles for the third straight season.

Eight Frogs were named to the all-conference team, while Schlossnagle claimed his third consecutive Coach of the Year award.

At the culmination of the season, Schlossnagle saw the second player in school history taken in the first round of the MLB draft as Andrew Cashner was selected by the Chicago Cubs with the 19th overall pick.

Each season under Schlossnagle has seen a new milestone achieved and 2007 was no different. For the first time in school history, the Frogs reached the 40-win plateau in the regular season, en route to an amazing 48-14 record. The team tallied two wins in the NCAA tournament for the first time, reaching the regional finals

He also saw an unprecedented 11 athletes earn all-conference recognition as well as earning his second straight conference Coach of the Year crown. This came on the heels of another successful run in the MWC as the Frogs set a new mark for win percentage with a 20-3 (.870) record in league play. The Frogs claimed their second straight regular season crown and fourth consecutive tournament title.

In 2006, just his third season at TCU, Schlossnagle produced the school's first regular season conference title since 1994 as the team topped the Mountain West Conference standings with a 17-5 league mark. TCU earned its third straight berth in the NCAA Regionals, becoming one of just 26 schools to appear in the playoffs each of the last three seasons, when it claimed its third consecutive conference tournament crown. It was the second time in his career that he has led a team to both the regular season and tournament titles, having done so in 2003 at UNLV. That team tied for the second-most wins in school history with 39.

His efforts on the bench in 2006 earned him his second career Mountain West Conference Coach of the Year Award. He mentored his second consecutive conference Pitcher of the Year and saw five Frogs earn first-team all-Mountain West accolades and two more garner second-team honors.

2006 also brought another honor as Schlossnagle was selected as an assistant coach for Team USA. Alongside Jake Arrieta, the duo helped Team USA defend its gold medal as they swept through the FISU World Championships in Cuba. The National team completed its most successful summer in history as they posted a 28-2-1 (.919) record and won the gold medal on Cuban soil for the first time in the history of USA Baseball.

In his first season, Schlossnagle led the Frogs to a then-school-record 39 wins and to their first appearance in the NCAA Regionals since 1994 and their third appearance in school history. The squad earned the NCAA automatic berth when he coached them to the Conference USA Tournament championship. The tournament championship was the first-ever by a TCU squad.

In 2005, the Frogs posted their second straight successful season under Schlossnagle's tutelage. He led them to a second-consecutive berth in the NCAA Regionals and another conference title. His 2005 team won a then-school-record 41 games, the first-ever 40-win season in school history.

Schlossnagle's presence at TCU was felt immediately with his recruiting prowess and his staff has shown no signs of a letdown. He has set the stage for many successful seasons to come through his recruiting talent. His first recruiting class at TCU saw four players drafted. All but one of the draftees made it on campus for the Frogs. Baseball America ranked the 2005 recruiting class as the third best in the nation. The 2006 recruiting class also brought national recognition, this time in the form of a No. 21 ranking by Collegiate Baseball.

Continuing a trend, the Frogs again loaded up in the fall of 2007 with an impressive signing class that was tabbed by Baseball America as the ninth-best class in the country. The group of 12 signees saw three players drafted (Matt Curry, Walker Kelly and Kyle Winkler), while five of them (Taylor Featherston, Kelly, Kaleb Merck, Winkler, Davey Wright) were ranked in the top 25 Texas High School recruits by Inside Prep Baseball. The 2009 class was ranked fourth by Baseball America. It featured three players that had been drafted in the summer of 2009, including Purke who was the 14th overall pick in the draft.

Prior to his time at TCU, Schlossnagle spent two years as head coach of the UNLV baseball program. In just two seasons, the Rebels owned a 77-47 record under Schlossnagle, good for a .621 winning percentage.

Prior to UNLV, Schlossnagle served an eight-year stint at Tulane as associate head coach and recruiting coordinator for the Green Wave. Schlossnagle joined the Tulane program in August of 1993 and was an integral part of the Green Wave's success, helping Tulane to six NCAA Regional appearances during his tenure. Schlossnagle served as the Green Wave recruiting coordinator for the last five years and garnered three nationally ranked recruiting classes which helped produce two 48-win seasons and a number one NCAA Regional seed.

Prior to arriving in New Orleans, Schlossnagle served as the pitching coach at Clemson in 1993. The Tigers finished that campaign with a 45-20 record, an Atlantic Coast Conference championship and a third place finish in the NCAA Midwest Regional. Seven members of the '93 Clemson pitching staff were drafted into professional baseball.

Schlossnagle spent three seasons as an assistant at Elon (N.C.) College where he helped lead his alma mater to a 99-41 record, two South Atlantic Conference Championships, a District 26 title and an Area 7 Regional appearance.

A native of Hagerstown, Md., Schlossnagle was a pitcher on the 1989 Elon squad that finished 39-7 and appeared in the NAIA World Series. He graduated magna cum laude with a bachelor's degree in physical education in 1992 and earned a master's of education in human performance and health promotion from the University of New Orleans in 1995.

Schlossnagle and his wife, Kami, have a son, Jackson Lambert, and a daughter, Kathleen Grace.

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH BILL MOSIELLO #14 SECOND SEASON

Bill Mosiello joined the coaching staff in the summer of 2013. Named associate head coach, Mosiello assumed the role of hitting coach and serves as the third base coach during games.

Mosiello came to TCU after spending two seasons at Tennessee serving as the recruiting coordinator and hitting instructor. He has over 20 years of collegiate coaching experience and seven more years of experience as a minor league manager.

"Bill is considered one of the best teachers of the game of baseball at any level," said Schlossnagle. "His experience throughout not only college baseball but as a manager of successful minor league teams will truly help elevate the development of our players.

"He bring relentless energy every single day. I look forward to our offense developing that kind of identity."

Mosiello's impact on the program was immediately felt as he helped guide the squad to a berth in the College World Series. Under his tutelage, the Horned Frogs saw their offensive numbers improve across the board.

TCU ranked in the top half of the Big 12 in all offensive categories. The group stole 93 bases, the most of any TCU team coached by Schlossnagle. A new approach at the plate helped the group boast a .368 on-base percentage, up 33 points from 2012. The team batting average ballooned 32 points and ranked in the top 100 nationally. Five Frogs put together career years at the plate. Cody Jones swiped 29 bases to rank 13th national. Kyle BacakClick here to hear it set a school record with 21 sacrifices on the season. All eight position players earned all-conference accolades.

"I am both extremely honored and blessed to have the honor to be named associate head coach by Jim SchlossnagleClick here to hear it," said Mosiello. "The last two days, my wife and I have had opportunity to travel to Fort Worth and to meet with Chris Del Conte. I am very impressed with the support staff and administration that is in place at TCU. I have no doubt in my mind that it will be a great fit for my family and I to move to Texas. It's with a heavy heart that I leave Tennessee and a staff full of life-long friends, but my new position will fully allow me to utilize my strengths as a coach.

"From afar I have witnessed Coach Schlossnagle's career at TCU," continued Mosiello. "I am very impressed with what he's accomplished. It's a great privilege to have the opportunity to work with who in my opinion is one of the top pitching coaches in the country in Kirk SaarloosClick here to hear it. Hopefully along with myself, him and I can become one top assistant coaching duos in the country."

Prior to his stint at Tennessee, Mosiello served as the manager of the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim's Double-A affiliate, the Arkansas Travelers where he tutored MLB phenom Mike Trout for nearly two full seasons.

"When you look at players like Mike Trout and Todd Helton, and see that a big part of their development and success as professional players can be attributed to their work under Coach Mosiello, you have to be excited for our players to get to work along side him," said Schlossnagle. "He fits our mold of selfless, energetic people that are committed to excellence."

Mosiello joined the Angels organization in 2009, spending his first two seasons as the manager of the single-A Cedar Rapids Kernels. He guided them to a 160-116 record (.580) during the 2009 and 2010 campaigns. Mosiello owns a career managerial record of 383-294 (.566) in the minor leagues, including his two years at Cedar Rapids and parts of three seasons in the New York Yankees organization from 2004-06.

Between his stints with the Yankees and Angels, Mosiello returned to the collegiate ranks as a hitting coach at Southern California in 2007 and at Auburn in 2008.

Prior to USC, Mosiello spent four years as a member of the New York Yankees organization, including two as the manager for the Charleston RiverDogs, the Yankees' single-A affiliate of the South Atlantic League, where he posted a two-year record of 129-98 (.568). He also managed the Battle Creek Yankees in 2004 and spent a season as the hitting instructor for the Trenton Thunder (AA) in the Yankees system.

Before beginning his minor league career, Mosiello spent 15 seasons in the collegiate coaching ranks. After the completion of his playing career at Fresno State in 1986, he began his coaching career at Cerritos College where he posted a 163-34 record in four seasons (1987-90), won four South Coast Conference titles and two California state junior college championships.

Mosiello made the move to the Division I level in 1991, joining Augie Garrido's staff at Cal State Fullerton where he spent two seasons (1991-92). In '92, the Titans advanced to the College World Series championship game, featuring Golden Spikes Award winner and No. 1 overall draft selection Phil Nevin.

After his two years at Tennessee (1993-94) and one season as the pitching coach at Ole Miss (1995), Mosiello spent five seasons (1996-2000) at Oklahoma with part of his tenure as associate head coach. He then spent the 2001 season at Arizona State before joining the Yankees.

Mosiello has earned Manager of the Year honors twice in the Alaska Summer League (1990, 1991) and once in the Cape Cod Baseball League (1998).

Mosiello and his wife, Janelle, have three sons; Shane, Gehrig and Helton.

ASSISTANT COACH KIRK SAARLOOS #2 THIRD SEASON

Kirk Saarloos joined the coaching staff in the summer of 2012 after two seasons as the pitching coach at Cal State Fullerton. He assumed the duties of pitching coach. In the summer of 2013, Saarloos was promoted to recruiting coordinator.

"We are so very excited to welcome Kirk, Kristen, Brady and Emery to the Horned Frog family," said head coach Jim Schlossnagle. "Kirk is one of the most talented coaches that I have been around in 22 years of college coaching. He is ridiculously intelligent and knowledgeable in all areas of pitching but at the same time is constantly looking to learn more and improve. Obviously, his playing career provided him the opportunity to compete at the major league level for six years and that experience really helps all of our players, not just our pitchers."

"My family and I are thankful for the faith that Chris Del Conte and Coach Schlossnagle have put in us," said Saarloos. "We are truly excited to become part of the Fort Worth community and TCU family. I am looking forward to developing student-athletes at a high level and continuing the great tradition of the TCU baseball program."

In his short time at TCU, his presence has been felt both on the field and off the field. His pitching staff has ranked in the top 15 of all major pitching categories in each of his two seasons.

The 2014 TCU Horned Frogs rode the arms of their pitching staff all the way to the College World Series. Under his guidance this past season, the group led the nation in ERA at 2.22. In addition, they ranked in the top six in all major pitching categories: H/9 (6th, 7.07), K:BB ratio (2nd, 3.80), K/9 (6th, 8.4), WHIP (2nd, 1.03) and BB/9 (5th, 2.22). Additionally, the Frogs set a school and Big 12 record with 14 shutouts on the season.

The staff will go down as one of the best in TCU history as they set a school record with 574 strikeouts in addition to posting the lowest ERA since the 1972 season. Riley Ferrell established a new mark for saves in a season with 15, while Preston Morrison's 129 2/3 innings pitched are a school record. In addition to his innings pitched, Morrison posted the lowest individual ERA since 1972.

Three members of the pitching staff (Morrison, Brandon Finnegan and Ferrell) earned All-America accolades from various publications. Morrison was tabbed the Big 12 Pitcher of the Year, while Finnegan was the 17th overall draft pick in the 2014 MLB First-year Player Draft. He went on to become the first-ever player to pitch in both the College World Series and the MLB World Series in the same year. Tyler Alexander earned Freshman All-American honors in addition to being named second-team all-Big 12.

"He truly has a passion for college baseball and developing young people both on and off the field," said Schlossnagle. "Kirk has been a difference maker in our program despite having only been here a very short time. For a guy who has only been coaching in college for four years, he is incredibly advanced beyond his age."

The impact of Saarloos' tutelage was immediate as the Horned Frogs boasted one of the top pitching staffs in the country. They were top 15 nationally in most pitching categories, including ERA (15th, 2.78), K:BB (11th, 2.82) and WHIP (11th, 1.15). The group produced the lowest team ERA in TCU history since 1968. TCU's season ERA ranked second in the Big 12, while its 2.47 ERA in league play was tops among conference opponents. Additionally, the Horned Frogs racked up 449 strikeouts and held opponents to a .230 batting average against. Both marks were second in the league.

Individually, the pitching staff saw numerous members receive multiple honors. Preston Morrison was honored as a first-team All-Big 12 performer, while Alex Young was named second-team all-conference. Riley Ferrell, along with Young, was named to the Big 12 All-Freshman team. Finnegan was named to the 24-man USA Baseball Collegiate National Team roster, while Morrison and Ferrell each earned a spot on the roster following the CNT Training Camp.

Saarloos joined the Titan coaching staff in 2011 after wrapping up a seven-year major league. He spent his first season on staff as an undergraduate assistant for Dave Serrano. Saarloos moved into the role of pitching coach when Rick Vanderhook took over the head coaching duties in the summer of 2011.

"Kirk was one of the greatest college pitchers of all-time and a successful major league pitcher as well," continued Schlossnagle. "Combine that with coming from such a great program like Fullerton, Kirk has both the experience and pedigree to help us continue our progress toward winning in Omaha. We couldn't be more excited to welcome Coach Saarloos to TCU."

In his two seasons at Fullerton, the Titans put together a 77-38 (.670) record and won two Big West titles.

After taking over the pitchers in the fall of 2011, Saarloos coached a predominantly freshman and sophomore pitching staff to a team ERA of 3.18. They fanned 336 batters and limited opponents to a .250 batting average against. The group led the country in fewest walks per nine innings, ranked third in K:BB ratio and fifth in WHIP. At the end of the season, four pitchers earned Freshman All-American accolades.

Under his guidance, Dylan Floro was named the 2012 Big West Pitcher of the Year. The junior compiled a 10-4 record in 17 appearances. In 15 starts, the right-hander tossed three complete games. He went on to be drafted in the 13th round of the 2012 MLB draft.

Saarloos spent seven years in the major leagues, playing for Houston (2002-03), Oakland (2004-06, 08) and Cincinnati (2007). In 2001, he was drafted 86th overall (3rd round) by Houston after a decorated collegiate career at Cal State Fullerton.

In seven seasons in the big leagues, Saarloos made 73 starts as part of 165 appearances on the mound. He posted a career record of 29-30 with two saves and a 5.02 ERA. In 509 innings pitched, he fanned 251 batters. He was called up to the majors on June 18, 2002. Saarloos made history on June 11, 2003 as he was one of a major league record six Astro pitchers to combine for a no-hitter against the New York Yankees at Yankee Stadium.

As a player at Cal State Fullerton, he racked up a school-record 127 appearances over his four seasons in a Titan uniform. His first three seasons were spent as a reliever before moving into a starting role as a senior. In 2001, he went on to earn first-team All-American honors and was named the Big West Conference Pitcher of the Year after putting together a 15-2 campaign. He owns one of the Titans three no-hitters as he blanked Pacific on April 8, 2001.

He was 33-12 with a 2.96 ERA in four collegiate seasons. He ranks sixth all-time in innings pitched, second in wins, third in strikeouts and fifth in saves. In two appearances at the College World Series (1999 and 2001), he recorded a save and allowed just two runs in 15 1/3 innings pitched.

Saarloos and his wife, Kristen, have a son, Brady, and two daughters, Emery and Lane.

VOLUNTEER ASST. ZACH ETHEREDGE #28 SECOND SEASON

Zach Etheredge joined the coaching staff in the summer of 2013. Serving as the volunteer assistant, Etheredge is responsible for coaching the catchers, assisting with the hitters and coaching first base.

"We are excited to add Zach to our coaching staff," said Schlossnagle. "He will bring a tremendous amount of energy to our program and is a proven developer of players, especially at the catching position."

"I am really excited for the opportunity to work with such an outstanding baseball program and such a great staff," said Etheredge. "I hope I can add something to the mix."

Etheredge made his presence felt on the diamond as TCU advanced to the College World Series. The Horned Frogs saw improvements in all facets of the game, most notably at the plate. Offensively, the Frogs saw a 32 point improvement in their batting average. TCU hit .278 on the season to rank 88th nationally. On the bases, the Frogs swiped 93 bases, ranking 15th nationally.

Defensively, TCU posted a .977 fielding percentage. That mark ranked 11th nationally and established a new school record. Under his guidance, Kyle Bacak put together a career season behind the plate. The senior was drafted in the 25th round by the Washington Nationals. He boasted a .993 fielding percentage and threw out 39% of base stealers. After allowing 14 passed balls in 2013, Bacak decreased that total to just five in 2014. Additionally, the pitching staff had just 35 wild pitches, down from 55 in 2013.

The former Chicago White Sox farmhand spent the past two seasons as the volunteer assistant at UC Santa Barbara. This past season, he helped coach the Gouchos to a berth in the NCAA Corvallis Regional. The Gouchos finished the season with a 35-25 record. Under his guidance, Jackson Morrow posted a 1.000 fielding percentage and threw out 56% of base stealers.

Prior to his time at UCSB, Etheredge served as an assistant for the Cotuit Kettlers in the Cape Cod League. He was also the head coach in the Texas Fury summer league organization.

In his collegiate playing days, Etheredge was a two-time All-Southland Conference catcher at UTSA. He ranks in the top 10 of most offensive categories, including at-bats, doubles, RBIs and home runs.

MEREDITH MONTGOMERY DIRECTOR OF BASEBALL OPERATIONS

Montgomery enters her sixth season as the Director of Baseball Operations. She is responsible for all the administrative aspects of the program, including travel, meals and accommodations. She is also responsible for handling the Diamond Club and overseeing the First Pitch Banquet. Along with that, she serves as the Community Service director and the liaison between umpires and the visiting teams.

“Meredith has been a tremendous addition to our program,” said Schlossnagle. “She has a great love and passion for TCU and her organizational and interpersonal skills are off the chart. We are very fortunate to have her heading up all administrative aspects of our program.”

A native of Olney, Texas, Montgomery spent the past four years working in the media relations department. In her time with the department, Montgomery assisted at all home events, including football, basketball and baseball.

As a student at TCU, Montgomery was very involved in all aspects of campus life. She was a three-year member of the Diamond Darlings as well as being a member of Alpha Chi Omega. She served a year on the executive board before spending her senior year as president of the sorority.

A stand-out in the classroom, Montgomery is a member of the Order of Omega, the Greek Honors Society.

Montgomery has been involved in baseball in some capacity since high school. She kept stats for her high school team before joining the media relations department at TCU as a freshman where she assisted with game day operations for football, basketball and baseball.

In the summer of 2006, Montgomery interned with the Texas Collegiate League’s Graham Roughnecks. Her duties with Roughnecks included preparing the game script, on-field promotions and arranging community service appearances.

The following summer, Montgomery interned with the Texas Collegiate League. She was responsible for coordinating bus travel, scheduling promotions and helping with on-field promotions. She also represented the league through on-site visitations as well as running the All-Star Game promotions.

A 2009 graduate of TCU, Montgomery received her Bachelor of Science in Education with an emphasis in Middle School Math. She recently completed her master’s in middle school education. Her sister, Megan, is also a graduate of TCU.

ATHLETIC TRAINER DANNY WHEAT 11TH SEASON

Wheat enters his 11th year as an athletic trainer at TCU. Wheat is responsible for athletic injury recognition and care, treatment and rehabilitation of the Horned Frogs' baseball team.

Prior to his arrival at TCU, Wheat worked in the Texas Rangers organization from 1976 to 2002, serving as the head athletic trainer at the major league level for the final 11 of those years.

Wheat began his career at the Double-A level in the Texas League with San Antonio and Tulsa. He served in a variety of positions while at the Double-A level being responsible for ordering and overseeing the equipment and running the home clubhouse. On the road, Wheat was responsible for arranging all bus transportation, hotels and meal money distribution.

In 1978, Wheat moved up to the Rangers' Triple-A affiliate, serving in the same capacity as the athletic trainer, equipment manager and traveling secretary. While there, he made stops in Tucson, Charleston, Wichita, Denver and Oklahoma City.

Wheat was promoted to the big league club in 1985 as the assistant athletic trainer. He was responsible for arranging physicians visits and diagnostic appointments as well as ordering the training room supplies. He served in that role until 1992 when he was promoted to the head athletic trainer position for the Rangers. In that role, Wheat communicated with the general manager and the manager on the athletes' status and availability. He was also responsible for ordering medications and managing the department budget.

In 1995, Wheat was selected as the American League Athletic Trainer for the MLB All-Star game. 1998 brought another honor as he was chosen to be the Athletic Trainer for the MLB All-Star Tour of Japan.

In 2003, Wheat was named the athletic trainer for Team USA at the International World Cup of Baseball in Havana, Cuba.

USA Baseball came calling again in the summer of 2009 as he was selected as the assistant athletic trainer for the 2009 World Cup squad that won gold in Europe.

Wheat was once again called on by USA Baseball, this time as the head athletic trainer for the 2010 Collegiate National Team. He was selected to serve the same position for the 2012 Collegiate National Team. His association with the organization continued in the summer of 2013 as he served as the head athletic trainer for the Collegiate National Team.

Wheat joined the Ben Hogan Sports Therapy Institute in 2003, serving as the trainer for both the Fort Worth Cats baseball team and the Fort Worth Brahmas hockey club.

Wheat got his start in sports medicine as a student at the University of Texas. He graduated in 1975 with a Bachelor of Science in Kinesiology.

Danny and his wife, Nancy live in Flower Mound. They have two sons, Jarrod and Jordan. Both sons attended TCU and worked in the athletic department. Jarrod, a 2012 graduate of TCU, served three seasons as an equipment manager for the baseball team, while Jordan is in the athletic training program.

Ross Bailey Associate Athletics Director

Longtime TCU athletic trainer Ross Bailey is in his 13th year as the University's Senior Associate Athletics Director for Operations. In his role, Bailey supervises the sports medicine department, equipment room, video services, strength and development and baseball programs. He also directs and manages the gameday operations for TCU football, basketball and baseball, while overseeing new facility development and construction and the maintenance of current facilities.

Prior to taking on his new responsibilities, Bailey spent the previous 22 years as head athletic trainer at TCU. A certified and licensed athletic trainer, he is a member of NATA and serves as a member on the Board of Athletic Training for the Texas Department of Health. He also works as an associate on the Justin Boots Sports Medicine Team.

Bailey was the 1985 recipient of the Eddie Wojewicki Athletic Trainer of the Year Award and earned the Frank Medina Award for service to athletic training and mankind in 1999. He was inducted into the SWATA Hall of Fame in 2000.

Bailey received his bachelor's degree from TCU in 1976 and his master's in education in 1978, also from TCU. Bailey and his wife, Mary, are the parents of two daughters: Lauren and Courtney.

Brandie Davidson Assistant Media Relations Director

Brandie Davidson joined the TCU athletics media relations staff in the summer of 2003. The Cedar Falls, Iowa, native serves as the media relations contact for Horned Frog baseball, soccer and women's rifle.

In the summer of 2012, she served as the press officer for USA Baseball's Women's National Team. Davidson was a part of the staff that coached the squad to a silver medal at the IBAF World Cup in Edmonton, Alberta. She returned to USA Baseball in the summer of 2013 as the press officer for the Collegiate National Team.

Before coming to TCU, Davidson was a member of the sports information office at Northwest Missouri State University in Maryville, Mo. While at Northwest, she served as the primary contact for the Bearcats women's soccer team and the 2003 NCAA Division II playoffs participant baseball squad.

In her five-year stint at Northwest, Davidson also worked with the two-time Division II National Championship football team, as well as the men's and women's basketball teams. For her efforts, she was one of two students to be awarded the 2002-03 CoSIDA undergraduate scholarship.

Davidson received her Bachelor of Science degree in Physical Education in May of 2003 from Northwest Missouri State and graduated with her Masters of Liberal Arts at TCU in May, 2005.

Rory Rutledge Assistant Director of Marketing

Rory Rutledge joined the TCU Athletics Marketing Department in the summer of 2013. Named an assistant director of marketing, Rutledge came to TCU after a successful two-year stint at the Air Force Academy. He assumes the responsibility for the marketing and promotion of the women's soccer team, swimming and diving as well as baseball.

While at Air Force, Rutledge was responsible for the marketing and promotion of women's basketball, men's hockey and football.

Prior to his time at Air Force, he spent two years as a graduate assistant in the the Central Michigan marketing department. He worked primarily with the women's soccer, women's gymnastics, wrestling, football and softball teams.

A 2009 graduate of Michigan State with a degree in marketing, Rutledge got his Master's of Science from Central Michigan in 2011.

Judy Golden Academic Advisor

Judy Golden, who has worked at TCU since May of 1997, is in her 12th year in the Horned Frog Athletics Department. She has served as the academic advisor for the men's basketball program for three years. She works with all members of the team to ensure that they are progressing toward graduation through academic plans, tutorial support and course scheduling.

Prior to working in athletics, Golden advised students in TCU's M.J. Neeley School of Business for six years. Golden received her undergraduate degree from Texas Tech in 1977 and her M.L.A. degree from TCU in 2001.

Golden and her husband, Mark, are the parents of two children, Ben and Rachel, also a TCU alum.

Zach Dechant Strength Coach

Zach Dechant oversees the development of baseball, and women's tennis, as well as assisting with football. His previous experience has includes stints at the University of Wyoming, Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim, Missouri State University and the University of Washington.

He earned a bachelor's degree in health and wellness from Missouri State in 2003, and is currently working towards his master's degree. He is certified through the NSCA, CSCCA, and the USAW.

VICTOR J. BOSCHINI Chancellor 12th Year

Texas Christian University is all about the students. That's the message Chancellor Victor Boschini has emphasized since he arrived here in 2003. It's how the Chancellor and TCU First Lady Megan Boschini set their priorities.

It's why the Chancellor teaches a freshman class every fall and works to ensure that students in this state and across the nation can benefit from a university education, particularly through state and federal financial aid. It's why Mrs. Boschini is committed to enhancing the TCU experience for each student and facilitating the forward momentum of the University.

It's the reason the Boschinis entertain hundreds of students in the TCU Chancellor's residence and attend scores of events annually. That is if they are not traveling across the state and country on behalf of the University, or attending a summer Frog Camp for incoming students in London or Paris.

For the Boschinis, TCU is a family affair. Chancellor and Mrs. Boschini (Honorary TCU Alumna 2010) are parents four Horned Frogs: Margaret (Class of 2018), Edward (Class of 2016), Mary Catherine (Class of 2012) and Elizabeth (Class of 2009).

The couple has had the privilege of being at TCU during a period of unprecedented support from alumni, parents and friends that has enabled the University to create a world-class, values-centered university experience for its approximately 10,000 students.

Following the Vision in Action strategic process, the $434 million Campaign for TCU underwrote an impressive agenda: doubling of scholarship support for talented and deserving undergraduates, construction of more than a dozen facilities, establishment of the John V. Roach Honors College, creation of 11 new endowed faculty positions and a total, donor-funded renovation of the Amon G. Carter Stadium.

Now the University is realizing the next phase of its long-term plans: Vision In Action: The Academy of Tomorrow. As part of this phase, TCU is building an Intellectual Commons on the east side of campus, adding residence halls to meet student demand, enhancing the academic profile of the student body as well as balancing the mix between male and female students, and continuing to increase the curricular and co-curricular opportunities available both on and off campus for our students.

Chancellor Boschini came to TCU from Illinois State University, where he served as president, vice president for student affairs and associate professor in the Department of Educational Administration and Foundations. Prior to that, he held administrative and teaching positions at Butler and Indiana universities.

As a leader in higher education, the Chancellor has a high profile in organizations that benefit students — nationally and in the State of Texas. He recently completed his term as president of the Board of Directors of the Independent Colleges & Universities of Texas (ICUT). He also serves on the board of the Council for International Exchange of Scholars, the organization that works with the Fulbright Scholars program, and the President's Council of The Washington Center, the largest independent, nonprofit academic internship program in the United States. Previously, he chaired the National Association of Independent Colleges & Universities (NAICU), which represents the interests of private colleges and universities across the country.

In addition, Chancellor Boschini sits on the board of the State Farm Company Mutual Funds, as well as the boards of the Fort Worth Symphony Orchestra, the Van Cliburn Foundation and the Moncrief Cancer Institute. Megan Boschini is also involved in a variety of local activities and serves on the boards of directors for the Fort Worth Museum of Science and History and Gill Charity, Inc. She is a frequent participant in events designed to improve the well-being of the greater community.

Both Boschinis are committed to ensuring that they — and TCU — remain good citizens of the University's hometown.

CHRIS DEL CONTE Director of Intercollegiate Athletics Sixth Year

Chris Del Conte was appointed TCU's director of intercollegiate athletics in October 2009.

Since his arrival on campus, Del Conte has overseen a series of historic moments in TCU's athletics history that include the Horned Frogs' July 1, 2012 entrance into the Big 12 and nearly $230 million in construction projects.

A new $164 million Amon G. Carter Stadium opened in September 2012, while a $59 million rebuild of Daniel-Meyer Coliseum began immediately after the 2013-14 season. Almost $6 million combined contributed to the August 2010 opening of the Jane Justin Fieldhouse at Garvey-Rosenthal Soccer Stadium and a new baseball performance center to be completed in Fall 2014.

Other facility projects under Del Conte include the Horned Frogs opening a new football locker room, sports medicine center and equipment room. Within the sports medicine center, TCU is the only school in the nation to have its own cryo sauna. There was also a Spring 2011 expansion of baseball's Lupton Stadium and the Fall 2011 debut of the Physical Performance Center.

In 2013-14, TCU totaled six team or individual Big 12 championships in addition to track and field's Lorraine Ugen winning the NCAA indoor title in the women's long jump. Baseball became one of just 10 programs nationally to reach the College World Series at least twice in the last five years.

The 2012-13 athletics season saw TCU capture three national championships. Rifle won the NCAA smallbore title, while Ugen (women's long jump) and Charles Silmon (men's 100 meters) were individual winners at the NCAA Outdoor Track and Field Championships.

The partnership between TCU, Fort Worth and the Metroplex has never been more evident. In 2013, football sold out of season tickets for the second straight year with a new record total of 31,636. Football, baseball, men's basketball, women's basketball, soccer, men's tennis, track and field and volleyball have set either season ticket or attendance records in the last two years.

Fiscal years 2012-13 and 2013-14 have produced the top-two marks in TCU's athletics fundraising history. During that time, TCU supporters have contributed nearly $90 million in total athletics giving, including almost $22 million for the Frog Club. In each of the last two years, and for the first time ever, TCU has been able to cover all scholarship costs for its student-athletes.

During Del Conte's first five years on campus, TCU twice established a single-season school record with six conference championships. During that stretch, nine sports have won league titles (baseball, women's basketball, football, women's golf, men's swimming and diving, men's tennis, women's tennis, women's indoor and outdoor track and field). Sixteen of 20 sports have been represented in NCAA postseason play with 12 teams nationally ranked.

The TCU football program made two straight BCS appearances, including a 21-19 win over Wisconsin in the 2011 Rose Bowl. Additionally, the Horned Frog baseball team reached the College World Series for the first time in program history in 2010, and the rifle team won the 2010 and 2012 NCAA national championship. In 2009-10, TCU was the only school in the nation to play in a BCS game and win at least one game at the CWS.

The success on the playing field has carried over to the classroom. TCU student-athletes have recorded their highest cumulative grade-point average since tracking began in 1998. Fifteen of 20 sports have posted team GPAs over 3.0. TCU's overall Graduation Success Rate for student-athletes is 88 percent.

Over the last five years, three TCU head coaches (Gary Patterson, football; Jim Schlossnagle, baseball; Karen Monez, rifle) have been named National Coach of the Year in their respective sports.

The recipient of the 2010 Bobby Dodd Division I-A Athletic Director's Award, Del Conte was also one of five finalists for the SportsBusiness Journal's Athletic Director of the Year.

During his tenure at Rice, Del Conte had responsibility for 16 intercollegiate programs, 350 student-athletes, along with coaches and staff. Del Conte also designed, developed and managed the Rice Vision for the Second Century Campaign, which raised over $90 million. He secured significant funds to build athletic facilities such as the Tudor Fieldhouse and Youngkin Center for Student-Athlete Excellence, and also raised $4 million for upgrades to the football stadium. Del Conte also secured a marketing sponsorship and broadcast rights contract for Rice and maintained a focus on student-athlete academic achievement, resulting in numerous public recognition awards from the NCAA for the academic progress rate of student-athletes.

Prior to Rice, Del Conte was the senior associate athletics director for external operations and sports programs at the University of Arizona (2000-06). In that role, Del Conte had responsibility for the planning, management and oversight of the day-to-day operation for the department of intercollegiate athletics. He also functioned as the chief financial officer; managed external operations; had oversight and management of all contracts, ticket sales, broadcast rights fees, corporate sponsorships, and trademarks and licensing; and oversight of all facility construction.

Del Conte also served as an assistant athletics director for external operations at both Washington State (1998-99) and Cal Poly (1994-98).

Del Conte served on the North Texas Super Bowl XLV Host Committee and currently assists with the Davey O'Brien Foundation Board and the National Sports Marketing Network Board. His other professional committee involvement and associations include the Division I-A Athletics Directors Association and the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics.

Del Conte received a bachelor's of arts degree in sociology from UC Santa Barbara and a master's of education, administration and supervision from Washington State.

Del Conte is married to Dr. Robin Ward and has two daughters.

NCAA District 6 Regional

Tucson, Ariz.

May 21 Arizona 7, TCU 5
 May 22 Arizona 8, TCU 2

In the first year of his third stint as the skipper of the Horned Frogs, Dutch Meyer guided TCU to its first appearance in the NCAA Tournament. The Frogs topped the Southwest Conference with a 13-2 record en route to their first conference crown since 1933.

TCU rode the coattails of All-American shortstop Al Paschal. Future All-American outfielder Carl Warwick also starred for TCU as the pair joined pitcher Bob McDaniel, second baseman Charles Quick and outfielder Bob White on the SWC All-Conference squad.

TCU's first trip to the playoffs didn't go as well as hoped as the Arizona Wildcats swept the two-game series on their home field.

NCAA Midwest Regional

 May 28 Cal State Fullerton 4, TCU 1
 May 29 Oklahoma State 10, TCU 8

A historic year which saw the Horned Frogs win their first Southwest Conference title since 1956 earned the squad a trip to Stillwater, Okla. for the Midwest Regional. Head Coach Lance Brown guided the Frogs to a 14-4 record in conference play to earn the NCAA bid.

A trio of All-Americans in first baseman Adam Robson, catcher Darren Tawwater and pitcher Tim Grieve were key cogs in the Frogs' run to the tournament.

TCU collected its first postseason win with an eight-run victory over Memphis. Longtime national power Cal State Fullerton soon after halted the Horned Frogs' momentum with a 4-1 defeat. TCU was unable to rebound as it failed to outscore the host Cowboys in what would be their final postseason game in a decade.

In Jim Schlossnagle's first season as head coach, he helped the Frogs to a fourth-place finish in Conference USA with a 19-11 record. Youth was the guiding force in the Frogs' improbable run through the Conference USA tournament. TCU's run through the tournament propelled the Frogs to their first appearance in the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1994. Freshman Austin Adams' MVP performance helped the Frogs fight back from out of the loser's bracket with five straight wins en route to the tournament title.

TCU's late rally against Oral Roberts in the opener fell a run short as the Golden Eagles escaped with a 6-5 victory. The Frogs had to rally again as they fell behind 7-4 early in the elimination game against Youngstown State. Adams came through in the clutch as he smoked a two-run double as part of a six-run sixth inning to help the Frogs to just their second NCAA tournament victory. However, TCU was unable to maintain their momentum the rest of the day and fell victim to ORU once again. The Golden Eagles plated runs in each of the first two innings and never looked back en route to the 10-1 win.

On the heels of a dominating season from Lance Broadway, the Horned Frogs wrapped up its tenure in Conference USA with a second place finish after amassing a 20-10 league record.

The table was set for a thrilling tournament championship game between TCU and a Tulane squad that eventually made it to Omaha. TCU dominated in winning three straight games to reach the final, but a rain storm washed away the championship game. TCU's regular season success was enough to earn the program its first at-large bid as it was selected as the No. 2 seed in the Waco Regional.

Broadway was exceptional in the opening game victory over Stanford. He held the Cardinal to just one run on six hits as he fanned seven in a complete-game effort. Matt Carpenter hit a two-out two-run single to cap a three-run first inning for TCU and the Frogs cruised from there. Top-seeded Baylor proved to be too much for TCU in the winner's bracket game. The Bears put up seven runs in the first three innings and never looked back. An early lead against Stanford went by the wayside as the Cardinal exploded for 10 runs in its final three at-bats to end the Frogs' postseason run.

TCU's move to the Mountain West didn't slow the momentum of the program that Jim Schlossnagle was building. The Frogs dominated the regular season with a 17-5 league mark before sweeping its way through the postseason tournament to earn its third straight trip to the NCAA Regionals.

Tabbed as a four-seed, the Horned Frogs rallied behind the motivation to knock off host Oklahoma in the opener. TCU used a furious three-run top of the ninth and then relied on its ace, Jake Arrieta, to shut down Oklahoma in the bottom of the inning to escape with a 6-5 win. RBI singles from Corey Stiglich, Ryan Pack and Bryan Kervin helped the Frogs erase a 5-3 deficit. Unfortunately, the glory was short-lived as the pitching staff was unable to hold their own the next two nights, resulting in blowout losses to Wichita State and the Sooners.

A dominating regular season saw the program post its first-ever 40-win regular season. The Frogs posted a 20-3 mark in league play and once again swept their way through the conference tournament to earn their fourth straight NCAA Tournament bid.

TCU eked out a 3-2 win over Baylor in the opener. Home runs by Andrew Walker and Bryan Kervin in the seventh inning broke a 1-1 tie and TCU withstood a furious ninth-inning rally by the Bears to win. A 6-3 loss to the host Owls the next day did little to deter anyone, including Matt McGuirk whose grand slam in the ninth against Baylor sent the Bears home. The Horned Frogs were then faced with the challenge of beating Rice twice for their first-ever Super Regional trip, but fell short at the hands of Rice's superior pitching staff.

TCU's dominance of the Mountain West Conference continued as the Frogs claimed their third straight regular season and conference tournament titles. The league's automatic bid saw the Frogs tabbed a third-seed in the NCAA Stillwater Regional, marking the Frogs fifth straight appearance in the postseason.

Despite hitting four home runs, two off the bat of Matt Carpenter, the Frogs couldn't overcome Wichita State as the Shockers won 8-5. Tied with Western Kentucky going into the seventh-inning stretch, the Horned Frogs rallied with a five-spot to stave off elimination. Bryan Kervin and Bryan Holaday each drove in a pair of runs in the decisive seventh inning. The momentum continued into the next day as TCU rallied from an 8-2 deficit to tie host Oklahoma State on a Ben Carruthers home run in the ninth. It was all for nothing, however, as Jordy Mercer's third home run of the day just cleared the center field fence for a walk-off home run, ending TCU's season.

Patience proved to be a virtue for Jim Schlossnagle and TCU as the squad finally earned its first home regional, despite the fact the Horned Frogs' streak of five consecutive conference tournament victories came to a halt at the hands of Utah.

The Frogs had to rally from an early 3-1 deficit to overcome a feisty Wright State squad in the first-ever NCAA Regional game played at TCU. Matt Curry's single in the third put the Frogs up for good. In the winner's bracket game, TCU was faced with the challenge of taking on two-time defending national champion Oregon State. Freshman Kyle Winkler held the Beavers hitless the first half of the game and received plenty of offensive support for the blowout win. Matt Carpenter, Matt Vern and Chris Ellington led the offensive charge with three RBIs each. Needing just one win to advance to its first NCAA Super Regional, the Horned Frogs were locked in a dual with the Beavers. Tied at four in the ninth inning, freshman Jason Coats lined a walk-off single to right to give TCU a thrilling walk-off win and its first-ever appearance in a Super Regional.

The Regional victory earned TCU a trip to Austin where a pitching-dominant Texas squad waited. Facing the end of the season after a 10-4 loss in the opening game, TCU called on an unlikely hero. Paul Gerrish pitched a gem in game two, holding Texas to a pair of runs over seven innings to tie the series at one, forcing a winner-take-all third game. The Longhorns pitching depth proved too much for the Frogs as Texas handed TCU a 5-2 loss ending the most successful season in the program's history.

After realizing a dream in 2009, the Horned Frogs set their sights on an even bigger prize in 2010. Those dreams seemed destined to come true when first-round draft pick Matt Purke made his way to campus. Adding him to the mix of an already talented crop of newcomers and returners tipped the scales as TCU put together an historical spring.

Hosting a regional for the second straight season, the Horned Frogs made quick work of the field to earn a second straight trip to Austin for a Super Regional. Kyle Winkler dominated Lamar for six innings and the offense made the most of its hits, scoring 16 runs on 17 hits. Joe Weik's two home run outburst and six RBIs against Arizona helped the Frogs advance to the Regional championship game with an 11-5 win. It was all TCU in the championship game as Steven Maxwell mowed through the Baylor lineup, leading the Frogs to a 9-0 victory.

TCU was happy just to make it to a Super Regional the previous year, but felt there was some unfinished business to take care of in Austin. Matt Purke dazzled on national TV as TCU shut down the Longhorns to win the series opener. A talented team in its own right, Texas made it a series as the Longhorns routed the Frogs 14-1 to force another decisive third game. The pitching duo of Kyle Winkler and Tyler Lockwood got redemption as they held the Longhorns in check. On the offensive side, a two-run eighth-inning home run by Aaron Schultz and a solo shot in the ninth from Bryan Holaday gave TCU a comfortable four-run lead for Lockwood who was on the mound for the final out, sending TCU to its first-ever College World Series.

The stage was set for another run in 2011 as many of the key players from 2010 returned, but injuries got the best of the Frogs' pitching staff as the regular season wound down. The Frogs had a strong conference season as it went 20-3 in league play to win its sixth regular season title. TCU was chosen to host for the third straight season, but the home cooking wouldn't be enough to propel the Frogs to another Super Regional.

Andrew Mitchell was outstanding in the Regional opener, guiding TCU to a 10-4 win over Oral Roberts, giving TCU its seventh straight win in the Regionals. The streak came to an end at the hands of cross-town rival Dallas Baptist. The Frogs fought hard to tie the game at two, but a sixth-inning run for the Patriots broke the tie and they held on for the 3-2 win. The loser's bracket game got off to an ominous start at Kyle Winkler suffered an injury that force him out of the game. The dark clouds continued to hover and Chris Elder's sixth-inning grand slam put the game out of reach and the Frogs season came to an end.

Youth was the resounding theme in 2012 as several freshmen stepped into starting roles. TCU won just 36 games in the regular season, earning the Frogs a trip to College Station for its ninth straight appearance in the NCAA postseason.

An opening game loss to Ole Miss did nothing to deter the Frogs. It looked dismal in the early goings as Dayton took a 9-6 lead into the sixth inning. The Frogs exploded for seven runs in the frame and cruised to the lopsided 28-12 win. Brance Rivera led the offense with six RBIs. The win pushed the Frogs into another elimination game, this time against the host Aggies. Unsung heroes are usually the story of postseason runs and TCU's Stefan Crichton assumed the role of hero with a complete-game effort against the high-powered, speedy Aggies. At the plate, the Frogs used a balanced offensive attack to put up 10 runs.

TCU's work was not done as it needed to defeat Ole Miss later that day to force a decisive game Monday night. The Frogs mustered enough offense to defeat the Rebels 5-2. Derek Odell's two-run home run in the fourth put the Frogs in front to stay. The miracle run was completed Monday night as the Frogs won 7-4 to advance to its third Super Regional in the last four years. Submariner Justin Scharf's right arm held the Rebels in check and home runs from Josh Elander and Jantzen Witte helped propel the Frogs to a 7-4 victory.

TCU's euphoria was short lived as it ran into a buzz-saw known as the pitching staff of UCLA. The Frogs offense was held to just three solo home runs as the Bruins swept TCU to advance to the College World Series.

The Horned Frogs swept through the Big 12 tournament to earn the NCAA automatic bid marking its return to the postseason after missing the NCAA Regionals in 2013. It was the first time in Jim Schlossnagle's 11 years in Fort Worth the Frogs failed to make the postseason. TCU made its case as the hottest team in the country, winning 27 of its final 30 regular season games en route to making history. In addition to earning the right to host the Regional, the Frogs were awarded the No. 7 national seed.

TCU began its postseason record of seven one-run contests with a win, as Boomer White's walk-off RBI-single to center field in the 11th over Siena put TCU in the winner's bracket with a 2-1 win.

The next night would be one for the ages. Sam Houston State tied the game at 2 in the bottom of the eighth, and the two teams exchanged zeros until White, the Regional MOP, drove in Keaton Jones in the top of the 22nd for the win. It was the second-longest NCAA postseason game innings-wise and the third-longest overall, while spanning six hours and 54 minutes. Tyler Alexander's complete-game effort produced a 6-1 win the next day over the Bearcats to propel the Frogs to its third Super Regional in the past five years.

Pepperdine, winners of the San Luis Obispo Regional, was up next. Hosting a Super Regional for the first time in school history, the crowds packed Lupton Stadium. Riley Ferrell struck out four of the five batters he faced to close out a 3-2 TCU win in game one. However, nine stranded base runners led to a 3-2 defeat in game two, forcing a rubber game Monday. TCU erased deficits of 3-1 after two and 5-4 after eighth. Two singles and a Dylan Fitzgerald double to deep right tied the game. Two batters later, Kyle Bacak dropped down a perfect suicide squeeze to plate Jerrick Suiter with the go-ahead run. Ferrell worked around a lead-off walk and struck out the final Pepperdine batter to set off a celebration never before seen at Lupton Stadium.

Led by a trio of pitchers who could be the No. 1 starter on any team in the country, the Horned Frogs easily cruised through the Fort Worth Regional, setting up a Super Regional rematch with Texas in Austin. TCU flipped the script as it won games one and three to earn its first-ever trip to the College World Series.

In the final year of Rosenblatt, TCU was quickly embraced by Omaha. Feeling like the hometown team, TCU easily dispatched a feisty Florida State, a program that was in Omaha for the 20th time, 9-1. TCU used a five-run first inning and rode the left-arm of Matt Purke to an 8-1 victory.

TCU advanced to face UCLA in the winner's bracket. The Bruins featured two future first-round draft picks in Garrett Cole and Trevor Bauer. Cole got the ball in the winner's bracket game and held the Frog offense in check, pushing the Frogs's season to the brink.

The Frogs looked poised to bow out after three games as the elimination contest was a rematch with Florida State. The Seminoles jumped out to a 7-2 lead before the Frogs began to mount a comeback in what will be one of the most memorable games ever played at Rosenblatt. TCU cut the lead to 7-3 when Bryan Holaday plated another run with a hustle double in which he eluded the tag with a clutch slide into second. TCU went on to load the bases when Jason Coats drew a full-count walk with two outs. Matt Curry worked the count to 3-2 before launching a grand slam over the center field batter's eye to turn a two-run deficit into a two-run lead. Jantzen Witte kept the fireworks coming as he launched a two-run home run to push the lead to four, 11-7 helping the Frogs stave off elimination.

Needing to beat UCLA twice to advance to the championship series, head coach Jim Schlossnagle turned to the undefeated Purke on six days' rest. Purke kept the Bruins off-balance all day and the offense backed him with home runs by Holaday, Jerome Pena and Taylor Featherston to key the squad to a 6-2 victory. The Bruins pitching depth and a woken up offense were too much for TCU as the Bruins ended the Frogs' season with a 10-2 loss in a winner-take-all game.

The Horned Frogs' magical season did not end with a national title, but nevertheless brought the program major exposure. TCU finished the season with a unanimous No. 3 ranking and a 54-14 record.

Following the same path as the 2010 College World Series team, TCU grinded through its postseason opposition with superb pitching rivaled by few. Four of the team's five wins before Omaha were by one run, including an 11- and 22-inning contest.

The Horned Frogs' first opponent was Big 12 foe Texas Tech, who took two of three at Lupton Stadium March 21-23 before TCU handed them a 4-0 shutout on April 22 in Abilene. A first-inning TCU run was all the board showed for seven innings, until the Red Raiders plated a pair on two singles and a triple in the 8th. TCU rallied with RBI singles by Cody Jones and Boomer White in the bottom half of the inning to regain its one-run lead, 3-2. Riley Ferrell, who was practically unhittable in the Regionals and Super Regionals, worked around a hit and an error in the ninth to earn the win.

TCU was in the winners' bracket just like 2010. Its next opponent, Virginia, one-upped TCU's rally over Texas Tech by producing a walk-off win over Ole Miss to set up the winner's bracket contest. The Cavaliers pushed an unearned run across in the bottom of the first, and TCU answered with two in the top of the second, but through the first four innings each team had stranded five. Virginia tied it up in the bottom of the fifth, the last run for either team for a while. Starters Brandon Waddell and Brandon Finnegan went seven and eight full innings, respectively.

Ferrell remained as reliable as ever, relieving Finnegan with four complete innings and allowing one hit to four strikeouts. The offense, however, was unable to get a man in scoring position over any of the extra frames. Trey Teakell came on for the 12th inning, and retired the first six batters he faced. However, a lead-off double in the bottom of the 15th was followed by a sacrifice bunt. The next Cavalier batter, Daniel Pinero, lifted a fly ball deep enough to center field to bring in the walk-off run.

The elimination game versus Ole Miss saw the Horned Frogs trail 3-0 in the top of the third, its largest deficit in 15 games (May 15 at Baylor). Each of the Horned Frogs' first six batters in the bottom of the fourth reached, and TCU tied the game at three. The Rebels scratched another run across in the top of the fifth, and Kevin Cron led off the bottom half of the frame with a solo blast. The see-saw battle saw .

TCU became one of just 10 programs in the country to reach Omaha at least twice over the previous five seasons. The 48 wins were second in school history behind the 2010 CWS squad.

HORNED FROGS IN THE PROS

The TCU Baseball Draft Notebook:

- Under Head Coach Jim Schlossnagle, the Horned Frogs have seen 50 players drafted by 23 different teams over the last 11 years.
- In 2005, Lance Broadway became the highest draft pick in TCU baseball history when he was selected with the 15th overall pick by the Chicago White Sox.
- In 2006, the Horned Frogs were one of just three schools to have two players selected in the first 54 picks of the draft.
- In 2007, the Frogs saw four players drafted on day one, again putting them in elite company as only two other schools accomplished that same feat.
- Overall with seven picks in 2007, the Frogs were one of just 24 schools with that many players drafted.
- 2007 also marked the Major League debut of Lance Broadway, the first player in Schlossnagle's tenure to reach the Big Leagues. Eugene Espineli made his Major League debut in 2008.
- In 2008, Andrew Cashner became the second pitcher under Schlossnagle to be drafted in the first round, going 19th overall to the Chicago Cubs.
- In the summer of 2010, four former Horned Frogs made their major league debuts. Andrew Cashner (May 31), Jake Arrieta (June 10), Chad Huffman (June 13) and Sam Demel (June 16) all debuted within three weeks of each other.
- In 2011, the Horned Frogs had a school-record eight players drafted.
- Matt Carpenter made history in 2012 as he became the first Horned Frog position player in the Jim Schlossnagle era to earn a spot on the opening day roster (St. Louis Cardinals).
- Catcher Bryan Holaday (Detroit Tigers) made his big league debut on June 6, 2012.
- Brandon Finnegan is the latest Horned Frog to make history. After being drafted 17th overall in 2014, Finnegan made his Major League debut on Sept. 6, 2014. He holds the distinction as the only player to have pitched in the College World Series and the Major League World Series in the same year.

TCU DIAMOND — 1962-2002

The 2002 season marked the end of an era for TCU baseball, as the Horned Frogs said goodbye to one of the most unique college baseball facilities in the country, the TCU Diamond. The diamond opened in the spring of 1962. The Horned Frogs closed their 41st and final season at TCU Diamond with a 6-3 win over UT-Arlington on May 14, 2002.

Located in the heart of the TCU campus and nestled into the leeward side of a hill to the south, the TCU Baseball Diamond was a beautiful and functional facility offering optimum playing and wind conditions. Batters facing opposing pitchers to the east had a little trouble picking up the ball as it came out of the Horned Frogs' version of the "Green Monster," a large concrete retaining wall in center and left center field.

One of the more difficult places for opponents to play, the Frogs owned a record of 867 wins, 605 losses and eight ties overall for a winning percentage of .589 in their 41 years at the historic ballpark. Dressing facilities were located in nearby Amon G. Carter Stadium and bleacher seating accommodated up to 1,500 fans.

The TCU Diamond underwent extensive cosmetic surgery prior to the 1991 season that included $100,000 in renovations. TCU's old Bermuda grass was replaced by Tiff 14, the same grass used by the Texas Rangers at The Ballpark in Arlington. The infield was leveled and a red brick wall, a la Wrigley Field, was erected from dugout to dugout. The visitor (along the third-base line) and home dugouts were lengthened and deepened, providing ample space and a much improved look. Extended foul poles were added as well as artificial turf in the batting cages.

Home plate was 390 feet from straight center field, 330 feet down the left field line and 320 feet to right field. A 12-foot fence corralled left and right field.

TCU Diamond was the site of some great college baseball action over the years, proven by the fact that 52 players who graced 2001 Major League Baseball rosters had played at the historic ballpark during some point in their amateur careers. Among those major leaguers who played at TCU Diamond are: Jeff Zimmerman (TCU), Lance Berkman (Rice), Jose Cruz, Jr. (Rice), Chuck Knoblauch (Texas A&M) and Greg Swindell (Texas).

HEAD COACH LANCE BROWN

On June 17, 2003, Lance Brown announced his retirement and the TCU baseball program said goodbye to its mentor of the previous 17 seasons. After four years as a pitching coach at Rice, Brown returned to his alma mater in 1987 to become the school's eighth coach since 1940.

When Brown took over the program, the first step he took was to teach the Horned Frogs how to win consistently. By 1994, Brown had the Frogs doing just that. They not only won consistently, but they did things that had not been done at TCU since Brown had starred as a Horned Frog pitcher in the early 1960s.

En route to a school-record 38 wins in 1994, the Frog diamond men won their first Southwest Conference regular season title since 1972 and first outright crown since 1956. They also received their first NCAA Tournament berth since 1956, where they recorded the school's first tournament win, an 11-3 triumph over Memphis in Stillwater, Okla. The successful season earned Brown Regional Coach of the Year accolades by the American Baseball Coaches Association.

In 1996, Brown reached the first milestone of many in his career. Needing only 26 victories to pass his former coach, Frank Windegger, for career victories, he accomplished the feat April 21, 1996, with a 14-4 defeat of the Houston Cougars, giving him 299 career victories.

In his final season with the Frogs, Brown led the team to a successful inaugural season in TCU's new Lupton Stadium and Williams-Reilly Field. His team finished with a 35-22 record and finished second in the Conference USA standings with a 22-8 conference mark. He also reached two more milestones in his career during the 2003 campaign. With a 5-2 victory over the Houston Cougars on March 29, Brown won his 500th game. He also earned his 200th conference victory on April 11 in a 1-0 win at UAB.

Brown fell two games shy of 1,000 games coached and ended his career with a 517-481 (.518) overall record and a 214-225 (.487) conference record. He earned Southwest Conference Coach of the Year honors twice, once in 1991 and again in 1994.

He has watched numerous players prosper under his tutelage. In all, 40 players were drafted in the first-year draft, including current Texas Ranger

Jeff Zimmerman, while five others have gone on to play in the major leagues. Fifty-one of his athletes were named to all-conference teams and seven earned second- or third-team All-American honors.

LEGENDS OF TCU

HEAD COACH FRANK WINDEGGER

Lance Brown stands with his former coach, Frank Windegger, as the No. 30 worn by Windegger is retired.

Former TCU player, coach and athletic director, Frank Windegger is the only Horned Frog to have his baseball jersey retired. Windegger's No. 30, which he wore for 14 years as head coach from 1962-1975, was retired April 28, 1998. The jersey currently hangs in the Heritage Center and in the alumni suite in Lupton Stadium.

During Windegger's 14-year tenure as TCU head coach, the Horned Frogs won four Southwest Conference baseball championships (1963, 1966, 1967, 1972) and finished as runner-up three times (1968, 1969, 1973). The Frogs set a number of school records during their run of success, including a string of 13 consecutive wins in 1963. Along the way, the Frogs won 298 games, lost 166 and tied one for a .641 winning percentage, a mark that still ranks amongst the nation's coaching elite.

Frank Windegger played for the Horned Frogs from 1954-56.

In 1963, just one year after taking over the baseball program, Windegger made history by becoming the youngest coach ever to win a SWC title in any sport with a 12-4 conference mark. In 1972, he was voted the NCAA District VI and SWC Coach of the Year, tying for the league title with a 12-6 mark and an overall 29-13 record.

After leaving the dugout, Windegger served as TCU's Director of Athletics for 23 years. He retired in August 1997.

HEAD COACH DUTCH MEYER

One of the most unique stories in the history of Horned Frog baseball is that of coach Dutch Meyer. A four-year letterman in both baseball and football at TCU, Meyer guided the Frogs' baseball fortunes from 1926 to 1934, during which time he compiled a record of 76-68-1 and captured TCU's first SWC baseball title in 1933.

Meyer took over as the Frogs' head football coach in 1934 and served in that capacity until 1953, although he returned to the diamond in 1945 for one season as the skipper. Meyer was named the Director of Athletics in 1950, but continued to coach until 1954. He was 84.

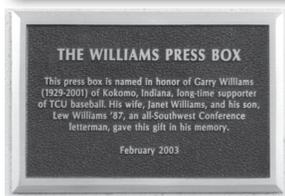

was drawn back into the baseball coaching ranks in 1956 for a brief two-year stint in the dual roles.

It was during the 1956 season that Meyer led the Horned Frogs to the SWC championship and the school's first appearance in the NCAA baseball tournament.

Meyer finished his career with an overall won-loss mark of 106-83-1 (.558) and a conference record of 92-75-1 (.548).

Meyer served as the Director of Athletics for 13 years before retiring in 1963. TCU lost a legend on Dec. 3, 1982, when he passed away at the age

GARY WILLIAMS

The only honorary letterwinner in TCU baseball history is Garry Williams. A dear friend of the Horned Frog baseball program, he passed away on Dec. 7, 2001.

Through his generosity and relentless efforts, Williams was responsible for many of the improvements that have paved the way for the TCU baseball program, the athletic department and the university's return to national prominence.

One of the many financial contributions made by Williams to Horned Frog baseball was the installation of the scoreboard and flag poles at TCU Diamond. The foul poles now grace the grounds at Lupton Stadium. Williams also contributed many of the old park's upgrades, including new dugouts, backstop, press box and sound system. Additionally, Williams donated the Frogs' media guides and scorecards for many years, making TCU baseball more enjoyable for fans, players and everyone associated with the program.

In honor of Williams' tireless contributions to Horned Frog baseball, the press box at Lupton Stadium bears his name.
