NOTES ON THE TIGERS

LSU won two of three games at Tennessee last weekend, as the Tigers posted their fourth road series win against a Top 25 team. LSU has also defeated Central Florida, South Carolina and Auburn in three-game series on the road. Junior left fielder Ryan Patterson led LSU to three wins in four games last week, batting .421 (8-for-19) with one triple, two homers, eight RBI, nine runs and a .500 on-base percentage. In LSU's series victory at Tennessee, Patterson was 5-for-15 at the plate with one triple, one homer, three RBI and five runs. He extended his current hitting streak to a team-high 14 games, the longest of his career. During the streak, Patterson is batting .415 (27-for-65) with four doubles, two triples, five homers, 21 RBI, 17 runs, a .449 on-base percentage and a .769 slugging percentage. Patterson has a .347 (67-for-193) cumulative batting average with 15 doubles, two triples, nine homers and a team-best 48 RBI. Right fielder Jon Zeringue helped lead the Tigers to the series win at UT, as he hit .583 (7-for-12) with one double, one homer, five RBI, two runs and a .533 on-base percentage. Senior right-hander Nate Bumstead rebounded on Sunday after a tough outing last weekend versus Georgia, when he worked just 1.1 innings. He pitched seven innings against Tennessee, limiting the Vols to one run on five hits with no walks and one strikeout as the Tigers recorded an 11-1 victory. The game featured an eight-run second inning by LSU, which sent 12 men to the plate in the frame. The Tigers collected eight hits in the inning, including a bases-loaded double by center fielder J.C. Holt, who extended his hitting streak to 12 games.
