

LSU vs. Notre Dame History

LSU and Notre Dame renew its storied rivalry on Jan. 3 when the teams meet in the Allstate Sugar Bowl at the Louisiana Superdome in New Orleans. The contest will mark the 10th meeting between the teams, but the first since a 39-36 Notre Dame win in South Bend in 1998. Of the nine previous games between the teams, four have been decided by three points or less. At least one team has been ranked for all nine meetings between the schools and this year's Sugar Bowl contest will represent the first time since 1971 that both teams go into the contest ranked. LSU is ranked No. 4, while Notre Dame is No. 11.

The Beginning

The LSU-Notre Dame series started back in 1970 when the Irish squeaked out a 3-0 win over the Tigers. The Notre Dame win prompted a Chicago Tribune writer to pen, "If Notre Dame is number one, LSU has got to be one-A." And thus, the rivalry in a rarely played series of games was born.

The Series: Notre Dame leads 5-4

LSU and Notre Dame play for the 10th time when the teams meet on Jan. 3 in the Allstate Sugar Bowl in New Orleans ... Notre Dame leads the series 5-4 ... The series dates back to 1970 when the fourth-ranked Irish posted a 3-0 win over sixth-ranked LSU in South Bend ... A year later, the 14th-ranked Tigers evened the scored with a 28-8 victory over seventh-ranked Notre Dame in Baton Rouge in a game televised to a national audience by ABC ... The Sugar Bowl matchup will be the first meeting between the teams since 1998 when the Irish held off the Tigers, 39-36, in South Bend ... It will also mark the second time the teams have played in a bowl game ... The first time the teams met in a bowl contest came in the 1997 Independence Bowl when LSU beat Notre Dame, 27-9, in a rematch from a game played a month earlier in Baton Rouge ... LSU is 2-2 vs. Notre Dame in games played in Baton Rouge, 1-3 against the Irish in games played in South Bend and 1-0 in games played at a neutral site.

LSU coach Les Miles vs. Notre Dame

While LSU coach Les Miles has never faced Notre Dame as a head coach, the Sugar Bowl meeting against the Irish will mark his 13th meeting against the school. Miles has a 3-8-1 mark against Notre Dame during his coaching career, all coming as an assistant coach. Miles was 3-6-1 against Notre Dame as a Michigan assistant coach and he was 0-2 vs. the Irish as a Colorado assistant coach. Miles never faced Notre Dame as a player at Michigan.

LSU-Notre Dame ties

There are several ties that bind together LSU and Notre Dame ... Former LSU head coach Gerry DiNardo was a First-Team All-America offensive lineman at Notre Dame in 1974 ... DiNardo lettered three years with the Irish (1973-75), helping Notre Dame to the 1973 national title with an 11-0 mark ... DiNardo served as LSU's head football coach for five years (1995-99) ... Current Notre Dame offensive coordinator Michael Haywood spent eight years (1995-2002) as an assistant at LSU under both DiNardo and Nick Saban ... Current LSU wide receiver coach Todd Monken was a graduate assistant at Notre Dame for two years (1991-92) ... First-year LSU baseball coach Paul Mainieri was the head coach baseball coach at Notre Dame for 12 years before coming to Baton Rouge last summer.

Dalton Hilliard (21) runs against the Irish defense in 1985.

Kevin Faulk had 26 carries for 105 in the first of two matchup during the 1997 season.

Notre Dame 3, LSU 0

The score indicated a victory for fourth-ranked Notre Dame, a loss for sixth-ranked LSU. However, the 3-0 final didn't tell the whole story. The game was a monumental defensive struggle which sent writers from all over the nation scurrying to their thesauruses for proper descriptions of the encounter. A 24-yard field goal with 2:54 to play by Notre Dame's Scott Hempel was the difference in the contest, called by many as the finest ever played in Notre Dame Stadium. LSU's defense was superb as it held the undefeated Irish without a first down from the 2:00 mark of the second quarter until the midway point of the final period. Notre Dame, in fact, gained only one net yard in the entire third quarter. A Notre Dame punt pinned LSU back on its one-yard line with 6:50 remaining in the game. The Tigers could not pick up a first down, and after a punt into a strong wind, the Irish took over at the LSU 36-yard line. Notre Dame moved 29 yards to the LSU seven, where Joe Theismann's third-down pass to Tom Gatewood was nearly intercepted in the end zone by Tommy Casanova. Hempel then booted the game-winning 24-yard field on fourth down. Bert Jones threw three incomplete passes on the Tigers' ensuing possession and Theismann sealed the Notre Dame win with a 26-yard run on third-and-five at the Irish 41-yard line. The Tigers held Notre Dame, which was averaging 540 yards per game in total offense, to just 227 total yards.

LSU 28, Notre Dame 8

A roaring crescendo of sound echoed through Death Valley as the long-awaited clash between 14th-ranked LSU and seventh-ranked Notre Dame unfolded. Some 30 million fans also watched on national television (ABC) as LSU amazed the football world with a sound thrashing of the Irish. The Tigers put together offense and defense in a near-perfect example of college football to astound observers as they stopped the Irish three times with the goal line close at hand. Quarterback Bert Jones, starting his first game since the season opener versus Colorado, threw two touchdown passes to Andy Hamilton as he completed seven of nine attempts for 143 yards. Jones also scored on a five-yard run, and Paul Lyons passed to Hamilton for the other Tiger score as LSU broke two Irish streaks: Notre Dame hadn't been scored in the second half all season or in the fourth quarter in 20 straight games. LSU on three occasions stopped Notre Dame deep in Tiger territory. The LSU defense was paced by linebacker Warren Capone, who intercepted two passes, and by cornerback Tommy Casanova, who picked off an Irish aerial in the end zone. After the game, coach Charles McClendon exclaimed, "This was the greatest win in Tiger Stadium in my 19 years at LSU!"

Notre Dame 27, LSU 9

Fourth-ranked Notre Dame, playing its first home game under first-year head coach Gerry Faust, raced to a 14-0 first-quarter lead and posted a 27-9 victory over LSU. The Irish scored at the 12:01 mark of the first quarter when quarterback Blair Kiel hit Larry Moriarty with a seven-yard scoring strike. Notre Dame added another TD with 7:43 remaining in the opening period when Phil Carter scored on a one-yard run to culminate a 72-yard drive. Notre Dame later drove 69 yards in 10 plays, hitting paydirt on Tony Hunter's one-yard run to increase the lead to 20-0 with 8:37 left in the first half. Following a James Britt interception early in the third quarter, LSU got on the scoreboard when David Johnston booted a 23-yard field goal. Later in the period, Stacey Toran intercepted a pass in LSU territory, and the Irish scored on a 10-play, 49-yard drive. Backup quarterback Tim Koegel's six-yard pass to Dave Condeni culminated the march, which gave Notre Dame a 27-3 advantage. The Tigers scored their only TD with 23 seconds remaining in the contest on Eric Martin's 26-yard scamper.

Notre Dame 30, LSU 2

Notre Dame knocked No. 7 LSU from the ranks of the unbeaten with a 30-22 victory in a game nationally televised by ABC. The LSU defense created a scoring opportunity in the first quarter when cornerback Norman Jefferson jarred the ball loose from Notre Dame running back Allen Pinkett and Gregg Dubroc recovered at the Irish 48-yard line. Quarterback Jeff Wickersham led the Tigers to the end zone, connecting with Dalton Hilliard on a three-yard TD pass. The rest of the game, however, belonged to Notre Dame as Pinkett rushed for 162 yards and two touchdowns, and John Carney kicked three field goals. The Irish limited LSU to 118 rushing yards, including a 66-yard TD dash by Hilliard in the third quarter. LSU reduced a 30-14 Notre Dame lead in the fourth quarter when Wickersham connected with Rogie Magee on a 50-yard scoring strike. Wickersham's two-point conversion pass to Herman Fontenot narrowed the deficit to 30-22, but the Tigers could not close the gap any further.

No. 17 LSU invaded hallowed Notre Dame Stadium as a slight underdog, but the Tigers came away with a 10-7 victory. Notre Dame marched 64 yards in nine plays to open the scoring in the first quarter as flanked Ron Brown dashed 18 yards for a touchdown. LSU scored on the final play of the first half when Matt DeFrank booted a 27-yard field goal to trim the Irish lead to 7-3 at intermission. Notre Dame opened the second half by driving 73 yards on 18 plays; however, the march ended when LSU's Henry Thomas blocked John Carney's 23-yard field goal attempt. With five minutes remaining in the game, quarterback Jeff Wickersham led the Tigers on a 52-yard scoring drive that culminated with a two-yard TD run by Garry James, staking LSU to a 10-7 lead. Linebacker Ron Sancho intercepted a Notre Dame pass at the Tigers' 31-yard line with 1:50 remaining, apparently sealing an LSU victory. But, Notre Dame defender Eric Dorsey recovered a Dalton Hilliard fumble on the next play, giving the Irish another chance. Safety Steve Rehage then intercepted Notre Dame quarterback Steve Beuerlein's pass to ensure the LSU win. Wickersham enjoyed one of his best days as a Tiger, completing 31 of 42 passes for 294 yards. Thomas led the LSU defense as he blocked two field goals and collected nine tackles.

Quarterback Tommy Hodson threw three touchdown passes and the LSU defense staved off a two-point conversion try in the waning moments as the Tigers defeated Notre Dame, 21-19, in a nationally-televised game on ESPN. Hodson's arm twice staked the Tigers to seemingly comfortable leads; however, the Irish nearly scored an upset over the eighth-ranked Tigers. Notre Dame quarterback Terry Andrysiak hit Hiawatha Francisco with a 14-yard TD pass with 3:32 left in the game, but the Irish's two-point conversion attempt failed as Andrysiak's pass was just out of the reach of Joel Williams. Hodson connected with Wendell Davis for a 13-yard TD pass in the first quarter, but Notre Dame tied the contest at 7-7 when Tim Brown raced 96 yards for a touchdown on the ensuing kickoff. The Tigers grabbed a 14-7 lead later in the first period when Hodson hit Rogie Magee with a four-yard scoring toss. Notre Dame closed to within 14-13 in the second half on a pair of John Carney field goals, but Hodson gave the Tigers a 21-13 lead on a four-yard strike to Brian Kinchen with 7:45 remaining in the game. Davis was named the ESPN Player of the Game as he caught seven passes for 121 yards and one TD. He established an LSU record for receiving yards in a season (1,161).

Notre Dame utilized a strong running game to defeat 11th-ranked LSU, 24-6, in a nationally-televised game on CBS. The Irish started quickly, taking a 17-0 lead in the first quarter on touchdown runs by Austry Denson and Clement Stokes that sandwiched a Scott Cengia field goal. The Tigers didn't mount a serious offensive threat until early in the third quarter when they drove to the Notre Dame 21-yard line. However, the march stalled and Wade Richey's 38-yard field goal attempt hit the left upright and bounced away. Stokes' second TD run gave the Irish a 24-0 lead. LSU averted a shutout when Kevin Faulk scored on a two-yard run with 6:35 to play. Faulk rushed for 105 yards on 26 carries in the contest, marking his fourth straight 100-yard rushing game.

Rondell Mealey electrified a frigid Independence Bowl crowd with a 222-yard rushing performance to pace LSU to a convincing 27-9 win over Notre Dame, avenging a loss to the Irish during the regular season. Mealey subbed for starter Kevin Faulk who was injured early in the game, and didn't miss a beat. The teams exchanged field goals early before the LSU touchdown surge began. Scott Cengia hit field goals of 33 and 21 yards for the Irish in the first half while Wade Richey booted a 37-yarder for a 6-3 Notre Dame lead at the half. Richey added a 42-yarder early in the second half before LSU's Herb Tyler hit Abram Booty with a 12-yard scoring strike for a 13-6 Tiger lead. Cengia hit one more field goal, a 33-yarder early in the fourth quarter, but the Irish would score no more. Mealey scored twice in the final period on runs of two and one yard to send LSU to victory.

Notre Dame 39, LSU 36

Tenth-ranked Notre Dame overcame a 14-point second-half deficit to defeat LSU, 39-36, in a nationally-televised game on NBC. The Tigers scored first when Mark Roman returned an interception 53 yards for a touchdown, the first of four returns for touchdowns during the game. Lamont Bryant returned a Kevin Faulk fumble for an Irish touchdown, giving Notre Dame a 14-13 lead, but Faulk responded with an 88-yard kickoff return for a TD as LSU claimed a 21-14 advantage. Two Herb Tyler-to-Abram Booty TD passes gave the Tigers a 34-20 lead in the second half, but the Irish responded with three straight touchdowns, including the game-winner on a 10-yard pass from Jarious Jackson to Raki Nelson with 1:27 remaining in the contest. Faulk set three LSU career records during the game, including rushing touchdowns (45), overall touchdowns (52) and points scored (312). Booty had one of his best days as a Tiger, catching eight passes for 153 yards and two TDs. Roman's interception was the eighth of his career, and he also recorded nine tackles and two forced fumbles in the contest.

January 1, 1936 (35,000)

TCU 3, LSU 2

Four days of rain turned an expected passing battle into a punting duel between quarterbacks Sammy Baugh of TCU and LSU's Abe Mickal. The Tigers threatened often, once getting to the six-inch line, but TCU's Taldon Manton kicked a winning 36-yard field goal. LSU scored when All-America end Gaynell Tinsley harassed Baugh into throwing an incompletion in the TCU end zone for an automatic safety.

Santa Clara 6, LSU 0

A rematch of the 1937 Sugar classic saw the unbeaten Broncos score early and then hold off the Tigers with two goal line stands. It marked the first time in 50 games that an LSU team had been held scoreless. Pinky Rohm was the sparkplug for the Tigers, but LSU could not move on the west coast club.

The war-time Tigers went to Miami despite a 5-3 season, thanks largely to the presence of Steve Van Buren. The red-haired sensation ran and passed for two first quarter touchdowns and sewed up the victory with a 63-yard scoring run in the third period. It was Van Buren's 16th touchdown of the season, a mark that stood until Charles Alexander ran for 17 in 1977.

Shunned by the Sugar Bowl, the 9-1 Tigers marched into the Cotton Bowl behind quarterback Y.A. Tittle. But Dallas was pelted with rain, sleet and snow and the scoreless standoff became known as the Ice Bowl. LSU held a 15-1 edge over the Razorbacks in first downs and a 271-54 advantage in total yardage. But the afternoon belonged to the weatherman.

LSU scored the second time it had the ball, but Stanford racked up a touchdown and a field goal for a brief lead which LSU topped with a final minute, first half six-pointer to take a 14-10 lead into intermission. The second half was all Stanford as quarterback Guy Benjamin added two more TD passes to his second period strike for the triumph.

December 23, 1978 (53,064)

Missouri 20, LSU 15

It was a case of two separate games: the first half was all Missouri and the second half all LSU. The only trouble was that the Big 8 team put more points on the board in its half than the SEC entry did in its. Missouri piled up a seemingly commanding 20-3 halftime advantage, but Coach Charles McClendon's charges came out firing. Although they were not able to overcome the score, they did pile up 247 yards to 84, and 15 first downs to four for Missouri. All-America tailback Charles Alexander played his last game as a Tiger and made it memorable as he gained 133 yards on 24 carries.

LSU 34, Wake Forest 10

It was the end of the Cholly Mac era and it was a glorious end! The Tigers were 10 feet off the ground as they dashed out of their dressing room and immediately gave notice it was going to be their night. The first three times they had the ball they drove downfield, scoring two touchdowns and missing the third when they lost a fumble at the goal line. From then on, it was just a matter of what the final score would be.

January 1, 1983 (54,407)

Nebraska 21, LSU 20

In one of the most exciting games in LSU history, the Tigers came within an eyelash of upsetting powerful Nebraska. Leading 17-7 late in the third period by virtue of two Dalton Hilliard touchdown runs and a 28-yard Juan Carlos Betanzos field goal, it appeared the Bayou Bengals were on the verge of the upset of the year. But two late touchdowns by the Cornhuskers offset a 49-yard Betanzos field goal, and the Tigers' noble efforts resulted in a one-point heartbreaker.

1985 Sugar Bowl

January 1, 1985 (75,608)

Nebraska 28, LSU 10

The 1985 Sugar Bowl featured LSU against Big 8 Conference champion Nebraska. It had been a remarkable turnaround season for LSU. The Tigers finished 8-2-1 after going 4-7 (0-6 in SEC play) the year before in 1983. Bill Arnsparger, in his first year as the LSU head coach, made believers out of everyone in the state of Louisiana with the Tigers surprising ascension in 1984. A heavy underdog, LSU jumped out to a quick 10-0 lead over the Tom Osborne's Cornhuskers. Freshmen kicker Ronnie Lewis put LSU on the board with 4:40 left in the first period drilling a 37-yard field goal. Dalton Hilliard, LSU's outstanding running back, who saw limited playing time due to a case of the flu, scored with 13:11 left in the second period on a 2-yard run putting the Tigers ahead 10-0. Nebraska woke up after that and scored on its next possession. Quarterback Craig Sunberg hit receiver Doug Dubose on a 31-yard TD pass with 10:31 left in the second quarter, cutting the lead to 10-7. The second half was all Nebraska. The Huskers scored one touchdown in the third quarter when Sunberg scored from nine-yards out to take the lead 14-10. Two fourth quarter touchdown passes by Sunberg to Todd Frain sealed the deal and Nebraska pulled away for a 28-10 win.

Baylor 21, LSU 7

The Tigers got on the scoreboard first, but that would be all the scoring LSU could muster, as the Baylor defense stopped the Tigers, 21-7, before 40,186 at Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium in Memphis. Norman Jefferson provided the LSU heroics with a 79-yard punt return with 5:17 left in the first quarter that would give the Tigers a 7-0 lead. The return would be a Liberty Bowl record and Jefferson's second scoring return in an LSU uniform. Baylor's high-powered offense was able to gain 489 yards against LSU's defense while the Tigers settled for 192 yards. Jeff Wickersham completed 11-of-24 passes for 95 yards while Dalton Hilliard carried 20 times for 66 yards.

Nebraska 30, LSU 15

In Bill Arnsparger's final game as LSU head coach, No. 6 Nebraska ripped off 30 unanswered points to beat the Tigers 30-15. The Cornhuskers swarmed all over standout LSU freshmen quarterback Tommy Hodson giving him little time to throw the football. Meanwhile, the Nebraska offense flourished en route to defeating No. 5 LSU. The loss was LSU's fourth straight in a bowl and dropped LSU's Sugar Bowl mark to 3-7, in what would be the Tigers' final appearance in the New Orleans classic until 2002. LSU scored first on a one-yard run by Harvey Williams, capping a 66-yard drive on the first series of the game. Nebraska's scoring started with a field goal by Dale Klein. Quarterback Steve Taylor polished off a 72-yard drive with a 2-yard touchdown run with 39 seconds before halftime to give the Cornhuskers a 10-7 lead. Nebraska came out in the second half and marched 78 yards for another score on a 1-yard run by running back Tyreese Knox, building its lead to 17-7. Completing a run of 30 unanswered points, Nebraska added two fourth quarter touchdowns on a three-yard pass from Taylor to tight end Todd Millikan and another 1-yard plunge by Knox. With 2:01 left in the game, Hodson completed a 24-yard touchdown pass to receiver Tony Moss. A successful two-point conversion pass to Alvin Lee made the score 30-15.

LSU 30, South Carolina 13

The Tigers closed out Mike Archer's first year as head coach in grand fashion with a resounding 30-13 win over South Carolina. The LSU defense ran the South Carolina offense into confusion, but it was the offense that owned the show as the pitch-and-catch combination of Tommy Hodson and Wendell Davis thrilled the crowd of 82,119. LSU jumped out to a 14-0 lead before the Gamecocks could put a field goal on the board. The Tigers led 20-6 at the half and rolled from there in the second half. Davis--the game's MVP--caught nine passes for 132 yards and three touchdowns.

Syracuse 23, LSU 10

The Tigers went to Tampa, Fla., as co-champions of the Southeastern Conference, but came up short in this game as a solid Syracuse offense was spurred by the running halfback Robert Drummond. A stingy Orangeman defense held the Tigers at bay. Drummond was the offensive star of the game, running for 122 yards on 23 carries while Tiger quarterback Tommy Hodson was picked off three times by the aggressive Syracuse defenders. A crowd of 51,112 was on hand in Tampa Stadium for this January 2 game that saw Syracuse jump out to a 10-0 lead before the Tigers got a touchdown on the board to make it 10-7 at the half. But the last two quarters belonged to Syracuse as LSU finished its season at 8-4.

LSU 45, Michigan St. 26

The Tigers wrapped up the first year of the Gerry DiNardo era with a 45-26 win over Michigan State before a sellout crowd of 48,835. The teams battled evenly in a first half of big plays that included a 78-yard TD pass by Michigan State on the second play of the game, an Eddie Kennison kickoff return for a touchdown for LSU, a Michigan State kickoff return for a touchdown and a 51-yard TD run by Kevin Faulk that contributed to a 24-21 MSU halftime lead. But the Tigers broke it open in the second half with 24 unanswered points, including a fumble return for a touchdown by defensive end Gabe Northern. In all, LSU set or tied 11 Independence Bowl records in the romp.

LSU 10, Clemson 7

Quarterback Herb Tyler led a balanced LSU attack against a stubborn Clemson squad to send the LSU Tigers to a 10-7 win in the Peach Bowl at the Georgia Dome. The win gave the Tigers their second straight bowl win and their first 10-win season in nine years. Clemson struck first, taking a 7-0 lead when quarterback Nealon Greene took the ball in from five yards out after LSU had turned the ball over deep in Clemson territory. But it would be Clemson's only points of the night. In the second quarter, Kevin Faulk capped a seven-play, 80-yard LSU drive with a three-yard touchdown run and Wade Richey added a 22-yard field goal before intermission for a 10-7 LSU lead at the half that would stand the test of the second half. The game was sealed when LSU's Aaron Adams batted away a 52-yard Clemson field goal try with less than two minutes to play.

Rondell Mealey electrified a frigid Independence Bowl crowd with a 222-yard rushing performance to pace LSU to a convincing 27-9 win over Notre Dame, avenging a loss to the Irish during the regular season. Mealey subbed for starter Kevin Faulk who was injured early in the game, and didn't miss a beat. The teams exchanged field goals early before the LSU touchdown surge began. Scott Cengia hit field goals of 33 and 21 yards for the Irish in the first half while Wade Richey booted a 37-yarder for a 6-3 Notre Dame lead at the half. Richey added a 42-yarder early in the second half before LSU's Herb Tyler hit Abram Booty with a 12-yard scoring strike for a 13-6 Tiger lead. Cengia hit one more field goal, a 33-yarder early in the fourth quarter, but the Irish would score no more. Mealey scored twice in the final period on runs of two and one yard to send LSU to victory.

LSU 47, Illinois 34

LSU's high-powered offense led by quarterback Rohan Davey and Josh Reed proved to be too much for seventh-ranked Illinois as the Tigers rolled to a 47-34 win over the Fighting Illini. The win marked LSU's first New Year's Day bowl victory since a win over Wyoming in the 1968 Sugar Bowl. LSU, behind the arm of Davey and the running of tailback Domanick Davis, jumped on the Illini early as the Tigers hit paydirt on a 4-yard Davis run at the 7:22 mark of the first quarter. Davis followed with second-quarter touchdown runs of 25 and 16 yards to give the Tigers a 20-0 lead just 20 minutes into the contest. Davey hit Reed with a 5-yard TD pass with 4:42 left in the first half and then found Robert Royal for a 7-yard scoring strike just before halftime to give the Tigers a 34-7 cushion at the break. Illinois pulled to within 41-28 midway through the fourth quarter, but Davis' fourth touchdown run, a Sugar Bowl record, put the game away for the Tigers at 47-28.

Texas 35, LSU 20

LSU and Texas met on the gridiron for the first time since the 1963 Cotton Bowl and the two teams put on quite a show before a sellout crowd of over 70,000 fans in Dallas. Despite holding only a 10-7 lead after the first quarter, the Tigers dominated the first 15 minutes of the contest. In the first quarter alone, LSU racked up 187 yards of offense compared to zero for the Longhorns. In that first quarter, LSU ran 30 plays for 187 yards, compared to only three plays for zero net yards for the Longhorns. In all, LSU held the ball for just over 13 minutes in the first quarter, while Texas had it for less than two minutes. After a dominating first quarter, the Tigers stretched their lead to 17-7 early in the second quarter on a 10-yard run by Domanick Davis. Texas responded with a pair of TDs to take a 21-17 lead at halftime. LSU's offense never got back on track in the second half as the Tigers managed just a fourth quarter field goal in falling to the Longhorns, 35-20.

LSU 21, Oklahoma 14

Behind a suffocating defense the Tigers claimed their second national title in football with a 21-14 win over Oklahoma in the Sugar Bowl. The victory in the BCS National Championship contest marked LSU's first national title since 1958 and also sent the Tigers, champions of the Southeastern Conference, to a final overall record of 13-1. Running back Justin Vincent earned MVP honors for the game, rushing for 117 yards and one touchdown in leading the Tigers to the victory. Defensively, linebacker Lionel Turner led LSU with nine tackles, including a pair of sacks, one of which came on the last offensive play of the game for the Sooners. In all, LSU recorded five sacks in the contest and held the Sooners to only 54 yards rushing.

Iowa 30, LSU 25

The Nick Saban era at LSU came to an end in dramatic fashion as 11th-ranked Iowa scored on a 56-yard pass as time expired to beat the 12th-ranked Tigers, 30-25. The last-second play erased what would have been a tremendous fourth-quarter comeback win for the Tigers as LSU erased a 12-point deficit over the final eight minutes of the contest to take a 25-24 lead with just 46 seconds remaining. Inserted into the game early in the final quarter, JaMarcus Russell led the Tigers on a pair of TD drives, the second coming on a 3-yard pass to Skyler Green that put the Tigers up for the only time in the game, 25-24. However, the Hawkeyes responded with a 3-play, 71-yard drive, capped on a 56-yard pass from Drew Tate to Warren Holloway to record the dramatic finish. Playing in only the fourth quarter, Russell connected on 12-of-15 passes for 128 yards and a pair of touchdowns.

Matt Flynn, subbing for an injured JaMarcus Russell, threw for 196 yards and a pair of touchdowns in leading 10th-ranked LSU to its most lopsided bowl victory ever in a 40-3 win over ninth-ranked Miami in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl. Joseph Addai rushed for 130 yards and a score as the Tigers dominated the final three quarters of the contest. With the scored tied at 3-3 at the end of the first quarter, the Tiger defense took over as LSU limited the Hurricanes to just two first downs and only 38 yards of offense over the final three quarters of the game. In all, Miami managed only six first downs and 153 yards of offense in the contest as LSU put together its most complete game of the season. With the Tiger defense holding the Hurricane offense at bay, the LSU offense came alive in the second quarter, first with a 51-yard TD pass from Flynn to Craig Davis. After a 47-yard field goal by Chris Jackson that put LSU up 13-3, the Tigers went on a 9-play drive just before the break, capped with a 4-yard pass from Flynn to Addai to stretch the lead to 20-3 at halftime. The game was never in question after that as the Tigers added a pair of touchdowns in the third quarter followed by a pair of field goals in the fourth quarter.

1936 Sugar Bowl

January 1, 1936
Tulane Stadium
Attendance: 35,000

A low scoring battle hampered by four days of rain produced a 3-2 Texas Christian victory over LSU in its first Sugar Bowl appearance. The game was a punting duel between LSU's Abe Mickal and TCU's Sammy Baugh. TCU kicker Taldon Manton booted a 36-yard field goal in the second quarter lifting the Horn Frogs over LSU.

LSU All-American Gaynell Tinsley led the charge for the Tigers. He pressured TCU star quarterback Baugh and forced him to run out of the end zone for a safety giving LSU a 2-0 lead in the second quarter.

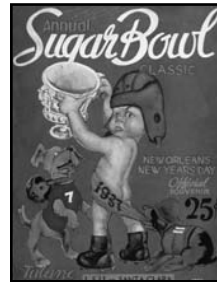

LSU got the ball back and Junior Bowman ran it to the LSU 45-yard line. On the next play from scrimmage, TCU's Willie Walls recovered a fumble by LSU's Bill Crass. TCU's Jimmy Lawrence hit Walls on a 23-yard pass down to the LSU 13. LSU's defense tightened up and forced the Manton field goal.

LSU had its chance to capitalize on a turnover in the fourth quarter when Baugh fumbled and Bernie Dumas recovered the ball on the TCU 31. LSU Bowman ran a sweep around right end for six yards down to the 2-yard line. That's as far as the Tigers would go as Crass would be stopped on three successive plays and LSU's drive stalled within six inches of the TCU goal line.

The game was played in front of approximately 35,000 fans, the largest crowd in Louisiana college football history at the time.

LSU entered the game 9-0-1 and a heavy favorite against the unknown Broncos of Santa Clara. Bernie Moore's LSU team was laced with prominent seniors Gaynell Tinsley, Bill Crass, Wardell Leisk, Moose Stewart, Clarence Strange, Pat Coffee, Marvin Baldwin, Bill May and J.T. Reed. The team also featured All-SEC running back Pinky Rohm.

Santa Clara jumped out to a 14-0 lead in the first quarter. LSU scored with 30 seconds left in the first half to make the score 14-7. However, Santa Clara continued to control the game in the second half extending its lead to 21-7. LSU scored on Santa Clara's substitutes in the fourth quarter to make the score 21-14, but Santa Clara, led by head coach Buck Shaw, had successfully traveled from the West Coast and stunned the south's premiere team. The loss ended LSU's previously unbeaten season.

A rematch with Santa Clara in the Sugar Bowl was supposed to be sweet revenge for LSU in 1938. However, in a game which head coach Bernie Moore said, "We never really got cranked up for the Sugar Bowl," LSU fell again 6-0 to an even better and unbeaten Santa Clara team.

The Tigers (9-2) played flat coming off an emotional 20-0 victory over archrival Tulane. In that contest with Tulane, Pinky Rohm won his trouser bet with Tulane player Norman Hall, which became "The Rag" that LSU and Tulane played for in the years that followed.

Rohm led LSU with 63 yards passing, but his effort wasn't enough to put the Tigers over the top. Ken Kavanaugh, Sr. hauled in four receptions for 46 yards and Cotton Milner led all LSU rushers with 34 yards on 13 carries.

LSU drove the ball inside the Santa Clara 10-yard line twice, but was turned back on both occasions on fourth-and-goal. Santa Clara scored a touchdown in the first quarter and it was enough to beat LSU for the second consecutive year.

LSU faced one of its toughest bowl opponents ever in the 1950 Sooners. Coached by Bud Wilkinson, Oklahoma had racked up 3,202 yards rushing and only allowed 556 yards rushing defensively entering the game with LSU.

Oklahoma, led by All-Americans Wade Walker and Jim Owens, dominated the line of scrimmage allowing the Sooner's Split-T offense to roll. Leading 7-0, Oklahoma fullback Leon Heath spurted untouched for 86 yards giving Oklahoma a 14-0 lead in the second quarter.

The LSU offense led by Kenny Konz, Bill Baggett, Dale Gray and Zollie Toth were kept in check by a great Oklahoma defense, accumulating just 38 yards rushing. Meanwhile the Sooners troubled LSU with 286 yards rushing.

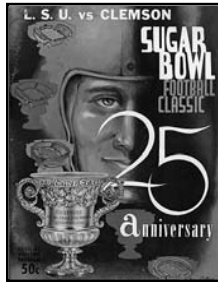

LSU head coach Gaynell Tinsley commented on the Sooners saying, "I'm not sure if we had played our [best] game it would have been good enough to handle one of the great all-time football teams."

Santa Clara's TD was the only score in the 1938 Sugar Bowl.

LSU won its only national title in 1958 with its 7-0 victory over Clemson in the 1959 Sugar Bowl. It was LSU's first Sugar Bowl victory in five attempts. Legendary LSU running back Billy Cannon led the Tigers through the air instead of the ground connecting with Mickey Mangham on a 9-yard TD pass to give LSU the victory.

"I threw it and prayed," said a thankful Cannon. "I was looking for Robinson but they had him covered—then I spied Mickey and let it go."

It was the 25th anniversary of the Sugar Bowl in 1959 and the unbeaten Tigers were a heavy favorite over Clemson. But the "other" Tigers from South Carolina stepped up and challenged the Tigers until the end.

LSU head coach Paul Dietzel praised his team's effort. "God bless the (Chinese) Bandits. They were outweighed some 15 pounds per man, but they never played more courageously," said Dietzel.

LSU squandered three scoring opportunities in the first half. LSU, playing without starting quarterback Warren Rabb who broke his hand in the second quarter, was led by backup quarterback Durel Matherne. With the ball on the Clemson 25, Matherne fumbled and it was recovered by Ray Masneri.

LSU wasted an opportunity again a few minutes later. LSU blocked Charlie Horn's punt and took over at the Clemson 29. The Tigers drove to the 12-yard line but were stopped on four straight unsuccessful passes.

LSU's second fumble was controversial and could have cost the Tigers the game. LSU had the ball at the Clemson 1-yard line where Ray Brodnax appeared to plunge over the pile for a touchdown. The officials ruled he fumbled before he crossed the goal line and Clemson gained possession of the ball.

Clemson held LSU's offense in check throughout the game, but a costly turnover led to LSU's lone touchdown. A bad snap from center on a punt led to LSU's Duane Leopard recovering the ball on the Clemson 11-yard line.

Matherne pitched the ball to Cannon on third-and-eight from the nine-yard line and Cannon threw a halfback pass to Mangham in the end zone for the touchdown giving LSU a 7-0 lead.

Clemson mounted two potential scoring drives. With the ball on the LSU 26, George Ursy fumbled and LSU's Bo Strange recovered to stop the threat. In the fourth quarter, a determined Clemson team drove the ball from their own 16 down to the LSU 24. LSU stopped Clemson on downs and held onto the ball for the remainder of the game.

Rabb was LSU's leading passer going 2-of-7 for 33 yards. Cannon led all rushers with 51 yards on 13 carries and Mangham was LSU's only receiver with 2 catches for 33 yards.

LSU finished the year 11-0 and finally won its first and only national title. LSU President Troy Middleton, who remembered LSU's last undefeated season in 1908 remarked, "I've been waiting 49 years for this season."

Mickey Mangham's TD catch from Billy Cannon gave LSU the victory over Clemson.

Attendance: 81,141

In a rematch with Ole Miss, LSU lost a game that was perhaps over before it even began. LSU beat Ole Miss 7-3 on a famed Halloween Night earlier that season that featured Billy Cannon's legendary 89-yard game-winning punt return for a touchdown.

The Tigers were hesitant to accept the Sugar Bowl bid originally because LSU was not interested in playing Ole Miss again after the first game reached epic proportions in the South. Paul Dietzel allowed his team to vote and by a narrow margin and under the influence of athletic director Jim Corbett, the Tigers decided to travel to New Orleans after all.

LSU entered the game without Johnny Robinson and Wendell Harris, and quarterback Warren Rabb was not 100 percent healthy. However, the game became one of the most anticipated matchups in LSU history from a fan perspective. Sugar Bowl tickets for the 1960 clash were at an all-time premium. It was a major disappointment for LSU fans who watched the Rebels crush the Tigers.

Ole Miss quarterback Jake Gibbs hit Cowboy Woodruff on a 43-yard touchdown pass just before halftime giving Ole Miss a 7-0 lead. The Rebels never looked back.

Ole Miss dominated the game with 373 yards of total offense to LSU's 74 yards. Heisman Trophy winner Billy Cannon managed only eight yards on six carries. LSU only crossed midfield once and never made it past the Ole Miss 38. It was a nightmare for the Chinese Bandits who had lost only one previous game.

It would be LSU's last loss in the Sugar Bowl for 25 years.

Doug Moreau's 28-yard field goal was the difference in the 1965 Sugar Bowl.

LSU earned its second Sugar Bowl victory, taking a 13-10 decision over the Syracuse Orangemen in 1965. Doug Moreau scored on a 57-yard touchdown pass and booted a 28-yard field goal with less than four minutes remaining to win the game. For his efforts, Moreau was named the game's MVP.

Things didn't look good early on for the Tigers as LSU's Sugar Bowl struggles continued. After Syracuse drove the ball down the field on the opening drive, a 15-yard penalty pushed the Orangemen back and forced them to settle for a field goal.

LSU's George Rice tackled Syracuse running back Floyd Little in the end zone and the Tigers trailed by a score of 3-2. Coincidentally, it was the same score the Tigers lost to Texas Christian in its first Sugar Bowl appearance in 1936. Soon after, Syracuse defender Dennis Reilly blocked a Buster Brown punt and Brad Clarke picked the ball up at the LSU 35-yard line and ran it in for the score. Syracuse took a swift 10-2 lead heading into halftime.

LSU answered the call in the second half. The Tigers managed to get the ball up to their 43-yard line thanks to quick dashes by Joe Labruzzo and Don Schwab. Quarterback Billy Ezell then hit Moreau at the Syracuse 30. Moreau beat his man and rumbled down field for a touchdown. Ezell hit Labruzzo for a two-point conversion and the game was tied 10-10.

Syracuse stormed back and drove the ball to the LSU 13 and threatened to regain the lead. LSU's White Graves halted the drive with his interception of a Walley Mahle pass at the six-yard line. Highlighted by a 36-yard screen pass to Labruzzo appropriately enough tossed by Pat Screen, LSU drove the ball to the Syracuse 11-yard line setting up Moreau for his game-winning field goal.

LSU outgained Syracuse 360 to 203 yards. The Tigers accumulated 199 yards through the air and 161 on the ground. Ezell went 2-of-5 for 67 yards. Labruzzo rushed for 25 yards on 10 attempts and Moreau finished with two receptions for 54 yards. The win improved LSU Head Coach Charlie McClendon's record to 2-1 in bowl games.

LSU downed an undefeated Wyoming team to earn its third Sugar Bowl victory. The Tigers spotted the Cowboys a 13-0 lead, but rallied from behind to grab the win on a chilly and rainy afternoon in New Orleans.

Tiger running back Glen Smith rushed for 74 yards on 16 carries and was named the game's MVP. The Tigers also owed the victory to clutch performers Benny Griffin and Tommy Morel. Griffin intercepted two key passes and Morel scored both LSU touchdowns off passes from Nelson Stokley.

Wyoming got on the board first when Jim Kiick scored on a 1-yard run. Jerry Depoyster booted field goals from 24 and 49 yards to give Wyoming a 13-0 lead.

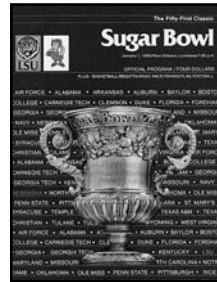

In the third quarter LSU marched 80 yards for its first score. Smith capped off the drive with a 1-yard TD run and LSU cut the lead to 13-7. A few minutes later LSU drove 52 yards to even the game at 13-13. Stokley hit Morel on an 8-yard TD pass. The point after was no good and the game stayed even.

Wyoming quarterback Paul Toscano dropped back to pass and was intercepted by Griffin at the Wyoming 48-yard line. Stokley responded with a touchdown pass to Morel for the game winning score. Wyoming made a valiant attempt at a comeback late in the game. Toscano threw the ball across the middle where it was tipped by two Tiger defenders into the hands of receiver George Anderson at the LSU 17. On the final play of the game, Toscano hit Gene Huey on a pass. But LSU's Gerry Kent preserved the victory by tackling Huey on the 5-yard line as time expired.

Stokley finished the game 6-of-20 for 91 yards and two touchdowns. Morel had four receptions for 38 yards and two touchdowns.

The 1985 Sugar Bowl featured LSU against Big 8 Conference champion Nebraska. It had been a remarkable turnaround season for LSU. The Tigers finished 8-2-1 after going 4-7 (0-6 in SEC play) the year before in 1983. Bill Arnsparger, in his first year as the LSU head coach, made believers out of everyone in the state of Louisiana with the Tigers surprising ascension in 1984.

A heavy underdog, LSU jumped out to a quick 10-0 lead over the Tom Osborne's Cornhuskers. Freshmen kicker Ronnie Lewis put LSU on the board with 4:40 left in the first period drilling a 37-yard field goal.

Dalton Hilliard, LSU's outstanding running back, who saw limited playing time due to a case of the flu, scored with 13:11 left in the second period on a 2-yard run putting the Tigers ahead 10-0.

Nebraska woke up after that and scored on its next possession. Quarterback Craig Sunberg hit receiver Doug Dubose on a 31-yard TD pass with 10:31 left in the second quarter, cutting the lead to 10-7.

The second half was all Nebraska. The Huskers scored one touchdown in the third quarter when Sunberg scored from nine-yards out to take the lead 14-10. Two fourth quarter touchdown passes by Sunberg to Todd Frain sealed the deal and Nebraska pulled away for a 28-10 win.

Dalton Hilliard led the Tigers in rushing, gaining 86 yards on 16 attempts. Sammy Martin added 50 yards on five carries.

Jeff Wickersham, LSU's quarterback, hit on 20-of-37 attempts for 221 yards, but was victimized by four interceptions. Nebraska's Sunberg hit on 10-of-18 passes for 143 yards, three interceptions and three touchdowns.

In Bill Arnsparger's final game as LSU head coach, No. 6 Nebraska ripped off 30 unanswered points to beat the Tigers 30-15.

The Cornhuskers swarmed all over standout LSU freshmen quarterback Tommy Hodson giving him little time to throw the football. Meanwhile, the Nebraska offense flourished en route to defeating No. 5 LSU.

The loss was LSU's fourth straight in a bowl and dropped LSU's Sugar Bowl mark to 3-7, in what would be the Tigers' final appearance in the New Orleans classic until 2002. LSU scored first on a one-yard run by Harvey Williams, capping a 66-yard drive on the first series of the game.

Nebraska's scoring started with a field goal by Dale Klein. Quarterback Steve Taylor polished off a 72-yard drive with a 2-yard touchdown run with 39 seconds before halftime to give the Cornhuskers a 10-7 lead. Nebraska came out in the second half and marched 78 yards for another score on a 1-yard run by running back Tyreese Knox, building its lead to 17-7. Completing a run of 30 unanswered points, Nebraska added two fourth quarter touchdowns on a three-yard pass from Taylor to tight end Todd Millikan and another 1-yard plunge by Knox. With 2:01 left in the game, Hodson completed a 24-yard touchdown pass to receiver Tony Moss. A successful two-point conversion pass to Alvin Lee made the score 30-15.

Nebraska's defense held the Tigers to less than 200 yards of total offense. More importantly they sacked Hodson three times and pressured him throughout the contest. Hodson finished the game 14-of-30 for 159 yards, two interceptions and one touchdown. Wendell Davis was his leading receiver with three catches for 63 yards. Williams gained 48 yards rushing on 12 carries.

A hard-hitting Cornhusker defense forced six fumbles by LSU but only managed to recover one.

LSU's high-powered offense led by quarterback Rohan Davey and Josh Reed proved to be too much for seventh-ranked Illinois as the Tigers rolled to a 47-34 win over the Fighting Illini. The win marked LSU's first New Year's Day bowl victory since a win over Wyoming in the 1968 Sugar Bowl.

LSU, behind the arm of Davey and the running of tailback Domanick Davis, jumped on the Illini early as the Tigers hit paydirt on a 4-yard Davis run at the 7:22 mark of the first quarter. Davis followed with second-quarter touchdown runs of 25 and 16 yards to give the Tigers a 20-0 lead just 20 minutes into the contest.

Davey hit Reed with a 5-yard TD pass with 4:42 left in the first half and then found Robert Royal for a 7-yard scoring strike just before halftime to give the Tigers a 34-7 cushion at the break.

Illinois pulled to within 41-28 midway through the fourth quarter, but Davis' fourth touchdown run, a Sugar Bowl record, put the game away for the Tigers at 47-28. Illinois added a final score with just over five minutes left with the game well out of reach.

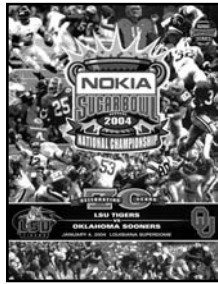

For the game, Davey passed for a Sugar Bowl-record 444 yards by connecting on 31 of 53 attempts. Davey also added three TD passes for the Tigers. Davis rushed for 122 yards and four touchdowns, while Reed caught 14 passes for 239 yards, both Sugar Bowl records, and a pair of touchdowns in what proved to be his final game in an LSU uniform. As a unit, LSU racked up a Sugar Bowl-record 595 yards of total offense and the Tigers' 34 first half points were the most points in a half in a Sugar Bowl contest. In all, LSU set eight Sugar Bowl marks in the victory.

The Sooners trailed 21-14 in the waning minutes when Lionel Turner sacked Jason White on fourth down to secure the victory for LSU.

Behind a suffocating defense that limited the nation's top scoring offense to only 154 yards, the Tigers claimed their second national title in football with a 21-14 win over Oklahoma in the Sugar Bowl.

The victory in the BCS National Championship contest marked LSU's first national title since 1958 and also sent the Tigers, champions of the Southeastern Conference, to a final overall record of 13-1. Running back Justin Vincent earned MVP honors for the game, rushing for 117 yards and one touchdown in leading the Tigers to the victory. Vincent opened the contest with a 64-yard run on the game's first play, opening the door for what appeared to be an early LSU TD. However, quarterback Matt Mauck fumbled the snap on first-and-goal at the 1-yard line to halt the Tiger drive. The Tigers did score on their next possession, which was setup by a Corey Webster interception that gave LSU the ball at the OU 32-yard line. Three plays later, Skyler Green went 24-yards on an end-around, giving the Tigers a 7-0 advantage.

The Sooners tied the game at 7-7 midway through the second quarter on a 1-yard plunge by Kejuan Jones, which was setup by a blocked punt. The Tigers led 14-7 at halftime following an 18-yard run by Vincent. LSU struck again early in the second half as Marcus Spears returned an interception 20 yards for a TD just 47 seconds into the third quarter, giving the Tigers a 21-7 advantage.

A defensive struggle continued for most of the second half before the Sooners pulled to within 21-14 on another 1-yard run by Jones with just over 11 minutes left in the contest. The teams traded possessions for the next five minutes before the Sooners mounted a drive deep inside LSU territory. OU had first-and-10 at the LSU 12-yard line before the Tigers turned the Sooners away on four straight plays, including a fourth-and-10 situation with 2:52 to play.

After another three and out for the Tigers on offense, the Sooners had one final chance. However, the Tigers held the Sooners at bay, sacking quarterback Jason White on fourth-and-10 to secure the victory and the school's first national title in football in 45 years.

Defensively, linebacker Lionel Turner led LSU with nine tackles, including a pair of sacks, one of which came on the last offensive play of the game for the Sooners. In all, LSU recorded five sacks in the contest and held the Sooners to only 54 yards rushing.

The clock strikes zero in the Superdome and the Tigers celebrate their first national title in 45 years.

A Championship Tradition

The 2005-06 athletics year was another wonderful one for LSU. The Tigers and Lady Tigers enjoyed success from the fields and courts to the classroom. All in all, it was an exciting year for LSU's student-athletes, coaches and fans.

Postseason Presence

Of LSU's 20 sports, 12 teams advanced to postseason play. Among the highlights: Both of LSU's basketball teams advanced to the NCAA Final Four, the football team defeated Miami in the Chick-Fil-A Peach Bowl, the men's track and field team finished second at both the indoor and outdoor NCAA Championship meets, while the women placed seventh at both meets. The gymnastics team finished the season ranked eighth in the nation and softball was 15th.

In the Classroom

Nine of LSU's sports posted a cumulative grade point average of 3.0 or better during 2005-06.

50%

50 percent of student-athletes (207 of 314) recorded a grade point average of 3.0 or higher. 79 of those student-athletes recorded at least a 3.5 GPA and 28 finished with a perfect 4.0 GPA.

One Tiger - Rudy Niswanger in football - was named SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year. Niswanger also earned the 2005-06 H. Boyd McWhorter SEC Male Scholar-Athlete of the Year honor.

141

LSU had a total of 141 student-athletes named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll in 2005-06. To receive the recognition, each student-athlete must maintain a 3.0 grade point average for the previous year.

XAVIER CARTER

APRIL BURKHOLDER

X Factor

Track spinter Xavier Carter sprinted his way into the record books in 2006. Carter won six NCAA titles and became the first athlete in NCAA history to ever win both the 100 and 400 meters at the championship meet and was the first male to win four titles in one meet since Jesse Owens in 1936. Carter was named the NCAA Indoor and Outdoor Track Athlete of the Year.

Augustus Again

Seimone Augustus earned women's basketball's National Player of the Year honors for the second straight season. She received the Wade, the Naismith and the John R. Wooden Awards and was named the Associated Press' Player of the Year. Augustus, a Kodak All-American, also led the nation in scoring averaging with 22.7 points per game.

National Champions

Gymnast April Burkholder earned the individual NCAA title on the balance beam. Track star Xavier Carter was a six-time NCAA champion in 2006, winning the 100m race at the NCAA Outdoor Championships and the 400m race at the NCAA Indoor and Outdoor Championships. He also led the 4x100m relay to an outdoor title and both the indoor and outdoor 4x400m relays to titles. The LSU women's 4x400m relay claimed the NCAA indoor title as well.

Hoops Sweep

LSU's duo of Glen Davis and Seimone Augustus were named the Southeastern Conference Men's and Women's Players of the Year, respectively. Davis helped lead the men's program to its first SEC title since 2000, while Augustus guided the Lady Tigers to a second straight league title. Tyrus Thomas was crowned the SEC's Freshman of the Year as well.

Tops in the League

Xavier Carter and Seimone Augustus swept the SEC Male and Female Athlete of the Year honors. Carter, the NCAA Indoor and Outdoor Track Athlete of the Year, was a three-time individual NCAA champion, winning the outdoor 100 and 400 meter races and the 400m indoors. Augustus led the SEC in scoring and help guide the Lady Tigers to a second straight conference title.

Rare Feat

LSU joined North Carolina as the only schools in NCAA history to have its football team and men's and women's basketball teams finish their seasons ranked in the top 5 in the nation during the same athletic year. LSU's football team finished fifth in the nation after a solid victory over Miami in the Peach Bowl. The men's basketball team finished third in the polls after advancing to the NCAA Final Four, while the women's basketball team competed the season ranked fourth after a third straight trip to the NCAA Final Four.
