Tulane

In The Polls

LSU moved up in two of the major polls this week, jumping two spots to No. 20 in Baseball America and one position to No. 18 in Collegiate Baseball. The Tigers remained No. 12 in the ESPN/Sports Weekly poll. Tulane carries the No. 1 ranking in Collegiate Baseball and is ranked third in both Baseball America and ESPN/Sports Weekly. LSU is facing Tulane and the No. 1 ranking for the second time this season.

A Rivalry Renewed: The LSU-Tulane Series

Tuesday's contest will be the 280th meeting in the historic rivalry that dates back to 1893. It will only be the second time Tulane is the higher ranked team in a regular season meeting between the two. Earlier this season, the Green Wave defeated the Tigers, 6-2, at Alex Box Stadium (March 8). LSU holds a 158-118-3 advantage all-time against the Tulane. The Tigers have won six of the last 10 meetings between the clubs, including two victories in 2004. The Green Wave captured a 1-0 victory at Alex Box Stadium last season, but LSU captured victories at Zephyr Field (6-0) and the Superdome (9-5). Smoke Laval is 7-7 in his coaching career against Tulane, while Rick Jones owns a 14-16 record against the Tigers.

Great LSU-Tulane Moments

April 6, 2004 -- Tulane's Brian Bogusevic and LSU's Jason Determann battle in a pitcher's duel, in which the Green Wave capture a 1-0 win at Alex Box Stadium. Determann suffers the first loss of his career, despite hurling six brilliant innings. Tulane's Joey Charron holds on for the save in a wild ninth inning that saw the Tigers load the bases courtesy of two walks with two outs. Blake Gill grounds out to first, leaving the tying and winning runs in scoring position.

March 2, 2004 -- Freshman Clay Dirks fires a four-hit complete game shutout en route to a 6-0 victory over the Green Wave in front of 10,916 fans at Zephyr Field. Ryan Patterson, Blake Gill and J.C. Holt combine to go 8-for-15 with five RBI.

May 31, 2003 -- LSU posts a 13-5 win over their in-state rival in Game 4 of the NCAA Baton Rouge Regional at Alex Box Stadium to advance to the championship round. A five-run seventh inning highlighted by back-to-back homers from Clay Harris and Blake Gill, sends Tulane to an elimination game against UNC-Wilmington that night. The Seahawks defeat the Green Wave, 9-8.

April 10, 2002 -- An NCAA record crowd of 27,673 watches LSU defeat Tulane, 9-5, in the Louisiana Superdome. In the fifth, LSU's Sean Barker, Chris Phillips and Jason Columbus blast homers into the Superdome seats, a barrage reminiscent of the 1990s teams.

June 1-3, 2001 -- Tulane takes two of three games in the NCAA Super Regional at Zephyr Field to reach the College World Series. Legendary head coach Skip Bertman coaches his final game in a 7-1 loss in Game 3. The Tigers defeated the Green Wave, 4-3, in a Game 1 thriller. Freshman Lane Mestepey tossed an incredible 10 innings in the opener, but Tulane won the final two games of the series by scores of 9-4 and 7-1.

May 25, 1986 -- Albert Belle smashes two, two-run homers in the South I Regional championship game, leading the Tigers to their first College World Series with a 7-6 win over Tulane at Alex Box Stadium. Belle was named tournament MVP for his efforts.

On Deck: Road Warriors

Tuesday's game begins a seven-game road swing for LSU after playing its last seven games in the friendly confines of Alex Box Stadium. The Tigers travel to No. 11 Arkansas this weekend for a three-game Southeastern Conference series. Game times are scheduled for 7:05 p.m. CT (Friday), 3:05 p.m. (Saturday) and 1:05 p.m. (Sunday). The Razorbacks hold a 9-6 league record on the season and are tops in the SEC Western Division standings.

On the Deuce

ESPN 2 and ESPN U will broadcast Tuesday's game to a national audience. The contest will mark LSU's 56th appearance on either ESPN or ESPN2. The Tigers first appeared on ESPN on April 22, 1984 at Miami (Fla.). The network has not broadcasted an LSU regular season game since the Tigers defeated Oklahoma State, 6-0, on Feb. 10, 1991. Since the 2003 NCAA Regional, LSU is 4-5 on either ESPN or ESPN 2. To date, LSU is 203-103-2 (.663) all-time on television, which includes an 8-2 mark this season.

Clay Harris Named SEC Player Of The Week

Senior second baseman Clay Harris was named Monday, April 18 as the SEC Player of the Week by the league office. Harris, a native of Slidell, La., led the 12th-ranked Tigers to three wins in four games last week, including an SEC series victory over Ole Miss (April 15-17). Harris enjoyed a phenomenal week at the plate, batting .625 (10-for-16) in four games with three doubles, two homers and seven RBI. He launched a ninth-inning, walk-off solo homer to lift the Tigers to a 7-6 on Saturday against Ole Miss. Harris also unloaded a grand slam in Friday's game versus the Rebels. For the entire Ole Miss series, he hit .667 (8-for-12) with two doubles, two homers and seven RBI, posting a 1.333 slugging percentage and a .714 on-base percentage. Harris is hitting .392 (58-for-148) on the year with 13 doubles, one triple, seven homers and 38 RBI. The SEC Player of the Week honor is the second of Harris' career. He received the same recognition on April 5, 2004, after leading LSU to a series victory at Auburn.

Back At The Zephyr

Zephyr Field, the home of the Triple-A affiliate of the Washington Nationals, plays host to LSU for the 21st time tonight. The Tigers have compiled a 13-7 all-time record at Zephyr Field, dating back to 1998. All-time, LSU is 2-0 (vs. Southeastern Louisiana), 5-1 (vs. UNO), 1-0 (vs. UL-Lafayette), 1-0 (vs. Southern), 1-0 (vs. Rice) and 3-6 (vs. Tulane) at Zephyr Field. Tonight's game will be the third this season for the Tigers at the popular venue, and LSU has won its last four games there. Earlier this season, LSU held on for a 4-2 win over Southeastern Louisiana on March 23 and then defeated No. 11 Rice, 8-2, on April 6.

Hometown Tigers

Catcher Matt Liuzza, infielder Nicholas Pontiff and outfielder Steven Broschofsky return in front of a hometown crowd tonight as all three played high school ball in the Metairie area. Liuzza led Rummel High School to district titles in 1999, 2000 and 2001 as an all-state catcher. Nicholas Pontiff, the younger brother of the late Wally Pontiff Jr., earned two letters at Jesuit High School and was a member of the Blue Jays' state runner-up squad in 2003. Broschofsky, who is sidelined by an injury for the remainder of the season, was also a member of that team. The freshman received all-state, all-metro and all-district honors by batting .416 as a senior. Metairie is five miles west of River Ridge, La., the hometown of infielder Chris Jackson. The two-sport Jackson earned letters in football and baseball at John Curtis High School.

A Career Best For Smith

Junior left-hander Greg Smith tossed the first complete game of his career versus Ole Miss on Sunday (April 17), hurling a one-run, four-hit masterpiece to propel the Tigers to a 5-1 victory. Smith, who became a starter at the beginning of the season, limited the hot-hitting Rebels to four hits and one run. The outing was the finest of his career. He had previously worked a career-high seven innings in games earlier this season against Houston (Feb. 27) and Arizona State (March 13). Smith fired an economical 96 pitches, struck out seven and walked none.

Another Two-Sport Jackson

Redshirt freshman Chris Jackson made the first start of his career versus South Carolina on April 10 and did not disappoint, going 2-for-5 with an RBI. In 13 games this season, Jackson is hitting .441 with a homer, three doubles, nine runs scored and nine RBI. At the same time, the River Ridge, La. native just wrapped up spring football practice as the squad's starting place kicker/punter. Against Northwestern State on April 12, Jackson arrived to Alex Box 20 minutes before first pitch after going through a football workout. Without taking infield or batting practice, Jackson made his first career start at third base and went 3-for-6 with four runs and four RBI. He also belted his first career homer in the bottom of the seventh. This past Saturday (April 16), he competed in the annual LSU spring football scrimmage in the morning before reporting to the Box 45 minutes before the 2 p.m. first pitch. In his first at-bat Jackson lined a single to right field and finished the game 3-for-5 with a run and an RBI. He also displayed tremendous defense at third base with four critical assists in the Tigers 7-6 triumph over Ole Miss.

402 Wins And Counting For Laval

Smoke Laval earned his 400th career victory in a 19-2 thrashing of Northwestern State on April 12. Laval compiled a 241-159 mark as head coach at UL-Monroe for seven seasons (1994-2000). Since then, Smoke has won 158 games in his fourth season at LSU after taking over for Skip Bertman.

SEC Blues

After suffering a sweep from South Carolina (April 8-10), LSU dropped its third straight SEC series for the first time since 1995, but the streak was snapped with the series win over Ole Miss this past weekend. LSU also suffered two losses at home to Auburn (March 25-27) and lost two of three at Alabama (April 1-3). The 1995 squad lost the final three series of the regular season (Alabama, Auburn, at Mississippi State). On Friday night, the Tigers lost their fifth-consecutive league game for the first time since 1983 before responding with two wins.

Down But Never Out

Before the Nicholls State contest on April 5, LSU had not scored first in each of its last 11 games. Despite falling behind early, the Tigers still managed to win seven of the 11 contests with come-from-behind victories. On the season, LSU is 11-10 when opponents score first. Thirteen of the team's 26 wins are of the come-from-behind variety. The streak was snapped on April 5 as the Tigers jumped out to a 2-0 lead over the Colonels after two innings of play. LSU had to rally for wins on Saturday and Sunday over Ole Miss.

Gill, Patterson Shine Versus Tulane

Blake Gill has played in nine games against Tulane. Ryan Patterson has seen the Green Wave eight times during his career. Both have excelled against their in-state rival since 2002. Gill is hitting .306 (11-for-36) with two homers, six runs scored and six RBI and has started in all LSU-Tulane showdowns he has played in. Patterson holds a .405 average (15-for-37) with a homer, nine runs and four RBI versus the Green Wave. The senior outfielder has also maintained a .622 slugging percentage in eight starts.

Hitting Streaks

Ryan Patterson and Clay Harris each saw their career-high hitting streaks end at 15 games on April 1 at Alabama. Chris Jackson currently holds an eight-game hitting streak, the longest stretch of anyone on the team. Jackson has hit safely in nine of the 13 games he has played in. Earlier this season, Blake Gill maintained a 20-game hitting streak, dating back to last season. Gill's run, which began versus Vanderbilt on May 15 last season, is the longest of his career and the longest since head coach Smoke Laval took over the program.

Longest Hitting Streaks (past six seasons)

Patterson Tops In SEC In Three Categories

Ryan Patterson currently leads the SEC in three offensive categories, including runs scored (48), home runs (13) and total bases (115). The senior outfielder is also second in slugging percentage (.782), second in hits (58), fourth in batting average (.395) and 10th in on-base percentage (.468). Auburn's Tyler Johnston and Ole Miss' Brian Pettway are the only other players in the league who are tops in multiple categories.

Streak of 12 Straight Series Wins Snapped

Auburn's series win over LSU (March 25-27) ended the Tigers' streak of 12 straight regular season series wins, dating back to last season. The Tigers have won 23 out of their last 28 regular-season series, dating back to the final two weekends of the 2003 regular season. In that span, before losses to Auburn, Alabama and South Carolina, LSU last lost a weekend series on April 9-11, 2004, when Arkansas swept three games at Alex Box Stadium.

Mestepey Second In All-Time Career Wins

Senior left-hander Lane Mestepey claimed sole possession of second place in LSU career victories with his 34th win over Georgia on March 18. The Zachary, La., native passed Stan Loewer, who tallied 33 wins between 1984-87. Mestepey is now four wins shy of tying Scott Schultz' career mark of 38, achieved between 1992-95. The southpaw also moved into a tie for ninth place in SEC career victories with Auburn's Ryan Halla (1993-96). With one more win, Mestepey will tie Mississippi State's Bobby Reed (1987-90) for eighth place. South Carolina's Kip Bouknight (1998-01) and Mississippi State's Jeff Brantley (1982-85) share the all-time SEC record with 45 career wins.

Mestepey Enters Top-Three In SEC Career Innings Pitched

Senior left-hander Lane Mestepey became the school's all-time leader in innings pitched on Feb. 25 at Houston. Mestepey worked six frames to surpass Scott Schultz's (1992-95) record of 398. On the season, Mestepey sits at 447.2 innings pitched and recently overtook third-place in the SEC career record books with his seven-inning stint at Alabama on April 1. He is 29.1 innings away from tying Tennessee's R.A. Dickey (1994-96). South Carolina's Kip Bouknight (1998-01) holds the all-time SEC record of 482.

SEC Career Innings Pitched

1. Kip Bouknight, USC (1998-01)	482.0
2. John Powell, Auburn (1990-94)	477.0
3. Lane Mestepey, LSU (2001-present)	447.2
4. R.A. Dickey, Tennessee (1994-96)	434.0
5. Jeff Brantley, Miss. State (1982-85)	427.0

Going the Distance

Lane Mestepey fired his 17th career complete game versus South Carolina on April 8. On the season, he has two nine-inning outings to his credit, including a complete game win at Georgia on March 18. It was the first complete game effort for the senior left-hander since the 2004 NCAA Baton Rouge Super Regional. Mestepey hurled a masterful five-hit shutout against Texas A&M (June 13), helping the Tigers advance to the College World Series. Pat Mook (1972-75) holds the school record in complete games with 27. Ironically, the win over Georgia was the last for Mestepey, who has since suffered four losses.

Patterson Named Top Senior by Baseball America in Midseason Report on April 12

Ryan Patterson was named the top senior in the nation by Baseball America in its midseason edition released on April 12. Patterson was also a unanimous first-team midseason All-American in the outfield. He is one of only two SEC players who made the first-team list. Tennessee's Luke Hochevar also made the list as a starting pitcher. Nebraska's Alex Gordon was named the nation's top player, and Rice's Joe Savery made the list as the top freshman.

Wallace Watch

Lefty Lane Mestepey joined senior outfielder Ryan Patterson on March 8 as a candidate for the Brooks Wallace Award, presented annually to the national college baseball player of the year. Mestepey was one of 38 players added to the watch list. The Brooks Wallace Award was captured by Cal State Fullerton's Kurt Suzuki last season. The Wallace Watch will be trimmed to 12 semifinalists on May 24. The selection committee will then narrow the list to three finalists following the NCAA Super Regionals at a press conference in Omaha on June 16. Vanderbilt's Warner Jones, Cal-State Fullerton's Ricky Romero, Tennessee's Luke Hochevar, Ole Miss' Stephen Head and Georgia's Will Startup also headline the list.

Determann Nominated For Scholar-Athlete Post-Graduate Scholarship

Pitcher Jason Determann is one of two nominees from LSU for the H. Boyd McWhorter Scholar-Athlete Post Graduate Scholarship. The award is presented annually to the SEC's top male and female scholar-athletes. Determann has maintained a 3.781 grade point average, majoring in biology. He is a member of Alpha Epsilon Delta national premedical honor society and has been named to the Dean's List every semester at LSU and the Chancellor's Honor Roll twice. He has already posted the required MCAT scores to qualify for acceptance into medical school.

Faircloth Receives SEC Community Service Post-Graduate Scholarship

Pitcher Jordan Faircloth is one of two Southeastern Conference athletes awarded to the league's community service post-graduate scholarship, commissioner Mike Slive announced on April 8. Faircloth and South Carolina diver Holly Hodges each will receive a $5,000 post-graduate scholarship provided by the SEC. The two were chosen by a committee of Faculty Athletics Representatives from SEC universities. Faircloth becomes the second LSU athlete to receive the honor. Former catcher Tim Lanier earned the award in 1997.

Liuzza Named Preseason All-American by Baseball America

Junior catcher Matt Liuzza was voted to the 2005 Baseball America Preseason Third-Team. The Metairie, La. native has helped lead the Tigers to consecutive College World Series appearances. He batted .328 (75-for-229) in 2004 with 14 doubles, nine homers, 45 RBI and 37 runs. Liuzza committed just four errors in 370 chances last season, and he threw out 14 base runners attempting to steal. For the entire 2004 NCAA Tournament - including the regional, super regional and CWS - Liuzza hit a sizzling .417 (10-for-24), and he posted a .563 on-base percentage.

Liuzza Headlines Baseball America Preseason Awards

Baseball America released its preseason Southeastern Conference awards in its college baseball preview and catcher Matt Liuzza headlined the list of Tigers who earned recognition. Liuzza was rated as the conference's fourth-highest prospect for the upcoming 2005 Major League Baseball Draft. The publication also rated Liuzza as the best defensive catcher in the league with the best arm. Blake Gill earned recognition as one of Baseball America's top 50 senior prospects. Gill is listed as the nation's No. 18 rated senior, followed by Ryan Patterson who was listed 19th.

Laval Fifth Place In Games Coached

The season-opening win over Nicholls State was head coach Smoke Laval's 200th as the Tiger skipper. Laval currently sits at 237 games, the fifth-highest mark of any coach in the school's history. Laval is 12 games away from reaching Jack Lamabe's (1979-83) total of 249. Laval's LSU coaching record of 161-74-1 (.682) is the second-highest mark, behind Skip Bertman's all-time winning percentage of .724.

Southpaw Series

LSU's left-handed weekend rotation of Lane Mestepey, Clay Dirks and Greg Smith is unprecedented in the school's history. The Tigers have never thrown three consecutive southpaws in a series before this season. LSU is also the only school in the SEC to start three lefties in its weekend rotation.

Mestepey Does It All

While Lane Mestepey only makes one appearance on the mound every week, the senior has taken upon other responsibilities. Mestepey charts pitches in the dugout during non-starts and also observes the Tigers in the bullpen. He has also been known to coach first base when hitting coach Turtle Thomas is out on recruiting trips.

Injury Report

Sophomore right-hander Michael Bonura will miss the entire 2005 season after undergoing Tommy John surgery during the offseason. In 2004, Bonura played a valuable role as a freshman in the LSU bullpen, posting a 4.46 ERA in 34.1 innings and 31 strikeouts. JUCO transfer pitcher Daniel Forrer will also sit out the 2005 campaign suffering a shoulder injury in the offseason. Freshman prospect Nolan Cain underwent Tommy John surgery at the beginning of February and will also miss the 2005 season. Outfielder Steven Broschofsky underwent shoulder surgery during the first of March to repair a torn labrum. Bruce Sprowl suffered a broken finger in the Tigers series against UAB. He returned after a minor surgery as a defensive replacement at Georgia and has since made 13 appearances.

Middle Innings Most Productive For LSU

LSU is outscoring its opponents 132-54 in the third, fourth and fifth innings combined on the season. The fourth frame has been the Tigers most productive on the season, as LSU has amassed 45 runs to opponents' 21 on the season.

Five Tigers On Major League Rosters, Fontenot Called Up

Five former LSU baseball players are on the rosters of Major League Baseball teams. Mike Fontenot was called up by the Chicago Cubs on April 11 for his first big league assignment. Ironically, Fontenot is filling in for Todd Walker, a former All-American at LSU between 1992-94. Walker, who begins his 10th Major League season, suffered a MCL injury on April 10 and will be out four to six weeks. Pitcher Paul Byrd relocates to the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim after spending a season with the Atlanta Braves. Byrd will serve as the No. 4 starter in the Angels' rotation. Veteran Russ Springer is once again a member of the Houston Astros bullpen corps. Brad Hawpe begins his first full Major League season with the Colorado Rockies. Hawpe will platoon in right field with former Alabama star Dustin Mohr.

Coaches Pick LSU to Win SEC Title

In what has become a common occurrence over the past several seasons, LSU is the favorite to win the Southeastern Conference Baseball Championship, as voted by the league's 12 baseball coaches in the 14th annual preseason SEC poll. The Tigers seek to capture their 14th SEC Championship, having won or shared the title three times in the past nine seasons (1996, 1997 and 2003) and seven times since 1990. In the overall SEC Champion vote, LSU received nine of the 12 championship votes in the poll. South Carolina received two votes while Florida received one. LSU was the predicted winner in the Western Division with a total of 66, collecting the maximum possible points for a single team. Ole Miss was second with 51, while Arkansas finished third with 46.

New "Box" On Tap For 2008

When the 2008 season rolls around, LSU will move into a new modern facility. LSU athletics director Skip Bertman proposed the construction of a new baseball stadium to open in 2008 to the LSU Board of Supervisors. The stadium would be located at the corner of Nicholson Drive and Gourrier Lane, about 2,000 feet south of the current site of Alex Box Stadium, and would seat approximately 8,000 Tiger baseball fans. The new stadium, which will also be named Alex Box Stadium, will be paid for by the LSU Athletics Department through a combination of the sale of revenue bonds and private donations. The expected cost of the project is approximately $23 million.

Mestepey fired 80 pitches, including 58 strikes, struck out four and walked none. It was Mestepey's 30th win of his career. S: Faircloth (1)

Notes: A five-run first inning highlighted by Michael Hollander's two-run double proved to be just enough run support for three LSU pitchers. Greg Smith earned the win in his first career start, working into the sixth inning and allowing two runs on six hits with nine strikeouts. Smith had two critical pickoffs that erased any kind of Colonel threats late in the game. Jordan Faircloth wrapped up the save surrendering two hits and striking out two.

Notes: Lane Mestepey and Bennett Cromer battled in a pitchers duel with Mestepey earning his second win in 6.1 innings. Ryan Patterson broke out of an early season slump going 2-for-3. Two unearned runs proved to be the difference in the game. Edgar Ramirez fell into trouble in the ninth, letting the tying run come to the plate. Jordan Faircloth came on and recorded the final out for the save.

Game 6 • LSU 11, Ark.-Little Rock 8

Clay Dirks went five innings, allowing three runs on six hits and striking out four. LSU's four-run first was the result of two critical UALR errors. Justin Meier made his first appearance in the sixth, getting out of a bases loaded jam. S: Vaclavik (1)
Time: 2:15 Att: 2,456

Notes: LSU dropped its first game of the season, collecting only six hits during the contest -- three of them from Clay Harris. Lane Mestepey suffered the hard-luck loss, despite becoming the school's all-time leader in innings pitched in the third. He finished the game with 401.1. Houston's Matt Farrington handcuffed LSU for six innings, allowing one run thanks to Bruce Sprowl's sacrifice fly in the fifth. UH scored their two runs in the bottom of the frame on Jake Stewart's two-run single (both unearned) that bounced off of Mestepey's glove into right field. Cougar reliever Justin Vaclavik recorded the save, despite a threat by the Tigers in their final at-bat.

W: Dirks (3-0) L: Lincoln (0-2)

Ryan Patterson tied a career high with four hits, producing four runs and two RBI on a homer in the third. Clay Dirks settled down after a shaky start and registered his third win, allowing four runs (three earned) on seven hits and striking out five. The Tigers broke the game open in the third with homers by Will Harris and Patterson.

Time: 2:55 Att: n/a

Notes: LSU finished off a doubleheader sweep as Greg Smith tossed the most impressive performance of his career, limiting the Cougars to one run on just five hits in a career high seven-inning outing. Ryan Patterson delivered a three-run homer, while Bruce Sprowl and Michael Hollander added two hits apiece. W: Biagi (1-0) L: Nall (0-1)
Time: 2:26 Att: 3,805

Notes: For the first time since 1956, LSU was defeated by Centenary behind a complete-game shutout from righty J.C. Biagi on a frigid night. LSU had won the last two meetings between the two, dating back 48 years. Biagi allowed one unearned run on just two hits -- LSU's lowest output since being two-hit at Arkansas in 1997. Brandon Nall suffered the loss in his first career start, lasting just two innings and walking three. Biagi finally surrendered a base hit in the seventh, allowing a single to Quinn Stewart. Matt Liuzza had a sac-fly, but Biagi worked a perfect eighth and ninth.

Mestepey moved into sole possession of third place in LSU all-time victories and tied a career high with eight strikeouts. The Tigers trailed for the second time in as many games but a fourth-run fourth highlighted by Clay Harris' double and Stavinoha's three-run homer swung the momentum of the game. Stavinoha added an RBI double in the seventh.

Greg Smith took the loss, allowing four runs and striking out eight, one shy of a career high. Smith committed two errors, which led to two unearned runs. Clay Harris went 2-for-4 with one RBI, boosting his average to .400. Blake Gill added a two-run double in the third. Clay Harris finished a homer shy of the cycle, going 4-for-4 with four runs scored and one RBI. Ryan Patterson added three hits, including a pair of homers, four runs scored and three RBI. It was the first time the feat was accomplished in the program's history. Patterson homered twice for the second straight game and Stavinocha finished a single shy of the cycle. LSU sent 17 batters to the plate in the fourth and the first out was not recorded until the 12th hitter of the frame. Mayer, in his first SEC at-bat, delivered a pinch-hit two-run double off of preseason All-American Will Startup to tie the game, while Hollander followed with an RBI single to give the Tigers a 5-4 lead. Clay Harris' solo homer in the ninth provided insurance for Jason Determann, who earned his second save of the weekend. Greg Smith made his first SEC career start, going six strong innings, limiting Georgia to one earned run on seven hits. It was the Tigers' first SEC series' sweep since blanking Tennessee at Alex Box Stadium in 2003.

Smoke Laval

HEAD COACH • FOURTH YEAR

Raymond "Smoke" Laval continues to enhance his reputation as one of the country's top college baseball coaches, as, in three seasons at the helm of the LSU program, he has guided the Tigers to two College World Series berths, two NCAA Super Regional titles, three NCAA Regional championships, one SEC title and Top 10 finishes in each of the past two seasons.

Laval, the 2003 SEC Coach of the Year, was named in 2004 the Louisiana Sportswriters Association Coach of the Year for the third straight season.

Laval has directed LSU to the best SEC regular-season record in the past three seasons, posting a 57-31-1 (.646) mark. South Carolina has the second-best SEC record (57-32, .640), and Florida is third (50-39-1, .561). LSU earned its second consecutive final Top 10 ranking in 2004, as the Tigers finished No. 7 in the Baseball America poll and No. 8 in the Collegiate Baseball poll. The final rankings culminated a magnificent 2004 season that also featured record-breaking marks for academic achievements and attendance figures. The 2004 Tigers advanced to the College World Series for the second straight season, recording a 46-19 overall record, LSU's best mark since the 2000 club finished 52-17.

LSU played host to an NCAA Regional for the 15th straight season, winning the tournament with consecutive victories over Army, Southern Mississippi and College of Charleston. The Tigers then played host to an NCAA Super Regional for the third time in five years, defeating Texas A&M in a best two-of-three series to earn a berth in the CWS.

The 2004 Tigers had the best offensive club in the SEC, completing the year with a .333 team batting average, the second-highest in school history. The Tigers were led by two first-team all-SEC players - right fielder Jon Zeringue, the 2004 SEC Co-Player of the Year and a first-team all-America selection, and center fielder J.C. Holt, a third-team all-America choice. Zeringue was selected in the second round of the 2004 draft by the Arizona Diamondbacks, and Holt was the third-round pick of the Atlanta Braves.

LSU placed 12 players on the 2004 SEC Academic Honor Roll, the highest total in the program's history, and the Tigers' 2004 total home attendance with 36 playing dates was 284,328, the third-largest figure in school history. The average paid attendance in 2004 was 7,898, which is the highest average in LSU annals.

Laval guided the 2003 Tigers to the Southeastern Conference title -- LSU's first since 1997 -- and a berth in the College World Series. He was voted the 2003 SEC Coach of the Year, directing LSU to a 45-22-1 overall record and a 20-9-1 conference mark, as the Tigers finished No. 5 in the final Baseball America rankings.

LSU played host to an NCAA Regional tournament for the 14th straight season and captured its eighth consecutive regional title. The Tigers entertained Baylor in an NCAA Super Regional series, defeating the Bears in two of three games to earn LSU's first CWS berth since 2000.

LSU also set an NCAA total attendance record in 2003, drawing 291,676 patrons to Alex Box Stadium.

The Tigers' shortstop, Aaron Hill, was named 2003 SEC Player of the Year and a first-team all-American. Hill was the first-round draft selection (13th pick overall) by the Toronto Blue Jays.

The magnificent '03 campaign augmented the success Laval enjoyed in his inaugural season as LSU's coach, as he led the 2002 Tigers to a 44-22 overall mark, an appearance in the NCAA Super Regional and a No. 11 final national ranking. Laval, named the 2002 Louisiana Coach of the Year by the Louisiana Sportswriters Association, continued the phenomenal tradition of excellence created by his predecessor, the legendary Skip Bertman.

Laval holds a bachelor's degree (1977) from Jacksonville in physical education and a master's degree (1979) from LSU in administration. The McDonald, Pa., native played two seasons at Gulf Coast Community College, where he lettered as a catcher. He completed his playing career at Jacksonville, where he led the ninth-ranked Dolphins in hitting at the 1976 NCAA South Regional.

Laval and his wife, Pam, are the parents of two children, Brandon and Jamie.

The Nickname "Smoke"

As a native of Western Pennsylvania, Raymond Peter Laval grew up as a Pittsburgh Pirates fan. He received the name "Smoke" in the late 1970s from his Gulf Coast Community College teammates, who derived the moniker from Smokey Burgess, a catcher for the Pirates in the 1960s.
