MEET THE TEAM

BRIAN LEE

Head Coach
Third Year

The Vision

LSU is the sleeping giant of college soccer. My vision for LSU is to build a program that annually contends to win the SEC, qualifies for the NCAA College Cup and competes to win a National Championship.

The Philosophy

I believe in a commitment to excellence from our players, coaches and staff in all facets of the program. We will provide an environment in which our student-athletes can maximize their potential as students, athletes and people.

Brian Lee enters his third season at the helm of the LSU soccer program after guiding the squad to one of its most successful seasons in recent history in 2006 in which it posted the team's highest win total and point total in SEC play since 2000. In fact, Lee has guided the Tigers to more SEC wins in his first two seasons as head coach than in any two-year period in team history.

LSU athletics director Skip Bertman believes this success is just a glimpse of what the future holds for the program as Lee is poised to transform LSU into a perennial championship contender in the SEC and a permanent staple in the NCAA Women's College Cup.

"Brian Lee is a proven and successful head coach who I believe will take our women's soccer program to a level of excellence that will energize the soccer community and bring championships to LSU," Bertman said. "I am impressed with his accomplishments as well as his enthusiasm and vision for the program."

The foundation of any program is built on the players it recruits, and Lee's on-field success as the LSU head coach translated into success off the field as he and his coaching staff signed the nation's No. 7-ranked recruiting class in the spring of 2006. This past fall marked the first time that the Tigers welcomed a top-10 signing class to campus to form the most talented team in the program history.

Two members of that signing class - Michelle Makasini and Chelsea Potts - became the first ever Tigers to receive All-America honors as each was named a Freshman All-American by Soccer Buzz Magazine in December. In addition, more Tigers were honored by the SEC for their play in 2006 than ever before as Potts and Roslyn Jones were Second-Team All-SEC selections, while Potts, Makasini and Malorie Rutledge were named to the SEC All-Freshman Team.

These four athletes join standout midfielder Melissa Clarke as athletes who have received all-conference accolades under Lee's tutelage in his two seasons in Baton Rouge. Clarke was also named Second-Team All-SEC and a member of the SEC All-Freshman Team in her first season with the Tigers in 2005.

Winning conference titles and leading a nationally prominent program are nothing new for the native of Cheltenham, England, who after starting the Furman program from scratch in 1994 led the Lady Paladins to six Southern Conference Championships and four NCAA College Cup appearances during his tenure in Greenville, S.C.

In 11 seasons, Lee's teams accumulated a 144-80-10 overall record, including an impressive 76-16-3 mark in conference action. The Lady Paladins went undefeated in conference play three times (1999, 2000, 2002) and were just shy of perfection in 2003 after finishing the season with a 10-0-1 record in Southern Conference play.

Also a proven recruiter, Lee produced four top-50 recruiting classes in his last five seasons at Furman, including the nation's 12th-ranked class in 2002. That tradition continued upon his arrival at LSU as he landed the Tigers their first ever top-50 recruiting class in the spring of 2005. Lee followed that effort by signing the top-ranked class in the SEC in 2006 and the No. 1 class among SEC West teams for the second straight year.

Individually, Lee has coached two NCAA All-Americans, one National Soccer Coaches Association of America All-American, four Freshman All-Americans, 24 All-Southeast Region performers, four Southern Conference Players of the Year, five conference Freshmen of the Year and a total of 59 all-league selections.

Lee's athletes have proven to be just as successful in the classroom where he owns a 100 percent graduation rate and his teams have earned five NSCAA Team Academic Awards. A total of 122 student-athletes were selected to the Southern Conference Academic Honor Roll in his 11 years at Furman, and 21 Tigers have been named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll the last two seasons.

For his many accomplishments, Lee was named the Southern Conference Coach of the Year five times and was named the NSCAA and Soccer Buzz Southeast Region Coach of the Year in 1999, the same year in which he was selected as a finalist for the NSCAA National Coach of the Year Award.

In addition to his collegiate coaching experience, Lee has served on the Region III Olympic Developmental Program staff since 1999 and was recently promoted to the rank of assistant coach in the spring of 2006.

A successful athlete in his own right, Lee earned four letters with the Furman men's soccer team from 1989-92 where he was an integral part of three Southern Conference titles and was voted team captain and selected as the team's Most Valuable Player as a senior. He also led his team to its first-ever NCAA Tournament appearance and a berth in the Sweet 16 in 1991.

Lee, 35, earned his bachelor's degree in political science from Furman in 1993. He and his wife, the former Nancy Repsher, also a 1993 graduate of Furman, have two children - Aidan, 4, and Abby, 2.

Debbie Hensley enters her third season as an assistant at LSU after serving as head coach of the women's soccer program at Western Carolina for six seasons. She has built a reputation as one of the nation's top recruiters after having been instrumental in signing the first top-25 and top-10 recruiting classes in LSU history.

Adding Hensley to his staff was an easy decision for third-year head coach Brian Lee as the two coached together at Furman University for three years.

"Debbie is not only one of the top coaches in soccer, but she is one of the best people," Lee said. "She is a tremendous coach, recruiter and leader, and she will be instrumental in the future success of the LSU soccer program."

Hensley compiled a 60-52-9 record in six years at Western Carolina after starting the program from scratch prior to the 1999 season. She led the Catamounts to a 10-9-1 record and a Southern Conference Tournament appearance in her inaugural season and was named the league's Coach of the Year in 2001 after guiding the team to the Southern Conference regular season title with a 16-6 overall record and 8-2 league mark.

Hensley coached seven players to 11 All-Southern Conference honors in her time at Western Carolina, a total that includes three first-team selections. In addition to her duties as head coach of the program, Hensley also served as Assistant Athletics Director/Senior Woman Administrator.

Prior to her stint at WCU, Hensley spent three seasons as an assistant coach under Lee at Furman where she recruited eight players who earned all-conference accolades during their careers.

Along with her coaching achievements, Hensley garnered recognition as a soccer and softball standout at Georgia Southern as she finished her career as a three-time First-Team All-SoCon selection and led the conference in scoring as a junior and senior.

Hensley was selected to play in the prestigious Umbro Select College All-Star Classic after being named an NSCAA Regional All-American and All-Region honoree in 1995, and she was named the Georgia Female College Athlete of the Year by the Georgia Hall of Fame the same year.

The two-sport standout was also a first-team all-conference selection in softball as she set the Georgia Southern career record for both stolen bases and runs scored. She received her bachelor's degree in education from Georgia Southern in 1996 and a master's degree in health and exercise science from Furman in 1998.

COACH LEE ON HENSLEY:

"Debbie is not only one of the top coaches in soccer, but she is one of the best people. She is a tremendous coach, recruiter and leader, and she will be instrumental in the future success of the LSU soccer program."

Daniel Brizard enters his third season as an assistant coach at LSU after spending eight years in the same capacity at various universities across the country. His primary responsibility at LSU is coaching the team's goalkeepers, while also assisting head coach Brian Lee with all other aspects of the program.

Considered one of the top goalkeeper coaches in the country, Brizard was recently named head goalkeepers coach for the Region III Olympic Developmental Program Team and has served on the Florida State ODP staff and Region III ODP staff with Lee for eight years.

Prior to his stint at LSU, Brizard spent four seasons as an assistant to head coach Everton Edwards at Florida International. He also spent two seasons at South Alabama and two seasons at the University of Missouri-St. Louis while also serving as coach of the girl's soccer team at Parkway West High School in St. Louis.

Brizard is a certified goalkeeping instructor by the National Soccer Coaches Association of America and has received an NSCAA advanced national diploma. In addition, he has received the United States Soccer Federation "A" Coaching license as well as a USSF Goalkeeping license.

Prior to the start of his coaching career, Brizard was a four-year starter and team captain on the men's soccer team at Berry College in Rome, Georgia from 1991-95. He earned his bachelor's degree in sports performance/exercise science from Berry in 1995 and spent two years in the Navy before beginning his coaching career in 1997.

Brizard is married to the former Julie Schneider of St. Louis.

COACH BRIZARD ON VOGLER:

"Val showed last year that she has the ability to become one of the top goalkeepers in the SEC as a senior this season. We're also looking for her to be a leader on and off the field as one of only three seniors on the roster, and we believe she is more than capable of filling that role."

SOPHOMORE SEASON (2006)

Earned her place in the starting lineup in just her first season with the Tigers after transferring to LSU from Tennessee during the spring ... Was one of five Tigers to start all 20 games as she saw action at center back during the 2006 campaign ... Started alongside three freshmen for much of the season as she helped anchor a young, but talented defensive back line ... An emotional leader on and off the field, she proved to be one of the Tigers' most consistent performers throughout the season ... Recorded a pair of assists and finished the season with two points from her defender position ... Assisted on Michelle Makasini's game-winning goal in the season finale against Arkansas on Oct. 27 ... Also recorded an assist on Makasini's game-tying goal against Southern Miss on Sept. 17 ... Attempted 12 shots on the offensive end with one shot on goal ... Named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll ... Earned her first varsity letter.

PRIOR TO LSU

Saw action in 12 games with two starts for the nationally-ranked Tennessee Lady Volunteers in 2005 ... Helped guide the Lady Vols to their third consecutive SEC Championship and third SEC Tournament Championship in four years ... Scored her first career goal against Washington State on Sept. 2 ... Finished the season with one goal and two points with three shots on goal ... Completed a successful high school career at St. Scholastica Academy in 2005 as a team captain during her senior season ... Member of three district championship teams (2002, 2003, 2004) and two Louisiana state finalist squads (2003, 2005) ... Named the New Orleans Times-Picayune Female Athlete of the Year in 2005 ... Received all-state and all-metro honors in 2005 ... Picked up four all-district selections from 2002-2005 ... Member of Louisiana State Olympic Development Program Team in 2003 and 2004 ... Was the 2005 Mandeville Soccer Club Premier Player of the Year ... Led club team to the Louisiana Club State Championship and Superclubs National Championship in 2002 ... Club team was a state finalist in 2003 and 2004.

SOPHOMORE SEASON (2006)

Made a smooth transition to the forward position in the spring of 2006 after starting 17 games as an outside defender during her freshman campaign ... Proved to be one of the top scoring threats in the Southeastern Conference as she was the team's second-leading scorer with nine goals and 21 points ... Appeared in all 20 matches with 14 starts ... Was the team's leading scorer in SEC play with six goals and 14 points in 11 conference matches ... Both conference scoring totals ranked third and fourth in the SEC at the end of the season ... Earned the first all-conference selection of her career as she was voted second-team All-SEC by the league's 12 head coaches ... Named a first-team All-Louisiana selection by the Louisiana Sports Writers Association ... Scored the first goal of her career in LSU's 6-0 shutout of Sam Houston State on Sept. 1 ... Scored the game-winning goal in the Tigers' 3-2 win over Kentucky on Sept. 24 with just three seconds remaining in regulation, which is the latest a goal has been scored in regulation in team history ... Also scored game-winning goals against Houston (Sept. 3) and Alabama (Oct. 15) ... Scored the Tigers' only goal in a 1-1 draw against 12th-ranked Florida on Oct. 22 ... Was named to the Top Drawer Soccer Women's College National Team of the Week after recording the first multi-goal game of her career against division rival Alabama ... Displayed an uncanny ability to put shots on frame as she finished the season with 20 shots on goal in 37 shot attempts ... Twice voted LSU Female Athlete of the Week by a panel of local sports media (Sept. 26 & Oct. 17) ... Named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll ... Earned her second varsity letter.

FRESHMAN SEASON (2005)

A consistent performer on LSU's backline all season ... Played in 18 games while starting in 17 as a freshman at her defender position ... Started in all 11 SEC games for the Tigers ... Recorded an assist in LSU's 4-0 shutout of Southern on Oct. 31 ... Finished the season with a total of four shots ... Earned her first varsity letter.

PRIOR TO LSU

2006	20/14	37	9	3	21	3
Total	38/31	41	9	4	22	3

COACH LEE ON JONES:

"Roslyn is both mentally and physically tough. She has improved as much as any college player can in two years, largely due to her top level coachability and a tremendous dedication to the strength and conditioning side of our program. Her performance and effort is consistent, and she has developed into a proven goal scorer in the SEC. She is the prototype for why I enjoy college athletics - a great person that gives all she can on the field and in the classroom."

SOPHOMORE SEASON (2006)

Earned the start in goal in LSU's first seven matches of the season ... Led the Tigers to a 2-0 shutout of in-state rival UL-Lafayette on Aug. 29 ... Teamed with fellow goalkeeper Valerie Vogler to post a 6-0 shutout against Sam Houston State on Sept. 1 ... Saved 20 shots on the season with a 1.44 GAA ... Posted a 3-4-0 overall record ... Currently tied with Vogler for fourth place on the school's all-time list with six career shutouts ... Has a 1.31 career GAA with 98 saves ... Named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll ... Earned her second varsity letter.

FRESHMAN SEASON (2005)

Started in goal all 19 games in which she appeared as a freshman for the Tigers in 2005 ... Currently tied for fourth place on the program's career list after posting five shutouts on the season ... Her five shutouts is an LSU freshman record and was fourth in the SEC in 2005 ... Was also fourth in the SEC with 76 saves and 4.0 saves per game ... Made a career high 10 saves against Vanderbilt on Sept. 25 ... Finished the season with a 1.26 goals against average ... Posted an 8-9-2 overall record ... Earned her first varsity letter.

PRIOR TO LSU

Finished a stellar career at McKinney High School by leading her team to the Texas Class 4A State Championship in 2005 ... Named a Student Sports All-American in 2005 ... Earned First-Team Dallas Morning News All-County MVP and first-team all-district 6-4A MVP honors as a senior ... Posted a 50-24-13 record with 25 shutouts in her high school career ... Total	19/17	26	1	3	5	0

COACH LEE ON LAGOW:

"Kat is a gifted two-way player who we depend on to link the defense to the attack. She has great vision and creativity in the attacking half. One minute she will be releasing a frontrunner with a long ball, the next playing a nifty 1-2 at the top of the box to create chances. We hope to release some of her defensive responsibilities and allow her more attacking freedom, so expect her goal and assist totals to double this fall."

FRESHMAN SEASON (2006)

Proved to be a key contributor along LSU's young defensive back line in 2006 ... Made 19 appearances during her true freshman season while making 12 starts primarily at left back ... Also played in the midfield during the season ... Made 10 appearances with three starts in conference action ... 2006	20/20	87	11	7	29	5
Total	20/20	87	11	7	29	5

COACH LEE ON MAKASINI:

"Mak has the talent and goal-scoring touch to one day lead the conference in scoring. She fits our style very well and is just as adept at creating chances for her teammates as being on the finishing end of things. This offseason she has dedicated herself to fitness and could see tremendous results if her resolve to reach top-level fitness continues."

FRESHMAN SEASON (2006)

Established herself as one of the top young center backs in the country as she anchored a young back line by starting all 20 matches for the Tigers in her rookie season ... One of just five Tigers to start every match and one of three freshmen to start along the back line in 2006 ... 2006	20/20	8	1	0	2	0
Total	20/20	8	1	0	2	0

COACH LEE ON POTTS:

"Chelsea has quickly developed into one of the premier center backs in the country. Her physical attributes are immediately obvious to all, but the rest of her game has her on the brink of national attention. Her defensive positioning, tackling, heading and short and long passing are all excellent. She is a threat to create or score on the occasional overlap and is a prime target for our set pieces. Most importantly, her leadership qualities have grown by leaps and bounds through the fall and spring, and she has become a vocal leader on the training ground and on match day."
