Media credentials should be requested prior to each game. Season credentials are also available upon request. Passes will be available for pick up in the press box at the LSU Soccer Stadium. All requests should be made by contacting Will Stafford.

Postgame interviews, including those with players and coaches from both teams, will be held in the designated media area in the team meeting room approximately five minutes following the completion of each match. A member of the LSU Athletic Communications Department will take interview requests during the second half of each game. Game information, including halftime and final game statistics, will be provided in the press box.

Practices are open to the media with Brian Lee and the players available for interviews after each session. Please contact Will Stafford to make arrangements.

LSU SOCCER ON THE SEC NETWORK

The Southeastern Conference and ESPN recently signed a 20-year agreement through 2034 to create a multi-platform SEC Network which launched in August 2014. The SEC Network and its accompanying digital platform airs SEC content 24/7, including more than 1,000 events in its first year in 2014-15. The LSU Soccer program featured twice on the SEC Network during its first two seasons on the air, and the network will again air two of LSU's matches during the 2016 season when the Tigers open up SEC play at Texas A&M on Sunday, Sept. 11, and later play host to Auburn on Thursday, Oct. 20. Kickoff for both SEC Network games will be 6 p.m. CT.

In addition, LSU's home matches against Ole Miss on Sept. 16, Lamar on Sept. 18, Tennessee on Oct. 6, Alabama on Oct. 23 and Arkansas on Oct. 27 will feature on the SEC Digital Network platform that includes ESPN3.com and the Watch ESPN app on the internet and on all smartphones and tablets.

Why LSU?

INTRO

"LSU gives its student-athletes every opportunity to succeed both on and off the field. Right away, I knew I wanted to play for Brian Lee and his staff at LSU. Not only does he want his players to excel on the field, but he also pushes us to succeed in the classroom as well. That's exactly what I was looking for in a coach when I was being recruited. I knew coming in that Brian had the ability to transform LSU into a contender and I wanted to be a part of that. My experience at LSU was more than I hoped it would be. It will always be a part of me wherever life may take me."

"Being a professional athlete, it's easy for people in my profession to assume that's what they will be doing for the rest of their life. The reality is that I will have a second dream job. As I continue to train and hurdle at LSU with Coach Shaver, he has continued to help me work on my resume and prepare for the day after my track career is over. He truly is a great mentor and coach, but to this day he is also a great friend. I will always be grateful to him and LSU for the many opportunities I've been given in my life."

LOLO JONES

3-time Olympian
2-time World Indoor Champion
American Record Holder (60 hurdles)

"LSU has the greatest fans. Being a hometown girl from Baton Rouge, I knew LSU always took pride in its athletic program. You always hear about Tennessee and Connecticut, but I wanted to be able to help put LSU up there on the map with them. We accomplished a lot during my time. I wouldn't change it for anything. I got to play for one of the greatest coaches in history in Coach Gunter. I got to play with a group of women that became my family."

SEIMONE AUGUSTUS

Guard (2002-06)
2-time National Player of the Year
3-time WNBA Champion
2-time Olympic Gold Medalist

"When you go back and get your degree, it says a lot about your work ethic. I accomplished things that I will never forget here. I come home to Miami, but a lot of people don't know me like everyone in Baton Rouge and the fans. Baton Rouge and LSU has been my home. If I had to do it all over again, LSU would be the only place I would do it."

LSU SOCCER STADIUM

The LSU Soccer Stadium has traditionally been a difficult place for visiting teams to play as the Tigers have posted a strong 53-19-18 home record for a .689 winning percentage over the last nine seasons since the team made its NCAA Tournament debut and captured its first of four SEC Western Division championships in 2007. LSU is now in a new era of SEC soccer after winning its four SEC Western Division titles with four NCAA Tournament appearances since 2007 after divisions were eliminated prior to the 2012 season, marking the first season in which teams competed as one unified SEC table.

On the strength of its recent success, the LSU Soccer Stadium has received extensive renovations in recent years as the program continues its ascent to the pinnacle of the SEC and the NCAA. The venue is now a home worthy of an emerging power in women's college soccer.

In March 2011, construction teams broke ground on Phase 2 of the renovation as $2.3 million was invested to transform the facility while creating additional seating, installing new lighting and building a new press box for the media and concession stand and restrooms for the LSU supporters to enjoy.

By adding a second level of bleacher seating to the existing structure, the official capacity of the LSU Soccer Stadium increased to 2,197, easily accommodating a fanbase that has created one of the more intimidating home-field advantages in the SEC. In addition, new gates were built on the west side of the complex with brick columns throughout. New gating was also installed at the top of the bleachers.

Fans attending matches at the LSU Soccer Stadium also benefit from the addition of the permanent concession stand located directly below the press box. With the building of two new restrooms at the facility, it now features a total of four as men's and women's facilities are located at both ends of the stadium.

Members of the media also enjoy a functional press box that has been constructed to make the covering of future matches a state-of-the-art experience. Not only does the press box interior measure 333 square feet, but hard-wired internet is available across the work space along with a wireless internet signal that has long been accessible in recent seasons. In addition, television cameras and videographers have access to the crow's nest installed on the roof of the press box in a space that also features hard-wired internet access.

The Tigers have been a formidable foe at the LSU Soccer Stadium under the direction of head coach Brian Lee as they enter the fall with a 59-21-20 mark and .690 winning percentage on their home ground since 2006.

That includes an impressive run with an unbeaten 5-0-3 home slate in 2007, followed by an impressive 8-1 campaign in 2008, a 7-1-2 season in 2009, a 6-2-1 mark in 2010 and a stellar 7-1-1 season in 2011. While winning four SEC Western Division championships and making four trips to the NCAA Tournament from 2007-11, the Tigers posted a 33-5-7 record with a .811 winning percentage. They most recently finished the 2015 season unbeaten at home with an 8-0-4 mark in 12 matches played in Baton Rouge.

In fact, LSU's home performance is highlighted by a school record 18-game home unbeaten streak that came to an end on Oct. 26, 2008, with a 2-1 defeat to the No. 6-ranked Florida Gators.

2016 marks the 21st season in the life of the LSU Soccer Stadium, which was first opened on Sept. 13, 1996, when the Tigers hosted SEC rival Tennessee.

A new era was born in 2011 with the grand re-opening of the LSU Soccer Stadium as the Tigers set the attendance record on Sept. 9 when 2,542 supporters witnessed a 1-0 blanking of the Oregon Ducks to open the LSU Invitational. That smashed the previous attendance mark of 2,402 fans that saw the Tigers pitch a 3-0 shutout of No. 6-ranked Tennessee for the team's first win over an opponent ranked among the Top 10 teams in the nation.

The Tigers then raised the bar again in their home opener in 2012 when a new record of 2,624 fans turned out to witness the Tigers play visiting Rice to a 1-1 draw on Aug. 24 of that season.

In fact, the Tigers set the all-time attendance record three times during the 2007 season and finished the campaign ranked No. 10 nationally in average attendance and No. 7 in the country in average paid attendance while drawing 1,294 fans per match.

The program made history again in 2009 as the Tigers were awarded a No. 4 national seed in the NCAA Tournament and the former LSU Soccer Complex was selected as a regional host site of the NCAA First and Second Rounds for the first time, solidifying its reputation as one of the most intimidating venues in all of college soccer.

SEASON PREVIEW

Tigers Carries Momentum Into 2016 Season

The 2015 saw the LSU Tigers snap a four-year drought and make their return to the NCAA Division I Women's Soccer Tournament for the fifth time in program history. A regular-season victory over NCAA Women's College Cup runner-up Duke, a run to the SEC Tournament semifinals and an at-large berth into the NCAA Tournament headlined a season when the Tigers experienced one of the greatest turnarounds in college soccer.

They will look to carry that momentum into 2016 and challenge for honors once again with All-SEC strikers Jorian Baucom and Summer Clarke forming one of the most potent front lines in the country. Debbie Hahn and Gabriela Maldonado providing a strong foundation on which to build in midfield and three regular starters returning to the back line with U.S. Under-20 right back Alex Thomas, Canadian U-20 central defender Jordane Carvery and New Zealand star Megan Lee leading the way.

With six other letterwinners and another talented class of recruits joining the program for the first time, there is no doubt that head coach Brian Lee has a solid nucleus to mold in his 12th season leading the program as they eye a postseason return once again.

The Tigers will do so with a collection of talent assembled from across the globe as this year's squad features a roster of 26 players from six different nations around the world. That includes 10 Tigers earning international experience at the U-17, U-20 and senior levels in the national teams for Australia, Canada, Colombia, England and New Zealand along with the United States. Baton Rouge has certainly become a melting pot during Lee's tenure as the Tigers develop the chemistry they need in preseason to carry them through NCAA Tournament play.

That international pedigree is also what will lead the Tigers into 2016 as they challenge defending SEC Champion Florida, NCAA quarterfinalist Texas A&M and a host of other programs vying for conference honors once again this fall.

LSU has nearly captured the SEC Championship on three occasions as runners-up on the SEC table under Lee's direction, including their last assault on the league title back in 2011 when former SEC Defensive Player of the Year and 2016 Olympian Allysha Chapman led the way. She has made history this summer as the first LSU Soccer player to compete at the Olympic Games in Rio de Janeiro just one season after she debuted for Canada at the FIFA Women's World Cup.

The Tigers are excited to welcome back a lethal 1-2 scoring punch of Baucom and Clarke up front and four of their top five scorers from the 2015 season as they prepare for the fall.

Baucom is one of the NCAA's top returning scorers from a year ago when she netted a career-high 15 goals to tie for the No. 15 spot on the NCAA's goal scoring charts for the 2015 season. She was also the SEC's second-leading goal scorer en route to earning First-Team All-SEC honors for the first time in her collegiate career and ending the season as the No. 58-ranked player nationally by TopDrawerSoccer.com.

Baucom again trained with the Under-20 U.S. Women's National Team during the spring season after breaking through with the team for the first time following her freshman season in 2014.

Clarke picked up her second Second-Team All-SEC honor in three seasons with the Tigers as one of the league's most feared attacking players a year ago. She followed Baucom as the team's second-leading scorer with seven goals and a career-high five assists and finished the season as the No. 95-ranked player nationally by TopDrawerSoccer.com.

A former Canadian youth international at U-17 level, Clarke got her first call-up to the Canadian Women's National Team at the senior level during the spring while representing her country at the 2016 Algarve Cup in Portugal. Her first international goal for the Maple Leafs was the game-winner in a 1-0 victory over Belgium on March 4.

Maldonado broke through as a dangerous third option in the attack in her rookie season while bagging four goals with three assists. Maldonado was a mainstay in LSU's lineup late in the season as she started each of the last 11 matches in their run to the NCAA Tournament. She was the catalyst in LSU's run to the SEC Tournament semifinals a year ago as she scored the winner in a pair of 2-1 wins over Kentucky in the first round and No. 2 seed Missouri in the quarterfinals to double her goal total for the season.

Hahn also made an immediate impact in her debut season at LSU a year ago as her game-winning goals against Western Kentucky and Missouri in the regular-season proved crucial as the Tigers returned to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2011.

Like Clarke, Lee will be a senior leader in the squad as a former All-SEC performer in her own right as she combines with Carvery in central defense as the anchors of LSU's back line. Lee has made 53 appearances with 46 starts as a Tiger, while Carvery has started all 43 matches of her collegiate career over the past two seasons.

Despite signing with the Tigers as a two-time Gatorade Louisiana Player of the Year and one of the top striker recruits in the South in the Class of 2015, Thomas found her place in LSU's lineup as an athletic right back where she started all 23 games in defense in her rookie season and earned a selection to the SEC All-Freshman Team from the league's head coaches.

Her performances even caught the eye of U-20 U.S. Women's National Team head coach Michelle French as Thomas was twice invited to train with the national squad during the spring.

The Tigers kick off their 2016 regular season on the night of Friday, Aug. 19, with a trip to Charleston, South Carolina, where they will face ACC power Virginia Tech at the Charleston Classic at Patriot Point before wrapping up their season-opening weekend with a meeting against tournament host College of Charleston two days later.

While preparing for a rigorous slate of SEC fixtures, LSU returns home for its home-opening weekend against George Washington and Colgate before going back on the road for non-conference matches against Indiana, Butler and Western Kentucky in succession. A home match with Lamar serves as the team's non-conference finale on Sept. 18 even after the Tigers have opened up league play.

The Tigers step into the fire straightaway in their SEC opener as they travel to College Station, Texas, to face Texas A&M on Sept. 11 on the SEC Network. They then return home and host Ole Miss in their SEC home opener on Sept. 16 just one season after the Rebels were third in the league. LSU's 11-game SEC schedule features three other matches against NCAA qualifiers a year ago as the team plays host to defending SEC Champion Florida (Sept. 30) and Auburn (Oct. 20) while also going on the road to face South Carolina (Sept. 22).

Rounding out the 2016 SEC season are home matches against Tennessee (Oct. 6), Alabama (Oct. 23) and Arkansas (Oct. 27) and road matches with Vanderbilt (Sept. 25), Georgia (Oct. 9) and Mississippi State (Oct. 14).

There's no question that the LSU Soccer program has firmly established itself among the nation's elite with its performance in recent seasons, and the Tigers are hungry for more as the 2016 season draws near. When Lee took over the program in December 2004, he committed himself to "build a program that annually contends for the SEC, qualifies for the NCAA College Cup and competes to win a national championship." With LSU's performance under his direction in 11 seasons, his goals are now well within reach for this generation of Tigers.

THE ATTACK

Fans turning out to the LSU Soccer Stadium this fall will be treated to an LSU Tiger team featuring a dynamic attack that looks to fire the squad into contention for honors in 2016.

With two-time All-SEC striker and Canadian international Summer Clarke partnering with First-Team All-SEC and U.S. Under-20 Women's National Team striker Jorian Baucom, LSU's attack boasts a potentially world-class front line that will pack a devastating 1-2 scoring punch for defenses throughout the SEC and NCAA this fall.

Baucom is one of the NCAA's top returning scorers from a year ago when she netted a career-high 15 goals to tie for the No. 15 spot on the NCAA's goal scoring charts for the 2015 season. She was also the SEC's second-leading goal scorer en route to earning First-Team All-SEC honors for the first time in her collegiate career and ending the season as the No. 58-ranked player nationally by TopDrawerSoccer.com.

Baucom again trained with the Under-20 U.S. Women's National Team during the spring season after breaking through with the team for the first time following her freshman season in 2014. She has certainly earned Michelle French's consideration for selection to the U.S. U-20s to play at the 2016 FIFA U-20 Women's World Cup later this year.

Clarke picked up her second Second-Team All-SEC honor in three seasons with the Tigers as one of the league's most feared attacking players a year ago. She followed Baucom as the team's second-leading scorer with seven goals and a career-high five assists and finished the season as the No. 95-ranked player nationally by TopDrawerSoccer.com.

A former Canadian youth international at U-17 level, Clarke got her first call-up to the Canadian Women's National Team at the senior level during the spring while representing her country at the 2016 Algarve Cup in Portugal. Her first international goal for the Maple Leafs was the game-winner in a 1-0 victory over Belgium on March 4.

"You don't win games without scoring goals, and we're excited to have both Jorian and Summer back to spearhead our attack this fall," said LSU head coach Brian Lee. "I don't know if you'll find a more experienced or more dynamic front two in the country than what those two bring to our team. They give us a great foundation on which to build as we develop the support in the other positions around them to really drive us forward this season."

While defenses focused much of their attention on the 1-2 punch of Baucom and Clarke up front during the 2015 season, midfielder Gabriela Maldonado broke through as a dangerous third option in the attack in her rookie season while bagging four goals with three assists. Maldonado was a mainstay in LSU's lineup late in the season as she started each of the last 11 matches in their run to the NCAA Tournament. She made 21 appearances with 16 starts in all for the Tigers in 2015.

A Colombian U-20 international, Maldonado was the catalyst in LSU's run to the SEC Tournament semifinals a year ago as she scored the winner in a pair of 2-1 wins over Kentucky in the first round and No. 2 seed Missouri in the quarterfinals to double her goal total for the season.

Also making an immediate impact in her first season with the program a year ago was former Florida State standout Debbie Hahn, who started all 23 matches as a sophomore with the Tigers while playing mostly as an attacking midfielder. Game-winning goals against Western Kentucky and Missouri proved crucial as the Tigers returned to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2011 as Hahn netted three goals with four assists on the season.

The Class of 2016 should provide immediate depth to LSU's attacking options as former University of Oregon winger Zoe Higgins (Boring, Oregon), 2015 National Junior College Player of the Year Nicole Howard (Rolla, Missouri) of Lewis & Clark Community College and Australian U-17 and U-20 international Caitlin Cantrill (Canberra, Australia) step onto the field in the purple and gold for the first time.

Higgins made 21 appearances over two seasons for the Ducks while playing both as a forward and midfielder. She is no stranger to Lee and his coaching staff as the Tigers traveled to Eugene and brought back a 2-1 season-opening win against Oregon to kick start the 2015 season.

Howard proved to be the top player in the junior college ranks in her two seasons at Lewis and Clark Community College in Godfrey, Illinois, scoring 67 goals and 172 points during the 2014 and 2015 seasons. She was the nation's leading scorer as a sophomore with 40 goals and 20 assists a year ago while guiding her team to the National Junior College Athletics Association Division I National Tournament.

The National Soccer Coaches Association of America honored Howard as the National Junior College Player of the Year following the 2015 season after also rewarding her with a First-Team Junior College All-American selection in the wake of her freshman season in 2014.

Cantrill is one of the top young talents in Australian women's football as a two-year member of Australia's U-17 Women's National Team in 2012 and 2013 and U-20 Women's National Team in 2014. Cantrill was Australia's top goal scorer in the Australian Federation Cup World Cup Qualifying Tournament in her country's qualifying campaign for the 2013 FIFA U-17 Women's World Cup.

Bolstering LSU's attack this fall is junior forward Delaney Sheehan, who will suit up in her final season with the Tigers as she looks to graduate with her degree during the 2015-16 academic year. Fellow letterwinner Chelsea Stiebing also returns, while a host of incoming recruits including Lea Barnes (Bethesda, Maryland), Jade Clarke (Richmond, British Columbia, Canada), Sara Funderburk (Bossier City, Louisiana), Raven Guerrero (San Antonio, Texas), Courtney Henderson (Rogers, Minnesota) and Kassandra Ortega (New Orleans, Louisiana) also look to make a mark in their debut seasons with the program.

THE DEFENSE

Preseason training is a crucial time in the 2016 calendar as head coach Brian Lee and his staff work to form LSU's defense into a cohesive unit that will look to keep opposing teams off the scoresheet this fall.

They will have some experienced hands on deck with the likes of senior leader and former Second-Team All-SEC defender Megan Lee and junior Canadian Under-20 international Jordane Carvery combining in central defense and SEC All-Freshman Team member and U.S. U-20 right back Alex Thomas returning to anchor the team's back line this season.

While earning All-SEC honors as a left back in her career, Lee partnered with Carvery in the middle during the spring season as they built a strong chemistry that is sure to provide a solid foundation throughout the season. Lee has made 53 appearances with 46 starts as a Tiger, and has even scored and assisted seven goals in the attack over three seasons.

A product of the New Zealand Women's National Team system at the U-17 and U-20 levels during her youth career, Lee was called into action with New Zealand's senior squad late in the 2013 season for the first time in her career as she joined the Football Ferns in their two-match series against the FIFA Women's World Cup champion United States.

Lee became just the second LSU Tiger in program history to earn an international cap at the senior level when she featured as a late defensive substitution at left back in New Zealand's 1-1 draw against the United States in their finale at Crew Stadium in Columbus, Ohio.

A native of Richmond Hill, Ontario, Carvery is one of Canada's top young center backs as a veteran of her country's U-17 and U-20 squads. She arrived on campus a season ago after she lined up for the U-20 Canadian Women's National Team at the FIFA U-20 Women's World Cup, and has started all 43 games of her collegiate career with the Tigers in the last two seasons.

Despite signing with the Tigers as a two-time Gatorade Louisiana Player of the Year and one of the top striker recruits in the South in the Class of 2015, Thomas found her place in LSU's lineup as an athletic right back where she started all 23 games in defense in her rookie season and earned a selection to the SEC All-Freshman Team from the league's head coaches.

Her performances even caught the eye of U-20 U.S. Women's National Team head coach Michelle French as Thomas was twice invited to train with the national squad during the spring.

The Tigers also return experience in the form of defensive midfielder Christyna Pitre and central defender and defensive midfielder Ella Williams as they look to earn their place in the rotation in 2016. Pitre returns to action after sitting out the entire 2015 season with a torn ACL as she made 20 appearances as a freshman in 2014. Williams, a former England youth international, has appeared 17 times for the Tigers in her two seasons with the program.

Other options on the back line this fall include a pair of incoming freshmen in Marlena Cutura (Pearl River, Louisiana) and Ellie Weber (Springfield, Virginia).

While the Tigers will be without the services of last year's starting goalkeeper Catalina Rubiano, they return a tremendous amount of experience to the position as Florida State transfer Caroline Brockmeier looks to have the No. 1 spot in the lineup locked up after a strong spring.

Brockmeier was a member of the national championship program at Florida State under head coach Mark Krikorian for two seasons before transferring to LSU in the spring. The No. 1-ranked freshman goalkeeper in college soccer by the goalkeeping website EverybodySoccer.com in 2015, Brockmeier made seven appearances for the back-to-back ACC Champion Seminoles in her redshirt freshman season last fall with a team that made its fifth-straight NCAA Women's College Cup appearance.

The Tallahassee, Florida, native did not allow a goal in her time on the field in 2015 with a hand in seven of Florida State's 15 shutouts last season. She joined the Seminoles as the No. 26-ranked recruit in the country and No. 3-ranked goalkeeper in the Class of 2014 by TopDrawerSoccer.com.

Backing up Brockmeier between the posts will be junior Lily Alfeld and freshman Emma Grace Goldman as they look to battle for the backup spot.

Alfeld, who hails from Christchurch, New Zealand, arrived in Baton Rouge in 2014 as one of the world's top goalkeeper prospects with her performance at the youth level while competing with New Zealand at FIFA Women's World Cups at the U-17 and U-20 levels. In fact, Alfeld was her nation's starting goalkeeper at the 2012 FIFA U-17 Women's World Cup in Azerbaijan and the 2014 FIFA U-20 Women's World Cup in Canada before her arrival.

Among her accolades was being named the "Player of the Match" in New Zealand's first match against Mexico in group play at the 2012 FIFA U-20 Women's World Cup.

After earning seven international caps with New Zealand's U-17 squad, Alfeld served as the starting goalkeeper for the Junior Football Ferns at the U-20 level in 2013 and 2014.

She made 16 appearances with 14 starts in goal for the Tigers in her rookie season as she ended the campaign with four clean sheets and a 1.53 goals against average on the year.

Goldman joined the Tigers in the spring as a midterm enrollee after graduating early from Oakland High School in Murfreesboro, Tennessee, where she was a four-year letterwinner from 2012-15. She was a three-time all-state performer and three-time District 7-3A Goalkeeper of the Year from 2013-15 prior to her arrival in Baton Rouge.

2016 SEC TOURNAMENT

MONDAY-SUNDAY

OCT. 31-NOV. 6

ORANGE BEACH, ALABAMA

ORANGE BEACH SPORTSPLEX

For the fifth year running, the Southeastern Conference Women's Soccer Tournament features a 10-team field after qualifying eight teams in years prior to the league's expansion in 2012. The tournament expanded to 10 teams for the first time in 2012 with the addition of Missouri and Texas A&M to form a powerful 14-team league that only strengthened itself as one of the most powerful conferences in college soccer.

The top 10 teams on the final SEC table for the regular season will make the annual trip to the Orange Beach Sportsplex in Orange Beach, Alabama, for one of the premier conference tournaments in college soccer. The SEC Tournament Championship Game will be featured live on ESPN on Sunday, Nov. 6.

Florida is the defending SEC Tournament Champion after defeating Texas A&M by a narrow 2-1 margin in the championship match a year ago. That completed an SEC Championship sweep for the Gators after they claimed the regular-season title with 25 points in 2015.

2016 NCAA TOURNAMENT

FIRST ROUND: NOV. 11-13

SECOND & THIRD ROUNDS: NOV. 18-20

QUARTERFINALS: NOV. 25-27

WOMEN'S COLLEGE CUP: DEC. 2-4

The NCAA will select 64 teams to compete in the 2016 NCAA Women's Soccer Tournament. There are 31 conferences that will receive one automatic bid into the field of 64 teams. The remaining 33 teams selected for the postseason will receive at-large bids based on their performance during the regular season.

Following the conclusion of the conference tournaments, the first round of the NCAA Tournament is scheduled for Nov. 11-13 at 32 host sites yet to be determined. The second and third rounds will be held the following weekend from Nov. 18-20 at eight undetermined campus sites with four teams competing at each site. The NCAA quarterfinals will then be held Nov. 25-27. The 16th-annual NCAA Women's College Cup will be held in Orlando, Florida, with the semifinals on Friday, Dec. 2, and the championship game on Sunday, Dec. 4 at Orlando City FC Stadium.

This marks the first time in the history of the NCAA Division I Women's College Cup that the event will be held in Orlando at the home of Orlando City FC.

HEAD COACH BRIAN LEE

12TH SEASON

THE VISION

LSU is the sleeping giant of college soccer. My vision for LSU is to build a program that annually contends to win the SEC, qualifies for the NCAA College Cup and competes to win a National Championship. The foundation that we've built has given us that opportunity to recruit and compete at the highest level of college soccer.

THE PHILOSOPHY

I believe in a commitment to excellence from our players, coaches and staff in all facets of the program. We will provide an environment in which our student-athletes can maximize their full potential as students in competition, in the classroom and in the community.

THE BRIAN LEE ERA

When Brian Lee took the reigns of the LSU Soccer program in December 2004, he envisioned a program with the potential to be a perennial contender for the Southeastern Conference championship and an annual participant in the NCAA Tournament. His bold vision to transform LSU Soccer into a nationally-respected program has produced unprecedented results as the Tigers are ready to take to the field again in 2016.

Lee has guided the Tigers into a new era of SEC soccer as NCAA Tournament qualifiers and SEC Tournament semifinalists again in 2015 after winning four SEC Western Division championships and earning four trips to the NCAA Tournament through the 2011 season. That includes an impressive three-year run for the program in 2007, 2008 and 2009 and its return near the top of the SEC table again in 2011. The Tigers have twice advanced to the NCAA Round of 32 in 2007 and 2009.

The Tigers have also proven themselves as perennial contenders for the SEC regular season championship while claiming second place in the final conference standings in 2008, 2009 and 2011 to match their best SEC finish in program history.

Only perennial power Florida has earned more first-place and second-place finishes in the SEC standings more times than LSU over the past 10 seasons as the Gators (9) and Tigers (3) lead the league alongside Texas A&M (3) as the top performing teams in the league.

In Lee's 11 seasons in Baton Rouge, the Tigers have posted a 115-83-37 overall record with a 55-49-19 mark against conference opponents. And since capturing its first SEC West title in 2007, LSU has posted a 48-38-15 record against SEC teams in the regular season, including a school record eight SEC wins in 2009 and 2011.

TIGERS SHINE IN NATIONAL SPOTLIGHT

LSU soared to new heights in 2009 by matching the school wins record with a 15-4-5 overall mark and establishing a new school record with an 8-2-1 mark and 25 points in SEC play. For the second-straight season, the Tigers finished in second place in the final SEC standings and just one point shy of Florida for their first ever SEC Championship. LSU then took a No. 2 seed to the SEC Tournament and advanced to the conference final for the first time in program history.

The Tigers were rewarded for their outstanding performance with a No. 4 national seed in the NCAA Tournament, while serving as a regional host for the first time in team history and advancing to the NCAA Second Round for the second time in three seasons following a first ever appearance in the second round of the postseason in 2007.

Their effort helped land a No. 14 national ranking at the end of the 2009 season in the final Top 25 ranking released by the National Soccer Coaches Association of America. It marked the second year in a row for LSU to finish a campaign as high as No. 14 in the national rankings.

Midfielder Malorie Rutledge was at the center of LSU's emergence into the national spotlight. After being recruited by Lee as part of a heralded Class of 2006, the Sharpsburg, Georgia, product wrapped up her collegiate career in 2009 as the most decorated Tiger to step on the pitch. Rutledge earned consensus All-America accolades in 2008 and 2009, while also being picked as a two-time SEC Offensive Player of the Year and three-time First-Team All-SEC performer during her brilliant career.

Rutledge rewrote the school record books in four seasons in Baton Rouge while setting LSU career records with 46 assists and 102 points from 2006-09. She added 28 goals as the club's most prolific scorer in its 21 years of collegiate competition. Rutledge wrapped up her career with an NCAA-leading 18 assists as a senior in 2009, shattering her own team single-season mark.

While Lee has coached 26 Tigers to 41 All-SEC selections in his 11 seasons, LSU was recognized with a team-best five all-conference selections in 2009.

Joining Rutledge on the All-SEC squad were defender Chelsea Potts (first-team), midfielder Allysha Chapman (second-team), midfielder Melissa Clarke (second-team) and forward Carlie Banks (all-freshman). Both Clarke and Potts ended their collegiate careers in 2009 as three-time All-SEC performers following their senior season.

The Tigers nearly matched that performance in 2011 as they again finished runner-up for the SEC Championship with a 13-8-1 record and their second-best league mark in program history at 8-3 with 24 points on the final SEC table. That earned the Tigers their fourth SEC West title and fourth at-large berth into the NCAA Tournament in a five-year span.

Chapman led the charge for the Tigers in 2011 with her second First-Team All-SEC selection and third All-SEC honor in her collegiate career. She also made history by becoming the first LSU Tiger to be selected the SEC Defensive Player of the Year with her performance as one of the premier defensive talents in all of college soccer.

Five Tigers were again honored as All-SEC selections in 2011 as Chapman was joined on the squad by seniors Taryne Boudreau (first-team) and Natalie Martineau (second-team) and freshmen Alex Arlitt (all-freshman) and Jodi Calloway (all-freshman).

Chapman has since gone on to star for the Canadian Women's National Team during her professional career. She made history in each of the last two summers while becoming the first Tiger to ever play at the FIFA Women's World Cup in Canada in 2015 and the Olympic Games in Brazil in 2016 as Canada's starting left back throughout both tournaments.

LSU Soccer made history once again in 2013 when it became the first team SEC history to feature at least three freshmen on the All-SEC team in a single season with first-team, second-team or honorable mention all-conference honors. Striker Summer Clarke, midfielder Emma Fletcher and defender Megan Lee were each honored as Second-Team All-SEC performers in the wake of outstanding rookie seasons with the Tigers in 2013.

Clarke earned her second career All-SEC honor with a second-team selection in 2015 as she joined with the likes of Jorian Baucom (first-team) and Alex Thomas (all-freshman) in getting the Tigers back in the NCAA Tournament with one of the biggest turnarounds in the country.

Individually, Lee has coached five athletes to All-America honors and nine athletes to Freshman All-America honors in 21 seasons as a head coach. In addition, he has coached four Southern Conference Players of the Year, five Southern Conference Freshmen of the Year and three SEC Players of the Year, while guiding his athletes to a total of 92 all-conference selections since his first season as a head coach in 1994.

Despite finishing in 12th place in the final SEC standings in each of the previous two seasons prior to Lee's arrival in Baton Rouge, LSU Soccer has shown steady progress and continued staying power in their ascent to the top of the SEC as the squad finished in eighth place in 2005 and 2006, fourth place in 2007 and second place in 2008, 2009 and 2011.

The Tigers have also been a staple in the national rankings in recent seasons while cracking the Top 25 nationally in all major polls. LSU has climbed as high as No. 9 in 2008, No. 10 in 2009, No. 18 in 2010, No. 14 in 2011, No. 25 in 2013 and No. 24 in 2015 in the rankings.

TIGERS BATTLE NATION'S ELITE

Lee and his dedicated coaching staff have built a program with the ability to compete with anyone in women's college soccer. That was never more evident than in 2007 when LSU battled No. 4-ranked Texas to a 2-2 draw on the road in Austin and dominated No. 6-ranked Tennessee by a 3-0 margin at home for the program's first victory against an opponent ranked as one of the Top 10 teams in the country.

The Tigers were impressive again in 2009 when they earned a pair of shutout wins versus teams in the Top 10 of the polls with a 6-0 blanking of No. 8-ranked Georgia and a 1-0 shutout of No. 10-ranked South Carolina in a pair of matches played at the LSU Soccer Stadium. The Tigers and Gamecocks then battled to a 1-1 draw in the SEC Tournament final during the 2009 season as South Carolina took the tournament title with a marathon 8-7 decision in penalty kicks.

In 2011, LSU Soccer earned its fourth at-large NCAA Tournament berth in five seasons on the strength of a resume that featured a pair of shutout wins over No. 10 Tennessee and No. 11 Florida in conference play en route to a third runner-up finish in the final SEC standings.

With the Volunteers bringing a Top 10 national ranking to Baton Rouge for the second time in three seasons, the Tigers were dominant in a 2-0 shutout to extend their unbeaten streak to four-straight in the series. The Tigers then made history with a trip to Gainesville, Florida, on Oct. 23 of the 2011 season as they pitched a 1-0 shutout for their first victory over the powerful Gators and hand Florida only its fourth defeat in SEC play at Pressly Stadium in its history.

The Tigers have since earned a pair of wins over nationally-ranked opponents in their inaugural meeting on the pitch in recent seasons with a 3-1 road triumph over 16th-ranked Missouri for their signature win of 2012 and a 1-0 shutout of 13th-ranked Southern California in a match played at a neutral site at the Minnesota Gold Classic in 2013.

LSU's NCAA Tournament qualification in 2015 was solidified with a signature win over 15th-ranked Duke as the Tigers blanked the Blue Devils, 1-0, in Baton Rouge during the non-conference season. Duke recovered to finish as the NCAA runner-up at the NCAA Women's College Cup in December 2015, falling to Penn State, 1-0, in the national championship match.

The Tigers have more than proven themselves as an elite program during Lee's 10 seasons in Baton Rouge as they have now scored nine wins and 10 draws against nationally-ranked teams since the 2007 season.

LSU SOCCER: A BOX OFFICE SMASH

Lee's impact has not only been felt with unprecedented results on the field, but also at the box office as record crowds have packed the LSU Soccer Stadium week in and week out to watch the Tigers in action since his arrival in Baton Rouge.

The 2011 season witnessed the birth of a new era of LSU Soccer as the Tigers christened the new LSU Soccer Stadium on the night of Sept. 9 with a dramatic 1-0 shutout of the Oregon Ducks before a record crowd of 2,542 supporters on hand for the festivities. It proved a fitting end to a night of celebration of one of the top rising programs in all of college soccer as the squad opened a stadium that stands as one of the true jewels of the Southeastern Conference.

The Tigers wrapped up the 2011 campaign ranked among the Top 20 teams nationwide in average attendance while drawing an average of 1,174 fans in their nine matches played at the new LSU Soccer Stadium to stand as the NCAA's No. 17-ranked program at the box office.

They then raised their attendance record again in 2012 when 2,624 supporters witnessed a 1-1 draw with the visiting Rice Owls in their home opener on Aug. 24.

The 2007 season proved to be unlike any other in the history of the program as the Tigers were unbeaten at the LSU Soccer Stadium for the first time with a 5-0-3 record while drawing an average of 1,294 fans per match. That ranked LSU Soccer among the Top 10 teams in the country in average attendance for the first time as the team finished the season at No. 7 in the NCAA with average paid attendance. The Tigers set three single-game attendance records on the season which includes a crowd of 2,402 for its 3-0 win over No. 6 Tennessee on Oct. 5, 2007.

LSU Soccer has proven formidable on its home turf while following an unbeaten season in 2007 at 8-1 in 2008, 7-1-2 in 2009, 6-1-2 in 2010 and 7-1-1 in 2011. The Tigers are coming off their second unbeaten season at home in team history as they were 8-0-4 in 12 matches played on their home turf at the LSU Soccer Stadium in 2015.

TIGERS LEAD BY EXAMPLE

Not only have the Tigers proven to be one of the SEC's top programs with their effort on the field in 11 seasons under Lee's direction, but they have also taken great pride in their performance off the field as they are the University leaders in community service each season as winners of four-straight Tiger Cups from 2009-12.

The Tiger Cup is presented each season by the Tiger Athletic Foundation as part of the annual TAF Academic Excellence Gala to the athletic program that best represents the University with its performance on and off the field. The winner of the Tiger Cup is determined using a point system based on a team's final conference and national ranking, cumulative team grade-point average and community service hours accumulated during the previous academic year.

Lee's athletes boast a proven track record in the classroom as his teams have earned 10 NSCAA Team Academic Awards. A total of 122 student-athletes were selected to the Southern Conference Academic Honor Roll in his 11 years at Furman, while 137 Tigers have been named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll in his 11 seasons in Baton Rouge.

LSU Soccer actually set a program record following the 2015 season with 17 selections to the SEC Fall Academic Honor Roll a year ago, eclipsing the team's previous record of 14 SEC honor roll selections three times in 2011, 2013 and 2014.

LEE BRINGS PROVEN TRACK RECORD TO TIGERS

Winning conference titles and leading a nationally-prominent program are nothing new for the native of Cheltenham, England, who led the Furman Lady Paladins to six Southern Conference Championships and four NCAA Tournament appearances during his 11-year tenure after starting the program from scratch in 1994.

In 11 seasons, Lee's teams amassed a 144-80-10 overall record, including an impressive 76-16-3 mark in conference play. The Lady Paladins went undefeated in conference play three times (1999, 2000, 2002) and were just shy of perfection in 2003 after finishing the season with a 10-0-1 record in Southern Conference play.

For his many accomplishments, Lee was named the Southern Conference Coach of the Year five times and was named the NSCAA and Soccer Buzz Southeast Region Coach of the Year in 1999, the same year in which he was selected as a finalist for the NSCAA National Coach of the Year Award.

In addition to his experience coaching at the collegiate level, Lee served on the staff of the Region III Olympic Development Program Team from 1999-2008, while reaching the rank of assistant coach of the Region III ODP Team in 2006.

In 2014, Lee rejoined the coaching staff for the Region III ODP Team as the head coach of the Under-15 age group.

A successful athlete in his own right, Lee earned four letters with the Furman men's soccer team from 1989-92 as an integral part of three Southern Conference titles and was voted team captain and selected as the team's Most Valuable Player as a senior. He also led his team to its first ever NCAA Tournament appearance and a berth in the NCAA Sweet 16 in 1991.

Lee, 44, graduated from Furman in 1993 with a bachelor's degree in political science. He and his wife, the former Nancy Repsher of Westboro, Massachusetts, and also a 1993 graduate of Furman University, have two children – Aidan, 12, and Abby, 11.

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH DEBBIE HENSLEY

11TH SEASON

COACH LEE ON HENSLEY:

"We certainly would not enjoy the kind of success we do now without the leadership that Debbie brings to this coaching staff. She is an outstanding leader of young women, and she has helped us attract many of the best players in the country to LSU with her tremendous recruiting ability. Her passion for the sport is unmatched by anyone I've ever worked with."

There is no doubt that in order for a program to compete for championships year in and year out, it must have an outstanding coaching staff in place to guide the way. In 10 seasons as a member of Brian Lee's staff at LSU, Debbie Hensley has more than proven herself as one of the top assistant coaches in the country while helping lead the Tigers into national prominence as one of the premier programs in the Southeastern Conference.

It is for that reason that Hensley was promoted to the rank of associate head coach before the start of the 2008 campaign as she now enters her 11th season at LSU.

Adding Hensley to his staff was an easy decision for Lee when he took the head coaching position in December 2004 after coaching together at Furman for three years.

"We certainly would not enjoy the kind of success we do now without the leadership that Debbie brings to this coaching staff," Lee said. "She is an outstanding leader of young women, and she has helped us attract many of the best players in the country to LSU with her tremendous recruiting ability. Her passion for the sport is unmatched by anyone I've ever worked with."

That passion has certainly paid dividends on the field as Hensley has helped build LSU into the championship-contending program it is today. In this new era of SEC soccer, the club has proven itself among the league's elite since winning its first SEC Western Division championship in 2007. LSU claimed four division titles and made four trips to the NCAA Tournament in a five-year span during the 2007, 2008, 2009 and 2011 seasons.

LSU has also been on the cusp of claiming its first ever SEC Championship with a trio of second-place finishes on the league table during that time. It includes a record-breaking 2009 season during which the Tigers finished in second place in the final conference standings for the second year in a row while tying their school record for wins with a 15-4-5 overall record and establishing a school record output with an 8-2-1 mark and 25 points in SEC play. LSU was close to matching that effort in 2011 as the SEC runner-up again with an 8-3 conference record.

In 2010, the Tigers advanced to the SEC Tournament semifinal for the fourth season in a row, joining the Florida Gators as the only programs in the SEC to advance to the semifinal round of the conference tourney in each season from 2007-10.

Hensley has been a driving force in that success as she has established a reputation as one of the nation's top recruiters attracting many of the best players in the country to Baton Rouge.

She led the way in LSU signing its first ever Top 25 recruiting class in 2005 as the Tigers were ranked No. 25 on the recruiting trail in her first season on staff. Hensley followed that effort in 2006 by helping Lee sign the first Top 10 recruiting class in the program's history with a crop of future stars ranked No. 7 nationally in the Soccer Buzz Magazine recruiting rankings.

The Class of 2006 is the most decorated class in the history of the LSU Soccer program as it completed its eligibility in 2009 with a class record of 50 wins in four seasons from 2006-09. The group captured three SEC West titles, earned three NCAA Tournament selections, placed No. 2 in the final SEC standings twice and combined for 10 All-America and 12 All-SEC picks in four seasons in Baton Rouge.

A foundation is in place for the Tigers to compete at the highest level of college soccer for years to come after welcoming three-straight recruiting classes to Baton Rouge for the 2012, 2013 and 2014 seasons that were all rated among the Top 15 nationally on National Signing Day.

The Tigers will line up with an international flair in 2015 as this year's squad features 12 players with international experience as products of the Women's National Team systems in Canada, Colombia, England, Mexico, New Zealand, Panama and the United States.

"There's no doubt that recruiting is the lifeblood of any program at this level, and we are certainly fortunate to have someone like Debbie leading our recruiting efforts," Lee said. "She is an outstanding evaluator of talent and has the ability to target the players we feel can thrive in our program both on and off the field. That's been a key in building the foundation we have now."

Hensley compiled a 60-52-9 record in six years at Western Carolina after starting the program from scratch prior to the 1999 season. She led the Catamounts to a 10-9-1 record and a Southern Conference Tournament appearance in her inaugural season and was named the SoCon Coach of the Year in 2001 after guiding the team to the Southern Conference regular season title with a 16-6 overall record and 8-2 mark in league play.

Hensley coached seven players to 11 All-Southern Conference honors in her time at Western Carolina, a total that includes three first-team selections. In addition to her duties as head coach of the program, Hensley also served as university's Assistant Athletics Director and Senior Woman Administrator.

Prior to her stint at WCU, Hensley spent three seasons as an assistant coach under Lee at Furman where she recruited eight players who earned all-conference accolades in their careers.

Along with her coaching achievements, Hensley garnered recognition during her athletic career as a soccer and softball standout at Georgia Southern where she was a three-time first-team All-SoCon selection and led the conference in scoring as both a junior and a senior.

Hensley was selected to play in the Umbro Select College All-Star Classic after being named an NSCAA Regional All-American and All-Region honoree in 1995, and she was named the Georgia Female College Athlete of the Year by the Georgia Hall of Fame the same year.

The two-sport standout was also a first-team all-conference selection in softball as she set the Georgia Southern career record for stolen bases and runs scored. She graduated with a bachelor's degree in education from Georgia Southern in 1996 and a master's degree in health and exercise science from Furman in 1998.

ASSISTANT COACH CARL GOODY 2ND SEASON

COACH LEE ON GOODY:

"Carl was the first name off the tongue of some of the best coaches in the country when I went on the search for a top-notch goalkeeper coach. He has proven in his time with us that he possesses all of the qualities needed to excel at this level, and we're excited that he continues working with us as a full-time assistant this season. His experience at William Carey with some outstanding teams and coaches, and his time with us these last two years shows that he's a perfect fit for our program and what we want to achieve at LSU"

LSU Soccer head coach Brian Lee announced on July 31, 2014, the addition of William Carey University men's and women's assistant and goalkeepers coach Carl Goody to his staff as a volunteer assistant coach. After serving one season as an assistant to Lee as the team's goalkeepers coach, Goody was appointed a full-time member of the staff as an assistant coach ahead of the start of the 2015 season last August, and now enters his second season in the position in 2016.

Among Goody's primary responsibilities with the Tigers is molding a young defensive unit while coaching the team's goalkeepers and assisting with all other day-to-day duties with the program.

"Carl was the first name off the tongue of some of the best coaches in the country when I went on the search for a top-notch goalkeeper coach," Lee said when Goody first joined the program. "He has proven in his time with us that he possesses all of the qualities needed to excel at this level, and we're excited that he continues working with us as a full-time assistant this season."

"His experience at William Carey with some outstanding teams and coaches, and his time with us these last two years shows that he's a perfect fit for our program and what we want to achieve at LSU."

The Tigers enjoyed one of the greatest turnarounds of any program in the country in Goody's first season as an assistant coach as they followed their run to the SEC Tournament semifinals with an appearance in the NCAA Division I Women's Soccer Tournament for the fifth time in program history. In 2015, the Tigers peaked at No. 24 in the national rankings while finishing the season with a 13-6-4 overall record and a 5-4-2 mark for seventh place in SEC play.

They snapped a four-year drought with their first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2011, and fifth in program history after also appearing in three-straight seasons in 2007, 2008 and 2009.

Goody served as an assistant and goalkeepers coach with both the men's and women's programs at William Carey University in Hattiesburg, Mississippi, for two seasons in 2012 and 2013.

As a member of the staff, the WCU women were the undefeated champions of the Southern States Athletic Conference in 2013, posting a perfect 11-0 record in SSAC play. The squad also advanced to the Sweet 16 of the NAIA National Tournament while wrapping up the season with an impressive 18-5 overall mark in 2013.

The WCU women were led by an outstanding defense that featured two-time First-Team All-SSAC and two-time NAIA All-American goalkeeper Linfah Jones. Goody also coached Jones to SSAC Freshman of the Year honors in 2012 and a pair of SSAC Defensive Player of the Week awards in his two seasons on staff at William Carey University.

The WCU men featured an All-SSAC goalkeeper of their own as Goody also coached Charlie Laridan to a Second-Team All-SSAC selection and a pair of SSAC Defensive Player of the Week awards during the 2013 season.

While working with the men's and women's programs at WCU, Goody also served as Director of Goalkeeping with the Hattiesburg Youth Soccer Association for two seasons.

An accomplished goalkeeper in his own right, Goody followed his All-American collegiate career at William Carey as a trialist with Doncaster Rovers formerly of the English Sky Bet Championship division and as a training member with DC United of Major League Soccer in 2012. He was also the team captain and Player of the Year with the Gulf Coast Texans of the National Premier Soccer League during their 2013 campaign.

Goody wrapped up his collegiate career as First-Team NAIA All-American and First-Team All-SSAC and SSAC All-Tournament Team selection during his senior season in 2011. He set WCU's single-season school record with 12 clean sheets while leading the squad to the NAIA Final Four in the NAIA National Tournament in 2011. It was a senior season highlighted by a streak of eight-straight clean sheets during his final season at WCU.

"I want to thank Coach (Brian) Lee for giving me the opportunity to coach at such a prestigious school like LSU," Goody said. "I'm honored to be a part of this soccer program and am looking forward to working with LSU's goalkeepers and competing at the highest level in the SEC and NCAA."

Goody has earned two degrees from William Carey University with a Bachelor of Science in Health and Physical Education with a minor in business and a Master of Science in Counseling Psychology. In addition, he has a U.S. Soccer Federation "D" Certificate, National Soccer Coaches Association of America National Diploma and Advanced National Goalkeeping Diploma, and is also FA Level 1 certified.

DIRECTOR OF SOCCER OPERATIONS LAURA LAMBERT

3RD SEASON

Head coach Brian Lee and his staff announced the hiring of former East Tennessee State University graduate assistant women's coach Laura Lamberth as the LSU Soccer program's first full-time Director of Soccer Operations on Feb. 17, 2014, at the start of its spring training campaign. Lamberth now enters her third season with the program as the team's Director of Soccer Operations.

Lamberth joined the LSU Soccer program after serving two seasons as a Graduate Assistant Women's Soccer Coach at East Tennessee State in 2012 and 2013.

While serving as LSU's Director of Soccer Operations, Lamberth boasts an impressive background as a young coach as she was a coaching staff intern at Middle Tennessee State University in 2011 and head coach of the Under-10, Under-11 and Under-12 girls teams with the Murfreesboro Soccer Club from 2011-12.

"We received a tremendous amount of interest in the position from across the country. It was only after an exhaustive search that Laura emerged as the best candidate for our staff and our program," Lee said of Lamberth's hiring last year. "Laura had an outpouring of support from a number of coaches I have a great amount of respect for and have known for a long time.

"We're excited that she is a part of our LSU Soccer family as our first full-time director of Soccer Operations and the impact she has had and will continue to have on our program in the future."

An experienced player in her own right, Lamberth was a four-year member of the women's program at Middle Tennessee State from 2008-11 where she helped lead the team to the Sun Belt Conference Tournament Championship and NCAA Tournament berth during the 2010 campaign. She was also honored for her academic performance while attending Middle Tennessee State as a member of the Chi Alpha Sigma Honor Society and a four-year member of the Sun Belt Commissioner's List from 2008-11.

Lamberth graduated from Middle Tennessee State in just three and a half years in December 2011 with her Bachelor of Science degree in health and human performance. She then maintained an impressive 4.0 grade-point average while graduating from East Tennessee State in December 2013 with a master's degree in kinesiology and sport studies with a concentration in sport management.

Following her playing career at Middle Tennessee State, Lamberth earned her U.S. Soccer Federation National "B" License and USSF National Goalkeeping License. She is also a certified member of CoachesNet and the National Soccer Coaches Association of America.

TIGERS RETURN TO NCAA TOURNAMENT FOR FIFTH TIME

LSU capitalized on a strong finish to the 2015 regular season and a run to the SEC Tournament semifinals to earn a return trip to the NCAA Division I Women's Soccer Tournament for the fifth time in program history and first time since the 2011 season. The Tigers lost only one of their last seven regular-season matches while taking a 4-1-2 run into SEC Tournament play where they scored a pair of 2-1 wins over No. 10 seed Kentucky in the first round and No. 2 seed and SEC runner-up Missouri in the quarterfinals to solidify their at-large berth into the NCAA Tournament. Their season came to an end with a 4-0 defeat to South Alabama in their first-round match in Mobile as the Tigers posted a 13-6-4 mark in 23 matches played on the season. It marked their fifth NCAA Tournament appearance in 11 seasons under head coach Brian Lee while snapping a three-year drought without a postseason berth since the 2011 campaign.

FRESHMEN FIRE TIGERS INTO SEC SEMIFINALS

Two members of LSU's freshman class showed the form of seasoned veterans late in the 2015 season as forward Gabriela Maldonado and defender Alex Thomas fired the Tigers into the SEC Tournament semifinals with a pair of 2-1 wins over No. 10 seed Kentucky and No. 2 seed Missouri in their first two matches at the Orange Beach (Ala.) Sportsplex. Maldonado doubled her goal output for the season while scoring the game-winning goal in each of LSU's tournament victories as she found the back of the net from a corner kick in the 54th minute against Kentucky in the first round before netting LSU's second goal in the 18th minute of the first half against Missouri in the quarterfinals. Maldonado finished her rookie season with a total of four goals in 21 appearances on the year. Thomas, who started all 23 matches in defense as LSU's first-choice right back, got the Tigers off the mark in their quarterfinal match with Missouri as she netted her second goal of the fall. Thomas was actually voted by the league's 14 head coaches to the SEC All-Freshman Team as one of top young talents in the SEC throughout the campaign.

TIGER TRIO EARNS ALL-SEC HONORS IN POSTSEASON

Three Tigers were honored by the league's head coaches as members of the 2015 All-SEC teams as strikers Jorian Baucom and Summer Clarke and defender Alex Thomas were among those announced in the SEC's postseason awards prior to the start of the SEC Tournament. Baucom became the seventh player in program history to earn First-Team All-SEC honors and the first since Canadian World Cup star Allysha Chapman in 2011, while Clarke earned a Second-Team All-SEC selection for a second time in her career and Thomas was included on the SEC All-Freshman Team after a strong rookie season. With their announcement, it marks the 12th-straight season since 2004 in which at least one LSU Tiger has been honored as an All-SEC performer as either a first-team, second-team or all-freshman selection.

Gabriela Maldonado & Jorian Baucom

ARLITT DRAFTED BY NWSL CHAMPIONS FC KANSAS CITY

Senior team captain Alex Arlitt was among the 40 players selected in the 2016 National Women's Soccer League College Draft held Jan. 15 in conjunction with the National Soccer Coaches Association of America Convention in Baltimore as she was chosen by back-to-back NWSL Champion FC Kansas City with the eighth pick of the fourth round. Arlitt, who captained the Tigers back to the NCAA Tournament during her senior season in 2015, was the 38th pick overall in this year's draft and the fourth player chosen in four rounds by FC Kansas City. With her selection, Arlitt became the third LSU Tiger in history to be selected in the major professional draft in the United States after two standouts were chosen in the former Women's Professional Soccer Draft back in 2010. All-American Malorie Rutledge was selected 13th overall by the Philadelphia Independence with their second pick of the second round and All-SEC standout Melissa Clarke was chosen 29th overall by Sky Blue FC of New York with its ninth pick of the third round that season.

CLARKE SCORES WINNER IN CANADIAN SENIOR DEBUT

Summer Clarke's full senior debut with the Canadian Women's National Team on March 4 was certainly one to remember as she stepped onto the field as a 70th-minute substitute in place of Gabrielle Carle in the attack and scored the winner in the dying minutes in Canada's 1-0 win over Belgium at the Algarve Cup in Portugal. Clarke earned her first international cap and scored her first senior goal for Canada while breaking the deadlock in the 89th minute to hand her country its first win in the tournament. A native of Richmond, British Columbia, Clarke earned a call up to Canada's senior squad in the spring on the strength of her second All-SEC campaign in three seasons with the Tigers in 2015. She was LSU's No. 2 scorer in the fall with seven goals and five assists on the campaign.

BAUCOM, THOMAS TRAIN WITH U-20 U.S. NATIONAL TEAM

Also being called into national team duty following a successful 2015 season were Jorian Baucom and Alex Thomas as both spent time with the Under-20 U.S. Women's National Team in training camps throughout the spring. After emerging as one of the top young right backs in college soccer during a decorated freshman season, Thomas was called up by head coach Michelle French for a week-long training camp in January at the U.S. Soccer National Training Center in Carson, California. One of the top high school strikers in the South during her prep career at Ben Franklin High School in New Orleans, Thomas had never played in defense before her arrival in Baton Rouge, but made the right back position her own while starting all 23 matches on the year. Baucom returned to training with the U.S. U-20s once again in March as part of the team's camp in Lakewood Ranch, Florida.

GOMEZ-JUNCO'S FREE KICK MAKES SPORTSCENTER TOP 10

Midfielder Natalia Gomez-Junco earned a reputation as one of the most lethal free-kick takers in all of college soccer during her senior season in 2015 while scoring three of her five goals from set-piece opportunities. It was her game-tying free kick in the 69th minute in a 4-3 home victory over Georgia that earned her national acclaim as she featured with the No.

Catalina Rubiano

8 Play of the Day on ESPN SportsCenter's Top Plays segment on the night of Sept. 17. Lining up 25 yards from goal beyond the right side of the penalty area, Gomez-Junco curled her free kick with the outside of her right boot and inside the right post to draw the Tigers level in the match. She later scored the game-winner in the 79th minute with a volley from the top of the box to give the Tigers their first win in SEC play with a 4-3 win against the Bulldogs.

RUBIANO'S SAVE ALSO FEATURES ON SPORTSCENTER TOP 10

The Tigers made their return to SportsCenter's Top 10 Plays for the second time during the 2015 season following their 1-0 road win at Arkansas on Oct. 15 when senior goalkeeper Catalina Rubiano's diving save in the first half was also the No. 8 Play of the Day. With the Tigers already leading the match, 1-0, thanks to a 17th-minute opener by Jorian Baucom, Rubiano kept LSU in the lead near halftime when she dove high and to her right at full extension to tip a Razorback volley from outside the box out of play for a corner kick. Rubiano made six saves on the night to post her fifth clean sheet of the season and earn SEC Defensive Player of the Week honors for her performance. Rubiano capped her final season with the Tigers by starting all 23 matches for an NCAA Tournament team that finished the season with a 13-6-4 overall record. She posted a career-best 1.21 goals against average in 2015.

TIGERS BLANK NCAA RUNNER-UP BLUE DEVILS, 1-0

LSU scored its signature win of the 2015 season on the afternoon of Sunday, Sept. 13, when it welcomed ACC power Duke to Baton Rouge for a non-conference clash on the eve of SEC play. After having a penalty kick saved earlier in the match, sophomore All-SEC striker Jorian Baucom stepped back up to the spot and buried a second PK opportunity in the 74th minute to give the Tigers a 1-0 lead late in the match. LSU's defense stood strong while holding the 15th-ranked Blue Devils to one of their lowest offensive outputs of the season with 13 shots and just five shots on goal in 90 minutes. Duke proved to be one of the top teams in college soccer throughout the 2015 season while appearing in the NCAA Championship Match at the NCAA Women's College Cup in early December. The Blue Devils finished as the NCAA runners-up with a 1-0 defeat to national champion Penn State in the national final. LSU's victory over Duke was certainly one of the resume wins that earned the Tigers a return trip to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2011.

TIGERS SET PROGRAM RECORD WITH 17 ON SEC HONOR ROLL

LSU smashed its previous program record of 14 SEC Academic Honor Roll selections when the Southeastern Conference office announced that 17 Tigers have been honored with honor roll selections for their academic performance during the 2015 spring, summer and fall semesters. Headlining the team's 17 honor roll selections was senior team captain Natalia Gomez-Junco, who was also named a Second-Team Academic All-South Region performer by the National Soccer Coaches Association of America for the 2015 season.

Natalia Gomez-Junco

Gomez-Junco finished her collegiate career as a two-time SEC Academic Honor Roll selection. Other repeat selections to the SEC Academic Honor Roll were fellow senior team captain Alex Arlitt with her fourth career appearance; seniors Gracie Campbell, Heather Magee, Mariel McLaughlin and Fernanda Pina with their third career selections; and senior Catalina Rubiano, juniors Summer Clarke and Megan Lee and sophomore Madeline Ramsey with their second career selections. Senior Emma Meckfessel; sophomores Lily Alfeld, Jorian Baucom, Christyna Pitre, Delaney Sheehan and Ella Williams; and redshirt freshman Chelsea Stiebing were honored as honor roll selections for the first time.

LSU RECEIVES NSCAA ACADEMIC AWARD ONCE AGAIN

Members of the LSU Soccer program were also honored by the National Soccer Coaches Association of America for their academic performance by earning the NSCAA Team Academic Award while maintaining a strong 3.33 cumulative team GPA for the 2014-15 academic year. The Tigers were among 554 women's programs nationwide to finish the year with at least a cumulative team GPA of 3.0 or higher in 2014-15. The NSCAA's selection included 11 of the 14 squads in the SEC as the Tigers joined the likes of Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Mississippi State, Ole Miss, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas A&M and Vanderbilt. It marked the fourth year in a row that the Tigers won the NSCAA Team Academic Award after also maintaining a 3.21 cumulative GPA for 2011-12, 3.05 GPA for 2012-13 and 3.35 GPA for 2013-14.

CHAPMAN NAMED TO CANADA'S OLYMPIC TEAM

Allysha Chapman made history a year ago as the first LSU Tiger to play at the FIFA Women's World Cup, and she made history once again in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, this summer as the program's first Olympian after being named by head coach John Herdman to Canada's 18-player squad for the 2016 Olympic Games. The Canadian Olympic Committee announced the 18 athletes nominated to represent their nation in the women's soccer competition at the Olympic Games on June 27 with Chapman among those selected to play. The Canadian Women's National Team qualified for the Rio Olympics at the 2016 Confederation of North, Central American & Caribbean Association Football Qualifying Championship in February to which Chapman had a key role in her country earning its third-straight Olympics appearance. She was named to the CONCACAF Women's Olympic Qualifying Best XI Team as one of the top players in the qualification tournament.

NOTE: From 1993-99, the winner of the SEC Tournament was declared the SEC Champion. Beginning with the 1995 SEC Tournament, the champion would receive the SEC's NCAA Tournament automatic selection. The SEC went to a divisional format in soccer in 1995 and began awarding divisional champions.

Chapman Makes World Cup History for Tigers

Allysha Chapman's dream of representing her native Canada in a World Cup came true when the former LSU Soccer standout was named to head coach John Herdman's 23-player squad wearing the Maple Leaf at the 2015 FIFA Women's World Cup in the team announcement in Montreal on April 28.

Canada served as the host nation of the 2015 FIFA Women's World Cup this summer as the event was played over a month across the provinces from June 6-July 5.

LSU Tigers have littered the national team rosters of such nations as the United States, Canada, Colombia, England, Mexico and New Zealand while competing in various age group World Cups over the past decade, but Chapman made history as the first LSU Soccer star to feature at the highest level of women's soccer worldwide at the FIFA Women's World Cup.

Herdman named Chapman among the 23 players making up the Canadian Women's National Team roster kicking off the tournament against China PR in the opening group stage match for the 2015 FIFA Women's World Cup in Edmonton, Alberta, on June 6.

CHAPMAN ENJOYS QUICK RISE IN CANADIAN RANKS

Chapman burst onto the scene as one of the first names on John Herdman's team sheet for the Canadian Women's National Team since making her full international debut with the squad last fall back on Oct. 25, 2014, in a friendly match against 2011 World Cup Champion Japan.

"Chappy" has gone on to earn 17 international caps with 15 starts for Canada at the senior level in that time while leading the defense as the team's starting left back. Her time at the top has been highlighted by scoring her first international goal with the winner in the 51st minute for a 1-0 win over Italy in the semifinal round of the 2015 Cypress Women's Cup back on March 10.

A three-time All-SEC performer and the 2011 SEC Defensive Player of the Year during her collegiate career, Chapman's professional career has taken off after playing her final season with the Tigers in the fall of 2011. She was recently added to the Houston Dash's squad in the National Women's Soccer League as an allocated national team player from her former club team Eskilstuna United DFF in Sweden where she had played previously.

Before reigniting her international career at the senior level, Chapman was a two-year member of Canada's Under-20 Women's National Team, even appearing at the 2008 FIFA U-20 Women's World Cup in Chile during her youth career.

CHAPMAN LEADS DEFENSIVE CANADA TO TOP OF GROUP A

Chapman helped anchor a Canadian back line that conceded just one goal to its opponents in three group stage matches as the home nation advanced to the knockout rounds at the 2015 FIFA Women's World Cup with a 1-1 draw against The Netherlands in their third and final group match held on June 16 at Olympic Stadium in Montreal.

Canada finished atop Group A with five points while also blanking China, 1-0, in the opening match of the tournament on June 6 and playing New Zealand to a 0-0 draw on June 11 to finish on five points.

China and The Netherlands followed Canada in a tie for second place in the group with four points apiece as the People's Republic secured automatic qualification into the Round of 16 with its head-to-head win with a 1-0 victory in the second round of group matches. As the third-place finishers in Group A, the Dutch also advanced to the knockouts with their overall number of points accumulated and goal difference compared to the third-place finishers in other groups.

New Zealand was eliminated from the tournament after securing just two points in their three matches with draws against Canada and China in the group stage.

CANADA ADVANCES TO WORLD CUP QUARTERFINALS

Thanks to Josée Bélanger's goal in the 52nd minute and Chapman leading a dogged defensive display from the hosts, Canada advanced to the quarterfinals of the 2015 FIFA Women's World Cup with a 1-0 shutout of Switzerland in their Round of 16 match at BC Place Stadium in Vancouver on June 21.

With 53,885 supporters on hand at BC Place Stadium – a record crowd for a Canadian men's and women's national team in any sport – Canada earned its place in the World Cup quarterfinals for the first time since 2003 while competing in the knockout rounds for just the second time in six appearances all-time in the tournament.

Following a first half in which both teams failed to find a breakthrough, Bélanger scored the goal that proved to be the winner when she swept home Christine Sinclair's entry from the penalty spot.

With Sinclair crossing a clearance by the Swiss defense back into the area, Bélanger curled a left-footed effort beyond the reach of Swiss goalkeeper Gaëlle Thalmann and inside the left post to break the deadlock with her first goal for the Canadian senior squad in nearly five years. Bélanger nearly added a second goal late on when she had another shot cleared off the line in the final minutes.

Canada advanced to the quarterfinals where they returned to BC Place Stadium on June 27 to go up against England for the right to advance to the semifinal round.

CHAPMAN, CANADA FALL IN WORLD CUP QUARTERFINAL

Star striker Christine Sinclair pulled a goal back before halftime when she stabbed home a mishandled save by England goalkeeper Karen Bardsley in the 42nd minute, but that was not enough to send the hosts into the semifinals at this year's FIFA Women's World Cup when Canada fell to England, 2-1, in their quarterfinal match in Vancouver.

A quick-fire double from Jodie Taylor in the 11th minute and Lucy Bronze in the 14th minute was enough to send the Lionesses into the World Cup semifinals for the first time in their history.

With Chapman anchoring a Canadian back line surrendering just one goal in four matches going into their match against England, the hosts were confident for a return to the tournament semifinals for the first time since 2003 when Canada earned its best finish of third place.

Not even the 54,027 fans in attendance at Vancouver's BC Place Stadium could inspire their Maple Leafs to a second-half comeback as Canada pressured late but fell short of a place in the semifinal round to face defending champion Japan. England advanced, but fell to Japan before finishing a nation's-best third place with a 1-0 win over Germany in the Third Place Game.

Chapman locked down the left back spot for Canada throughout this year's FIFA Women's World Cup as she started and played the full 90 minutes in each of the team's five matches through the quarterfinal round.

THE HERMANN TROPHY

MALORIE
RUTLEDGE

'08-'09 HERMANN TROPHY
CANDIDATE

- 3-time All-American
- 2-time SEC Offensive Player of the Year
- 3-time First-Team All-SEC Selection
- 3-time NSCAA/adidas All-Region Selection
- U-23 U.S. Women's National Team Player Pool
- 2010 WPS Draft (13th Overall Pick by Philadelphia Independence)

Each year, the Heisman Trophy Trust presents the famed Heisman Trophy to the most outstanding college football player in the country. In the sport of college soccer, athletes from across the country compete each season for the right to raise the Hermann Trophy as the premier soccer player in the NCAA as presented by the Missouri Athletic Club in St. Louis.

Considered the highest honor in intercollegiate soccer, the recipient of the Hermann Trophy is selected each year by Division I head coaches who are certified members of the National Soccer Coaches Association of America. After releasing the Hermann Trophy Watch List each preseason, the field is then cut to 15 semifinalists in November before three finalists are named prior to the NCAA Women's College Cup in early December.

The LSU Soccer program has been represented on the Hermann Trophy Watch List twice in its history as former Tiger All-American Malorie Rutledge was recognized as one of the top players in the country by the Missouri Athletic Club. While Rutledge never made the cut as one of the award's 15 semifinalists, she certainly earned a reputation as being one of the elite talents in all of college soccer with a brilliant four-year career from 2006-09.

CAMPUS LIFE

LSU's Memorial Tower (top main photo) was one of the first structures completed on the present campus and sits east of the quadrangle (above, left). It represents the University as a memorial to those who gave their lives during World War I. Although it currently houses the LSU Anglo-American Art Museum, plans are in process to return Memorial Tower to a military museum as originally intended. Students often enjoy concerts on the LSU Parade Ground (above, right).

Louisiana State University and Agricultural & Mechanical College has, throughout its 156-year history, served the people of Louisiana, the region, the nation and the world. LSU is creating a revolution, one of pervasive change and advancement. The focus of the LSU community has been an increased commitment to excellence. Our progress has been dramatic and shows no sign of stopping.

Having witnessed many of yesterday's possibilities become today's tangible realities, the LSU community set forth to capitalize on its success. The goal was to improve our standing as a nationally competitive flagship university. Following intense discussions among the LSU Board of Supervisors, campus administrators, faculty and student leaders, the objectives required to reach this status crystallized, providing the impetus for LSU's National Flagship Agenda.

Dr. F. King Alexander

President, LSU

Dr. F. King Alexander is the President of Louisiana State University, which enrolls more than 45,000 students and includes institutions across Louisiana. He began at LSU on June 24, 2013. During his tenure as president, the university has seen consecutive record-breaking graduating classes in terms of both size and diversity and enrollment growth across all campuses.

Prior to this appointment, Dr. Alexander was president of California State University, Long Beach (2005-2013) one of the nation's largest public universities.

During his more than seven-year tenure at California State University, Long Beach, Dr. Alexander was twice named the California State University Student Association (CSSA) "President of the Year," which represents all 23 California State Universities and its more than 440,000 students.

Prior to becoming president of California State University, Long Beach, Dr. Alexander was president of Murray State University in Kentucky (2001-05) and was a faculty member at the University of Illinois, Champaign-Urbana, where he was the director of the graduate higher education program.

A Kentucky native who grew up in north Florida, Dr. Alexander received his Ph.D. from the University of Wisconsin-Madison in higher education administration with a focus on finance and educational policy analysis, and a Master of Science degree in comparative educational studies from the University of Oxford in Oxford, England.

As a teacher and administrator, Dr. Alexander has received many honors, including the University of Wisconsin-Madison School of Education Alumni Achievement Award (2002) and has research university faculty affiliations at the University of Wisconsin-Madison Center for the Study of Postsecondary Education (WISCAPE) and Cornell University Higher Education Research Institute (CHERI).

Dr. Alexander also has been asked to represent public higher education colleges and universities on numerous occasions to the United State Congress on issues of college affordability, student indebtedness, and institutional efficiency and effectiveness in efforts to address many of the growing challenges facing American higher education. He has testified before the Senate Committee on Health, Education, Labor & Pensions (HELP), the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights, and the Advisory Committee on Student Financial Assistance, to name a few. Due to his national recognition and involvement in higher education issues, Dr. Alexander has served on numerous U.S. higher education and statewide organizational leadership boards, and remains very active in policy and planning discussions.

Dr. Alexander and his wife, Shenette, have three children: Kylie, Savannah and Madison.

Faculty Athletics Representative

Dr. Bill Demastes, a professor of English at LSU, is in his fifth year as Faculty Athletics Representative. Dr. Demastes earned his Ph.D. in English in 1986 from the University of Wisconsin-Madison with a Field of Study of Drama as Genre and a specialization in 20th-Century American and British Drama. He earned his masters in English in June 1979 from the University of Georgia in Athens, where he specialized in 19th-Century American Literature.

At LSU, he served as Associate Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences from 2001-04 and Director of Undergraduate Studies for the Department of English from 1999-01 and 2010-11. He has also served as Associate Chair of the Department of English (1998-99); Director of the Master of Arts in Liberal Arts Program (1996-2004); and Director of Graduate Studies in the Department of English (1992-94; 2005-06).

He was honored with the LSU Alumni Association Faculty Excellence Award in 2000, and in 2002 he won the LSU Distinguished Faculty Award. He was named in 2009 an LSU Rainmaker, which is given to the top 100 LSU Faculty. In 2010 and 2013 he received the Tiger Athletic Foundation Undergraduate Teaching Award, and in the summer of 2011, he was named the Harry Ransom Summer Fellowship recipient by the University of Texas.

Joe Alleva

LSU Vice Chancellor/Director of Athletics

Joe Alleva continues to bring unprecedented national recognition to LSU as Vice Chancellor and Director of Athletics. Under Alleva's leadership, LSU enjoys one of the country's premier athletics programs with success on and off the field of competition. Now in his ninth year at LSU, Alleva is dedicated to athletic and academic excellence, and he is committed to providing the opportunities and the resources necessary for student-athletes to excel in competition, in the classroom and in the community. Alleva joined the LSU family on April 4, 2008 after a highly successful tenure as director of athletics at Duke University for 10 years. He was named vice chancellor at LSU in August of 2009, marking the first time in school history that the director of athletics has also held a vice chancellor position.

Alleva completed a five-year term last spring on the prestigious NCAA Men's Basketball Committee, enhancing his reputation as one of the most respected athletic administrators in the country. He has been appointed to numerous national committees throughout his career, including the Football Bowl Certification Committee, the NCAA Division I Championships/Competition Cabinet and several Southeastern Conference and Atlantic Coast Conference committees.

Upon his arrival at LSU, Alleva unveiled a strategic master plan for the LSU athletics program -- "LSU: Defined by Excellence" -- to confirm the advancement and future of LSU Athletics as an exemplary enterprise. The central mission of the plan is to create an environment for student-athletes to reach their ultimate potential, prepare them to be champions in life and to set goals and values for the entire athletics program.

Living up to Alleva's mantra of "competition, classroom, community," a total of 83 proud Tigers received their degrees from the university during LSU commencement ceremonies in December and May. LSU's Graduation Success Rate as reported by the NCAA remains at an all-time high for the university with a score of 84. LSU student-athletes in 2015-16 logged 5,612 hours in community service work across 21 sports through LSU's "Geaux Givers" program.

Alleva's strong commitment to academics ensures that the Cox Communications Academic Center for Student-Athletes is a first-class facility that cultivates success in the classroom and the development of life skills. And with an emphasis on community outreach programs, the implementation under Alleva's direction of the "Geaux Givers" fosters a relationship between the local citizens and LSU student-athletes. Alleva has also bolstered the L-Club program to connect with former student-athletes, and he has supervised the thriving "Project Graduation" program in which former student-athletes return to LSU to earn their degrees.

Alleva's tenure has been distinguished by a number of significant athletic achievements, including four 10-win seasons and 78 total victories by the football team. The Tigers have played in a bowl game in each of Alleva's eight gridiron seasons and LSU has finished in the Top 20 six times in that period. LSU under Alleva's leadership has claimed the 2009 baseball national championship and three College World Series berths, the 2015 men's golf national championship, two women's basketball Sweet 16 appearances, four gymnastics Super Six berths, three softball College World Series appearances and 18 NCAA Top 5 finishes indoors and outdoors by the men's and women's track and field teams.

The Tigers in the past eight seasons have earned 37 individual NCAA championships in the sports of men and women's track and field, gymnastics, men's golf and women's golf. LSU has captured 14 Southeastern Conference team championships, and the Tigers have won 102 individual SEC titles during Alleva's term.

LSU in 2014-15 became the first school in SEC history to play in a football bowl game, have both its men's and women's basketball teams reach the NCAA Tournament, and advance to the College World Series in baseball and softball in the same athletic year.

LSU enjoyed another banner year in 2015-16, as the school produced five Top-5 NCAA finishes and earned a No. 19 national ranking in the annual Learfield Directors' Cup, which measures the overall excellence of collegiate athletic programs. Fifteen LSU teams competed in an NCAA championship event, and the Tigers finished in the Top 10 in seven sports.

The Fighting Tiger football squad played in a bowl game for a school-record 16th straight season and finished the year ranked No. 17 in the nation after posting a dominating 56-27 win over Texas Tech in the Texas Bowl.

The gymnastics team completed the season No. 2 in the nation, the highest finish in program history, and the softball squad appeared in the Women's College World Series for the second straight year, reaching the semifinals to finish No. 3 in the country.

LSU's storied track and field program produced three Top 10 finishes in 2015-16. The men's team placed fourth at the NCAA Indoor Championships and fifth at the NCAA Outdoor meet, while the Lady Tigers placed sixth outdoors. The men's golf team advanced to match play at the NCAA Championships for a school-record third straight season and the Tigers tied for fifth overall.

LSU in 2016 became just the second baseball program in NCAA history to earn five straight NCAA Tournament National Seeds. The Tigers advanced to the NCAA Super Regionals and finished the year tied for ninth nationally.

LSU advanced to the NCAA Tournament second round in both men's and women's tennis, while also reaching NCAA postseason in women's golf, women's soccer, and men's and women's swimming and diving.

Alleva's vision keeps LSU among the nation's leaders in athletic facilities. Last year, LSU unveiled two new venues -- a magnificent Gymnastics Practice Facility and a tremendous Tennis Center featuring both indoor and outdoor courts. Construction will begin this year on a Nutrition Center within the expansive existing space at the South End of Tiger Stadium. The new facility will feature 30,000 square feet of dining and kitchen area and all of the elements necessary to ensure that the Tigers receive the absolute finest in dietary support.

In the fall of 2014, LSU opened the expansion of the South End Zone of Tiger Stadium -- a project that added premium seating, general public seating and two state-of-the-art video boards -- continuing an effort to augment one of the most iconic venues in all of college sports. Since 2010, Alleva has directed an aggressive campaign to preserve and enhance the appearance of Tiger Stadium that has included the installation of new windows, lighting systems, gating systems, and championship plazas. The Football Operations Building is undergoing a significant renovation to maintain its status as a high-functioning workplace for coaches and players.

LSU's world-renowned track and field program in 2010 received a new running surface in Bernie Moore Stadium, and extensive renovations to the Maddox Field House in the spring of 2014 gave the Tigers a first-class indoor track and field venue. Alleva directed a major renovation to the University Club golf course that was completed in September 2010 and allows the LSU men's and women's golf teams to play on one of the most challenging courses in the country. An overhaul of the LSU soccer facility was completed in the fall of 2011, converting the stadium into fan-friendly venue.

Alleva is an innovator with bold ideas that benefit all of Greater Baton Rouge. He has been instrumental in the planning of the Bayou Country Superfest, a three-day country music concert and festival held in Tiger Stadium each spring. The event attracts over 100,000 visitors to the LSU campus and makes a tremendous economic impact upon the local community.

Alleva became director of athletics at Duke in 1998 and his impressive tenure there propelled the university into the ranks of America's top all-around collegiate programs. Among his outstanding list of accomplishments includes the greatest 10-year period in Duke Athletics, winning more ACC and NCAA championships than in any other decade in school history.

Alleva, whose hometown is Suffern, N.Y., majored in finance at Lehigh University and received his bachelor's degree in 1975. While at Lehigh, Alleva was the quarterback of the football team and team captain in 1974. Alleva also played on the Lehigh baseball team. He served as a graduate assistant football coach and earned an MBA in 1976.

While at Duke, Alleva played a key role in Durham's community sports scene. He started Little League Baseball in Durham over 20 years ago, and he also began the American Legion baseball program.

He is a member of the North Carolina American Legion Hall of Fame, the Suffern High School Hall of Fame and the Rockland County Hall of Fame.

Alleva and his wife, Annie, have three children, J.D., Jeff, and Jenny, and four grandchildren.

Verge Ausberry

Deputy Director of Athletics

A former LSU football standout, Verge Ausberry joined the athletics administrative staff in August 2001 as the Associate Athletics Director for Operations and was appointed to the position of Senior Associate Athletics Director in May 2006. He was named Deputy Director of Athletics in January of 2016.

Ausberry supervises and is responsible for football operations, football scheduling and football management. He also oversees the LSU men's and women's track and field programs, the equipment staff, the strength and conditioning staff, the Dr. Martin Broussard training room, the video department and football game management. Ausberry, from New Iberia, La., played inside linebacker for the Tigers, lettering in 1986-89. He was part of two SEC championship teams, playing on teams that went to four bowl games.

Before joining the LSU athletic administration, he was very closely involved in the athletic program, first serving for almost seven years as a member of LSU's highly regarded Academic Center for Athletes.

After leaving the Academic Center, he moved in July 1999 to the Tiger Athletic Foundation staff as part of LSU's fundraising arm.

Ausberry received his Bachelor of Science degree in education in May of 1990, his Master of Education degree in May of 1992 and his specialist in higher education administration in 2004. He is presently a doctoral candidate in higher education administration at LSU. He is married to the former Cheri Morial of New Orleans and they have two boys, Austin (11) and Jaiden (10).

Bo Bahnsen

Senior Associate AD/Compliance and Planning

Returning in 2009 to serve the department in the Compliance Office, Bahnsen is once again proving to be a very versatile member of the athletic department.

Before moving back to Compliance, Bahnsen served the previous five years, in a valuable role as Associate Athletics Director for Internal Relations, overseeing the ticket office and all customer service operations.

Prior to December of 2003, Bahnsen's primary responsibility for the previous 14 years was to serve as LSU's NCAA compliance officer.

Bahnsen served as manager of the LSU basketball team as an undergraduate at LSU. In 1982, he became the administrative assistant for the men's basketball team, where he worked for five years.

In July 1987, he became administrative assistant to Athletics Director Joe Dean, overseeing the purchasing office and departmental travel operations until his promotion in 1989. In 1989, he was assigned his primary responsibility as NCAA compliance officer as assistant athletics director, and then was promoted to associate AD in 1996.

Bahnsen has been responsible for overseeing the successful implementation of LSU's Tradition Fund Program, a football-seating plan that requires contributions for the right to purchase approximately 45,000 seats in Tiger Stadium. In 2009, he helped organize the highly successful LSU celebration of the 100th anniversary of the Men's Basketball Program.

A native of Wharton, Texas, Bahnsen attended Wharton County Junior College for two years before transferring to LSU in 1979. He earned his Bachelor of Science degree in physical education.

Bahnsen, 57, is married to the former Karen Mayson, a former LSU golfer and current head coach of the Lady Tigers golf program. The couple has two children, Darren and Devin.

Mark Ewing

Senior Associate AD/Business

Mark Ewing, a 32-year employee of Louisiana State University, is in his 16th year with the Athletics Department, and serves as the department's Senior Associate Athletics Director for Business and the department's Chief Financial Officer.

His duties as the department's Chief Financial Officer includes oversight of the departments over $126 million budget, management of the athletic business office, oversight of all travel, human resources, and purchasing. He also supervises the Athletic Ticket Office and serves as the liaison for concession operations. He is responsible for the department's financial forecasting and provides the financial information necessary for funding athletic construction and maintenance projects. He also serves as the department's administrator for men's and women's golf.

Ewing came to athletics from LSU's Office of Budget and Planning. He served as LSU's Budget Director overseeing the development and management of the university operating budget.

Ewing, who is a native of Pointe Coupee Parish, received a bachelor's degree in finance from LSU in 1978 and a master's degree in public administration from LSU in 1995.

Ewing is married to the former Gail Ingram of Morgan City, Louisiana and they have three daughters, Andrea, Arleen and Molly Sue. He also has three granddaughters -- Ainsley Grace, Dorothy Claire and Evelyn McLain -- and one grandson, Parker Ryan.

Ronnie Haliburton

Senior Associate AD/Athletic Facility Management

Ronnie Haliburton, who served as director of facility services in the LSU Athletics Department for three years, was promoted to Associate Athletics Director for Athletic Facility Management in March 2007.

Haliburton came to the athletics department in December of 2003 from LSU's facility maintenance department, where he served as manager for five years. He was responsible for the overall management of custodial operations, special events crews, stock room inventory and equipment repair.

Haliburton played as a tight end for the LSU football team from 1986-89, and was a member of two Southeastern Conference championship teams. He later played for the Denver Broncos for three years.

He first joined LSU in an administrative capacity in 1994 as resident assistant of Broussard Hall, then the school's athletic dormitory, before moving to the weight room as a student assistant strength coach.

Haliburton became a resident manager in 1996 before being named coordinator of residence life later that year. In 1998, he became Manager of Facility Maintenance at LSU.

Eddie Nuñez

Deputy Director of Athletics

Eddie Nunez was named Deputy Director of Athletics in January of 2016.

As a member of the Senior Management Team, Nuñez's responsibilities include assisting in the oversight of day to day operations of the athletic department and serves as the sport administrator for the men's basketball program, men's and women's tennis programs.

In his role, he also oversees the planning and management of the athletic strategic plan, the Marketing/Promotions, Athletic Communications, Social and Digital Media, Creative Services, Video and Network Broadcast Services departments and directs all capital projects for the Athletic Department.

Nuñez also serves as the Athletic Department's liaison with LSU Sports Properties and the University Licensing and Brand Management as well as the Tiger Athletic Foundation.

Under his guidance, the athletic department has experienced over $380 million dollars in renovations and construction of athletic facility projects. He also spearheaded the renegotiations of a 10 year multi-media rights agreement with Outfront Media Sports. During his time at LSU, he has been appointed to represent the department of athletics on various University and community committees.

Nuñez joined the Athletics Department in October 2003 and was promoted to Associate Athletics Director for Operations and Project Development in June of 2007 and Senior Associate Athletic Director in 2009.

Nuñez has 16 years of experience working in intercollegiate athletics. Nuñez came to LSU after two and half years as the Director of Game and Event Management at Vanderbilt University. At Vanderbilt, along with directing the Game and Event Management department, he also assisted in construction of numerous facilities. Prior to that, Nuñez served as men's basketball administrative assistant coach at Marquette University for one year and two years as men's basketball graduate assistant for coach Billy Donovan at the University of Florida.

Nuñez, played two seasons on the University of Florida basketball team in 1996-97 and 1997-98. He transferred to Florida after playing two years and obtaining a degree from Miami-Dade Community College.

The native of Miami, Fla., received his Associate degree in arts and architecture from Miami-Dade Community College in 1995, his Bachelor's in Sports Management and Masters in Sports Administration from the University of Florida in 1998 and 2000, respectively. He is married to the former Jane Hess and the couple has two daughters, Elizabeth Kendall (7) and Anna Caldwell (5).

Miriam Segar

Senior Associate AD/Senior Woman Administrator

Former LSU women's basketball player Miriam Segar has been a part of the athletics administration since June of 1995 and is now the Senior Associate AD and the department's Senior Woman Administrator after having served as Associate Athletics Director for Student Services since April 2007. She had served as Assistant Athletics Director since 2004.

As LSU's Senior Woman Administrator, Segar's responsibilities include oversight of the highly successful Tiger Olympic Sports program. She also supervises the Tiger baseball program and the LSU cheerleaders.

Segar began her administrative career at LSU as the compliance coordinator where she served for three years. Following that, in 1998, Segar was named the director of the CHAMPS/Life Skills Program where she worked until 2001 when she became the Director of Student Services.

While working with CHAMPS/Life Skills, Segar guided the program to the Division I Athletic Directors Program of Excellence Award in 2001.

Prior to returning to her alma mater, Segar spent one year at the SEC office as the championships assistant and the officiating assistant, assisting in the management of all SEC championships and tournaments and the coordination of women's basketball officials.

Segar, the 2006 Athletic Department Female Alumnus of the Year, was a three-year captain for the Lady Tigers basketball team and received four letters from 1990 to 1994. She earned the 1994 NCAA Post-graduate Scholarship and was a member of the 1994 NCAA All-Academic team.

Segar and her husband Jamie have four children -- Grant, Reid, Maggie and Hayes.

Brian Broussard

Associate AD/Ticket Sales and Operations

A 20-year veteran of the Athletics Department, including 16 years as ticket manager, Brian Broussard was promoted to Assistant Athletics Director for Ticket Operations in July 2007 and Associate AD in 2012.

Broussard is responsible for revenue in excess of $50 million, which includes the management of ticket and parking sales and renewals for all sports, as well as Tradition Fund donations for football, men's basketball and baseball.

Broussard began at LSU in August 1996 as an assistant ticket manager responsible for men's basketball sales and the day-to-day operations of ticket office. In March 2000, he was promoted to ticket manager, becoming responsible for the ticketing in all sports.

Prior to joining the LSU staff, Broussard was the ticket manager at Northwestern State in 1996. He worked as a promotions assistant at the University of Miami in 1995 and was the gameday club manager for the New Orleans Saints in 1994.

The Gretna native earned his bachelor's degree in political science from LSU in 1993. He is married to the former Aimee Hodges of Alexandria.

Emmett David

Associate AD/Facility and Project Development

Emmett David joined the LSU Athletics Department in 2012 after serving as Director of the Office of Planning Design and Construction at LSU since June of 1996.

He assists in facility and project development for the Athletic Department including the South Stadium addition and the recently completed tennis stadium, the gymnastics practice facility and other property holding enhancements.

Among his responsibilities for the University was to serve as facility officer for Doctoral I Research Institution consisting of 11.2 million gross square feet with 250 primary buildings. He also was responsible for the 5-year Capital Outlay project planning of some $484 million, deferred maintenance reporting and funding; and, ADA and Life Safety Code deficiency projects, budgets and tracking of expenditures of some $200 million. He was responsible for nearly $800,000 in physical development on campus with projects such as Choppin Annex, Residential College, Business Education Complex, Raphael Semmes Parking Garage and numerous major maintenance, repair and restoration projects.

He also coordinated and implemented master plans for such departments as Parking and Traffic, Athletics, Veterinary Medicine, Student Health Center, Union, University Recreation, South Campus and Residential Life.

David developed long range planning of future projects and the impact of associated displacement and monitored and managed space inventory and he has served as a Staff Senator.

David graduated from LSU with a Bachelor of Architecture in 1982 and his Master of Public Administration in 2006. He is a registered licensed architect by the state of Louisiana.

Emmett and his wife Maurine have two children Chloe and Gabe, who are both residents of Baton Rouge.

Neal Lamonica

Assistant AD/Fiscal Operations

Neal Lamonica, a member of the LSU Athletic Department staff since January 2000, was promoted to Assistant Athletic Director for Fiscal Operations in August 2013.

His primary duties include monitoring the Athletic Department's over $125 million budget, and assisting coaches and administrators in formulating budgets for future years. He also serves as the liaison to the athletic department's retail sales operations and Tiger Booster Clubs.

Lamonica began his professional career at LSU in 2000 in the athletic department compliance office before moving to the business office in June 2003. He served as Coordinator of Athletic Business until December 2005, when he was named Business Manager. Lamonica was promoted to Director of Fiscal Operations in November 2009.

Lamonica received a bachelor's degree in mass communications from LSU in 1998, and he earned an LSU master's degree in business administration in 2003.

Lamonica and his wife, Blythe, are the parents of three sons -- Davis, Sam Henry and Luke.

Mathew Shanklin

Assistant AD/Marketing

Mathew Shanklin is in his fifth year at LSU serving as the Assistant Athletic Director of Marketing and as the General Business Manager for LSU Sports Properties, the multi-media rights holder for Tiger Athletics. Previously, Shanklin served 20 years as the Associate Athletic Director of Marketing and Licensing at the University of Arkansas.

Shanklin supervises all operations and client services for LSU Sports Properties, while also managing the LSU Marketing efforts. Since joining LSU, he has implemented several new initiatives including the Bengal Brigade Street team and the new band pre-game presentation for men's basketball. He also spearheaded the partnership with Halftime Live, coordinating the unique halftime concert with Grammy winners 3 Doors Down and the LSU Marching Band at the LSU-Texas A&M game in 2015.

While at Arkansas, Shanklin was in charge of all department marketing/promotions, corporate sponsorships, advertising sales and coordinated all sales and programming for the football, basketball and baseball video boards. He was instrumental in developing the HogPen, a tailgating area for fans inside Baum Stadium, the Hog Spa hot tub area at Baum Stadium and the RBI Girls. Shanklin was instrumental in establishing the school's first baseball radio network in 1992, one of the nation's largest with more than 25 affiliates statewide as well as creating the first Hispanic radio network for the University of Arkansas. In 1998, Shanklin became the university's licensing coordinator and under his direction, licensing revenues increased every quarter.

Shanklin was assistant marketing director at East Carolina University for a year before going to Arkansas. He had served as an intern at Arkansas for five months before joining the ECU staff.

A 1984 graduate of South Mecklenburg (N.C.) High School in Charlotte, N.C., where he lettered in baseball and soccer, Shanklin earned his degree in communications from North Carolina-Wilmington in 1988.

A graduate of Ohio University's highly respected sports administration program, Shanklin earned a master's degree in that program in the fall of 1989.

An avid golfer, Shanklin married the former Missy Emmerson of Jacksonville, Texas, in 2003. She has a daughter, Jordan (21) who attends LSU, and they are also the parents of Barbara Blake (11) and Izabella Grace (9).

David Taylor

Assistant AD/Game-Event Management

David Taylor, who has been a part of LSU's game management team since September 2005, was promoted in August 2014 to Assistant Athletic Director of Game and Event Management. Taylor handles all aspects regarding game management of athletic events while overseeing a staff that helps coordinate all events within the LSU Athletic Department grounds.

Taylor, who started as game management coordinator, was promoted to Assistant Director in 2006 and Associate Director in 2008. He assumed the directorship of Game and Event Management in September 2011.

Prior to that, Taylor served as Assistant Coordinator of Athletic Facilities and Game Operations at Texas State University from 2003 to 2005.

Taylor earned his B.S. degree from Texas-El Paso in 1999 and his Masters in Sports Management in 2003 from the University of Texas.

Blair Napolitano

Assistant AD/Compliance

Blair Napolitano, who is in her 10th year with the LSU athletic department, was promoted to assistant athletic director in October 2014. She directs the day-to-day-operations of the compliance office, and her primary duties include researching and communicating with coaches, counselors and prospective student-athletes regarding prospect's initial eligibility and amateurism status.

She also serves on the liaison for student-athletes to the LSU admissions office, and she researches and provides interpretations on NCAA rules and SEC bylaws to coaches, staff and student-athletes.

Napolitano began her LSU career as a compliance coordinator in October 2005, and she was named director of compliance in October 2009.

A native of Baton Rouge, she earned her bachelor's degree in kinesiology from LSU in 2005 while serving as a student manager for the track and field team from 2003-05. She received her Master's degree in business administration from LSU in August 2010.

Napolitano and her husband, Anthony, have one son, Carter, born in May 2015.

Wendy Nall

Assistant AD/Human Resources

Wendy Nall has served in the LSU Athletics Human Resources department since 2001. She was promoted to Manager in 2003 and named an Assistant AD in November of 2015.

Nall, graduated from Southeastern Louisiana University in Hammond in May 2000 with a major in kinesiology with a sports administration concentration. She completed her Masters of Science at LSU in August 2001.

Nall is married to husband Slater and they have two daughters; Kendall and Olivia.

Michael Bonnette

Associate AD/Communications

Michael Bonnette enters his 17th year as LSU's Communications Director and 10th as Associated Athletic Director. Bonnette was originally elevated to Sports Information Director in August of 2000 and the promoted to Assistant Athletic Director in July of 2004.

As Communications Director, Bonnette serves as the chief contact for LSU's nationally-ranked football team as well as overseeing all publicity activities for the 21 sports sponsored by the Athletic Department.

The 46-year-old Bonnette, who served as an Associate Sports Information Director for seven years, is in his 23rd year with the LSU Athletic Department.

His 2012 LSU Football media guide as named "Best in the Nation" by CoSIDA, one of several awards he has received from the organization and in the Louisiana Sports Writers Association annual writing contests. His 2014 football media guide was ranked second in the nation.

The Lake Charles, La., native has been around the sports media profession his entire life as he is the son of retired McNeese State Sports Information Director Louis Bonnette, a member of the CoSIDA Hall of Fame. The field at Cowboy Stadium in Lake Charles is named "Louis Bonnette Field". His brother, Matthew, continued the family tradition at McNeese by being named Sports Information Director in July 2012, following his Dad, who held that position for 46 years.

Bonnette, who is a 1993 graduate of LSU, is past president of SIDs for the Southeastern Conference and is currently the vice-president for SIDs for the LSWA. He is married to the former Robin Arnaud of Opelousas, La and the couple has three sons: Peyton (18), Grant (17) and Max (11). Peyton recently graduated from University High and will be a freshman at LSU this fall.

MODELS OF EXCELLENCE

LSU, in particular the efforts of the Cox Communications Academic Center for Student-Athletes, is one of eight colleges and universities nationwide that was honored by University Business magazine in its Spring 2016 Models of Excellence recognition program. The Models of Excellence program recognizes innovative approaches to encouraging and nurturing student success on campus. "For student-athletes, pressure bears down from all angles - from classroom expectations to media scrutiny," says University Business senior editor Tim Goral. "LSU realizes the unique challenges this population faces, and offers a holistic solution that helps this group succeed outside of game day."

VALUES

Accountability

Exhibiting the willingness to accept responsibility for your actions.

Commitment

Pledging excellence every day, every meeting, every situation, every time.

Success

Achieving excellence in all that is desired, planned or attempted.

Integrity

Adhering to a strict moral and ethical code of behavior and action by consistently upholding rules, regulations and values.

Diversity

Embracing and valuing the differences we all bring to the table.

Teamwork

Valuing each other as members of our team and working together to achieve common, agreed upon goals.

Service

Individually and collectively, creating an environment of social awareness, establishing an appetite for helpfulness and discovering a world with issues greater than our own.

Education

Fostering a thirst for knowledge and promoting the discipline to pursue life-long learning.

"ENTER TO LEARN, LEAVE TO SERVE"

STUDY AREA

Included in the 54,000 square feet of the Academic Center are individual study areas as well as 12 private computer rooms for student-athletes to work one-on-one with tutors or by themselves.

BO CAMPBELL AUDITORIUM

The 1,000-seat auditorium is used throughout the year as a classroom and lecture hall. Each seat in the auditorium has space for a laptop and a modem hookup, providing each student unlimited learning opportunities. The auditorium also contains a movie theatre size screen to aid professors with lectures and classroom activities.

THE LIBRARY

The library provides a perfect setting for individual study, or with a tutor as a group.

ACADEMIC CENTER

A $15 million renovation to the Gym Armory in 2002 put the Cox Communications Academic Center For Student-Athletes at the forefront of today's academic centers. The facility features over 54,000 square feet of working space, 136 computer workstations, study rooms and a 1,000-seat auditorium.

VISION

To be the premier provider of transformative student-athlete support services.

MISSION

Our team is committed to challenging student-athletes to achieve their highest level of intellectual and personal development.

GOALS

- Graduate our Student-Athletes
- Prepare Student-Athletes for Life after LSU
- Promote and Preserve Academic Integrity Through Education and Example
- Nurture the Personal Well-Being and Professional Aspirations of Our Team

The Nation's Elite Teams

Gymnastics

After winning its fourth straight NCAA Regional championship, the LSU gymnastics team easily qualified for its fifth NCAA Super Six appearance with an outstanding performance in the NCAA Semifinal on April 15, 2016. In a season of fantastic performances, none was more exciting than the Super Six. In that championship meet, the Tigers rallied from behind to finish as the 2016 National Runner-Up, the best finish in school history. With a second-place finish in the Super Six, LSU defeated rivals Alabama, Florida and Georgia by posting a 197.450. Not only was it the highest finish in school history, it marked the fifth Super Six appearances in nine years and the third Top-5 national finish in the last four years, cementing LSU as one of the nation's best gymnastics teams.

Track & Field

For the 15th time in 17 seasons, the Tigers cracked the Top 5 of the final men's team standings at the NCAA Outdoor Championships in 2016. The Tigers tallied 41 points to take fifth place. The Lady Tigers clinched sixth place at the Outdoor Championships, giving the LSU track & field teams one of the best finishes of any team in 2016.

Softball

The LSU softball team has made three of its five total appearances in the Women's College World Series in the last five years, qualifying for the postseason in each of the last 11 years which is a program-record run. In 2016 the Tigers finished third at the Women's College World Series for the second-straight season, and the Tigers wrapped up the year with a 52-18 record.

Men's Golf

One year after clinching the NCAA national title, the LSU men's golf team reached the quarterfinal round of match play at the NCAA Championships, making the 2016 season another rousing success. LSU is only the third team in the match-play era to qualify for "Match Play 8" in three-straight seasons, and the Tigers also earned a Top-5 finish for the third-consecutive season.

Women's Tennis

The 2015-16 season marked another year of firsts for the LSU women's tennis team under the direction of Julia and Michael Sell. LSU reached the ITA Team Indoor Championships for the first time in school history and also reached a program-best ranking on three separate occasions. The Lady Tigers cracked the Top 10 for the first time in program history, reaching No. 9 in March.

Ashleigh Gnat

Ashleigh Gnat had one of the finest seasons in LSU gymnastics history. The junior ranked No. 1 nationally on vault and floor and led the nation with an LSU single-season record six perfect 10.0 scores. An 11-time All-American, Gnat was named the 2016 SEC Specialist of the Year, the 2016 Central Region Gymnast of the Year, and she won the SEC floor exercise title with a perfect 10 at the SEC Championship. She was a major catalyst in LSU's national runner-up finish.

Nethaneel Mitchell-Blake

Before anchoring the Tigers to the NCAA title in the 4x100-meter relay to end the 2016 season, Nethaneel Mitchell-Blake won the SEC Commissioner's Trophy as the top individual point scorer at the SEC Outdoor Championships. Mitchell-Blake was crowned the SEC Champion in the 100 meters, 200 meters and 4x100-meter relay to become the first Tiger to sweep all three events since three-time Olympic Silver Medalist Richard Thompson in 2008.

Ben Simmons

Ben Simmons was the consensus National Freshman of the Year and was named the SEC Freshman of the Year in 2015-16. The No. 1 overall draft pick of the Philadelphia 76ers, Simmons averaged 19.2 points, 11.8 rebounds and 4.8 assists per game, which ranked in the top five in the SEC in each category. Simmons also led all major conference players with 23 double-doubles and posted six of the SEC's eight 20-10-5 games during the season.

Sahvanna Jaquish

Sahvanna Jaquish became only the third player in LSU softball history to earn three All-America honors when she earned the distinction in 2016. She batted .343 with a team-high 19 doubles to go along with 13 home runs this past season. She tied her own school record of 76 RBI which also ranked fifth nationally. Jaquish started all but one of LSU's 70 games and served as a catalyst in LSU's run to a third-place national finish at the Women's College World Series.

Elite Student-Athletes

Zach Wright

MEN'S GOLF

In his final season at LSU, Zach Wright led the Tigers back to match play at the NCAA Division I Men's Golf Championships for the third-straight season as they tied for fifth-place nationally in defense of their national championship from the spring of 2015. Wright was the team's leading scorer with a career-low 71.51 scoring average while finishing the 2015-16 season as the No. 13-ranked player in the country in the final Golfweek rankings. Wright was honored for that performance as a PING Second-Team All-American by the Golf Coaches Association of America, as well as a First-Team All-SEC performer for the first time in his career.

Alex Lange

BASEBALL

Alex Lange in his first two seasons at LSU has established himself as one of the top pitchers in college baseball. The right-hander was named the 2015 National Freshman Pitcher of the Year, the SEC Freshman of the Year and a First-Team All-American after posting a 12-0 mark and a 1.97 ERA with 131 strikeouts in 114 innings. He became the first freshman in LSU history to record over 100 strikeouts in a season, and he helped lead the Tigers to the College World Series. Lange fired 125 strikeouts in 111.2 innings in 2016, and he was named to the USA Baseball Collegiate National Team. Lange will enter the 2017 season with a 20-4 LSU career record in 34 starts with 256 strikeouts in 225.2 innings.

Jordan Daigle

MEN'S TENNIS

Jordan Daigle spent his junior season exclusively on court one for the Tigers. He was named to the 2016 All-SEC Second Team, which marked the second time in his career that he earned All-SEC honors. Daigle and doubles partner Boris Arias finished the season ranked 13th in the nation after compiling a 16-11 record overall after advancing to their second-straight NCAA Round of 16. Arias and Daigle were named ITA All-Americans in their second-straight season, which marked the first time in LSU history that a pair earned honors in back-to-back years.

SOCCER

Jorian Baucom proved to be one of the most prolific strikers in college soccer throughout the 2015 season while scoring 15 goals in 22 appearances on the season to lead the Tigers back to the NCAA Tournament for the fifth time in program history. Among her 15 goals were a team-leading five game-winning goals, including a 1-0 win over 15th-ranked and eventual NCAA runner-up Duke. Baucom's performance earned her a First-Team All-SEC selection by the league's head coaches and a First-Team All-South Region selection by the National Soccer Coaches Association of America.

ON THE PROWL

Mike the Tiger was recently ranked by ESPN as the best mascot in the SEC. Mike's habitat is one of the most visited attractions in the state of Louisiana, located in the shadows of the north endzone of Tiger Stadium.

MIKE THE TIGER

HISTORY OF MIKE

Few mascots in the country are as admired as Mike the Tiger. LSU's live Bengal mascot serves as the graphic image of all LSU athletic teams. The school has had six mascots, with the most recent, Mike VI, taking over the reign prior to the 2007 national championship football season.

The Bengal/Siberian mix, formerly known as "Roscoe," turned 11 on July 23, 2016. He was donated to LSU by Great Cats of Indiana in Idaville, Ind., a nonprofit sanctuary and rescue facility for big cats and other large carnivores.

Traditionally, Mike rides through Tiger Stadium in a travel trailer topped by the LSU cheerleaders before home games. Before the field parade, Mike is parked next to the opponent's locker room in the southeast corner of the stadium. Opposing players must make their way past Mike's trailer to reach their locker room.

It was believed that the Tigers would score a touchdown for every growl issued by Mike before a football game. For many years, Mike was prompted to roar by pounding on the cage. Objections of cruel punishment brought about the use of recorded growls to play to the crowd before the games. That practice was discontinued shortly afterward.

In the mid-1980s, pranksters cut the locks on Mike IV's cage and freed him in the early-morning hours just days before the annual LSU-Tulane clash. Mike roamed free, playfully knocking down several small pine trees in the area, before being trapped in the Bernie Moore Track Stadium where police used tranquilizer guns to capture and return the Bengal Tiger to his home.

The incident was reminiscent of a kidnapping of Mike I many years ago by Tulane students before a Tiger-Green Wave battle.

Prior to kickoff, Mike the Tiger and the LSU cheerleaders parade around the field of Tiger Stadium.

1936-1956

MIKE I

The original Mike was purchased from the Little Rock Zoo in 1936 for $750, with money contributed by the student body. Originally known as "Sheik" at the time of his purchase, his name was changed to Mike to honor Mike Chambers who served as LSU's athletic trainer when the first mascot was purchased. The first Mike was housed in the Baton Rouge Zoo for one year before a permanent home was constructed near Tiger Stadium. Mike I reigned for 20 years before dying of pneumonia.

MIKE'S HABITAT

In 2005, a new environment (above) was created for Mike that is 15,000 square feet with lush foliage, a large Live Oak tree, a beautiful waterfall and a stream evolving from a rocky backdrop overflowing with plants and trees. The habitat has, as a backdrop, an Italianate tower - a campanile - that creates a visual bridge to the Italianate architectural vernacular that is the underpinning of the image of the entire LSU campus. This spectacular habitat features state-of-the-art technologies, research, conservation and husbandry programs, as well as educational, interpretive and recreational activities. It is, in essence, one of the largest and finest Tiger habitats in the United States.

SNEAX DAY

On Dec. 11, 2008, a winter storm blanketed Baton Rouge that hadn't been seen in decades. The early white Christmas gave Mike VI, LSU's live Bengal/Siberian tiger, a chance to relax and play in nearly two inches of accumulation.

1956-1958

MIKE II

The second Mike served a brief reign, lasting only through the 1957 season before dying of pneumonia in the spring of 1958. He was born at the Audubon Zoo in New Orleans and came to LSU on Sept. 28, 1956. The young tiger was held overnight in Tiger Stadium and unveiled Sept. 29, the opening day of the football season.

1958-1976

MIKE III

Just in time for the 1958 national championship season, Mike III was purchased from the Woodland Park Zoo in Seattle, Wash., following a "national search" by then-athletic director Jim Corbett. The student body contributed $1,500 for the purchase of the tiger. Mike III served as mascot for 18 seasons, dying after the only losing season of his reign, as LSU posted a 5-6 record in 1975.

1976-1990

MIKE IV

Mike IV reigned over Tiger athletics for 14 years after being donated to the school by August A. Busch III from the Dark Continent Amusement Park in Tampa, Fla., on Aug. 29, 1976. Born on May 15, 1974, Mike's age and health were determining factors in his retirement to the Baton Rouge Zoo in 1990. Mike IV died of old age in March of 1995 at the age of 21.

MIKE V

Mike V was donated by Dr. Thomas and Caroline Atchison of the Animal House Zoological Park in Moulton, Ala. Dr. Sheldon Bivin of the LSU School of Veterinary Medicine traveled to Alabama and brought the baby tiger back to Baton Rouge. Born Oct. 18, 1989, the new tiger was introduced to LSU fans at a basketball game against Alabama in February of 1990. He officially began his reign on April 30, 1990, when he was moved into the tiger habitat across from Tiger Stadium. Mike V died on May 18, 2007, at the age of 17.

2007-present

MIKE VI

Mike VI arrived on Aug. 25, 2007, thanks to the donation by Great Cats of Indiana. He was designated as the successor to Mike V on Sept. 8, when LSU played Virginia Tech. On Sept. 14, 2007, a ceremony was held to honor Mike V and dedicate the habitat to Mike VI. The 11-year-old Bengal/Siberian mix, formerly known as "Roscoe," reigned over a football national title in his first year and a 2011 SEC championship and perfect regular season. Mike VI was diagnosed with a rare form of cancer in May 2016 and underwent first-of-its-kind radiation treatment at Mary Bird Perkins Cancer Center at OLOL in Baton Rouge.

LSU GREATS

The following ten individuals are the only athletes to have their jerseys retired by LSU. Men's basketball has retired the No. 23 for Pete Maravich, No. 50 for Bob Pettit, Jr., No. 33 for Shaquille O'Neal and No. 40 for Rudy Macklin. Women's basketball retired the No. 33 for Seimone Augustus. Football's only two retired jerseys are the No. 20 worn by Billy Cannon and the No. 37 worn by Tommy Casanova. Baseball retired the No. 15 in honor of longtime coach and former athletics director Skip Bertman, the No. 19 for Ben McDonald and the No. 36 for Eddy Furniss. Augustus became the first woman in LSU Athletics history to have her jersey retired in January 2010. Furniss joined the prestigious list in April 2016.

50 BOB PETTIT

Pettit led LSU to its first NCAA Final Four in 1953 and he later became the first player in NBA history to exceed the 20,000-plus point barrier. Pettit is a member of the NBA Hall of Fame, and in 1997, he was named as one of the top 50 players in NBA history.

23 PETE MARAVICH

"Pistol Pete," Maravich still holds the NCAA record for career points with 3,667 and for career scoring average with 44.2 points a game. He was selected the National Player of the Year in 1970 after leading the Tigers to the NIT Final Four. He scored 50-plus points an amazing 28 times. He went on to a 10-year professional career and was selected as one of the NBA's 50 greatest players in 1997.

20 BILLY CANNON

One of the true legends of college football in the South, Billy Cannon was the 1959 Heisman Trophy winner and helped the Tigers to the 1958 national title. Cannon's most memorable performance came in 1959 against Ole Miss when No. 1 LSU trailed No. 3 Ole Miss 3-0 in the fourth quarter. He fielded a punt, broke seven tackles and returned it 89 yards for the 7-3 victory. He went on to a successful 11-year professional career.

33 SHAQUILLE O'NEAL

Shaquille O'Neal was the first pick in the 1992 NBA Draft. He was named MVP of the league in 2000 and was a three-time NBA Finals MVP after leading the Los Angeles Lakers to three World Championships. At LSU, O'Neal averaged 21.6 points and 13.6 rebounds for his career, and in 1991, he was named the World's Amateur Athlete of the Year as well as SEC Athlete of the Year and National Player of the Year. In 1997, he was named as one of the top 50 players in NBA history.

15 SKIP BERTMAN

A legend in the college baseball ranks, Skip Bertman created a dynasty at LSU, guiding the Tigers to five national titles in a 10-year stretch from 1991-2000. He also coached the United States to a bronze medal at the 1996 Olympics in Atlanta and was an assistant on the gold medal-winning U.S. squad in Seoul, Korea, in 1988. Bertman retired from coaching following the 2001 season and served as LSU's athletics director for seven years. Bertman was inducted into the College Baseball Hall of Fame in 2006.

40 RUDY MACKLIN

Rudy Macklin was a two-time basketball All-American selection during his Tiger career from 1976-81 during which time he became LSU's all-time leading rebounder with 1,276 boards and the second-leading scorer in school history behind only the legendary Pete Maravich with 2,080 points. He led the Tigers to two Elite Eight appearances and the 1981 Final Four in Philadelphia. He still holds the school single-game rebound record with 32, a mark like some of the great records in any sport that may never be broken.

ABOUT LSU RETIRED JERSEYS

The retirement of the jerseys of Casanova, Furniss, McDonald, Macklin and Augustus comes under a new provision of the LSU jersey retirement bylaws that says the retirement of an athlete's jersey in a particular sport does not preclude a current student-athlete in that sport from wearing the jersey number in that or any other sport, subject to the discretion of the head coach. This provision applies only to jerseys retired after January 1, 2007, so the numbers worn by Maravich, Pettit, O'Neal, Cannon and Bertman may never again be worn by future student-athletes in their respective sports. To have a jersey retired at LSU, an athlete must have completed intercollegiate competition for LSU a minimum of five years prior to nomination. Athletes must have demonstrated truly unusual and outstanding accomplishments, exceeding and in addition to all criteria used for Hall of Fame selection. Nominees must have a unanimous vote of support from the Hall of Fame committee.

37 TOMMY CASANOVA

Tommy Casanova is the only three-time All-American in the history of LSU football and is a member of the College Football Hall of Fame. During his Tiger career from 1969-71, Casanova personified versatility for his myriad of talents as he played offense, defense, returned punts and kickoffs. One of just two three-time All-SEC performers at LSU, he played six seasons with the Cincinnati Bengals of the NFL while earning his medical degree.

19 BEN MCDONALD

Ben McDonald won the prestigious Golden Spikes Award, given annually to the nation's most outstanding player, in 1989 and is a member of the College Baseball Hall of Fame. He led LSU to two College World Series appearances. In 1989, McDonald was named National Player of the Year by Baseball America, The Sporting News and Collegiate Baseball. He was selected by the Baltimore Orioles as the No. 1 pick in the major league draft in 1989 and went on to enjoy a 10-year major league career with the Orioles and the Milwaukee Brewers.

33 SEIMONE AUGUSTUS

Seimone Augustus is the only women's basketball player in school history to earn State Farm Coaches Association All-America honors three times: 2004, 2005 and 2006. Augustus became LSU's first NCAA National Player of the Year, and she claimed the honor twice in 2005 and 2006. A 2006 graduate of LSU, Augustus was the 2012 WNBA Finals MVP after winning a world title. She also led the United States to Olympic gold medals at the 2008 Beijing and 2012 London Games.

36 EDDY FURNISS

Eddy Furniss enjoyed one of the best four-season stretches (1995-98) in college baseball history. Furniss is still the Southeastern Conference all-time leader in hits (352), home runs (80), RBI (308), doubles (87) and total bases (689). He was selected in the fourth round of the 1998 Major League Draft by the Pittsburgh Pirates and played five seasons in the minor leagues before retiring to concentrate on a career in medicine.

LSU Athletics, like all 14 schools in the Southeastern Conference, built state-of-the-art control rooms and purchased HD camera equipment to provide the same quality coverage for events that viewers were used to for years on ESPN family of network events.

SEC Network

The first two years of the SEC Network have proven to be one of the most successful launches by a network in all of cable television. Plus, it has brought Southeastern Conference sports to audiences nationwide.

That was the vision when the SEC and ESPN signed a 20-year agreement through 2034 to create and operate a multiplatform network which launched on Aug. 14, 2014. The network and its accompanying digital platform carries SEC contest 24/7 including some 1,500 events each year.

The network televises 45 football games, more than 100 men's basketball games, 60 women's basketball games, 75 baseball games, and events from across the SEC's 21 sports annually.

Besides the volume of over the air events, thanks to commitment by athletic departments like LSU, all 14 schools built state-of-the-art control rooms and purchased HD camera equipment to provide the same quality coverage for events that viewers were used to for years on ESPN family of network events.

These events were made exclusively through the WatchESPN site as part of SEC Network+ on computers, phones and tablets, allowing fans anywhere and almost anytime to watch their favorite teams play their favorite sports.

The SEC Network has also become known for its studio show "SEC Now" and its traveling weekly football pregame show "SEC Nation" besides its weekly coverage morning to night of Saturday SEC college football.

Natalia Gomez-Junco scored two goals in LSU's 4-3 home win over Georgia on the SEC Network on Sept. 17, 2015.

Media Guidelines

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

All media members are encouraged to apply for season credentials through LSUsports.net/media. A 2016 season media credential provides access to press row at the Maravich Center and all of its working media areas.

For individual matches, requests should be made at least 24 hours in advance by contacting Clyde Verdin at cverdin@lsu.edu in the LSU Sports Information Office.

Passes may be picked up starting 60 minutes prior to the match at the Press Will Call table located in the Northeast corridor of the Maravich Center.

VISITING RADIO

A phone line is located on press row for visiting radio broadcasts by SEC opponents. Please inform SID Clyde Verdin if you wish to broadcast your match on the radio.

For online webcasts, please contact Verdin for the wireless internet information for access to the Maravich Center's secure wireless network.

MATCH INFORMATION

On match day, media will be provided with a program that includes updated notes, statistics and wireless internet information in the Maravich Center.

Final box score and stat books which includes play-by-play will be available shortly following each home match.

POST MATCH INTERVIEWS

Interviews with student-athletes and coaches are done courtside postmatch after the team's 10-minute cooling off period. Please inform SID Clyde Verdin if you need to request a specific player for an interview.

For assistance with opposing coaches and players, contact that school's SID for their postmatch media procedures prior to match time.

COVERING PRACTICES

LSU team practices generally range from 1:30 to 4:30 p.m. in the Maravich Center Practice Facility. Most practice sessions are open to the media but are subject to change. Phone interviews may be arranged on special request.

Interviews with coaches and/or student-athletes are held before practice based on class schedules and team travel.

Advance notice, preferably 24 hours, is needed for all interviews. Please schedule all interviews by contacting SID Clyde Verdin at (225) 578-8204 or cverdin@lsu.edu.

SEC MEDIA INFORMATION

Jill Skotarczak is the volleyball media relations contact for the Southeastern Conference. She can be reached at jskotarczak@sec.org or via phone at (205) 458-3000.

Each Monday, the league will name a Player of the Week, Offensive Player of the Week, Defensive Player of the Week, Setter of the Week and Freshman of the Week during the 2015 season.

The SEC Website, SECSports.com, can be accessed 24/7/365 to access updated standings, statistics and notes.

MEDIA INFORMATION

The 2016 LSU Volleyball Media Guide is a source of information and is available upon request from the LSU SID Office.

News releases, photographs and videos will be made available to accredited members of the media.

The LSU Sports Information Office is located on the fifth floor of the Athletic Administration Building.

LSUSPORTS.NET/MEDIA

Media can now access images for all LSU athletic teams, including action shots, heads shots, logos, etc.

To gain access to the high-resolution pictures, e-mail Matt Dunaway. You will be assigned a login and password that will enable you to retrieve pictures. This service is for the media use only. Resale of these pictures is strictly prohibited.
