BACK HOME IN OMAHA!

The 2015 Tigers advanced to the College World Series for a nation's-best fourth time in the past eight seasons. LSU in 2015 led the country in wins (54), and the Tigers were ranked No. 1 for 10 consecutive weeks during the season.

23 TITLES

LSU has won 23 championships under the direction of coach Paul Mainieri, the most of any SEC school over the past eight seasons.

- 1 NCAA NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP
- 3 SEC REGULAR-SEASON TITLES
- 4 NCAA SUPER REGIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS
- 5 NCAA REGIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS
- 5 SEC WESTERN DIVISION CROWNS
- 5 SEC TOURNAMENT TITLES

LSU celebrates its 2015 NCAA Super Regional victory over Louisiana-Lafayette in Alex Box Stadium, Skip Bertman Field as the Tigers earned the 17th CWS berth in school history.

A PROGRAM OF EXCELLENCE

Paul Mainieri, the 2008 and 2009 National Coach of the Year, begins his 10th season in 2016 as the head coach of the LSU Fighting Tigers. Mainieri was named on June 28, 2006 as LSU's 25th baseball coach, and he stated on that day that his goal was "to return LSU to the pinnacle position in college baseball." He and his staff took an immediate first step toward that objective by signing the nation's No. 1 recruiting class. In just his second season in Baton Rouge, Mainieri guided the Tigers to the 2008 College World Series. En route to the CWS, the Tigers won SEC Western Division and SEC Tournament titles, and LSU established a conference-record 23-game win streak from April 22-June 1. Then in 2009, Mainieri did indeed return the Tigers to the "pinnacle position" as LSU won the national championship with an 11-4 victory over Texas in Game 3 of the College World Series Finals. The nine-season Paul Mainieri Era at LSU has produced one national championship, four CWS appearances, five NCAA Regional titles, three SEC regular-season championships, five SEC Western Division crowns and five SEC Tournament titles. LSU has posted the most wins in the nation over the past eight years (387 wins), the past four years (204 wins) and last season (54 wins).

SIX

NCAA Championships won by the LSU Tigers

LSU is one of only three schools to win six national titles in the 69-year history of the CWS. The other schools are Southern California (12 titles) and Texas (6).

LSU has claimed its six CWS titles in the past 25 years. Southern Cal has one national title in the past 37 years; Texas has won three CWS titles in the past 33 seasons.

16

Hall of Fame Coach Paul Mainieri

LSU coach Paul Mainieri, a Miami, Fla. native, has 1,279 career victories, as he directed the baseball programs at St. Thomas University (1983-88), Air Force (1989-94) and Notre Dame (1995-2006) prior to arriving at LSU in June 2006. Mainieri's overall head coaching record is 1,279-653-8 (.656) in 33 collegiate seasons, and he has a 415-161-3 (.719) mark in nine seasons at LSU. He is the Tigers' second-winningest coach, trailing only Skip Bertman (870-330-3 from 1984-2001). Mainieri, a four-time National Coach of the Year, was inducted into the American Baseball Coaches Association Hall of Fame in January 2014, and he was named the Skip Bertman National Coach of the Year in 2015.

Under Mainieri, LSU has posted the most wins in the nation over the past eight seasons (387 wins), the past four seasons (204 wins) and last season (54 wins). During his nine-season LSU tenure, the Tigers have earned one NCAA National Championship, four College World Series appearances, four NCAA Regional titles, three SEC regular-season championships, five SEC Western Division titles and five SEC Tournament crowns.

In just his third season at LSU, Mainieri directed the 2009 Tigers to the College World Series title, posting a 56-17 overall record, including a 10-1 mark in NCAA Tournament competition.

Mainieri earned 2009 National Coach of the Year recognition from Collegiate Baseball, Baseball America, Rivals.com and the American Baseball Coaches Association.

The Tigers defeated Texas in the CWS Championship Finals to win the national title, LSU's sixth CWS championship and its first since 2000. Mainieri also guided his squad to the 2009 Southeastern Conference regular-season and tournament titles.

LSU played host to the NCAA Baton Rouge Regional, where the Tigers defeated Southern, Baylor and Minnesota to set up a Super Regional matchup versus Rice in Alex Box Stadium. LSU swept two games from the Owls, earning a berth to the CWS for the second straight season and for the 15th time in school history.

The Tigers defeated Virginia in their CWS opener and recorded two wins over Arkansas to advance to the CWS Championship Finals versus Texas. Trailing 6-4 in the ninth inning of Game 1, the Tigers staged a dramatic two-run rally and eventually prevailed, 7-6, in 11 innings. The Longhorns posted a 5-1 win in Game 2; however, LSU overwhelmed UT, 11-4, in the deciding game to claim the NCAA championship trophy.

CWS Appearances in the Mainieri Era

Along with the 2009 national title, Mainieri has guided LSU to CWS appearances in 2015, 2013 and 2008.

The 2015 Tigers led the nation with 54 wins, and LSU advanced to the College World Series for the second time in three years and for the 17th time in school history. The Tigers are the only team in the country to earn a National Seed in each of the last four NCAA Tournaments. LSU was the No. 2 National Seed in 2015.

LSU in 2015 captured the SEC regular-season championship for the 16th time in school history and won the SEC Western Division title for the 18th time. The Tigers posted a 21-8 conference mark and clinched the league title with a series victory at South Carolina on the final regular-season weekend of the year.

Mainieri was named the 2015 National Coach of the Year by the NCBWA, and he received the Skip Bertman National Coach of the Year Award presented by the College Baseball Foundation. The National Coach of the Year designation is the fourth for Mainieri during his career; he has received National Coach of the Year recognition two previous times at LSU (2008, 2009) and once at Notre Dame (2000). Mainieri was also voted 2015 SEC Coach of the Year, marking the third time he has received the league honor.

LSU produced five players that received 2015 All-America recognition including junior shortstop Alex Bregman, freshman pitcher Alex Lange, senior catcher Kade Scivicque, junior first baseman Chris Chinae and junior centerfielder

The 2013 Tigers' 57 victories matched the SEC single-season record, and LSU posted the nation's best winning percentage (.838). The Tigers also established a school record with 23 SEC regular-season victories.

LSU won the 2013 SEC Western Division and SEC Tournament championships and was the NCAA Tournament No. 4 National Seed.

The Tigers played host to and won both the NCAA Regional and Super Regional and earned the 16th CWS berth in school history. LSU, which played in Omaha's three-year-old TD Ameritrade Park for the first time, placed seventh in the CWS after dropping consecutive games to UCLA and North Carolina. LSU completed the season ranked No. 5 by Baseball America, marking the Tigers' fourth Top 10 finish in six seasons.

For the first time in school history, LSU produced three first-team All-Americans in one season - senior first baseman Mason Katz, sophomore pitcher Aaron Nola and freshman shortstop Alex Bregman. Nola was voted SEC Pitcher of the Year and Bregman SEC Freshman of the Year by the league coaches.

Mainieri was a finalist for the 2013 Skip Bertman National Coach of the Year award, and a school-record nine Tigers were selected in the '13 Major League Baseball Draft.

Mainieri was named 2008 National Coach of the Year by Rivals.com after guiding the '08 Tigers to the College World Series in just his second season at the helm of the program.

The Tigers finished the season ranked sixth in the nation by Collegiate Baseball, Baseball America and ESPN/USA Today. LSU (49-19-1), picked to finish fifth in the SEC Western Division in the '08 preseason coaches' poll, won 26 of its final 29 games, including a conference-record 23-game win streak that saw LSU claim the SEC Western Division title, the SEC Tournament championship and the NCAA Baton Rouge Regional championship.

LSU's 23-game surge ended with a loss to UC Irvine in Game 1 of the NCAA Baton Rouge Super Regional, but the Tigers won the next two games over the Anteaters to advance to the College World Series for the 14th time in school history and for the first time since 2004.

LSU placed fifth in Omaha with a 1-2 record, marking the Tigers' first Top 5 CWS finish since the 2000 squad claimed the national title.

The Skip Bertman Era (1984-2001)

Skip Bertman is LSU's all-time winningest coach, as he compiled an 870-330-3 (.724) record in 18 seasons (1984-2001). Bertman, the National Coach of the Year in 1986, 1991, 1993, 1996, 1997 and 2000, and the 1996 United States Olympic head coach, guided the Tigers to five national championships (1991, 1993, 1996, 1997, 2000) and 11 College World Series appearances (1986, '87, '89, '90, '91, '93, '94, '96, '97, '98, '00). Under Bertman, LSU finished in the Top 7 in the national polls in 12 of his final 16 seasons.

Warren Morris' two-out ninth-inning home run to defeat Miami in the 1996 College World Series title game was named the "Showstopper of the Year" at the ESPY Awards.

Home runs by the Tigers in their 1997 National Championship season

The total established an NCAA record, shattering the previous mark of 161 set in 1988 by Brigham Young. LSU hit at least one home run in all 70 of its 1997 games.

Bertman was a member of the inaugural class of the College Baseball Hall of Fame that was inducted in July 2006. He is one of only three coaches to have won five College World Series titles. Southern Cal's Rod Dedeaux won 10 CWS crowns from 1958-78, and Augie Garrido has captured five championships with two schools (Cal State Fullerton, 1979, '84, '95; Texas, 2002, '05).

National Titles Under Bertman (1991, 1993, 1996, 1997, 2000)

In 1991, Skip Bertman led LSU to its first national championship with a record-setting performance at the CWS. The Tigers defeated Wichita State, 6-3, in the title game and established Series marks for home runs (nine), runs per game (12), slugging percentage (.603) and fielding percentage (.993).

The '91 Tigers became the first team since Miami (Fla.) in 1982 to win the national championship without a loss in the NCAA Tournament – LSU was undefeated in the NCAA South Regional (4-0) and in the CWS (4-0)

In 1993, LSU won its second NCAA title in three years with an 8-0 victory over Wichita State in the CWS final. The 1993 Tigers also captured the Southeastern Conference title, as LSU became the first SEC school to win the league championship in four consecutive seasons (1990-93).

The '93 squad, in the 100th anniversary season of LSU Baseball, began the year ranked No. 1 in the preseason polls. A century of baseball excellence was culminated as the Tigers claimed the CWS crown, posting a final record of 53-17-1.

LSU claimed its third national championship of the 1990s in 1996 when second baseman

Warren Morris belted a two-run homer in the bottom of the ninth inning to lift the Tigers to a thrilling 9-8 College World Series title game win over Miami (Fla.). The '96 Tigers were one of the most prolific offensive teams in Southeastern Conference history, establishing league records for home runs (131), runs scored (648), RBI (549) and total bases (1,331).

LSU won its fourth NCAA title in June, 1997, as the Tigers overwhelmed Alabama, 13-6, in the College World Series final. LSU became the first school to win back-to-back national championships since Stanford in 1987-88. The Tigers completed the year with a 57-13 mark, setting the Southeastern Conference record for most single-season victories. The Tigers also established the NCAA record for single-season home runs, as LSU unloaded a remarkable 188 round-trippers en route to the national championship. LSU joined Southern California (six titles in the 1970s) as the only schools to win four CWS crowns in one decade.

Bertman directed LSU to its fifth national title in 2000, as the Tigers recorded a 52-17 mark, including a perfect 13-0 post-season record. LSU won the SEC Tournament with four straight wins, and the Tigers raced to a 9-0 mark in the NCAA Tournament. The Tigers captured the national title with a thrilling 6-5 win over Stanford in the CWS championship game, as LSU scored four runs in the last two innings to overcome a 5-2 deficit. Catcher Brad Cresse's RBI single in the bottom of the ninth inning drove home shortstop Ryan Theriot with the winning run.

The 2000 squad was Bertman's most productive offensive team, setting a school record for team batting average with a .340 mark. The Tigers also established Southeastern Conference records for hits (864) and doubles (194). For the fifth time, Bertman was voted National Coach of the Year by Collegiate Baseball magazine.

Eddy Furniss claimed the 1998 Dick Howser Award as college baseball's most outstanding player.

More CWS Teams

LSU made its first CWS appearance in 1986, when the Tigers finished fifth with a 1-2 record. LSU lost its CWS debut, 4-3, to Loyola-Marymount before rebounding with its first Series win, an 8-4 triumph over Maine. The Tigers were then eliminated by defending CWS champion Miami (Fla.), 4-3.

LSU returned to Omaha in 1987, marking the first time a Southeastern Conference team made back-to-back CWS appearances. The Tigers placed fourth in '87 with a 2-2 mark, as LSU was eliminated when Stanford's Paul Carey sent a Ben McDonald pitch over the left-field wall with the bases loaded in the 10th inning to give the Cardinal a 6-5 win.

In 1989, after an incredible two-game sweep of top-ranked Texas A&M – the Aggies entered the regional final round with a 58-5 record – in the NCAA Central Regional at College Station, Texas, LSU joined the CWS field, placing in a tie for third with a 2-2 record.

In 1990, the Tigers again emerged from an NCAA regional tournament losers' bracket to earn a CWS berth, as LSU captured the South I Regional at Baton Rouge with two scintillating one-run wins over Southern California. LSU finished in a tie for third at the '90 CWS, recording a 2-2 mark in the summer classic.

In 1994, LSU became the first defending national champion to return to the CWS since Stanford accomplished the feat in 1988. The Tigers earned the CWS berth with four straight wins in the NCAA South Regional at Baton Rouge, including a thrilling 12-10 triumph over Southern California in the regional final. However, for the first time in its CWS history, LSU went "two-and-out" in Omaha, as the Tigers dropped consecutive decisions to Florida State and Cal

State-Fullerton.

The 1998 LSU squad earned the Tigers' seventh CWS berth of the '90s. LSU defeated Southern California (12-10) and Mississippi State (10-8) in its first two CWS games, increasing the Tigers' Series winning streak to 10 games over three years. However, LSU suffered back-to-back losses to Southern Cal (5-4 and 7-3), and the Trojans advanced to the national championship game, where they defeated Arizona State.

LSU's 2003 SEC Championship club earned the school's first CWS trip since 2000. The Tigers played host to an NCAA Regional for the 14th straight year, as the Tigers won the tournament with a thrilling 9-8, 11-inning victory over North Carolina-Wilmington in the final game. LSU then entertained Baylor in NCAA Super Regional play, defeating the Bears in two of three games to advance to the CWS. LSU failed to win a game in Omaha as the Tigers were defeated by Cal State Fullerton (8-2) and South Carolina (11-10).

LSU played host in 2004 to an NCAA Regional for the 15th straight season, winning the tournament with consecutive victories over Army, Southern Mississippi and College of Charleston. The Tigers then played host to an NCAA Super Regional for the third time in five years, defeating Texas A&M in a best two-of-three series to earn a berth in the CWS. LSU was eliminated from the CWS in two games, as the Tigers dropped decisions to Miami (Fla.) and South Carolina.

LSU has finished either first or second in the overall conference standings in 17 of the past 27 years. LSU has also won 11 SEC Tournament crowns (1986, '90, '92, '93, '94, 2000, 2008, 2009, 2010, 2013, 2014), including five in the past eight seasons.

In 1993, LSU became the only school in Southeastern Conference history to win four straight league titles. The '93 Tigers, who registered an 18-8-1 SEC mark, clinched the overall championship by winning the SEC Western Division Tournament title in Alex Box Stadium. LSU defeated Mississippi State, 7-3, in the final game after battling out of the tournament losers' bracket.

College Baseball Hall of Fame

Former LSU players Ben McDonald, Todd Walker and Eddy Furniss join legendary coach Skip Bertman as LSU inductees into the College Baseball Hall of Fame.

McDonald, a right-handed pitcher from Denham Springs, La., capped a magnificent 1989 season by receiving the Golden Spikes Award, given by the United States Baseball Federation to the nation's most outstanding amateur player.

McDonald, who set an LSU career mark with 373 Ks, established Southeastern Conference standards for single-season strikeouts (202), innings pitched (152.1) and consecutive scoreless innings (44.2). A two-time All-American and a 1988 Olympic gold medalist, he finished his LSU career with a 29-14 record and a 3.24 ERA. He was inducted into the College Baseball Hall of Fame at Lubbock, Texas in July 2008.

Furniss, a first baseman, culminated a sterling four-year career by receiving the 1998 Dick Howser Trophy as the nation's most outstanding player. A 2007 inductee into the LSU Athletic Hall of Fame and a 2010 inductee into the College Baseball Hall of Fame, he finished his career as the SEC's all-time leader in hits (352), home runs (80), RBI (308), doubles, (87) and total bases (689). In NCAA annals, Furniss finished his career No. 3 all-time in total bases, No. 4 in home runs and doubles, and No. 5 in RBI. The Nacogdoches, Texas, native – who posted a .371 lifetime batting average – hit .403 in 1998 with 27 doubles, three triples, 28 homers and 76 RBI.

Walker was voted in 1996 as the second baseman on the College World Series All-Time Team by the readers of the Omaha World-Herald. Walker, a 2009 inductee into the College Baseball Hall of Fame, completed a brilliant three-year LSU career in 1994 as he became the SEC's all-time leader in hits (310), runs (234), RBI (246) and total bases (557). Walker, a native of Bossier City, La., was a 1994 finalist for the Golden Spikes Award and the Smith Award, as he batted .393 with 18 homers and 68 RBI. A consensus '94 All-American, he was also named the Most Outstanding Player of the NCAA South Regional, and he was selected to the College World Series All-Tournament team. Walker finished his career as LSU's all-time leader in hits, runs, RBI, total bases, home runs (52), doubles (61), triples (15) and batting average (.396). He was inducted into the LSU Athletic Hall of Fame in 2006.

More National Awards

Lloyd Peever, a right-handed pitcher from Stonewall, Okla., was named the 1992 National Player of the Year by Collegiate Baseball magazine. Peever, one of nine finalists for the 1992 Golden Spikes Award, was named first-team All-America by Collegiate Baseball, Baseball America and the American Baseball Coaches 2000 Golden Spikes Award. Cresse helped lead LSU to the 2000 national title by hitting .388 (106-for-273) with 21 doubles, 30 homers, 106 RBI, 73 runs, 217 total bases and a .790 slugging percentage. He provided the game-winning RBI in the 2000 national championship game versus Stanford, as his single in the bottom of the ninth inning scored shortstop Ryan Theriot from second base to give LSU a 6-5 win.

LSU freshman Alex Bregman was named the winner of the 2013 Brooks Wallace National Shortstop of the Year Award. Bregman, product of Albuquerque, N.M., batted .369 with 18 doubles, seven triples, six home runs and 52 RBI during the first season of his college career, leading the Tigers to a berth in the College World Series. Bregman earned 2013 consensus first-team all-America honors and was named the National Freshman Player of the Year by Collegiate Baseball magazine. He was also named SEC Freshman of the Year and Louisiana Freshman of the Year.

LSU junior right-hander Aaron Nola was named the 2014 National Pitcher of the Year by the College Baseball Foundation. Nola, a 2014 Golden Spikes Award finalist and a two-time Southeastern Conference Pitcher of the Year, enjoyed a brilliant 2014 season, as he posted an 11-1 mark and a 1.47 ERA in 116.1 innings with 27 walks and 134 strikeouts. During his remarkable three-year LSU career (2012-14), Nola compiled a 30-6 mark and a 2.09 ERA in 332 innings with 42 walks and 345 strikeouts.

Right-hander Alex Lange was voted the 2015 National Freshman Pitcher of the Year by Collegiate Baseball magazine and the NCBWA. He posted a 12-0 record with a 1.97 ERA in 114 innings. In 17 starts, he recorded 131 strikeouts and limited opponents to a .212 cumulative batting average.

Lange, a native of Lee's Summit, Mo., was also voted the 2015 SEC Freshman of the Year, and he received first-team All-America and first-team All-SEC recognition.

International Baseball

LSU has established an outstanding international reputation with representatives on U.S. Olympic squads in 1988, 1992, 1996 and 2000. Skip Bertman served as the head coach of the United States Olympic team in 1996, directing the Americans to the bronze medal in Atlanta. As the USA Baseball head coach for two summers (1995 and '96), Bertman guided the U.S. to an incredible 71-11 record (.866 winning percentage), culminating his tenure with a victory over Nicaragua for the 1996 Olympic bronze medal.

LSU second baseman Warren Morris and shortstop Jason Williams were two of the '96 Olympic team's brightest stars as the starting middle infielders. Morris was the Americans' leading hitter in the Olympics, batting .409 in nine games with five homers, one double, 11 RBI and 10 runs. Williams batted .367 in the Olympics with three homers, nine RBI and 10 runs.

Bertman also served as the pitching coach of the 1988 U.S. Olympic team which captured a gold medal in Seoul. The '88 squad featured LSU pitcher Ben McDonald, who posted two Olympic victories. LSU pitcher Rick Greene was a member of the '92 Olympic team which competed in Barcelona, but fell short of earning a medal. LSU pitcher Kurt Ainsworth helped lead the U.S. to the gold medal at the 2000 Olympics in Sydney. Ainsworth pitched the Americans to wins over Holland and Australia en route to the Olympic title.

Attendance

LSU led the nation in total attendance for the 20th straight year in 2015, as the Tigers drew 421,771 fans to Alex Box Stadium. The Tigers averaged 10,814 fans per contest last season. Over seven million fans have seen the Tigers play in their home stadium over the past 32 seasons. A total of 7,540,976 patrons have experienced "Baseball at the Box" during that period.

Innovative promotional schemes, record-breaking crowds and increasing revenues characterize LSU's baseball program. In 1983, the year before Skip Bertman's arrival as head coach, LSU drew only 10,002 fans for 22 dates at Alex Box Stadium, an average of 454 per game.

Academic Excellence

LSU's steadfast emphasis on academics has produced exceptional results. Student-athletes who leave the university early to play professional baseball often return at a later time to earn their degrees. For example, pitcher Clay Parker, who completed his athletic eligibility in 1984, received his LSU degree in 1995 after enjoying a lengthy major league career. Former MLB second baseman Todd Walker, who signed a pro contract in 1994, received a business degree from LSU in the fall of 1998.

Former LSU first baseman Eddy Furniss was named a 1997 first-team Academic all-American by GTE-CoSIDA, and he received second-team Academic all-America recognition in 1996 and 1998. Other Academic all-America selections include pitcher Chris Demouy (third-team, 1996), second baseman Warren Morris (first-team, 1995) and catcher Tim Lanier (third-team, 1994). Third baseman Wally Pontiff was a member of the 2002 GTE/CoSIDA District VI Academic all-America team, and pitcher Kurt Ainsworth earned District VI recognition in 1999.

Left-handed pitcher Jason Determann was named the 2005 SEC Baseball Scholar-Athlete of the Year with a 3.781 GPA in biology. He was also voted to the ESPN The Magazine second-team Academic All-America squad. Determann received his undergraduate degree in May 2005, and he was accepted to the LSU Medical School.

Right-handed pitcher Jordan Faircloth received the 2005 SEC Community Service Post-Graduate Scholarship, and he was named to the SEC Good Works Team. Faircloth, who received his LSU degree in political science with a 3.383 GPA, was a volunteer speaker to children at local schools, served food at homeless shelters and was active in Habitat for Humanity, building homes for needy families. He was a member of the 2005 SEC Academic Honor Roll and a five-time member of the LSU Dean's List.

Outfielder Sean McMullen, a native of Metairie, La., was named the 2014 Tiger Athletic Foundation Male Scholar-Athlete of the Year, and he was the LSU Athletic Department nominee for the Boyd McWhorter SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year Award. McMullen was a two-time member of the SEC Academic Honor Roll, and he earned his LSU degree in kinesiology in May 2014 with a 3.71 grade point average.

SKIP BERTMAN FIELD

The field at Alex Box Stadium was named "Skip Bertman Field" on May 17, 2013 prior to the Tigers' game versus Ole Miss. Bertman coached LSU to five national titles during his 18-season tenure (1984-2001).

A First Class Home for a Great Legacy

The Alex Box Stadium, Skip Bertman Field experience is a unique one, created by the greatest and most loyal fans in all of college baseball, combined with an enduring legacy of championships.

In February 2009, the LSU Baseball program moved into a new home, and all of the traditions, memories and excitement that make Tiger baseball truly special live on in the New Alex Box Stadium.

From LSU's first SEC title team in '39, to Bruce Baudier's perfect game, to Rich Cordani's game-winning home run against Southern Cal, to the regional championship victory laps of the 1990s, the original Alex Box Stadium was home from 1938-2008 to some of the greatest moments in all of college baseball history.

Now the LSU baseball legacy has moved 200 yards to the south into a state-of-the-art facility, designed to provide the resources necessary to sustain LSU's tradition of excellence while also accommodating in comfort the record-setting crowds that set Tiger Baseball apart from the rest of America.

In the New Box, the Tiger baseball team enjoys nearly 10,000 square-feet of locker and meeting room space, new batting cages and all the amenities necessary to field a consistent winner.

A 21st Century home has opened for a grand old tradition ... LSU Baseball at Alex Box Stadium, Skip Bertman Field.

ALEX BOX STADIUM

The original Alex Box Stadium, home of the LSU Fighting Tigers from 1938-2008, has a storied history which spans several decades. The 2008 season was the last for the Tigers in the 70-year-old facility, as LSU moved into the New Alex Box Stadium in 2009.

Alex Box Stadium Testimonials

"We tried to prepare our players for coming here, but I don't think you can prepare anybody for this, until you get here. This - and I mean this in a complimentary way - is a very, very special place; a very unique place ... There are lots of places where there's great baseball played and there's great support and they get behind their teams. But there is nothing like this. This is in first place and everything else is a distant second place."

- UC Irvine coach Mike Gillespie after the 2008 NCAA Super Regional in Alex Box Stadium

"I want to commend what I truly believe may be the premier crowd in all of college baseball . . . that is a special, special crowd out there. I want to say that the way the fans have responded all weekend to just excellence and outstanding play leads me to believe that they truly do appreciate the difficulty of playing this game. I'm glad to have our players play in front of a crowd that I truly believe appreciated their performance."

- Baylor coach Steve Smith after the 2003 NCAA Super Regional in Alex Box Stadium

LSU has finished first in the nation in total attendance for 20 straight seasons. In 2015, the Tigers drew 421,771 fans in the seventh season of Alex Box Stadium, Skip Bertman Field.

LSU has been among the nation's attendance leaders for the past 25 seasons, finishing No. 5 in 1991, No. 6 in 1992, No. 4 in 1993, No. 3 in 1994 and in 1995, and No. 1 from 1996-2015.

Over the past 32 seasons, the Tigers have attracted over seven million fans to their home stadium. A total of 7,540,976 patrons have watched the Tigers play at "The Box" from 1984 to 2015.

The new Alex Box Stadium, which opened in 2009, has played host to five NCAA regionals and four super regionals in seven seasons.

The original Alex Box Stadium was the site of four SEC tournaments, 18 NCAA regional tournaments, four NCAA super regional series and one ABCA Hall of Fame tournament.

Originally a 2,500-seat facility, the concrete and steel grandstand of the original Alex Box Stadium was completed in 1938. Funding came from the Works Progress Administration, a federally sponsored agency which constructed public athletic facilities, among other such projects.

In its first two years, the original Alex Box Stadium was the site of spring training for the New York Giants. Such legendary baseball figures as Mel Ott, Carl Hubbell, Bill Terry and Dick Bartell trained at "The Box."

The "Intimidator" billboard depicting LSU's NCAA titles was unveiled in the original Alex Box Stadium prior to the '97 season. The most recent version of the "Intimidator" was installed in the New Alex Box Stadium prior to the 2010 season.

Alex Box (1920-1943)

LSU's baseball stadium was named in 1943 for Alex Box, an outfielder for the 1942 Tiger squad. Box was killed in 1943 while fighting in North Africa during World War II.

Simeon Alexander Box was born August 5, 1920, in Quitman, Miss., and attended George S. Gardiner High School in Laurel, Miss. Box came to LSU in 1938 and majored in petroleum engineering.

He played football and baseball, served as vice president of the junior class in engineering and was a member of several professional societies. He earned his petroleum engineering degree in 1942.

Box pursued his advanced ROTC studies in the engineering regiment. A handsome, popular figure on campus, he met and developed a close relationship with Earle Hubert, an attractive member of Delta Zeta sorority from Plaquemine, La. They had an understanding that she would complete her elementary education degree while he was serving in the military; then, they would later marry. Tragically, the terrors of warfare changed those plans.

After being commissioned in the U.S. Army, Box made short stops at camps in Florida and Pennsylvania and went on to England in August, 1942. He was posted to the First Infantry Division, called the "Big Red One" in North Africa. Lieutenant Box, a tank commander, displayed his heroism on November 9, 1942, when he risked his life in helping destroy six enemy machine gun nests and an artillery emplacement near Arcole, Algeria. His brave acts earned him the Distinguished Service Cross, the Army's second-highest decoration.

Only two months later, there was a fierce battle in Tunisia, and Box's tank was shredded by a German mine. He was killed instantly on February 19, 1943, at the age of 22. Brigadier General Theodore Roosevelt, wrote a letter of condolence to Box's mother, Mattie, saying "the deeds and death of your son have gone to make up the spiritual background that is this country."

Laurel, Miss., superintendent of schools R.H. Watkins eulogized Box as a "perfect example of an athlete, a Christian gentleman, a scholar and a soldier . . . His beautiful life may be compared to a great piece of music which ends on a high note."

On the LSU campus, there was a spontaneous movement that spring to commemorate his sacrifice in some tangible way. At its May 28, 1943 meeting, the LSU Board of Supervisors voted unanimously to name the baseball stadium for Box. That was considered such an unusual decision that the student newspaper, The Reveille, observed, "For the first time in the school's history, the service and memory of the military hero came to be esteemed so highly that a structure on the campus was named in his honor."

The Box family made a special presentation of Alex's personal memorabilia to LSU during the 1991 baseball season. The memorabilia, enclosed in a specially-constructed glass case, is permanently housed in the Wally Pontiff Jr. Hall of Fame.

May 6, 1939

LSU defeats Tulane, 16-0, clinching its first SEC crown with a 10-2 conference record. The Tigers receive help from the Auburn Plainsmen, who defeated Florida, giving the Gators their second loss of the season, and eliminating them from title contention.

May 6, 1946

LSU completes a doubleheader sweep of Tulane to finish 11-3 in SEC play and win the league title. In the first outing, home runs by Joe Bill Adcock and Gene "Red" Knight help to erase a 4-1 deficit. Mel Didier singles in two runs in the seventh and LSU captures a 7-4 victory. In Game 2, home runs by Knight and Ray Coates highlight LSU's 4-3 win, as the Tigers clinch the SEC title.

May 12, 1961

LSU defeats Auburn 6-5 in the second game of a best-of-three series to win the SEC Championship. LSU trails 5-4 in the bottom of the 11th inning when the Tigers rally for two runs. Bobby Theriot provides the game-winning single and LSU captures the league crown. The paid attendance for the game was estimated to be around 2,500, making it the most attended LSU baseball game at the time.

May 5, 1967

LSU right-hander Bruce Baudier fires a seven-inning perfect game, blanking Alabama, 2-0, in the second game of a doubleheader. Baudier records eight strikeouts and needs only 72 pitches to defeat the Crimson Tide in front of 450 fans in Alex Box Stadium.

March 3, 1972

On Opening Day, LSU pitcher Randy Wiles pitches a no-hitter in the first game of a doubleheader against Rice, leading the Tigers to a 3-0 victory. Wiles pitches seven innings, recording 11 strikeouts and one walk. The no-hitter is nearly broken up with an infield hit, but is kept alive with an outstanding play by freshman shortstop Mike Miley.

May 14, 1975

LSU defeats Georgia 6-5 in the first game of a best-of-three series to determine the SEC champion. Randy Aldridge singles in the winning run in the bottom of the 10th. Paul Stefan earns the victory, pitching 8.2 innings of relief and striking out 13. LSU goes on to win the series and the SEC title with a 8-3 win over the Bulldogs in Athens.

March 14, 1979

Robert Landry pitches only the fourth no-hitter in LSU's history, defeating Southern Miss 1-0 at Alex Box Stadium. Landry strikes out seven and walks three in the seven-inning contest. Randy Olson, the Tigers' designated hitter, hits a solo home run for the lone score of the game.

May 25, 1986

Albert Belle smashes two, two-run homers in the South I Regional championship game, leading the Tigers to their first College World Series with a 7-6 win over Tulane at Alex Box Stadium. Belle was named tournament MVP for his efforts.

May 28, 1990

Rich Cordani's dramatic two-run blast in the seventh inning lifts LSU to a thrilling 7-6 South Regional championship game win over Southern California.

April 26, 1993

LSU defeats Tulane, 5-2, in a "Turn Back the Clock" game in Alex Box Stadium. The players wear early 20th-century replica uniforms and use wooden bats in the contest. The game celebrates the 100th anniversary of the LSU Baseball program.

May 29, 1994

LSU holds on to a 12-10 win over Southern Cal in the South Regional final. Former Trojan and current Minnesota Twins star Jacque Jones smashes three homers in defeat.

May 26, 1996

In one of the largest hit outputs in school history, LSU uses 18 runs on 13 hits in the seventh inning of the South II Regional championship game to rout Georgia Tech, 29-13.

Skip Bertman is ejected from the game during LSU's epic 1997 NCAA Regional win over Long Beach State. Bertman was ejected only three times in his 18 seasons as LSU's head coach.

May 25, 1997

A classic five-hour marathon comes to an end as LSU outlasts Long Beach State by scoring seven runs in the 11th inning for a 14-7 victory. One day later, the Tigers avenge their second round loss to South Alabama by sweeping the Jaguars, 14-4 and 15-4, before defending their national championship in Omaha.

May 23, 1998

LSU falls behind Cal State Fullerton, 7-0 through two innings, but Cedrick Harris' two-run double in the eighth caps a four-run inning to complete a comeback as the Tigers earn a 13-11 victory. LSU routs the Titans 14-3 the next day to reach Omaha.

May 30-31, 1999

Facing a seven-run deficit and in danger of being eliminated, LSU rallies to take a 12-10 lead it would not relinquish against East Carolina to force a second championship game. Kurt Ainsworth gets an extra day of rest thanks to rain, which forces the second contest to be moved to Monday. Ainsworth blanks the Pirates, 9-0, hurling the Tigers to a super regional matchup with SEC foe Alabama.

June 2, 2002

LSU comes through the loser's bracket to defeat UL-Lafayette twice by identical 12-2 scores to win its seventh consecutive regional championship. The Tigers are the only regional winner of 2002 to come through the loser's bracket to win twice on the final day.

June 1, 2003

Jon Zeringue's one-out, walk-off home run in the bottom of the 11th sends LSU to the super regional round as the Tigers defeat a pesky UNC-Wilmington club, 9-8.

June 7-8, 2003

LSU blasts Baylor 20-5, using an 11-run sixth inning highlighted by Clay Harris' grand slam to reach its 12th College World Series. The Tigers faced elimination a day earlier after Baylor captured the first contest in the best-of-three set. Harris and Ivan Naccarata belted back-to-back homers to lead off the eighth inning to lift LSU over Baylor, 6-5, to set up the rubber match.

June 13, 2004

Lane Mestepey fires a masterful five-hit shutout in Game 2 of a Super Regional series against Texas A&M. Will Harris' ninth-inning homer clinches LSU's 4-0 triumph and sends the Tigers to the College World Series for the second straight season.

Skip Bertman opens the "spirit ball" prior to the first game in the New Alex Box Stadium on February 20, 2009.

June 8-9, 2008

LSU completes its 70-year residency in Alex Box Stadium in grand fashion, overwhelming UC Irvine, 21-7, in Game 3 of the NCAA Baton Rouge Super Regional. The win vaults the Tigers into the College World Series for the 14th time since 1986. LSU explodes for six runs in the first inning on the strength of consecutive home runs by Blake Dean, Micah Gibbs and Matt Clark to roll past the Anteaters. The Tigers had faced elimination in Game 2 the day before, but LSU erupted for five runs in the ninth inning to erase a 7-4 deficit and post a 9-7 victory, setting up the Game 3 final showdown.

February 20, 2009

LSU defeats Villanova, 12-3, in the first game played in the New Alex Box Stadium. Over 9,000 fans witness the inaugural contest played in the state-of-the-art ball park. Louis Coleman, who fires the first pitch in stadium history, earns the victory with a strong outing against the Wildcats.

June 6, 2009

LSU defeats Rice, 5-3, to win the NCAA Super Regional and advance to the College World Series in the first season of the New Alex Box Stadium. A crowd of 9,651 fans watches as Louis Coleman and Matty Ott pitch the Tigers to victory. Coleman earns his 13th win and Ott picks up his 16th save as the Tigers head to Omaha for the 15th time in school annals.

June 3, 2012

LSU erases a 5-4, ninth-inning deficit and defeats Oregon State, 6-5, in 10 innings to win the NCAA Baton Rouge Regional. Alex Edward's RBI double ties the contest in the ninth, and Austin Nola scores the game-winning run on a wild pitch in the 10th.

June 7, 2013

LSU right-hander Aaron Nola delivers one of the greatest pitching performances in Fighting Tiger postseason history, limiting Oklahoma to no runs on two hits with six strikeouts in nine innings, as the Tigers post a 2-0 victory in Game 1 of the NCAA Super Regional in Alex Box Stadium, Skip Bertman Field. Nola outduels OU ace Jonathan Gray, who holds the Tigers scoreless until the eighth inning when Tyler Moore delivers a run-scoring double and Mark Laird adds an RBI single. LSU goes on to advance to the College World Series the next day with an 11-1 victory over the Sooners in Game 2 of the Super Regional.

June 6, 2015

Senior DH Chris Sciambra launches a solo walk-off homer in the bottom of the ninth inning to lift the Tigers to a 4-3 win over UL-Lafayette in Game 1 of the NCAA Super Regional. LSU defeated the Cajuns, 6-3, the next day to advance to the CWS.

LSU announced in April 2008 its All-Alex Box Stadium "Foundation Era" Team, an all-star squad of former student-athletes that played for the Tigers from 1938-83.

The 29-member team was selected by a panel of media and former LSU players and coaches. The Foundation Era encompasses the opening of Alex Box Stadium in 1938 through 1983, the year prior to Skip Bertman's appointment as the Tigers' head coach.

The squad includes 11 pitchers, nine infielders, five outfielders and four catchers.

Major Fields for Doctoral Degrees: 54

LSU's Memorial Tower (top main photo) was one of the first structures completed on the present campus and sits east of the quadrangle (above, left). It represents the University as a memorial to those who gave their lives during World War I. Although it currently houses the LSU Anglo-American Art Museum, plans are in process to return Memorial Tower to a military museum as originally intended. The University lakes (above, right) on the LSU campus give various recreational options.

Louisiana State University and Agricultural & Mechanical College has, throughout its 156-year history, served the people of Louisiana, the region, the nation and the world. LSU is creating a revolution, one of pervasive change and advancement. The focus of the LSU community has been an increased commitment to excellence. Our progress has been dramatic and shows no sign of stopping.

Having witnessed many of yesterday's possibilities become today's tangible realities, the LSU community set forth to capitalize on its success. The goal was to improve our standing as a nationally competitive flagship university. Following intense discussions among the LSU Board of Supervisors, campus administrators, faculty and student leaders, the objectives required to reach this status crystallized, providing the impetus for LSU's National Flagship Agenda.

Why LSU?

"How could you put a price tag on the experience I had at LSU? You couldn't pay me enough money to take away the College World Series championship or the things I learned from [former LSU head coach] Skip Bertman to the relationships I have with guys like [former LSU teammates] Victor Brumfield and Blair Barbier. You meet all these guys and you have lifelong friends. I could go on and on about guys I still keep in close contact with."

"LSU is my home. It was a place where I made my name and a place where I was able to come here and have fun. It was the best three years of my life. While you are here, have fun and become a master of time management. You need to do what you have to do to make it. Work hard. I have been blessed. Baton Rouge is the place that helped me become who I am. I will never forget this place."

Shaquille O'Neal
LSU Basketball Player
Four-time NBA Champion

"Throughout the entire recruiting process I always knew LSU was the best choice. Being from the great state of Louisiana, LSU was a home away from home. I knew that this would be a place I could grow as a student-athlete and a young man. The coaches, faculty, and the 92,000 marvelous fans only help to make the decision much easier. Looking back on it, I couldn't have asked for more from the experience."

Tyson Jackson
LSU Defensive End
2009 NFL Draft No. 3 Selection
Kansas City Chiefs

"As far back as I can remember [riding bicycles, playing little league baseball], I have literally bled purple and gold. I never crossed my mind that there was anywhere else to go other than LSU. The experiences and relationships that I developed at LSU have been an integral part of my life. No other colleges existed in my mind. I am fortunate to have attended a place that I considered a dream and look forward to my association with the University until the day I die."

Did You Know?

- In the 2009, 2010, 2011, 2012, 2013, 2014 and 2015 editions of U.S. News & World Report's America's Best Colleges, LSU is ranked in the first tier for "Best National Universities."
- The LSU College of Engineering announced that more than 450 individual and corporate donors pledged $52.5 million in private funds, fulfilling the college's commitment to a $100 million public/private partnership to renovate Patrick F. Taylor Hall.
- LSU is the only public university in Louisiana with top-tier designation by U.S. News and World Report and "Very High Research Activity" designation by the Carnegie Foundation. LSU's commitment to coastal studies is world-renowned.
- According to a study published in the June 2014 Journal of Chemical Education, LSU is the top university in the nation in granting PhD degrees in chemistry to women and underrepresented minority students.
- LSU ranks among the top 30 public universities in total research awards. The University's total federal funding – from agencies such as the National Science Foundation, National Institutes of Health, and the Department of Homeland Security – has increased 86 percent or more than $90 million in recent years.

- LSU's student newspaper, The Daily Reveille, was recently awarded the prestigious Society of Professional Journalists' top honor, as it was named the "Best All-Around Daily Student Newspaper" in the United States.
- The E. J. Ourso College of Business was ranked in the Top 50 of the internationally known "Top Business Schools" in 2009 by Eduniversal and was recognized during the inaugural Eduniversal World Convention.
- Donors generously gave more than $193 million in support of LSU last year, setting a record for giving to the university during a single year. Gifts this year included LSU's largest in-kind gift ever, premier geoscience and engineering software valued at $62 million; an anonymous planned gift commitment of $40 million split between the LSU Foundation and TAF; the largest unrestricted endowed gift in LSU's history as part of Roger Ogden's $12 million Honors investment; and record membership in the LSU Alumni Association.

- Thanks to generous donations from loyal supporters and continued capital outlay from the Louisiana Legislature, campus construction continues on a number of major projects, including the $110 million College of Engineering renovation.

Bo Campbell Auditorium

The 1,000-seat auditorium is used through the year as a classroom and lecture hall. Each seat in the auditorium has space for a laptop and a modem hookup, providing each student unlimited learning opportunities. The auditorium also contains a movie theatre size screen to aid professors with lectures and classroom activities.

COX COMMUNICATIONS

Academic Center

FOR STUDENT-ATHLETES

Study Area

Included in the 54,000 square feet of the Academic Center are individual study areas as well as 14 private computer rooms for student-athletes to work one-on-one with tutors or by themselves.

Academic counselor Kirstin DeFusco (left) supervises the Tigers' progress in the classroom.

Amenities

- ▶ 54,000 square feet of working space
- ▶ 136 computer workstations
- ▶ 12 private computer rooms in a state-of-the-art computer lab
- ▶ Additional study rooms and classrooms for private or group study
- ▶ Electronic scheduling of tutoring sessions
- ▶ A 1,000-seat auditorium for classes and lectures

Computer Stations

The Cox Communications Academic Center for Student-Athletes is at the forefront of today's educational technology. Since the spring of 2009, the academic center has upgraded over 170 computers, including both PC and Mac.

The Library

The library provides a perfect setting for individual study, or with a tutor as a group.

Media Training

LSU is one of the few schools where student-athletes go through media training to enhance their communication skills. Dr. Tommy Karam (above) and Dr. Shirley White are two experts in the field who give training sessions to student-athletes on campus. The Academic Center features a mock press conference setting to get student-athletes acclimated to giving interviews in front of both print and electronic media. Karam and White record the mock interviews on camera and then provide feedback, allowing student-athletes to become more comfortable and confident when doing actual interviews.

Academic Center

A $15 million renovation to the Gym Armory in 2002 made it one of the nation's premier academic centers. Improvements to the existing center give LSU student-athletes the best opportunity for success by providing access to the latest technology, as well as an array of expanded services.

Five Tigers received bachelor's degrees and strength coach Jeremy Phillips received a master's degrees in May 2015 when the squad held a graduation ceremony at the team hotel during its road series at South Carolina. (L-R): Coach Paul Mainieri, Spencer Lightfoot, Zac Person, Chris Sciambra, Kade Scivicque, Tanner Watson, Jeremy Phillips and academic counselor Kirstin DeFusco.

Academic SUCCESS

CRITICAL TO THE DEVELOPMENT OF A STUDENT-ATHLETE IS AN ADEQUATE ACADEMIC FACILITY AND CAPABLE STAFF TO FURTHER THE ATHLETE'S PROGRESS. The Cox Communications Academic Center for Student-Athletes is responsible for overseeing the educational development and progress toward graduation for all student-athletes. The staff acts as a liaison between the student-athlete and the academic communities and insures that student-athletes comply with academic rules established by the University, NCAA and Southeastern Conference. The staff also coordinates academic programs designed to assist student-athletes in acquiring a quality education.

Vision

To be the premier provider of transformative student-athlete support services.

Mission

Our team is committed to challenging student-athletes to achieve their highest level of intellectual and personal development.

Goals & Objectives

1. Graduate Our Student-Athletes
2. Prepare Student-Athletes for Life After LSU
3. Promote and Preserve Academic Integrity Through Education and Example
4. Nurture the Personal Well-Being and Professional Aspirations of Our Team

EXCELLENCE IN THE CLASSROOM

The LSU baseball program has demonstrated excellence on and off the field since Paul Mainieri was hired in June 2006. Along with achieving national prominence on the diamond, the program has recorded a perfect 1,000 Academic Progress Rate, reaching that standard during the 2007-08 academic year.

"Having gone into this profession to be an educator and teacher, it is of course important for youngsters to fulfill their potential as baseball players, but it is even more important for them to earn their degrees and become contributing people in society once they finish their playing careers," Mainieri said.

Of the 93 baseball players that have concluded their collegiate careers at LSU during the nine-season Paul Mainieri Era, 62 Tigers have already earned their LSU degrees. Of the 62 that have graduated, 12 of those student-athletes actually graduated before entering professional baseball. In addition, 10 players returned to LSU in the off seasons while playing professional baseball to complete their degree requirements. Of the remaining 31 players that have not yet graduated, 30 are either currently engaged in their professional baseball careers or just concluded their professional career in the last year, and many are working toward earning their degrees in the off seasons. In summary, 92 of the 93 players that concluded their collegiate playing careers at LSU under Paul Mainieri in the last nine years will have earned a degree from LSU, will have played professional baseball, or will have both played pro ball AND earned a degree from LSU!

Over the nine seasons of Mainieri's tenure, 92 LSU players have earned SEC Academic Honor Roll recognition, including a school-record 14 players in 2008. The 2013 Tigers produced 13 SEC Academic Honor Roll representatives, the second-highest total in LSU baseball history.

IN THE COMMUNITY

Coach Paul Mainieri participates in the ALS Walk to assist in the battle against Lou Gehrig's Disease.

LSU baseball players annually make Christmas a little brighter for several families in the Baton Rouge area as they deliver presents to families at the Christmas Toy Drive party in the Cox Communications Academic Center for Student-Athletes.

Russell Reynolds, a member of the SEC Community Service Team, visits with a military veteran at a Baton Rouge assisted-living facility.

“Through workshops, service projects, and social events, CHAMPS brings LSU student-athletes information that will prepare them for the biggest game of all - the game of life!”

-SHAQUILLE O'NEAL, LSU ALL-AMERICAN AND 15-TIME NBA ALL-STAR

The LSU baseball team participates each year in the Buddy Walk, an event designed to promote awareness and inclusion of people with Down Syndrome.

Community OUTREACH

The LSU baseball team has accumulated the most community service hours among the Tigers' male sports in each of the past nine years.

The Tigers participated in the opening of the Miracle League field in Baton Rouge, a facility designed for children with special needs.

Athletic TRAINING

LSU boasts the largest and most complete athletic training facilities in all of collegiate athletics with both the Football Operations Center and the Broussard Center for Athletic Training in Tiger Stadium. Both are furnished with the latest in technology and equipment. The Operations Center training room features a full view of the practice fields, two hot/cold jacuzzis and an underwater treadmill. The Broussard Center includes an on-site x-ray room, an in-house pharmacy, as well as the largest hydrotherapy pool in both collegiate and professional sports and is one of the few collegiate training centers with a full-service pharmacy and a full-service vision center.

Hydrotherapy Treatment

An integral part of rehabbing and developing LSU student-athletes is the operations center's hot/cold jacuzzis and an underwater treadmill in a fully equipped Hydrotherapy room. The Broussard Training Center boasts the largest hydrotherapy pool in both collegiate and professional sports.

Broussard Athletic TRAINING CENTER

The two-story, 22,000-square-foot facility contains 20 treatment tables with the newest forms of modalities available, 14 taping stations, a 1,600-square-foot rehabilitation area which contains the latest rehabilitation equipment including the Cybex Norm, Woodway treadmills and Body Master select rise equipment. LSU's multi-million dollar athletic training facility is named in honor of Dr. Martin J. Broussard (left), the legendary trainer whose career spanned over 40 years at LSU.

Road To Recovery

LSU is one of the top schools in the nation in getting its student-athletes back on the track in a timely manner following an injury. The training staff takes a progressive approach to injury identification and thinks "outside of the box." LSU consults with allied health professionals and uses state-of-the-art surgical procedures that give an athlete a quicker recovery time while looking out for his or her future.

Fueling Station

LSU Athletic Training is a pioneer in the use of sound nutritional practices for student-athletes with the addition of a full-time registered dietitian in Jamie Meeks.

Dental Center

A fully functional dental center, staffed by Dr. John Vance, is located inside the Broussard Center for Athletic Training.

Vision Center

Dr. Don Peavy conducts eye exams for LSU's student-athletes in a convenient location in the Broussard Center for Athletic Training.

Pharmacy

The LSU Athletic Training Pharmacy is the only one of its kind in college athletics. The LSU Athletic Training Pharmacy provides the Tigers with first-class service in a convenient location.

Strength & CONDITIONING

LSU strength and conditioning coordinator Tommy Moffitt, who was named the 2003 College Football Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year by the America Football Monthly, has proven to be a perfect fit in Purple and Gold. Since Moffitt joined the Tigers for the 2000 season, LSU has featured some of the best-conditioned student-athletes in the nation.

Prior to coming to LSU, Moffitt earned the 1999 College Football Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year honor by the Professional Football Strength and Conditioning Coaches Society.

Moffitt's staff includes 2012 LSU graduate Travis Roy, who supervises the baseball team's strength program.

Eyes ON THE TIGERS

ON THE TUBE

LSU appears on television or online 245 times over the past six seasons

The Tigers are the nation's most-watched team as LSU appears on national networks like ESPN, ESPN2, ESPNU, WatchESPN, SEC Network, SEC Network + and CBS Sports Network, and on regional network Cox Sports Television.

HIGH RATINGS

Tigers win most-viewed CWS in 2009

The 2009 NCAA Men's College World Series was the most-viewed and highest-rated CWS in ESPN and ESPN2 history -- including the best-of-three Championship Series won by LSU over Texas.

ESPN's three Championship Series telecasts featuring the Tigers versus the Longhorns averaged 2,059,000 households; 2,762,000 total viewers; and a 2.1 rating, making it the most-viewed and highest-rated Series finals since the tournament expanded to the best-of-three format in 2003.

MEDIA SPOTLIGHT

Tigers Receive Extensive Worldwide Coverage

Fans can find LSU Baseball information everywhere – in print, on the Internet and on TV and radio as dozens of media converge upon Alex Box Stadium each spring to cover the Tigers.

SOCIAL MEDIA

Tigers have nearly 440,000 Facebook and Twitter fans!

The LSU baseball program has increased its number of Facebook and Twitter fans to nearly 440,000 as the Tigers are the most-followed team in college baseball.

According to www.sportsfangraph.com, LSU Baseball has over 340,000 Facebook fans and nearly 100,000 Twitter followers.

LSU is No. 32 in the sportsfangraph.com rankings of baseball social media followers, trailing only 30 MLB clubs and MLB's official social media accounts. The Tigers are ranked ahead of every minor league organization and all other college baseball programs.

TIGERS GO GLOBAL

U.S. troops overseas show their support for LSU

LSU baseball coach Paul Mainieri welcomed a special guest to his Alex Box Stadium office in the summer of 2010, as Cpl. Brandon Spillman of the Louisiana Army National Guard presented him with a flag from the 256th Brigade Special Troops Battalion deployed in Iraq.

Spillman, a New Roads, La. resident, said the flag was a token of appreciation for the support the soldiers received from Mainieri and his players. The flag features the image of a castle, the symbol of the engineer corps of the Army.

"Coach Mainieri and his players autographed an LSU flag and mailed it to us in Iraq," Spillman explained. "It meant so much to us to know that the Tigers were thinking of us back home. We wanted to return the favor with the engineer flag signed by our entire company."

"We are extremely honored to receive this flag from Cpl. Spillman and are humbled by this gesture," Mainieri said. "Our soliders in Iraq and around the world are real heroes, and we're thankful every day for their unselfish service to our country."

Shaquille O'Neal

A four-time NBA champion and 15-time All-Star, Shaquille O'Neal was one of the most dominant centers in NBA history. He announced his retirement from the NBA in June 2010 after a brilliant Hall of Fame career and has since become a television analyst on TNT. One of the most quotable figures on the planet, O'Neal earned his bachelor's degree from LSU in December 2000. In 2011, he penned his own biography, "Shaq Uncut, My Story," and then received his doctorate degree from Florida's Barry University in May 2012.

Lolo Jones

A three-time national champion hurdler at LSU, Lolo Jones continues to take the sporting world by storm. Jones became an inspirational figure as a two-time World Indoor Champion and the world record holder in the 60-meter hurdles with a time of 7.72. She competed in both the 2008 Beijing and 2012 London Olympic Games and became the first LSU athlete to ever grace the cover of Time Magazine in July 2012. A 2005 graduate of LSU, Jones is now a two-sport star. She was named to the U.S. National Bobsled Team that went on to claim gold at the 2013 FIBT World Championships and compete at the 2014 Winter Olympics.

Prominent LSU ALUMNI

Eduardo Aguirre, Jr.

Named the first Director of U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) for the Department of Homeland Security in 2003, Aguirre, Jr., was the U.S. Ambassador to Spain from 2005 until 2009.

Lod Cook

Cook graduated from LSU with a bachelor's degree in mathematics in 1955 and then earned his Master's degree in petro engineering in 1955. Cook served as CEO of ARCO for nine years.

Seimone Augustus

A two-time NCAA Women's Basketball National Player of the Year, Augustus graduated from LSU in 2006. She is a two-time U.S. Olympic gold medalist and continues an All-Star pro career with the WNBA's Minnesota Lynx. She was named WNBA Finals MVP in 2012 after winning a WNBA title.

Carlos Roberto Flores

The president of Honduras from 1998-2002, Flores helped the nation recover after Hurricane Mitch devastated the country in 1998. Flores is married to the former Mary Carol Flake, also an alumnus of LSU.

James Carville

Carville received both a bachelor's degree and law degree from LSU and gained fame in the 1990s as the chief campaign strategist for Bill Clinton and Al Gore. Carville also penned a best-selling memoir titled "All's Fair: Love, War and Running for President."

Jim Flores

Flores graduated with two bachelor's of science degrees; one in corporate finance in 1981 and the second in petroleum land management in 1982. Flores serves as both chairman and CEO of Flores and Rucks, Inc., a publicly held independent oil and gas company.

Mike Papajohn

The starting centerfielder on LSU's inaugural College World Series team in 1986, Mike Papajohn today is a prominent actor in Hollywood. Papajohn was the only actor to star in four $150 million movies in the same calendar year doing so in 2009. The LSU alumnus has appeared in blockbuster films: Spiderman, Terminator Salvation, Transformers: Revenge of the Fallen, For the Love of the Game and Jurassic World.

Dr. James Andrews

Arguably, the world's most renowned orthopedic surgeon for knee and shoulder injuries, Andrews is a 1963 graduate of LSU and a 1967 graduate of LSU Medical School. He has worked on numerous all-star athletes, including Michael Jordan, Drew Brees, Brett Favre and Albert Pujols. Andrews is also the founder of the American Sports Medicine Institute (ASMI).

Sylvia Fowles

Fowles was a two-time WBCA first-team All-American before going onto a pro career with the WNBA's Chicago Sky where she is one of the league's premier players. Most notably, Fowles was a member of U.S. Olympic Gold Medal teams in 2008 Beijing and 2012 London.

David Steiner

A 1982 LSU graduate, Steiner has served as the CEO of Waste Management since 2004. Under Steiner's leadership, the Houston-based company was named one of the World's Most Ethical Companies by Ethisphere in 2008.

Mary L. Landrieu

Landrieu became the first woman from Louisiana selected to a full term in the United States Senate in 1996. In 2014 she was appointed chair of the Senate Energy and Natural Resources Committee.

John Havens

A 1978 LSU graduate in geology, Havens is president of Seismic Exchange (SEI) and vice-chairman of the Houston Astros. He is also owner of Cal-a-Vie Health Spa in San Diego that was voted the No. 1 destination spa by "Travel + Leisure" magazine in 2013.

Suzanne Perron

A 1991 LSU graduate, Perron is a rising star in the design world having worked with top designers Vera Wang and Carolina Herrera. Perron has designed dresses for Hollywood stars Jennifer Lopez, Mariska Hargitay and Holly Hunter, among others.

Marty Sixkiller

Senior Technical Director for PDI/DreamWorks' movies "Antz," "Shrek," "Shrek 2," "Shrek the Third," "Madagascar" and "Over the Hedge".

The following nine individuals are the only athletes to have their jerseys retired by LSU. Men's basketball has retired the No. 23 for Pete Maravich, No. 50 for Bob Pettit, Jr., No. 33 for Shaquille O'Neal and No. 40 for Rudy Macklin. Women's basketball retired the No. 33 for Seimone Augustus. Football's only two retired jerseys are the No. 20 worn by Billy Cannon and the No. 37 worn by Tommy Casanova. Baseball retired the No. 15 in honor of longtime coach and former athletics director Skip Bertman and the No. 19 for Ben McDonald. Casanova, Macklin and McDonald joined the prestigious list in May 2009. Augustus became the first woman in LSU Athletics history to have her jersey retired in January 2010.

50 Bob Pettit

Pettit led LSU to its first NCAA Final Four in 1953 and he later became the first player in NBA history to exceed the 20,000-plus point barrier. Pettit is a member of the NBA Hall of Fame, and in 1997, he was named as one of the top 50 players in NBA history.

23 Pete Maravich

"Pistol Pete," Maravich still holds the NCAA record for career points with 3,667 and for career scoring average with 44.2 points a game. He was selected the National Player of the Year in 1970 after leading the Tigers to the NIT Final Four. He scored 50-plus points an amazing 28 times. He went on to a 10-year professional career and was selected as one of the NBA's 50 greatest players in 1997.

20 Billy Cannon

One of the true legends of college football in the South, Billy Cannon was the 1959 Heisman Trophy winner and helped the Tigers to the 1958 national title. Cannon's most memorable performance came in 1959 against Ole Miss when No. 1 LSU trailed No. 3 Ole Miss 3-0 in the fourth quarter. He fielded a punt, broke seven tackles and returned it 89 yards for the 7-3 victory. He went on to a successful 11-year professional career.

33 Shaquille O'Neal

Shaquille O'Neal was the first pick in the 1992 NBA Draft. He was named MVP of the league in 2000 and was a three-time NBA Finals MVP after leading the Los Angeles Lakers to three World Championships. At LSU, O'Neal averaged 21.6 points and 13.6 rebounds for his career, and in 1991, he was named the World's Amateur Athlete of the Year as well as SEC Athlete of the Year and National Player of the Year. In 1997, he was named as one of the top 50 players in NBA history.

15 Skip Bertman

A legend in the college baseball ranks, Skip Bertman created a dynasty at LSU, guiding the Tigers to five national titles in a 10-year stretch from 1991-2000. He also coached the United States to a bronze medal at the 1996 Olympics in Atlanta and was an assistant on the gold medal-winning U.S. squad in Seoul, Korea, in 1988. Bertman retired from coaching following the 2001 season and served as LSU's athletics director for seven years. Bertman was inducted into the College Baseball Hall of Fame in 2006.

40 Rudy Macklin

Rudy Macklin was a two-time basketball All-American selection during his Tiger career from 1976-81 during which time he became LSU's all-time leading rebounder with 1,276 boards and the second-leading scorer in school history behind only the legendary Pete Maravich with 2,080 points. He led the Tigers to two Elite Eight appearances and the 1981 Final Four in Philadelphia. He still holds the school single game rebound record with 32, a mark like some of the great records in any sport that may never be broken.

About LSU Retired Jerseys

The retirement of the jerseys of Casanova, McDonald, Macklin and Augustus comes under a new provision of the LSU jersey retirement bylaws that says the retirement of an athlete's jersey in a particular sport does not preclude a current student-athlete in that sport from wearing the jersey number in that or any other sport, subject to the discretion of the head coach. This provision applies only to jerseys retired after January 1, 2007, so the numbers worn by Maravich, Pettit, O'Neal, Cannon and Bertman may never again be worn by future student-athletes in their respective sports. To have a jersey retired at LSU, an athlete must have completed intercollegiate competition for LSU a minimum of five years prior to nomination. Athletes must have demonstrated truly unusual and outstanding accomplishments, exceeding and in addition to all criteria used for Hall of Fame selection. Nominees must have a unanimous vote of support from the Hall of Fame committee.

37 Tommy Casanova

Tommy Casanova is the only three-time All-American in the history of LSU football and is a member of the College Football Hall of Fame. During his Tiger career from 1969-71, Casanova personified versatility for his myriad of talents as he played offense, defense, returned punts and kickoffs. One of just two three-time All-SEC performers at LSU, he played six seasons with the Cincinnati Bengals of the NFL while earning his medical degree.

19 Ben McDonald

Ben McDonald won the prestigious Golden Spikes Award, given annually to the nation's most outstanding player, in 1989 and is a member of the College Baseball Hall of Fame. He led LSU to two College World Series appearances. In 1989, McDonald was named National Player of the Year by Baseball America, The Sporting News and Collegiate Baseball. He was selected by the Baltimore Orioles as the No. 1 pick in the major league draft in 1989 and went on to enjoy a 10-year major league career with the Orioles and the Milwaukee Brewers.

33 Seimone Augustus

Seimone Augustus is the only women's basketball player in school history to earn State Farm Coaches Association All-America honors three times: 2004, 2005 and 2006. Augustus became LSU's first NCAA National Player of the Year, and she claimed the honor twice in 2005 and 2006. A 2006 graduate of LSU, Augustus was the 2012 WNBA Finals MVP after winning a world title. She also led the United States to Olympic gold medals at the 2008 Beijing and 2012 London Games.

HALL OF FAME TIGERS

Skip Bertman directed LSU to five national championships and 11 CWS appearances.

Skip Bertman

2003 American Baseball Coaches Association Hall of Fame Inductee
2006 College Baseball Hall of Fame Inductee
LSU Jersey #15 Retired in May 2001

Skip Bertman is LSU's all-time winningest coach, as he compiled an 870-330-3 (.724) record in 18 seasons (1984-2001). Bertman, the National Coach of the Year in 1986, 1991, 1993, 1996, 1997 and 2000, and the 1996 United States Olympic head coach, guided the Tigers to five national championships (1991, 1993, 1996, 1997, 2000) and 11 College World Series appearances (1986, '87, '89, '90, '91, '93, '94, '96, '97, '98, '00). Under Bertman, LSU finished in the Top 7 in the national polls in 12 of his final 16 seasons. Bertman was a member of the inaugural class of the College Baseball Hall of Fame that was inducted in July 2006. He is one of only three coaches to have won five College World Series titles. Southern Cal's Dedeaux won 10 CWS crowns from 1958-78, and Augie Garrido has captured five championships with two schools (Cal State Fullerton, 1979, '84, '95; Texas, 2002, '05). Bertman was named to the CWS Legends team in 2010.

Ben McDonald, the 1989 Golden Spikes Award winner, still holds the LSU career strikeout mark with 373.

Ben McDonald

2008 College Baseball Hall of Fame Inductee
LSU Jersey #19 Retired in May 2009

McDonald, a 6-7 right-hander from Denham Springs, La., capped a magnificent 1989 season by receiving the Golden Spikes Award, given by the United States Baseball Federation to the nation's most outstanding amateur player. McDonald, who was also named National Player of the Year by Baseball America, The Sporting News and Collegiate Baseball, was the first player chosen in the free-agent amateur draft and made his major league debut with the Baltimore Orioles in September, 1989.

McDonald, who set an LSU career mark with 373 Ks, established Southeastern Conference standards for single-season strikeouts (202), innings pitched (152.1) and consecutive scoreless innings (44.2). A two-time All-American and a 1988 Olympic gold medalist, he finished his LSU career with a 29-14 record and a 3.24 ERA.

McDonald, who enjoyed an excellent 10-year major league career with the Orioles and Milwaukee Brewers, also lettered as an LSU basketball player. He was a member of the 1986-87 Tiger hoops squad which advanced to the Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament.

Todd Walker was voted the Most Valuable Player of the 1993 College World Series.

Todd Walker

2009 College Baseball Hall of Fame Inductee

Todd Walker was voted in 1996 as the second baseman on the College World Series All-Time Team by the readers of the Omaha World-Herald. Walker, a 2006 inductee into the LSU Athletics Hall of Fame, completed a brilliant three-year LSU career in 1994 as he became the SEC's all-time leader in hits (310), runs (234), RBI (246) and total bases (557). A 1993 and 1994 All-America selection, he helped lead LSU to the '93 national championship and was named the Most Valuable Player of the CWS. Walker, a native of Bossier City, La., was a 1994 finalist for the Golden Spikes Award and the Smith Award, as he batted .393 with 18 homers and 68 RBI. He was also named the Most Outstanding Player of the '94 NCAA South Regional, and he was selected to the CWS All-Tournament team. Walker finished his career as LSU's all-time leader in hits, runs, RBI, total bases, home runs (52), doubles (61), triples (15) and batting average (.396). Walker was named to the CWS Legends team in 2010.

Eddy Furniss (left) was joined by Skip Bertman at the 2010 College Baseball Hall of Fame induction ceremony in Lubbock, Texas.

Eddy Furniss

2010 College Baseball Hall of Fame Inductee

LSU first baseman Eddy Furniss culminated a sterling four-year career by receiving the 1998 Dick Howser Trophy as college baseball's most outstanding player. Furniss, a 2007 inductee into the LSU Athletics Hall of Fame, finished his career as the SEC's all-time leader in hits (352), home runs (80), RBI (308), doubles (87) and total bases (689). He is also No. 1 on the LSU career list for slugging percentage (.727) and walks (191). In NCAA annals, Furniss finished his career No. 3 all-time in total bases, No. 4 in home runs and doubles, and No. 5 in RBI. The Nacogdoches, Texas, native – who posted a .371 lifetime batting average – hit .403 in 1998 with 27 doubles, three triples, 28 homers, 85 runs and 76 RBI, earning First-Team All-America and all-SEC honors. He was also voted a second-team Academic all-American with a 3.5 gpa in zoology.

Paul Mainieri has guided LSU to four CWS berths in nine seasons.

Paul Mainieri

2014 ABCA Hall of Fame Inductee

Paul Mainieri, who directed LSU to the 2009 College World Series title, was inducted into the American Baseball Coaches Hall of Fame in January 2014. The 2009 national championship is one of the many highlights of Mainieri's nine-season tenure at LSU, which has featured four College World Series appearances, five NCAA Regional titles, three Southeastern Conference championships, five SEC Tournament titles and five SEC Western Division crowns. Entering his 34th season as a college head coach, Mainieri is one of only four active NCAA coaches to have won a national championship and over 1,200 games during his career.

Mainieri joined in the ABCA Hall of Fame his father, Demie Mainieri, who directed Miami-Dade North Community College to 1,012 wins and a national title in his 30-year career. Demie and Paul Mainieri are the only father-son combination in the ABCA Hall of Fame.

MEN OF HONOR

Two of the finest men to wear an LSU baseball uniform - third baseman Wally Pontiff and pitcher Robbie Smith - were recognized on LSU's Wall of Honor, the center field wall of the original Alex Box Stadium. Their jersey numbers were painted on the wall as tributes to individuals who brought esteem to the university through their exploits on the field and through their accomplishments as vital citizens. Pontiff and Smith were honored posthumously.

Robbie Smith

Smith, a trooper for the Florida Highway Patrol, was killed in Miami in July 1997, when a man slammed his car into the back of Smith's parked police cruiser. The 34-year-old Smith, was trapped inside his car, which exploded on impact on Interstate 95.

Smith, a four-year veteran of the Florida Highway Patrol, had served with the Tri-County DUI Task Force for the 18 months prior to his death. The federally funded program allows nine state troopers from Dade, Broward and Palm Beach counties to stop drunk drivers and bring them to jail. For four years, Smith had been a member of the "One Hundred Club," a group of troopers recognized by the Florida Highway Patrol and Mothers Against Drunk Driving for having arrested more than 100 drunk drivers annually.

Smith came to the LSU baseball program in the fall of 1983 as a transfer from Miami Dade South Junior College. He pitched for head coach Skip Bertman's first two LSU teams in 1984 and 1985, serving as the '85 team captain. Smith earned 1985 all-Southeastern Conference honors, posting a 6-1 record and a 3.83 ERA in 80 innings of work. He recorded 71 strikeouts and 35 walks in helping the '85 Tigers win the SEC Western Division and advance to an NCAA regional for the first time in 10 years.

Smith pitched in the Minnesota Twins organization from 1985 to 1989, and he earned his bachelor's degree from LSU in 1989.

Smith is survived by his wife Lisa; their twins, Todd Michael and Taylor Marie; his parents David and Brenda Smith; and his brother Danny Smith, a former Florida Highway Patrol trooper. Danny Smith pitched at the University of Miami when Bertman worked as an assistant coach there.

Wally Pontiff

Pontiff died on July 24, 2002, in his parents' Metairie, La., home due to heart abnormalities.

A three-year letterman, the 21-year-old star was the designated hitter on LSU's 2000 NCAA championship team, and he was the Tigers' starting third baseman in 2001 and 2002. A biological sciences major with a 3.25 gpa, Pontiff was named to the 2002 District VI Academic all-America team, and he was a two-time of the Southeastern Conference Academic Honor Roll.

Pontiff was selected by the Oakland Athletics in the 21st round of the 2002 major league baseball draft. Prior to his death, he was considering a decision to either sign with the Athletics or return to LSU for his senior season.

As a freshman, Pontiff helped lead the Tigers to the 2000 national title, batting .347 with 20 doubles, seven homers and 45 RBI. He was voted the Most Outstanding Player of the 2000 SEC Tournament, and he was named an honorable mention Freshman all-American by Collegiate Baseball magazine.

Pontiff also hit .347 in 2001 with nine doubles, seven homers and 58 RBI. He earned first-team all-SEC recognition, and he was voted to the NCAA Baton Rouge Regional all-tournament team. The Tigers reached the NCAA Super Regional round and completed the season ranked No. 9 in the country.

He batted .339 in 2002 with 20 doubles, six homers and 46 RBI, earning second-team all-SEC honors as the Tigers advanced to an NCAA Super Regional and finished No. 11 in the nation.

Pontiff completed the 2002 season on the LSU career Top 10 lists in three offensive categories - hits (9th, 254), doubles (tied for 7th, 49) and batting average (10th, .344).

Prior to beginning his collegiate career, he was an honor roll student and all-state baseball player at Jesuit High School in New Orleans.

Pontiff is survived by his father Wally, Sr.; his mother, Terry; a younger sister, Haley; and a younger brother, Nicholas.

LSU Draft Summary

LSU players have been selected in the MLB Draft on 174 occasions - 83 pitchers and 91 position players - since 1984, an average of over five players per season. LSU has produced 15 first-round picks in the past 27 seasons.

Paul Byrd recorded 108 career wins in 13 MLB seasons.

LSU OLYMPIANS

LSU's profound success in Olympic competition began in 1988, when head coach Skip Bertman and right-hander Ben McDonald helped lead the United States to the gold medal in Seoul, South Korea. Bertman served as the pitching coach of the 1988 U.S. squad, and McDonald pitched the Americans to complete-game victories over Korea and Puerto Rico. In the two wins, McDonald allowed just two earned runs in 18 innings, recording 17 strikeouts and four walks.

Reliever Rick Greene, LSU's all-time saves leader (29), continued the Tigers' Olympic tradition by pitching for the 1992 U.S. squad which competed in Barcelona, Spain. The '92 team, however, failed to advance to the medal round.

Skip Bertman served as head coach of the 1996 United States Olympic team, guiding the Americans to the bronze medal in Atlanta. LSU standouts Warren Morris (second base) and Jason Williams (shortstop) were the starting middle infielders for Team USA, which defeated Nicaragua for the bronze medal in Atlanta's Fulton County Stadium.

Morris and Williams each enjoyed a spectacular summer of 1996 which culminated in the bronze-medal triumph. Morris was Team USA's leading hitter at the Olympics, batting .409 (9-for-22) in nine games with one double, five homers, 11 RBI and 10 runs. Williams hit .367 (11-for-30) with three homers, nine RBI and 10 runs.

Team USA's '96 pre-Olympic tour was highlighted by a stop at LSU's Alex Box Stadium on June 20. The game served as a homecoming for Bertman, Morris and Williams, as the Americans defeated Australia, 11-6, before a standing-room only crowd of 6,926.

LSU right-hander Kurt Ainsworth pitched the U.S. to two wins at the 2000 Olympics in Sydney, Australia, en route to the gold medal. Ainsworth defeated Holland and Australia with a pair of dominating performances. In the victories, Ainsworth worked a total of 11.2 innings, allowing just two earned runs on 10 hits with three walks and 10 strikeouts.

2016 OUTLOOK

Despite having to replace eight of nine everyday starters from last season's batting order, LSU is ranked as high as No. 5 in the 2016 preseason polls, marking the fifth straight season the Tigers will begin the year among the Top 10 teams in the nation.

The Tigers, who have the most wins in the nation over the past four seasons (204 wins) and the past eight seasons (387 wins), captured the 2015 SEC championship and advanced to the College World Series for the second time in three years. LSU posted a nation's-best 54 victories and was ranked No.1 for 10 consecutive weeks during the 2015 campaign. "The fact that we're ranked among the top teams in the nation entering the 2016 season is a sign of respect for our program, considering we have to replace so many players from last year's lineup," said 10th-year LSU coach Paul Mainieri, who has directed the Tigers to one national championship, four College World Series appearances, three SEC overall titles, five SEC division titles and five SEC tournament championships in nine seasons.

"We're proud of the recognition, now it's our job to uphold our tradition of excellence."

The 2016 LSU roster includes 17 lettermen from the 2015 club, including five position players with starting experience and 11 pitchers that recorded innings last season.

The LSU veterans are complemented by a talented class of 16 newcomers, including 10 position players, five pitchers and one two-way player. The incoming class was rated No. 7 in the nation in the annual Collegiate Baseball recruiting rankings.

"This was obviously an extremely important recruiting class for us," Mainieri said. "We needed to bring in a group of guys who could compete for everyday positions, as well as guys who could add depth to our pitching staff. I think we may have some difference-makers in the players that have joined our team. There was a great deal of teaching taking place during fall practice because of all of the new players. To see them compete against each other and see how the pieces fit together has been a lot of fun." The LSU pitching staff is led by sophomore right-hander Alex Lange, the 2015 National Freshman Pitcher of the Year who last season posted a 12-0 mark with a 1.97 ERA and 131 strikeouts in 114 innings. Junior left-hander Jared Poche', who was 9-2 last season with a 3.05 ERA, combines with Lange to give LSU the best returning 1-2 starting combination in the Southeastern Conference. Lange and Poche' have a combined 30 career victories entering the 2016 season.

Other veteran pitchers back from last season include left-hander Hunter Devall, and right-handers Hunter Newman, Parker Bugg, Doug Norman, Jesse Stallings, Russell Reynolds, Collin Strall, Austin Bain and Alden Cartwright. Freshman left-hander Jake Latz, redshirted last season due to an arm injury, hopes to return to the mound in 2016.

The returning position players are led by outfielder Jake Fraley, who started 56 games last season and hit .307 (69-for-225) with 11 doubles, five triples, two homers, 35 RBI, 50 runs and 23 stolen bases.

Other players returning that made appearances in the LSU lineup last season include infielders Kramer Robertson, Bryce Jordan and Greg Deichmann, catcher Michael Papierski and outfielder Beau Jordan. With guys like Alex Lange and Jared Poche', along with our other veterans and some new arms, we have a very formidable pitching staff going into 2016," Mainieri said. The main focus this fall has been putting together a lineup. With Jake Fraley being the only position player returning to the starting lineup from 2015, we've had a lot of work to do.

"We believe in hard work, I can tell you that," Mainieri continued. "To play at this level at LSU with the expectations of what we have for our program, you have to have committed players. They have to be all in. Everybody has to be pulling on the same end of the rope, and it means they make some sacrifices, and they're certainly going to work hard. There's going to be a lot of competition, which I think is good. I think it brings out the best in you."

Position Players

Right: Jake Fraley
Below: Kramer Robertson

Junior Jake Fraley, a product of Middletown, Del., is LSU's only returning everyday starter from last season. Fraley played in left field last season, and he is slated to move into the starting centerfielder's role in 2016. He hit .307 (69-for-225) last season with 11 doubles, five triples, two homers, 35 RBI, 50 runs and 23 stolen bases. He finished No. 6 in the SEC in steals, and he was LSU's leading hitter in the NCAA Tournament, batting .387 in eight games.

Sophomore Beau Jordan of Lake Charles, La. is projected as the Tigers' starter in left field. Jordan played in 20 games last year (four starts), and he turned in one of the best defensive plays of the 2015 season. He made a game-saving catch in left field in the bottom of the 14th inning at Alabama, snaring a deep line drive above his head and doubling off a Bama base runner at first base to keep the contest tied at 5-5. LSU eventually won the contest, 8-5, in 16 innings.

Freshman Antoine Duplantis of Lafayette, La., is a strong candidate to join Fraley and Jordan in the starting outfield. A tremendous athlete, Duplantis is a speedy, left-handed playmaking performer with a sweet swing and the ability to hit the ball with authority.

Other players with the opportunity to see playing time in the outfield include a pair of talented true freshmen – Brennan Breaux of Lafayette, La., and Brody Wofford, a product of Rome, Ga.

Junior second baseman Kramer Robertson is the Tigers' veteran presence among the infielders, having started 42 games over the past two seasons. Robertson, a native of McGregor, Texas, displayed excellent power at the plate during fall practice, and he is an exceptional defensive infielder capable of making spectacular plays.

handed power hitter who also possesses outstanding speed, was the Louisiana high school leader in home runs for three consecutive seasons. Sophomore Bryce Jordan – Beau's twin brother – played in 21 games last season and should see significant action at first base and as the Tigers' primary designated hitter.

Freshman Trey Dawson of Hurricane, W.Va., is a superb prospect who is scheduled to begin the year as LSU's starting shortstop. Selected in the 2015 MLB Draft by the Detroit Tigers, Dawson hit .425 as a high school senior while committing just one error at shortstop.

Cole Freeman, a transfer from Delgado Community College in New Orleans, will likely start at third base. Freeman, who batted .385 at Delgado last season, is the prototypical "table-setter" on offense that can put a lot of pressure on the opposition with his bunting and base-stealing ability.

Freshmen O'Neal Lochridge of Lafayette, La., and Chris Reid of Baton Rouge should also make an impact this season as infielders.

Sophomore catcher Michael Papierski started 12 games behind the plate last season, and the 2014 MLB Draft selection demonstrated his skill as a tremendous defensive player. Jordan Romero, a JUCO Gold Glove recipient from LSU-Eunice, will also compete for playing time at catcher.

Pitchers

Poche', a native of Lutcher, La., has an 18-5 record in his two seasons as a weekend starter for the Tigers. He was 9-2 last season with a 3.05 ERA in 18 starts, and he recorded 25 walks and 72 strikeouts in 109.1 innings. Poche' pitched LSU to victory in Game 2 of the 2015 NCAA Super Regional versus UL-Lafayette, leading the Tigers to a College World Series berth. He limited the Cajuns to one run on five hits in 7.2 innings with one walk and seven strikeouts.

Lange, a product of Lee's Summit, Mo., posted a 12-0 record in 2015 with a 1.97 ERA in 114 innings for the Tigers. In 17 starts, he recorded 131 strikeouts and limited opponents to a .212 cumulative batting average. He was voted the 2015 National Freshman Pitcher of the Year and SEC Freshman of the Year, and he received first-team All-America and first-team All-SEC recognition. Lange culminated the year with a complete-game victory over Cal State Fullerton in the College World Series, limiting the Titans to three runs on six hits in nine innings with two walks and 10 strikeouts.

Parker Bugg

Sophomore right-hander Austin Bain is projected to join Poche' and Lange in the weekend starting rotation. Bain, a native of Geismar, La., appeared in 21 games (six starts) last season, posting a 3.95 ERA and 56 strikeouts in 54.2 innings. He was named SEC Co-Freshman of the Week on April 6 of last season, as he pitched brilliantly in relief 4 to help lead LSU to a 13-inning win over Alabama. Bain worked a career-long 6.2 shutout innings (93 pitchers), and he allowed just three hits with one walk and a career-high nine strikeouts.

LSU has a veteran staff of capable relievers led by juniors Parker Bugg, Hunter Newman and Alden Cartwright, and third-year sophomore Jesse Stallings. Bugg, a right-hander from San Diego, Calif., recorded a 1.72 ERA and three saves in 26 appearances with 35 strikeouts in 36.2 innings. Newman, a right-hander from Bloomingdale, Ga., was 3-0 with a 0.49 ERA four saves and 34 strikeouts in 24 appearances (36.2 innings). Cartwright, a right-hander from Baton Rouge, made 26 appearances and fanned 29 hitters in 20 innings of work.

The hard-throwing Stallings, a product of Colfax, La., was No. 2 in the SEC last season in saves with 12, and he earned Freshman All-America recognition.

2016 SEC Tournament*May 24-29 • Hoover Metropolitan Stadium Hoover, Ala.

The Southeastern Conference Baseball Tournament returns for a 19th straight year to Hoover Metropolitan Stadium in the south Birmingham city of Hoover, Ala.

Located eight miles south of Birmingham, the Hoover Metropolitan Stadium is regarded by many sports experts as one of the best of its kind in the nation. It seats 10,800 for baseball, but can accommodate over 16,000 when the patio, banquet and side grassy areas are used. The stadium also houses 12 suites and state-of-the-art dressing and training rooms. Wireless internet access was added in 2004, concourse and signage renovation was done in 2005 and a second-level press box expansion, new stadium seating and an exterior facelift in 2007 completed a $4.5 million renovation project. A new video scoreboard was added for 2008.

LSU has played in the SEC Tournament title game in eight of the past 16 seasons. The Tigers have won 11 tournament titles (1986, '90, '92, '93, '94, 2000, 2008, 2009, 2010, 2013, 2014) and have finished as runners-up on six occasions (1987, '91, '95, '97, 2001, 2003).

LSU captured the 2015 NCAA Baton Rouge Regional title.

2016 NCAA Tournament

Regional Tournaments: June 3-6 (sites TBA)
Super Regional Series: June 10-12/11-13 (sites TBA)
College World Series: June 18-28/29 (TD Ameritrade Park - Omaha, Neb.)

The 2016 NCAA Tournament will feature a 64-team field for the 18th straight year, as the tournament was expanded from 48 to 64 participants in 1999. The teams selected for the tournament will be placed in 16 four-team NCAA Regional brackets at campus sites across the country, June 3-6.

The brackets are set up like the NCAA basketball tournament with the top eight teams in the country earning "National Seeds." The brackets will be used to determine Super Regional pairings as well as the two brackets for the College World Series.

The 16 winners of the Regionals advance to the Super Regionals, where teams will be matched up for best-of-three series at eight sites, June 10-12 and June 11-13. The eight winners of the Super Regionals advance to the College World Series, June 18-29, at Omaha's TD Ameritrade Park.

The eight CWS teams compete in two four-team brackets. From 1988-2002, the bracket champions met in a single game to determine the national champion; however, the bracket champions now meet in a best two-of-three series to determine the national champion.

LSU has made 17 CWS appearances, winning the national championship six times. LSU is one of only eight schools to have earned at least 17 CWS berths.

SEC Western Division Champions
 2008, 2009, 2012, 2013, 2015

Entering its 10th season, the Paul Mainieri Era at LSU has been distinguished by tremendous success in all facets of the Fighting Tiger baseball program. In nine seasons, Mainieri has guided the Tigers to four College World Series appearances, winning the national championship in 2009. He has also directed LSU to five NCAA Regional titles, three Southeastern Conference championships, five SEC Tournament titles and five SEC Western Division crowns.

Mainieri has a 415-161-3 mark at LSU, and he is the second-winningest coach in Fighting Tiger annals, trailing only Skip Bertman, who was 870-330-3 in his 18 seasons from 1984-2001.

Mainieri has guided LSU to the nation's highest win total over the past eight seasons (387 wins) and the past four seasons (204 wins), and the Tigers led the country in 2015 with 54 victories. In the past eight seasons, LSU has recorded a nation's-best four trips to the College World Series, and the Tigers have earned six NCAA Tournament National Seeds, also the best mark in the country since 2008.

His sincere commitment to everyday excellence was recognized in a substantial way on January 3, 2014, in Dallas when he was inducted into the American Baseball Coaches Association Hall of Fame.

In receiving the highest honor that can be bestowed upon a college baseball coach, Mainieri became just the 10th Southeastern Conference coach to enter the ABCA Hall of Fame, and the second from LSU. Bertman, who led the Tigers to five national titles during his 18-season tenure (1984-2001), was inducted in 2003.

Mainieri, a four-time National Coach of the Year, joined in the Hall of Fame his father, Demie Mainieri, who coached Miami-Dade North Community College to 1,012 wins and a national title in his 30-year career. Demie and Paul Mainieri are the only father-son combination in the ABCA Hall of Fame.

Paul Mainieri became the fourth Louisiana coach to enter the Hall of Fame, joining Bertman, Wilbert Ellis of Grambling State (inducted 2007) and Ron Maestri of UNO (inducted 1991). Mainieri played for Maestri at UNO in 1978 and 1979.

Mainieri has a 1,279-653-8 record in 33 seasons of collegiate coaching at St. Thomas University (1984-88), Air Force

"Pro ball wasn't a drastic change for me at all. Coach Mainieri and the way he runs the program is the same way the Royals teach. That told me I learned a lot while I was at LSU, and at the time I didn't even know how important that was. Pitching at LSU definitely helped prepare me for the next level."

(1989-94), Notre Dame (1995-2006) and LSU (2007-present). He is No. 8 on the career wins list for active NCAA coaches, and he is one of only four active coaches to have won over 1,200 games and an NCAA national championship.

Eleven of Mainieri's LSU players have already reached the Major Leagues, including pitcher Louis Coleman (Royals), infielder DJ LeMahieu (Cubs/Rockies), pitcher Charlie Furbush (Tigers/Mariners), pitcher Ryan Verdugo (Royals), pitcher Kevin Gausman (Orioles), pitcher Anthony Ranaudo (Red Sox) infielder Matt Clark (Brewers), outfielder Mikie Mahtook (Rays), pitcher Nick Rumbelow (Yankees), pitcher Nick Goody (Yankees) and pitcher Aaron Nola (Phillies).

LSU players have been chosen in the Major League Baseball Draft on 57 occasions during Mainieri's tenure, including a first-round selection in six of the past seven seasons - outfielder Jared Mitchell in 2009, pitcher Anthony Ranaudo in 2010, outfielder Mikie Mahtook in 2011, pitcher Kevin Gausman in 2012, pitcher Aaron Nola in 2014 and shortstop Alex Bregman in 2015. All six players developed into first-round selections under Mainieri after being drafted out of high school (Mitchell, 10th round; Ranaudo, 11th round; Mahtook, 39th round; Gausman, sixth round; Nola, 22nd round; and Bregman, 29th round).

Mainieri's commitment to academic excellence has been illustrated by the Tigers' performance in the classroom as 92 LSU players have received SEC Academic Honor Roll recognition over the past nine seasons.

Mainieri has established an active community service function within the baseball program, as the Tigers regularly visit hospitals and schools in the Baton Rouge area. The team also participates in the ALS Walk - promoting awareness of the treatment of Lou Gehrig's Disease - and in the Buddy Walk, which is designed to encourage acceptance and inclusion of people with Down Syndrome.

Mainieri is personally involved in several philanthropic causes, including Cancer Services of Baton Rouge, the ALS Association, the Baton Rouge Children's Advocacy Center, Prostate Cancer Awareness and the Kelli Leigh Richmond Ovarian Cancer Foundation.

When Mainieri was hired as LSU's coach in June 2006, he expressed a clear vision for the future of the Fighting Tiger program.

"Make no mistake about it," he said. "The goal is to return LSU to the pinnacle position in college baseball. I have all the confidence in the world that we can do that here."

Just three years later, LSU did indeed occupy the pinnacle position in college baseball as the 2009 NCAA National Champions. Mainieri directed the '09 Tigers to the College World Series title, posting a 56-17 overall record, including a 10-1 mark in

"He was trained his whole life to do this. His father was a great coach and his father raised him to be tough. I think he knew when he got to LSU that this (a national championship) was coming. He probably did it a lot sooner than most people thought."

Mainieri's Mentors

Paul Mainieri grew up around the game of baseball on a daily basis and, as the son of a Hall of Fame coach, had the good fortune to be exposed to several outstanding coaches.

Mainieri cites three primary influences in his development as a coach, headed by his father Demie Mainieri, who coached Miami-Dade North Community College to 1,012 wins and a national title in his 30-year career.

"My father laid the foundation for identifying the correct reasons to enter into the coaching profession," says Mainieri.

"Despite his success that he may have encountered, my father emphasized to me that a coach was a teacher first and foremost. Watching how he made such a positive impact on young people's lives was the greatest factor for me wanting to follow in his footsteps."

Mainieri spent his final two seasons as an infielder at the University of New Orleans, where he had the good fortune of playing for legendary UNO coach Ron Maestri.

"Coach Maestri showed me how a high intensity level and work ethic can translate into success," recalls Mainieri. "He used to do the little things-like drag the field and go into the community to raise support - and his charisma resulted in the construction of a beautiful ballpark for our team," says Mainieri.

"He pushed his team hard but would do anything for his players, and his players were very loyal to him. Coach Maestri also relayed to me the importance of recruiting the best athletes - meaning shortstops - and we had six or seven high school shortstops in our everyday lineup."

During his early days in coaching, Mainieri had the chance to meet former Los Angeles Dodgers manager Tommy Lasorda and has maintained a friendship with one of the game's greatest ambassadors.

"Tommy has advised me in so many areas, it's hard to specify any areas of emphasis," says Mainieri of Lasorda, the keynote speaker at the 2008 LSU First Pitch Banquet. "I think from him I really realized how important it is to bring joy to the ballpark every day. The players definitely follow your lead as the coach and the enthusiasm you show for your job will rub off on them."

Mainieri readily credits his success to the guidance of those three Hall of Famers. "To this day, I still regularly call each of these men to ask for their advice," he says. "I think it's safe to say I've learned from the best!"

NCAA Tournament competition.

The Tigers defeated Texas in the CWS Championship Finals to win the national title, LSU's sixth CWS championship and its first since 2000. Mainieri also guided his squad to the 2009 Southeastern Conference regular-season and tournament titles.

The Nation's Winningest Program Since 2008

Under Mainieri's leadership, LSU has 387 victories over the past eight years - the most in the nation in that span - and the Tigers are the only team in the country to have earned an NCAA Tournament National Seed in each of the past four seasons.

Mainieri was named in 2015 the winner of the Skip Bertman Award as the National Coach of the Year, as he led the Tigers to a nation's-best 54 wins, the SEC regular-season title and a berth in the College World Series. He also received 2015 National Coach of the Year recognition from the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association.

The '15 Tigers, who were ranked No. 1 for 10 consecutive weeks during the season, produced three first-team All-America players - shortstop Alex Bregman, pitcher Alex Lange and catcher Kade Scivicque - a mark that tied the school record set in 2013. LSU produced five first-team All-SEC performers, also tying a school record established in 2013. Eight Tigers were selected in the 2015 MLB Draft, including Bregman, the No. 2 overall pick by the Houston Astros.

Mainieri guided the 2014 squad to a 46-16-1 record and a No. 8 National Seed in the NCAA Tournament, marking the third consecutive season the Tigers earned a National Seed.

The '14 Tigers claimed LSU's fifth SEC Tournament title in the past seven seasons, and the LSU pitching staff led the nation with a school-record 17 shutouts. The staff featured junior right-hander Aaron Nola, who earned National Pitcher of the Year recognition and was voted SEC Pitcher of the Year for the second straight season. Nola, who was 11-1 with a 1.47 ERA, was the first-round selection (seventh pick overall) by the Philadelphia Phillies in the 2014 MLB Draft.

Mainieri led the 2013 squad to an SEC record-tying 57 victories (57-11) and a berth in the College World Series. The '13 Tigers captured four championships during a remarkable year, winning the SEC Western Division, the SEC Tournament, an NCAA Regional and an NCAA Super Regional. LSU also established a school record for SEC regular-season victories with a 23-7 league mark.

The 2013 team featured three first-team all-Americans, a first for the distinguished LSU Baseball program. Shortstop Alex Bregman was named National Freshman of the Year and the winner of the Brooks Wallace Award as the nation's best shortstop; SEC Pitcher of the Year

Aaron Nola was 12-1 on the mound with a 1.57 ERA; and first baseman Mason Katz batted .370 and led the SEC with 16 homers and 70 RBI.

Mainieri was a finalist for the 2013 Skip Bertman National Coach of the Year award, and a school-record nine Tigers were selected in the '13 Major League Baseball Draft.

Mainieri guided the 2012 squad to LSU's second SEC championship in four seasons, as the Tigers posted a 47-18 overall mark and captured the league title with a 19-11 conference record. LSU was named the No. 7 National Seed for the 2012 NCAA Tournament, and the Tigers won the NCAA Baton Rouge Regional before playing host to a Super Regional in Alex Box Stadium.

The 2012 team featured two first-team all-Americans - outfielder Raph Rhymes and pitcher Kevin Gausman. Rhymes led the nation in hitting with a .431 (100-for-232) average, and he was named SEC Player of the Year. Gausman was 12-2 on the mound with a 2.77 ERA, and he was the fourth overall selection in the 2012 MLB Draft by the Baltimore Orioles.

Mainieri guided a young 2011 LSU squad to a 36-20 mark, including a 12-3 record over the final 15 games of the season. Though the Tigers finished strong, LSU fell just short of qualifying for the NCAA Tournament. Despite not reaching the postseason, Mainieri and Tigers laid a solid foundation from which to build championship-caliber teams.

Playing Days at LSU

Mainieri began his collegiate playing career at LSU, earning a letter as a Tiger outfielder in 1976. From LSU, he transferred to Miami-Dade Junior College for a season and then played two seasons at the University of New Orleans.

Aim High

Mainieri was the first civilian baseball coach at the Air Force Academy.

Fighting Irish

Mainieri directed Notre Dame to nine conference titles and a 2002 College World Series appearance.

Outfielder Mikie Mahtook became the third first-team all-American of the Mainieri era in 2011, and two Tigers - pitcher Kurt McCune and second baseman JaCoby Jones - earned Freshman All-America recognition.

Mainieri's 2010 LSU squad won its third straight SEC Tournament title and advanced to an NCAA Regional for the third consecutive year. LSU posted a 41-22 overall mark that was highlighted by four straight victories in the SEC Tournament in Hoover, Ala. LSU became the first team to win three consecutive conference tournament titles in the current eight-team format that was adopted by the league in 1996.

Mainieri reached a coaching milestone on the second playing date of the 2010 season, as he earned his 1,000th career victory when LSU defeated Centenary, 25-8, on February 20 in Alex Box Stadium.

LSU's magnificent 2009 season began with LSU ranked No. 1 in the polls and ended with the Tigers still occupying college baseball's summit.

LSU won its first Southeastern Conference regular-season title since 2003, posting a 20-10 SEC mark. The Tigers then became the first league school since Alabama in 2002-03 to win consecutive SEC Tournament titles.

LSU played host to the NCAA Baton Rouge Regional, where the Tigers defeated Southern, Baylor and Minnesota to set up a Super Regional matchup versus Rice in Alex Box Stadium. LSU swept two games from the Owls, earning a berth to the CWS for the second straight season and for the 15th time in school history.

The Tigers defeated Virginia in their CWS opener and recorded two wins over Arkansas to advance to the CWS Championship Finals versus Texas. Trailing 6-4 in the ninth inning of Game 1, the Tigers staged a dramatic two-run rally and eventually prevailed, 7-6, in 11 innings. The Longhorns posted a 5-1 win in Game 2; however, LSU overwhelmed UT, 11-4, in the deciding game to claim the NCAA championship trophy with a final record of 56-17.

Thirteen LSU players received 2009 SEC Academic Honor Roll recognition, and six Tigers were selected in the 2009 Major League Baseball Draft, including four in the first five rounds. Outfielder Jared Mitchell was the first-round choice of the Chicago White Sox, as LSU produced a first-round selection for the first time since 2003.

Also among the drafted players was Louis Coleman, a 2009 First-Team all-American and the SEC Pitcher of the Year chosen in the fifth round by the Kansas City Royals.

2008 - Return to Omaha

Mainieri first guided LSU back into prominence in 2008 as the Tigers advanced to the College World Series, earning a berth to Omaha for the first time since 2004.

Mainieri, named 2008 National Coach of the Year by Rivals.com and by CollegeBaseballInsider.com, directed the Tigers to a 49-19-1 record. LSU, which was predicted to finish fifth in the SEC Western Division in the preseason league coaches' poll, won 26 of its final 29 games during a remarkable late-season surge.

Mainieri's promise to LSU fans to attract the nation's best players had been fulfilled during his staff's first recruiting season, as Collegiate Baseball magazine rated the Tigers' 2007 class No. 1 in the country. The recruiting class - which included nine players selected in the Major League Baseball Draft - combined with LSU's returning players to form an outstanding 2008 club.

With four weeks remaining in the regular season, the '08 LSU club was 23-16-1 overall and in 11th place in the overall SEC standings with a 6-11-1 record; however, the Tigers posted a conference-record 23-game win streak that saw LSU claim the SEC Western Division title, the SEC Tournament championship and the NCAA Baton Rouge Regional championship.

LSU's 23-game surge ended with a loss to UC Irvine in Game 1 of the NCAA Baton Rouge Super Regional, but the Tigers won the next two games over the Anteaters to advance to the CWS. LSU placed fifth in Omaha with a 1-2 record, marking the Tigers' first Top 5 CWS finish since the 2000 squad claimed the national title.

Fourteen LSU baseball players - the most in the program's history - were named to the 2008 SEC Academic Honor Roll. The 2008 team's cumulative GPA for the spring semester was 2.89, the highest figure in LSU Baseball history.

Seven LSU players were selected in the 2008 Major League Baseball first-year player draft, representing the most since eight Tigers were taken in the 2001 draft.

Building the LSU Foundation

It is Mainieri's goal to finish his collegiate baseball career in the same place it began 40 years ago. He earned a letter in 1976 as a freshman outfielder at LSU, where he also met his future wife, Karen, then a Fighting Tiger cheerleader. He completed his playing career at the University of New Orleans, and, after enjoying great success as a head coach at St. Thomas (Fla.) University, the Air Force Academy and Notre Dame, Mainieri returned to Baton Rouge for the 2007 season eager to enhance the Fighting Tigers' storied tradition.

Mainieri and his staff laid the foundation for the future of the LSU program during the '07 season, as the Tigers posted a 29-26-1 overall mark. Despite its inexperience - the Tigers often featured four true freshmen in the batting order - LSU was in contention for an NCAA Tournament bid through the final weekend of the regular season.

The '07 Tigers won four SEC series over Top 25 teams, as LSU posted series victories over No. 3 Arkansas, No. 13 Ole Miss, No. 15 Mississippi State (a 2007 CWS participant) and No. 25 Alabama.

LSU was led by junior right-hander Jared Bradford, a second-team All-SEC selection who posted either a win or a save in 10 of the Tigers' 12 SEC victories. Outfielder Blake Dean and catcher Sean Ochinko each received Freshman All-SEC recognition for their outstanding rookie seasons.

At Notre Dame (1995-2006)

Mainieri established an unparalleled standard of excellence during his tenure at Notre Dame (1995-2006), leading his teams to 11 40-win seasons, nine conference titles, nine NCAA Regional appearances and a berth in the 2002 College World Series, marking the school's first CWS trip since 1957.

Mainieri led Notre Dame to an NCAA Regional in every season from 1999-2006, making the Irish one of 10 teams to appear in every NCAA Tournament in that eight-year span - the others were Miami, Texas, Rice, Cal State Fullerton, Florida State, Stanford, Clemson, Tulane and Oral Roberts. Notre Dame also joined six other schools (LSU, Miami, Rice, South Carolina, Stanford and Texas) as the only programs to reach an NCAA Regional final every season from 2000-05.

Sixty of Mainieri's Notre Dame players were drafted or signed free-agent contracts, and 19 were selected in the first 10 rounds of the Major League draft. His Irish players also combined for 14 All-America and 10 Academic All-America seasons.

Mainieri's Notre Dame teams combined for a 100-percent graduation rate (71 of 71) among players who completed their eligibility. Twelve players who signed professionally after their junior year returned to Notre Dame to complete their degree requirements.

Notre Dame was the only Division I baseball program to produce Academic All-Americans each year from 2000-04, with two honored every season from 2000-03. The 2006 squad combined for an impressive 3.28 team GPA during the spring semester.

Notre Dame was one of just four schools from 1998-2001 that produced two pitchers - Brad Lidge ('98, Houston Astros) and Aaron Heilman ('02, New York Mets) - who were drafted in the first round, with both players advancing to the

"Coach Mainieri knows the game but he knows his players even better. He knows how to manage players extremely well - knowing who he has to push harder and who he needs to give space, always getting the best out of his players. His door was always open and he was willing to listen to whatever was on your mind - all while treating everyone with the respect they deserved and caring about the person and his life, not just the player."

Major Leagues. Mainieri and his staff consistently have molded players into top prospects, as Lidge was just a 42nd-round pick out of high school while Heilman was a 54th-round pick.

Seven of Mainieri's former Notre Dame players have reached the Major League level, including six pitchers - Brad Lidge, Aaron Heilman, Jeff Samardzija, Jeff Manship, John Axford and Christian Parker. Former Irish infielder Matt Macri made his big league debut in 2008.

In the Mainieri era, nine of 13 Irish players who were drafted out of high school went on to be drafted in a higher round at Notre Dame while 24 who were undrafted as prep players went on to be drafted as members of the Irish program.

In 12 seasons of Big East Conference play, the Irish won more league games (192-67-2, .740) than any other team in the conference.

Mainieri was voted in 2005 to the position of the ABCA's chair of the Division I Baseball Coaches - which he held for three years. He was also a member of the ABCA executive committee.

Mainieri served on the NCAA Division I Baseball Issues Committee, and he was a member of the NCAA Academic Enhancement Working Group.

Mainieri established in 2002 the Opening Night Dinner at Notre Dame, an event that he continues to hold each year at LSU. The event, now known as the First Pitch Banquet, has featured an impressive lineup of keynote speakers: Hall of Fame manager Tommy Lasorda, former Chicago Cubs GM Jim Hendry, award-winning author and lifelong baseball fan John Grisham, legendary pitcher Roger Clemens, and LSU All-American and ESPN analyst Ben McDonald.

Mainieri's Early Years

A former Chicago White Sox farmhand, Mainieri was the first civilian baseball coach at Air Force and averaged 26 wins in six seasons (1989-'94) for a program that averaged just 15 wins in the six previous years. He is the only Air Force baseball coach to post six straight 20-win seasons and his 1994 squad led the nation in hitting (.360), slugging (.623) and triples (0.76 per game).

Mainieri guided the 1993 Air Force team to its first winning season in nearly a decade (28-22), with a school-record 21 wins at home. He coached three All-Americans, two Freshman All-Americans and two Academic All-Americans with the Falcons.

Mainieri coached six seasons at St. Thomas University in Miami, Fla. Four of Mainieri's teams at St. Thomas were ranked in the NCAA Division II Top 10 during the season. The 1984 Sunshine State Conference Coach of the Year saw his St. Thomas teams average 30 wins per season (after an average of just 18 wins in the six previous years). St. Thomas named its new baseball facility in Mainieri's honor in March 2013.

Fifteen of Mainieri's St. Thomas players entered pro baseball, with Joe Klink, Dane Johnson and Dan Rohrmeier each going on to appear on Major League rosters. Klink played with the 1987 Minnesota Twins and 1989 Oakland A's World Series championship teams while also pitching with the Florida Marlins in 1994.

Mainieri's coaching career began at his alma mater, Columbus High School in Miami, where he served as assistant baseball and football coach for three years before taking over at St. Thomas in the fall of 1982. He also spent the final three years at St. Thomas as director of athletics.

Mainieri was inducted into the Columbus High School Sports Hall of Fame in October 2009.

A four-year letterwinner in college, Mainieri played one season at LSU, one season for his father, legendary JUCO coach Demie Mainieri, at Miami-Dade North Community College, and two seasons at the University of New Orleans. The second baseman helped the Privateers win two Sun Belt Conference titles and advance to the 1979 NCAA Tournament during his senior season.

After completing his undergraduate degree requirements at Florida International (1980), Mainieri played two minor-league seasons before earning a master's in sports administration from St. Thomas in 1982.

Born August 29, 1957, in Morgantown, W.Va., Mainieri and his wife Karen - who he met when they were students at LSU - have four children: Nicholas (32), Alexandra (31), Samantha (29) and Thomas (21).

Samantha gave birth in January 2011 to son Holden Brooks Roth, the Mainieris' first grandchild. Their second grandchild, Jonathan Demie Mainieri, the son of Nicholas and his wife, Kate, was born in 2015.

Alan Dunn, who is entering his fifth season as the LSU pitching coach, was named the 2015 National Pitching Coach of the Year by Collegiate Baseball newspaper.

Dunn directed a Fighting Tiger staff in 2015 that helped lead the team to the SEC championship and a berth in the College World Series. The staff, which was No. 2 in the SEC in ERA (2.98) and in opponent batting average (.230), was led by right-hander Alex Lange, the National Freshman Pitcher of the Year and the SEC Freshman of the Year. Lange, a first-team all-American, was 12-0 with a 1.97 ERA and 131 strikeouts in 114 innings.

LSU has been an NCAA Tournament National Seed in each of Dunn's four seasons, and the Tigers lead the nation in wins (204) in that span. Over the past four years, LSU has made two College World Series appearances and won three NCAA Regional championships, two SEC championships, three SEC Western Division titles and two SEC Tournament titles.

Dunn was the minor league pitching coordinator for the Baltimore Orioles when he was hired in June 2011 as the pitching coach for the LSU program. He has 22 years of experience as a pitching coach on the professional level, and he has coached more than 25 pitchers that have advanced to Major League Baseball.

In 2014, Dunn directed an LSU staff that led the nation with a school-record 17 shutouts. LSU was No. 1 in the SEC in fewest runs allowed (180), No. 1 in WHIP (1.09), No. 2 in ERA (2.60) and No. 3 in hits allowed per nine innings (6.99). The Tigers ranked fifth in the nation in hits allowed per nine innings and sixth in WHIP.

Dunn supervised the development of LSU first-team all-American Aaron Nola, who was named 2014 National Pitcher of the Year by the College Baseball Foundation, and he was voted SEC Pitcher of the Year for the second straight season. Nola was the seventh overall selection in the 2014 MLB Draft by the Philadelphia Phillies. He posted an 11-1 mark and a 1.47 ERA with 134 strikeouts in 116.1 innings. Nola was No. 3 in the nation in strikeouts, and he was No. 1 in the SEC in strikeouts, ERA, opponent batting average (.172) and innings pitched.

Dunn in 2013 directed an LSU pitching staff that posted a 2.40 ERA, which ranked second in the SEC and No. 3 in the nation. The Tigers were also No. 2 in the league in opponent batting average (.218) and No. 3 in the conference in strikeouts (506). Four members of the 2013 LSU staff were selected in the first 14 rounds of the MLB Draft, including second-rounder Ryan Eades by the Minnesota Twins.

In 2012, Dunn coached LSU first-team all-American and current Major Leaguer Kevin Gausman, who led the SEC in wins (12) and strikeouts (135). Gausman was the No. 4 overall selection in the 2012 MLB Draft by the Orioles. As a staff, the Tigers were No. 1 in the league in strikeouts with 573.

Prior to arriving at LSU, Dunn spent three full seasons and the end of 2007 as Baltimore's major league bullpen coach before becoming the Orioles' minor league pitching coordinator prior to the 2011 season.

Dunn was in his 15th season in the Chicago Cubs organization and his first as minor league pitching coordinator when he was hired in August, 2007 by Orioles manager Dave Trembley. Dunn served as pitching coach at every level from Class A to AAA in his 15 years with the Cubs.

Dunn joined the Cubs in 1992 as a scout before becoming the pitching coach in 1993 for the team's Class A affiliate in Geneva N.Y. He then moved on to other Class A clubs at Peoria, Ill. (1994), Rockford, Ill. (1995-96) and Daytona, Fla. (1997). Dunn served as pitching coach for the AA West Tennessee Diamond Jaxx from 1998 through 2005, where his pitching staffs finished first or second in the Southern League in ERA three times.

Dunn helped lead the Diamond Jaxx to the 2000 Southern League championship, and he coached the only three staffs in Southern League history to record 1,100 strikeouts in a single season. He also coached three individual Southern League ERA champions in 1991, 2000 and 2001.

He was the pitching coach at AAA Iowa in 2006 before becoming the Cubs' minor league pitching coordinator in 2007.

Dunn pitched professionally for two years in the Detroit Tigers farm system. He was the Tigers' fourth-round selection (95th player overall) in the 1983 MLB Draft out of the University of Alabama, where he played for the Crimson Tide's '83 College World Series runners-up team.

He worked as an assistant coach at Vanderbilt in 1991 and 1992 prior to beginning his coaching career at the pro level.

Dunn earned a bachelor's of science degree in physical education from UAB in 1991. He and his wife, Jay, have two children - a son, Davis, and a daughter, Bailey.

2009-14 New York Yankees scout

Andy Cannizaro, a New York Yankees scout for five years and a former MLB infielder, was hired in July 2014 as the recruiting coordinator and hitting coach for the LSU baseball program.

Cannizaro made an immediate impact upon the Tigers' offense during the 2015 season, as LSU led the nation in base hits (762), and the Tigers were No. 3 in stolen bases (130), No. 3 in doubles (146), No. 4 in batting average (.314) and No. 7 in runs scored (451). LSU led the Southeastern Conference in batting average, base hits, stolen bases, doubles, total bases (1,107) and fewest strikeouts (341).

Cannizaro coached four LSU hitters that earned All-America recognition, including shortstop Alex Bregman, the No. 2 overall selection in the 2015 MLB Draft by the Houston Astros. Cannizaro's additional All-Americans included outfielder Andrew Stevenson (second round - Nationals), catcher Kade Scivicque (fourth round - Tigers) and first baseman Chris China (17th round - Cardinals).

Three other of Cannizaro's hitters were selected in the '15 draft, including second baseman Jared Foster (fifth round - Angels), third baseman Conner Hale (ninth round - Mariners) and outfielder Mark Laird (ninth round - Phillies).

Cannizaro, a former all-America shortstop at Tulane who played in the big leagues for the Yankees and Tampa Bay Rays, worked as a Yankees scout since 2009, evaluating and recruiting amateur players in preparation for the annual MLB Draft.

Cannizaro, a native of Mandeville, La., was the Yankees' official representative at the 2013 and 2014 MLB Drafts. He also worked as the advance scout for the team as it prepared for the 2011 and 2012 playoffs.

Cannizaro was the Yankees' seventh-round selection in the 2001 MLB Draft, and he played in the organization for seven seasons, reaching the Major League level in September 2006. He joined the Tampa Bay Rays in 2008 and was on the club's big-league roster for the first two months of the season.

He later played for the AAA affiliates of the Cleveland Indians and Chicago White Sox before retiring from the game in September 2009.

During his pro career, he worked as head coach of the Louisiana Knights, a U18 fall team consisting of 12 NCAA Division I players.

Cannizaro, a four-year starter at shortstop for Tulane, led the 2001 Green Wave squad to the first College World Series appearance in school history, batting a remarkable .395 with 118 hits, 34 doubles, 70 RBI and 52 stolen bases.

A two-time all-America and three-time all-Conference USA performer, Cannizaro is Tulane's all-time leader in games played (248), at-bats (1,030), hits (350), doubles (85) and stolen bases (128). He was inducted in 2007 into the Tulane Athletics Hall of Fame.

Cannizaro graduated from Tulane in December 2001 with a bachelor of arts in sociology/business minor. He and his wife, Allison, are the parents of two children, Gabrielle (4) and Pierce (2).

Andy Cannizaro made his Major League debut with the New York Yankees in 2006.

Travis Roy enters his first season as the strength and conditioning coordinator for the LSU baseball program. He most recently worked as the strength coach for the Florida State baseball team that claimed the 2015 Atlantic Coast Conference kinesiology with an emphasis in sports management in 2014.

While Roy was a graduate assistant at LSU, the Tiger baseball team captured the SEC Tournament title in 2013 and 2014 while earning a trip to the College World Series in 2013. Over a two-year span, Roy trained 13 Tigers that were selected in the MLB First-Year Player Draft and 18 underclassmen that were drafted from the football team.

In 2011, Roy worked as an intern at Gayle Hatch Weightlifting, training three individuals that competed in the 2011 AAU Junior Olympics. Roy began training with Hatch, who was the head strength coach for the USA in the 2004 Olympic Games in Athens, Greece, at the age of 11. In 2005, Roy won gold at the AAU Junior Olympics and was named the Most Outstanding Lifter for his age group.

Roy is certified by the National Strength Coach Association (NSCA) as a Certified Strength & Conditioning Specialist (CSCS). He also holds a Level 1 certification by the United States Weightlifting Federation (USAW-1).

Roy's family is certainly no stranger to strength and conditioning as his great-grandfather, Alvin Roy, was the first strength and conditioning coach in college and professional football. Alvin won a national championship at LSU in 1958 and trained Heisman Trophy winner Billy Cannon. Alvin would also go on to capture an AFL world championship with the San Diego Chargers in 1963, and he was a member of the Kansas City Chiefs staff that won Super Bowl IV in New Orleans over the Minnesota Vikings.

Highlights

Season Overview

- LSU was a consensus No. 5 in the final 2015 college baseball polls, marking the Tigers' fifth Top 10 finish in the past eight seasons and their third Top 5 finish in the past seven years.
- The 2015 Tigers led the nation with 54 wins, and LSU advanced to the College World Series for the second time in three years and for the 17th time in school history. Over the past four seasons, LSU has won a nation's-best 204 games, and the Tigers are the only team in the country to earn a National Seed in each of the last four NCAA Tournaments. LSU was the No. 2 National Seed in 2015.
- LSU in 2015 captured the SEC regular-season championship for the 16th time in school history and won the SEC Western Division title for the 18th time. The Tigers posted a 21-8 conference mark and clinched the league title with a series victory at South Carolina on the final regular-season weekend of the year. The Tigers have won three overall league titles and five division championships during Paul Mainieri's nine-season LSU tenure.

- LSU coach Paul Mainieri was named the 2015 National Coach of the Year by the NCBWA, and he received the Skip Bertman National Coach of the Year Award presented by the College Baseball Foundation. The National Coach of the Year designation is the fourth for Mainieri during his career; he has received National Coach of the Year recognition two previous times at LSU (2008, 2009) and once at Notre Dame (2000). Mainieri was also voted 2015 SEC Coach of the Year, marking the third time he has received the league honor.

- LSU produced five players that received 2015 All-America recognition including junior shortstop Alex Bregman, freshman pitcher Alex Lange, senior catcher Kade Scivicque, junior first baseman Chris China and junior centerfielder Andrew Stevenson. Bregman was one of four finalists for the Golden Spikes National Player of the Year Award, and Scivicque, a member of the College World Series All-Tournament team, was one of three finalists for the Johnny Bench National Catcher of the Year Award. Lange was named National Freshman Pitcher of the Year by Collegiate Baseball magazine and by the NCBWA, and he was voted SEC Freshman of the Year by the league coaches.

- Eight Tigers were selected in the 2015 Major League Baseball Draft - the second-highest total in school history - including junior shortstop Alex Bregman, who was the No. 2 overall selection in the draft by the Houston Astros.

Mainieri Wins Skip Bertman Award

The National College Baseball Hall of Fame presented LSU coach Paul Mainieri with the 2015 Skip Bertman National Coach of the Year Award. Mainieri was honored at the Hall of Fame's annual Night of Champions celebration in Lubbock, Texas.

The award is named for Bertman, who coached at LSU from 1984 to 2001. During his tenure, he won five national championships and was named National Coach of the Year six times.

The National Coach of the Year designation was the second of the 2015 season for Mainieri, who was also named National Coach of the Year by the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association. He has received National Coach of the Year recognition in two previous seasons at LSU (2008, 2009) and in one previous season at Notre Dame (2000).

In 2015, Mainieri led the Tigers to the College World Series for the second time in three years and for the fourth time in his nine-season LSU tenure. The Tigers posted a nation's-best 54 wins and were ranked No. 1 in the country for 10 consecutive weeks during the season.

Over the past four seasons, LSU under Mainieri has won a nation's-best 204 games, and the Tigers are the only team in the country to earn a National Seed in each of the last four NCAA Tournaments.

Mainieri was also named in 2015 the SEC Coach of the Year for the second time in his career, as he directed LSU to the SEC regular-season championship and to the Western Division title.

Tigers Earn All-America Recognition

Five LSU players earned All-America recognition in 2015, including three first-team All-America designations. Junior shortstop Alex Bregman, freshman pitcher Alex Lange and senior catcher Kade Scivicque were first-team All-Americans, and junior outfielder Andrew Stevenson and junior first baseman Chris China were third-team All-Americans.

Bregman, a 2015 Golden Spikes Award finalist and a two-time first-team All-American, enjoyed a brilliant three-year career at LSU, batting .337 (265-for-786) with 56 doubles, 10 triples, 21 homers, 148 RBI, 153 runs and 66 stolen bases.

Bregman, the 2013 Brooks Wallace Award winner as the nation's best shortstop, batted .323 in 2015 with 22 doubles, three triples, nine homers, 49 RBI, 59 runs and 38 stolen bases, the second-highest single-season steals total in LSU history.

Lange posted a 12-0 record with a 1.97 ERA in 114 innings for the Tigers. In 17 starts, the right-hander struck out 131 and limited opponents to a .212 cumulative batting average. The Lee's Summit, Mo., native was voted National Freshman Pitcher of the Year and SEC Freshman of the Year, and he received first team all-SEC recognition. He finished second in the SEC in ERA, wins and strikeouts, and he was fifth in the conference

Catcher Kade Scivicque was a finalist for the 2015 Johnny Bench Award.

Centerfielder Andrew Stevenson finished in the Top 10 of the SEC in four different offensive categories.

First baseman Chris Chinae led LSU in RBI with 58, and he was fourth in the SEC with 88 base hits.

Scivicque, a native of Maurepas, La., was one of three finalists for the Johnny Bench Award, given to the nation's most outstanding catcher. A first-team All-SEC selection, he hit a team-high .355 in 2015 with 21 doubles, six homers, and 48 RBI, and he threw out 21 runners attempting to steal.

Stevenson, a product of Youngsville, La., batted .348 in 2015 with 13 doubles, five triples, one homer, 24 RBI, 53 runs and 26 stolen bases. He finished third in the Southeastern Conference in stolen bases, sixth in triples, eighth in base hits (86), ninth in batting average and 12th in runs scored.

Chinae, a native of Miami, Fla., hit .344 in 2015 with 17 doubles, 11 homers, 58 RBI and 42 runs. He was No. 4 in the SEC in hits (88), and he was fifth in the league in RBI, eighth in total bases (138), 10th in batting average, 10th in home runs, 11th in doubles and 11th in slugging percentage (.539). Chinae was voted to the 2015 NCAA Baton Rouge Regional All-Tournament team after batting .455 (5-for-11) in three games with one double, three RBI and three runs.

Bregman No. 2 Selection in MLB Draft

Junior shortstop Alex Bregman was selected No. 2 overall by the Houston Astros in the 2015 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft.

Bregman, a 2015 Golden Spikes Award finalist and a two-time first-team all-American, became the second-highest draft choice in LSU baseball history, and he was the 18th LSU player to be chosen in the first round.

Pitcher Ben McDonald, the No. 1 overall selection in the 1989 MLB Draft by the Baltimore Orioles, is the only LSU player to be chosen higher than Bregman. Including compensatory selections, LSU has produced 15 first-round picks since 1989, when McDonald was the first overall selection by Baltimore.

The selection of Bregman marked the sixth time in seven seasons an LSU player has been chosen in the first round of the MLB Draft. Outfielder Jared Mitchell was the 23rd overall selection in 2009 by the Chicago White Sox, pitcher Anthony Ranaudo was the 39th overall choice in 2010 by the Boston Red Sox, outfielder Mikie Mahtook was the 31st overall selection in 2011 by the Tampa Bay Rays, pitcher Kevin Gausman was the fourth overall choice in 2012 by the Baltimore Orioles, and pitcher Aaron Nola was the seventh overall selection by the Philadelphia Phillies in 2014.

Bregman was the 29th-round selection of the Boston Red Sox in 2012 after his high school senior season, and he elected to enroll at LSU instead of signing a pro contract.

Bregman is the highest-drafted player produced by LSU coach Paul Mainieri in his 33-year collegiate career; Mainieri has produced six first-round selection during his nine-year LSU tenure.

While at Notre Dame, Mainieri coached pitcher Brad Lidge, the No. 17 overall choice (Houston Astros) in the 1998 draft, and pitcher Aaron Heilman, the No. 18 overall selection (New York Mets) in the 2001 draft.

The Early Years

LSU's 1900 Baseball Team

Louisiana State University has a colorful 123-year (120 seasons) baseball history which began with the first team in 1893 and has continued uninterrupted since 1905.

Although baseball was played at LSU prior to 1893, no contests had been scheduled with any clubs outside of Baton Rouge. The team of 1892 won all of its games against local competition.

On May 13, 1893, in connection with a military field day, LSU was engaged in its first intercollegiate athletic contest and defeated the nine from Tulane University.

That was the only game of 1893 and captain E.B. Young, in selecting materials for uniforms to be used for the May 13 contest, chose the colors of Old Gold and Purple. The baseball squad of 1893 had the honor of first wearing the colors that later were adopted as the official University colors.

In 1904, a game was scheduled to start the year against a local professional club. That game, however, was cancelled when the Tiger captain and manager resigned upon the refusal of the university president to grant permission for the cadets to attend the contest. The team disbanded and no further contests were played that year.

In 1915 C.C. "Doc" Stroud took over as Tiger coach and eventually became the first man to lead LSU for more than two seasons. In 1919 Stroud led LSU to a 12-4 campaign, a mark that had been bettered only one time before and would not be surpassed again until 1936. In that 1919 season, the Tigers had a fine young pitcher named Tom Staples who threw a perfect game in a 9-0 win over Louisiana College. He also pitched and won both games of a doubleheader that same year.

In 1927 Harry Rabenhorst was named head coach and served in that capacity until 1956, with the exception of a three-year period from 1943-45. During that three-year span, A.L. Swanson was the Tigers' field manager. In Swanson's first year, the Tigers lost their first three games of the season, but bounced back to win 12 of the next 16 and LSU's second SEC championship.

The first SEC title came back to LSU in 1939 under Rabenhorst. The '39 team was one of LSU's best as it posted a 22-5 record for an .815 winning percentage. The team was led by first baseman Paul Brotherton, outfielder Ken Kavanaugh, Sr. and pitcher Jesse Danna, and had a winning streak of 13 games before losing to Minnesota in a swing through the Western (Big 10) Conference.

Besides the 1939 and 1943 championships, LSU also won conference titles in 1946 - under Rabenhorst - and in 1961 under Ray Didier, but not again until 1975 under Jim Smith. During Smith's tenure, however, the Tigers won or tied for the SEC Western Division title on three occasions.

The 1975 team became the first LSU squad to participate in the NCAA Tournament, as the Tigers played in the South Regional at Starkville, Miss. LSU won its first regional game over Murray State, but was eliminated from the tournament after consecutive losses to Florida State and Miami (Fla.).

Former LSU infielder Alvin Dark managed five Major League teams.

1939 SEC Champions

Joe Bill Adcock enjoyed a 17-year big league career.

LSU coaches in the early years supplemented their collegiate schedules with competition against professional opponents. This gave the Tigers excellent chances to gain experience, but rare chances for victory. Among the Tigers' most noteworthy losses was a 17-7 defeat at the hands of the Chicago White Sox in 1925. Other pro opponents included the Detroit, Cleveland, New York and St. Louis major league teams, Indianapolis of the American Association, Nashville and New Orleans of the Southern Association, plus several teams from Louisiana's celebrated Class "C" Evangeline League.

Through the early years, numerous Tigers made it into the professional ranks. Roland Howell in 1912 was the first Tiger known to have signed a pro contract. Many players from LSU subsequently made their marks in the Major Leagues, including Walker Cress, Cincinnati Reds; Dave Madison, Detroit Tigers; Buddy Blair, Philadelphia Athletics; Mark Freeman, New York Yankees; Connie Ryan, Boston Braves; Alvin Dark, New York Giants; Joe Bill Adcock, Milwaukee Braves; Art Swanson, Pittsburgh Pirates; Mike Miley, California Angels; and Randy Wiles, Chicago White Sox.

Those and other outstanding players performed on a number of diamonds on the LSU campus. In 1929, the Tigers' home games were played on a field located on the Campanile Parade Grounds. In 1936, the playing field was located north of the football stadium and was equipped with wooden bleachers. In 1938, LSU baseball moved into what was later named Alex Box Stadium, the home of the Fighting Tigers for 70 years (1938-2008).

Tom Staples (middle) fired a perfect game in 1919 against Louisiana College.

1984-2001

To Skip Bertman, striving for excellence isn't just a catchy motto or slogan; it's how he has approached every task he has undertaken in his life – from his playing days at the University of Miami, to his highly-successful 11-year stint as head baseball coach at Miami Beach High School, to his eight years as associate head coach at UM, to his remarkable 18-year tenure (1984-2001) as LSU's baseball coach.

Bertman, who also served a seven-year term (2001-08) as LSU's athletics director, led the Tigers to five College World Series titles and a sterling 870-330-3 mark (.724) in 18 seasons, giving him the highest all-time winning percentage among SEC coaches. Bertman also had the fourth-highest winning percentage among active NCAA coaches at the time of his retirement. Bertman, USC legend Rod Dedeaux and Augie Garrido of Texas are the only coaches in NCAA history to win five national championships.

In addition to the five national championships (1991, 1993, 1996, 1997, 2000) Bertman's LSU teams also claimed seven SEC championships, nine 50-win seasons, 11 CWS berths and six SEC Tournament championships.

Bertman's jersey #15 has been retired by LSU – the first baseball number to receive that designation from the university – and the street in front of the original Alex Box Stadium was re-named Skip Bertman Drive. Bertman was inducted into the American Baseball Coaches Association Hall of Fame in January 2003, the College Baseball Hall of Fame in July 2006 and the LSU Athletic Hall of Fame in September 2011.

As much as LSU's dominance can be attributed to Bertman, the players have also had a huge part in that success. During Bertman's tenure at LSU, more than 100 players were drafted into professional baseball, with 41 Tigers reaching the major leagues. Bertman produced 11 first-team All-America performers, and more importantly, nearly 100 percent of those who played for at least four years in the Tiger program earned their LSU degrees.

Bertman came to LSU after a highly successful eight-year stint at Miami, where he was associate head coach and pitching coach under Hall of Fame coach Ron Fraser. The Bertman-Fraser partnership produced 427 wins and five berths in the CWS, including the Hurricanes' first national championship in 1982. Bertman's recruiting also laid much of the groundwork for Miami's second national championship in 1985, which was Bertman's second year at LSU.

Bertman was also an accomplished international coach, serving as pitching coach on the 1988 United States gold-medal squad, then leading the USA as head coach to the bronze medal at the 1996 Olympic Games in Atlanta.

Bertman has authored two books (Coaching Youth League Baseball and Skip: The Man and the System), produced a motivational video (Motivation and Teamwork: Winning the Big One), and has been a featured speaker and clinician at banquets, civic organizations and youth groups around the country.

Bertman's Era of Excellence as LSU's baseball coach ended in June 2001, but his service to the university continued on a more comprehensive level. On January 19, 2001, the LSU Board of Supervisors paved the way for another Bertman era, as the panel unanimously approved LSU Chancellor Mark Emmert's selection of Bertman to be the school's seventh permanent athletics director since LSU became a charter member of the Southeastern Conference in 1933. Bertman assumed his duties as athletics director on August 6, 2001.

As athletics director, Bertman supervised a highly successful 20-sport program. With a diverse and talented coaching staff as well as some of the best facilities in the nation, Bertman enhanced LSU's status as one of the best athletics programs in the country.

In the Hall

Skip Bertman was inducted July 4, 2006 into the College Baseball Hall of Fame in Lubbock, Texas. Bertman was one of 10 members of the Hall's first class.

LSU completed a magnificent 1991 season with a 55-18 record as the Tigers captured their first baseball national title and the 19th overall national championship for the school.

Head coach Skip Bertman directed the Tigers to the 1991 NCAA title after having led his team to the College World Series in five of the past six seasons. Bertman was recognized as the National Coach of the Year by Collegiate Baseball magazine shortly after LSU's World Series victory.

The Tigers became the first team since Miami (Fla.) in 1982 to win the national title without a loss in the NCAA Tournament; LSU won eight consecutive games in the tournament, including four in the South Regional and four in the College World Series.

As a team, the Tigers set a College World Series record by averaging 12 runs per game, breaking the previous mark of 11 per contest established by Notre Dame in 1957.

LSU also set a new Series mark with a team fielding percentage of .993. The Tigers committed only one error in 148 chances.

LSU equaled the College World Series mark for most home runs with nine, tying the record set by Arizona State in 1981. Catcher Gary Hymel blasted four homers, rightfielder Lyle Mouton belted three, designated hitter Pat Garrity contributed one and centerfielder Armando Rios launched a two-run shot in the championship game win over Wichita State.

The Tigers outscored their four Series opponents, 48-15, while recording a team batting average of .329, including five doubles, four triples and nine home runs.

The June 9, 1991, headline of the Baton Rouge Sunday Advocate heralds LSU's CWS title.

All-American Chad Ogea pitched the Tigers to victory in the CWS final against Wichita State.

Hymel was named the Most Outstanding Player of the Series, as he batted .500 with four homers and 10 RBI. Hymel finished the season with a .310 batting average and a school-record 25 home runs to go along with 79 RBI. Hymel, Mouton, pitcher Chad Ogea and first baseman Johnny Tellechea were named to the College World Series All-Tournament team.

Mouton batted .429 in the Series with three homers and 10 RBI; Ogea earned wins over Florida and Wichita State, compiling a 1.74 ERA in 10 1/3 innings; Tellechea hit .438 with two doubles, one RBI and five runs.

LSU culminated its championship year on July 9, 1991, with a trip to the White House. President George Bush recognized the Tigers in a special Rose Garden ceremony which also honored major league legends Joe DiMaggio and Ted Williams. LSU became only the third collegiate baseball team to receive an invitation to the White House.

A century of baseball excellence was culminated in June, 1993, as LSU captured its second NCAA title in three years with an 8-0 victory over Wichita State in the College World Series final. In the 100th anniversary season of the Fighting Tiger program, head coach Skip Bertman and his players reinforced LSU's status as the nation's premier baseball power.

The Tigers began the 1993 campaign as the nation's No. 1 team in all three of the college baseball polls. The Tigers' pre-conference scheduled featured a 12-game winning streak which extended through the month of March as LSU prepared to defend its SEC title. The Tigers' drive to win their fourth straight league crown was spearheaded by Todd Walker, who established an SEC single-season record with a 33-game hitting streak. The regular-season also featured a "Turn Back the Clock" game against Tulane in Alex Box Stadium, as players from both teams wore old-fashioned uniforms and used wooden bats. The Tigers defeated the Green Wave 6-3 in a game which commemorated LSU's 100-year baseball history.

LSU went on to become the first team in league annals to win four straight SEC championships and, after a 9-4 win over South Alabama in the NCAA South Regional final at Alex Box Stadium, the Tigers advanced to the College World Series for the sixth time in eight seasons.

The Tigers returned to Omaha's Rosenblatt Stadium for another National Championship crusade. The fifth-seeded Tigers disposed of fourth-seeded Long Beach State to open the Series as left fielder Jim Greely launched two home runs and collected a personal-best five RBI. Left-hander Mike Sirotka handcuffed the 49ers with a three-hit, nine strikeout performance.

LSU posted a furious rally against top-seeded Texas A&M in the next round, overcoming a 7-2 deficit and grabbing a 9-8 lead on an eighth inning single by Armando Rios. Then, with the bases loaded, Todd Walker provided one of the series' most scintillating moments, unloading his third grand slam of the season to cap the 13-8 triumph.

The momentum generated by the win over the Aggies was vanquished three days later as Long Beach State rallied for an improbable 10-8 victory, striking for four runs in their final at-bat.

Now LSU faced a third meeting with Long Beach, with the winner advancing to the World Series championship game. The Tigers, on the strength of a two-run double by Rios, tied the game 5-5 in the bottom of the ninth before Walker delivered the game-winning single for a thrilling 6-5 victory. LSU was one victory away from fulfilling a season-long dream.

LSU faced Wichita State in the national championship game for the second time in three years, and unlike the first meeting in 1991, this game offered little suspense. Todd Walker's two-run homer in the first inning began LSU's surge to another World Series title. LSU added three runs in the second inning as Armando Rios sandwiched a sacrifice fly between RBI singles by Walker and by Jason Williams.

While the Tigers bolted to the big lead, freshman right-hander Brett Laxton was in the process of making College World Series history. Relying primarily on an exploding fastball with an occasional paralyzing slider, Laxton set a CWS championship game record with 16 staggering strikeouts. Laxton limited Wichita State to a mere three hits while retiring 16 of the final 20 Shocker batters, including Wichita State's last hope, outfielder Carl Hall, who flied weakly to Harry Berrios in right field to conclude the Tigers' 8-0 triumph. For the second time in three years, an unquenchable desire for victory was LSU's most prominent characteristic as it catapulted the Tigers to college baseball's summit.

Todd Walker was named the Most Outstanding Player of the Series and was joined on the All-Tournament team by Mike Sirotko, Brett Laxton, Adrian Antonini, Jim Greely and Armando Rios. Walker, the 1993 SEC Player of the Year, recorded a conference-record 102 RBI on the season and surpassed Albert Belle as LSU's all-time RBI leader with 175.

Mike Sirotko ended a fantastic four-year career as LSU's career leader in innings pitched with 372. He tied Ben McDonald's school record with 10 complete games, including eight in his final nine starts. Laxton's dazzling performance in the national title game capped a phenomenal season as the National Freshman of the Year was 12-1 with an SEC-best 1.98 ERA.

The 1993 team was expertly guided by Skip Bertman, who for the third time in his 10-year career was named National Coach of the Year. The Tigers completed the year with a 53-17-1 record, marking LSU's fifth-straight 50-win season, a feat unmatched by any other school.

Second baseman Warren Morris launched a two-out, two-run homer in the bottom of the ninth inning to lift LSU to a pulsating 9-8 victory over Miami (Fla.) in the 1996 College World Series final. The blast marked the first time in the 50-year history of the CWS that a team had won the national championship with a homer in the bottom of the ninth.

As the ball cleared the right-field fence and landed in the third row of the bleachers, Morris raised his arms into the air triumphantly as he rounded first base. Upon reaching home plate, he was mobbed by his jubilant teammates and cheered by 23,905 fans who had just witnessed the greatest finish in CWS annals.

The LSU Tigers, for the third time in six seasons, were the champions of collegiate baseball.

Fittingly, it was the only home run of the season for Morris, as the Alexandria, La., native had missed 39 games due to a broken hamate bone in his right hand. He returned to the LSU lineup for the NCAA South II Regional, and he led the Tigers to eight straight victories, with the final win giving his team the national title.

LSU became just the seventh school to win three or more CWS titles in the 50-year history of the event, and Skip Bertman became only the sixth coach to win three or more baseball national championships. LSU also became only the third school to win three national titles in one decade (1991, 1993, 1996).

The CWS championship capped a long list of achievements for the 1996 Tigers, including establishing an SEC record with 131 home runs on the season. The Tigers posted a 52-15 record, marking LSU's sixth 50-win season in eight years and the seventh in school history. LSU recorded a 20-10 SEC mark, sharing the conference title with Florida and Alabama.

Shortstop Jason Williams became the SEC career leader in runs scored (270), and he became LSU's all-time hits leader with 327. First baseman Eddy Furniss, a first-team all-America selection, set the SEC single-season mark for RBI (103) and the LSU single-season home run record (26). Pitcher Eddie Yarnall was also a first-team all-America choice, as he posted an 11-1 record, including two victories in the College World Series.

Furniss and pitcher Chris Demouy were named Academic all-Americans; Furniss had a 3.7 gpa in pre-medicine and Demouy a 3.8 gpa in management. Seven Tigers earned Academic all-SEC recognition, including Furniss, Demouy, Morris (3.5 gpa in zoology), catcher Tim Lanier (3.6 in kinesiology), designated hitter Brad Wilson (3.0 in general studies), catcher Kevin Ward (3.6 in electrical engineering) and pitcher Brian Daugherty (3.1 in kinesiology).

For the third time in six seasons, Bertman was named National Coach of the Year, an honor he received from Collegiate Baseball, Baseball America and the American Baseball Coaches Association.

LSU was No. 1 in the grandstand as well, as the Tigers led the nation in attendance by drawing a school-record 226,805 fans to Alex Box Stadium.

It was a remarkable season, culminated by arguably the greatest moment in LSU athletic history, a decisive swing of the bat by Warren Morris, who magnificently added his name to the list of Tiger legends.

On June 7, 1997, the LSU Fighting Tigers justified the pre-season status bestowed upon them by Baseball America magazine as college baseball's "Team of the '90s" by defeating Southeastern Conference rival Alabama, 13-6, in the championship game of the College World Series. The game was witnessed by a record crowd of 24,401 in Omaha's Rosenblatt Stadium.

LSU won its fourth NCAA championship of the 1990s (1991, 1993, 1996, 1997), and the Tigers became the first team to win back-to-back titles since Stanford accomplished the feat in 1987-88. Head coach Skip Bertman joined Rod Dedeaux of Southern California as the only coaches to win four College World Series championships. Bertman was named the 1997 National Coach of the Year, receiving that designation for the fifth time in his storied 14-year career.

Ironically, a month before the title match, the Crimson Tide humiliated the Tigers, 28-2, the worst loss in LSU's 104-year baseball history. But in the CWS championship contest, the Tigers exploded to a 9-0 lead after two innings and never looked back. LSU won its eighth straight CWS game over two seasons, and the Tigers improved their mark in NCAA (regional and CWS) tournament championship games to a phenomenal 16-0.

Prior to the win over Alabama, the Tigers posted CWS victories over Rice (5-4) and Stanford (10-5 and 13-9). LSU batted .328 (45-for-137) in the Series with seven doubles and 10 home runs. The Tigers averaged better than 10 runs per game in the CWS, outscoring their opponents, 41-24.

The championship game completed a 57-13 campaign for Skip Bertman and his club, as the Tigers established the Southeastern Conference record for most victories in a season. LSU, which returned only two starting position players from its 1996 national championship club, also claimed the '97 SEC championship, the school's sixth conference crown of the 1990s.

The June 13, 1997, headline of the Baton Rouge Advocate heralds LSU's fourth CWS title.

Junior right-hander Patrick Coogan was the ace of the '97 staff as he posted a 14-3 record and a 4.46 ERA with 144 strikeouts in 125 innings.

LSU roared to a blistering 19-0 start, establishing the SEC mark for most consecutive victories. The Tigers, who began the season ranked No. 8 (Collegiate Baseball) and No. 13 (Baseball America) in the pre-season polls, ascended to No. 1 by March 10, holding that position for 10 consecutive weeks.

After claiming the SEC title, LSU played host to the NCAA South I Regional, where the Tigers, after suffering a third-round loss to South Alabama, battled back to claim their ninth CWS berth in 12 seasons. LSU posted a thrilling 14-7, 11-inning victory over Long Beach State in an elimination game to force a rematch with South Alabama in the regional championship round. Needing two victories over USA, the Tigers launched eight homers in a doubleheader sweep en route to the regional title. LSU hit .339 (82-for-242) in its six regional games, outscoring the opposition 76-29 while unloading 20 home runs. Third baseman Trey McClure was named the regional's Most Outstanding Player, as he hit .435 (10-for-23) with five doubles, two homers and 10 RBI.

LSU completed the year with an NCAA-record 188 home runs, breaking the previous mark of 161 homers set by Brigham Young in 1988. The Tigers homered at least once in all 70 of their games.

Junior right-hander Doug Thompson was the winning pitcher in the 1997 national championship game, working the final 4.2 innings in the 13-6 win over Alabama.

Senior rightfielder Tom Bernhardt led LSU with a .615 batting average in the CWS.

All-American junior shortstop Brandon Larson enjoyed a remarkable season, batting .381 on the year with 40 homers and 118 RBI. He established SEC single-season records for homers, RBI and total bases (250), and he became just the fourth player in NCAA history to collect 40 or more homers in a season.

Patrick Coogan (14-3, 4.63 ERA, 144 K), a junior right-hander, earned first-team all-America honors, while first baseman Eddy Furniss (.378, 17 HR, 77 RBI) was a third-team all-America selection. Second baseman Blair Barbier (.353, 15 HR, 57 RBI) earned Freshman all-America recognition.

Also enjoying outstanding campaigns were junior center fielder Mike Koerner (.353, 22 HR, 69 RBI), senior right fielder Tom Bernhardt (.322, 17 HR, 49 RBI) and Doug Thompson (12-3, 4.63 ERA, 158 K), a junior right-hander who earned the victory in the national championship game.

The '97 Tigers magnificently maintained LSU's reign as the "Team of the '90s." Not since Southern California won five straight national titles in the 1970s was one school so dominant in the college baseball landscape.

Trailing Stanford 5-2 with one out in the bottom of the eighth inning of the 2000 national championship game, the LSU Tigers appeared to have little hope, especially with Cardinal ace Justin Wayne on the mound. Wayne had subdued LSU's bats, allowing no hits while recording seven strikeouts in 3.1 relief innings. In fact, Wayne and Stanford starter Jason Young had combined to hold the Tigers hitless since the second inning, when left field Jeremy Witten singled during a two-run LSU rally.

LSU's only highlight after the second inning had come on defense, when right fielder Ray Wright robbed

Stanford's Edmund Muth of a third-inning, two-run homer by leaping above the wall to make a sensational catch.

Thus, when LSU team captain Blair Barbier stepped to the plate with one out in the eighth, everything pointed toward a Stanford victory celebration. After all, the Cardinal were just five outs away from a national championship with arguably the best pitcher in the country on the mound.

Barbier, undaunted, envisioned a much different scenario. Prior to the inning, he had gathered his teammates in the dugout, imploring them to remain focused, asking them, "DO YOU BELIEVE?" He hoped his words would spark a positive reaction, yet he knew they would be meaningless should he fail in this at-bat, likely the final at-bat of the senior third baseman's brilliant college career.

So, Barbier stood in against Wayne and battled for his team's survival. He stubbornly fouled off several two-strike offerings, before finally ripping a line drive over the left field wall of Rosenblatt Stadium. Barbier's solo shot was his third homer of the College World Series, and the Tigers had life, now down by two runs.

Wally Pontiff then drew a walk from Wayne, but the Stanford right-hander retired

The June 18, 2000, headline of the Baton Rouge Sunday Advocate heralds LSU's CWS title.

Pitcher Trey Hodges was voted the Most Outstanding Player of the 2000 CWS.

center fielder Cedrick Harris on a fly ball to right field for the second out. Witten, who was hitting just .200 (3-for-15) in the CWS, would be Wayne's next challenge.

In his only other at-bat against Wayne, Witten, a fifth-year senior, fanned on just three pitches. And, in this at-bat, Witten again quickly fell behind in the count. Knowing that this was perhaps the final at-bat of his college career, indeed the final at-bat of his entire baseball career, Witten would not succumb to Wayne's darting slider. Instead, he launched a soaring liner into the left-center field seats, just out of the reach of Cardinal left fielder Andy Topham.

The Rosenblatt Stadium crowd of over 24,000 erupted as Witten triumphantly rounded the bases, celebrating just his seventh homer of the season. LSU 5, Stanford 5 . . . and the drama was just beginning.

Wayne retired Wright on a liner to left to end the eighth inning, but Stanford could not recover its lost momentum. LSU right-hander Trey Hodges, who had kept the Tigers in the game with three scoreless relief innings, easily retired the Cardinal in the top of the ninth, setting the stage for the game's final act.

LSU shortstop Ryan Theriot grounded Wayne's first pitch of the ninth into left field to place the winning run on first base. Head coach Skip Bertman, electing not to bunt Theriot down to second base, allowed second baseman Mike Fontenot to swing away. Fontenot skillfully drew a full-count walk from Wayne, placing the Tigers' destiny in the potent bat of catcher Brad Cresse.

Cresse, like Barbier and Witten before him, was standing at the plate for the final time in an LSU uniform. The nation's leader in home runs (30) and RBI (105), the senior was just 1-for-12 in the College World Series. He had struck out in his two previous at-bats against Wayne, who desperately needed a double play to work his way out of the jam.

As he had in his first two encounters with Cresse, Wayne opened with his devastating slider. Strike one. Wayne fired the slider again, but this time Cresse smashed it, sending the ball sharply into left field. Theriot raced around third base as Topham picked up the ball and heaved it toward home plate. But, the throw was up the line and Theriot slid safely across the plate as his teammates burst from the third-base dugout to embrace him. The wave of jubilant Tigers then moved to the infield, engulfing Cresse at first base.

LSU 6, Stanford 5. The Tigers had secured the school's fifth NCAA title since 1991 with a courageous effort, scoring four runs in their final two at-bats to erase a three-run deficit. Blair Barbier's eighth-inning challenge to his teammates was answered in resounding fashion. The 2000 LSU Tigers, without question, did believe.

Team captain Blair Barbier displays the NCAA Championship trophy to the throng of fans that welcomed home the Tigers.

LSU coach Paul Mainieri directed the 2009 Tigers to the College World Series title, posting a 56-17 overall record, including a 10-1 mark in NCAA Tournament competition. The Tigers defeated Texas in the CWS Championship Finals to win the national title, LSU's sixth CWS championship and its first since 2000. Mainieri also guided his squad to the 2009 Southeastern Conference regular-season and tournament titles. The 2009 season was a magnificent year that began with LSU ranked No. 1 in the polls and ended with the Tigers still occupying college baseball's summit. The Tigers improved to 6-0 in winner-take-all games for the CWS championship, also claiming national titles in 1991, 1993, 1996, 1997 and 2000.

LSU in 2009 won its first Southeastern Conference regular-season title since 2003, posting a 20-10 SEC mark. The Tigers then became the first league school since Alabama in 2002-03 to win consecutive SEC Tournament titles.

LSU played host to the 2009 NCAA Baton Rouge Regional, where the Tigers defeated Southern, Baylor and Minnesota to set up a Super Regional matchup versus Rice in Alex Box Stadium. LSU swept two games from the Owls, earning a berth to the CWS for the second straight season and for the 15th time in school history.

The Tigers defeated Virginia in their CWS opener and recorded two wins over Arkansas to advance to the CWS Championship Finals versus Texas. Trailing 6-4 in the ninth inning of Game 1, the Tigers staged a dramatic two-run rally and eventually prevailed, 7-6, in 11 innings. The Longhorns posted a 5-1 win in Game 2; however, LSU overwhelmed UT, 11-4, in the deciding game to claim the NCAA championship trophy.

Three LSU pitchers earned All-America

Paul Mainieri guided the Tigers to the 2009 College World Series title and earned National Coach of the Year recognition.

Anthony Ranaudo posted two CWS wins, including a victory over Texas in the deciding game of the Championship Series.

recognition in 2009 - right-handers Louis Coleman, Anthony Ranaudo and Matty Ott. Coleman was the '09 SEC Pitcher of the Year, recording a 14-2 record, a 2.93 ERA and 142 strikeouts in 129 innings. Coleman finished the season ranked No. 2 in the nation in wins and No. 4 in strikeouts.

Ranaudo, an all-SEC selection and a member of the College World Series all-tournament team, was 12-3 on the year with a 3.04 ERA and 159 strikeouts in 124.1 innings. Ranaudo was No. 3 in the nation in strikeouts, and he became the first LSU pitcher to lead the SEC in Ks since Kurt Ainsworth in 1999.

Ott, the SEC Co-Freshman of the Year, established an LSU single-season record with 16 saves. A finalist for the NCBWA Stopper of the Year award, Ott posted a 4-2 mark and a 2.68 ERA with six walks and 69 strikeouts in 50.1 innings.

Junior outfielder Jared Mitchell finished his career No. 2 on the all-time LSU steals list with 70. He trails only Rob Hartwig, who had 73 steals from 1986-87. Mitchell's 36 steals in 2009 marks the second-highest single season total in LSU history - Hartwig has the single-season mark with 42 in 1987.

LSU DH/OF Blake Dean completed the 2009 season ranked No. 8 on the all-time LSU home run list with 44 dingers. He is No. 6 on the LSU career RBI list with 190.

LSU OF/1B Ryan Schimpf finished his career No. 10 on the all-time LSU home run list with 38 career dingers. Schimpf had three home runs in the 2009 College World Series, marking the first time an LSU player hit three homers in the CWS since former first baseman Brad Hawpe launched three dingers in Omaha in 2000. Schimpf had 22 homers in 2009, the 10th-highest single-season total in LSU history.

LSU's final baseball attendance figure for the 2009 season topped the 400,000 mark, shattering the previous school attendance record. LSU's total paid attendance for the '09 season in the New Alex Box Stadium was 403,056 for 42 games, an average of 9,596 per game.

Great Moments in LSU Baseball Regional/Super Regional History

June 6, 2015

Designated hitter Chris Sciambra launches a solo walk-off home run in the bottom of the ninth inning to defeat UL-Lafayette, 4-3, in Game 1 of the NCAA Super Regional in Alex Box Stadium. The Tigers capture Game 2 of the series the following night to advance to the College World Series.

June 7, 2013

June 3, 2012

LSU erases a 5-4, ninth-inning deficit and defeats Oregon State, 6-5, in 10 innings to win the NCAA Baton Rouge Regional in Alex Box Stadium. Alex Edward's RBI double ties the contest in the ninth, and Austin Nola scores the game-winning run on a wild pitch in the 10th.

June 6, 2009

LSU starter Louis Coleman allows only three runs in eight innings, and the top-ranked Tigers complete a two-game NCAA Super Regional sweep of No. 6 Rice with a 5-3 victory in Alex Box Stadium to advance to the College World Series for the 15th time in school history. A record crowd of 9,651 is on hand to watch the Tigers advance to Omaha in their inaugural season at the new stadium. Coleman earns his fourth straight win as the SEC Pitcher of the Year allows nine hits and strikes out five. Freshman closer Matty Ott secured the victory with his 16th save of the season. Third baseman Derek Helenih leads the Tigers at the plate with two hits - including a solo homer - and two RBI.

May 30, 2009

LSU shortstop Austin Nola delivers a game-winning RBI single in the top of the 10th inning to break a 2-2 tie and lead the second-ranked Tigers past Baylor, 3-2, in the semifinal round of the NCAA Baton Rouge Regional. LSU starter Anthony Ranaudo records the victory with a magnificent performance as the right-hander limits Baylor to only three hits and one earned run in a career-high nine innings with 14 strikeouts. Right-hander Matty Ott finishes off the Bears with a perfect 10th inning to register his school-record 15th save of the season. The Tigers defeat Minnesota the next day to win the first NCAA Regional held in the New Alex Box Stadium.

June 8-9, 2008

Facing elimination in Game 2 of the Super Regional versus UC Irvine, the Tigers erupt for seven runs in their final two at-bats to rally for a 9-7 victory. Sean Ochinko's base hit provides the go-ahead run in a five-run ninth inning, and Louis Coleman fires three scoreless innings to secure the win. In Game 3 the next day - before an Alex Box Stadium record crowd of 8,173 - the Tigers explode for six runs in the first inning and cruise to a 21-7 triumph. LSU collects 24 hits, including seven home runs, to advance to the College World Series for the 14th time in school history.

June 13, 2004

Lane Mestepey fires a masterful five-hit shutout in Game 2 of a Super Regional series against Texas A&M. Will Harris' ninth-inning homer clinches LSU's 4-0 triumph and sends the Tigers to the College World Series for the second straight season.

June 7-8, 2003

LSU blasts Baylor 20-5, using an 11-run sixth inning highlighted by Clay Harris' grand slam to reach its 12th College World Series. The Tigers faced elimination a day earlier after Baylor captured the first contest in the best-of-three set. Harris and Ivan Naccarata belted back-to-back homers to lead off the eighth inning to lift LSU over Baylor, 6-5, to set up the rubber match.

June 1, 2003

Jon Zeringue's one-out, walk-off home run in the bottom of the 11th sends LSU to the super regional round as the Tigers defeat a pesky UNC-Wilmington club, 9-8. Despite defeat, UNC-W becomes the first opposing team to make a congratulatory lap around the field following the game.

June 2, 2002

LSU comes through the loser's bracket to defeat UL-Lafayette twice by identical 12-2 scores to win its seventh consecutive regional championship. The Tigers are the only regional winner of 2002 to come through the loser's bracket to win twice on the final day.

May 30-31, 1999

Facing a seven-run deficit and in danger of being eliminated, LSU rallies to take a 12-10 lead it would not relinquish against East Carolina to force a second championship game. Kurt Ainsworth gets an extra day of rest thanks to rain, which forces the second contest to be moved to Monday. Ainsworth blanks the Pirates, 9-0, hurling the Tigers to a super regional matchup with SEC foe Alabama.

May 28, 1999

LSU tags UL-Monroe starter and current Milwaukee Brewer star Ben Sheets, opening the Baton Rouge Regional with a convincing 11-4 victory over the Indians.

May 23, 1999

LSU falls behind Cal State Fullerton, 7-0 through two innings, but Cedrick Harris' two-run double in the eighth caps a four-run inning to complete a comeback as the Tigers earn a 13-11 victory. LSU routs the Titans 14-3 the next day to reach Omaha.

May 25, 1997

A classic five-hour marathon comes to an end as LSU outlasts Long Beach State by scoring seven runs in the 11th inning for a 14-7 victory. One day later, the Tigers avenge their second round loss to South Alabama by sweeping the Jaguars, 14-4 and 15-4, before defending its national championship in Omaha.

May 26, 1996

In one of the largest hit outputs in school history, LSU uses 18 runs on 13 hits in the seventh inning of the South II Regional championship game to rout Georgia Tech, 29-13. The Tigers wear new gold jerseys during the regional and throughout the 1996 College World Series.

May 29, 1994

LSU holds on to a 12-10 win over Southern Cal in the South Regional final. Former Trojan and current Minnesota Twins star Jacque Jones smashes three homers in defeat.

May 28, 1990

Rich Cordani's dramatic two-run blast in the seventh inning lifts LSU to a thrilling 7-6 South Regional championship game win over Southern California.

May 28, 1989

LSU completes perhaps its most improbable journey in the program's history to reach its third College World Series. The Tigers win five of six games at the 1989 Central Regional in College Station, Texas. LSU shocks top-ranked Texas A&M with two wins on the tournament's final day - including a 5-4, 11-inning victory in the championship game. Ben McDonald earns the win in seven innings of work in the first game and then comes back to earn a save in the clincher. All four LSU pitchers in the final game - Russ Springer, Paul Byrd, Curtis Leskanic and Ben McDonald - reach the Major Leagues. Texas A&M had amassed 58 wins to just five losses and was led by Chuck Knobloch. The 58 wins still stands as an Aggie record.

May 25, 1986

Albert Belle smashes a pair of two-run homers in the South I Regional championship game, leading the Tigers to their first College World Series with a 7-6 win over Tulane at Alex Box Stadium. Belle was named tournament MVP for his efforts.

LSU defeated Ole Miss to win the 2008 SEC Tournament title.

Dr. F. King Alexander

President, LSU

LSU

Dr. F. King Alexander is the president of Louisiana State University, which has an annual budget of $3.4 billion and more than 54,000 students. He was appointed to the position by the LSU Board of Supervisors in March 2013 and assumed the position on July 1, 2013.

Prior to being named the president, Dr. Alexander was president of California State University, Long Beach (2006-2013) one of the nation's largest public universities located in southern California.

During his more than seven-year tenure at California State University, Long Beach, Dr. Alexander was twice named the California State University Student Association (CSSA) "President of the Year," which represents all 23 California State Universities and its over 440,000 students.

Prior to becoming president of California State University, Long Beach, Dr. Alexander was president of Murray State University in Kentucky (2001-2005) and was a faculty member at the University of Illinois, Champaign-Urbana, where he was the director of the graduate higher education program.

A Kentucky native who grew up in north Florida, Dr. Alexander received his Ph.D. from the University of Wisconsin-Madison in higher education administration with a focus on finance and educational policy analysis, and a Master of Science degree from the University of Oxford, Oxford, England in comparative educational studies.

As a teacher and administrator, Dr. Alexander has received many honors, including the University of Wisconsin-Madison School of Education Alumni Achievement Award (2002) and has research university faculty affiliations at the University of Wisconsin-Madison Center for the Study of Postsecondary Education (WISCAPE) and Cornell University Higher Education Research Institute (CHERI).

Alexander is an internationally-respected expert in higher education finance and public policy and frequently publishes in national journals and for organizations in this field. He has served as a reviewer, an editorial board member, and a university instructor and faculty member, teaching courses in higher education finance, law, history and current events.

Dr. Alexander also has been asked to represent public higher education colleges and universities on numerous occasions to the United States Congress on issues of college affordability, student indebtedness, and institutional efficiency and effectiveness in efforts to address many of the growing challenges facing American higher education. Due to his national recognition and involvement on higher education issues, Dr. Alexander has served on numerous U.S. higher education and statewide organizational leadership boards where he remains very active.

Dr. Alexander and his wife, Shenette, have three children: Kylie, Savannah and Madison.

Dr. Bill DeMastes

Faculty Athletics Representative

Dr. Bill Demastes, a professor of English at LSU, is in his third year as Faculty Athletics Representative. Dr. Demastes earned his Ph.D. in English in 1986 from the University of Wisconsin-Madison with a Field of Study of Drama as Genre and a specialization in 20th-Century American and British Drama. He earned his masters in English in June 1979 from the University of Georgia in Athens where he specialized in 19th-Century American Literature.

At LSU, he served as Associate Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences from 2001-2004 and Director of Undergraduate Studies for the Department of English from 1999-2001 and 2010-11. He has also served as Associate Chair of the Department of English (1998-99); Director of the Master of Arts in Liberal Arts Program (1996-2004); and Director of Graduate Studies in the Department of English (1992-94; 2006-06).

He was honored with the LSU Alumni Association Faculty Excellence Award in 2000 and in 2002 won the LSU Distinguished Faculty Award. He was named in 2009 an LSU Rainmaker, which is given to the top 100 LSU Faculty. In 2010 and 2013 he received the Tiger Athletic Foundation Undergraduate Teaching Award, and in the summer of 2011, he was named the Harry Ransom Summer Fellowship recipient by the University of Texas.

Coach Paul Mainieri and members of LSU's senior class accept the 2015 SEC regular-season championship trophy from commissioner Greg Sankey.

The Southeastern Conference

Setting the Standard for Intercollegiate Athletics in Baseball

The Southeastern Conference, with its storied 82-year history of athletic achievements and academic excellence, has built perhaps the greatest tradition of intercollegiate competition in baseball of any league in the country since its inception in 1933.

An SEC squad has now appeared in the College World Series 30 of the last 31 years, including four teams in 2015. Seven SEC teams were selected for NCAA Regional play with five advancing to NCAA Super Regionals.

The SEC has sent 54 teams to the College World Series since 1990. That was accomplished despite no SEC teams making the field in 1992. LSU has now been to Omaha 14 times, Florida nine times, South Carolina six times, Georgia and Mississippi State five times, Arkansas four times, while Alabama, Tennessee and Vanderbilt have been three times each. Auburn has been twice.

SEC teams have won 10 of the last 25

national championships, with LSU winning six (1991, 1993, 1996, 1997, 2000, 2009), South Carolina winning two (2010, 2011), Vanderbilt taking home the title in 2014 and Georgia claiming the 1990 title.

The SEC has finished runner up nine times in that span, 1997, 2002, 2005, 2008, 2011, 2012, 2013, 2014 and 2015.

The SEC has averaged more than eight games played per year in the College World Series since 1990. In 2015, an SEC team played in each of the 16 games of the CWS. In 2004, 12 of the 15 games played in Omaha involved a SEC team. In 1997, the SEC had a team in 13 of the 14 games played in the CWS.

Since 1990, an SEC team has played in 185 of the 376 games in the College World Series, an amazing 49 percent of games.

The SEC has played 55 games in the "Final Four" of the College World Series since 1990, an average of over three per year. Only five times, 1992, 1994, 2003, 2006 and 2007 has the SEC failed to get a team to the "Final Four" of the CWS.

The SEC Baseball Tournament drew more than 130,000 fans in 2015, better than 7,000 per game. The event has become the Birmingham metro's highest attended sporting event annually, second in the state only to NASCAR races at Talladega.

Birmingham Magazine recently named it the top sporting event annually in the Birmingham area. The entire SEC Baseball Tournament was broadcast live on national television for the first time in the history of the event.

Notes

- SEC teams comprised half of the teams in the 2015 College World Series (Arkansas, Florida, LSU and Vanderbilt). Vanderbilt finished as the NCAA runner-up, giving the SEC a team in the CWS Championship Series for the eighth consecutive year.

- Just 10 programs nationally have advanced to at least three of the last seven College World Series. Five of those programs are SEC programs - Arkansas, Florida, LSU, South Carolina and Vanderbilt.

- At the conclusion of the season, the top-five spots on the national average attendance charts were SEC teams, with each of those five programs averaging better than 7,300 fans per game.

- The SEC had seven players selected in the first round of the 2015 Major League Baseball Draft. Those seven picks represented five different schools. The SEC has now had a first-round MLB selection each year since 1991 and 105 total in the first round during that time.

- Former Arkansas baseball outfielder Andrew Benintendi

- was named the 2014-2015 Roy F. Kramer SEC Male Athlete of the Year by a vote of the league's athletics directors.

- Benintendi won USA Baseball's Golden Spikes Award. Each of the four finalists for the award were SEC Baseball Players - Benintendi, an outfielder from Arkansas, Alex Bregman, a shortstop from LSU, Carson Fulmer, a righthanded pitcher from Vanderbilt, and Dansby Swanson, a shortstop from Vanderbilt.

- Florida catcher/designated hitter JJ Schwarz and LSU right-hander Alex Lange were named the 2015

- National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association National Freshman Hitter and Pitcher of the Year recipients, giving SEC student-athletes a sweep of the national freshman of the year awards.

- Mississippi State's Seth Heck and Auburn's Cole Libscomb were named to the 2015 Capital One Academic All-America Division I Baseball Team. Heck is the 2015 SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

Greg Sankey SEC Commissioner

The office of the commissioner was formed in 1940 in Jackson due to the great amount of detail work developing, especially in recruiting and eligibility. Former Mississippi Governor Martin S. Conner took office as commissioner Aug. 21, 1940. Conner later became ill and the secretary of the conference, Dean N.W. Dougherty of Tennessee, served as acting commissioner during the fall of 1946.

The office moved to Birmingham with the appointing of Bernie H. Moore as the second full-time commissioner on Feb. 21, 1948. Moore, a former LSU coach, guided the SEC to national respect in his 18-year tenure. A.M. (Tonto) Coleman succeeded Moore upon his retirement April 1, 1966. The Alabama native, who was reared in Texas and experienced in athletic coaching and administration, served six and a half years.

Dr. H. Boyd McWhorter, then Dean of Arts and Sciences at Georgia, secretary of the league since 1967, accepted the position upon the retirement of Coleman Aug. 1, 1972. Under his leadership the SEC experienced unparalleled growth. In McWhorter's first year the SEC distributed $1.57 million and 14 years later (1986), the league distributed

Dr. Harvey W. Schiller, an Air Force colonel and faculty chair at the U. S. Air Force Academy, followed McWhorter upon retirement, taking office Sept. 15, 1986. Under his guidance the SEC established itself as a leader in the areas of athletic scholarship and marketing.

Roy F. Kramer succeeded Schiller on Jan. 10, 1990. Kramer joined the league office after spending 12 years as athletic director at Vanderbilt. Kramer held the office of Commissioner for more than 12 years before retiring in the summer of 2002.

Michael L. Slive, who served as Commissioner of Conference USA for seven years, was appointed the seventh Commissioner of the Southeastern Conference on July 2, 2002, and he held the office for 13 years.

Greg Sankey became the eighth commissioner of the Southeastern Conference on June 1, 2015, after serving on the SEC staff for 13 years in various leadership positions.

Throughout its 82-year history, the Southeastern Conference has been a leader in the integration of athletic competition and higher education.

Since its formation in 1933, the SEC has achieved both stature and stability by designating governing/voting power to the presidents of the member institutions. They have determined the policies of the conference and through the years this involvement has been the principal source of strength in the evolution of the SEC.

Intercollegiate athletics encountered many challenges in the 1990s and again the SEC provided guidance. In 1993, the member institutions adopted The Principles of Gender Equity. Committed to increasing the quantity and quality of women's athletic opportunities, each school provides at least two more women's intercollegiate programs than the number of men's.

Faced with the task of conference realignment after competing with 10 members since 1966, the SEC welcomed the University of Arkansas and the University of South Carolina in 1991. Beginning in 2012-13, Texas A&M University and the University of Missouri joined the SEC to form a 14-school league.

Seven institutions (Alabama, Auburn, Georgia, Georgia Tech, North Carolina, Sewanee and Vanderbilt) attended the SIAA organizational meeting of faculty representatives in Atlanta in 1894.

Basketball moved quickly to the South as Vanderbilt was playing at the Nashville YMCA in 1893, just two years after Dr. James Naismith originated the game at Springfield (Mass.) College. Basketball became an intercollegiate sport in 1901 and in 1908 Vanderbilt was meeting Columbia and Yale interregionally.

The seven-member SIAA expanded to 19 institutions in 1895 and by 1920 there were 30 members.

The larger schools reorganized as the Southern Conference in 1920. Despite an original limit of 16, the membership grew to 23 by 1928.

The 13 members west and south of the Appalachian Mountains reorganized as the Southeastern Conference at the annual SC meeting in 1932. The 10 coast members remained in the Southern Conference. Charter members of the new conference were: Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Georgia Tech, Kentucky, LSU, Mississippi, Mississippi State, Sewanee, Tennessee, Tulane and Vanderbilt. (Sewanee withdrew in 1940, Georgia Tech in 1964 and Tulane in 1966).

The first SEC champions were crowned in 1933 in four sports (baseball, basketball, football and outdoor track). The league's inaugural championship event was a basketball tournament in Atlanta in 1933. Records show the first men's team title for cross-country was awarded in 1935, while golf and swimming were added in 1937. The league later began hosting championships in tennis (1953) and indoor track (1957).

In the 1979-80 academic year SEC championships for women were recognized in basketball, tennis and volleyball. The following year golf, gymnastics, swimming and track and field were added. The administration of women's athletics officially came under the auspices of the conference office in 1984.

The SEC currently regulates nine men's sports and 12 women's sports: Men – baseball, basketball, football, golf, swimming, tennis and track (cross country, indoor and outdoor). Women – basketball, equestrian, golf, gymnastics, soccer, softball, swimming, tennis, track (cross country, indoor and outdoor) and volleyball.

The SEC office is located in Birmingham, Ala.

LSU All-American Ben McDonald was the keynote speaker at the 2014 LSU Baseball First Pitch Banquet.

Tiger Baseball Alumni

LSU Alumni Games have featured several former Tigers that are active in pro baseball.

LSU Baseball Alumni are former players, coaches, trainers and equipment managers who organize functions to benefit the LSU Baseball program.

LSU acknowledges the rich tradition of values in its baseball program. LSU Baseball Alumni seek to pass along to future students and athletes the sense of community, the sense of family, the element of teamwork and the camaraderie learned as members of the LSU Baseball program, and to further commit to Louisiana State University their loyalty and appreciation.

The baseball program welcomes its former players back to the LSU campus each fall for the annual Alumni Golf Tournament.

During the 2011 season, members of LSU's 1961, 1986 and 1991 teams celebrated reunions at Alex Box Stadium. The 1961 team claimed the SEC title with a playoff win over Auburn. The '86 squad was LSU's first CWS team and the '91 Tigers captured the school's first national title.

The 1993 team celebrated the 20th anniversary of its national championship during the final home weekend of the 2013 regular season in Alex Box Stadium, Skip Bertman Field.

The "L" Club

The LSU National L Club is an organization formed to support former varsity athletes, athletic trainers, equipment managers, and cheerleaders. It provides the opportunity for letter winners to maintain relationships across different sports, generations, and geographical locations, and allows them to remain actively involved in Tiger Athletics.

LSU invites all former members of the baseball family who have not joined in to reconnect with the LSU National L Club. The L Club supports the Athletic Department, acts as a liaison between former athletes and the Athletic Department, and encourages lifelong participation with LSU Athletics for all varsity letter winners by promoting the proud tradition of being a varsity letter winner.

For more information on the L Club contact Kristen Cain at the LSU Athletics Administration Building, Baton Rouge, La. 70803 or by calling 225-578-7147. Her email is khobbs2@lsu.edu.

Wally Pontiff Jr.

BASEBALL HALL OF FAME

Located on the ground level, third-base side of Alex Box Stadium, the Wally Pontiff Jr. Baseball Hall of Fame opened on January 31, 2013. The facility celebrates the glorious history of LSU Baseball and contains numerous artifacts, including the Tigers' National Championship rings and trophies, vintage uniforms and Major League memorabilia.

The facility is named in memory of Wally Pontiff Jr., a two-time all-SEC selection at LSU who died due to heart complications on July 24, 2002 at the age of 21. Pontiff was a three-year starter for the Tigers from 2000 through 2002 at third base and DH, and he helped lead LSU to the 2000 national championship. Pontiff, the MVP of the 2000 SEC Tournament, was also a two-time member of the SEC Academic Honor Roll, and he was a member of the 2002 District VI academic all-America baseball team with a 3.25 GPA in biological sciences.

Mike

Sneaux Day

On Dec. 11, 2008, a winter storm blanketed Baton Rouge that hadn't been seen in decades. The early white Christmas gave Mike VI, LSU's live Bengal/Siberian tiger, a chance to relax and play in nearly two inches of accumulation.

History of Mike

Few mascots in the country are as admired as Mike the Tiger. LSU's live Bengal mascot serves as the graphic image of all LSU athletic teams. The school has had six mascots, with the most recent, Mike VI, taking over the reign prior to the 2007 national championship football season. LSU veterinarian Dr. David Baker began the search for the young tiger after his predecessor, Mike V, died in May 2007 of renal failure at the age of 17. The Bengal/Siberian mix, formerly known as "Roscoe," was donated to LSU by Great Cats of Indiana, a nonprofit sanctuary and rescue facility for big cats and other large carnivores.

Mike's ride through Tiger Stadium before home games in a trailer topped by the LSU cheerleaders is a school tradition. Before entering the stadium, his trailer on wheels is parked next to the opponent's locker room in the southeast end of the stadium. Opposing players must make their way past Mike's trailer to reach their locker room.

Tradition dictates that the Tigers will score a touchdown for every growl issued by Mike before a football game. For many years, Mike was prompted to roar by pounding on the cage. Objections of cruel punishment brought about the use of recorded growls to play to the crowd before the games. That

In the mid-1980s, pranksters cut the locks on Mike IV's cage and freed him in the early-morning hours just days before the annual LSU-Tulane clash. Mike roamed free, playfully knocking down several small pine trees in the area, before being trapped in the Bernie Moore Track Stadium where police used tranquilizer guns to capture and return the Bengal Tiger to his home.

Mike VI

Mike VI arrived in Baton Rouge on Aug. 25, 2007, thanks to the donation by Great Cats of Indiana. He was officially designated as the successor to Mike V on Sept. 8, when LSU played host to Virginia Tech. Six days later, on Sept. 14, 2007, a ceremony was held to honor Mike V and dedicate the habitat to Mike VI. The Bengal/Siberian mix, formerly known as "Roscoe," reigned over a football national title in his first year.

LSU Athletics Championship Legacy

In its storied athletics history, LSU has produced 47 national team championships and 132 Southeastern Conference team championships. The 2014-15 athletic year was another successful one. The 2015 LSU men's golf team clinched the 47th NCAA national title in LSU athletics history when the Tigers defeated Southern Cal, 4-1, in Bradenton, Fla. (above); the LSU baseball team was ranked No. 1 for most of the season as the Tigers brought home the 16th SEC title in program history (top left); LSU softball has made two of its four total appearances in the Women's College World Series in the last four years, qualifying for the post-season in each of the last 10 years, which is a program record run (top right); LSU gymnastics earned a record 13 All-America honors at the NCAA Championships after securing the program's 14th NCAA Regional title; and for the 14th time in 16 seasons, Track and Field cracked the Top 5 of the final men's team standings at the NCAA Outdoor Championships in 2015.

DID YOU KNOW?

LSU joined elite company with Florida State and Texas as the only schools to accomplish the following in the same athletic year: football play in a bowl game, men's and women's basketball qualify to the NCAA Tournament, and baseball and softball advance to the College World Series. LSU did it in 2014-15.

DID YOU KNOW?

In the 2014-15 athletic year, LSU had 19 of its 21 sports teams earn a berth to the NCAA postseason. In addition, both LSU baseball and softball reached No. 1 in the national rankings during the season, and 11 of LSU's teams ended the season ranked in the Top 25.

Joe Alleva

LSU Vice Chancellor/Director of Athletics

Joe Alleva continues to bring unprecedented national recognition to LSU as Vice Chancellor and Director of Athletics. Under Alleva's leadership, LSU enjoys one of the country's premier athletics programs with success on and off the field of competition. Now in his eighth year at LSU, Alleva is dedicated to athletic and academic excellence, and he is committed to providing the opportunities and the resources necessary for student-athletes to excel in competition, in the classroom and in the community. Alleva joined the LSU family on April 4, 2008 after a highly successful tenure as director of athletics at Duke University for 10 years. Alleva's role at LSU was further expanded in August of 2009 when vice chancellor was added to his title by the LSU Board of Supervisors. It is the first time in school history that the director of athletics has also held a vice chancellor position.

Alleva is currently serving a five-year term on the prestigious NCAA Men's Basketball Committee, enhancing his reputation as one of the most respected athletic administrators in the country. Alleva has been appointed to numerous national committees throughout his career, including the Football Bowl Certification Committee, the NCAA Division I Championships/Competition Cabinet and several Southeastern Conference and Atlantic Coast Conference committees.

Upon his arrival at LSU, Alleva unveiled a strategic master plan for the LSU athletics program – "LSU: Thru and True" – to confirm the advancement and future of LSU Athletics as an exemplary enterprise. The central mission of the plan is to create an environment for student-athletes to reach their ultimate potential, prepare them to be champions in life and to set out goals and values for the entire athletics program.

Living up to Alleva's mantra of "competition, classroom, community," a total of 71 proud Tigers received their degrees from the university during LSU commencement ceremonies in December and May. LSU's Graduation Success Rate as reported by the NCAA remains at an all-time high for the university with a score of 81. LSU student-athletes in 2014-15 logged 3,961 hours in community service work across 21 sports through LSU's "Geaux Givers" program.

Alleva's strong commitment to academics ensures that the Cox Communications Academic Center for Student-Athletes is a first-class facility that cultivates success in the classroom and the development of life skills. And with an emphasis on community outreach programs, the implementation under Alleva's direction of the "Geaux Givers" fosters a relationship between the local citizens and LSU student-athletes. Alleva has also bolstered the L-Club program to connect with former student-athletes, and he has supervised the thriving "Project Graduation" program in which former student-athletes return to LSU to earn their degrees.

Alleva's tenure has been distinguished by a number of significant athletic achievements, including four 10-win seasons and 69 total victories by the football team. The Tigers have played in a bowl game in each of Alleva's seven gridiron seasons and LSU has finished in the Top 20 five times in that period. LSU under Alleva's leadership has claimed the 2009 baseball national championship and three College World Series berths, the 2015 men's golf national championship, two women's basketball Sweet 16 appearances, three gymnastics Super Six berths, two softball College World Series appearances and 16 NCAA Top 5 finishes indoors and outdoors by the men's and women's track and field teams. The Tigers in the past seven seasons have earned 33 individual NCAA championships in the sports of men and women's track and field, gymnastics, men's golf and women's golf. LSU has captured 14 Southeastern Conference team championships, and the Tigers have won 90 individual SEC titles during Alleva's term.

The men's golf national championship – the Tigers' fifth title and their first since 1955 – highlighted a remarkable 2014-15 season that featured history-making performances. Sixteen of LSU's 21 sports earned points toward the school's No. 15 national ranking in the 2014-15 Learfield Directors' Cup, marking the Tigers' third finish in the Top 15 during Alleva's tenure. The Tigers had seven Top 10 NCAA finishes, and LSU became the first school in SEC history to play in a bowl game, have both its men's and women's basketball teams reach the NCAA Tournament, and advance to the College World Series in baseball and softball in the same athletic year. LSU joined Florida State and Texas as the only schools in NCAA annals to accomplish the bowl game, men's/women's NCAA basketball tournament, and baseball/softball College World Series feat.

In addition, the LSU men's programs captured the 2014-15 Southeastern Conference All-Sports title, the first for the LSU men since 1996-97, and the LSU women finished third in the SEC all-sports standings. The baseball team led the nation in wins with 54, won the SEC title and earned a berth in the CWS for the second time in three years. The softball team reached the Women's CWS for the second time in four years and secured the program's first No. 1 ranking. The men's basketball program continued its return to national prominence by winning 22 games, finishing third in the SEC and participating in the NCAA Tournament. The men's track and field squad placed fourth in the NCAA Outdoor Championships, and both the men's and women's teams posted Top 10 finishes in the NCAA Indoor Championships.

The 2015 LSU gymnastics team drew sold-out crowds to the Maravich Center and won its third straight NCAA regional title. The volleyball team advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament, the women's golf team recorded a Top 20 NCAA finish, the men's and women's tennis teams recorded victories in the NCAA Tournament, and the women's swimming and diving teams sent a school-record 11 competitors to the NCAA meet.

Alleva's vision keeps LSU among the nation's leaders in athletic facilities. In the fall of 2014, LSU opened the expansion of the South End Zone of Tiger Stadium – a project that added premium seating, general public seating and two state-of-the-art video boards – continuing an effort to augment one of the most iconic venues in all of college sports. Since 2010, Alleva has directed an aggressive campaign to preserve and enhance the appearance of Tiger Stadium that has included the installation of new windows, lighting systems, gating systems, and championship plazas. The Football Operations Building will soon experience a significant renovation to maintain its status as a high-functioning workplace for coaches and players.

LSU's world-renowned track and field program in 2010 received a new running surface in Bernie Moore Stadium, and extensive renovations to the Maddox Field House in the spring of 2014 give the Tigers a first-class indoor track and field venue. Alleva directed a major renovation to the University Club golf course that was completed in September 2010 and allows the LSU men's and women's golf teams to play on one of the most challenging courses in the country. An overhaul of the LSU soccer facility was completed in the fall of 2011, converting the stadium into fan-friendly venue.

This fall, LSU opened a new gymnastics practice facility and a new tennis complex featuring indoor and outdoor courts. Future plans include the construction of a modern Nutrition Center for Student-Athletes, a facility that will house full-time chefs and nutritionists for all Fighting Tiger competitors.

Alleva is an innovator with bold ideas that benefit all of Greater Baton Rouge. He has been instrumental in the planning of the Bayou Country Superfest, a three-day country music concert and festival held in Tiger Stadium each spring. The event attracts over 100,000 visitors to the LSU campus and makes a tremendous economic impact upon the local community.

Alleva became director of athletics at Duke in 1998 and his impressive tenure there propelled the university into the ranks of America's top all-around collegiate programs. Among his outstanding list of accomplishments includes the greatest 10-year period in Duke Athletics, winning more ACC and NCAA championships than in any other decade in school history.

Alleva, whose hometown is Suffern, N.Y., majored in Finance at Lehigh University and received his bachelor's degree in 1975. While at Lehigh, Alleva was the quarterback of the football team and team captain in 1974. Alleva also played on the Lehigh baseball team. He served as a graduate assistant football coach and earned an MBA in 1976.

While at Duke, Alleva played a key role in Durham's community sports scene. He started Little League Baseball in Durham over 20 years ago, and also began the American Legion baseball program.

He is a member of the North Carolina American Legion Hall of Fame, Suffern High School Hall of Fame and the Rockland County Hall of Fame.

Alleva and his wife, Annie, have three children, J.D., Jeff, and Jenny, one granddaughter and one grandson.

VERGE AUSBERRY
Deputy Director of Athletics

A former LSU football standout, Verge Ausberry joined the athletics administrative staff in August 2001 as the Associate Athletics Director for Operations and was appointed to the position of Senior Associate Athletics Director in May 2006 and he was named Deputy Director of Athletics in January of 2016.

Ausberry supervises and is responsible for football operations, football scheduling and football management. He also oversees the LSU men's and women's track and field programs, the equipment staff, the strength and conditioning staff, the Dr. Martin Broussard training room, the video department and football game management. Ausberry also assists the LSU President's office in external and governmental affairs.

Ausberry, from New Iberia, La., played inside linebacker for the Tigers, lettering in 1986-89. He was part of two SEC championship teams, playing on teams that went to four bowl games.

Before joining the LSU athletic administration, he was very closely involved in the athletic program, first serving for almost seven years as a member of LSU's highly regarded Academic Center for Athletes.

After leaving the Academic Center, he moved in July 1999 to the Tiger Athletic Foundation staff as part of LSU's fundraising arm.

Ausberry received his Bachelor of Science degree in education in May of 1990, his Master of Education degree in May of 1992 and his specialist in higher education administration in 2004. He is presently a doctoral candidate in higher education administration at LSU. He is married to the former Cheri Morial of New Orleans and they have two boys, Austin(11) and Jaiden(10).

BO BAHNSEN
Senior Associate AD/Compliance and Planning

Returning in 2009 to serve the department in the Compliance Office, Bahnsen is once again proving to be a very versatile member of the athletic department.

Before moving back to Compliance, Bahnsen served the previous five years, in a valuable role as Associate Athletics Director for Internal Relations, overseeing the ticket office and all customer service operations.

Prior to December of 2003, Bahnsen's primary responsibility for the previous 14 years was to serve as LSU's NCAA compliance officer.

Bahnsen served as manager of the LSU basketball team as an undergraduate at LSU. In 1982, he became the administrative assistant for the men's basketball team, where he worked for five years.

In July 1987, he became administrative assistant to Athletics Director Joe Dean, overseeing the purchasing office and departmental travel operations until his promotion in 1989. In 1989, he was assigned his primary responsibility as NCAA compliance officer as assistant athletics director, and then was promoted to associate AD in 1996. Bahnsen has been responsible for overseeing the successful implementation of LSU's Tradition Fund Program, a football-seating plan that requires contributions for the right to purchase approximately 45,000 seats in Tiger Stadium. In 2009, he helped organize the highly successful LSU celebration of the 100th anniversary of the Men's Basketball Program.

A native of Wharton, Texas, Bahnsen attended Wharton County Junior College for two years before transferring to LSU in 1979. He earned his Bachelor of Science degree in physical education. Bahnsen, 56, is married to the former Karen Mayson, a former LSU golfer and current head coach of the Lady Tigers golf program. The couple has two children, Darren and Devin.

MICHAEL BONNETTE
Senior Associate AD/Communications Director

Michael Bonnette enters his 16th year as LSU's Communications Director and third as Senior Associate Athletic Director after being promoted to his current position in the fall of 2013. Bonnette held the title of Associate Athletic Director from April of 2007. Bonnette was originally elevated to Sports Information Director in August of 2000 and then promoted to Assistant Athletic Director in July of 2004.

As Communications Director, Bonnette serves as the chief contact for LSU's nationally-ranked football team as well as overseeing all publicity activities for the 21 sports sponsored by the Athletic Department.

The 45-year-old Bonnette, who served as an Associate Sports Information Director for seven years, is in his 22nd year with the LSU Athletic Department.

His 2012 LSU Football media guide was named "Best in the Nation" by CoSIDA, one of several awards he has received from the organization and in the Louisiana Sports Writers Association annual writing contests. His 2014 guide was ranked second in the nation.

The Lake Charles, La., native has been around the sports media relations profession his entire life as he is the son of retired McNeese State Sports Information Director Louis Bonnette, a member of the CoSIDA Hall of Fame. The field at Cowboy Stadium in Lake Charles bears the name Louis Bonnette Field. His brother, Matthew, continued the family tradition at McNeese by being named Sports Information Director in July 2012, following his Dad in the position.

Bonnette, who is a 1993 graduate of LSU, is past president of SIDs for the Southeastern Conference and is currently the vice-president for SIDs for the LSWA. He is married to the former Robin Arnaud of Opelousas, La., and the couple has three sons, Peyton (17), Grant (16) and Max (10).

MARK EWING
Senior Associate AD/Business

Mark Ewing, a 31-year employee of Louisiana State University, is in his 15th year with the Athletics Department, and serves as the department's Senior Associate Athletics Director for Business and the department's Chief Financial Officer.

His duties as the department's Chief Financial Officer includes oversight of the departments over $120 million budget, management of the athletic business office, oversight of all travel, human resources, and purchasing. He also supervises the Athletic Ticket Office and serves as the liaison for concession operations. He is responsible for the department's financial forecasting and provides the financial information necessary for funding athletic construction and maintenance projects. He also serves as the department's administrator for men's and women's golf.

Ewing came to athletics from LSU's Office of Budget and Planning. He served as LSU's Budget Director overseeing the development and management of the university operating budget. Ewing, who is a native of Pointe Coupee Parish, received a bachelor's degree in finance from LSU in 1978 and a master's degree in public administration from LSU in 1995.

Ewing is married to the former Gail Ingram of Morgan City, Louisiana and they have three daughters, Andrea, Arleen and Molly Sue. He also has three granddaughters - Ainsley Grace, Dorothy Claire and Evelyn McLain, and one grandson, Parker Ryan.

RONNIE HALIBURTON
Senior Associate AD/Athletic Facility Management

Ronnie Haliburton, who served as director of facility services in the LSU Athletics Department for three years, was promoted to Associate Athletics Director for Athletic Facility Management in March 2007.

Haliburton came to the athletics department in December of 2003 from LSU's facility maintenance department, where he served as manager for five years. He was responsible for the overall management of custodial operations, special events crews, stock room inventory and equipment repair.

Haliburton played as a tight end for the LSU football team from 1986-89, and was a member of two Southeastern Conference championship teams. He later played for the Denver Broncos for three years.

He first joined LSU in an administrative capacity in 1994 as resident assistant of Broussard Hall, then the school's athletic dormitory, before moving to the weight room as a student assistant strength coach.

Haliburton became a resident manager in 1996 before being named coordinator of residence life later that year. In 1998, he became Manager of Facility Maintenance at LSU.

EDDIE NUÑEZ
Deputy Director of Athletics

Eddie Nuñez joined the Athletics Department in October 2003 as the Director of Game and Event Management and was promoted to Associate Athletics Director for Operations and Project Development in June of 2007 and Senior Associate Athletic Director in 2009. Nuñez has 15 years of experience working in intercollegiate athletics. He was named Deputy Director of Athletics in January of 2016.

As a member of the Senior Management Team, Nuñez's responsibilities include assisting in the oversight of day to day operations of the athletic department and serves as the program administrator for men's basketball program, men's and women's tennis programs. He also supervises the Marketing/ Promotions, Communications and Creative Services departments as well as directs all capital projects for the Athletic Department and Tiger Athletic Foundation. Under his guidance, the athletic department has experienced over $375 million dollars in renovations and construction of athletic facility projects. Nuñez also serves as the Athletic Department's liaison with LSU Sports Properties and the Tiger Athletic Foundation, and he assists in fundraising/ development. During his time at LSU, he has been appointed to represent the department of athletics on various University and community committees.

Nuñez came to LSU after two and half years as the Director of Game and Event Management at Vanderbilt University. At Vanderbilt, along with directing the Game and Event Management department, he also assisted in construction of numerous facilities from the renovation of Memorial Gymnasium and addition of a new Basketball Practice Facility to the construction of their Baseball stadium. Prior to that, Nuñez served as men's basketball administrative assistant coach at Marquette University for one year and two years as men's basketball graduate assistant for coach Billy Donovan at the University of Florida.

Nuñez played two seasons on the University of Florida basketball team in 1997 and 1998. He transferred to Florida after playing two years and obtaining a degree from Miami-Dade Community College.

The native of Miami, Fla., received his Associate degree in arts and architecture from Miami-Dade Community College in 1995, his Bachelor's in Sports Management and Masters in Sports Administration from the University of Florida in 1998 and 2000, respectively. He is married to the former Jane Hess and the couple has two daughters, Elizabeth Kendall Nuñez (7) and Anna Caldwell Nuñez (4).

MIRIAM SEGAR

Senior Associate AD/Senior Woman Administrator

Former LSU women's basketball player Miriam Segar has been a part of the athletics administration since June of 1995 and was most recently named Senior Associate AD and the department's Senior Woman Administrator after having served as Associate Athletics Director for Student Services since April 2007. She had served as Assistant Athletics Director since 2004.

As LSU's Senior Woman Administrator, Segar's responsibilities include oversight of the highly successful Tiger Olympic Sports program. She also supervises the Tiger baseball program and the LSU cheerleaders.

Segar began her administrative career at LSU as the compliance coordinator where she served for three years. Following that, in 1998, Segar was named the director of the CHAMPS/Life Skills Program where she worked until 2001 when she became the Director of Student Services.

While working with CHAMPS/Life Skills, Segar guided the program to the Division I Athletic Directors Program of Excellence Award in 2001.

Prior to returning to her alma mater, Segar spent one year at the SEC office as the championships assistant and the officiating assistant, assisting in the management of all SEC championships and tournaments and the coordination of women's basketball officials.

Segar, the 2006 Athletic Department Female Alumnus of the Year, was a three-year captain for the Lady Tigers basketball team and received four letters from 1990 to 1994. She earned the 1994 NCAA Post-graduate Scholarship and was a member of the 1994 NCAA All-Academic team.

Segar and her husband Jamie have four children – Grant, Reid, Maggie and Hayes.

BRIAN BROUSSARD

Associate AD/Ticket Sales and Operations

A 20-year veteran of the Athletics Department, including 16 years as ticket manager, Brian Broussard was promoted to Assistant Athletics Director for Ticket Operations in July 2007 and Associate AD in 2012.

Broussard is responsible for revenue in excess of $70 million, which includes the management of ticket and parking sales and renewals for all sports, as well as Tradition Fund donations for football, men's basketball and baseball.

Broussard began at LSU in August 1996 as an assistant ticket manager responsible for men's basketball sales and the day-to-day operations of ticket office. In March 2000, he was promoted to ticket manager, becoming responsible for the ticketing in all sports.

Prior to joining the LSU staff, Broussard was the ticket manager at Northwestern State in 1996. He worked as a promotions assistant at the University of Miami in 1995 and was the gameday club manager for the New Orleans Saints in 1994.

The Gretna native earned his bachelor's degree in political science from LSU in 1993. He is married to the former Aimee Hodges of Alexandria.

EMMETT DAVID

Associate AD/Facility and Project Development

Emmett David joined the LSU Athletics Department in 2012 after serving as Director of the Office of Planning Design and Construction at LSU since June of 1996.

He assists in facility and project development for the Athletic Department, including the newly completed Tiger Stadium South End Zone addition, new facilities for the tennis and gymnastics programs, the Tiger Nutrition Center and other property holding enhancements.

Among his responsibilities for the University was to serve as facility officer for Doctoral I Research Institution consisting of 11.2 million gross square feet with 250 primary buildings. He also was responsible for the 5-year Capital Outlay project planning of some $484 million, deferred maintenance reporting and funding; and, ADA and Life Safety Code deficiency projects, budgets and tracking of expenditures of some $200 million. He was responsible for nearly $800,000 in physical development on campus with projects such as Choppin Annex, Residential College, Business Education Complex, Raphael Semmes Parking Garage and numerous major maintenance, repair and restoration projects.

He also coordinated and implemented master plans for such departments as Parking and Traffic, Athletics, Veterinary Medicine, Student Health Center, Union, University Recreation, South Campus and Residential Life.

David developed long range planning of future projects and the impact of associated displacement and monitored and managed space inventory and he has served as a Staff Senator.

David graduated from LSU with a Bachelor of Architecture in 1982 and his Master of Public Administration in 2006. He is a registered licensed architect by the state of Louisiana.

Emmett and his wife Maurine have two children Chloe and Gabe, who are both residents of Baton Rouge.

NEAL LAMONICA

Assistant AD/Fiscal Operations

Neal Lamonica, a member of the LSU Athletic Department staff since January 2000, was promoted to Assistant Athletic Director for Fiscal Operations in August 2013.

His primary duties include monitoring the Athletic Department's over $120 million budget, and assisting coaches and administrators in formulating budgets for future years. He also serves as the liaison to the athletic department's retail sales operations and Tiger Booster Clubs.

Lamonica began his professional career at LSU in 2000 in the athletic department compliance office before moving to the business office in June 2003. He served as Coordinator of Athletic Business until December 2005, when he was named Business Manager.

Lamonica was promoted to Director of Fiscal Operations in November 2009.

Lamonica received a bachelor's degree in mass communications from LSU in 1998, and he earned an LSU master's degree in business administration in 2003.

Lamonica and his wife, Blythe, are the parents of three sons – Davis, Sam Henry and Luke.

Assistant AD/Compliance

Blair Napolitano, who is in her 10th year with the LSU athletic department, was promoted to assistant athletic director in October 2014. She directs the day-to-day operations of the compliance office, and her primary duties include researching and communicating with coaches, counselors and prospective student-athletes regarding prospect's initial eligibility and amateurism status.

She also serves as the liaison for student-athletes to the LSU admissions office, and she researches and provides interpretations on NCAA rules and SEC bylaws to coaches, staff and student-athletes.

Napolitano began her LSU career as a compliance coordinator in October 2005, and she was named director of compliance in October 2009.

A native of Baton Rouge, she earned her bachelor's degree in kinesiology from LSU in 2005 while serving as a student manager for the track and field team from 2003-05. She received her Master's degree in Business Administration from LSU in August 2010.

Napolitano and her husband, Anthony, have one son, Carter, born in May 2015.

MATHEW SHANKLIN

Assistant AD/Marketing

Mathew Shanklin begins his fifth year at LSU serving as the Assistant Athletic Director of Marketing and as the General Business Manager for LSU Sports Properties, the multi-media rights holder for Tiger Athletics. Previously, Shanklin served 20 years as the Associate Athletic Director of Marketing and Licensing at the University of Arkansas.

Shanklin supervises all operations and client services for LSU Sports Properties, while also managing the LSU Marketing efforts. Since joining LSU, he has implemented several new initiatives including the Bengal Brigade Street team and the new Band pre-game presentation for men's basketball.

While at Arkansas, Shanklin was in charge of all department marketing/promotions, corporate sponsorships, advertising sales and coordinated all sales and programming for the football, basketball and baseball video boards. He was instrumental in developing the HogPen, a tailgating area for fans inside Baum Stadium, the Hog Spa hot tub area at Baum Stadium and the RBI Girls. Shanklin was instrumental in establishing the school's first baseball radio network in 1992, one of the nation's largest with more than 25 affiliates statewide as well as creating the first Hispanic radio network for the University of Arkansas. In 1998, Shanklin became the university's licensing coordinator and under his direction, licensing revenues increased every quarter.

A 1984 graduate of South Mecklenburg (N.C.) High School in Charlotte, N.C., where he lettered in baseball and soccer, Shanklin earned his degree in communications from North Carolina-Wilmington in 1988. A graduate of Ohio University's highly respected sports administration program, Shanklin earned a master's degree in that program in the fall of 1989. An avid golfer, Shanklin married the former Missy Emmerson of Jacksonville, Texas, in 2003. She has a daughter, Jordan (20) who attends LSU, and they are also the parents of Barbara Blake (10) and Isabella Grace (8).

DAVID TAYLOR

Assistant AD/Game and Event Management

David Taylor, who has been a part of LSU's game management team since September 2005, was promoted in August 2014 to Assistant Athletic Director of Game and Event Management. Taylor handles all aspects regarding game management of athletic events while overseeing a staff that helps coordinate all events within the LSU Athletic Department grounds.

Taylor, who started as game management coordinator, was promoted to Assistant Director in 2006 and Associate Director in 2008. He assumed the directorship of Game and Event Management in September 2011.

Prior to that, Taylor served as Assistant Coordinator of Athletic Facilities and Game Operations at Texas State University in 2003 to 2005.

Taylor earned his B.S. degree from Texas-El Paso in 1999 and his masters in Sports Management in 2003.

Communications Director

Michael Bonnette enters his 16th year as LSU's Communications Director and third as Senior Associate Athletic Director after being promoted to his current position in the fall of 2013. Bonnette held the title of Associate Athletic Director from April of 2007. Bonnette was originally elevated to Sports Information Director in August of 2000 and then promoted to Assistant Athletic Director in July of 2004.

As Communications Director, Bonnette serves as the chief contact for LSU's nationally-ranked football team as well as overseeing all publicity activities for the 21 sports sponsored by the Athletic Department.

The 45-year-old Bonnette, who served as an Associate Sports Information Director for seven years, is in his 22nd year with the LSU Athletic Department.

His 2012 LSU Football media guide was named "Best in the Nation" by CoSIDA, one of several awards he has received from the organization and in the Louisiana Sports Writers Association annual writing contests. His 2014 guide was ranked second in the nation.

The Lake Charles, La., native has been around the sports media relations profession his entire life as he is the son of retired McNeese State Sports Information Director Louis Bonnette, a member of the CoSIDA Hall of Fame. The field at Cowboy Stadium in Lake Charles bears the name Louis Bonnette Field. His brother, Matthew, continued the family tradition at McNeese by being named Sports Information Director in July 2012, following his Dad in the position.

Bonnette, who is a 1993 graduate of LSU, is past president of SIDs for the Southeastern Conference and is currently the vice-president for SIDs for the LSWA. He is married to the former Robin Arnaud of Opelousas, La., and the couple has three sons, Peyton (17), Grant (16) and Max (10).

Bill Franques
Senior Associate
Communications Director

Bill Franques works as the LSU baseball program's media relations director, and he serves as managing editor of LSU's football, men's basketball and baseball game programs.

His 2012 LSU football game program was voted best in the nation by College Sports Information Directors of America.

The LSU baseball media guide, written and edited by Franques, has four times been named best in the nation by CoSIDA. His baseball brochures have finished among the top six in the country in 16 of the past 22 seasons, including his 2012 and 2013 guides, which were voted No. 1 by CoSIDA. His 2015 guide was best in the state by the La. Sports Writers Association.

Franques is the Alex Box Stadium public address announcer and the color analyst on LSU Sports Radio Network broadcasts of baseball road games. In addition, he is the producer and co-host of LSU Tiger Tracks, a weekly television program featuring LSU sports personalities.

Franques also worked from 1997-2000 as the LSU baseball administrative assistant. His duties included coordinating team travel, organizing fundraising events and booster club meetings, and overseeing office operations.

Franques received a Bachelor of Arts degree from LSU in 1985. The Lafayette, La., native is married to the former Yvette Lemoine of Bunkie, La., and they have three children - William Paul Jr. (15), Benjamin Lewis (13) and Madeline Lemoine (11).

Kent Lowe
Communications Director

A member of the LSU Sports Information staff since August 1988 and beginning his 28th athletic year at LSU, Kent Lowe was appointed senior associate SID in August 2000. He serves as the primary media contact for the LSU men's basketball team and women's golf team.

He has also for the past 22 years written an award-winning bowling column for The (Baton Rouge) Advocate.

Lowe, 57, came to LSU from Louisiana Downs where he served as publicity director for the Bossier City, La., racetrack.

Lowe is a member of CoSIDA, which voted his 2010 men's basketball media guide "Best in the Nation" his 2012 men's basketball guide third in the nation and 2015 men's guide second. He is a member of CoSIDA's prestigious Academic All-American committee as well.

Lowe is also a past president and current treasurer of the Louisiana Sports Writers Association.

The Shreveport native is heavily involved with the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame and for the past 13 years has produced the regionally-televised induction ceremonies.

Lowe is a 1979 graduate from LSU-Shreveport. He earned his masters' degree at LSU in 1982.

Will Stafford
Associate Communications
Director

Will Stafford enters his eighth year as a member of the LSU Communications staff as he serves as associate director in charge of the national champion men's and women's track and field programs, as well as the men's golf and women's soccer programs.

Stafford is a native of Franklinton, La., and a 2006 graduate of LSU's Manship School of Mass Communication with a Bachelor of Arts degree in journalism.

Prior to receiving a full-time position at LSU, Stafford served as a graduate assistant with the sports information staff for two years while completing a master's degree in sport management in the summer of 2008. In addition, he served as a student assistant at LSU for four years from 2003-06.

Stafford's media guides have been judged in the top five in the country on nine occasions by the College Sports Information Directors of America. This includes the fifth-ranked men's track and field guide in 2007, the third-ranked men's golf, fourth-ranked women's soccer and fourth-ranked women's track and field guides in 2008, the second-ranked men's golf and third-ranked women's track and field guides in 2009, the second-ranked track and field guide in 2011; and the second-ranked men's golf and third-ranked track and field guide in 2012.

In addition, four of Stafford's media guides have received the "Best Cover" honor as the nation's top design, including track and field in 2007, 2009 and 2011, and men's golf in 2009.

In June 2014, Stafford was announced as the recipient of the inaugural Excellence in Communications Award presented annually by the U.S. Track & Field and Cross Country Coaches Association. The USTFCCCA announced his selection leading up to the 2014 NCAA Division I Outdoor Track & Field Championships held in Eugene, Oregon.

He and his wife of five years, the former Claire Adams of Baton Rouge, were married on July 24, 2010, in Lake Junaluska, North Carolina, and have one son, Liam Stafford (2).

Jake Terry
Director

Jake Terry begins his sixth year as Associate SID where he handles all publicity for the LSU gymnastics team and functions as the No. 2 contact for the football team.

Terry earned his master's degree in sport management at LSU in 2010 after receiving a Bachelor of Arts degree in broadcast journalism from LSU's Manship School of Mass Communication in 2008.

Prior to receiving a full-time position, Terry served as a graduate assistant for two years at LSU when he handled responsibilities for gymnastics and assisted with football. During his time as a student, he worked as an SID for women's tennis and also served briefly as interim SID for softball, volleyball and women's basketball.

Terry, 29, is a Baton Rouge native and is married to the former Allison Stuckey.

Clyde Verdin
Director

Clyde Verdin is in his second season as an associate director at LSU, serving as the primary contact for softball and volleyball, while also acting as the department's liaison to the Cox Communications Academic Center for Student-Athletes and the department's community service efforts.

Prior to joining the staff, Verdin, 31, worked for over two years as the director of media relations at his Alma Mater of Nicholls

State University in Thibodaux, Louisiana, where he oversaw the media relations efforts for all 13 of the university's Division I sports.

After receiving his bachelor of arts in broadcast journalism from Nicholls in 2008, Verdin went on to complete internships at the University of Missouri and with the New Orleans Pelicans of the NBA.

A native of Morgan City, Louisiana, Verdin is married to the former Stephanie Detillier of Raceland, Louisiana.

Steve Franz
Staff Photographer

Steve Franz, LSU's staff photographer, joined the LSU athletics department in July of 1998 after being around the Tiger sports scene for years.

Prior to joining LSU athletics, the New Orleans native served as photographer for the independent Tiger Rag magazine for five years. Franz was also a photographer for United Press International covering some of the area's major political events, Presidential visits, the New Orleans Saints and the NCAA men's and women's Final Fours in New Orleans.

Franz, 44, has had his pictures published in several national magazines, including Sports Illustrated and The Sporting News. He is a 1993 graduate of LSU.

Chris Parent
Photography Assistant

Hannah Brinks
Graphic Design Coordinator

Hannah Boutwell is in her fourth year as a graphic design coordinator for the LSU Athletics Publications Office. Her responsibilities include the design and production of print and digital communications for the athletic department.

Prior to coming to LSU, Brinks, 26, was a graphic designer with Crimson Tide Productions at the University of Alabama, where she designed in both print and digital formats for Gymnastics, Women's Golf, Softball, and Women's Basketball.

She earned her BFA cum laude in Digital Media/Graphic Design from The University of Alabama, and was a record setting member of the Crimson Tide Swimming and Diving team, competing at SEC Championships, NCAA's, US Open, US Nationals, World Championship Trials and Olympic Trials.

The former Hannah Brinks, married Luke Boutwell this past June.

Credentials

All media attending LSU baseball home games must present a media pass for admission to Alex Box Stadium. Media are asked to enter the stadium on the third-base side between the Ticket Office and the Hall of Fame Room. Credentials for home games are issued for working media only and should be requested as early as possible.

- Requests for credentials should be made in advance by e-mail and directed to Senior Associate SID Bill Franques at wfranqu@lsu.edu.

- Requests are honored from sports editors of daily and weekly newspapers, editors of sports periodicals, web site administrators, and sports directors of radio and television stations who broadcast regularly-scheduled sports reports and talk shows.

- Credentials not mailed may be picked up beginning 90 minutes prior to game time at the Will Call window on the third base side of Alex Box Stadium, Skip Bertman Field.

Press Box Services

A complete NCAA box score and pertinent game facts will be distributed to members of the working media. Press packets are provided 60 minutes prior to the first pitch, or earlier upon request. Press packets include a scorecard and team rosters, updated statistics for each team, conference statistics and game notes.

Wireless Internet

Please contact Senior Associate SID Bill Franques in order to obtain login information for LSU's wireless internet services.

Parking

Because of limited space, requests for parking passes should be made with credential requests. It should not be assumed that parking passes will be provided with all media credentials.

Radio/Television

Radio and television space for broadcasting baseball games is located in the press box. LSU provides courtesy lines for radio stations wishing to broadcast a game from Alex Box Stadium, Skip Bertman Field.

Head Coach Paul Mainieri

Coach Mainieri is usually available for interviews on weekdays prior to practice sessions. Please coordinate all requests for interviews with Coach Mainieri through the Sports Information Office. Appointments and interviews may be arranged through Bill Franques at wfranqu@lsu.edu or (225) 578-2527. Coach Mainieri will meet with reporters approximately 15 minutes after home games in the Champion's Club of Alex Box Stadium.

Practice/Interviews

Media members are invited to attend LSU baseball practice sessions. Players and coaches are usually available for interviews before each practice in Alex Box Stadium, Skip Bertman Field. Contact Bill Franques at wfranqu@lsu.edu or 225.578.2527 for practice times. Postgame player interviews are conducted in front of the LSU dugout at the conclusion of a brief team meeting on the field. The LSU locker room is closed to the media.

Kevin Wagner
Television Operations

In April, 2014, Kevin Wagner was promoted to Assistant Athletic Director, Television Operations, and Wagner oversees the LSU Athletic Department's responsibilities for the SEC Television Network.

Included in those responsibilities will be the production of all live digital sports events originating at LSU for ESPN3 and the SEC Network. Wagner will also oversee and coordinate all other television production projects for the LSU Athletic Department.

For the past 26 years, Wagner served as the Executive Producer/Director for LSU's four major coaches' television shows (Inside LSU Football, Inside LSU Basketball, Inside LSU Baseball, and Inside Lady Tiger Basketball), and he coordinated video production for LSU's video scoreboards in Tiger Stadium, the Pete Maravich Assembly Center and Alex Box Stadium.

Wagner, 59, joined LSU's Television department as Assistant Coordinator in August of 1989, and was promoted to Coordinator of Electronic Media/Television in July of 1994.

A 1980 graduate of LSU in broadcast journalism, Wagner was a four-year Tiger letterman in diving (1975-79), earning All-Southeastern Conference honors in 1979 on the three-meter springboard.

A native of Houston with 36 years of television production experience, Wagner and his wife Karen have two daughters - Allyson and Jennifer - and six grandchildren: Kaleigh, Randy, Conner, Tanner, Carson, and Kyndal.

John Schiebe
Assistant Director
Television Operations

John Schiebe begins his 22nd season in the LSU Athletics Television Department. He came to LSU in August of 1994 from the University of Mississippi where he served as post-production supervisor in the Teleproductions Center.

Schiebe served as a production assistant in Educational Television Services at Oklahoma State from 1984-87 before becoming a producer/director in Agricultural Communications at DSU from 1987-93 when he joined Ole Miss.

A 1986 graduate of Oklahoma State, he was born in Minneapolis, Minnesota and attended high school in Oxford, Mississippi

Schiebe, who has been instrumental in videoboard direction in past years, will take on a new role assisting with the role of the athletic department in association with the SEC Network.

Schiebe is married to the former Mollie Clements of Memphis, Tenn., and they have two children, Tom and Pat.

VIDEO PRODUCTIONS

David Landry
Director of Media Productions

David Landry begins his ninth season since returning to the Television Department in 2006.

The Baton Rouge native spent 12 years in television production in the Baton Rouge area after serving as a full-time television producer for LSU Athletics from 1990-94. He was also involved in LSU Athletics television production from 1988-90 during his time as a student at the University.

Landry graduated from LSU in 1990 with a bachelor's degree in broadcast journalism. He is married to the former Kim Segura of Baton Rouge and has two sons, Patrick and John.

Lee Scioneaux
Production Manager

Lee Scioneaux is in his second year working with LSU Sports Productions, bringing his 25 years of experience in video production and marketing.

Scioneaux started his career in 1991 working at a Baton Rouge based video production facility and then in 1998 co-founded and operated his own production operation.

In 2008, Scioneaux joined the corporate world as a marketing director focusing on online media & production.

A native of LaPlace, and a 1990 graduate in broadcast journalism at LSU, Scioneaux married the former Michele Doming of Lutcher and they have three children - Seth, Gabe, and Marie.

The Paul Mainieri Show

PRESENTED BY CAPITAL ONE BANK

Selected LSU Sports Radio Network stations will air "The Paul Mainieri Show, presented by Capital One Bank" each Monday from 7-8 p.m., beginning on March 21 and continuing through May 16. The show airs live from T.J. Ribs Restaurant on Acadian Thruway in Baton Rouge.

The show is designed to give Tiger fans a chance to visit both live and by phone with LSU coach Paul Mainieri. Fans have the opportunity to watch the show live at T.J. Ribs and ask Coach Mainieri questions in person. There is also a call-in segment that features questions from listeners on the LSU Sports Radio Network and in the Geaux Zone at LSUsports.net.

Chris Blair - "The Voice of the Tigers"

Chris Blair, Georgia Southern's radio voice for the past 10 seasons, was named last June as the next "Voice of the Tigers" beginning with the 2016 LSU baseball season. Blair, LSU's Director of Radio Broadcasting, officially joined the LSU Athletics Department on Dec. 7, 2015.

Blair's resume covers virtually all aspects of broadcasting, with broadcast management and marketing positions in Greenville and Columbia, South Carolina. Blair basically grew up inside a radio station, working at age 14 for his father, also a long-time broadcaster. His college broadcast experience includes working for the Clemson Tiger Sports Network and at Lander University.

Blair spent 10 years as play-by-play announcer for prep powerhouse Greenwood High School in South Carolina and handled the play-by-play for four state championship football games at Williams-Brice Stadium in Columbia, South Carolina.

Along with his play-by-play duties for Georgia Southern, Blair handled all the behind-the-scenes aspects with affiliate relations, network marketing plans and overall sound presentation of GSU Athletics on the air and on the Internet. He also hosted the weekly coaches radio shows and was the host for the weekly television show for GSU basketball.

Blair, 41, is married to the former Amber Anders and they have two children, Crafton Christopher and Rivers Elisabeth.

The LSU Sports Radio Network is scheduled to broadcast all regular-season contests in 2016 along with the Tigers' games in the SEC and NCAA Tournaments. LSU Baseball will be distributed by satellite to 15 radio stations from the broadcast studios on the fifth floor of the athletic administration building.

WDGL-FM (98.1) in Baton Rouge serves as the flagship station for the LSU Sports Network. All programming can also be heard in the Geaux Zone at www.LSUsports.net, and selected games will be available on Sirius/XM Satellite Radio.

The LSU Sports Radio Network is one of the most diverse and progressive college radio networks in the country, utilizing an in-house radio studio to originate over 140 live events in football, men's and women's basketball, baseball and softball. In addition to live events, network programming also includes a weekly live coach's show for football, men's and women's basketball and baseball.
