SEASON REVIEW

The LSU Soccer program earned its first NCAA Tournament win with a 1-0 overtime victory over Samford in the first round in 2007.

Tigers Enjoy a Season for the Ages in 2007

The 2007 season proved to be one for the ages for the LSU soccer team as it seemed the Tigers were making history each time they took to the pitch. The club accomplished many firsts in the 13-year history of the program, including its first ever SEC Western Division championship and trip to the NCAA Tournament. The Tigers also recorded their first postseason win with a 1-0 shutout of Samford in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament in Tallahassee, Fla. LSU faced a team record seven nationally-ranked opponents a year ago and earned its first victory over an opponent ranked among the Top 10 teams in the nation with a dominating 3-0 shutout of No. 6 Tennessee on Oct. 5. With the victory, the Tigers cracked the national rankings for the first time as they were ranked as high as No. 19 by Soccer America.

Tigers Advance to Second Round of NCAA Tournament

Prior to the 2007 season, no LSU soccer player had ever experienced the feeling of standing toe-to-toe against the nation's best teams in the NCAA Tournament. But the Tigers made the most of their very first opportunity in 13 seasons by advancing to the second round where they fell to NCAA runner-up Florida State in regional play in Tallahassee, Fla. However, LSU did pick up its first ever postseason victory by defeating the Samford Bulldogs in double overtime in their first-round match-up on Nov. 16. Then junior Roslyn Jones punched a header into the back of the net with just 3 minutes, 26 seconds remaining in the second overtime period to give the Tigers a 1-0 victory.

Yepez's OT Goal Clinches LSU's First SEC West Title

In what might be the most historic victory in the 13-year history of the LSU soccer program, sophomore striker Rachel Yepez netted the game-winning goal in the seventh minute of overtime to give the Tigers a 1-0 victory over Arkansas at Lady 'Back Field on Nov. 2 and clinch LSU's first ever SEC Western Division championship. LSU entered the final day of the SEC season with a slim one-point advantage over Auburn in the league table in the race to be crowned division champion. A draw with the Lady Razorbacks would not have been enough as Auburn defeated Alabama in its season finale. But the Tigers prevailed and finished the season with a 5-2-4 mark and 19 points in conference play, while Auburn was a close second in the division with a 6-5 record and 18 points.

LSU Smashes Attendance Records in Unbeaten Home Slate

The 2007 season was not only history in the making on the field for LSU, but it was also an unprecedented season at the box office as record crowds packed the LSU Soccer Complex week in and week out to see the Tigers in action. For the first time in their 13-year history, the Tigers finished the season ranked among the Top 10 teams in the nation in average attendance as they were No. 10 overall and No. 7 in paid attendance in the NCAA after drawing an average of 1,294 fans in eight home matches. Three all-time attendance records were set a year ago with overflow crowds of 1,828 against Southern Miss on Aug. 31, 2,160 against McNeese State on Sept. 14 and 2,402 against Tennessee on Oct. 5 filling the stands to see the Tigers play. LSU was unbeaten at home for the first time in team history with a 5-0-3 record at the LSU Soccer Complex.

Record Crowd Sees Tigers Crush No. 6 Lady Vols, 3-0

For the first time in the program's 13-year history, the Tigers defeated a team ranked among the Top 10 teams in the nation with a dominating 3-0 shutout of the sixth-ranked Tennessee Lady Volunteers at the LSU Soccer Complex on Oct. 5. It also marked the first time that LSU had defeated Tennessee on the soccer pitch in a series that dates back to the 1996 season. The Tigers also shattered the all-time attendance record for the third time on the season as 2,402 fans packed the stands, breaking the mark of 2,160 against McNeese State on Sept. 14. Sophomore Michelle Makasini scored a pair of goals on the night, including the game-winner in the 21st minute by firing a free kick into the back of the net from 30 yards out.

LSU Cracks National Rankings for First Time

After dominating the sixth-ranked Lady Volunteers by a score of 3-0 on Oct. 5 and posting a 1-1 draw with the 18th-ranked Georgia Bulldogs on Oct. 7, LSU cracked the national rankings for the first time in program history after earning a No. 19 ranking in the Soccer America Top 25 released on Oct. 8. The Tigers were the highest ranked team in the Southeastern Conference at the time the ranking was released and spent a total of four weeks in the national rankings during the 2007 campaign. They also cracked two other polls for the first time in team history with a No. 22 ranking in the Soccer Times Top 25 and a No. 29 ranking in the Soccer Buzz Top 30 released on Oct. 9.

Tigers Battle No. 4 Texas to 2-2 Draw in Austin

The Tigers earned an at-large berth into the NCAA Tournament thanks in large part to its performance against one of the toughest non-conference schedules in all of women's college soccer, and perhaps their toughest test came on the night of Sept. 18 with a trip to Austin, Texas, to take on the fourth-ranked Texas Longhorns at Mike A. Myers Stadium. After falling behind twice during the match, Yepez and Jones each scored game-tying goals in the 20th and 57th minutes to give LSU its first positive result against a Top 10 opponent with a hard-fought 2-2 draw. With her three goals in three matches on the week, Yepez was named the SEC Offensive Player of the Week the following week while also being named to National Teams of the Week by Soccer America and Soccer Buzz.

Tiger Trio Receives All-America Honors from Top Drawer Soccer

The talent level on the LSU roster is higher than ever before, and that certainly proved to be true in the postseason as three Tigers were named honorable mention All-Americans by Top Drawer Soccer. Makasini, Yepez and fellow sophomore Malorie Rutledge established themselves as three of the premier young offensive talents in the Southeastern Conference after being recognized by the organization for their outstanding performance in 2007. Yepez finished the season as the team's leading scorer with 14 goals and 31 points, while Makasini added nine goals and 21 points of her own and Rutledge broke the LSU single-season record with 12 assists to go along with four goals for 20 points. This marks the second time in her young career that Makasini has been named an All-American as she received Freshman All-America honors from Top Drawer Soccer and Soccer Buzz Magazine following the 2006 season.

Four Tigers Earn All-SEC Recognition

As a result of their individual success during the 2007 season, four Tigers also received All-SEC recognition prior to the start of the SEC Soccer Tournament in November. For the first time in team history, LSU had two first-team All-SEC selections as both Makasini and Rutledge were honored by the league's 12 head coaches with their first career first-team honors. Sophomore Chelsea Potts was named a second-team All-SEC selection for the second straight season, while Boudreau was a member of the SEC All-Freshman Team as one of the premier newcomers to the league. A total of 14 student-athletes have earned 23 all-conference awards in the program's 13-year history with Boudreau joining that select group of Tigers for the first time. In addition, the Tigers have been represented on the All-SEC squad four years in a row and have had at least two selections in five of the last seven years.

Makasini Named Soccer America National Player of the Week

With her performance in a 3-0 blowout of No. 6 Tennessee and a 1-1 draw against No. 18 Georgia, Makasini became the first Tiger in program history to earn National Player of the Week honors as she was recognized by Soccer America in its weekly awards released on Oct. 9. Makasini scored a pair of goals against the Lady Vols to lead the Tigers to their first ever victory over an opponent ranked in the Top 10, while adding the team's lone goal against the Bulldogs to give LSU four points in the SEC standings. She was also named to the Soccer America Women's Team of the Week, the Soccer Buzz National Elite Team of the Week and the Top Drawer Soccer Women's College Team of the Week for her performance.

Yepez is SEC's Top Goal Scorer in 2007

Not only did Yepez finish the 2007 season as the Tigers' leading scorer with 14 goals and 31 points, but she proved to be a dominant force in the Southeastern Conference by finishing the season as the league's top goal scorer as her total was one better than Georgia's Carrie Patterson. This makes her LSU's most prolific scorer in a single season since former Tiger great Artie Brown also scored 14 goals and 31 points in the 2004 season. Yepez scored perhaps the most important goal in the 13-year history of the LSU soccer program with the game-winner in a 1-0 overtime victory over Arkansas on Nov. 2 to clinch the SEC Western Division championship.

Rutledge Sets Single-Season Assist Record

Yepez was not the only Tiger to star on the offensive end a year ago as Rutledge enjoyed a historic season of her own by setting a new school record for assists in a season with 12, breaking the old mark of 10 set by former Tiger standout Stephanie Keating in 2002. Rutledge proved to be one of the most feared attackers in the Southeastern Conference with her ability to deliver precise crosses into the box from her position on the right wing in the midfield. In fact, she finished the 2007 season ranked No. 2 in the SEC in assists and among the league's Top 10 scorers with four goals and 20 points.

Tigers Honored for Outstanding Performance in the Classroom

In addition to their many exploits on the field during the 2007 season, three Tigers were honored for their outstanding performance in the classroom by being named to the ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District Team in November. Caroline Vanderpool and Valerie Vogler were each named second-team selections while Roslyn Jones was a third-team member in District VI. Vanderpool was honored for having a 3.81 cumulative grade-point average in political science, while Jones boasted a 3.53 GPA in three seasons as a kinesiology major and Vogler accumulated a 3.43 GPA in mechanical engineering. In addition, a total of 11 Tigers were named to the Southeastern Conference Academic Honor Roll following the season.

Pollock Named to SEC Good Works Team

The Tigers were also heavily involved in community service with the Shaquille O'Neal CHAMPS/Life Skills Program. Senior captain Sara Pollock was rewarded for her actions by being named to the 2007 SEC Soccer Community Service Team in November. Pollock served as President of the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee at LSU and contributed to many community service projects with the 4-H University Club. She was also actively involved in the fight to find a cure for such diseases as amyotrophic lateral sclerosis and muscular dystrophy as she participated in the ALS Walk for Lou Gehrig's Disease and took part in the Muscular Dystrophy Association's Strides and Rides Event.

Tigers Face One of Nation's Toughest Schedules in 2007

The only way for a team to show that it truly belongs among the best teams in the country is to play the best teams in the country and prove it on the field. The Tigers certainly did that in 2007 as they faced one of the nation's toughest schedules with a team record seven opponents ranked among the Top 25 teams in the country. LSU finished the season with a respectable 1-3-3 mark against ranked opponents, including a dominating 3-0 shutout of No. 6 Tennessee on Oct. 5. The Tigers also drew the likes of No. 4 Texas (2-2), No. 18 Georgia (1-1) and No. 25 South Carolina (1-1) to cement their place among the nation's premier up-and-coming programs. In addition, the squad posted a 4-4-4 record against teams that earned a berth into the NCAA Tournament.
