Head Coach Brian Lee

Why LSU?

“LSU gives its student-athletes every opportunity to succeed both on and off the field. Right away, I knew I wanted to play for Brian Lee and his staff at LSU. Not only does he want his players to excel on the field, but he also pushes us to succeed in the classroom as well. That’s exactly what I was looking for in a coach when I was being recruited. I knew coming in that Brian had the ability to transform LSU into a contender and I wanted to be a part of that. My experience at LSU was more than I hoped it would be. It will always be a part of me wherever life may take me.”

MALORIE RUTLEDGE

Midfielder (2006-09)
3-time All-American
2-time SEC Offensive Player of the Year
3-time First-Team All-SEC

“Being a professional athlete, it’s easy for people in my profession to assume that’s what they will be doing for the rest of their life. The reality is that I will have a second dream job. As I continue to train and hurdle at LSU with Coach Shaver, he has continued to help me work on my resume and prepare for the day after my track career is over. He truly is a great mentor and coach, but to this day he is also a great friend. I will always be grateful to him and LSU for the many opportunities I’ve been given in my life.”

LOLO JONES

3-time Olympian
2-time World Indoor Champion
American Record Holder (60 hurdles)

“LSU has the greatest fans. Being a hometown girl from Baton Rouge, I knew LSU always took pride in its athletic program. You always hear about Tennessee and Connecticut, but I wanted to be able to help put LSU up there on the map with them. We accomplished a lot during my time. I wouldn’t change it for anything. I got to play for one of the greatest coaches in history in Coach Gunter. I got to play with a group of women that became my family.”

SEIMONE AUGUSTUS

Guard (2002-06)
2-time National Player of the Year
3-time WNBA Champion
3-time Olympic Gold Medalist

“When you go back and get your degree, it says a lot about your work ethic. I accomplished things that I will never forget here. I come home to Miami, but a lot of people don’t know me like everyone in Baton Rouge and the fans. Baton Rouge and LSU has been my home. If I had to do it all over again, LSU would be the only place I would do it.”

SYLVIA FOWLES

Center (2004-08)
2-time State Farm All-American
2015 WNBA Champion
3-time Olympic Gold Medalist

LSU SOCCER STADIUM

The LSU Soccer Stadium has traditionally been a difficult place for visiting teams to play as the Tigers have posted a strong 61-29-20 home record for a .645 winning percentage over the last 11 seasons since the team made its NCAA Tournament debut and captured its first of four SEC Western Division championships in 2007. LSU is now in a new era of SEC soccer after winning its four SEC Western Division titles with four NCAA Tournament appearances since 2007 after divisions were eliminated prior to the 2012 season, marking the first season in which teams competed as one unified SEC table.

On the strength of its recent success, the LSU Soccer Stadium has received extensive renovations in recent years as the program continues its ascent to the pinnacle of the SEC and the NCAA. The venue is now a home worthy of an emerging power in women's college soccer.

In March 2011, construction teams broke ground on Phase 2 of the renovation as $2.3 million was invested to transform the facility while creating additional seating, installing new lighting and building a new press box for the media and concession stand and restrooms for the LSU supporters to enjoy.

By adding a second level of bleacher seating to the existing structure, the official capacity of the LSU Soccer Stadium increased to 2,197, easily accommodating a fanbase that has created one of the more intimidating home-field advantages in the SEC. In addition, new gates were built on the west side of the complex with brick columns throughout. New gating was also installed at the top of the bleachers.

Fans attending matches at the LSU Soccer Stadium also benefit from the addition of the permanent concession stand located directly below the press box. With the building of two new restrooms at the facility, it now features a total of four as men's and women's facilities are located at both ends of the stadium.

Members of the media also enjoy a functional press box that has been constructed to make the covering of matches a state-of-the-art experience. Not only does the press box interior measure 333 square feet, but hard-wired internet is available across the work space along with a wireless internet signal that has long been accessible in previous seasons. In addition, television cameras and videographers have access to the crow's nest installed on the roof of the press box in a space that also features hard-wired internet access.

The Tigers have been a formidable foe at the LSU Soccer Stadium under the direction of head coach Brian Lee as they enter the fall with a 72-34-22 mark and .648 winning percentage on their home ground since 2005.

That includes an impressive run with an unbeaten 5-0-3 home slate in 2007, followed by an impressive 8-1 campaign in 2008, a 7-1-2 season in 2009, a 6-2-1 mark in 2010 and a stellar 7-1-1 season in 2011. While winning four SEC Western Division championships and making four trips to the NCAA Tournament from 2007-11, the Tigers posted a 33-5-7 record with a .811 winning percentage. They most recently finished the 2015 season unbeaten at home with an 8-0-4 mark in 12 matches played in Baton Rouge.

In fact, LSU's home performance is highlighted by a school record 18-game home unbeaten streak that came to an end on Oct. 26, 2008, with a 2-1 defeat to the No. 6-ranked Florida Gators.

2017 marks the 22nd season in the life of the LSU Soccer Stadium, which was first opened on Sept. 13, 1996, when the Tigers hosted SEC rival Tennessee.

A new era was born in 2011 with the grand re-opening of the LSU Soccer Stadium as the Tigers set the attendance record on Sept. 9 when 2,542 supporters witnessed a 1-0 blanking of the Oregon Ducks to open the LSU Invitational. That smashed the previous attendance mark of 2,402 fans that saw the Tigers pitch a 3-0 shutout of No. 6-ranked Tennessee for the team's first win over an opponent ranked among the Top 10 teams in the nation.

The Tigers then raised the bar again in their home opener in 2012 when a new record of 2,624 fans turned out to witness the Tigers play visiting Rice to a 1-1 draw on Aug. 24 of that season.

In fact, the Tigers set the all-time attendance record three times during the 2007 season and finished the campaign ranked No. 10 nationally in average attendance and No. 7 in the country in average paid attendance while drawing 1,294 fans per match.

The program made history again in 2009 as the Tigers were awarded a No. 4 national seed in the NCAA Tournament and the former LSU Soccer Complex was selected as a regional host site of the NCAA First and Second Rounds for the first time, solidifying its reputation as one of the most intimidating venues in all of college soccer.

Chapman Makes World Cup History for Tigers

Allysha Chapman's dream of representing her native Canada in a World Cup came true when the former LSU Soccer standout was named to head coach John Herdman's 23-player squad wearing the Maple Leaf at the 2015 FIFA Women's World Cup in the team announcement in Montreal on April 28 of that year.

Canada served as the host nation of the 2015 FIFA Women's World Cup as the event was played over a month across the provinces from June 6-July 5 that summer.

LSU Tigers have littered the national team rosters of such nations as the United States, Australia, Canada, Colombia, England, Mexico and New Zealand while competing in various age group World Cups over the past decade, but Chapman made history as the first LSU Soccer star to feature at the highest level of women's soccer worldwide at the FIFA Women's World Cup.

Herdman named Chapman among the 23 players making up the Canadian Women's National Team roster kicking off the tournament against China PR in the opening group stage match for the 2015 FIFA Women's World Cup in Edmonton, Alberta.

CHAPMAN ENJOYS QUICK RISE IN CANADIAN RANKS

Chapman burst onto the scene as one of the first names on John Herdman's team sheet for the Canadian Women's National Team since making her full international debut with the squad last fall back on Oct. 25, 2014, in a friendly match against 2011 World Cup Champion Japan.

"Chappy" has gone on to earn 44 international caps with 32 starts for Canada at the senior level in that time while leading the defense as the team's starting left back. Her time at the top has been highlighted by scoring her first international goal with the winner in the 51st minute for a 1-0 win over Italy in the semifinal round of the 2015 Cypress Women's Cup.

A three-time All-SEC performer and the 2011 SEC Defensive Player of the Year during her collegiate career, Chapman's professional career has taken off after playing her final season with the Tigers in the fall of 2011. She joined the Houston Dash of the National Women's Soccer League before the 2015 season as an allocated national team player from her former club team Eskilstuna United DFF in Sweden. Chapman played two years with the Dash before being traded to the Boston Breakers in November 2016.

Before reigniting her international career at the senior level, Chapman was a two-year member of Canada's Under-20 Women's National Team, even appearing at the 2008 FIFA U-20 Women's World Cup in Chile.

CHAPMAN LEADS DEFENSIVE CANADA TO TOP OF GROUP A

Chapman helped anchor a Canadian back line that conceded just one goal to its opponents in three group stage matches as the home nation advanced to the knockout rounds at the 2015 FIFA Women's World Cup with a 1-1 draw against The Netherlands in their third and final group match held at Olympic Stadium in Montreal.

Canada finished atop Group A with five points while also blanking China, 1-0, in the opening match of the tournament and playing New Zealand to a 0-0 draw to earn five points.

China and The Netherlands followed Canada in a tie for second place in the group with four points apiece as the People's Republic secured automatic qualification into the Round of 16 with its head-to-head win with a 1-0 victory in the second round of group matches. As the third-place finishers in Group A, the Dutch also advanced to the knockouts with their overall number of points accumulated and goal difference compared to the third-place finishers in other groups.

CANADA ADVANCES TO WORLD CUP QUARTERFINALS

Thanks to Josée Bélanger's goal in the 52nd minute and Chapman leading a dogged defensive display from the hosts, Canada advanced to the quarterfinals of the 2015 FIFA Women's World Cup with a 1-0 shutout of Switzerland in their Round of 16 match at BC Place Stadium in Vancouver.

With 53,885 supporters on hand at BC Place Stadium – a record crowd for a Canadian men's and women's national team in any sport – Canada earned its place in the World Cup quarterfinals for the first time since 2003 while competing in the knockout rounds for just the second time in six appearances all-time in the tournament.

Following a first half in which both teams failed to find a breakthrough, Bélanger scored the goal that proved to be the winner when she swept home Christine Sinclair's entry from the penalty spot.

With Sinclair crossing a clearance by the Swiss defense back into the area, Bélanger curled a left-footed effort beyond the reach of Swiss goalkeeper Gaëlle Thalmann and inside the left post to break the deadlock with her first goal for the Canadian senior squad in nearly five years. Bélanger nearly added a second goal late on when she had another shot cleared off the line in the final minutes.

Canada advanced to the quarterfinals where they returned to BC Place Stadium on June 27 to go up against England for the right to advance to the semifinal round.

CHAPMAN, CANADA FALL IN WORLD CUP QUARTERFINAL

Star striker Christine Sinclair pulled a goal back before halftime when she stabbed home a mishandled save by England goalkeeper Karen Bardsley in the 42nd minute, but that was not enough to send the hosts into the semifinals at this year's FIFA Women's World Cup when Canada fell to England, 2-1, in their quarterfinal match in Vancouver.

A quick-fire double from Jodie Taylor in the 11th minute and Lucy Bronze in the 14th minute was enough to send the Lionesses into the World Cup semifinals for the first time in their history.

With Chapman anchoring a Canadian back line surrendering just one goal in four matches going into their match against England, the hosts were confident for a return to the tournament semifinals for the first time since 2003 when Canada earned its best finish of third place.

Not even the 54,027 fans in attendance at Vancouver's BC Place Stadium could inspire their Maple Leafs to a second-half comeback as Canada pressured late but fell short of a place in the semifinal round to face defending champion Japan. England advanced, but fell to Japan before finishing a nation's-best third place with a 1-0 win over Germany in the Third Place Game.

Chapman locked down the left back spot for Canada throughout this year's FIFA Women's World Cup as she started and played the full 90 minutes in each of the team's five matches through the quarterfinal round.

Each year, the Heisman Trophy Trust presents the famed Heisman Trophy to the most outstanding college football player in the country. In the sport of college soccer, athletes from across the country compete each season for the right to raise the Hermann Trophy as the premier soccer player in the NCAA as presented by the Missouri Athletic Club in St. Louis.

Considered the highest honor in intercollegiate soccer, the recipient of the Hermann Trophy is selected each year by Division I head coaches who are certified members of the National Soccer Coaches Association of America. After releasing the Hermann Trophy Watch List each preseason, the field is then cut to 15 semifinalists in November before three finalists are named prior to the NCAA Women's College Cup in early December.

The LSU Soccer program has been represented on the Hermann Trophy Watch List twice in its history as former Tiger All-American Malorie Rutledge was recognized as one of the top players in the country by the Missouri Athletic Club. While Rutledge never made the cut as one of the award's 15 semifinalists, she certainly earned a reputation as being one of the elite talents in all of college soccer with a brilliant four-year career from 2006-09.
