LSU Soccer Complex

Maintaining LSU's commitment to providing the finest athletic facilities in the nation, the Tigers will begin their seventh season at the state-of-the-art LSU Soccer Complex. The field was christened on September 13, 1996, when the Tigers hosted their Southeastern Conference rival, the Tennessee Volunteers.

The LSU Soccer Complex, located just a half mile from the Mississippi River, provides seating for 1,500 spectators.

In addition, the stadium features a brand-new scoreboard, a modern sound system and is one of the only facilities in Louisiana equipped with lights.

The complex has served as the host site for four prestigious tournaments hosted by the LSU Tigers in recent years and was the sight of the 2001 SEC Tournament.

Locker Room

The LSU soccer program can now boast a modern, spacious state-of-the-art locker room in which to call their own. The facility includes locker rooms for both the Tigers and the visiting team, as well as a changing room for the game officials. There is also an on-site training room, a meeting room for the Tigers and offices for the LSU coaching staff.

Weight Room

Strength and conditioning can be the heart and soul of an athletic program's success, and LSU has taken great strides to improve its strength program and facilities.

LSU student-athletes enjoy one of the finest strength and conditioning facilities in the nation with a 10,000-square foot weight room located on the North side of Tiger Stadium. The weight room features the latest in both strength training and cardiovascular training equipment.

Athletic Training

LSU boasts one of the largest and most complete athletic training facilities in all of college athletics. The Dr. Martin J. Broussard Center for Athletic Training is one of the few collegiate training centers with a full service pharmacy as well as an on-site X-ray room. Focused on aggressive rehabilitation, the 23,000-square foot Broussard Center is furnished with the latest in both technology and equipment.

LSU's multi-million dollar athletic training facility is equipped with the largest hydrotherapy pools in both collegiate and professional sports, and is the only school in college athletics with a full-service vision center.

The LSU 2002 Soccer Media Guide was written to provide members of the media with statistics and information needed to adequately cover the LSU Soccer team. If you need further information on the team, pictures, or wish to set up an interview with head coach George Fotopoulos, assistant coaches Tracy Hay or Ricky Zimbrano, as well as any of the student-athletes, please contact Zac Schrieber at the LSU Sports Information Office at (225) 578-8226.

Leigh McGovern

Media Credentials should be requested at least two days prior to the game. Passes will be left at the press gate located at the entrance of the LSU Soccer Complex. All requests should be made by writing or calling Zac Schrieber at the LSU Sports Information Office, (225) 578-8226. Season passes can be requested in this manner.

Post-game interviews, including coaches and players from both teams, will be held on the field approximately 10 minutes following the game. A member of the LSU Sports Information Department will take player interview requests during the second half of the game.

Game information will be provided in the press box. Halftime statistics and complete game books will also be available.

A courtesy phone is installed in the press box for visiting radio broadcasts for Southeastern Conference teams. Other teams wishing to broadcast a game must contact Jim Hawthorne of the LSU Sports Network at (225) 578-1882.

LSU Tiger practices are open to the media. Coach George Fotopoulos and players are available for interviews following practice. Please contact Zac Schrieber to make arrangements.

SEASON OUTLOOK
OPPONENTS

RECONSTRUCTING A WINNER

As the 2002 season looms on the horizon for the LSU soccer team, the future looks bright for the Tigers under the direction of third year head coach George Fotopoulos. Fotopoulos, who is currently tied with former head coach Miriam Hickey as the program's winningest coach, owns a 22-14-3 record at LSU and became the fastest coach in Tiger history to reach 22 wins. The native of Tampa, Fla., led LSU to a 1-0 victory last season over Northwestern State to notch his 22nd win in only 32 games.

In his first season at the helm of the LSU soccer team, Fotopoulos led the Tigers to a school-best 15-6 overall record and marked the largest single-season turnaround in the program's history. Last season, with a starting lineup consisting of five freshmen, four sophomores and two juniors, the Tigers earned a 7-8-3 overall record and laid a promising foundation for the future.

"The theme for our team this year is reconstruction," said Fotopoulos. "We built a good product in our first year and then we didn't have a highly successful year last season, but without question we are reconstructing another winning team. We put in a lot of hard work during the spring, we have a great recruiting class coming in, and the addition of Ricky (Zambrano) to our staff makes the reconstruction of this team very good. We have an extremely solid foundation and I think that this team is going to be very competitive."

The extremely young, yet highly talented LSU soccer team excelled during the 2002 spring season and posted a perfect 9-0 record. The experience that the Tiger freshmen earned during the 2001 season proved to be a positive factor during the spring and with the addition of three highly anticipated recruits for the 2002 season, the LSU coaching staff is expecting to put an exciting team on the field again in the fall.

LSU's coaching staff also received a boost during the offseason with the addition of assistant coach Ricky Zambrano. Zambrano, the 1998 Florida Sun Conference Coach of the Year, joined the LSU soccer program after spending the previous four years as the head men's coach at St. Thomas University. In his highly successful tenure at St. Thomas, Zambrano accumulated a 47-30-3 overall record and led the team to Florida Sun Conference Championship titles in both 1998 and 2000.

The 2002 version of the LSU soccer team boasts nine returning starters, 17 returning lettermen and three highly touted incoming freshmen. The only significant loss from last season's starting squad that amassed a 7-8-3 overall record is the absence of forward Jennifer Craig. The Tigers' freshman from Burnaby, B.C., scored two goals and added an assist for a total of five points last season.

Even with nine returning starters, the 2002 Tigers are still one of the youngest teams in the Southeastern Conference. LSU's roster includes 12 underclassmen, six juniors and only three seniors, but despite their youth, the Tigers are much more experienced than the 2001 squad that was comprised of 27 underclassmen, seven juniors and void of seniors.

"Last year, we had a very young team and the players weren't as seasoned as we would have liked, but they gained valuable experience," said Fotopoulos. "They also went through some tough losses and they realized that it wasn't very fun. It wasn't very fun to lose and to not be competitive, so I believe that they do not want to go through a lot of the trials and tribulations that they went through last season. I'm hoping that since they experienced that last season, that their quest will be to raise the bar and not be mediocre."

With an abundance of talent returning, the 2002 LSU soccer team is looking to make a run at the Western Division title and earn its second trip to the SEC Tournament in three years.

FORWARDS

The LSU front line is expected to be highlighted by sophomore Artie Brown and junior Mandy Heintz. Brown led the Tigers in both goals and points during the 2001 season and earned Second-Team All-SEC honors. She scored eight goals and added two assists for a total of 18 points last season and was named the Louisiana Freshman of the Year. In the first collegiate competition of her career, Brown became only the fifth player in LSU history to record a hat trick as she accomplished the feat in a 5-0 win over McNeese State.

Heintz will return to the starting lineup in 2002 after scoring three goals last season. The native of San Antonio, Texas, possesses blazing speed and will not only continue to show her goal-scoring prowess, but will create scoring opportunities for her teammates in the fall.

"Obviously, if you base everything on last year, then definitely Artie Brown returns as our most recognizable forward, but I also expect a lot from Mandy Heintz," Fotopoulos said. "She (Heintz) has a lot of experience and turned in a very good spring for us. I feel very confident that Mandy possesses a great ability to both create and score goals."

LSU will also be able to boast good depth at the forward position in 2002. Freshman Christin Haman and sophomores Suzanne Drake, Stacie McDougall and Stephanie Keating will be called upon to provide key offense off of the bench this season.

Last season, McDougall provided the Tigers with two goals and an assist, while Drake played primarily at midfield and chimed in with a vital assist against Northwestern State. Fotopoulos expects both McDougall and Drake to play a bigger role in the offensive attack this season and believes that with the capability to play six talented forwards, that the Tigers will be able to provide a potent scoring attack.

MIDFIELDERS

In Fotopoulos' highly sophisticated system, the midfield proves to be the vital aspect of both the Tigers' offensive and defensive setups. Last season, the midfielders were able to maintain possession of the ball, apply constant pressure on the opposition and produce significant offensive firepower. This bodes well for the future of the LSU soccer program as the Tigers return their entire starting corps of midfielders for the 2002 season.

Sophomore Danielle Keath is expected to anchor the LSU midfield in the fall after being named the Tigers' 2001 Freshman of the Year and received Louisiana Honorable Mention accolades. She was one of only three Tigers to start in all 18 contests last season and scored two goals and added an assist.

Keath will be flanked by both Rachel Cohen and Melissa Shelton at the midfield position. Cohen, the Tigers' three year starter from Lafayette, La., started in 16 of LSU's 18 games a year ago and accumulated 13 points by scoring four goals and assisting in five. She has proved to be one of the Tigers' most consistent players and is in the top-10 in both career goals and career assists.

Shelton, the Tigers' speedy senior, possesses the quickness that it takes to be both a weapon on the offensive side of the ball as well as owning the agility to successfully lock down the opposition on defense. Last season, Shelton scored one goal and recorded two assists while seeing limited playing time in 16 of the Tigers' contests.

Juniors Kasey Dexter and Laura Klatte, as well as sophomore Julie Hadzic and freshman Leigh Culpepper will bolster an already top-notch group of midfielders for the Tigers in 2002.

These talented backups are expected to provide depth and excitement for the Tigers throughout this year's campaign.

DEFENDERS

Defenders Ashley Mitnick and Leigh McGovern define what it takes to be an LSU soccer player. The Tiger seniors will co-captain the 2002 squad and have each been a staple in LSU's starting lineup since they arrived in 1999. The pair has started in all 59 games of their collegiate careers and have accounted for 21 goals and 15 assists as defensive specialists.

"Having Ashley Mitnick and Leigh McGovern returning will definitely be a major part of the success of this team this season," said Fotopoulos. "In my opinion, this will be the first real senior class that I've had here at LSU. When you have a senior class, you have senior leadership and I think that Leigh and Ashley bring that to the table. I just feel that they want their last year to be a good year and they are going to lead by example because of that."

With Mitnick and McGovern leading the way for the Tigers in 2002, the LSU defense is anticipated to be the focal point of the team's Western Division title hopes. Add to the fact that highly anticipated freshman, Tara Mitnick, will join her sister on the back line and the Tigers' hopes of a successful season seem extremely plausible.

Joining McGovern and the Mitnick sisters on defense will be either Jenny deHay, Elizabeth Marschall or Chelsea Agar. DeHay, LSU's vigorous junior from Aiea, Hawaii, started in 14 contests a year ago, while Marschall saw limited playing time in 17 games and was included in the starting lineup three times. Marschall scored two goals and notched three assists during the 2001 campaign, while deHay recorded a vital goal against Nicholls State.

Agar, the winner of the 2001 LSU Strength and Conditioning Award, will add the necessary depth for the Tigers in 2002 as well as provide Fotopoulos with plenty of talented choices on defense.

GOALKEEPERS

The Tigers' 2002 roster boasts two extremely talented goalkeepers in sophomore Robyn DesOrmeaux and freshman Megan Jacqmin. DesOrmeaux took over the starting responsibilities from Bonnie Otilio during the latter part of last season and recorded one shutout victory in the fall and six shutouts during spring competition. She played a major role in LSU's undefeated 9-0 spring season and prospered while starting in goal.

"You can't have a good defense without good goalkeeping and I think that Robyn DesOrmeaux came on strong last year," Fotopoulos said. "Even though Bonnie Otilio had a solid year last year, I still think that Robyn put herself into a position where she can be a mainstay in goal for us. We have some good depth at the goalkeeping position as well, because Megan Jacqmin is a highly touted goalie from Dallas, Texas, and I hope that she pushes Robyn and makes her an even better keeper this season."

Jacqmin is a proven goalkeeper and has developed a habit for winning. She was the starting keeper and team captain for the nationally-ranked Solar Soccer Club for the past five years and led the team to over 20 tournament championships. LSU's abundance of skillful goaltenders will prove to be a valuable asset for the Tigers not only in 2002, but in the near future as well.

SCHEDULE

The LSU soccer program heads into its eighth year of existence in 2002 and the upcoming schedule seems to be one of the toughest yet in Tigertown. The Tigers open the season with a three game road swing against non-conference opponents in Stephen F. Austin, Miami (Fla.) and the Florida State Seminoles.

Following the season-opening road trip, LSU returns home to kick off its home schedule against Loyola (N.O.), Louisiana-Monroe and Nicholls State. In the Tigers' three game homestand, LSU will look to continue its dominance against in-state opponents. Last season, the Tigers finished with an impressive 4-0-1 record against Louisiana rivals.

On Sept. 18, LSU will travel to Lake Charles, La., for a matchup with McNeese State before returning home for three more games at the LSU Soccer Complex against Troy State, Alabama A&M and the University of Mobile. Last season, the Tigers recorded a 1-0 overtime victory over Alabama A&M on the road in Huntsville, Ala.

The month of October will begin rather treacherously for LSU, as the Tigers begin Southeastern Conference play with a four game road trip against Ole Miss, Mississippi State, Florida and South Carolina. After spending two consecutive weekends on the road, LSU returns home for conference contests against Alabama, Auburn, Vanderbilt and Kentucky. The Tigers' game versus Vanderbilt will be the first matchup since LSU upset the Commodores, 1-0, in 2000.

The Tigers will close out their 2002 regular season schedule with a game on the road against Louisiana-Lafayette and a home contest versus the Arkansas Lady'Backs. LSU fell in a heartbreaking 6-5 overtime loss against Arkansas last season in Fayetteville, Ark.

The 2002 SEC Tournament will be played at the Ole Miss Soccer Stadium in Oxford, Miss., and will consist of the top eight teams in the conference as well as many of the nation's top caliber athletes. LSU is poised to qualify for the tournament for the second time in three seasons and will attempt to win its first SEC Tournament since the team's inception in 1995.

2002 SEC WOMEN'S SOCCER TOURNAMENT

Nov. 7-10 - - Thursday-Sunday,
Oxford, Miss.

The 2002 SEC Soccer Tournament will feature the top eight teams from the slate of 12 league squads. The conference is divided into East and West regions. Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, South Carolina, Tennessee and Vanderbilt comprise the Eastern Division, while Alabama, Arkansas, Auburn, LSU, Mississippi and Mississippi State make up the Western Division. The top team from each division will be seeded one and two based on conference record. Seeds three through eight will be determined by conference winning percentage, regardless of division.

2002 NCAA WOMEN'S SOCCER TOURNAMENT

1st Round -- Wednesday, Nov. 13
Home site of the higher ranked team

2nd Round -- Nov. 16-17,
Nov. 22-24, Nov. 29-Dec. 1
TBA

Semifinals -- Friday, Dec. 6
Championship -- Sunday, Dec. 8
Austin, Texas

The NCAA will select 64 teams out of the over 280 schools which sponsor Division I women's soccer to compete in the 2002 NCAA Tournament. The following 28 conferences will receive automatic qualifications to the field: America East, Atlantic Coast, Atlantic 10, Atlantic Sun, BIG EAST, Big Sky, Big Ten, Big 12, Big South, Big West, Colonial Athletic Association, Conference USA, Horizon League, Ivy League, Metro Atlantic Athletic, Mid-American, Mid Continent, Missouri Valley, Mountain West, Northeast, Ohio Valley, Pacific-10, Patriot League, Southeastern, Southern, Southland, West Coast and Western Athletic. The remaining 36 teams will be chosen at-large based on their performance throughout the season.

The tournament's first round will be played at the home site of the higher ranked team on Wednesday, Nov. 13, with successive rounds being contested on the weekends of Nov. 16-17, Nov. 22-24 and Nov. 29-Dec. 1 at campus sites. The fourth NCAA women's College Cup will be held in Austin, Texas, with the semifinals on Friday, Dec. 6, and the championship game on Sunday, Dec. 8, at Mike A. Myers Stadium on the campus of the University of Texas.

From 2000-present, the SEC Champion will be determined by the team with the best winning percentage after the regular-season conference matches.

THE COACHES

HEAD COACH

George Fotopoulos

Third Season

LSU Record: 22-14-3

Overall Record: 42-28-4

COACHING RECORDS

Year	School	Record
1998	Tampa	9-7-1
1999	Tampa	11-7
2000	LSU	15-6
2001	LSU	7-8-3
Total	Four years	42-28-4

In only two short seasons as the head coach at LSU, George Fotopoulos has built the Tigers into one of the South's fastest-rising soccer programs. During his inaugural season at the helm of the LSU soccer program in 2000, Fotopoulos led the Tigers to a school-record 15 wins and a Southeastern Conference Tournament berth. With an overall record of 15-6, the Tigers posted their first winning season since 1996 and the 10-game turnaround earned the Tigers the title of Most Improved Team in the NCAA Division I.

Last season, LSU finished with an overall record of 7-8-1 on the year despite boasting a roster full of underclassmen and six freshmen starters. With arguably the Tigers' best recruiting class of all-time gaining valuable experience against the tough SEC competition last season, Fotopoulos and his knowledgeable coaching staff have built a solid foundation for the future.

By picking up 22 wins in his first two seasons at LSU, Fotopoulos has already etched his name in the record book. Last year, Fotopoulos tied former Tiger head coach Miriam Hickey as the winningest soccer coach in LSU history as the Tigers defeated Northwestern State on the road in Natchitoches, La. With the 1-0 win, Fotopoulos became the fastest coach in LSU history to earn 22 victories. The second-year head coach reached the milestone in only his 29th game at the helm of the Tigers.

LSU's third-year head coach has made it his goal to instill a winning attitude in the Tigers and he has already been successful in that category. He expects only the best from his athletes and gives them the same. His name and reputation in the soccer world allows him to recruit some of the nation's top athletes and has helped him turn the LSU program around. The Tigers represent seven different states this season and Fotopoulos has proven that he is also concerned about recruiting the top players from Louisiana and has eight of the top players from the state.

Fotopoulos came to LSU after accumulating a 20-14-1 record in two seasons at Division II Tampa. In 1998, he directed a first-year Tampa program to a 9-7-1 record and turned the Spartans into a nationally competitive program in just their second year of existence. Tampa finished 11-7 in Fotopoulos' final season.

A 1992 graduate of the University of Tampa, Fotopoulos played forward for the Spartans for two years after transferring from Old Dominion. He was named First-Team All-Sunshine State Conference twice and as a senior, was voted the NSCAA National Field Player of the Year in 1992 after leading the Spartans to the Division II national championship game.

Following his collegiate career at Tampa, he continued his playing career in the professional ranks with the APSL Tampa Bay Rowdies. He then went on to compete internationally with AEK of Tripoli in the Greek second division in 1993. His professional playing experience also includes a stint with the New Orleans Riverboat Gamblers in 1994.

Fotopoulos began coaching on the high school level in his native-Tampa, serving as head coach of the boy's soccer team at Tampa Catholic from 1993-97. During the 1996 season he also rejoined the collegiate ranks as an assistant for the University of Tampa men's program and served in that capacity for two seasons before the inception of women's soccer at Tampa in 1998. Heavily involved in club soccer in the state of Florida, he directed the Tampa Bay Heather soccer club to United States Youth Soccer Association (USYSA) national championships in the Under-19 and Under-20 age divisions. Fotopoulos placed over 125 Florida youth players on college teams.

Fotopoulos was heavily involved with the Florida Olympic Development Program throughout the 1990's. In 1997, he was named Director of Women's Soccer for the state of Florida. He has a United States Soccer Federation (U.S.S.F.) "A" license, the highest level a coach can receive.

His wife, Danielle, owns the NCAA record for career points (284) and career goals (118), men or women, spending two years at SMU and then two at Florida. Danielle helped the Gators to the 1998 NCAA title, scoring the lone goal in Florida's shocking 1-0 upset of perennial power North Carolina and was named the National Player of the Year.

In the summer of 1999, she was a member of the United States women's World Cup team that brought home the championship with a thrilling shootout victory over China to cap a run that captured the hearts of a nation.

She has since become a respected color analyst on women's soccer broadcasts and served in that capacity for ESPN's coverage of the NCAA women's Final Four.

Danielle now plays professionally for the Carolina Courage of the Women's United Soccer Association. Fotopoulos' first child, Alexia, was born on November 18, 2000.

ASSISTANT COACH

Tracy Hay

Third Season

A large amount of LSU's recent success can be attributed to the Tigers' exuberant assistant coach, Tracy Hay. Hay is nationally known for both her hard work and dedication as both a top-notch collegiate player and assistant coach. Her competitive spirit helped her to reach the pinnacle of her playing career and has rubbed off on the Tigers during her three years in Baton Rouge.

Hay's knowledge of the game and the emotion with which she coaches has helped make LSU more devoted to winning than ever before. In her first season as LSU's assistant coach, Hay helped guide the Tigers to a school-record 15-6 overall mark and the team's third trip to the Southeastern Conference Tournament.

Entering her third full season as the assistant women's soccer coach, Hay continues to be a catalyst for the Tigers' recent success. Hay has worked hard to instill the desire to win into the Tigers, and has led by example with her tremendous athletic ability.

With her specialty being defense, Hay assisted George Fotopoulos in crafting one of the best defenses in the history of the LSU soccer program.

The Tigers allowed only 22 goals during the 2000 season and that number proved to be the least amount of goals allowed in the SEC.

Hay came to LSU in the spring of 2000 after serving as a volunteer assistant coach at the University of Texas at Dallas for a season. She played collegiate soccer for the Florida Gators under her maiden name, Tracy Ward, and was a member of three SEC championship squads. She was a starting defender on the 1998 NCAA championship team for the Gators and was a three-time member of the SEC Academic Honor Roll. Hay received the Gator Soccer Award for her excellent performance both on and off the field in 1998.

The Tampa native also played competitively for the Tampa Town N' Country Heather club team which won National Championships in both 1995 and 1996. Hay has also been a member of the Florida Olympic Development Program since 1992.

Hay grew up in Tampa, Fla., and graduated from St. Petersburg High School in 1995. She earned a bachelor's degree in zoology from Florida in 1999.

Active in her community, Hay received the Gator Community Service Award in 1997. On Aug. 4, 2000, she was married to Bumper Hay in Florida and the couple is anxiously awaiting the birth of their first child. The baby is expected to be born in July of 2002.

ASSISTANT COACH

Ricky Zambrano

First Season

1998 Florida Sun Conference Coach of the Year

The most recent addition to the LSU coaching staff is the highly talented assistant coach, Ricky Zambrano. Zambrano was named an assistant coach by the LSU Athletic Department in early February of 2002, after heading the men's team at St. Thomas University for the previous four seasons.

In his highly-successful tenure at St. Thomas, Zambrano accumulated a 47-30-3 overall record and led the team to Florida Sun Conference Championship titles in both 1998 and 2000.

"By adding Ricky to our staff, I think that we definitely found the missing piece to the puzzle," said LSU head coach George Fotopoulos. "He has a great coaching background and his experience as a head soccer coach will be vital to our team. He'll be a great asset for our program in both the recruiting and planning aspects of our team."

St. Thomas finished the season ranked among the NAIA's top-25 teams in three of Zambrano's four seasons and in 2000 he piloted the Bobcats to a No. 5 ranking in the NAIA national poll. Zambrano garnered numerous coaching honors at St. Thomas and was named the Florida Sun Conference Co-Coach of the Year in 1998.

"We're very excited to get Ricky," Fotopoulos said. "He will not only be a great addition to the soccer program, but he will be an outstanding addition to the LSU Athletic Department as a whole."

Zambrano's energy and love for the game of soccer has already helped revitalize the Lady Tigers' practices in his three months as an assistant coach. He has also had a positive influence on the LSU soccer program through his organizational abilities and as a link between the team and the Sports Information Office.

Prior to becoming the head men's soccer coach at St. Thomas, Zambrano served as the team's assistant coach from 1995-98. He also honed his coaching skills by leading the Region III team in the United States Soccer Federation Minority Program and by coaching the U-18 Strike Force S.C. team. Zambrano was also a staff coach member for the Florida Youth Soccer Association.

Zambrano earned his bachelor of arts degree in sports administration from St. Thomas University in 1996 and then received his master's of science degree in management in the spring of 2000.

The 2001 version of the LSU soccer team finished the season with the program's fifth highest win total despite consistently starting five freshmen and owning a roster void of seniors. Second-year head coach George Fotopoulos led the Tigers to a 7-8-3 overall record during the 2001 season and became the fastest LSU soccer coach to reach 22 victories in the seven years of the program's existence.

Fotopoulos, who led the Tigers to a school-record 15-6 mark during his inaugural season in Baton Rouge, tied former LSU head coach Miriam Hickey as the Tigers' all-time win leader with a 1-0 win over Northwestern State on Oct. 10, 2001. With the road victory, Fotopoulos upped his LSU win total to 22-13-1.

The Tigers jumped out to a brilliant start in the 2001 season by blanking McNeese State, 5-0, at home at the newly-renovated LSU Soccer Complex. In the season-opening victory, LSU's highly-touted freshman, Artie Brown, notched a hat trick in the first contest of her collegiate career. She became only the fifth Tiger in LSU history to record a hat trick and finished the season as the Tigers' leading scorer with eight goals and 18 points.

Brown, LSU's first freshman to lead the team in scoring since teammate Leigh McGovern did it in 1999, earned numerous accolades for her offensive abilities throughout the season. She garnered Second-Team All-

Southeastern Conference honors, was named the 2001 Louisiana Freshman of the Year, earned First-Team All-Louisiana honors and was awarded the LSU Offensive Most Valuable Player title. Her three-goal performance against McNeese State in the season opener jump-started her LSU career and showcased her offensive prowess.

LSU started its SEC schedule early during the 2001 campaign as the Tigers hosted the 16th-ranked Florida Gators in only their second contest of the young season. In front of the 10th largest crowd in LSU history (490), Florida gained a 1-0 lead in the contest on a demoralizing goal by Kelley Visentin that came 52 seconds before the half. Florida, the eventual SEC Champions and Final Four contenders, built on the added momentum and went on to notch two more goals during the second half to earn a 3-0 victory.

Despite the loss, Coach Fotopoulos was reassured by the way that his extremely young team performed and was encouraged by the way that they didn't back down from the Gators.

"This team has definitely come a long way in a year," said Fotopoulos. "The last time we faced Florida we got beat 11-0, and tonight we competed with them and gave them a good game. Overall, I think that we're going to take a lot from this game and we're going to have to take the positive with the negative. It was respectable, and if you ask Florida, they would say that this was the best LSU team that they have ever played."

The Tigers did indeed take a lot from their game against Florida and went on to shutout Louisiana-Lafayette, 3-0, before traveling to Mobile, Ala., for a non-conference battle with the South Alabama Jaguars. In the first road contest of more than half of LSU's roster, the Tigers were edged by the Jaguars, 2-1, in front of 151 fans on the campus of South Alabama.

After the heartbreaking loss and the heartbreaking events of Sept. 11, the Tigers returned home to Baton Rouge to play a weekend series against both Nicholls State and Auburn-Montgomery. LSU continued its domination over Louisiana challengers in the Friday contest, as the Tigers recorded a third-straight shutout versus an in-state rival by beating Nicholls State, 3-0. LSU then upped its overall record on the season to 4-2 by earning a come-from-behind victory over Auburn-Montgomery on Sunday. Auburn-Montgomery held a 1-0 lead at the half before the Tigers exploded for four unanswered goals in the second portion of the game to win their second straight contest.

LSU then tied Louisiana-Monroe, 2-2, and defeated Alabama A&M in overtime, 1-0, to take some momentum into the heart of its SEC schedule.

Against Ole Miss, the team that narrowly edged out LSU for first place in the SEC Western Division in 2000, the Tigers rallied for an easy 3-0 victory in front of a raucous 424 fans at the LSU Soccer Complex. LSU's fifth shutout win of the season proved to be the team's most impressive performance of the year and gave Fotopoulos a brief glimpse of what his team was capable of doing. With the three-goal margin, LSU earned its biggest goal margin in an SEC game since beating Arkansas, 4-0, on Oct. 25, 1998, in Baton Rouge.

2001 SEASON REVIEW

In the following game, Mississippi State turned the tables on the young LSU squad and handed the Tigers their second SEC shutout loss of the season. The 2-0 defeat at the hands of the eventual SEC Western Division co-champions dropped LSU to an overall record of 6-3-1. Mississippi State and Auburn finished the season with identical 5-4 records in SEC play to earn a share of the Western Division title.

The scheduling gods were pitted against the Tigers during the 2001 season, as LSU was forced to play seven of its final eight contests on the road. After defeating Northwestern State, 1-0, in Natchitoches, La., and recording a 4-4 draw at home versus South Carolina, LSU was mired in hectic weekend travel situations for the last six games of the season.

Playing on the road against tough SEC opponents proved to be a difficult task for LSU as the Tigers were held scoreless in their next three contests. Against the Alabama Crimson Tide in Tuscaloosa, Ala., the teams fought to a scoreless draw in front of 668 fans at the Alabama Soccer Complex. In the second half of play, LSU's junior goalkeeper, Bonnie Otilio, recorded six saves and forced the overtime period by holding the Crimson Tide scoreless on numerous scoring attempts. Alabama fired off 10 shots in the period, while the Tigers were held to four. Otilio finished with her fifth shutout of the season.

LSU's road woes continued against both Auburn and Georgia. The Tigers were blanked 2-0 by Auburn and then 5-0 by Georgia. After being shutout by both Auburn and Georgia, LSU traveled to Knoxville, Tenn., to face a talented Tennessee Volunteer team. On Oct. 28, the Volunteers scored two early goals within 37 seconds of each other to pull out to a demanding lead. The Tigers' lone goal of the contest came at 78:22 when Brown collected an errant Tennessee pass and motored down the field to cut the Lady Vols lead to 2-1. Tennessee tacked on a late goal to end the contest with a 3-1 victory.

The Tigers entered their final weekend of the regular season with a 7-6-3 overall record and with road matches scheduled against both the Arkansas Ladybacks and the seventh-ranked Texas Longhorns. LSU tied its 2001 season scoring record versus Arkansas with five goals, but the Tigers lost in heartbreaking fashion, 6-5, on Jennifer Bashear's game-winning goal in overtime. The devastating loss proved to be LSU's lone overtime defeat of the season.

In Austin, Texas, the Tigers challenged the No. 7-ranked Longhorns in a season-ending, non-conference contest at the Mike A. Myers Stadium and Soccer Field. Despite giving up an early first-half goal, the Tigers regrouped and played strenuous defense for the remainder of the period to head into halftime trailing, 1-0. The Longhorns had several scoring opportunities in the first half, but their attempts were thwarted by outstanding defensive efforts from LSU's Ashley Mitnick, Leigh McGovern and goalkeeper Robyn Desormeaux.

Desormeaux, the Tigers' red-shirt freshman from Carencro, La., recorded two saves in the opening half of play and faced five Texas shots in the period. The start was only the third of Desormeaux's collegiate career and she finished the game with a career-high seven saves. Texas added three goals late in the second period to end the Tigers' season with an overall record of 7-8-1.

Despite ending with a losing record, the experience gained by the young and extremely talented LSU team during the 2001 dual season will prove to be a valuable asset for the Tigers in the near future.

LSU ACADEMICS

The LSU women's soccer program, under the tutelage of third-year head coach George Fotopolous, strives for excellence both on and off the field. Last season, six Tigers were named to the Southeastern Conference Academic Honor Roll and improved LSU's total number of honorees to 44 since the program's inception in 1995.

Senior Leigh McGovern led the way for the Tigers in 2001 by earning her second-straight Academic All-SEC honor for her tremendous work towards a degree in kinesiology. Coach Fotopolous, along with the entire LSU Athletic Department, realizes that in a student-athletes life, the player is a student first and an athlete second.

ACADEMIC SUCCESS

The LSU women's soccer program, under the tutelage of third-year head coach George Fotopolous, strives for excellence both on and off the field. Last season, eight Tigers were named to the Southeastern Conference Academic Honor Roll and improved LSU's total number of honorees to 38 since the program's inception in 1995.

Senior Sarah Gilbert led the way for the Tigers in 2000 by earning her third-straight Academic All-SEC honor for her tremendous work in achieving a degree in elementary education. Coach Fotopolous, along with the entire LSU Athletic Department, realizes that in a student-athletes life, the player is a student first and an athlete second.

Academic Center for Student-Athletes

Critical to the development of an athlete as a student is an adequate academic facility and capable staff to further the athlete's progress. The Academic Center for Student-Athletes is responsible for overseeing the educational development and progress toward graduation for all student-athletes. The staff acts as a liaison between the athlete and the academic communities and insures that student-athletes comply with academic rules established by the University, NCAA and SEC. The staff also coordinates academic programs designed to assist student-athletes in acquiring a quality education.

Services

- Tutoring
- Career Counseling and Development
- Time Management
- Study Skills
- Insure that student-athletes comply with academic rules established by the University, NCAA and SEC

The Goal

For each student-athlete to reach and receive the highest-quality education and degree.

The Responsibility

To oversee the educational development and progress toward graduation for all student-athletes.

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

Strength and conditioning can be the heart and soul of an athletic program's success, and LSU has taken great strides to improve its strength program and facilities.

LSU offers a diversified staff of professionals to train and condition Tiger athletes in all 20 men's and women's sports.

LSU athletes saw improvement of the weight facilities in the summer of 1997 and now enjoy one of the finest strength and conditioning facilities in the nation with a new 10,000 square foot weight room within Tiger Stadium.

The new weight room, a state-of-the-art facility, features the latest in both strength training and cardiovascular training equipment.

ATHLETIC TRAINING CENTER

Dr. Martin J. Broussard Center for Athletic Training

LSU completed construction on the new Center for Athletic Training in July, 1998. The 23,000 square-foot, multi-level training facility puts LSU among the finest in the nation in athletic training.

The Center for Athletic Training enables LSU to regain the position of athletic training leadership in the Southeastern Conference which it enjoyed when Dr. Marty Broussard served as head trainer for several decades. In his honor, the new facility is named the Dr. Martin J. Broussard Center for Athletic Training.

Focused on aggressive rehabilitation, the new facility is furnished with the latest in technology and equipment. Some distinguishing features of the training facility include a large aquatic rehab area, an on-grounds x-ray facility, a networked computer system featuring the latest in medical record-keeping and injury tracking, physician examination rooms and a pharmacy.

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS SKIP BERTMAN

Already a Louisiana Legend and one of the greatest college baseball coaches of all time, J. Stanley "Skip" Bertman augmented his impressive list of achievements in his first season as LSU's director of athletics. While supervising the Tigers' magnificent progress on the playing fields, he began to implement measures necessary to realize his vision of building the LSU athletics department into the best in the country. Bertman's bold and innovative plans promise to keep the Tigers among the nation's elite in all phases of collegiate athletics.

LSU's programs enjoyed remarkable success under Bertman's direction in 2001-02, as 18 of the Tigers' 20 sports participated in post-season competition. That accomplishment, along with improved graduation rates, increased team grade point averages and the construction of new academic facilities, foreshadow even more significant deeds in the second season of Bertman's tenure.

Bertman was named LSU's athletics director on January 19, 2001. With Bertman, LSU gained an athletics director who provides the leadership and experience necessary to manage the Tigers' nearly $35 million budget.

Bertman guided LSU to five NCAA baseball titles, and his teams drew huge crowds to venerable Alex Box Stadium, as the Tigers led the nation in attendance in each of his final six seasons (1996-2001).

He also served as head coach of the 1996 U.S. Olympic team which captured the bronze medal in Atlanta.

Bertman continues to be honored for his remarkable coaching tenure, as he was inducted in June, 2002, into the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame. He is scheduled to be inducted into the American Baseball Coaches Association Hall of Fame in January, 2003.

In a Baseball America poll released in January, 1999, Bertman was voted the second greatest college baseball coach of the 20th century, trailing only Rod Dedeaux of Southern California. Bertman and Dedeaux are the only coaches to win five CWS titles.

He had previously earned stellar recognition as one of the nation's brightest assistant coaches while at the University of Miami (Fla.) for eight seasons (1976-83). Before working at Miami, Bertman was renowned for his coaching excellence. In 11 seasons at Miami Beach High School, he directed the Hi-Tides to a state championship and two runners-up finishes. He was named Florida's Coach of the Year on three occasions.

In 1975, Bertman coached at Miami-Dade Downtown, leaving after one season to join legendary head coach Ron Fraser at Miami. The move was a homecoming of sorts, as Bertman spent his collegiate playing days with the Hurricanes as an outfielder and catcher from 1958-60. He earned his B.A. in health and physical education from Miami in 1961 and received his master's degree from UM in 1964.

Bertman and his wife Sandy are the parents of four daughters -- Jan, Jodi, Lisa and Lori. The Bertmans have two grandchildren -- Sophie Faith and Isaac Stanley, the children of Emile and Lori Bertman Guirard.

THE BERTMAN Legacy

Bertman's unyielding desire to succeed drove him to the pinnacle of his profession, and his astute knowledge of the game -- obtained from over 40 years of coaching -- combined with his steadfast determination and irrepressible enthusiasm transformed LSU Baseball into the nation's premier program.
