

Auburn at LSU final notes

October 26, 2019; Tiger Stadium, Baton Rouge, La.

- >> Captains: Derrick Brown, Marlon Davidson, Jeremiah Dinson, Daniel Thomas
- >> Coin Toss: LSU wins the toss and defers. Auburn will receive
- >> Attendance: 102,160

TEAM NOTES

- >> First-time starters for Auburn: Roger McCreary, Jamien Sherwood
- >> Auburn has scored in 88 consecutive games, the second-longest streak in school history
- >> Auburn scored first for the fourth game this season
- >> The Auburn defense has allowed only four first-quarter touchdowns this season, none today
- >> Auburn has held the opponent scoreless in 12 quarters this season, including the first quarter today; it was only the second quarter this season LSU was held scoreless
- >> Auburn held LSU to only 47 total yards in the first quarter, the second lowest total for the Auburn defense in the first quarter this year (Arkansas had 35)

INDIVIDUAL NOTES/OFFENSE

- >> Sophomore Seth Williams is the 28th player in Auburn history with more than 1,000 career receiving yards; he now has 1,057 career yards on 55 receptions
- >> Bo Nix scores his fourth rushing touchdown of the season
- >> Nix' TD pass to Seth Williams was Nix' 12th touchdown pass of the season. It was Williams' eighth touchdown catch of the season and 13th of his career
- >> D.J. Williams' 70-yard rush was a career long; the freshman records his first 100-yard rushing performance with today's 130-yard rushing total
- >> Kam Martin now has 1,491 career rushing yards, making him 31st on the Auburn career rushing list
- >> JaTarvious Whitlow now has 1,340 career rushing yards, making him 38th on the Auburn career rushing list

INDIVIDUAL NOTES/DEFENSE

- >> Javaris Davis (10), Jamien Sherwood (10), Roger McCreary (10) and Owen Pappoe (7) each recorded career highs in tackles; Jeremiah Dinson (15) tied his career high
- >> Jeremiah Dinson's forced fumble was the second of his career; Jamien Sherwood records his first career fumble recovery
- >> Roger McCreary records his first career interception
- >> Jeremiah Dinson and Daniel Thomas each recorded his third career game with double-figure tackles

INDIVIDUAL NOTES/SPECIAL TEAMS

- >> Anders Carlson's two field goals today make him 10-12 on field goal attempts this season; this is the eighth game of his career where Carlson has made multiple field goals in a game
- >> Shaun Shivers' 27-yard kickoff return was a career long
- >> Noah Igbinoghene's 32-yard kickoff return was his longest of the season
- >> Arryn Siposs' 55-yard punt was a season long; his 10 punts today were the most he's had in a game