LES MILES

2011 NATIONAL COACH OF THE YEAR

2011 SEC COACH OF THE YEAR

In seven years under head coach Les Miles, LSU football has established itself as the benchmark program in college football. Whether it's winning games on Saturdays during the fall, graduating student-athletes or players doing good things in the community, LSU football has flourished under Miles. Now as he enters his eighth season with the Tigers, Miles and LSU stand at the forefront of college football, serving as the model for which other programs strive.

Seven-Year Run

Since taking over at LSU in 2005, Les Miles has guided the Tigers to the best seven-year run in school history. With 75 victories, LSU has won more games than any team in the nation's toughest conference - the SEC - while claiming two league titles and reaching the BCS National Championship Game twice.

No. 1

LSU spent a school-record 11 consecutive weeks as the nation's No. 1 team in 2011. Miles is only the second coach in school history to guide the Tigers to a No. 1 ranking in two different seasons.

NFL Draft Picks

Under Miles, LSU has had 42 players selected in the NFL Draft, including 10 in the first round. The 42 draft picks represent the most in the SEC and ranks No. 2 nationally.

Bowl Bound

Les Miles is the only coach in LSU history to lead the Tigers to a bowl game in seven consecutive years. Under Miles, the Tigers are 5-2 in bowl games, playing in three BCS bowls.

13-0

LSU posted the first 13-0 regular season in school history in 2011 as the Tigers beat eight Top 25 teams and won all but one game by double-figures in what has been called one of the most dominating seasons in the BCS era.

152

LSU ranks No. 2 in the SEC behind only Vanderbilt in the most recent release of graduation rates. Under Miles, LSU has graduated 152 players, with 87 of its 109 seniors getting their degree since the 2007 season.

TOP 5

In seven years under Miles, LSU has finished the year ranked in the top five nationally four times, including No. 1 in 2007 and No. 2 in 2011. LSU was ranked No. 3 in 2006 and ranked No. 5 in 2005. Miles is the only coach in school history to lead the Tigers to top 5 finishes four times.

10

Since 2005, LSU has had players win 10 national awards and earn 16 first team All-America honors. LSU set a school record in 2011 with five first team All-Americans.

STAND RIGHT UP AND ROAR

In 2012-13, LSU will unite across all athletic fronts to deliver a simple, yet powerful message - Stand Right Up and Roar. This phrase, derived from lyrics of the LSU Fight Song "Hey Fighting Tigers", will serve as the rallying point for all LSU fans. Whether it's watching the football team in Tiger Stadium, buying season tickets for the women's basketball team or purchasing a souvenir from the LSU SportsShop, LSU fans can Stand Right Up and Roar and support the Tigers no matter the location or the occasion. So Tiger fans, this is your call, Stand Right Up and Roar and let's make this year another great season in the tradition-rich history of LSU Athletics.

Credentials

Credentials for LSU home games are issued to working media only. Because of severe space limitations and demand, the deadline for all season credential requests is Aug. 14. Individual game credentials must be requested two (2) weeks prior to the date of the game.

Game Notes

Media and fans can access the current media guide, updated statistics and game notes all in one location at www.LSUsports.net/media. Each category is updated daily throughout the season.

Images

Members of the media can obtain photos on all LSU coaches and athletes as well as official LSU logos on the Internet at <http://media.lsusports.net>. The site features head shots and action shots of all LSU's football players. The site will be updated weekly throughout football season. To gain access to the database, please contact Michael Bonnette in the LSU Sports Information Department for a login and password.

Center P.J. Loneragan

The LSU Offense

LSU returns six starters - including four on the offensive line - and its top four running backs from last year's squad that won the Southeastern Conference title and spent 11 weeks ranked No. 1 in nation. A year ago, LSU tied a school-record with 35 rushing touchdowns as the Tigers used a powerful running game to dominate most of its opponents. LSU won all but one game by double-figures in 2011 as the Tigers took advantage of its efficiency on offense to overwhelm the opposition. LSU ranked second in the nation in turnover margin, converted on 45 percent on their third-down opportunities and ranked fourth in the nation in redzone chances by scoring on 57-of-61 opportunities (44 TDs, 13 FGs) on its way to scoring 40 or more points a school-record nine times a year ago. LSU capped the year averaging 35.7 points and 355.1 total yards per game (202.6 rushing, 152.5 passing) on its way going 13-1 overall and reaching the BCS National Championship Game for the third time in school history. With the departure of senior quarterbacks Jarrett Lee and Jordan Jefferson, LSU turns the offense over to junior Zach Mettenberger in 2012. Mettenberger will have the luxury of playing behind an offensive line that has a combined 102 starts between them and with a stable of running backs that combined for 2,438 yards and 30 touchdowns a year ago. The Tigers also return two of their top four receivers from a year ago in Odell Beckham Jr. and Russell Shepard giving LSU a chance for more big play opportunities in the passing game.

Quarterback Zach Mettenberger

Quarterbacks

Zach Mettenberger (6-5, 225, Jr.), a junior college All-America in 2010, is the only quarterback on the roster with game experience for the Tigers as the junior played in five contests a year ago, all in a backup role. In what action he did see, Mettenberger showed the ability to both run (25-yard rush vs. Ole Miss) and pass (19-yard TD vs. Northwestern State), while also displaying the traits necessary to win in the SEC. Mettenberger used the spring to establish himself as a leader on offense, taking charge in the huddle and gaining the confidence of his teammates. Mettenberger will be backed up by a pair of redshirt freshmen in Stephen Rivers (6-7, 225, Fr.-RS) and Jerrard Randall (6-1, 180, Fr.-RS). Rivers, the younger brother of San Diego Chargers starting quarterback Phillip Rivers, has gained over 30 pounds since enrolling at LSU and has a big arm with nice accuracy. Randall has displayed the ability to make plays with both his arm and his feet and could be called on to help the Tigers with quarterback runs.

Running Backs

The Tigers return their top four rushers from a year ago led by Michael Ford (5-10, 215, Jr.-2L) and Spencer Ware (5-11, 223, Jr.-2L), who rushed for 756 and 707 yards, respectively. Ware got the bulk of the starts (10) for the Tigers in 2011 with Ford starting three times and Alfred Blue (6-2, 215, Jr.-2L) once. Blue added 539 yards and seven TDs, while Kenny Hilliard emerged late in the year as a powerful back and tied for team-high honors along with Ware with eight touchdowns. The foursome accounted for 30 rushing touchdowns as they become the first group of running backs in school history to finish a season with at least seven rushing touchdowns each. Newcomer Jeremy Hill (6-2, 225, Fr.-HS) and sophomore Terrence Magee (5-9, 212, So.-SQ) add depth to what his perhaps the deepest and talented backfield in school history.

Fullback

The fullback plays a prominent role in the LSU offense and wrecking ball J.C. Copeland (6-1, 280, Jr.-1L) provides the Tigers with the perfect disposition for the spot. A converted defensive lineman, Copeland can be seen on film taking on defensive tackles or linebackers with ease, opening holes for the Tiger running game. Copeland played in all 14 games in 2011, starting four times. He will be counted on for the bulk of the fullback responsibilities after sharing snaps with departed senior James Stampley last year. Connor Neighbors (5-10, 233, So.-SQ) will backup Copeland at the position.

Tight End

Just as the fullback plays a key role in the Tiger offense, so does that of the tight end as LSU likes to mix and match personnel at the position depending on the situation. LSU will go at least four-deep at tight end in 2012 with senior Chase Clement (6-5, 251, Sr.-3L) and Nic Jacobs (6-5, 253, So.-SQ) topping the depth chart going into the fall. Clement gives the Tigers a devastating blocker at the position but is also someone who has shown to be an asset in the passing game. Clement caught seven passes for 96 yards and one TD a year ago. Jacobs has all of the physical tools to excel at tight end for the Tigers, all he lacks is game experience which should come his way early in 2012. Senior Tyler Edwards (6-4, 235, Sr.-3L) and sophomore Travis Dickson (6-3, 230, So.-SQ) will both see action in 2012 and give the Tigers quality depth at the position. Edwards and Dickson are both younger brothers of former LSU starting tight ends - Eric Edwards, who was on the 2003 national championship team and Richard Dickson, who played on the 2007 national title squad.

Offensive Line

Perhaps the most experienced and talented unit on the field for the Tigers in 2012 will be that of the offensive line as LSU returns five players who have combined for 102 starts, including three players with at least 24 career starts to their credit. Sixth-year senior Josh Dworaczky (6-6, 301, Sr.-3L), who missed all of last season with a knee injury, leads the team with 26 starts, all coming at left guard. Dworaczky, who was granted a sixth year by the NCAA during the spring, is 100 percent and goes into the fall in a battle with La'el Collins (6-5, 320, So.-SQ) for the starting spot. Senior P.J. Lonergan (6-4, 305, Sr.-3L) returns as LSU's center after starting there 11 times in 2012. Lonergan has 25 career starts at center and gives the Tigers a combination of power and smarts at the position. Lonergan will be backed up by Elliott Porter (6-4, 278, So.-SQ), who did not play last year. Porter was moved to center during the spring, showing immediate promise, and will likely see action at that spot in 2012. Josh Williford (6-7, 324, Jr.-2L) returns as LSU's starter at right guard, although he can play on either side of the center. Williford, the biggest of LSU's linemen, has 13 career starts to his credit, 12 coming at right guard and one at left guard. Williford will be backed up by Trai Turner (6-2, 332, Fr.-RS). LSU's two tackles - Chris Faulk (6-6, 325, Jr.-2L) and Alex Hurst (6-6, 340, Sr.-3L) - are considered among the best in the SEC and they provide the Tigers consistency on the line. Faulk, a second-team All-SEC pick in 2011, started all but one game at left tackle last year. He has all of the tools necessary - size, power, knowledge, footwork - to play at the next level. Chris Davenport (6-4, 320, Jr.-SQ), a converted defensive tackle, will backup Faulk at left tackle. Hurst, a first-team All-SEC pick in 2011, has started 24 games at right tackle over the last two seasons for the Tigers and will go down as one of the best at his position in school history. A pair of freshmen in Jonah Austin (6-6, 322, Fr.-RS) and Vadal Alexander (6-6, 315, Fr.-HS) will backup Hurst at right tackle.

The LSU Defense

Despite losing a pair of first round draft picks in cornerback Morris Claiborne and defensive tackle Michael Brockers, LSU's defense should be every bit as good as it was in 2011 when the Tigers ranked among the top five in the nation in four categories. Now in its fourth season under coordinator John Chavis, the Tiger defense appears to be deeper and talented as ever with the return of six starters, including a pair of first team All-Americans in defensive end Sam Montgomery and cornerback Tyrann Mathieu. In 2011, LSU rode its outstanding defense to a 13-0 regular season record and a berth in the national championship game. The Tigers capped the year ranked in the nation's top five in four key categories: total defense (No. 2 at 261.5 yards per game), scoring defense (No. 2 at 11.3 points per game), pass efficiency defense (No. 3 with a 95.6 rating) and rushing defense (No. 5 at 90.1 yards per game). The Tigers scored five defensive TDs in 2011 and held opponents to only six first half touchdowns all season. LSU also forced 30 turnovers and registered 39 sacks on its way to becoming one of the most productive defenses in school history. The Tigers are expected to use the same approach in 2012, using the speed and power of its line along with a talented group of playmakers in the secondary that should once again make the defense the cornerstone to LSU's success.

Cornerback Tyrann Mathieu

Defensive Ends

Two of the most productive defensive ends in school history return in 2012 as Sam Montgomery (6-4, 260, Jr.-2L) and Barkevious Mingo (6-5, 240, Jr.-2L) are back after having breakout seasons in 2011. Montgomery, a first team All-America, led the Tigers with 9.0 sacks and was second to Mingo in tackles for loss with 13.5. Mingo, who resembles a hybrid linebacker, can play with his hand in the dirt or standing up and gives the Tigers a player with an explosive first-step at the line of scrimmage. Mingo led the Tigers with 15.0 tackles for loss in 2011 to go along with 8.0 sacks. Chancey Aghayere (6-4, 279, Sr.-3L), Lavar Edwards (6-5, 264, Sr.-3L) and Jermauria Rasco (6-3, 225, So.-1L) will all be among the rotation at behind Montgomery and Mingo at defensive end for the Tigers.

Defensive Tackles

A year ago, Michael Brockers burst onto the scene as a little-known defensive tackle and made an immediate impact, eventually being selected in the first round of the NFL Draft. Now it's Bennie Logan's (6-3, 287, Jr.-2L) turn as the second-year starter assumes the role as the leader up front for the Tigers after having a breakout season in 2011 when he finished with 57 tackles, 6.5 tackles for loss and 3.0 sacks. Logan is dominating at the point of attack and has the size and power to battle down-after-down in the trenches. Anthony Johnson (6-3, 294, So.-1L) will line up alongside Logan at the other tackle position, giving the Tigers a powerful 1-2 punch in the middle. Two other players with plenty of experience - Josh Downs (6-1, 287, Sr.-3L) and Ego Ferguson (6-3, 283, So.-1L) will be in the playing time rotation at tackle for the Tigers.

Linebackers

If there was a weakness last year on defense for the Tigers, it was at linebacker where the Tigers were forced to use a pair of converted safeties in the rotation. One of the bright spots at linebacker for the Tigers last year was Kevin Minter (6-2, 242, Jr.-2L), who took over in the middle and responded with 61 tackles in his first season as a starter. Minter, who is an every down player, is a hard-hitter who has a knack for finding the football. D.J. Welter (6-0, 226, So.-SQ) and rookie Trey Granier (6-1, 225, Fr.-HS) are slated to backup Minter in the middle. On the outside, Tahj Jones (6-2, 205, Jr.-2L) is coming off a great spring and emerged as the starter at Sam linebacker. Luke Muncie (6-3, 220, Jr.-2L) or Lamin Barrow (6-2, 229, Jr.-2L) will be the starter at the Will linebacker spot.

Cornerback

When you think of playmakers on defense, Tyrann Mathieu (5-9, 175, Jr.-2L) has to be the first name to come to mind. In just two years with the Tigers, Mathieu has established himself as a takeaway artist, creating 14 turnovers (8 fumble recoveries, 4 interceptions, 2 forced fumbles recovered by teammate), while leading the Tigers in tackles in 2011 with 76 stops. Mathieu, a Heisman Trophy finalist and National Defensive Player of the Year in 2011, is listed as a cornerback, but he roams the field looking for play-making opportunities. He's scored four touchdowns in two years, two on fumble returns and the other two on punt returns making him one of college football's most dynamic players. Tharold Simon (6-3, 187, Jr.-2L) will line up opposite Mathieu at cornerback, giving the Tigers a tremendous cover-corner, much like that of 2012 first round NFL Draft pick Morris Claiborne. Jalen Collins (6-1, 184, Fr.-RS) came out of the spring as LSU's No. 3 cornerback and can play on either side of the field.

Safety Eric Reid

Safeties

Eric Reid (6-2, 208, Jr.-2L), a hard-hitter in the secondary, will start at free safety again for the Tigers in 2012 after tying with Mathieu for team-high honors in tackles with 76 a year ago. Reid, who is also a standout in the classroom, combines his ability and football intellect to give the Tigers one of the top safeties in college football in 2012. Ronald Martin (6-1, 200, So.-1L) will backup Reid at free safety. Craig Loston (6-2, 208, Jr.-2L) takes over at strong safety this year after serving as a backup to NFL draft pick Brandon Taylor last season. Loston has tremendous tools and can defend against the pass or the run with equal effectiveness. Micah Eugene (5-11, 194, Fr.-RS) will back up Loston at strong safety and will likely see action in nickel and dime situations for the Tigers.

The LSU Special Teams

LSU had one of its best seasons ever on special teams in 2011 as the Tigers were ranked among the national leaders in nearly every category. Despite a pair of first time starters in placekicker Drew Alleman and punter Brad Wing, LSU's kicking game was nearly flawless as the Tigers converted on 16-of-18 field goals and ranked third in the nation in net punting with a 41.2 average. LSU scored four touchdowns on special teams - three by Tyrann Mathieu and one on a 99-yard kickoff return against West Virginia by Morris Claiborne. Wing and Alleman, along with kickoff specialists James Hairston, return to lead the kicking game for the Tigers in 2012, while Mathieu is expected to once again return punts. Odell Beckham Jr., Jarvis Landry and Russell Shepard will serve as LSU's kickoff returners. The Tigers will have a first-time starter at deep snapper in 2012 in true freshman Reid Ferguson, while Wing will again serve as the holder on placekicks.

Placekicker

Drew Alleman (5-11, 183, Sr.-1L) returns as LSU's placekicker after converting on 16-of-18 field goals and 62-of-63 extra-point attempts in his first year as a starter in 2011. Alleman's 88.9 percent success rate ranked first in school history and helped him earn second team All-SEC honors a year ago. James Hairston (6-0, 225, So.-1L) emerged as LSU's kickoff specialist in his true freshman season in 2011 and he will likely remain in that role this year. Hairston, a freshman All-SEC pick a year ago, will serve as Alleman's backup for placekicks.

Punter

Brad Wing (6-3, 184, So.-1L) became just the second player in LSU history to earn first team All-America honors at punter a year ago after he helped the Tigers to a 41.2 net punting average, third best in the nation. Wing, a left-footed kicker with roots to Australian Rules Football, averaged 44.4 yards on 59 punts. He had a knack for having his kicks stick on contact as 27 of his 59 punts were downed inside the 20-yard line. Wing twice earned SEC Special Teams Player of the Week honors in 2011 and his booming kicks allowed the Tigers to hold opponents to a total of 73 punt return yards all season.

Return Specialist

Tyrann Mathieu (5-9, 175, Jr.-2L) will handle punt return duty for the Tigers again in 2012 after averaging 15.6 yards on 27 returns in his first year at the position. Mathieu had game-changing returns for touchdowns in wins over Arkansas and Georgia in the SEC title game and was named first team All-America. Odell Beckham Jr. (5-11, 183, So.-1L) will double as the backup punt returner and will also handling kickoff return duties for the Tigers. Russell Shepard (6-1, 185, Sr.-3L) and Jarvis Landry (6-0, 190, So.-1L) are both expected to contribute in the return game.

2007 National Champions

Les Miles hoists the 2007 Coaches' Trophy crystal football as the Tigers claimed the BCS National Championship with a 38-24 win over Ohio State on Jan. 7, 2008.

The Miles Method

The goal is to run the finest football program in the country where our players can have an experience that is second to none.

In seven seasons as head coach of LSU, Les Miles has guided the Tigers to unprecedented success both on and off the field. Under Miles, the goal at LSU is to run the finest football program in the country - one where student-athletes can have an experience that sees them develop academically, grow personally through community service endeavors and compete for championships on the field.

With an unwavering commitment to his players and the program, Miles has been the driving force behind LSU's continued dominance at the national level since his arrival in 2005. The results have been staggering. The Tigers' 75 victories under his watch are the most in the Southeastern Conference over the past seven seasons. The 2011 National Coach of the Year, Miles became the third quickest coach to 70 wins in SEC history since the start of the league in 1933. LSU owns the SEC's second highest graduation rate and the Tigers have won five bowl games, two SEC titles, 31 games over ranked teams and one national championship.

A dominant 13-1 SEC Championship season in 2011 has LSU firmly entrenched among college football's elite.

1 1974-75

Les Miles letters two years at the University of Michigan. During those two seasons, Michigan was a combined 18-3-2 and participated in both the Rose and Orange Bowls.

2 1980-81

Miles begins his coaching career for his former coach, Bo Schembechler, at Michigan. The Wolverines post a 19-5 record with a Big 10 title during his two-year stint.

3 1982-86

Miles serves on Bill McCartney's Colorado staff for five seasons, earning berths to the Freedom and Bluebonnet Bowls in 1985 and 1986.

1987-94

Miles returns to his alma mater for the next eight seasons. Michigan won 71 games during that span, made eight-straight bowl appearances, including four Rose Bowl trips. During the eight years, Miles coaches 10 All-Americans and 12 NFL draftees.

1995-97

Spends three seasons at Oklahoma State as the offensive coordinator for head coach Bob Simmons. The 1997 season saw the Cowboys go 8-4 with a trip to the Alamo Bowl, the school's first bowl appearance since 1988.

1998-2000

Miles is the tight ends coach for the NFL's Dallas Cowboys for head coaches Chan Gailey and Dave Campo. The Cowboys win the division title in 1998.

4 2001-04

Takes over as head coach of the Oklahoma State program. Guides the Cowboys to three-straight bowl games, including a victory in the 2002 Houston Bowl.

5 2005

On Jan. 3, 2005, Les Miles is named the 32nd head coach in LSU Football history. Went on to guide the Tigers to 11 wins in his first season, becoming the first LSU coach to defeat Alabama, Auburn and Florida in the same season.

6 2005

Miles and the Tigers accept the 2005 Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl trophy after defeating Miami, 40-3. LSU finished ranked No. 5 and overcame early season obstacles after Hurricanes Katrina and Rita struck the Gulf Coast.

2006

Miles, along with the Tigers, accepts the 2007 Allstate Sugar Bowl trophy after defeating Notre Dame, 41-14. The Tigers finished ranked No. 3.

7 2007

In one of the most remarkable seasons in school history, Miles and the Tigers capture the school's third national title with a 12-2 overall record and a 38-24 defeat of No. 1 Ohio State in the BCS National Championship Game in New Orleans. Miles improves to 34-6 in his three seasons, marking the best start for a coach in LSU history.

2008

Miles and the Tigers claim the Chick-fil-A Bowl with a convincing 38-3 win over No. 14 Georgia Tech in the Georgia Dome. Miles remained unbeaten in bowl games at LSU with his fourth straight win in as many seasons.

2009

LSU capped off its most dominating decade of football in the history of the program as Miles led the Tigers to another New Year's Day bowl game. LSU's 99 victories in the 2000s ranked second in the SEC and represented the fourth-most wins of any SEC team in any decade.

8 2010

For the fourth time in the Les Miles era, LSU won 11 games and culminated the season with a bowl victory as the Tigers routed Texas A&M, 41-24, in the Cotton Bowl. Miles becomes the fastest LSU coach to reach 60 wins and leads the Tigers to a No. 8 national ranking.

9 2011

Miles guides LSU to a school-record eight Top 25 wins, a perfect 12-0 regular season and LSU's second SEC Championship title under his watch. The Tigers finish the season ranked No. 2.

Les Miles became the fifth coach in LSU history to earn National Coach of the Year honors. Miles was the recipient of the Home Depot National Coach of the Year Award and the Associated Press National Coach of the Year Award after guiding LSU to a 13-1 record and an appearance in the 2012 BCS Championship Game.

Path to the Draft

Les Miles joined his former players in New York for the 2012 NFL Draft. Miles served as an analyst for the NFL Network for the three-day event. Under Miles, LSU has produced an SEC-leading 42 NFL Draft picks since 2005.

Championship FOOTBALL

Quarterback Matt Flynn hoists the 2007 ADT National Championship Trophy following the Tigers' 38-24 win over Ohio State in the BCS National Championship Game. Flynn was named Offensive MVP of the game and tied a school record with four touchdown passes.

THE WINNINGEST PROGRAM IN THE NATION'S TOUGHEST CONFERENCE OVER THE LAST SEVEN YEARS

LSU is the winningest program in the SEC since the start of the 2005 season as the Tigers have posted a 75-18 mark during that span. The 75 victories for LSU are three better than Florida. The following is a look at how the SEC stacks up since 2005:

LSU has played in and won more SEC Championship Games than any school in the SEC since 2001.

The Tigers' four SEC Championship Game victories rank second all-time in league history.

2001 • LSU 31, Tennessee 20

LSU, in its first appearance in the SEC Championship Game, stunned No. 2 Tennessee to win its first league title since 1986. QB Matt Mauck spelled an injured Rohan Davey and scored two rushing touchdowns to claim MVP honors.

2003 • LSU 34, Georgia 13

RB Justin Vincent became the first freshman to be named MVP as LSU shutdown Georgia, 34-13. Vincent rushed for a then-SEC title game record 201 yards as the Tigers secured their first berth in the BCS Championship Game.

2007 • LSU 21, Tennessee 14

Jonathan Zenon picked off a pass and returned it 18 yards for a touchdown to seal LSU's 10th all-time SEC title with a 21-14 win over No. 15 Tennessee. The victory propelled the Tigers into the BCS Championship Game for the second time in five seasons.

2011 • LSU 42, Georgia 10

Tyrann Mathieu dazzled the crowd with a punt return for a touchdown and setup two more scores with his fumble recovery and return as LSU clinched a BCS Championship Game berth with a 42-10 blowout of Georgia in the 2011 SEC Championship Game. The Tigers scored 35 unanswered points in the second half.

2011 Bednarik Award Winner

Tyrann Mathieu, the 2011 National Defensive Player of the Year, became the first LSU football player to be invited to New York City as a Heisman Trophy finalist since 1977. Mathieu finished fifth in the voting and was the first defensive back invited to the ceremony since Charles Woodson in 1997.

National AWARD WINNERS

LSU is the proud home of the back-to-back National Defensive Players of the Year. Patrick Peterson captured the Bednarik Award in 2010, and Tyrann Mathieu followed in 2011, giving LSU more Bednarik Award winners than any school in SEC history. Under Les Miles, LSU has won a combined six national individual awards the past two seasons.

Patrick Peterson

Prior to becoming an NFL Pro Bowler as a rookie, Patrick Peterson was the 2010 National Defensive Player of the Year, capturing the Bednarik Award and the Thorpe Award.

Morris Claiborne

For the second straight year, LSU is the home of the nation's best defensive back as Morris Claiborne took home the Thorpe Award in 2011. LSU is one of only two schools to win the Thorpe Award in consecutive seasons.

Billy Cannon

1959 Heisman Trophy Winner

Vision

Be the premier provider of student-athlete support services nationally and internationally.

Mission

The Cox Communications Academic team of LSU is committed to personal growth, academic guidance/support, and the holistic development of each student-athlete and the quality of their experience.

Goals & Objectives

1. To preserve the academic integrity
2. To graduate our student-athletes
3. To assist all student-athletes with career planning
4. To abide by all NCAA, SEC, and institutional rules and regulations

The Gold Standard

In December 2010, LSU was one of 42 institutions honored by the American Football Coaches Association for graduating 75 percent or more of its student-athletes. In addition, the Tigers have produced 119 SEC Academic Honor Roll recipients under head coach Les Miles since 2005.

Second in the SEC in Graduation Rate

LSU ranks second to only Vanderbilt in the most recent release of graduation rates as 152 Tigers have earned their degrees under Les Miles' watch. Since 2007, LSU has seen 87 of its 109 seniors get their degrees. Sixteen of LSU's 2011 SEC Championship squad have earned their degrees.

◀ Rodney Reed was featured in Sports Illustrated in 2003 as one of the smartest players in college football.

7 National Scholar-Athletes

LSU has garnered seven National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame National Scholar-Athlete awards. In 2005, Rudy Niswanger won the Draddy Trophy, which goes to the top student-athlete in all of college football. Niswanger maintained a 4.0 GPA and was a university medalist en route to winning the "Academic Heisman."

The Preservation of Tiger Stadium

In August 2010, LSU Vice Chancellor and Director of Athletics Joe Alleva and the Tiger Athletic Foundation launched a campaign to preserve and restore the look of Tiger Stadium. The project included replacing all 428 windows on the North end of the stadium as well as creating new entrances on the North and West Stadium plazas. In the spring of 2012, plans were unveiled to expand the South End Zone, raising the stadium's capacity to over 100,000. Construction on the South End Zone expansion will begin in the fall of 2012 and be completed prior to the 2014 season.

"Tiger Stadium is one of the most iconic venues in all of college sports. Tiger fans have grown up there, made friends there, cheered there and cried there. The memories are endless. That is why the preservation of the home of the Tigers is so important." - Joe Alleva, Vice Chancellor and Director of Athletics

“LADIES AND GENTLEMEN, IT’S SATURDAY NIGHT IN DEATH VALLEY AND HERE COME YOUR FIGHTING TIGERS OF LSU!”

“It has turned the knees of All-Americans to goo. It has caused coaches to lose their coaching minds. Dark. That combined with Tiger Stadium on a Saturday night is something loud, strange and holy. There is noise in stadiums everywhere from Eugene to Tuscaloosa. Only in Baton Rouge is there a living, breathing being lurking in its grand, old stadium.”

- Dennis Dodd, CBSSports.com

“(Tiger) Woods pumped both fists and yelled, as jacked as you’ll ever see him. But the crowd explosion drowned out whatever was coming out of his mouth. It was the closest golf has ever come to sounding like fourth-and-goal at LSU’s Tiger Stadium on a Saturday night.”

- Pat Forde, Yahoo Sports on Tiger Woods’ putt to force a playoff at the 2008 U.S. Open, June 14, 2008

“Three SEC coaches I spoke with who have worked in other leagues say that Tiger Stadium is, by far, the loudest stadium in the country.”

- Bruce Feldman, CBSSports.com

“Baton Rouge happens to be the worst place in the world for a visiting team. It’s like being inside a drum.”

- Paul “Bear” Bryant, Former Alabama Coach

“My first on the bucket list will be a night game at LSU. I don’t know if I’m ever going to get there. Of all the things in college sports, that would be No. 1.”

- Beano Cook, ESPN

“LSU students are the best. Part of being the best, is knowing when to be loud, when to be quiet and where to channel your energy. When they are on, they just wreck the other team.”

- Glenn Dorsey, LSU All-American

“I get asked about the best games I’ve called, and as far as college football goes, the Florida-LSU (2007) environment was as good as I’ve ever been around. I had always heard about night games at Tiger Stadium and had never gotten the chance to call one. It was really special to be a part of that.”

- Verne Lundquist, CBS Sports

“The toughest place to play in the SEC is LSU, Death Valley. The fans there are relentless. They don’t stop at all. They keep going.”

- Former Arkansas RB Darren McFadden

"I'm not sure what it was like to walk into the Coliseum, but I bet it was something like this. The best place in the world to watch a sporting event."

"Usually when the opposing team does well, the crowd quiets down. All I began to hear was a chant 'L-S-U, L-S-U.' It got louder and louder and louder. It was the loudest I've ever heard a stadium."

- Georgia Head Coach Mark Richt (on the 2003 LSU-Georgia game)

"Best stadium - Tiger Stadium, LSU. The pre-game festivities. The deafening noise - there's no other place like it. ... it's the freakiest, funkiest, most frenetic place in all of college football."

- Matt Hayes, Sporting News

"I can tell you there is no finer stadium to play in. The traditions that they place in that stadium like when they announce that it's Saturday night in Death Valley, when that band plays, when that crowd stands and cheers for the Tigers, there is no place like it in America."

- LSU head coach Les Miles

"Unless your with the opposing team, Tiger Stadium at night is football nirvana."

- Chris Low, ESPN.com

"So welcome to LSU, where the football is so good the earth moves, where the tailgate chow is so good the Food Network should own broadcast rights, and where the entire atmosphere is so special that people from the other side of the world would rather spend their days listening to a tiger's roar in Death Valley than go home to the peace and comfort of the Shire."

- Jim Caple, Senior Writer ESPN The Magazine

— Gameday IN TIGERTOWN —

"We'll just begin here, knowing full well that any other campus can't possibly touch the magic of a night game in Death Valley. If tradition is tailgating, the LSU band and – if you're lucky – a Mike the Tiger sighting, then I'm all in."

– Matt Hayes, *Sporting News

"I'd been warned prior to my first visit to Baton Rouge that the legendary Death Valley mystique was a myth. The assessment couldn't have been more wrong. Tiger Stadium was as loud as any I've heard during the dramatic fourth quarter of Saturday's Georgia game, the festivities surrounding it as advertised.

The streets were lined with purple and gold. Smoke emanated from the grills in the parking lot. Shouts of "Go Tigers" and "Tiger Bait" echoed from the stadium deep into the heart of the campus.

And that was just Friday night."

– Stewart Mandel, *SI.com

TAILGATING AT LSU

"Nothing like tailgating on the Bayou. LSU is my personal favorite. Maybe it's my penchant for the spicy stuff. But there's nothing like sampling a little gumbo, a little jambalaya and then diving face-first into a shrimp boil. The aroma just walking through the parking lot to Tiger Stadium stays with you the whole day, and the LSU fans get there early and stay late."

- Chris Low, ESPN.com

"Walking among the tailgaters here is like strolling through one of Emeril Lagasse's restaurants. RW once joined a group serving jambalaya, duck and oyster gumbo, stuffed quail, deer sauce picante, wild duck, cochon de lait, Cajun sausage, crawfish etouffee, rabbit, alligator stew and marinated pork tenderloin. And that was for a non-conference game."

- Jim Caple, ESPN The Magazine

"LSU fans have descended upon Dallas and reminded us of this truth: when it comes to partying, they're the pros and we're all amateurs."

ESPN Headquarters “Car Wash”

LSU coach Les Miles and various players routinely participate in the ESPN “car wash”, a day-long visit to the network’s headquarters in Bristol, Conn. The trip includes appearances on various platforms on ESPN, ESPN2, ESPNU, ESPN.com and ESPN Radio, including SportsCenter, College Football Live, the Scott Van Pelt Show and First Take. The interviews give LSU football unprecedented national attention throughout the day on ESPN. The network also visits the LSU campus during the season with its “Road To The National Championship” bus, a traveling studio that allows players and coaches to join ESPN shows for interviews.

Les Miles’ ESPN SportsCenter & College GameDay Commercials

LSU head coach Les Miles has taken part in two ESPN commercials. Following the 2007 national title, Miles did a video shoot for the network’s line of “This is SportsCenter” commercials. In the spring of 2011, Miles traveled to Los Angeles to film an ESPN College GameDay commercial with Chris Fowler, Lee Corso, Kirk Herbstreit and Erin Andrews.

Through social media and traditional sports websites such as ESPN.com and CBSSports.com, LSU football can be followed on a 24-hour basis. The Tigers are a constant in the national spotlight and attract national media from the New York Times to Sports Illustrated and USA Today.

Social Media

LSU has been on the cutting edge in college athletics when it comes to integrating social media into its traditional website and publications. Through its sports-specific Facebook and Twitter sites, LSU offers its fans in-game updates, behind-the-scenes access to coaches and student-athletes and breaking news.

In the summer of 2012, LSU football's official Facebook page, Facebook.com/LSUFootball, surpassed 760,000 fans. The LSU football Facebook page has more fans than 13 NFL teams and ranks as the second-largest college football team page. In addition, the LSU football Twitter site, @LSUFball, has one of the highest fan-bases in football - pro or college.

Head coach Les Miles, who was featured in an April 2009 USA Today article, has his very own Twitter site - @LSUCoachMiles. Miles is one of the nation's most followed coaching personalities in all of collegiate athletics.

Generation Next

LSU's rise to college football's elite has seen the Tigers grace the cover of every major sporting magazine. Michael Ford appeared on the cover of Sports Illustrated following LSU's blowout win over Oregon in the 2011 season opener. Patrick Peterson was one of four athletes in the nation to grace the cover of ESPN The Magazine's NEXT issue in January 2011.

OPERATIONS CENTER

LSU's Football Operations Center is an all-in-one facility that includes football offices, locker room, training room, weight room, equipment room and video operations center. The $15 million facility is located on Skip Bertman Drive at the Charles McClendon Practice Facility. Built in 2006, the facility is one of the finest of its kind in college athletics, allowing more efficient time for dressing, training and practicing for the LSU football team.

The locker room of the Football Operations Center has 140 stations with lockable storage bins and a padded sitting area. The room also includes four plasma screen TVs and six 27-inch TVs.

The players lounge allows student-athletes to unwind prior to practice. Players can access computers at multiple work stations, play pool or play PlayStation 3 or Xbox 360 on the mega LCD-TV screen.

Charles McClendon PRACTICE FACILITY

The facility features four 100-yard football practice fields as well as an indoor practice facility. On Sept. 9, 2002, LSU formally named its football practice facility for Charles McClendon, the winningest football coach in school history. McClendon, a member of the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame, served as head coach at LSU for 18 seasons, a span that saw the Tigers play in 13 bowl games, compiling a 137-59-7 overall mark. He was named SEC Coach of the Year twice, in 1969 and 1970, and National Coach of the Year in 1970. In the spring of 2009, Momentum Field Turf by Sport Exe was installed on one of the four fields. The field, courtesy of the donation by Scott and Espe Moran, allows the Tigers to simulate outdoor conditions they will see in several stadiums across the country.

100-Yard Indoor FOOTBALL FIELD

The Anderson-Feazel LSU Indoor Field is a 100-yard climate-controlled practice facility connected to the Operations Center. Built in 1991, the area is 8,250 square feet with Momentum Field Turf by SportExe similar to the Louisiana Superdome.

Every position has its own meeting room, complete with video equipment. The coaching staff also has multiple meeting rooms on the second floor of the facility adjacent to their offices.

Numerous displays honoring the past and present of LSU football are housed in the Operations Center. This one, outside the weight room, recognizes every first-team All-Southeastern Conference selection.

The Shirley and Bill Lawton Team Room includes 144 spacious theatre-style seats for team meetings and film sessions and state-of-the-art audio and visual components necessary for meetings, lectures and reviewing of game footage.

Strength & CONDITIONING

The Operations Center houses one of the most complete strength training facilities in the nation. Ranked No. 2 in the nation in a July 2010 poll by ESPN.com, the weight room area includes 16 multi-purpose platform, bench, incline, squat and Olympic lifting stations. It features more than 10,000 square feet of training space and more than 30,000 pounds of weights and equipment.

LSU's renowned strength and conditioning program is under the direction of Tommy Moffitt, the three-time College Football Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year. Since Moffitt's arrival in 2000, the Tigers have consistently been one of the nation's fittest teams, which translates to on-the-field success. Moffitt was named the best strength coach in America by the Strength Performance Network in 2011.

4th Quarter Strength Program

"The 4th Quarter Program is designed to take our players to the next level. Our focus with the 4th Quarter Program is in five areas – discipline, commitment, toughness, effort and pride. Our players have devoted themselves to these values and, as a result, they are having a great deal of success on the field, in particular the fourth quarter."

Tommy Moffitt
LSU Strength & Conditioning Coordinator

In one of the most physical games in recent memory, LSU outlasted Alabama, 9-6, in overtime during the 2011 regular season. Michael Ford's 15-yard run set up Drew Alleman's game-winning field goal in overtime.

LSU's record over the last 10 years when taking a lead into the fourth quarter, including 21 straight victories when doing so.

Fourth Quarter Success

Making a difference down the stretch in every college football game is important, and LSU continues to be one of the nation's best at making timely plays when it matters most – the fourth quarter. The Tigers follow one of the most strenuous off-season conditioning programs that prepares the team for what they need when the clock is winding down.

The Football Operations Center weight room boasts 12 dumbbell bench stations and features custom iron grip dumbbells and weights made by Body Masters and Eleiko. Adjacent to the weight room is the LSU Indoor Practice Facility where the Tigers conduct summer endurance training in preparation for the season.

Athletic trainers Jack Marucci, Andy Barker and Shelly Mullenix have over a combined 50 years of experience.

Athletic TRAINING

Nutrition First

LSU is one of the few schools nationally who maintain a state-of-the-art nutritional program for today's student-athlete. Senior Associate Athletic Trainer Shelly Mullenix and Jamie Mascari, coordinator of sports nutrition, work hand-in-hand with LSU dining services to provide a balanced training table diet.

LSU boasts the largest and most complete athletic training facilities in all of collegiate athletics with both the Operations Center and the Broussard Center for Athletic Training in Tiger Stadium. Both are furnished with the latest in technology and equipment. The Operations Center training room features a full view of the practice fields, two hot/cold jacuzzis and an underwater treadmill. The Broussard Center includes an on-site x-ray room, an in-house pharmacy and a hydrotherapy pool. It is also one of the few collegiate training centers with a full-service pharmacy, vision center and dental center.

Hydrotherapy Treatment

An integral part of rehabbing and developing LSU student-athletes is the operations center's hot/cold jacuzzis and an underwater treadmill in a fully equipped Hydrotherapy room. The Broussard training center boasts the largest hydrotherapy pool in both collegiate and professional sports.

Broussard Athletic TRAINING CENTER

The two story, 22,000 square foot facility contains 20 treatment tables with the newest forms of modalities available, 14 taping stations, a 1,600 square foot rehabilitation area which contains the latest rehabilitation equipment including the Cybex Norm, Woodway treadmills and Body Master select rise equipment. LSU's multi-million dollar athletic training facility is named in honor of Dr. Martin J. Broussard (left), the legendary athletic trainer whose career spanned over 40 years at LSU.

Road To Recovery

LSU is one of the top schools in the nation to get its student-athletes back on the field in a timely manner following an injury. The athletic training staff takes a progressive approach to injury identification and thinks "outside of the box." LSU consults with allied health professionals and uses state-of-the-art surgical procedures that give an athlete a quicker recovery time while looking out for his or her future.

Dental Center

A fully functional dental center, staffed by Dr. Robin Levy and Dr. John Vance, is located inside the Broussard Center for Athletic Training.

Rehabilitation

LSU's Broussard Center for Athletic Training boasts some of the most technologically advanced equipment to aid the recuperation and rehabilitation of LSU's student-athletes.

Real-Time X-Rays

A new state-of-the-art fluoroscope was added in the summer of 2008 that will provide LSU athletic trainers the opportunity to take x-rays on site in the Operations Center. The machine can provide real-time images of the internal structures of a patient.

Gameday Wellness

The full-time athletic training staff, along with 10 graduate assistants, prepares the players for gameday in the comfort of Tiger Stadium hours before kickoff.

Vision Center

Dr. Don Peavy and Dr. Russell Saloom conduct eye exams for LSU student-athletes in a convenient location in the Broussard Center for Athletic Training.

Pharmacy

The LSU Athletic Training Pharmacy is the only one of its kind in college athletics. Staffed by pharmacists Kevin Denoux and Caroline Lancon, the LSU Athletic Training Pharmacy provides the Tigers with first-class service in a convenient location.

Bowl GAMES

LSU has appeared in 12 straight bowl games dating back to 2000. The Tigers have claimed two BCS national titles in that span and won four BCS bowls, which ranks third in the nation. Overall, LSU has played in 43 bowl games, which ranks ninth in the nation. All-American Glenn Dorsey and LSU players (above) celebrate the 2008 BCS National Championship Game win over Ohio State.

Bowl Game Success Under Les Miles

The months of December and January have seen the Tigers play their best football at the right time of the year. LSU is 5-2 in bowl games under head coach Les Miles. Miles is the only current coach in the SEC to have won his first four bowl games at a school. Since 2005, Miles has won more bowl games than any coach in the SEC. He is also the second-winningest coach in school history in terms of bowl games.

LSU dominated Georgia Tech, 38-3, to win its second Chick-fil-A Bowl in four seasons on Dec. 31, 2008 (above right).

LSU has outscored its opponents an impressive 215-108 in seven bowl appearances under head coach Les Miles.

Laying the Foundation

22 All-Time Victories

LSU owns a 22-20-1 mark all-time in bowl games. The 22 wins ranks 10th among all schools nationally and fourth in the Southeastern Conference. LSU won seven bowl games in the previous decade, cementing the Tigers as one of college football's elite programs. LSU has appeared in more Sugar Bowls (13) than any team in America.

2003 National Champions

Louisiana Superdome • Jan. 4, 2004

LSU, the No. 2 team in the Bowl Championship Series rankings, beat No. 1 BCS ranked Oklahoma in the Nokia Sugar Bowl to win the 2003 National Championship, the Tigers' first title since 1958. Freshman RB Justin Vincent, named the game's MVP after totaling 117 yards, scampered 64 yards on the first play of the game to set the tone as LSU never trailed, winning 21-14. The LSU defense, ranked No. 1 in the nation, stifled the Sooner's top-ranked offense, holding Oklahoma to 154 yards and sacking Heisman winning QB Jason White five times.

Great MOMENTS

Tiger Stadium • Oct. 31, 1959

Billy Cannon's 89-yard punt return for a touchdown against third-ranked Ole Miss is not only one of the most memorable plays in LSU football history, but it also ranks among the most memorable in college football. Trailing 3-0 late in the game, Cannon, the 1959 Heisman Trophy winner, fielded the punt at the Tiger 11-yard line and began his run into immortality. He eluded seven would-be tacklers down the east sideline and crossed the goal line of Tiger Stadium for the only touchdown of the game, giving the top-ranked LSU Tigers the 7-3 victory.

Cotton Bowl • Jan. 1, 1966

LSU entered the 1966 Cotton Bowl as a heavy underdog to the second-ranked Arkansas Razorbacks, but the Tigers knew they had nothing to lose and lot a of respect to gain. Arkansas, which entered the game riding a 22-game win streak and knew a victory over LSU meant a possible national title, struck first, but LSU's Joe Labruzzo reached the endzone twice in the second quarter to give the Tigers a 14-7 lead that would stand and foil the Razorbacks' hopes of a title.

Jones to Davis
Tiger Stadium • Nov. 4, 1972

In one of the most exciting endings to a game in LSU football history, QB Bert Jones connected with RB Brad Davis in the corner of the endzone as time expired and PK Rusty Jackson nailed the extra-point to give the Tigers a 17-16 victory over Ole Miss and keep an 11-game win streak alive.

2007 National Champions

Louisiana Superdome • Jan. 7, 2008

LSU became the first school in the nation to win multiple BCS national titles as the second-ranked Tigers downed top-ranked Ohio State, 38-24, in the 2008 BCS National Championship Game. LSU trailed 10-0 in the first quarter but rallied for 31 unanswered points on a school-record tying four TD passes from QB Matt Flynn to claim the third national title in program history. DT Ricky Jean-Francois garnered defensive Most Outstanding Player honors chiefly for blocking a second-quarter, 38-yard field goal attempt that kept the game tied at 10-10 and swung the momentum completely in LSU's favor the remainder of the game.

The Earthquake Game

Tiger Stadium • Oct. 8, 1988

QB Tommy Hodson connected with TB Eddie Fuller in the back of the endzone for the touchdown that vaulted LSU to a 7-6 victory over Auburn on Oct. 8, 1988, to help lead the LSU Tigers to their seventh SEC crown. The moment will forever be known as the "Night the Tigers Moved the Earth." The play caused such a thunderous explosion from the 79,341 fans in Tiger Stadium, the LSU Geology Department registered vibrations on a seismograph machine at the exact moment the touchdown was scored.

No. 1 Falls!

Tiger Stadium • Oct. 11, 1997

Oct. 11, 1997, marked the first time LSU defeated the No. 1 ranked team in the nation when the Tigers upended top-ranked Florida, 28-21, in Tiger Stadium. LSU jumped out to an early lead, but the Gators would score a touchdown with 6:44 remaining in the fourth quarter to cut the lead to single digits. LSU's defense sealed the victory when Raion Hill intercepted a Florida pass with less than three minutes to play and the Tigers ran out the clock to set off one of the greatest celebrations in Tiger Stadium history.

Bluegrass Miracle

Commonwealth Stadium • Nov. 9, 2002

Trailing 30-27 to Kentucky with 11 seconds to play in the game, LSU mounted a two-play 87-yard drive that will forever be known as, "The Bluegrass Miracle." QB Marcus Randall connected with WR Devery Henderson on the game-winning 75-yard pass as time expired to give the Tigers a 33-30 victory.

LSU DBU

For the first time since the NFL's merger in 1970, a single college football program produced the first defensive back selected in consecutive drafts as LSU's Morris Claiborne was taken sixth overall by the Dallas Cowboys in the first round of the 2012 NFL Draft. It represented the sixth straight season that the Tigers have had a defensive back drafted.

NFL TIGERS

Pipeline to the Pros

LSU is a springboard to those players aspiring to play in the NFL when their college careers are complete. Proof of that lies in the number of NFL Draft picks the Tigers have produced since Les Miles' arrival at LSU. Since 2006, LSU has generated 42 NFL Draft selections. That figure leads the SEC and ranks second in the nation. For the fifth time in school history, LSU produced multiple first round draft picks when Morris Claiborne and Michael Brockers were selected in 2012. Under Miles, LSU has generated 10 first round draft picks.

NFL Draft by the Numbers

A total of five LSU players were selected in the 2012 NFL Draft, including Rueben Randle who was taken in the second round by the Super Bowl champion New York Giants with the 63rd overall pick. Randle became the highest drafted wide receiver for LSU since Craig Davis and Dwayne Bowe went in the 2007 first round.

Pro Day at LSU

LSU's NFL prospects spend one day each spring showcasing their talents in front of nearly 100 NFL representatives, including scouts, coaches and general managers who converge on the LSU campus for Pro Day. Pro Day gives NFL scouts and executives an opportunity to view potential LSU prospects first hand through a series of drills. The LSU Indoor Facility and weight room is the ideal setting, giving both prospects and scouts all the necessary resources to conduct a productive session. The NFL Network, ESPN, USA Today along with other members of the media are annually on hand for the event. Coach Les Miles (above right) met with New York Jets head coach Rex Ryan at 2012 Pro Day.

All-Rookie Pro Bowler

Former LSU All-American Patrick Peterson dazzled fans during his NFL rookie season with the Arizona Cardinals. Peterson earned All-Rookie honors and was elected to the Pro Bowl. He also became the first player in NFL history to record at least four punt return touchdowns of 80 yards in a single season.

Super Bowl Tigers

A total of 46 former LSU players have played in pro football's ultimate game. At least one former LSU player has won a Super Bowl title in each of the past 11 years dating back to 2002. That streak is the longest current streak in the Southeastern Conference. Two former Tigers - cornerback Corey Webster and wide receiver Michael Clayton - were on the roster of the victorious New York Giants when they upset the New England Patriots, 21-17, in Super Bowl XLVI. For Webster, it was his second Super Bowl ring.

By The Numbers

- 11 Straight years of having a former player in the Super Bowl, the longest streak in the SEC
- 27 Former players who have won a Super Bowl ring
- 3 Number of Super Bowl rings for Kevin Faulk of the New England Patriots, the most in school history
- 2 Former players (Randall Gay, Anthony McFarland) who have won Super Bowls with two different teams
- 8 Number of former players who have won multiple Super Bowl rings
- 4 Number of Super Bowls played in by running back Kevin Faulk, the most in LSU history.

LSU has been the home of some of college football's greatest players. A total of 63 LSU players have earned the distinction of first-team All-America in the 118-year history of the program. Gaynell Tinsley was the first All-American in school history after earning the recognition as an end in 1935. Tommy Casanova, arguably the most versatile player in school history, is LSU's only three-time first-team All-American.

Jimmy Taylor and Billy Cannon were the faces of LSU's successful teams of the 1950s. Taylor, who went on to a legendary pro career with the Green Bay Packers, was the first fullback in LSU history to earn All-America honors. Cannon, now a member of the National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame, was the national player of the year in 1958 and 1959.

LSU FOOTBALL A to Z

The rich history of LSU football is impossible to portray in only a few pages. However, below are tidbits from the Tiger Football annals that have contributed to the story that is LSU Football. These items are presented as background material with the hope that they will encourage a better understanding of the many traditions that are associated with Tiger football and LSU Athletics.

Alma Mater

In 2005, head coach Les Miles established a new tradition at LSU as the Tigers began singing the school's alma mater on the field following a victory. Miles and his team first sang the school song following LSU's dramatic 35-31 win at Arizona State in the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina on Sept. 10, 2005. For games involving an LSU victory, Miles and the team gather in front of the student section and join the student body in a rendition of the alma mater that has grown into quite a spectacle.

*Where stately oaks and broad magnolias shade inspiring halls,
There stands our dear Old Alma Mater who to us recalls Fond memories that waken in our hearts
a tender glow,
And make us happy for the love that we have learned to know.
All hail to thee our Alma Mater,
molder of mankind,
May greater glory, love unending be forever thine.
Our worth in life will be thy worth
we pray to keep it true,
And may thy spirit live in us, forever L-S-U.*

Billy Cannon, No. 20

The great Billy Cannon, two-time All-American and Heisman Trophy winner, played at LSU from 1957-59. He led the Tigers to the 1958 national championship and is best known for his 89-yard punt return to beat Ole Miss in 1959. In his career, Cannon rushed for 1,867 yards on 359 carries, an average of 5.2 yards per carry and scored 19 rushing touchdowns. He also scored two touchdowns by receiving and one each by punt return, kickoff return and interception return. LSU went 24-7 during Cannon's stay on the Baton Rouge campus, including 19 straight victories from the end of the 1957 season to the eighth game of the 1959 campaign. Following that 1959 season, Cannon's jersey was retired into the LSU Athletics Hall of Fame. A sign honoring Cannon was unveiled in the southeast corner of Tiger Stadium during LSU's game against Ole Miss on Nov. 22, 2008. Cannon was enshrined into the College Football Hall of Fame in the summer of 2009.

The 1962 LSU cheerleaders

Cheerleaders

Cheerleaders have long been a part of college football tradition, and the LSU Varsity Cheerleaders are no exception in their role in Tiger gridiron lore. Pregame ceremonies feature the LSU cheerleaders atop Mike the Tiger's mobile unit as it circles the field. The cheerleaders also traditionally lead the Tigers onto the field before and after halftime of every game. The 1989 Tiger cheerleaders captured the National Championship in the annual Universal Cheerleading Association competition. LSU has finished in the top 10 of that competition in each of the past 11 years.

Special thanks to Peter Finney of the New Orleans Times-Picayune who has documented the history of LSU football in his book "Fighting Tigers", Marty Mule' of the New Orleans Times-Picayune who penned "Eye of the Tiger" in celebration of LSU's football centennial in 1993, and to the late historian H. Warren Taylor whose relentless pursuit of accurate information and record-keeping in the early years of LSU athletics has kept alive the accomplishments of Tiger athletes in football, basketball, track and boxing dating back to the late 1800s.

Chinese Bandits

The nickname of one of the three units utilized in Paul Dietzel's three-platoon system that vaulted the Tigers to the 1958 national championship. That year, the first team was named the White Team, an offensive unit was named the Go Team and a defensive unit was tabbed the Chinese Bandits. The White Team, naturally, wore white jerseys and was so named. The Go Team wore gold jerseys as the word "gold" was eventually shortened to "go." The name "Chinese Bandits" actually originated when Dietzel recalled a line from the old "Terry and The Pirates" comic strip that referred to Chinese Bandits as the "most vicious people in the world." In their heyday, the Chinese Bandits were featured in Chinese masks in Life magazine. In 1980, the LSU band revived the "Bandit" tune played when the LSU defense stalls any opponent's drive.

Cotton Bowl (1966)

One of the most notable games in LSU football history was the 1966 Cotton Bowl against powerful Arkansas. The Razorbacks went into the New Year's Day tilt ranked No. 2 in the country and riding a 22-game winning streak. LSU owned a meager 7-3 mark compared to the Hogs' perfect 10-0 record, but little Joe Labruzzo silenced many a disbeliever to spark the Bayou Bengals to their greatest bowl win. The Tigers left Dallas with a 14-7 win over the Southwest Conference host Razorbacks. The Tigers have appeared in four other Cotton Bowls, tying Arkansas 0-0 (1947), beating Texas 13-0 (1963), losing to Texas 35-20 (2003) and topping Texas A&M, 41-24 (2011).

On Dec. 25, 1907, LSU was the first college team to play on foreign soil in Havana, Cuba.

Cuba: Tigers on Foreign Soil

LSU was the first college team to play on foreign soil when, in 1907, coach Edgar R. Wingard took his Tigers to Havana for an international gridiron bout. The University of Havana team had dominated every American service team it had played, but had never encountered football collegiate style. The finesse of the Tigers took the big Cuban team by surprise on Christmas Day at Almendares Park and LSU walked away with a convincing 56-0 victory before 10,000 fans.

Dormitories

Tiger Stadium is unique in that it once housed some 1,500 dorm rooms, home to many LSU students over the years. This concept was introduced in 1928 by T.P. "Skipper" Heard, who can also be credited for bringing night football to Tiger Stadium. Heard learned that LSU president James Smith proposed to use $250,000 to build new dormitories on the LSU campus. Heard sold Smith on the idea of raising the stands on both the East and West sides of the stadium and extending them to the end zones, then constructing the dorms inside the stadium. Thus the University got its dorms and Tiger Stadium's capacity increased by 10,000 seats in 1931. Today, the dorms are used for storage.

Earthquake Game (1988)

QB Tommy Hodson connected with WR Eddie Fuller in the back of the endzone for the touchdown that vaulted LSU to a 7-6 victory over Auburn on Oct. 8, 1988, to help lead the LSU Tigers to their seventh SEC crown. The moment will forever be known as the "Night the Tigers Moved the Earth," as the play caused such a thunderous explosion from the 79,341 fans in Tiger Stadium, the LSU Department of Geology registered vibrations on a seismograph machine at the exact moment the touchdown was scored.

Fighting Tigers

In the fall of 1896, coach A.W. Jeardeau's LSU football team posted a perfect 6-0-0 record, and it was in that pigskin campaign that LSU first adopted its nickname, Tigers. "Tigers" seemed a logical choice since most collegiate teams in that year bore the names of ferocious animals, but the underlying reason why LSU chose "Tigers" dates back to the Civil War. During the "War Between the States," a battalion of Confederate soldiers comprised of New Orleans Zouaves and Donaldsonville Cannoneers distinguished themselves at the Battle of Shenandoah.

These Louisiana rebels had been known by their contemporaries as the fighting band of Louisiana Tigers. Thus, when LSU football teams entered the gridiron battlefields in their fourth year of intercollegiate competition, they tagged themselves as the "Tigers." The 1955 LSU "fourth-quarter ball club" helped the moniker "Tigers" grow into the nickname, "Fighting Tigers."

The Golden Band from Tigerland

The grandest band in all the land, the Golden Band from Tigerland, is as much a part of Saturday nights in Tiger Stadium as the team itself. Among the many favorites of LSU fans is the band's traditional pregame march down North Stadium Drive from the Band Hall to the tune of "Hold That Tiger." That tradition is a carry-over from the old pregame parades through downtown Baton Rouge. Castro Carazo was the man handpicked by Louisiana Governor Huey Long in 1935 to revamp the Tiger band. Carazo and Long together wrote fan favorite "Touchdown for LSU," and two years later, Carazo also penned the official LSU fight song, "Fight For LSU." The tradition of the LSU Tiger Marching Band continues today. The LSU Tiger Marching Band is made up of some 325 musicians, Golden Girls and Colorguard members. In 1997, the band was selected as the top band in the Southeastern Conference by SEC band directors. In December 2001, the band was awarded the Sudler Trophy, the highest honor a collegiate marching band can receive. The award has been called "the Heisman Trophy of marching bands," according to Frank Wickes, former director of LSU bands. A new, state-of-the-art, 17,640 square foot band hall opened its doors on April 26, 2012.

The Golden Boot

The Golden Boot is a trophy awarded each year to the winner of the Battle for the Golden Boot football matchup between LSU and its SEC rival Arkansas. The trophy was introduced to the series prior to the 1996 season. Molded from 24-karat gold in the shape of the states of Arkansas and Louisiana, the trophy stands four feet in height, weighs nearly 200 pounds and is valued at $10,000. It is believed to be the heaviest trophy awarded in a college football rivalry. After a win in the series, the victorious team keeps the trophy until the following year's matchup.

The Golden Girls

Taking the field with the Tiger Band at LSU for the first time in 1959, the prestigious LSU Golden Girls represent the oldest and most established danceline on the LSU campus. The line consists of a very talented group of young ladies who are chosen each spring by a special audition. The Golden Girls are one of the feature units with the LSU Tiger Band and perform for all home LSU football games and selected campus events, as well as, away games with the full Tiger Band. The 2009 season represented the 50th anniversary of the group's foundation.

Hall of Famers

Thirteen members of the LSU football community have the distinction of being inductees into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame that was established in 1947. In 1956, former end Gaynell Tinsley was enshrined in South Bend, Ind., as LSU's first Hall of Famer. Ken Kavanaugh (1963), Abe Mickal (1967), Doc Fenton (1971), Tommy Casanova (1995), Billy Cannon (2009) and Jerry Stovall (2010) all have been inducted into the event that is annually held at New York City's Waldorf Astoria Hotel in December. Charles Alexander became the newest College Football Hall of Famer and the third LSU running back in the last five years to receive the call when he did so in May 2012. Alexander will be officially inducted in December 2012. Five LSU coaches are members of the NFF Hall of Fame, a list that includes the legendary Charles McClendon. Three former LSU players have earned the highest honor of being inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. Steve Van Buren was the first in 1965. Y.A. Tittle, who went on to become one of the greatest quarterbacks in history, was inducted in 1971 after a storied career with the Baltimore Colts, San Francisco 49ers and New York Giants. Four-time NFL championship winner and 1962 NFL MVP Jimmy Taylor was enshrined in 1976. Twenty-six LSU football players are also members of the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame with Terry Robiskie as the most recent inductee in the summer of 2012.

H-Style Crossbar

Unknown to many Tiger fans, the LSU football team still runs onto the field under the same crossbar that stood as part of the north end zone goalpost in Tiger Stadium as early as 1955. It had long been a tradition that the LSU football team enters the field by running under the goalpost when the new "T-style" goalposts came into vogue. By virtue of tradition, the old "H-style" posts stood on the field of Death Valley until they were finally removed in 1984. Part of the crossbar, however, was kept and mounted above the door of the Tiger Den through which the Tigers run onto the field each game. In 1993, in celebration of the centennial of LSU football, the "H-style" goalposts were returned to the end zones of Tiger Stadium. Today, Tiger Stadium is one of only three college stadiums in the nation who still use the "H-style" crossbar. Doak Campbell Stadium at Florida State and Martin Stadium at Washington State are the other two.

Halloween Night

Drama on Halloween is as traditional as pumpkins and goblins for LSU and Ole Miss. These schools have met seven times on Oct. 31 with the series tied at 3-3-1. The most notable game on All Hallow's Eve was the 1959 thriller that saw Billy Cannon return a punt 89 yards to spur a 7-3 Tiger victory. The Tigers and Rebels next met on Halloween in 1964. Ole Miss led 10-3 late in the fourth quarter in Death Valley when LSU scored a touchdown to make it 10-9. Quarterback Billy Ezell then threw to Doug Moreau in the front corner of the endzone on the two-point conversion, at nearly the exact point where Cannon had crossed the goal line five years earlier for an 11-10 win. There was a 17-year drought before the teams played on Oct. 31 again, this time at Jackson in 1981. A seesaw battle ended with a 46-yard field goal off the foot of LSU's David Johnston as time expired for a 27-27 tie. In the most recent meeting, the teams engaged in the first overtime game in LSU history at Oxford in 1998, but Ole Miss emerged with a 37-31 win. LSU is 8-6-1 all-time on Halloween night, including a 42-0 shutout of Tulane in Tiger Stadium in 2009.

Halloween Run

There have been longer scoring plays in LSU football history, but Billy Cannon's 89-yard punt return against Ole Miss in 1959 is simply, and undeniably, the most famous play in Tiger gridiron records. In fact, some consider it one of the most memorable in college football history. It was an eerie, misty and humid Halloween night, and the Rebels of Mississippi took a 3-0 lead into the final quarter, threatening to end an 18-game LSU win streak. On third and 17 from the Ole Miss 42, the Rebels' Jake Gibbs punted 47 yards to the Tiger 11 where Cannon hauled it in on the bounce. Cannon careened off seven tacklers down the east sideline and darted 89 yards to immortality. Some say it may have been that run that assured Cannon of the Heisman Trophy he received at season's end. LSU celebrated the 50-year anniversary of the legendary play in 2009 as Cannon was recognized on the field during the Tigers' game with Tulane on Halloween night.

Helmets

LSU's helmet is a striking tradition that has seen its share of changes since the program's inception. From 1947-55, a dark gold helmet was used by the Tigers. Then in 1956, head coach Paul Dietzel entered his second season by introducing a new helmet design. The helmet was changed to a yellow gold, similar to that of the Green Bay Packers, that featured a white one-inch center stripe and purple three-quarter-inch flanking stripes. It is a look that has become synonymous and identified with LSU football since its unveiling. The 1957 Tigers had the addition of black two-inch "NCAA style" identifying numerals placed on each side of the helmet and that size expanded to three inches in 1958, the year of LSU's first national title. In 1972, a logo first appeared on the helmet. In 1977, the look of the helmet that is used today was adopted.

Ice Bowl (1946)

The Tigers of 1946, though not one of Bernie Moore's two SEC Championship teams, was surely one of Moore's finest squads. Only a 26-7 loss at the hands of SEC foe Georgia Tech spoiled the season and the Y.A. Tittle-led Bayou Bengals landed in the Cotton Bowl against Arkansas and star Razorback Smackover Scott. But ice, sleet and snow pelted Dallas on that Jan. 1 as LSU filled oil drums with charcoal and started fires for makeshift heaters on the field. Fans built fires in the stands and watched the Tigers roll to 271-54 advantage in total yardage and a 15-1 lead in first downs. Those numbers, however, didn't equate on the scoreboard that showed 0-0 at game's end. The Tigers finished the season with a 9-1-1 record in Moore's penultimate season as head coach.

The Kingfish

No single person can be credited for building LSU football into the entity it is today, but one of the men who most influenced the popularity of Tiger football was neither a player nor a coach. The "Kingfish," Louisiana Governor Huey P. Long, never shied from using his political influence to aid the cause of LSU football. Two examples: In 1934, athletic director T.P. Heard reported low advance sales for the LSU-SMU game because of a circus coming to town the night of the game. Long contacted the proper Barnum and Bailey representatives and informed them of a near-forgotten animal-dipping law. The show was canceled and LSU-SMU ticket sales took off. Later that same year, Long used his influence to "entice" passenger agents of the Illinois Central Railroad to lower fares for LSU students traveling to a road football game. When Long threatened to reassess the value of railroad bridges in the state from $100,000 to $4 million, the railroad generously agreed to give LSU students a $6 roundtrip fare for the Vanderbilt game that season.

Night Games in Tiger Stadium

The tradition of playing night games in Tiger Stadium began on Oct. 3, 1931, when LSU downed Spring Hill, 35-0, under the lights. The idea of night football was introduced by T.P. "Skipper" Heard, then graduate manager of athletics and later athletics director. Several reasons were cited for playing LSU games at night, including avoiding the heat and humidity of afternoon games, avoiding scheduling conflicts with Tulane and Loyola and giving more fans the opportunity to see the Tigers play. An immediate increase in attendance was noted, and night football soon became ingrained in LSU football lore. LSU has also traditionally played better at night than in the light of day. Since 1960, LSU is 221-60-4 (.782) under the lights of Tiger Stadium and 27-25-3 (.518) during the day at home. Since head coach Les Miles took over the program in 2005, the Tigers have been dominant at home and especially at night. Under Miles, LSU boasts a 30-1 Saturday Night record in Tiger Stadium. Heading into the 2012 season, the Tigers carry the nation's longest home winning streak at 17 games.

Numbering System

LSU, in 1952, introduced a unique - and short-lived - jersey numbering system. The idea of coach Gaynell "Gus" Tinsley and publicity director Jim Corbett, the system utilized an abbreviation of the player's position on his jersey. Thus, ends, guards and tackles wore the letters "E", "G" and "T" followed by a single-digit number. The right side of the line wore even numbers, the left side odd numbers. In similar fashion the centers, quarterbacks, left halfbacks, right halfbacks and fullbacks wore "C", "Q", "L", "R" and "F", respectively, followed by single-digit numerals. The 1953 LSU yearbook, the Gumbo, boldly predicted that the new system "may revolutionize the football jersey manufacturing industry." It didn't.

Ole War Skule

LSU began in 1860 as the Louisiana State Seminary of Learning and Military Academy, shortly before the beginning of the Civil War. In fact, LSU's first superintendent was Civil War commander William Tecumseh Sherman. "Ole War Skule" was formerly a popular reference to LSU, as was the term "Old Lou."

Perfect Seasons

LSU has had six unblemished seasons in its history. The Tigers first went undefeated and untied in 1895 under head coach A. P. Simmons with a 3-0 record, but the first truly great LSU team is considered to be the 1908 squad led by one of the most legendary players to wear the Purple and Gold—Doc Fenton. That 1908 team, coached by Edgar R. Wingard, soared through a 10-game schedule without a loss or tie as Fenton scored an incredible 125 points on the year. It was 50 years before LSU would post another perfect season, winning the national championship in 1958 with an 11-0 mark.

Purple & Gold

There is some discrepancy in the origin of Royal Purple and Old Gold as LSU's official colors. It is believed that those colors were worn for the first time by an LSU team in the spring of 1893 when the LSU baseball squad beat Tulane in the first intercollegiate contest played in any sport by Louisiana State University. Team captain E.B. Young reportedly hand-picked those colors for the LSU squad. Later that year, the first football game was played. On Nov. 25, 1893, football coach/chemistry professor Dr. Charles Coates and some of his players went into town to purchase ribbon to adorn their gray jerseys as they prepared to play the first LSU gridiron game. Stores were stocking ribbons in the colors of Mardi Gras - purple, gold, and green - for the coming Carnival season. However, none of the green had yet arrived at Reymond's Store at the corner of Third and Main streets. Coates and quarterback Ruffin Pleasant bought up all of the purple and gold stock and made it into rosettes and badges.

The Rag

The Rag was the traditional spoils of victory in the LSU-Tulane rivalry for many years. This flag, decorated half in LSU's colors of purple and gold and the other half adorned in the green and white of Tulane, was held for one year by the victorious school until the game the following season. The whereabouts of the original flag are unknown; however, a new version of The Rag was awarded to the LSU squad after the Tigers defeated the Greenies, 48-17, in the 2001 season opener in Death Valley.

The Rivalry: LSU vs. Tulane

LSU's rivalry with the Green Wave of Tulane was a natural from the game's infancy. The Greenies won LSU's first football game in 1893 by a 34-0 count, but over the ensuing seasons, the Tigers have dominated the series and own a 68-22-7 margin over their neighbors from New Orleans. The proximity of the schools made for the development of the rivalry in its early years and, by 1913, fans began to travel the distance by automobile instead of by train. Today's Tiger fan can traverse the distance from Tiger Stadium to the Louisiana Superdome in less than 90 minutes, but in the early years, according to the New Orleans Times-Picayune "with a good car, it can be negotiated in perfect comfort in six hours." The two schools renewed the series in 2007 as LSU defeated Tulane, 34-9, in the Superdome. The most recent meeting occurred in 2009 when the Tigers shutout the Green Wave, 42-0, on Halloween night in Tiger Stadium.

Songs of LSU

Hey Fightin' Tigers

Hey, Fightin' Tigers, fight all the way
Play Fightin' Tigers, win the game today.

You've got the know how,
you're doing fine,
Hang on to the ball as you hit the wall
And smash right through the line

You've got to go for a touchdown
Run up the score.
Make Mike the Tiger stand right up and roar.
ROAR!

Give it all of your might as you fight tonight and keep the goal in view.
Victory for L-S-U!

"Hey, Fighting Tigers," was adapted from the Broadway show tune "Hey, Look Me Over" by Cy Coleman. The song appeared in the musical Wildcat starring Lucille Ball. LSU obtained special permission to use the melody that can be heard in and around Tiger Stadium on Saturday nights in the fall.

Like Knights of old, Let's fight to hold
The glory of the Purple Gold.

Let's carry through, Let's die or do
To win the game for dear old LSU.

Keep trying for that high score;
Come on and fight,
We want some more, some more.

Come on you Tigers, Fight! Fight! Fight! for dear old L-S-U.
RAH!

Touchdown for LSU

Tigers! Tigers! They've come to town,
They fight! They fight! Call a first down,
Just look them over, and how they can go,
Smashing the line with runs and passes high and low.

Touchdown! Touchdown! It's Tigers' score.
Give them hell and a little bit more.
Come on you Tigers, Fight them, you Tigers,
Touchdown for LSU.
Rah! U. Rah!

Fight for LSU (Official Fight Song)

Tiger Rag (Hold that Tiger)

Following a victory, the LSU football team sings "Hey Fightin' Tigers" in the locker room.

Long ago, way down in the jungle
Someone got an inspiration for a tune,
And that jingle brought from the jungle
Became famous mighty soon.
Thrills and chills it sends thru you!
Hot! so hot, it burns you too!
Tho' it's just the growl of the tiger
It was written in a syncopated way,
More and more they howl for the "Tiger"
Ev'ry where you go today
They're shoutin'
Where's that Tiger! Where's that Tiger!
Where's that Tiger! Where's that Tiger!
Hold that Tiger! Hold that Tiger!
Hold that Tiger!

Billy Cannon and Warren Rabb make a stop at the South End Zone.

South End Zone

Whether it be the 1959 goal line stand that sealed victory for the Tigers against Ole Miss on the "Billy Cannon Run" night or Bert Jones' pass to Brad Davis as time expired to beat the Rebels in 1972, the south end zone of Tiger Stadium has become somewhat of an enigma for the sometimes strange and often memorable plays in LSU football. The Tiger defenders have put together numerous goal line stands at the south end zone, including the following games: 1985 Colorado State, 1985 Florida, 1986 North Carolina, 1986 Notre Dame, 1988 Texas A&M, 1991 Florida State, 1992 Miss. State and 1996 Vanderbilt. In 1988, the Tigers stymied the Texas

A&M Aggies at the LSU two-yard line despite the distraction of a bank of lights going dark midway through A&M's series of plays. For that series, LSU's defense was nicknamed the "Lights Out Defense." The first great goal line stand at that end of the field may have been in that 1959 game when Warren Rabb and Billy Cannon halted Ole Miss' Doug Elmore at the one-yard line for the 7-3 victory. Then, in 1971, the first and most memorable of LSU's three goal line stands against Notre Dame was at the one-yard line at the South end of the field as Louis Cascio and Ronnie Estay hit the Irish's Andy Huff at the goal en route to a 28-8 Tiger victory.

Super Bowl Champions

Super Bowl champion is a phrase that has become synonymous with former LSU football players. A total of 46 former Tigers have played in pro football's ultimate game and 27 have claimed a Super Bowl ring. At least one former LSU player has won a Super Bowl title in each of the past 11 years dating back to 2002. LSU greats Jimmy Taylor of the Green Bay Packers and Johnny Robinson of the Kansas City Chiefs played in the first Super Bowl in 1967. Robinson and offensive lineman Remi Prudhomme were the first to win a Super Bowl as the Chiefs claimed Super Bowl IV with a 23-7 victory over the Minnesota Vikings. New York Giants cornerback Corey Webster became the most recent Super Bowl champion, earning his second ring when the Giants upset the New England Patriots in Super Bowl XLVI. Kevin Faulk has claimed more Super Bowl rings than any former Tiger in school history with three – all with the New England Patriots.

Former LSU cornerback Corey Webster started for the Super Bowl champion New York Giants.

Tailgating

It has often been pondered whether the attraction of night football is because of the excitement of the atmosphere created by a game under the lights, the more pleasant weather of an evening after the sun has set, or because it allows more time for tailgating. If it is not football that people of South Louisiana crave, then it is food. Tiger fans arrive as early as Thursday evening for Saturday games, set up their motor homes and kick back for a weekend of cooking and enjoyment for two days until kickoff. A stroll across the LSU campus and through the parking lots is a veritable connoisseur's treat. Common entrees include crawfish, boiled shrimp and jambalaya and, on occasion, one will run across a cochon-de-lait (pig roast). In 2008, ESPN.com ranked LSU as the top tailgating destination in America. In 2010, Sporting News, proclaimed "Saturday Night in Death Valley" and Tiger tailgating as the top traditions in all of college football. LSU's legendary tailgating experience was recently named No. 1 by the Associated Press in a September 2010 poll.

Victory Hill

A pregame ritual for many Tiger fans is to line North Stadium Drive in the hours before kickoff to see the Tiger Marching Band in its walk from the band hall. The band pauses each game on the hill next to the Journalism Building to play "Tiger Rag," to the delight of the LSU throngs. Former head coach Curley Hallman began the tradition in the early 1990s of leading the team by foot down Victory Hill from Broussard Hall two hours before the game. That practice became so popular that Gerry DiNardo, Nick Saban and Les Miles have continued the tradition, even though the team began to stay in a hotel the night before home games. The team buses drive from the on-campus Lod Cook Hotel to the top of Victory Hill between the Academic Center and Journalism Building in order for the players to make their traditional walk down.

John Ferguson

Jim Hawthorne

Voice of the Tigers

For more than 40 years, John Ferguson was known as the "Voice of the Tigers." Ferguson's distinctive baritone voice could be heard nationwide as few teams played night games during his tenure, which began in 1946. The most famous call of all plays, though, belongs to J.C. Politz who was the "Voice of the Tigers" in 1959 when Billy Cannon made his legendary 89-yard Halloween run. Ferguson later returned to the broadcast booth doing television for TigerVision broadcasts beginning in 1984. At that time, Jim Hawthorne took over the radio duties and remains today the football, men's basketball and baseball "Voice of the Tigers." Hawthorne has called some of the greatest moments in LSU history, including play-by-play for the Tigers' 2003 and 2007 national championship seasons. Ferguson passed away at the age of 86 on Dec. 19, 2005.

"Billy Cannon watches it bounce, he takes it at his own 11, he comes back upfield to the 15, stumbles momentarily, he's at the 20, running hard at the 25, gets away from one man at the 30, still runs at the [inaudible] ...at the 35, at the 45... he's on the 50, he's in the clear on the 45, the 40 [inaudible due to crowd noise]...the 15, the 10, the 5 he scores!

"Billy Cannon raced some 89 yards for a touchdown. Listen to the cheers for Billy Cannon as he comes off the field...great All-American!"

The White House

Winning BCS national championships carries the privilege of visiting Washington D.C., and touring the White House. The Tigers have taken part in Champions Day at the White House following its two recent BCS titles. Head coach Les Miles and his team had the chance to meet President George W. Bush on the South Lawn in April 2008. Miles presented President Bush with a No. 7 jersey, in reference to the 2007 season, and Jacob Hester gave the 43rd president of the United States a bronze football. LSU also took a tour of the National Mall area which including visits to the Lincoln Memorial, the Washington Monument, the National World War II Memorial, the Korean War Veterans Memorial and the Vietnam Veterans Memorial. The Tigers visited the Walter Reed Army Medical Center, toured the Pentagon and witnessed the changing of the guard at the Tomb of the Unknowns at the Arlington National Cemetery.

(Top Left) "LSU" was added to the chest of the jersey in 2009, the first time in modern school history that the name of the school appeared on the jersey. White Jerseys

LSU is one of the few college football teams that traditionally wear white jerseys for home games. The tradition originated when LSU won its first national championship in 1958. Head coach Paul Dietzel had a habit of tinkering with the uniform every year. In 1958, he chose to wear white jerseys for LSU's home games, and the Tigers subsequently won the national championship. A superstitious man, Dietzel didn't change the uniform after that season. LSU continued to wear white jerseys for home games throughout the Charlie McClendon Era. When Jerry Stovall took over as head coach in 1980, he said the Tigers would occasionally wear purple jerseys so that home fans could see a different color. In 1982, the NCAA changed its jersey rule, requiring teams to wear dark colored jerseys for home games. The Tigers wore purple jerseys for all home games from 1983 to 1994. When Gerry DiNardo became head coach in 1995, he vowed to change the NCAA jersey rule. After petitioning the rules committee of the American Football Coaches Association, he personally met with each member of the NCAA Football Rules Committee. DiNardo's efforts were successful and the Tigers were allowed to wear white jerseys again beginning in 1995. A stipulation of the new rule was that the visiting team would have to give the home team permission to wear the white jerseys. The first team to deny LSU's request was DiNardo's former team, Vanderbilt. Instead of going back to purple jerseys, the Tigers took to the field in new gold jerseys. The SEC later adopted a league rule stipulating that the home team has sole discretion in determining its jersey color. Nick Saban became LSU's head coach in 2000 and continued the white jersey tradition, but with a twist. Saban decided that LSU would wear purple jerseys for all non-SEC games, except the home opener. That tradition continues today. In 1997, LSU donned gold jerseys against Notre Dame in the Independence Bowl. In the 2009 regular season finale against Arkansas, the Tigers sported white Nike Pro Combat uniforms trimmed in purple and gold accents. LSU was only one of 10 schools across the country to wear the uniform. Nike designed the Pro Combat uniform to address the evolution of the game. LSU wore a similar Pro Combat uniform against Auburn during the 2011 season.

One team national championship, three Southeastern Conference championships and 15 teams qualifying for NCAA postseason play in 2011-12 continued the tradition of excellence established by LSU Athletics. A banner year saw the women's outdoor track and field team claim its 15th national title. On the diamond, the softball team reached its first College World Series since 2004 under first-year coach Beth Torina, while Paul Mainieri led the baseball Tigers to their 15th SEC title and a No. 9 national ranking. A 13-win season, an SEC title and a No. 2 national ranking perpetuated the success of the football team under Les Miles.

On the Prowl

Mike the Tiger was recently ranked in the top three in a Bleacher Report poll of college football's top live mascots. Mike's habitat is one of the most visited attractions in the state of Louisiana located in the shadows of the north endzone of Tiger Stadium.

Mike THE TIGER

History of Mike

Few mascots in the country are as admired as Mike the Tiger. LSU's live Bengal mascot serves as the graphic image of all LSU athletic teams. The school has had six mascots, with the most recent, Mike VI, taking over the reign prior to the 2007 national championship football season. LSU veterinarian Dr. David Baker began the search for the young tiger after his predecessor, Mike V, died in May 2007 of renal failure at the age of 17. The seven-year-old Bengal/Siberian mix, formerly known as "Roscoe," was donated to LSU by Great Cats of Indiana in Idaville, Ind., a nonprofit sanctuary and rescue facility for big cats and other large carnivores.

Mike's ride through Tiger Stadium before home games in a travel trailer topped by the LSU cheerleaders is a school tradition. Before entering the stadium, his trailer on wheels is parked next to the opponent's locker room in the southeast end of the stadium. Opposing players must make their way past Mike's trailer to reach their locker room.

Tradition dictates that the Tigers will score a touchdown for every growl issued by Mike before a football game. For many years, Mike was prompted to roar by pounding on the cage. Objections of cruel punishment brought about the use of recorded growls to play to the crowd before the games. That practice was discontinued shortly afterward and today Mike participates in the pregame tradition without provocation.

In the mid-1980's, pranksters cut the locks on Mike IV's cage and freed him in the early-morning hours just days before the annual LSU-Tulane clash. Mike roamed free, playfully knocking down several small pine trees in the area, before being trapped in the Bernie Moore Track Stadium where police used tranquilizer guns to capture and return the Bengal Tiger to his home.

The incident was reminiscent of a kidnapping of Mike I many years ago by Tulane students before a Tiger-Green Wave battle.

Prior to kickoff Mike VI and the LSU cheerleaders parade around the field of Tiger Stadium.

Mike I

The original Mike was purchased from the Little Rock Zoo in 1936 for $750, with money contributed by the student body. Originally known as "Sheik" at the time of his purchase, his name was changed to Mike to honor Mike Chambers who served as LSU's athletic trainer when the first mascot was purchased. The first Mike was housed in the Baton Rouge Zoo for one year before a permanent home was constructed near Tiger Stadium. Mike I reigned for 20 years before dying of pneumonia.

Mike's Habitat

In 2005, a new environment (above) was created for Mike that is 15,000 square feet in size with lush planting, a large live oak tree, a beautiful waterfall and a stream evolving from a rocky backdrop overflowing with plants and trees. The habitat has, as a backdrop, an Italianate tower - a campanile - that creates a visual bridge to the Italianate architectural vernacular that is the underpinning of the image of the entire beautiful LSU campus. This spectacular habitat features state-of-the-art technologies, research, conservation and husbandry programs, as well as educational, interpretive and recreational activities. It is, in essence, one of the largest and finest Tiger habitats in the United States.

Sneaux Day

On Dec. 11, 2008, a winter storm blanketed Baton Rouge that hadn't been seen in decades. The early white Christmas gave Mike VI, LSU's live Bengal/Siberian tiger, a chance to relax and play in nearly two inches of accumulation.

1956-1958

Mike II

The second Mike served a brief reign, lasting only through the 1957 season before dying of pneumonia in the spring of 1958. He was born at the Audubon Zoo in New Orleans and came to LSU on Sept. 28, 1956. The young tiger was held overnight in Tiger Stadium and unveiled Sept. 29, the opening day of the football season.

Mike III

Just in time for the 1958 national championship season, Mike III was purchased from the Woodland Park Zoo in Seattle, Wash., following a "national search" by then-athletic director Jim Corbett. The student body contributed $1,500 for the purchase of the tiger. Mike III served as mascot for 18 seasons, dying after the only losing season of his reign, as LSU posted a 5-6 record in 1975.

Mike IV

Mike IV reigned over Tiger athletics for 14 years after being donated to the school by August A. Busch III from the Dark Continent Amusement Park in Tampa, Fla., on Aug. 29, 1976. Born on May 15, 1974, Mike's age and health were determining factors in his retirement to the Baton Rouge Zoo in 1990. Mike IV died of old age in March of 1995 at the age of 21.

Mike V

Mike V was donated by Dr. Thomas and Caroline Atchison of the Animal House Zoological Park in Moulton, Ala. Dr. Sheldon Bivin of the LSU School of Veterinary Medicine traveled to Alabama and brought the baby tiger back to Baton Rouge. Born Oct. 18, 1989, the new tiger was introduced to LSU fans at a basketball game against Alabama in February of 1990. He officially began his reign on April 30, 1990, when he was moved into the tiger habitat across from Tiger Stadium. Mike V died on May 18, 2007, at the age of 17.

Mike VI

Mike VI arrived in Baton Rouge on Aug. 25, 2007, thanks to the donation by Great Cats of Indiana. He was officially designated as the successor to Mike V on Sept. 8, when LSU played host to Virginia Tech. Six days later, on Sept. 14, 2007, a ceremony was held to honor Mike V and dedicate the habitat to Mike VI. The seven-year-old Bengal/Siberian mix, formerly known as "Roscoe," reigned over a football national title in his first year and most recently, a 2011 Southeastern Conference championship and perfect regular season.

LSU GREATS

The following nine individuals are the only athletes to have their jerseys retired by LSU. Men's basketball has retired the No. 23 for Pete Maravich, No. 50 for Bob Pettit, Jr., No. 33 for Shaquille O'Neal and No. 40 for Rudy Macklin. Women's basketball retired the No. 33 for Seimone Augustus. Football's only two retired jerseys are the No. 20 worn by Billy Cannon and the No. 37 worn by Tommy Casanova. Baseball retired the No. 15 in honor of longtime coach and former athletics director Skip Bertman and the No. 20 for Ben McDonald. Casanova, Macklin and McDonald joined the prestigious list in May 2009. Augustus became the first woman in LSU Athletics history to have her jersey retired in January 2010.

WORLD-CLASS TIGERS

50 Bob Pettit

Pettit led LSU to its first NCAA Final Four in 1953 and he later became the first player in NBA history to exceed the 20,000-plus point barrier. Pettit is a member of the NBA Hall of Fame, and in 1997, he was named as one of the top 50 players in NBA history.

23 Pete Maravich

"Pistol Pete," Maravich still holds the NCAA record for career points with 3,667 and for career scoring average with 44.2 points a game. He was selected the National Player of the Year in 1970 after leading the Tigers to the NIT Final Four. He scored 50-plus points an amazing 28 times. He went on to a 10-year professional career and was selected as one of the NBA's 50 greatest players in 1997.

20 Billy Cannon

One of the true legends of college football in the South, Cannon was the 1959 Heisman Trophy winner and helped the Tigers to the 1958 national title. Cannon's most memorable performance came in 1959 against Ole Miss when No. 1 LSU trailed No. 3 Ole Miss 3-0 in the fourth quarter. He fielded a punt, broke seven tackles and returned it 89 yards for the 7-3 victory. He went on to a successful 11-year professional career.

33 Shaquille O'Neal

O'Neal was the first pick in the 1992 NBA Draft. He was named MVP of the league in 2000 and was a three-time NBA Finals MVP after leading the Los Angeles Lakers to three World Championships. At LSU, O'Neal averaged 21.6 points and 13.6 rebounds for his career, and in 1991, he was named the World's Amateur Athlete of the Year as well as SEC Athlete of the Year and National Player of the Year. In 1997, he was named as one of the top 50 players in NBA history.

15 Skip Bertman

A legend in the college baseball ranks, Bertman created a dynasty at LSU, guiding the Tigers to five national titles in a 10-year stretch from 1991-2000. He also coached the United States to a bronze medal at the 1996 Olympics in Atlanta and was an assistant on the gold medal-winning U.S. squad in Seoul, Korea, in 1988. Bertman retired from coaching following the 2001 season and served as LSU's athletics director for seven years. Bertman was inducted into the College Baseball Hall of Fame in 2006.

About LSU Retired Jerseys

The retirement of the jerseys of Casanova, McDonald, Macklin and Augustus comes under a new provision of the LSU jersey retirement bylaws that says the retirement of an athlete's jersey in a particular sport does not preclude a current student-athlete in that sport from wearing the jersey number in that or any other sport, subject to the discretion of the head coach. This provision applies only to jerseys retired after January 1, 2007, so the numbers worn by Maravich, Pettit, O'Neal, Cannon and Bertman may never again be worn by future student-athletes in their respective sports. To have a jersey retired at LSU, an athlete must have completed intercollegiate competition for LSU a minimum of five years prior to nomination. Athletes must have demonstrated truly unusual and outstanding accomplishments, exceeding and in addition to all criteria used for Hall of Fame selection. Nominees must have a unanimous vote of support from the Hall of Fame committee.

Rudy Macklin 40

Rudy Macklin was a two-time basketball All-American selection during his Tiger career from 1976-81 during which time he became LSU's all-time leading rebounder with 1,276 boards and the second-leading scorer in school history behind only the legendary Pete Maravich with 2,080 points. He led the Tigers to two Elite Eight appearances and the 1981 Final Four in Philadelphia. He still holds the school single game rebound record with 32, a mark like some of the great records in any sport that may never be broken.

Tommy Casanova 37

Tommy Casanova is the only three-time All-American in the history of LSU football and is a member of the College Football Hall of Fame. During his Tiger career from 1969-71, Casanova personified versatility for his myriad of talents as he played offense, defense, returned punts and kickoffs. One of just two three-time All-SEC performers at LSU, he played six seasons with the Cincinnati Bengals of the NFL while earning his medical degree.

Ben McDonald 19

Ben McDonald won the prestigious Golden Spikes Award, given annually to the nation's most outstanding player, in 1989 and is a member of the College Baseball Hall of Fame. He led LSU to two College World Series appearances. In 1989, McDonald was named National Player of the Year by Baseball America, The Sporting News and Collegiate Baseball. He was selected by the Baltimore Orioles as the No. 1 pick in the major league draft in 1989 and went on to enjoy a 10-year major league career with the Orioles and the Milwaukee Brewers.

Seimone Augustus 33

Seimone Augustus is the only women's basketball player in school history to earn State Farm Coaches Association All-America honors three times: 2004, 2005 and 2006. Augustus became LSU's first NCAA National Player of the Year and she claimed the honor twice in 2005 and 2006. A 2006 graduate of LSU, Augustus was the 2012 WNBA Finals MVP after winning a world title. She also led the United States to a gold medal at the 2008 Beijing Olympic Games.

Tommy Casanova (left), Seimone Augustus (middle) and Rudy Macklin (right) were the newest LSU greats to have their jerseys retired during the 2009-10 athletic year.

Became LSU's first Heisman Trophy finalist invited to New York since Charles Alexander in 1977 ... The 2011 SEC Defensive Player of the Year as voted upon by the Associated Press ... Started 13 games and missed the Auburn contest ... Led the SEC in forced fumbles with six and fumble recoveries with five ... Shattered his own school record in single-season forced fumbles and finished second in LSU single-season fumble recoveries ... Ranked No. 1 nationally in fumble recoveries and was fourth nationally in forced fumbles ... Ranked second in the SEC and fourth nationally in punt return average at 15.6 yards per return and added two touchdowns ... His 421 punt return yards on 21 attempts finished as the sixth-highest total yardage in LSU single-season history ... Team leader in total tackles with 76, including 59 of the solo variety ... Also notched 7.5 tackles for loss of 45 yards, 1.5 sacks, two interceptions and nine pass breakups ... Named the SEC Championship Game MVP against Georgia after he returned a punt 62 yards for a touchdown, finished with 119 return yards, posted four solo tackles and recovered a fumble ... Became just the second player to return a punt for a TD in the game's history and the first defensive player to win the MVP award since 1994 ... Received Walter Camp National Defensive Player of the Week and SEC Defensive Player of the Week honors after he posted eight solo tackles, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery against Arkansas in his first career start at safety ... Also returned a punt 92 yards for a touchdown against the Razorbacks, which equaled the third-longest punt return in school history ... Missed the Auburn game for a violation of team rules ... Picked off his second pass of the season and added six tackles and one TFL against Florida ... Showed his game-changing abilities again versus Kentucky as he forced two fumbles, recovered and returned one for a 23-yard touchdown and posted an eight-yard sack ... Named the Walter Camp National Defensive Player of the Week after he came up big once again at West Virginia with a forced fumble that he recovered and an interception on a pass he tipped and returned to the WVU 1-yard line ... Leading tackler for LSU at Mississippi State with a career-high tying 10 stops, nine of which were solo, and one TFL ... All over the field against Northwestern State with four tackles, 1.5 TFLs, one PBU, one QB hurry and he combined with Sam Montgomery to record LSU's first sack of the season ... Picked up where he left off in 2010 by recording a career-high and team-leading 10 tackles in the season-opener against Oregon and also forced a fumble on a punt that he returned for his first career touchdown ... Earned SEC Defensive Player of the Week, Rivals.com SEC Player of the Week and the Thorpe Award Defensive Back of the Week honors after his phenomenal performance against Oregon in which he also added a half tackle for a loss and two pass breakups.

FRESHMAN SEASON (2010)

Made an immediate impact as a true freshman, serving as a reserve cornerback and as the nickel back ... Played in all 13 games with one start at left cornerback against Louisiana-Monroe ... Les Miles

— HEAD COACH —

2011 AP National Coach of the Year
2011 Home Depot National Coach of the Year
2011 Walter Camp National Coach of the Year
2011 AFCA National Coach of the Year

Now seven years into his reign as head coach at LSU, Les Miles has guided the Tiger football program to its most successful stretch - both on and off the field - in the history of the sport at the school. With 75 victories, two SEC titles and two appearances in the BCS National Championship Game, LSU's success since the start of the 2005 season is unmatched in college football. In the classroom, LSU ranks second in the SEC to only Vanderbilt in the most recent release of graduation rates as 152 Tigers have earned their degree under Miles' watch. On the field, LSU's 75 victories over the past seven years are the most by a team in the nation's toughest conference - the SEC - during that span.

While LSU came up a game short of claiming its second BCS title under Miles in 2011, it was still a record-setting season for Miles and the Tigers. LSU went 13-0 during the regular season for the first time in school history, beat a school-record eight Top 25 teams, registered 12 of its 13 wins by double-figures and spent 11 straight weeks as the nation's No. 1 ranked team. Throw in five first-team All-Americans, two national award winners, and a Heisman Trophy finalist and the 2011 regular season ranked as the most successful in school history.

Miles' accomplishments haven't come without hard work and a steadfast approach that expects excellence and dedication from his players, coaching staff and all of those who contribute to the success of LSU football. The Miles Method - a system that puts players in position to have success in the classroom, contribute and give back to the community, and compete for championships - is the foundation for which his program is built.

The results in his seven years with the program have been staggering as 152 players have graduated, 120 have earned SEC Academic Honor Roll distinction and countless hours have been spent in the community. Since the 2007 season, LSU has seen 87 of its 109 seniors get their degrees, including

LSU's Les Miles earned five National Coach of the Year honors in 2011, including the Home Depot Award (show above). Miles led LSU to its first 13-0 regular season record in school history and to eight wins over Top 25 opponents. LSU spent a school record 11 weeks ranked No. 1 in the nation in 2011.

21 of 25 seniors from the 2007 national championship team, 18 of 19 from the 2008 squad, 20 of 24 from the 2009 team, 12 of 16 from 2010 and 16 of 25 from last year's club. Twelve players during that stretch who haven't completed their requirements for graduation are currently playing in the NFL.

In the community, the Tigers played instrumental roles during the recovery efforts following Hurricanes Katrina and Rita in 2005, which were two of the worst natural disasters to hit Louisiana. A week doesn't go by when members of the football team are visiting hospitals, reading at schools or serving as motivational speakers to area youth groups. It's become the LSU way and it's a spirit that has spread through the team.

On the field, the Tigers have won more games (75) than any other program in the SEC, finished in the nation's top 10 five times and delivered a league-best 42 NFL Draft picks, including 10 first round selections. LSU's also produced 16 first-team All-Americans and had players win 11 national awards. In 2007, senior defensive tackle Glenn Dorsey became the most decorated defender in school history by winning four national awards, while Patrick Peterson followed that in 2010 by claiming two national awards - the Thorpe Award as the nation's top defensive back and the Bednarik Award as the nation's top defender. In 2011, LSU had a Heisman Trophy finalist in Tyrann Mathieu, who also claimed the Bednarik Award as the nation's top defender. For the second straight year, LSU had a player win the Jim Thorpe Award as Morris Claiborne won the award which goes to the nation's top defensive back.

Under Miles, the Tigers have posted at least 11 victories in a season five times and finished ranked among the top five in the nation three-straight years (2005, '06, and '07), a first at LSU. Miles also became the only coach in LSU history to beat Auburn, Florida and Alabama in same season - and he's done it now three times. He's the only first-year coach in SEC history to lead a team to the league's title game, and he's registered 13 wins over coaches who have won national titles.

Now seven years into the Miles tenure, the foundation for LSU football is stronger than ever. After 75 wins, including 31 over ranked opponents, and with six-straight recruiting classes rated among the top 10 in the nation, including the nation's No. 1 group in 2009, Miles and the Tigers continue to solidify their standing as one of the premier programs in college football, setting a standard that has the rest of the nation chasing.

The LSU Years

Les Miles was named LSU's 32nd head football coach on Jan. 3, 2005, and his impact with the program was immediate as he directed the Tigers to an 11-2 mark in his first year. The 2005 season served as the starting point for what has become the best seven-year stretch of football in school history, one that has seen the Tigers win more games than any other school in the SEC during that span. Miles holds the distinction of being the only coach in the history of the SEC to win at least 11 games five times during his first seven years in the league.

Miles has compiled a 75-18 record, including a remarkable 41-15 mark in SEC regular season games. Miles is the fastest coach in LSU history to reach milestone victories of 10, 20, 30, 40, 50, 60, and 70 games.

He's also won 31 games against top 25 teams and

Les and Kathy Miles with their four children, Ben, Macy, Smacker and Manny.

12 against teams in the top 10. On 18 occasions, Miles has led the Tigers to a comeback win in either the fourth quarter or overtime.

The 2011 season was a historic one for the Tigers, going 13-0 for the first time in school history and spending a record 11 straight weeks at No. 1 in the nation. LSU won 12 of its 13 games by double-figures with eight of its 13 wins coming against Top 25 opponents, both school records. As a result, Miles was named National Coach of the Year by four organizations (AP, Home Depot, Walter Camp and Liberty Mutual) as well as being awarded the SEC Coach of the Year honor following LSU's first 8-0 season in league play.

LSU, playing without returning starting quarterback Jordan Jefferson for the first four games, opened the year with a 40-27 win over No. 3 Oregon in Dallas. That win served as a springboard for road wins over No. 16 West Virginia (47-21) and Tennessee (38-7) and lopsided home victories against No. 17 Florida

LSU followed the Auburn game with a thrilling 9-6 overtime win over No. 2 Alabama and then the Tigers closed out the regular season with a 41-17 win over No. 3 Arkansas and a 42-10 victory over 12th-ranked Georgia in the SEC title game, which put the Tigers into the BCS National Championship game. Miles led LSU to wins over three SEC opponents by the largest margin of victory in the history of the series in 2011 - Ole Miss (49), Auburn (35), and Tennessee (31).

In 2010, LSU had its fourth top-10 finish and recorded its fourth season of at least 11 victories under Miles with an 11-2 mark, which culminated with a dominating 41-24 performance against Texas A&M in the Cotton Bowl. Miles guided the Tigers to four fourth quarter comebacks in 2010 as he used gutsy play calling to beat Florida on the road, 33-29, and later in the year, he led LSU to an outstanding all-around effort in a 24-21 victory over Alabama in Tiger Stadium. LSU opened 2010 with seven straight wins and jumped as high as No. 6 in the nation before falling to Auburn in late October. LSU's two losses in 2010 both came to ranked opponents by a combined margin of just 15 points.

The Tigers capped a sub-par 2008 regular season by LSU standards with a 38-3 win over 14th-ranked Georgia Tech in the Chick-fil-A Bowl, setting the stage for a nine-win season in 2009. The Tigers managed to win nine games, highlighted by its first road win over Georgia since 1987 and a 31-10 trouncing over Auburn, in the rugged SEC despite losing their top three running backs at various points during the season to injury. With a first-year starter at quarterback, LSU won its first five games and climbed as high as No. 4 in the nation in 2009. Of LSU's four losses, two came against teams ranked Nos. 1 (Alabama) and 3 (Florida) in the country as well as top 10 opponent Penn State in the Capital One Bowl.

After two of the most successful seasons in school history in 2005 and 2006, Miles again led the Tigers to a season of firsts in 2007. LSU became the first school in the Bowl Championship Series era to claim a second BCS National Title with its 38-24 win over Ohio State. LSU's first BCS title came in 2003 when the Tigers beat Oklahoma, 21-14.

With a 12-2 final record in 2007, the Tigers became the first team in school history to win at least 10 games in three-straight years. The 2007 Tigers also set a then-school record for wins over top 25 teams (7), won the SEC Championship with a backup quarterback and were ranked No. 1 in the BCS Standings during the regular season for the first time in school history. LSU finished the year ranked No. 1 in the nation in both the USA Today Coaches Poll and the AP Poll.

The road to the 2007 SEC title was anything but easy for the Tigers as LSU faced a total of seven top 25 teams, winning six of those games. After spending most of the season ranked among the top three teams in the nation, including a four-week stay at No. 1, the Tigers quickly found out that they had a target on their back each week. Time after time, LSU was getting the best shot from its opponent.

It didn't help matters that LSU played key stretches of its season with injuries to standout players. Star wideout Early Doucet missed five games; quarterback Matt Flynn wasn't healthy for close to a month; and All-American Glenn Dorsey played hurt for the final five games of the regular season. Still, LSU, with outstanding depth and a will to overcome adversity, found a way to win. Four times in 2007 the Tigers had to come from behind in the fourth quarter to win games, including its 21-14 victory over Tennessee in the SEC Championship Game.

LSU scored a touchdown with a second left to beat Auburn at home and then followed that by scoring two touchdowns in the final three minutes of the Alabama game to record a comeback win over the Crimson Tide.

Against top 10-ranked Florida, LSU scored with just over a minute left, capping a drive that saw the Tigers convert on a pair of fourth-down attempts, to beat the defending national champions, 28-24, in Tiger Stadium. LSU didn't lose a game in regulation during the 2007 regular season, falling to both Kentucky and Arkansas in triple overtime.

When it mattered most, playing without an injured Flynn, the Tigers overcame the adversity that followed in the wake of week-long media speculation leading up to the SEC Championship Game about Miles perhaps leaving LSU to take the head coaching position at Michigan. In the end, Miles remained true to his word, staying at LSU and leading the Tigers to a 21-14 win over Tennessee in the SEC title game, a victory that helped propel LSU into the BCS National Championship contest. In the BCS Championship Game, the Tigers spotted top-ranked Ohio State an early 10-0 lead, but LSU came roaring back to take a convincing win over the Buckeyes by a 38-24 count. The win gave LSU its third national title and it also marked the fourth time that decade the Tigers were victorious in a BCS bowl, the most of any SEC school.

After leading LSU to an 11-2 mark and a top five national ranking in his first year as LSU's head coach in 2005, many wondered just what Miles would do for an encore. His second year with the Tigers proved to be another year full of milestones and firsts as he guided the Tigers to another 11-2 overall record, culminating with a 41-14 dismantling of 11th-ranked Notre Dame in the Sugar Bowl.

The Tigers finished their second year under the direction of Miles ranked No. 3 in the nation, marking the first time since the 1958-59 seasons that LSU was ranked in the top five in the country in back-to-back years.

LSU's at-large berth in a BCS bowl was a first in school history and it also represented the third time during the decade that the Tigers ended their season in the Sugar Bowl.

In 2006, Miles became the first coach in LSU history to lead the Tigers to back-to-back 10-wins seasons, something that he added to with another 10-plus win season in 2007.

He became the first LSU coach since Jerry Stovall in 1982 to beat two top 10-ranked teams on the road in the same season as the Tigers posted a 28-24 win over No. 8 Tennessee in Knoxville followed by a 31-26 victory over No. 5 Arkansas in Little Rock. All four of LSU's road game opponents were ranked in the top 10 at the time of the game, a first in school history.

Even though the Tigers had to go on the road to face four top 10-ranked teams in 2006, year two under Miles seemed somewhat ordinary compared to what the Tigers had to endure during his first year in Baton Rouge.

In Miles' inaugural season at LSU he led the Tigers to only the third 11-win season in school history, a top five national ranking and a berth in the SEC Championship Game, despite numerous distractions that covered most of the months of September and October.

The Tigers, playing without starting quarterback and future No. 1 overall NFL Draft pick JaMarcus Russell, put an exclamation point on the year with a 40-3 win over No. 9 Miami in the Peach Bowl to finish with an 11-2 overall mark and a No. 5 national ranking.

To appreciate just how adverse the conditions that Miles and the Tigers had to overcome in 2005, you have to go back to late August and Hurricane Katrina, the first of two storms to devastate Louisiana during the fall.

Days before LSU's originally scheduled season opener against North Texas in Tiger Stadium, Hurricane Katrina blew ashore, packing tremendous winds, and turned the state, in particular New Orleans and southeastern Louisiana, upside down.

Massive flooding followed in the wake of the storm as more than 30 LSU players had their families and their homes affected by the hurricane and Miles' first game in Tiger Stadium against North Texas was postponed. With the LSU campus serving as the recovery center for those sick, homeless and displaced due to Hurricane Katrina, football seemed to be the farthest thing from most people's minds. However, Miles was able to successfully manage a delicate situation, one that saw his team and coaching staff volunteer time to those in need, while still attempting to focus on football for at least two hours a day.

After a week of trying to minimize the distractions for a football team that had their apartments and dorm rooms filled with displaced family members and friends due to the storm, it appeared that the Tigers would finally get to play a home game, this time against 15th-ranked Arizona State.

However, just as the Tigers began to prepare for the Sun Devils and the season opener in Tiger Stadium, it was learned that the devastation to New Orleans was much greater than originally thought. With the Maravich Center on the LSU campus serving as what would become the largest field triage unit in United States history, it was mutually decided to move the LSU-Arizona State game to Tempe.

With many in Louisiana under the distress of Hurricane Katrina, the Tigers were going to have to take to the desert to face a powerful offense in their first game of the season.

These were certainly trying times for everyone in the state of Louisiana, but even more so for a football coach who now had his team carrying the banner for a state in need of a diversion. LSU football had become a release for those consumed with the hurricane. LSU even re-stated its team goals, putting playing for the state of Louisiana at the top of the list.

The Tigers didn't disappoint as Miles and his LSU team used a 28-point fourth-quarter rally to come back to beat Arizona State, 35-31, in Tempe.

Now with the Arizona State game behind them, it looked as if things for the LSU football team would gradually get back to normal as the Tigers had a week off before facing Tennessee in Tiger Stadium on Sept. 24.

Then, the unthinkable happened. Another storm, this one named Rita, hit southwest Louisiana, causing severe damage to more homes, leaving thousands without electricity and displacing even more Louisiana natives. The combination of Hurricanes Katrina and Rita forced LSU to again shuffle its schedule. Instead of playing Tennessee on a Saturday night in Tiger Stadium, the Tigers would now be forced to face the Volunteers on a Monday night. An emotionally drained LSU team saw a 21-0 halftime lead evaporate into a 30-27 overtime loss to the Vols.

There was no coaching handbook for Miles to refer to when it came to dealing with the hurricanes and preparing a team for competition during extreme adverse conditions. Miles was on his own, forced to navigate his LSU team through a treacherous stretch of games, while also being sympathetic to those still affected by the natural disasters.

With just five days between the Tennessee loss and the Mississippi State game, Miles and the Tigers were obviously dealt an unfair hand, however, he asked his team to respond and they did. The Mississippi State contest was the starting point for a stretch of games for the Tigers that saw LSU win nine contests in nine straight weeks of play. The 37-7 win over the Bulldogs was followed by a 34-6 road victory over Vanderbilt as the Tigers had re-established themselves as one of the nation's elite on the football field.

During what would be 11-consecutive weeks of play, the Tigers posted a win over Florida, along with overtime victories against Auburn and Alabama. In all, the Tigers beat four teams ranked among the top 15 in the nation, then a school record for regular season victories over ranked opponents.

After 10-straight weeks of play during the regular season, the Tigers fashioned a 7-1 conference mark and earned a berth in the SEC title game.

Miles became the only coach in his first year in the SEC to lead his squad to the league's title game. He also became the first coach in LSU history to beat Alabama, Auburn and Florida in the same season.

Following a loss to Georgia in the league's title game, Miles and the Tigers re-grouped, this time to beat No. 9 Miami, 40-3, in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl. The win gave the Tigers 11 victories for the year, making Miles the winningest first-year coach in school history.

Oklahoma State Years

In four short years, Miles turned the Oklahoma State football program into one that was nationally competitive, despite competing in-state against one of the country's dominant programs.

Miles honed his head coaching skills at Oklahoma State. Under Miles' direction, the Cowboys were the only team in the nation to beat Oklahoma twice in the four-year period, and he was also the first coach in Oklahoma State history to post wins over Nebraska and Oklahoma in the same season.

Miles led the Cowboys to three-straight bowl appearances, an accomplishment Oklahoma State had not achieved since Jimmy Johnson started a string of three-straight postseason games beginning in 1983. In addition, Oklahoma State's appearance in the Cotton Bowl to cap the 2003 season marked the first time in 55 years that the Cowboys appeared in a January bowl game.

As head coach at Oklahoma State, he built a consistent winner out of a program that had recorded only one winning season since 1988, and had posted a record of 13-20 in the three years prior to his arrival at OSU. After going 4-7 in his first year as head coach in 2001, he took the Cowboys to consecutive winning marks of 8-5 in 2002, 9-4 in 2003 and 7-5 in 2004.

Miles led Oklahoma State to a four-year record of 28-21 for a winning percentage of 57.1, the best career winning percentage for an OSU coach since Jim Lookabaugh ended his career in Stillwater in 1949.

Miles was the 2002 Big 12 Conference Coach of the Year after directing his second Oklahoma State team to an 8-5 record and the school's first bowl appearance since 1997.

The Cowboys, who averaged 34.4

points per game, closed the 2002 season with wins in six of their last seven games, including a 38-28 victory over then-No. 3 ranked Oklahoma in the regular-season finale. The Cowboys capped the 2002 season with a 33-23 win over Southern Miss in the Houston Bowl.

Assistant Coach Years

Prior to his tenure as head coach at Oklahoma State, Miles was the tight ends coach for the Dallas Cowboys for three seasons from 1998-2000. During his three years with the Cowboys, Dallas won one divisional title, while participating in the playoffs twice. In Dallas, Miles learned of LSU and the charm of the school from tight end David LaFleur, who starred for the Tigers in the 1990s. In three years of coaching tight ends for the Cowboys, Miles' players combined for 136 receptions for 1,287 yards and 16 touchdowns. LaFleur, a former LSU All-America selection, had his best year under Miles in 1999, starting 16 games and catching

Before going to Dallas, Miles served as Oklahoma State's offensive coordinator for three seasons from 1995-97, including an 8-3 season and an Alamo Bowl berth in 1997.

Miles' college playing and coaching career includes experience under some of the most noted coaches in college football. At Michigan, he played for legendary coach Bo Schembechler and later served on Schembechler's staff. He also worked with Gary Moeller at Michigan and Bill McCartney at Colorado.

Success has followed Miles at every stop of both his playing and professional career. He was a two-year letterman at Michigan (1974-75). During those two seasons, Michigan was a combined 18-3-2, had final Associated Press national rankings in the top 10 and participated in the Orange Bowl.

He joined Schembechler's Michigan coaching staff in 1980 for the first of two stints as a coach in Ann Arbor. In 1980 and 1981, Michigan combined for 19 wins and just five losses, won the Big 10 title in 1980 and played in the Rose and Bluebonnet Bowls, respectively. Miles left Michigan for Colorado, where he served on McCartney's staff from 1982 through 1986. In his final two years at Colorado, the Buffs earned bids to the Freedom Bowl and Bluebonnet Bowl.

In 1987, he returned to Michigan, where he would spend the next eight years as part of one of the most successful eras in Michigan football history. From 1987 to 1994, Michigan won 71 games, made eight straight bowl appearances, including four trips to the Rose Bowl, and finished no lower than No. 21 in final Associated Press national rankings.

The 1989 Michigan squad finished 10-2, won the Big 10 championship and finished ranked No. 7 in the country. That would be Coach Bo Schembechler's final season as Michigan's head coach.

When Moeller took over the Michigan program prior to the 1990 season, Miles remained on the staff. The 1990 team finished 9-3, winning the Big 10 title and the Gator Bowl. The following season (1991), Michigan finished 10-2 and with a No. 6 national ranking. Miles coached some of the best players to wear the Michigan uniform, including eight first-team All-

Americans, 10 total All-Americans and 12 players from Wolverine offensive lines that were NFL draftees.

Media Darling

Another thing that tends to set Miles apart from many of his peers is that of his personality and his ability to have fun, while at the same time running an elite football program. Miles has twice been involved in commercials for ESPN's College GameDay, most recently shooting a spot in Los Angeles for the 2011 season. He delivers memorable lines during his press conferences, has a tendency to "taste" grass from the field during games, and has become a viral star on the Internet. His running dialogue with ESPN personality Scott Van Pelt and the exchange of "gifts" between the two resulted in Miles shooting a basketball video dubbed "It Must Have Been The Shoes" last summer that instantly resulted in nearly 100,000 views on the Internet. He's one of the most popular coaches in social media with over 64,000 followers on Twitter, and he's become one of the most quotable coaches in the game.

Philanthropist At Heart

One of Les Miles' most impressive qualities is that of the time he spends giving to and helping causes that benefit others. Each year, Miles and his wife Kathy host an event that raises close to $100,000 for the Children's Miracle Network. In addition, he is active in other community service events such as the Mary Bird Perkins Cancer Center annual fundraiser, the Special Olympics and the Baton Rouge Children's Advocacy Center Celebrity Waiter Event.

Miles spent a week in June of 2006 taking part in the USO Tour, where the Tiger head coach visited American Troops serving in Kuwait and Iraq. Miles was joined on the tour, which serves as a morale booster for the troops serving abroad, by former Notre Dame coach Lou Holtz and Tampa Bay Rays owner Vincent Naimoli.

The week-long trip took Miles to several U.S. bases in Kuwait and then on to Iraq, where he visited with hundreds of American troops and even flew over the city of Baghdad in a Black Hawk helicopter.

Off the Field

(Top) In 2006 Miles took part in the USO Tour, where he visited American Troops in Kuwait and Iraq. (Middle) LSU coach Les Miles and his youngest son Ben were among hundreds of family and friends who welcomed back 175 members of the Louisiana National Guard's 769th Engineer Battalion at the Baton Rouge Airport. (Bottom) Miles took time out of his busy Sugar Bowl preparations schedule to spend time with the patients of New Orleans' Children's Hospital.

The Family Man

When Miles isn't overseeing his LSU football family, he can most likely be found in the bleachers supporting his wife and kids at their sporting events. His oldest daughter Kathryn, who is commonly referred to as "Smacker", is one of the top junior swimmers in the nation, while his two sons - Manny and Ben - are avid athletes who participate in everything from football to baseball to wrestling. Coach Miles also gets his share of time with the youngest of the Miles family, 9-year old Macy Grace.

Coach Miles' wife Kathy, who played point guard at Central Michigan and later served as an assistant coach at Michigan, spends time coaching Macy's basketball team.

The recipient of the 2011 Broyles National Assistant Coach of the Year, defensive coordinator John Chavis continued to put his mark on the Tiger defense in his third season at LSU in 2011. With a philosophy that features aggressive play (pressure the quarterback), a commitment to being physical (win the battle up front) and one that has the Tigers displaying a certain swagger (make opponents earn every yard) the Tigers have thrived under Chavis.

Entering his fourth season in 2012, Chavis has established the Tiger defense as one of the nation's elite as LSU has improved statistically each year since his arrival in 2009.

LSU had its best year yet under Chavis in 2011 as the Tigers capped the year ranked in the top five in the nation in four categories including total defense (No. 2 at 261.5), scoring defense (No. 2 at 11.29), pass efficiency defense (No. 3 with 95.58 rating) and rushing defense (No. 5 at 90.07). LSU also ranked No. 8 nationally in pass defense with 171.43 yards per game.

LSU's 2011 defense featured a young and explosive defensive front along with arguably the nation's top secondary with two national award winners in Tyrann Mathieu and Morris Claiborne. LSU allowed only six first half touchdowns, including just two in the first quarter, all season as the Tigers rode their dominant defense's style of play to a 13-0 regular season mark and the SEC title.

In back-to-back years, Chavis and the Tiger defense have featured the Thorpe Award winner (nation's top defensive back) in Patrick Peterson in 2010 and Claiborne in 2011 as well as the Bednarik Award winner (nation's top defender) in Peterson and Mathieu in 2011. LSU also is home to the past two SEC Defensive Players of the Year in Peterson (2010), Mathieu (2011 by AP) and Claiborne (2011 by Coaches).

LSU had four players off its 2011 defense selected in the NFL Draft, including two first rounders in Claiborne (6th overall) and defensive tackle Michael Brockers (12th overall).

In 2010, LSU led the SEC and ranked 10th in the nation in pass defense (169.8 yards per game) and they were No. 11 in scoring defense (18.2 points per game) and No. 12 in total defense (307.2 yards per game).

Chavis' 2010 defense featured Peterson, who was picked with the fifth overall selection in NFL Draft, along with linebacker Kelvin Sheppard and defensive tackle Drake Nevis, who were both first-team All-SEC picks.

John with his wife Diane.

In his first year at LSU in 2009, Chavis turned around a Tiger defense, taking a unit that ranked near the bottom of the SEC in 2008 to one that was among the top four in the league the following year. LSU finished the 2009 season ranked third in the league and 11th in the nation in scoring defense and they were fourth in the SEC in rushing defense. LSU allowed only six rushing TDs in 2009, the second-lowest total in the league.

With 23 years of experience in the rugged Southeastern Conference - 17 as a defensive coordinator - Chavis has produced a defense that has ranked among the top four in the league in total defense 12 times. Furthermore, Chavis has developed 38 players into first-team All-SEC selections since 1995 with another 13 earning first-team All-America honors.

In addition to his duties as defensive coordinator, Chavis also coaches the linebackers, a position that proved to be the strength of the LSU defense in his first two years with the Tigers. LSU's top four tacklers in 2009 were all linebackers, a first for the Tigers since the 1985 season, and in 2010, linebackers represented the top two tacklers on the team.

LSU's had linebackers selected in the NFL Draft in both 2010 and 2011 with Perry Riley going in the fourth round in 2010 and Sheppard being taken in the third round in 2011. It's the first time since the mid-80s that LSU has had linebackers picked in consecutive years in the NFL Draft.

Prior to his arrival in Baton Rouge in 2009, Chavis spent 14 seasons as the defensive coordinator at Tennessee, helping the Vols to win at least nine games in a season 11 times. The Vols won at least 10 games in a season eight times during his time as defensive coordinator, which included a school-record 13 victories during their national championship season in 1998. The Vols had 11 wins 1995, 1997, and 2001 and they won 10 games in 1996, 2003, 2004, and 2007.

With Chavis as the defensive coordinator, Tennessee made five appearances in the SEC Championship Game, winning the league title in 1997 and 1998, and they were invited to three BCS bowl games.

Other coaching accomplishments for Chavis at Tennessee include coaching four linebackers to first-team All-America honors in Leonard Little (1997), Al Wilson (1998), Raynoch Thompson (1999) and Kevin Burnett (2004). All four of those players were selected in the NFL Draft with Wilson being a first round selection. Chavis also coached Jerod Mayo, who was the 10th player taken in the 2008 NFL Draft and was named the 2008 NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year.

Chavis, who is originally from Dillon, S.C., is married to the former Diane Crisp. They are the parents of sons, John and Jason.

Steve Ensminger, a former starting quarterback for LSU, enters his third year as the Tigers' tight ends coach in 2012.

Ensminger, a 1982 graduate of LSU, played quarterback for the Tigers under head coach Charlie McClendon from 1976-79. Ensminger played in three bowl games at LSU and has followed that by coaching in 12 bowl games as an assistant at the collegiate level.

Tight end play continues to be a major part of LSU's offensive success whether it be in the running or passing game. LSU tight ends have played a key role in the Tigers' ability to run the football, while also providing a threat in the passing game. In 2011, LSU tight ends combined for 28 receptions for 294 yards and three touchdowns. Deangelo Peterson led all tight ends with 18 catches for 179 yards and a score. A ferocious blocker, Clement has also developed into a reliable hand in the passing game with seven receptions for 96 yards and a score in 2011.

In 2010, Ensminger coached a versatile group of tight ends who combined for 24 catches for 301 yard with Peterson leading the way with 16 receptions for 198 yards despite missing three games with an injury.

Ensminger joined the LSU staff after serving as an assistant coach at Auburn from 2003-08. Ensminger spent the 2009 season as the passing game coordinator at Smiths Station High School in Auburn, Ala.

During his six seasons at Auburn, Ensminger coached the quarterbacks one year (2003), followed by five years as the tight ends coach from 2004-08. As the quarterback coach at Auburn, Ensminger helped develop Jason Campbell, who went on to become an NFL first round draft pick.

While at Auburn, the Tigers led the SEC in scoring offense in both 2004 (32.1) and 2005 (32.2) and they were first in the league in total offense in 2005 (409.8).

Ensminger has also had major college coaching stops at Georgia (1991-93), Texas A&M (1994-96) and Clemson (1997-98).

At Georgia, he served as the quarterbacks coach as well as the passing game coordinator. In 1992, Georgia posted a 10-2 overall record and led the SEC in both scoring (32.0) and total offense (450.4).

Ensminger followed that with a three-year stint at Texas A&M where he was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for the Aggies. The Aggies were 25-9-1 during Ensminger's three years in College Station, which included a 10-0-1 mark in 1994 and a 9-3 record in 1995.

Following his three years at Texas A&M, Ensminger coached for two seasons at Clemson, holding the title of offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

Ensminger returned to Louisiana in 2000, serving as head coach at athletic director at Central High School for nearly three years before taking the wide receivers job at West Monroe High School for the 2002 season.

After a brief career in the NFL and CFL, Ensminger got his start in coaching in 1982 at Nicholls State as the receivers coach. After two years at Nicholls State, he moved to McNeese State as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach from 1984-86 followed by three years from 1988-90 at Louisiana Tech in the same capacity.

As a player at LSU, Ensminger threw for 2,770 yards and 16 touchdowns during his career with the Tigers. He was named Freshman All-SEC in 1976.

Ensminger, a native of Baton Rouge, is married to the former Amy Gonzales and the couple has three children - Krystalin, Brittany Rose and Steven - and one grandchild.

2012	BCS	LSU	Alabama	L, 21-0

LSU's tradition of outstanding defensive line play continued in 2011 under the direction of Brick Haley as the Tigers featured another first team All-America as well as a first round draft pick. Haley, who has coached in the NFL as well as having 11 years of experience on the sidelines in a BCS conference, enters his fourth season with the Tigers in 2012.

It was the LSU defensive line that often set the tone for the Tiger defense as they used their quickness and pass rushing ability to combine for 28.5 sacks and 64 tackles for loss. As a unit, LSU's defense ranked in the top five in the nation in four categories in 2011.

Sophomore Sam Montgomery led the group with 49 tackles, 13.5 tackles for loss and 9.0 sacks on his way to earning first-team All-America honors.

Sophomores Barkevious Mingo (46 tackles, 15.0 TFL, 8.0 sacks) and Michael Brockers (54 tackles, 10.0 TFL, 2.0 sacks) both earned second-team All-SEC honors. Brockers, who was an early entry into the NFL Draft, was selected with the 12th overall pick by the St. Louis Rams.

In 2010, the Tigers had two defensive linemen picked in the NFL Draft - Drake Nevis and Lazarius Levingston, while Al Woods was taken in the draft a year earlier. LSU's had a defensive lineman picked in the NFL Draft for nine straight years dating back to the 2004 draft.

Under Haley's direction, LSU's defensive front combined for 39 tackles for losses and 15.5 sacks in 2010 after posting 44 tackles for losses and 14 sacks in 2009.

Haley joined the Tigers in the spring of 2009 after a two-year stint as the defensive line coach with the Chicago Bears.

In two years in the NFL with the Bears, Haley coached a defensive line that helped Chicago rank No. 5 in the league in rushing yards allowed per game in 2008. The Bears finished sixth in the NFL in sacks in 2007 with defensive end Tommie Harris earning a spot in the Pro Bowl that year.

Prior to his stop in the NFL, Haley spent three years as the defensive line coach at Mississippi State from 2004-06. At Mississippi State, Haley helped improve a Bulldogs defense that finished 41st in the nation in 2006 after finishing 113th a year before his arrival. Under Haley's watch, Bulldogs defensive end Titus Brown developed into a second-team all-SEC selection after leading the team and ranking fifth in the conference in sacks in 2006.

In 2005, Haley coached the SEC leader in sacks (third in NCAA) and tackles for loss (fourth in NCAA) in Willie Evans, who spent four years in the NFL.

Before arriving at Mississippi State, Haley coached linebackers for two years (2002-2003) at Georgia Tech, where he helped the Yellow Jackets to a pair of postseason bowl games. In 2003, he coached a first-team all-ACC performer after Tech's trio of starting linebackers finished the 2002 season as the team's top-three tacklers.

Previously, Haley was the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Baylor (1999-2001) after coaching outside linebackers for one season each at Clemson (1998) and Houston (1997). The defensive line coach at Troy State from 1994-96, he was promoted to defensive coordinator following the 1996 campaign before leaving for Houston. Haley coached the defensive line at Austin Peay from 1991-93 after starting his college coaching career as a graduate assistant at Arkansas in 1990. His first coaching job was at Enterprise (Ala.) High School in 1989.

The Gadsden, Ala., native played linebacker at Alabama A&M from 1984-88 and was inducted into the school's Athletic Hall of Fame in 2005. He received Alabama A&M's Inspiration Award in 1987 and was named football MVP for the 1988 season. He and his wife, Tina, have three sons: Adrian, A.J. and Jeremy.

 2012 LSU (wide receivers)

Adam Henry, who spent the past five seasons on the coaching staff of the Oakland Raiders, enters his first season as LSU's wide receivers coach after joining the staff in February.

A native of Beaumont, Texas, Henry was a four-year letterwinner as a wide receiver at McNeese State from 1990-93 and later served on the Cowboys coaching staff for 10 years. Henry coached the wide receivers at McNeese State from 1997 to 2005 and then added assistant head coach and offensive coordinator duties in 2006.

Henry is one of four LSU assistant coaches with NFL coaching experience, joining quarterbacks coach Steve Kragthorpe, defensive line coach Brick Haley and special teams coordinator Thomas McGaughey.

After 10 years at McNeese State, Henry joined the Raiders in 2007 as offensive quality control coach, a position he held for two seasons. Henry was elevated to tight ends coach in 2009 and he held that title for three years.

During his three years as Oakland's tight ends coach, Henry continued the development of Zach Miller, who became the first tight end in franchise history to lead the team in receiving for three straight years. Miller caught a career-best 66 passes for 805 yards in 2009 and a year later he earned a spot in the Pro Bowl for the first time.

As the wide receivers coach at McNeese State, Henry produced the all-time leading receiver in school history in Jermaine Martin as well as the 2003 Southland Conference Player of the Year in B.J. Sams.

As a player at McNeese State, Henry earned All-Southland Conference honors in 1993. He finished his collegiate career with 93 receptions for 1,690 yards and 16 touchdowns, all of which remain top 10 marks in school history.

Following his career at McNeese State, Henry signed a free agent contract with the New Orleans Saints in 1994 and he spent the preseason on the Saints roster in 1995 and 1996. He was on the Saints practice squad for the 1995 season. Henry graduated from McNeese State in 1998 and then followed with a Master's degree in education in 2001. Henry has three children - Darian, Kynidee and Ava.

Steve Kragthorpe, who spent seven years as the head coach at Tulsa and Louisville, is in his second season as LSU's quarterbacks coach. With a tremendous offensive mind, a keen eye for talent and the ability to help quarterbacks improve, Kragthorpe has already shown that he's the perfect fit for the LSU staff.

Kragthorpe joined the Tigers in January of 2011 and was originally tabbed as LSU's offensive coordinator. However, Kragthorpe relinquished that role before the start of fall practice after being diagnosed with Parkinson's disease. Kragthorpe remains as LSU's quarterbacks coach and has stayed involved with the day-to-day operations of the offense with offensive coordinator Greg Studrawa.

Kragthorpe's impact of the Tiger offense was immediate as under his tutelage senior Jarrett Lee thrived during the first two months of the season, leading the Tigers to a 9-0 mark and the No. 1 national ranking by throwing for 14 touchdowns and just three interceptions. Upon his return from an early season suspension, senior Jordan Jefferson regained his starting quarterback duties and guided the Tigers to a 4-0 record over the final four games, leading LSU to a win over Georgia in the SEC title game and an appearance in the BCS National Championship contest. In 2011, LSU quarterbacks combined to throw for 21 touchdowns and only five interceptions all year as the Tigers ranked No. 2 in the SEC in pass efficiency with a 147.53 rating.

In 2012, Kragthorpe now turns his attention to a trio of young and inexperienced quarterbacks, two of which have never taken a collegiate snap, in junior Zach Mettenberger, and redshirt freshmen Stephen Rivers and Jerrard Randall. Mettenberger goes into 2012 as the starter with Rivers and Randall battling for the backup role.

Kragthorpe broke into the head coaching ranks in 2003 at Tulsa where he resurrected the Golden Hurricane program. Prior to his arrival in 2003, Tulsa had suffered through 11 straight seasons with a losing record. In his first year, Kragthorpe guided Tulsa to an 8-5 record and an appearance in the Humanitarian Bowl, which was the first post-season game for the Golden Hurricane since 1991.

He was named WAC Coach of the Year in 2003, a season that saw Tulsa post the biggest turnaround in college football, going from 1-11 in 2002 to 8-5 in 2003. Kragthorpe was also a finalist for the Bear Bryant and Bobby Dodd Coach of the Year Awards in 2003.

Two years later in 2005, Kragthorpe led Tulsa to the Conference USA title with a 9-4 record and a 44-27 win over Central Florida in the C-USA Championship Game. Tulsa capped the 2005 season with a 31-24 victory over Fresno State in the Liberty Bowl, the first bowl victory for the Golden Hurricane since a 28-17 win over San Diego State in the 1991 Freedom Bowl.

In his fourth and final season at Tulsa in 2006, the Golden Hurricane went 8-5 and earned a berth in the Armed Forces Bowl. In four years at Tulsa, Kragthorpe went 29-22 and became only the second coach in school history to lead the Golden Hurricane to three bowl games.

Steve and Cynthia Kragthorpe and sons Chris, Brad, and Nik.

Kragthorpe took over as head coach at Louisville in 2007, coaching the Cardinals for three years, going 15-21. In seven years as a collegiate head coach, Kragthorpe has a 44-43 overall mark.

Prior to his head coaching duties at Tulsa, Kragthorpe coached quarterbacks for two years in the NFL with the Buffalo Bills. In his second season with the Bills, Kragthorpe helped Drew Bledsoe set a franchise record with 4,359 passing yards on his way to earning a spot in the Pro Bowl that year.

Kragthorpe spent four years at Texas A&M from 1997-2000 where he served as the offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach. During his four years with the Aggies, Texas A&M posted a 35-15 overall record, claimed the Big 12 title in 1998 and played in four bowl games, including the 1999 Sugar Bowl.

Kragthorpe's other coaching stops include one year as the quarterbacks coach at Boston College in 1996 where he tutored future NFL quarterback Matt Hasselback; two years as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at North Texas in 1994-95 where quarterback Mitch Maher set the single-season school record for passing yards and total offense; and four years at Northern Arizona where he coached quarterbacks for the first two years and then added offensive coordinator to his duties for the final two seasons. At Northern Arizona, he coached Jeff Lewis, who spent five years as a backup quarterback in the NFL.

He got his start in coaching as a graduate assistant in 1988-89 where he served on his father's staff at Oregon State. Kragthorpe's dad, Dave, served as a head coach at the collegiate level for 10 years coaching at South Dakota State, Idaho State and Oregon State. He led Idaho State to the 1981 I-AA national title.

As a player, Kragthorpe spent two years at Eastern New Mexico before transferring to West Texas State. As a senior at West Texas State in 1987, he started 11 games and threw for 1,980 yards and nine touchdowns. Kragthorpe graduated from West Texas State (now West Texas A&M) in 1988 and then added a Master's degree in business administration from Oregon State in 1989.

Kragthorpe, a native of Missoula, Mont., and his wife Cynthia, have three sons - Chris, Brad and Nik. Chris recently finished his playing career as an offensive lineman at Wheaton College in Oklahoma; Brad is a redshirt freshman quarterback at Idaho State; and Nik is the starting quarterback at University High School in Baton Rouge.

Thomas McGaughey, who won a Super Bowl with the New York Giants and then helped LSU to the BCS national title game in 2011, enters his second season as the Tigers' special teams coordinator in 2012.

It didn't take long for McGaughey's impact to be felt as the Tigers consistently had one of the best all-around performances in special teams week after week in 2011. Redshirt freshman punter Brad Wing earned several first-team All-America honors after averaging 44.4 yards on 59 punts. Wing and the Tigers ranked fifth in the nation by allowing just 3.65 yards per punt return. The Tigers also led the SEC and ranked third in the country in net punting with a 41.15 average.

First-time starter Drew Alleman converted on 16-of-18 field goals, including the game-winner in overtime against Alabama. A true freshman handled LSU's kickoffs as James Hairston helped the Tigers allow 20.0 yards a kickoff return.

LSU combined for three touchdown returns on special teams with Tyrann Mathieu accounting for two on punt returns and Morris Claiborne getting the other on a kickoff return. In all, LSU scored a total of four special teams touchdowns in 2011.

McGaughey served as the assistant special teams coordinator with the New York Giants from 2007-10, during which time the franchise ranked among the most productive in the NFL. During his career, McGaughey has coached for eight years in the NFL, two years at the collegiate level and he spent one season in NFL-Europe.

Most recently, McGaughey spent four years with the New York Giants, where he helped the franchise capture the Super Bowl in 2007 and win the NFC East crown in 2008.

The Giants also had several individual special teams standouts during McGaughey's four years with the franchise. In 2009, kicker Lawrence Tynes ranked fifth in the NFL with a career-best 126 points, while Domenik Hixon finished seventh in the league in punt returns with a 10.9 average. Hixon also set the Giants record with 1,291 kickoff return yards.

During New York's NFC East title season in 2008, the Giants had three special teams players - kicker John Carney, punter Jeff Feagles and long snapper Zak DeOssie - named to the NFC Pro Bowl team, while cover specialist Chase Blackburn was named a Pro Bowl alternate.

Carney, who was signed just prior to the 2008 season, set a franchise record by connecting on 35-of-38 field goals for .921 percent. The 35 field goals tied the team mark, while the .921 percent stands at the franchise record.

During the Giants' Super Bowl season in 2007, the club excelled in special teams with Tynes connecting on 23-of-27 field goals, including the game-winner of 47-yards in an overtime victory over Green Bay in the NFC Championship Game. The Giants also ranked among the NFL leaders in kickoff returns with a 23.9-yard average and they rated fourth in the league in punt coverage, allowing only 173 yards for the entire season.

McGaughey joined the Giants after two seasons as the Denver Broncos' assistant special teams coach. In 2006, the Broncos held opposing punt returners to an average of 6.9 yards a return, the fifth-best figure in the NFL. The previous year, McGaughey worked with the Broncos special-teams that helped the club go 13-3 en route to capturing the AFC West title and advancing to the AFC Championship Game.

McGaughey was the Kansas City Chiefs' assistant special teams coach for the 2002 season. He broke into the NFL as a minority intern with the Chiefs during their 2001 training camp before working as a pro scouting assistant in an internship with the Houston Texans that year as the franchise prepared for its inaugural season.

McGaughey spent two years (2003-04) working at his alma mater, the University of Houston, before joining the Broncos' staff. He served as Houston's special teams coordinator in 2003 and as special teams coordinator/cornerbacks coach in 2004.

A safety in his playing days, McGaughey entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent in 1996. He competed in the training camps of the Cincinnati Bengals and Philadelphia Eagles in 1996-97, respectively. He was on the Eagles' practice squad late in the 1996 season and was a member of the Barcelona Dragons' team that won NFL Europe's World Bowl in 1997.

McGaughey played for the Houston Cougars from 1991-95 and was special teams captain as a senior. He also lettered in track from 1991-93, competing in the 110-meter hurdles.

McGaughey, 37, was born in Chicago and grew up in Houston. He and his wife, Erika, have three children.

Former LSU standout Corey Raymond returned to Baton Rouge during the spring and will serve as the Tigers' defensive backs coach in 2012.

Raymond, a 1992 graduate of LSU, takes over a group of defensive backs that features three returning starters, including National Defensive Player of the Year and Heisman Trophy finalists Tyrann Mathieu.

Raymond returns to LSU after spending the 2011 season as the secondary coach at Nebraska. In his one season with the Cornhuskers, Raymond coached a Nebraska secondary that featured the 2011 Big Ten Defensive Back of the Year in Alfonzo Dennard. Despite inheriting a group that lost four starters from the season before, including three NFL Draft picks, Raymond's secondary helped Nebraska rank No. 18 in the nation in pass defense in 2011.

Prior to his one-year stint in Lincoln, Raymond served as the cornerbacks coach for two seasons at Utah State. Raymond's top pupil at Utah State was that of Curtis Marsh, who earned All-WAC honors and later went on to become a third-round pick in the NFL draft.

Raymond served on Miles' LSU staff for three years from 2006-08 before taking the job at Utah State. Raymond was a defensive intern for the Tigers in 2006 and then served as an assistant strength coach in 2007 and 2008.

During his three years on the LSU staff, Raymond was part of two BCS bowl victories, including a 38-24 win over Ohio State in the BCS National Championship. LSU's defense ranked No. 3 nationally in both 2006 and 2007 as the Tigers combined to post a 23-4 record during that span.

Prior to joining the LSU staff in 2006, Raymond coached at the high school level for three years in his hometown of New Iberia. Raymond was the defensive coordinator at New Iberia High School in 2003 and then held the same position at Westgate High School in 2004-05.

Raymond was a three-year starter in the secondary for the Tigers from 1989-91. He capped his LSU career with 185 tackles and eight interceptions. Following his career with the Tigers, Raymond spent six seasons in the NFL - three with the Giants and three with the Lions. In 90 games in the NFL, Raymond started 60 times and intercepted 11 passes to go with 258 tackles.

Raymond earned his undergraduate degree from LSU in 1992.

The longest-tenured assistant on the LSU staff, Greg Studrawa is in his sixth year with the Tigers and the second as offensive coordinator after being elevated to that position prior to the start of fall camp in August of 2011.

Studrawa, who also coaches the offensive line, took over for Steve Kragthorpe after he was diagnosed with Parkinson's disease in the summer of 2011. The transition between Kragthorpe and Studrawa appeared to be seamless as the Tigers used a powerful running game combined with an accurate passing attack to win 13 games while averaging 35.7 points a year ago.

Studrawa's first year as LSU's offensive coordinator was a huge success as the Tigers scored a school-record 40 or more points nine times, winning 12 of their 13 games by double-figures. Offensively, the Tigers used its running game to set the tone for everything they did as LSU is averaged 202 yards a contest on the ground. Four running backs accounted for seven or more rushing TDs - a first in school history - while four different players took their turn leading the team in rushing in games in 2011. For the first time since 1997, LSU had three running backs with over 500 yards to their credit, led by Michael Ford's 756 yards. LSU tied a school-record with 35 rushing TDs in 2011.

LSU added to its legacy of producing outstanding offensive linemen in 2011 as senior guard Will Blackwell earned first-team All-America honors. Blackwell was joined on the first team All-SEC unit by junior tackle Alex Hurst.

In five years under Studrawa, LSU has produced six All-SEC performers as well as two first-team All-Americans (Herman Johnson in 2008) and a second-team All-America (Ciron Black in 2009) on the offensive line. Black, who started a school-record 53 straight games for the Tigers, was awarded the prestigious Jacobs Blocking Trophy in 2009, which goes to the top offensive lineman in the SEC.

In 2010, Joseph Barksdale added his name to the list of standout offensive linemen for the Tigers, earning second team All-SEC honors before being selected in the third round of the NFL Draft. Barksdale led a 2010 Tiger line that saw six different players start at right guard and right tackle due to injuries as the Tigers used four different lineups over the last five games of the season. With nine different players starting at least one game on the line in 2010, LSU still managed to rank fourth in the SEC in rushing yards (185.7) and fifth in the league in sacks allowed (24).

In his five years with the Tigers, Studrawa's line has paved the way for three 1,000-yard backs - Jacob Hester in 2007, Charles Scott in 2008 and Stevan Ridley in 2010. LSU is also 51-7 in Studrawa's five years when rushing for at least 100 yards in a game.

In 2008, LSU used the same starting line for each of the Tigers 13 games as the unit helped contribute to a squad that averaged 30.9 points and 368.1 yards per game.

In his first year with the Tigers in 2007, Studrawa helped mold the Tiger offensive line into one of the most consistent in the SEC as LSU went on to capture both the national and league titles that year. Featuring a pair of first time starters at right guard (Lyle Hitt) and right tackle (Carnell Stewart), LSU averaged nearly 440 yards of offense per game, including 214.1 yards a game on the ground. As a unit, the Tiger offense set a total of 10 school records in 2007, including total points and total yards.

Prior to joining LSU, Studrawa held the position of offensive coordinator at Bowling Green from 2003-06, overseeing some of the top offenses at both the national and Mid-America Conference level during that time. He was also the assistant head coach for the Falcons during the 2006 season.

In his four years as the offensive coordinator, Bowling Green played in two bowl games - beating Northwestern, 28-24, in the 2003 Motor City Bowl and defeating Memphis, 52-35, in the 2004 GMAC Bowl - and posted a combined record of 30-19. Studrawa also helped lead the Falcons to two of the biggest wins in school history as they beat 16th-ranked Purdue, 27-26, in 2003 and followed that with a 34-18 victory over 12th-ranked Northern Illinois later that year.

In 2005, Studrawa led a Bowling Green offense that ranked second in the MAC in both passing (283.9) and scoring (33.8) and was third in the league in pass efficiency (142.4). In 2004, BGSU finished second nationally in total offense with a MAC record 506.3 yards per game. The Falcons were also third in the nation in passing (338.3) and turnover margin (1.25) and fourth in scoring with a MAC record 44.3 points per game.

In 2004, the Falcons had four games of scoring at least 50 points as they averaged 49.4 points over their final nine games of the season. The 2004 season saw the Falcons go 9-3 overall, which included the 52-35 victory over Memphis in the GMAC Bowl in Mobile, Ala.

Individually, quarterback Omar Jacobs was named the 2004 MAC Offensive Player of the Year after leading the nation in TD passes with a league record 41. Jacobs was second in the nation in passing yards per game as well as total offense. In addition, his 41 TD-to-4 interception passing ratio set an NCAA record. Jacobs went on to become a fifth round NFL Draft pick by the Pittsburgh Steelers in 2006.

Studrawa also guided an offensive line that allowed a league-low 11 sacks in 2004 as three members of that interior line were named All-MAC, including left tackle Rob Warren, center Scott Mruczkowski and left guard Kory Lichtensteiger. Mruczkowski was selected in the seventh round of the 2005 NFL Draft by the San Diego Chargers where he is currently a starter on the offensive line.

In his first year as Bowling Green's offensive coordinator, Studrawa guided the Falcon offense to a No. 3 national ranking in total offense. The Falcons were also ranked 11th nationally in passing, 14th in pass efficiency and No. 18 in rushing.

The 2003 Bowling Green offense broke a total of 10 school records during the season - six team and four individual - on its way to an 11-3 overall mark, which was capped with a 28-24 win over Big Ten member Northwestern in the Motor City Bowl.

Studrawa served as the offensive line coach at Bowling Green in 2001 and 2002 before being elevated to the offensive coordinator position in 2003.

Prior to his return to Bowling Green, he spent three years as the offensive line coach at Arkansas State. Other coaching stops for Studrawa include serving as an offensive line coach at Cincinnati in 1989 and 1990 as well as holding offensive coordinator duties at Wilmington (Ohio) College from 1991-96. He followed that with a one year stint as a graduate assistant at Ohio State in 1997.

As a player, Studrawa was a two-year starter at left tackle for Bowling Green in 1986 and 1987. Studrawa was named the recipient of Bowling Green's Coaches Award following the 1987 season for his outstanding attitude toward Falcon football. Studrawa is a 1987 graduate of Bowling Green.

A native of Fostoria, Ohio, he is a graduate of St. Wendelin High School where he was a first-team All-Ohio selection as a senior. Born on Nov. 3, 1964, Studrawa and his wife Cindy have three daughters - Samantha, Katelin, and Allison.

Frank Wilson, widely considered one of the top recruiters in college football, enters his third season as LSU's running backs coach and recruiting coordinator in 2012.

In three years as LSU's recruiting coordinator, Wilson has engineered LSU signing classes that have ranked among the top 10 in the nation twice including a sixth-rated class in 2011. Wilson was named Recruiter of the Year by Rivals.com for his efforts in helping LSU land a top 10 class in February of 2011.

On the field, Wilson, despite not having a senior as a primary ball carrier in either of his two years on the staff, the Tiger running game has thrived behind the play of young players. In 2011, LSU's backfield consisted of three sophomores and a true freshman as the Tigers averaged 202 rushing yards and tied a school record with 35 rushing touchdowns.

Michael Ford led the group with 756 yards and seven TDs, followed by Spencer Ware with 707 yards and eight scores. For the first time in school history, LSU's backfield featured four running backs who each accounted for at least seven rushing TDs (Ware and Kenny Hilliard with 8, Ford and Alfred Blue with 7). Also, for the first time since 1997, LSU had three running backs go over the 500-yard mark in the same season (Ford, 756, Ware 707, Blue 539). LSU had four different running backs lead the team in rushing in 2011.

In 2010, junior Stevan Ridley, in his first season as a starter, rushed for 1,147 yards and 15 touchdowns on his way to earning first team All-SEC honors. Ridley, who opted to forgo his senior season, went on to be drafted in the third round by the New England Patriots.

Ridley was backed up by a trio of freshmen, including Ford (244 yards, 3 TDs) and Ware, who rushed for 102 yards in the Cotton Bowl win over Texas A&M.

Wilson, a native of New Orleans, joined the LSU staff after spending the 2009 season at Tennessee, where he coached wide receivers.

Prior to joining the Tennessee staff, Wilson spent the 2008 season at Southern Mississippi as running back coach and recruiting coordinator. He also served as running backs coach and special teams assistant at Ole Miss from 2005-07.

In his second year with the Rebels, Wilson's primary pupil, BenJarvus Green-Ellis, finished third in the SEC in rushing at 83.2 yards per game. Green-Ellis was named All-SEC first team by Associated Press. Under Wilson's tutelage, Green-Ellis finished the season with 1,000 yards, fourth on the Ole Miss season charts, and has since become a 1,000-yard rusher in the NFL with the Patriots.

Wilson joined the Ole Miss staff after serving one year as Director of Athletics for the New Orleans Public School System. He served 3½ seasons as head football coach and offensive coordinator at O. Perry Walker High School in that city prior to his stint as director of athletics.

While at O. Perry Walker, Wilson led the Chargers to the 2002 Class 4A state finals and to District 10-4A championships in 2001 and 2002. He was honored by the NFL as the 2002 Coach of the Year for the state of Louisiana and was voted by his peers as the Louisiana Class 4A Coach of the Year. Wilson also was a 2002 Nike National Coach of the Year finalist.

Wilson coached the Orleans Parish All-Star team against the Jefferson Parish All-Star team in 2002, leading his group of players to the win in the Louisiana Superdome. He also was honored as 2001 state metro area and district coach of the year.

During his three-year at O. Perry Walker, Wilson helped guide 22 players to Division I scholarships, including 11 in 2002 to rank as the nation's largest class of Frank and Tiffany Wilson with daughters Alaina and Sa'bree and son Frank IV.

Division I signees by any one high school.

Wilson spent three years as an assistant coach at Edna Karr High School, also in New Orleans, from 1997-2000. He served as offensive coordinator at Edna Karr during the 1999 season in which the team reached the Class 3A state finals and the offense recorded the best statistical season in the program's history.

Wilson got his start in coaching as a student assistant at his alma mater, Nicholls State University, working with the running backs while he finished his degree. While at Nicholls State, Wilson helped coach the first 1,000-yard rusher in school history and was part of the biggest turnaround in NCAA history for the Colonels, who improved from 0-10 in 1995 to 8-2 in 1996.

A three-year letterman on the football team at Nicholls State, Wilson earned honorable mention all-conference honors as a running back his sophomore year. He was also named preseason all-conference as a defensive back his junior year and as a running back his senior year. Wilson attended Geneva University in Beaver Falls, Pa., his freshman season, earning conference Freshman of the Year honors as a tailback and kick returner. He also earned first team all-conference honors and was an NAIA Division II All-America honorable mention.

Wilson received his Bachelor of Arts degree in general education from Nicholls State in 1997. He then went on to earn a certificate of education in biology from Southern University in New Orleans in 2002.

Wilson and his wife, Tiffany, have three children: Alaina, Sa'bree and Frank IV.

Dr. Sam Nader
Assistant AD/Football Operations

A long-time member of the LSU football staff, Sam Nader is in his 12th season as Assistant Athletic Director for Football Operations after being promoted to the position during the summer of 2000. Nader is in his 38th season overall with the LSU football program.

Nader is responsible for overseeing all of the day-to-day administrative duties for the LSU football team.

Nader joined the LSU staff as a graduate assistant in 1975 and was hired by head coach Charles McClendon as a full-time assistant coach in 1977. He was named recruiting coordinator in 1980 and served in that role through the 1993 season.

When the NCAA eliminated the recruiting coordinator's position, Nader assumed the position of administrative assistant for football operations in 1994 and remained in that role, handling a myriad of responsibilities for the LSU football program, until his promotion to assistant athletic director in 2000.

Nader was a quarterback for the Auburn Tigers from 1963-67. From 1968-69, he served as assistant coach at Jordan High School in Columbus, Ga., and was promoted to head coach and athletics director in 1970. He served in that capacity until 1974.

In his role as recruiting coordinator, Nader spearheaded the recruiting efforts of 32 players who developed into first-team All-SEC players, plus seven who became All-Americans.

Nader is married to the former Ann Gardner of Montgomery, Ala., and they have three children, Breaux, Lauren and John Ryan, and five granddaughters, Brooks Claire, Mary Holland, Grace Ann, and Sarah Jane, who are the daughters of Breaux and his wife Holland.

Sharon Lewis
Assistant AD/Football Recruiting and Alumni Relations

Sharon Lewis, a former member of LSU's national championship women's track and field program, enters her 11th year with the LSU football program in 2012. Lewis was promoted to assistant athletic director with oversight of football recruiting and alumni relations during the spring of 2007.

Lewis's role within the football department is to provide administrative support for the recruitment of potential student-athletes. Lewis also coordinates official and unofficial recruiting visits to campus as well as overseeing all special events associated with recruiting.

Lewis took on additional responsibilities of alumni relations in 2007.

Lewis began her career in athletics working for Career Sports International where she coordinated client recruiting efforts and help the clients implement personal development plans. She also spent four years at the Alamo Bowl in San Antonio Texas as the Sponsorship Coordinator, assisting in fulfilling the sponsorship agreements and also had event management duties. She was also administrative assistant to the Executive Director.

Prior to coming on board with the LSU football staff, Lewis was district coach of the year as head track and field coach for Istrouma High in Baton Rouge.

A native of San Antonio Texas, Sharon earned her Bachelor degree from LSU in 1991 and then followed that with a Master's degree from Southern University in 2003. She has a son, Sean.

Doug Aucoin

Videography Director

Doug Aucoin enters his 16th season as LSU's video coordinator. During that time he has developed LSU's football video department into the one of the finest in the nation.

Aucoin was recently honored as the 2011 SEC Video Coordinator of the Year by his peers, the fourth time that he's earned the award. Aucoin was also named the 2010 Bob Matey National Video Coordinator of the Year by the Collegiate Sports Video Association. The award, which is voted on by other video coordinators in the profession, is presented to the individual who possesses the qualities and attributes of the late Bob Matey, the former video coordinator at Texas A&M.

Aucoin, who joined the Tigers in 1997 after a stint with Tulane, is responsible for analytical support of computer and video technologies including the taping of games and practices, opponent video exchange, self-scout and opponent breakdowns, and tape cut-ups used as a teaching tool.

Aucoin also manages the computer network that the football coaches use for statistical analysis as well as self-scouting and the scouting of opponents. Another of Aucoin's responsibilities is the production of a weekly highlight and motivational video for the football team.

Aucoin oversees a staff of eight people, which includes one full-time assistant, one graduate assistant and six student assistants.

Prior to working for Tulane, Aucoin was employed by the New Orleans Saints as an assistant to his brother, Albert, who was video director for the Saints. Their father, Erby, is a member of the Saints Hall of Fame for his pioneering analytical film work in the early years of the National Football League.

A native of New Orleans, Aucoin graduated from Riverdale High School and the University of New Orleans, earning his degree in business administration in 1995. In the summer of 1998, Aucoin married the former Angela Bordelon and the couple has three children, Ryan, Shane and Chanler.

Charles Baglio

Director of External Football Relations

Charles Baglio, one of the most successful high school football coaches in Louisiana over the last 20 years of his coaching career, enters his 10th season with the LSU athletics department as the director of external relations for the Tiger football team.

Baglio came to LSU in 2002 after coaching at Independence High School for 34 years, 22 of which as head coach. While at Independence, Baglio posted a head coaching record of 205-69. He won nine district titles and led his team to the state championship game twice.

Baglio also had numerous players go on to play collegiate football, including former Tiger running back LaBrandon Toefield, who spent several seasons in the NFL with the Jacksonville Jaguars and the Carolina Panthers.

Baglio, who goes by the nickname of "Coach Bags", graduated from Southeastern Louisiana University in 1967 with a degree in health and physical education and followed that with a master's degree from SLU in 1973 in supervision and administration.

Baglio, an avid golfer who regularly shoots in the 70s, is a native of Independence, La.

Andy Barker

Senior Associate Athletic Trainer

Andy Barker enters his 17th season as senior associate athletic trainer at LSU. Barker came to Baton Rouge following a six-year stint at Florida State.

Since coming to LSU, Barker has been an integral part of designing and implementing a state-of-the-art computer tracking program that assists the staff in following the progress and rehabilitation of injuries. The program produces daily injury reports for a variety of sports and it also tracks and monitors purchasing and inventory as well as tracking insurance and medical bill payments.

In April 2000, Barker received the Southeastern Athletic Trainers Association "Backbone" Award, which recognizes the top collegiate assistant athletic trainer from the seven states included in the Southeastern district of the National Athletic Trainers Association.

A 1988 graduate of Clemson University, Barker became a graduate assistant trainer at Florida State in 1988. After two years as a graduate assistant, Barker was named an assistant athletic trainer at FSU in 1990 and served in that position until coming to LSU in August 1996.

While at Florida State, Barker worked seven bowl games and served as host trainer for the 1995 NCAA Regional basketball tournament, seven NCAA regional baseball tournaments and the Junior Pan-American Games in 1990.

Barker, a native of Clemson, S.C., enjoys playing golf in his spare time. He's married to the former Andrea Conerly.

George Branigan

Associate Equipment Manager

George Branigan begins his seventh year as a full-time member of the LSU equipment staff, where he serves as the head manager for baseball and softball, and assists with the nationally-ranked football team.

Prior to his full-time post, Branigan spent six months helping family members rebuild their personal businesses devastated during Hurricane Katrina.

While attending LSU, Branigan spent five years as a student equipment manager, working with the baseball team during his entire tenure and the football team during the 2002-03 season.

A native of Kenner, La., Branigan prepped at Brother Martin High School before earning his degree in general studies from LSU in May 2005. He is a member of the American Equipment Managers Association and the SEC Equipment Managers Association.

Dean Dingman

Assistant Director of Football Operations

Dean Dingman, a former All-America offensive lineman at Michigan, enters his first year as assistant director of football operations at LSU in 2012 after being elevated to the position in June. Dingman joined the LSU staff in July of 2011 as an intern in the weight room.

In his new role, Dingman will work with Dr. Sam Nader on the day-to-day football operations, with emphasis on player development, academics while also serving as the NFL liaison for the Tigers.

A 1992 graduate of Michigan in sports management and communications, Dingman was a four-year starter at offensive guard for the Wolverines from 1987-90. During that span, Michigan won three Big 10 titles, playing in the Rose Bowl twice and the Gator Bowl one time. Dingman twice earned All-Big 10 honors and was named to the America Football Coaches Association and Sporting News All-America teams in 1990.

Dingman was drafted by the Pittsburgh Steelers in the eighth round of the 1991 NFL Draft. He spent the 1991 season on Pittsburgh's injured reserve list.

Brian Johnson

Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coordinator

Brian Johnson, a member of LSU's 2003 national championship team, returned to his alma mater this summer as assistant strength and conditioning coach under Tommy Moffitt. Johnson, a 2006 graduate of LSU, spent the 2010 and 2011 seasons as an assistant strength coach at Florida State before taking over as the head strength coach at Akron in March of 2012.

Prior to entering the strength and conditioning profession, Johnson spent three years in the NFL playing for Arizona, Tampa Bay and Baltimore.

As a player for the Tigers, Johnson started 26 games on the offensive line during his LSU career. A four-year letterwinner for the Tigers, Johnson helped LSU to a 44-8 record during his career.

Jack Marucci

Director of Athletic Training

Jack Marucci enters his 17th season as director of athletic training at LSU. Since joining the Tigers, Marucci's leadership and vision has moved LSU to the forefront of athletic training at the collegiate level.

As director of athletic training, Marucci oversees the athletic training operation for all 20 varsity sports, which includes supervising a staff of six full-time trainers and 10 graduate assistants.

An experienced trainer with a strong background in collegiate athletics, Marucci helped design the Broussard Center for Athletic Training at Tiger Stadium as well as the one located in the Football Operations Building, which the football team operates out of on a daily basis.

Marucci served as an assistant athletic trainer at Florida State from 1988-96, a stint that included eight bowl trips with the Seminoles. While in Tallahassee, he also served as the host trainer for two NCAA regional baseball tournaments.

Marucci graduated from West Virginia in 1986 with a bachelor's degree in athletic training and then gained his master's from Alabama in 1988, serving as a graduate assistant trainer for the Crimson Tide from 1986-88. He also worked with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1987 and the Cleveland Browns in 1985.

Off the field, Marucci has mastered the art of crafting wooden baseball bats and founded his own company, the Marucci Bat Company. The bat company, which originally started with a workshop in his backyard, now has hundreds of Major Leaguers swinging its bats, including Albert Pujols and the 2006 NL MVP and home run champion Ryan Howard. Marucci's bats, which now include a line of aluminum bats, are the fastest-growing bat in baseball.

The Marucci Bat Company has also been represented in both the Major League All-Star Game and the World Series in recent years with numerous Major Leaguers swinging the Marucci Bat.

Marucci is married to the former Leah Gaines and they have a son, Gino, and a daughter, Sarah.

Brad Mendow

Assistant Video Coordinator

Brad Mendow enters his eighth year as LSU's assistant video coordinator. Prior to his appointment as a full-time employee, the Covington, La., native spent five years as a student worker with the LSU video staff.

Mendow assists videographer director Doug Aucoin with the day-to-day video operations and the maintenance of the coaching staff's computer network for the LSU's football program. He also serves as the SEC's Instant Replay Technician for all of LSU's home football games.

A 2004 LSU graduate with a degree in business administration, Mendow has four brothers who worked as equipment managers or videographers for the LSU football team.

Tommy Moffitt

Strength & Conditioning Coordinator

Considered by many in college football to be one of the nation's premier strength and conditioning coaches, Tommy Moffitt enters his 13th season at LSU after coming to the Tiger staff from the University of Miami.

In 12 years with the Tigers from 2000-10, Moffitt help strength train and condition an LSU football team that won 123 games during the 12-year period. It was Moffitt's offseason program that helped pave the way to national titles in 2003 and 2007 for the Tigers.

Moffitt was named the 2003 College Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year by America Football Monthly. Moffitt has been part of national championship football teams at LSU (twice), Miami and Tennessee.

Moffitt was appointed LSU's Strength and Conditioning Coordinator on Jan. 10, 2000. In February 2000, Moffitt was named the 1999 Collegiate Football Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year by the Professional Football Strength and Conditioning Coaches Society.

In 12 years with the Tigers, Moffitt has developed LSU into one of the most durable teams around by combining a program that focuses on both strength and speed. Moffitt has also incorporated yoga and karate routines in the Tigers' offseason program, which increases the player's flexibility, while forcing the team to stay focused for a lengthy period of time.

Moffitt served as the head strength and conditioning coach at Miami for two years, helping head coach Butch Davis rebuild the Hurricane program. While at Miami, Moffitt was named the 1998 Big East Strength Coach of the Year. Moffitt went to Miami after four seasons, 1994-97, as associate head strength and conditioning coach at Tennessee.

A 1986 graduate of Tennessee Tech, Moffitt started his career as an assistant football coach at John Curtis High School in River Ridge, La., from 1987-94, earning the 1992 National High School Strength Coach of the Year award given by the Professional Football Strength and Conditioning Coaches Society.

Born in Springfield, Tenn., Moffitt is married to the former Jill Beron and they have three children, Clay, Aaron and Brady.

Sherman Morris

Director of Player Personnel

Sherman Morris enters his sixth season at LSU, serving as the director of player personnel for the Tigers.

The south Florida native joined LSU in 2007 after serving as the assistant athletic director and assistant head football coach at Glades Central High School.

Morris served as Glades Central's run game and special teams coordinator and he helped his team to the 2006 Florida 3A State Championship as well as a regional title in 2005.

Morris began his coaching career in 2000 as the offensive line coach at Deerfield Beach High School. During his tenure at Deerfield Beach, the team won three district titles, one regional championship and reached the semifinals in the 6A state playoffs.

He is a former member of LSU's men track and field program and winner of the 1991 SEC Championship in the 55 meters hurdles. Morris was a member of the 1991 All-SEC team.

Morris has earned a bachelor's degree in Professional Studies and a master's degree in Business Administration.

He is married to the former Erica Streit from Saint George's, Grenada West Indies. The couple has four children - Cree, Kya, Nailah and Romel.

Shelly Mullenix

Senior Associate Athletic Trainer

Shelly Mullenix begins her 16th year as part of the LSU Athletic Training staff in 2012. As LSU's senior associate athletic trainer and Director of Wellness, Mullenix plays a key role in providing the athletic training needs of the football team on a day-to-day basis.

In addition to Mullenix's role as an athletic trainer with the football program, she plays an integral role in the education and development of mental health and nutritional programs for all LSU sports as well. Serving as the Director of Wellness, Mullenix works collaboratively with LSU's staff sports psychologist as well as its registered dietitian, to provide a well-rounded approach to the student athlete's health and well-being. Her integrated approach to assisting the "whole" athlete allows her to identify needs and better assist in the coordination of services for the student-athlete. Nutritional education and wellness information is given in a team format as well as through one-on-one individualized counseling. Administratively, she is responsible for the recruitment of student athletic trainers and the on-going development of the athletic training curriculum program.

Mullenix joined the LSU athletic training staff in January 1997, coming to Baton Rouge from Florida State University, where she worked as a graduate assistant athletic trainer from 1992-93. She was promoted to assistant athletic trainer at FSU in 1993 and served in that capacity until December 1996.

She is married to Matthew Mullenix and has two children, Maggie and Briana.

Greg Stringfellow

Equipment Manager

Greg Stringfellow enters his ninth season as LSU's equipment manager after being elevated to the position in the spring of 2004. Stringfellow served as the interim equipment manager during LSU's National Championship season in 2003, stepping in for longtime equipment manager Jeff Boss, who passed away in the fall of 2003 after a lengthy battle with cancer.

Stringfellow, one of the many equipment managers who learned the trade under Boss, enters his 15th season overall with the Tigers. He previously served as a student assistant in the LSU equipment room for five years.

As a member of the equipment staff, Stringfellow is responsible for the ordering and maintaining of equipment and facilities for the LSU football team as well as LSU's 19 other sports.

Stringfellow lettered two years in football at McGill-Toolen High School in Mobile, Ala., before coming to LSU, where he earned a degree in construction management in 1997.

An avid golfer, Stringfellow is a member of the Athletic Equipment Managers Association and annually works the Senior Bowl in Mobile.

He is married to the former Ashley Mitnick, a former LSU soccer standout. The couple has four children, Sarah Elizabeth, Lily Grace, Harper and Blakely.

Ferrell Shillings

Assistant Equipment Manager

Ferrell Shillings is now in his 21st season on the LSU equipment staff after joining the Tigers in 1991.

A native of St. Amant, La., Shillings oversees the LSU athletics central receiving department. He is also responsible for the daily delivery of overnight packages within the athletics department, while also working closely with the Tiger football team.

Shillings lettered four years in football, four years in basketball and once in baseball at St. Amant High. He worked for 33 years as a supervisor at South Central Bell Telephone in Baton Rouge before he turned his attention to the field of athletic equipment.

Shillings is a member of the Athletic Equipment Managers Association and the SEC Equipment Managers Association. He is also a lifetime member of the Telephone Pioneers.

LSU Goes 13-0 During Regular Season To Claim 2011 SEC Title

LSU posted the first 13-0 regular season record in school history in 2011 as the Tigers claimed the league crown last year with 8-0 SEC record followed by a 42-10 win over Georgia in the SEC Championship Game. LSU advanced to the BCS National Championship Game for the third time in school history, dropping a 21-0 decision to Alabama in New Orleans. Still the 13-1 mark ties the 2003 squad for the best record in school history and the Tigers finished the year ranked No. 2 in the nation in both major polls – AP and USA Today Coaches. The following is a look at some of the highlights achieved during LSU's historic run to a 13-0 regular season in 2011:

- Won 12 of 13 games by double-figures – most in school history in a season
- Won eight games vs. Top 25 teams – most in school history in a season
- Spent 11 straight weeks ranked No. 1 in the nation – longest streak in school history
- Was ranked No. 1 in the BCS Standings for all eight polls in 2011, the first time a team has gone from start to finish in the BCS since Ohio State in 2006.
- Five players earned First Team All-America honors – most in school history in a season
- Allowed only 67 points in eight regular season SEC games, the fewest by the Tigers in conference play since allowing 25 points in 1962.
- Scored 40 points in nine games – most in school history in a season

Miles Claims Several National Coach of the Year Honors

Les Miles, in leading LSU to a 13-0 overall mark and a berth in the national championship game, earned National Coach of the Year honors from the Associated Press, Home Depot, Liberty Mutual and the Walter Camp Foundation in 2011. Miles also claimed SEC Coach of the Year honors after guiding the Tigers to their most successful regular season in school history.

Mathieu Wins Bednarik Award As Nation's Top Defender; Finishes Fifth In Heisman

Sophomore Tyrann Mathieu became the second straight LSU player to claim the Bednarik Award as the nation's top defender as awarded by the Maxwell Football Club. Mathieu led the Tigers in tackles with 76 to go with six forced fumbles, five fumble recoveries, two interceptions and seven pass breakups. He also scored four touchdowns for the Tigers – two coming on fumble returns and two on punt returns. Mathieu joins Patrick Peterson in 2010 as the two Bednarik Award winners for LSU. Mathieu finished fifth in the Heisman Trophy balloting and he was third in the AP National Player of the Year poll.

Claiborne Claims Thorpe Award As Nation's Top Defensive Back

LSU cornerback Morris Claiborne won the Thorpe Award as the top defensive back in college football, marking the second straight year that a Tiger has claimed the honor. Last year, Patrick Peterson became LSU's first Thorpe Award winner. In 2011, Claiborne led the Tigers with six interceptions. His 173 interception return yardage led the nation.

Record Five Tigers Earn First-Team All-America Honors

A single-season school record five LSU players earned first team All-America honors in 2011. Defenders Tyrann Mathieu and Morris Claiborne were both consensus All-Americans for the Tigers, while defensive end Sam Montgomery was named to the Football Writers team, punter Brad Wing to the AP, SI.com, Sporting News and CBSSports.com team and offensive guard Will Blackwell to the Sporting News and Yahoo Sports team.

LSU joined an elite group of teams with a 13-0 record following its win over Georgia in the SEC Championship Game.

Only five teams in the history of the SEC have ever reached the 13-0 mark. Alabama and Auburn have both done it twice and Tennessee has done it one time. Alabama went 14-0 in 2009 and 13-0 in 1992; Auburn went 14-0 in 2010 and 13-0 in 2004; Tennessee went 13-0 in 1998.

LSU Had Four Running Backs With At Least 7 Rushing TDs – A First In School History

For the first time in school history, LSU had four running backs who accounted for at least seven rushing TDs in 2011. Spencer Ware and Kenny Hilliard led the group with eight rushing TDs, followed by Michael Ford and Alfred Blue with seven. As a unit, LSU tied the school-record with 35 rushing TDs in 2011.

LSU Went 8-0 In League Play For First Time Ever

LSU's 8-0 SEC record marks the only time in school history that the Tigers have won eight league games in a season. As a matter of fact, prior to this year, LSU had never gone 7-0 in SEC play. Prior to this year, LSU's best SEC start came in 1961 when the Tigers went 6-0 in conference play. LSU also went 6-0 in league action in 1936 and 1958. LSU has won seven SEC games during the regular season twice as they went 7-1 in both 2003 and 2005.

LSU Runs Nation's Longest Non-Conference Regular-Season Winning Streak To 37 Straight

LSU ran the nation's longest non-conference regular season winning streak to 37 in a row after beating Western Kentucky, 42-9, on Nov. 12. The Tigers haven't lost a non-conference regular-season game since falling to Virginia Tech, 26-8, in the 2002 season opener in Blacksburg, Va. Wisconsin is second on the list with 31 straight non-conference regular-season wins. Les Miles has accounted for 27 of the 37 wins during the streak. The 37-game non-conference regular season win streak is the second-longest such winning streak in the FBS era (since 1978) and is just two wins shy of tying Kansas State from 1993-2003 for the longest streak (39). The West Virginia win marked the sixth ranked team LSU has defeated during the streak. Kansas State defeated just one ranked team during its run, and Miami defeated 12 teams ranked in the AP poll during its streak.

More On Les Miles' List of Achievements

In seven years with LSU, head coach Les Miles has put together quite a list of achievements in his 92 games with the Tigers. The following is a look at some of Miles' highlights during his seven seasons with the Tigers:

- Fastest coach in LSU history to 10 wins (11 games), 20 wins (24 games), 30 wins (35 games), 40 wins (48 games), 50 wins (63 games), 60 wins (76 games), and 70 wins (87 games) in school history.
- Led LSU to only 12-0 and 13-0 records in school history in 2011
- Led LSU to first 11-0 start since 1958 in 2011
- Led LSU to 10-1 start three times in a 6-year span from 2005-10 ('05, '07, '10)
- Only coach in LSU history to beat Auburn, Florida and Alabama in same season - and he's done it three times (2005, '07, '11)
- Only coach in LSU history to beat Florida and Tennessee in the regular season during the same year, doing it twice (2010, '11).
- Only first-year coach in SEC history to lead team to league's title game (2005)
- Has 13 wins over coaches who have won national titles, including two in 2011 (Saban and Chizik)
- Coached LSU to 10-plus wins in three straight seasons - a first at the school
- Only coach in LSU history to lead Tigers to three straight top five final rankings (2005, 2006, 2007)

LSU Defense Ranked Among Best In Nation In 2011

CATEGORY	AVG.	NAT. RANK	SEC RANK	SEC LEADER
Rush Defense	90.1	5th	2nd	Alabama (72.2)

No. 4 LSU Shuts Down No. 3 Oregon in Cowboys Classic, 40-27

LSU's defense contained one of the most potent offensive attacks in college football limiting Oregon to just 335 total yards as the fourth-ranked Tigers opened 2011 with an impressive 40-27 victory over the third-ranked Ducks in Cowboys Stadium. While the defense was doing its job, the LSU offense was methodical in its approach, wearing down the Ducks with a steady pounding of sophomore running backs Spencer Ware (99 yards, 1 TD) and Michael Ford (96 yards, 2 TDs). The duo combined for 195 yards and 3 TDs as the Tigers broke open a tight game at halftime with 17 unanswered points during a 7-minute stretch in the second half. Trailing 6-3 early in the second quarter, LSU DB Tyrann Mathieu stripped Oregon's punt returner Kenyon Barner of the ball and then scooped up the fumble and raced three-yards for the score, giving the Tigers a 9-6 advantage. LSU QB Jarrett Lee hit Rueben Randle with a 10-yard TD pass just before halftime to give the Tigers the lead for good at 16-13. Touchdown runs by Ford and Ware in the third quarter stretched the lead to 30-13 at the 3:03 mark. Oregon pulled to within 33-20 early in the fourth quarter, but a 18-yard TD run by Ford put the game out of reach at 40-20 with just over two minutes left in the contest. LSU held Oregon All-America RB LaMichael James to just 54 yards on 18 carries. Lee finished 10-of-22 for 98 yards and 1 TD.

Tiger Defense Stifles Northwestern State in 49-3 Rout

LSU put together another outstanding defensive outing - limiting Northwestern State to just 95 total yards - and the Tiger offense scored touchdowns on seven of 12 possessions in a 49-3 win over the Demons in Tiger Stadium. The win was the 35th straight non-conference regular-season victory for the Tigers. LSU never trailed in the contest, scoring on its first possession when Jarrett Lee connected with Deangelo Peterson on a 9-yard TD pass. The Demons cut the margin to 7-3 early in the second quarter, but the Tigers responded with TDs on three of their next four possessions to take a 28-3 lead at halftime. Zach Mettenberger started the second half for LSU and completed 8-of-11 passes for 92 yards and 1 TD in his first action as a Tiger. Michael Ford led the Tigers in rushing with 72 yards and a pair of scores, while Alfred Blue added 53 yards and 1 TD as the Tigers grounded out 175 rushing yards. Mettenberger and Lee combined to complete 17 of 21 passes for 225 yards and a pair of TDs as LSU's offense accounted for 400 total yards. Defensively, the Tigers held the Demons to minus-4 rushing yards on 27 attempts. It's the first time since 1982 that an LSU defense held an opponent to negative rushing yards (Ole Miss, minus-50 yards, 1982). Morris Claiborne led the LSU defense with 6 tackles as the Tigers had 12 players account for a tackle for loss in the game.

Tigers Score 13 Unanswered To Put Away No. 25 Mississippi State on Thursday, 19-6

LSU's defense held Mississippi State to nearly 400 yards below its season average as the third-ranked Tigers used a methodical offensive effort to post a 19-6 Thursday night win over the Bulldogs in Starkville. LSU never trailed in the contest, taking a 3-0 lead midway through the first quarter on a 21-yard Drew Alleman field goal. Mississippi State tied the game at 3-3 on its next possession before another Alleman field goal just before halftime gave the Tigers a 6-3 lead at the break. The Bulldogs tied the game at 6-6 late in the third quarter, before the Tigers closed the game with 13 unanswered points for the victory. First, Alleman broke the tie with a 41-yard field goal with 1:46 left in the third quarter and then Jarrett Lee connected with Rueben Randle on a 19-yard TD pass at the 11:56 mark in the fourth quarter to put the Tigers up by 10 at 16-6. Alleman closed the scoring with another field goal at the 2:53 mark. For the game, LSU's defense recorded 15 tackles for losses and five sacks in holding the Bulldogs to just 52 rushing yards and 193 total yards. On 11 possessions, LSU's defense forced a 3-and-out or a turnover seven times. Offensively, Lee completed 21-of-27 passes for 213 yards and one score, while Spencer Ware rushed for 107 yards to lead the Tigers rushing attack. LSU finished with 361 yards of total offense (148 rushing, 213 passing) as the Tigers had nearly 38 minutes of possession time.

Jarrett Lee Throws For Three Touchdowns As LSU Rolls Over West Virginia, 47-21

Jarrett Lee threw for three TD passes as the Tigers rode a balanced offensive attack to post their third win over a top 25 team with a 47-21 victory over 16th-ranked West Virginia in Morgantown. LSU won despite a record-setting passing night by the Mountaineers as they set school records for completions (38) and passing yards (463). LSU wasted little time in jumping on the Mountaineers, scoring on an 11-yard TD pass from Lee to Rueben Randle on its first possession. LSU stretched the lead to 13-0 following a 22-yard TD run by Michael Ford. WVU countered with a score, but the Tigers closed the half with 14 straight points to take a 27-7 lead at halftime. Odell Beckham Jr. caught a 52-yard TD pass from Lee for a 20-7 lead and then a defensive highlight reel play from Tyrann Mathieu – on a corner blitz he intercepted a pass that he batted backwards into the air – putting the Tigers at the 1-yard line with less than a minute to go before halftime. LSU scored two plays later for a 27-7 advantage. The Tigers appeared to be on their way to putting the game away on their first possession of the second half, however, a dropped TD pass and then a missed field goal gave WVU new life. The Mountaineers responded with two quick TDs to cut the deficit to 27-21 late in the third quarter. LSU regained the moment on the ensuing kickoff as Morris Claiborne raced 99 yards for a TD giving the Tigers a 33-21 cushion. From there it was all LSU as the Tigers tacked on two fourth quarter TDs for the 47-21 victory. The Tigers forced four turnovers, converting TDs on three of those. Spencer Ware led the Tigers with 92 yards on 23 carries, while Ford added 82 yards and 2 TDs on 12 attempts. Lee connected on 16-of-28 passes for 180 yards and a season-best three scores.

No. 1 LSU Rolls By Kentucky In SEC Home Opener, 35-7

Behind another strong defensive outing and a balanced offensive attack, LSU remained undefeated with a 35-7 victory over Kentucky in Tiger Stadium. LSU limited Kentucky to just 155 total yards, 45 in the first half, as the Tigers led from start to finish. LSU finished the game with 348 total yards (179 rushing, 169 passing). LSU punted on six of its eight first half possessions, but the Tigers did manage to take a 14-0 lead at halftime. Jordan Jefferson, in his first action this year, scored on a 1-yard run at the 7:06 mark in the first quarter to give the Tigers a 7-0 lead. LSU extended the lead to 14-0 on a 51-yard TD pass from Jarrett Lee to Odell Beckham Jr. After holding Kentucky to a 3-and-out to start the second half, LSU went 68 yards on 10 plays, capped by a 1-yard run by Alfred Blue to stretch the lead to 21-0. The Tigers increased the lead to 28-0 when Tyrann Mathieu recovered a fumble that he forced and raced 23-yards for a TD. Terrence Magee capped the scoring for the Tigers with his first career TD early in the fourth quarter. The Wildcats scored their only points of the game with less than five minutes to go. Blue led the Tigers with 72 yards and one TD on 16 carries, while Lee connected on 8-of-21 passes for 169 yards and a score. LSU held Kentucky to 89 rushing yards and just 66 passing yards.

Ware Leads LSU Rushing Attack Past No. 17 Florida, 41-11

Spencer Ware rushed for a career-high 109 yards and 2 TDs and the Tiger defense limited Florida to just 213 yards as LSU rolled to 41-11 win over the 17th-ranked Gators in Tiger Stadium. LSU scored on four of its first five possessions – including a 46-yard TD pass from Jarrett Lee to Rueben Randle on the Tigers' second offensive play of the game. LSU quickly built a 14-0 lead on a 2-yard run by Ware at the 6:40 mark in the first quarter. Drew Alleman added a 35-yard field goal and Ware an 8-yard TD run as the Tigers built a 24-0 first half lead. Florida kicked a field goal just before halftime as the Tigers led 24-3 at intermission. Florida scored its only TD of the game late in the third quarter to cut the deficit to 27-11, but the Tigers responded with a TD on its next possession to put the game out of reach at 34-11. Alfred Blue closed out the scoring with a 2-yard run with just over a minute left in the game. LSU's defense held Florida to nine first downs as the Gators completed just 9 passes for a total of 113 yards passing. LSU had its best offensive showing of the season, totaling 453 total yards (238 rushing, 253 passing). Lee connected on 7-of-10 passes for 154 yards and one score, while Jordan Jefferson connected on 3-of-4 attempts for 61 yards and a score. Blue added 70 rushing yards and 1 TD for the Tigers. Defensively, Tyrann Mathieu had 6 tackles, including one for a 7-yard loss, and an interception.

Dominant Second Half Lifts No. 1 LSU Past Tennessee, 38-7

Jarrett Lee tossed three touchdown passes and Spencer Ware rushed for a score and caught a pass for a TD as top-ranked LSU used a dominating second half to post a 38-7 win over Tennessee in Knoxville. The 31-point win marked the largest margin of victory by the Tigers over the Vols. LSU never trailed in the contest as the Tigers accounted for 38 minutes of possession time, including 22 of a possible 30 minutes in the second half. After a scoreless first quarter, LSU took a 7-0 lead on a 5-yard TD pass from Lee to Rueben Randle. Morris Claiborne setup LSU's first score after returning an interception 89-yards to the Tennessee 5-yard line. LSU increased the lead to 14-0 five minutes later when Ware scampered 13 yards on a screen pass for a TD. Tennessee responded with a TD to cut the lead to 14-7, but a Drew Alleman 18-yard field goal just before half gave the Tigers a 17-7 lead at intermission. The second half was all LSU as the Tigers scored TDs on all three of their possessions. LSU had TD scoring drives of 12 plays, 66yards, 7:01; 16 plays, 99 yards, 8:44; and 10 plays, 65 yards, 6:08 in the second half. LSU ran 38 plays in the second half compared to just 19 for the Vols. LSU also outgained Tennessee 222-66 in the second half as the Tigers outscored the Vols 21-0 in the final 30 minutes of the contest. Ware led the Tigers with 80 rushing yards and a score. Lee connected on 13-of-17 passes for 138 yards and a career-high tying three scores. Brandon Taylor led LSU with 10 tackles.

No. 1 LSU Dominates Defending National Champion Auburn, 45-10

Jarrett Lee threw for 165 yards and a pair of TDs and true freshman Kenny Hilliard had his breakout game, rushing for 65 yards and two scores, as LSU rolled to a 45-10 win over 19th-ranked Auburn in Tiger Stadium. Playing without five starters for various reasons, LSU wasted little time in taking control of the game as the Tigers drove 76 yards on their first possession to take a 7-0 lead on a 9-yard run by Hilliard. After Auburn pulled to within 7-3 on a field goal late in the first quarter, LSU scored 38 unanswered points. Rueben Randle caught a 42-yard TD pass from Jordan Jefferson with five minutes left in the first half and then hauled in a 46-yard scoring pass from Lee with 40 seconds left in the second quarter as the Tigers led 21-3 at halftime. LSU blew the game open early in the third quarter, scoring three TDs in a two-minute span, extending a 21-3 lead to 42-3 at the 7:27 mark in the third quarter following a 28-yard interception return for a TD by Ron Brooks. LSU's other scores during that 21-point burst came on a 10-yard pass from Lee to Russell Shepard and a 1-yard run by Hilliard. Drew Alleman kicked a 36-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter for the Tigers. Auburn got its only TD of the game on LSU's second team defense with just over two minutes left in the game. For the game, LSU racked up 393 total yards (174 rushing, 219 passing), while holding Auburn to only 248 total yards. Michael Ford led the Tigers with 82 rushing yards, while Randle caught five passes for 106 yards and a pair of scores. LSU went without an offensive turnover for the fifth straight game.

Alleman Boots No. 1 LSU Past No. 2 Alabama, 9-6, in "Game of the Century"

Drew Alleman kicked three field goals, including the game-winner in overtime, as top-ranked LSU topped second-ranked Alabama, 9-6, in what was the first regular season meeting between teams ranked Nos. 1-2 in SEC history. Billed as the "Game of the Century" by many, the contest didn't disappoint as the top two defenses in the SEC engaged in a classic defensive battle. Playing perhaps its best game of the season, the LSU defense allowed just six points to Alabama even though the Crimson Tide penetrated inside the Tiger 35-yard line seven times during the contest. After a scoreless first quarter that saw the Crimson Tide miss three field goals, Alabama scratched first on a 34-yard field goal with less than four minutes left in the first half. Alleman tied the game at 3-3 at halftime when he banged home a 19-yard field goal as time expired in the second quarter. Alabama regained the lead at 6-3 following a 46-yard field goal midway through the third quarter. Alleman tied the contest at 6-6 with a 30-yard field goal at the 14:13 mark in the fourth quarter. Eric Reid's unlikely interception in the endzone at the 11:03 mark in the fourth quarter stopped another Alabama drive and then a 73-yard punt by Brad Wing on LSU's ensuing possession flipped the field position back to LSU's favor. The teams traded scoreless possessions in the final nine minutes of the contest before going to overtime. Tied at 6-6. In overtime, LSU's defense again came up big, holding the Crimson Tide to negative yards and forcing Alabama to try a 52-yard field goal - which they missed. LSU needed just four offensive plays to setup Alleman's game-winning kick - a 25-yard that split the uprights giving the Tigers a 9-6 victory. For the game, LSU limited Alabama to 295 total yards and just 96 on the ground. LSU managed 148 rushing yards and 239 total yards with Michael Ford leading the way with 72 yards on 11 carries.

Blue Paces No. 1 LSU to Big Win Against Western Kentucky, 42-9

Alfred Blue rushed for a career-high 119 yards and two touchdowns as LSU overcame a sluggish first half to beat Western Kentucky, 42-9, for Homecoming in Tiger Stadium. Jordan Jefferson started at quarterback for the first time this year and he responded with 168 yards passing and one score. The Tigers took a 7-0 lead midway through the first quarter when Jefferson connected with Rueben Randle on a 59-yard TD pass. The Hilltoppers responded with a 10-play drive to tie the game at 7-7 at the 1:26 mark in the first quarter. LSU regained the lead at 14-7 just before halftime when Kenny Hilliard scored the first of his two TDs on a 1-yard run. The Tigers opened the second half by scoring TDs on four of their first five possessions. Hilliard stretched the lead to 21-7 with another 1-yard run at the 8:58 mark in the third quarter. Following a Western Kentucky safety that got the Hilltoppers to within 21-9, LSU put the game out of reach at 35-9 on a pair of rushing scores by Blue – one going for 45 yards and the other from 4-yards out. Jarrett Lee hit Kadron Boone with a 5-yard TD pass to close out the scoring for the Tigers. Despite allowing a TD in the first quarter for the first time all season, LSU's defense still managed to hold Western Kentucky to 248 total yards (129 rushing, 97 passing). Kevin Minter led the Tigers on defense with a career-high 11 tackles, while Ryan Baker added nine stops. Barkevious Mingo, Sam Montgomery and Ron Brooks all had sacks for LSU, while Tahj Jones picked off the first pass of his career.

No. 1 LSU Records Biggest Win In Ole Miss Series, 52-3

LSU scored two defensive touchdowns and five players rushed for 50 yards or more as the top-ranked Tigers demolished Ole Miss, 52-3, in Oxford for their 12th straight win dating back to 2010. The game was never in doubt as LSU's Ron Brooks intercepted an Ole Miss pass on the third play of the game and returned it 46 yards for a TD and a 7-0 lead. LSU, which only punted one time, scored on its next two possessions, taking a 21-0 lead at the 5:11 mark in the first quarter on a 22-yard pass from Jordan Jefferson to Russell Shepard. Kevin Minter made it 28-0 early in the second quarter when he recovered an Ole Miss fumble in the endzone. Spencer Ware added a 35-yard TD run as the Tigers led 35-3 at halftime. Michael Ford raced 19 yards for a score and then James Stampley added his first career TD in the third quarter as LSU led 49-3 at the end of three quarters. LSU tacked on a 29-yard field goal by Drew Alleman to close out the scoring. For the game, LSU didn't throw an incomplete pass, going 8-for-8 for 105 yards and one TD. The Tigers rushed for a season-high 353 yards with Alfred Blue leading the way with 74 yards on four carries. Ware added 70 yards and one TD as the Tigers racked up 458 total yards, while limiting the Rebels to just 195 total yards. Safety Derrick Bryant had his best game as a Tiger with eight tackles, while Brooks had four tackles, one sack for an 11-yard loss, a forced fumble and fumble recovery and the interception return for a touchdown.

No. 1 LSU Completes Perfect Regular Season, Defeats No. 3 Arkansas, 41-17

Top-ranked LSU overcame its largest deficit of the season at 14-0 in the second quarter and stormed back for a 41-17 victory over No. 3 Arkansas in Tiger Stadium. After a scoreless first quarter, Arkansas went up 7-0 on a Tyler Wilson TD pass just seconds into the second quarter. The Hogs pushed the margin to 14-0 just two minutes later when a Michael Ford fumble was returned 47 yards for a TD by Alonzo Highsmith. LSU responded by reeling off 21 points over the final five minutes of the quarter to take a 21-14 lead at halftime. Kenny Hilliard started the rally with a 6-yard TD run to pull the Tigers to within, 14-7. Then after a 3-and-out by Arkansas, Tyrann Mathieu returned a punt 92 yards for a TD to tie the score at 14-14 with 3:24 left in the half. Mathieu struck again just before halftime, forcing a fumble at the LSU 34-yard line to halt an Arkansas drive. LSU then marched 66 yards in just five plays, capped with a Jordan Jefferson 9-yard TD pass to Russell Shepard, giving the Tigers their first lead of the game, 21-14, with 59 seconds left in the half. Arkansas cut the Tiger lead to 21-17 on a field goal midway through the third quarter. LSU's Drew Alleman extended the lead to 24-17 with a 21-yard field goal on LSU's next possession. LSU increased the lead to 31-17 on a 7-yard TD run by Spencer Ware at the 11:04 mark in the fourth quarter. The Tigers put the game out of reach at 38-17 when Jefferson raced 48 yards for a TD following a Morris Claiborne interception with 10:09 left in the game. Alleman tacked on a 37-yard field goal with 5:08 left in the game for the final margin. Hilliard led LSU with 102 rushing yards and 1 TD, while Jefferson threw for 208 yards and a score and rushed for 53 yards and a TD.

Big Second Half Leads LSU To SEC Championship Game Win over Georgia, 42-10

For the second straight week, LSU had to overcome a double-digit first half deficit as the Tigers used a punt return for a touchdown by Tyrann Mathieu to ignite a rally en route to a 42-10 win over Georgia in the SEC Championship Game. Trailing 10-0 after a listless first quarter, Mathieu got the Tigers going with a 62-yard punt return for a score that shifted the momentum heading into halftime. LSU went the entire first half without a first down as the Tigers managed only 12 total yards at halftime. While the LSU offense was struggling, the Tiger defense kept the game close, holding Georgia to one yard in the second quarter. The second half belonged to LSU as the Tigers forced a turnover on Georgia's opening possession and then scored two plays later on a 15-yard run by Kenny Hilliard for their first lead of the game at 14-10. Georgia was forced to punt on its next possession and Mathieu struck again, returning the punt 47 yards to the Bulldog 17-yard line. The Tigers needed just four players to score, this time on a 4-yard run by Hilliard, stretching the lead to 21-10. Hilliard added an 8-yard receiving TD from Jordan Jefferson to close out the third quarter scoring for LSU with the Tigers leading 28-10. LSU tacked on two more TDs in the fourth quarter - one coming on a 48-yard run Alfred Blue and the other on a 45-yard interception return by Morris Claiborne as the Tigers outscored the Bulldogs, 35-0, in the second half. After falling behind 10-0, LSU's defense forced Georgia to either punt or into a turnover on 10 of its final 11 possessions of the game. Mathieu earned game MVP honors with four tackles, one tackle for loss, one fumble recovery and a punt return TD. LSU rushed for 207 yards and limited Georgia to just 296 total yards.

LSU's Perfect Season Comes To An End In 21-0 Loss To Alabama In BCS Title Game

LSU's pursuit for the first 14-0 season in school history came to an end in the BCS title game as second-ranked Alabama used a suffocating defense to beat the top-ranked Tigers, 21-0, in the Mercedes-Benz Superdome in New Orleans. With the loss, LSU finished the 2011 season with a 13-1 overall mark and ranked No. 2 in the final polls. In a re-match of LSU's 9-6 overtime win over the Crimson Tide in November, Alabama used the foot of kicker Jeremy Shelley to score all the points they would need in the first half. Shelley kicked three first half field goals to give the Crimson Tide a 9-0 advantage at halftime. LSU's defense kept the Tigers in the game well into the second half, limiting the Crimson Tide to a pair of third quarter field goals to keep the margin within range at 15-0. After three quarters of stagnant offense, LSU got a drive going early in the fourth quarter, moving the ball to the Alabama 32-yard line following an 18-yard run by Jordan Jefferson. However, the drive stalled from there and LSU wasn't able to convert on a 4th-and-18 from the Alabama 40 turning the ball over on downs. Alabama put the game out of reach on its next possession with a 34-yard TD run to extend the lead to 21-0. For the game, LSU was limited to 92 total yards (39 rushing, 53 passing), while Alabama had 384 total yards of offense (150 rushing, 234 passing).

2012 opponents in bold.

* - 1975 and 1976 games forfeited to LSU by NCAA

1 - Formerly Southwestern Louisiana

2 - Formerly Northeast Louisiana

3 - Formerly Louisiana Normal

LSU's all-time record is 733-391-47. In addition to each of the opponents listed above, LSU has fashioned an 18-4 record against a group of opponents consisting of military and club teams, which balances the all-time won-lost record with the aforementioned total.

Gaynell (Gus) Tinsley

*End - 1935, 1936
Associated Press*

The Tigers' first consensus All-American, Gaynell (Gus) Tinsley was a unanimous selection in both 1935 and 1936. He played both ways as an end and led LSU to two SEC titles and three Sugar Bowl appearances. After earning three letters with the Tigers from 1934-36, he went on to a successful NFL career where he was twice named an All-Pro selection while playing for the Chicago Cardinals. Tinsley later returned to LSU where he served as the Tigers' head coach from 1948-54. During the 1949 season he led LSU to an 8-2-0 season that included wins over the Southern, Southeastern and Southwest Conference champions and a Sugar Bowl tilt versus Oklahoma. He was a charter member of the LSU Athletics Hall of Fame.

Marvin (Moose) Stewart

*Center - 1935, 1936
Helms Foundation*

A three-year letterwinner for the Tigers (1934-36), Marvin (Moose) Stewart was selected to the Helms Foundation All-American team in 1935. Later named an All-SEC selection by the Associated Press in 1936, he helped the Tigers to back-to-back SEC titles in 1935 and 1936. Stewart was a charter member of the LSU Athletics Hall of Fame.

Ken Kavanaugh, Sr.

*End - 1939
Associated Press*

A standout receiver for the Tigers from 1937-39, Ken Kavanaugh, Sr., was selected as an All-American by the Associated Press and finished seventh in the Heisman balloting during his senior season. A two-time AP first-team All-SEC selection (1938-39), Kavanaugh was known for scoring all four touchdowns in the Tigers' 28-7 victory over Holy Cross in 1939. He went on to an outstanding professional career with the New York Giants, where he continued with the organization as a scout after his playing career. A superb athlete, Kavanaugh also enjoyed a brief stint in baseball's professional ranks after lettering on the diamond at LSU. His son, Ken, Jr., lettered at LSU from 1969-71 as a receiver on the football team.

George Tarasovic

*Center - 1951
National Editorial Alliance*

George Tarasovic was a junior college transfer who, although playing and lettering only one year at LSU, was named both an All-America and All-SEC selection that season. An all-around athlete in high school, Tarasovic's college career was abbreviated because of military service during the Korean War. However, after returning from the service Tarasovic resumed his playing career at the professional level where he saw over a dozen years of action in NFL and AFL.

Sid Fournet

*Tackle - 1954
Associated Press, UPI, Look, Football Writers Association of America, National Editorial Alliance, Williamson, INS*

An extremely durable performer, Sid Fournet played guard and tackle on both sides of the ball. Earning All-America distinction in 1954, Fournet was credited with seeing action in 83 percent of the Tigers' total plays that season. Also a two-time first-team All-SEC selection, he was honored by both AP and UPI in 1953 and 1954.

Jimmy Taylor

Football Writers Association of America-Look*

Viewed as one of the most complete football players to have ever played the game, Jimmy Taylor was named a All-American by the Football Writers Association of America-Look in 1957. Voted the MVP of the 1958 Senior Bowl, he went on to a legendary pro career with the Green Bay Packers (1958-66) and New Orleans Saints (1967) and was later inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1976. Taylor is also a member of the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame and the LSU Athletics Hall of Fame.

Billy Cannon

*Halfback - 1958, 1959
1959 Heisman Trophy
Associated Press (1958-59), UPI (1958-59), National Editorial Alliance (1958-59), Central Press (1958-59), American Football Coaches Association (1958-59), The Sporting News (1958-59), Football Writers Association of America-Look (1958-59), New York Daily News (1958-59), NBC (1958-59), Time (1958), Leahy (1958), Hearst (1959).*

The greatest football player ever to don the Purple and Gold, Billy Cannon was awarded the Heisman Trophy in 1959. He was given virtually every honor that could be bestowed on an individual, including All-America accolades in 1958 and 1959. Cannon was considered almost as valuable on defense as he was on offense. His 89-yard punt return in 1959 against Ole Miss has become a gridiron legend, but few remember that he and Warren Rabb stuffed Ole Miss at the goal line of a fourth and inches to preserve the dramatic 7-3 victory. A three-year letterwinner for the Tigers (1957-59), he was also a two-time first-team All-SEC selection (1958-59).

Max Fugler

*Center - 1958
Football Writers Association of America-Look, NBC*

A bulwark for the White Team, Max Fugler was instrumental in the Tigers' 1958 national championship run. Named an All-American by the Football Writers Association of America-Look and NBC that same year, he was heralded as an outstanding blocker on offense and incomparable down lineman on defense. His defensive work was exemplified by the number of goal line and fourth down stands the Tigers had during the glory years of 1958 and 1959. He was also named a first-team All-SEC selection by UPI in 1958.

Roy (Moonie) Winston

*Guard - 1961
Associated Press, UPI, National Editorial Alliance, Central Press, Football Writers Association of America Look, Kodak/American Football Coaches Association, New York Daily News, The Sporting News, Time*

A 1961 All-America selection at guard, Roy (Moonie) Winston excelled on defense with a strong initial charge, plus speed and agility. Soft-spoken, Winston was a born leader that was elected by his teammates as the Tigers' team captain in 1961. Winston also earned first-team All-SEC honors from the AP and UPI that same year. In addition, he played on LSU's SEC champion baseball team in the early 1960's before enjoying a brilliant NFL career in Minnesota.

Fred Miller

*Tackle - 1962
All America Organization*

A stellar lineman for the great LSU teams of the early 1960s, Fred Miller originally signed with Tulane after finishing at Homer High School, but he found out he was one English credit short, so he was bound for Texas AGM until Paul Dietzel sold his family on LSU. He played alongside Moonie Winston in 1961 and was a blocker for Heisman runner-up Jerry Stovall in 1962. In his three seasons, LSU played in two bowls, the Orange (25-7 over Colorado) and Cotton (13-0 over Texas). He was drafted by the Colts and later earned All-Pro honors. He is a member of LSU's Modern Day Team of the Century.

Jerry Stovall

Halfback - 1962
Associated Press, UPI, National Editorial Alliance, Central Press, Football Writers Association of America Look, Kodak/American Football Coaches Association, New York Daily News, The Sporting News, Time, CBS

Ironically, Jerry Stovall was the last recruit signed by LSU after he graduated from high school. Once with the Tigers he earned All-America accolades and finished second in the 1962 Heisman Trophy balloting. Also a two-time All-SEC selection, Stovall went on to play nine seasons with the St. Louis Cardinals before becoming an assistant coach at South Carolina. He later returned to LSU as assistant coach and was named head coach after tragic death of Bo Rein in 1980. He took LSU to 1983 Orange Bowl and was named National Coach of the Year by the Walter Camp Football Foundation after the 1982 season.

Billy Truax

End - 1963
Football News

Billy Truax was an excellent blocker, but LSU's offense in that era was geared towards the run and, consequently, his talents as a pass receiver were never exploited. Football News honored him as an All-American in 1963, the same year the UPI recognized him as a first-team all-conference honoree. Truax's son, Chris, was an offensive lineman at LSU from 1988-91.

Remi Prudhomme

National Editorial Alliance, New York Daily News, Football News

A stalwart of the Chinese Bandits, Remi Prudhomme was an unusually strong player. His size and weight made him unique and his aggressive temperament was ideal for the role in which he was cast. Named a 1964 All-American by the National Editorial Alliance, the New York Daily News and the Football News, he also garnered all-conference honors from the UPI. Prudhomme went on to a brilliant pro career with the Buffalo Bills, Kansas City Chiefs and New Orleans Saints.

Doug Moreau

Split End - 1965
Football News

Doug Moreau's pass-catching ability was heralded, but his place kicking had to be recognized. In his junior season, his talented toe was responsible for the first two victories of the year, a 9-6 win over the Texas Aggies and 3-0 victory against Rice. The AP named him a first-team All-SEC pick in 1964 before he earned All-America honors from the Football News in 1965. Moreau went on to play professional ball with the Miami Dolphins, earned a law degree and served as a district judge in Baton Rouge. He currently serves as the color analyst for the LSU Sports Radio Network.

George Rice

Tackle - 1965
Time, The Sporting News

A local lad, George Rice's prowess in high school overlapped three sports: football, basketball and track. Extremely powerful, his specialty in track was the shot put. On the gridiron he was a devastating blocker and tackler who played in three bowl games during his career. Rice was named a first-team All-SEC selection by UPI in 1964 and an All-American by Time and The Sporting News a year later. He participated in the Hula Bowl and went on to a long, successful career in the NFL before returning to LSU as a graduate assistant.

John Garlington

End - 1967
Kodak/American Football Coaches Association

An incredible athlete whose talents typified his play and teamwork, John Garlington had excellent speed and lateral pursuit. Opponents were timid when it came to attacking his side of the defensive line. Even with his size, he was a speed merchant. In the 1966 Rice encounter, Garlington picked off an errant pass and returned it 42 yards for a touchdown. A 1967 Kodak/AFAA All-American, he was also a two-time first-team All-SEC selection (1966 and 1967).

George Bevan

Football Writers Association of America-Look, Kodak/American Football Coaches Association

Possibly the finest all-around linebacker ever to play at LSU, George Bevan's size had absolutely nothing to do with his desire, competitiveness, leadership and commitment. In the first game of his junior year, he injured his Achilles tendon to such an extent that he underwent several surgeries and spent 32 months on crutches. There was little hope he would ever play football again, but by the summer of 1969, his determination had earned him a starting role. Although Bevan had many notable moments, his blocked extra point against Auburn in the classic 21-20 victory by LSU had to be his crowning achievement. He was named both an All-America and All-SEC (AP and UPI) selection in 1969. Bevan earned his law degree and works as an attorney in Baton Rouge.

Tommy Casanova

Associated Press (1969-70), Kodak/American Football Coaches Association (1969-70), UPI (1971), Central Press (1971), Football Writers Association of America (1971), Walter Camp (1971), Football News (1971), Time (1971)

Versatility personified might be the best description of the myriad talents of Tommy Casanova. During his three-year LSU career, he played offense and defense, returned punts and kickoffs, and did everything except handle the water cart. A fearless competitor, he led the team by example through three brilliant seasons and entered immortality as a result of his actions, both on and off the field. A three-time All-American, Casanova is one of just six three-time All-SEC performers in LSU history (1969-70-71). Following his collegiate career, Casanova played several seasons with the Cincinnati Bengals while pursuing his medical degree. He is now an ophthalmologist in his hometown of Crowley, La.

Mike Anderson

Associated Press, UPI, Central Press, Football Writers Association of America-Look, Kodak/American Football Coaches Association, Football News, Time

Mike Anderson started every game during his three years as a linebacker at LSU. In fact, he was the second of three straight All-America linebackers produced by the Tigers: George Bevan in 1969; Anderson in 1970; and Warren Capone in 1973. Anderson was noted for one great play -- at Auburn in 1970, LSU was leading 17-9, the Plainsmen had the ball, fourth and one inch and 6-2, 225-pound fullback Wallace Clark drove for the TD. Anderson met him head-on short of pay dirt and his feat became that of which legends are made. Named an All-American in 1970, he was also recognized as a first-team All-SEC pick by the AP and UPI that same year.

Ronnie Estay

Tackle - 1971
Kodak/American Football Coaches Association

One of the quickest defensive linemen ever to play at LSU, Ronnie Estay, a true Cajun, anchored a defense that allowed fewest yards in the nation. During his junior year, he tackled both quarterbacks Pat Sullivan of Auburn and Archie Manning of Ole Miss for safeties. In 1971, he was recognized as a Kodak/AFAA All-American as well as a first-team All-SEC selection by the AP and UPI.

Bert Jones

UPI, National Editorial Alliance, Kodak/American Football Coaches Association, Time, The Sporting News

Bert Jones possessed as strong an arm as any quarterback in college history. He finished fourth in the balloting for the 1972 Heisman Trophy, won an SEC title as a sophomore and played in three bowl games while compiling a 26-6-1 career mark. He started only two games prior to the next-to-last game of his junior season, but started every one after that. Jones' most notable feats came against Notre Dame in 1971 (28-8), and Ole Miss in 1972 when, with time expired, he threw a touchdown pass to Brad Davis for the 17-16 LSU victory. A 1972 All-American and first-team All-SEC selection, he was the first pick in 1973 NFL draft by Baltimore Colts.

Warren Capone

Football Writers Association of America (1972-73), Kodak/American Football Coaches Association (1973)

Warren Capone was another in the long line of Baton Rouge natives who starred at LSU. He played in the Sun, Bluebonnet and Orange Bowls during his years as a starting linebacker. For his efforts, he was named an All-American in 1972 and 1973 as well as first-team All-SEC by the AP in 1972 and both the AP and UPI in 1973. Capone played for Birmingham in the World Football League and the Dallas Cowboys in the Super Bowl. He is the past president of the National "L" Club.

Tyler LaFauci

Guard - 1973
Associated Press, National Editorial Alliance, Walter Camp

During Tyler LaFauci's three-year career, LSU compiled a 27-8-1 mark and participated in three bowl games: Sun, Bluebonnet and Orange. His lack of height didn't inhibit his determination and competitiveness as he excelled both as a pass blocker and a pulling blocker. A 1973 All-American, he was also a first-team All-SEC pick as voted on by the AP and UPI that year. Also a brilliant student, LaFauci went on to postgraduate work and earned a physical therapist degree, a profession he practices in Baton Rouge.

Mike Williams

Kodak/American Football Coaches Association, The Sporting News, Time

Feisty, aggressive, determined and unyielding; those were the adjectives that best described the play of Mike Williams. Named Sports Illustrated's Back-of-the-Week for his play against Kentucky in 1973, he was also named an All-American by Kodak/AFCA, The Sporting News and Time during the 1974 season.

Charles Alexander

UPI (1977), Kodak/American Football Coaches Association (1977-78), Football Writers Association of America (1977-78), Walter Camp (1977-78), The Sporting News (1978), National Editorial Alliance (1978)

At the end of a stellar career that included a pair of All-America and All-SEC (AP and UPI) honors, Charles Alexander's name sat atop nine SEC categories, tied for another conference mark and topped 27 LSU records. In two bowl games, he was responsible for 330 yards. Alexander still holds the school records for most rushes in a game (43), most yards in a season (1686) and most yards gained per game in a season (153.3). He was drafted in the first round by Cincinnati and played in the Super Bowl. Alexander was selected to the College Football Hall of Fame in 2012.

Robert Dugas

Offensive Tackle - 1978
Football News

Suffice it to say, Robert Dugas' academic prowess surpassed his athletic ability, which was considerable. He was a member of the self-named "Root Hogs" which cleared the way for many of Charles Alexander's record setting performances. Dugas was named to the Football News' All-America team in 1978, the CoSIDA Academic All-America Team in 1977 and to All-SEC teams both in 1977 and 1978.

James Britt

National Editorial Alliance

After three seasons, James Britt appeared ready to blossom. But in the second game of the 1981 season against Notre Dame, he intercepted a pass to set up a field goal, and a few minutes later, a broken arm ended his year. He went on to have an outstanding senior season in 1982 that was capped with All-America honors from the National Editorial Alliance. Britt was a second-round pick by the Atlanta Falcons and played there several years before entering a successful business career in the Georgia capital. Named an Academic All-American by CoSIDA in 1982, he was also a first-team All-SEC pick by the AP in 1982.

Albert Richardson

Football News

Albert Richardson still holds the LSU records for most tackles in a game (21 vs. South Carolina, 1982) and a career (952) and for 21 years, he also held LSU's single-season record for tackles (150, 1981). Named an All-American by the Football News in 1982, Richardson was also selected as a first-team All-SEC performer by the AP and UPI that same year. His genes fitted him for a role in football as his father, Albert, Sr., was a Baton Rouge High School assistant coach.

Eric Martin

Split End - 1983
The Sporting News

A converted running back, Eric Martin compiled a brilliant record during his four years in varsity competition. At one time he was the school record holder in season (52) and career (105) receptions, yards in a single game (209) and most yards in a season (1,064). As a freshman, he was second in the nation in kickoff returns, a total that included a 100-yarder for a touchdown against Kentucky. A 1983 Sporting News All-American, he was also a two-time first-team All-SEC selection. He was inducted into the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame in 2006.

Lance Smith

UPI, Kodak/American Football Coaches Association, Football News

Lance Smith's size and quickness ideally suited him as he was named to the SEC All-Freshman team. Smith matured both physically and emotionally during his first two years in Tigertown and was strong as a bull by the time his junior season came around. He earned All-America honors from UPI, Kodak/AFCA and Football News in 1984, in addition to first-team All-SEC honors from the AP and UPI. Later, a third round choice by Phoenix, Smith quickly earned a starting role with the Cardinals.

Michael Brooks

Associated Press, Scripps-Howard News Service*

Michael Brooks stepped in from the very first game and showed his potential. His impressive play on the field earned him All-America honors as a junior and it was thought he would be a cinch to become one of the few two-time All-Americans in LSU history. But a knee injury in the Florida game sidelined Brooks for the remainder of the season. He was named first-team All-SEC in 1985 by the AP, UPI and SEC Coaches. The Denver Broncos drafted him in the third round.

Wendell Davis

Football Writers Association of America (1986-87), The Sporting News (1986-87), Washington Post (1986), College and Pro Football Newsweekly (1986), UPI (1987), Kodak/American Football Coaches Association (1987), Football News (1987), Scripps-Howard News Service (1987)

One of the most prolific receivers in LSU history, two-time All-American Wendell Davis had 100 or more receiving yards in 12 games during his career. He finished his career with a then SEC record 2,708 yards receiving, a mark that still ranks second in LSU history and ninth in SEC history. Davis also still ranks among the top 10 in the SEC in single season receiving yards (1,244), single season receptions (80) and career receptions (183). He was also named a first-team All-SEC pick by the AP, UPI and SEC Coaches in 1987 and 1988 and was later drafted by the Chicago Bears.

Nacho Albergamo

*Center - 1987
Associated Press, UPI, Walter Camp, Kodak/American Football Coaches Association, Football Writers Association of America, The Sporting News, Football News, Scripps-Howard News Service*

Nacho Albergamo was LSU's most decorated player in 1987. Along with guard Eric Andolsek, they comprised LSU's "A" team which anchored the fearsome Tiger offensive line that helped pave the way to a school record 4,843 offensive yards. Also a quality student, Albergamo was named the 1987 Toyota Leader of the Year and was one of 11 recipients of the 1987 National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame Schola-Athlete awards. He was twice named an Academic All-American by CoSIDA (1986 and 1987). Also a member of Omicron Delta Kappa leadership fraternity, he maintained a near 3.5 GPA in pre-med/zoology and attended LSU Medical School. Albergamo was also named a first-team All-SEC selection by the AP, UPI and SEC Coaches in 1987. He is currently a doctor of internal medicine in Baton Rouge.

Greg Jackson

Gannett News Service*

Greg Jackson led the nation in interception return yardage in 1988 after tying the NCAA record with a 100-yard return versus Mississippi State and later adding a 71-yard return for a TD against Tulane. Jackson's 219 interception return yards for the season have only ever been exceeded once in SEC history, by Mississippi's Joe Brodsky's 244 yards in 1956. He also returned punts for LSU, taking back 11 for 99 yards in 1988. Named first-team All-SEC by the AP and SEC Coaches, he was later drafted by the New York Giants.

Kevin Faulk

Associated Press*

LSU's all-time leading rusher and a three-time All-SEC choice, Kevin Faulk led the SEC in all-purpose yards and ranked No. 2 in the league in rushing as a sophomore. Named an AP All-American as an all-purpose player that year, his 246 yards in the season opener against Houston set an LSU single-game record. Faulk was a consensus All-SEC choice in 1996, 1997 and 1998, and the SEC Freshman Offensive Player of the Year in 1995. He led the SEC in rushing during both his junior and senior seasons and also topped the league in scoring as a senior. He was selected by the New England Patriots in the 1999 NFL draft and was a member of their 2002, 2004 and 2005 Super Bowl Champion teams.

David LaFleur

*Tight End - 1996
Walter Camp*

An imposing figure who was both a punishing blocker and a fine pass catcher, David LaFleur helped lead a resurgence of LSU football in the 1990s. The Tigers' receptions leader as a senior in 1996, he earned All-America honors from the Walter Camp Foundation that same year and was named All-SEC during both his sophomore and senior seasons. He finished his career with 71 catches for 881 yards and five touchdowns, but he was also instrumental in LSU's place as the top rushing team in the SEC in 1996 because of his blocking abilities. Following his graduation from LSU, he was chosen in the first round of the NFL draft by the Dallas Cowboys.

Alan Faneca

Associated Press, Football Writers Association of America, Walter Camp, The Football News, The Sporting News*

A dominating run blocker, Alan Faneca was the first Outland Trophy finalist in LSU history and LSU's first winner of the Jacobs Trophy (given to the best blocker in the SEC) since 1978. Faneca, a 1997 All-America selection, anchored a heralded offensive line that helped pace LSU to SEC rushing titles in 1996 and 1997. Following his junior season, Faneca chose to enter the NFL draft where he was selected in the first round by Pittsburgh and went on to win the 2007 Super Bowl with the Steelers. He retired from the NFL following the 2010 season.

Chad Kessler

Associated Press, American Football Coaches Association, The Football News, Walter Camp, The Sporting News*

Chad Kessler became the first player in college football history to average over 50.0 yards per punt for a full season. He was an All-SEC choice his sophomore year and, after an average junior season, he exploded onto the national scene as the country's top punter. An excellent student, he finished his career with a 3.91 GPA and was named a first-team Academic All-American. Kessler signed a free agent contract with Tampa Bay out of LSU and then decided to pursue a career in medicine. He is now a doctor of Otolaryngology in Charlotte, N.C.

Todd McClure

*Center - 1998
American Football Coaches Association*

An All-American and two-time All-SEC center, Todd McClure also served as LSU's offensive team captain. The Tigers' starting center beginning midway through his freshman year, LSU rolled to a 25-12 record with McClure as a starter. He played an integral role in LSU's team rushing in 1996 and 1997. McClure was selected by the Atlanta Falcons in the 1999 NFL Draft.

Anthony McFarland

Noseguard - 1998
Associated Press, The Football News

One of LSU's most outstanding and colorful linemen in 1998, Anthony McFarland earned All-America honors from the Associated Press and Football News that year. A four-year starter and a defensive co-captain as a senior, he finished his career ranked sixth in LSU history in quarterback sacks with 17. He was a first-team All-SEC pick as a senior, a second-team selection as a sophomore, the Defensive MVP of the 1996 Peach Bowl and the 1995 SEC Freshman Co-Defensive Player of the Year. McFarland was drafted as the 15th overall pick in the 1999 NFL Draft by Tampa Bay and won two Super Bowl rings - one with the Buccaneers and one with the Indianapolis Colts.

Josh Reed

Wide Receiver - 2001

Walter Camp, Associated Press, Football Writer's Association, American Football Coaches Association, The Sporting News, ABC Sports online, SportsIllustrated.com

Josh Reed re-wrote both the LSU and SEC record books in 2001 as he caught a school-record 94 passes for an SEC-record 1,740 yards on his way to becoming a consensus first-team All-American.

Reed led the nation in both receiving yards and yards per game. Reed, who won the Biletnikoff Award as a junior in 2001, wrapped up his career as the SEC's all-time leader in receiving yards. In his final game in an LSU uniform, Reed set Sugar Bowl records with 14 receptions for 239 yards and a pair of touchdowns in the Tigers' 47-34 victory over Illinois. Reed capped his career by setting 17 school, SEC or Sugar Bowl records as a junior. He was drafted by the Buffalo Bills in the second round.

Bradie James

Linebacker - 2002
American Football Coaches Association, The Sporting News, CBS Sportsline

Bradie James capped his career as one of the most outstanding student-athletes in LSU football history. As a senior in 2002, James earned first-team All-America honors and was named a National Scholar-Athlete by the National Football Foundation. He finished his career ranked second in LSU history with 418 tackles, which included a school-record 154 in 2002. James earned first-team All-SEC honors twice and was also named the Defensive MVP of the 2000 Peach Bowl. He was drafted by the Dallas Cowboys in the fourth round.

Stephen Peterman

SportsIllustrated.com, ESPN.com, The Sporting News

One of the nation's top offensive linemen as a senior in 2003, Stephen Peterman put the finishing touches on his LSU career by being selected a first-team All-American by three publications - SportsIllustrated.com, ESPN.com and The Sporting News. A three-year starter on the offensive line, Peterman played in 48 games, including 29 starts. In a season that culminated with LSU winning the national title, Peterman allowed only one sack while being whistled for just nine penalties in all of 2003. He was drafted in the third round by the Dallas Cowboys and currently plays for the Detroit Lions.

Chad Lavalais

Walter Camp, Associated Press, Football Writer's Association of America, SportsIllustrated.com, ESPN.com, The Sporting News

The anchor on the LSU defense in 2003, Chad Lavalais was the driving defensive force behind the Tigers' run to the 2003 BCS National Championship. Lavalais, a finalist for both the Nagurski and Outland Awards, earned first-team All-America honors from six publications, while also being named the SEC's Defensive Player of the Year by the league's coaches. Lavalais earned National Defensive Player of the Year honors from The Sporting News after leading an LSU defense that ranked first in the country in scoring and total defense. He went on to be drafted in the fifth round by the Atlanta Falcons.

Skylar Green

Return Specialist - 2003, 2005
SportsIllustrated.com, ESPN.com (2003), Rivals.com (2005)

The first punt Skylar Green returned in college resulted in a 62-yard touchdown against Arizona in week two of the 2003 season. By the time Green's career had come to an end, he had set an LSU record by returning four punts for touchdowns on his way to earning first-team All-America honors in both 2003 and 2005. Green led the nation in punt returns as a sophomore in 2003 with an 18.5 average. For his career, Green finished first in LSU history in punts returned for a TD (4) and second in punt return yards (1,064). He was drafted in the fourth round by the Dallas Cowboys.

Corey Webster

American Football Coaches Association (2003-04), The Sporting News (2004)

One of the nation's top cover cornerbacks as a junior and senior, Corey Webster became LSU's first two-time first-team All-American since Wendell Davis in 1986-87. Webster capped his in 2004 by earning first-team All-America honors from the Football Coaches Association and The Sporting News. As Webster recorded 33 tackles and two interceptions nation's No. 3 rated defense. Originally signed as a receiver, Webster played his first season with the Tigers on offense before making the switch to the secondary prior to his sophomore season. Webster tied an LSU single game record with three interceptions against Florida in 2002 and he holds the school record in passes defended with 49. He was drafted in the second round by the New York Giants and has won two Super Bowl rings.

Marcus Spears

Defensive End - 2004
Walter Camp, Associated Press, American Football Coaches Association

Marcus Spears capped his LSU career in grand fashion, earning first-team All-America honors from the Walter Camp Foundation, the Associated Press and the American Football Coaches Association in 2004. As a senior, Spears led a Tiger defense that ranked No. 3 in the nation with 17 tackles for losses and nine sacks. He also recorded 49 tackles for LSU in 2004 and returned an interception 35 yards for a touchdown. Spears' LSU career concluded with 19 sacks, which ranks fifth in school history, and 34.5 tackles for loss, which ranks seventh at the school. He was the 20th overall pick by the Dallas Cowboys.

Ben Wilkerson

Center - 2004
American Football Coaches Association, The Sporting News

A starter at center for the best four-year stretch in school history, Ben Wilkerson capped his career with the Tigers by earning first-team All-America honors in 2004 from both the American Football Coaches Association and The Sporting News. In addition to his All-America honors, Wilkerson was also named the co-recipient of the Rimington Trophy, which is presented annually to the top center in college football. Wilkerson did all of this as a senior despite having his final season with the Tigers cut short due to a knee injury. In four years with the Tigers, Wilkerson was a mainstay on the offensive line, helping LSU to a 33-8 mark in his 41 career starts at center.

Kyle Williams

*Defensive Tackle - 2005
Rivals.com*

The anchor on the LSU defensive line as a senior in 2005, Kyle Williams earned first-team All-America honors from Rivals.com. In 2005, Williams recorded 61 tackles, 7.5 tackles for losses and 4.5 sacks. He also had 21 QB hurries and batted down five passes at the line of scrimmage. He was drafted in the fifth round by the Buffalo Bills.

Claude Wroten

Collegefootballnews.com*

Considered one of the most dominant defensive linemen in college football in 2005, Claude Wroten teamed with fellow defensive tackle Kyle Williams to give LSU a pair of All-America defensive tackles. Wroten capped his senior year with 49 tackles and a team-best 10.5 tackles for loss. He was a third round pick of the St. Louis Rams in the NFL Draft.

LaRon Landry

*Free Safety - 2006
Associated Press, American Football Coaches Association*

Considered one of the best defensive backs in all of college football in 2006, LaRon Landry became LSU's then-highest drafted defensive player in school history when he was selected as the No. 6 overall pick in the 2007 NFL Draft. A four-year starter that capped his career with 48 consecutive starts, Landry was named a first-team All-American and a semifinalist for the Thorpe Award during his senior season. Landry finished his LSU career ranked No. 2 in school history in passes broken up and tied for No. 3 in interceptions with 40 and 12, respectively.

Glenn Dorsey

Associated Press (2006, 2007), American Football Coaches Association (2006, 2007) CBSsportsline.com (2006, 2007), SportsIllustrated.com (2006, 2007), Rivals.com (2006), Walter Camp (2007), ESPN.com (2007), The Sporting News (2007), Football Writers Association of America (2007)*

Glenn Dorsey capped his career as the most decorated defender in school history, earning numerous national awards and All-America honors as both a junior and senior before becoming the highest drafted defensive player in school history as the fifth pick of the 2008 NFL Draft by the Kansas City Chiefs. A consensus All-American in 2007, Dorsey anchored an LSU defense that rated No. 3 nationally in yards allowed in both 2006 and 2007. Dorsey was also named the winner of the Outland, Nagurski, Lombardi and Lott Awards following his senior season in 2007. Dorsey led the Tigers to the 2007 national title.

Ali Highsmith

CBSsportsline.com*

A three-year starter, Ali Highsmith earned first-team All-America honors from CBSsportsline.com following his senior season in 2007. Highsmith played a key role for an LSU defense that ranked among the top 10 in the nation in total defense, pass defense and turnovers gained. For the year, Highsmith recorded 101 tackles and 9.0 tackles for loss.

Craig Steltz

*Safety - 2007
Associated Press, Walter Camp, Football Writers Association of America, CBSsportsline.com, SI.com, Rivals.com*

Craig Steltz made the most of his first full season as a starter at safety, earning numerous All-America honors as well as being named one of three finalists for the Thorpe Award in 2007. Steltz tied an LSU record with three interceptions against Mississippi State in 2007. Steltz went on to lead the Tigers with 101 tackles and his six interceptions ranked first in the SEC. He was a fourth-round draft pick of the Chicago Bears.

Herman Johnson

Associated Press*

Herman Johnson capped his career at LSU by being named a first team All-America by the Associated Press following his senior season in 2009. As a senior, Johnson started all 13 games at left guard for the Tigers as he helped anchor an offensive line that blocked for 1,000-yard rusher Charles Scott. Johnson played a total of 889 snaps from scrimmage and finished second on the team with 62 knockdowns.

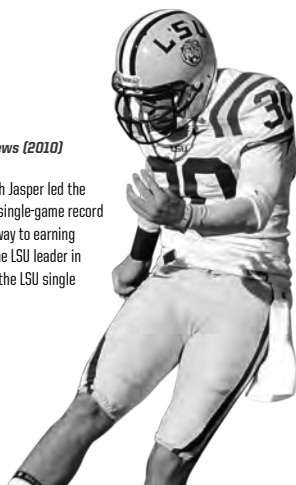

Patrick Peterson

Associated Press (2010), American Football Coaches Association (2010), Football Writers Association of America (2010), Sporting News (2010), Walter Camp (2010), CBSsports.com (2010), SI.com (2010)*

The most decorated defensive back in school history, Patrick Peterson was a consensus All-America as a junior for the Tigers in 2010. Peterson, who also won both the Thorpe and Bednarik Awards, led an LSU defense that ranked among the top 10 nationally in four categories. Peterson was also a special teams standout, earning SEC Player of the Year honors for his return ability. Peterson, who helped the Tigers to an 11-2 overall mark and a Cotton Bowl victory in 2010, was picked fifth overall in the 2011 NFL Draft by the Arizona Cardinals.

Josh Jasper*Placekicker - 2010Football Writers Association of America (2010), Sporting News (2010)*

The first consensus All-America placekicker in school history, Josh Jasper led the nation in field goals with 28 as a senior 2010. Jasper set the LSU single-game record for field goals with five against Mississippi State in 2010 on his way to earning first-team All-SEC honors. Jasper finished his career as the all-time LSU leader in field goal percentage (.839). His 28 field goals in 2010 shattered the LSU single season record.

Drake NevisDefensive Tackle - 2010CBSports.com (2010)*

Drake Nevis continued an LSU defensive line tradition by being named first-team All-America by CBSports.com after leading the Tigers to an 11-2 mark and a Cotton Bowl victory over Texas A&M. Nevis, a first-team All-SEC pick as a senior, recorded 56 tackles, 13.0 tackles for losses and six sacks for an LSU defense that ranked among the best in the nation. Nevis became the fifth LSU defensive tackle since 2001 to earn first-team All-America honors. He was selected in the third round of the 2011 NFL Draft by the Indianapolis Colts.

Will BlackwellOffensive Guard - 2011ESPN.com, Rivals.com, Sporting News, Yahoo Sports (2011)*

Will Blackwell became the first LSU offensive lineman in four years to earn first team All-America honors, anchoring a line that spearheaded one of the nation's most prolific rushing attacks. Blackwell earned a spot on Sporting News and Yahoo Sports' All-America teams. He made 10 starts at left guard and four at right guard, recording team highs in snaps (833) and knockdowns (112.5). Blackwell signed a free agent contract with the Carolina Panthers following the NFL Draft.

Morris ClaiborneCornerback - 2011AFCA, Associated Press, College Football News, CBSports.com, ESPN.com, FWAA, SI.com, Sporting News, Walter Camp, Yahoo Sports (2011)*

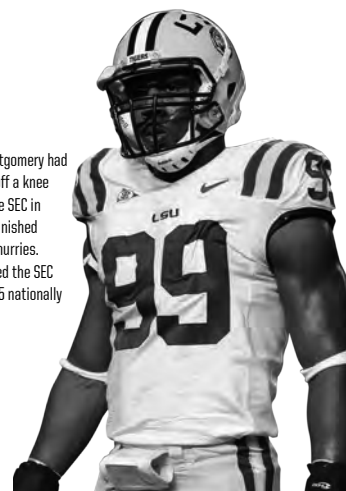

For the second year in a row, LSU was the home of the nation's top cornerback as Morris Claiborne claimed the Thorpe Award in 2011. A consensus first-team All-American, Claiborne tallied 51 tackles and six interceptions as a senior while leading the nation in interception return yards with 173. Claiborne also doubled as a return specialist. He finished his career tied for sixth in LSU career interceptions (11) and second in interception return yards (274). Claiborne was LSU's highest drafted player in 2012, going No. 6 overall to the Dallas Cowboys. It marked the first time since the NFL's merger that a school produced the top defensive back selection in consecutive drafts.

Tyrann MathieuCornerback, Return Specialist - 2011Associated Press, College Football News, CBSports.com, ESPN.com, FWAA, SI.com, Sporting News, Walter Camp, Yahoo Sports (2011)*

An electrifying player with tremendous heart, Tyrann Mathieu became a fan favorite in 2011 with his uncanny ability to make big plays. Mathieu earned first-team All-America honors as both a cornerback and return specialist in helping LSU reach the BCS National Championship Game. The winner of the Bednarik Award as the nation's top defender, Mathieu led the Tigers with 76 tackles to go with six forced fumbles, five fumble recoveries and two interceptions. He also returned punts for touchdowns in wins over Arkansas and Georgia. Mathieu finished fifth in the Heisman Trophy balloting.

Sam MontgomeryDefensive End - 2011FWAA (2011)*

An intimidating presence at defensive end, Sam Montgomery had a breakout season as a sophomore in 2011. Coming off a knee injury a season prior, Montgomery ranked sixth in the SEC in sacks (9.0) and eighth in tackles for loss (15.0). He finished the year with 49 total tackles and four quarterback hurries. Montgomery was a standout on a run defense that led the SEC in sacks and tackles for loss and ranked in the top 15 nationally in those categories as well.

Brad WingPunter - 2011Associated Press, CBSports.com, SI.com, Sporting News (2011)*

In his first collegiate season, Brad Wing became just the second first-team All-America punter for LSU and the first since 1997. The Australian native led the SEC in percentage punts downed inside the 20-yard line as he placed 27-of-59 (46 percent) inside the 20. He allowed only six return yards during the regular season and he boomed the third longest punt in school history with a 73-yarder at Alabama.

National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete Award

In 1959, The National Football Foundation unveiled an entirely new concept in college football – its National Scholar-Athlete program. In the history of American sports, this was the first time an organization honored football players, not only for their athletic ability, but also for their academic and civic leadership. The Foundation's National Scholar-Athlete Awards program consists of graduate fellowships that are awarded on an annual basis to a select group of college football players in their senior year of eligibility who have demonstrated outstanding academic success, exemplary community leadership and superior football performance. LSU has had seven players named as a National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete, including Rudy Niswanger, who claimed the 2005 Draddy Trophy, which goes to college football's most outstanding student-athlete.

The LSU Athletics Hall of Fame showcases the finest student-athletes and coaches to wear the Purple and Gold. To be eligible for the LSU Hall of Fame in the Athlete category, an individual must have earned a college degree and gained national distinction through superlative performance. Hall of Fame candidates must also have established a personal reputation for character and citizenship.

To be eligible in the Coach/Administrator category, the individual must have made significant contributions to LSU Athletics and gained national distinction through exceptional accomplishments in his or her field of expertise while establishing an image that reflects favorably upon the University.

The LSU Athletics Hall of Fame presently includes 123 members, which includes the latest Class of 2011: women's basketball player Seimone Augustus, head baseball coach Skip Bertman, football wide receiver Wendell Davis, track and field triple jumper Suzette Lee, athletic director Carl Maddox and baseball pitcher Lloyd Peever. Maddox was inducted posthumously.

Wendell Davis, one of the greatest wide receivers in SEC history and a two-time first-team All-American, was inducted into the LSU Athletics Hall of Fame in September 2011. Davis was presented with his plaque by his former quarterback, Tommy Hodson

"IT'S SATURDAY NIGHT IN DEATH VALLEY AND HERE COME YOUR FIGHTING TIGERS OF LSU!"

Hearing those words from public address announcer Dan Borne' as the Tigers enter the stadium brings chills to even the casual LSU football fan and sends shivers to those on the opposing sideline. Seven days a year, Tiger Stadium becomes the fifth largest city in the state of Louisiana as over 92,500 fans pack the cathedral of college football to watch the Tigers play.

For LSU fans, there's nothing better than spending a night in Tiger Stadium. LSU home football games are events talked about year round and happenings in Tiger Stadium are passed down from generation to generation.

For opponents, however, it's another story as Tiger Stadium is an intimidating venue that has been called one of the most dreaded road playing sites in all of college football. Seating 92,542 fans and nicknamed "Death Valley," poll after poll has proclaimed Tiger Stadium as one of the greatest sites anywhere for a college football game.

No Place Like Home

LSU enters the 2012 season riding a nation-leading 17-game home winning streak and having won 43 of its 49 games under coach Les Miles, a stretch that dates back to the start of the 2005 season and includes wins over 13 top 25 teams. The Tigers won a school-record 19 straight home games from Oct. 15, 2005 through Nov. 10, 2007. LSU is 73-11 at home since the 2000 season – including perfect home records of 7-0 in 2004, 8-0 in 2006 and back-to-back perfect seasons in 2010 (7-0) and 2011 (6-0). Only twice since 2000 have the Tigers lost more than one home game. Under Miles, LSU is a perfect 21-0 against non-conference teams at home.

In 2011, the Tigers capped a perfect 12-0 regular season with a 41-17 victory over No. 3 Arkansas. An attendance of 93,108 – the second largest in the stadium's history – watched LSU erase a 14-0 deficit by outscoring the Razorbacks 41-3 the rest of the way. In six home games during its SEC Championship run, LSU outscored its opponents by a combined score of 253-57. It was the first time since the 1958-59 seasons that the Tigers posted consecutive undefeated seasons.

LSU averaged over 92,000 fans for the seventh straight year in 2011, as a school-record average of 92,868 spectators piled into Tiger Stadium to see the Tigers play. The mark shattered the previous single-season average attendance mark set during the 2010 campaign with 92,718 fans per contest. In 2008, LSU shattered its total attendance per a season when 739,065 fans witnessed a total of eight home games.

On Nov. 8, 2009, LSU eclipsed the 93,000-fan mark for the first time in school history when 93,039 spectators welcomed back former coach Nick Saban and top-ranked Alabama. LSU fell to the Crimson Tide, 27-21 in overtime, in what was then the most to ever see a game in Tiger Stadium. That mark fell in 2009 when once again the nation's top-ranked team, the Florida Gators, played under the lights on Oct. 10. A school-record 93,129 fans watched Florida defeat LSU, 13-3.

The Tigers posted a 6-1 home mark during their 2007 national championship season, including a thrilling 28-24 victory on Oct. 6 over Florida that was played before a crowd of 92,910 and a national primetime audience on CBS.

The 2005 season saw Tiger Stadium play host to its first Monday night game as LSU dropped an overtime thriller to Tennessee after the game was postponed two days due to Hurricane Rita. The LSU-Tennessee contest was the most-watched college football game in the history of ESPN2 as 2.77 million homes tuned in.

Due to the devastation to New Orleans and the Louisiana Superdome by Hurricane Katrina, Tiger Stadium served as the playing site for four New Orleans Saints games in 2005, as well as hosting the Tulane-Southeastern Louisiana contest. In all, 11 games (seven NCAA and four NFL) were played in Tiger Stadium during the 2005 season.

Part of the lore of Tiger Stadium is the tradition of playing games at night, an idea that was introduced in 1931 against Spring Hill (a 35-0 LSU victory). In 2006, LSU celebrated its 75th year of playing night football in Tiger Stadium. Since that first night game in 1931, LSU has played the majority of its games at night and the Tigers have fared much better under the lights than during the day. Since 1960, LSU is 221-60-4 (.782) at night in Tiger Stadium compared to a 25-26-3 (.491) record during the day over that span. Since 2000, LSU is 55-5 in night games and head coach Les Miles is 30-1 in night games in Death Valley.

CBSports.com's Dennis Dodd wrote in Oct. 2009 of LSU's fabled night history, "It has turned the knees of All-Americans to goo. It has caused coaches to lose their coaching minds. It only happens at a special space at a special time. LSU can be up, LSU can be down, but LSU's best weapon remains ... sunset."

LSU has averaged 77,023 spectators for each of its 347 battles in Tiger Stadium since the NCAA began compiling official attendance figures in 1957. Since the start of the NCAA's attendance compilations, LSU has finished in the nation's top 10 in average attendance in 48 of the past 55 seasons. The Tigers have drawn 26,727,253 fans since 1957. LSU passed the 25,000,000-mark in all-time attendance in 2009.

Tiger Stadium first opened its gates to fans in the fall of 1924 as LSU hosted Tulane in the season finale. Beginning with that first game in Tiger Stadium, LSU has posted a 384-143-18 (.722) mark in Death Valley. LSU's overall home record since the start of football in 1893 is 464-164-19 (.733).

Testimonials

Tiger Stadium tradition and lore has seen its share of national publicity as one of the most talked about venues in all of sports.

In 1998, Sport Magazine named Tiger Stadium “the most feared road playing site in America,” and in 1996, ESPN named LSU's pre-game party the best in all of America. Those surveys supported the previous polls by Gannett News Service in 1995, The Sporting News in 1989 and the College Football Association in 1987, that depict Tiger Stadium as the most difficult place for a visiting team to play.

Sports Illustrated's Rick Reilly, in a column comparing college football to professional football, penned that “College football is LSU's Tiger Stadium at night.” ESPN's Chris Fowler called LSU his favorite gameday experience in the Sports Illustrated's On Campus issue in 2003.

In 2002, after a 33-10 non-conference win over Miami (Ohio), UM coach Terry Hoepfner said of Tiger Stadium, “that's as exciting an environment as you can have. I thought the crowd was a factor for us because we had communication problems we haven't had at Michigan and Ohio State.”

After a victory before a national television audience on ESPN in 2001, ESPN sideline reporter Adrian Karsten said, “Death Valley in Baton Rouge is the loudest stadium I've ever been in. There are very few stadiums in America worth a touchdown, but the Bayou Bengals certainly have that advantage in Tiger Stadium.”

In 2007, the acclaim continued when The Bleacher Report ranked “Death Valley” as the third toughest venue in the world to play in. LSU's run to a national title and record crowds led ESPN.com to proclaim Tiger Stadium as “The Scariest Place to Play in America” for an opposing team in a list of stadium rankings.

Wright Thompson of ESPN.com wrote in 2008, “It was electric. When Death Valley is rocking, it seems as if it might actually take flight. On Saturday, I went back to Baton Rouge to see Alabama barely beat LSU, and was, once again, reminded that Tiger Stadium is the best place in the world to watch a sporting event.”

The stadium's sheer noise and tradition has carried into a new decade. In 2010, The Sporting News proclaimed Tiger tailgating and “Saturday Night in Death Valley” as the top gameday tradition in all of college football. That same year, the Associated Press named Tiger Stadium as the top place to tailgate in college football.

Great Moments

The 2007 national championship season featured some of Tiger Stadium's most exciting moments, including a 28-24 win over Florida on Oct. 6. Top-ranked LSU overcame a 10-point fourth-quarter deficit to beat the ninth-ranked Gators in front of 92,910 fans - then the largest crowd in stadium history - and a primetime CBS national television audience. Just two weeks later, Matt Flynn connected with Demetrius Byrd on a 22-yard TD pass with one second remaining to give LSU a 30-24 victory over Auburn in a game televised by ESPN. LSU rallied from deficits of 17-7 at halftime and 24-23 with three minutes left in the contest to capture the electrifying win.

Though already considered one of the most raucous stadiums in all of college football, the 2003 season saw Tiger Stadium take it to another level during LSU's national title run, as the team, along with the fans, captivated the national media almost on a weekly basis. CBS televised Matt Mauck's last-minute game-winning pass to Skyler Green against Georgia before a crowd of 92,251, while ESPN was on hand for a dominating 31-7 victory over Auburn. The Tigers closed out the 2003 home slate with a 55-24 win over Arkansas before what was then the second-largest crowd in school history (92,213). The contest was televised to a national audience by CBS and the win propelled LSU to the SEC Championship Game.

In 2001, the Tigers clinched a berth in their first SEC Championship Game with a 27-14 victory over Auburn in the season finale in Tiger Stadium. After the contest, thousands of Tiger fans spilled onto the stadium floor to celebrate the victory. The Auburn game was traditionally played earlier in the season, but the attacks of September 11 postponed the contest until the final week of the regular season.

In 2000, the goal posts came down twice. Immediately after the Tigers upset then-No. 11 ranked Tennessee 38-31 in overtime, the capacity crowd of 91,682 flowed onto the field of Tiger Stadium to celebrate the victory. Hundreds of students lined the sidelines and the back of the north end zone as the Tigers held the Vols scoreless in overtime for the victory.

The goal posts came down again in the final home game of the 2000 season as the Tigers posted a 30-28 win over Alabama, their first victory over the Crimson Tide in Tiger Stadium since 1969.

The goal posts came down for the first time in 1997 as all of America witnessed one of the most explosive nights in the history of the grand stadium when the Tigers upended No. 1-ranked Florida before a national television audience. A sea of Tiger fans swamped the floor of Tiger Stadium as both goal posts came crashing down - a scene that was replayed countless times on college football highlight shows.

Perhaps the most famous moment in Death Valley history took place on “The Night The Tigers Moved the Earth,” Oct. 8, 1988. When Tiger quarterback Tommy Hodson threw to Eddie Fuller for a winning touchdown against Auburn, the explosion of the crowd was so thunderous that it caused an earth tremor that registered on a seismograph meter in LSU's Geology Department across campus.

Then there was the night the Tigers nearly upset No. 1-ranked Southern Cal before a sellout crowd on Sept. 28, 1979. The Tigers came up short, but the crowd roared from kickoff to final gun in a game many ardent LSU followers rank as the loudest in stadium history.

And of course there was Halloween night 1959, when Billy Cannon made his famous 89-yard punt return to lead No. 1 LSU past No. 3 Ole Miss. Legend has it that families living near the campus lakes came running out of their homes in fear of the noise erupting around them.

Tiger Stadium transforms into a country music cathedral each May with the two-day Bayou Country Superfest, an annual festival that is one of the top tourist destinations in Baton Rouge and the South. BCS has seen the likes of Kenny Chesney, Zac Brown Band, Tim McGraw and most recently, Carrie Underwood, Rascal Flatts, Jason Aldean and Keith Urban in May 2012.

Those are the highlights, some of which have shaped the character of this great stadium. But week in and week out each fall, a new chapter unfolds in the history of Death Valley.

Aside from football, Tiger Stadium has served as a concert venue since 2010. Each spring for the past three years, Death Valley has played host to "Bayou Country Superfest", a two-day country music festival that has featured the likes of Kenny Chesney, Tim McGraw, Zac Brown Band, Rascal Flatts, Keith Urban, Carrie Underwood and Jason Aldean.

History

The home of one of football's proudest traditions, Tiger Stadium once served as a dormitory for approximately 1,500 students, and while Broussard Hall, then LSU's athletics dormitory, was being renovated during the fall of 1986, the LSU football players lived in Tiger Stadium.

The original phase of construction was completed in 1924. This first phase included the east and west stands, which seated about 12,000. Seven years later (1931), the sides were extended upward to accommodate an additional 10,000 fans, raising the capacity to 22,000. In 1936, the stadium seating capacity was increased to 46,000, with the addition of 24,000 seats in the north end, making Tiger Stadium into a horseshoe configuration.

The next phase of construction took place in 1953 when the stadium's south end was closed to turn the horseshoe into a bowl, increasing the seating capacity to 67,720.

The original upper deck atop the west stands was completed in 1978, and it added 8,000 seats to the stadium's capacity. Additional seating in two club level sections, which flanked the existing press box, brought the total addition to approximately 10,000 seats and raised the stadium's capacity to approximately 78,000.

Refurbishing began on the stadium in the summer of 1985, when the east and west stands were waterproofed, and 25,000 chair back seats were added to replace the older "bench" type seats. Another phase of improvements was completed in 1987 when the north and south stands were waterproofed and newer bleachers were again installed to replace the older ones.

The playing field was moved 11 feet south in 1986 to provide more room between the back line of the North End Zone and the curvature of the stadium fence, which surrounds the field. It also put the playing area in the exact center of the arena's grassy surface.

Prior to the 1987 season, more seats were installed at the upper portion of the west lower stands in Tiger Stadium. Also, the stadium's seating arrangement was renumbered to make all seats a uniform size. The addition of bleacher seating in 1988 brought the capacity to 80,150, but the elimination of some bleacher seating after the 1994 season dropped the capacity to 80,000.

Now the eighth-largest on-campus stadium in college football, Tiger Stadium continues to provide fans with the ultimate college football experience. Eleven years ago, 11,600 seats were added with the installation of the east upper deck, bringing the capacity to nearly 92,000. In addition to the new east upper deck, 70 skyboxes, called "Tiger Dens," were built, giving Tiger fans luxury accommodations. The addition of the 11,600 seats in 2000 marked the first expansion to Tiger Stadium since 1978, when the original west upper deck was completed.

The distinctive environment of Tiger Stadium became even more pronounced in 2005 as the ambitious West Upper Deck project was virtually completed. Construction on the project -- which began immediately after LSU's home finale against Ole Miss in November of 2004 - carried a $60 million price tag and rebuilt over 3,200 special amenity seats as well as a state-of-the-art press box to Tiger Stadium. The west side renovation, which included the removal and rebuilding of the upper deck to mirror the east side upper deck, was finished during the 2006 season.

In 2009, major technological advances were made when Tiger Stadium added an 80-foot wide high-definition video board to the north endzone of the facility. Called one of the largest video boards in all of college athletics, the HD board measures 27-feet high and 80-feet wide.

In August 2010, LSU Vice Chancellor and Director of Athletics Joe Alleva and the Tiger Athletic Foundation launched a campaign to preserve and restore the look of Tiger Stadium. The 428 windows on the north side of the stadium were completely refurbished.

In April 2012, a new exciting era of Tiger Stadium was unveiled by Alleva. Construction plans call for approximately 60 suites and 3,000 club seats above the existing south end zone seats, as well as approximately 1,500 general public seats above the new suite and club seating to be completed by the 2014 season. The project, privately funded by Tiger Athletic Foundation, will bring the capacity of Tiger Stadium to near or above 100,000.

THE PRESERVATION OF Tiger Stadium

In 2010, LSU Vice Chancellor and Director of Athletics Joe Alleva announced a campaign to raise funds to replace approximately 428 windows in the north end of Tiger Stadium, marking the beginning of a beautification project to enhance one of college football's greatest venues. The Preservation of Tiger Stadium is privately funded through the Tiger Athletic Foundation.

South End Zone Addition

In the spring of 2012, plans were unveiled of expanding the South End Zone of Tiger Stadium and raising the capacity of the historic venue to over 100,000. The South End Zone addition will include approximately 60 suites, 3,000 club seats as well as about 1,500 general public seats above the current south end zone bowl. The expansion will also debut two brand new HD corner scoreboards that will be among the best in the SEC. Construction on the project is slated to begin in the fall of 2012 and be completed prior to the 2014 season.

West and North Stadium Plazas

Phase II of the Preservation of Tiger Stadium focuses on the North Stadium and West Stadium Plazas. These two plaza areas will become a showcase of the past, present and future of LSU Football. Phase II includes a brand new look to the North Stadium and West Stadium entrances to Tiger Stadium that will sit as the gateways to LSU. This update will maintain the great look and feel of Tiger Stadium while preserving the facility in a way that allows it to continue to function for years to come.

Billy Cannon
was presented with the 1959
Heisman Trophy
by then Vice President
Richard Nixon.

Billy Cannon • HB

1959 HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER

Even by today's standards Billy Cannon was a rare athlete, combining sprinter speed with brute strength. Cannon could consistently run a 9.5 in the 100-yard dash and, at 6-1, 210 pounds, he had the size to overpower his opponents as well as outrun them. In 1957, he was an immediate standout as a sophomore, offensively and defensively.

As a junior, Cannon was the driving force behind the Fighting Tigers as they carved out a perfect season and captured the 1958 national championship. He passed for a touchdown and kicked the extra point in LSU's 7-0 win over Clemson in the Sugar Bowl, and earned MVP honors.

Cannon's most memorable performance came in 1959 against Ole Miss. Top-ranked LSU trailed the third-ranked Rebels 3-0 early in the fourth quarter, when Cannon fielded a punt at the LSU 11-yard-line and broke seven tackles on his way to paydirt. LSU won the contest 7-3. Considered one of the best collegiate backs of his era, Cannon was awarded the Heisman Trophy at the conclusion of the 1959 season. In 2008, the legendary Cannon was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame.

Patrick Peterson • CB/RS

2010 THORPE AWARD WINNER

One of the most dynamic athletes in school history, Patrick Peterson established himself as the premiere defensive back as well as one of the top return specialists in the country in 2010. Peterson captured the Chuck Bednarik Award given annually to the nation's top defender, and he also received the Jim Thorpe Award as the country's top defensive back. He became the first player in LSU history to win those two prestigious awards.

Peterson earned consensus First Team All-America recognition, and he also became the first player in conference history to earn both the Southeastern Conference Defensive Player of the Year and SEC Special Teams Player of the Year honors. A three-year starter for the Tigers, he was selected fifth overall by the Arizona Cardinals after his junior season.

Peterson played in 39 career games with 30 starts on defense, and he racked up 135 total tackles, 22 pass breakups and seven interceptions. In just one season as a return specialist, Peterson set the school record for kickoff return yards with 932 on 32 returns, and he led the SEC in punt and kickoff returns and ranked in the top five nationally in punt returns and top 10 in kick returns.

Josh Reed • WR

2001 BILETNIKOFF AWARD WINNER

When one thinks of some of the finest players in the history of the Southeastern Conference, Josh Reed's name is included on that list. Reed, who is one of the most decorated players in school history, virtually re-wrote both the LSU and SEC receiving record books despite playing only 28 games at wide receiver.

Originally signed out of Rayne (La.) High School as a tailback, Reed moved to wide receiver in week 9 of the 1999 season out of a necessity. The results were immediate as he caught five passes for 100 yards against Houston in just his second game at the position.

A year later, in 2000, Reed earned first-team All-SEC honors after catching 65 passes for 1,127 yards and 10 touchdowns for the 8-4 Tigers. His 102.5 yards receiving a contest led the SEC and he ranked second in the league with just under six catches a game.

Reed put together the finest year for a receiver in SEC history in 2001 as he shattered the league's single-season yardage mark with 1,740 yards on a school-record 94 catches. Reed set a pair of league marks in a 35-21 road victory over Alabama as he hauled in 19 passes for 293 yards and a touchdown. He capped his record-setting career in grand fashion, setting a pair of Sugar Bowl records with 14 receptions for 239 yards and two touchdowns in leading the Tigers to a 47-34 victory over Illinois.

At the conclusion of his junior season, Reed was named the winner of the Biletnikoff Award, which is presented annually to the nation's top collegiate receiver. Reed was drafted with the fourth pick of the second round of the 2002 NFL Draft by the Buffalo Bills.

Ben Wilkerson • C

2004 RIMINGTON AWARD WINNER

Ben Wilkerson put together one of the best careers for a center in LSU history, leading the Tigers to a 33-8 mark in 41 starts at the position during his four years. During his career with the Tigers, Wilkerson helped lead LSU to a pair of SEC Championships as well as the 2003 BCS National Championship.

Wilkerson, a native of Hemphill, Texas, had his career cut short as a senior, suffering a knee injury during the eighth week of the season. Despite the injury, Wilkerson still went on to be named the co-recipient, along with David Baas of Michigan, of the Rimington Trophy in 2004, which goes annually to college football's top center. In addition, Wilkerson was named a First-Team All-American by the American Football Coaches Association and The Sporting News even though he missed LSU's final four games of the season.

Wilkerson graduated with a degree in general studies in May of 2005. He served as a graduate assistant on the LSU staff during the 2011 season.

2005 MCWHORTER SCHOLAR-ATHLETE

By picking up national awards in the Draddy Trophy and the Wuerffel Trophy, along with being named the SEC Scholar-Athlete of Year in football and McWhorter Scholar-Athlete Award, center Rudy Niswanger became the most decorated student-athlete in school history.

Niswanger is the first player in LSU history to be named the recipient of the Draddy Trophy, known as the Academic Heisman. An award that goes to the top student-athlete in all divisions of college football, the Draddy Trophy carries a $25,000 post-graduate scholarship.

In addition, Niswanger became the inaugural recipient of the Wuerffel Trophy, which goes to the college football player who best combines exemplary community service with outstanding academic and athletic achievement. The award is named after former Heisman Trophy winner Danny Wuerffel, who led the Florida Gators to the 1996 national championship. Niswanger capped his career with the Tigers by being named the recipient of the McWhorter Award, which goes to the top student-athlete in the SEC.

Niswanger, who opted to return to LSU for his senior season of football in 2005, graduated with a 4.0 grade point average in kinesiology with emphasis on pre-medicine. He graduated with honors, receiving the University Medal as well as graduating Summa Cum Laude. Niswanger was accepted to LSU Medical School in Shreveport after scoring a 33 on the MCAT, which placed him among the top eight percent in the nation.

JaMarcus Russell • QB

2006 MANNING AWARD WINNER

JaMarcus Russell capped a magnificent LSU career by winning the Manning Award as the nation's top quarterback at the completion of the 2006 season. Russell went on to be selected with the No. 1 overall pick in the 2007 NFL Draft by the Oakland Raiders. He joined Billy Cannon in 1960 as the only football players in school history to be selected with the first overall pick in the NFL Draft.

Russell completed his LSU career as one of the top quarterbacks in school history as he posted a 25-4 overall mark as a starter, which included an 11-2 record as a junior in 2006. He finished his career ranked among the top five in every career passing category kept at LSU, including No. 2 all-time in completion percentage (61.9) and TD passes (52). He also ranks third in completions (493), passing yards (6,625), and total offense (6,704) and fourth in attempts (797).

A first-team All-SEC pick in 2006, Russell tied the school-record for TD passes with 28 during his junior season and set the school's single-season mark for completions (232) and completion percentage (67.8). He's the only quarterback in school history to lead the Tigers to at least 10 wins in back-to-back seasons.

Russell's Honors

Morris Claiborne • CB

2011 THORPE AWARD WINNER

Morris Claiborne cemented his legacy as one of the top cornerbacks in LSU history after he wrapped up a stellar career in 2011. As a junior, Claiborne took home the prestigious Jim Thorpe Award that annually goes to the nation's top defensive back, becoming the second straight LSU player to earn the award after Patrick Peterson claimed the honor in 2010.

Widely recognized as one of the top defensive players in the nation as a junior, the Shreveport, La., native earned unanimous consensus All-America honors when he led LSU to a 13-1 record, SEC title and a spot in the national championship game. Claiborne led the nation in interception return yards with 173 on six interceptions, and he showed his athleticism and playmaking ability by scoring two touchdowns in 2011 – one on a pivotal 99-yard kickoff return at West Virginia and one on a 45-yard INT return that cemented LSU's SEC championship game victory over Georgia.

In addition to earning All-America honors, Claiborne was named the SEC Defensive Player of the Year by the SEC coaches in 2011, and he also earned First-Team All-SEC recognition and finished as a Nagurski Award finalist. Following his outstanding junior season, Claiborne was chosen with the sixth overall selection in the 2012 NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys.

Claiborne ended his career with 95 tackles, 12 pass breakups and 11 interceptions, ranking inside the LSU top 10 in career interceptions and interception return yards.

Tyrann Mathieu • CB/RS

2011 BEDNARIK AWARD WINNER

An outstanding player with tremendous heart and talent, Tyrann Mathieu collected the 2011 Bednarik Award, an honor given annually to the nation's top defensive player. Gifted with some of the best pure football instincts ever seen in an LSU uniform, the cornerback/return specialist became LSU's first Heisman Trophy finalist to travel to New York City since Charles Alexander in 1977.

In only two years at LSU, the New Orleans, La., native has created a total of 14 turnovers in 26 career games, and he already owns the school record with 11 forced fumbles, a figure that is tied for the SEC record and ranks seventh in NCAA history.

In 2011, Mathieu helped LSU finish with a 13-1 record, an SEC title and a berth in the national championship game as he led the team with 76 total tackles, led the nation with five fumble recoveries and finished fourth nationally in punt return average at 15.6 yards a return.

Mathieu enters his junior season as a consensus First-Team All-American at cornerback and as a return specialist in 2011, First-Team All-SEC member as well as the reigning Associated Press SEC Defensive Player of the Year. Through two seasons, he has accumulated 133 tackles, 16 tackles for a loss, 16 pass breakups, 11 forced fumbles, eight fumble recoveries, six sacks, four interceptions and four touchdowns – two on punt returns and two fumble returns.

Dr. William L. Jenkins

Interim President/ Interim Chancellor, LSU

Dr. William L. Jenkins is serving his second term as President of the Louisiana State University System, which has an annual budget of $3.4 billion and more than 54,000 students at 10 institutions, including four academic campuses, a law center, one of the world's leading obesity research centers, a statewide AgCenter extension service, two health science centers and 10 public hospitals.

Jenkins returned to his duties leading the LSU System as Interim President after serving until 2007 as the fifth system chief executive. In June he was also named the Interim Chancellor of the Baton Rouge LSU campus.

Prior to becoming System President, Dr. Jenkins, a veterinary scholar, held virtually every major administrative position at LSU, including provost and chancellor, since coming to the university as Dean of the LSU School of Veterinary Medicine in 1988.

Jenkins' tenure as System President was marked by unprecedented growth and challenges, including destruction at LSU institutions in New Orleans in the aftermath of hurricanes in the fall of 2005.

Although faced with a fiscal crisis and deep budget cuts that disrupted academics and forced the furloughs and firings of thousands of LSU employees, Jenkins pressed for calm and reflexive responses to the calamities.

A South Africa native, Dr. Jenkins received his veterinary medicine degree from the University of Pretoria in 1958 and specialist credentials in 1968. Following his graduation, he came to the United States where, in 1970, he received his Ph.D in veterinary medicine from the University of Missouri in Columbia. He returned to South Africa where he practiced veterinary medicine for four years before joining the faculty at the University of Pretoria, advancing through the ranks to become professor and head of the Department of Veterinary Physiology, Pharmacology and Toxicology.

In 1978, Dr. Jenkins became a member of the faculty in the Department of Veterinary Physiology and Pharmacology at Texas A&M University. He was appointed dean of the LSU School of Veterinary Medicine in 1988 and was named LSU's provost and vice chancellor for academic affairs in September 1993. Three years later in 1996, the LSU Board of Supervisors named him LSU's fifth Chancellor.

As chancellor, Dr. Jenkins led the reorganization of the main campus administration to make it more efficient and lead the effort to produce a strategic plan, measures that were major factors in the crafting of LSU's Flagship Agenda.

As a teacher and administrator, Dr. Jenkins has received numerous teaching and public service awards. In 1997, the Public Relations Association of Louisiana named him Communicator of the Year and the regional chapter of Toastmasters International presented him with its 1999 Communication and Leadership Award.

Other honors include the Vision of Excellence Award 2000 by the New Orleans Regional Chamber of Commerce and the New Orleans Chapter of MetroVision. In addition, his alma mater, the University of Pretoria, bestowed an Honorary Doctorate on Dr. Jenkins in September of 2000. The Southern Economic Development Conference also presented him with the Volunteer of the Year Award in 2004.

An active participant in national continuing education efforts, Dr. Jenkins has delivered more than 150 lectures and addresses to diverse groups in both the United States and abroad. The co-author of a textbook on veterinary pharmacology, Dr. Jenkins also has taught extensively at both the professional and graduate levels written more than 60 scientific articles and contributed 15 chapters to various collegiate textbooks.

Dr. Jenkins has been active in numerous professional and civic organizations as well as select national committees. He served on the National Institute of Health's Alcohol Abuse and Misuse on College Campuses Committee and on a special Steering Committee of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools that reviewed accreditation criteria for colleges and universities. Dr. Jenkins also is a member of the National Association of State Universities and Land Grant Colleges' Committee on Food and Society and is a member of the Governor's Advisory Commission on Coastal Restoration and Conservation.

In addition, he has served on a number of public boards such as the Louisiana Endowment for the Humanities, The Nature Conservancy of Louisiana, Teach for America South Louisiana, and the Greater Baton Rouge Chamber of Commerce.

Dr. Jenkins and his wife, Peggy, have four children—Sharon, Gwynn, Anthea, and Warren—and nine grandchildren.

Dr. Bill DeMastes

Faculty Athletics Representative

Dr. Bill DeMastes, a professor of English at LSU, is in his first year as Faculty Athletics Representative. Dr. Demastes earned his Ph.D in English in 1986 from the University of Wisconsin-Madison with a Field of Study of Drama as Genre and a specialization in 20th-Century American and British Drama. He earned his masters in English in June 1979 from the University of Georgia in Athens where he specialized in 19th-Century American Literature.

Education

At LSU, he served as Associate Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences from 2001-2004 and Director of Undergraduate Studies for the Department of English from 1999-2001 and 2010-11. He has also served as Associate Chair of the Department of English (1998-99); Director of the Master of Arts in Liberal Arts Program (1996-2004); and, Director of Graduate Studies in the Department of English (1992-94; 2006-06).

He was honored with the LSU Alumni Association Faculty Excellence Award in 2000 and in 2002 won the LSU Distinguished Faculty Award. He was named in 2009 an LSU Rainmaker which is given to the top 100 LSU Faculty. In 2010 he was named the Tiger Athletic Foundation undergraduate Teaching Award University College and in the summer of 2011 was named the Harry Ransom Summer Fellowship recipient from the University of Texas.

Joe Alleva

LSU Vice Chancellor/Director of Athletics

Joe Alleva continues to bring unprecedented national recognition to LSU as Vice Chancellor and Director of Athletics. Under Alleva's leadership, LSU enjoys one of the country's premier athletics programs with success on and off the field of competition. Now in his fifth year at LSU, Alleva is dedicated to athletic and academic excellence, and is committed to providing the opportunities and the resources necessary for student-athletes to excel in competition, in the classroom and in the community. LSU's prominence was evident in the final 2011-12 Capital One Cup standings that recognize the nation's best athletic programs. With a national championship and three Southeastern Conference titles during the year, the Tigers finished fourth in both the men's and women's Capital One Cup competition, one of only two schools in the country – and the only one in the SEC – to rank in the top four in both categories.

Alleva joined the LSU family on April 4, 2008 after a highly successful tenure as director of athletics at Duke University for 10 years. Alleva's role at LSU was further expanded in August of 2009 when vice chancellor was added to his title by the LSU Board of Supervisors. It is the first time in school history that the director of athletics has also held a vice chancellor position.

Alleva is currently serving a five-year term on the prestigious NCAA Men's Basketball Committee, reinforcing his position as one of the most respected athletic administrators in the country.

Upon his arrival at LSU, Alleva unveiled a strategic master plan for the LSU athletics program – "LSU: Thru and True" – to ensure the advancement and future of LSU Athletics as an exemplary program. The central mission of the plan is to create an environment for student-athletes to reach their ultimate potential, prepare them to be champions in life and to set out goals and values for the entire athletics program.

Alleva's vision will keep LSU among the nation's leaders in athletic facilities. He launched an aggressive fund-raising campaign to replace several hundred windows on Tiger Stadium that were in disrepair and a new coating to the façade of the structure is bringing the old stadium to new life. A renovated gating system on the west side of the stadium will debut in the fall of 2012 to include a plaza that celebrates LSU's football national championships and recognition walls that honor Tiger All-Americans.

Also in the fall of 2012, LSU begins construction on an expansion of the South End Zone of the stadium – a project that will add premium seating, general public seating and two state-of-the-art video boards – continuing an effort to augment one of the most iconic venues in all of college sports.

Under Alleva's direction, LSU's world-renowned track and field program received a state-of-the-art running surface in 2010 when a new track was installed in Bernie Moore Stadium. Extensive renovations to the Tiger soccer facility were completed last fall, and future plans include a new gymnastics practice facility, a tennis complex and renovations to the Maravich Center and Carl Maddox Field House.

Alleva directed a major renovation to the University Club golf course that was completed in September 2010 and allows the LSU men's and women's golf teams to compete on one of the most challenging courses in the country. The renovated course helped prepare Tiger golfers John Peterson and Austin Ernst, respectively, to win 2011 NCAA men's and women's individual championships, marking the first time both titles were claimed by players from the same school. The Lady Tiger golfers have finished third at the NCAA Championships two years in a row, marking the highest finishes in LSU history.

LSU Athletics completed another highly successful year in 2011-12 as 18 of the Tigers' 20 varsity sports participated in NCAA post-season competition. The year was highlighted by the football team's undefeated regular season, an SEC championship and an appearance in the BCS National Championship Game. The Lady Tiger track and field team captured the SEC and NCAA outdoor championships while the LSU softball squad advanced to the Women's College World Series. The Fighting Tiger baseball team won the 2012 SEC championship, and LSU led the nation in attendance for the 17th straight season. The 2011-12 season marked the first time in school history that LSU won both the SEC title in both football and baseball in the same athletic year.

But the 2011-12 year was about more than just athletic success. Living up to Alleva's mantra of "competition, classroom, community," LSU student-athletes logged more than 3,700 hours in community service work across 20 sports through LSU's Geaux Givers program. And 62 proud Tigers received their degrees from the university during LSU commencement ceremonies in May.

Outstanding performances of the 2010-11 athletic season included the exploits of the Fighting Tiger football squad that posted an 11-2 mark – including a Cotton Bowl victory – and finished the season ranked No. 8 in the nation. The year also featured Top 5 national finishes both indoors and outdoors by the men's and women's track and field teams.

In 2008-09, all 20 LSU sports competed in NCAA postseason play for the first time in school history and the Tiger baseball team won the national championship. LSU ranked second among Southeastern Conference teams in the Learfield Director's Cup All-Sports standings and finished in the Top 20 for the sixth year in a row.

With a strong commitment to academics, Alleva ensures that the Cox Communications Academic Center for Student-Athletes is a first-class facility that provides student-athletes the resources necessary for success in the classroom and personal development. The facility was recently enhanced by the addition of a media training center that gives student-athletes valuable assistance in improving their communications skills.

And with a strong emphasis on community service and outreach programs, the implementation under Alleva's direction of the "Geaux Givers" program fosters a relationship between the local community and LSU student-athletes, who regularly participate in philanthropic events. In addition, Alleva has bolstered the department's L-Club program to reach out and connect with former student-athletes.

Alleva oversees a staff of outstanding coaches and he has made critical additions to LSU's coaching staff over the past two years. He hired former LSU guard Johnny Jones in April to breathe new life and enthusiasm into the men's basketball program and recently added Julia Sell as the new women's tennis coach. Last year, he lured the dynamic Nikki Caldwell to LSU to coach the Lady Tiger basketball team and then hired Beth Torina to direct the Tiger softball program, both of whom immediately returned their respective programs to NCAA post-season success.

Alleva is an innovator with bold ideas that benefit not only LSU but all of Greater Baton Rouge. He has been instrumental in the planning of the Bayou Country Superfest, a two-day country music concert and festival held in Tiger Stadium each spring. The event attracts nearly 100,000 visitors to the LSU campus and makes a tremendous economic impact upon the local community.

Alleva has served on numerous national committees throughout his career including the Football Bowl Certification Committee, the NCAA Division I Championships/Competition Cabinet and several Southeastern Conference and Atlantic Coast Conference committees.

He became director of athletics at Duke in 1998 and his impressive tenure there propelled the university into the ranks of America's top all-around collegiate programs. Among his outstanding list of accomplishments includes the greatest 10-year period in Duke Athletics, winning more ACC and NCAA championships than in any other decade in school history.

Alleva, whose hometown is Suffern, N.Y., majored in Finance at Lehigh University and received his bachelor's degree in 1975. While at Lehigh, Alleva was the quarterback of the football team and team captain in 1974. Alleva also played on the Lehigh baseball team. He served as a graduate assistant football coach and earned an MBA in 1976.

While at Duke, Alleva played a key role in Durham's community sports scene. He started Little League Baseball in Durham over 20 years ago, and also began the American Legion baseball program.

He is a member of the North Carolina American Legion Hall of Fame, Suffern High School Hall of Fame and the Rockland County Hall of Fame.

Alleva and his wife, Annie, have three children, J.D., Jeff, and Jenny.

Vergé Ausberry Senior Associate AD/Operations and Administration

A former LSU football standout, Vergé Ausberry joined the athletics administrative staff in August 2001 as the Associate Athletics Director for Operations. He was appointed to the position of Senior Associate Athletics Director in May 2006.

Ausberry supervises and is responsible for football operations and football scheduling. He also oversees the LSU men's and women's track and field programs, the equipment staff, the strength and conditioning staff, the Dr. Martin Broussard training room, the video department and football game management.

Ausberry, from New Iberia, La., played inside linebacker for the Tigers, lettering in 1986-89. He was part of two SEC championship teams, playing on teams that went to four bowl games.

Before joining the LSU athletic administration, he was very closely involved in the athletic program, first serving for almost seven years as a member of LSU's highly regarded Academic Center for Athletes.

After leaving the Academic Center, he moved in July 1999 to the Tiger Athletic Foundation staff as part of LSU's fundraising arm.

Ausberry received his Bachelor of Science degree in education in May of 1990, his Master of Education degree in administration, supervision and certification in child welfare in May of 1992 and his specialist in higher education administration in 2004. He is presently a doctoral candidate in higher education administration at LSU. He is married to the former Cheri Morial of New Orleans and they have two boys, Austin(8) and Jaiden(7).

Miriam Segar Senior Associate AD/Senior Woman Administrator

Former LSU women's basketball player Miriam Segar has been a part of the athletics administration since June of 1995 and was most recently named Senior Associate AD and the department's Senior Woman Administrator after having served as Associate Athletics Director for Student Services since April 2007. She had served as Assistant Athletics Director since 2004.

As LSU's Senior Woman Administrator, Segar's responsibilities include oversight of the highly successful Tiger Olympic Sports program including 17 men's and women's sports. Segar began her administrative career at LSU as the compliance coordinator where she served for three years. Following that, in 1998, Segar was named the director of the CHAMPS/Life Skills Program where she worked until 2001 when she became the Director of Student Services.

While working with CHAMPS/Life Skills, Segar guided the program to the Division I Athletic Directors Program of Excellence Award in 2001.

Prior to returning to her alma mater, Segar spent one year at the SEC office as the championships assistant and the officiating assistant, assisting in the management of all SEC championships and tournaments and the coordination of women's basketball officials.

Segar, the 2006 Athletic Department Female Alumnus of the Year, was a three-year captain for the Lady Tigers basketball team and received four letters from 1990 to 1994. She earned the 1994 NCAA Post-graduate Scholarship and was a member of the 1994 NCAA All-Academic team.

Segar and her husband Jamie have four children – Grant, Reid, Maggie and Hayes.

Mark Ewing Senior Associate AD/Business

Mark Ewing, a 28-year employee of Louisiana State University, is in his 12th year with the Athletics Department, and serves as the department's Senior Associate Athletics Director for Business and the department's Chief Financial Officer.

His duties as the department's Chief Financial Officer includes oversight of the departments over $95 million budget, management of the athletic business office, oversight of all travel, human resources, and purchasing. He also supervises the Athletic Ticket Office and LSU SportShop and serves as the liaison for concession operations. He is responsible for the department's financial forecasting and provides the financial information necessary for funding athletic construction and maintenance projects. He also serves as the department's administrator for men's and women's golf.

Ewing came to athletics from LSU's Office of Budget and Planning. He served as LSU's Budget Director overseeing the development and management of the university's over $360 million operating budget.

Ewing, who is a native of Pointe Coupee Parish, received a bachelor's degree in finance from LSU in 1978 and a master's degree in public administration from LSU in 1995.

Ewing and his wife, Gail, have three daughters: Andrea and her husband Cody Lee, Arleen and her husband John Daniel, and Molly Sue. He also has one granddaughter – Ainsley Grace.

Herb Vincent Associate Vice-Chancellor for University Relations Senior Associate AD/External Affairs

Herb Vincent serves in the dual position of Senior Associate Athletic Director for External Affairs in the athletic department and Associate Vice Chancellor for University Relations. He was appointed Senior Associate AD in May of 2006 and assumed the additional duties of oversight of University Relations in August of 2009.

Vincent manages communications and serves as the primary public relations officer for the University and all its entities. In his role in athletics, he supervises the sports information office and marketing and promotions office, serves as the primary liaison with LSU Sports Properties, and is the department administrator for the sport of baseball.

Vincent was the LSU sports information director from July 1988 to July 2000. During that time he was named Assistant AD in November of 1989, and then was elevated to Associate AD for Communications in 1992.

In August of 2000 Vincent became Vice President for Communications for the College Sports Southeast regional cable network, headquartered in Birmingham, Ala., before returning to LSU in 2002.

He earned a bachelor's degree in journalism from LSU in 1983 and worked as a student assistant in the sports information office directed by CoSIDA Hall of Famer Paul Manasseh during his undergraduate years.

After graduating from LSU, Vincent spent the 1984 season as assistant public relations director for the United States Football League's New Orleans Breakers. In 1985, he was assistant PR director for the USFL's Los Angeles Express and was promoted during the season to the public relations staff's top position.

Vincent also served one year as assistant SID and publications director at Louisiana-Lafayette and two years as assistant director of public relations for the Southeastern Conference prior to joining LSU in 1988.

Vincent is the author of a book on the history of LSU football, "The LSU Football Vault." He is married to the former Jamey Cavacini of Versailles, Ky., and they have one daughter, Kennedy.

Bo Bahnsen

Senior Associate AD/Compliance and Planning

Returning in 2009 to serve the department in the Compliance Office, Bahnsen is once again proving to be a very versatile member of the athletic department.

Before moving back to Compliance, Bahnsen served the previous five years, in a valuable role as Associate Athletics Director for Internal Relations, overseeing the ticket office and all customer service operations.

Prior to December of 2003, Bahnsen's primary responsibility for the previous 14 years was to serve as LSU's NCAA compliance officer.

Bahnsen served as manager of the LSU basketball team as an undergraduate at LSU. In 1982, he became the administrative assistant for the men's basketball team, where he worked for five years before moving into athletics administration as director of purchasing and travel for two years.

In July 1987, he became administrative assistant to Athletics Director Joe Dean, overseeing the purchasing office and departmental travel operations until his promotion in 1989. In 1989, he was assigned his primary responsibility as NCAA compliance officer as assistant athletics director, and then was promoted to associate AD in 1996.

Bahnsen has been responsible for overseeing the successful implementation of LSU's Tradition Fund Program, a football-seating plan that requires contributions for the right to purchase approximately 45,000 seats in Tiger Stadium. In 2009, he helped organize the highly successful LSU celebration of the 100th anniversary of the Men's Basketball Program.

A native of Wharton, Texas, Bahnsen attended Wharton County Junior College for two years before transferring to LSU in 1979. He earned his Bachelor of Science degree in physical education.

Bahnsen, 53, is married to the former Karen Mayson, a former LSU golfer and current head coach of the Lady Tigers golf program. The couple has two children, Darren and Devin.

Eddie Nunez

Senior Associate AD/Internal Operations

Eddie Nuñez joined the Athletics Department in October 2003 as the Director of Game and Event Management and was promoted to Associate Athletics Director for Operations and Project Development in June of 2007 and Senior Associate Athletic Director in 2009.

As a member of the senior staff, Nuñez's responsibilities include supervision of the men's basketball program, men's tennis program and the women's tennis program. He also supervises the Event Management department as well as directs all capital projects for the athletic department. Under his guidance, the athletic department has experienced over $220 million dollars in renovations and construction of athletic facility projects. Most recently this included the preservation of Tiger Stadium renovations.

Nuñez is the Athletic Department's liaison with the Tiger Athletic Foundation and oversees all project development as well as assist in fundraising/development. He also represents the athletics department on various University and community committees.

Nuñez came to LSU after two years as the Director of Game and Event Management at Vanderbilt University. At Vanderbilt, along with directing the Game and Event Management department, he also assisted in construction of a New Soccer/ Lacrosse Stadium, a New Basketball Practice Facility and a New Baseball stadium as well as the renovation of several other facilities including renovation of their track facility. Prior to that, Nuñez served as men's basketball administrative assistant at Marquette University for one year and two years as men's basketball graduate assistant and head equipment manager for coach Billy Donovan at the University of Florida. Nunez also played two seasons on the Florida basketball team in 1997 and 1998. He transferred to Florida after playing two years at Miami-Dade Community College.

The native of Miami, Fla., received his associate degree in arts and architecture from Miami-Dade Community College in 1995, his bachelor's in sports management from the University of Florida in 1998 and his masters in sports administration from Florida in 2000. He is married to the former Jane Hess and the couple has two daughters, Elizabeth Kendall Nuñez (4) and Anna Caldwell Nuñez (1).

Ronnie Haliburton

Senior Associate AD/Athletic Facility Management

Ronnie Haliburton, who served as director of facility services in the LSU Athletics Department for three years, was promoted to Associate Athletics Director for Athletic Facility Management in March 2007.

Haliburton came to the athletics department in December of 2003 from LSU's facility maintenance department, where he served as manager for five years. He was responsible for the overall management of custodial operations, special events crews, stock room inventory and equipment repair.

Haliburton played as a tight end for the LSU football team from 1986-89, and was a member of two Southeastern Conference championship teams. He later played for the Denver Broncos for three years.

He first joined LSU in an administrative capacity in 1994 as resident assistant of Broussard Hall, then the school's athletic dormitory, before moving to the weight room as a student assistant strength coach.

Haliburton became a resident manager in 1996 before being named coordinator of residence life later that year. In 1998, he became Manager of Facility Maintenance at LSU.

Brian Broussard

Assistant AD/Director of Ticket Operations

A 16-year veteran of the Athletics Department, including 12 years as ticket manager, Brian Broussard was promoted to Assistant Athletics Director for Ticket Operations in July 2007.

Broussard is responsible for revenue in excess of $50 million, which includes the management of ticket and parking sales and renewals for all sports, as well as Tradition Fund donations for football, men's basketball and baseball.

Broussard began at LSU in August 1996 as an assistant ticket manager responsible for men's basketball sales and the day-to-day operations of ticket office. In March 2000, he was promoted to ticket manager, becoming responsible for the ticketing in all sports.

Prior to joining the LSU staff, Broussard was the ticket manager at Northwestern State in 1996. He worked as a promotions assistant at the University of Miami in 1995 and was the gameday club manager for the New Orleans Saints in 1994.

The Gretna native earned his bachelor's degree in political science from LSU in 1993. He is married to the former Aimee Hodges of Alexandria.

Matt Shanklin

Assistant AD/Marketing

Matt Shanklin begins his second year at LSU serving as the Assistant Athletic Director of Marketing and as the General Business Manager for LSU Sports Properties, the multi-media rights holder for Tiger Athletics. Previously, Shanklin served 20 years as the Associate Athletic Director of Marketing and Licensing at the University of Arkansas.

While at Arkansas, Shanklin was in charge of all department marketing/promotions, corporate sponsorships, advertising sales and coordinated all sales and programming for the football, basketball and baseball video boards. He was instrumental in developing the HogPen, a tailgating area for fans inside Baum Stadium, the Hog Spa hot tub area at Baum Stadium and the RBI Girls. Shanklin was instrumental in establishing the school's first baseball radio network in 1992, one of the nation's largest with more than 25 affiliates statewide as well as creating the first Hispanic radio network for the University of Arkansas. In 1998, Shanklin became the university's licensing coordinator and under his direction, licensing revenues increased every quarter.

Shanklin was assistant marketing director at East Carolina University for a year before going to Arkansas. He had served as an intern at Arkansas for five months before joining the ECU staff.

A 1984 graduate of South Mecklenburg (N.C.) High School in Charlotte, N.C., where he lettered in baseball and soccer, Shanklin earned his degree in communications from North Carolina-Wilmington in 1988.

A graduate of Ohio University's highly respected sports administration program, Shanklin earned a master's degree in that program in the fall of 1989.

An avid golfer, Shanklin married the former Missy Emmerson of Jacksonville, Texas, in 2003. She has a daughter, Jordan (17), and they are also the parents of Barbara Blake (7) and Isabella Grace (5).

Michael Bonnette

Associate Athletic Director/Sports Information

Michael Bonnette enters his 13th year as LSU's Sports Information Director and sixth as an Associate Athletic Director after being promoted to his current position in April of 2007. Bonnette was originally elevated to Sports Information Director in August of 2000 and then promoted to Assistant Athletic Director in July of 2004.

As Sports Information Director, Bonnette serves as the chief contact for LSU's nationally-ranked football team as well as overseeing all publicity activities for the 20 sports sponsored by the Athletic Department.

The 42-year-old Bonnette, who served as an Associate Sports Information Director for seven years, is in his 13th year with the LSU Athletic Department.

The Lake Charles, La., native has been around the sports media relations profession his entire life as he is the son of longtime and recently retired McNeese State Sports Information Director Louis Bonnette, who was inducted into the CoSIDA Hall of Fame in June of 2009. The field at Cowboy Stadium in Lake Charles bears the name Louis Bonnette Field. His brother Matthew Bonnette continued the family tradition at McNeese by being named the school's Sports Information Director in July of this year.

Bonnette, who is a 1993 graduate of LSU, is past president of SIDS for the Southeastern Conference and is currently the vice-president for SIDs for the Louisiana Sports Writers Association. He is married to the former Robin Arnaud of Opelousas, La., and the couple has three sons, Peyton (14), Grant (13) and Max (7).

Bill Franques

Senior Associate SID

Bill Franques works as the LSU baseball program's media relations director, and he serves as managing editor of LSU's football, men's basketball and baseball GAMEDAY publications.

The LSU baseball media guide, written and edited by Franques, has three times been named best in the nation by the College Sports Information Directors of America. His baseball brochures have finished among the top six in the country in 15 of the past 20 seasons, including his 2012 guide which was voted No. 1 by CoSIDA.

Franques is the Alex Box Stadium public address announcer, and he is the color analyst on LSU Sports Radio Network broadcasts of baseball road games. In addition, he is the producer and co-host of LSU Tiger Tracks, a weekly television program featuring LSU sports personalities.

Franques also worked from 1997-2000 as the LSU baseball administrative assistant. His duties included coordinating team and recruiting travel, organizing fund-raising events and booster club meetings, and overseeing office operations.

Franques received a Bachelor of Arts degree from LSU in 1985. The Lafayette, La., native is married to the former Yvette Lemoine of Bunkie, La., and they have three children - William Paul Jr. (12), Benjamin Lewis (10) and Madeline Lemoine (8).

Kent Lowe

Senior Associate SID

A member of the LSU Sports Information staff since August 1988 and beginning his 25th athletic year at LSU, Kent Lowe was appointed senior associate SID in August 2000. He serves as the primary media contact for the LSU men's basketball team and women's golf team.

His voice is also well known as the color analyst on softball broadcasts on the LSU Sports Radio Network and for the past 19 years has written an award-winning bowling column for The (Baton Rouge) Advocate.

Lowe, 54, came to LSU from Louisiana Downs where he served as publicity director for the Bossier City, La., racetrack.

Lowe is a member of CoSIDA, which voted his 2010 men's basketball media guide "Best in the Nation," his 2010 women's golf guide third overall and his 2012 men's basketball guide third in the nation. He is a member of CoSIDA's prestigious Academic All-American committee as well. Lowe is also a past president and current treasurer of the Louisiana Sports Writers Association.

Lowe, a native of Shreveport, is a 1979 graduate from LSU-Shreveport. He earned his masters' degree at LSU in 1982.

Matt Dunaway

Associate SID

Matt Dunaway moves into his fourth season as an associate sports information director where he serves as the primary media relations contact for LSU's softball and volleyball programs. He also serves as the department's liaison to the Cox Communications Academic Center for Student-Athletes and promotes LSU's community service outreach.

Dunaway, 30, has had the opportunity to publicize a quartet of All-Americans, Brittnee Cooper (volleyball) along with Rachele Fico, Brittany Mack and Kirsten Shortridge (softball), while at LSU. He also fills in as the color analyst for softball road broadcasts on the LSU Sports Radio Network. His 2012 LSU Softball media guide was voted No. 1 in the nation by CoSIDA.

Dunaway came to LSU from Rice where he promoted the Owls' women's basketball and tennis teams in addition to sharing secondary football duties. Prior to Rice, Dunaway spent two years across town as a sports information assistant at the University of Houston as primary contact for the Cougars' softball, volleyball and tennis programs.

Dunaway graduated from UCF in May 2005 with a BA in broadcast journalism from the Nicholson School of Communication. He was a student assistant in the sports information office and held sports director duties for the student chapter of the UCF ISP Sports Network responsible for broadcasting Golden Knight volleyball, women's basketball, softball and baseball.

Dunaway is a member of CoSIDA, the Louisiana Sports Writers Association and lives in Baton Rouge.

Bill Martin

Associate SID

Bill Martin enters his fifth year as associate SID where he handles all publicity for the LSU women's basketball program. He also serves as the top media relations assistant for the Tigers' football team.

Martin, 29, returned to his alma mater after working as an intern in the University of Florida sports communications office from January to May 2008.

Martin handled all sports information duties for the Gators' prominent men's and women's golf programs while also working closely with men's basketball and football.

Prior to his stint at Florida, Martin served as a student intern in the LSU Sports Information office from August 2001 until December 2007. He handled all publicity for the swimming and diving program. Martin also served as the secondary SID for the LSU baseball team and a student assistant for the Tigers' football team from 2003-07.

Martin graduated from LSU in December 2007. The Lake Charles, La., native is a 2001 graduate of Barbe High School.

Will Stafford

Associate SID

Will Stafford enters his fifth year as a member of the LSU Sports Information staff as he serves as associate SID in charge of the national champion men's and women's track and field programs, as well as the men's golf and women's soccer programs.

Stafford is a native of Franklinton, La., and a 2006 graduate of LSU's Manship School of Mass Communication with a Bachelor of Arts degree in journalism.

Prior to receiving a full-time position at LSU, Stafford served as a graduate assistant with the sports information staff for two years while completing a master's degree in sport management in the summer of 2008. In addition, he served as a student assistant at LSU for three years from 2003-06.

Stafford's media guides have been judged in the top five in the country on seven occasions by the College Sports Information Directors of America. This includes the fifth-ranked men's track and field guide in 2007; the third-ranked men's golf, fourth-ranked women's soccer and fourth-ranked women's track and field guides in 2008; the second-ranked men's golf and third-ranked women's track and field guides in 2009; and the second-ranked track and field guide in 2011.

In addition, four of Stafford's media guides have received the "Best Cover" honor as the nation's top design, including track and field in 2007, 2009 and 2011, and men's golf in 2009.

Jake Terry

Associate SID

Jake Terry begins his third year as Associate SID where he serves as coordinator of social and new media, handles all publicity for the LSU gymnastics team and assists with the football team.

Terry earned his master's degree in sport management at LSU in 2010 after receiving a Bachelor of Arts degree in broadcast journalism from LSU's Manship School of Mass Communication in 2008.

Prior to receiving a full-time position, Terry served as a graduate assistant for two years at LSU when he handled responsibilities for gymnastics. During his time as a student, he worked as an SID for women's tennis and also served briefly as interim SID for softball, volleyball and women's basketball.

Terry, 26, is a Baton Rouge native and is married to the former Allison Stuckey.

Steve Franz

Photography Coordinator

Steve Franz, LSU's staff photographer, joined the LSU athletics department in July of 1998 after being around the Tiger sports scene for years.

Prior to joining LSU athletics, the New Orleans native served as photographer for the independent Tiger Rag magazine for five years. Franz was also a photographer for United Press International covering some of the area's major political events, Presidential visits, the New Orleans Saints and the NCAA men's and women's Final Fours in New Orleans.

Franz, 42, has had his pictures published in several national magazines, including Sports Illustrated and The Sporting News. He is a 1993 graduate of LSU.

Jason Feirman

Publications Director

Jason Feirman is in his 12th year as the director of the LSU Athletics publications office. His responsibilities include the production design of media guides, game programs, posters, schedule cards, social media websites, advertising campaigns and various other projects for all 20 varsity sports. Feirman also oversees the design of outdoor signage on LSU Athletics facilities.

Feirman has coordinated 80 media guides, game programs and posters that have finished among the best in the nation of the annual CoSIDA publications contest. His media guides have won "Best in the Nation" by CoSIDA three times, 2002-03 and 2007-08 women's basketball guides and the 2009-10 men's basketball guide. In 2008 his football game program was voted "Best Cover". In 2010 his football poster was voted "Best in the Nation". In 2004-05 his men's basketball advertising campaign was awarded a Gold ADDY.

Feirman, 34, received a Bachelor of Arts degree from LSU in December of 2000. The Metairie, La. native, is married to the former Rachael Click, and they have two children, Cooper and Ella.

Krystal Bennett

Graphic Design Coordinator

Krystal Bennett is in her sixth year as graphic design coordinator for the LSU Athletics publications office. Her responsibilities include assisting in the design and production of all publications for the athletics department as well as being the primary graphic designer for the Tiger Athletic Foundation.

Bennett, 27, worked as a student assistant in the LSU Athletics department for two years prior to earning her bachelor's degree in graphic design in May 2006. She has produced 22 media guides that have finished among the top five in the nation in the annual CoSIDA publications contest. Her 2006 men's tennis guide, 2009 & 2011 baseball guides and 2009 & 2011 track and field guides were each awarded "Best Cover" honors. More recently, her 2012 baseball guide was awarded "Best in the Nation."

She is a Houghton, La., native and a graduate of Houghton High School.

Credential and Access Guidelines For Media Covering LSU Athletics

LSU's goal is to disseminate information as widely, uniformly and fairly as possible using normally accepted media standards.

Media must meet the following guidelines in order to be granted credentials. Only media that meet the criteria and have approved the SEC Media Policy through the request of credentials on the LSU media site at LSUsports.net/media will be allowed to move forward on the credential site to request credentials and consideration for access to LSU Athletic events. No credential requests by media will be accepted by either email or phone, but must go through the credential site at LSUsports.net/media.

The LSU-Alabama game will be a separate credential request platform and not part of the season package of credentials.

Past coverage and attendance at football games, football media luncheons, men's and women's basketball games, media sessions and baseball and softball games for the 2011-12 season will be taken into consideration for granting of credentials during the 2012-13 calendar year.

To receive credentials a media entity must have gone "live" to the public prior to Jan. 15, 2012 and be able to document plans for future coverage of all major LSU sports.

The number of credentials issued is limited by available resources. Due to space and facility restrictions, access, seat assignments in the press area as well as sideline photographer will be made on a space available basis. In some situations, pool reporting may be necessary.

All credential policies are subject to change and final approval of all credentials is at the discretion of the Associate AD of Sports Information and the Associate Vice Chancellor for Communications.

General

Each Bearer must be and hereby represents that he or she is acting on a specific assignment for an accredited media agency and has a legitimate working function in connection with the Event attended. The credential is not transferable and may be revoked at any time.

The rights and privileges granted to Bearer may be terminated if any term or condition for use of the Credential is breached. The unauthorized use of the Credential subjects the Bearer to ejection from the Event.

While within the Event venue, Bearer shall, at all times, adhere to the policies in place for the Event, abide by and respect access limitations, and accept and follow directions provided by the SEC or the SEC member institution(s) hosting the Event.

ID's will be required this year to pick up credentials and names must match the requested credential the person is picking.

Print

Daily newspapers are eligible to apply for credentials and access to media opportunities. The granting and number of credentials will be based on newspaper's circulation on a space available basis.

Those newspapers publishing more than twice a week, but less than six, will have priority after those in the daily newspaper category.

Weekly Louisiana newspapers must be current members of the Louisiana Press Association and those sports writers must be members of the Louisiana Sports Writers Association to request credentials. Weekly newspapers based on requests will be limited to non-conference games if space exists.

Specialty publications that cover college football or sports in the host site of the two participating schools are eligible to be granted on a space available basis.

Student newspapers from the city of the two teams are able to apply for credentials on the basis of a maximum of two press box seats for dailies and one press box seat for weeklies.

Television

Television stations that have nightly news broadcasts that originate in the locale of the station that includes sports coverage are eligible to apply for credentials. All other stations will be filled on a space available basis.

Student television stations from the two participating schools are eligible to apply on a space available basis.

The Credential confers on Bearer a limited non-exclusive and non-transferable license (with no right of sublicense) to use broadcast video feeds of the Event only for regularly scheduled television newscasts aired only on television (but not on any form of television available or viewable on the internet, except for a single, non-archived only simulcast by Bearer) within the period expiring at midnight on the seventh day after the Event and NO video used for such purposes shall exceed three minutes. Bearer may not broadcast any video of game action that is broadcast live until the Event has been completed.

SEC Affiliate Network

The SEC now offers access to free licensed game highlights and other newsworthy event video, including select live streams, through the SEC Affiliate Network. This annual program is exclusively available to the accredited media. It covers all teams and all sports for both men's and women's teams. Video is delivered through a customizable digital video player immediately after televised games/events conclude. Participating news affiliates can also select individual clips to insert directly into online stories. Television stations also have access to an FTP account to run content on-air. The SEC Affiliate Network is managed through XOS Digital. To join, please request a participation form from the program's director, Anna Marie Neri, at aneri@xosdigital.com or at 407-670-5049.

National and regional networks are eligible to apply for credentials.

Radio

National and regional networks are eligible to apply for credentials.

Radio stations that employ a full-time sports director or regularly air sports news or locally-produced talk shows are eligible to apply for credentials. No talk show may have more than one credential and the maximum credentials a station may receive for a game, based on space availability, is two.

Unless short (10 to 30 second) live updates are allowed by the SEC or its member hosting the Event, radio stations that have no licensed rights to the Event shall not broadcast any report from the venue on a live basis or broadcast any live description of any Event while it is still in progress.

Internet

Internet sites of the home and visiting school (as determined by the Media Relations or Sports Information Director) are eligible to apply for credentials.

LSU's policy is to issue credentials only to those organizations whose primary purpose is to gather news and disseminating it and for which other commercial activities are ancillary.

Other internet sites must meet each of the following guidelines in addition to meeting the above criteria to be eligible to apply for credentials and access as determined on a space available basis.

- Web site must be a legal, corporate entity.
- Web site must provide daily coverage of LSU or the visiting team with its own full-time staff of reporters, photographers and equipment.
- Web site must travel to and cover a majority of away games and all major post-season events.
- Web site must be accredited by the home university as working media.
- Web sites that sponsor message boards, message centers or chat room as their primary function where people are allowed to post anonymous information will not be issued credentials.
- The maximum number of credentials that a web site may receive is two based on space available and the discretion of the media relations or sports information director.

Blogging

By acceptance and use of an LSU media credential, the holder agrees to the following conditions as established by LSU and the Southeastern Conference:

Blogging, including periodic updates of scores, statistics or other brief descriptions of the competition throughout the Event, is acceptable provided that the Bearer conforms to the blogging policies separately published by the SEC, as such policies may be revised from time to time. No Bearer may produce or disseminate in any form a "real-time" description or transmission of the Event in any manner that constitutes, or is intended to provide or is promoted or marketed as, a substitute for television or video coverage of such Event. Bearer agrees that the determination of whether a blog is a real-time description or transmission shall be made by the SEC in its reasonable discretion.

The blogging limitations for football as assigned by the SEC are three updates per quarter and one at halftime. No more than 10 still photographs may be used for news coverage of the game and other editorial purposes. Such still photograph must be used on a time-delayed basis.

Unauthorized Use of Credentials

Press credentials will be issued to working press only. Press credentials are not transferable and use by anyone other than members of the working media is unauthorized. Press credentials used in an unauthorized manner will be revoked immediately. News organizations allowing unauthorized individuals to use credentials will have their credentials revoked for the remainder of the year.

All press credentials remain the property of the LSU Athletics Department and must be returned on request.

Access Guidelines For Media Covering LSU Athletics

Entrance

The entrance to the Tiger Stadium press box is located through the press elevator, located past Gate 5 on the southwest side of Tiger Stadium. The elevator will be in operation three hours prior to kickoff. Media Will Call and the Media Entrance to Tiger Stadium is located at the southwest corner of Tiger Stadium next to the Lawton Room and near the LSU Athletics Administration Building.

Radio/Television/Coaches

Located on the main press level, there is a primary live television broadcast booth and a booth available for tape-delay telecasts. This level also accommodates booths for both home and visiting radio crews and the LSU and visiting coaches' booths.

Photo Deck

This level offers space for network TV cameras and coaches' video crews. Due to lack of space on the photo deck, no video cameras will be allowed on the photo deck other than the originating network cameras, home and visitor coaches' video and scoreboard video cameras. Please contact Director of Television, Kevin Wagner, for setup information.

Sidelines

LSU follows NCAA and SEC rules regarding media representatives on the sidelines.

- Armbands must be worn on the arm – not on the leg or camera – in order to gain access to the field. All photographers/videographers on the sideline must be in a working capacity with equipment. Photographers are not permitted to shoot between the 25-yard lines and must wear armbands at all times. All photographers/videographers on the sideline must kneel while play is in progress.

- No credentials will be issued to free lance photographers, outline writers, equipment carriers or radio station representatives, except for the two teams' broadcast originating networks. Armbands will not be mailed or otherwise issued prior to gameday. Armbands must be picked up at Media Will Call, located at the south corner of the west side stands closest to the Athletics Administration Building, no earlier than three hours before kickoff. One armband will be issued per person at the press gate and identification will be requested. Affiliate TV stations are not allowed the services of a grip and armbands will not be provided for them.

- Due to the space restrictions, those media wearing armbands will not have access to the press box at any time without other proper credentials. A box lunch will be served at ground level for photographers. No one under 18 years of age will be issued an armband for sideline access without prior approval of the SID.

- Photographers or videographers are considered working members of the media and they are to refrain from cheering or talking to players, coaches or officials.
- Photographers needing to send photos from the stadium may do so at the LSU Photo Office, located in the northeast corner of Tiger Stadium, inside Gate 10. Photographers should contact Steve Franz, LSU Staff Photographer, for further information at 225-578-4193 or 225-571-3532 to reserve space.

Press Box

Tiger Stadium is equipped with power outlets at every seat with wireless Internet available throughout the press area and a limited number of Ethernet lines available. If a private telephone line is needed, call 1-800-238-5501. When ordering phone lines for the press box, the physical address for Tiger Stadium is 3800 Highland Road, Baton Rouge, La. 70803. Please allow two weeks for installation.

FAX service is also available. Quarterly play-by-play, offensive and defensive statistics and quotes from players and coaches of both teams will be passed out as soon as they are compiled. The Les Miles press conference, when possible, and portions of the the visiting coach press conference will be played over the interior PA in the press box following the game.

Stats and play-by-play of LSU's games will be available on LSU's web site, www.LSUports.net within minutes of the conclusion of the game.

Parking

Media parking is located in lots near Tiger Stadium. Because of limited space, requests for parking should be made with credential requests. It should not be assumed that parking passes will be provided with all media credentials. Due to construction in some parts of campus, media parking will be adjusted to different lots than in past years.

Pro Scouts

Due to severe space limitations, scouts of professional football teams are not issued press credentials. Tickets will be made available to pro scouts at regular price. Tickets should be requested two weeks prior to the date of the game to guarantee availability and should be requested through LSU Sports Information Administrative Secretary Pam LeBlanc at 225-578-8226.

Satellite Trucks

TV stations must request satellite truck access and must have a truck in place at least five hours prior to kickoff. Any satellite truck arriving less than five hours prior to kickoff may be denied access to the stadium. Requests for parking area for satellite trucks must be made by noon on Wednesday prior to Saturday games and must be confirmed through Director of Television Kevin Wagner. No other vehicles will be allowed to park with the satellite truck and all credentials for personnel must be included in the online request.

Head Coach Les Miles

Request for interviews with Les Miles should be coordinated through SID Michael Bonnette at 225-578-8226 or mbonnet@lsu.edu.

- Coach Miles, besides his weekly press luncheon and after Wednesday practice, is also available by request Tuesday through Friday during the season between 12:45 and 1:30 p.m. through Michael Bonnette.

Practices

Practices are closed to the media once the regular season starts. Pre-season practices are open to the media during individual drills at the discretion of the head coach.

Players

All player interviews must be coordinated through the LSU Sports Information Office at least one day in advance. Player interviews will be held each Monday after Coach Miles' press luncheon at a time TBD and then following practice on Monday and Tuesday. All player interviews will be held at the Indoor Practice Facility.

- Phone interviews should be requested through SID Michael Bonnette and Associate SID Bill Martin.

- Players are available through Tuesday of game week. No player interviews will be conducted after Tuesday. Team locker rooms and apartments are off limits to media representatives at all times.

Postgame

LSU is committed to a policy of equal access for both male and female reporters and photographers.

- Les Miles will conduct his postgame news conference at home games approximately 10 minutes after the game in the Media Interview Room located just off the chute area leading to the LSU locker room.
- The LSU locker room is closed. Several players will be brought into the Media

Interview Room following coach Miles' postgame news conference.

- The opponents' coach will conduct his postgame news conference in the interview room located across from the visitors' locker room in the southeast portal of the stadium. TV lighting and adequate electrical outlets are available in the visitors' interview area.

Credentials

All credential requests should be made at LSU's on-line credentialing website: www.LSUports.net/media. All requests should be made as early as possible and should be limited to working press only. The deadline for season credential requests is August 15. Individual game credentials must be requested two (2) weeks prior to the date of the game.

- The credential authorizes the use by an accredited organization for news coverage of the game. Any unauthorized use of credentials subjects the bear to ejection from the stadium and subjects the accredited organization to revocation of its credentials for future LSU athletic events.

* LSU-Alabama game credentials should be requested using the same credentialing system. That game will be administered separately from season credentials with priority to those media who have season credentials for home games at the two universities.

The Les Miles Show

The Les Miles Show presented by Capital One Bank, a weekly one-hour radio program each Wednesday night at 7 p.m., returns for the 2012 season. It is designed to give Tiger fans an inside look at LSU football. The show will once again be hosted by "The Voice" of LSU athletics, Jim Hawthorne. Fans have the opportunity to come out and watch the show broadcast live from TJ Ribs at Acadian each week and ask Coach Miles questions in person. The Les Miles Show is a great opportunity for fans at home to call in and ask questions live during the show. The Les Miles Show airs each week during the football season throughout the state of Louisiana.

Tiger One

The 2012 season marks the 8th year of Tiger One, a mobile radio studio and hospitality center that originates LSU Sports Radio Network broadcasts at home games and on selected road games throughout the season. Tiger fans can visit Tiger One Village each Saturday before home games in front of the Pete Maravich Assembly Center where they can see and hear LSU Gameday presented by CST featuring Jim Hawthorne and Doug Moreau.

LSU Sunday Night Live!

LSU Sunday Night Live!, a one-hour radio call-in show, is aired live statewide on Sunday evenings from 6-7 p.m. Listen to all shows live or archived on the LSU Sports Radio Network, or around the world in the Geaux Zone on LSUsports.net.

The Geaux Zone

The Geaux Zone, a subscription-based online service on LSUsports.net, provides live and on-demand video archives of all football games. Audio broadcasts, as well as the official coaches radio and television shows, are also available. Games can also be accessed on smartphones and tablets through LSU's Mobile Application.

SiriusXM Radio

SiriusXM Satellite Radio will broadcast LSU football, basketball and other sports to SiriusXM subscribers nationwide and will also provide complete coverage of SEC championships.

Radio Staff

Jim Hawthorne
Director of Broadcasting

Jim Hawthorne begins his 31st year as the "Voice of the Tigers" and the Anacoco, La., native, has established himself as one of the top play-by-play men in all of collegiate athletics.

A veteran of calling the action for more than 38 years, Hawthorne also handles men's basketball and baseball broadcasts on the LSU Sports Radio Network. He has been at the microphone for both the 2004 and 2008 BCS National Championship games that LSU won. He also called LSU's six national titles in baseball and three Final Four appearances in men's basketball.

As LSU's Director of Broadcasting, Hawthorne is responsible for the broadcast content, personnel and equipment for all network broadcasts on one of the most powerful collegiate radio networks in the nation.

In addition, he hosts the weekly one-hour live call-in radio shows with the football, baseball head coaches, as well as serving as the host for "Inside LSU Baseball."

Hawthorne has done play-by-play from the high school to the professional levels, including Northwestern State, Centenary College, Texas League Baseball and World Football League broadcasts. Hawthorne is married to the former Juanita Carol Thomason, also of Anacoco, and has a son, Joseph William, two daughters, Jaime Lynn and Amanda Ruth, one granddaughter and two grandsons.

Doug Moreau
Color Analyst

Doug Moreau, a former Tiger football great, serves as color analyst for all LSU football games. He returned to the radio booth in 1988 after serving on the TigerVision (pay-per-view) broadcast crew from 1982-87. He worked on Fighting Tiger radio broadcasts from 1972-81 prior to switching to television. The former LSU All-American was one of the all-time great receivers in Tiger history and still ranks in the top 10 in scoring as a receiver/place kicker for the Tigers from 1963-65. He was a tight end for the Miami Dolphins from 1966-70 and recently retired after a lengthy tenure as the District Attorney for East Baton Rouge Parish.

Gordy Rush
Sideline Reporter

Gordy Rush, a former LSU football player from 1988-90, begins his second season as a sideline reporter for the LSU Sports Radio Network although he enters his 18th season overall covering LSU football on the radio. The New Orleans native remains strongly involved with LSU by serving as the Vice President of the National L Club, and he also serves as the emcee of the Tiger Athletic Foundation's annual Tiger Tour.

In addition to his duties with LSU, Rush serves as the VP/Market Manager of Guaranty Broadcasting which includes Eagle 98.1, as well as 104.5 ESPN and Talk 107.3. A graduate of Jesuit High School in New Orleans, he is the son of Beth and the late Gordon Rush II of Gretna, La. and has one sister, Lynn. Rush is married to former LSU All-American softball pitcher Ashley Lewis and they have two sons Gordon ("G") L. Rush IV (4) and Jax Michael (1). The couple currently resides in Baton Rouge.

Radio Network History

The LSU Sports Radio Network, a division of LSU Sports Properties, brings Tiger football to LSU followers across the country. With four 50,000-watt affiliates, three 100,000-watt FM stations, and two clear signal 50,000 watt AM stations LSU Fighting Tiger Football is distributed by satellite throughout the South. The LSU Sports Radio Network is anchored by flagship station WDGL-FM ("The Eagle 98.1") in Baton Rouge.

The LSU Sports Radio Network, in its 23rd year, is one of the most diverse and progressive college radio networks in the country, utilizing an in-house radio studio to originate over 200 live events in football, men's and women's basketball, baseball and softball.

The Eagle 98.1 also is the home of basketball and baseball. WYPY-FM (107.3 FM) serves as a flagship station for women's basketball with Country Legends 104.9 FM as the home of softball.

In addition to live events, network programming also includes a weekly live coach's show for football, men's and women's basketball and baseball.

Head coach Les Miles is interviewed at halftime by Gordy Rush for the CST and LSU Sports Radio Network broadcasts.

Inside LSU Football

Inside LSU Football with Les Miles presented by Academy Sports + Outdoors is the primary source for Tiger football news. Jordy Hultberg will serve as host for the 16th-straight year, joining LSU head coach Les Miles to provide detailed game highlights, in-depth analysis and profiles on the 2012 Tigers. Inside LSU Football is syndicated weekly during the football season throughout all major markets in the state of Louisiana and across the South on Cox Sports Television and Fox Sports Net. In addition, the show can be viewed in its entirety on LSU's official athletic department web site, LSUsports.net. Inside LSU Football debuts on Sept. 2 and will continue throughout the season with the last show airing on Nov. 25.

Watch the Replay

For the 10th year, Cox Sports Television has teamed up with LSU to be the exclusive regional cable sports network of LSU Athletics. The television package, which was signed in February of 2003, gives LSU year-round exposure on the regional sports network and will include close to 40 LSU sporting events as well as monthly magazine shows featuring LSU athletics on Cox Sports Television. CST, which can be seen in the Baton Rouge area on Cox Cable ch. 37, delivers LSU athletics to over 2 million viewers in Louisiana, Texas, Arkansas, Georgia, Florida, Mississippi and Virginia.

Television Staff

Kevin Wagner
Director of Television

Kevin Wagner, LSU's Director of Television, is the executive producer/director for LSU's four major coaches' television shows featuring football coach Les Miles, men's basketball coach Johnny Jones, women's basketball coach Nikki Caldwell, and baseball coach Paul Mainieri. He oversees all television projects associated with the LSU Athletics Department, including the coordination of LSU's video scoreboards in Tiger Stadium, the Pete Maravich Assembly Center and Alex Box Stadium.

Wagner, 56, was promoted to Assistant AD/Television in August, 2003 after joining LSU as assistant coordinator in August of 1989. He served as Coordinator of Electronic Media/Television for eight years prior to his most recent promotion.

A 1980 graduate of LSU in broadcast journalism, Wagner was a four-year Tiger letterman in diving (1975-79), earning All-Southeastern Conference honors in 1979 on the three-meter springboard.

A native of Houston with 33 years of experience as a television producer, Wagner and his wife Karen have two daughters - Allyson and Jennifer - and six grandchildren: Kaleigh, Randy, Conner, Tanner, Carson, and Kyndal.

John Schiebe
Manager of Television

John Schiebe begins his 19th year as chief assistant in the television department. He came to LSU in August of 1994 from the University of Mississippi where he served as post-production supervisor in the Teleproductions Center. He was there for one-and-a-half years.

Schiebe served as a production assistant in Educational Television Services at Oklahoma State from 1984 through 1987 before becoming a producer/director in Agricultural Communications at OSU from 1987 until 1993 when he joined Ole Miss.

A 1986 graduate of Oklahoma State, he was born in Minneapolis, Minn., and attended high school in Oxford, Miss.

Schiebe, 50, is married to the former Mollie Clements of Memphis, Tenn., and they have two children, Tom and Pat.

David Landry
Television Producer

David Landry returned in 2006 to LSU as a producer within the television department after 12 years in television production in the Baton Rouge area.

Before his freelance career, Landry, a native of Baton Rouge, served as a full-time television producer at LSU for four years (1990-1994) and was involved with production of LSU programming since 1988 when he was a student at the University.

Landry graduated from LSU in 1990 with a bachelor's degree in broadcast journalism. He married the former Kim Segura of Baton Rouge in 1991, and has two sons, Patrick and John.

TIGER STADIUM

SOUTH ENDZONE ADDITION

The South End Zone Addition will include approximately 60 suites, 3,000 club seats as well as about 1,500 general public seats above the current south end zone bowl. The South End Zone Addition will also debut two brand new HD corner videoboards that will be among the best in the SEC. The project will be entirely privately funded through the Tiger Athletic Foundation. Construction is slated to begin in the fall of 2012, and scheduled to be completed in the fall of 2014.
