

Where stately oaks and broad magnolias shade inspiring halls,

There stands our dear Old Alma Mater who to us recalls

Fond memories that waken in our hearts a tender glow,

And makes us happy for the love that we have learned to know.

All hail to thee our Alma Mater molder of mankind,

May greater glory, love unending be forever thine.

Our worth in life will by thy worth we pray to keep it true,

And may thy spirit live in us,

FOREVER L-S-U!

2015 PRESEASON NOTEBOOK

LSU Goes Into 2015 As Winningest Program In SEC Over Last 10 Years

LSU coach Les Miles enters his 11th season with the Tigers in 2015 as he's guided the school to more wins (103) over the past 10 years than any other program in the Southeastern Conference. In 10 years at LSU, Miles has posted a 103-29 mark, and he's climbed to rank as the second-winningest coach in school history. Miles has led LSU to double-figure wins seven times and extended the school's streak of consecutive bowl appearances to 15. In addition, LSU has won at least eight games for a school-record 15 straight seasons dating back to 2000, the longest such streak of any school among the Power 5 Conferences.

Wins Since 2005 (Nationally)

Boise State	113
Ohio State	109
Oregon	105
LSU	103
Oklahoma	101
TCU	100
Southern Cal	98
Wisconsin	98
Virginia Tech	95
Texas	94
Florida	94

The Schedule

LSU will once again feature one of the toughest schedules in college football as the Tigers will face nine teams that played in a bowl game a year ago. The schedule will also feature LSU's first trip to Syracuse as the Tigers will face the Orange in the Carrier Dome on Sept. 26. LSU opens its conference slate against Mississippi State in Starkville on Sept. 12 followed by the SEC home opener against Auburn on Sept. 19. LSU travels to South Carolina for the first time since 2008 when the Tigers meet the Gamecocks on Oct. 10. The Tigers face Alabama and Ole Miss on the road in November along with games in Death Valley against Arkansas on Nov. 14 and the regular-season finale against Texas AGM on Nov. 28.

Three New Coaches Join Tiger Coaching Staff In 2015

Three of college football's most respected coaches joined the Tigers during the spring as Les Miles added defensive coordinator Kevin Steele, defensive line coach Ed Orgeron and wide receivers coach Tony Ball to the staff. Steele and Orgeron both have head coaching experience on their resume, while Ball is a talented wide receivers coach who made an immediate impact on LSU's young group of receivers during the spring.

LSU's Been A Preseason Top 25 Team For 14 Straight Years

When LSU opens the 2015 season on Sept. 5 against McNeese State in Tiger Stadium, the Tigers will likely do so ranked among the Top 25 teams in the nation. LSU has been ranked in the preseason poll for the Associated Press or the USA Today Coaches every year dating back to 2001. LSU's highest preseason ranking under Miles came in 2007 when the Tigers were No. 2 to open the season. LSU was No. 3 in the 2012, No. 4 in 2011 and No. 5 in 2006

2015 Marks 10-Year Anniversary of Hurricanes Katrina and Rita

The 2015 marks the 10-year anniversary of Hurricanes Katrina and Rita, two of the most devastating storms to hit Louisiana. The theme for the LSU football team in 2005 was simple: Winning For Louisiana, and the Tigers did just that. With New Orleans underwater and most of the gulf coast destroyed by the storms, it was the LSU football team that stepped up to become the torch-bearer for a state in need of a diversion. Despite not having any type of normalcy for most the year, which included playing for 11 consecutive weeks and having the first four weeks of the season altered, 2005 was anything but routine. Week after week, the Tigers, much like the citizens of the great state of Louisiana, overcame adversity and found a way to end up winners. In all, the Tigers won five games by four points or less to finish with an unlikely 11-2 mark in a year that was full of distractions. By the time the 2005 season came to an end, Les Miles had directed to the Tigers to the best record in school history for a first-year coach, and he also became the only LSU coach to beat Alabama, Auburn and Florida in the same season. LSU capped the year by winning the SEC Western Division and advancing to the SEC Championship game for the third time in school history. The Tigers then put an exclamation on the extraordinary year with a 40-3 thumping over ninth-ranked Miami in the Peach Bowl. The following is a look at how LSU's weekly routine was disrupted during the first 5 weeks of the 2005 season as a result off Hurricanes Katrina and Rita:

WEEK	GAME	DISRUPTION	RESULTS
1	North Texas	Hurricane Katrina	Game postponed on Aug. 30 (LSU won on Oct. 29)
2	Arizona State	aftermath of Hurricane Katrina	Game moved to Tempe on Sept. 5 (LSU won 35-31)
3	Tennessee	Hurricane Rita	Game delayed 2 days to Sept. 26 (LSU lost 30-27 OT)
4	Miss. State	Tennessee game on Monday	6 Days between 2 SEC games (LSU won 37-7)
5	Vanderhilt	None	Won, 34-6

Fournette Becomes First LSU Running Back To Return Following 1,000-yard Season Since Charles Scott in 2009

Leonard Fournette set an LSU freshman rushing record in 2014 with 1,034 yards and 10 touchdowns during his rookie campaign. In 2015, Fournette becomes the first LSU running back to return following a 1,000-yard season since 2009 when Charles Scott came back to school after rushing for 1,174 yards and 10 TDs in 2008. Fournette became the 15th 1,000-yard rusher in school history last year. Charles Alexander holds the school record for most rushing yards in a season (1,686 in 1977), while Kevin Faulk holds the LSU record for most 1,000-yard seasons in a career with three.

LSU's Won 8 Games Or More For 15 Straight Years

With the victory over Texas A&M last November, LSU reached the 8-win mark for the 15th straight year. The 15 years with at least eight wins is second nationally behind Boise State's 16 straight seasons. LSU's streak of seasons with at least eight wins dates back to 2000 when first-year coach Nick Saban led the Tigers to an 8-4 record, which was capped with a 28-14 victory over Georgia Tech in the Peach Bowl. LSU has won at least eight games in 10 seasons under Les Miles, and the Tigers have finished with 10 wins or more in seven of 10 seasons.

LSU Has FBS' Best Record When Trailing in the Fourth Quarter Since 2005

Since head coach Les Miles' first season at LSU in 2005, no team has a better record in games when trailing in the fourth quarter. Here is a look at the teams with the best record when trailing in the fourth quarter since 2005:

TEAM	W-L RECORD	WIN PCT.
LSU	24-25	.490
Texas	18-36	.333
Florida State	19-38	.333
Clemson	17-39	.304

LSU Has Been Ranked in 127 of 132 Games Under Miles

Since Les Miles took over at LSU, the Tigers have played 127 of 132 games ranked in the Top 25. The only five games that LSU wasn't ranked in the Top 25 under Miles came in 2008 (Arkansas on Nov. 28 and Georgia Tech on Dec. 31) and 2014 (Florida on Oct. 11, Kentucky on Oct. 28 and Texas A6M on Nov. 27). LSU is 99-28 as a Top 25 team under Miles. Overall under Miles and since 2005, LSU has been represented in the AP and Coaches' Poll 154 of the 162 weeks. The exception came during the final three polls of the 2008 season and five weeks in 2014.

LSU Extends FBS Record for Consecutive Non-Conference Regular Season Wins to 49

LSU increased its Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) record for consecutive non-conference regular season wins to 49 after the Tigers pummeled New Mexico State, 63-7, in Tiger Stadium on Sept. 27. The streak dates back to the 2002 season and now includes eight wins over ranked opponents after beating No. 14 Wisconsin in the 2014 season opener. The Tigers broke the FBS record for consecutive non-conference regular season wins in 2012, surpassing the mark of Kansas State who claimed 39 straight from 1993-2003. The Tigers haven't lost a non-conference regular season game since falling at Virginia Tech, 26-8, in the 2002 season opener in Blacksburg, Va., on Sept. 1. Les Miles has accounted for 39 of the 49 wins during the streak, and he is 39-0 all-time in non-conference regular season games in his tenure at LSU. Former coach Nick Saban accounted for the 10 other victories from 2002-04. Under Miles, the Tigers have outscored non-conference regular season opponents a combined 1,988-526. Here is a look at the top four in FBS all-time consecutive non-conference regular season wins:

TEAM	YEARS	WIN STREAK
1. LSU	2002-present	49
2. Kansas State	1993-2003	39
3. Miami	1985-88	36
4. Wisconsin	2003-13	35

LSU Is 45-3 In Non-Conference Games Under Les Miles

LSU holds a 45-3 record in non-conference games in Les Miles' tenure. LSU's only three non-conference losses under Miles came in bowl games (19-17 to Penn State in 2010 Capital One Bowl; 25-24 to Clemson in 2012 Chick-fil-A Bowl; and 31-28 to Notre Dame in 2014 Music City Bowl). Of the 45 wins under Miles against non-conference opponents, 13 have come against Top 25 teams, 37 have come by double-digits and LSU has scored 40 or more points in 27 of the 45 wins.

LSU Is 57-0 Under Miles When Rushing For 100 Yards and Holding Opponents To Less Than 100 Yards

One look at LSU's results in relation to rushing the football, and it's easy to figure out that head coach Les Miles is a former offensive lineman who understands the importance of running the football. In 132 games under Miles, LSU's success is easy to predict when it comes to net rushing yards. Get to 100 yards rushing, and LSU will more than likely win as the Tigers are 98-12 under Miles when that happens. Hold the opponent to fewer than 100 yards, and the Tigers are 58-5. An even more telling stat is that when LSU rushes for 100-plus yards and holds the opponents to fewer than 100 yards, the Tigers are 57-0. The following is a look at LSU's rushing numbers during the Miles era and have the Tigers have fared in those games:

The History of No. 18 - LSU's Most Coveted Number

A tradition established in 2003 will continue in 2015 as the No. 18 jersey will be handed out by head coach Les Miles on the first day of preseason camp. Last year, running back Terrence Magee was selected to wear No. 18 following a vote of the coaching staff along with past No. 18s. Jersey No. 18 was born when, in 2003, quarterback Matt Mauck guided LSU to its first national championship since 1958. His number became synonymous with success — both on and off the field — as well as a selfless attitude that has become the epitome of being an LSU football player. After his final year with the Tigers, Mauck passed the jersey number down to running back Jacob Hester, who then helped LSU to another national title in 2007. Here is a look at the jersey No. 18s:

2015 SEASON PREVIEW \ INTRO

THE LSU OFFENSE

The Tigers return eight starters on offense, including four at the skill positions along with three on the offensive line, under third-year offensive coordinator Carn Cameron. A year ago with a first-year starter at quarterback in Anthony Jennings, LSU was a run-heavy offense led by freshman sensation Leonard Fournette. Fournette led the Southeastern Conference in all-purpose yards, and he set an LSU freshman record for rushing yards with 1,034.

The Tigers ranked among the SEC leaders with 224.5 rushing yards a contest in 2014. Overall, LSU averaged 27.6 points and 387.5 total yards per game. LSU topped the 300-yard rushing mark in four games last year which including a whopping 384 yards in a 23-17 win over Texas A&M.

Joining Fournette as returning starters at the skill positions for LSU in 2015 include wide receivers Travin Dural and John Diarse along with quarterback Anthony Jennings.

Despite the loss of three-year starter and second team All-America La'el Collins to the NFL, the Tigers offensive line returns three players who should all contend for postseason honors led by senior right tackle Vadal Alexander. He's joined by a pair of juniors in left tackle Jerald Hawkins and guard/center Ethan Pocic to anchor what should be one of the strengths for the Tigers. The final returning starter for LSU in 2015 is tight end Dillon Gordon, who doubles as a pass catcher and blocker for the Tigers.

Quarterbacks

The quarterback position is a spot that is expected to be manned by junior Anthony Jennings (6-2, 216, Jr.-2L) or sophomore Brandon Harris (6-3, 188, So.-1L) but that won't be settled until sometime during preseason practice. Jennings started all but one game a year ago for the Tigers and guided LSU to an 8-4 mark in those contests. Jennings features a strong command of the offense along with having 22 games of experience to his credit. For his career. Jennings has completed 124-of-256 passes for 1,792 yards, 12 touchdowns and eight interceptions. He's led LSU on four game-winning driving during his brief career with the Tigers, and he's 9-4 overall a starter.

Harris, with a big arm and the ability to make game-changing plays with his feet, showed glimpses of what the future may hold at the quarterback position at times last year, leading LSU to a near unthinkable comeback against Mississippi State and directing touchdown scoring drives on seven straight drives in a win over New Mexico State. Harris played in nine games during his rookie season with the Tigers in 2014 with his lone start coming on the road against Auburn. He completed 25-of-45 passes for 452 yards, six touchdowns and only two interceptions. He also rushed for 159 yards and three TDs to account for a total of nine touchdowns last year.

True freshman Justin McMillan (6-1, 177, Fr.-HS) and senior Brad Kragthorpe (6-0, 200, Sr.-1L) round out the depth chart at the quarterback position for the Tigers heading into 2015.

Running Backs

It's been a long time since there's been this much preseason hype for a LSU running back but after the showing the Leonard Fournette (6-1, 230, So.-1L) put on last year as a rookie, it's well-deserved. Fournette is listed among the top running backs in the country going into 2015, and he's even been ranked among the favorites to contend for the Heisman Trophy as the nation's top player. Last year, Fournette emerged as one of the top players at his position in the SEC, rushing for 1,034 yards and 10 TDs. He averaged a staggering 5.5 yards per carry and led the SEC in all-purpose yards with 137.4 a contest. He doubled as a game-breaker at kick returner where he averaged 26.0 yards a return. He capped his rookie season with a 100-yard kickoff return for a TD against Notre Dame to go with an 89yard touchdown run against the Irish in the Music City Bowl.

Fournette will be joined the backfield by sophomore Darrel Williams (6-0, 230, So.-1L), who rushed for 302 yards and three touchdowns as a true freshman in 2014. The Tigers will welcome three of the top high school running backs in the nation to the roster this year with the addition of Derrius Guice (5-11, 216, Fr.-HS), Nick Brossette (6-0, 214, Fr.-HS), and Lanard Fournette (5-10, 185, Fr.-HS).

Fullbacks

The fullback position will continue to play a prominent role in the LSU offense, and the Tigers will count on J.D. Moore (6-3, 229, So.-1L) to help fill the gap left with the departure of two-year starter Connor Neighbors to graduation.

Moore transitioned to fullback fulltime during the spring with good results. He's expected to lead a young, but talented group at the position that will also include a pair of true freshmen in David Ducre (6-0, 239, Fr.-HS) and Bry'Kiethon Mouton (6-1, 250, Fr.-HS). Tony Upchurch (6-1, 230, Fr.-RS), a converted wide receiver, rounds out the list of fullbacks for the Tigers.

Wide Receivers

Wide receiver may be the deepest and talented position on the field for LSU in 2015 as the Tigers return four players who have started and played significant snaps. LSU wideouts caught 83 passes among four players last year and all four of those return in 2015 led by junior Travin Dural (6-2, 194, Jr.-2L). Dural headlines the group as one of the most explosive playmakers in the SEC. Dural is averaging 20 yards per catch for his 44 career receptions, and he scored on TDs of 94 and 80 yards last year in his first full season as a starter.

A trio of sophomores made a big impact on the passing game for LSU last year led by Trey Quinn (6-0, 194, So.-1L), who ranked second on the team with 17 catches for 193 yards in his seven starts. John Diarse (6-0, 210, So.-1L) showed his big-play capability by opening the year with a 36-yard fourth quarter TD against Wisconsin that helped spark the comeback win and then closed the season with a 75-yard scoring reception against Notre Dame in the Music City Bowl. Diarse finished the season with 15 catches for 275 yards and three touchdowns. Malachi Dupre (6-3, 187, So.-1L), a unique athlete with tremendous receiving skills, finished second on the team with five touchdowns in 2014. He caught 14 passes for 317 yards and averaged a team-high 22.7 yards per catch.

D.J. Chark (6-2, 184, So.-SQ) played sparingly as a true freshman in 2014 but is coming off perhaps the best spring of all LSU receivers. Chark led LSU in receiving in every spring scrimmage and positioned himself to be the rotation once the season starts.

Newcomers Tvron Johnson (6-2, 192, Fr.-HS). Derrick Dillon (5-11, 174, Fr.-HS) and Jazz Ferguson (6-5, 214, Fr.-HS) all come to LSU with a chance to compete for playing time in 2015.

Tight Ends

A critical part to the LSU offense is the play of the tight end, and that's one spot on the field where the Tigers return a mixture of talent. Senior and returning starter Dillon Gordon (6-4, 295, Sr.-3L) is a punishing blocker who also displays soft and reliable hands in the passing game. Colin Jeter (6-6, 236, Jr.-1L) is a threat in the vertical and intermediate passing game, while DeSean Smith (6-5, 242, Jr.-2L) is hybrid with good size but also has good speed and creates mismatch problems for linebackers. Smith had his best game in the season-finale last year against Notre Dame with four catches for 66 yards, both career-highs. Redshirt freshman Jacory Washington (6-5, 221, Fr.-RS) is much like that of Smith in that he's got great athletic ability and can create mismatch issues for opposing defenses in the passing game.

Foster Moreau (6-5, 237, Fr.-HS) and Hanner Shipley (6-5, 284, Fr.-HS) are both true freshmen who will have an opportunity to contribute in 2015.

Offensive Linemen

One of the biggest strengths for LSU in 2015 will be that of the offensive line as the Tigers return three starters up front led by senior right tackle Vadal Alexander (6-6, 320, Sr.-3L), who has a combined 34 career starts at left guard (25 starts) and right tackle (9). He's joined by junior left tackle Jerald Hawkins (6-6, 309, Jr.-2L) and junior guard/ center Ethan Pocic (6-7, 301, Jr.-2L) as returning starters for the Tigers. Hawkins, with tremendous reach and outstanding footwork, may be the next great LSU offensive lineman. He will shift to left tackle in 2015 after starting 25 games at right tackle as a freshman and sophomore. Pocic displays tremendous run and pass blocking skills and is versatile enough to play any position on the line of scrimmage. He's penciled in to start alongside Hawkins at left guard giving LSU as dominant a guard-tackle combination as there will be in college football in 2015.

Josh Boutte (6-5, 340, Jr.-1L) made big strides during the spring and is in position to take over the starting spot at right guard in 2015, while redshirt freshman William Clapp (6-5, 295, Fr.-RS) emerged from the spring as a potential candidate for the center spot. Clapp will be pushed by sophomore Andy Dodd (6-4, 336, So.-1L) for playing time at

K.J. Malone (6-4, 289, So.-1L) and Garrett Brumfield (6-4, 309, Fr.-RS) will be in the rotation at the guard positons in 2015. Malone, who appeared on the offensive line in four games in 2014, has also cross-trained at center and can fill-in at that spot if LSU's 2015 signing class featured five of the nation's top offensive line prospects, all of which will be in position to compete for significant playing time in the near future. The list of newcomers include tackle Toby Weathersby (6-5, 303, Fr.-HS), lineman Chidi Valentine-Okeke (6-6, 315, Fr.-HS), tackle George Brown Jr. (6-6, 283, Fr.-HS), guard Adrian Magee (6-5, 366, Fr.-HS) and guard Maea Teuhema (6-4, 323, Fr.-HS).

2015 SEASON PREVIEW

THE LSU DEFENSE

Defense has been the foundation that Les Miles has built his program around and 2015 will be no different, as the Tigers under the direction of first-year coordinator Kevin Steele, return six starters from a unit that led the SEC in total defense and pass defense a year ago.

Under Miles, the Tiger defense has produced 20 touchdowns, while also playing a significant role in LSU's 24 fourth-quarter comebacks over the last 10 years. Since 2005, LSU has finished in the top 3 in the SEC in total defense and scoring defense eight times, in rushing defense six times, and in passing defense four times. Under Miles, LSU has finished outside of the top 4 in the SEC in scoring defense just one time (9th in 2008).

Steele, along with defensive line coach Ed Orgeron, have brought new energy to what was already a very talented defense. If the 15 spring practices were any indication as to how the transition will be to Steele, then the Tigers will be in good shape as players bounced around the practice field with high energy and

The strength of LSU's defense is right up the middle as the Tigers return their two defensive tackles in Christian LaCouture and Dayon Godchaux along with middle linebacker Kendell Beckwith and safety Jalen Mills.

Tre'Davious White, a dynamic playmaker, is back for his third year as a starter at cornerback, while outside linebacker Lamar Louis rounds out the list of returning starters for the Tigers.

Defensive Ends

LSU will have to replace both of its defensive ends due to the departure of Danielle Hunter, who was picked in the third round of the NFL Draft and Jermauria Rasco, who finished his eligibility after starting for two years for the Tigers.

As a result of the loss of Hunter and Rasco, LSU's defensive end position will feature a pair of first-time starters in 2015. Among those players vying for the starting job include Lewis Neal (6-1, 255, Jr.-2L), Tashawn Bower (6-5, 237, Jr.-2L), Sione Teuhema (6-4, 232, So.-1L) and Maquedius Bain (6-4, 299, So.-1L). Bower, with 19 tackles in 19 games, and Neal, with 10 tackles in 23 games, are the most experienced of the group.

Deondre Clark (6-3, 244, So.-1L) will likely be among the players in the rotation at defensive end. while M.J. Patterson (6-3, 231, So.-SQ) emerged from spring practice as a player to watch heading into 2015. Newcomers Isaiah Washington (6-4, 255, Fr.-HS) and Arden Key (6-6, 230, Fr.-HS) were both highly-touted coming out of high school and could push for playing time as true freshmen in 2015

Defensive Tackles

LSU returns both of its starting defensive tackles as junior Christian LaCouture (6-5, 300, Jr.-2L) and sophomore Davon Godchaux (6-4, 298, So.-1L) are back after starting the final 10 games alongside each other in 2014. LaCouture is the most experienced of LSU's defensive linemen with 26 appearances and 13 starts. He's recorded 51 tackles, 5.5 tackles for loss and 3.5 sacks during his two years with the Tigers. Godchaux needed just three games before taking over the starting job where he quickly established himself as one of the top freshmen defensive tackles in the country. Godchaux finished his rookie season with 42 tackles as he helped anchor a Tiger defense that led the league in total yards and pass defense.

Senior Quentin Thomas (6-4, 303, Sr.-2L), and a pair of sophomores in Greg Gilmore (6-5, 305, So.-SQ) and Frank Herron (6-4, 278, So.-SQ) will be part of the defensive tackle rotation. Thomas worked his way into a starting role last year before suffering an arm injury early in the year that slowed his progress and limited his playing time. He still managed to play in 11 games with three starts.

Linebackers

The Tigers return two starters and two others who have at least one start to their credit at the position heading into 2015. One of the anchors for the LSU defense this year will be middle linebacker Kendell Beckwith (6-2, 245, Jr.-2L), who took over as the starter midway through the 2014 season and quickly established himself as a future star. Beckwith ranked second on the team last year with 77 tackles and 7.5 tackles for loss despite not cracking the starting lineup until the seventh game of the season. Beckwith, a former high school quarterback, showed just what type of playmaker he can be as he scored on a 29-yard interception against New Mexico State, had a game-changing sack against Ole Miss, and successfully converted a fake punt with a 5-vard run against Wisconsin.

Lamar Louis (5-11, 229, Sr.-3L) joins Beckwith as the other returning starter for the Tigers. Louis, who mans the Sam linebacker spot, has started 15 games in his career and posted 67 tackles. Deion Jones (6-1, 220, Sr.-3L) is slated to start at the Will linebacker after making a name for himself as a special teams standout during his first three years with the Tigers. Jones and Duke Riley (6-1, 218, Jr.-2L) have both started one game during their career but bring a great deal of experience to the position for the Tigers in 2015. Jones has 65 career tackles, while Riley has 27 career stops.

Ronnie Feist (6-1, 224, Jr.-2L) will backup Beckwith in the middle, while Donnie Alexander (6-1, 201, So.-1L) and Devin Voohries (6-2, 208, So.-1L) will see action behind Jones at one of the outside linebacker positions.

Cornerbacks

Tre'Davious White (5-11, 191, Jr.-2L), one of the LSII veterans no matter the position, has developed into one of the top cornerbacks in the nation going into his junior season. White has started 24 games and he's intercepted four passes to go along with 88 tackles and 13 pass breakups for an LSU defense that led the league in total yards and pass defense in 2014.

Ed Paris (6-1, 208, So.-1L) and true freshman Kevin Toliver II (6-2, 192, Fr.-HS) were both impressive during the spring and are slated to compete for the cornerback slot opposite White. Paris played in 13 games last year as a true freshman, seeing most of his action on special teams. Toliver II, who was listed as the top cornerback in high school last year, enrolled at LSU early and went through spring drills with the Tigers.

Dwayne Thomas (6-0, 182, Jr.-2L) is expected to be back at full strength after suffering a seasonending injury in the fifth game of the year. Thomas will find a place on the field in some capacity in the secondary due to his playmaking and leadership

Russell Gage (6-0, 180, So.-SQ) along with newcomers Donte Jackson (5-11, 168, Fr.-HS), and Xavier Lewis (6-0, 186, Fr.-HS) will be in position to contribute in the secondary or on special teams in 2015.

Safeties

LSU's safeties are a versatile and an athletic group that will once again be asked to play aggressive while also being dependable in coverage. LSU's secondary features two of the top safeties in the SEC in senior Jalen Mills (6-1, 189, Sr.-3L) and sophomore Jamal Adams (6-0, 206, So.-1L). Mills has started every game of his LSU career (39) and is the only player on the team with over 100 career tackles (186). Mills has proven to be an asset in stopping the run, while also being good in coverage. He has six career interceptions and 13 pass breakups.

Adams quickly developed into one of the most explosive players on the team as a true freshman a year ago with a hard-hitting, relentless mindset on the field. Adams racked up 66 tackles along with 5.0 tackles for loss and a sack in 2014 as he played in all 13 games with two starts.

Rickey Jefferson (6-0, 204, Jr.-2L), Corey Thompson (6-2, 218, Jr.-2L), and John Battle (6-1, 186. So.-1L) are three players with significant game experience that will be counted on to contribute in the secondary in 2015.

Jefferson has made a number of big plays during his first two years with the Tigers but none bigger than his fourth quarter interception that set-up LSU's game-winning field goal to beat Florida last year. Jefferson has 29 tackles and a pair of interceptions to his credit. Thompson is expected back at full speed in 2015 after missing all of last season with a knee injury. Thompson started five games in 2013 and has played in 23 contests during his career, totaling 51 tackles and three pass breakups. Battle played in just one game a year ago but a good spring followed by a strong showing in the offseason program has him in position to contribute more in 2015.

2015 SEASON PREVIEW

THE LSU SPECIAL TEAMS

Another signature of a Les Miles team is that of quality special teams play. Under Miles, LSU has accounted for 22 touchdowns on special teams which includes 12 punt returns for TDs, four kickoff returns for TDs, two blocked field goals for TDs, and one TD each on a blocked punt, fumbled punt, fake field goal, and missed field goal.

LSU is 19-2 when scoring a special teams touchdown since 2005, and the Tigers have scored at least one TD on special teams in each of Miles' 10 years at the school.

Bradley Dale Peveto has served as LSU's special teams coordinator for four years over two different stints with the Tigers and is considered to be one of the top special teams coordinators in college football.

Placekickers

Colby Delahoussaye (5-10, 176, Jr.-2L) is back for his third year as LSU's primary placekicker. In his first two years with the Tigers, Delahoussaye has converted 24-of-29 field goals, including 14-of-16 from 30 yards or longer. He's backed up by Trent Domingue (6-1, 170, Jr.-1L), who made 2-of-4 field goals last year and Cameron Gamble (5-11, 190, So.-1L). Domingue and Gamble also share kickoff duties for the Tigers.

Punters

Jamie Keehn (6-4, 220, Sr.-3L), LSU's second straight Australian punter, will once again handle all punting duties for the Tigers in 2015. Last year, Keehn earned second team All-SEC honors after ranking No. 2 in the league with a 44.9 average. For his career, Keehn is averaging 43.5 yards a punt and he's downed 48 of 126 punts inside the opponent 20-yard line.

Keehn will be backed up by another Aussie in Josh Growden (6-4, 220, Fr.-HS), who signed with the Tigers last spring.

Return Specialists

LSU returns both of its return specialists in 2015 as Tre'Davious White is expected to return punts, while Leonard Fournette will handle kickoff returns. White ranked among the SEC leaders in punt returns last year with a 10.9 average on 25 returns. He returned a punt 67 yards for a touchdown against Kentucky.

Fournette led the SEC in all-purpose yards in 2014 and he was among the league leaders in kickoff returns with a 26.0 average on 24 returns. Fournette closed the year with a 100-yard kickoff return for a TD against Notre Dame in the Music City Bowl.

Jamal Adams will backup White on punt returns, while Travin Dural will contribute in the kickoff return game.

Snappers

Reid Ferguson (6-2, 236, Sr.-3L) has handled nearly every snap - both placekicks and punts - since walking on campus as a true freshman in 2012. He will be counted on to do the same for LSU in 2015 as he's listed as a preseason All-America heading into his senior season. Ferguson is a placekicker and punter's dream as his snaps are right on the mark every time.

Reid Ferguson will be backed up by his younger brother Blake Ferguson (6-3, 215, Fr.-HS), who signed with the Tigers after being thought of as the nation's top prep long snapper a year ago.

Jan. 7, 2008. LES MILES FOOTBALL

THE MILES METHOD

The goal is to run the finest football program in the country where our players can have an experience that is second to none.

In 10 seasons as head coach of LSU, Les Miles has guided the Tigers to unprecedented success both on and off the field. Under Miles, the goal at LSU is to run the finest football program in the country - one where student-athletes can have an experience that sees them develop academically, grow personally through community service endeavors and compete for championships on the field.

With an unwavering commitment to his players and the program, Miles has been the driving force behind LSU's continued dominance at the national level since his arrival in 2005.

The results have been staggering. The Tigers' 103 victories under his watch are the most in the Southeastern Conference over the past 10 seasons. The 2011 National Coach of the Year, Miles is one of only six coaches in SEC history to produce seven or more 10-win seasons at the same school. The Tigers have won six bowl games, two SEC titles, 39 games over ranked teams and one national championship.

The 2014 season saw Miles become the second coach in LSU history to win his 100th game as the head coach of the Tigers. Miles continues to have LSU firmly entrenched as one of college football's elite programs.

For the fourth time in the Les Miles era, LSU won 11 games and culminated the season with a bowl victory as the Tigers routed Texas A&M, 41-24, in the Cotton Bowl. Miles becomes the fastest ISII coach to reach 60 wins and leads the Tigers to a No. 8 national ranking.

In 2014, LSU led the nation with nine total draft picks, including seven offensive players.

CHAMPIONSHIP FOOTBALL

LSU became the first team in FBS history to win multiple BCS national championships with titles during the 2003 and 2007 seasons.

THE WINNINGEST PROGRAM IN THE NATION'S TOUGHEST CONFERENCE OVER THE LAST 10 YEARS

LSU is the winningest program in the SEC since the start of Les Miles' tenure as head coach in 2005 as the Tigers have posted a 103-29 mark during that span. The 103 victories for LSU are nine better than Florida and Georgia, while the Tigers are also tops in final poll rankings. During his career with the Tigers, Wilkerson helped lead LSU to a pair of SEC Championships as well as the 2003 BCS National Championship.

Wilkerson, a native of Hemphill, Texas, had his career cut short as a senior, suffering a knee injury during the eighth week of the season. Despite the injury, Wilkerson still went on to be named the co-recipient, along with David Baas of Michigan, of the Rimington Trophy in 2004, which goes annually to college football's top center. In addition, Wilkerson was named a First-Team All-American by the American Football Coaches Association and The Sporting News even though he missed LSU's final four games of the season.

Wilkerson graduated with a degree in general studies in May of 2005. He served as a graduate assistant on the LSU staff during the 2011 season

JOSH REED • WR

2001 BILETNIKOFF AWARD WINNER

When one thinks of some of the finest players in the history of the Southeastern Conference, Josh Reed's name is included on that list. Reed, who is one of the most decorated players in school history, virtually re-wrote both the LSU and SEC receiving record books despite playing only 28 games at wide receiver.

Originally signed out of Rayne (La.) High School as a tailback, Reed moved to wide receiver in week 9 of the 1999 season out of a necessity. The results were immediate as he caught five passes for 100 yards against Houston in just his second game at the position.

A year later, in 2000, Reed earned first-team All-SEC honors after catching 65 passes for 1,127 yards and 10 touchdowns for the 8-4 Tigers. His 102.5 yards receiving a contest led the SEC and he ranked second in the league with just under six catches a game.

Reed put together the finest year for a receiver in SEC history in 2001 as he shattered the league's singleseason yardage mark with 1,740 yards on a school-record 94 catches. Reed set a pair of league marks in a 35-21 road victory over Alabama as he hauled in 19 passes for 293 yards and a touchdown. He capped his record-setting career in grand fashion, setting a pair of Sugar Bowl records with 14 receptions for 239 yards and two touchdowns in leading the Tigers to a 47-34 victory over Illinois.

At the conclusion of his junior season, Reed was named the winner of the Biletnikoff Award, which is presented annually to the nation's top collegiate receiver. Reed was drafted with the fourth pick of the second round of the 2002 NFL Draft by the Buffalo Bills.

Billy Cannon was presented with the 1959 Heisman Trophy by then Vice President Richard Nixon.

BILLY CANNON • HB

1959 HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER

Even by today's standards Billy Cannon was a rare athlete, combining sprinter speed with brute strength. Cannon could consistently run a 9.5 in the 100-yard dash and, at 6-1, 210 pounds, he had the size to overpower his opponents as well as outrun them. In 1957, he was an immediate standout as a sophomore, offensively and defensively.

As a junior, Cannon was the driving force behind the Fighting Tigers as they carved out a perfect season and captured the 1958 national championship. He passed for a touchdown and kicked the extra point in LSU's 7-0 win over Clemson in the Sugar Bowl, and earned MVP honors.

Cannon's most memorable performance came in 1959 against Ole Miss. Top-ranked LSU trailed the thirdranked Rebels 3-O early in the fourth quarter, when Cannon fielded a punt at the LSU 11-yard-line and broke seven tackles on his way to paydirt. LSU won the contest 7-3. Considered one of the best collegiate backs of his era, Cannon was awarded the Heisman Trophy at the conclusion of the 1959 season. In 2008, the legendary Cannon was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame.

ACADEMIC SUCCESS

THE GOLD STANDARD

In December 2012, LSU was one of 45 institutions honored by the American Football Coaches Association for graduating 75 percent or more of its student-athletes. In addition, the Tigers have produced 164 SEC Academic Honor Roll recipients under head coach Les Miles since 2005.

Rodney Reed was featured in Sports Illustrated in 2003 as one of the smartest players in college football.

STUDENT-ATHLETE

Eric Reid, the No. 18 overall pick of the 2013 NFL Draft, not only displayed his talent on the field. Away from it, Reid was a standout student-athlete with a 3.3 grade point average in LSU's elite E.J. Ourso College of Business Management. Reid intends on following through with graduation even though he was drafted as a junior.

ACADEMIC SUCCESS

Left: Josh Downs is one of the latest players to come through the Project Graduation program. Right: Josh Jasper, a fourvear letterwinner and first team All-American as a senior in 2010, earned his degree in 2014 as part of the Project Graduation program.

PROJECT GRADUATION

"Project Graduation" gives a second chance to student-athletes who came up short in earning their degree the first time around. Under the direction of Kenneth Miles, who serves as vice chancellor and the executive director of the Cox Communications Center For Student-Athletes, and associate director Jason Shaw, who now oversees the program, "Project Graduation" is already paying dividends. The program has produced 22 graduates over the past three years, including 2003 national champion wide receiver Craig "Buster" Davis, who earned his degree in May 2015.

"Our Project Graduation program provides a mechanism through which our former student-athletes can earn their LSU degrees," Vice Chancellor and Director of Athletics Joe Alleva said. "We're committed to giving these students the same level of assistance they received during their playing careers, and the results produced by the program have been outstanding. Through the combined efforts of the Academic Center staff and our coaches, we're honoring our pledge to the students to provide the resources necessary to graduate from LSU."

FRIDAY NIGHT LIGHTS

"Friday Night Lights" is LSU football's successful study hall program held for student-athletes the night before a gameday each week in the fall. Coach Miles installed the program when he arrived at LSU in 2005, and the program continues today.

Walt Holliday, Director of Academic Affairs at the LSU Academic Center For Student-Athletes, along with football academic advisors Jason Shaw and Calvin Marshall, work with Director of Student Affairs Dr. Louise Bodack and her staff of learning specialists to make Friday Night Lights so successful.

Each night before football gamedays, the academic advisors set up a conference room inside the team hotel equipped with wireless Internet accessibility, and that room becomes a quiet study and work environment for the players. One of the academic advisors is present during Friday Night Lights to coordinate the event and assist the student-athletes.

"Friday Night Lights gives me an outlet to get my homework and studies done without having to worry about it after the game. I try to go to Friday Night Lights every week so that I can either catch up on work or stay ahead in my classes."

- Corey Thompson, Senior Sports Marketing & Business major

EYE OF THE TIGER AWARD

At the annual Tiger Athletic Foundation (TAF) Academic Excellence Gala in February 2015, Kenny Hilliard received the prestigious "Eye of the Tiger" Award, which goes to the person who has overcome great adversity with perseverance, dedication and determination. Hilliard earned his bachelor's degree in December 2014 after wrapping up a stellar four-year career as a running back for the Tigers. He rushed for 27 touchdowns, tied for No. 8 in LSU history in career rushing TDs. Hilliard was drafted in the seventh round (235th pick) by the Houston Texans.

NATIONAL SCHOLAR ATHLETES

NATIONAL FOOTBALL FOUNDATION SCHOLAR-ATHLETE AWARD

In 1959, The National Football Foundation unveiled an entirely new concept in college football — it's National Scholar-Athlete program. In the history of American sports, this was the first time an organization honored football players, not only for their athletic ability, but also for their academic and civic leadership. The Foundation's National Scholar-Athlete Awards program consists of graduate fellowships that are awarded on an annual basis to a select group of college football players in their senior year of eligibility who have demonstrated outstanding academic success, exemplary community leadership and superior football performance. LSU has had seven players named as a National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete, including Rudy Niswanger, who claimed the 2005 William V. Campbell Trophy, which goes to college football's most outstanding student-athlete.

THE PRESERVATION OF TIGER STADIUM

In August 2010, the LSU Athletic Department and the Tiger Athletic Foundation launched a campaign to preserve and restore the look of Tiger Stadium. The highly-successful campaign has enhanced the atmosphere in and around the iconic venue. With the expansion of the South End Zone, Tiger Stadium's capacity is now 102,321. All of the projects were privately funded by TAF.

WEST AND NORTH STADIUM PLAZAS

Prior to the start of the 2012 season, construction was completed on the first part of the west side plaza that includes new gates, All-American and Hall of Fame plazas and the National Championship plaza that showcases the past, present and future of LSU football. Construction on the north plaza of Tiger Stadium was completed prior to the 2013 season. This update maintains the great look and feel of Tiger Stadium while preserving the facility in a way that allows it to continue to function for years to come.

TIGER STADIUM WINDOWS

On Nov. 1, 2012, all 428 windows on the North side of Tiger Stadium were replaced, marking the initial phase in the Preservation of Death Valley. The 300 remaining windows on the east and west sides of Tiger Stadium were also sponsored and replaced after the 2013 season. The new windows restore the original look of the stadium on the outside and provide interior protection from the elements.

SOUTH END ZONE PROJECT

The south end zone expansion was completed before the 2014 season. The expansion included 66 suites, approximately 3,000 club seats and 1,400 general public seats above the current south end zone bowl. The addition also features two brand new HD corner scoreboards that are among the best in the SEC.

NEW LIGHTING

A new, state-of-the-art lighting system was installed prior to the 2012 season that turns the upper archways of the north end of the stadium purple and gold and lights the iconic "LSU" on the stadium's north scoreboard. The visually outstanding system perpetuates the legend of the stadium's night games. Following an LSU win, the north end of the stadium lights up in "victory gold."

TIGER STADIUM LOCKER ROOM

LSU's game day locker room in Tiger Stadium underwent a complete renovation prior to the 2014 season. The locker room was completely gutted with the renovation totaling over 8,000-square feet. The renovation included the moving of walls, the raising of the ceiling and a total transformation of an area that has been LSU's game day Tiger Stadium locker room for decades.

"This is a special place that has been home to many great LSU players and many great LSU teams. You are the first group that gets to represent our program in this locker room. There's a responsibility that goes with that. It requires great commitment, great effort and an understanding of what it means to wear the LSU uniform."

- LSU head coach Les Miles to the team after the renovated locker room was revealed

The facility, which also features updates to both the head coach and assistant coach dressing areas, consists of 126 lockers, an automated state-of-the-art sound system, along with numerous HD televisions, illustrative team graphics and a sophisticated lighting system. Some of the other highlights of the renovation include an area dedicated to LSU's first round NFL Draft picks, a wall listing every Tiger that has been active for an NFL game, plus a list of LSU's all-time list of graduates.

SATURDAY NIGHT

"It has turned the knees of All-Americans to goo. It has caused coaches to lose their coaching minds. Dark. That combined with Tiger Stadium on a Saturday night is something loud, strange and holy. There is noise in stadiums everywhere from Eugene to Tuscaloosa. Only in Baton Rouge is there a living, breathing being lurking in its grand, old stadium."

- Dennis Dodd, CBSSports.com

"Three hundred six balletic, beautiful strides to detonate a celebratory roar that sounded more like Baton Rouge on an autumn Saturday night than a racetrack."

- Pat Forde, Yahoo Sports on American Pharoah winning the horse racing Triple Crown on June 6, 2015

"Three SEC coaches I spoke with who have worked in other leagues say that Tiger Stadium is, by far, the loudest stadium in the country."

- Bruce Feldman, CBSSports.com

"Baton Rouge happens to be the worst place in the world for a visiting team. It's like being inside a drum."

- Paul "Bear" Bryant, Former Alabama Coach

"LSU students are the best. Part of being the best, is knowing when to be loud, when to be quiet and where to channel your energy. When they are on, they just wreck the other team."

- Glenn Dorsev. LSU All-American

"The toughest place to play in the SEC is LSU, Death Valley. The fans there are relentless. They don't stop at all. They keep going."

- Former Arkansas RB Darren McFadden

"I get asked about the best games I've called, and as far as college football goes, the Florida-LSU (2007) environment was as good as I've ever been around. I had always heard about night games at Tiger Stadium and had never gotten the chance to call one. It was really special to be a part of that."

- Verne Lundquist, CBS Sports

"Usually when the opposing team does well, the crowd quiets down. All I began to hear was a chant 'L-S-U, L-S-U.' It got louder and louder and louder. It was the loudest I've ever heard a stadium."

- Georgia Head Coach Mark Richt

"Best stadium - Tiger Stadium, LSU. The pre-game festivities. The deafening noise - there's no other place like it. ... it's the freakiest, funkiest, most frenetic place in all of college football."

- Matt Hayes, Sporting News

"I can tell you there is no finer stadium to play in. The traditions that they place in that stadium like when they announce that it's Saturday night in Death Valley, when that band plays, when that crowd stands and cheers for the Tigers, there is no place like it in America"

LSU head coach Les Miles

In the early 1990s, John Symank, LSU's director of athletic facilities at the time, approached Herb Vincent, then the LSU sports information director, with the idea of putting a sign on the front of the press box.

Vincent suggested "Welcome to Death Valley" because Tiger Stadium was nicknamed Death Valley but the stadium did not say that anywhere.

Symank said "Done" and the rest is history. The iconic "Welcome to Death Valley" signage hung on the press box until the press box was renovated in 2005. After that, the sign appeared on the front of the south end zone videoboard.

After the South end zone expansion was completed prior to the 2014 season, the "Welcome to Death Valley" sign is now prominently displayed on the new South end zone fascia. To each side of the sign sits the new Tiger head logo. During night games, the sign and logos light up, making sure everyone in attendance sees the iconic feature.

"I'm not sure what it was like to walk into the Coliseum, but I bet it was something like this. The best place in the world to watch a sporting event."

- Wright Thompson, ESPN.com

GAMEDAY IN TIGERTOWN

"I'd been warned prior to my first visit to Baton Rouge that the legendary Death Valley mystique was a myth. The assessment couldn't have been more wrong. Tiger Stadium was as loud as any I've heard during the dramatic fourth quarter of Saturday's Georgia game, the festivities surrounding it as advertised.

The streets were lined with purple and gold. Smoke emanated from the grills in the parking lot. Shouts of "Go Tigers" and "Tiger Bait" echoed from the stadium deep into the heart of the campus. And that was just Friday night."

- Stewart Mandel, SI.com

"We'll just begin here, knowing full well that any other campus can't possibly touch the magic of a night game in Death Valley. If tradition is tailgating, the LSU band and - if you're lucky - a Mike the Tiger sighting, then I'm all in."

- Matt Hayes, Sporting News

TAILGATING AT LSU A COLLEGE FOOTBALL EXPERIENCE LIKE NO OTHER

"Nothing like tailgating on the Bayou. LSU is my personal favorite. Maybe it's my penchant for the spicy stuff. But there's nothing like sampling a little gumbo, a little jambalaya and then diving face-first into a shrimp boil. The aroma just walking through the parking lot to Tiger Stadium stays with you the whole day, and the LSU fans get there early and stay late." - Chris Low. ESPN.com

"Walking among the tailgaters here is like strolling through one of Emeril Lagasse's restaurants. RW once joined a group serving jambalaya, duck and oyster gumbo, stuffed quail, deer sauce picante, wild duck, cochon de lait, Cajun sausage, crawfish etouffee, rabbit, alligator stew and marinated pork tenderloin. And that was for a non-conference game."

- Jim Caple, ESPN The Magazine

"As the hours roll by, the noise of LSU tailgating builds. I walk around a bunch of tailaates being introduced to all. In minutes I'm eating fried oysters, shrimp, alligator and crawfish. All of them are delectable. This has been one of the greatest experiences of my life, and any selfrespecting sports fan HAS to go to a game in Tiger Stadium."

- Alex Ferguson, Sky Sports UK

FOOTBALL OPERATIONS GENTER

The locker room of the Football Operations Center has 140 stations with lockable storage bins and a padded sitting area. The room also includes four LCD TVs and six 27-inch TVs.

CHARLES MCCLENDON PRACTICE FACILITY

The facility features four 100-yard football practice fields as well as an indoor practice facility. On Sept. 9, 2002, LSU formally named its football practice facility for Charles McClendon, the winningest football coach in school history. McClendon, a member of the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame, served as head coach at LSU for 18 seasons, a span that saw the Tigers play in 13 bowl games, compiling a 137-59-7 overall mark. He was named SEC Coach of the Year twice, in 1969 and 1970, and National Coach of the Year in 1970. In the spring of 2009, Momentum Field Turf by Sport Exe was installed on one of the four fields. The field, courtesy of the donation by Scott and Espe Moran, allows the Tigers to simulate outdoor conditions they will see in several stadiums across the country.

100-YARD INDOOR FOOTBALL FIELD

The Anderson-Feazel LSU Indoor Field is a 100-yard climate-controlled practice facility connected to the Operations Center. Built in 1991, the area is 8,250 square feet with Momentum Field Turf by SportExe similar to the Louisiana Superdome.

Every position has its own meeting room, complete with video equipment. The coaching staff also has multiple meeting rooms on the second floor of the facility adjacent to their offices.

Numerous displays honoring the past and present of LSU football are housed in the Operations Center. This one, outside the weight room, recognizes every first-team All-Southeastern Conference selection.

The Shirley and Bill Lawton Team Room includes 144 spacious theatre-style seats for team meetings and film sessions and state-of-the-art audio and visual components necessary for meetings, lectures and reviewing of game footage.

One of the most state-of-the-art video centers in the nation is housed in the Football Operations Center, complete with editing equipment to produce highlight videos and review game footage.

"The Fourth Quarter Program is designed to take our players to the next level. Our focus with the Fourth Quarter Program is in five areas - discipline, commitment, toughness, effort and pride. Our players have devoted themselves to these values and, as a result, they are having a great deal of success on the field, in particular the fourth quarter."

Tommy Moffitt LSU Strength & Conditioning Coordinator

In 2013, LSU pitched a second-half shutout against Texas A&M, the nation's fourth-ranked offense, and the Tigers out-muscled the Aggies for a 34-10 win.

LSU's record since 2000 when taking a lead into the fourth quarter.

Making a difference down the stretch in every college football game is important, and LSU continues to be one of the nation's best at making timely plays when it matters most — the fourth quarter. The Tigers follow one of the most strenuous off-season conditioning programs that prepares the team for what they need when the clock is winding down.

The Football Operations Center weight room boasts 12 dumbbell bench stations and features custom iron grip dumbbells and weights made by Body Masters and Eleiko. Adjacent to the weight room is the LSU Indoor Practice Facility where the Tigers conduct summer endurance training in preparation for the season.

Athletic

— TRAINING

LSU Athletic Training is equipped with the facilities and infrastructure to provide top medical care to student-athletes using both the Football Operations Center and the Broussard Center for Athletic Training in Tiger Stadium. Both are furnished with the latest in technology and equipment. The Operations Center athletic training room features a full view of the practice fields, two hot/cold jacuzzis and an underwater treadmill. The Broussard Center includes an onsite x-ray room, dental and vision clinics as well as a hydrotherapy center. It is also one of the few collegiate athletic training centers with a full-service pharmacy.

Gameday Wellness

The full-time at hetic training staff and graduate assistants prepare the players for gameday in the comfort of Tiger Stadium once they arrive after the walk down "Victory Hill."

Concussion Research

Over the last few seasons LSU Athletic Training has been heavily involved in the collection of data that has allowed the medical field to evolve with a thorough understanding of the concerns related to concussions. From helmet sensors and microchips implanted in mouth pieces, the LSU athletic training department continues to evaluate g-forces and acceleration rates within the skull itself during football practice and competition. In 2014, LSU Athletic Training partnered with the LSU Medical School in New Orleans for the exploration and identification of blood markers that would be present immediately after concussive events. This season brings about studies that involve virtual reality and balance control that may aid in the evaluation and recovery rates for head injuries.

Broussard Athletic TRAINING CENTER

The two story, 22,000 square foot facility contains 20 treatment tables, 14 taping stations and a 1,600 square foot rehabilitation area. In pursuit of the latest and most effective rehabilitation tools available, LSU Athletic Training added a number of therapeutic modalities to its collection, one of which is AlterG, an anti-gravity treadmill (right). LSU's multi-million dollar athletic training facility is named in honor of Dr. Martin J. Broussard (left), the legendary athletic trainer whose career spanned over 40 years at LSU.

Road To Recovery

LSU is one of the top schools in the nation to get its student-athletes back on the field in a timely manner following an injury. The athletic training staff takes a progressive approach to injury identification and thinks "outside of the box." LSU consults with allied health professionals and uses state-of-the-art surgical procedures that give an athlete a quicker recovery time while looking out for his or her future.

Dental Center

A fully functional dental center, staffed by Dr. Robin Levy and Dr. John Vance, is located inside the Broussard Center for Athletic Training.

Rehabilitation

LSU's Broussard Center for Athletic Training and the Operations Center boast some of the most technologically advanced equipment to aid the recuperation and rehabilitation of LSU's studentathletes.

Vision Center

Dr. Russell Saloom and Dr. Don Peavy conduct eye exams for LSU student-athletes in a convenient location in the Broussard Center for Athletic Training.

Nutrition First

LSU Athletic Training is a pioneer in the use of sound nutritional practices for student-athletes with the addition of two full-time registered dietitians in Lauren Reagan and Lauren Silvio and sports nutrition interns. Reagan provides an interactive and innovative approach to educating student-athletes on the importance of the timing, quality and quantity needed to sustain elite-level activity. With her prior experience in the NFL, Senior Associate Athletic Trainer Shelly Mullenix works collaboratively with Reagan to teach football players the nutritional knowledge needed to excel at the next level.

The latest emphasis in training and recovery focuses on the importance of nutrition. LSU has completed renovations on three new fueling stations (above), all in convenient locations for the student-athletes. The LSU EDGE is where our student-athletes can refuel, replenish and recover by the consumption of high-quality snacks and smoothies.

Real-Time X-Rays

The state-of-the-art fluoroscope provides LSU physicians and athletic trainers the opportunity to take instantaneous x-rays on site in the Operations Center. The machine can provide real-time images, both still and moving, of the internal structures of the student-athlete.

Pharmacy

The LSU Athletic Training facility maintains one of the few in-house, full service pharmacies of its kind in college athletics. Staffed by pharmacists Kevin Denoux and Caroline Lancon, the LSU Athletic Training Pharmacy offers the Tigers a first-class service in a convenient location. More than that, it provides the student-athletes with their prescription medications immediately after the athlete is seen by a physician.

Great — MOMENTS

Cannon's Halloween Run Tiger Stadium • Oct. 31, 1959

Billy Cannon's 89-yard punt return for a touchdown against third-ranked Ole Miss is not only one of the most memorable plays in LSU football history, but it also ranks among the most memorable in college football. Trailing 3-0 late in the game, Cannon, the 1959 Heisman Trophy winner, fielded the punt at the Tiger 11-yard line and began his run into immortality. He eluded seven would-be tacklers down the east sideline and crossed the goal line of Tiger Stadium for the only touchdown of the game, giving the top-ranked LSU Tigers the 7-3 victory.

1966 Cotton Bowl Cotton Bowl • Jan. 1, 1966

LSU entered the 1966 Cotton Bowl as a heavy underdog to the second-ranked Arkansas Razorbacks, but the Tigers knew they had nothing to lose and lot a of respect to gain. Arkansas, which entered the game riding a 22-game win streak and knew a victory over LSU meant a possible national title, struck first, but LSU's Joe Labruzzo reached the endzone twice in the second quarter to give the Tigers a 14-7 lead that would stand and foil the Razorbacks' hopes of a title.

Jones to Davis
Tiger Stadium • Nov. 4, 1972

In one of the most exciting endings to a game in LSU football history, QB Bert Jones connected with RB Brad Davis in the corner of the endzone as time expired and PK Rusty Jackson nailed the extra-point to give the Tigers a 17-16 victory over Ole Miss and keep an 11-game win streak alive.

The Earthquake Game Tiger Stadium • Oct. 8, 1988

QB Tommy Hodson connected with TB Eddie Fuller in the back of the endzone for the touchdown that vaulted LSU to a 7-6 victory over Auburn on Oct. 8, 1988, to help lead the LSU Tigers to their seventh SEC crown. The moment will forever be known as the "Night the Tigers Moved the Earth." The play caused such a thunderous explosion from the 79,341 fans in Tiger Stadium, the LSU Geology Department registered vibrations on a seismograph machine at the exact moment the touchdown was scored.

No. 1 Falls! Tiger Stadium • Oct. 11, 1997

Oct. 11, 1997, marked the first time LSU defeated the No. 1 ranked team in the nation when the Tigers upended top-ranked Florida, 28-21, in Tiger Stadium. LSU jumped out to an early lead, but the Gators would score a touchdown with 6:44 remaining in the fourth quarter to cut the lead to single digits. LSU's defense sealed the victory when Raion Hill intercepted a Florida pass with less than three minutes to play and the Tigers ran out the clock to set off one of the greatest celebrations in Tiger Stadium history.

SEC Champions! Georgia Dome • Dec. 8, 2001

LSU, playing in its first SEC Championship Game, shocked No. 2 Tennessee to win its first SEC title since 1986 by a score of 31-20. Tiger starting QB Rohan Davey went down to injury and was spelled by redshirt freshman Matt Mauck, who scored two rushing touchdowns to claim MVP honors. The game was dedicated to the memory of former coach Charles McClendon, who passed away a day earlier while the Tigers were en route to Atlanta. The win secured LSU's first Sugar Bowl appearance since 1987.

Bluegrass Miracle Commonwealth Stadium • Nov. 9, 2002

Trailing 30-27 to Kentucky with 11 seconds to play in the game, LSU mounted a two-play 87-yard drive that will forever be known as, "The Bluegrass Miracle." QB Marcus Randall connected with WR Devery Henderson on the game-winning 75-yard pass as time expired to give the Tigers a 33-30 victory.

Let the Valley Shake! Tiger Stadium • Sept. 20, 2003

Quarterback Matt Mauck rolled to his left, fired to the endzone and found wide receiver Skyler Green for an over-the-shoulder 34-yard touchdown with 3:03 remaining as No. 11 LSU outlasted No. 7 Georgia, 17-10, in an early SEC thriller at a raucous Tiger Stadium. All-American Corey Webster sealed the victory with an interception in the final minute. With ESPN College GameDay on hand for the first time since 1997, the win catapulted the Tigers onto the national scene where they would eventually go on to claim their first national title since 1958.

2003 National Champions Louisiana Superdome • Jan. 4, 2004

LSU, the No. 2 team in the Bowl Championship Series rankings, beat No. 1 BCS ranked Oklahoma in the Nokia Sugar Bowl to win the 2003 National Championship, the Tigers' first title since 1958. Freshman RB Justin Vincent, named the game's MVP after totaling 117 yards, scampered 64 yards on the first play of the game to set the tone as LSU never trailed, winning 21-14. The LSU defense, ranked No. 1 in the nation, stifled the Sooner's top-ranked offense, holding Oklahoma to 154 yards and sacking Heisman winning QB Jason White five times.

Primetime Drama Tiger Stadium • Oct. 6, 2007

In one of the most exciting games ever played in LSU's storied Tiger Stadium, No. 1-ranked LSU overcame a 10-point fourth-quarter deficit to beat defending national champion and ninth-ranked Florida, 28-24, in front of 92,910 emotionally spent fans. Tailback Jacob Hester plunged into the endzone from 1-yard out that gave LSU its first lead of the game and sent Tiger Stadium into pandemonium with 1:06 to go in the fourth quarter. It marked LSU's first national primetime game on CBS since 1981.

2007 National Champions Louisiana Superdome • Jan. 7, 2008

LSU became the first school in the nation to win multiple BCS national titles as the second-ranked Tigers downed top-ranked Ohio State, 38-24, in the 2008 BCS National Championship Game. LSU trailed 10-0 in the first quarter but rallied for 31 unanswered points on a school-record tying four TD passes from QB Matt Flynn to claim the third national title in program history. DT Ricky Jean-Francois garnered defensive Most Outstanding Player honors chiefly for blocking a second-quarter, 38-yard field goal attempt that kept the game tied at 10-10 and swung the momentum completely in LSU's favor the remainder of the game.

Game of the Century Bryant-Denny Stadium • Nov. 5, 2011

Billed as the "Game of the Century" after weeks of media hype, Drew Alleman's 25-yard field goal in overtime propelled No. 1 LSU past No. 2 Alabama, 9-6, in Bryant-Denny Stadium. With rosters featuring future NFL players, neither team was able to score a touchdown. With the Tide driving in the fourth quarter, safety Eric Reid made arguably the biggest play of the entire college football regular season, when he grabbed an acrobatic, diving interception at the 1-yard line that prevented an Alabama score.

LSU is a springboard to those players aspiring to play in the NFL when their college careers are complete. Under head coach Les Miles, the Tigers have produced 13 first round choices, which ranks third nationally. Odell Beckham Jr. (above) was the latest to be selected in the first round of the NFL Draft. Beckham Jr. was taken 12th overall by the New York Giants in the 2014 draft.

The Catch

On Nov. 23, 2014 in a hotly-contested game against the rival Dallas Cowboys, LSU alum and New York Giants rookie wide receiver Odell Beckham Jr. made "The Catch" - a one-handed grab with only three fingers while falling backward after being interfered with by cornerback Brandon Carr. Beckham Jr. secured the ball and landed in the endzone for a 43-yard touchdown reception while millions of people watching NBC's national broadcast on Sunday night took to Twitter to express their shock and amazement.

ODELL BECKHAM JR. went on to finish his rookie season with 91 catches for 1,305 yards and 12 touchdowns in only 12 games played, becoming the first wide receiver in NFL history to reach 1,000 receiving yards after missing the season's first three games. For those accomplishments and many more, Beckham Jr. was named the 2014 Associated Press NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year. He is the first LSU player to earn NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year honors, and the second LSU player to be named a Rookie of the Year. In 1977, LSU alum and defensive end A.J. Duhe was named the NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year.

NFL Record Setters

A pair of LSU running backs combined to set an NFL record in 2014. Alfred Blue (left) and Jeremy Hill (right) became the first rookies from the same college to rush for 150-plus yards on the same day in NFL history.

On Nov. 16, 2014, Blue rushed for 156 yards on 36 carries against Cleveland, and Hill ran for 152 yards on 27 rushes versus New Orleans.

Alfred Blue rushed for 528 yards and two TDs as a rookie for the Houston Texans.

Jeremy Hill ran for 1,124 yards and nine touchdowns as a rookie for the Cincinnati Bengals.

KYLE WILLIAMS

Former LSU defensive tackle Kyle Williams has excelled in his nine-year NFL career. Williams has been selected to four Pro Bowls (2010, 2012, 2013, 2014) and has twice been named to the NFL Network's Top 100 Players (2013, 2014).

PATRICK PETERSON

One of the NFL's most electric players, former LSU All-American Patrick Peterson has dazzled NFL fans in his first four seasons with the Arizona Cardinals. He is a four-time Pro Bowler and has been ranked in the NFL Network's Top 100 Players all four of his NFL seasons.

PERRY RILEY

LSU alum Perry Riley has been a four-year starting inside linebacker for the Washington Redskins. Riley finished third on the team in 2014 with 93 tackles. In his five-year career with Washington he has racked up 412 career tackles and 9.5 sacks.

JARVIS LANDRY

Former LSU wide receiver Jarvis Landry made an immediate impact in his rookie season with the Miami Dolphins in 2014. Landry caught 84 passes for 758 yards and five touchdowns on offense, and he finished the season with 1,158 return yards as the Dolphins' kickoff and punt returner.

ANDREW WHITWORTH

A nine-year NFL veteran, Andrew Whitworth is the starting left tackle for the Cincinnati Bengals. Whitworth was a Pro Bowl selection in 2012. His performance in the 2014 season was one of the finest of his career as he ended the season with zero sacks allowed.

ERIC REID

LSU All-American safety Eric Reid has started both seasons in the NFL with the San Francisco 49ers. Reid was elected to the Pro Bowl after his rookie season in 2013, and he followed it up with another solid season in 2014. In two seasons, Reid has accumulated 118 tackles, seven interceptions and 18 passes defended

 $\ensuremath{\mathsf{RS}}$ - denotes "Redshirt Draft" by the AFL in 1965 and 1966 SUPP - denotes supplemental pick

LSU has been the home of some of college football's greatest players. A total of 66 LSU players have earned the distinction of first-team All-America in the 121-year history of the program. Gaynell Tinsley was the first All-American in school history after earning the recognition as an end in 1935. Tommy Casanova, arguably the most versatile player in school history, is LSU's only three-time first-team All-American.

Gaynell Tinsley

Billy Cannon 1958. 1959

Jimmy Taylor and Billy Cannon were the faces of LSU's successful teams of the 1950s. Taylor, who went on to a legendary pro career with the Green Bay Packers, was the first fullback in LSU history to earn All-America honors. Cannon, now a member of the National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame, was the national player of the year in 1958 and 1959.

Gavnell (Gus) Tinslev

The Tigers' first consensus All-American, Gaynell (Gus) Tinsley was a unanimous selection in both 1935 and 1936. He played both ways as an end and led LSU to two SEC titles and three Sugar Bowl appearances. After earning three letters with the Tigers from 1934-36, he went on to a successful NFL career where he was twice named an All-Pro selection while playing for the Chicago Cardinals. Tinsley later returned to LSU where he served as the Tigers' head coach from 1948-54. During the 1949 season he led LSU to an 8-2-0 season that included wins over the Southern, Southeastern and Southwest Conference champions and a Sugar Bowl tilt versus Oklahoma. He was a charter member of the LSU Athletics Hall of Fame.

Marvin (Moose) Stewart

Center - 1935, 1936

A three-year letterwinner for the Tigers (1934-36), Marvin (Moose) Stewart was selected to the Helms Foundation All-American team in 1935. Later named an All-SEC selection by the Associated Press in 1936, he helped the Tigers to back-to-back SEC titles in 1935 and 1936. Stewart was a charter member of the LSU Athletics Hall of Fame.

Ken Kavanaugh, Sr.

End - 1939 Associated Press

A standout receiver for the Tigers from 1937-39, Ken Kavanaugh, Sr., was selected as an All-American by the Associated Press and finished seventh in the Heisman balloting during his senior season. A two-time AP first-team All-SEC selection (1938-39), Kavanaugh was known for scoring all four touchdowns in the Tigers' 28-7 victory over Holy Cross in 1939. He went on to an outstanding professional career with the New York Giants, where he continued with the organization as a scout after his playing career. A superb athlete, Kavanaugh also enjoyed a brief stint in baseball's professional ranks after lettering on the diamond at LSU. His son, Ken. Jr., lettered at LSU from 1969-71 as a receiver on the football team.

George Tarasovic

National Editorial Alliance

George Tarasovic was a junior college transfer who, although playing and lettering only one year at LSU, was named both an All-America and All-SEC selection that season. An all-around athlete in high school, Tarasovic's college career was abbreviated because of military service during the Korean War. However, after returning from the service Tarasovic resumed his playing career at the professional level where he saw over a dozen years of action in NFL and AFL.

Sid Fournet

Tackle - 1954

Associated Press, UPI, Look, Football Writers Association of America, National Editorial Alliance, Williamson, INS

An extremely durable performer, Sid Fournet played guard and tackle on both sides of the ball. Earning All-America distinction in 1954, Fournet was credited with seeing action in 83 percent of the Tigers' total plays that season. Also a two-time firstteam All-SEC selection, he was honored by both AP and UPI in 1953 and 1954.

Jimmy Taylor

Fullback - 1957

Football Writers Association of America-Look

Viewed as one of the most complete football players to have ever played the game, Jimmy Taylor was named a All-American by the Football Writers Association of America-Look in 1957. Voted the MVP of the 1958 Senior Bowl, he went on to a legendary pro career with the Green Bay Packers (1958-66) and New Orleans Saints (1967) and was later inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1976. Taylor is also a member of the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame and the LSU Athletics Hall of

Halfback - 1958, 1959

1959 Heisman Trophy

Associated Press (1958-59), UPI (1958-59), National Editorial Alliance (1958-59), Central Press (1958-59), American Football Coaches Association (1958-59), The Sporting News (1958-59), Football Writers Association of America-Look (1958-59), New York Daily News (1958-59), NBC (1958-59), Time (1958), Leahy (1958), Hearst (1959),

The greatest football player ever to don the Purple and Gold, Billy Cannon was awarded the Heisman Trophy in 1959. He was given virtually every honor that could be bestowed on an individual, including All-America accolades in 1958 and 1959.

Cannon was considered almost as valuable on defense as he was on offense. His 89-vard punt return in 1959 against Ole Miss has become a gridiron legend, but few remember that he and Warren Rabb stuffed Ole Miss at the goal line of a fourth and inches to preserve the dramatic 7-3 victory. A three-year letterwinner for the Tigers (1957-59), he was also a two-time first-team All-SEC selection (1958-59).

Max Fugler

Center - 1958

Football Writers Association of America-Look, NBC

A bulwark for the White Team, Max Fugler was instrumental in the Tigers' 1958 national championship run. Named an All-American by the Football Writers Association of America-Look and NBC that same year, he was heralded as an outstanding blocker on offense and incomparable down lineman on defense. His defensive work was exemplified by the number of goal line and fourth down stands the Tigers had during the glory years of 1958 and 1959. He was also named a firstteam All-SEC selection by UPI in 1958.

ALL-AMERICANS HIGHORY

Roy (Moonie) Winston

Guard - 1961

Associated Press, UPI, National Editorial Alliance, Central Press, Football Writers Association of America Look, Kodak/American Football Coaches Association, New York Daily News, The Sporting News, Time

A 1961 All-America selection at guard, Roy (Moonie) Winston excelled on defense with a strong initial charge, plus speed and agility. Soft-spoken, Winston was a born leader that was elected by his teammates as the Tigers' team captain in 1961. Winston also earned first-team All-SEC honors from the AP and UPI that same year. In addition, he played on LSU's SEC champion baseball team in the early 1960's before enjoying a brilliant NFL career in Minnesota.

Fred Miller

Tackle - 1962 All America Organization

A stellar lineman for the great LSU teams of the early 1960s, Fred Miller originally signed with Tulane after finishing at Homer High School, but he found out he was one English credit short, so he was bound for Texas A&M until Paul Dietzel sold his family on LSU. He played alongside Moonie Winston in 1961 and was a blocker for Heisman runner-up Jerry Stovall in 1962. In his three seasons, LSU played in two bowls, the Orange (25-7 over Colorado) and Cotton (13-0 over Texas). He was drafted by the Colts and later earned All-Pro honors. He is a member of LSU's Modern Day Team of the Century

Jerry Stovall

Halfback - 1962

Associated Press, UPI, National Editorial Alliance, Central Press, Football Writers Association of America Look, Kodak/American Football Coaches Association, New York Daily News, The Sporting News, Time, CBS

Ironically, Jerry Stovall was the last recruit signed by LSU after he graduated from high school. Once with the Tigers he earned All-America accolades and finished second in the 1962 Heisman Trophy balloting. Also a two-time All-SEC selection, Stovall went on to play nine seasons with the St. Louis Cardinals before becoming an assistant coach at South Carolina. He later returned to LSU as assistant coach and was named head coach after tragic death of Bo Rein in 1980. He took LSU to 1983 Orange Bowl and was named National Coach of the Year by the Walter Camp Football Foundation after the 1982 season

Billy Truax End - 1963

Football News

Billy Truax was an excellent blocker, but ISU's offense in that era was geared towards the run and, consequently, his talents as a pass receiver were never exploited. Football News honored him as an All-American in 1963, the same year the UPI recognized him as a first-team all-conference honoree. Truax's son, Chris, was an offensive lineman at LSU from 1988-91

Remi Prudhomme

Tackle - 1964

National Editorial Alliance, New York Daily News, Football News

A stalwart of the Chinese Bandits, Remi Prudhomme was an unusually strong player. His size and weight made him unique and his aggressive temperament was ideal for the role in which he was cast. Named a 1964 All-American by the National Editorial Alliance, the New York Daily News and the Football News, he also garnered all-conference honors from the UPT. Prudhomme went on to a brilliant pro career with the Buffalo Bills, Kansas City Chiefs and New Orleans Saints.

Doug Moreau

Split End - 1965 Football News

Doug Moreau's pass-catching ability was heralded, but his place kicking had to be recognized. In his junior season, his talented toe was responsible for the first two victories of the year, a 9-6 win over the Texas Aggies and 3-0 victory against Rice. The AP named him a first-team All-SEC pick in 1964 before he earned All-America honors from the Football News in 1965. Moreau went on to play professional ball with the Miami Dolphins, earned a law degree and served as a district judge in Baton Rouge. He currently serves as the color analyst for the LSU Sports Radio

George Rice

Tackle - 1965 Time, The Sporting News

A local lad, George Rice's prowess in high school overlapped three sports: football, basketball and track. Extremely powerful, his specialty in track was the shot put. On the gridiron he was a devastating blocker and tackler who played in three bowl games during his career. Rice was named a first-team All-SEC selection by UPI in 1964 and an All-American by Time and The Sporting News a year later. He participated in the Hula Bowl and went on to a long, successful career in the NFL before returning to LSU as a graduate assistant.

John Garlington

End - 1967

Kodak/American Football Coaches Association

An incredible athlete whose talents typified his play and teamwork, John Garlington had excellent speed and lateral pursuit. Opponents were timid when it came to attacking his side of the defensive line. Even with his size, he was a speed merchant. In the 1966 Rice encounter, Garlington picked off an errant pass and returned it 42 yards for a touchdown. A 1967 Kodak/AFCA All-American, he was also a two-time first-team All-SEC selection (1966 and 1967).

George Bevan

Football Writers Association of America-Look, Kodak/American Football Coaches Association

Possibly the finest all-around linebacker ever to play at LSU, George Bevan's size had absolutely nothing to do with his desire, competitiveness, leadership and commitment. In the first game of his junior year, he injured his Achilles tendon to such an extent that he underwent several surgeries and spent 32 months on crutches. There was little hope he would ever play football again, but by the summer of 1969, his determination had earned him a starting role, Although Bevan had many notable moments, his blocked extra point against Auburn in the classic 21-20 victory by LSU had to be his crowning achievement. He was named both an All-America and All-SEC (AP and UPI) selection in 1969. Bevan earned his law degree and works as an attorney in Baton Rouge.

Tommy Casanova

Cornerback - 1969, 1970, 1971

Associated Press (1969-70), Kodak/American Football Coaches Association (1969-70), UPI (1971), Central Press (1971), Football Writers Association of America (1971), Walter Camp (1971), Football News (1971), Time (1971)

Versatility personified might be the best description of the myriad talents of Tommy Casanova. During his three-year LSU career, he played offense and defense, returned punts and kickoffs, and did everything except handle the water cart. A fearless competitor, he led the team by example through three brilliant seasons and entered immortality as a result of his actions, both on and off the field. A three-time All-American. Casanova is one of just six three-time All-SEC performers in LSU history (1969-70-71). Following his collegiate career. Casanova played several seasons with the Cincinnati Bengals while pursuing his medical degree. He is now is an ophthalmologist in his hometown of Crowley, La.

Mike Anderson

Linebacker - 1970

Associated Press, UPI, Central Press, Football Writers Association of America-Look, Kodak/American Football Coaches Association, Football News, Time

Mike Anderson started every game during his three years as a linebacker at LSU. In fact, he was the second of three straight All-America linebackers produced by the Tigers: George Bevan in 1969; Anderson in 1970; and Warren Capone in 1973. Anderson was noted for one great play – at Auburn in 1970, LSU was leading 17-9. the Plainsmen had the ball, fourth and one inch and 6-2, 225-pound fullback Wallace Clark drove for the TD. Anderson met him head-on short of pay dirt and his feat became that of which legends are made. Named an All-American in 1970, he was also recognized as a first-team All-SEC pick by the AP and UPI that same year.

Ronnie Estay

Kodak/American Football Coaches Association

One of the quickest defensive linemen ever to play at LSU, Ronnie Estay, a true Cajun, anchored a defense that allowed fewest yards in the nation. During his junior year, he tackled both quarterbacks Pat Sullivan of Auburn and Archie Manning of Ole Miss for safeties. In 1971, he was recognized as a Kodak/AFCA All-American as well as a first-team All-SEC selection by the AP and UPI.

HISTORY ALL-AMERICANS

Bert Jones

Nuarterhack - 1972 UPI, National Editorial Alliance, Kodak/American Football Coaches Association, Time, The Sporting News

Bert Jones possessed as strong an arm as any quarterback in college history. He finished fourth in the balloting for the 1972 Heisman Trophy, won an SEC title as a sophomore and played in three bowl games while compiling a 26-6-1 career mark. He started only two games prior to the next-to-last game of his junior season, but started every one after that. Jones' most notable feats came against Notre Dame in 1971 (28-8), and Ole Miss in 1972 when, with time expired, he threw a touchdown pass to Brad Davis for the 17-16 LSU victory. A 1972 All-American and first-team All-SEC selection, he was the first pick in . 1973 NFL draft by Baltimore Colts.

Warren Capone

Linehacker - 1972, 1973 Football Writers Association of America (1972-73), Kodak/American Football Coaches Association (1973)

Warren Capone was another in the long line of Baton Rouge natives who starred at LSU. He played in the Sun, Bluebonnet and Orange Bowls during his years as a starting linebacker. For his efforts, he was named an All-American in 1972 and 1973 as well as first-team All-SEC by the AP in 1972 and both the AP and UPI in 1973. Capone played for Birmingham in the World Football League and the Dallas Cowboys in the Super Bowl. He is the past president of the National "L" Club.

Tyler LaFauci

Associated Press, National Editorial Alliance, Walter Camp

During Tyler LaFauci's three-year career, LSU compiled a 27-8-1 mark and participated in three bowl games: Sun, Bluebonnet and Orange. His lack of height didn't inhibit his determination and competitiveness as he excelled both as a pass blocker and a pulling blocker. A 1973 All-American, he was also a first-team All-SEC pick as voted on by the AP and UPI that year. Also a brilliant student, LaFauci went on to postgraduate work and earned a physical therapist degree, a profession he practices in Baton Rouge.

Mike Williams

Cornerhack - 1974

Kodak/American Football Coaches Association, The Sporting News, Time

Feisty, aggressive, determined and unvielding; those were the adjectives that best described the play of Mike Williams, Named Sports Illustrated's Back-of-the-Week for his play against Kentucky in 1973, he was also named an All-American by Kodak/ AFCA, The Sporting News and Time during the 1974 season.

Charles Alexander

Tailback - 1977, 1978

UPI (1977), Kodak/American Football Coaches Association (1977-78), Football Writers Association of America (1977-78), Walter Camp (1977-78), The Sporting News (1978), National Editorial Alliance (1978)

At the end of a stellar career that included a pair of All-America and All-SEC (AP and UPI) honors, Charles Alexander's name sat atop nine SEC categories, tied for another conference mark and topped 27 LSU records. In two bowl games, he was responsible for 330 yards. Alexander still holds the school records for most rushes in a game (43), most yards in a season (1686) and most yards gained per game in a season (153.3). He was drafted in the first round by Cincinnati and played in the Super Bowl. Alexander was selected to the College Football Hall of Fame in 2012.

Robert Dugas Offensive Tackle - 1978

Football News

Suffice it to say, Robert Dugas' academic prowess surpassed his athletic ability, which was considerable. He was a member of the self-named "Root Hogs" which cleared the way for many of Charles Alexander's record setting performances. Dugas was named to the Football News' All-America team in 1978, the CoSTDA Academic All-America Team in 1977 and to All-SEC teams both in 1977 and 1978.

James Britt

Cornerhack - 1982

After three seasons, James Britt appeared ready to blossom, But in the second game of the 1981 season against Notre Dame, he intercepted a pass to set up a field goal, and a few minutes later, a broken arm ended his year. He went on to have an outstanding senior season in 1982 that was capped with All-America honors from the National Editorial Alliance. Britt was a second-round pick by the Atlanta Falcons and played there several years before entering a successful business career in the Georgia capital. Named an Academic All-American by CoSIDA in 1982, he was also a first-team All-SEC pick by the AP in 1982.

Albert Richardson

Linebacker - 1982

Albert Richardson still holds the LSU records for most tackles in a game (2) vs. South Carolina, 1982) and a career (952) and for 21 years, he also held LSU's singleseason record for tackles (150, 1981). Named an All-American by the Football News in 1982, Richardson was also selected as a first-team All-SEC performer by the AP and UPI that same year. His genes fitted him for a role in football as his father, Albert, Sr., was a Baton Rouge High School assistant coach.

Eric Martin

Split End - 1983 The Sporting News

A converted running back, Eric Martin compiled a brilliant record during his four years in varsity competition. At one time he was the school record holder in season (52) and career (105) receptions, yards in a single game (209) and most yards in a season (1,064). As a freshman, he was second in the nation in kickoff returns, a total that included a 100-yarder for a touchdown against Kentucky. A 1983 Sporting News All-American, he was also a two-time first-team All-SEC selection. He was inducted into the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame in 2006.

Lance Smith

Offensive Tackle - 1984

UPI, Kodak/American Football Coaches Association, Football News

Lance Smith's size and quickness ideally suited him as he was named to the SEC All-Freshman team. Smith matured both physically and emotionally during his first two years in Tigertown and was strong as a bull by the time his junior season came around. He earned All-America honors from UPI, Kodak/AFCA and Football News in 1984, in addition to first-team All-SEC honors from the AP and UPI. Later, a third round choice by Phoenix, Smith quickly earned a starting role with the Cardinals.

Michael Brooks

Linebacker - 1985

Associated Press, Scripps-Howard News Service

Michael Brooks stepped in from the very first game and showed his potential. His impressive play on the field earned him All-America honors as a junior and it was thought he would be a cinch to become one of the few two-time All-Americans in LSU history. But a knee injury in the Florida game sidelined Brooks for the remainder of the season. He was named first-team All-SEC in 1985 by the AP, UPI and SEC Coaches. The Denver Broncos drafted him in the third round.

Wendell Davis

Split End - 1986, 1987

Football Writers Association of America (1986-87). The Sporting News (1986-87), Washington Post (1986), College and Pro Football Newsweekly (1986), UPI (1987), Kodak/American Football Coaches Association (1987), Football News (1987), Scripps-Howard News Service (1987)

One of the most prolific receivers in LSU history, two-time All-American Wendall Davis had 100 or more receiving yards in 12 games during his career. He finished his career with a then SEC record 2,708 yards receiving, a mark that still ranks second in LSU history and ninth in SEC history. Davis also still ranks among the top 10 in the SEC in single season receiving yards (1,244), single season receptions (80) and career receptions (183). He was also named a first-team All-SEC pick by the AP, UPI and SEC Coaches in 1987 and 1988 and was later drafted by the Chicago Bears.

ALL-AMERICANS HISTORY

Nacho Albergamo

Associated Press, UPI, Walter Camp, Kodak/American Football Coaches Association, Football Writers Association of America, The Sporting News, Football News, Scripps-Howard News Service

Nacho Albergamo was LSU's most decorated player in 1987. Along with guard Eric Andolsek, they comprised LSU's "A" team which anchored the fearsome Tiger offensive line that helped pave the way to a school record 4,843 offensive yards. Also a quality student, Albergamo was named the 1987 Toyota Leader of the Year and was one of 11 recipients of the 1987 National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame Schola-Athlete awards. He was twice named an Academic All-American by CoSIDA (1986 and 1987). Also a member of Omicron Delta Kappa leadership fraternity, he maintained a near 3.5 GPA in pre-med/zoology and attended LSU Medical School. Albergamo was also named a first-team All-SEC selection by the AP, UPI and SEC Coaches in 1987. He is currently a doctor of internal medicine in Baton Rouge.

Greg Jackson

Safety - 1988 Gannett News Service

Greg Jackson led the nation in interception return yardage in 1988 after tying the NCAA record with a 100-yard return versus Mississippi State and later adding a 71-yard return for a TD against Tulane. Jackson's 219 interception return yards for the season have only ever been exceeded once in SEC history, by Mississippi's Joe Brodsky's 244 yards in 1956. He also returned punts for LSU, taking back 11 for 99 yards in 1988. Named first-team All-SEC by the AP and SEC Coaches, he was later drafted by the New York Giants.

Kevin Faulk

Accoriated Prece

LSU's all-time leading rusher and a three-time All-SEC choice, Kevin Faulk led the SEC in all-purpose yards and ranked No. 2 in the league in rushing as a sophomore. Named an AP All-American as an all-purpose player that year, his 246 yards in the season opener against Houston set an LSU single-game record. Faulk was a consensus All-SEC choice in 1996, 1997 and 1998, and the SEC Freshman Offensive Player of the Year in 1995. He led the SEC in rushing during both his junior and senior seasons and also topped the league in scoring as a senior. He was selected by the New England Patriots in the 1999 NFL draft and was a member of their 2002, 2004 and 2005 Super Bowl Champion teams.

David LaFleur

Walter Camp

An imposing figure who was both a punishing blocker and a fine pass catcher, David LaFleur helped lead a resurgence of LSU football in the 1990s. The Tigers' receptions leader as a senior in 1996, he earned All-America honors from the Walter Camp Foundation that same year and was named All-SEC during both his sophomore and senior seasons. He finished his career with 71 catches for 881 yards and five touchdowns, but he was also instrumental in LSU's place as the top rushing team in the SEC in 1996 because of his blocking abilities. Following his graduation from LSU,

LSU FOOTBALL

The rich history of LSU football is impossible to portray in only a few pages. However, below are tidbits from the Tiger Football annals that have contributed to the story that is LSU Football. These items are presented as background material with the hope that they will encourage a better understanding of the many traditions that are associated with Tiger football and LSU Athletics.

Alma Mater

In 2005, head coach Les Miles established a new tradition at LSU as the Tigers began singing the school's alma mater on the field following a victory. Miles and his team first sang the school song following LSU's dramatic 35-31 win at Arizona State in the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina on Sept. 10, 2005. For games involving an LSU victory, Miles and the team gather in front of the student section and join the student body in a rendition of the alma mater that has grown into quite a spectacle.

Where stately oaks and broad magnolias shade inspiring halls, There stands our dear Old Alma Mater who to us recalls Fond memories that waken in our hearts a tender alow. And make us happy for the love that we have learned to know. All hail to thee our Alma Mater, molder of mankind May greater glory, love unending be forever thine. Our worth in life will be thy worth we pray to keep it true, And may thy spirit live in us. forever L-S-U.

Billy Cannon, No. 20

The great Billy Cannon, two-time All-American and Heisman Trophy winner, played at LSU from 1957-59. He led the Tigers to the 1958 national championship and is best known for his 89-yard punt return to beat Ole Miss in 1959. In his career, Cannon rushed for 1,867 yards on 359 carries, an average of 5.2 yards per carry and scored 19 rushing touchdowns. He also scored two touchdowns by receiving and one each by punt return, kickoff return and interception return. LSU went 24-7 during Cannon's stay on the Baton Rouge campus, including 19 straight victories from the end of the $1957\ \text{season}$ to the eighth game of the $1959\ \text{campaign}.$ Following that $1959\ \text{season},$ Cannon's jersey was retired into the LSU Athletics Hall of Fame. A sign honoring Cannon was unveiled in the southeast corner of Tiger Stadium during LSU's game against Ole Miss on Nov. 22, 2008. Cannon was enshrined into the College Football Hall of Fame in the summer of 2009.

Cheerleaders

Cheerleaders have long been a part of college football tradition, and the LSU Varsity Cheerleaders are no exception in their role in Tiger gridiron lore. Pregame ceremonies feature the LSU cheerleaders atop Mike the Tiger's mobile unit as it circles the field.

The 1962 LSU cheerleaders

The cheerleaders also traditionally lead the Tigers onto the field before and after halftime of every game. The 1989 Tiger cheerleaders captured the National Championship in the annual Universal Cheerleading Association competition. LSU has finished in the top 10 of that competition in each of the past 12 years.

Chinese Bandits

The nickname of one of the three units utilized in Paul Dietzel's threeplatoon system that vaulted the Tigers to the 1958 national championship. That year, the first team was named the White Team, an offensive unit was named the Go Team and a defensive unit was tabbed the Chinese Bandits. The White Team, naturally, wore white jerseys and was so named. The Go Team wore gold jerseys as the word "gold" was eventually shortened to "go." The name "Chinese Bandits" actually originated when Dietzel recalled a line from the old "Terry and The Pirates" comic strip that referred to Chinese Bandits as the "most vicious people in the world." In their heyday, the Chinese Bandits were featured in Chinese masks in Life magazine. In 1980, the LSU band revived the "Bandit" tune played when the LSU defense stalls any opponent's drive.

Cotton Bowl (1966)

One of the most notable games in LSU football history was the 1966 Cotton Bowl against powerful Arkansas. The Razorbacks went into the New Year's Day tilt ranked No. 2 in the country and riding a 22-game winning streak. LSU owned a meager 7-3 mark compared to the Hogs' perfect 10-0 record, but little Joe Labruzzo silenced many a disbeliever to spark the Bayou Bengals to their greatest bowl win. The Tigers left Dallas with a 14-7 win over the Southwest Conference host Razorbacks. The Tigers have appeared in four other Cotton Bowls, tying Arkansas 0-0 (1947), beating Texas 13-0 (1963), losing to Texas 35-20 (2003) and topping Texas A&M, 41-24 (2011).

Special thanks to Peter Finney of the New Orleans Times-Picayune who has documented the history of LSU football in his book "Fighting Tigers", Marty Mule' of the New Orleans Times-Picayune who penned "Eye of the Tiger" in celebration of LSU's football centennial in 1993, and to the late historian H. Warren Taylor whose relentless pursuit of accurate information and record-keeping in the early years of LSU athletics has kept alive the accomplishments of Tiger athletes in football, basketball, track and boxing dating back to the late 1800s.

On Dec. 25, 1907, LSU was the first college team to play on foreign soil in Havana, Cuba.

Cuba: Tigers on Foreign Soil

LSU was the first college team to play on foreign soil when, in 1907, coach Edgar R. Wingard took his Tigers to Havana for an international gridiron bout. The University of Havana team had dominated every American service team it had played, but had never encountered football collegiate style. The finesse of the Tigers took the big Cuban team by surprise on Christmas Day at Almendares Park and LSU walked away with a convincing 56-0 victory before 10,000 fans.

Dormitories

Tiger Stadium once housed some 1,500 dorm rooms, home to many LSU students over the years. The concept was introduced in 1928 by T.P. "Skipper" Heard, who learned that LSU president James Smith proposed to use $250,000 to build new dormitories on the LSU campus. Heard sold Smith on the idea of raising the stands on both the East and West sides of the stadium and extending them to the end zones, then constructing the dorms inside the stadium. Thus the University got its dorms and Tiger Stadium's capacity increased by 10,000 seats in 1931. Today, the dorms are used for storage.

Earthquake Game (1988)

QB Tommy Hodson connected with WR Eddie Fuller in the back of the endzone for the touchdown that vaulted LSU to a 7-6 victory over Auburn on Oct. 8, 1988, to help lead the LSU Tigers to their seventh SEC crown. The moment will forever be known as the "Night the Tigers Moved the Earth," as the play caused such a thunderous explosion from the 79,341 fans in Tiger Stadium, the LSU Department of Geology registered vibrations on a seismograph machine at the exact moment the touchdown was scored.

The Golden Boot

The Golden Boot is a trophy awarded each year to the winner of the Battle for the Golden Boot football matchup between LSU and SEC rival Arkansas. The trophy was introduced to the series prior to the 1996 season. Molded from 24-karat gold in the shape of the states of Arkansas and Louisiana. the trophy stands four feet in height, weighs nearly 200 pounds and is valued at $10,000. It is believed to be the heaviest trophy awarded in a college football rivalry. After a win in the series, the victorious team keeps the trophy until the following year's matchup.

The Golden Girls

Taking the field with the Tiger Band at LSU for the first time in 1959, the prestigious LSU Golden Girls represent the oldest and most established danceline on the LSU campus. The line consists of a very talented group of young ladies who are chosen each spring by a special audition. The Golden Girls are one of the feature units with the LSU Tiger Band and perform for all home LSU football games and selected campus events, as well as, away games with the full Tiger Band. The 2009 season represented the 50th anniversary of the group's foundation.

Fighting Tigers

In the fall of 1896, coach A.W. Jeardeau's LSU football team posted a perfect 6-0-0 record, and it was in that pigskin campaign that LSU first adopted its nickname, Tigers. "Tigers" seemed a logical choice since most collegiate teams in that year bore the names of ferocious animals, but the underlying reason why LSU chose "Tigers" dates back to the Civil War. During the "War Between the States," a battalion of Confederate soldiers comprised of New Orleans Zouaves and Donaldsonville Cannoneers distinguished themselves at the Battle of Shenandoah. These Louisiana rebels had been known by their contemporaries as the fighting band of Louisiana Tigers. Thus, when LSU football teams entered the gridiron battlefields in their fourth year of intercollegiate competition, they tagged themselves as the "Tigers." The 1955 LSU "fourthquarter ball club" helped the moniker "Tigers" grow into the nickname, "Fighting Tigers."

The Golden Band from Tigerland

The grandest band in all the land, the Golden Band from Tigerland, is as much a part of Saturday nights in Tiger Stadium as the team itself. Among the many favorites of LSU fans is the band's traditional pregame march down North Stadium Drive from the Band Hall to the tune of "Hold That Tiger." That tradition is a carry-over from the old pregame parades through downtown Baton Rouge. Castro Carazo was the man handpicked by Louisiana Governor Huey Long in 1935 to revamp the Tiger band. Carazo and Long together wrote fan favorite "Touchdown for LSU," and two years later, Carazo also penned the official LSU fight song, "Fight For LSU." The tradition of the LSU Tiger Marching Band continues today. The LSU Tiger Marching Band is made up of some 325 musicians, Golden Girls and Colorguard members. In 1997, the band was selected as the top band in the Southeastern Conference by SEC band directors. In December 2001, the band was awarded the Sudler Trophy, the highest honor a collegiate marching band can receive. The award has been called "the Heisman Trophy of marching bands," according to Frank Wickes, former director of LSU bands. A new, state-ofthe-art, 17,640 square foot band hall opened its doors on April 26, 2012.

Three former LSU players have earned the highest honor of being inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio, Steve Van Buren was the first in 1965, V.A. Tittle. who went on to become one of the greatest quarterbacks in history, was inducted in 1971 after a storied career with the Baltimore Colts, San Francisco 49ers and New York Giants. Four-time NFL championship winner and 1962 NFL MVP Jimmy Taylor was enshrined in 1976. Thirty LSU football players are also members of the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame with Kevin Faulk as the most recent inductee in the summer of 2015.

LSU FOOTBALL TRADITIONS ATOZ

H-Style Crossbar

Unknown to many Tiger fans, the LSU football team still runs onto the field under the same crossbar that stood as part of the north end zone goalpost in Tiger Stadium as early as 1955. It had long been a tradition that the LSU football team enters the field by running under the goalpost when the new "T-style" goalposts came into vogue. By virtue of tradition, the old "H-style" posts stood on the field of Death Valley until they were finally removed in 1984. Part of the crossbar, however, was kept and mounted above the door of the Tiger Den through which the Tigers run onto the field each game. In 1993, in celebration of the centennial of LSU football, the "H-style" goalposts were returned to the end zones of Tiger Stadium. Today, Tiger Stadium is one of only three college stadiums in the nation who still use the "H-style" crossbar. Doak Campbell Stadium at Florida State and Martin Stadium at Washington State are

Halloween Night

Drama on Halloween is as traditional as pumpkins and goblins for LSU and Ole Miss. These schools have met seven times on Oct. 31 with the series tied at 3-3-1. The most notable game on All Hallow's Eve was the 1959 thriller that saw Billy Cannon return a punt 89 yards to spur a 7-3 Tiger victory. The Tigers and Rebels next met on Halloween in 1964. Ole Miss led 10-3 late in the fourth quarter in Death Valley when LSU scored a touchdown to make it 10-9. Quarterback Billy Ezell then threw to Doug Moreau in the front corner of the endzone on the two-point conversion, at nearly the exact point where Cannon had crossed the goal line five years earlier for an 11-10 win. There was a 17-year drought before the teams played on Oct. 31 again, this time at Jackson in 1981. A seesaw battle ended with a 46-yard field goal off the foot of LSU's David Johnston as time expired for a 27-27 tie. In the most recent meeting, the teams engaged in the first overtime game in LSU history at Oxford in 1998, but Ole Miss emerged with a 37-31 win. LSU is 8-6-1 all-time on Halloween night, including a 42-0 shutout of Tulane in Tiger Stadium in 2009.

Halloween Run

There have been longer scoring plays in LSU football history, but Billy Cannon's 89-yard punt return against Ole Miss in 1959 is simply, and undeniably, the most famous play in Tiger gridiron records. In fact, some consider it one of the most memorable in college football history. It was an eerie, misty and humid Halloween night, and the Rebels of Mississippi took a 3-0 lead into the final quarter, threatening to end an 18-game LSU win streak. On third and 17 from the Ole Miss 42, the Rebels' Jake Gibbs punted 47 yards to the Tiger 11 where Cannon hauled it in on the bounce. Cannon careened off seven tacklers down the east sideline and darted 89 yards to immortality. Some say it may have been that run that assured Cannon of the Heisman Trophy he received at season's end. LSU celebrated the 50-year anniversary of the legendary play in 2009 as Cannon was recognized on the field during the Tigers' game with Tulane on Halloween night.

Helmets

LSU's helmet is a striking tradition that has seen its share of changes since the program's inception. From 1947-55, a dark gold helmet was used by the Tigers. Then in 1956, head coach Paul Dietzel entered his second season by introducing a new helmet design. The helmet was changed to a yellow gold, similar to that of the Green Bay Packers, that featured a white one-inch center stripe and purple three-quarter-inch flanking stripes. It is a look that has become synonymous and identified with LSU football since its unveiling. The 1957 Tigers had the addition of black two-inch "NCAA style" identifying numerals placed on each side of the helmet and that size expanded to three inches in 1958, the year of LSU's first national title. In 1972, a logo first appeared on the helmet. In 1977, the logo was modified, and that look remained until 2013. In 2014, the tiger head logo was updated with a fresh look.

Jersey 18

Jersey No. 18 was an LSU tradition born in 2003 when quarterback Matt Mauck guided the Tigers to their first national championship since 1958. His number became synonomous with success - both on and off the field - as well as a selfless attitude that has become the epitome of being an LSU football player. After his final year with the Tigers, Mauck passed jersey No. 18 down to running back Jacob Hester, who then helped LSU to another national title in 2007. Each season, a Tiger player is voted to wear the No. 18. Richard Dickson (2008, '09), Richard Murphy (2010), Brandon Taylor (2011), Bennie Logan (2012), Lamin Barrow (2013) and Terrence Magee (2014) have each had the honor of wearing the number.

Ice Bowl (1946)

The Tigers of 1946, though not one of Bernie Moore's two SEC Championship teams, was surely one of Moore's finest squads. Only a 26-7 loss at the hands of SEC foe Georgia Tech spoiled the season and the Y.A. Tittle-led Bayou Bengals landed in the Cotton Bowl against Arkansas and star Razorback Smackover Scott. But ice, sleet and snow pelted Dallas on that Jan. 1 as I SII filled oil drums with charcoal and started fires for makeshift heaters on the field. Fans built fires in the stands and watched the Tigers roll to 271-54 advantage in total yardage and a 15-1 lead in first downs. Those numbers, however, didn't equate on the scoreboard that showed 0-0 at game's end. The Tigers finished the season with a 9-1-1 record in Moore's penultimate season as head coach.

The Kingfish

No single person can be credited for building LSU football into the entity it is today, but one of the men who most influenced the popularity of Tiger football was neither a player nor a coach. The "Kingfish," Louisiana Governor Huey P. Long, never shied from using his political influence to aid the cause of LSU football. Two examples: In 1934, athletic director T.P. Heard reported low advance sales for the LSU-SMU game because of a circus coming to town the night of the game. Long contacted the proper Barnum and Bailey representatives and informed them of a near-forgotten animal-dipping law. The show was canceled and LSU-SMU ticket sales took off. Later that same year, Long used his influence to "entice" passenger agents of the Illinois Central Railroad to lower fares for LSU students traveling to a road football game. When Long threatened to reassess the value of railroad bridges in the state from $100,000 to $4 million, the railroad generously agreed to give LSU students a $6 roundtrip fare for the Vanderbilt game that season.

Night Games in Tiger Stadium

The tradition of playing night games in Tiger Stadium began on Oct. 3, 1931, when LSU downed Spring Hill, 35-0, under the lights. The idea of night football was introduced by T.P. "Skipper" Heard, then graduate manager of athletics and later athletics director. Several reasons were cited for playing LSU games at night, including avoiding the heat and humidity of afternoon games, avoiding scheduling conflicts with Tulane and Loyola and giving more fans the opportunity to see the Tigers play. An immediate increase in attendance was noted, and night football soon became ingrained in LSU football lore. LSU has also traditionally played better at night than in the light of day. LSU is 316-104-13 (.745) under the lights of Tiger Stadium and 86-42-5 (.665) during the day at home. Since head coach Les Miles took over the program in 2005, the Tigers have been dominant at home and especially at night. Under Miles, LSU boasts a 45-4 Saturday Night record in Tiger Stadium

Numbering System

LSU, in 1952, introduced a unique - and short-lived - jersey numbering system. The idea of coach Gaynell "Gus" Tinsley and publicity director Jim Corbett, the system utilized an abbreviation of the player's position on his jersey. Thus, ends, guards and tackles wore the letters "E", "G" and "T" followed by a single-digit number. The right side of the line wore even numbers, the left side odd numbers. In similar fashion the centers, quarterbacks, left halfbacks, right halfbacks and fullbacks wore"C", "Q", "L", "R" and "F", respectively, followed by single-digit numerals. The 1953 LSU yearbook, the Gumbo, boldly predicted that the new system "may revolutionize the football jersey manufacturing industry." It didn't.

Perfect Seasons

LSU has had six unblemished seasons in its history. The Tigers first went undefeated and untied in 1895 under head coach A. P. Simmons with a 3-0 record, but the first truly great LSU team is considered to be the 1908 squad led by one of the most legendary players to wear the Purple and Gold-Doc Fenton. That 1908 team, coached by Edgar R. Wingard, soared through a 10-game schedule without a loss or tie as Fenton scored an incredible 125 points on the year. It was 50 years before LSU would post another perfect season, winning the national championship in 1958 with an 11-0 mark.

LSU began in 1860 as the Louisiana State Seminary of Learning and Military Academy, shortly before the beginning of the Civil War. In fact, LSU's first superintendent was Civil War commander William Tecumseh Sherman. "Ole War Skule" was formerly a popular reference to LSU, as was the term "Old Lou."

Purple & Gold

There is some discrepancy in the origin of Royal Purple and Old Gold as LSU's official colors. It is believed that those colors were worn for the first time by an LSU team in the spring of 1893 when the LSU baseball squad beat Tulane in the first intercollegiate contest played in any sport by Louisiana State University. Team captain E.B. Young reportedly hand-picked those colors for the LSU squad. Later that year, the first football game was played. On Nov. 25, 1893, football coach/chemistry professor Dr. Charles Coates and some of his players went into town to purchase ribbon to adorn their gray jerseys as they prepared to play the first LSU gridiron game. Stores were stocking ribbons in the colors of Mardi Gras -purple, gold, and green - for the coming Carnival season. However, none of the green had yet arrived at Reymond's Store at the corner of Third and Main streets. Coates and quarterback Ruffin Pleasant bought up all of the purple and gold stock and made it into rosettes and badges.

The Rag was the traditional spoils of victory in the LSU-Tulane rivalry for many years. This flag, decorated half in LSU's colors of purple and gold and the other half adorned in the green and white of Tulane, was held for one year by the victorious school until the game the following season. The whereabouts of the original flag are unknown; however, a new version of The Rag was awarded to the LSU squad after the Tigers defeated the Greenies, 48-17, in the 2001 season opener in Death Valley.

The Rivalry: LSU vs. Tulane

LSU's rivalry with the Green Wave of Tulane was a natural from the game's infancy. The Greenies won LSU's first football game in 1893 by a 34-0 count, but over the ensuing seasons, the Tigers have dominated the series and own a 68-22-7 margin over their neighbors from New Orleans. The proximity of the schools made for the development of the rivalry in its early years and, by 1913, fans began to travel the distance by automobile instead of by train. Today's Tiger fan can traverse the distance from Tiger Stadium to the Louisiana Superdome in less than 90 minutes, but in the early years, according to the New Orleans Times-Picayune "with a good car, it can be negotiated in perfect comfort in six hours." The two schools renewed the series in 2007 as LSU defeated Tulane, 34-9, in the Superdome. The most recent meeting occurred in 2009 when the Tigers shutout the Green Wave, 42-0, on Halloween night in Tiger Stadium.

Hey, Fightin' Tigers, fight all the way Play Fightin' Tigers, win the game today.

Give it all of your might as you fight tonight and keep the goal in view.
Victory for L-S-U!

"Hey Fighting Tigers" was adapted from the Broadway show tine "Hey, Loak Me Over" by Cy Coleman. Gene Quaw, then director of social recreation at LSU, wrote the lyrics. "Hey Fighting Tigers" was played publicly for the first time at the 1962 opening game with Texas A6M in legendary Coach Charles McClendon's first game at LSU. Athletics director Jim Corbett wanted to do something special for McClendon's first game and he borrowed a fight song from a Broadway musical. The song appeared in the musical Wildcat starring Lucille Ball. LSU obtained special permission to use the melody that can be heard in and around Tiger Stadium on Saturday nights in the fall.

Fight for LSU

(Official Fight Song)

Like Knights of old, Let's fight to hold The glory of the Purple Gold.

Let's carry through, Let's die or do To win the game for dear old LSU.

Keep trying for that high score; Come on and fight, We want some more, some more.

Come on you Tigers, Fight! Fight! Fight! for dear old L-S-U.
RAH!

Touchdown for LSU

Tigers! Tigers! They've come to town, They fight! They fight! Call a first down, Just look them over, and how they can go, Smashing the line with runs and passes high and low.

Touchdown! Touchdown! It's Tigers' score. Give them hell and a little bit more. Come on you Tigers, Fight them, you Tigers, Touchdown for LSU. Rah! U. Rah!

South End Zone

Whether it be the 1959 goal line stand that sealed victory for the Tigers against Ole Miss on the "Billy Cannon Run" night or Bert Jones' pass to Brad Davis as time expired to beat the Rebels in 1972, the south end zone of Tiger Stadium has become somewhat of an enigma for the sometimes strange and often memorable plays in LSU football. The Tiger defenders have put together numerous goal line stands at the south end zone, including the following games: 1985 Colorado State, 1985 Florida, 1986 North Carolina, 1986 Notre Dame, 1988 Texas A&M, 1991 Florida State, 1992 Miss. State and 1996 Vanderbilt. In 1988, the Tigers stymied the Texas A&M Aggies at the LSU twoyard line despite the distraction of a bank of lights going dark midway through A&M's series of plays. For that series, LSU's defense was nicknamed the "Lights Out Defense." The first great goal line stand at that end of the field may have been in that 1959 game when Warren Rabb and Billy Cannon halted Ole Miss' Doug Elmore at the one-yard line for the 7-3 victory. Then, in 1971, the first and most memorable of LSU's three goal line stands against Notre Dame was at the one-yard line at the South end of the field as Louis Cascio and Ronnie Estay hit the Irish's Andy Huff at the goal en route to a 28-8 Tiger victory.

Super Bowl Champions

Super Bowl champion is a phrase that has become synonymous with former LSU football players. A total of 54 former Tigers have played in pro football's ultimate game and 31 have claimed a Super Bowl ring. At least one former LSU player has won a Super Bowl title in 12 out of the past 14 years dating back to 2002. LSU greats Jimmy Taylor of the Green Bay Packers and Johnny Robinson of the Kansas City Chiefs played in the first Super Bowl in 1967, Robinson and offensive lineman Remi Prudhomme were the first to win a Super Bowl as the Chiefs claimed Super Bowl IV with a 23-7 victory over the Minnesota Vikings. New England Patriots wide receiver Brandon LaFell became the most recent Super Bowl champion, earning his first ring when the Patriots beat the Seattle Seahawks in Super Bowl XLIX. Kevin Faulk has claimed more Super Bowl rings than any former Tiger in school history with three - all with the New England Patriots.

Former LSU cornerback Corey Webster started for the Super Bowl champion New York Giants in Super Bowl XLVI.

Following a victory, the LSU football team sings "Hey Fightin' Tigers" in the locker room.

Tiger Rag (Hold that Tiger)

Long ago, way down in the jungle
Someone got an inspiration for a tune,
And that jingle brought from the jungle
Became famous mighty soon.
Thrills and chills it sends thru you!
Hot! so hot, it burns you too!
Tho' it's just the growl of the tiger
It was written in a syncopated way,
More and more they howl for the "Tiger"
Ev'ry where you go today
They're shoutin'
Where's that Tiger! Where's that Tiger!
Hold that Tiger! Hold that Tiger!
Hold that Tiger!

Tailgating

It has often been pondered whether the attraction of night football is because of the excitement of the atmosphere created by a game under the lights, the more pleasant weather of an evening after the sun has set, or because it allows more time for tailgating. If it is not football that people of South Louisiana crave, then it is food. Tiger fans arrive as early as Thursday evening for Saturday games, set up their motor homes and kick back for a weekend of cooking and enjoyment for two days until kickoff. A stroll across the LSU campus and through the parking lots is a veritable connoisseur's treat. Common entrees include crawfish, boiled shrimp and jambalaya and, on occasion, one will run across a cochon-de-lait (pig. roast). In 2008, ESPN.com ranked LSU as the top tailgating destination in America. In 2010, Sporting News, proclaimed "Saturday Night in Death Valley" and Tiger tailgating as the top traditions in all of college football. LSU's legendary tailgating experience was recently named No. 1 by the Associated Press in a September 2010 poll and by CNN in the network's November 2010 survey.

Victory Hill

A pregame ritual for many Tiger fans is to line North Stadium Drive in the hours before kickoff to see the Tiger Marching Band in its walk from the band hall. The band pauses each game on the hill next to the Journalism Building to play "Tiger Rag," to the delight of the LSU throngs. Former head coach Curley Hallman began the tradition in the early 1990s of leading the team by foot down Victory Hill from Broussard Hall two hours before the game. That practice became so popular that Gerry DiNardo, Nick Saban and Les Miles have continued the tradition, even though the team began to stay in a hotel the night before home games. The team buses drive from the on-campus Lod Cook Hotel to the top of Victory Hill between the Academic Center and Journalism Building in order for the players to make their traditional walk down.

Jim Hawthorne

Voice of the Tigers

For more than 40 years, John Ferguson was known as the "Voice of the Tigers." Ferguson's distinctive baritone voice could be heard nationwide as few teams played night games during his tenure, which began in 1946. The most famous call of all plays, though, belongs to J.C. Politz who was the "Voice of the Tigers" in 1959 when Billy Cannon made his legendary 89-yard Halloween run. Ferguson later returned to the broadcast booth doing television for TigerVision broadcasts beginning in 1984. At that time, Jim Hawthorne took over the radio duties as the football, men's basketball and baseball "Voice of the Tigers." Hawthorne has called some of the greatest moments in LSU history, including play-by-play for the Tigers' 2003 and 2007 national championship seasons. After 32 seasons as "Voice of the Tigers," Hawthorne is set to retire at the conclusion of 2015-16 basketball season. Ferguson passed away at the age of 86 on Dec. 19. 2005.

"Billy Cannon watches it bounce, he takes it at his own 11, he comes back upfield to the 15, stumbles momentarily, he's at the 20, running hard at the 25, gets away from one man at the 30, still runs at the (inaudible) ...at the 35, at the 45... he's on the 50, he's in the clear on the 45, the 40 (inaudible due to crowd noise)...the 15, the 10, the 5 he scores!

"Billy Cannon raced some 89 yards for a touchdown. Listen to the cheers for Billy Cannon as he comes off the field...areat All-American!"

- J.C. Politz, "Voice of the Tigers" Oct. 31, 1959

The Tigers celebrated the 2007 national title on the South Lawn of the White House.

"I'm so honored and proud to welcome the LSU Tigers here as the national champs. God bless you. God bless LSU, and God bless America."

> - President George W. Bush April 7, 2008

The White House

Winning national championships carries the privilege of visiting Washington D.C., and touring the White House. The Tigers have taken part in Champions Day at the White House following its two BCS titles. Head coach Les Miles and his team had the chance to meet President George W. Bush on the South Lawn in April 2008. Miles presented President Bush with a No. 7 jersey, in reference to the 2007 season, and Jacob Hester gave the 43rd president of the United States a bronze football. LSU also took a tour of the National Mall area which including visits to the Lincoln Memorial, the Washington Monument, the National World War II Memorial, the Korean War Veterans Memorial and the Vietnam Veterans Memorial. The Tigers visited the Walter Reed Army Medical Center, toured the Pentagon and witnessed the changing of the guard at the Tomb of the Unknowns at the Arlington National Cemetery.

White Jerseys

LSU is one of the few college football teams that traditionally wear white iersevs for home games. The tradition originated when LSU won its first national championship in 1958. Head coach Paul Dietzel had a habit of tinkering with the uniform every year. In 1958, he chose to wear white iersevs for LSU's home games, and the Tigers subsequently won the national championship. A superstitious man, Dietzel didn't change the uniform after that season, LSII. continued to wear white jerseys for home games throughout the Charlie McClendon Era. When Jerry Stovall took over as head coach in 1980. he said the Tigers would occasionally wear purple iersevs so that home fans could see a different color. In 1982, the NCAA changed its jersey rule, requiring teams to wear dark colored jerseys for home games. The Tigers wore purple jerseys for all home games from 1983 to 1994. When Gerry DiNardo became head coach in 1995, he vowed to change the NCAA jersey rule. After petitioning the rules committee of the American Football Coaches Association, he personally met with each member of the NCAA Football Rules Committee. DiNardo's efforts were successful and the Tigers were allowed to wear white jerseys again beginning in 1995. A stipulation of the new rule was that the visiting team would have to give the home team permission to wear the white jerseys. The first team to deny LSU's request was DiNardo's former team, Vanderbilt. Instead of going back to purple jerseys, the Tigers took to the field in new gold jerseys. The SEC later adopted a league rule stipulating that the home team has sole discretion in determining its jersey color. Nick Saban became LSU's head coach in 2000 and continued the white jersey tradition, but with a twist. Saban decided that LSU would wear purple jerseys for all non-SEC games, except the home opener. That tradition continues today.

On the Prowl

Mike the Tiger was recently ranked in the top three in a Bleacher Report poll of college football's top live mascots. Mike's habitat is one of the most visited attractions in the state of Louisiana located in the shadows of the north endzone of Tiger Stadium.

MIKE THE TIGER

History of Mike

Few mascots in the country are as admired as Mike the Tiger. LSU's live Bengal mascot serves as the graphic image of all LSU athletic teams. The school has had six mascots, with the most recent, Mike VI, taking over the reign prior to the 2007 national championship football season. LSU veterinarian Dr. David Baker began the search for the young tiger after his predecessor, Mike V, died in May 2007 of renal failure at the age of 17. The 10-yearold Bengal/Siberian mix, formerly known as "Roscoe," was donated to LSU by Great Cats of Indiana in Idaville, Ind., a nonprofit sanctuary and rescue facility for big cats and other large carnivores.

Mike's ride through Tiger Stadium before home games in a travel trailer topped by the LSU cheerleaders is a school tradition. Before entering the stadium, his trailer on wheels is parked next to the opponent's locker room in the southeast end of the stadium. Opposing players must make their way past Mike's trailer to reach their locker room.

Tradition dictates that the Tigers will score a touchdown for every growl issued by Mike before a football game. For many years, Mike was prompted to roar by pounding on the cage. Objections of cruel punishment brought about the use of recorded growls to play to the crowd before the games. That practice was discontinued shortly afterward and today Mike participates in the pregame tradition without provocation.

In the mid-1980's, pranksters cut the locks on Mike IV's cage and freed him in the early-morning hours just days before the annual LSU-Tulane clash. Mike roamed free, playfully knocking down several small pine trees in the area, before being trapped in the Bernie Moore Track Stadium where police used tranquilizer guns to capture and return the Bengal Tiger to his home.

The incident was reminiscent of a kidnapping of Mike I many years ago by Tulane students before a Tiger-Green Wave

Prior to kickoff Mike VI and the LSU cheerleaders parade around the field of Tiger Stadium.

Mike I

The original Mike was purchased from the Little Rock Zoo in 1936 for $750, with money contributed by the student body. Originally known as "Sheik" at the time of his purchase, his name was changed to Mike to honor Mike Chambers who served as LSU's athletic trainer when the first mascot was purchased. The first Mike was housed in the Baton Rouge Zoo for one year before a permanent home was constructed near Tiger Stadium. Mike I reigned for 20 years before dving of pneumonia.

Mike's Habitat

In 2005, a new environment (above) was created for Mike that is 15,000 square feet in size with lush planting, a large live oak tree, a beautiful waterfall and a stream evolving from a rocky backdrop overflowing with plants and trees. The habitat has, as a backdrop, an Italianate tower - a campanile - that creates a visual bridge to the Italianate architectural vernacular that is the underpinning of the image of the entire beautiful LSU campus. This spectacular habitat features state-of-the-art technologies, research, conservation and husbandry programs, as well as educational, interpretive and recreational activities. It is, in essence, one of the largest and finest Tiger habitats in the United States.

Sneaux Day

On Dec. 11, 2008, a winter storm blanketed Baton Rouge that hadn't been seen in decades. The early white Christmas gave Mike VI, LSU's live Bengal/Siberian tiger, a chance to relax and play in nearly two inches of accumulation.

1956-1958

Mike II

The second Mike served a brief reign, lasting only through the 1957 season before dying of pneumonia in the spring of 1958. He was born at the Audubon Zoo in New Orleans and came to LSU on Sept. 28, 1956. The young tiger was held overnight in Tiger Stadium and unveiled Sept. 29, the opening day of the football season.

Mike III

Just in time for the 1958 national championship season, Mike III was purchased from the Woodland Park Zoo in Seattle, Wash., following a "national search" by then-athletic director Jim Corbett. The student body contributed $1,500 for the purchase of the tiger. Mike III served as mascot for 18 seasons, dying after the only losing season of his reign, as LSU posted a 5-6 record in 1975.

Mike IV

Mike IV reigned over Tiger athletics for 14 years after being donated to the school by August A. Busch III from the Dark Continent Amusement Park in Tampa, Fla, on Aug. 29, 1976. Born on May 15, 1974, Mike's age and health were determining factors in his retirement to the Baton Rouge Zoo in 1990. Mike IV died of old age in March of 1995 at the age of 21.

Mike V

Mike V was donated by Dr. Thomas and Caroline Atchison of the Animal House Zoological Park in Moulton, Ala. Dr. Sheldon Bivin of the LSU School of Veterinary Medicine traveled to Alabama and brought the baby tiger back to Baton Rouge. Born Oct. 18, 1989, the new tiger was introduced to LSU fans at a basketball game against Alabama in February of 1990. He officially began his reign on April 30, 1990, when he was moved into the tiger habitat across from Tiger Stadium. Mike V died on May 18, 2007, at the age of 17.

2007-present

Mike VI

Mike VI arrived in Baton Rouge on Aug. 25, 2007, thanks to the donation by Great Cats of Indiana. He was officially designated as the successor to Mike V on Sept. 8, when LSU played host to Virginia Tech. Six days later, on Sept. 14, 2007, a ceremony was held to honor Mike V and dedicate the habitat to Mike VI. The 10-year-old Bengal/ Siberian mix, formerly known as "Roscoe," reigned over a football national title in his first year and a 2011 Southeastern Conference championship and perfect regular season.

LSUGREATS

The following nine individuals are the only athletes to have their jerseys retired by LSU. Men's basketball has retired the No. 23 for Pete Maravich, No. 50 for Bob Pettit, Jr., No. 33 for Shaquille O'Neal and No. 40 for Rudy Macklin. Women's basketball retired the No. 33 for Seimone Augustus. Football's only two retired jerseys are the No. 20 worn by Billy Cannon and the No. 37 worn by Tommy Casanova. Baseball retired the No. 15 in honor of longtime coach and former athletics director Skip Bertman and the No. 19 for Ben McDonald. Casanova, Macklin and McDonald joined the prestigious list in May 2009. Augustus became the first woman in LSU Athletics history to have her jersey retired in January 2010.

50 BOB PETTIT

Pettit led LSU to its first NCAA Final Four in 1953 and he later became the first player in NBA history to exceed the 20,000-plus point barrier. Pettit is a member of the NBA Hall of Fame, and in 1997, he was named as one of the top 50 players in NBA history.

23 PETE MARAVICH

"Pistol Pete," Maravich still holds the NCAA record for career points with 3,667 and for career scoring average with 44.2 points a game. He was selected the National Player of the Year in 1970 after leading the Tigers to the NIT Final Four. He scored 50-plus points an amazing 28 times. He went on to a 10-year professional career and was selected as one of the NBA's 50 greatest players in 1997.

20 BILLY CANNON

One of the true legends of college football in the South, Billy Cannon was the 1959 Heisman Trophy winner and helped the Tigers to the 1958 national title. Cannon's most memorable performance came in 1959 against Ole Miss when No. 1 LSU trailed No. 3 Ole Miss 3-0 in the fourth quarter. He fielded a punt, broke seven tackles and returned it 89 yards for the 7-3 victory. He went on to a successful 11-year professional career.

33 SHAQUILLE O'NEAL

15 SKIP BERTMAN

He also coached the United States to a bronze medal at the 1996 Olympics in Atlanta and was an assistant on the gold medal-winning U.S. squad in Seoul, Korea, in 1988. Bertman retired from coaching following the 2001 season and served as LSU's athletics director for seven years. Bertman was inducted into the College Baseball Hall of Fame in 2006.

40 RUDY MACKLIN

Rudy Macklin was a two-time basketball All-American selection during his Tiger career from 1976-81 during which time he became LSU's all-time leading rebounder with 1,276 boards and the secondleading scorer in school history behind only the legendary Pete Maravich with 2,080 points. He led the Tigers to two Elite Eight appearances and the 1981 Final Four in Philadelphia. He still holds the school single game rebound record with 32, a mark like some of the great records in any sport that may never be broken.

Tommy Casanova (left), Seimone Augustus (middle) and Rudy Macklin (right) were the last LSU greats to have their iersevs retired during the 2009-10 athletic vear.

ABOUT LSU RETIRED JERSEYS

The retirement of the jerseys of Casanova, McDonald, Macklin and Augustus comes under a new provision of the LSU jersey retirement bylaws that says the retirement of an athlete's jersey in a particular sport does not preclude a current student-athlete in that sport from wearing the jersey number in that or any other sport, subject to the discretion of the head coach. This provision applies only to jerseys retired after January 1, 2007, so the numbers worn by Maravich, Pettit, O'Neal, Cannon and Bertman may never again be worn by future student-athletes in their respective sports. To have a jersey retired at LSU, an athlete must have completed intercollegiate competition for LSU a minimum of five years prior to nomination. Athletes must have demonstrated truly unusual and outstanding accomplishments, exceeding and in addition to all criteria used for Hall of Fame selection. Nominees must have a unanimous vote of support from the Hall of Fame committee.

37 TOMMY CASANOVA

Tommy Casanova is the only three-time All-American in the history of LSU football and is a member of the College Football Hall of Fame. During his Tiger career from 1969-71, Casanova personified versatility for his myriad of talents as he played offense, defense, returned punts and kickoffs. One of just two three-time All-SEC performers at LSU, he played six seasons with the Cincinnati Bengals of the NFL while earning his medical degree.

19 BEN MCDONALD

Ben McDonald won the prestigious Golden Spikes Award, given annually to the nation's most outstanding player, in 1989 and is a member of the College Baseball Hall of Fame. He led LSU to two College World Series appearances. In 1989, McDonald was named National Player of the Year by Baseball America, The Sporting News and Collegiate Baseball. He was selected by the Baltimore Orioles as the No. 1 pick in the major league draft in 1989 and went on to enjoy a 10-year major league career with the Orioles and the Milwaukee Brewers.

LES MILES HEAD COACH

2011 SEC COACH OF THE YEAR
SECOND-WINNINGEST COACH IN LSU HISTORY WITH 103 VICTORIES
BCS NATIONAL CHAMPIONS IN 2007
SEC CHAMPIONS IN 2007 AND 2011
PERFECT 13-0 REGULAR-SEASON RECORD IN 2011

The dynasty that Les Miles has built at LSU reached another milestone in 2014 as the 11th year head coach guided the Tigers to a school-record 15th consecutive bowl game while becoming just the second coach in school history to win 100 games. It took Miles only 126 games to reach 100 wins at LSU making him the third-fastest coach to reach the mark in the history of the SEC, trailing only Steve Spurrier (120) and Robert Neyland (121).

Miles enters his 11th season with the Tigers in 2015 and his first decade at the school has seen the Tigers win more games, play in more major bowl games, and finish more seasons ranked in the Top 20 than any other 10-year period in the history of the program.

Miles has built a solid foundation for the LSU program based on principles laid out in the "Miles Method", a mission that calls for LSU to run the finest football program in the country in every phase that comes in contact with a player. It's the goal of the program for players to have a college experience that is second to none and one that gives them every opportunity to compete for championships on the field, earn a degree, and to grow personally by giving back to the community. Miles holds his players accountable and to a standard of excellence, both on and off the field.

The "Miles Method" has proved to be a winning formula as the Tigers have won more games than any program in the SEC since 2005 (103), while capturing a pair of SEC titles (2007, 2011), played in 10 bowl games, including the BCS National Championship Game twice. LSU won the BCS title in 2007, a year after beating Notre Dame in the Sugar Bowl. Miles directed LSU to the school's only 13-0 regular-season in 2011 as the Tigers spent 11 consecutive weeks ranked No. 1 in the nation.

Since Miles took over in 2005, LSU has registered five top 10 finishes with three coming in the top five, won double-figure games seven times, produced 20 first-team All-Americans and had players win 11 national awards. LSU also leads the SEC with 64 NFL Draft picks during that span, which includes 13 first round selections. LSU led the nation with nine NFL Draft picks in 2014, which tied the school record set in 2013.

Miles' 103 wins at LSU ranks him behind only Charles McClendon, who won 137 games in 18 years with the Tigers. Miles is also the only coach in LSU history to beat Auburn, Florida and Alabama in same season - and he's done it now three times - and in

LSU's Les Miles earned five National Coach of the Year honors in 2011, including the Home Depot Award (above). Miles led LSU to its first 13-0 regular season record in school history and to eight wins over Top 25 opponents. LSU spent a school record 11 weeks ranked No. 1 in the nation in 2011.

In the classroom, 215 football players have earned their degree since Miles took over, and two out of the last three years LSU has ranked No. 2 in the SEC in graduation rates, trailing only Vanderbilt. Under Miles, LSU has produced over 150 players who have earned SEC Academic Honor Roll status.

LSU's community service presence is impactful as football players routinely donate time giving back to the Baton Rouge area through a variety of avenues, including appearances at schools, hospitals and many other charitable causes. It's through these community service ventures that Miles and his team get a better understanding of what it means to wear an LSU uniform and the impact that can be made on those who are less fortunate.

As Miles heads into his 11th season with the Tigers and coming off a recruiting class that was ranked among the Top 10 in the nation, the foundation for LSU football is stronger than ever. With wins coming at a record-setting pace, graduation rates among the best for any public university in the SEC, and with eight-straight recruiting classes rated among the top 10 in the nation, including the nation's No. 1 group in 2009, Miles and the Tigers continue to solidify their standing as one of the premier programs in college football, setting a standard that has the rest of the nation chasing.

The LSU Years

Les Miles was named LSU's 32nd head football coach on Jan. 3, 2005, and his impact with the program was immediate as he directed the Tigers to an 11-2 mark in his first year. The 2005 season served as the starting point for what has become the best 10-year stretch of football in school history, one that has seen the Tigers win more games than any other school in the SEC during that span. Miles holds the distinction of being the only coach in SEC history to win at least 11 games five times during his first seven years in the league. LSU's 103 wins also ranks fourth nationally, and third among Power 5 Conferences, over the past 10 years.

Miles, who is 131-50 overall in 13 years as a head coach, has compiled a 103-29 record at LSU, which includes a remarkable 56-24 record in SEC regular season games. Miles is the fastest coach in LSU history to reach milestone victories of 10 (11 games), 20 (24 games), 30 (35 games), 40 (48 games), 50 (63 games), 60 (76 games), 70 (87 games), 80 (98 games), 90 (113) games), and 100 games (126).

He's also won 39 games against top-25 teams and 15 against teams in the top 10. On 24 occasions, Miles has led the Tigers to a comeback win in either the fourth quarter or overtime. He's also led the Tigers to 15 wins over coaches who have a national title to their credit. LSU has been ranked in the Top 25 for 126 of 132 games under Miles.

Relying on youth at most positions and with just one career combined start at the quarterback position going into the year, LSU still managed to post an 8-5 mark in

ΤΩΤΔΙ

Les and Kathy Miles with their four children, Ben, Smacker, Macy and Manny.

2014 despite playing 17 true freshman throughout the season. The Tigers opened the year with a thrilling fourthquarter comeback against 14th-ranked Wisconsin and climbed to as high as No. 8 in nation four weeks later. Miles picked up his 100th LSU win in the 30-27 victory over Florida in what was the first of three straight conference wins for the Tigers in October. After beating No. 3 ranked Ole Miss, 10-7, in Tiger Stadium, the Tigers were on the cusp of knocking off Top 5-ranked Alabama before a late Crimson

Tide rally resulted in an overtime defeat for LSU. LSU closed the regular-season with a 23-17 win over Texas A&M, a victory that secured the school's 15th straight season of at least eight wins. LSU closed the year against Notre Dame in the Music City Bowl, the 15th straight bowl appearance for the Tigers.

Miles led LSU to a fourth straight season of at least 10 wins with a 10-3 mark in 2013 as the Tigers, despite losing nine NFL Draft picks, won their first four games and six of their first seven and climbed all the way to No. 6 in the nation. Behind a powerful offense and steady defense, LSU won three games against Top 25 teams in 2013, including a 34-10 win over Texas A&M and its Heisman Trophy-winning guarterback, Eight of LSU's 10 wins came by double-figures and two of the three losses were by a total of six points. LSU capped the year with its sixth bowl win under Miles, a 21-14 victory over Iowa in the Outback Bowl. Following the season, LSU led the nation with nine NFL Draft picks, including seven on the offensive side of the ball.

LSU became the first team in SEC history to have a 3,000-yard passer, two 1,000-yard receivers and a 1,000-yard rusher in the same season in 2013, LSU also set the school record for rushing touchdowns (37) and the Tigers led the nation in third-down efficiency, converting on 57 percent of their opportunities in 2013.

In 2012, Miles directed the Tigers to a 10-3 mark and the school's 13th straight bowl appearance. With a rugged schedule that saw LSU face fiveconsecutive Top- 25 teams, the Tigers used a dominant defense and a steady offense to beat No. 3 South Carolina at home and hold eventual Heisman Trophy winning quarterback Johnny Manziel to his worst output of the season in a 24-19 win over Texas A&M.

If not for a last-minute drive by Alabama that erased a 17-14 deficit to beat LSU in Tiger Stadium, it would have been the Tigers in position to play for the SEC title, and perhaps a national championship, instead of the Crimson Tide. With a first-year starter at quarterback in Zach Mettenberger and playing with makeshift offensive line most of the year due to injuries, LSU was still ranked in the Top 10 every week during the regular season and extended the school's record home winning streak to 22 straight before falling to Alabama in November. LSU reached the Chick-fil-A Bowl and eventually finished the year ranked as high as No. 12 in the nation after a 25-24 setback to Clemson.

The 2011 season was a historic one for the Tigers, going 13-0 for the first time in school history and spending a record 11-straight weeks at No. 1 in the nation. LSU won 12 of its 13 games by double-figures with eight of its 13 wins coming against Top-25 opponents, both school records. As a result, Miles was named National Coach of the Year by four organizations (AP, Home Depot, Walter Camp and Liberty Mutual) as well as being awarded the SEC Coach of the Year honor following LSU's first 8-0 season in league play. Individually, Tyrann Mathieu was a finalist for the Heisman Trophy, while claiming the Bednarik Award as the nation's top defender. In 2011, LSU had a player win the Thorpe Award for the second-straight season, as Morris Claiborne claimed the honor that goes to the nation's top defensive back.

starting quarterback Jordan Jefferson for the first four games, opened the year with a 40-27 win over No. 3 Oregon in Dallas. That win served as a springboard for road wins over No. 16 West Virginia (47-21) and Tennessee (38-7) and lopsided home victories against No. 17 Florida (41-11) and No. 19 Auburn (45-10). LSU followed the Auburn game with a thrilling 9-6 overtime win over No. 2 Alabama. Then the Tigers closed out the regular season with a 41-17 win over No. 3 Arkansas and a 42-10 victory over 12th-ranked Georgia in the SEC title game, which put the Tigers into the BCS National Championship game, Miles led LSU to wins over three SEC opponents by the largest margin of victory in the history of the series in 2011 - Ole Miss (49), Auburn (35), and Tennessee (31),

In 2010, LSU had its fourth top-10 finish and recorded its fourth season of at least 11 victories under Miles with an 11-2 mark, which culminated with a dominating 41-24 performance against Texas A&M in the Cotton Bowl. Miles guided the Tigers to four fourth quarter comebacks in 2010 as he used gutsy play calling to beat Florida on the road, 33-29. Later in the year, he led LSU to an outstanding all-around effort in a 24-21 victory over Alabama in Tiger Stadium. LSU opened 2010 with seven straight wins and jumped as high as No. 6 in the nation before falling to eventual national champion

Auburn in late October. LSU's two losses in 2010 both came to ranked opponents by a combined margin of just 15 points. Cornerback Patrick Peterson finished his LSU career by winning two national awards - the Thorpe Award as the nation's top defensive back and the Bednarik Award as the nation's top defender.

The Tigers capped a sub-par 2008 regular season by LSU standards with a 38-3 win over 14th-ranked Georgia Tech in the Chick-fil-A Bowl, setting the stage for a nine-win season in 2009. The Tigers managed to win nine games, highlighted by its first road win over Georgia since 1987 and a 31-10 trouncing over Auburn, in the rugged SEC despite losing their top three running backs at various points during the season to injury. With a first-year starter at quarterback, LSU won its first five games and climbed as high as No. 4 in the nation in 2009. Of LSU's four losses, two came against teams ranked Nos. 1 (Alabama) and 3 (Florida), as well as top 10 opponent Penn State in the Capital One Bowl.

After two of the most successful seasons in school history in 2005 and 2006, Miles again led the Tigers to a season of firsts in 2007. LSU became the first school in the Bowl Championship Series era to claim a second BCS National Title with its 38-24 win over Ohio State. LSU's first BCS title came in 2003 when the Tigers beat

With a 12-2 final record in 2007, the Tigers became the first team in school history to win at least 10 games in threestraight years. The 2007 Tigers also set a then-school record for wins over top 25 teams (7), won the SEC Championship with a backup quarterback and were ranked No. 1 in the BCS Standings during the regular season for the first time in school history. LSU finished the year ranked No. 1 in the nation in both the USA Today Coaches Poll and the AP Poll. Defensive tackle Glenn Dorsey became the most decorated defensive player in school history, capturing four national awards (Outland, Lombardi, Nagurski, and Lott) as LSU marched to the national title.

The road to the 2007 SEC title was anything but easy for the Tigers as LSU faced a total of seven top 25 teams, winning six of those games. After spending most of the season ranked among the top three teams in the nation. including a four-week stay at No. 1, the Tigers quickly found out that they had a target on their back each week. Time after time, LSU was getting the best shot from its opponent.

It didn't help matters that LSU played key stretches of its season with injuries to standout players. Star wideout Early Doucet missed five games; quarterback Matt Flynn wasn't healthy for close to a month; and All-American Dorsey played hurt for the final five games of the regular season. Still, LSU, with outstanding depth and a will to overcome adversity, found a way to win. Four times in 2007 the Tigers had to come from behind in the fourth quarter to win games, including its 21-14 victory over Tennessee in the SEC Championship

LSU scored a touchdown with a second left to beat Auburn at home and then followed that by scoring two touchdowns in the final three minutes of the Alabama game to record a comeback win over the Crimson Tide.

Against top 10-ranked Florida, LSU scored with just over a minute left, capping a drive that saw the Tigers convert on a pair of fourth-down attempts, to beat the defending national champions, 28-24, in Tiger Stadium,

LSU didn't lose a game in regulation during the 2007 regular season, falling to both Kentucky and Arkansas in triple overtime.

When it mattered most, playing without an injured Flynn, the Tigers overcame the adversity that followed in the wake of week-long media speculation leading up to the SEC Championship Game about Miles perhaps leaving LSU to take the head coaching position at Michigan. In the end, Miles remained true to his word, staying at LSU and leading the Tigers to a 21-14 win over Tennessee in the SEC title game, a victory that helped propel LSU into the BCS National Championship contest.

In the BCS Championship Game, the Tigers spotted top-ranked Ohio State an early 10-0 lead, but LSU came roaring back to take a convincing win over the Buckeyes by a 38-24 count. The win gave LSU its third national title and it also marked the fourth time that decade the Tigers were victorious in a BCS bowl, the most of any SEC school.

After leading LSU to an 11-2 mark and a top five national ranking in his first year as LSU's head coach in 2005. many wondered just what Miles would do for an encore. His second year with the Tigers proved to be another year full of milestones and firsts as he guided the Tigers to another 11-2 overall record, culminating with a 41-14 dismantling of 11th-ranked Notre Dame in the Sugar

The Tigers finished their second year under the direction of Miles ranked

No. 3 in the nation, marking the first time since the 1958-59 seasons that LSU was ranked in the top five in the country in back-to-back years.

LSU's at-large berth in a BCS bowl was a first in school history and it also represented the third time during the decade that the Tigers ended their season in the Sugar Bowl.

In 2006, Miles became the first coach in LSU history to lead the Tigers to back-to-back 10-wins seasons, something that he added to with another 10-plus win season in 2007.

He became the first LSU coach since Jerry Stovall in 1982 to beat two top 10-ranked teams on the road in the same season as the Tigers posted a 28-24 win over No. 8 Tennessee in Knoxville followed by a 31-26 victory over No. 5 Arkansas in Little Rock. All four of LSU's road game opponents were ranked in the top 10 at the time of the game, a first in school

Even though the Tigers had to go on the road to face four top 10-ranked teams in 2006, year two under Miles seemed somewhat ordinary compared to what the Tigers had to endure during his first year in Baton Rouge.

In Miles' inaugural season at LSU he led the Tigers to only the third 11-win season in school history, a top five national ranking and a berth in the SEC Championship Game, despite numerous distractions that covered most of the months of September and October.

To appreciate just how adverse the conditions that Miles and the Tigers had to overcome in 2005, you have to go back to late August and Hurricane Katrina, the first of two storms to devastate Louisiana during the fall.

Days before LSU's originally scheduled season opener against North Texas in Tiger Stadium, Hurricane Katrina blew ashore, packing tremendous winds, and turned the state, in particular New Orleans and southeastern Louisiana, upside down

Massive flooding followed in the wake of the storm as more than 30 LSU players had their families and their homes affected by the hurricane and Miles' first game in Tiger Stadium against North Texas was postponed. With the LSU campus serving as the recovery center for those sick, homeless and displaced due to Hurricane Katrina, football seemed to be the farthest thing from most people's minds. However, Miles was able to successfully manage a delicate situation, one that saw his team and coaching staff volunteer time to those in need, while still attempting to focus on football for at least two hours a day.

After a week of trying to minimize the distractions for a football team that had their apartments and dorm rooms filled with displaced family members and friends due to the storm, it appeared that the Tigers would finally get to play a home game, this time against 15th-ranked Arizona State.

However, just as the Tigers began to prepare for the Sun Devils and the season opener in Tiger Stadium, it was learned that the devastation to New Orleans was much greater than originally thought. With the Maravich Center on the LSU campus serving as what would become the largest field triage unit in United States history, it was mutually decided to move the LSU-Arizona State game to

With many in Louisiana under the distress of Hurricane Katrina, the Tigers were going to have to take to the desert to face a powerful offense in their first game of the season.

These were certainly trying times for everyone in the state of Louisiana, but even more so for a football coach who now had his team carrying the banner for a state in need of a diversion. LSU football had become a release for those consumed with the hurricane. LSU even re-stated its team goals, putting playing for the state of Louisiana at the top of the list.

The Tigers didn't disappoint as Miles and his LSU team used a 28-point fourthquarter rally to come back to beat Arizona State, 35-31, in Tempe.

Now with the Arizona State game behind them, it looked as if things for the LSU football team would gradually get back to normal as the Tigers had a week off before facing Tennessee in Tiger Stadium on Sept. 24.

Then, the unthinkable happened. Another storm, this one named Rita, hit southwest Louisiana, causing severe damage to more homes, leaving thousands without electricity and displacing even more Louisiana natives. The combination of Hurricanes Katrina and Rita forced LSU to again shuffle its schedule. Instead of playing Tennessee on a Saturday night in Tiger Stadium. the Tigers would now be forced to face the Volunteers on a Monday night, An emotionally drained LSU team saw a 21-0 halftime lead evaporate into a 30-27 overtime loss to the Vols.

There was no coaching handbook for Miles to refer to when it came to dealing with the hurricanes and preparing a team for competition during extreme adverse conditions. Miles was on his own, forced to navigate his LSU team through a treacherous stretch of games, while also being sympathetic to those still affected by the natural disasters.

With just five days between the Tennessee loss and the Mississippi State game, Miles and the Tigers were obviously dealt an unfair hand, however, he asked his team to respond and they did. The Mississippi State contest was the starting point for a stretch of games for the Tigers that saw LSU win nine contests in nine straight weeks of play. The 37-7 win over the Bulldogs was followed by a 34-6 road victory over Vanderbilt as the Tigers had re-established themselves as one of the nation's elite on the football

During what would be 11-consecutive weeks of play, the Tigers posted a win over Florida, along with overtime victories against Auburn and Alabama. In all, the Tigers beat four teams ranked among the top 15 in the nation, then a school record for regular season victories over ranked opponents.

After 10-straight weeks of play during the regular season, the Tigers fashioned a 7-1 conference mark and earned a berth in the SEC title game.

Miles became the first first-year coach in SEC history to lead his squad to the league's title game. He also became the first coach in LSU history to beat Alabama, Auburn and Florida in the same

Oklahoma State Years

In four short years, Miles turned the Oklahoma State football program into one that was nationally competitive, despite competing in-state against one of the country's dominant programs.

Miles honed his head coaching skills at Oklahoma State where he posted a 28-21 mark in four years with the Cowboys, Under Miles' direction, the Cowboys were the only team in the nation to heat Oklahoma twice in the four-year period, and he was also the first coach in Oklahoma State history to post wins over Nebraska and Oklahoma in the same season.

Miles led the Cowboys to three-straight bowl appearances, an accomplishment Oklahoma State had not achieved since Jimmy Johnson started a string of three-straight post-season games beginning in 1983. In addition, Oklahoma State's appearance in the Cotton Bowl to cap the 2003 season marked the first time in 55 years that the Cowboys appeared in a January bowl

As head coach at Oklahoma State, he built a consistent winner out of a program that had recorded only one winning season since 1988, and had posted a record of 13-20 in the three years prior to his arrival at OSU. After going 4-7 in his first year as head coach in 2001, he took the Cowboys to consecutive winning marks of 8-5 in 2002, 9-4 in 2003 and 7-5 in 2004.

Miles led Oklahoma State to a four-year record of 28-21 for a winning percentage of 57.1, the best career winning percentage for an OSU coach since Jim Lookabaugh ended his career in Stillwater in 1949.

Miles was the 2002 Big 12 Conference Coach of the Year after directing his second Oklahoma State team to an 8-5 record and the school's first bowl appearance since 1997.

The Cowboys, who averaged 34.4 points per game, closed the 2002 season

Assistant Coach Years

Prior to his tenure as head coach at Oklahoma State, Miles was the tight ends coach for the Dallas Cowboys for three seasons from 1998-2000. During his three years with the Cowboys, Dallas won one divisional title, while participating in the playoffs twice. In Dallas, Miles learned of LSU and the charm of the school from tight end David LaFleur, who starred for the Tigers in the 1990s. In three years of coaching tight ends for the Cowboys, Miles' players combined for 136 receptions for 1,287 yards and 16 touchdowns. LaFleur, a former LSU All-America selection, had his best year under Miles in 1999, starting 16 games and catching 35 passes for 322 yards and seven touchdowns.

Before going to Dallas, Miles served as Oklahoma State's offensive coordinator for three seasons from 1995-97, including an 8-3 season and an Alamo Bowl berth in 1997.

Miles' college playing and coaching career includes experience under some of the most noted coaches in college football. At Michigan, he played for legendary coach Bo Schembechler and later served on Schembechler's staff. He also worked with Gary Moeller at Michigan and Bill McCartney at Colorado.

Success has followed Miles at every stop of both his playing and professional career. He was a two-year letterman at Michigan (1974-75). During those two seasons, Michigan was a combined 18-3-2, had final Associated Press national rankings in the top 10 and participated in the Orange Bowl.

He joined Schembechler's Michigan coaching staff in 1980 for the first of two stints as a coach in Ann Arbor. In 1980 and 1981, Michigan combined for 19 wins and just five losses, won the Big 10 title in 1980 and played in the Rose and Bluebonnet Bowls, respectively. Miles left Michigan for Colorado, where he served on McCartney's staff from 1982 through 1986. In his final two years at Colorado, the Buffs earned bids to the Freedom Bowl and Bluebonnet Bowl.

In 1987, he returned to Michigan, where he would spend the next eight years as part of one of the most successful eras in Michigan football history. From 1987 to 1994, Michigan won 71 games, made eight straight bowl appearances, including four trips to the Rose Bowl, and finished no lower than No. 21 in final Associated Press national

The 1989 Michigan squad finished 10-2, won the Big 10 championship and finished ranked No. 7 in the country. That would be Coach Bo Schembechler's final season as Michigan's head coach.

When Moeller took over the Michigan program prior to the 1990 season, Miles remained on the staff. The 1990 team finished 9-3, winning the Big 10 title and the Gator Bowl. The following season (1991), Michigan finished 10-2 and with a No. 6 national ranking. Miles coached some of the best players to wear the Michigan uniform, including eight first-team All-Americans, 10 total All-Americans and 12 players from Wolverine offensive lines that were NFL draftees.

Media Darling

Another thing that tends to set Miles apart from many of his peers is that of his personality and his ability to have fun, while at the same time running an elite football program. Miles has twice been involved in commercials for ESPN's College GameDay. He delivers memorable lines during his press conferences, has a tendency to "taste" grass from the field during games, and has become a viral star on the Internet. He's twice been part of the NFL Network's coverage of the NFL Draft.

During the spring of 2013, Miles had the leading role in LSU's version of "The Harlem Shake", which has nearly 2 million views on YouTube. His running dialogue with ESPN personality Scott Van Pelt and the exchange of "gifts" between the two resulted in Miles shooting a basketball video dubbed "It Must Have Been The Shoes" in the summer of 2011 that has over 150,000 views on the Internet. He's the most followed college football coach on Twitter with over 168,000 followers and he's one of the most quotable coaches in the game.

Philanthropist At Heart

One of Les Miles' most impressive qualities is that of the time he spends giving to and helping causes that benefit others. He often calls or visits sick LSU fans in the hospital, many times showing up unannounced and without even being asked. Each year, Miles and his wife Kathy host an event that generates over $100,000 for the Children's Miracle Network in Baton Rouge. In addition, he is active in other community service events such as the Mary Bird Perkins Cancer Center annual fundraiser, the Special Olympics and the Baton Rouge Children's Advocacy Center Celebrity Waiter Event. In the summer of 2013, Miles rappelled down a 24-story building in downtown Baton Rouge to help bring awareness to adoption in Louisiana.

OFF THE FIELD

(Top) In May 2013, Miles rappelled down the 308-foot tall, 24-story One American Place building in Baton Rouge to raise awareness for Louisiana adoption. (Middle) In 2006, Miles took part in the USO Tour where he visited American troops in Kuwait and Iraq. (Bottom) In December 2012, Miles took time out of his busy Chick-fil-A Bowl preparations schedule to spend time with the patients of Scottish Rite Children's Hospital.

Miles spent a week in June of 2006 taking part in the USO Tour, where the Tiger head coach visited American Troops serving in Kuwait and Iraq. Miles was joined on the tour, which serves as a morale booster for the troops serving ahroad, by former Notre Dame coach Lou-Holtz and Tampa Bay Rays owner Vincent Naimoli.

The week-long trip took Miles to several U.S. bases in Kuwait and then on to Iraq, where he visited with hundreds of American troops and even flew over the city of Baghdad in a Black Hawk helicopter.

The Family Man

When Miles isn't overseeing his LSU football family, he can most likely be found in the bleachers supporting his wife and kids at their sporting events. His oldest daughter Kathryn, who is commonly referred to as "Smacker," is a swimmer at the University of Texas. His oldest son Manny led University High School to the state title last year and is currently enrolled at the University of North Carolina where he is a quarterback on the football team. His youngest son Ben is a starter on the football team at Catholic High School, while his youngest daughter Macy is a youth softball pitching standout on one of the top teams in Louisiana.

Coach Miles' wife Kathy played point guard at Central Michigan and later served as an assistant coach at Michigan. where the couple first met.

Tony Ball, who spent the past nine years on the coaching staff at Georgia, joined the LSU staff in February and will serve as the wide receivers coach for the Tigers.

Ball comes to LSU with 20 years of experience of coaching wide receivers and running backs at the highest level of college football. In all, Ball has coached at the collegiate level for 30 years.

While at Georgia, Ball developed some of the top skill players in Bulldogs history, first as running backs coach from 2006-08 followed by five years coaching wide receivers. Among the standouts that Ball mentored at Georgia include first round draft picks in wide receiver A.J. Green and running back Knowshon Moreno.

While at Georgia, Ball was part of two SEC Eastern Division Championship teams and he was also part of two of the most prolific offenses in school history in 2012 and 2013. Georgia's 2012 offense set the school record for total yards (6,547) and touchdowns (72), while the 2013 unit set the school-mark with 484.2 yards per game.

In nine years at Georgia, Ball helped the Bulldogs to an 84-35 overall record, five seasons of at least 10 wins and to six bowl victories.

Prior to his stint at Georgia, Ball spent eight years at Virginia Tech where he coached wide receivers for the Hokies. During his eight years coaching under Frank Beamer, Ball coached in eight bowl games, including the national championship contest against Florida State in 1999. The Hokies were 78-23 overall.

Ball is credited with coaching some of Virginia Tech's top receivers including Ernest Wilford (2002-03), the school's all-time receptions leader, the first player in school history to post two 50-catch seasons, and a fourth round choice in the 2004 NFL draft.

A graduate of UT-Chattanooga, Ball got his start in coaching as a graduate assistant at Austin Peay in 1985-86 where he earned his master's degree in health and nutrition. He served as a volunteer running backs coach at South Carolina in 1987 before serving the first of two stints at UT-Chattanooga in 1988. He coach running backs at East Tennessee State in 1989 before returning to his alma mater to coach wide receivers in 1990-91.

Ball spent three years coaching running backs at College of Holy Cross from 1992-94 before joining Louisville as the Cardinals' wide receivers coach from 1995-

During the summers of 1996 and 1997, Ball participated in the National Football League's Minority Internship Program with the Baltimore Ravens. He interned with the Broncos in 2003.

Ball played football for the late Joe Morrison at UT-Chattanooga where he was a standout running back (1977-80) who set numerous school kickoff return records. In 1977, Ball led the nation in kickoff returns with a 36.4 per return average. In 2007, he was inducted into the school's Hall of Fame and in 2003, was named to the UTC All-Century Team.

He earned his undergraduate degree in criminal justice. Ball is married to the former Maria Ann Slayden. They have two children: Anthony and Keshea.

Cam Cameron, whose career includes head coaching positions at the NFL and collegiate levels, goes into his third season with the Tigers in 2015. In his first year at LSU and with a veteran quarterback in Zach Mettenberger, Cameron's offense had one of the most prolific seasons in school history.

Last year with a sophomore and a true freshman at quarterback who had a combined one start going into the season, Cameron's offense relied more on the running game led by 1,000-yard rusher Leonard Fournette. As a unit, LSU averaged 225 yards rushing a game and 387.5 total yards.

A native of Chapel Hill, N.C., Cameron joined the Tigers staff in February of 2013 after spending 14 seasons in the NFL where he coached some of the league's top offensive players including Drew Brees, Philip Rivers and LaDainian Tomlinson. Cameron has coached a combined 30 years at the collegiate and NFL levels, which includes a 5-year stint as the head coach at Indiana and one season at the head coach of the Miami Dolphins.

In his first year at LSU in 2013, Cameron's offense racked up the second-highest yardage total in school history with 5,893 yards and the Tigers set the school record for total offense with 453.3 yards a game. LSU also scored a school record 37 rushing TDs and had 60 rushing/passing TDs combined, which was just four shy of tying the school record.

Individually, LSU become first team in SEC history with a 3,000-yard passer (Zach Mettenberger), two 1,000-yard receivers (Jarvis Landry and Odell Beckham Jr.) and a 1,000-yard rusher (Jeremy Hill) in the same season. Landry and Beckham Jr. also became the first pair of receivers in LSU history to have 1,000 receiving yards in the same season.

Mettenberger became the first LSU quarterback to throw for 2,500-yards in backto-back seasons, and he joined Rohan Davey and JaMarcus Russell as the only 3,000yard passers in school history.

Hill's 1,401 rushing yards wound up being the second-highest single-season total in school history, while his 6.9 yards per carry in 2013 were the most by a running back in SEC history. Hill also tied the LSU record with seven 100-yard rushing games.

All four of LSU's 2013 starters at offensive skill positions were selected in the 2014 NFL Draft with wide receiver Odell Beckham Jr. going 12th overall to the New York Giants, wide receiver Jarvis Landry (Miami Dolphins) and running back Jeremy Hill (Cincinnati Bengals) both going in the second round and quarterback Zach Mettenberger (Tennessee Titans) going in the sixth round. LSU had a total of seven offensive players picked in the 2014 NFL Draft.

Miles and Cameron served together on the Michigan coaching staff for seven years from 1987-93. Miles coached the offensive line for the Wolverines during that span, while Cameron coached quarterbacks and wide receivers.

Prior to joining the LSU staff, Cameron helped develop Baltimore Ravens quarterback Joe Flacco into one of the best at his position in the NFL. Flacco was named Super Bowl MVP after leading the Ravens to a 34-31 win over San Francisco in the Super Bowl in February of 2013. He also became the first quarterback in NFL history to lead his team to the playoffs in each of his first five seasons, all of which came under Cameron's watch.

Prior to his five years in Baltimore, Cameron served as the head coach of the Miami Dolphins in 2007 going 1-15 in his only season as a NFL head coach.

Cam and his wife Missy with children Tommy, Christopher, Elizabeth and Danny.

Cameron had tremendous success as the offensive coordinator of the San Diego Chargers from 2002-06, helping the franchise to the playoffs twice, going 14-2 in 2006 and 12-4 in 2004.

In 2006, Cameron's play-calling helped the Chargers lead the NFL in scoring with 492 points, and Tomlinson was named the NFL's MVP by the Associated Press after setting a franchise record with 1,815 rushing yards and 31 total touchdowns. Six members of the Charger offensive unit were named to the Pro Bowl that year.

Future Hall of Fame quarterback Brees got his first NFL start under Cameron as he spent four of his first five years in the league with the LSU offensive coordinator. Cameron was named the NFL Offensive Assistant Coach of the Year by SportsIllustrated.com in 2004 as Brees was selected to the Pro Bowl along with being picked the NFL Comeback Player of the Year and Most Improved Player of the Year.

In four years under Cameron, Brees threw for over 12,000 yards and 79 touchdowns, while Tomlinson rushed for over 1.300 yards each season.

As head coach at Indiana from 1997-2001, Cameron helped create quarterback Antwaan Randle El into one of the most dynamic players in college football history. Randle El became the first player in NCAA Division I history to pass for 40 career touchdowns and rush for 40 career TDs. He finished fifth on the NCAA all-time total yardage list with 11,364 yards (7,469 passing, 3,895 rushing) and was sixth in the Heisman Trophy balloting as a senior in 2001.

Cameron's five-year record with the Hoosiers was 18-37 with his best season coming in 2001 when Indiana won four of its last five games and posted a 5-6 mark with wins over Wisconsin and Michigan State.

A 1983 graduate of Indiana with a degree in business, Cameron broke into coaching in 1984 serving as a graduate assistant under legendary Michigan coach Bo Schembechler. After two years as a graduate assistant with the Wolverines, Cameron was elevated to wide receivers coach in 1986. He held that role for four years before adding quarterbacks to his list of responsibilities in 1990. Cameron served on the Michigan staff through 1993 when he moved to the NFL as the quarterbacks coach for the Washington Redskins.

As a collegiate player, Cameron played both football and basketball at Indiana. He appeared in 22 football games as a quarterback and in 30 games for the basketball team. Cameron earned two letters as a quarterback for the Hoosiers, playing for Lee Corso in 1982 and Sam Wyche in 1983, before a knee injury cut his senior season short. He also played basketball for Bobby Knight, earning a pair of letters in 1981-82 and 1982-83. Cameron was a member of Indiana's 1983 Big Ten Championship Team in basketball.

Steve Ensminger, a former starting quarterback for LSU, enters his sixth year as the Tigers' tight ends coach in 2015.

A 1982 graduate of LSU, Ensminger played quarterback for the Tigers under head coach Charlie McClendon from 1976-79. Ensminger played in three bowl games (Sun, Liberty, Tangerine) at LSU and has followed that by coaching in 15 bowl games as an assistant at the collegiate level.

The tight end position continues to be a major part of LSU's offensive success whether it be in the running or passing game. In 2014, LSU tight ends combined for 12 catches, including the game-winning TD against Ole Miss, while also playing a prominent role in the Tigers averaging 225 rushing yards a game.

LSU's group of 2013 tight ends played a key role in a Tiger offense that set a school-record with 37 rushing touchdowns. LSU averaged 453.3 total yards per game, which included 202.3 yards on the ground. In the passing game, LSU tight ends combined for 12 receptions for 211 yards with first-time starter Dillon Gordon leading the way with six catches for 88 yards.

Ensminger's tight ends combined for 16 catches for 182 yards in 2012 in the passing game and they helped pave the way for a 173.7 yards per game rushing attack as the Tigers went 10-3 and finished the year ranked No. 12 in the nation.

In 2011, LSU tight ends combined for 28 receptions for 294 yards and three touchdowns. Deangelo Peterson led all tight ends with 18 catches for 179 yards and a score as the Tigers posted a 13-0 regular season record, claimed the SEC title and reached the BCS National Championship game that year.

In 2010, Ensminger coached a versatile group of tight ends who combined for 24 catches for 301 yard with Peterson leading the way with 16 receptions for 198 yards despite missing three games with an injury.

Ensminger joined the LSU staff after serving as an assistant coach at Auburn from 2003-08. Ensminger spent the 2009 season as the passing game coordinator at Smiths Station High School in Auburn, Ala.

The Ensmingers: son-in-law Drew Knight, daughter Krystalin, Amy, Steve, daughter Brittany Rose and son Steven, Jr.

During his six seasons at Auburn, Ensminger coached the quarterbacks one year (2003), followed by five years as the tight ends coach from 2004-08. As the quarterback coach at Auburn, Ensminger helped develop Jason Campbell, who went on to become an NFL first round draft pick.

While at Auburn, the Tigers led the SEC in scoring offense in both 2004 (32.1) and 2005 (32.2), and they were first in the league in total offense in 2005 (409.8).

Ensminger has also had major college coaching stops at Georgia (1991-93), Texas AGM (1994-96) and Clemson (1997-98).

At Georgia, he served as the quarterbacks coach as well as the passing game coordinator. In 1992, Georgia posted a 10-2 overall record and led the SEC in both scoring (32.0) and total offense (450.4).

Ensminger followed that with a three-year stint at Texas AGM where he was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for the Aggies. The Aggies were 25-9-1 during Ensminger's three years in College Station, which included a 10-0-1 mark in 1994 and a 9-3 record in 1995.

Following his three years at Texas ASM, Ensminger coached for two seasons at Clemson, holding the title of offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

Ensminger returned to Louisiana in 2000, serving as head coach and athletic director at Central High School for nearly three years before taking the wide receivers job at West Monroe High School for the 2002 season.

After a brief career in the NFL and CFL, Ensminger got his start in coaching in 1982 at Nicholls State as the receivers coach. After two years at Nicholls State, he moved to McNeese State as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach from 1984-86 followed by three years from 1988-90 at Louisiana Tech in the same capacity.

As a player at LSU, Ensminger threw for 2,770 yards and 16 touchdowns during his career with the Tigers. He was named Freshman All-SEC in 1976.

Ensminger, a native of Baton Rouge, is married to the former Amy Gonzales and the couple has three children – Krystalin, Brittany Rose and Steven – and one grandchild.

The addition of Jeff Grimes to the LSU staff as offensive line coach and running game coordinator paid off immediately as he helped produce one of the top rushing attacks in the Southeastern Conference in 2014.

Grimes, who served as offensive line coach at Auburn when the Tigers won the 2010 national title, enters his second year with the Tigers in 2015. In his one season at LSU, Grimes is quickly establishing the Tiger offensive line as one of the best in the country. LSU returns three starters from a unit that helped pave the way for 1.000-yard rusher Leonard Fournette in 2014. The Tigers ranked among the best in the SEC in rushing last year with 225 yards per game.

Grimes's standout on the offensive line during his first year at LSU was offensive tackle La'el Collins, who was named the winner of the Jacobs Blocking Trophy as the top lineman in the SEC as well as being a second team All-America selection.

Grimes joined the Tigers in the spring of 2014, coming from Virginia Tech where he served in the same capacity. In his one season with the Hokies, Virginia Tech posted an 8-5 overall mark and averaged 356 yards a contest.

During Auburn's 2010 national championship season, Grimes' coached an offensive line that helped set school records for total yards of offense (6,989) and points (577) for a second consecutive season. The Tigers led the Southeastern Conference and were No. 5 nationally in rushing yards per game (284.8) and led the SEC in scoring (41.2).

Auburn's 2010 team set school records for rushing touchdowns (41), passing touchdowns (31), rushing yards (3,987) and had three offensive linemen earn individual honors. Tackle Lee Ziemba was a consensus All-America selection and earned the Jacobs Trophy as the SEC's best blocker before he was selected by the Carolina Panthers in the seventh round of the 2011 NFL Draft. Guard Byron Isom was named second-team All-SEC and center Ryan Pugh earned third-team All-

Following the 2011 season, tackle Brandon Mosley was selected by the New York Giants in the fourth round of the 2012 NFL Draft after earning All-SEC honors his senior season.

In his first season at Auburn in 2009, Grimes helped an offense that set numerous school records that year, including points in a season (433), total yards of offense in a season (5,613) and plays in a season (914). Auburn's 266 first downs in 2009 was the second-best total in school history, and its average of 431.8 yards per game ranked fourth.

In addition, Grimes coached both Pugh and Ziemba to second-team All-SEC honors during the 2009 season.

Prior to his stint at Auburn, Grimes served as the assistant head coach, running game coordinator and offensive line coach at Colorado for two seasons from 2007-08. Tyler Polumbus, a guard for Grimes in 2007 at Colorado, signed with the Atlanta Falcons after spending the last four seasons as the starting left tackle for the Washington Redskins, while Edwin Harrison is a starting tackle for the Calgary Stampeders in the Canadian Football League.

A 20-year coaching veteran, Grimes went to Colorado from Brigham Young, where he coached the offensive line for three seasons from 2004-06. His 2006 BYU linemen were a large part of the Cougars' Mountain West Conference championship team, which finished 11-2.

Grimes' success continued at Arizona State as four of his 2001 seniors were drafted into the NFL, marking just the second time that had been done at any school since the NFL adopted the seven-round draft format in 1993. Tackle Levi Jones was the 10th overall pick in the 2002 NFL Draft by the Cincinnati Bengals, followed by Scott Peters and Travis Scott in the fourth round and Kyle Kosier in the seventh round.

In one season at Boise State in 2000, Grimes' offensive line helped the Broncos lead the nation in scoring offense with an average of 44.9 points per game. That year, the Broncos went 10-2 and beat Texas-El Paso in the Humanitarian Bowl.

Grimes began his coaching career in 1993 as a high school coach at Riverside High School in El Paso. After two years there, he moved on to the college ranks, first working as a graduate assistant at Rice (1995) and then at Texas A&M (1996-97).

Grimes earned four letters as an offensive tackle for UTEP between 1987 and 1990, including three years under former Boise State and Arizona State head coach Dirk Koetter when he was UTEP's offensive coordinator. He also spent two years playing for current Kansas City Chiefs' head coach Andy Reid.

He was in training camp with both the Los Angeles Raiders of the NFL and the San Antonio Riders of the World Football League before entering coaching.

Grimes, a native of Garland, Texas, and his wife, Sheri, have four children, daughters Bailey and Jada and sons, Garrison and Greydon.

Bradley Dale Peveto, who was a member of the LSU coaching staff during its run to the 2007 national title, is in his second stint with the Tigers after rejoining the staff in 2014. Overall, Peveto is entering his sixth season with the Tigers in 2015 where he oversees LSU special teams, while also serving as the linebackers coach on defense.

Peveto re-joined the LSU staff for the 2014 season after serving as the special teams coordinator and safeties coach for Kentucky in 2013. Prior to that, Peveto was the head coach at Northwestern State University for four years.

Peveto was a member of Miles' first staff at LSU as he joined the Tigers originally in the spring of 2005 as special teams coordinator and linebackers coach. He remained in that position until the 2008 season when he was promoted to co-defensive coordinator. LSU went a combined 40-11 during Peveto's first stretch with the Tigers.

In his first year back with the Tigers in 2014, LSU's special teams accounted for one touchdown in both the kickoff and punt return game, while punter Jamie Keehn ranked No. 2 in the league in punting with a 44.9 average. LSU was first in the SEC in kickoff returns (26.7 average) and No. 3 in net punting (41.4 average). In Peveto's four years as LSU's special teams coordinator, the Tigers have scored nine touchdowns and blocked six kicks.

Peveto left LSU following the 2008 season to become the head coach at Northwestern State, where he posted a 14-30 mark in four seasons from 2009-12 with the Demons.

In his first stint on the Tiger staff, Peveto's development of linebackers was critical to the LSU defense rating among the top five in the nation in for three straight years from 2005-07. During that three-year stretch, the LSU defense held opponents to average of 266.7 total yards and 15.7 points per game.

In 2007, linebacker Ali Highsmith earned first-team All-America honors from CBSsports.com, while also being named a second-team All-American by the Associated Press.

As LSU's special teams coordinator from 2005-07, Peveto had both his punter (Patrick Fisher) and placekicker (Colt David) earn first-team All-SEC honors in 2007. It marked the first time in school history that LSU had the All-SEC punter and kicker on its roster in the same season. Fisher averaged a league-best 44.5 yards per punt in 2007, while David kicked a school-record 26 field goals and led the SEC in scoring with a league record 147 total points.

Peveto joined the Tigers after two years at Middle Tennessee State, where he served as secondary in coach in 2003 before a promotion to defensive coordinator/linebacker coach in 2004. A native of Orangefield, Texas, Peveto led a Blue Raider defense that ranked second in the Sun Belt Conference in rushing defense.

Prior to his arrival at Middle Tennessee, Peveto spent four years (1999-2002) at Houston as the Cougars' co-defensive coordinator and secondary coach. During his stay in Houston, he had four players earn five all-conference awards while three were placed on the league's all-freshman squad.

Peveto served as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Northwestern State (La.) University for three years from 1996 to 1998, helping the Demons capture capture back-to-back Southland Conference Championships and NCAA I-AA playoff berths.

Peveto's "Purple Swarm" defense at Northwestern State was ranked nationally in several statistical categories during each of his three seasons and four of his players earned All-America honors. In addition, four Demon players were selected in the NFL draft. The 1998 Northwestern State team went 11-3, reached the I-AA semifinals, and ranked third nationally.

Prior to Northwestern State, Peveto spent two seasons on Danny Ford's staff at Arkansas, while the Razorbacks won the SEC Western Division title with an 8-5 overall mark and played in the Carquest Bowl in 1995. While at Arkansas, Peveto served as special teams coordinator and linebackers coach.

Peveto coached the outside linebackers and special teams at Southern Miss in 1992 and 1993. He also coached the defensive line, linebackers and secondary at Stephen F. Austin from 1988 to 1991, serving as the special teams coordinator all four years, as the Lumberjacks led the nation in punt returns in 1989. SFA also won the Southland Conference and advanced to the 1989 I-AA championship game. His secondary was nationally ranked in passing efficiency defense in 1990 and 1991.

A 1987 graduate of SMU, Peveto began his coaching career as a secondary coach at Trinity Valley Community College.

Peveto was a four-year letterman for the Mustangs, played in four bowl games (Cotton, Sun, Aloha and Mirage), and was a team captain as a senior in 1986. During his playing career, SMU won two Southwest Conference championships (1982 and 1984) and had a combined record of 43-14-1.

Peveto comes from a family with a rich football coaching tradition. His late father, Ed, coached high school football in the southeast Texas area and was inducted into the Greater Houston Coaches Hall of Honor in 1993 and into the Golden Triangle Coaches Hall of Fame in 1997. His two brothers were also high school coaches in Texas.

Peveto is married to the former Melissa Weser, and the couple has a daughter, Payton Marie and a son Jacob Edward.

Corey Raymond, a former LSU standout who spent six years playing in the NFL, enters his fourth season coaching the defensive backs for his alma mater. During his three years on the LSU staff, the Tiger secondary has consistently been one of the strengths of the team and has only enhanced the school's claim of being "DBU".

Under Raymond, LSU's secondary has produced three NFL Draft picks, including first rounder Eric Reid in 2013 and most recently Jalen Collins, who was selected in the second round of the 2015 draft by the Atlanta Falcons.

In 2014, LSU's secondary featured another young, but talented group as the starting lineup included a true freshman, one sophomore, two juniors and a senior. The play of LSU's secondary was prominent in the Tigers leading the SEC in total defense (316.8 yards per game), pass defense (164.2 yards per game) and pass efficiency defense (101.6 rating). LSU allowed an SEC-best 10 passing touchdowns in 2014 and the Tigers were the only team in the league to hold teams to fewer than 200 completions.

LSU ranked No. 4 in the SEC in pass defense in 2013, allowing 197.5 yards per game. The Tigers limited opponents to 15 touchdown passes and ranked second in the league in yards allowed per attempt (6.4) and third in the conference in completion percentage at 56.0 percent.

In his first year back with the Tigers in 2012, Raymond coached safety Reid to first team All-America honors. Reid was later chosen in the first round (18th overall) of the NFL Draft by the San Francisco 49ers. Starting cornerback Tharold Simon was picked in the fifth round by the Seattle Seahawks.

As a unit in 2012, LSU's secondary, despite using a pair of first time starters, combined for 15 interceptions and helped the Tigers rank No. 11 nationally in pass efficiency defense.

Raymond returned to LSU after spending the 2011 season as the secondary coach at Nebraska. In his one season with the Cornhuskers, Raymond coached a Nebraska secondary that featured the 2011 Big Ten Defensive Back of the Year in Alfonzo Dennard. Despite inheriting a group that lost four starters from the season before, including three NFL Draft picks, Raymond's secondary helped Nebraska rank No. 18 in the nation in pass defense in 2011.

Prior to his one-year stay in Lincoln, Raymond served as the cornerbacks coach for two seasons at Utah State. Raymond's top pupil at Utah State was that of Curtis Marsh, who earned All-WAC honors and later went on to become a third-round pick in the NFL Draft.

Raymond served on Miles' LSU staff for three years from 2006-08 before taking the job at Utah State.

During his three years on the LSU staff from 2006-08, Raymond was part of two BCS bowl victories, including a 38-24 win over Ohio State in the BCS National Championship. LSU's defense ranked No. 3 nationally in both 2006 and 2007 as the Tigers combined to post a 23-4 record during that span.

Corey Raymond

Prior to joining the LSU staff in 2006, Raymond coached at the high school level for three years in his hometown of New Iberia. Raymond was the defensive coordinator at New Iberia High School in 2003 and then held the same position at Westgate High School in 2004-05.

Raymond was a three-year starter in the secondary for the Tigers from 1989-91. He capped his LSU career with 185 tackles and eight interceptions. Following his career with the Tigers, Raymond spent six seasons in the NFL - three with the New York Giants and three with the Detroit Lions. In 90 games in the NFL, Raymond started 60 times and intercepted 11 passes to go with 258 tackles.

Raymond earned his undergraduate degree from LSU in 1992.

Frank Wilson, widely considered one of the top recruiters in college football, enters his sixth season as LSU's running backs coach and recruiting coordinator in 2015. Since joining the staff, Wilson has been vital to LSU's success both on and off the field helping the Tigers to four seasons of at least 10 wins, while also annually orchestrating one of the nation's top recruiting classes.

In six years as LSU's recruiting coordinator, Wilson has engineered signing classes that have ranked among the top 10 in the nation five times, including the No. 2 rated class in 2014. LSU's 2014 signing class featured the consensus No. 1 rated player in the nation (Leonard Fournette) and the No. 1 rated wide receiver (Malachi Dupre). LSU had the No. 6 rated class in 2011 and the seventh-ranked class in 2013 and the No. 8 ranked class in 2015. Wilson was named as the 2011 Recruiter of the Year by Rivals.

On the field, Wilson has continued to develop and manage an LSU backfield that annually, despite its youth, features some of the best players in the SEC. Under Wilson, LSU has recorded 34 100-yard rushing games, and he's also seen the Tiger running game produce three 1,000-yard rushers. LSU has also had six running backs selected in the NFL Draft since Wilson joined the staff.

In 2014, Wilson managed a backfield that consisted of two seniors in Terrence Magee and Kenny Hilliard along with a pair of true freshmen in Fournette and Darrel Williams. The end result had the Tigers ranking No. 4 in the SEC in rushing with 225 yards per game with Fournette leading the way with an LSU freshman record 1,034 yards and 10 TDs. Fournette went on to earn Freshman All-SEC honors, while Hilliard was selected in the seventh round of the NFL Draft by the Houston Texans.

In 2013, sophomore Jeremy Hill earned first team All-SEC honors after racking up 1,401 yards and 16 touchdowns in helping the Tigers to a 10-3 mark and a school-record 37 rushing touchdowns. Hill, who was picked in the second round of the 2014 NFL Draft, rushed for 216 yards and a pair of TDs against Iowa in the Outback Bowl in what was the final game of his career. Hill's 1,401 yards ranked No. 2 on the LSU single-season list, while his 16 TDs stand at No.4 in school history.

As a unit, LSU rushed for 202.3 yards per game in 2013 as the Tigers had a total of four players produce 300 or more yards on the ground. Magee was second on the team with 626 yards and eight touchdowns, Alfred Blue had 343 yards and one score and Hilliard with 310 yards and seven touchdowns. Blue was drafted in the seventh round of the NFL Draft giving LSU two running backs picked in the same draft for the first time since 2003.

Hill burst onto the scene as a true freshman in 2012, rushing for 755 yards and 12 touchdowns in helping the Tigers to a 10-3 mark. LSU averaged 173.7 yards rushing per game with sophomore Hilliard (464 yards, 6 TDs), Michael Ford (392 yards, 5 TDs) and Spencer Ware (367 yards, 1 TD) joining Hill in the backfield for the bulk of the carries. Ware, who opted to leave LSU following his junior season, was drafted in the fifth round of the 2013 NFL Draft by the Seattle Seahawks.

In 2011, LSU's backfield consisted of three sophomores and a true freshman as the Tigers averaged 202 rushing yards and tied a school record with 35 rushing touchdowns. Ford led the group in 2011 with 756 yards and seven TDs, followed by Ware with 707 yards and eight scores. For the first time in school history, LSU's backfield featured four running backs who each accounted for at least seven rushing TDs (Ware and Hilliard with 8, Ford and Alfred Blue with 7). Also, for the first time since 1997. LSU had three running backs go over the 500-vard mark in the same season

Frank and Tiffany Wilson with daughters Alaina and Sa'bree and son Frank IV.

(Ford, 756, Ware 707, Blue 539). LSU had four different running backs lead the team in rushing in 2011.

In 2010, junior Stevan Ridley in his first season as a starter, rushed for 1,147 yards and 15 touchdowns on his way to earning first team All-SEC honors. Ridley, who opted to forgo his senior season, went on to be drafted in the third round by the New England Patriots.

Ridley was backed up by a trio of freshmen, including Ford (244 yards, 3 TDs) and Ware, who rushed for 102 yards in the Cotton Bowl win over Texas A6M.

Wilson, a native of New Orleans, joined the LSU staff after spending the 2009 season at Tennessee, where he coached wide receivers.

Prior to joining the Tennessee staff, Wilson spent the 2008 season at Southern Mississippi as running back coach and recruiting coordinator. He also served as running backs coach and special teams assistant at Ole Miss from 2005-07.

In his second year with the Rebels, Wilson's primary pupil, BenJarvus Green-Ellis, finished third in the SEC in rushing at 83.2 yards per game. Green-Ellis was named All-SEC first team by Associated Press. Under Wilson's tutelage, Green-Ellis finished the season with 1,000 yards, fourth on the Ole Miss season charts, and has since become a 1,000-yard rusher in the NFL with the New England Patriots.

Wilson joined the Ole Miss staff after serving one year as Director of Athletics for the New Orleans Public School System. He served 3½ seasons as head football coach and offensive coordinator at 0. Perry Walker High School in that city prior to his stint as director of athletics.

While at 0. Perry Walker, Wilson led the Chargers to the 2002 Class 4A state finals and to District 10-4A championships in 2001 and 2002. He was honored by the NFL as the 2002 Coach of the Year for the state of Louisiana and was voted by his peers as the Louisiana Class 4A Coach of the Year. Wilson also was a 2002 Nike National Coach of the Year finalist.

Wilson coached the Orleans Parish All-Star team against the Jefferson Parrish All-Star team in 2002, leading his group of players to the win in the Louisiana Superdome. He also was honored as 2001 state metro area and district coach of the year.

During his three-year at 0. Perry Walker, Wilson helped guide 22 players to Division I scholarships, including 11 in 2002 to rank as the nation's largest class of Division I signees by any one high school.

Wilson spent three years as an assistant coach at Edna Karr High School, also in New Orleans, from 1997-2000. He served as offensive coordinator at Edna Karr during the 1999 season in which the team reached the Class 3A state finals and the offense recorded the best statistical season in the program's history.

Wilson got his start in coaching as a student assistant at his alma mater, Nicholls State University, working with the running backs while he finished his degree. While at Nicholls State, Wilson helped coach the first 1,000-yard rusher in school history and was part of the biggest turnaround in NCAA history at the time for the Colonels, who improved from 0-10 in 1995 to 8-2 in 1996.

A three-year letterman on the football team at Nicholls State, Wilson earned honorable mention all-conference honors as a running back his sophomore year. He was also named preseason all-conference as a defensive back his junior year and as a running back his senior year. Wilson attended Geneva University in Beaver Falls, Pa, his freshman season, earning conference Freshman of the Year honors as a tailback and kick returner. He also earned first team all-conference honors and was an NAIA Division II All-America honorable mention.

Wilson received his Bachelor of Arts degree in general education from Nicholls State in 1997. He then went on to earn a certificate of education in biology from Southern University in New Orleans in 2002.

Wilson and his wife, Tiffany, have three children: Alaina, Sa'bree and Frank IV.

Hilliard Along with Fake Punt Helps LSU Rally Past No. 14 Wisconsin, 28-24

Kenny Hilliard, with his powerful running, helped ignite a second-half rally that helped 13th-ranked LSU erase a 24-7 deficit as the Tigers posted one of the biggest comebacks in school history in the 28-24 win over 14th-ranked Wisconsin in the Advocare Texas Kickoff in Houston. Hilliard rushed for 110 yards and scored the game-winning touchdown on a 28-yard run in the fourth quarter. Wisconsin led 17-7 at halftime and then stretched the lead to 24-7 on the opening possession of the third quarter. The Badgers appeared to have the game in hand, stuffing LSU on its first possession of the second half, forcing the Tigers punt. Instead, LSU faked the punt and extended the drive that ultimately led to a 30-yard field goal Colby Delahoussaye, pulling the Tigers to within 24-10. The fake punt served as a momentum boost for LSU as from that point on the LSU defense held Wisconsin to only 32 total yards and forced two turnovers on the Badgers' final five possessions of the game. Meanwhile, the LSU offense got on track, scoring on four straight possessions to erase the 17-point deficit. Another Delahoussaye field goal pulled LSU to within 24-13 late in the third quarter before Anthony Jennings connected with John Diarse on a 36-yard TD and, along with a two-point conversion, got the Tigers within a field goal at 24-21. LSU took the lead for good on its next possession after a Jalen Mills interception set up the Tigers at their own 47-yard line. Hilliard ran for 17, 8 and then 28 yards on three straight plays to score the go-ahead TD with 9:41 to go in the contest. A Ronald Martin interception ended Wisconsin's next drive and then the Tigers forced the Badgers to a three-and-out on their final possession of the game, allowing LSU to run out the clock. Jennings connected on 9-of-21 passes for 239 yards and a pair of TDs in his second career start. Travin Dural led all receivers with three catches for 151 yards, including an 80-yard TD in the first quarter. LB Kwon Alexander (8 tackles, 2 TFL) and DE Danielle Hunter (7 tackles, 1.0 TFL) led the LSU defense as the Tigers won their 12th straight season opener and won a non-conference regular-season contest for the 46th consecutive time dating back to the 2002 season.

Big Plays Help LSU To 56-0 Win Over Sam Houston

Travin Dural scored three touchdowns, including a school-record 94-yard reception on the first offensive play of the game for LSU as the 12th-ranked Tigers pitched their first shutout since 2010 with a 56-0 win over Sam Houston State. LSU had little trouble with the Bearkats, limiting Sam Houston State to just 14 first downs and 206 total yards of offense. Sam Houston State came into the game averaging over 600 yards and 43 points a game. LSU scored touchdowns on its first five possessions of the game, building a 35-O lead at halftime. Dural scored on a 28-yard TD reception from Anthony Jennings on LSU's second possession, then freshman Leonard Fournette scored his first career TD on a 4-yard run to give the Tigers a 20-0 first quarter advantage. Dural's third TD reception came early in the second quarter on an 18-yard pass from Jennings, running the score to 27-0. Rookie quarterback Brandon Harris scampered 46 yards for a TD midway through the second quarter to extend the advantage to 35-0. Four true freshmen scored TDs for LSU as Darrel Williams and Malachi Dupre each found the endzone in the second half. For the game, LSU racked up 584 total yards of offense with 334 yards coming on the ground. Fournette led LSU with 92 yards and a TD on 13 carries, while Williams added 65 yards and a score, and Kenny Hilliard had 55 yards and a touchdown. Jennings connected on 7-of-13 passes for 188 yards and 3 TDs, while Harris came off the bench to complete 4-of-5 passes for 62 yards and a score. Dural led LSU with three catches for 140 yard and three TDs. Danielle Hunter, Kendell Beckwith and Dwayne Thomas all had seven tackles for the Tiger defense, while Rickey Jefferson and Thomas each intercepted passes as LSU ran its home winning streak to 10 straight. Nine of Sam Houston's 14 possessions ended with a punt and three were stopped with a turnover, including the Jefferson interception that halted a drive at the LSU 5-yard line.

LSU "D" Dominant in 31-0 Win Over ULM

LSU's defense extended its scoreless streak to nine straight quarters and 31 consecutive possessions as the Tigers rolled to a 31-0 win over ULM. The win was the 48th straight for LSU in non-conference regular season games and the 400th overall in Tiger Stadium for the Tigers. The shutout was the second straight for LSU, the first time the Tigers have pitched back-to-back shutouts since 1985. It was also the sixth straight win overall and the 11th consecutive victory in Tiger Stadium for LSU. Since falling behind to Wisconsin 24-7 in the third quarter of the season opener, LSU has now outscored its opponents 108-0. LSU limited the Warhawks to just six first downs and 93 yards of total offense (16 rushing, 77 passing). The Tigers got all the points they would need late in the first guarter when Colby Delahoussaye kicked a 21-yard field goal for a 3-0 LSU advantage. Darrel Williams scored on a 22-yard run on LSU's next possession for a 10-0 lead early in the second quarter. The score remained that way until midway through the third quarter when Williams scored on a 1-yard run, extending the margin to 17-0. Leonard Fournette and Kenny Hilliard added rushing TDs in the second half to cap the scoring for the Tigers. Fournette led LSU with 52 yards rushing, while Hilliard added 50 yards and Terrence Magee 40 yards for the Tigers, which finished with 219 yards and 4 TDs on the ground. Anthony Jennings connected on 11-of-18 passes for 139 yards with Travin Dural being his top target with six catches for 79 yards. Duke Riley, in his first career start, led the LSU defense with 8 tackles.

Late Rally Comes Up Short As LSU Falls to Mississippi State, 34-29

A furious fourth quarter rally came up short as LSU saw its 14-game winning streak over Mississippi State come to an end with a 34-29 setback to the Bulldogs in Tiger Stadium. The win was the first over LSU for the Bulldogs since 1999 and the first in Tiger Stadium for Mississippi State since 1991. Despite falling behind 34-10 early in the fourth quarter following a Mississippi State field goal, LSU had the ball inside the Bulldog 49-yard line with seven seconds left and a shot at a game-winning "Hail Mary" pass. The Tigers fell just short as Brandon Harris' pass was intercepted at the 1-yard line to end the game. LSU outscored the Bulldogs 19-0 over the final 12 minutes of the contest to get to within 34-29. Down 34-10, LSU strung together three straight TD drives, including two in a 28-second span, in the fourth quarter. Kenny Hilliard scored on a 1-yard run to get LSU to within 34-16. Harris connected with Malachi Dupre on a 31-yard TD pass with 1:55 to go to make it 34-22. Following a Mississippi State turnover, LSU needed just 15 seconds and two plays to score again, another Harris-to-Dupre TD pass, to make it 34-29. LSU forced Mississippi State to punt on its next possession, taking over with 20 seconds left at its own 20-yard line. Harris got LSU inside the MSU 50-yard line before his last-second heave fell short. MSU scored the first 17 points of the game and led 17-3 at halftime. LSU's Danielle Hunter pulled the Tigers to within 17-10 just 12 seconds into the second half when he picked up a fumble and ran 25 yards for a touchdown. MSU responded with two big scoring plays - a 56-yard run and a 74-yard pass - to stretch the margin to 31-10 midway through the third quarter. It stayed that way until MSU tacked on a field goal 11 seconds into the fourth quarter. For the game, MSU tallied 570 yards (302 rushing, 268 passing), while LSU managed 430 yards (89 rushing, 341 passing). Anthony Jennings connected on 13-of-26 passes for 157 yards, while Harris completed 6-of-9 for 140 yards and 2 scores. Travin Dural led LSU with 6 receptions for 124 yards, while Dupre had four catches for 120 yard and 2 TDs.

Harris and Fournette Power LSU Past New Mexico State, 63-7

Leonard Fournette rushed for a career-high 122 yards and 2 TDs, while Brandon Harris came off the bench to direct LSU on seven consecutive touchdown drives as the 17th-ranked Tigers overpowered New Mexico State, 63-7. LSU improved to 4-1 overall with the win as the Tigers stretched their non-conference regular season winning streak to 49 straight. The win was also the 99th at LSU for head coach Les Miles. Harris took over at quarterback for Anthony Jennings (2-of-5, 11 yards, 2 interceptions) and immediately ignited a sputtering offense, guiding LSU on scoring drives of 80, 62, 70, and 3 yards to give the Tigers a 42-7 advantage at halftime. Fournette scored on runs of 17 and 5 yards in the second quarter, while Harris hit Malachi Dupre with a 27-yard pass and Melvin Jones with a 3-yard pass to complete the first half scoring for the Tigers. Harris connected with Travin Dural on a 10-vard pass on LSU's opening possession of the second half to stretch the lead to 49-7. Harris added TD runs of 1 and 2 yards to round out the scoring for the Tigers and LSU racked up 563 total yards of offense (363 rushing, 200 passing). LSU's defense, minus one play, had another outstanding game, limiting the Aggies to 13 first downs and 274 total yards (172 rushing, 102 passing). New Mexico State's only points came on a 79-yard run by QB Andrew Allen in the second quarter. LSU's defense scored for the second straight contest as linebacker Kendell Beckwith intercepted a pass and raced 29 yards for a TD in the first quarter. LSU won despite turning the ball over on four of its six first quarter possessions. LSU's defense forced four turnovers in the contest (2 interceptions, 2 fumbles). For the game, Harris completed 11-of-14 passes for 178 yards and 3 scores. He also rushed for 36 yards and a pair of TDs. Terrence Magee had his best game of the season, rushing for 62 yards and a TD. Darrel Williams (59 yards) and Kenny Hilliard (53 yards) were the other leaders in the rushing attack for LSU. Dupre led LSU with 54 yards on 3 catches, while Trey Quinn had three receptions for 46 yards and Dural three for 40 yards. Kwon Alexander (8 tackles) and D.J. Welter (8 tackles, 1 fumble recovery, 1 QB hurry) led the Tiger defense.

Auburn quarterback Nick Marshall ran for two touchdowns and threw for two TDs as No. 5 Auburn beat 15thranked LSU, 41-7, in Jordan-Hare Stadium. The win was the first for Auburn over LSU since a 2010 victory. Auburn scored the first four times it touched the football, building a 31-7 lead at halftime. Trailing 17-0, LSU got its only points of the game on a 1-yard TD run by Kenny Hilliard. Hilliard's TD was setup on a 52-yard pass from Brandon Harris to Malachi Dupre that gave the Tigers the ball at the 1-yard line. LSU scored on its next play to pull to within 17-7 late in the first quarter. Auburn responded with a TD on the ensuing possession to stretch the margin to 24-7. Auburn tacked on a touchdown late in the second quarter on a 29-yard run by Marshall to extend the lead to 31-7. LSU limited Auburn to just 10 points in the second half. Harris, a true freshman, made his first career start for LSU, completing 3-of-14 passes for 58 yards. He also rushed for 36 yards on eight carries. Leonard Fournette led the LSU offense with 42 yards rushing, while John Diarse caught 2 passes for 40 yards and Dupre one pass for 52 yards. For the game, LSU had 282 yards of total offense and was hampered by going O-for-13 on third-down conversions. LSU had four possessions inside the Auburn 30-yard line that ended with no points. Auburn, on the other hand, racked up 566 total yards, and they converted on 6-of-12 third-down opportunities. Defensively, DE Danielle Hunter led LSU with a career-best 12 tackles, while LB Lamar Louis had nine stops. LSU dropped to 4-2 overall and 0-2 in the SEC with the loss, while Auburn improved to 5-0 overall and 2-0 in league play.

Miles Gets Win No. 100 as Tigers Use Late Field Goal to Beat Florida, 30-27

Les Miles won his 100th game at LSU as Colby Delahoussaye kicked a 50-yard field goal with three seconds left to lift the Tigers to a 30-27 win over Florida in Gainesville. Delahoussaye's field goal capped a wild fourth guarter that saw the teams exchange the lead three times to go along with a tie. LSU improved to 5-2 overall and 1-2 in the SEC with the win, while Florida fell to 3-2 overall and 2-2 in conference action. Trailing 20-17 midway through the fourth quarter, Florida returned an LSU punt 53 yards to the Tiger 9-yard line to get the excitement started. The Gators scored two plays later to re-gain the lead at 24-20 with 6:10 to play. LSU responded with a 9-play, 75-yard drive capped with a one-handed, 11-yard TD grab by Travin Dural to give the Tigers a 27-24 advantage with 2:40 to go. Anthony Jennings connected with Dural on 3rd-and-25 with a 41-vard completion to extend the drive that gave the Tigers the lead back. The back-and-forth continued on the first play of Florida's ensuing possession as the Gators completed a 73-yard pass to the LSU 2-yard line. The Tiger defense stiffened and held Florida out of the endzone, forcing the Gators to kick an 18-yard field goal that tied the game at 27-27 with 1:49 to play. LSU went 3-and-out deep in its own territory on its next possession, giving the Gators a chance at winning the game in the final minute. Florida went 13 yards on two plays to get to the LSU 45-yard line before Rickey Jefferson picked off a Jeff Driskel pass and returned it 23 yards to the Florida 36-yard line with 24 seconds left. The Tigers ran one play and clocked the ball on their second play to setup the game-winning field goal for Delahoussaye. Florida started the scoring in the first quarter when the Gators returned a punt 62 yards for a TD. Leonard Fournette tied the score at 7-7 just two minutes later with a 12-yard run. The Gators extended their lead to 17-7 early in the second quarter before Kenny Hilliard scored on a 1-yard plunge to pull LSU to within 17-14 at halftime. LSU took its first lead of the game late in the third quarter when Fournette scored from two yards out, giving the Tigers a 20-17 advantage. Fournette finished with a career-best 140 yards and 2 TDs on 27 carries to lead LSU.

Magee and Dominant Defense Help LSU Cruise Past Kentuckv. 41-3

Terrence Magee rushed for a season-high 12 7 yards and two touchdowns to help lead LSU past Kentucky, 41-3 in Tiger Stadium. LSU improved to 6-2 with the win as the Tigers ran their record to 45-4 in night games in Tiger Stadium under Les Miles. Defensively, LSU held the Wildcats to season-lows for points (3), total yards (217), rushing yards (71), and passing yards (146). LSU wasted little time in taking control of the game as Magee returned the opening kickoff 49 yards to setup the Tigers' first score - a 1-yard run by Leonard Fournette. Colby Delahoussaye stretched the lead to 10-0 with a 21-yard field goal on LSU's next possession. The Tigers led 17-0 in the first quarter after Tre'Davious White returned a punt 67 yards for a touchdown. Kentucky scored its only points on a 33-yard field goal at the 1:15 mark in the first quarter. LSU increased its lead to 24-3 just before halftime when Anthony Jennings connected with Travin Dural on a 32-yard TD pass. With just 44 seconds left in the half, LSU opted to squib the ensuing kickoff, which the Tigers recovered at the Kentucky 37-yard line thanks to a fortuitous bounce. Delahoussaye banked in a 35-yard field goal off the left upright to stretch the lead to 27-3 at halftime. Magee scored on runs of 9 and 23 yards in the third quarter as the Wildcats never threatened in the second half. Magee finished with a career-high 220 all-purpose yards (127 rushing, 44 receiving, 49 kickoff returns). For the game, LSU's offense racked up 303 rushing yards and 423 total yards. Jennings completed 7-of-14 passes for 120 yards and a scored as he ran his record to 6-1 as a starting quarterback. The three points were the fewest allowed in an SEC game by the Tigers since a 52-3 win over Ole Miss in 2011. Kendell Beckwith led LSU with nine tackles, while Danielle Hunter had six tackles, two tackles for loss and batted down three passes to pace the Tiger defense.

LSU Defense Stands Tall as Tigers Knock Off No. 3 Ole Miss. 10-7

LSU's defense put together another dominant effort, limiting third-ranked Ole Miss to just a first-guarter touchdown as the Tigers upset the previously unbeaten Rebels, 10-7, in Tiger Stadium. LSU held the Rebels to their season low for points (7) and total yards (317), while the Tiger offense racked up 406 yards, including 264 on the ground against an Ole Miss defense that was rated among the best in the nation. Ole Miss went into the game allowing just 97 rushing yards a contest. LSU was the first team to go over the 200-yard rushing mark against the Rebels in 2014. Down 7-3 early in the fourth quarter, Anthony Jennings directed the Tigers on a 13-play, 95-yard drive capped with a 3-yard TD pass to tight end Logan Stokes to put LSU up 10-7 with 5:07 to play in the contest. LSU ran the ball 12 of the 13 plays on the game-winning drive. LSU's defense twice turned Ole Miss back in the final five minutes of the game. Ole Miss turned the ball over on downs at the LSU 47-yard line to end a drive with 1:44 left and then after an LSU punt, the Rebels got to the Tiger 30-yard line before Ronald Martin intercepted a Bo Wallace pass with two seconds left at the LSU 2-yard line to secure the victory. Had it not been for four LSU turnovers and a missed field goal, the game may not have been as close. LSU missed a 28-yard field goal on its first possession and then fumbled the ball away at the Ole Miss 1-yard line on its second possession. Ole Miss led 7-0 after the first quarter. The Tigers fumbled the ball away inside Ole Miss territory on their first possession of the second guarter. After an Ole Miss punt, the Tigers got their first points of the game when Colby Delahoussaye connected on a 21-yard field goal. Ole Miss led 7-3 at halftime. The score remained that way until early in the fourth quarter when Jennings led LSU on its game-winning drive. On 12 possessions, LSU forced Ole Miss to punt eight times, including seven straight possessions from the second quarter until the 1:44 mark in the fourth quarter when the Rebels turned the ball over on downs. Leonard Fournette led LSU with 113 rushing yards. while Terrence Magee added 74 and Kenny Hilliard totaled 63. Jennings completed 8-of-16 passes for 142 yards and a score. Kendell Beckwith led the LSU defense with 11 tackles.

LSU Comes Up Short in 20-13 Overtime Loss to No. 4
Alabama
LSU's bid to upset fourth-ranked Alabama fell just short as the Tigers, despite another dominant defensive performance, dropped a 20-13 overtime decision to the Crimson Tide. In a game that featured two of the top defenses in college football, LSU managed 259 yards of total offense, while the Crimson Tide had 315 total yards, 55 of which came on their final possession. LSU took a 13-10 lead late in the fourth quarter when the Tigers recovered a T.J. Yeldon fumble at the Alabama 6-yard line. A personal foul penalty on first down backed the Tigers up to the Crimson Tide 21-yard line. From there, the Tigers had to settle for a 39yard field goal from Colby Delahoussaye, giving LSU a 13-10 lead with 50 seconds left. After the ensuing kickoff went out-of-bounds, Alabama started its game-tying drive on its own 35-yard line. The Crimson Tide went 55 yards on nine plays, capped with a 27-yard field goal with three seconds left to send the game into overtime. In overtime, Alabama covered the 25 yards in six plays to take a 20-13 lead on a 6-yard pass from Blake Sims to DeAndrew White. Needing a touchdown to send the game into a second overtime, LSU failed to move the ball in overtime, throwing four incomplete passes to end the contest. LSU took a 7-0 lead late in the first quarter when Anthony Jennings connected with Malachi Dupre on a 14-yard pass at the 2:07 mark. The score remained that way until the 6:40 mark of the second quarter when Sims hit Amari Cooper on a 23-yard pass. The Crimson Tide led 10-7 at halftime following a 39-yard field goal that was the result of an interception. LSU tied the game at 10-10 on its opening possession of the second half on a 35-yard field goal by Delahoussaye. The game remained tied until the final minute of the contest before field goals by each team sent the game into overtime. For the game, LSU's offense held the ball for 38:16, while limiting the Crimson Tide to just 21:44 of possession time. In the third quarter, LSU had the ball for 14:42, holding Alabama to just 18 seconds of possession time and five plays. Leonard Fournette led LSU with 79 rushing yards, while Jennings rushed for 40 yards and threw for another 76 on 8-of-26 passing. Kwon Alexander had a sack for a 9-yard loss and 10 total tackles to lead the Tiger defense. LSU fell to 7-3 overall and 3-3 in league play with the loss.

Arkansas Wins Back "Boot" With 17-0 Shutout of LSU

Arkansas held LSU to a season-low 123 total yards as the Razorbacks won back "The Boot" with a 17-0 victory over 20th-ranked LSU in Fayetteville. The game was one of the coldest on record for LSU with a kickoff temperature of 33 degrees. The shutout was the first for the Tigers since dropping a 21-0 decision to Alabama in the 2012 BCS National Championship Game, LSU fell to 7-4 overall and 3-4 in the loss. It was just the second time in 10 years under Les Miles that LSU has lost back-to-back games. Arkansas got all the scoring they would need on its first drive of the game when Adam McFain kicked a 32-yard field goal for a 3-O Razorback lead at the 10:17 mark in the first guarter. LSU punted on its first two possessions and then missed a 27-yard field goal that would have pulled the Tigers to within 10-3 late in the second quarter. Arkansas led 10-0 at halftime. The teams exchanged scoreless possessions in the third quarter before the Hogs broke through with another TD at the 11:03 mark in the fourth quarter, stretching the advantage to 17-0. LSU's best chance at points came midway through the fourth quarter when the Tigers got to the Arkansas 19-yard line before fumbling the ball away. LSU, which was playing without starting guard Vadal Alexander, lost center Elliott Porter to an ankle injury in the second guarter as the Tigers played most of the contest with three offensive linemen at new positions. Defensively, the Tigers held Arkansas to 264 total yards (95 rushing, 169 passing). DB Ronald Martin led LSU with nine tackles, while DT Christian LaCouture had six tackles and a sack for a 7-yard loss. Offensively, QB Anthony Jennings completed 12-of-22 passes for 87 yards, while RB Terrence Magee led the team with 24 rushing yards on seven carries.

Fournette, Jennings and Strong Defensive Effort Lead LSU Past Texas A&M. 23-17

Leonard Fournette rushed for a career-best 146 yards and a touchdown, while Anthony Jennings ran for 119 yards and threw for 107 yards as the Tigers capped the regular season with a 23-17 win over Texas A&M. The win was the fourth straight over the Aggies for LSU, and it ran the Tigers' record to 8-4 overall and 4-4 in SEC play. LSU's defense did its part in the win, holding the Aggies to 228 total yards (84 rushing, 144 passing), while limiting A&M to just two first downs in the first half. The Aggies did take an early 7-0 lead when Trey Williams scored on a 41-yard run at the 9:13 mark in the first quarter. LSU's defense bottled the Aggies up after that, holding AGM to three straight 3-and-outs, along with a fumble on a kickoff return, to close out the first half. Meanwhile, LSU's offense got on track, scoring 17 points in the final 4:33 of the second quarter to grab a 17-7 lead at halftime. Fournette scored on a 22-vard run to tie the game at 7-7 at the 4:33 mark. That was followed by a 10-yard TD reception by John Diarse from Anthony Jennings with 34 seconds left. LSU forced a fumble on the ensuing kickoff that led to a 31-yard field goal by Trent Domingue to close out the half. LSU extended the lead to 20-7 midway through the third guarter on a 27-yard field goal by Domingue. The Aggies opened the fourth quarter with a field goal and then pulled to within 20-17 on a 27yard TD pass from Kyle Allen to Speedy Noil with 6:42 to play in the game. Fournette's Record-Setting Day Not Enough as LSU
Falls To Notre Dame In Music City Bowl

Freshman RB Leonard Fournette set four Music City Bowl records, including longest touchdown run and longest kickoff return, but it wasn't enough as Notre Dame used a last-second field goal to knock off the Tigers, 31-28, in Nashville. It was a fitting end to a game that saw nine leads changes and ties. Fournette's efforts kept the Tigers in the game as his 100-yard kickoff return for a TD tied the game at 14-14 early in the second quarter. His 89-yard TD run with 6:14 left in the third quarter gave the Tigers a 28-21 lead. Notre Dame scored a TD on the opening drive of the game, taking a 7-0 lead at the 7:04 mark. Fournette tied the game at 7-7 with an 8-yard run late in the first quarter. The Irish regained the lead at 14-7 on their next possession before Fournette's kickoff return tied the game at 14-14. Notre Dame led 21-14 at halftime. In the second half, LSU needed just one play to tie the game at 21-21 as QB Anthony Jennings hit WR John Diarse with a 75-yard TD pass. Fournette gave LSU its only lead the of the game at 28-21 on another one possession drive for the Tigers with his 89-yard run. The Irish responded with a 50-yard TD run just two minutes later to tie the game at 28-28. The teams went scoreless in the fourth guarter until Kyle Brindza kicked a 32-yard field goal as time expired to give the Irish a 31-28 win. The field goal capped a 14-play, 71-yard drive that saw the Irish successfully convert on third down three times. For the game, Fournette rushed for 143 yards and a pair of TDs, while Jennings completed 7-of-14 passes for 151 yards and a score. LSU finished with 436 total yards, while Notre Dame managed 449 total yards. Defensively, LB Kwon Alexander had 11 tackles and SS Jamal Adams added 10 tackles and 2.0 tackles for loss. LSU finished the season with an 8-5 overall mark.

Hearing those words from public address announcer Dan Borne' as the Tigers enter the stadium brings chills to even the casual LSU football fan and sends shivers to those on the opposing sideline. Seven days a year, Tiger Stadium becomes the fifth largest city in the state of Louisiana as over 100,000 fans pack the cathedral of college football to watch the Tigers play. For LSU fans, there's nothing better than spending a night in Tiger Stadium. LSU home football games are events talked about year round and happenings in Tiger Stadium are passed down from generation to generation.

For opponents, however, it's another story as Tiger Stadium is an intimidating venue that has been called one of the most dreaded road playing sites in all of college football. Seating over 100,000 fans and nicknamed "Death Valley," poll after poll has proclaimed Tiger Stadium as one of the greatest sites anywhere for a football game -- college or professional.

NO PLACE LIKE HOME

LSU enters the 2015 season having won 62 of its 71 games under coach Les Miles in Tiger Stadium, a stretch that dates back to the start of the 2005 season and includes wins over 18 Top 25 teams. Under Miles, the Tigers shattered the school record for consecutive home victories with 22 from Oct. 24, 2009 to Oct. 13, 2012. LSU is a perfect 31-0 against non-conference teams at home when Miles is on the sideline.

LSU is 92-14 at home since the 2000 season - including perfect home records of 7-0 in 2004, 8-0 in 2006, 7-0 in 2010 , 6-0 in 2011 and 7-0 in 2013. Only three times since 2000 have the Tigers lost more than one home game.

The 2014 season featured the opening of the South End Zone

Expansion, increasing Tiger Stadium's seating capacity to 102,321. LSU averaged a school-record 101,723 fans for seven home games, recording soldout attendance figures of 102,321 for its home games against Mississippi State, Ole Miss and Alabama.

LSU in 2013 was undefeated (7-0) at home for the fourth time in the Miles Era. The home schedule was highlighted by wins over No. 17 Florida and No. 9 Texas A&M with attendance figures just below 93,000 for both games.

The 2012 season saw the Tigers shatter the school total attendance record, packing in a combined 741,005 fans for eight games. It represented the eighth consecutive season that LSU averaged over 92,000 fans per game. The Tigers knocked off third-ranked South Carolina, 23-21, with a spectacular fourth quarter on Oct. 13 in front of 92,734. The win was LSU's 22nd consecutive home triumph, representing a school

One of the most anticipated game in Tiger Stadium history occurred on Nov. 3, 2012, against top-ranked Alabama.

After weeks of buildup, a then school-record 93,374 fans and nearly 1,000 credentialed media saw the Tide escape with a 21-17 victory. However, the atmosphere that evening left an indelible image for many. ESPN personality Scott Van Pelt, attending his first LSU home game, said the following two days later on his radio show: "There is nothing I would put ahead of that that I've ever seen in any sport. When you're there, you don't want to miss anything."

Fans and media came from across the globe to attend the event. Alex Ferguson of Sky Sports UK wrote, "This has been one of the greatest experiences of my life, and any selfrespecting sports fan has to go to a game in Tiger Stadium."

In 2011, the Tigers capped a perfect 12-0 regular season with a 41-17 victory over No. 3 Arkansas. An attendance of 93,108 - the third-largest in the stadium's history - watched LSU erase a 14-0 deficit by outscoring the Razorbacks 41-3 the rest of the way. In six home games during its SEC Championship run, LSU outscored its opponents by a combined score of 253-57. It was the first time since the 1958-59 seasons that the Tigers posted consecutive undefeated seasons at

LSU averaged over 92,000 fans for the seventh straight year in 2011, as a then school-record average of 92,868 spectators piled into Tiger Stadium to see the Tigers play. The mark shattered the previous single-season average attendance mark set during the 2010 campaign with 92,718 fans per contest.

On Nov. 8, 2008, LSU eclipsed the 93,000-fan mark for the first time in school history when 93,039 spectators welcomed back former coach Nick Saban and top-ranked Alabama. LSU fell to the Crimson Tide, 27-21 in overtime, in what was then the most to ever see a game in Tiger Stadium. That mark was surpassed in 2009 when once again the nation's top-ranked team, the Florida Gators, played under the lights on Oct. 10. A then school-record 93,129 fans watched Florida defeat LSU, 13-3.

The Tigers posted a 6-1 home mark during their 2007 national championship season, including a thrilling 28-24 victory on Oct. 6 over Florida that was played before a crowd of 92,910 and a national primetime audience on CBS. Legendary CBS Sports announcer Verne Lundquist to this day says it is the loudest he has ever heard a stadium during a broadcast.

The 2005 season saw Tiger Stadium play host to its first Monday night game as LSU dropped an overtime thriller to Tennessee after the game was postponed two days due to Hurricane Rita. The LSU-Tennessee contest was the most-watched college football game in the history of ESPN2 as 2.77 million homes tuned in.

Due to the devastation to New Orleans and the Louisiana Superdome by Hurricane Katrina, Tiger Stadium served as the playing site for four New Orleans Saints games in 2005, as well as hosting the Tulane-Southeastern Louisiana contest. In all, 11 games (seven NCAA and four NFL) were played in Tiger Stadium during the 2005 season.

Part of the lore of Tiger Stadium is the tradition of playing games at night, an idea that was introduced in 1931 against Spring Hill (a 35-0 LSU victory). In 2006, LSU celebrated its 75th year of playing night football in Tiger Stadium. Since that first night game in 1931, LSU has played the majority of its games at night and the Tigers have fared much better under the lights than during the day. Since 1960, LSU is 236-63-4 (.785) at night in Tiger Stadium compared to a 29-26-3 (.526) record during the day over that span. Since 2000, LSU is 70-8 in night games and head coach Les Miles is 45-4 in Saturday night games in Death

CBSSports.com's Dennis Dodd wrote in Oct. 2009 of LSU's fabled night history, "It has turned the knees of All-Americans to goo. It has caused coaches to lose their coaching minds. It only happens at a special space at a special time. LSU can be up, LSU can be down, but LSU's best weapon remains ... sunset."

LSU has averaged 78,104 spectators for each of its 369 contests in Tiger Stadium since the NCAA began compiling official attendance figures in 1957. Since the start of the NCAA's attendance compilations, LSU has finished in the nation's top 10 in average attendance in 51 of the past 58 seasons. The Tigers have drawn 28,820,248 fans since 1957. LSU passed the 25,000,000-mark in all-time attendance in 2009.

Tiger Stadium first opened its gates to fans in the fall of 1924 as LSU hosted Tulane in the season finale. Beginning with that first game in Tiger Stadium, LSU has posted a 403-146-18 (.727) mark in Death Valley. LSU's overall home record since the start of football in 1893 is 483-167-19 (.736).

TIGER STADIUM

TESTIMONIALS

Tiger Stadium tradition and lore has seen its share of national publicity as one of the most talked about venues in all of sports.

In 1998, Sport Magazine named Tiger Stadium "the most feared road playing site in America," and in 1996, ESPN named LSU's pre-game party the best in all of America. Those surveys supported the previous polls by Gannett News Service in 1995, The Sporting News in 1989 and the College Football Association in 1987, that depict Tiger Stadium as the most difficult place for a visiting team to play.

Sports Illustrated's Rick Reilly, in a column comparing college football to professional football, penned that "College football is LSU's Tiger Stadium at night." ESPN's Chris Fowler called LSU his favorite gameday experience in the Sports Illustrated's On Campus issue in 2003.

In 2002, after a 33-10 non-conference win over Miami (Ohio), UM coach Terry Hoeppner said of Tiger Stadium, "that's as exciting an environment as you can have. I thought the crowd was a factor for us because we had communication problems we haven't had at Michigan and Ohio State."

After a victory before a national television audience on ESPN in 2001, ESPN sideline reporter Adrian Karsten said, "Death Valley in Baton Rouge is the loudest stadium I've ever been in. There are very few stadiums in America worth a touchdown, but the Bayou Bengals certainly have that advantage in Tiger Stadium."

In 2007, the acclaim continued when The Bleacher Report ranked "Death Valley" as the third toughest venue in the world to play in. LSU's run to a national title and record crowds led ESPN.com to proclaim Tiger Stadium as "The Scariest Place to Play in America" for an opposing team in a list of stadium rankings.

Wright Thompson of ESPN.com wrote in 2008, "It was electric. When Death Valley is rocking, it seems as if it might actually take flight. On Saturday, I went back to Baton Rouge to see Alabama barely beat LSU, and was, once again, reminded that Tiger Stadium is the best place in the world to watch a sporting event."

The stadium's sheer noise and tradition has carried into a new decade. In 2010, The Sporting News proclaimed Tiger tailgating and "Saturday Night in Death Valley" as the top gameday tradition in all of college football. That same year, the Associated Press named Tiger Stadium as the top place to tailgate in college football.

Following the 2012 season, Athlon Sports wrote, "Be it the vast and unique tailgating menu or Richter Scale-inducing fans, few places in the nation can send chills down your spine like a game at Tiger Stadium.

As one of the loudest and most rabid atmospheres in the nation, LSU boasts one of the most daunting home-field advantages in college football – especially at night."

GREAT MOMENTS

The 2007 national championship season featured some of Tiger Stadium's most exciting moments, including a 28-24 win over Florida on Oct. 6. Top-ranked LSU overcame a 10-point fourth-quarter deficit to beat the ninth-ranked Gators in front of 92,910 fans - then the largest crowd in stadium history - and a primetime CBS national television audience. Just two weeks later, Matt Flynn connected with Tiger Stadium transforms into a country music cathedral each May with the three-day Bayou Country Superfest, an annual festival that is one of the top tourist destinations in Baton Rouge and the South. BCS has seen the likes of Kenny Chesney, Zac Brown Band, Tim McGraw, Carrie Underwood, Rascal Flatts, Jason Aldean and Keith Urban.

Demetrius Byrd on a 22-yard TD pass with one second remaining to give LSU a 30-24 victory over Auburn in a game televised by ESPN. LSU rallied from deficits of 17-7 at halftime and 24-23 with three minutes left in the contest to capture the electrifying win.

Though already considered one of the most raucous stadiums in all of college football, the 2003 season saw Tiger Stadium take it to another level during LSU's national title run, as the team, along with the fans, captivated the national media almost on a weekly basis. CBS televised Matt Mauck's last-minute game-winning pass to Skyler Green against Georgia before a crowd of 92,251, while ESPN was on hand for a dominating 31-7 victory over Auburn. The Tigers closed out the 2003 home slate with a 55-24 win over Arkansas before what was then the second-largest crowd in school history (92,213). The contest was televised to a national audience by CBS and the win propelled LSU to the SEC Championship Game.

In 2001, the Tigers clinched a berth in their first SEC Championship Game with a 27-14 victory over Auburn in the season finale in Tiger Stadium. After the contest, thousands of Tiger fans spilled onto the stadium floor to celebrate the victory. The Auburn game was traditionally played earlier in the season, but the attacks of September 11 postponed the contest until the final week of the regular season.

In 2000, the goal posts came down twice.
Immediately after the Tigers upset then-No. 11 ranked Tennessee 38-31 in overtime, the capacity crowd of 91,682 flowed onto the field of Tiger Stadium to celebrate the victory. Hundreds of students lined the sidelines and the back of the north end zone as the Tigers held the Vols scoreless in overtime for the victory.

The goal posts came down again in the final home game of the 2000 season as the Tigers posted a 30-28 win over Alabama, their first victory over the Crimson Tide in Tiger Stadium since 1969.

The goal posts fell for the first time in 1997 as all of America witnessed one of the most explosive nights in the history of the grand stadium when the Tigers upended No. 1-ranked Florida before a national television audience. A sea of Tiger fans swamped the floor of Tiger Stadium as both goal posts came crashing down — a scene that was replayed countless times on college football highlight shows.

Perhaps the most famous moment in Death Valley history took place on "The Night The Tigers Moved the Earth," Oct. 8, 1988. When Tiger quarterback Tommy Hodson threw to Eddie Fuller for a winning touchdown against Auburn, the explosion of the crowd was so thunderous that it caused an earth tremor that registered on a seismograph meter in LSU's Geology Department across campus.

Then there was the night the Tigers nearly upset No. 1-ranked Southern Cal before a sellout crowd on Sept. 28, 1979. The Tigers came up short, but the crowd roared from kickoff to final gun in a game many ardent LSU followers rank as the loudest in stadium history.

And of course there was Halloween night 1959, when Billy Cannon made his famous 89-yard punt return to lead No. 1 LSU past No. 3 Ole Miss. Legend has it that families living near the campus lakes came running out of their homes in fear of the noise erupting around them.

Those are the highlights, some of which have shaped the character of this great stadium. But week in and week out each fall, a new chapter unfolds in the history of Death Valley.

Aside from football, Tiger Stadium has served as a concert venue since 2010. Each spring for the past six years, Death Valley has played host to "Bayou Country Superfest", a three-day country music festival that has featured the likes of Taylor Swift, Blake Shelton, Kenny Chesney, Tim McGraw, Zac Brown Band, Rascal Flatts, Keith Urban, Carrie Underwood, Jason Aldean and Luke Bryan.

HISTORY

The home of one of football's proudest traditions, Tiger Stadium once served as a dormitory for approximately 1,500 students, and while Broussard Hall, then LSU's athletics dormitory, was being renovated during the fall of 1986, the LSU football players lived in Tiger Stadium.

The original phase of construction was completed in 1924. This first phase included the east and west stands, which seated about 12,000. Seven years later (1931), the sides were extended upward to accommodate an additional 10,000 fans, raising the capacity to 22,000. In 1936, the stadium seating capacity was increased to 46,000, with the addition of 24,000 seats in the north end, making Tiger Stadium into a horseshoe configuration.

The next phase of construction took place in 1953 when the stadium's south end was closed to turn the horseshoe into a bowl, increasing the seating capacity to 67,720.

The original upper deck atop the west stands was completed in 1978, and it added 8,000 seats to the stadium's capacity. Additional seating in two club level sections, which flanked the existing press box, brought the total addition to approximately 10,000 seats and raised the stadium's capacity to approximately 78,000.

Refurbishing began on the stadium in the summer of 1985, when the east and west stands were waterproofed, and 25,000 chair back seats were added to replace the older "bench" type seats. Another phase of improvements was completed in 1987 when the north and south stands were waterproofed and newer bleachers were again installed to replace the older ones.

The playing field was moved 11 feet south in 1986 to provide more room between the back line of the North End Zone and the curvature of the stadium fence, which surrounds the field. It also put the playing area in the exact center of the arena's grassy surface.

Prior to the 1987 season, more seats were installed at the upper portion of the west lower stands in Tiger Stadium. Also, the stadium's seating arrangement was renumbered to make all seats a uniform size. The addition of bleacher seating in 1988 brought the capacity to 80,150, but the elimination of some bleacher seating after the 1994 season dropped the capacity to 80,000.

Now the fifth-largest on-campus stadium in college football, Tiger Stadium continues to provide fans with the ultimate college football experience. Fifteen years ago, 11,600 seats were added with the installation of the east upper deck, bringing the capacity to nearly 92,000. In addition to the new east upper deck, 70 skyboxes, called "Tiger Dens," were built, giving Tiger fans luxury accommodations. The addition of the 11,600 seats in 2000 marked the first expansion to Tiger Stadium since 1978, when the original west upper deck was completed.

The distinctive environment of Tiger Stadium became even more pronounced in 2005 as the ambitious West Upper Deck project was virtually completed. Construction on the project – which began immediately after LSU's home finale against Ole Miss in November of 2004 - carried a $60 million price tag and rebuilt over 3,200 special amenity seats as a well as a state-of-the-art press box to Tiger Stadium. The west side renovation, which included the removal and rebuilding of the upper deck to mirror the east side upper deck, was completely finished during the 2006 season.

In 2009, major technological advances were made when Tiger Stadium added an 80-foot wide high-definition video board to the north end zone of the facility. Called one of the largest video boards in all of college athletics, the HD board measures 27-feet high and 80-feet wide.

In August 2010, LSU Vice Chancellor and Director of Athletics Joe Alleva and the Tiger Athletic Foundation launched a campaign to preserve and restore the look of Tiger Stadium. The 428 windows on the north side of the stadium were completely refurbished. The 300 remaining windows on the east and west sides of the stadium were completed for the 2013 season.

Prior to the 2012 season, construction was completed on the first part of the west side plaza that includes new gates, All-American and Hall of Fame plazas and the national championship plaza that showcases the past, present and future of LSU football. Construction on the north plaza of Tiger Stadium was completed prior to the 2013 season.

The 2012 season saw a new tradition established at Tiger Stadium. Following an LSU victory, the north end of the stadium lights up in "victory gold." The new unique look is a part of a state-of-the-art lighting system that was installed prior to the season that turns the upper archways of the north end of the stadium to purple and gold. Also prior to the 2012 campaign, letters spelling out Tiger Stadium were installed on the west side.

In April 2012, a new exciting era of Tiger Stadium was unveiled by Alleva, as plans were announced for the South End Zone Expansion. Construction was completed prior to the 2014 season for 66 suites, approximately 3,000 club seats above the existing south end zone seats, and 1,400 general public seats above the new suite and club seating. The project, privately funded by Tiger Athletic Foundation, brought the capacity of Tiger Stadium to 102,321, making it the fifth-largest stadium in the nation.

Joe Alleva

LSU Vice Chancellor/Director of Athletics

Joe Alleva continues to bring unprecedented national recognition to LSU as Vice Chancellor and Director of Athletics. Under Alleva's leadership, LSU enjoys one of the country's premier athletics programs with success on and off the field of competition. Now in his eighth year at LSU, Alleva is dedicated to athletic and academic excellence, and he is committed to providing the opportunities and the resources necessary for student-athletes to excel in competition, in the classroom and in the community. Alleva joined the LSU family on April 4, 2008 after a highly successful tenure as director of athletics at Duke University for 10 years. He was named vice chancellor at LSU in August of 2009, marking the first time in school history that the director of athletics has also held a vice chancellor position.

Alleva is currently serving a five-year term on the prestigious NCAA Men's Basketball Committee, enhancing his reputation as one of the most respected athletic administrators in the country. He has been appointed to numerous national committees throughout his career, including the Football Bowl Certification Committee, the NCAA Division I Championships/Competition Cabinet and several Southeastern Conference and Atlantic Coast Conference committees.

Upon his arrival at LSU, Alleva unveiled a strategic master plan for the LSU athletics program -- "LSU: Thru and True" - to confirm the advancement and future of LSU Athletics as an exemplary enterprise. The central mission of the plan is to create an environment for student-athletes to reach their ultimate potential, prepare them to be champions in life and to set out goals and values for the entire athletics program.

Living up to Alleva's mantra of "competition, classroom, community," a total of 71 proud Tigers received their degrees from the university during LSU commencement ceremonies in December and May. LSU's Graduation Success Rate as reported by the NCAA remains at an all-time high for the university with a score of 81. LSU studentathletes in 2014-15 logged 3,961 hours in community service work across 21 sports through LSU's "Geaux Givers" program.

Alleva's strong commitment to academics ensures that the Cox Communications Academic Center for Student-Athletes is a first-class facility that cultivates success in the classroom and the development of life skills. And with an emphasis on community outreach programs, the implementation under Alleva's direction of the "Geaux Givers" fosters a relationship between the local citizens and LSU student-athletes. Alleva has also bolstered the L-Club program to connect with former student-athletes, and he has supervised the thriving "Project Graduation" program in which former student-athletes return to LSU to earn their degrees.

Alleva's tenure has been distinguished by a number of significant athletic achievements, including four 10-win seasons and 69 total victories by the football team. The Tigers have played in a bowl game in each of Alleva's seven gridiron seasons and LSU has finished in the Top 20 five times in that period. LSU under Alleva's leadership has claimed the 2009 baseball national championship and three College World Series berths, the 2015 men's golf national championship, two women's basketball Sweet 16 appearances, three gymnastics Super Six berths, two softball College World Series appearances and $16\ NCAA\ Top\ 5$ finishes indoors and outdoors by the men's and women's track and field teams. The Tigers in the past seven seasons have earned 33 individual NCAA championships in the sports of men and women's track and field, gymnastics, men's golf and women's golf. LSU has captured 14 Southeastern Conference team championships, and the Tigers have won 90 individual SEC titles during Alleva's term.

The men's golf national championship the Tigers' fifth title and their first since 1955 - highlighted a remarkable 2014-15 season that featured history-making performances. Sixteen of LSU's 21 sports earned points toward the school's No. 15 national ranking in the 2014-15 Learfield Directors' Cup. marking the Tigers' third finish in the Top 15 during Alleva's tenure. The Tigers had seven Top 10 NCAA finishes, and LSU became the first school in SEC history to play in a bowl game, have both its men's and women's basketball teams reach the NCAA Tournament, and advance to the College World Series in baseball and softball in the same athletic year. LSU joined Florida State and Texas as the only schools in NCAA annals to accomplish the bowl game, men's/women's NCAA basketball tournament, and baseball/softball College World Series feat.

In addition, the LSU men's programs captured the 2014-15 Southeastern Conference All-Sports title, the first for the LSU men since 1996-97, and the LSU women finished third in the SEC all-sports standings. The baseball team led the nation in wins with 54, won the SEC title and earned a berth in the CWS for the second time in three years. The softball team reached the Women's CWS for the second time in four years and secured the program's first No. 1 ranking. The men's basketball program continued its return to national prominence by winning 22 games, finishing third in the SEC and participating in the NCAA Tournament. The men's track and field squad placed fourth in the NCAA Outdoor Championships, and both the men's and women's teams posted Top 10 finishes in the NCAA Indoor Championships.

The 2015 LSU gymnastics team drew sold-out crowds to the Maravich Center and won its third straight NCAA regional title. The volleyball team advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament, the women's golf team recorded a Top 20 NCAA finish, the men's and women's tennis teams recorded victories in the NCAA Tournament, and the women's swimming and diving teams sent a schoolrecord 11 competitors to the NCAA meet.

Alleva's vision keeps LSU among the nation's leaders in athletic facilities. In the fall of 2014, LSU opened the expansion of the South End Zone of Tiger Stadium -- a project that added premium seating, general public seating and two state-of-the-art video boards - continuing an effort to augment one of the most iconic venues in all of college sports. Since 2010, Alleva has directed an aggressive campaign to preserve and enhance the appearance of Tiger Stadium that has included the installation of new windows, lighting systems, gating systems, and championship plazas. The Football Operations Building will soon experience a significant renovation to maintain its status as a high-functioning workplace for coaches and LSU's world-renowned track and field program in 2010 received a new running surface in Bernie Moore Stadium, and extensive renovations to the Maddox Field House in the spring of 2014 give the Tigers a first-class indoor track and field venue. Alleva directed a major renovation to the University Club golf course that was completed in September 2010 and allows the LSU men's and women's golf teams to play on one of the most challenging courses in the country.

An overhaul of the LSU soccer facility was completed in the fall of 2011, converting the stadium into fan-friendly venue.

This fall, LSU will open a new gymnastics practice facility and a new tennis complex featuring indoor and outdoor courts. Future plans include the construction of a modern Nutrition Center for Student-Athletes, a facility that will house full-time chefs and nutritionists for all Fighting Tiger Alleva is an innovator with bold ideas that benefit all of Greater Baton Rouge. He has been instrumental in the planning of the Bayou Country Superfest, a three-day country music concert and festival held in Tiger Stadium each spring. The event attracts over 100,000 visitors to the LSU campus and makes a tremendous economic impact upon the local community.

Alleva became director of athletics at Duke in 1998 and his impressive tenure there propelled the university into the ranks of America's top all-around collegiate programs. Among his outstanding list of accomplishments includes the greatest 10-year period in Duke Athletics, winning more ACC and NCAA championships than in any other decade in school history.

Alleva, whose hometown is Suffern, N.Y., majored in Finance at Lehigh University and received his bachelor's degree in 1975. While at Lehigh, Alleva was the quarterback of the football team and team captain in 1974. Alleva also played on the Lehigh baseball team. He served as a graduate assistant football coach and earned an MBA in 1976.

While at Duke, Alleva played a key role in Durham's community sports scene. He started Little League Baseball in Durham over 20 years ago, and also began the American Legion baseball program.

television broadcast crew from 1982-87 then returned to the radio booth in 1988. The LSU All-American is one of the school's all-time great scorers as a receiver and placekicker for the Tigers from 1963-65. JIM HAWTHORNE TRIBUTE

Jim Hawthorne has had one signoff that was emotional enough.

Now where will his final football and men's basketball season as "Voice of the Tigers" take him and us as he describes the highs and lows of college sports as he has done in parts of six decades dating back to the 1960s.

The native of Anacoco, Louisiana is about to begin his 33rd and final season as the play-by-play voice of LSU football, the only voice many in a generation have known as the one that tells them the story of LSU sports. When you think about LSU and Jim Hawthorne that phrase about "the soundtrack of your life" suddenly becomes so true.

Applause is coming in from everywhere for Jim Hawthorne. There have not been many in the last 60 years that have journeyed to the upper regions of Tiger Stadium to call LSU football and the fraternity of announcers who call major Division I football, basketball and baseball is a shrinking lot.

That's why anyone who has ever picked up a microphone to call any sport in the last few decades knows how prestigious it is for Hawthorne to receive the Chris Schenkel Award from the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame. The award recognizes individuals who have had long, distinguished careers broadcasting college football with direct ties to a specific university.

"Jim Hawthorne has had an exceptional broadcasting career with the Tigers, spanning more than 30 years and during that time, his voice has become synonymous with one of the greatest college football traditions in the country," said NFF President/CEO Steve Hatchell. "We are played to honor Jim Hawthorne with the 2015 NFF Chris Schedule Award as he finishes his remarkable career."

"I have been exceptionally blessed and extremely fortunate to have been part of the LSU Radio broadcast team for more than 30 years," said Hawthorne. "But now it has come time to prepare to step aside and move into a new phase in my life. At the end of the 2015-16 basketball season, I will retire from this position. At the age of 71, I look very much forward to spending more time visiting my family and traveling with my best friend, my wife Carol.

"I want to sincerely tank the LSU administration, all of the coaches I have had the pleasure to work with and the entire Fighting Tiger nation for their support. It has meant more to me than I could possibly describe."

Since taking over play-by-play duties prior to the 1984 season, Hawthorne hasn't missed an LSU football game, broadcasting 380 straight games. That streak has included some of the most unforgettable games in school history, which includes a 21-14 win over Oklahoma State in the 2003 BC Championship game as well as the 38-24 victory over Ohio State in the 2007 national title contest.

Hawthorne has called 22 bowl games for the Tigers and he was behind the microphone for the "Earthquake Game" against Auburn in 1988, the win over No. 1 Florida in Tiger Stadium in 1997, and the so-called "Game of the Century" in 2011 when top-ranked LSU kicked a field goal in overtime to defeat No. 2 Alabama, 9-6, in Tuscaloosa.

When Tom Shatel of the Omaha World Herald wrote about Hawthorne prior to his final call at the College World Series this past June he penned: "They don't make 'em like this anymore: a broadcaster who does three major sports and has for more than 30 years. Amazing career. Interesting life."

It's a career and life he shared with all Tiger fans who have hung on his every word all these years.

The first-year debut of the SEC Network has proven to be one of the most successful launches by a network in all of cable television. Plus, it has brought Southeastern Conference sports to audiences nationwide.

That was the vision when the SEC and ESPN signed a 20-year agreement through 2034 to create and operate a multiplatform network which launched on Aug. 14, 2014. The network and its accompanying digital platform carries SEC contest 24/7 including some 1,500 events in its first year.

The network televised 45 football games, more than 100 men's basketball games, 60 women's basketball games, 75 baseball games, and events from across the SEC's 21 sports annually.

Besides the volume of over the air events, thanks to commitment by athletic departments like LSU, the network was able to easily surpass the goal of 1,000 events in its first year. All 14 schools built state-of-the-art control rooms and purchased HD camera equipment to provide the same quality coverage for events that viewers were used to for years on ESPN family of network events.

These events were made exclusively through the WatchESPN site on computers, phones and tablets, allowing fans anywhere and almost anytime to watch their favorite teams play their favorite

Now as the SEC Network ramps up for year two, there is wall-to-wall coverage of SEC Football Media Days and new programming is being planned to surround the coverage of live sporting events in the league.
