LSU's 1939 SEC Champions

Louisiana State University has a colorful 114-year (111 seasons) baseball history which began with the first team in 1893 and has continued uninterrupted since 1905.

Although baseball was played at LSU prior to 1893, no contests had been scheduled with any clubs outside of Baton Rouge. The team of 1892 won all of its games against local competition.

On May 13, 1893, in connection with a military field day, LSU was engaged in its first intercollegiate athletic contest and defeated the nine from Tulane University.

That was the only game of 1893 and captain E.B. Young, in selecting materials for uniforms to be used for the May 13 contest, chose the colors of Old Gold and Purple. The baseball squad of 1893 had the honor of first wearing the colors that later were adopted as the official University colors.

In 1904, a game was scheduled to start the year against a local professional club. That game, however, was cancelled when the Tiger captain and manager resigned upon the refusal of the university president to grant permission for the cadets to attend the contest. The team disbanded and no further contests were played that year.

In 1915 C.C. "Doc" Stroud took over as Tiger coach and eventually became the first man to lead LSU for more than two seasons. In 1919 Stroud led LSU to a 12-4 campaign, a mark that had been bettered only one time before and would not be surpassed again until 1936. In that 1919 season, the Tigers had a fine young pitcher named Tom Staples who threw a perfect game in a 9-0 win over Louisiana College. He also pitched and won both games of a doubleheader that same year.

In 1927 Harry Rabenhorst was named head coach and served in that capacity until 1956, with the exception of a three-year period from 1943-45. During that three-year span, A.L. Swanson was the Tigers' field manager. In Swanson's first year, the Tigers lost their first three games of the season, but bounced back to win 12 of the next 16 and LSU's second SEC championship.

The first SEC title came back to LSU in 1939 under Rabenhorst. The '39 team was one of LSU's best as it posted a 22-5 record for an .815 winning percentage. The team was led by first baseman Paul Brotherton, outfielder Ken Kavanaugh, Sr. and pitcher Jesse Danna, and had a winning streak of 13 games before losing to Minnesota in a swing through the Western (Big 10) Conference.

Besides the 1939 and 1943 championships, LSU also won conference titles in 1946 - under Rabenhorst - and in 1961 under Ray Didier, but not again until 1975 under Jim Smith. During Smith's tenure, however, the Tigers won or tied for the SEC Western Division title on three occasions.

The 1975 team became the first LSU squad to participate in the NCAA Tournament, as the Tigers played in the South Regional at Starkville, Miss. LSU won its first regional game over Murray State, but was eliminated from the tournament after consecutive losses to Florida State and Miami (Fla.).

LSU coaches in the early years supplemented their collegiate schedules with competition against professional opponents. This gave the Tigers excellent chances to gain experience, but rare chances for victory. Among the Tigers' most noteworthy losses was a 17-7 defeat at the hands of the Chicago White Sox in 1925. Other pro opponents included the Detroit, Cleveland, New York and St. Louis major league teams, Indianapolis of the American Association, Nashville and New Orleans of the Southern Association, plus several teams from Louisiana's celebrated Class "C" Evangeline League.

Through the early years, numerous Tigers made it into the professional ranks. A.W. Baird in 1916 was the first Tiger known to have signed a pro contract. Since then, many players from LSU made their mark in the major leagues, including Walker Cress, Cincinnati Reds; Dave Madison, Detroit Tigers; Buddy Blair, Philadelphia Athletics; Mark Freeman, New York Yankees; Connie Ryan, Boston Braves; Alvin Dark, New York Giants; Joe Bill Adcock, Milwaukee Braves; Art Swanson, Pittsburgh Pirates; Mike Miley, California Angels; and Randy Wiles, Chicago White Sox.

Those and other outstanding players performed on a number of diamonds on the LSU campus. In 1929, the Tigers' home games were played on a field located on the Campanile Parade Grounds. In 1936, the playing field was located north of the football stadium and was equipped with wooden bleachers. In 1938, LSU baseball moved into what was later to be named Alex Box Stadium, the present home of the Fighting Tigers.

Tom Staples (middle) fired a perfect game in 1919 against Louisiana College.

Joe Bill Adcock enjoyed a 17-year big league career.

Venerable Alex Box Stadium has served as the Tigers' home since 1938.

The Bertman Years 1984-2001

On July 18, 2000, LSU baseball coach Skip Bertman announced that the 2001 season would be his 18th and final at the helm of the Fighting Tigers, the team he had built into the nation's premier collegiate baseball squad.

To Skip Bertman, striving for excellence isn't just a catchy motto or slogan; it's how he has approached every task he has undertaken in his life -- from his playing days at the University of Miami, to his highly-successful 11-year stint as head baseball coach at Miami Beach High School, to his eight years as associate head coach at UM, to his tenure in Baton Rouge.

Bertman, who now serves as LSU's athletics director, led the Tigers to a sterling 870-330-3 mark (.724) from 1984-2001, giving him the highest winning percentage of any SEC baseball coach and the fourth-highest percentage among active coaches at the time of his retirement, trailing only Wichita State's Gene Stephenson, Gary Ward of Oklahoma State and Florida State's Mike Martin. Bertman, USC legend Rod Dedeaux and Augie Garrido of Texas are the only coaches to win five national championships.

In addition to the five national championships (1991, 1993, 1996, 1997, 2000) Bertman's LSU teams also claimed seven SEC championships, nine 50-win seasons, 11 CWS berths and six SEC Tournament championships.

Bertman's jersey #15 has been retired by LSU - the first baseball number to receive that designation from the university - and the street in front of Alex Box Stadium has been re-named Skip Bertman Drive. Bertman was inducted into the American Baseball Coaches Hall of Fame in January 2003, and into the College Baseball Hall of Fame in July 2006.

As much as LSU's dominance can be attributed to Bertman, the players have also had a huge part in that success. During Bertman's tenure at LSU, more than 100 players were drafted into professional baseball, with 37 Tigers reaching the major leagues. Bertman produced 11 first-team All-America performers, and more importantly, nearly 100 percent of those who played four or five years in the Tiger program earned their LSU degrees.

Bertman came to LSU after a highly successful eight-year stint at Miami, where he was associate head coach and pitching coach under Hall of Fame coach Ron Fraser. The Bertman-Fraser partnership produced 427 wins and five berths in the CWS, including the Hurricanes' first national championship in 1982. Bertman's recruiting also laid much of the groundwork for Miami's second national championship in 1985, which was Bertman's second year at LSU.

Bertman was also an accomplished international coach, serving as pitching coach under Stanford's Mark Marquess on the United States' gold-medal winning 1988 squad, then leading the USA to the bronze medal at the Centennial Olympic Games in Atlanta in 1996.

In addition to becoming an accomplished coach, Bertman has authored two books (Coaching Youth League Baseball and Skip: The Man and the System), produced a motivational video (Motivation and Teamwork: Winning the Big One), and has been a featured speaker and clinician at banquets, civic organizations and youth groups around the country.

Bertman's Era of Excellence as LSU's baseball coach has ended, but his service to the university continues on a more comprehensive level. On January 19, 2001, the LSU Board of Supervisors paved the way for another Bertman era, as the panel unanimously approved LSU Chancellor Mark Emmert's selection of Bertman to be the school's seventh permanent athletics director since LSU became a charter member of the Southeastern Conference in 1933. Bertman assumed his duties as athletics director on August 6, 2001.

As athletics director, Bertman oversees a 20-sport program that has brought home 43 national championships, more than any other SEC school. With a diverse and talented coaching staff as well as some of the best facilities in the nation, Bertman has enhanced LSU's status as one of the best athletics programs in the country.

Skip Bertman was named LSU's athletics director on January 19, 2001.

LSU completed a magnificent 1991 season with a 55-18 record as the Tigers captured their first baseball national title and the 19th overall national championship for the school.

Head coach Skip Bertman directed the Tigers to the 1991 NCAA title after having led his team to the College World Series in five of the past six seasons. Bertman was recognized as the National Coach of the Year by Collegiate Baseball magazine shortly after LSU's World Series victory.

The Tigers became the first team since Miami (Fla.) in 1982 to win the national title without a loss in the NCAA Tournament; LSU won eight consecutive games in the tournament, including four in the South Regional and four in the College World Series.

As a team, the Tigers set a College World Series record by averaging 12 runs per game, breaking the previous mark of 11 per contest established by Notre Dame in 1957.

LSU also set a new Series mark with a team fielding percentage of .993. The Tigers committed only one error in 148 chances.

LSU equaled the College World Series mark for most home runs with nine, tying the record set by Arizona State in 1981. Catcher Gary Hymel blasted four homers, rightfielder Lyle Mouton belted three, designated hitter Pat Garrity contributed one and centerfielder Armando Rios launched a two-run shot in the championship game win over Wichita State.

The Tigers outscored their four Series opponents, 48-15, while recording a team batting average of .329, including five doubles, four triples and nine home runs.

Hymel was named the Most Outstanding Player of the Series, as he batted .500 with four homers and 10 RBI. Hymel finished the season with a .310 batting average and a school-record

25 home runs to go along with 79 RBI. Hymel, Mouton, pitcher Chad Ogea and first baseman Johnny Tellechea were named to the College World Series All-Tournament team.

Mouton batted .429 in the Series with three homers and 10 RBI; Ogea earned wins over Florida and Wichita State, compiling a 1.74 ERA in 10 1/3 innings; Tellechea hit .438 with two doubles, one RBI and five runs.

LSU culminated its championship year on July 9, 1991, with a trip to the White House. President George Bush recognized the Tigers in a special Rose Garden ceremony which also honored major league legends Joe DiMaggio and Ted Williams. LSU became only the third collegiate baseball team to receive an invitation to the White House.

A century of baseball excellence was culminated in June, 1993, as LSU captured its second NCAA title in three years with an 8-0 victory over Wichita State in the College World Series final. In the 100th anniversary season of the Fighting Tiger program, head coach Skip Bertman and his players reinforced LSU's status as the nation's premier baseball power.

The Tigers began the 1993 campaign as the nation's No. 1 team in all three of the college baseball polls. The Tigers' pre-conference scheduled featured a 12-game winning streak which extended through the month of March as LSU prepared to defend its SEC title. The Tigers' drive to win their fourth straight league crown was spearheaded by Todd Walker, who established an SEC single-season record with a 33-game hitting streak. The regular-season also featured a "Turn Back the Clock" game against Tulane in Alex Box Stadium, as players from both teams wore old-fashioned uniforms and used wooden bats. The Tigers defeated the Green Wave 6-3 in a game which commemorated LSU's 100-year baseball history.

LSU went on to become the first team in league annals to win four straight SEC championships and, after a 9-4 win over South Alabama in the NCAA South Regional final at Alex Box Stadium, the Tigers advanced to the College World Series for the sixth time in eight seasons.

The Tigers returned to Omaha's Rosenblatt Stadium for another National Championship crusade. The fifth-seeded Tigers disposed of fourth-seeded Long Beach State to open the Series as left fielder Jim Greely launched two home runs and collected a personal-best five RBI. Left-hander Mike Sirotko handcuffed the 49ers with a three-hit, nine strikeout performance.

LSU posted a furious rally against top-seeded Texas A&M in the next round, overcoming a 7-2 deficit and grabbing a 9-8 lead on an eighth inning single by Armando Rios. Then, with the bases loaded, Todd Walker provided one of the series' most scintillating little suspense. Todd Walker's two-run homer in the first inning began LSU's surge to another World Series title. LSU added three runs in the second inning as Armando Rios sandwiched a sacrifice fly between RBI singles by Walker and by Jason Williams.

While the Tigers bolted to the big lead, freshman right-hander Brett Laxton was in the process of making College World Series history. Relying primarily on an exploding fastball with an occasional paralyzing slider, Laxton set a CWS championship game record with 16 staggering strikeouts. Laxton limited Wichita State to a mere three hits while retiring 16 of the final 20 Shocker batters, including Wichita State's last hope, outfielder Carl Hall, who flied weakly to Harry Berrios in right field to conclude the Tigers' 8-0 triumph. For the second time in three years, an unquenchable desire for victory was LSU's most prominent characteristic as it catapulted the Tigers to college baseball's summit.

Todd Walker was named the Most Outstanding Player of the Series and was joined on the All-Tournament team by Mike Sirotko, Brett Laxton, Adrian Antonini, Jim Greely and Armando Rios. Walker, the 1993 SEC Player of the Year, recorded a conference-record 102 RBI on the season and surpassed Albert Belle as LSU's all-time RBI leader with 175.

Mike Sirotko ended a fantastic four-year career as LSU's career leader in innings pitched with 372. He tied Ben McDonald's school record with 10 complete games, including eight in his final nine starts. Laxton's dazzling performance in the national title game capped a phenomenal season as the National Freshman of the Year was 12-1 with an SEC-best 1.98 ERA.

The 1993 team was expertly guided by Skip Bertman, who for the third time in his 10-year career was named National Coach of the Year. The Tigers completed the year with a 53-17-1 record, marking LSU's fifth-straight 50-win season, a feat unmatched by any other school.

Mike Sirotko recorded two complete-game victories in the 1993 CWS.

moments, unloading his third grand slam of the season to cap the 13-8 triumph.

The momentum generated by the win over the Aggies was vanquished three days later as Long Beach State rallied for an improbable 10-8 victory, striking for four runs in their final at-bat.

Now LSU faced a third meeting with Long Beach, with the winner advancing to the World Series championship game. The Tigers, on the strength of a two-run double by Rios, tied the game 5-5 in the bottom of the ninth before Walker delivered the game-winning single for a thrilling 6-5 victory. LSU was one victory away from fulfilling a season-long dream.

LSU faced Wichita State in the national championship game for the second time in three years, and unlike the first meeting in 1991, this game offered

Second baseman Warren Morris launched a two-out, two-run homer in the bottom of the ninth inning to lift LSU to a pulsating 9-8 victory over Miami (Fla.) in the 1996 College World Series final. The blast marked the first time in the 50-year history of the CWS that a team had won the national championship with a homer in the bottom of the ninth.

As the ball cleared the right-field fence and landed in the third row of the bleachers, Morris raised his arms into the air triumphantly as he rounded first base. Upon reaching home plate, he was mobbed by his jubilant teammates and cheered by 23,905 fans who had just witnessed the greatest finish in CWS annals.

The LSU Tigers, for the third time in six seasons, were the champions of collegiate baseball.

Fittingly, it was the only home run of the season for Morris, as the Alexandria, La., native had missed 39 games due to a broken hamate bone in his right hand. He returned to the LSU lineup for the NCAA South II Regional, and he led the Tigers to eight straight victories, with the final win giving his team the national title.

LSU became just the seventh school to win three or more CWS titles in the 50-year history of the event, and Skip Bertman became only the sixth coach to win three or more baseball national championships. LSU also became only the third school to win three national titles in one decade (1991, 1993, 1996).

The CWS championship capped a long list of achievements for the 1996 Tigers, including establishing an SEC record with 131 home runs on the season. The Tigers posted a 52-15 record, marking LSU's sixth 50-win season in eight years and the seventh in school history. LSU recorded a 20-10 SEC mark, sharing the conference title with Florida and Alabama.

Shortstop Jason Williams became the SEC career leader in runs scored (270), and he became LSU's all-time hits leader with 327. First baseman Eddy Furniss, a first-team all-America selection, set the SEC single-season mark for RBI (103) and the LSU single-season home run record (26). Pitcher Eddie Yarnall was also a first-team all-America choice, as he posted an 11-1 record, including two victories in the College World Series.

Furniss and pitcher Chris Demouy were named Academic all-Americans; Furniss had a 3.7 gpa in pre-medicine and Demouy a 3.8 gpa in management. Seven Tigers earned Academic all-SEC recognition, including Furniss, Demouy, Morris (3.5 gpa in zoology), catcher Tim Lanier (3.6 in kinesiology), designated hitter Brad Wilson (3.0 in general studies), catcher Kevin Ward (3.6 in electrical engineering) and pitcher Brian Daugherty (3.1 in kinesiology).

For the third time in six seasons, Bertman was named National Coach of the Year, an honor he received from Collegiate Baseball, Baseball America and the American Baseball Coaches Association.

LSU was No. 1 in the grandstand as well, as the Tigers led the nation in attendance by drawing a school-record 226,805 fans to Alex Box Stadium.

It was a remarkable season, culminated by arguably the greatest moment in LSU athletic history, a decisive swing of the bat by Warren Morris, who magnificently added his name to the list of Tiger legends.

Warren Morris presents his CWS home run bat to LSU athletic director Joe Dean as head coach Skip Bertman looks on. The presentation was made in Alex Box Stadium prior to Team USA's summer tour game versus Australia on June 20, 1996.

On June 7, 1997, the LSU Fighting Tigers justified the pre-season status bestowed upon them by Baseball America magazine as college baseball's "Team of the '90s" by defeating Southeastern Conference rival Alabama, 13-6, in the championship game of the College World Series. The game was witnessed by a record crowd of 24,401 in Omaha's Rosenblatt Stadium.

LSU won its fourth NCAA championship of the 1990s (1991, 1993, 1996, 1997), and the Tigers became the first team to win back-to-back titles since Stanford accomplished the feat in 1987-88. Head coach Skip Bertman joined Rod Dedeaux of Southern California as the only coaches to win four College World Series championships. Bertman was named the 1997 National Coach of the Year, receiving that designation for the fifth time in his storied 14-year career.

Ironically, a month before the title match, the Crimson Tide humiliated the Tigers, 28-2, the worst loss in LSU's 104-year baseball history. But in the CWS championship contest, the Tigers exploded to a 9-0 lead after two innings and never looked back. LSU won its eighth straight CWS game over two seasons, and the Tigers improved their mark in NCAA (regional and CWS) tournament championship games to a phenomenal 16-0.

Prior to the win over Alabama, the Tigers posted CWS victories over Rice (5-4) and Stanford (10-5 and 13-9). LSU batted .328 (45-for-137) in the Series with seven doubles and 10 home runs. The Tigers averaged better than 10 runs per game in the CWS, outscoring their opponents, 41-24.

The championship game completed a 57-13 campaign for Skip Bertman and his club, as the

The June 13, 1997, headline of the Baton Rouge Advocate heralds LSU's fourth CWS title.

Junior right-hander Patrick Coogan was the ace of the '97 staff as he posted a 14-3 record and a 4.46 ERA with 144 strikeouts in 125 innings.

Senior pitcher Brian Daugherty lifts the 1997 NCAA championship trophy at a special ceremony in the Pete Maravich Assembly Center. Nearly 8,000 fans welcomed the Tigers home the day after their triumph in Omaha, Neb.

Tigers established the Southeastern Conference record for most victories in a season. LSU, which returned only two starting position players from its 1996 national championship club, also claimed the '97 SEC championship, the school's sixth conference crown of the 1990s.

LSU roared to a blistering 19-0 start, establishing the SEC mark for most consecutive victories. The Tigers, who began the season ranked No. 8 (Collegiate Baseball) and No. 13 (Baseball America) in the pre-season polls, ascended to No. 1 by March 10, holding that position for 10 consecutive weeks.

After claiming the SEC title, LSU played host to the NCAA South I Regional, where the Tigers, after suffering a third-round loss to South Alabama, battled back to claim their ninth CWS berth in 12 seasons. LSU posted a thrilling 14-7, 11-inning victory over Long Beach State in an elimination game to force a rematch with South Alabama in the regional championship round. Needing two victories over USA, the Tigers launched eight homers in a doubleheader sweep en route to the regional title. LSU hit .339 (82-for-242) in its six regional games, outscoring the opposition 76-29 while unloading 20 home runs. Third baseman Trey McClure was named the regional's Most Outstanding Player, as he hit .435 (10-for-23) with five doubles, two homers and 10 RBI.

LSU completed the year with an NCAA-record 188 home runs, breaking the previous mark of 161 homers set by Brigham Young in 1988. The Tigers homered at least once in all 70 of their games.

Junior right-hander Doug Thompson was the winning pitcher in the 1997 national championship game, working the final 4.2 innings in the 13-6 win over Alabama.

Senior rightfielder Tom Bernhardt led LSU with a .615 batting average in the CWS.

All-American junior shortstop Brandon Larson enjoyed a remarkable season, batting .381 on the year with 40 homers and 118 RBI. He established SEC single-season records for homers, RBI and total bases (250), and he became just the fourth player in NCAA history to collect 40 or more homers in a season.

Patrick Coogan (14-3, 4.63 ERA, 144 K), a junior right-hander, earned first-team all-America honors, while first baseman Eddy Furniss (.378, 17 HR, 77 RBI) was a third-team all-America selection. Second baseman Blair Barbier (.353, 15 HR, 57 RBI) earned Freshman all-America recognition.

Also enjoying outstanding campaigns were junior center fielder Mike Koerner (.353, 22 HR, 69 RBI), senior right fielder Tom Bernhardt (.322, 17 HR, 49 RBI) and Doug Thompson (12-3, 4.63 ERA, 158 K), a junior right-hander who earned the victory in the national championship game.

The '97 Tigers magnificently maintained LSU's reign as the "Team of the '90s." Not since Southern California won five straight national titles in the 1970s was one school so dominant in the college baseball landscape.

Trailing Stanford 5-2 with one out in the bottom of the eighth inning of the 2000 national championship game, the LSU Tigers appeared to have little hope, especially with Cardinal ace Justin Wayne on the mound. Wayne had subdued LSU's bats, allowing no hits while recording seven strikeouts in 3.1 relief innings. In fact, Wayne and Stanford starter Jason Young had combined to hold the Tigers hitless since the second inning, when left field Jeremy Witten singled during a two-run LSU rally.

LSU's only highlight after the second inning had come on defense, when right fielder Ray Wright robbed Stanford's Edmund Muth of a third-inning, two-run homer by leaping above the wall to make a sensational catch.

Thus, when LSU team captain Blair Barbier stepped to the plate with one out in the eighth, everything pointed toward a Stanford victory celebration. After all, the Cardinal were just five outs away from a national championship with arguably the best pitcher in the country on the mound.

Barbier, undaunted, envisioned a much different scenario. Prior to the inning, he had gathered his teammates in the dugout, imploring them to remain focused, asking them, "DO YOU BELIEVE?" He hoped his words would spark a positive reaction, yet he knew they would be meaningless should he fail in this at-bat, likely the final at-bat of the senior third baseman's brilliant college career.

So, Barbier stood in against Wayne and battled for his team's survival. He stubbornly fouled off several two-strike offerings, before finally ripping a line drive over the left field wall of Rosenblatt Stadium. Barbier's solo shot was his third homer of the College World Series, and the Tigers had life, now down by two runs.

Wally Pontiff then drew a walk from Wayne, but the Stanford right-hander retired center fielder Cedrick Harris on a fly ball to right field for the second out. Witten, who was hitting just .200 (3-for-15) in the CWS, would be Wayne's next challenge.

The June 18, 2000, headline of the Baton Rouge Sunday Advocate heralds LSU's CWS title.

Pitcher Trey Hodges was voted the Most Outstanding Player of the 2000 CWS.

In his only other at-bat against Wayne, Witten, a fifth-year senior, fanned on just three pitches. And, in this at-bat, Witten again quickly fell behind in the count. Knowing that this was perhaps the final at-bat of his college career, indeed the final at-bat of his entire baseball career, Witten would not succumb to Wayne's darting slider. Instead, he launched a soaring liner into the left-center field seats, just out of the reach of Cardinal left fielder Andy Topham.

The Rosenblatt Stadium crowd of over 24,000 erupted as Witten triumphantly rounded the bases, celebrating just his seventh homer of the season. LSU 5, Stanford 5 . . . and the drama was just beginning.

Wayne retired Wright on a liner to left to end the eighth inning, but Stanford could not recover its lost momentum. LSU right-hander Trey Hodges, who had kept the Tigers in the game with three scoreless relief innings, easily retired the Cardinal in the top of the ninth, setting the stage for the game's final act.

LSU shortstop Ryan Theriot grounded Wayne's first pitch of the ninth into left field to place the winning run on first base. Head coach Skip Bertman, electing not to bunt Theriot down to second base, allowed second baseman Mike Fontenot to swing away. Fontenot skillfully drew a full-count walk from Wayne, placing the Tigers' destiny in the potent bat of catcher Brad Cresse.

Cresse, like Barbier and Witten before him, was standing at the plate for the final time in an LSU uniform. The nation's leader in home runs (30) and RBI (105), the senior was just 1-for-12 in the College World Series. He had struck out in his two previous at-bats against Wayne, who desperately needed a double play to work his way out of the jam.

As he had in his first two encounters with Cresse, Wayne opened with his devastating slider. Strike one. Wayne fired the slider again, but this time Cresse smashed it, sending the ball sharply into left field. Theriot raced around third base as Topham picked up the ball and heaved it toward home plate. But, the throw was up the line and Theriot slid safely across the plate as his teammates burst from the third-base dugout to embrace him. The wave of jubilant Tigers then moved to the infield, engulfing Cresse at first base.

LSU 6, Stanford 5. The Tigers had secured the school's fifth NCAA title since 1991 with a courageous effort, scoring four runs in their final two at-bats to erase a three-run deficit. Blair Barbier's eighth-inning challenge to his teammates was answered in resounding fashion. The 2000 LSU Tigers, without question, did believe.

The Tigers posted a 52-17 record, including a 13-0 post-season mark.
