Final Record: 35-24 (13-17 in SEC)
SEC Tournament Participants

Laval Era Ends at LSU

Raymond "Smoke" Laval completed his five-season LSU head coaching career in 2006, posting an overall record of 210-109-1 and an SEC mark of 88-60-1. He guided the Tigers to two College World Series berths, two NCAA Super Regional titles, three NCAA Regional championships, one SEC title, two SEC division championships and two Top 10 finishes.

Athletics Director Skip Bertman announced on June 4 that Laval had resigned his position.

Laval, the 2003 SEC Coach of the Year, directed the 2006 Tigers to a 35-24 overall mark, 13-17 in the SEC. The Tigers qualified for the SEC Tournament as the No. 8 seed, and, after defeating top-seeded Alabama in its tournament opener, LSU suffered consecutive defeats to Ole Miss and Alabama and was eliminated from the event. For the first time since 1988, LSU failed to receive an NCAA Tournament invitation, ending a string of 16 straight NCAA Regional appearances.

LSU No. 1 in SEC Regular Season Winning Percentage Since 2002

Despite finishing with a 13-17 mark in SEC play in 2006 - LSU's first losing record in league play since 1983 - the Tigers are No. 1 in SEC regular-season winning percentage over the past five seasons:

THE TOP 5 LSU	SEC RECORD/PCT.
South Carolina	88-61 (.591)
Ole Miss	84-66 (.560)
Alabama	81-69 (.540)
Florida	80-69 (.537)

Ranking Game

LSU was 9-11 against ranked teams in 2006. The Tigers have won five out of their last nine games against teams in the Top 15. LSU won two out of three games in home series versus No. 8 Alabama (April 14-16) and No. 11 Arkansas (April 28-30). The Tigers defeated Alabama in the opening round of the SEC Tournament when the Tide was ranked No. 6.

The Tigers faced a No. 1-ranked team on two occasions this year - LSU dropped two of three games to No. 1 Mississippi State on March 24-26 in Baton Rouge, and the Tigers were defeated 6-3 by top-ranked Rice at Zephyr Field in Metairie, La. on May 16.

Q-uite A Ride For Stewart

Senior Quinn Stewart finished the season No. 2 in the nation in home runs, trailing only Kellen Kulbacki of James Madison, who had 24 dingers. Stewart was bidding to become LSU's first national leader in homers since Brad Cresse launched 30 in 2000. Eddy Furniss is the only other Tiger to lead the country in homers when he produced 26 HR in 1996.

Walk-Off Win/Loss

Michael Hollander

LSU both reaped the rewards and suffered the agony this season of a walk-off homer. Shortstop Michael Hollander belted a one-out, walk-off homer to break a 6-6 tie in the bottom of the ninth inning versus to beat Arkansas (April 28). It was the first walk-off blast by a Tiger since Clay Harris hit one in a victory over Ole Miss on April 16, 2005.

However, LSU suffered a heartbreaking loss via a walk-off homer in Game 2 at Florida (May 19). Reliever Will Harris was one out away from helping the Tigers clinch the series, but Chris Woods chopped a single into left before Stephen Barton hit his second homer of the year. It was the first time LSU has lost on a walk-off homer since March 22, 1996 in a 16-inning game at Florida in the same ballpark.

Stewart's 23 homers in 2006 ranks as the eighth-highest single-season total in LSU history. A first-team all-SEC selection, he batted .287 with nine doubles, three triples and a team-best 56 RBI.

As a fifth-year college senior, Stewart, a native of Rowlett, Texas, was eligible to sign a free-agent deal with the team of his choice, and he came to terms with Tampa Bay.

Stewart was also named to the 2006 American Baseball Coaches Association All-South Region first team. He tied an LSU single-game record on March 11 of this season when he unloaded three home runs in a victory over Stetson in Alex Box Stadium.

Stewart, who transferred to LSU prior to the 2003 season from Odessa (Texas) Junior College, started 129 games for the Tigers and recorded a .281 (136-for-484) career batting average. He produced 25 doubles, six triples, 33 homers, 99 RBI and a .562 slugging percentage.

Harris Does It All As Two-Way Player

For the first three years of his LSU career, senior pitcher/third baseman Will Harris played as a first baseman. In 2004, the right-hander worked three innings of relief on the mound, but he did not pitch in 2005. Harris entered 2006 as LSU's starting third baseman, and on Feb. 12 returned to the mound for the first time in two years with three innings of relief against North Florida. On April 30 he qualified for his first save in a dominant inning versus Arkansas. He converted four out of five save opportunities in SEC games as the Tigers' closer, making the move late in games from third base.

With 19 innings under his belt, Harris became LSU's most prominent two-way player since Keith Osik in 1990. Osik served primarily as the Tigers' starting catcher but worked 10.7 innings on the mound. Osik, who went on to a successful major league career with several teams, once played all nine positions for LSU in a game against UL-Monroe on April 24, 1990.

Harris was selected in the ninth round of the 2006 Major League Baseball Draft by the Colorado Rockies. Harris posted a 1-2 mark, four saves and a 3.79 ERA out of the bullpen in 2006. The Slidell, La., native worked 19 innings, recording seven walks and 20 strikeouts.

As LSU's starting third baseman in '06, Harris hit .252 with six homers, 30 RBI and a team-high 18 doubles.

Liuzza, Ramirez Selected in MLB Draft

LSU senior catcher Matt Liuzza and junior right-handed pitcher Edgar Ramirez were selected on the second day of Major League Baseball first-year player draft.

Liuzza, a native of Metairie, La., was selected in the 19th round by the Toronto Blue Jays, while Ramirez, a Miami native, was chosen in the 36th round by the New York Mets.

Liuzza, a 30th-round selection in the 2005 draft by the Chicago Cubs, improved his stock at LSU this season by hitting .317 (58-for-183) with 13 doubles, three homers and 21 RBI.

Ramirez made 17 appearances on the mound for the Tigers in 2006, recording a 2-1 mark and a 6.69 ERA. Ramirez registered 19 walks and 38 strikeouts in 35 innings of work.

Triple Threat

Senior outfielder Bruce Sprowl tallied five triples in 2006, ranking fourth in the SEC. Sprowl was one triple away from tying for fourth place in LSU annals for single-season triples. Todd Walker holds the LSU single-season record with 11 in 1993. Sprowl was also been an excellent defensive player, committing only one error during his entire career. The Knoxville, Tenn., native committed his first error in 169 games when he dropped a fly ball versus Rice (5/16) in the Wally Pontiff Jr. Classic.

Sprowl was named SEC Player of the Week on Feb. 27 by the league office after leading the Tigers to four consecutive victories from Feb. 21-26. Sprowl batted .533 (8-for-15) in the Tigers' four victories Southeastern Louisiana and Temple, collecting two doubles, two triples, six RBI and three runs. He also walked twice, contributed a sacrifice fly and posted a .556 on-base percentage.

Sprowl was 6-for-10 in the Temple series with two doubles, two triples and five RBI.

2006 SEC Home Run Leader Quinn Stewart

Dardar Joins Rockies

Senior reliever Chase Dardar signed a free-agent deal with the Colorado Rockies and joined the Tri-City Dust Devils, the Rockies' single-A affiliate in Pasco, Wash.

Dardar, a right-hander from Marrero, La., pitched two seasons at LSU after transferring from Delgado Community College in New Orleans.

Dardar worked as the Tigers' closer in 2006, recording a 6-3 mark in 20 appearances with a 3.19 ERA and four saves. He worked 36.2 innings and limited opponents to a .218 batting average.

Dardar was a member of the Southeastern Conference Academic Honor Roll, and he graduated from LSU with a general studies degree.

He was also named second-team all-Louisiana this season by the Louisiana Sportswriters Association.

Hollander Voted All-SEC

Sophomore shortstop Michael Hollander was voted to the second-team all-SEC squad by the league coaches. Hollander, a native of Mandeville, La., batted .280 on the year with 11 doubles, three triples, five homers, 33 RBI, 41 runs and five steals.

A starter in all 59 of the Tigers' games in '06, Hollander posted a nine-game hitting streak from April 16-30, batting .351 during that span. He also launched walk-off solo homer inside the left-field fair pole in bottom of ninth inning vs. Arkansas (4/28), lifting LSU to a 7-6 victory. The walk-off HR was the first by LSU since April 16, 2005, when Clay Harris delivered a game-ending blast.

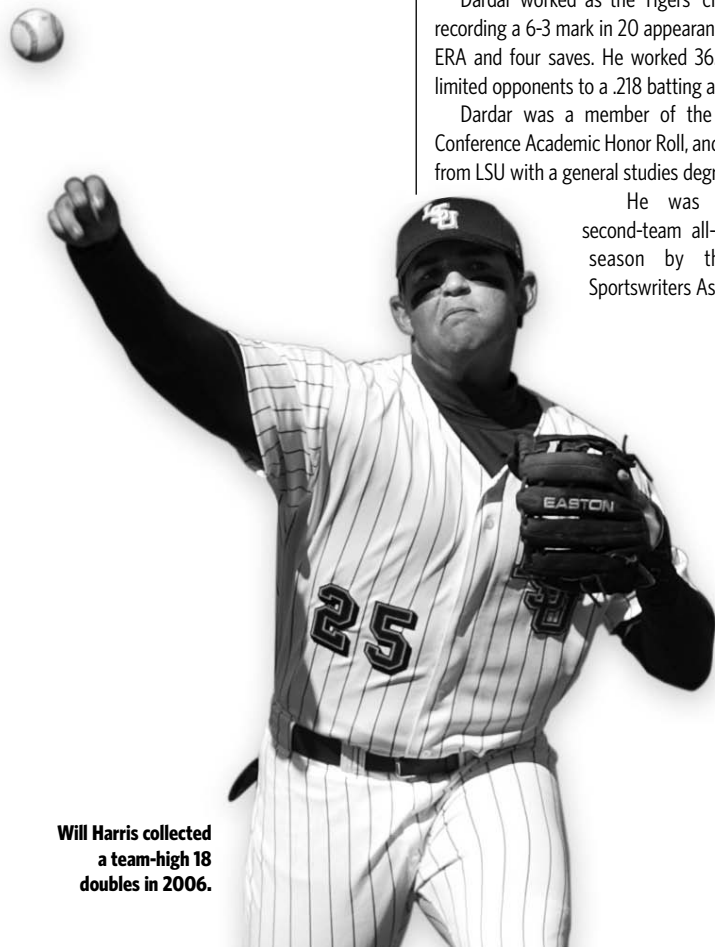

Young But Wise

Second baseman J.T. Wise was a true freshman in 2006, but he performed at a much higher level in his first year in a LSU uniform. The Apopka, Fla., native was second on the squad with 11 homers, which was the most by a Tiger freshman since second baseman Mike Fontenot tallied 17 in 2000.

Wise is also second on the squad in slugging percentage, total bases, RBI and multi-hit games. He provided game-tying or game-winning hits in three of LSU's wins: vs. Tulane (3/7) and vs. Alabama (4/14 and 4/15). Wise batted .545 in the series win over the Crimson Tide with one homer, one double, three runs and seven RBI.

Wise was named March 13 as the SEC Freshman of the Week by the league office. He hit .563 (9-for-16) in the Tigers' four games versus Tulane and Stetson with one double, one homer, two RBI and two runs. The Apopka, Fla., native also walked once and posted a .588 on-base percentage.

Wise's solo homer against No. 12 Tulane capped a three-run rally for the Tigers, helping to erase a 2-0 deficit in the sixth inning of a game LSU went on to win, 4-3.

Will Harris collected a team-high 18 doubles in 2006.

Much of his Wise's success can be attributed to his rich family background in baseball. Wise's father, Sonny, has served as head coach of the powerhouse Apopka High School, and J.T.'s great uncle is former New York Yankee Bobby Richardson, a five-time Gold Glove winner and MVP of the 1960 World Series.

Strong Debut for Bogany

LSU centerfielder Jarred Bogany was named on Feb. 13 as the Southeastern Conference Freshman of the Week by the league office.

Bogany, a product of George Bush High School in Houston, enjoyed a magnificent collegiate debut, leading LSU to a series victory over North Florida.

Bogany hit .727 (8-for-11) in the three-game series with two doubles, two RBI, two runs and one stolen base. He also made a spectacular catch in Game 1 to rob a UNF batter of an extra-base hit.

Bogany was the 15th round selection of the Pittsburgh Pirates in the 2005 MLB draft.

It's Not Over 'Till It's Over

Come-from-behind victories became a common occurrence for LSU as the Tigers recorded 20 on the year, including 10 wins in their final at-bat. Two of the most notable wins were on March 19 versus Kentucky and March 25 against Mississippi State. Quinn Stewart belted a dramatic two-out, two-run homer to ignite a four-run rally in the top of the ninth versus the Wildcats. LSU had trailed 2-1 entering the final frame, but Stewart responded with his blast with two strikes.

A week later, the theme repeated itself as the Tigers sent No. 1 Mississippi State to its first loss of the season. Will Harris broke a 6-6 tie with a two-run double in the eighth, capping a five-run eighth inning. LSU turned a 6-3 deficit around on another two-run homer by Stewart, followed by the tying single from Matt Liuzza.

On April 9, the Tigers were nine outs away from losing a series at Tennessee but responded with six runs in the final two frames. J.T. Wise launched a game-tying two-run homer, and Jordan Mayer broke the tie with a two-run shot in the seventh inning. On April 15, LSU erased a 6-3 deficit against Alabama and claimed a 7-6 victory. Wise provided the game-winning hit in the eighth.

Sacrificing the School Record

The Tigers posted 43 sacrifice bunts on the year -- surpassing the previous school record of 35 set in 1975. LSU ranked fourth in the SEC in the category, trailing Kentucky (67), South Carolina (57) and Alabama (45). Three players -- Matt Liuzza, Michael Hollander and Bruce Sprowl -- have seven sac bunts apiece, which is four away from the school record of

Louis Coleman

11 achieved by Dave Cunningham (1987) and Josh Dalton (1999).

Gold Glovers: Third-Highest Fielding Percentage Since 1974

The '06 Tigers recorded LSU's third-highest fielding percentage dating back to 1974 when fielding records were first kept. The .971 mark ranked third in the SEC behind South Carolina (.978) and Ole Miss (.974). During Smoke Laval's tenure, the Tigers produced three of the top-five fielding percentages in school history. The 2003 College World Series team maintained a percentage of .972. The 1984 squad, the first LSU team under the direction of Skip Bertman, holds the school record in fielding percentage (.988).
