Great Moments in LSU Baseball Regional/Super Regional History

June 13, 2004

Lane Mestepey fires a masterful five-hit shutout in Game 2 of a Super Regional series against Texas A&M. Will Harris' ninth-inning homer clinches LSU's 4-0 triumph and sends the Tigers to the College World Series for the second straight season.

June 7-8, 2003

LSU blasts Baylor 20-5, using an 11-run sixth inning highlighted by Clay Harris' grand slam to reach its 12th College World Series. The Tigers faced elimination a day earlier after Baylor captured the first contest in the best-of-three set. Harris and Ivan Naccarata belted back-to-back homers to lead off the eighth inning to lift LSU over Baylor, 6-5, to set up the rubber match.

June 1, 2003

Jon Zeringue's one-out, walk-off home run in the bottom of the 11th sends LSU to the super regional round as the Tigers defeat a pesky UNC-Wilmington club, 9-8. Despite defeat, UNC-W becomes the first opposing team to make a congratulatory lap around the field following the game.

June 2, 2002

LSU comes through the loser's bracket to defeat UL-Lafayette twice by identical 12-2 scores to win its seventh consecutive regional championship. The Tigers are the only regional winner of 2002 to come through the loser's bracket to win twice on the final day.

May 30-31, 1999

Facing a seven-run deficit and in danger of being eliminated, LSU rallies to take a 12-10 lead it would not relinquish against East Carolina to force a second championship game. Kurt Ainsworth gets an extra day of rest thanks to rain, which forces the second contest to be moved to Monday. Ainsworth blanks the Pirates, 9-0, hurling the Tigers to a super regional matchup with SEC foe Alabama.

May 28, 1999

LSU tags UL-Monroe starter and current Milwaukee Brewer star Ben Sheets, opening the Baton Rouge Regional with a convincing 11-4 victory over the Indians.

May 23, 1998

LSU falls behind Cal State Fullerton, 7-0 through two innings, but Cedrick Harris' two-run double in the eighth caps a four-run inning to complete a comeback as the Tigers earn a 13-11 victory. LSU routs the Titans 14-3 the next day to reach Omaha.

May 25, 1997

A classic five-hour marathon comes to an end as LSU outlasts Long Beach State by scoring seven runs in the 11th inning for a 14-7 victory. One day later, the Tigers avenge their second round loss to South Alabama by sweeping the Jaguars, 14-4 and 15-4, before defending its national championship in Omaha.

May 26, 1996

In one of the largest hit outputs in school history, LSU uses 18 runs on 13 hits in the seventh inning of the South II Regional championship game to rout Georgia Tech, 29-13. The Tigers wear new gold jerseys during the regional and throughout the 1996 College World Series.

LSU celebrates its 2004 Super Regional win over Texas A&M.

May 29, 1994

LSU holds on to a 12-10 win over Southern Cal in the South Regional final. Former Trojan and current Minnesota Twins star Jacque Jones smashes three homers in defeat.

May 28, 1990

Rich Cordani's dramatic two-run blast in the seventh inning lifts LSU to a thrilling 7-6 South Regional championship game win over Southern California.

May 28, 1989

LSU completes perhaps its most improbable journey in the program's history to reach its third College World Series. The Tigers win five of six games at the 1989 Central Regional in College Station, Texas. LSU shocks top-ranked Texas A&M with two wins on the tournament's final day -- including a 5-4, 11-inning victory in the championship game. Ben McDonald earns the win in seven innings of work in the first game and then comes back to earn a save in the clincher. All four LSU pitchers in the final game -- Russ Springer, Paul Byrd, Curtis Leskanic and Ben McDonald -- reach the Major Leagues. Texas A&M had amassed 58 wins to just five losses and was led by Chuck Knoblauch. The 58 wins still stands as an Aggie record.

May 25, 1986

Albert Belle smashes two, two-run homers in the South I Regional championship game, leading the Tigers to their first College World Series with a 7-6 win over Tulane at Alex Box Stadium. Belle was named tournament MVP for his efforts.
