Enhancing a Tradition

The iconic LSU Tiger Head football helmet logo has undergone a subtle redesign for the first time since 1972, when the image first appeared on the Fighting Tigers' headgear. The re-boot of the logo is a modern presentation with cleaner lines and more distinctive features, and it was worn on the LSU football helmets for the first time at the 2014 Spring Game. The redesign was completed by the LSU athletic department's publications office in 2013, and the updated logo made its debut on the basketball floor of the Pete Maravich Assembly Center for the 2013-14 season. The logo serves a visual identity for the entire athletic department and will be introduced on various platforms during the 2014-15 season.

2014 Season Preview NINTRO

10 Years of Les Miles and Expanded Tiger Stadium Highlight 2014

The winningest program in the nation's toughest conference since 2005 goes into its 10th year under Les Miles in 2014 as LSU returns 16 starters from a squad that reached the 10-win mark for a school-record fourth consecutive year in 2013.

In nine years under Miles, the Tigers have posted a 95-24 overall mark, claimed a pair of Southeastern Conference titles, reached the BCS national championship game twice, winning the title in 2007 with a 38-24 victory over Ohio State. The Tigers have appeared in a bowl game every year under Miles, winning six of those games, most recently beating Iowa, 21-14 in the Outback Bowl.

Miles enters the 2014 season just five wins shy of reaching 100 for his LSU career. He also becomes just the third coach in LSU history to reach the 10-year mark as coach of the Tigers, joining the winningest coach in school history Charles McClendon (137 wins in 18 $\,$ years) and Bernie Moore (89 wins in 13 years).

In addition to the Miles milestone, LSU will open the expanded South Endzone in 2014 as Tiger Stadium capacity will go over 100,000 for the first time. The South Endzone $\,$ expansion features 70 suites, 3,075 club level seats and another 1,500 regular seats.

- · 14 straight bowl appearances (school-record)

- · 4 straight years of at least 10 wins (school-record)

The LSU Offense

The Tigers return six starters on offense, including four on the offensive line, from a unit that put together one of the most productive seasons in school history in 2013. Under first year offensive coordinator Cam Cameron, LSU averaged 35.8 points and racked up 453.3 total yards (202.3 rushing, 251.0 passing) as the Tigers became the first team in SEC history to feature a 3,000-yard passer (Zach Mettenberger), two 1,000-yard receivers (Odell Beckham Jr. and Jarvis Landry) and a 1,000yard rusher (Jeremy Hill). LSU also led the nation in third-down conversions at 57 percent.

LSU had seven offensive players picked in the 2014 NFL Draft, including a trio of wide receivers led by Beckham Jr., who was the 12th overall pick.

The Tigers offense is expected to feature a blend of youth and veterans in 2014 as a number of freshmen skill players, including quarterback Brandon Harris, running back Leonard Fournette, and wide receivers Malachi Dupre and Trey Quinn, will be counted on to contribute. Senior offensive tackle La'el Collins returns as one of the top linemen in college football, and he will anchor a Tiger line that returns four starters.

Senior running backs Terrence Magee and Kenny Hilliard have combined for nearly 1,900 yards and 29 touchdowns, while the only quarterback on the roster with any experience at the position in an LSU uniform is sophomore Anthony Jennings, who made one start and nine appearances as a true freshman in 2013.

Quarterback

LSU will feature a new quarterback in 2014 as the Tigers will count on sophomore Anthony Jennings (6-2, 211, So.-1L) and true freshman Brandon Harris (6-3, 183, Fr.-HS) to direct the offense. Jennings and Harris bring a similar style to the game as both players have the ability to make plays with their feet. Jennings is more adept in the short-passing game, while Harris thrived in the vertical passing game during his high school career.

Jennings appeared in nine games as a true freshman, earning a start in the Outback Bowl win over Iowa following a season-ending injury to senior Zach Mettenberger. Jennings was pressed into action in the season-finale against Arkansas and directed the Tigers on a 99-yard game-winning scoring drive with less than two minutes remaining in the contest.

Jennings, who saw most of his action on shortyardage situations, completed 13-of-29 passes for 181 yards and a touchdown. Jennings also rushed for a pair of scores in his first year with the Tigers.

Harris graduated from high school in December and joined the Tigers for spring practice where he quickly established himself as a viable first-year option for the Tigers at quarterback. Harris brings natural leadership to the field along with a confident demeanor not often seen in young players. Jennings and Harris are expected to both get snaps for the Tigers in 2014 with a starter not likely to be determined until the end of preseason camp.

Running Back

Despite losing one of the top running backs in the SEC last year in Jeremy Hill to the NFL Draft, the Tigers return a pair of dependable seniors in Terrence Magee (5-9, 214, Sr.-2L) and Kenny Hilliard (6-0, 233, Sr.-3L) Magee, a shifty runner who is versatile enough to lineup at slot receiver or even quarterback, was second on the team with 626 yards and eight touchdowns in 2013. Hilliard, a punishing runner who thrives in short-vardage situations, leads all LSU backs with 1,110 yards and 21 touchdowns in his career.

Magee and Hilliard will be joined in the backfield by the most heralded running back recruit in Louisiana history as Leonard Fournette (6-1, 224, Fr.-HS) makes his long-awaited LSU debut this year. Fournette was the consensus No. 1 prep player in America as a senior in 2013, and he joins the Tigers after rushing for 7,619 yards and 88 touchdowns in high school. Fournette has all the tools to be the next great LSU running back as he has a blend of size, speed, strength to go along with a very high football

Darrel Williams (5-11, 209, Fr.-HS), another highly-touted signee out of New Orleans, will add to the depth at running back. Williams rushed for 2,201 yards and 32 touchdowns as a senior in high school.

Fullback

The fullback position will continue to play a prominent role in the LSU offense, and the Tigers return one of the players who has been the most consistent at the position in recent history in senior Connor Neighbors (5-11, 239, Sr.-2L). Neighbors is a solid blocker who is also comfortable with the football in his hands. He's a pass-catching threat out of the backfield while also being a viable part of the running game. Neighbors will be backed up by sophomore Melvin Jones (6-3, 245, So.-1L) another athletic fullback who played quarterback and linebacker in high school.

Wide Receivers

The Tigers will have to replace three NFL Draft picks, which included the first 1,000-yard tandem in school history in Odell Beckham Jr. and Jarvis Landry, at wide receiver. A year ago, Landry and Beckham Jr. combined to catch 136 passes for 2,345 yards and 18 touchdowns. LSU's top returning receiving threat is sophomore Travin Dural (6-2, 182, So.-1L), who caught seven passes for 145 yards and two scores. Dural's biggest moment last year came when he hauled in the game-winning 49-yard TD pass late in the fourth quarter in the victory over Arkansas. Dural possesses a long stride with breakaway speed. Senior Quantavius Leslie (6-4, 175, Sr.-Sqd) is the only other receiver in the roster with a catch to his credit as he had one reception for 11 yards in 2013.

A trio of redshirt freshmen will be counted on to contribute this year as John Diarse (6-1, 207, Fr.-RS), Kevin Spears (6-3, 189, Fr.-RS) and Avery Peterson (6-1, 180, Fr.-RS) all add to the depth at wide receiver for the Tigers.

The influx of perhaps the best wide receiving signing class in school history is expected to make an immediate impact for the Tigers. Malachi Dupre (6-3, 188, Fr.-HS), who was rated as the No. 1 player at the position in high school, gives the Tigers a big target with tremendous hands and athletic ability. Dupre won the state title in all three jumps - long, triple and high - as a junior in 2013.

Trey Quinn (5-11, 192, Fr.-HS) set the national record for high school receiving yards with 6,566 and will be a likely candidate at the slot receiver spot for the Tigers. Tony Upchurch (6-2, 228, Fr.-HS) and D.J.

INTRO / 2014 Season Preview

Chark (6-1, 176, Fr.-HS) are both playmakers who will be in a position to contribute early in their career.

Tight End

A critical part to the LSU offense is the play of the tight end, and that's one spot on the field where the Tigers return a great deal of experience and talent. LSU has three players on the roster who have combined for 16 starts led by Dillon Gordon (6-5, 286, Jr.-2L) 12 starts, Gordon, a punishing blocker. established himself as a threat in the passing game a year ago with six catches for 88 yards. DeSean Smith (6-4, 241, So.-1L) has a year of experience in the Cam Cameron system and could be in a line for a breakout year. Smith is a hybrid with good size, but also has good speed and creates mismatch problems for linebackers. Smith caught one pass for 14 yards in his rookie season a year ago. Travis Dickson (6-3, 230, Sr.-2L) and Logan Stokes (6-5, 251, Sr.-1L) have both earned starts during their career and give the Tigers quality depth at tight end.

Offensive Line

The strength of the Tiger offense will be that of the offensive line as LSU returns four starters, including preseason All-America offensive tackle La'el Collins (6-5, 315, Sr.-2L). The Tigers return six players who have combined for 75 starts on the offensive line. Collins, who is a projected first round pick in the next NFL Draft, is a prototype left tackle with all of the skills necessary to be a dominant college football player. Collins goes into 2014 with 25 career starts, 12 coming at left tackle.

He will be joined on the line by returning starters in center Elliott Porter (6-4, 300, Sr.-2L), left guard Vadal Alexander (6-6, 342, Jr.-2L) and right tackle Jerald Hawkins (6-6, 301, So.-1L). Alexander will start alongside Collins at left guard for the second straight year, giving the Tigers one of the most experienced and talented guard-tackle combos in college football. Porter has 13 career starts at center, while Hawkins will remain as LSU's starter at right tackle for the second consecutive year after taking over last season as a redshirt freshman.

The lone departure on the offensive line was that of NFL draft pick Trai Turner, who started all 13 games at right guard in 2013. A pair of seniors in Hoko Fanaika (6-6, 348, Sr.-1L) and Evan Washington (6-6, 334, Sr.-1L) came out of spring practice in a battle for the starting spot, although both players are expected to see extensive action. Ethan Pocic (6-7, 301, So.-1L) is a versatile sophomore who can lineup at any one of the five positions on the line. while Josh Boutte (6-4, 333, So.-Sqd.) is another youngster that saw spot duty a year ago for the Tigers. Other players in position for playing time in 2014 include guard K.J. Malone (6-3, 290, Fr.-RS) and center Andy Dodd (6-4, 322, Fr.-RS).

Γhe LSU Defense

Defense has been the foundation that Les Miles has built his program around. LSU continues to have explosive players, ones that can change the game with one touch of the ball, but year-in and year-out, it's been the Tiger defense that has served as the cornerstone for the winningest program in the SEC since 2005.

John Chavis returns for his sixth season as LSU's defensive coordinator in 2014, and again he will be challenged to replace some key departures from a year ago when the Tigers allowed just 22.0 points and ranked in the Top 20 in the nation in total defense (340.7 yards per game). Since taking over the LSU defense in 2009, Chavis has seen the Tigers rank among the top 12 in the nation in both yards and points allowed three times. He's also held opponents to 18 points or fewer per game four times in five years.

LSU returns seven starters on defense, including a pair of defensive ends in junior Danielle Hunter and Jermauria Rasco, who can be difference makers. The Tigers also return what could be the best set of cornerbacks in the SEC in sophomores Tre'Davious White and Rashard Robinson. Junior Kwon Alexander and senior D.J. Welter anchor a linebacker corps that is one of the most talented groups to play at LSU in over a decade.

The Tigers will have to fill holes left due to the departure of starting tackles Ego Ferguson and Anthony Johnson, along with linebacker Lamin Barrow, who was drafted in the fifth round of the NFL Draft after leading the Tigers in tackles a year ago with 91. Craig Loston, a veteran safety who started in the secondary for the better part of three years, is also a key loss for the Tigers.

LSU returns the bulk of a defense that held Texas AGM and its Heisman Trophy winning quarterback to only 10 points and a season-low 299 yards a year ago.

Defensive Ends

Danielle Hunter (6-6, 241, Jr.-2L) appears to be next in line to carry on LSU's tradition of dominant defensive linemen. Hunter, who started all 13 games a year ago, is poised for a breakout season in 2014 after a 57-tackle, 8.0-tackle for loss, 3.0-sack season in 2013. Hunter, with a tremendous wing span and explosive first step, will anchor the Tiger defensive front this year.

Returning starter Jermauria Rasco (6-3, 255, Sr.-3L) will start at the other end position with Tashawn Bower (6-5, 243, So.-1L) and Lewis Neal (6-1, 238, So.-1L) both expected to be part of the rotation. Hunter and Rasco are the only returning players on the defensive line with more than one career start to their credit. Newcomers Deondre Clark (6-2, 238, Fr.-HS), Sione Teuhema (6-4, 215, Fr.-HS) along with M.J. Patterson (6-3, 225, Fr.-RS) and Justin Maclin (6-4, 242, Sr.-Sqd.) will add depth at the defensive end spot.

Defensive Tackles

LSU will have to replace both starting defensive tackles in 2014 as Ego Ferguson (2nd round pick) and Anthony Johnson (free agent) both opted for the NFL following their junior season. The list of defensive tackles that are in line to replace the departed juniors may be young, but they are Quentin Thomas (6-3, 290, Jr.-1L) is the only returning defensive tackle with any starting experience, that coming against Iowa in the Outback Bowl to close out the 2013 season.

Thomas continues to improve and is coming off a good spring and will be looked to for leadership on the field. He will be joined in the rotation at tackle by Christian LaCouture (6-5, 298. So.-1L), a hard-nosed competitor who has been compared to that of former LSU standout Kyle Williams. LaCouture played in all 13 games as a true freshman, finishing with 11 tackles and a sack.

A trio of redshirt freshmen makes up the remainder of the defensive tackle rotation led by Maquedius Bain (6-4, 308, Fr.-RS). Bain had an outstanding spring and will be difficult to keep off the field due to his power and knack for the position. Bain will be joined by Greg Gilmore (6-4, 311, Fr.-RS) and Frank Herron (6-5, 275, Fr.-RS) in a group vying for playing time. Herron continues to learn the position after making the move to tackle from defensive end during the spring, while Gilmore has all of the physical tools needed to help contribute immediately.

Linebacker

The Tigers return two starters at linebacker and a third player who has extensive experience at the position for the Tigers. Built with a premium put on speed, the Tiger linebacker corps is one of the deepest at LSU since Chavis took over in 2009. The Tigers can go two or three-deep at any of the three linebacker spots without much of a drop off. Senior D.J. Welter (6-1, 235, Sr.-1L) is coming off his best season at LSU with 80 tackles and 2.0 sacks in 2013. Welter has a knack for finding the football and appeared to improve with each game in what was his first season as a starter last year. Welter had perhaps the best game of his career in the Outback Bowl win over Iowa with six tackles and a sack as the Tigers limited the Hawkeyes to 233 yards. The performance served as a springboard into the spring where he was one of LSU's top all-around performers, setting him up for what could be an outstanding senior season.

Welter is joined by returning starter Kwon Alexander (6-2, 218, Jr.-2L), who could be one of the most overlooked players in the SEC. Alexander has started 11 games in his career, including nine as a sophomore in 2013 when he registered 65 tackles and 6.5 tackles for loss. He can make plays from sideline to sideline and is also good in pass coverage.

Lamar Louis (6-0, 216, Jr.-2L) is likely to be the third starter with Duke Riley (6-1, 208, So.-11) in line for playing time. Louis has been a solid contributor in his first two years at LSU, starting five times. He had 25 tackles and recovered a fumble as a sophomore. Riley was a consistent special teams performer as a true freshman in 2013, and he's now worked himself in a position to be an every down player on defense.

Kendell Beckwith (6-3, 246, So.-1L), with a rare combination of speed and athletic ability, has tremendous upside and will likely see action behind Welter at middle linebacker, while Deion Jones (6-2, 208, Jr.-2L) and Ronnie Feist (6-2, 225, Jr.-1L) are both dependable players who will press for playing

Cornerback

Tre'Davious White (5-11, 177, So.-1L) and Rashard Robinson (6-1, 165, So.-1L) give LSU two of the top cornerbacks in the SEC heading into 2014. White emerged as the starter at one cornerback spot just three games into his true freshman season in 2013, while Robinson finally took over opposite White late in the year. White displays tremendous speed and coverage ability,

2014 Season Preview

while Robinson brings good speed, range and has a wingspan that disrupts wide receivers. White had 55 tackles and a team-best seven pass breakups during a rookie season that saw him start 11 times. while Robinson had 16 tackles and an interception in 12 games.

Jalen Collins (6-2, 195, Jr.-2L) is a dependable cover-corner who started the first two games in 2013. Collins played in all 13 games a year ago with 22 tackles and a pair of pass breakups. Rookie Ed Paris (6-0, 189, Fr.-HS), who graduated from high school early, joined the team for spring practice and will compete for playing time along with fellow true freshmen John Battle (6-0, 179, Fr.-HS) and Russell Gage (6-0, 175, Fr.-HS).

Safety

LSU deploys a defense that has its safeties being interchangeable, but one that also requires them to be aggressive in the running game and dependable in coverage. Ronald Martin is the most experienced of LSU's safeties with eight starts and 76 career tackles and three interceptions to his credit.

Corey Thompson (6-2, 212, Jr.-2L), a speedster with big-hitting ability, and Rickey Jefferson (5-11, 199, So.-1L) will compete for playing time at either safety spot. Thompson has five career starts and 51 tackles in two years with the Tigers, while Jefferson saw spot duty last year as a true freshman and made six tackles.

Dwayne Thomas (6-0, 181, So.-1L) along with highly-touted rookie Jamal Adams (6-0, 207, Fr.-HS) and Devin Voorhies (6-1, 197, Fr.-HS) all will push for playing time in the secondary for the Tigers in 2014.

The LSU Special Teams

LSU continues to be one of the national leaders in overall special teams play as the Tigers put a premium on this phase of the game by using every-down players in prominent special teams roles. LSU's special teams are so highly-regarded that wide receiver James Wright was picked in the seventh round of the 2014 NFL Draft mainly because of his play on special teams.

Since Les Miles took over at LSU in 2005, the Tigers have scored 20 special teams touchdowns, which include 11 punt returns for TDs, three kickoff returns for TDs, two blocked field goals for TDs, and one TD each on a blocked punt, fumbled punt, fake field goal, and missed field goal.

Bradley Dale Peveto returns to the LSU staff this year and will serve as special teams coordinator. Peveto, who spent four years with the Tigers from 2005-08, is widely considered one of the best special teams coaches in college football.

Placekicker

Colby Delahoussaye (5-10, 174, So.-1L) returns for his second year as LSU's placekicker after winning the job during preseason practice last year. Delahoussaye converted 13-of-14 field goals and 56-of-57 point-after touchdowns in his first year with the Tigers in 2013. He will be backed up by Trent Domingue (6-0, 177, So.-Sqd.)

The departure of James Hairston leaves a void for LSU at kickoff specialist. Rookie Cameron Gamble (5-9, 182, Fr.-HS) comes to campus with a strong leg and is a likely candidate to handle that spot for the Tigers in 2014.

Punter

Jamie Keehn (6-4, 218, Jr.-2L), LSU's second straight Australian punter, will handle all punting duties again for the Tigers in 2014. In his first year as a full-time starter, Keehn averaged 41.0 yards on 43 punts. He had 18 punts downed inside the 20-yard line and booted 10 balls that traveled 50 yards or more

Return Specialist

The Tigers have a hole to fill with the departure of first round draft pick Odell Beckham Jr., who set the LSU record for allpurpose yards in a season in 2013 with 2,315. Likely candidates to handle kickoff and punt return duties for the Tigers in 2014 include wide receiver Travin Dural (6-2, 182, So.-1L) and running back Terrence Magee (5-9, 214, Sr.-211

Snapper

Reid Ferguson (6-2, 230, Jr.-2L) has handled nearly every snap - both placekicks and punts - since his arrival as a true freshman in 2012. He will be counted on to do the same for LSU in 2014 as he's listed as a preseason All-America heading into his junior season. Ferguson is a placekicker and punter's dream as his snaps are right on the mark every time.

Les Miles — FOOTBALL

2007 National Champions

Les Miles hoists the 2007 Coaches' Trophy crystal football as the Tigers claimed the BCS National Championship with a 38-24 win over Ohio State on Jan. 7, 2008.

The Miles Method The goal is to run the finest football program in the country where our players can have an experience that is second to none.

In nine seasons as head coach of LSU, Les Miles has guided the Tigers to unprecedented success both on and off the field. Under Miles, the goal at LSU is to run the finest football program in the country - one where student-athletes can have an experience that sees them develop academically, grow personally through community service endeavors and compete for championships on the field.

With an unwavering commitment to his players and the program, Miles has been the driving force behind LSU's continued dominance at the national level since his arrival in 2005.

The results have been staggering. The Tigers' 95 victories under his watch are the most in the Southeastern Conference over the past nine seasons. The 2011 National Coach of the Year, Miles is one of only six coaches in SEC history to produce seven or more 10-win seasons at the same school. LSU owns the SEC's fourth highest graduation rate and the Tigers have won six bowl games, two SEC titles, 37 games over ranked teams and one national championship.

The 2013 season saw Miles and the Tigers post their fourth straight 10-win campaign, a first in the history of the program. Miles continues to have LSU firmly entrenched as one of college football's elite programs.

JaMarcus Russell • QB

JaMarcus Russell capped a magnificent LSU career by winning the Manning Award as the nation's top quarterback at the completion of the 2006 season. Russell went on to be selected with the No. 1 overall pick in the 2007 NFL Draft by the Oakland Raiders. He joined Billy Cannon in 1960 as the only football players in school history to be selected with the first overall pick in the NFL Draft.

Russell completed his LSU career as one of the top quarterbacks in school history as he posted a 25-4 overall mark as a starter, which included an 11-2 record as a junior in 2006. He finished his career ranked among the top five in every career passing category kept at LSU, including No. 2 all-time in completion percentage (61.9) and TD passes (52). He also ranks third in completions (493), passing yards (6,625), and total offense (6,704) and fourth in attempts (797).

During his career with the Tigers, Wilkerson helped lead LSU to a pair of SEC Championships as well as the 2003 BCS National Championship.

Despite the injury, Wilkerson still went on to be named the co-recipient, along with David Baas of Michigan, of the Rimington Trophy in 2004, which goes annually to college football's top center. In addition, Wilkerson was named a First-Team All-American by the American Football Coaches Association and The Sporting News even though he missed LSU's final four games of the season.

Josh Reed • WR

2001 BILETNIKOFF AWARD WINNER

When one thinks of some of the finest players in the history of the Southeastern Conference, Josh Reed's name is included on that list. Reed, who is one of the most decorated players in school history, virtually re-wrote both the LSU and SEC receiving record books despite playing only 28 games at wide receiver.

Originally signed out of Rayne (La.) High School as a tailback, Reed moved to wide receiver in week 9 of the 1999 season out of a necessity. The results were immediate as he caught five passes for 100 yards against Houston in just his second game at the position.

A year later, in 2000, Reed earned first-team All-SEC honors after catching 65 passes for 1,127 yards and 10 touchdowns for the 8-4 Tigers. His 102.5 yards receiving a contest led the SEC and he ranked second in the league with just under six catches a game.

Reed put together the finest year for a receiver in SEC history in 2001 as he shattered the league's singleseason yardage mark with 1,740 yards on a school-record 94 catches. Reed set a pair of league marks in a 35-21 road victory over Alabama as he hauled in 19 passes for 293 yards and a touchdown. He capped his record-setting career in grand fashion, setting a pair of Sugar Bowl records with 14 receptions for 239 yards and two touchdowns in leading the Tigers to a 47-34 victory over Illinois.

At the conclusion of his junior season, Reed was named the winner of the Biletnikoff Award, which is presented annually to the nation's top collegiate receiver. Reed was drafted with the fourth pick of the second round of the 2002 NFL Draft by the Buffalo Bills.

Billy Cannon was presented with the 1959 Heisman Trophy by then Vice President Richard Nixon.

Billy Cannon • HB

1959 HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER

Even by today's standards Billy Cannon was a rare athlete, combining sprinter speed with brute strength. Cannon could consistently run a 9.5 in the 100-yard dash and, at 6-1, 210 pounds, he had the size to overpower his opponents as well as outrun them. In 1957, he was an immediate standout as a sophomore, offensively and defensively.

As a junior, Cannon was the driving force behind the Fighting Tigers as they carved out a perfect season and captured the 1958 national championship. He passed for a touchdown and kicked the extra point in LSU's 7-0 win over Clemson in the Sugar Bowl, and earned MVP honors.

Cannon's most memorable performance came in 1959 against Ole Miss. Top-ranked LSU trailed the thirdranked Rebels 3-O early in the fourth quarter, when Cannon fielded a punt at the LSU 11-yard-line and broke seven tackles on his way to paydirt. LSU won the contest 7-3. Considered one of the best collegiate backs of his era, Cannon was awarded the Heisman Trophy at the conclusion of the 1959 season. In 2008, the legendary Cannon was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame.

A total of 205 student-athletes have graduated during Les Miles' tenure as head coach.

LSU / Academic Success

The Gold Standard

In December 2012, LSU was one of 45 institutions honored by the American Football Coaches Association for graduating 75 percent or more of its student-athletes. In addition, the Tigers have produced 142 SEC Academic Honor Roll recipients under head coach Les Miles since 2005.

Rodney Reed was featured in Sports Illustrated in 2003 as one of the smartest players in college football.

Student-Athlete

Eric Reid, the No. 18 overall pick of the 2013 NFL Draft, not only displayed his talent on the field. Away from it, Reid was a standout student-athlete with a 3.3 grade point average in LSU's elite E.J. Ourso College of Business Management. Reid intends on following through with graduation even though he was drafted as a junior.

7 National Scholar-Athletes

LSU has garnered seven National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame National Scholar-Athlete awards. In 2005, Rudy Niswanger won the William V. Campbell Trophy, which goes to the top student-athlete in all of college football. Niswanger maintained a 4.0 GPA and was a university medalist en route to winning the "Academic Heisman."

Project Graduation

"Project Graduation" gives a second chance to student-athletes who came up short in earning their degree the first time around. Under the direction of Kenneth Miles, who serves as vice chancellor and the executive director of the Cox Communications Center For Student-Athletes, and academic advisor Jason Shaw, who now oversees the program, "Project Graduation" is already paying dividends. The program has produced 17 graduates over the past two years, including quarterback Jordan Jefferson, who earned his degree in May 2014.

"Our Project Graduation program provides a mechanism through which our former student-athletes can earn their LSU degrees," Vice Chancellor and Director of Athletics Joe Alleva said. "We're committed to giving these students the same level of assistance they received during their playing careers, and the results produced by the program have been outstanding. Through the combined efforts of the Academic Center staff and our coaches, we're honoring our pledge to the students to provide the resources necessary to graduate from LSU."

Friday Night Lights

"Friday Night Lights" is LSU football's successful study hall program held for student-athletes the night before a gameday each week in the fall. Coach Miles installed the program when he arrived at LSU in 2005, and the program continues today.

Walt Holliday, Director of Academic Affairs at the LSU Academic Center For Student-Athletes, along with football academic advisors James Chiarchiaro and Jason Shaw, work with Director of Student Affairs Dr. Louise Bodack and her staff of learning specialists to make Friday Night Lights so successful.

Each night before football gamedays, the academic advisors set up a conference room inside the team hotel at all home and road games equipped with wireless Internet accessibility, and that room becomes a quiet study and work environment for the players. One of the academic advisors is present during Friday Night Lights to coordinate the event and assist the student-athletes.

"Friday Night Lights gives me an outlet to get my homework and studies done without having to worry about it after the game. I try to go to Friday Night Lights every week so that I can either catch up on work or stay ahead in my classes."

National Scholar Athletes

National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete Award

In 1959. The National Football Foundation unveiled an entirely new concept in college football -- it's National Scholar-Athlete program. In the history of American sports, this was the first time an organization honored football players, not only for their athletic ability, but also for their academic and civic leadership. The Foundation's National Scholar-Athlete Awards program consists of graduate fellowships that are awarded on an annual basis to a select group of college football players in their senior year of eligibility who have demonstrated outstanding academic success, exemplary community leadership and superior football performance. LSU has had seven players named as a National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete, including Rudy Niswanger, who claimed the 2005 William V. Campbell Trophy, which goes to college football's most outstanding student-athlete.

The Preservation of Tiger Stadium

In August 2010, the LSU Athletic Department and the Tiger Athletic Foundation launched a campaign to preserve and restore the look of Tiger Stadium. Renovations throughout the iconic venue are in its final stages and it will culminate with an expansion of the South End Zone, raising Tiger Stadium's capacity to 102,321. All of the projects are being privately funded by TAF.

West and North Stadium Plazas

Prior to the start of the 2012 season, construction was completed on the first part of the west side plaza that includes new gates, All-American and Hall of Fame plazas and the National Championship plaza that showcases the past, present and future of LSU football. Construction on the north plaza of Tiger Stadium was completed prior to the 2013 season. This update maintains the great look and feel of Tiger Stadium while preserving the facility in a way that allows it to continue to function for years to come.

South End Zone Project

In October 2012, ground was broken for the expansion of the south end zone that will include 66 suites, approximately 3,000 club seats and 1,400 general public seats above the current south end zone bowl. The addition will also feature two brand new HD corner scoreboards that will be among the best in the SEC. The new addition will debut in the 2014 season.

Tiger Stadium Windows

On Nov. 1, 2012, all 428 windows on the North side of Tiger Stadium were replaced, marking the initial phase in the Preservation of Death Valley. The 300 remaining windows on the east and west sides of Tiger Stadium were also sponsored and replaced after the 2013 season. The new windows restore the original look of the stadium on the outside and provide interior protection from the elements.

New Lighting

A new, state-of-the-art lighting system was installed prior to the 2012 season that turns the upper archways of the north end of the stadium purple and gold and lights the iconic "LSU" on the stadium's north scoreboard. The visually outstanding system perpetuates the legend of the stadium's night games. Following an LSU win, the north end of the stadium lights up in "victory gold."

"LADIES AND GENTLEMEN, IT'S SATURDAY NIGHT IN DEATH VALLE

"It has turned the knees of All-Americans to goo. It has caused coaches to lose their coaching minds. Dark. That combined with Tiger Stadium on a Saturday night is something loud, strange and holy. There is noise in stadiums everywhere from Eugene to Tuscaloosa. Only in Baton Rouge is there a living, breathing being lurking in its grand, old stadium."

- Dennis Dodd, CBSSports.com

"(Tiger) Woods pumped both fists and yelled, as jacked as you'll ever see him. But the crowd explosion drowned out whatever was coming out of his mouth. It was the closest golf has ever come to sounding like fourth-and-goal at LSU's Tiger Stadium on a Saturday night."

- Pat Forde, Yahoo Sports on Tiger Woods' putt to force a playoff at the 2008 U.S. Open, June 14, 2008

"Three SEC coaches I spoke with who have worked in other leagues say that Tiger Stadium is, by far, the loudest stadium in the country."

- Bruce Feldman, CBSSports.com

"Baton Rouge happens to be the worst place in the world for a visiting team. It's like being inside a drum."

-Paul "Bear" Bryant, Former Alabama Coach

"LSU students are the best. Part of being the best, is knowing when to be loud, when to be quiet and where to channel your energy. When they are on, they just wreck the other

- Glenn Dorsey, LSU All-American

"The toughest place to play in the SEC is LSU, Death Valley. The fans there are relentless. They don't stop at all. They keep going."

- Former Arkansas RB Darren McFadden

"I get asked about the best games I've called, and as far as college football goes, the Florida-LSU (2007) environment was as good as I've ever been around. I had always heard about night games at Tiger Stadium and had never gotten the chance to call one. It was really special to be a part of that."

- Verne Lundquist, CBS Sports

"Usually when the opposing team does well, the crowd quiets down. All I began to hear was a chant 'L-S-U, L-S-U.' It got louder and louder and louder. It was the loudest I've ever heard a stadium "

- Georgia Head Coach Mark Richt

"Best stadium - Tiger Stadium, LSU. The pre-game festivities. The deafening noise - there's no other place like it. ... it's the freakiest, funkiest, most frenetic place in all of college football."

- Matt Hayes, Sporting News

On Nov. 3, 2012, ESPN personality Scott Van Pelt got his first taste of "Saturday Night in Death Valley" and was overwhelmed by the stadium's atmosphere:

"For three hours on Saturday Night, I don't know that there has ever been an atmosphere in sports that I've been a part of that was as memorable to me. I have no dog in this fight. I mean look, I've been to games where I've watched Maryland win a national championship. Makes me think of my dad who left us too soon. I have nothing but being a sports fan on the line on Saturday night. And I've never seen something that felt like that. Or heard anything that was as sustained as that ... There is nothing I would put ahead of that that I've ever seen in any sport. When you're there, you don't want to miss anything."

"I'm not sure what it was like to walk into the Coliseum, but I bet it was something like this. The best place in the world to watch a sporting event."

- Wright Thompson, ESPN.com

The 12 Sports Pilarimages Every Man Should Make: Tiger Stadium

"It's what you'd expect out of Baton Rouge: people tailgating with shrimp étouffée, everything from alligators roasting on a barbecue to dishes that you would get in the French Quarter. These people are serious and they are legit and they're ready to go."

AND HERE COME YOUR FIGHTING TIGERS OF LSU!"

"I can tell you there is no finer stadium to play in. The traditions that they place in that stadium like when they announce that it's Saturday night in Death Valley, when that band plays, when that crowd stands and cheers for the Tigers, there is no place like it in America." - LSU head coach Les Miles

"Unless you're with the opposing team, Tiger Stadium at night is football nirvana."

- Chris Low, ESPN.com

"So welcome to LSU, where the football is so good the earth moves, where the tailgate chow is so good the Food Network should own broadcast rights, and where the entire atmosphere is so special that people from the other side of the world would rather spend their days listening to a tiger's roar in Death Valley than go home to the peace and comfort of the Shire."

- Jim Caple, Senior Writer ESPN The Magazine

Gameday in tigertown

"I'd been warned prior to my first visit to Baton Rouge that the legendary Death Valley mystique was a myth. The assessment couldn't have been more wrong. Tiger Stadium was as loud as any I've heard during the dramatic fourth quarter of Saturday's Georgia game, the festivities surrounding it as advertised.

The streets were lined with purple and gold. Smoke emanated from the grills in the parking lot. Shouts of "Go Tigers" and "Tiger Bait" echoed from the stadium deep into the heart of the campus. And that was just Friday night."

- Stewart Mandel, SI.com

"We'll just begin here, knowing full well that any other campus can't possibly touch the magic of a night game in Death Valley. If tradition is tailgating, the LSU band and - if you're lucky - a Mike the Tiger sighting, then I'm all in."

- Matt Hayes, Sporting News

Tailgating at LSU

A COLLEGE FOOTBALL EXPERIENCE LIKE NO OTHER

"Nothing like tailgating on the Bayou. LSU is my personal favorite. Maybe it's my penchant for the spicy stuff. But there's nothing like sampling a little gumbo, a little jambalaya and then diving face-first into a shrimp boil. The aroma just walking through the parking lot to Tiger Stadium stays with you the whole day, and the LSU fans get there early and stay late."

- Chris Low, ESPN.com

"Walking among the tailgaters here is like strolling through one of Emeril Lagasse's restaurants. RW once joined a group serving jambalaya, duck and oyster gumbo, stuffed quail, deer sauce picante, wild duck, cochon de lait, Cajun sausage, crawfish etouffee, rabbit, alligator stew and marinated pork tenderloin. And that was for a non-conference game."

- Jim Caple, ESPN The Magazine

"As the hours roll by, the noise of LSU tailgating builds. I walk around a bunch of tailgates being introduced to all. In minutes I'm eating fried oysters, shrimp, alligator and crawfish. All of them are delectable. This has been one of the greatest experiences of my life, and any self-respecting sports fan HAS to go to a game in Tiger Stadium."

Football

LSU's Football Operations Center is an all-in-one facility that includes football offices, locker room, training room, weight room, equipment room and video operations center. The $15 million facility is located on Skip Bertman Drive at the Charles McClendon Practice Facility. Built in 2006, the facility is one of the finest of its kind in college athletics, allowing more efficient time for dressing, training and practicing for the LSU football team.

OPERATIONS CENTER

The locker room of the Football Operations Center has 140 stations with lockable storage bins and a padded sitting area. The room also includes four LCD TVs and six 27-inch TVs.

The players lounge allows student-athletes to unwind prior to practice. Players can access computers at multiple work stations, play pool or play PlayStation 3 or XBox 360 on the mega LCD-TV screen.

Charles McClendon PRACTICE FACILITY

The facility features four 100-yard football practice fields as well as an indoor practice facility. On Sept. 9, 2002, LSU formally named its football practice facility for Charles McClendon, the winningest football coach in school history. McClendon, a member of the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame, served as head coach at LSU for 18 seasons, a span that saw the Tigers play in 13 bowl games, compiling $\,$ a 137-59-7 overall mark. He was named SEC Coach of the Year twice, in 1969 and 1970, and National Coach of the Year in 1970. In the spring of 2009, Momentum Field Turf by Sport Exe was installed on one of the four fields. The field, courtesy of the donation by Scott and Espe Moran, allows the Tigers to simulate outdoor conditions they will see in several stadiums across the country.

100-Yard Indoor FOOTBALL FIELD

The Anderson-Feazel LSU Indoor Field is a 100-yard climatecontrolled practice facility connected to the Operations Center. Built in 1991, the area is 8,250 square feet with Momentum Field Turf by SportExe similar to the Louisiana Superdome.

Every position has its own meeting room, complete with video equipment. The coaching staff also has multiple meeting rooms on the second floor of the facility adjacent to their offices.

Numerous displays honoring the past and present of LSU football are housed in the Operations Center. This one, outside the weight room, recognizes every first-team All-Southeastern Conference selection.

The Shirley and Bill Lawton Team Room includes 144 spacious theatre-style seats for team meetings and film sessions and state-of-the-art audio and visual components necessary for meetings, lectures and reviewing of game footage.

One of the most state-of-the-art video centers in the nation is housed in the Football Operations Center, complete with editing equipment to produce highlight videos and review game footage.

Strength

The Operations Center houses one of the most complete strength training facilities in the nation. Ranked No. 2 in the nation in a July 2010 poll by ESPN.com, the weight room area includes 16 multipurpose platform, bench, incline, squat and Olympic lifting stations. It features more than 10,000 square feet of training space and more than 30,000 pounds of weights and equipment.

FOURTH QUARTER

"The Fourth Quarter Program is designed to take our players to the next level. Our focus with the Fourth Quarter Program is in five areas - discipline, commitment, toughness, effort and pride. Our players have devoted themselves to these values and, as a result, they are having a great deal of success on the field, in particular the fourth quarter."

Tommy Moffitt LSU Strength & Conditioning Coordinator

In 2013, LSU pitched a second-half shutout against Texas A&M, the nation's fourth-ranked offense, and the Tigers out-muscled the Aggies for a 34-10 win.

118-9

LSU's record since 2000 when taking a lead into the fourth quarter.

Fourth Quarter Success

Making a difference down the stretch in every college football game is important, and LSU continues to be one of the nation's best at making timely plays when it matters most - the fourth quarter. The Tigers follow one of the most strenuous off-season conditioning programs that prepares the team for what they need when the clock is winding down.

The Football Operations Center weight room boasts 12 dumbbell bench stations and features custom iron grip dumbbells and weights made by Body Masters and Eleiko. Adjacent to the weight room is the LSU Indoor Practice Facility where the Tigers conduct summer endurance training in preparation for the season.

Athletic

— TRAINING

LSU boasts the largest and most complete athletic training facilities in all of collegiate athletics with both the Operations Center and the Broussard Center for Athletic Training in Tiger Stadium. Both are furnished with the latest in technology and equipment. The Operations Center athletic training room features a full view of the practice fields, two hot/cold jacuzzis and an underwater treadmill. The Broussard Center includes an on-site x-ray room, dental and vision clinics as well as a hydrotherapy center. It is also one of the few collegiate athletic training centers with a full-service pharmacy.

Hydrotherapy

Treatment

The full-time athletic training staff and graduate assistants prepare the players for gameday in the comfort of Tiger Stadium once they arrive after the walk down "Victory Hill."

An integral part of rehabbing and developing LSU student-athletes is the operations center's hot/cold jacuzzis and its underwater treadmill in a fully equipped Hydrotherapy room. The Broussard athletic training center boasts the largest hydrotherapy pool in both collegiate and professional sports.

Broussard Athletic TRAINING CENTER

The two story, 22,000 square foot facility contains 20 treatment tables with the newest forms of modalities available, 14 taping stations, a 1,600 square foot rehabilitation area which contains the latest rehabilitation equipment including the Cybex Norm, Woodway treadmills and Body Master select rise equipment. LSU's multi-million dollar athletic training facility is named in honor of Dr. Martin J. Broussard (left), the legendary athletic trainer whose career spanned over 40 years at LSU.

Road To Recovery

LSU is one of the top schools in the nation to get its student-athletes back on the field in a timely manner following an injury. The athletic training staff takes a progressive approach to injury identification and thinks "outside of the box." LSU consults with allied health professionals and uses state-of-the-art surgical procedures that give an athlete a quicker recovery time while looking out for his or her future.

Dental Center

A fully functional dental center, staffed by Dr. Robin Levy and Dr. John Vance, is located inside the Broussard Center for Athletic Training.

Rehabilitation

LSU's Broussard Center for Athletic Training and the Operations Center boast some of the most technologically advanced equipment to aid the recuperation and rehabilitation of LSU's student-athletes.

Real-Time X-Rays

The state-of-the-art fluoroscope provides LSU physicians and athletic trainers the opportunity to take instantaneous x-rays on site in the Operations Center. The machine can provide real-time images, both still and moving, of the internal structures of the student-athlete.

Nutrition First

LSU Athletic Training is a pioneer in the use of sound nutritional practices for student-athletes with the addition of a full-time registered dietitian in Jamie Meeks and sports nutrition interns. Meeks provides an interactive and innovative approach to educating student-athletes on the importance of the timing, quality and quantity needed to sustain elite-level activity. With her prior experience in the NFL, Senior Associate Athletic Trainer Shelly Mullenix works collaboratively with Meeks to instill football players with the nutritional knowledge to reach the next level.

Vision Center

Dr. Russell Saloom and Dr. Don Peavy conduct eye exams for LSU student-athletes in a convenient location in the Broussard Center for Athletic Training.

Pharmacy

The LSU Athletic Training facility maintains one of the few in-house, full service pharmacies of its kind in college athletics. Staffed by pharmacists Kevin Denoux and Caroline Lancon, the LSU Athletic Training Pharmacy offers the Tigers a first-class service in a convenient location. All-American Corey Webster sealed the victory with an interception in the final minute. LSU trailed 10-0 in the first quarter but rallied for 31 unanswered points on a school-record tying four TD passes from QB Matt Flynn to claim the third national title in program history. DT Ricky Jean-Francois garnered defensive Most Outstanding Player honors chiefly for blocking a second-quarter, 38-yard field goal attempt that kept the game tied at 10-10 and swung the momentum completely in LSU's favor the remainder of the game.

With rosters featuring future NFL players, neither team was able to score a touchdown. With the Tide driving in the fourth quarter, safety Eric Reid made arguably the biggest play of the entire college football regular season, when he grabbed an acrobatic, diving interception at the 1-yard line that prevented an Alabama score.

RS – denotes "Redshirt Draft" by the AFL in 1965 and 1966 Exp. – denotes expansion draft

LSU has been the home of some of college football's greatest players. A total of 66 LSU players have earned the distinction of first-team All-America in the 120-year history of the program. Gaynell Tinsley was the first All-American in school history after earning the recognition as an end in 1935. Tommy Casanova, arguably the most versatile player in school history, is LSU's only three-time first-team All-American.

Gaynell Tinsley 1935, 1936

Billy Cannon

Jimmy Taylor and Billy Cannon were the faces of LSU's successful teams of the 1950s. Taylor, who went on to a legendary pro career with the Green Bay Packers, was the first fullback in LSU history to earn All-America honors. Cannon, now a member of the National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame, was the national player of the year in 1958 and 1959.

Faulk remains the SEC's all-time leader in career all-purpose yards (6,833).

Gavnell (Gus) Tinslev

The Tigers' first consensus All-American, Gaynell (Gus) Tinsley was a unanimous selection in both 1935 and 1936. He played both ways as an end and led LSU to two SEC titles and three Sugar Bowl appearances. After earning three letters with the Tigers from 1934-36, he went on to a successful NFL career where he was twice named an All-Pro selection while playing for the Chicago Cardinals. Tinsley later returned to LSU where he served as the Tigers' head coach from 1948-54. During the 1949 season he led LSU to an 8-2-0 season that included wins over the Southern, Southeastern and Southwest Conference champions and a Sugar Bowl tilt versus Oklahoma. He was a charter member of the LSU Athletics Hall of Fame.

Marvin (Moose) Stewart

Center - 1935, 1936

A three-year letterwinner for the Tigers (1934-36), Marvin (Moose) Stewart was selected to the Helms Foundation All-American team in 1935. Later named an All-SEC selection by the Associated Press in 1936, he helped the Tigers to back-to-back SEC titles in 1935 and 1936. Stewart was a charter member of the LSU Athletics Hall of Fame.

Ken Kavanaugh, Sr.

End - 1939 Associated Press

A standout receiver for the Tigers from 1937-39, Ken Kavanaugh, Sr., was selected as an All-American by the Associated Press and finished seventh in the Heisman balloting during his senior season. A two-time AP first-team All-SEC selection (1938-39), Kavanaugh was known for scoring all four touchdowns in the Tigers' 28-7 victory over Holy Cross in 1939. He went on to an outstanding professional career with the New York Giants, where he continued with the organization as a scout after his playing career. A superb athlete, Kavanaugh also enjoyed a brief stint in baseball's professional ranks after lettering on the diamond at LSU. His son, Ken. Jr., lettered at LSU from 1969-71 as a receiver on the football team.

George Tarasovic

National Editorial Alliance

George Tarasovic was a junior college transfer who, although playing and lettering only one year at LSU, was named both an All-America and All-SEC selection that season. An all-around athlete in high school, Tarasovic's college career was abbreviated because of military service during the Korean War. However, after returning from the service Tarasovic resumed his playing career at the professional level where he saw over a dozen years of action in NFL and AFL.

Sid Fournet

Tackle - 1954

Associated Press, UPI, Look, Football Writers Association of America, National Editorial Alliance, Williamson, INS

An extremely durable performer, Sid Fournet played guard and tackle on both sides of the ball. Earning All-America distinction in 1954, Fournet was credited with seeing action in 83 percent of the Tigers' total plays that season. Also a two-time firstteam All-SEC selection, he was honored by both AP and UPI in 1953 and 1954.

Jimmy Taylor

Fullback - 1957

Football Writers Association of America-Look

Viewed as one of the most complete football players to have ever played the game, Jimmy Taylor was named a All-American by the Football Writers Association of America-Look in 1957. Voted the MVP of the 1958 Senior Bowl, he went on to a legendary pro career with the Green Bay Packers (1958-66) and New Orleans Saints (1967) and was later inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1976. Taylor is also a member of the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame and the LSU Athletics Hall of

Billy Cannon

Halfback - 1958, 1959

1959 Heisman Trophy

Associated Press (1958-59), UPI (1958-59), National Editorial Alliance (1958-59), Central Press (1958-59), American Football Coaches Association (1958-59), The Sporting News (1958-59), Football Writers Association of America-Look (1958-59), New York Daily News (1958-59), NBC (1958-59), Time (1958), Leahy (1958), Hearst (1959),

The greatest football player ever to don the Purple and Gold, Billy Cannon was awarded the Heisman Trophy in 1959. He was given virtually every honor that could be bestowed on an individual, including All-America accolades in 1958 and 1959.

Cannon was considered almost as valuable on defense as he was on offense. His 89-vard punt return in 1959 against Ole Miss has become a gridiron legend, but few remember that he and Warren Rabb stuffed Ole Miss at the goal line of a fourth and inches to preserve the dramatic 7-3 victory. A three-year letterwinner for the Tigers (1957-59), he was also a two-time first-team All-SEC selection (1958-59).

Max Fugler

Center - 1958

Football Writers Association of America-Look, NBC

A bulwark for the White Team, Max Fugler was instrumental in the Tigers' 1958 national championship run. Named an All-American by the Football Writers Association of America-Look and NBC that same year, he was heralded as an outstanding blocker on offense and incomparable down lineman on defense. His defensive work was exemplified by the number of goal line and fourth down stands the Tigers had during the glory years of 1958 and 1959. He was also named a firstteam All-SEC selection by UPI in 1958.

All-Americans HISTORY

Roy (Moonie) Winston

Guard - 1961

Associated Press, UPI, National Editorial Alliance, Central Press, Football Writers Association of America Look, Kodak/American Football Coaches Association, New York Daily News, The Sporting News, Time

A 1961 All-America selection at guard, Roy (Moonie) Winston excelled on defense with a strong initial charge, plus speed and agility. Soft-spoken, Winston was a born leader that was elected by his teammates as the Tigers' team captain in 1961. Winston also earned first-team All-SEC honors from the AP and UPI that same year. In addition, he played on LSU's SEC champion baseball team in the early 1960's before enjoying a brilliant NFL career in Minnesota.

Fred Miller

Tackle - 1962 All America Organization

A stellar lineman for the great LSU teams of the early 1960s, Fred Miller originally signed with Tulane after finishing at Homer High School, but he found out he was one English credit short, so he was bound for Texas A&M until Paul Dietzel sold his family on LSU. He played alongside Moonie Winston in 1961 and was a blocker for Heisman runner-up Jerry Stovall in 1962. In his three seasons, LSU played in two bowls, the Orange (25-7 over Colorado) and Cotton (13-0 over Texas). He was drafted by the Colts and later earned All-Pro honors. He is a member of LSU's Modern Day Team of the Century

Jerry Stovall

Halfback - 1962

Associated Press, UPI, National Editorial Alliance, Central Press, Football Writers Association of America Look, Kodak/American Football Coaches Association, New York Daily News, The Sporting News, Time, CBS

Ironically, Jerry Stovall was the last recruit signed by LSU after he graduated from high school. Once with the Tigers he earned All-America accolades and finished second in the 1962 Heisman Trophy balloting. Also a two-time All-SEC selection, Stovall went on to play nine seasons with the St. Louis Cardinals before becoming an assistant coach at South Carolina. He later returned to LSU as assistant coach and was named head coach after tragic death of Bo Rein in 1980. He took LSU to 1983 Orange Bowl and was named National Coach of the Year by the Walter Camp Football Foundation after the 1982 season

Billy Truax End - 1963

Football News

Billy Truax was an excellent blocker, but ISU's offense in that era was geared towards the run and, consequently, his talents as a pass receiver were never exploited. Football News honored him as an All-American in 1963, the same year the UPI recognized him as a first-team all-conference honoree. Truax's son, Chris, was an offensive lineman at LSU from 1988-91.

Remi Prudhomme

National Editorial Alliance, New York Daily News, Football News

A stalwart of the Chinese Bandits, Remi Prudhomme was an unusually strong player. His size and weight made him unique and his aggressive temperament was ideal for the role in which he was cast. Named a 1964 All-American by the National Editorial Alliance, the New York Daily News and the Football News, he also garnered all-conference honors from the UPT. Prudhomme went on to a brilliant pro career with the Buffalo Bills, Kansas City Chiefs and New Orleans Saints.

Doug Moreau

Split End - 1965 Football News

Doug Moreau's pass-catching ability was heralded, but his place kicking had to be recognized. In his junior season, his talented toe was responsible for the first two victories of the year, a 9-6 win over the Texas Aggies and 3-0 victory against Rice. The AP named him a first-team All-SEC pick in 1964 before he earned All-America honors from the Football News in 1965. Moreau went on to play professional ball with the Miami Dolphins, earned a law degree and served as a district judge in Baton Rouge. He currently serves as the color analyst for the LSU Sports Radio

George Rice

Tackle - 1965 Time, The Sporting News

A local lad, George Rice's prowess in high school overlapped three sports: football, basketball and track. Extremely powerful, his specialty in track was the shot put. On the gridiron he was a devastating blocker and tackler who played in three bowl games during his career. Rice was named a first-team All-SEC selection by UPI in 1964 and an All-American by Time and The Sporting News a year later. He participated in the Hula Bowl and went on to a long, successful career in the NFL before returning to LSU as a graduate assistant.

John Garlington

End - 1967

Kodak/American Football Coaches Association

An incredible athlete whose talents typified his play and teamwork, John Garlington had excellent speed and lateral pursuit. Opponents were timid when it came to attacking his side of the defensive line. Even with his size, he was a speed merchant. In the 1966 Rice encounter, Garlington picked off an errant pass and returned it 42 yards for a touchdown. A 1967 Kodak/AFCA All-American, he was also a two-time first-team All-SEC selection (1966 and 1967).

George Bevan

Football Writers Association of America-Look, Kodak/American Football Coaches Association

Possibly the finest all-around linebacker ever to play at LSU, George Bevan's size had absolutely nothing to do with his desire, competitiveness, leadership and commitment. In the first game of his junior year, he injured his Achilles tendon to such an extent that he underwent several surgeries and spent 32 months on crutches. There was little hope he would ever play football again, but by the summer of 1969, his determination had earned him a starting role, Although Bevan had many notable moments, his blocked extra point against Auburn in the classic 21-20 victory by LSU had to be his crowning achievement. He was named both an All-America and All-SEC (AP and UPI) selection in 1969. Bevan earned his law degree and works as an attorney in Baton Rouge.

Tommy Casanova

Cornerback - 1969, 1970, 1971

Associated Press (1969-70), Kodak/American Football Coaches Association (1969-70), UPI (1971), Central Press (1971), Football Writers Association of America (1971), Walter Camp (1971), Football News (1971), Time (1971)

Versatility personified might be the best description of the myriad talents of Tommy Casanova. During his three-year LSU career, he played offense and defense, returned punts and kickoffs, and did everything except handle the water cart. A fearless competitor, he led the team by example through three brilliant seasons and entered immortality as a result of his actions, both on and off the field. A three-time All-American. Casanova is one of just six three-time All-SEC performers in LSU history (1969-70-71). Following his collegiate career. Casanova played several seasons with the Cincinnati Bengals while pursuing his medical degree. He is now is an ophthalmologist in his hometown of Crowley, La.

Mike Anderson

Linebacker - 1970

Associated Press, UPI, Central Press, Football Writers Association of America-Look, Kodak/American Football Coaches Association, Football News, Time

Mike Anderson started every game during his three years as a linebacker at LSU. In fact, he was the second of three straight All-America linebackers produced by the Tigers: George Bevan in 1969; Anderson in 1970; and Warren Capone in 1973. Anderson was noted for one great play – at Auburn in 1970, LSU was leading 17-9. the Plainsmen had the ball, fourth and one inch and 6-2, 225-pound fullback Wallace Clark drove for the TD. Anderson met him head-on short of pay dirt and his feat became that of which legends are made. Named an All-American in 1970, he was also recognized as a first-team All-SEC pick by the AP and UPI that same year.

Ronnie Estay

Kodak/American Football Coaches Association

One of the quickest defensive linemen ever to play at LSU, Ronnie Estay, a true Cajun, anchored a defense that allowed fewest yards in the nation. During his junior year, he tackled both quarterbacks Pat Sullivan of Auburn and Archie Manning of Ole Miss for safeties. In 1971, he was recognized as a Kodak/AFCA All-American as well as a first-team All-SEC selection by the AP and UPT.

HISTORY / All-Americans

Bert Jones

Nuarterhack - 1972 UPI, National Editorial Alliance, Kodak/American Football Coaches Association, Time, The Sporting News

Bert Jones possessed as strong an arm as any quarterback in college history. He finished fourth in the balloting for the 1972 Heisman Trophy, won an SEC title as a sophomore and played in three bowl games while compiling a 26-6-1 career mark. He started only two games prior to the next-to-last game of his junior season, but started every one after that. Jones' most notable feats came against Notre Dame in 1971 (28-8), and Ole Miss in 1972 when, with time expired, he threw a touchdown pass to Brad Davis for the 17-16 LSU victory. A 1972 All-American and first-team All-SEC selection, he was the first pick in . 1973 NFL draft by Baltimore Colts.

Warren Capone

Football Writers Association of America (1972-73), Kodak/American Football Coaches Association (1973)

Warren Capone was another in the long line of Baton Rouge natives who starred at LSU. He played in the Sun, Bluebonnet and Orange Bowls during his years as a starting linebacker. For his efforts, he was named an All-American in 1972 and 1973 as well as first-team All-SEC by the AP in 1972 and both the AP and UPI in 1973. Capone played for Birmingham in the World Football League and the Dallas Cowboys in the Super Bowl. He is the past president of the National "L" Club.

Tyler LaFauci

Guard - 1973

Associated Press, National Editorial Alliance, Walter Camp

During Tyler LaFauci's three-year career, LSU compiled a 27-8-1 mark and participated in three bowl games: Sun, Bluebonnet and Orange. His lack of height didn't inhibit his determination and competitiveness as he excelled both as a pass blocker and a pulling blocker. A 1973 All-American, he was also a first-team All-SEC pick as voted on by the AP and UPI that year. Also a brilliant student, LaFauci went on to postgraduate work and earned a physical therapist degree, a profession he practices in Baton Rouge.

Mike Williams

Cornerhack - 1974

Kodak/American Football Coaches Association, The Sporting News, Time

Feisty, aggressive, determined and unvielding; those were the adjectives that best described the play of Mike Williams, Named Sports Illustrated's Back-of-the-Week for his play against Kentucky in 1973, he was also named an All-American by Kodak/ AFCA, The Sporting News and Time during the 1974 season.

Charles Alexander

Tailback - 1977, 1978

UPI (1977), Kodak/American Football Coaches Association (1977-78), Football Writers Association of America (1977-78), Walter Camp (1977-78), The Sporting News (1978), National Editorial Alliance (1978)

At the end of a stellar career that included a pair of All-America and All-SEC (AP and UPI) honors, Charles Alexander's name sat atop nine SEC categories, tied for another conference mark and topped 27 LSU records. In two bowl games, he was responsible for 330 yards. Alexander still holds the school records for most rushes in a game (43), most yards in a season (1686) and most yards gained per game in a season (153.3). He was drafted in the first round by Cincinnati and played in the Super Bowl. Alexander was selected to the College Football Hall of Fame in 2012.

Robert Dugas Offensive Tackle - 197

Football News

Suffice it to say, Robert Dugas' academic prowess surpassed his athletic ability, which was considerable. He was a member of the self-named "Root Hogs" which cleared the way for many of Charles Alexander's record setting performances. Dugas was named to the Football News' All-America team in 1978, the CoSTDA Academic All-America Team in 1977 and to All-SFC teams both in 1977 and 1978.

James Britt

Cornerhack - 1982

After three seasons, James Britt appeared ready to blossom, But in the second game of the 1981 season against Notre Dame, he intercepted a pass to set up a field goal, and a few minutes later, a broken arm ended his year. He went on to have an outstanding senior season in 1982 that was capped with All-America honors from the National Editorial Alliance. Britt was a second-round pick by the Atlanta Falcons and played there several years before entering a successful business career in the Georgia capital. Named an Academic All-American by CoSIDA in 1982, he was also a first-team All-SEC pick by the AP in 1982.

Albert Richardson

Linebacker - 1982

Albert Richardson still holds the LSU records for most tackles in a game (2) vs. South Carolina, 1982) and a career (952) and for 21 years, he also held LSU's singleseason record for tackles (150, 1981). Named an All-American by the Football News in 1982, Richardson was also selected as a first-team All-SEC performer by the AP and UPI that same year. His genes fitted him for a role in football as his father, Albert, Sr., was a Baton Rouge High School assistant coach.

Eric Martin

Split End - 1983 The Sporting News

A converted running back, Eric Martin compiled a brilliant record during his four years in varsity competition. At one time he was the school record holder in season (52) and career (105) receptions, yards in a single game (209) and most yards in a season (1,064). As a freshman, he was second in the nation in kickoff returns, a total that included a 100-yarder for a touchdown against Kentucky. A 1983 Sporting News All-American, he was also a two-time first-team All-SEC selection. He was inducted into the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame in 2006.

Lance Smith

Offensive Tackle - 1984

UPI, Kodak/American Football Coaches Association, Football News

Lance Smith's size and quickness ideally suited him as he was named to the SFC All-Freshman team. Smith matured both physically and emotionally during his first two years in Tigertown and was strong as a bull by the time his junior season came around. He earned All-America honors from UPI, Kodak/AFCA and Football News in 1984, in addition to first-team All-SEC honors from the AP and UPI. Later, a third round choice by Phoenix, Smith quickly earned a starting role with the Cardinals.

Michael Brooks

Linebacker - 1985

Associated Press, Scripps-Howard News Service

Michael Brooks stepped in from the very first game and showed his potential. His impressive play on the field earned him All-America honors as a junior and it was thought he would be a cinch to become one of the few two-time All-Americans in LSU history. But a knee injury in the Florida game sidelined Brooks for the remainder of the season. He was named first-team All-SEC in 1985 by the AP, UPI and SEC Coaches. The Denver Broncos drafted him in the third round.

Wendell Davis

Split End - 1986, 1987

Football Writers Association of America (1986-87). The Sporting News (1986-87), Washington Post (1986), College and Pro Football Newsweekly (1986), UPI (1987), Kodak/American Football Coaches Association (1987), Football News (1987), Scripps-Howard News Service (1987)

One of the most prolific receivers in LSU history, two-time All-American Wendall Davis had 100 or more receiving yards in 12 games during his career. He finished his career with a then SEC record 2,708 yards receiving, a mark that still ranks second in LSU history and ninth in SEC history. Davis also still ranks among the top 10 in the SEC in single season receiving yards (1,244), single season receptions (80) and career receptions (183). He was also named a first-team All-SEC pick by the AP, UPI and SEC Coaches in 1987 and 1988 and was later drafted by the Chicago Bears.

All-Americans HISTORY

Nacho Albergamo

Associated Press, UPI, Walter Camp, Kodak/American Football Coaches Association, Football Writers Association of America, The Sporting News, Football News, Scripps-Howard News Service

Nacho Albergamo was LSU's most decorated player in 1987. Along with guard Eric Andolsek, they comprised LSU's "A" team which anchored the fearsome Tiger offensive line that helped pave the way to a school record 4,843 offensive yards. Also a quality student, Albergamo was named the 1987 Toyota Leader of the Year and was one of 11 recipients of the 1987 National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame Schola-Athlete awards. He was twice named an Academic All-American by CoSIDA (1986 and 1987). Also a member of Omicron Delta Kappa leadership fraternity, he maintained a near 3.5 GPA in pre-med/zoology and attended LSU Medical School. Albergamo was also named a first-team All-SEC selection by the AP, UPI and SEC Coaches in 1987. He is currently a doctor of internal medicine in Baton Rouge.

Greg Jackson

Safety - 1988 Gannett News Service

Greg Jackson led the nation in interception return yardage in 1988 after tying the NCAA record with a 100-yard return versus Mississippi State and later adding a 71-yard return for a TD against Tulane. Jackson's 219 interception return yards for the season have only ever been exceeded once in SEC history, by Mississippi's Joe Brodsky's 244 yards in 1956. He also returned punts for LSU, taking back 11 for 99 yards in 1988. Named first-team All-SEC by the AP and SEC Coaches, he was later drafted by the New York Giants.

Kevin Faulk

Accoriated Prece

LSU's all-time leading rusher and a three-time All-SEC choice, Kevin Faulk led the SEC in all-purpose yards and ranked No. 2 in the league in rushing as a sophomore. Named an AP All-American as an all-purpose player that year, his 246 yards in the season opener against Houston set an LSU single-game record. FOOTBALL

The 1962 LSU cheerleaders

The rich history of LSU football is impossible to portray in only a few pages. However, below are tidbits from the Tiger Football annals that have contributed to the story that is LSU Football. These items are presented as background material with the hope that they will encourage a better understanding of the many traditions that are associated with Tiger football and LSU Athletics.

Alma Mater

In 2005, head coach Les Miles established a new tradition at LSU as the Tigers began singing the school's alma mater on the field following a victory. Miles and his team first sang the school song following LSU's dramatic 35-31 win at Arizona State in the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina on Sept. 10, 2005. For games involving an LSU victory, Miles and the team gather in front of the student section and join the student body in a rendition of the alma mater that has grown into quite a spectacle.

Where stately oaks and broad magnolias shade inspiring halls, There stands our dear Old Alma Mater who to us recalls Fond memories that waken in our hearts a tender alow. And make us happy for the love that we have learned to know. All hail to thee our Alma Mater, molder of mankind May greater glory, love unending be forever thine. Our worth in life will be thy worth we pray to keep it true, And may thy spirit live in us. forever L-S-U.

Billy Cannon, No. 20

The great Billy Cannon, two-time All-American and Heisman Trophy winner, played at LSU from 1957-59. He led the Tigers to the 1958 national championship and is best known for his 89-yard punt return to beat Ole Miss in 1959. In his career, Cannon rushed for 1,867 yards on 359 carries, an average of 5.2 yards per carry and scored 19 rushing touchdowns. He also scored two touchdowns by receiving and one each by punt return, kickoff return and interception return. LSU went 24-7 during Cannon's stay on the Baton Rouge campus, including 19 straight victories from the end of the $1957\,\text{season}$ to the eighth game of the $1959\,\text{campaign}.$ Following that $1959\,\text{season},$ Cannon's jersey was retired into the LSU Athletics Hall of Fame. A sign honoring Cannon was unveiled in the southeast corner of Tiger Stadium during LSU's game against Ole Miss on Nov. 22, 2008. Cannon was enshrined into the College Football Hall of Fame in the summer of 2009.

Cheerleaders

Cheerleaders have long been a part of college football tradition, and the LSU Varsity Cheerleaders are no exception in their role in Tiger gridiron lore. Pregame ceremonies feature the LSU cheerleaders atop Mike the Tiger's mobile unit as it circles the field.

The cheerleaders also traditionally lead the Tigers onto the field before and after halftime of every game. The 1989 Tiger cheerleaders captured the National Championship in the annual Universal Cheerleading Association competition. LSU has finished in the top 10 of that competition in each of the past 11 years.

Chinese Bandits

The nickname of one of the three units utilized in Paul Dietzel's threeplatoon system that vaulted the Tigers to the 1958 national championship. That year, the first team was named the White Team, an offensive unit was named the Go Team and a defensive unit was tabbed the Chinese Bandits. The White Team, naturally, wore white jerseys and was so named. The Go Team wore gold jerseys as the word "gold" was eventually shortened to "go." The name "Chinese Bandits" actually originated when Dietzel recalled a line from the old "Terry and The Pirates" comic strip that referred to Chinese Bandits as the "most vicious people in the world." In their heyday, the Chinese Bandits were featured in Chinese masks in Life magazine. In 1980, the LSU band revived the "Bandit" tune played when the LSU defense stalls any opponent's drive.

Cotton Bowl (1966)

One of the most notable games in LSU football history was the 1966 Cotton Bowl against powerful Arkansas. The Razorbacks went into the New Year's Day tilt ranked No. 2 in the country and riding a 22-game winning streak. LSU owned a meager 7-3 mark compared to the Hogs' perfect 10-0 record, but little Joe Labruzzo silenced many a disbeliever to spark the Bayou Bengals to their greatest bowl win. The Tigers left Dallas with a 14-7 win over the Southwest Conference host Razorbacks. The Tigers have appeared in four other Cotton Bowls, tying Arkansas 0-0 (1947), beating Texas 13-0 (1963), losing to Texas 35-20 (2003) and topping Texas A&M, 41-24 (2011).

Special thanks to Peter Finney of the New Orleans Times-Picayune who has documented the history of LSU football in his book "Fighting Tigers", Marty Mule' of the New Orleans Times-Picayune who penned "Eye of the Tiger" in celebration of LSU's football centennial in 1993, and to the late historian H. Warren Taylor whose relentless pursuit of accurate information and record-keeping in the early years of LSU athletics has kept alive the accomplishments of Tiger athletes in football, basketball, track and boxing dating back to the late 1800s.

On Dec. 25, 1907, LSU was the first college team to play on foreign soil in Havana, Cuba.

Cuba: Tigers on Foreign Soil

LSU was the first college team to play on foreign soil when, in 1907, coach Edgar R. Wingard took his Tigers to Havana for an international gridiron bout. The University of Havana team had dominated every American service team it had played, but had never encountered football collegiate style. The finesse of the Tigers took the big Cuban team by surprise on Christmas Day at Almendares Park and LSU walked away with a convincing 56-0 victory before 10,000 fans.

Dormitories

Tiger Stadium once housed some 1,500 dorm rooms, home to many LSU students over the years. The concept was introduced in 1928 by T.P. "Skipper" Heard, who learned that LSU president James Smith proposed to use $250,000 to build new dormitories on the LSU campus. Heard sold Smith on the idea of raising the stands on both the East and West sides of the stadium and extending them to the end zones, then constructing the dorms inside the stadium. Thus the University got its dorms and Tiger Stadium's capacity increased by 10,000 seats in 1931. Today, the dorms are used for storage.

Earthquake Game (1988)

QB Tommy Hodson connected with WR Eddie Fuller in the back of the endzone for the touchdown that vaulted LSU to a 7-6 victory over Auburn on Oct. 8, 1988, to help lead the LSU Tigers to their seventh SEC crown. The moment will forever be known as the "Night the Tigers Moved the Earth," as the play caused such a thunderous explosion from the 79,341 fans in Tiger Stadium, the LSU Department of Geology registered vibrations on a seismograph machine at the exact moment the touchdown was scored.

The Golden Boot

The Golden Boot is a trophy awarded each year to the winner of the Battle for the Golden Boot football matchup between LSU and SEC rival Arkansas. The trophy was introduced to the series prior to the 1996 season. Molded from 24-karat gold in the shape of the states of Arkansas and Louisiana. the trophy stands four feet in height, weighs nearly 200 pounds and is valued at $10,000. It is believed to be the heaviest trophy awarded in a college football rivalry. After a win in the series, the victorious team keeps the trophy until the following year's matchup.

The Golden Girls

Taking the field with the Tiger Band at LSU for the first time in 1959, the prestigious LSU Golden Girls represent the oldest and most established danceline on the LSU campus. The line consists of a very talented group of young ladies who are chosen each spring by a special audition. The Golden Girls are one of the feature units with the LSII Tiger Band and perform for all home LSU football games and selected campus events, as well as, away games with the full Tiger Band. The 2009 season represented the 50th anniversary of the group's foundation.

Fighting Tigers

In the fall of 1896, coach A.W. Jeardeau's LSU football team posted a perfect 6-0-0 record, and it was in that pigskin campaign that LSU first adopted its nickname, Tigers. "Tigers" seemed a logical choice since most collegiate teams in that year bore the names of ferocious animals, but the underlying reason why LSU chose "Tigers" dates back to the Civil War. During the "War Between the States," a battalion of Confederate soldiers comprised of New Orleans Zouaves and Donaldsonville Cannoneers distinguished themselves at the Battle of Shenandoah. These Louisiana rebels had been known by their contemporaries as the fighting band of Louisiana Tigers. Thus, when LSU football teams entered the gridiron battlefields in their fourth year of intercollegiate competition, they tagged themselves as the "Tigers." The 1955 LSU "fourth-quarter ball club" helped the moniker "Tigers" grow into the nickname, "Fighting Tigers."

The Golden Band from Tigerland

The grandest band in all the land, the Golden Band from Tigerland, is as much a part of Saturday nights in Tiger Stadium as the team itself. Among the many favorites of LSU fans is the band's traditional pregame march down North Stadium Drive from the Band Hall to the tune of "Hold That Tiger." That tradition is a carry-over from the old pregame parades through downtown Baton Rouge. Castro Carazo was the man handpicked by Louisiana Governor Huey Long in 1935 to revamp the Tiger band. Carazo and Long together wrote fan favorite "Touchdown for LSU," and two years later, Carazo also penned the official LSU fight song, "Fight For LSU." The tradition of the LSU Tiger Marching Band continues today. The LSU Tiger Marching Band is made up of some 325 musicians, Golden Girls and Colorguard members. In 1997, the band was selected as the top band in the Southeastern Conference by SEC band directors. In December 2001, the band was awarded the Sudler Trophy, the highest honor a collegiate marching band can receive. The award has been called "the Heisman Trophy of marching bands," according to Frank Wickes, former director of LSU bands. A new, state-of-the-art, 17,640 square foot band hall opened its doors on April 26, 2012.

Thirteen members of the LSU football community have the distinction of being inductees into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame that was established in 1947. In 1956, former end Gaynell Tinsley was enshrined in South Bend, Ind., as LSU's first Hall of Famer. Ken Kavanaugh (1963), Abe Mickal (1967), Doc Fenton (1971), Tommy Casanova (1995), Billy Cannon (2009) and Jerry Stovall (2010) all have been inducted into the event that is annually held at New York City's Waldorf Astoria Hotel in December. Charles Alexander became the newest College Football Hall of Famer to receive the call when he did so in May 2012. Alexander was officially inducted in December 2012. Five LSU coaches are members of the NFF Hall of Fame, a list that includes the legendary Charles McClendon. Three former LSU players have earned the highest honor of being inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. Steve Van Buren was the first in 1965. Y.A. Tittle, who went on to become one of the greatest quarterbacks in history, was inducted in 1971 after a storied career with the Baltimore Colts, San Francisco 49ers and New York Giants. Four-time NFL championship winner and 1962 NFL MVP Jimmy Taylor was enshrined in 1976. Twenty-nine LSU football players are also members of the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame with Alan Faneca as the most recent inductee in the summer of 2014.

TRADITIONS ATOZ

H-Style Crossbar

Unknown to many Tiger fans, the LSU football team still runs onto the field under the same crossbar that stood as part of the north end zone goalpost in Tiger Stadium as early as 1955. It had long been a tradition that the LSU football team enters the field by running under the goalpost when the new "T-style" goalposts came into vogue. By virtue of tradition, the old "H-style" posts stood on the field of Death Valley until they were finally removed in 1984. Part of the crossbar, however, was kept and mounted above the door of the Tiger Den through which the Tigers run onto the field each game. In 1993, in celebration of the centennial of LSU football, the "H-style" goalposts were returned to the end zones of Tiger Stadium. Today, Tiger Stadium is one of only three college stadiums in the nation who still use the "H-style" crossbar. Doak Campbell Stadium at Florida State and Martin Stadium at Washington State are

Halloween Night

Drama on Halloween is as traditional as pumpkins and goblins for LSU and Ole Miss. These schools have met seven times on Oct. 31 with the series tied at 3-3-1. The most notable game on All Hallow's Eve was the 1959 thriller that saw Billy Cannon return a punt 89 yards to spur a 7-3 Tiger victory. The Tigers and Rebels next met on Halloween in 1964. Ole Miss led 10-3 late in the fourth quarter in Death Valley when LSU scored a touchdown to make it 10-9. Quarterback Billy Ezell then threw to Doug Moreau in the front corner of the endzone on the two-point conversion, at nearly the exact point where Cannon had crossed the goal line five years earlier for an 11-10 win. There was a 17-year drought before the teams played on Oct. 31 again, this time at Jackson in 1981. A seesaw battle ended with a 46-yard field goal off the foot of LSU's David Johnston as time expired for a 27-27 tie. In the most recent meeting, the teams engaged in the first overtime game in LSU history at Oxford in 1998, but Ole Miss emerged with a 37-31 win. LSU is 8-6-1 all-time on Halloween night, including a 42-0 shutout of Tulane in Tiger Stadium in 2009.

Halloween Run

There have been longer scoring plays in LSU football history, but Billy Cannon's 89-yard punt return against Ole Miss in 1959 is simply, and undeniably, the most famous play in Tiger gridiron records. In fact, some consider it one of the most memorable in college football history. It was an eerie, misty and humid Halloween night, and the Rebels of Mississippi took a 3-0 lead into the final quarter, threatening to end an 18-game LSU win streak. On third and 17 from the Ole Miss 42, the Rebels' Jake Gibbs punted 47 yards to the Tiger 11 where Cannon hauled it in on the bounce. Cannon careened off seven tacklers down the east sideline and darted 89 yards to immortality. Some say it may have been that run that assured Cannon of the Heisman Trophy he received at season's end. LSU celebrated the 50-year anniversary of the legendary play in 2009 as Cannon was recognized on the field during the Tigers' game with Tulane on Halloween night.

1947-55 1972-76 1977-2013 2014-present 1958-64 pre-1947

LSU's helmet is a striking tradition that has seen its share of changes since the program's inception. From 1947-55, a dark gold helmet was used by the Tigers. Then in 1956, head coach Paul Dietzel entered his second season by introducing a new helmet design. The helmet was changed to a yellow gold, similar to that of the Green Bay Packers, that featured a white one-inch center stripe and purple three-quarter-inch flanking stripes. It is a look that has become synonymous and identified with LSU football since its unveiling. The 1957 Tigers had the addition of black two-inch "NCAA style" identifying numerals placed on each side of the helmet and that size expanded to three inches in 1958, the year of LSU's first national title. In 1972, a logo first appeared on the helmet. In 1977, the logo was modified, and that look remained until 2013. In 2014, the tiger head logo was updated with a fresh look.

Jersey 18

Jersey No. 18 was an LSU tradition born in 2003 when quarterback Matt Mauck guided the Tigers to their first national championship since 1958. His number became synonomous with success - both on and off the field - as well as a selfless attitude that has become the epitome of being an LSU football player. After his final year with the Tigers, Mauck passed jersey No. 18 down to running back Jacob Hester, who then helped LSU to another national title in 2007. Each season, a Tiger player is voted to wear the No. 18. Richard Dickson (2008, '09), Richard Murphy (2010), Brandon Taylor (2011), Bennie Logan (2012) and Lamin Barrow (2013) have each had the honor of wearing the

Ice Bowl (1946)

The Tigers of 1946, though not one of Bernie Moore's two SEC Championship teams, was surely one of Moore's finest squads. Only a 26-7 loss at the hands of SEC foe Georgia Tech spoiled the season and the Y.A. Tittle-led Bayou Bengals landed in the Cotton Bowl against Arkansas and star Razorback Smackover Scott. But ice, sleet and snow pelted Dallas on that Jan. 1 as I SII filled oil drums with charcoal and started fires for makeshift heaters on the field. Fans built fires in the stands and watched the Tigers roll to 271-54 advantage in total yardage and a 15-1 lead in first downs. Those numbers, however, didn't equate on the scoreboard that showed 0-0 at game's end. The Tigers finished the season with a 9-1-1 record in Moore's penultimate season as head coach.

The Kingfish

No single person can be credited for building LSU football into the entity it is today, but one of the men who most influenced the popularity of Tiger football was neither a player nor a coach. The "Kingfish," Louisiana Governor Huey P. Long, never shied from using his political influence to aid the cause of LSU football. Two examples: In 1934, athletic director T.P. Heard reported low advance sales for the LSU-SMU game because of a circus coming to town the night of the game. Long contacted the proper Barnum and Bailey representatives and informed them of a near-forgotten animal-dipping law. The show was canceled and LSU-SMU ticket sales took off. Later that same year, Long used his influence to "entice" passenger agents of the Illinois Central Railroad to lower fares for LSU students traveling to a road football game. When Long threatened to reassess the value of railroad bridges in the state from $100,000 to $4 million, the railroad generously agreed to give LSU students a $6 roundtrip fare for the Vanderbilt game that season.

Night Games in Tiger Stadium

The tradition of playing night games in Tiger Stadium began on Oct. 3, 1931, when LSU downed Spring Hill, 35-0, under the lights. The idea of night football was introduced by T.P. "Skipper" Heard, then graduate manager of athletics and later athletics director. Several reasons were cited for playing LSU games at night, including avoiding the heat and humidity of afternoon games, avoiding scheduling conflicts with Tulane and Loyola and giving more fans the opportunity to see the Tigers play. An immediate increase in attendance was noted, and night football soon became ingrained in LSU football lore. LSU has also traditionally played better at night than in the light of day. LSU is 312-102-13 (.746) under the lights of Tiger Stadium and 86-42-5 (.665) during the day at home. Since head coach Les Miles took over the program in 2005, the Tigers have been dominant at home and especially at night. Under Miles, LSU boasts a 40-2 Saturday Night record in Tiger Stadium with both losses having occured to top-ranked teams.

Numbering System

LSU, in 1952, introduced a unique - and short-lived - jersey numbering system. The idea of coach Gaynell "Gus" Tinsley and publicity director Jim Corbett, the system utilized an abbreviation of the player's position on his jersey. Thus, ends, guards and tackles wore the letters "E", "G" and "T" followed by a single-digit number. The right side of the line wore even numbers, the left side odd numbers. In similar fashion the centers, quarterbacks, left halfbacks, right halfbacks and fullbacks wore"C", "Q", "L", "R" and "F", respectively, followed by single-digit numerals. The 1953 LSU yearbook, the Gumbo, boldly predicted that the new system "may revolutionize the football jersey manufacturing industry." It didn't.

Perfect Seasons

LSU has had six unblemished seasons in its history. The Tigers first went undefeated and untied in 1895 under head coach A. P. Simmons with a 3-0 record, but the first truly great LSU team is considered to be the 1908 squad led by one of the most legendary players to wear the Purple and Gold—Doc Fenton. That 1908 team, coached by Edgar R. Wingard, soared through a 10-game schedule without a loss or tie as Fenton scored an incredible 125 points on the year. It was 50 years before LSU would post another perfect season, winning the national championship in 1958 with an 11-0 mark.

LSU began in 1860 as the Louisiana State Seminary of Learning and Military Academy, shortly before the beginning of the Civil War. In fact, LSU's first superintendent was Civil War commander William Tecumseh Sherman. "Ole War Skule" was formerly a popular reference to LSU, as was the term "Old Lou."

Purple & Gold

There is some discrepancy in the origin of Royal Purple and Old Gold as LSU's official colors. It is believed that those colors were worn for the first time by an LSU team in the spring of 1893 when the LSU baseball squad beat Tulane in the first intercollegiate contest played in any sport by Louisiana State University. Team captain E.B. Young reportedly hand-picked those colors for the LSU squad. Later that year, the first football game was played. On Nov. 25, 1893, football coach/chemistry professor Dr. Charles Coates and some of his players went into town to purchase ribbon to adorn their gray jerseys as they prepared to play the first LSU gridiron game. Stores were stocking ribbons in the colors of Mardi Gras -purple, gold, and green - for the coming Carnival season. However, none of the green had yet arrived at Reymond's Store at the corner of Third and Main streets. Coates and quarterback Ruffin Pleasant bought up all of the purple and gold stock and made it into rosettes and badges.

The Rag was the traditional spoils of victory in the LSU-Tulane rivalry for many years. This flag, decorated half in LSU's colors of purple and gold and the other half adorned in the green and white of Tulane, was held for one year by the victorious school until the game the following season. The whereabouts of the original flag are unknown; however, a new version of The Rag was awarded to the LSU squad after the Tigers defeated the Greenies, 48-17, in the 2001 season opener in Death Valley.

The Rivalry: LSU vs. Tulane

LSU's rivalry with the Green Wave of Tulane was a natural from the game's infancy. The Greenies won LSU's first football game in 1893 by a 34-0 count, but over the ensuing seasons, the Tigers have dominated the series and own a 68-22-7 margin over their neighbors from New Orleans. The proximity of the schools made for the development of the rivalry in its early years and, by 1913, fans began to travel the distance by automobile instead of by train. Today's Tiger fan can traverse the distance from Tiger Stadium to the Louisiana Superdome in less than 90 minutes, but in the early years, according to the New Orleans Times-Picayune "with a good car, it can be negotiated in perfect comfort in six hours." The two schools renewed the series in 2007 as LSU defeated Tulane, 34-9, in the Superdome. The most recent meeting occurred in 2009 when the Tigers shutout the Green Wave, 42-0, on Halloween night in Tiger Stadium.

Songs of LSU

Hey Fightin' Tigers

Hey, Fightin' Tigers, fight all the way Play Fightin' Tigers, win the game today.

You've got the know how, vou're doing fine. Hang on to the ball as you hit the wall And smash right through the line

You've got to go for a touchdown Run up the score. Make Mike the Tiger stand right up and roar.

Give it all of your might as you fight tonight and keep the goal in view. Victory for L-S-U!

"Hey Fighting Tigers" was adapted from the Broadway show tine "Hey, Look Me Over" by Cy Coleman. Gene Quaw, then director of social recreation at LSU, wrote the lyrics. "Hey Fighting Tigers" was played publicly for the first time at the 1962 opening game with Texas A&M $\,$ in legendary Coach Charles McClendon's first game at LSU. Athletics director Jim Corbett wanted to do something special for McClendon's first game and he borrowed a fight song from a Broadway musical. The song appeared in the musical Wildcat starring Lucille Ball. LSU obtained special permission to use the melody that can be heard in and around Tiger Stadium on Saturday nights in the fall.

Fight for LSU

(Official Fight Song)

Like Knights of old, Let's fight to hold The glory of the Purple Gold.

Let's carry through, Let's die or do To win the game for dear old LSU.

Keep trying for that high score; Come on and fight, We want some more, some more.

Come on you Tigers, Fight! Fight! Fight! for dear old L-S-U. RAHI

Touchdown for LSU

Tigers! Tigers! They've come to town, They fight! They fight! Call a first down, Just look them over, and how they can go, Smashing the line with runs and passes high and low.

Touchdown! Touchdown! It's Tigers' score. Give them hell and a little bit more. Come on you Tigers, Fight them, you Tigers, Touchdown for LSU. Rah! U. Rah!

South End Zone

Whether it be the 1959 goal line stand that sealed victory for the Tigers against Ole Miss on the "Billy Cannon Run" night or Bert Jones' pass to Brad Davis as time expired to beat the Rebels in 1972, the south end zone of Tiger Stadium has become somewhat of an enigma for the sometimes strange and often memorable plays in LSU football. The Tiger defenders have put together numerous goal line stands at the south end zone, including the following games: 1985 Colorado State, 1985 Florida, 1986 North Carolina, 1986 Notre Dame, 1988 Texas A&M, 1991 Florida State, 1992 Miss. State and 1996 Vanderbilt. In 1988, the Tigers stymied the Texas A&M Aggies at the LSU twoyard line despite the distraction of a bank of lights going dark midway through A&M's series of plays. For that series, LSU's defense was nicknamed the "Lights Out Defense." The first great goal line stand at that end of the field may have been in that 1959 game when Warren Rabb and Billy Cannon halted Ole Miss' Doug Elmore at the one-yard line for the 7-3 victory. Then, in 1971, the first and most memorable of LSU's three goal line stands against Notre Dame was at the one-yard line at the South end of the field as Louis Cascio and Ronnie Estay hit the Irish's Andy Huff at the goal en route to a 28-8 Tiger victory.

Super Bowl Champions

Super Bowl champion is a phrase that has become synonymous with former LSU football players. A total of 49 former Tigers have played in pro football's ultimate game and 27 have claimed a Super Bowl ring. At least one former LSU player has won a Super Bowl title in 11 out of the past 13 years dating back to 2002. LSU greats Jimmy Taylor of the Green Bay Packers and Johnny Robinson of the Kansas City Chiefs played in the first Super Bowl in 1967, Robinson and offensive lineman Remi Prudhomme were the first to win a Super Bowl as the Chiefs claimed Super Bowl IV with a 23-7 victory over the Minnesota Vikings. New York Giants cornerback Corey Webster became the most recent Super Bowl champion. earning his second ring when the Giants upset the New England Patriots in Super Bowl XLVI. Kevin Faulk has claimed more Super Bowl rings than any former Tiger in school history with three - all with the New England Patriots.

Former LSU cornerback Corey Webster started for the Super Bowl champion New York Giants in Super Bowl XLVI.

Following a victory, the LSU football team sings "Hey Fightin' Tigers" in the locker room.

Tiger Rag (Hold that Tiger)

Long ago, way down in the jungle Someone got an inspiration for a tune. And that jingle brought from the jungle Became famous mighty soon. Thrills and chills it sends thru you! Hot! so hot, it burns you too! Tho' it's just the growl of the tiger It was written in a syncopated way, More and more they howl for the "Tiger" Ev'ry where you go today They're shoutin' Where's that Tiger! Where's that Tiger! Where's that Tiger! Where's that Tiger! Hold that Tiger! Hold that Tiger! Hold that Tiger!

Tailgating

It has often been pondered whether the attraction of night football is because of the excitement of the atmosphere created by a game under the lights, the more pleasant weather of an evening after the sun has set, or because it allows more time for tailgating. If it is not football that people of South Louisiana crave, then it is food. Tiger fans arrive as early as Thursday evening for Saturday games, set up their motor homes and kick back for a weekend of cooking and enjoyment for two days until kickoff. A stroll across the LSU campus and through the parking lots is a veritable connoisseur's treat. Common entrees include crawfish, boiled shrimp and jambalaya and, on occasion, one will run across a cochon-de-lait (pig. roast). In 2008, ESPN.com ranked LSU as the top tailgating destination in America. In 2010, Sporting News, proclaimed "Saturday Night in Death Valley" and Tiger tailgating as the top traditions in all of college football. LSU's legendary tailgating experience was recently named No. 1 by the Associated Press in a September 2010 poll and by CNN in the network's November 2010 survey.

Victory Hill

A pregame ritual for many Tiger fans is to line North Stadium Drive in the hours before kickoff to see the Tiger Marching Band in its walk from the band hall. The band pauses each game on the hill next to the Journalism Building to play "Tiger Rag," to the delight of the LSU throngs. Former head coach Curley Hallman began the tradition in the early 1990s of leading the team by foot down Victory Hill from Broussard Hall two hours before the game. That practice became so popular that Gerry DiNardo, Nick Saban and Les Miles have continued the tradition, even though the team began to stay in a hotel the night before home games. The team buses drive from the on-campus Lod Cook Hotel to the top of Victory Hill between the Academic Center and Journalism Building in order for the players to make their traditional walk down.

Jim Hawthorne

Voice of the Tigers

For more than 40 years, John Ferguson was known as the "Voice of the Tigers." Ferguson's distinctive baritone voice could be heard nationwide as few teams played night games during his tenure, which began in 1946. The most famous call of all plays, though, belongs to J.C. Politz who was the "Voice of the Tigers" in 1959 when Billy Cannon made his legendary 89-yard Halloween run. Ferguson later returned to the broadcast booth doing television for TigerVision broadcasts beginning in 1984. At that time, Jim Hawthorne took over the radio duties and remains today the football, men's basketball and baseball "Voice of the Tigers." Hawthorne has called some of the greatest moments in LSU history, including play-by-play for the Tigers' 2003 and 2007 national championship seasons. Ferguson passed away at the age of 86 on Dec. 19, 2005.

"Billy Cannon watches it bounce, he takes it at his own 11, he comes back upfield to the 15, stumbles momentarily, he's at the 20, running hard at the 25, gets away from one man at the 30, still runs at the (inaudible) ...at the 35, at the 45... he's on the 50, he's in the clear on the 45, the 40 (inaudible due to crowd noise)...the 15, the 10, the 5 he scores!

"Billy Cannon raced some 89 yards for a touchdown. Listen to the cheers for Billy Cannon as he comes off the field...great All-American!"

- J.C. Politz, "Voice of the Tigers" Oct. 31, 1959

The Tigers celebrated the 2007 national title on the South Lawn of the White House.

"I'm so honored and proud to welcome the LSU Tigers here as the national champs. God bless you. God bless LSU, and God bless America."

> - President George W. Bush April 7, 2008

The White House

Winning BCS national championships carries the privilege of visiting Washington D.C., and touring the White House. The Tigers have taken part in Champions Day at the White House following its two recent BCS titles. Head coach Les Miles and his team had the chance to meet President George W. Bush on the South Lawn in April 2008. Miles presented President Bush with a No. 7 jersey, in reference to the 2007 season, and Jacob Hester gave the 43rd president of the United States a bronze football. LSU also took a tour of the National Mall area which including visits to the Lincoln Memorial, the Washington Monument, the National World War II Memorial, the Korean War Veterans Memorial and the Vietnam Veterans Memorial. The Tigers visited the Walter Reed Army Medical Center, toured the Pentagon and witnessed the changing of the quard at the Tomb of the Unknowns at the Arlinaton National Cemetery.

White Jerseys

LSU is one of the few college football teams that traditionally wear white iersevs for home games. The tradition originated when LSU won its first national championship in 1958. Head coach Paul Dietzel had a habit of tinkering with the uniform every year. In 1958, he chose to wear white iersevs for LSU's home games, and the Tigers subsequently won the national championship. A superstitious man, Dietzel didn't change the uniform after that season, LSII. continued to wear white jerseys for home games throughout the Charlie McClendon Era. When Jerry Stovall took over as head coach in 1980. he said the Tigers would occasionally wear purple ierseys so that home fans could see a different color. In 1982, the NCAA changed its jersey rule, requiring teams to wear dark colored jerseys for home games. The Tigers wore purple jerseys for all home games from 1983 to 1994. When Gerry DiNardo became head coach in 1995, he vowed to change the NCAA jersey rule. After petitioning the rules committee of the American Football Coaches Association, he personally met with each member of the NCAA Football Rules Committee. DiNardo's efforts were successful and the Tigers were allowed to wear white jerseys again beginning in 1995. A stipulation of the new rule was that the visiting team would have to give the home team permission to wear the white jerseys. The first team to deny LSU's request was DiNardo's former team, Vanderbilt. Instead of going back to purple jerseys, the Tigers took to the field in new gold jerseys. The SEC later adopted a league rule stipulating that the home team has sole discretion in determining its jersey color. Nick Saban became LSU's head coach in 2000 and continued the white jersey tradition, but with a twist. Saban decided that LSU would wear purple jerseys for all non-SEC games, except the home opener. That tradition continues today.

On the Prowl

Mike the Tiger was recently ranked in the top three in a Bleacher Report poll of college football's top live mascots. Mike's habitat is one of the most visited attractions in the state of Louisiana located in the shadows of the north endzone of Tiger Stadium.

Mike the tiger

History of Mike

Few mascots in the country are as admired as Mike the Tiger. LSU's live Bengal mascot serves as the graphic image of all LSU athletic teams. The school has had six mascots, with the most recent, Mike VI, taking over the reign prior to the 2007 national championship football season. LSU veterinarian Dr. David Baker began the search for the young tiger after his predecessor, Mike V, died in May 2007 of renal failure at the age of 17. The nine-yearold Bengal/Siberian mix, formerly known as "Roscoe," was donated to LSU by Great Cats of Indiana in Idaville, Ind., a nonprofit sanctuary and rescue facility for big cats and other large carnivores.

Mike's ride through Tiger Stadium before home games in a travel trailer topped by the LSU cheerleaders is a school tradition. Before entering the stadium, his trailer on wheels is parked next to the opponent's locker room in the southeast end of the stadium. Opposing players must make their way past Mike's trailer to reach their locker room.

Tradition dictates that the Tigers will score a touchdown for every growl issued by Mike before a football game. For many years, Mike was prompted to roar by pounding on the cage. Objections of cruel punishment brought about the use of recorded growls to play to the crowd before the games. That practice was discontinued shortly afterward and today Mike participates in the pregame tradition without provocation.

In the mid-1980's, pranksters cut the locks on Mike IV's cage and freed him in the early-morning hours just days before the annual LSU-Tulane clash. Mike roamed free, playfully knocking down several small pine trees in the area, before being trapped in the Bernie Moore Track Stadium where police used tranquilizer guns to capture and return the Bengal Tiger to his home.

The incident was reminiscent of a kidnapping of Mike I many years ago by Tulane students before a Tiger-Green Wave

Prior to kickoff Mike VI and the LSU cheerleaders parade around the field of Tiger Stadium.

Mike I

The original Mike was purchased from the Little Rock Zoo in 1936 for $750, with money contributed by the student body. Originally known as "Sheik" at the time of his nurchase, his name was changed to Mike to honor Mike Chambers who served as LSU's athletic trainer when the first mascot was purchased. The first Mike was housed in the Baton Rouge Zoo for one year before a permanent home was constructed near Tiger Stadium. Mike I reigned for 20 years before dving of pneumonia.

Mike's Habitat

In 2005, a new environment (above) was created for Mike that is 15,000 square feet in size with lush planting, a large live oak tree, a beautiful waterfall and a stream evolving from a rocky backdrop overflowing with plants and trees. The habitat has, as a backdrop, an Italianate tower - a campanile - that creates a visual bridge to the Italianate architectural vernacular that is the underpinning of the image of the entire beautiful LSU campus. This spectacular habitat features state-of-the-art technologies, research, conservation and husbandry programs, as well as educational, interpretive and recreational activities. It is, in essence, one of the largest and finest Tiger habitats in the United States.

Sneaux Day

On Dec. 11, 2008, a winter storm blanketed Baton Rouge that hadn't been seen in decades. The early white Christmas gave Mike VI, LSU's live Bengal/Siberian tiger, a chance to relax and play in nearly two inches of accumulation.

1956-1958

Mike II

The second Mike served a brief reign, lasting only through the 1957 season before dying of pneumonia in the spring of 1958. He was born at the Audubon Zoo in New Orleans and came to LSU on Sept. 28, 1956. The young tiger was held overnight in Tiger Stadium and unveiled Sept. 29, the opening day of the football season.

1958-1976

Mike III

Just in time for the 1958 national championship season, Mike III was purchased from the Woodland Park Zoo in Seattle, Wash., following a "national search" by then-athletic director Jim Corbett. The student body contributed $1,500 for the purchase of the tiger. Mike III served as mascot for 18 seasons, dying after the only losing season of his reign, as LSU posted a 5-6 record in 1975.

1976-1990

Mike IV

Mike IV reigned over Tiger athletics for 14 years after being donated to the school by August A. Busch III from the Dark Continent Amusement Park in Tampa, Fla, on Aug. 29, 1976. Born on May 15, 1974, Mike's age and health were determining factors in his retirement to the Baton Rouge Zoo in 1990. Mike IV died of old age in March of 1995 at the age of 21.

1990-2007

Mike V

Mike V was donated by Dr. Thomas and Caroline Atchison of the Animal House Zoological Park in Moulton, Ala. Dr. Sheldon Bivin of the LSU School of Veterinary Medicine traveled to Alabama and brought the baby tiger back to Baton Rouge. Born Oct. 18, 1989, the new tiger was introduced to LSU fans at a basketball game against Alabama in February of 1990. He officially began his reign on April 30, 1990, when he was moved into the tiger habitat across from Tiger Stadium. Mike V died on May 18, 2007, at the age of 17.

2007-present

Mike VI

Mike VI arrived in Baton Rouge on Aug. 25, 2007, thanks to the donation by Great Cats of Indiana. He was officially designated as the successor to Mike V on Sept. 8, when LSU played host to Virginia Tech. Six days later, on Sept. 14, 2007, a ceremony was held to honor Mike V and dedicate the habitat to Mike VI. The nine-year-old Bengal/ Siberian mix, formerly known as "Roscoe," reigned over a football national title in his first year and most recently, a 2011 Southeastern Conference championship and perfect regular season.

LSU

The following nine individuals are the only athletes to have their jerseys retired by LSU. Men's basketball has retired the No. 23 for Pete Maravich, No. 50 for Bob Pettit, Jr., No. 33 for Shaquille O'Neal and No. 40 for Rudy Macklin. Women's basketball retired the No. 33 for Seimone Augustus. Football's only two retired jerseys are the No. 20 worn by Billy Cannon and the No. 37 worn by Tommy Casanova. Baseball retired the No. 15 in honor of longtime coach and former athletics director Skip Bertman and the No. 19 for Ben McDonald. About LSU Retired Jerseys

The retirement of the jerseys of Casanova, McDonald, Macklin and Augustus comes under a new provision of the LSU jersey retirement bylaws that says the retirement of an athlete's jersey in a particular sport does not preclude a current student-athlete in that sport from wearing the jersey number in that or any other sport, subject to the discretion of the head coach. This provision applies only to jerseys retired after January 1, 2007, so the numbers worn by Maravich, Pettit, O'Neal, Cannon and Bertman may never again be worn by future student-athletes in their respective sports. To have a jersey retired at LSU, an athlete must have completed intercollegiate competition for LSU a minimum of five years prior to nomination. Athletes must have demonstrated truly unusual and outstanding accomplishments, exceeding and in addition to all criteria used for Hall of Fame selection. Nominees must have a unanimous vote of support from the Hall of Fame committee.

37 Tommy Casanova

Tommy Casanova is the only three-time All-American in the history of LSU football and is a member of the College Football Hall of Fame. During his Tiger career from 1969-71, Casanova personified versatility for his myriad of talents as he played offense, defense, returned punts and kickoffs. One of just two three-time All-SEC performers at LSU, he played six seasons with the Cincinnati Bengals of the NFL while earning his medical degree.

19 Ben McDonald

Ben McDonald won the prestigious Golden Spikes Award, given annually to the nation's most outstanding player, in 1989 and is a member of the College Baseball Hall of Fame. He led LSU to two College World Series appearances. In 1989, McDonald was named National Player of the Year by Baseball America, The Sporting News and Collegiate Baseball. He was selected by the Baltimore Orioles as the No. 1 pick in the major league draft in 1989 and went on to enjoy a 10-year major league career with the Orioles and the Milwaukee Brewers.

It's called the "Miles Method" and it's the mission of the LSU football program under 10th-year head coach Les Miles. The "Miles Method" lays the foundation for the organization and it calls for LSU to run the finest football program in the country, one where players can have an experience that's second to none and gives them every opportunity to compete for championships on the field, earn a degree and grow personally by giving back to the community.

In nine years, the "Miles Method" has proved to be a winning formula as the Tigers have won more games than any program in the Southeastern Conference over that span (95), captured a pair of SEC titles (2007, 2011), played in nine bowl games, including the BCS National Championship Game twice. LSU won the BCS title in 2007, a year after beating Notre Dame in the Sugar Bowl.

For the first time in school history, LSU has won at least 10 games for four straight years after posting a 10-3 mark in 2013. In nine years under Miles, LSU has reached the 10-win mark seven times, including a 13-1 record and a SEC title in 2011. LSU claimed the BCS National Championship in 2007 with a 12-2 record capped with a 38-24 victory over No. 1 0hio State in the national title game.

Overall, Miles has guided the Tigers to a 95-24 record since taking over in January of 2005. His 95 wins rank as the second-highest total among all head coaches in LSU history, trailing only Charles McClendon, who won 137 games in 18 years with the Tigers. Only McClendon and Bernie Moore (13 years) have had longer head coaching stints at LSU than Miles.

Of Miles' 95 wins, 38 have come against teams ranked in the Top 25 and 14 of those have come against Top 10 opponents. Miles has guided the Tigers to a remarkable 57-7 record in Tiger Stadium, which includes winning a school-record 22 consecutive games at home over a three-year span. LSU has spent 81 consecutive weeks in the AP Top 25, and the Tigers have played all but two games under Miles as a Top 25 team.

Since taking over in 2005, Miles and the Tigers have registered five top 10 finishes with three coming in the top five, won double-figure games seven times, produced 20 first-team All-Americans and had players win 11 national awards. LSU also leads the SEC with 60 NFL Draft picks during that span, which includes 13 first round selections. LSU led the nation with nine NFL

LSU's Les Miles earned five National Coach of the Year honors in 2011, including the Home Depot Award (above). Miles led LSU to its first 13-0 regular season record in school history and to eight wins over Top 25 opponents. LSU spent a school record 11 weeks ranked No. 1 in the nation in 2011.

Miles is also the only coach in LSU history to beat Auburn, Florida and Alabama in same season - and he's done it now three times and in 2005, he became the first first-year coach in SEC history to lead a team to the league's title game.

In the classroom, 188 football players who have played for Miles have earned their college degrees, and two out of the last three years LSU has ranked No. 2 in the SEC in graduation rates, trailing only Vanderbilt. Under Miles, LSU has produced over 150 players who have earned SEC Academic Honor Roll status.

LSU's community service presence is impactful as football players routinely donate time giving back to the Baton Rouge area through a variety of avenues, including appearances at schools, hospitals and many other charitable causes. It's through these community service ventures that Miles and his team get a better understanding of what it means to wear an LSU uniform and the impact that can be made on those who are less fortunate.

As Miles heads into his 10th season with the Tigers and coming off a recruiting class that was ranked No. 2 in the nation, the foundation for LSU football is stronger than ever. With wins coming at a record-setting pace, graduation rates among the best for any public university in the SEC, and with seven-straight recruiting classes rated among the top 10 in the nation, including the nation's No. 1 group in 2009, Miles and the Tigers continue to solidify their standing as one of the premier programs in college football, setting a standard that has the rest of the nation chasing.

The LSU Years

Les Miles was named LSU's 32nd head football coach on Jan. 3, 2005, and his impact with the program was immediate as he directed the Tigers to an 11-2 mark in his first year. The 2005 season served as the starting point for what has become the best nine-year stretch of football in school history, one that has seen the Tigers win more games than any other school in the SEC during that span. Miles holds the distinction of being the only coach in SEC history to win at least 11 games five times during his first seven years in the league. LSU's 95 wins also ranks second nationally over the past nine years.

Miles, who is 123-45 overall in 13 years as a head coach, has compiled a 95-24 record at LSU, which includes a remarkable 52-20 record in SEC regular games, Miles is the fastest coach in LSU history to reach milestone victories of 10 (11 games), 20 (24 games), 30 (35 games), 40 (48 games), 50 (63 games), 60 (76 games), 70 (87 games), 80 (98 games), and 90 (104 games).

He's also won 38 games against top-25 teams and 14 against teams in the top 10. On 21 occasions, Miles has led the Tigers to a comeback win in either the fourth quarter or overtime. He's also led the Tigers to 15 wins over coaches who have a national title to their credit.

Miles led LSU to a fourth straight season of at least 10 wins with a 10-3 mark

TOTAL

in 2013 as the Tigers, despite losing nine NFL Draft picks, won their first four games and six of their first seven and climbed all the way to No. 6 in the nation. Behind a powerful offense and steady defense, LSU won three games against Top 25 teams in 2013, including a 34-10 win over Texas A&M and its Heisman Trophy-winning quarterback. Eight of LSU's 10 wins came by double-figures and two of the three losses were by a total of six points. LSU capped the year with its sixth bowl win under Miles, a 21-14 victory over Iowa in the Outback Bowl. Following the season, LSU led the nation with nine NFL Draft picks, including seven on the offensive side of the ball.

LSU became the first team in SEC history to have a 3,000-yard passer, two 1,000-yard receivers and a 1,000-yard rusher in the same season. LSU set the school record for rushing touchdowns (37) in 2013 and the Tigers led the nation in third-down efficiency, converting on 57 percent of their opportunities.

In 2012, Miles directed the Tigers to a 10-3 mark and the school's 13th straight bowl appearance. With a rugged schedule that saw LSU face five-consecutive Top- 25 teams, the Tigers used a dominant defense and a steady offense to beat No. 3 South Carolina at home and hold eventual Heisman Trophy winning quarterback Johnny Manziel to his worst output of the season in a 24-19 win over Texas AGM.

If not for a last-minute drive by Alabama that erased a 17-14 deficit to beat LSU in Tiger Stadium, it would have been the Tigers in position to play for the SEC title, and perhaps a national championship, instead of the Crimson Tide. With a first-year starter at quarterback in Zach Mettenberger and playing with makeshift offensive line most of the year due to injuries, LSU was still ranked in the Top 10 every week during the regular season and extended the school's record home winning streak to 22 straight before falling to Alabama in November, LSU reached the Chick-fil-A Bowl and eventually finished the year ranked as high as No. 12 in the nation after a 25-24 setback to Clemson.

The 2011 season was a historic one for the Tigers, going 13-0 for the first time in school history and spending a record 11-straight weeks at No. 1 in the nation. LSU won 12 of its 13 games by double-figures with eight of its 13 wins coming against Top-25 opponents, both school records. As a result, Miles was named National Coach of the Year by four organizations (AP, Home Depot, Walter Camp and Liberty Mutual) as well as being awarded the SEC Coach of the Year honor following LSU's first 8-0 season in league play. Individually, Tyrann Mathieu was a finalist for the Heisman Trophy, while claiming the Bednarik Award as the nation's top defender. In 2011, LSU had a player win the Thorpe Award for the second-straight season, as Morris Claiborne claimed the honor that goes to the nation's top defensive back.

123-45

LSU, playing without returning starting quarterback Jordan Jefferson for the first four games, opened the year with a 40-27 win over No. 3 Oregon in Dallas. That win served as a springboard for road wins over No. 16 West Virginia (47-21) and Tennessee (38-7) and lopsided home victories against No. 17 Florida (41-11) and No. 19 Auburn (45-10). LSU followed the Auburn game with a thrilling 9-6 overtime win over No. 2 Alabama. Then the Tigers closed out the regular season with a 41-17 win over No. 3 Arkansas and a 42-10 victory over 12th-ranked Georgia in the SEC title game, which put the Tigers into the BCS National Championship game. Miles led LSU to wins over three SEC opponents by the largest margin of victory in the history of the series in 2011 - Ole Miss (49), Auburn (35), and Tennessee (31).

In 2010, LSU had its fourth top-10 finish and recorded its fourth season of at least 11 victories under Miles with an 11-2 mark, which culminated with a dominating 41-24 performance against Texas A6M in the Cotton Bowl. Miles guided the Tigers to four fourth quarter comebacks in 2010 as he used gutsy play calling to beat Florida on the road, 33-29, Later in the year, he led LSU to an outstanding all-around effort in a 24-21 victory over Alabama in Tiger Stadium, LSU opened 2010 with seven straight wins and jumped as high as No. 6 in the nation before falling to eventual national champion Auburn in late October. LSU's two losses in 2010 both came to ranked opponents by a combined margin of just 15 points. Cornerback Patrick Peterson finished his LSU career by winning two national awards - the Thorpe Award as the nation's top defensive back and the Bednarik Award as the nation's top defender.

The Tigers capped a sub-par 2008 regular season by LSU standards with a 38-3 win over 14th-ranked Georgia Tech in the Chick-fil-A Bowl, setting the stage for a nine-win season in 2009. The Tigers managed to win nine games, highlighted by its first road win over Georgia since 1987 and a 31-10 trouncing over Auburn. in the rugged SEC despite losing their top three running backs at various points during the season to injury. With a first-year starter at quarterback, LSU won its first five games and climbed as high as No. 4 in the nation in 2009. Of LSU's four losses, two came against teams ranked Nos. 1 (Alabama) and 3 (Florida), as well as top 10 opponent Penn State in the Capital One Bowl.

After two of the most successful seasons in school history in 2005 and 2006, Miles again led the Tigers to a season of firsts in 2007. LSU became the first school in the Bowl Championship Series era to claim a second BCS National Title with its 38-24 win over Ohio State. LSU's first BCS title came in 2003 when the Tigers beat Oklahoma, 21-14.

With a 12-2 final record in 2007, the Tigers became the first team in school history to win at least 10 games in three-straight years. The 2007 Tigers also set a thenschool record for wins over top 25 teams (7), won the SEC Championship with a backup quarterback and were ranked No. 1 in the BCS Standings during the regular season for the first time in school history. LSU finished the year ranked No. 1 in the nation in both the USA Today Coaches Poll and the AP Poll. Defensive tackle Glenn Dorsey became the most decorated defensive player in school history, capturing four national awards (Outland, Lombardi, Nagurski, and Lott) as LSU marched to the national title

The road to the 2007 SEC title was anything but easy for the Tigers as LSU faced a total of seven top 25 teams, winning six of those games. After spending most of the season ranked among the top three teams in the nation, including a four-week stay at No. 1, the Tigers quickly found out that they had a target on their back each week. Time after time, LSU was getting the best shot from its opponent.

It didn't help matters that LSU played key stretches of its season with injuries to standout players. Star wideout Early Doucet missed five games: quarterback Matt Flynn wasn't healthy for close to a month; and All-American Dorsey played hurt for the final five games of the regular season. Still, LSU, with outstanding depth and a will to overcome adversity, found a way to win. Four times in 2007 the Tigers had to come from behind in the fourth quarter to win games, including its 21-14 victory over Tennessee in the SEC Championship

LSU scored a touchdown with a second left to beat Auburn at home and then followed that by scoring two touchdowns in the final three minutes of the Alabama game to record a comeback win over the Crimson Tide.

Against top 10-ranked Florida, LSU scored with just over a minute left, capping a drive that saw the Tigers convert on a pair of fourth-down attempts, to beat the defending national champions, 28-24, in Tiger Stadium.

LSU didn't lose a game in regulation during the 2007 regular season, falling to both Kentucky and Arkansas in triple overtime.

When it mattered most, playing without an injured Flynn, the Tigers overcame the adversity that followed in the wake of week-long media speculation leading up to the SEC Championship Game about Miles perhaps leaving LSU to take the head coaching position at Michigan. In the end, Miles remained true to his word, staying at LSU and leading the Tigers to a 21-14 win over Tennessee in the SEC title game, a victory that helped propel LSU into the BCS National Championship contest.

In the BCS Championship Game, the Tigers spotted top-ranked Ohio State an early 10-0 lead, but LSU came roaring back to take a convincing win over the Buckeyes by a 38-24 count. The win gave LSU its third national title and it also marked the fourth time that decade the Tigers were victorious in a BCS bowl, the most of any SEC school.

After leading LSU to an 11-2 mark and a top five national ranking in his first year as LSU's head coach in 2005, many wondered just what Miles would do for an encore. His second year with the Tigers proved to be another year full of milestones and firsts as he guided the Tigers to another 11-2 overall record, culminating with a 41-14 dismantling of 11th-ranked Notre Dame in the Sugar Bowl.

The Tigers finished their second vear under the direction of Miles ranked No. 3 in the nation, marking the first time since the 1958-59 seasons that LSU was ranked in the top five in the country in back-to-back years.

LSU's at-large berth in a BCS bowl was a first in school history and it also represented the third time during the decade that the Tigers ended thei season in the Sugar Bowl.

In 2006, Miles became the first coach in LSU history to lead the Tigers to back-to-back 10-wins seasons, something that he added to with another 10-plus win season in 2007.

He became the first LSU coach since Jerry Stovall in 1982 to beat two top 10-ranked teams on the road in the same season as the Tigers posted a 28-24 win over No. 8 Tennessee in Knoxville followed by a 31-26 victory over No. 5 Arkansas in Little Rock. All four of LSU's road game opponents were ranked in the top 10 at the time of the game, a first in school

Even though the Tigers had to go on the road to face four top 10-ranked teams in 2006, year two under Miles seemed somewhat ordinary compared to what the Tigers had to endure during his first year in Baton Rouge.

In Miles' inaugural season at LSU he led the Tigers to only the third 11-win season in school history, a top five national ranking and a berth in the SEC Championship Game, despite numerous distractions that covered most of the months of September and October.

To appreciate just how adverse the conditions that Miles and the Tigers had to overcome in 2005, you have to go back to late August and Hurricane Katrina, the first of two storms to devastate Louisiana during the fall.

Days before LSU's originally scheduled season opener against North Texas in Tiger Stadium, Hurricane Katrina blew ashore, packing tremendous winds, and turned the state, in particular New Orleans and southeastern Louisiana. upside down.

Massive flooding followed in the wake of the storm as more than 30 LSU players had their families and their homes affected by the hurricane and Miles' first game in Tiger Stadium against North Texas was postponed. With the LSU campus serving as the recovery center for those sick, homeless and displaced due to Hurricane Katrina, football seemed to be the farthest thing from most people's minds. However, Miles was able to successfully manage a delicate situation, one that saw his team and coaching staff volunteer time to those in need, while still attempting to focus on football for at least two hours a day.

After a week of trying to minimize the distractions for a football team that had their apartments and dorm rooms filled with displaced family members and friends due to the storm, it appeared that the Tigers would finally get to play a home game, this time against 15th-ranked Arizona State.

However, just as the Tigers began to prepare for the Sun Devils and the season opener in Tiger Stadium, it was learned that the devastation to New Orleans was much greater than originally thought. With the Maravich Center on the LSU campus serving as what would become the largest field triage unit in United States history, it was mutually decided to move the LSU-Arizona State game to

With many in Louisiana under the distress of Hurricane Katrina, the Tigers were going to have to take to the desert to face a powerful offense in their first game of the season.

These were certainly trying times for everyone in the state of Louisiana, but even more so for a football coach who now had his team carrying the banner for a state in need of a diversion, LSU football had become a release for those consumed with the hurricane. LSU even re-stated its team goals, putting playing for the state of Louisiana at the top of the

The Tigers didn't disappoint as Miles and his LSU team used a 28-point fourth-quarter rally to come back to beat Arizona State, 35-31, in Tempe.

HEAD COACH

Men of Honor

Les Miles and his 2007 LSU national championship team traveled to Washington, D.C. in April 2008. (Left) The Tigers' head coach met with President George W. Bush at the White House and (Above) visited with soldiers assigned to guard the Tomb of the Unknowns at Arlington National Cemetery.

Now with the Arizona State game behind them, it looked as if things for the LSU football team would gradually get back to normal as the Tigers had a week off before facing Tennessee in Tiger Stadium on Sept. 24.

Then, the unthinkable happened. Another storm, this one named Rita, hit southwest Louisiana, causing severe damage to more homes, leaving thousands without electricity and displacing even more Louisiana natives. The combination of Hurricanes Katrina and Rita forced LSU to again shuffle its schedule. Instead of playing Tennessee on a Saturday night in Tiger Stadium, the Tigers would now be forced to face the Volunteers on a Monday night. An emotionally drained LSU team saw a 21-0 halftime lead evaporate into a 30-27 overtime loss to the Vols.

There was no coaching handbook for Miles to refer to when it came to dealing with the hurricanes and preparing a team for competition during extreme adverse conditions. Miles was on his own, forced to navigate his LSU team through a treacherous stretch of games, while also being sympathetic to those still affected by the natural disasters.

With just five days between the Tennessee loss and the Mississippi State game, Miles and the Tigers were obviously dealt an unfair hand, however, he asked his team to respond and they did. The Mississippi State contest was the starting point for a stretch of games for the Tigers that saw LSU win nine contests in nine straight weeks of play. The 37-7 win over the Bulldogs was followed by a 34-6 road victory over Vanderbilt as the Tigers had re-established themselves as one of the nation's elite on the football field.

During what would be 11-consecutive weeks of play, the Tigers posted a win over Florida, along with overtime victories against Auburn and Alabama. In all, the Tigers beat four teams ranked among the top 15 in the nation, then a school record for regular season victories over ranked opponents.

After 10-straight weeks of play during the regular season, the Tigers fashioned a 7-1 conference mark and earned a berth in the SEC title game.

Miles became the first first-year coach in SEC history to lead his squad to the league's title game. He also became the first coach in LSU history to beat Alabama, Auburn and Florida in the same season.

Following a loss to Georgia in the league's title game, Miles and the Tigers re-grouped, this time to beat No. 9 Miami, 40-3, in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl. The win gave the Tigers 11 victories for the year, making Miles the winningest first-year coach in school history.

Oklahoma State Years

In four short years, Miles turned the Oklahoma State football program into one that was nationally competitive, despite competing in-state against one of the country's dominant programs.

Miles honed his head coaching skills at Oklahoma State where he posted a 28-21 mark in four years with the Cowboys. Under Miles' direction, the Cowboys were the only team in the nation to beat Oklahoma twice in the four-year period, and he was also the first coach in Oklahoma State history to post wins over Nebraska and Oklahoma in the same season.

Miles led the Cowboys to three-straight bowl appearances, an accomplishment Dklahoma State had not achieved since Jimmy Johnson started a string of three-straight post-season games beginning in 1983. In addition, Oklahoma State's appearance in the Cotton Bowl to cap the 2003 season marked the first time in 55 years that the Cowboys appeared in a January bowl game.

As head coach at Oklahoma State, he built a consistent winner out of a program that had recorded only one winning season since 1988, and had posted a record of 13-20 in the three years prior to his arrival at OSU. After going 4-7 in his first year as head coach in 2001, he took the Cowboys to consecutive winning marks of 8-5 in 2002, 9-4 in 2003 and 7-5 in 2004.

Miles led Oklahoma State to a four-year record of 28-21 for a winning percentage of 57.1, the best career winning percentage for an OSU coach since Jim Lookabaugh ended his career in Stillwater in 1949.

Miles was the 2002 Big 12 Conference Coach of the Year after directing his second Oklahoma State team to an 8-5 record and the school's first bowl appearance since 1997.

The Cowboys, who averaged 34.4 points per game, closed the 2002 season with wins in six of their last seven games, including a 38-28 victory over then-No. 3 ranked Oklahoma in the regular-season finale. The Cowboys capped the 2002 season with a 33-23 win over Southern Miss in the Houston Bowl.

Assistant Coach Years

Prior to his tenure as head coach at Oklahoma State, Miles was the tight ends coach for the Dallas Cowboys for three seasons from 1998-2000. During his three years with the Cowboys, Dallas won one divisional title, while participating in the playoffs twice. In Dallas, Miles learned of LSU and the charm of the school from tight end David LaFleur, who starred for the Tigers in the 1990s. In three years of coaching tight ends for the Cowbovs, Miles' players combined for 136 receptions for 1.287 vards and 16 touchdowns. LaFleur, a former LSU All-America selection, had his best year under Miles in 1999, starting 16 games and catching 35 passes for 322 yards and seven touchdowns.

Before going to Dallas, Miles served as Oklahoma State's offensive coordinator for three seasons from 1995-97, including an 8-3 season and an Alamo Bowl berth in 1997.

Miles' college playing and coaching career includes experience under some of the most noted coaches in college. football At Michigan, he played for legendary coach Bo Schembechler and later served on Schembechler's staff. He also worked with Gary Moeller at Michigan and Bill McCartney at Colorado.

Success has followed Miles at every stop of both his playing and professional career. He was a two-year letterman at Michigan (1974-75). During those two seasons, Michigan was a combined 18-3-2, had final Associated Press national rankings in the top 10 and participated in the Orange Bowl.

He joined Schembechler's Michigan coaching staff in 1980 for the first of two stints as a coach in Ann Arhor. In 1980 and 1981, Michigan combined for 19 wins and just five losses, won the $\mbox{\rm Big}\ 10$ title in 1980 and played in the Rose and Bluebonnet Bowls, respectively. Miles left Michigan for Colorado, where he served on McCartney's staff from 1982 through 1986. In his final two years at Colorado, the Buffs earned bids to the Freedom Bowl and Bluebonnet Bowl.

In 1987, he returned to Michigan, where he would spend the next eight vears as part of one of the most successful eras in Michigan football history. From 1987 to 1994, Michigan won 71 games, made eight straight bowl appearances, including four trips to the Rose Bowl, and finished no lower than No. 21 in final Associated Press national rankings

The 1989 Michigan squad finished 10-2, won the Big 10 championship and finished ranked No. 7 in the country. That would be Coach Bo Schembechler's final season as Michigan's head coach.

When Moeller took over the Michigan program prior to the 1990 season, Miles remained on the staff. The 1990 team finished 9-3, winning the Big 10 title and the Gator Bowl. The following season (1991), Michigan finished 10-2 and with a No. 6 national ranking. Miles coached some of the best players to wear the Michigan uniform, including eight first-team All-Americans, 10 total All-Americans and 12 players from Wolverine offensive lines that were NFL draftees.

Media Darling

Another thing that tends to set Miles apart from many of his peers is that of his personality and his ability to have fun, while at the same time running an elite football program. Miles has twice been involved in commercials for ESPN's College GameDay. He delivers memorable lines during his press conferences, has a tendency to "taste" grass from the field during games, and has become a viral star on the Internet. He's twice been part of the NFL Network's coverage of the NFL Draft

During the spring of 2013, Miles had the leading role in LSU's version of "The Harlem Shake", which has over 1.8 million views on YouTube. His running dialogue with ESPN personality Scott Van Pelt and the exchange of "gifts" between the two resulted in Miles shooting a basketball video dubbed "It Must Have Been The Shoes" in the summer of 2011 that has over 150,000 views on the Internet. He's the most followed college football coach on Twitter with over 130,000 followers and he's one of the most quotable coaches in the game.

Philanthropist At Heart

One of Les Miles' most impressive qualities is that of the time he spends giving to and helping causes that benefit others. Each year, Miles and his wife Kathy host an event that generates over $100,000 for the Children's Miracle Network in Baton Rouge. In addition, he is active in other community service events such as the Mary Bird Perkins Cancer Center annual fundraiser, the Special Olympics and the Baton Rouge Children's Advocacy Center Celebrity Waiter Event. Most recently in the summer of 2013. Miles rapelled down a 24-story building in downtown Baton Rouge to help bring awareness to adoption in Louisiana.

Miles spent a week in June of 2006 taking part in the USO Tour, where the Tiger head coach visited American Troops serving in Kuwait and Iraq. Miles was joined on the tour, which serves as a morale booster for the troops serving abroad, by former Notre Dame coach Lou Holtz and Tampa Bay Rays owner Vincent (Middle) In 2006, Miles took part in the USO Tour where he visited American troops in Kuwait and Iraq. (Bottom) In December 2012. Miles took time out of his busy Chick-fil-A Bowl preparations schedule to spend time with the patients of Scottish Rite Children's Hospital.

The week-long trip took Miles to several LLS bases in Kuwait and then on to Iraq, where he visited with hundreds of American troops and even flew over the city of Baghdad in a Black Hawk helicopter.

The Family Man

When Miles isn't overseeing his LSU football family, he can most likely be found in the bleachers supporting his wife and kids at their sporting events. His oldest daughter Kathryn, who is commonly referred to as "Smacker," is a swimmer at the University of Texas. His oldest son Manny is the starting quarterback for University High School as well as being an all-state pitcher for the Cubs. His youngest son Ben plays football and competes in wrestling, while his youngest daughter Macy is also active in vouth sports.

Coach Miles' wife Kathy played point guard at Central Michigan and later served as an assistant coach at Michigan, where the couple first met.

Cam Cameron, whose career includes head coaching positions at the NFL and collegiate levels, made an immediate impact in his first year at LSU in 2013 as his play-calling and offensive scheme helped the Tigers put together one of the most prolific offenses in school history.

A native of Chapel Hill, N.C., Cameron joined the Tigers staff in February of 2013 after spending 14 seasons in the NFL where he coached some of the league's top offensive players including Drew Brees, Philip Rivers and LaDainian Tomlinson. Cameron has coached a combined 30 years at the collegiate and NFL levels, which includes a 5-year stint as the head coach at Indiana and one season at the head coach of the Miami Dolphins.

In his first year at LSU in 2013, Cameron's offense racked up the second-highest yardage total in school history with 5,893 yards, and the Tigers set the school record for total offense with 453.3 yards a game. LSU also scored a school record 37 rushing TDs and had 60 rushing/passing TDs combined, which was just four shy of tying the school record.

Individually, LSU become first team in SEC history with a 3,000-yard passer (Zach Mettenberger), two 1,000-yard receivers (Jarvis Landry and Odell Beckham Jr.) and a 1,000-yard rusher (Jeremy Hill) in the same season. Landry and Beckham Jr. also became the first pair of receivers in LSU history to have 1,000 receiving yards in the same season.

Mettenberger became the first LSU quarterback to throw for 2,500-yards in back-to-back seasons, and he joined Rohan Davey and JaMarcus Russell as the only 3.000-vard passers in school history.

Hill's 1,401 rushing yards wound up being the second-highest single-season total in school history, while his 6.9 yards per carry in 2013 were the most by a running back in SEC history. Hill also tied the LSU record with seven 100-yard rushing

All four of LSU's 2013 starters at offensive skill positions were selected in the 2014 NFL Draft with wide receiver Odell Beckham Jr. going 12th overall to the New York Giants, wide receiver Jarvis Landry (Miami Dolphins) and running back Jeremy Hill (Cincinnati Bengals) both going in the second round and quarterback Zach Mettenberger (Tennessee Titans) going in the sixth round. LSU had a total of seven offensive players picked in the NFL Draft.

Miles and Cameron served together on the Michigan coaching staff for seven years from 1987-93. Miles coached the offensive line for the Wolverines during that span, while Cameron coached quarterbacks and wide receivers.

Prior to joining the LSU staff, Cameron helped develop Baltimore Ravens quarterback Joe Flacco into one of the best at his position in the NFL. Flacco was named Super Bowl MVP after leading the Ravens to a 34-31 win over San Francisco in the Super Bowl in February of 2013. He also became the first quarterback in NFL history to lead his team to the playoffs in each of his first five seasons, all of which came under Cameron's watch.

Prior to his five years in Baltimore, Cameron served as the head coach of the Miami Dolphins in 2007 going 1-15 in his only season as a NFL head coach.

Cam and his wife Missy with children Tommy, Christopher, Elizabeth and Danny.

Cameron had tremendous success as the offensive coordinator of the San Diego. Chargers from 2002-06, helping the franchise to the playoffs twice, going 14-2 record in 2006 and 12-4 mark in 2004.

In 2006, Cameron's play-calling helped the Chargers lead the NFL in scoring with 492 points, and Tomlinson was named the NFL's MVP by the Associated Press after setting a franchise record with 1,815 rushing yards and 31 total touchdowns. Six members of the Charger offensive unit were named to the Pro Bowl that year. Future Hall of Fame quarterback Brees got his first NFL start under Cameron as he spent four of his first five years in the league with the new LSU offensive coordinator. Cameron was named the NFL Offensive Assistant Coach of the Year by SportsIllustrated.com in 2004 as Brees was selected to the Pro Bowl along with being picked the NFL Comeback Player of the Year and Most Improved Player of the Year.

In four years under Cameron, Brees threw for over 12,000 yards and 79 touchdowns, while Tomlinson rushed for over 1,300 yards each season. As head coach at Indiana from 1997-2001, Cameron helped create quarterback Antwaan Randle El into one of the most dynamic players in college football history. Randle El became the first player in NCAA Division I history to pass for 40 career touchdowns and rush for 40 career TDs. He finished fifth on the NCAA all-time total yardage list with 11,364 yards (7,469 passing, 3,895 rushing) and was sixth in the Heisman Trophy balloting as a senior in 2001.

Cameron's five-year record with the Hoosiers was 18-37 with his best season coming in 2001 when Indiana won four of its last five games and posted a 5-6 mark with wins over Wisconsin and Michigan State.

A 1983 graduate of Indiana with a degree in business, Cameron broke into coaching in 1984 serving as a graduate assistant under legendary Michigan coach Bo Schembechler. After two years as a graduate assistant with the Wolverines, Cameron was elevated to wide receivers coach in 1986. He held that role for four years before adding quarterbacks to his list of responsibilities in 1990. Cameron served on the Michigan staff through 1993 when he moved to the NFL as the $\,$ quarterbacks coach for the Washington Redskins.

With 19 years of experience as a highly successful defensive coordinator in college football's toughest conference - the SEC - John Chavis has earned his reputation as being one of the best defensive coaches in the game. Chavis, also known as "Chief." enters his sixth season as LSU's defensive coordinator and linebackers coach in 2014.

In 19 years as a defensive coordinator in the SEC, Chavis has been a part of 17 bowl games, 11 10-win seasons and appeared in the SEC Championship Game six

Now entering his sixth year at LSU, Chavis has seen 21 players that he's coached selected in the NFL Draft, including five in the first round, while also producing seven first-team All-Americans and nine first-team All-SEC performers. Over the past three years, six of the nine draft-eligible players who have started on the defensive line for the Tigers have been picked in the NFL Draft. In 2013, LSU became the first school in NFL Draft history to have six defensive players selected during the first three rounds. LSU finished with eight defenders selected in the 2013 NFL Draft, including first rounders in Barkevious Mingo (No. 5 overall) and Eric Reid (No. 18 overall). LSU was recently tabbed as "Defensive Line U." by ESPN.

Chavis, the recipient of the 2011 Broyles National Assistant Coach of the Year, brings a philosophy to the field that features aggressive play, a commitment to physicality, and one that has the Tigers displaying a certain swagger. Chavis also coaches and recruits by the principal that there's no substitute for speed, no matter the position on the field.

In his five years with the Tigers, Chavis' defense has ranked in the top 12 nationally in total yards and scoring three times (2010, '11 and '12). The Tigers have forced 132 turnovers, and the LSU defense has accounted for 12 touchdowns and a pair of safeties. In 66 games with the Tigers, Chavis' defense has held the opponent to fewer than 100 net rushing yards 27 times.

In spite of losing seven starters and eight players to the NFL from the 2012 squad. Chavis managed to put together a defensive unit that ranked No. 15 nationally in total defense, allowing 340.7 yards (143.2 rushing, 197.5 passing). With seven first time starters in the lineup, including a true freshman cornerback, the Tigers managed to rank No. 13 in the nation in passing yards allowed and No. 21 in scoring defense (22.0). For the second straight year, LSU shut down the nation's most explosive player in quarterback Johnny Manziel, limiting the Aggies to a season-low 10 points and 299 total yards in the 34-10 victory.

LSU put together another outstanding season on defense in 2012 despite losing a pair of first-round draft picks and the top defensive player in college football prior to the season. The Tigers still managed to rank No. 8 nationally in total defense (307.6 yards per game) and No. 9 in rushing defense (101.6). LSU also allowed just 17.5 points per game, its fourth consecutive year of yielding 18 points or less.

LSU had its best year yet under Chavis in 2011 as the Tigers capped the year ranked in the top five in the nation in four categories including total defense (No. $2\,$ at 261.5), scoring defense (No. 2 at 11.29), pass efficiency defense (No. 3 with 95.58 rating) and rushing defense (No. 5 at 90.07). LSU also ranked No. 8 nationally in pass defense with 171.43 yards per game.

LSU's 2011 defense featured a young and explosive defensive front along with arguably the nation's top secondary with two national award winners in Tyrann Mathieu and Morris Claiborne. LSU allowed only six first half touchdowns, including just two in the first quarter all season, as the Tigers rode their dominant defense's style of play to a 13-0 regular season mark and the SEC title.

In both 2010 and 2011, Chavis and the Tigers defense featured the Thorpe Award winner (nation's top defensive back) in Patrick Peterson in 2010 and Claiborne in 2011, as well as the Bednarik Award winner (nation's top defender) in Peterson and Mathieu in 2011. LSU was also home to the SEC Defensive Player of the Year in Peterson (2010), Mathieu (2011 by AP) and Claiborne (2011 by Coaches).

LSU had four players off its 2011 defense selected in the NFL Draft, including two first rounders in Claiborne (6th overall) and defensive tackle Michael Brockers (12th overall).

In 2010, LSU led the SEC and ranked 10th in the nation in pass defense (169.8), were No. 11 in scoring defense (18.2) and No. 12 in total defense (307.2).

Chavis' 2010 defense featured Peterson, who was picked with the fifth overall selection in NFL Draft, along with linebacker Kelvin Sheppard and defensive tackle Drake Nevis, who were both All-SEC First-Team picks.

In his first year at LSU in 2009, Chavis turned around a Tiger defense, taking a unit that ranked near the bottom of the SEC in 2008 to one that was among the top four in the league the following year. LSU finished the 2009 season ranked third in the league and 11th in the nation in scoring defense and they were fourth in the SEC in rushing defense. LSU allowed only six rushing TD's in 2009, the second-lowest total

Chavis, who has 25 years of experience in the rugged SEC, has produced a defense that has ranked among the top four in the league in total defense 14 times during his 19 seasons as a coordinator. Furthermore, Chavis has developed 41 players into firstteam All-SEC selections since 1995 with another 15 earning first team All-America honors

In addition to his duties as defensive coordinator. Chavis also coaches linebackers, a position which has included an NFL draft pick four of the past five years. Most recently, Lamin Barrow was a fifth round pick in 2014.

Prior to his arrival in Baton Rouge in 2009, Chavis spent 14 seasons as the defensive coordinator at Tennessee, helping the Vols to win at least nine games in a season 11 times. The Vols reached the 10-win mark eight times during his time as defensive coordinator, which included a school-record 13 victories during their national championship season in 1998. The Vols had 11 wins 1995, 1997, and 2001 and they won 10 games in 1996, 2003, 2004, and 2007.

With Chavis as the defensive coordinator, Tennessee made five appearances in the SEC Championship Game, winning the league title in 1997 and 1998, and they were invited to three BCS bowl games.

Other coaching accomplishments for Chavis at Tennessee include coaching four linebackers to first-team All-America honors in Leonard Little (1997), Al Wilson (1998), Raynoch Thompson (1999) and Kevin Burnett (2004). All four of those players were selected in the NFL Draft with Wilson being a first round selection. Chavis also coached Jerod Mayo, who was the 10th player taken in the 2008 NFL Draft and was named the 2008 NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year.

Off the field, Chavis is an advocate for sickle cell anemia and he annually hosts a golf tournament to raise money and awareness about the disease.

Chavis, who is originally from Dillon, S.C., is married to the former Diane Crisp. They are the parents of sons. John and Jason.

Steve Ensminger, a former starting quarterback for LSU, enters his fifth year as the Tigers' tight ends coach in 2014.

A 1982 graduate of LSU, Ensminger played quarterback for the Tigers under head coach Charlie McClendon from 1976-79. Ensminger played in three bowl games (Sun, Liberty, Tangerine) at LSU and has followed that by coaching in 14 bowl games as an assistant at the collegiate level.

The tight end position continues to be a major part of LSU's offensive success whether it be in the running or passing game. LSU's group of 2013 tight ends played a key role in a Tiger offense that set a school-record 37 rushing touchdowns. LSU averaged 453.3 total yards per game, which included 202.3 yards on the ground. In the passing game, LSU tight ends combined for 12 rececptions for 211 yards with first-time starter Dillon Gordon leading the way with six catches for 88 yards.

Ensminger's tight ends combined for 16 catches and 182 yards in the passing game in 2012. They also helped paved the way for a LSU rushing attack that averaged 173.7 yards per game as the Tigers went 10-3 and finished the year ranked No. 12 in the nation.

In 2011, LSU tight ends combined for 28 receptions for 294 yards and three touchdowns. Deangelo Peterson led all tight ends with 18 catches for 179 yards and a score as the Tigers posted a 13-0 regular season record, claimed the SEC title and reached the BCS National Championship game.

In 2010, Ensminger coached a versatile group of tight ends who combined for 24 catches for 301 yard with Peterson leading the way with 16 receptions for 198 vards despite missing three games with an injury.

Ensminger joined the LSU staff after serving as an assistant coach at Auburn from 2003-08. Ensminger spent the 2009 season as the passing game coordinator at Smiths Station High School in Auburn, Ala.

The Ensmingers: son-in-law Drew Knight, daughter Krystalin, Amy, Steve, daughter Brittany Rose and son Steven, Jr.

During his six seasons at Auburn, Ensminger coached the quarterbacks one vear (2003), followed by five years as the tight ends coach from 2004-08. As the quarterback coach at Auburn, Ensminger helped develop Jason Campbell, who went on to become an NFL first round draft pick.

While at Auburn, the Tigers led the SEC in scoring offense in both 2004 (32.1) and 2005 (32.2) and they were first in the league in total offense in 2005 (409.8).

Ensminger has also had major college coaching stops at Georgia (1991-93), Texas A&M (1994-96) and Clemson (1997-98).

At Georgia, he served as the quarterbacks coach as well as the passing game coordinator. In 1992, Georgia posted a 10-2 overall record and led the SEC in both scoring (32.0) and total offense (450.4).

Ensminger followed that with a three-year stint at Texas ASM where he was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for the Aggies. The Aggies were 25-9-1 during Ensminger's three years in College Station, which included a 10-0-1 mark in 1994 and a 9-3 record in 1995.

Following his three years at Texas A&M, Ensminger coached for two seasons at Clemson, holding the title of offensive coordinator and guarterbacks coach.

Ensminger returned to Louisiana in 2000, serving as head coach at athletic director at Central High School for nearly three years before taking the wide receivers job at West Monroe High School for the 2002 season.

After a brief career in the NFL and CFL, Ensminger got his start in coaching in 1982 at Nicholls State as the receivers coach. After two years at Nicholls State, he moved to McNeese State as the offensive coordinator and guarterbacks coach from 1984-86 followed by three years from 1988-90 at Louisiana Tech in the same capacity.

As a player at LSU, Ensminger threw for 2,770 yards and 16 touchdowns during his career with the Tigers. He was named Freshman All-SEC in 1976.

Ensminger, a native of Baton Rouge, is married to the former Amy Gonzales and the couple has three children - Krystalin, Brittany Rose and Steven - and one arandchild.

Jeff Grimes, who served as offensive line coach at Auburn when the Tigers won the 2010 national title, joined the Tiger coaching staff during the spring and goes into 2014 as LSU's new offensive line coach and running game coordinator.

Grimes served in the same capacity at Virginia Tech in 2013, helping the Hokies to an 8-5 record and a berth in the Sun Bowl.

At LSU, Grimes will inherit an offensive line that returns four starters, including senior left tackle La'el Collins, who will likely be a preseason All-American as well as a leading candidate for the Outland Trophy. Other returning starters for the Tigers include senior center Elliott Porter, junior guard Vadal Alexander and sophomore tackle Jerald Hawkins.

In his only season at Virginia Tech in 2013, Grimes' offensive line helped the Hokies rack up 4,628 total yards, an average of 356 yards a contest.

During Auburn's 2010 national championship season, Grimes' coached an offensive line helped set school records for total yards of offense (6,989) and points (577) for a second consecutive season. The Tigers led the Southeastern Conference and were No. 5 nationally in rushing yards per game (284.8) and led the SEC in scoring (41.2).

Auburn's 2010 team set school records for rushing touchdowns (41), passing touchdowns (31), rushing yardage (3,987) and had three offensive linemen earn individual honors. Tackle Lee Ziemba was a consensus All-America selection and earned the Jacobs Trophy as the SEC's best blocker before he was selected by the Carolina Panthers in the seventh round of the 2011 NFL Draft. Guard Byron Isom was named to the All-SEC Second Team and center Ryan Pugh earned third-team All-America honors.

Following the 2011 season, tackle Brandon Mosley was selected by the New York Giants in the fourth round of the 2012 NFL Draft after earning All-SEC honors his senior season.

In his first season at Auburn in 2009, Grimes helped an offense that set numerous school records that year, including points in a season (433), total yards of offense in a season (5,613) and plays in a season (914). Auburn's 266 first downs in 2009 was the second-best total in school history, and its average of 431.8 yards per game ranked fourth.

In addition, Grimes coached both Pugh and Ziemba to second-team All-SEC honors during the 2009 season.

Prior to his stint at Auburn, Grimes served as the assistant head coach, running game coordinator and offensive line coach at Colorado for two seasons from 2007-08. Tyler Polumbus, a guard for Grimes in 2007 at Colorado, just completed his third year as the starting left tackle for the Washington Redskins, while Edwin Harrison is a starting tackle for the Calgary Stampeders in the Canadian Football League.

A 20-year coaching veteran, Grimes went to Colorado from Brigham Young, where he coached the offensive line for three seasons from 2004-06. His 2006 BYU linemen were a large part of the Cougars' Mountain West Conference championship team, which finished 11-2.

Grimes' success continued at Arizona State as four of his 2001 seniors were drafted into the NFL, marking just the second time that had been done at any school since the NFL adopted the seven-round draft format in 1993. Tackle Levi Jones was the 10th overall pick in the 2002 NFL Draft by the Bengals, followed by Scott Peters and Travis Scott in the fourth round and Kyle Kosier in the seventh round.

In one season at Boise State in 2000, Grimes' offensive line helped the Broncos lead the nation in scoring offense with an average of 444.9 points per game. That year, the Broncos went 10-2 and beat Texas-El Paso in the Humanitarian Bowl.

Grimes began his coaching career in 1993 as a high school coach at Riverside High School in El Paso. After two years there, he moved on to the college ranks, first working as a graduate assistant at Rice (1995) and then at Texas A6M (1996-97).

Grimes earned four letters as an offensive tackle for UTEP between 1987 and 1990, including three years under former Boise State and Arizona State head coach Dirk Koetter when he was UTEP's offensive coordinator. He also spent two years playing for current Kansas City Chiefs' head coach Andy Reid.

He was in training camp with both the Los Angeles Raiders of the NFL and the San Antonio Riders of the World Football League before entering coaching.

Grimes, a native of Garland, Texas, and his wife, Sheri, have four children, daughters Bailey and Jada and sons, Garrison and Greydon.

Brick Haley's impact on the LSU football program can be seen each spring when the NFL Draft takes place. Since taking over at LSU in 2009, Haley has coached nine defensive linemen who have been selected in the NFL Draft, including a pair of first-round picks in defensive tackle Michael Brockers (No. 12 overall in 2012) and defensive end Barkevious Mingo (No. 6 overall in 2013).

Ego Ferguson was selected in the second round of the 2014 NFL Draft by the Chicago Bears, extending LSU's streak of years with at least one defensive lineman picked in the draft to a nation's best 11 straight. LSU's been so dominate on the defensive front that during the summer of 2014, ESPN.com tabbed LSU as Haley, now in his sixth season at LSU, has coached in the NFL while also serving for 13 years in a major college football conference.

Under Haley, the Tigers have used depth and talent on the defensive line to wear down opposing offensive linemen. Thus, LSU continued to win the battle in the trenches, a key to success in the rugged SEC.

Since 2009, LSU's defensive line has accounted for 98 sacks and forced 39 turnovers, while allowing only 57 rushing touchdowns and holding opponents to 120 vards rushing per game.

In 2013, Haley was again tasked with developing young players as the Tigers returned only one starter on the defensive line from the previous season. The Tigers lost three players to the NFL from the 2012 squad - Mingo, Sam Montgomery (third round) and Lavar Edwards (fifth round).

Despite losing three NFL Draft picks, Haley and his group responded by putting a unit on the field that featured two All-SEC picks in Anthony Johnson and Ferguson. Danielle Hunter (57 tackles, 8.0 tackles for loss, 3.0 sacks) and Jermauria Rasco (56 tackles, 6.5 tackles for loss, 4.0 sacks) shined in their first year as starters at defensive end.

In 2012, LSU's defense again ranked among the best in the nation, allowing just 17.5 points per game (12th nationally) along with 101.6 rushing yards (No. 9 nationally) and 307.6 total yards (No. 8 nationally).

A year prior during LSU's march to a perfect 13-0 mark during the regular season, it was the defensive line that often set the tone for the Tigers defense as they used their quickness and pass rushing ability to combine for 28.5 sacks and 64 tackles for loss. LSU's defense ranked in the top five in the nation in four categories in 2011 as they allowed just seven rushing TD's all season and held opponents to $10\,$ or fewer points nine times.

In 2010, the Tigers had two defensive linemen picked in the NFL Draft - Drake Nevis and Lazarius Levingston - while Al Woods was taken in the draft a year earlier. Under Haley's direction, LSU's defensive front combined for 39 tackles for losses and 15.5 sacks in 2010 after posting 44 tackles for losses and 14 sacks in 2009.

Brick and Tina Haley with sons Adrian, A.J. and Jeremy.

Haley joined the Tigers in the spring of 2009 after two years as the defensive line coach with the Chicago Bears.

In his two seasons with the Bears, Haley coached a defensive line that helped Chicago rank No. 5 in the league in rushing yards allowed per game in 2008. The $\,$ Bears finished sixth in the NFL in sacks in 2007 with defensive end Tommie Harris earning a spot in the Pro Bowl.

Prior to his stop in the NFL, Haley spent three years as the defensive line coach at Mississippi State from 2004-06. Haley helped improve a Bulldogs defense that finished 41st in the nation in 2006 after finishing 113th a year before his arrival. Under Haley's watch, Bulldogs defensive end Titus Brown developed into an All-SEC Second-Team selection after leading the team and ranking fifth in the conference in sacks in 2006.

In 2005, Haley coached the SEC leader in sacks (third in NCAA) and tackles for loss (fourth in NCAA) in Willie Evans, who spent four years in the NFL.

Before arriving at Mississippi State, Haley coached linebackers for two years (2002-2003) at Georgia Tech, where he helped the Yellow Jackets to a pair of bowl games. In 2003, he coached an All-ACC First-Team performer after Tech's trio of starting linebackers finished the 2002 season as the team's top-three tacklers.

Previously, Haley was the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Baylor (1999-2001) after coaching outside linebackers for one season each at Clemson (1998) and Houston (1997). The defensive line coach at Troy State from 1994-96, he was promoted to defensive coordinator following the 1996 campaign before leaving for Houston. Haley coached the defensive line at Austin Peay from 1991-93 after starting his college coaching career as a graduate assistant at Arkansas in 1990. His first coaching job was at Enterprise (Ala.) High School in 1989.

The Gadsden, Ala., native played linebacker at Alabama A&M from 1984 88 and was inducted into the school's Athletic Hall of Fame in 2005. He received Alabama A&M's Inspiration Award in 1987 and was named football MVP for the 1988 season.

Off the field, Haley is involved in raising awareness for autism as he annually hosts a golf tournament each year with all proceeds going to his foundation - Brick Road to Success. He and his wife, Tina, have three sons: Adrian, A.J. and Jeremy.

Adam Henry, who has coaching experience at both the NFL and collegiate level, has wasted little time in making an impact on the LSU passing game since joining the coaching staff in the spring of 2012. Since joining the Tigers after five years with the Oakland Raider organization, Henry helped the development of two of the most prolific receivers in school history in Odell Beckham Jr. and Jarvis Landry.

Beckham Jr. and Landry both finished their LSU career ranked among the top 10 in school history in receptions and 100-yard games. The duo combined for a historical season in 2013 as they became the first set of receivers in school history to go over 1,000 yards in the same year. Landry led the Tigers with 77 receptions for 1,193 yards and 10 touchdowns, while Beckham Jr. caught 59 passes for 1,152 yards and eight TDs. Beckham Jr., who earned first-team All-America honors as a kick returner and an all-purpose player in 2013, was named the recipient of the 2013 Hornung Award as college football's most versatile player. Beckham Jr. capped his third and final season at LSU by setting the school record for all-purpose yards in a season with 2,315. Beckham Jr. led the SEC and ranked No. 2 in the nation with 178.1 all-purpose vards a game.

Beckham Jr. was selected with the 12th overall pick in the 2014 NFL Draft by the New York Giants, while Landry was taken in the second round by the Miami Dolphins and backup wideout James Wright was picked in the seventh round by the Cincinnati Bengals.

As a unit in 2013, LSU ranked second in the SEC in passing efficiency with a 164.7 rating as the Tigers threw for 3,263 yards and 23 TDs in 13 games. The 3,263 yards ranks No. 3 in school history for a single season.

In his first year with the Tigers in 2012, Henry's receiving unit featured four underclassmen and were led by sophomores Beckham Jr. and Landry, who combined for 99 receptions for 1,286 yards and seven touchdowns.

A native of Beaumont, Texas, Henry was a four-year letterwinner as a wide receiver at McNeese State from 1990-93 and later served on the Cowbovs coaching staff for 10 years. Henry coached the wide receivers at McNeese State from 1997 to 2005 and then added assistant head coach and offensive coordinator duties in 2006.

Henry is one of three LSU assistant coaches with NFL coaching experience. joining offensive coordinator Cam Cameron and defensive line coach Brick Haley.

After 10 years at McNeese State, Henry joined the Raiders in 2007 as offensive quality control coach, a position he held for two seasons. Henry was elevated to tight ends coach in 2009, and he held that title for three years.

During his three years as Oakland's tight ends coach, Henry continued the development of Zach Miller, who became the first tight end in franchise history to lead the team in receiving for three straight years. Miller caught a career-best 66 passes for 805 yards in 2009. A year later, he earned a spot in the Pro Bowl for the

As the wide receivers coach at McNeese State, Henry produced the all-time leading receiver in school history in Jermaine Martin as well as the 2003 Southland Conference Player of the Year in B.J. Sams.

As a player at McNeese State, Henry earned All-Southland Conference honors in 1993. He finished his collegiate career with 93 receptions for 1,690 yards and 16 touchdowns, all of which remain top 10 marks in school history.

Following his career at McNeese State, Henry signed a free agent contract with the New Orleans Saints in 1994, and he spent the preseason on the Saints roster in 1995 and 1996. He was on the Saints practice squad for the 1995 season.

Henry graduated from McNeese State in 1998 and then followed with a Master's degree in education in 2001. Henry has three children - Darian, Kynidee and Ava.

Bradley Dale Peveto, who was a member of the LSU coaching staff during its run to the 2007 national title, returns to the program in 2014 as special teams coordinator and defensive assistant.

Peveto re-joined the LSU staff after serving as the special teams coordinator and safeties coach for Kentucky in 2013. Prior to that, Peveto was the head coach at Northwestern State University for four years.

Peveto was a member of Miles' first staff at LSU as he joined the Tigers originally in the spring of 2005 as special teams coordinator and linebackers coach. He remained in that position until the 2008 season when he was promoted to co-defensive coordinator. LSU went a combined 40-11 during Peveto's first stint with the Tigers.

Peveto left LSU following the 2008 season to become the head coach at Northwestern State, where he posted a 14-30 mark in four seasons from 2009-12 with the Demons.

In his first stint on the Tiger staff, Peveto's development of linebackers was critical to the LSU defense rating among the top five in the nation in for three straight years from 2005-07. During that three-year stretch, the LSU defense held opponents to average of 266.7 total yards and 15.7 points per game.

In 2007, linebacker Ali Highsmith earned first-team All-America honors from CBSsports.com, while also being named a second-team All-American by the Associated Press.

As LSU's special teams coordinator from 2005-07, Peveto had both his punter (Patrick Fisher) and placekicker (Colt David) earn All-SEC First-Team honors in 2007. It marked the first time in school history that LSU had the All-SEC punter and kicker on its roster in the same season. Fisher averaged a league-best 44.5 yards per punt in 2007, while David kicked a school-record 26 field goals and led the SEC in scoring with a league record 147 total points.

The Peveto family - Bradley and Melissa with daughter Payton and son Jacob.

LSU scored seven special teams touchdowns - three coming on punt returns - during Peveto's three previous years as special teams coordinator. LSU also blocked six kicks during that span as the Tigers had one of the best all-around special teams units in college football from 2005-07.

Peveto joined the Tigers after two years at Middle Tennessee State, where he served as secondary in coach in 2003 before a promotion to defensive coordinator/ linebacker coach in 2004. A native of Orangefield, Texas, Peveto led a Blue Raider defense that ranked second in the Sun Belt Conference in rushing defense.

Prior to his arrival at Middle Tennessee, Peveto spent four years (1999-2002) at Houston as the Cougars' co-defensive coordinator and secondary coach. During his stay in Houston, he had four players earn five all-conference awards while three were placed on the league's all-freshman squad.

Peveto served as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Northwestern State University for three years from 1996 to 1998, helping the Demons capture capture back-to-back Southland Conference Championships and NCAA I-AA playoff berths.

Peveto's "Purple Swarm" defense at Northwestern State was ranked nationally in several statistical categories during each of his three seasons and four of his players earned All-America honors. In addition, four Demon players were selected in the NFL draft. The 1998 Northwestern State team went 11-3, reached the I-AA semifinals and ranked third nationally.

Prior to Northwestern State, Peveto spent two seasons on Danny Ford's staff at Arkansas, while the Razorbacks won the SEC Western Division title with an 8-5 overall mark and played in the Carquest Bowl in 1995. While at Arkansas, Peveto served as special teams coordinator and linebackers coach.

Peveto coached the outside linebackers and special teams at Southern Miss in 1992 and 1993. He also coached the defensive line, linebackers and secondary at Stephen F. Austin from 1988 to 1991, serving as the special teams coordinator all four years, as the Lumberjacks led the nation in punt returns in 1989. SFA also won the Southland Conference and advanced to the 1989 I-AA championship game. His secondary was nationally ranked in passing efficiency defense in 1990 and 1991.

A 1987 graduate of SMU, Peveto began his coaching career as a secondary coach at Trinity Valley Community College.

Peveto was a four-year letterman for the Mustangs, played in four bowl games (Cotton, Sun, Aloha and Mirage), and was a team captain as a senior in 1986. During his playing career, SMU won two Southwest Conference championships (1982 and 1984) and had a combined record of 43-14-1.

Peveto comes from a family with a rich football coaching tradition. His late father, Ed, coached high school football in the southeast Texas area and was inducted into the Greater Houston Coaches Hall of Honor in 1993 and into the Golden Triangle Coaches Hall of Fame in 1997. His two brothers were also high school coaches in Texas

Peveto is married to the former Melissa Weser, and the couple has a daughter, Payton Marie and a son Jacob Edward.

Corey Raymond, a former LSU standout who spent six years playing in the NFL, enters his third season coaching the defensive backs for his alma mater.

Raymond is currently in his second stint with the Tiger coaching staff as he previously served on Les Miles' staff from 2006-08, first as intern and then as an assistant strength coach.

Last year, Raymond oversaw a secondary that had to replace three starters, all of which were selected in the NFL Draft, from the 2012 season. He developed a pair of true freshmen in Tre'Davious White and Rashard Robinson into starting cornerbacks for the Tigers in 2013. Frank Wilson, widely considered one of the top recruiters in college football, enters his fifth season as LSU's running backs coach and recruiting coordinator in 2014. Since joining the staff, Wilson has been vital to LSU's success both on and off the field helping the Tigers to four straight seasons of at least 10 wins.

In five years as LSU's recruiting coordinator, Wilson has engineered signing classes that have ranked among the top 10 in the nation four times, including the No. 2 rated class in 2014. LSU's 2014 signing class featured the consensus No. 1 rated player in the nation (Leonard Fournette) and the No. 1 rated wide receiver (Malachi Dupre). LSU had the No. 6 rated class in 2011 and the seventh-ranked class in 2013. Wilson was named as the 2011 Recruiter of the Year by Rivals.com.

On the field, Wilson has continued to develop and manage an LSU backfield that annually, despite its youth, features some of the best players in the SEC. Under Wilson, LSU has recorded 28 100-yard games, and he's also seen the Tiger running game produce two 1,000-yard rushers. LSU has also had four running backs selected in the NFL Draft since Wilson joined the staff.

In 2013, sophomore Jeremy Hill earned All-SEC First-Team honors after racking up 1,401 yards and 16 touchdowns in helping the Tigers to a 10-3 mark and a school-record 37 rushing touchdowns. Hill, who was picked in the second round by the Cincinnatti Bengals during the 2014 NFL Draft, rushed for 216 yards and a pair of TDs against Iowa en route to Outback Bowl MVP accolades in what was the final game of his career. Hill's 1,401 yards ranked No. 2 on the LSU single-season list, while his 16 TDs stands at No.4 in school history.

As a unit, LSU rushed for 202.3 yards per game in 2013 as the Tigers had a total of four players produce 300 or more yards on the ground. Terrence Magee was second on the team with 626 yards and eight touchdowns, Alfred Blue had 343 yards and one score and Kenny Hilliard with 310 yards and seven touchdowns. Blue was drafted in the seventh round of the NFL Draft giving LSU to running backs picked in the same draft for the first time since 2003.

Hill burst onto the scene as a true freshman in 2012, rushing for 755 yards and 12 touchdowns in helping the Tigers to a 10-3 mark. LSU averaged 173.7 yards rushing per game with sophomore Hilliard (464 yards, 6 TDs), Michael Ford (392 yards, 5 TDs) and Spencer Ware (367 yards, 1 TD) joining Hill in the backfield for the bulk of the carries. Ware, who opted to leave LSU following his junior season, was drafted in the fifth round of the 2013 NFL Draft by the Seattle Seahawks.

In 2011, LSU's backfield consisted of three sophomores and a true freshman as the Tigers averaged 202 rushing yards and tied a then school record with 35 rushing touchdowns. Ford led the group in 2011 with 756 yards and seven TDs, followed by Ware with 707 yards and eight scores. For the first time in school history, LSU's backfield featured four running backs who each accounted for at least seven rushing TDs (Ware and Hilliard with 8, Ford and Blue with 7). Also, for the first time since 1997, LSU had three running backs go over the 500-yard mark in the same season (Ford, 756, Ware 707, Blue 539). LSU had four different running backs lead the team in rushing in 2011.

In 2010, junior Stevan Ridley, in his first season as a starter, rushed for 1,147 yards and 15 touchdowns on his way to earning All-SEC First-Team honors. Ridley, who opted to forgo his senior season, went on to be drafted in the third round by the New England Patriots.

Prior to joining the Tennessee staff, Wilson spent the 2008 season at Southern Miss as running back coach and recruiting coordinator. He also served as running backs coach and special teams assistant at Ole Miss from 2005-07.

In his second year with the Rebels, Wilson's primary pupil, BenJarvus Green-Ellis, finished third in the SEC in rushing at 83.2 yards per game. Green-Ellis was named All-SEC first team by Associated Press. Under Wilson's tutelage, Green-Ellis finished the season with 1,000 yards, fourth on the Ole Miss season charts, and has since become a 1,000-yard rusher in the NFL with the Patriots.

No. 12 LSU Wins Cowboys Classic, 37-27

Zach Mettenberger connected on 16-of-32 passes for 251 yards and the LSU defense limited TCU to 249 total yards as the 12th-ranked Tigers opened 2013 with a 37-27 victory over the 20th-ranked Horned Frogs in the Cowboys Classic. LSU never trailed in the contest as the Tigers kicked a field goal on the opening possession of the game and then recovered a TCU fumble on the ensuing kickoff. LSU tacked on another field goal for a 6-0 advantage before TCU took an offensive snap. After TCU pulled to within 6-3, J.C. Copeland extended the lead to 13-3 on a 1-yard dive to cap a 7-play, 80-yard drive for the Tigers. However, TCU responded on the very next play, returning the kickoff 100 yards to cut the margin to 13-10. LSU tacked on a third first half field goal as time expired in the second quarter for a 16-10 lead at halftime. After a Jalen Mills interception on TCU's first play of the second half, LSU's Terrence Magee raced 52-yards for a TD to stretch the lead to 23-10. TCU hung around, scoring on its next possession to get back to within 23-17. Another Magee TD run, this time a 3-yarder, stretched the lead to 30-17 late in the third quarter. A defensive stop by the Tigers forced TCU to punt on its next possession, pinning LSU inside its 5-yard line. A miscue on the quarterback exchange on a handoff to Alfred Blue resulted in a fumble at LSU's own 6-yard line. TCU scored two plays later to cut the deficit to 30-24 with 13 minutes to play. TCU kicked a field goal midway through the fourth quarter to get to within 30-27; however Odell Beckham Jr. returned the ensuing kickoff 75 yards to setup a 20-yard TD pass from Mettenberger to Jarvis Landry that sealed the victory for the Tigers. Mettenberger engineered an LSU offense that racked up 80 plays, 26 first downs, 448 yards of offense (197 rushing, 251 passing), and held the ball for 36 minutes. Defensively, LSU limited TCU to 249 total yards (114 rushing, 145 passing) and only 54 total plays. Magee led LSU with 95 rushing yards, while Landry caught 8 passes for 109 yards and a score and Beckham Jr. added five receptions for 118 yards. Beckham Jr. accounted for 272 all-purpose yards, the sixth-highest total in school history.

Mettenberger Fires Five TDs as LSU Rolls Past UAB. 56-17

Zach Mettenberger threw for a school-record five TD passes and Odell Beckham Jr. scored four touchdowns and racked up 331 all-purpose yards as No. 9/11 LSU rolled past UAB, 56-17, in the home-opener for the Tigers. LSU never trailed in the contest as the Tigers raced out to a 21-0 lead after the first quarter thanks to pair of Mettenberger-to-Beckham Jr. TD passes followed by a 1-yard run by Kenny Hilliard. LSU, which scored touchdowns on five straight first half possessions, extended the advantage to 28-0 on a 3-yard TD run by Jeremy Hill early in the second quarter. UAB scored 17 points in the second quarter to get to within 35-17 at halftime. Beckham Jr. scored his third TD of the game on a 27-yard pass from Mettenberger to open the third quarter for the Tigers, stretching the lead to 42-17. A Mettenberger-to-Jarvis Landry 14-yard TD pass midway through the third quarter increased the lead to 49-17 and broke the school's single-game touchdown pass record in the process. Beckham Jr. capped the scoring for the Tigers with a school-record 100-yard return of a missed 59-yard field goal by UAB to run the advantage to 56-17. The 100-yard return was the first of its kind in LSU history and pushed Beckham's all-purpose yardage to 331, the third-highest total in school history. For the game, LSU piled up 445 total yards (152 rushing, 293 passing), while limiting UAB to 296 total yards (160 rushing, 136 passing). Mettenberger hit on 16-of-19 passes for 282 yards and five scores with Beckham Jr. (5 for 136, 3 TDs) and Landry (5 for 71, 2 TDs) being the top targets. A total of nine players caught at least one pass for the Tigers. Hilliard led LSU in rushing with 54 yards on 11 carries, while Hill added 50 yards on six attempts. Lamin Barrow and Lamar Louis led the LSU defense with seven tackles apiece, while Jermauria Rasco had six tackles, two quarterback hurries and a sack.

Hill Carries LSU Past Auburn In SEC Opener, 35-21

Jeremy Hill rushed for a career-high 184 yards as the No. 6/7 Tigers raced out to a 21-0 lead and then held off a late Auburn rally for a 35-21 victory in a rain-soaked Tiger Stadium. For the fourth straight game, LSU scored first as the Tigers took a 7-0 lead on their first possession of the game when Hill raced 49-yards for a TD on LSU's third play of the game. Auburn's punter muffed the snap on its next possession, giving LSU the ball at the Auburn 10-yard line. One play later, Hill scampered 10 yards for the score and a 14-0 LSU advantage. LSU stretched the lead to 21-0 after a 54yard run by Hill setup a 1-yard scoring plunge by fullback J.C. Copeland early in the second quarter. The score remained that way until early in the third quarter when Auburn got its first points following a Zach Mettenberger interception. LSU answered the Auburn TD with a 7-play, 75-yard drive capped on a 6-yard run by Hill, extending the cushion back to three touchdowns at 28-7. Auburn pulled to within 28-14 on a 10-play, 94-yard drive. However, LSU answered again, this time going 81 yards on 7 plays capped with a Mettenberger 32-yard TD toss to Jarvis Landry to extend the margin to 35-14. Auburn scored midway through the fourth quarter to pull within 35-21. However, LSU's defense came up with an interception and then stopped Auburn on downs on its final two possessions to clinch the victory. For the game, LSU racked up 457 total yards (228 rushing, 229 passing). Mettenberger connected on 14-of-22 passes for 229 yards, one TD and an interception, his first of the year. Landry led the $\,$ Tigers with seven receptions for 118 yards and a score. Defensively, LB D.J. Welter and LB Lamin Barrow each had 11 tackles to pace the Tigers.

Mettenberger and Tigers Fall In Shoot-Out At No. 9 Georgia, 44-41

Zach Mettenberger threw for a career-high 372 yards and three TDs, but LSU's last-minute chance at a comeback came up short as the sixth-ranked Tigers dropped a 44-41 road decision to No. 9 Georgia. In a game that featured five ties, five lead changes and with neither team leading by more than a touchdown, LSU looked in position to win the game by taking a 41-37 advantage on an 8-yard run by Jeremy Hill with just over four minutes remaining. Georgia responded, going 75 yards on six plays, to regain the lead at 44-41 on a 25-yard TD pass with 1:47 left in the contest setting up one last chance for Mettenberger and the Tigers. After a first down that got the Tigers to their own 35-yard line, LSU turned the ball over on downs following four straight incompletions and Georgia ran out the clock for the victory. The game went back-and-forth from the start as Georgia scored on its first possession to take a 7-0 lead. LSU tied the game at 7-7 on its next possession starting a see-saw battle that had the teams tied at 14-14 at the end of the first quarter. Georgia led 24-17 at halftime as they scored on a 1-yard run with 20 seconds left in the second guarter. Down 27-20 late in the third guarter, Mettenberger connected with Jarvis Landry on a 39-yard pass to tie the game at 27-27. Kenny Hilliard tied the contest at 34-34 on a 2-yard run early in the fourth quarter, but the Bulldogs answered with a 38-yard field goal just four minutes later to regain the lead at 37-34 with 8:09 to go. Mettenberger then guided LSU on a 75-yard, 8-play drive capped with Hill's 8-yard TD run that put the Tigers up 41-37 with four minutes to play. For the game, Mettenberger connected on 23-of-37 passes for 372 yards and three scores. Landry led LSU with 10 catches for 156 yards, while Odell Beckham Jr. had six receptions for 118 yards. Hill rushed for 86 yards and a TD for the Tigers. The 41 points was the most by an LSU team in a regulation loss.

LSU blew open a tight game at halftime by outscoring Mississippi State 31-3 in the second half on its way to a 59-26 win over the Bulldogs in Starkville. The win was the 14th straight and the 21st in 22 tries for LSU over Mississippi State. In another offensive shootout, LSU came out on top this time around as the Tigers combined the passing of Zach Mettenberger along with a 100-yard rushing effort by Jeremy Hill to wear down the Bulldogs. LSU scored touchdowns on its first three possessions, two coming from Kenny Hilliard, to build a 21-9 advantage early in the second quarter. LSU's next three possessions came up empty and Mississippi State took advantage, taking a 23-21 lead at the 6:28 mark in the second quarter on a 59-yard passing play. LSU regained the lead just before halftime at 28-23 when Mettenberger led the Tigers on a 9-play, 70-yard drive capped with a 14-yard TD pass to Odell Beckham Jr. LSU never trailed again as the teams exchanged field goals in the third quarter before LSU used a 28-point fourth quarter scoring outburst to put the game out of reach. Beckham Jr. started the scoring for the Tigers in the final stanza with a 33-yard TD reception from Mettenberger. Hill followed with a 5-yard run following an interception by Tre'Davious White to run the lead to 45-26. Alfred Blue with a 17-yard run and Hilliard with his third rushing TD, a 4-yard scamper, closed out the scoring for the Tigers in what was the most points by an LSU team in a league game since 1997 (63 vs. Kentucky). For the game, LSU racked up 563 total yards with Mettenberger passing for 340 yards and 2 scores and Hill rushing for 157 yards and a pair of TDs. Hilliard scored three times and Beckham Jr. caught nine passes for 179 yards and a pair of TNs.

LSU's Defense Comes Up Big In 17-6 Win Over No. 17 Florida

LSU had its best defensive outing of the season, limiting Florida to just 240 total yards and a pair of field goals, as the 10th-ranked Tigers hammered the Gators, 17-6, in Tiger Stadium. LSU improved to 6-1 overall and 3-1 in league play with the victory as the Tigers won their sixth straight and 28th of last 29 games in Tiger Stadium. The six points were the fewest scored by a Florida team against LSU since a 20-3 Tiger victory in 1979. Florida struck first, taking its first possession and marching 60 yards on 14 plays to take a 3-0 lead late in the first quarter. LSU responded with a 70-yard, 9-play drive capped with a 1-yard plunge by fullback J.C. Copeland to take a 7-3 lead on the first play of the second quarter. LSU's defense forced Florida to punt on its next five possessions, during which time the Tigers were able to extend the lead to 14-3 on a $\,$ 1-yard quarterback sneak by Anthony Jennings. The score remained 14-3 until early in the fourth quarter when the Gators converted another field goal to pull to within 14-6. LSU answered the Gators with a field goal of its own as Colby Delahoussaye converted a 31-yard attempt to stretch the lead to 17-6 with 7:58 to play. On its next possession, Florida drove to the LSU 20-yard line before a penalty, and back-to-back sacks, the last coming on fourth down, ended the Gators chances at a comeback. The LSU offense took over with 3:51 to go and was able to run out the clock. For the game, Jeremy Hill led the LSU offense with 121 yards on 19 carries against a Florida defense that came into the game allowing just 65 yards on the ground a game. Zach Mettenberger completed 9-of-17 passes for 152 yards, while Jarvis Landry caught 4 passes for 58 yards. Defensively, LSU recorded season-highs for sacks (4), tackles for loss (8) and QB hurries (5) as the Tigers stymied the Florida offensive attack. LB Lamin Barrow led the LSU defense with 13 tackles, while CB Jalen Mills, DB Micah Eugene, DT Anthony Johnson, and LB Kendell Beckwith all had sacks.

Last-Second Field Goal Sinks LSU In 27-24 Loss To Ole Miss

Ole Miss kicked a 41-yard field goal with 2 seconds left to lift the Rebels to a 27-24 win over No. 6 LSU in Oxford as the Tigers fell to 6-2 overall and 3-2 in SEC action. The field goal erased a second half comeback for the Tigers, one that saw LSU erase a 17-0 deficit to tie the contest at 24-24 on a 4-yard TD pass from Zach Mettenberger to Jarvis Landry with just over three minutes remaining. However, Ole Miss responded with its game-winning drive. going 61-yards on 14 plays to set up the deciding field goal. Three first half interceptions by Mettenberger put the Tigers in an early hole as the Rebels, behind the play of quarterback Bo Wallace, built a 10-0 lead at halftime. After a 3-and-out to open the second half for the Tigers, Ole Miss increased the lead to 17-0 on its next possession, going 49-yards on 9 plays. LSU pulled to within 17-7 on the ensuing possession when Kenny Hilliard scored on a 1-yard plunge. Ole Miss fumbled three plays later at the LSU 49-yard line to setup the Tigers' next touchdown. Jeremy Hill capped a 51-yard, 8-play drive with a 3-yard run to get LSU to within 17-14. Ole Miss extended the lead to 24-14 with a TD on its next possession. LSU's Colby Delahoussaye kicked a 41-yard field goal to bring the Tigers to within 24-17 after Ole Miss fumbled a punt on its own 13-yard line. Dominant Second Half Lifts LSU To 48-16 Win Over Furman

The LSU offense racked up the third-most yards in school history as the Tigers raced past Furman, 48-16, on Homecoming in Tiger Stadium. LSU amassed 672 yards of total offense, the most since the Tigers gained 680 against Western Carolina in 2000. With the victory, LSU improved to 7-2 overall and extended its FBS record of consecutive non-conference regular season wins to 45 straight dating back to 2002. Odell Beckham Jr. had a career night, finishing with six catches for a personal-best 204 yards along with touchdown receptions of 37 and 63 yards. Zach Mettenberger earned his third 300-yard passing game of the season as he tallied 328 yards and two touchdowns on 16-of-24 passing. An interception for a touchdown off a Mettenberger throw and a field goal off a Beckham Jr. muffed punt kept Furman in the game as LSU led 20-16 at halftime, but the Tigers blanked the Paladins 28-0 in the second half to secure the victory. Jeremy Hill racked up his fifth 100-yard rushing game of the season, carrying the ball 14 times for 143 yards and two TDs, while Terrence Magee added his second 100-yard performance of the season with 108 yards and two TDs on only seven carries. Defensively, LSU limited Furman to 198 yards of offense (106 passing, 92 rushing). Kwon Alexander led the team with a career-high 14 tackles, including 2.0 TFL, and a pass breakup.

Top-Ranked Alabama Uses Second Half Surge To Beat LSU, 38-17

Top-ranked Alabama scored 21 unanswered points in the second half to post a 38-17 win over No. 10 LSU in Tuscaloosa. Trailing 17-14 at halftime, LSU took the second half kickoff and marched 50 yards on six plays to tie the game at 17-17 on a 41-yard field goal by Colby Delahoussaye. Alabama took advantage of a fake punt on its next possession to extend a drive that eventually led to a touchdown and a 24-17 lead. The Crimson Tide extended the lead to 31-17 early in the fourth quarter before Odell Beckham Jr. returned a kickoff 82 yards to give the Tigers a scoring opportunity inside the Alabama 20-yard line. However, the Tigers weren't able to convert as three straight incompletions turned the ball back over to Alabama. The Crimson Tide tacked on another TD midway through the fourth quarter to put the game out of reach. LSU appeared to have taken control of the game early in the contest as the Tigers forced Alabama to punt on its first possession. The Tigers went 81 yards on nine plays to take what appeared to be a 7-0 lead, however running back J.C. Copeland fumbled as he was crossing the goal line to end that drive. LSU spotted Alabama a 3-0 lead when a Tiger fumble on the Crimson Tide 27-yard line led to a field goal. LSU took its only lead of the game at 7-3 on a 3-yard run by Jeremy Hill early in the second quarter. Alabama scored TDs on its next two possessions to take a 17-7 lead before LSU used a 10-play, 75-yard drive just before halftime to get to within 17-14 on a 6-yard pass from Zach Mettenberger to Travin Dural. For the game, Mettenberger completed 16-of-23 passes for 241 yards and a TD, while Jarvis Landry hauled in five passes for 90 yards. Hill led the Tigers with 42 rushing yards and a score.

Defense, Running Game Carry LSU To 34-10 Win Over No. 9 Texas A&M

An inspired LSU defense held No. 9-ranked Texas A&M to its lowest offensive output in the past two seasons as the Tigers controlled the clock in a dominating 34-10 victory on a wet and cool Saturday afternoon at Tiger Stadium. The Tigers forced a pair of turnovers and held the Aggies to just 299 yards of total offense on the defensive side of the ball, while the LSU offense rolled up 517 yards of total offense with 324 yards on the ground. Quarterback Zach Mettenberger led the way through the air with 193 yards and two touchdowns, and running back Terrence Magee set the pace on the ground with a career-high 149 yards and one score on 13 carries to lead the Tigers to their third-straight victory over the Aggies in the series. Magee accounted for all 71 yards with five carries on LSU's first scoring drive, capped by his one-yard TD run to put the Tigers on top 7-0 with 2:51 to play in the first quarter. Mettenberger then hit wide receiver Jarvis Landry with scoring strikes of 10 and 40 yards in the second quarter to give the Tigers a 21-10 lead at halftime. LSU drove 71 yards in 13 plays to set up a 21-yard field goal by kicker Colby Delahoussaye for a two-touchdown lead at 24-10 in the first drive of the second half. Delahoussaye added a 36-yard field goal in the fourth quarter and converted all four of his extra points for a perfect afternoon in the kicking game. Running back Kenny Hilliard, who rushed for 36 yards on eight carries, found the endzone from two yards out in the third quarter to cap the scoring in the 34-10 victory. Jeremy Hill rushed for 76 yards on 14 carries and Alfred Blue added 61 yards on 13 carries to punctuate LSU's dominant running attack. Defensively, freshman cornerback Rashard Robinson earned his first career start and responded with his first career interception on a Johnny Manziel pass on A&M's opening drive in the third quarter to set the tone for the second half. Safety Craig Loston added his second INT of the season on the Aggies final drive, and he led the Tigers with seven tackles. Defensive ends Danielle Hunter and Jermauria Rasco each added sacks on the afternoon.

Freshman Combo Caps LSU's 31-27 Comeback Win Over Arkansas

While star receiver Odell Beckham Jr. and quarterback Zach Mettenberger went down with injuries as the sun set in Tiger Stadium, two freshmen stepped up and ushered in the next era of LSU Football with a fourth-quarter comeback for the ages. LSU true freshman quarterback Anthony Jennings finished an eight-play, 99-yard drive with a 49-yard touchdown pass to redshirt freshman wide receiver Travin Dural with 75 seconds remaining, as No. 15 LSU (9-3, 5-3 SEC) came from behind to defeat Arkansas, 31-27. Along with Jennings and Dural, freshman center Ethan Pocic and junior right tackle Evan Washington each served as substitutes for injured Tigers on the game-winning drive. Jennings entered the contest only 2-of-3 passing for 23 yards with 11 rushes for 23 yards in 2013. Seeing his first meaningful action in his eighth game while facing a fourth-quarter deficit, he calmly led his team to its ninth win of the season and capped LSU's 15th undefeated home slate in Tiger Stadium history. Jennings finished the afternoon 4-of-7 passing for 76 yards while running three times for 26 yards. Mettenberger, who became the third LSU quarterback to throw for more than 3,000 yards, was injured late in the fourth quarter as Jarvis Landry made a spectacular 32-yard catch that set up a field goal. LSU running back Jeremy Hill rushed 20 times for a game-high 145 yards including a 52-yard touchdown, also catching five passes out of the backfield for 27 yards. Terrence Magee had 59 yards on seven carries with touchdown runs of 29 and 23 yards in the first quarter. LSU's defense which came up with a big stop after the Tigers cut the Razorbacks' lead to 27-24 with a 37-yard field goal - secured the victory by forcing a fumble with less than $\,$ a minute to play.

Hill's Career Day Vaults Tigers Past Iowa In Outback Bowl. 21-14

Jeremy Hill racked up a career-high 216 rushing yards as 14th-ranked LSU collected a 21-14 victory over Iowa on New Year's Day in the 2014 Outback Bowl held at Raymond James Stadium. The win enabled the Tigers to secure a school-record fourth-consecutive 10-win season. Hill, the game's Most Valuable Player, became the first player to garner over 200 rushing yards since Alley Broussard amassed a school-record 250 yards against Ole Miss during the 2004 season. Hill's yardage total was third-highest in LSU bowl history behind Kevin Faulk's 234 yards versus Michigan State in the 1995 Independence Bowl and Rondell Mealey's 222 yards against Notre Dame in the 1997 Independence Bowl. In the process, Hill moved into second place on LSU's single-season rushing list and finished the season with 1,401 yards. The Tigers raced out to a 14-0 advantage midway through the first half on an Anthony Jennings 2-yard rushing score followed by a 14-yard scoring run from Hill. Jennings, a true freshman making his first career start, completed 7-of-19 passes for 82 yards. Iowa got on the scoreboard at the 5:52 mark of the third quarter. An interception put the Hawkeyes into scoring position and Mark Weisman reached the endzone on a 2-yard rush to make it 14-7. Iowa had an opportunity to draw even, but Craig Loston intercepted a pass on a 4th-and-1 play at the LSU 8-yard line. On the ensuing possession, the Tigers put together a 6-play, 92-yard march sparked by Hill runs of 28 and 20 yards before he scampered for a 37-yard touchdown that pushed LSU ahead 21-7 with 2:02 remaining. Keyed by a 96yard kickoff return, Iowa trimmed the deficit to 21-14. On second-and-goal, Kevonte Martin-Manley hauled in a 4-yard touchdown pass at the 1:42 mark. The Tigers recovered Iowa's onside kick attempt and ran the clock down to 8 seconds left. Iowa's desperation laterals to end the game were not successful, and LSU ended a two-game bowl losing skid.

WINTLE, James V. (Wee Willie) (QB-HB)

Hearing those words from public address announcer Dan Borne' as the Tigers enter the stadium brings chills to even the casual LSU football fan and sends shivers to those on the opposing sideline. Seven days a year, Tiger Stadium becomes the fifth largest city in the state of Louisiana as over 100,000 fans pack the cathedral of college football to watch the Tigers play. For LSU fans, there's nothing better than spending a night in Tiger Stadium. LSU home football games are events talked about year round and happenings in Tiger Stadium are passed down from generation to generation.

For opponents, however, it's another story as Tiger Stadium is an intimidating venue that has been called one of the most dreaded road playing sites in all of college football. Seating over 100,000 fans and nicknamed "Death Valley," poll after poll has proclaimed Tiger Stadium as one of the greatest sites anywhere for a football game -- college or professional.

No Place Like Home

LSU enters the 2014 season having won 57 of its 64 games under coach Les Miles in Tiger Stadium, a stretch that dates back to the start of the 2005 season and includes wins over 17 Top 25 teams. Under Miles, the Tigers shattered the school record for consecutive home victories with 22 from Oct. 24, 2009 to Oct. 13, 2012. LSU is 87-12 at home since the 2000 season -- including perfect home records of 7-0 in 2004, 8-0 in 2006, 7-0 in 2010 , 6-0 in 2011 and 7-0 in 2013. Only twice since 2000 have the Tigers lost more than one home game. LSU is a perfect 28-0 against nonconference teams at home when Miles is on the sideline.

LSU in 2013 was undefeated (7-0) at home for the fourth time in the Miles Era. The home schedule was highlighted by wins over No. 17 Florida and No. 9 Texas A&M with attendance figures just below 93,000 for both games.

The 2012 season saw the Tigers shatter the school total attendance record, packing in a combined 741,005 fans for eight games. It represented the eighth consecutive season that LSU averaged over 92,000 fans per game. The Tigers knocked off third-ranked South Carolina, 23-21, with a spectacular fourth quarter on Oct. 13 in front of 92,734. The win was LSU's 22nd consecutive home triumph, representing a school

Arguably, the most anticipated game in Tiger Stadium history occurred on Nov. 3 against topranked Alabama.

After weeks of buildup, a school-record 93,374 fans and nearly 1,000 credentialed media saw the Tide escape with a 21-17 victory. However, the atmosphere that evening left an indelible image for many. ESPN personality Scott Van Pelt, attending his first LSU home game, said the following two days later on his radio show: "There is nothing I would put ahead of that I've ever seen in any sport. When you're there, you don't want to miss anything."

Fans and media came from across the globe to attend the event. Alex Ferguson of Sky Sports UK wrote, "This has been one of the greatest experiences of my life, and any self-respecting sports fan has to go to a game in Tiger Stadium." The attendance of 93,374 was the largest to ever witness a football game in the state of Louisiana.

In 2011, the Tigers capped a perfect 12-0 regular season with a 41-17 victory over No. 3 Arkansas. An attendance of 93,108 - the third-largest in the stadium's history -- watched LSU erase a 14-0 deficit by outscoring the Razorbacks 41-3 the rest of the way. In six home games during its SEC Championship run, LSU outscored its opponents by a combined score of 253-57. It was the first time since the 1958-59 seasons that the Tigers posted consecutive undefeated seasons at home.

LSU averaged over 92,000 fans for the seventh straight year in 2011, as a school-record average of 92,868 spectators piled into Tiger Stadium to see the Tigers play. The mark shattered the previous singleseason average attendance mark set during the 2010 campaign with 92,718 fans per contest.

On Nov. 8, 2008, LSU eclipsed the 93,000-fan mark for the first time in school history when 93,039 spectators welcomed back former coach Nick Saban and top-ranked Alabama, LSU fell to the Crimson Tide, 27-21 in overtime, in what was then the most to ever see a game in Tiger Stadium. That mark fell in 2009

"Dracula and LSU Football are at their best after the sun goes down"

when once again the nation's top-ranked team, the Florida Gators, played under the lights on Oct. 10. A then-school-record 93,129 fans watched Florida defeat LSU, 13-3.

The Tigers posted a 6-1 home mark during their 2007 national championship season, including a thrilling 28-24 victory on Oct. 6 over Florida that was played before a crowd of 92,910 and a national primetime audience on CBS. Legendary CBS Sports announcer Verne Lundquist to this day says it is the loudest he has ever heard a stadium during a broadcast

The 2005 season saw Tiger Stadium play host to its first Monday night game as LSU dropped an overtime thriller to Tennessee after the game was postponed two days due to Hurricane Rita. The LSU-Tennessee contest was the most-watched college football game in the history of ESPN2 as 2.77 million homes tuned in.

Due to the devastation to New Orleans and the Louisiana Superdome by Hurricane Katrina, Tiger Stadium served as the playing site for four New Orleans Saints games in 2005, as well as hosting the Tulane-Southeastern Louisiana contest. In all, 11 games (seven NCAA and four NFL) were played in Tiger Stadium during the 2005 season.

Part of the lore of Tiger Stadium is the tradition of playing games at night, an idea that was introduced in 1931 against Spring Hill (a 35-0 LSU victory). In 2006, LSU celebrated its 75th year of playing night football in Tiger Stadium. Since that first night game in 1931,

LSU has played the majority of its games at night and the Tigers have fared much better under the lights than during the day. Since 1960, LSU is 231-61-4 (.787) at night in Tiger Stadium compared to a 29-26-3 (.526) record during the day over that span. Since 2000, LSU is 65-6 in night games and head coach Les Miles is 40-2 in Saturday night games in Death Valley.

CBSSports.com's Dennis Dodd wrote in Oct. 2009 of LSU's fabled night history, "It has turned the knees of All-Americans to goo. It has caused coaches to lose their coaching minds. It only happens at a special space at a special time. LSU can be up, LSU can be down, but LSU's best weapon remains ... sunset."

LSU has averaged 77,647 spectators for each of its 362 battles in Tiger Stadium since the NCAA began compiling official attendance figures in 1957. Since the start of the NCAA's attendance compilations, LSU has finished in the nation's top 10 in average attendance in 50 of the past 57 seasons. The Tigers have drawn 28,108,185 fans since 1957. LSU passed the 25,000,000-mark in all-time attendance in 2009.

Tiger Stadium first opened its gates to fans in the fall of 1924 as LSU hosted Tulane in the season finale. Beginning with that first game in Tiger Stadium, LSU has posted a 398-144-18 (.727) mark in Death Valley. LSU's overall home record since the start of football in 1893 is 478-165-19 (.736).

Testimonials

Tiger Stadium tradition and lore has seen its share of national publicity as one of the most talked about venues in all of sports.

In 1998, Sport Magazine named Tiger Stadium "the most feared road playing site in America," and in 1996, ESPN named LSU's pre-game party the best in all of America. Those surveys supported the previous polls by Gannett News Service in 1995, The Sporting News in 1989 and the College Football Association in 1987, that depict Tiger Stadium as the most difficult place for a visiting team to play.

Sports Illustrated's Rick Reilly, in a column comparing college football to professional football, penned that "College football is LSU's Tiger Stadium at night." ESPN's Chris Fowler called LSU his favorite gameday experience in the Sports

-Beano Cook, ESPN

Illustrated's On Campus issue in 2003.

In 2002, after a 33-10 nonconference win over Miami (Ohio), UM coach Terry Hoeppner said of Tiger Stadium, "that's as exciting an environment as you can have. I thought the crowd was a factor for us because we had communication problems we haven't had at Michigan and Ohio State."

After a victory before a national television audience on ESPN in 2001, ESPN sideline reporter Adrian Karsten said, "Death Valley in Baton Rouge is the loudest stadium I've ever been in. There are very few stadiums in America worth a touchdown, but the Bayou Bengals certainly have that advantage in Tiger Stadium."

In 2007, the acclaim continued when The Bleacher Report ranked "Death Valley" as the third toughest venue in the world to play in. LSU's run to a national title and record crowds led ESPN.com to proclaim Tiger Stadium as "The Scariest Place to Play in America" for an opposing team in a list of stadium rankings.

Wright Thompson of ESPN. com wrote in 2008, "It was electric. When Death Valley is rocking, it seems as if it might actually take flight. On Saturday, I went back to Baton Rouge to see Alabama barely beat LSU, and was, once again, reminded that Tiger Stadium is the best place in the world to watch a sporting event."

The stadium's sheer noise and tradition has carried into a new decade. In 2010, The Sporting News proclaimed Tiger tailgating and "Saturday Night in Death Valley" as the top gameday tradition in all of college football. That same year, the Associated Press named Tiger Stadium as the top place to tailgate in college football.

Following the 2012 season, Athlon Sports wrote, "Be it the vast and unique tailgating menu or Richter Scale-inducing fans, few places in the nation can send chills down your spine like a game at Tiger Stadium. As one of the loudest and most rabid atmospheres in the nation, LSU boasts one of the most daunting home-field advantages in college football – especially at night."

Great Moments

The 2007 national championship season featured some of Tiger Stadium's most exciting moments, including a 28-24 win over Florida on Oct. 6. Top-ranked LSU overcame a 10-point fourth-quarter deficit to beat the ninth-ranked Gators in front of 92,910 fans – then the largest crowd in stadium history – and a primetime CBS national television audience. Just two weeks later, Matt Flynn connected with Demetrius Byrd on a 22-yard TD pass with one second remaining to give LSU a 30-24 victory over Auburn in a game televised by ESPN. LSU rallied from deficits of 17-7 at halftime and 24-23 with three minutes left in the contest to capture the electrifying win.

Though already considered one of the most raucous stadiums in all of college football, the 2003 season saw Tiger Stadium take it to another level during LSU's national title run, as the team, along with the fans, captivated the national media almost on a weekly basis. CBS televised Matt Mauck's last-minute game-winning pass to Skyler Green against Georgia before a crowd of 92,251, while ESPN was on hand for a dominating 31-7 victory over Auburn. The Tigers closed out the 2003 home slate with a 55-24 win over Arkansas before what was then the second-largest crowd in school history (92,213). The contest was televised to a national audience by CBS and the win propelled LSU to the SEC Championship Game.

In 2001, the Tigers clinched a berth in their first SEC Championship Game with a 27-14 victory over Auburn in the season finale in Tiger Stadium. After the contest, thousands of Tiger fans spilled onto the stadium floor to celebrate the victory. The Auburn game was traditionally played earlier in the season, but the attacks of September 11 postponed the contest until the final week of the regular season.

In 2000, the goal posts came down twice. Immediately after the Tigers upset then-No. 11 ranked Tennessee 38-31 in overtime, the capacity crowd of 91,682 flowed onto the field of Tiger Stadium to celebrate the victory. Hundreds of students lined the sidelines and the back of the north end zone as the Tigers held the Vols scoreless in overtime for the victory.

The goal posts came down again in the final home game of the 2000 season as the Tigers posted a 30-28 win over Alabama, their first victory over the Crimson Tide in Tiger Stadium since 1969.

The goal posts came down for the first time in 1997 as all of America witnessed one of the most explosive nights in the history of the grand stadium when the Tigers upended No. 1-ranked Florida before a national television audience. A sea of Tiger fans swamped the floor of Tiger Stadium as both goal posts came crashing down — a scene that was replayed countless times on college football highlight shows.

Perhaps the most famous moment in Death Valley history took place on "The Night The Tigers Moved the Earth," Oct. 8, 1988. When Tiger quarterback Tommy Hodson threw to Eddie Fuller for a winning touchdown against Auburn, the explosion of the crowd was so thunderous that it caused an earth tremor that registered on a seismograph meter in LSU's Geology Department across campus.

Then there was the night the Tigers nearly upset No. 1-ranked Southern Cal before a sellout crowd on Sept. 28, 1979.

Tiger Stadium \ HISTORY

The Tigers came up short, but the crowd roared from kickoff to final gun in a game many ardent LSU followers rank as the loudest in stadium history.

And of course there was Halloween night 1959, when Billy Cannon made his famous 89-yard punt return to lead No. 1 LSU past No. 3 Ole Miss. Legend has it that families living near the campus lakes came running out of their homes in fear of the noise erupting around them.

Those are the highlights, some of which have shaped the character of this great stadium. But week in and week out each fall, a new chapter unfolds in the history of Death Valley.

Aside from football, Tiger Stadium has served as a concert venue since 2010. Each spring for the past five years, Death Valley has played host to "Bayou Country Superfest", a three-day country music festival that has featured the likes of Kenny Chesney, Tim McGraw, Zac Brown Band, Rascal Flatts, Keith Urban, Carrie Underwood, Jason Aldean and Luke Bryan.

History

The home of one of football's proudest traditions, Tiger Stadium once served as a dormitory for approximately 1,500 students, and while Broussard Hall, then LSU's athletics dormitory, was being renovated during the fall of 1986, the LSU football players lived in Tiger Stadium.

The original phase of construction was completed in 1924. This first phase included the east and west stands, which seated about 12,000. Seven years later (1931), the sides were extended upward to accommodate an additional 10,000 fans, raising the capacity to 22,000. In 1936, the stadium seating capacity was increased to 46,000, with the addition of 24.000 seats in the north end. making Tiger Stadium into a horseshoe configuration.

The next phase of construction took place in 1953 when the stadium's south end was closed to turn the horseshoe into a bowl, increasing the seating capacity to 67,720.

The original upper deck atop the west stands was completed in 1978, and it added 8,000 seats to the stadium's capacity. Additional seating in two club level sections, which flanked the existing press box, brought the total addition to approximately 10.000 seats and raised the stadium's capacity to approximately 78,000.

Refurbishing began on the stadium in the summer of 1985, when the east and west stands were waterproofed, and 25,000 chair back seats were added to replace the older "bench" type seats. Another phase of improvements was completed in 1987 when the north and south stands were waterproofed and newer bleachers were again installed to replace the older ones.

The playing field was moved 11 feet south in 1986 to provide more room between the back line of the North End Zone and the curvature of the stadium fence, which surrounds the field. It also put the playing area in the exact center of the arena's grassy surface.

Prior to the 1987 season, more seats were installed at the upper portion of the west lower stands in Tiger Stadium, Also. the stadium's seating arrangement was renumbered to make all seats a uniform size. The addition of bleacher seating in 1988 brought the capacity to 80,150, but the elimination of some bleacher seating after the 1994 season dropped the capacity to 80,000.

Now the sixth-largest on-campus stadium in college football, Tiger Stadium continues to provide fans with the ultimate college football experience. Eleven years ago, 11,600 seats were added with the installation of the east upper deck, bringing the capacity to nearly 92,000. In addition to the new east upper deck, 70 skyboxes, called "Tiger Dens," were built, giving Tiger fans luxury accommodations. The addition of the 11.600 seats in 2000 marked the first expansion to Tiger Stadium since 1978, when the original west upper deck was completed.

The distinctive environment of Tiger Stadium became even more pronounced in 2005 as the ambitious West Upper Deck project was virtually completed. Construction on the project -- which began immediately after LSU's home finale against Ole Miss in November of 2004 - carried a $60 million price tag and rebuilt over 3.200 special amenity seats as a well as a state-of-the-art press box to Tiger Stadium. The west side renovation, which included the removal and rebuilding of the upper deck to mirror the east side upper deck, was finished during the 2006 season.

In 2009, major technological advances were made when Tiger Stadium added an 80-foot wide high-definition video board to the north endzone of the facility. Called one of the largest video boards in all of college athletics, the HD board measures 27-feet high and 80-feet wide.

In August 2010, LSU Vice Chancellor and Director of Athletics Joe Alleva and the Tiger Athletic Foundation launched a campaign to preserve and restore the look of Tiger Stadium. The 428 windows on the north side of the stadium were completely refurbished. The 300 remaining windows on the east and west sides of the stadium were completed for the 2013 season.

Prior to the 2012 season, construction was completed on the first part of the west side plaza that includes new gates, All-American and Hall of Fame plazas and the national championship plaza that showcases the past, present and future of LSU football. Construction on the north plaza of Tiger Stadium was completed prior to the 2013 season.

The 2012 season saw a new tradition established at Tiger Stadium. Following an LSU victory, the north end of the stadium lights up in "victory gold." The new unique look is a part of a state-of-the-art lighting system that was installed prior to the season that turns the upper archways of the north end of the stadium to purple and gold. Also prior to the 2012 campaign, letters spelling out Tiger Stadium were installed on the west side.

In April 2012, a new exciting era of Tiger Stadium was unveiled by Alleva. Construction is well underway for 66 suites, approximately 3,000 club seats above the existing south end zone seats, as well as 1,400 general public seats above the new suite and club seating to be completed by the 2014 season. The project, privately funded by Tiger Athletic Foundation, will bring the capacity of Tiger Stadium to 102,321, making it the fifth-largest stadium in the nation.

Vice Chancellor/Director of Athletics

Joe Alleva

LSU Vice Chancellor/Director of Athletics

Joe Alleva continues to bring unprecedented national recognition to LSU as Vice Chancellor and Director of Athletics. Under Alleva's leadership, LSU enjoys one of the country's premier athletics programs with success on and off the field of competition. Now in his seventh year at LSU, Alleva is dedicated to athletic and academic excellence, and he is committed to providing the opportunities and the resources necessary for student-athletes to excel in competition, in the classroom and in the community. Alleva joined the LSU family on April 4, 2008 after a highly successful tenure as director of athletics at Duke University for 10 years. Alleva's role at LSU was further expanded in August of 2009 when vice chancellor was added to his title by the LSU Board of Supervisors. It is the first time in school history that the director of athletics has also held a vice chancellor position.

Alleva is currently serving a five-year term on the prestigious NCAA Men's Basketball Committee, enhancing his reputation as one of the most respected athletic administrators in the country. Alleva has been appointed to numerous national committees throughout his career, including the Football Bowl Certification Committee, the NCAA Division I Championships/Competition Cabinet and several Southeastern Conference and Atlantic Coast Conference committees.

Upon his arrival at LSU, Alleva unveiled a strategic master plan for the LSU athletics program - "LSU: Thru and True" - to ensure the advancement and future of LSU Athletics as an exemplary enterprise. The central mission of the plan is to create an environment for studentathletes to reach their ultimate potential, prepare them to be champions in life and to set out goals and values for the entire athletics program.

Living up to Alleva's mantra of "competition, classroom, community," LSU student-athletes in 2013-14 logged more than 4,732 hours in community service work across 21 sports through LSU's "Geaux Givers" program. And a total of 88 proud Tigers received their degrees from the university during LSU commencement ceremonies in December and May. LSU's overall graduation success rate for all student-athletes has grown from 69 percent in 2008 to 81 percent in 2013.

With a strong commitment to academics, Alleva ensures that the Cox Communications Academic Center for Student-Athletes is a first-class facility that provides student-athletes the resources necessary for success in the classroom and personal development. And with an emphasis on community service and outreach programs, the implementation under Alleva's direction of the "Geaux Givers" fosters a relationship between the local community and LSU studentathletes, who regularly participate in philanthropic events. Alleva has bolstered the athletic department's I-Club program to reach out and connect with former student-athletes, and he has supervised the thriving "Project Graduation" program in which many former student-athletes have returned to LSU to earn their degrees.

Alleva's tenure has been distinguished by a number of significant athletic achievements, including four straight 10-win seasons by the football team, a baseball national championship and two College World Series berths, two consecutive women's basketball Sweet 16 appearances, three gymnastics Super Six berths. a softball College World Series appearance and 15 NCAA Top 5 finishes indoors and outdoors by the men's and women's track and field teams

LSU under Alleva's leadership claimed the 2009 baseball College World Series title, and the Tigers have earned 30 individual NCAA championships in the sports of men and women's track and field, gymnastics, men's golf and women's golf. LSU has captured 12 Southeastern Conference team championships, including the 2011 football crown, and the Tigers have won 80 individual SEC titles during Alleva's term. The Tigers in 2011-12 finished fourth in both the men's and women's Capital One Cup competition that identifies athletic excellence. LSU was one of only two schools in the country - and the only one in the SEC - to rank in the top four in both LSU's prominence was evident again in the final 2013-14 Learfield Sports Director's Cup standings that recognize the nation's best athletic programs, as the Tigers finished in the Top 25 for the ninth consecutive year. LSU was the only school in the Southeastern Conference to post a 10 win-season (10-3) in football, a 20-win season (20-14) in men's basketball and a 40-win season (46-16-1) in baseball.

The 2013 LSU football team recorded its seventh 10-win season in nine years and defeated Iowa in the Outback Bowl: the men's basketball team earned 20 victories for the first time since 2009; and the baseball team won its fifth SEC Tournament title in seven years and was an NCAA Tournament National Seed for the third straight season. The Lady Tiger basketball team earned his second consecutive Sweet 16 berth, and LSU gymnastics, led by National Coach of the Year D-D Breaux, enjoyed the finest season in its illustrious history, finishing No. 3 in the nation.

The LSU men's golf team recorded its highest national finish since 1967, as the Tigers placed third at the NCAA Championships. The men's track and field team placed fourth and the women's team sixth at the NCAA outdoor meet. The softball, volleyball, swimming and diving, women's tennis and women's golf teams each participated in NCAA postseason competition. The year was also highlighted by the inaugural season of the sand volleyball program, which gives more LSU female studentathletes the opportunity to compete at the intercollegiate level.

Alleva's vision will keep LSU among the nation's leaders in athletic facilities. In the fall of 2014, LSU opens the expansion of the South End Zone of Tiger Stadium - a project that adds premium seating, general public seating and two state-of-theart video boards - continuing an effort to augment one of the most iconic venues in all of college sports. Since 2010. Alleva has directed an aggressive campaign to preserve and enhance the appearance of Tiger Stadium that has included the installation new windows, lighting systems, gating systems, and championship plazas.

Under Alleva's direction, LSU's world-renowned track and field program in 2010 received a new running surface in Bernie Moore Stadium, and extensive renovations to the Maddox Field House in the spring of 2014 give the Tigers a firstclass indoor track and field venue. Alleva directed a major renovation to the University Club golf course that was completed in September 2010 and allows the LSU men's and women's golf teams to compete on one of the most challenging courses in the country. An overhaul of the LSU soccer facility was completed in the fall of 2011, converting the venue into fan-friendly venue that has attracted record-breaking crowds.

Future plans include a new gymnastics practice facility, a new tennis complex featuring indoor and outdoor courts, and a modern Nutrition Center for Student-Athletes, a facility that will house full-time chefs and nutritionists and provide the best dietary selections for all Fighting Tiger competitors.

Alleva is an innovator with bold ideas that benefit not only LSU but all of Greater Baton Rouge. He has been instrumental in the planning of the Bayou Country Superfest, a three-day country music concert and festival held in Tiger Stadium each spring. The event attracts over 100,000 visitors to the LSU campus and makes a tremendous economic impact upon the local community.

Alleva became director of athletics at Duke in 1998 and his impressive tenure there propelled the university into the ranks of America's top all-around collegiate programs. Among his outstanding list of accomplishments includes the greatest 10-year period in Duke Athletics, winning more ACC and NCAA championships than in any other decade in school history.

Alleva, whose hometown is Suffern, N.Y., majored in Finance at Lehigh University and received his hachelor's degree in 1975. While at Lehigh, Alleva was the guarterback of the football team and team captain in 1974. Alleva also played on the Lehigh baseball team. He served as a graduate assistant football coach and earned an MBA in 1976.

While at Duke, Alleva played a key role in Durham's community sports scene. He started Little League Baseball in Durham over 20 years ago, and also began the American Legion baseball program.

He is a member of the North Carolina American Legion Hall of Fame, Suffern High School Hall of Fame and the Rockland County Hall of
