WEEKLY PRESS CONFERENCE: Ole Miss will host its weekly fall press conferences every Monday at 11:15 a.m. CT in the Burns Team Meeting Room at the Manning Center. Various Ole Miss coaches and staff will take the podium first and will be followed by Coach Matt Luke at approximately 11:30 a.m. Defensive coordinator Mike MacIntyre and offensive coordinator Rich Rodriguez will follow Coach Luke at the podium. Members of the media unable to attend the Monday press conference may watch live on SEC Network+ (on the ESPN app) or on the Ole Miss Athletics Facebook page.

PLAYER/ASSISTANT INTERVIEWS: Coordinators will take part in the Monday press conference. Select players and assistant coaches will be available after practice on Tuesday. Coach Luke and select players will be available after practice on Wednesday. All media interviews will be held in the team meeting room. There is no availability on Thursday or Friday.

PRACTICES: All practices are closed to the public and open to media for select periods on Tuesdays. Media are forbidden from reporting (e.g. tweeting, blogging, etc.) on anything related to practice until the post-practice interviews. This includes media who leave practice early. On available days, media will be alerted which periods are available for video. Live video is prohibited, and use of footage from practices must be limited to three minutes per day. Videographers and photographers must use tight shots and not formations. If you have not previously attended practices, please contact the Communications office for prior approval and daily alerts on practice locations and times.

AUDIO/VIDEO RESTRICTIONS: Press conferences, media opportunities, practices and any form of competition may not be broadcast live, including Facebook Live and related media, without prior consent of the athletics department. Use of footage from practices is limited to three minutes per day. This includes content attained via FTP, which should be credited to Ole Miss Sports Productions. Ole Miss offers free FTP downloads of practice footage, interviews and game highlights for television stations to use during regularly scheduled news/sportscasts. To access the Ole Miss FTP site, please contact Seth Austin with Ole Miss Sports Productions at saustin@olemiss.edu or 662-816-3436.

WEEKDAY PARKING: Parking permits are required for everyone on campus Monday through Friday between 7:30 a.m. and 5 p.m. Media that plan to regularly attend practices, press conferences and other on-campus events may purchase a Vendor Permit from Campus Parking (www.olemiss.edu/parking), which is good for the full academic year. Those without parking permits are advised to park in a metered spot in the east lot of the Manning Center and feed the meter. Day passes are also available online at www.olemiss.edu/parking/visitors.html.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Per NCAA rule, images or likeness of current student-athletes may not be sold, distributed or used for commercial purposes.

WORKING CREDENTIALS: To request game credentials, go to Ole Miss' online credentialing site: www.sportssystem.com/OleMiss. Credential requests must be made as early as possible by the sports director of each media outlet and are limited to those media who will be attending the game in a working capacity. Media must agree to the SEC Media Policy before requesting credentials. Media credentials are allotted on the following basis: 1) daily newspapers; 2) network affiliate television stations; 3) websites whose primary purpose is to gather and disseminate news and who have an affiliation with a nationally recognized media entity/network; 4) magazines, weekly newspapers and non-broadcast radio stations. For those of you who are not credentialed for all of the games you requested, we hold onto your request and will contact you if space becomes available on a game-by-game basis.

GAMEDAY DRIVING DIRECTIONS: Media traveling to campus should take the Chucky Mullins Drive exit off of Highway 6 and travel north toward the round about. Those with garage parking passes should turn right onto Hill Drive, and those with Tad Smith Coliseum passes should continue straight on Chucky Mullins Drive. Both lots are located on the right side of their respective streets.

GAMEDAY PARKING: Gameday media parking is located in two locations: 1) garage adjacent to The Pavilion; and 2) lot near Tad Smith Coliseum. Media should check their pass to indicate for which lot they are designated. For passed marked for the garage, each pass is for a specific numbered parking spot. Cars parked in the wrong spot will be towed. Passes marked for Tad Smith Coliseum are for a lot located west of the old arena.

MEDIA GATE: Media will enter Gate 35 on the west side of the stadium beginning three and a half (3.5) hours prior to kickoff. The media will-call table will be located there, and photographers must show a photo I.D. to receive sideline vest. Parking passes may not be picked up at media will-call and must be requested at least seven days prior to gameday to ensure delivery.

RECRUITS: Media are not permitted to have contact with a prospect -- from when they check in until after they have checked out or concluded their visit and are no longer inside our facilities. Media are also forbidden from having direct contact with the prospects' family members who are present at the visit. In addition, media may not be present during any recruiting contact and may not video or photograph a prospect during a visit.

Oct., 22, 2016 • Baton Rouge, La. • #25 LSU 38, #23 Ole Miss 21: Ole Miss took an early 10-0 lead behind the arm of Chad Kelly, but the Rebels couldn't contain a powerful rushing game led by Leonard Fournette. Oct. 25, 2014 • Baton Rouge, La. • #23 LSU 10, #3 Ole Miss 7: The No. 3 Ole Miss football team forced four turnovers at No. 23 LSU, but the Ole Miss offense couldn't find a rhythm and the Rebels lost their first game of the season, 10-7. OLE MISS HEAD COACH MATT LUKE

Matt Luke (Ole Miss, 2000) is in his 12th season at Ole Miss and third season at the helm, taking the reins of his alma mater as the 38th head coach in program history. He was born a Rebel as his family has ties to Ole Miss that span three generations. During his 25 years as a player and coach at the collegiate level, Luke has risen through the ranks while learning from a number of successful veteran coaches. He has worked alongside national champion Tennessee coach Phillip Fulmer, Duke head coach David Cutcliffe and former Ole Miss head coach Tommy Tuberville, among others. Luke, a four-year center for the Rebels (1995-98), spent five seasons as the team's co-offensive coordinator and offensive line coach before being promoted to interim head coach for the 2017 season. During his first stop in Oxford (2002-05), he served four seasons coaching the Ole Miss tight ends and offensive line under Cutcliffe. Following his playing career, he served as a student assistant coach at Ole Miss in 1999, helping the Rebels to an 8-4 mark with regular-season wins against Auburn, South Carolina, LSU and Arkansas as well as a 27-25 triumph over Oklahoma in the Independence Bowl. He graduated in May 2000 with a degree in business administration. His father, Tommy, was a defensive back at Ole Miss in the 1960s while his brother, Tom, quarterbacked the Rebels from 1989-91. Tom is also on the Ole Miss football staff as assistant athletics director for player development.

SEC NATION HEADED TO THE GROVE

SEC Network's traveling pre-game show, SEC Nation, will be making its sixth appearance in The Grove prior to Saturday's game vs. LSU. The show will take place on The Grove stage from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m., and airs on SEC Network. SEC Nation's "The Pit" open at 7 a.m. for those that want to be close to the action. SEC Nation will feature host Laura Rutledge, analysts Paul Finebaum, Marcus Spears and Tim Tebow. The show's prior visits to The Grove were in 2014 for Ole Miss-Tennessee and the Egg Bowl vs. Mississippi State, 2015 for the Arkansas game, 2016 for Ole Miss-Alabama and again last year for a contest vs. the top-ranked Crimson Tide.

VS. NO. 1 TEAMS

- LSU will mark the 15th time that Ole Miss takes on the No. 1 team in the country.
- The Rebels are 0-13 against top-ranked teams on the field.
- Ole Miss knocked off No. 1 Alabama in 2014, but the win was vacated due to NCAA ruling.
- It's the ninth time in the last 10 seasons that Ole Miss has faced the nation's top-ranked team.
- This will be the fifth time the Rebels have squared off against a No. 1 LSU squad ... Ole Miss is 0-4 in those contests.

RUNNING WILD

Ole Miss ranks second in the SEC and 14th nationally in rushing offense, averaging 247.4 yards per game, nearly 30 yards more than the second-best rushing attack in the conference, Auburn. In SEC play, the Rebels have run for a league-best 1,550 yards and 13 touchdowns. Ole Miss has averaged 47.7 carries per conference game, 13 carries per game more than the league average (34.8). The 447 rushing yards vs. New Mexico State were the fifth-most in school history and the most since 1962 (Chattanooga, 454). Ole Miss also rushed for 413 yards vs. Vanderbilt during Week 6, the most by Ole Miss against an SEC opponent since 1979 (Vandy, 443). It's just the third time in school history that Ole Miss has surpassed the 400-yard rushing mark twice in the same season.

WE WERE MERELY FRESHMEN

- 86.3 percent of Ole Miss' offense (3,751 of 4,345 yards) have come from freshmen, the most by any team in the country.

- Seven different freshmen have started at least one game this season for the Rebels.
- Thirty-seven freshmen (27 true, 10 redshirt) have seen action for Ole Miss at least once during 10 games of the season. PLUMLEE POSTS MONSTROUS NUMBERS VS. NEW MEXICO STATE

QB John Rhys Plumlee posted his best passing grade (77.0) since Week 4, but it was his running of the ball where he truly shined this week. Plumlee's 177 rushing yards led all FBS quarterbacks, and that's just one figure in which Plumlee ranked among the nation's elite this week. Plumlee also led all FBS QBs with an incredible nine missed tackles forced. With all of the missed tackles Plumlee forced, he gained 134 yards after contact. Plumlee's 11.17 yards after contact per attempt were by far the absolute best among all FBS players this week with at least 10 carries. An interesting note on Plumlee's career day on the ground is most of his success came on first down. On first downs, Plumlee gained 119 yards, one TD, and forced seven missed tackles on just six carries.

OFFENSIVE LINE SHINES IN WIN

On 24 total dropbacks, the Ole Miss offensive line wasn't charged with a single sack on the day. The Rebels were the only SEC team in action this week with a zero percent sack rate allowed and the conference average for the week was 8.39 percent. Three men along the offensive line that stood out in particular were RG Royce Newman, LT Michael Howard, and RT Alex Givens. Newman posted career-high 77.9 overall grade and 76.9 run blocking grade, accompanied by an excellent 82.5 pass blocking grade after he allowed zero pressures and won multiple run blocking reps on his 61 total snaps. Newman's 77.9 overall grade led all SEC guards this week. Howard also posted career highs in overall (82.8) and run blocking (78.7) grades (both of these led all SEC Tackles), which earning an 81.2 pass blocking grade after he, too, allowed zero pressures on the day. Givens posted season highs in overall (77.5) and run blocking (73.6) grades, with a pass blocking grade of 79.3 after he was the third member of the offensive line to go the entire day without allowing a single pressure.

RUN-JRP

QB John Rhys Plumlee has put up some record-breaking numbers on the ground in his first collegiate season. With at least two games remaining in the season, Plumlee already has the school record for most rushing yards by a freshman (777), rushing yards by a QB (777), rushing touchdowns by a freshman (seven) and total TDs by a freshman (11). Plumlee is the only Ole Miss quarterback in school history to rush for 100 yards in three straight games. He's also the first Power 5 QB to rush for 100 or more yards in each of his first three starts since Nebraska's Taylor Martinez and Michigan's Denard Robinson in 2010. In SEC contests, Plumlee leads the conference in rushing attempts (83) and rushing touchdowns (four) and is second in yards on the ground per game (113.8).

SMITH STINGY IN PASS COVERAGE

DB Keidron Smith turned his area of the field into an offensive wasteland last week vs. New Mexico State. On 40 total coverage snaps, Smith allowed one catch of three targets for a total of two yards, with those two yards coming after the catch. He also allowed a passer rating of just 42.4 on the day. Impressively, both incompletions in Smith's coverage were forced by Smith. They both resulted in tight, clean coverage that prevented the receiver from cleanly running the intended route. Since Week 6, Smith had been very stingy in coverage. In that span, Smith ranks seventh among SEC CBs with 0.63 yards allowed per coverage snap. He has also allowed a passer rating of 45.8 since Week 6, second-best among that group of SEC cornerbacks.

A FORCE IN THE MIDDLE

DT Benito Jones was unstoppable in his last contest vs. New Mexico State. Jones' excellent outing was highlighted by his outstanding nine total pressures (one sack, eight hurries), and he did so on 27 rushes. Of the 248 FBS defenders with 20-plus pass rushes in Week 11, nobody had a higher win of pressure rate than Jones' 33.3 percent in both categories. His nine total pressures also led all FBS interior defensive linemen in Week 11, while ranking second among all FBS defenders, regardless of position. Jones now has 29 pressures on the season, which ranks third among SEC interior defensive linemen and seventh among all FBS interior defensive linemen.

BIVENS OFF THE BENCH

DE Quentin Bivens came off the bench vs. New Mexico State and had an excellent showing, particularly in the pass rush. On just 16 pass rushes, Bivens contributed four total pressures (two sacks, two hurries). Among all FBS interior defensive linemen with at least 15 rushes, Bivens' 25.0 percent pressure and win rates both ranked fourth. They also only trailed teammate Benito Jones when compared against other SEC interior linemen. Bivens was the only interior DL in the SEC with multiple sacks this week, and one of two players in the conference to accomplish that feat all together in Week 11. Bivens has quietly been a reliable rotational player for the Rebels this season. His 13.0 percent pass rush win rate ranks tied for 12th among the 42 SEC interior DL with at least 100 rushes this season.

MAC BROWN RAISES NEARLY 75K FOR ALS

When he was in seventh grade, Ole Miss punter Mac Brown had a modest goal of raising $500 for a childhood friend's dad who had been diagnosed with ALS. Along with a group of neighborhood friends, Brown started a lemonade stand, Awesome Lemonade Stand, in Eden Prairie, Minnesota, to help his friend's family. Eight years later, that $500 goal has ballooned to nearly $75,000 raised by Brown and his friends for ALS research. This year alone, the Awesome Lemonade Stand has raised more than $21,000 alone, including $4,500 during the Vanderbilt game when the stand was set up outside Vaught-Hemingway Stadium.

BROTHERLY COMPANY

Ole Miss is one of only nine FBS schools in the country to have brothers on the same coaching staff as running backs coach Derrick Nix is in his 12th year at Ole Miss and Tyrone Nix is in his fifth overall season (second stint) coaching outside linebackers. If you include support staff, Matt and Tom Luke (Assistant A.D. for Player Development), the Rebels are the only school in the country to have two sets of brothers on staff.

HEAD COACHING EXPERIENCE

After the 2018 campaign, Matt Luke found himself in the market for both an offensive and defensive coordinator, and he delivered in a big way. Mike MacIntyre, a two-time national coach of the year and coaching veteran with nearly three decades of experience, will take over the reigns as the Rebels' defensive coordinator while Rich Rodriguez, considered one of the most innovative offensive minds in college football, will serve as Ole Miss' offensive coordinator. Ole Miss is one of only two teams in the nation, along with Alabama, to have three coaches with Power 5 head coaching experience.

HEAD COACH MATT LUKE

Matt Luke was born a Rebel. His family has ties to Ole Miss that span three generations. Now, he has achieved a lifelong dream by taking over the reins of his alma mater. Ole Miss made it official on Nov. 27, 2017, removing the interim tag and introducing Luke as the 38th head coach in program history.

Headed into his third year at the helm, Luke has bolstered his staff by adding more than 60 years of coaching experience with the addition of new coordinators and former Pac 12 Coach of the Year winners, Mike MacIntyre and Rich Rodriguez. The Gulfport native continued that momentum by assembling a top-25 recruiting class in February.

Luke's 2018 Rebels finished amongst the top 20 nationally in multiple statistical categories including total offense, passing yards per completion, passing efficiency, fumbles lost and defensive touchdowns.

Nine Rebels received invitations to the 2019 NFL Combine, the fourth-most invitees by any school in the country. Six were drafted, which is Ole Miss' most since 1971.

A.J. Brown, earned multiple All-America honors after a season that saw him become Ole Miss' all-time leading receiving in yards, as well as set single-season marks in both receiving yards and receptions. Senior quarterback Jordan Ta'amu led the SEC and ranked fourth nationally with 326.5 yards passing per game. Ta'amu's 3,918 passing yards were second-most on the Ole Miss single-season charts.

Sophomore MoMo Sanogo led the Rebel defense with 112 tackles and became just the second Ole Miss player in the last 12 years to tally 100-plus tackles in a single season.

In his first year at Ole Miss, Luke faced the daunting challenge of taking over the team just a week before 2017 fall camp and responded by helping the Rebels bounce back from a losing season to post a 6-6 record. Ole Miss won three of its final four games, including a 31-28 road victory at Mississippi State to return the Golden Egg to Oxford.

During his 25 years as a player and coach at the collegiate level, Luke has risen through the ranks while learning from a number of successful veteran coaches. He has worked alongside national champion Tennessee coach Phillip Fulmer, Duke head coach David Cutcliffe and former Ole Miss head coach Tommy Tuberville, among others.

Luke, a four-year center for the Rebels (1995-98), just wrapped up his 11th season as a coach at Ole Miss. Prior to taking over as interim head coach, Luke spent five seasons as the team's co-offensive coordinator and offensive line coach. During his first stop in Oxford (2002-05), Luke served four seasons coaching the Ole Miss tight ends and offensive line under Cutcliffe.

A product of Gulfport High School, Luke lettered four seasons (1995-98) as a center at Ole Miss. A starter in 33 career games for the Rebels, he served as team captain in 1998 as Ole Miss posted a 7-5 ledger and defeated Texas Tech in the Independence Bowl. He was named the 1998 Ole Miss Most Valuable Senior by the Jackson (Miss.) Touchdown Club and twice earned Academic All-SEC honors.

Following his playing career, he served as a student assistant coach at Ole Miss in 1999, helping the Rebels to an 8-4 mark with regular-season wins against Auburn, South Carolina, LSU and Arkansas as well as a 27-25 triumph over Oklahoma in the Independence Bowl. He graduated in May 2000 with a degree in business administration.

His father, Tommy, was a defensive back at Ole Miss in the 1960s while his brother, Tom, quarterbacked the Rebels from 1989-91. Tom is also on the Ole Miss football staff as assistant athletics director for player development.

Luke is married to the former Ashley Grantham of Oxford, Mississippi, and the couple has two sons, Harrison and Cooper.

GAME ONE MEMPHIS 15, OLE MISS 10

Aug. 31, 2019
Attendance: 44,107 • Liberty Bowl • Memphis, Tenn.

MEMPHIS, Tenn. — Ole Miss football gave itself a chance late at the Liberty Bowl, but an outstanding fourth-quarter punt by Memphis' Andy Williams led to a safety and ultimately quelled a Rebel comeback attempt in the 15-10 defeat.

The Tigers mustered just those two points in the second half as the Landshark defense swarmed all day, holding the home team to just 364 total yards. Scottie Phillips notched the lone touchdown of the day for the Rebel offense early in the fourth quarter, but the comeback just wasn't meant to be as Ole Miss opened the season with a close loss.

The Rebels opened with the football and went three-and-out on their first two possessions. The Landshark defense turned in a three-and-out to start its day as well and was on its way to a stop on the Tigers' second possession, but a pair of costly penalties—a facemask and a roughing the passer call—both against junior outside linebacker Sam Williams, kept the drive alive and led to a Memphis touchdown. Quarterback Brady White drove a head on a QB sneak from one yard out for the game's first score.

The Rebel defense managed to force a punt, but after another Rebel three-and-out, a 21-yard punt return by John Williams gave the Tigers the field position they needed to score once more. Ole Miss nearly held at the goal line, but on 3rd-and-goal from the one, Patrick Taylor punched in the 1-yard score. Riley Patterson's extra point attempt clattered off the right upright, keeping it a 13-0 game just before the half.

Ole Miss broke through to put points on the board late in the third quarter. The Rebels used a heavy dose of Phillips, as well as a 36-yard connection between Corral and Moore to drive to the Memphis 18-yard line, where Logan hit a 35-yard field goal to make it 13-3.

The ground game then led the Rebels to their first touchdown of the season. Corral and Phillips combined to run 38 yards on the drive, while freshman receiver Jonathan Mingo drew a critical pass interference call in his collegiate debut to set up the score. After the flag, Corral scampered for a 15-yard gain down to the Memphis 2-yard line. It took two attempts, but Phillips was able to drive his way in to make it a three-point game, 13-10.

On the following drive, Memphis was able to chip its way across midfield thanks to a 4th-and-1 conversion, but the Landshark defense continued to swarm. On 3rd-and-6 following that conversion, Bivens and Ryder Anderson combined on a sack to force a punt.

Andy Williams' ensuing punt rolled all the way down to the 2-yard line. On the first play of the drive, Corral was sacked in the end zone for a safety, making it 15-10, Memphis. From there, the Tigers were able to drain the clock and hold off the Rebel comeback attempt.

GAME TWO OLE MISS 31, ARKANSAS 17

Sept. 7, 2019
Attendance: 47,915 • Vaught-Hemingway Stadium • Oxford, Miss.

OXFORD, Miss. — A balanced offensive attack and the revamped Ole Miss defense took center stage against Arkansas, powering the Rebels to a 31-17 victory in the 2019 SEC opener at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium on Saturday.

The Rebels (1-1, 1-0 SEC) stymied the Razorbacks to 361 yards of total offense, the fewest allowed by Ole Miss since stifling UT Martin to 334 yards on Sept. 9, 2017. Ole Miss had a superb day on offense as well, tallying 483 yards (246 passing, 237 rushing) behind big days from redshirt freshman quarterback Matt Corral (16-of-24, 246 yards, 2 TD) and senior running back Scottie Phillips (26 carries, 143 yards, 2 TD).

The Landshark defense racked up 10.0 tackles for loss and three sacks, led by Jacquez Jones' nine tackles and 1.5 TFL.

Ole Miss covered 85 yards on 13 plays to open the scoring on its second drive of the game as Corral found Moore for his first touchdown catch of the season from two yards out. Both teams traded field goals in the second quarter, and Ole Miss entered the half up 10-3.

At the end of the third quarter, a nimble 18-yard gain by Octavious Cooley pushed the ball across midfield on the following possession. Phillips would then use a 21-yard burst to reach the one-yard line. He'd punch the ball in on the very next play for a one-yard touchdown, extending the Rebel lead to 17-3.

The Razorbacks stole the momentum right back, though, with a strip and a 73-yard fumble recovery for a touchdown on the next Rebel drive by Kamren Curl, cutting the Rebel lead to 17-10.

The Rebels regained a 14-point cushion when Moore caught the ball in space and juke out three defenders for a 46-yard score, giving the Rebels a 24-10 edge.

After yet another excellent effort on the defensive end from Lakin Henry and Charles Wiley, Ole Miss freshman running back Snoop Conner broke through the middle for a 25-yard rush to set Ole Miss up with the ball back. Phillips then scored two plays later on a 25-yard run, carrying two defenders with him into the end zone to give Ole Miss a convincing 31-10 advantage.

Arkansas put together a quick seven-play, 81-yard touchdown drive behind quarterback Nick Starkel with 1:21 left to play, but it was too little, too late as an onside kick attempt went out of bounds to ice the game.

GAME THREE
OLE MISS 40, SOUTHEASTERN LOUISIANA 29

Sept. 14, 2019

Attendance: 45,238 • Vaught-Hemingway Stadium • Oxford, Miss.

OXFORD, Miss. — Matt Corral threw for two touchdowns and the Ole Miss defense made a pair of game-saving stops on downs in the final six minutes as the Rebels defeated Southeastern Louisiana 40-29.

Corral finished 21-of-30 for 239 yards and directed a pair of fourth quarter field goal drives that preserved the Ole Miss (2-1) win over the FCS Lions (1-1). Jerrion Ealy added two touchdowns, a 94-yard kickoff return and a 30-yard run, to finish with 273 all-purpose yards.

Ealy's 273 yards from scrimmage eclipsed the Ole Miss all-purpose rookie record (172 kickoff return, 95 rushing, 6 receiving) breaking Dexter McCluster's record of 267 yards set back in 2006.

Southeastern Louisiana, trailing 34-29, drove inside the 50-yard line twice in the final period before the drives ended. Virgil Kelly threw for 309 passing yards and two touchdowns on 29-of-44 passing, but was intercepted three times.

The Rebels never trailed but could not break away from the Lions despite rolling up 459 yards of total offense, including a game-high 103 rushing yards by Scottie Phillips. Corral threw touchdown passes of 9 and 5 yards to Elijah Moore and Jason Pellerin, respectively.

Kelly threw touchdown passes of 45 and 5 yards to Jwan Petit-Frere and Bransen Schwebel, respectively, in the third quarter to pull the Lions within 34-29.

The consistency of Phillips was complemented by continued improvement of Corral and the big-play versatility of true freshman Ealy. Defensively, the Rebels struggled, but made enough big plays - three interceptions, a fumble recovery and two late stops on fourth down - and Luke Logan added fourth-quarter field goals of 22 and 32 yards to seal it.

A loss to an SEC team did nothing to hurt the reputation of a solid FCS program from a strong conference, the Southland. The Lions rallied from a 17-point deficit in the third quarter and were more than competitive throughout. Devonte Williams finished with 206 all-purpose yards, but was limited in the final period.

GAME FOUR
#23 CALIFORNIA 28, OLE MISS 20

Sept. 21, 2019

Attendance: 46,850 • Vaught-Hemingway Stadium • Oxford, Miss.

OXFORD, Miss. — A valiant fourth-quarter comeback attempt fell just short for the Ole Miss football team to allow No. 23 Cal to escape with a 28-20 victory at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium on Saturday.

Ole Miss (2-2, 1-0 SEC) was mere feet away from tying the game on its final drive. A two-yard Elijah Moore catch and a John Rhys Plumlee sneak were both called short of the goal line as time expired in the fourth.

Quarterback Chase Garbers powered the Cal offense (4-0, 1-0 PAC-12) with 357 yards passing, four touchdown tosses and one interception. The Rebels struggled to stop the Golden Bears through the air, but held Cal to 60 yards rushing. It was the third straight game Ole Miss held its opponent to under 100 yards on the ground, the longest streak since 2008.

For the Rebels, Matt Corral went 22-for-41, tallying 266 passing yards. He also ran for a team-high 56 yards and a rushing touchdown before exiting the game with an injury late in the fourth quarter. Elijah Moore was Corral's primary target, catching 11 passes for 102 yards.

Lakia Henry was everywhere on defense, racking up a career-high 11 tackles. The defense totaled four tackles for loss, including three sacks.

After Corral went down, Plumlee entered and immediately put a charge in the Rebel offense, running the ball 47 yards on his first career snap. Jerrion Ealy cut up the middle and scored, cutting the deficit to 28-20.

With Cal at midfield needing just two yards on two snaps, the defense held with back-to-back stops to give the offense the ball back with 2:45 left. Plumlee completed six straight passes to help Ole Miss march down the field, including an outstanding 43-yard leaping snag by Gregory to setup a first-and-goal situation.

Two rushing plays led to third down where Plumlee found Moore. Moore was called just short of the goal line with the clock under 10 seconds. With no timeouts left, Plumlee attempted a quarterback sneak on 4th-and-inches, but was stuffed short of the line as time expired.

GAME FIVE #2 ALABAMA 59, OLE MISS 31

Sept. 28, 2019

Attendance: 99,950 • Bryant-Denny Stadium • Tuscaloosa, Ala.

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. — Ole Miss football became the first team to hold a lead over No. 2 Alabama so far this season, but the lead didn't last long as the Crimson Tide followed a career day by receiver DeVonta Smith to a 59-31 victory at Bryant-Denny Stadium.

It was a strong offensive day for Ole Miss. The Rebels racked up 476 yards of total offense, including 279 yards rushing—the most given up by an Alabama team since 2011. With Matt Corral sidelined with a rib injury, freshman John Rhys Plumlee made his first career start at quarterback and amassed 250 yards of total offense, including a team-high 109 on the ground. Plumlee notched one rushing score in addition to two through the air.

Defensively, the Rebels struggled to slow the explosive Alabama passing attack, but they were solid against the rush, holding the Crimson Tide below their season average with just 155 rushing yards allowed.

Ole Miss held a three-point lead through the end of the first quarter, but the second quarter was all Tide. Alabama exploded for 31 points in the second frame to make it a 38-10 game at the half.

The second half was back-and-forth, and included Ole Miss touchdowns from a trio of freshmen. Plumlee threw the first two Rebel touchdowns of the second half to Jerrion Ealy for nine yards and Jonathan Mingo for 26 yards.

Fellow freshman quarterback Grant Tisdale entered the game late to make his collegiate debut. He hit Jadon Jackson for a 28-yard score with just five seconds remaining, the first career touchdown for both Tisdale and Jackson.

GAME SIX OLE MISS 31, VANDERBILT 6

Oct. 5, 2019

Attendance: 47,601 • Vaught-Hemingway • Oxford, Miss.

OXFORD, Miss. — A dominant rushing and defensive performance propelled the Ole Miss football team to a 31-6 Homecoming victory over Vanderbilt at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium.

The Ole Miss (3-3, 2-1 SEC) ground attack racked up 413 yards, the most against an SEC opponent since racking up 443 against Vanderbilt in 1979. The defense gave up the fewest points since 2015 (Texas A&M, 3) and stayed off the field, holding Vanderbilt (1-4, 0-3 SEC) to 2-for-17 on third downs and 0-11 on third down attempts from seven yards or longer.

John Rhys Plumlee ran for 165 yards and a score. He also connected on 10-of-18 passes for 99 yards. Jerrion Ealy and Snoop Conner each added long touchdown runs of 78 and 84 yards on consecutive drives, respectively, the first time in Ole Miss history that the Rebels have recorded runs of 75 yards or more in the same game.

Lakia Henry tallied a career-high 15 tackles and added one of three sacks for the Landshark defense, which also racked up nine tackles for loss for the fourth time this season.

The Rebel offense opened with a strong drive courtesy of a 54-yard rush by Plumlee which set up a field goal to give Ole Miss a 3-0 early advantage.

The Rebel defense took advantage of the miscue and came away with a quick three-and-out, allowing just two yards on the drive. Ole Miss took over at the Vanderbilt 44, and it took just three plays for Plumlee to dash 33 yards into the end zone to make it a 10-0 Rebel lead.

The Commodores got on the board early in the second after a 43-yard connection between Riley Neal and Kalija Lipscomb which set up a 22-yard Ryley Guay field goal.

Vanderbilt tacked on three more points just before the break after the Rebels failed to convert on fourth down at the Vanderbilt 38. Neal found Ke'Shawn Vaughn and Ben Bresnahan for a couple of big gains to set up a 43-yard Guay field goal to make it 10-6 at the half.

After a stop by the Rebel defense, Ealy broke free for a 78-yard touchdown two plays into the ensuing drive. Ole Miss scored again when Conner outran the Vanderbilt defense for an 84-yard score, the first of his career that pushed the Rebel lead to 24-6.

The Rebels got on the board again when Scottie Phillips cut up the middle for a 24-yard rushing score with 4:29 left to play, giving Ole Miss its final 31-6 edge.

GAME SEVEN
MISSOURI 38, OLE MISS 27

Oct. 12, 2019
Attendance: 62,621 • Memorial Stadium • Columbia, Mo.

COLUMBIA, Mo. — A few missed opportunities and self-inflicted miscues spelled the difference Saturday night as Ole Miss (3-4, 2-2) fell 38-27 to Missouri (5-1, 2-0) at Memorial Stadium.

Missouri followed a strong night by quarterback Kelly Bryant, who threw for 329 yards and a touchdown. Larry Rountree paced the Tigers on the ground with 126 yards and two scores on 21 carries. Johnathan Johnson totaled 110 yards on eight receptions to lead the Mizzou receiving corps.

John Rhys Plumlee led the offensive effort for Ole Miss, throwing for 103 yards and two touchdowns, while adding 143 yards and another pair of touchdowns on the ground. Matt Corral had a strong night through the air, going 10-of-16 for 133 yards passing. Elijah Moore led the Rebel receiving effort with 102 yards and a touchdown on eight receptions.

Ole Miss was stopped on the game's opening drive, but Mizzou's Johnson muffed the ensuing punt, and A.J. Finley pounced on the loose ball to send the Rebel offense back on the field. The Rebels made the most of it as Plumlee hit Scottie Phillips for a 21-yard score through the air, the first scoring reception of the season for Phillips.

Missouri scored the next nine points, which prompted a QB change for Ole Miss. The Rebels then went with Corral at quarterback and quickly carved through the Mizzou defense all the way inside the 1-yard line. However, the Tigers walled off the end zone, stopping the Rebels on 3rd-and-goal, then 4th-and-goal from the 1-yard line to keep it a 12-7 game at the break.

A disastorous third quarter for Ole Miss saw the Rebels outscored 23-7 in the frame, bringing the score to 35-24 entering the final quarter. Ole Miss was unable to pull off the comeback and ultimately fell 38-27.

GAME EIGHT
TEXAS A&M 24, OLE MISS 17

Oct. 19, 2019
Attendance: 50,257 • Vaught-Hemingway Stadium • Oxford, Miss.

OXFORD, Miss. — Ole Miss eclipsed 200 rushing yards for the fourth consecutive game, but timing was of the essence as key momentum shifts played a critical role in a 24-17 loss to Texas A&M on a foggy Saturday night at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium.

The Rebels (3-5, 2-3 SEC) ran for 250 yards (the most given up by Texas A&M this season) and the Ole Miss defense kept the game close, but a timely Aggie defense forced a game-defining 62-yard fumble recovery for a touchdown by Buddy Johnson in the third quarter that ended up being the difference.

Neither offense could muster much on third down, going a combined 7-of-29, but Texas A&M (4-3, 2-2 SEC) used a near nine-minute advantage in time of possession (34:07-25:53) and some favorable second-half field position to hold the tug-of-war in its favor.

Both Ole Miss quarterbacks saw playing time, with Matt Corral finishing 10-of-17 for 124 yards while John Rhys Plumlee tacked on 70 yards of total offense. Freshmen running backs Jerrion Ealy (six carries, 80 yards, 1 TD) and Snoop Conner (five carries, 52 yards, 1 TD) added scores for the Rebel offense, while Scottie Phillips chipped in 67 yards on the ground. All three Rebel backs had runs of at least 36 yards long.

Lakia Henry was the top Rebel tackler yet again with nine stops, while Sam Williams recorded five tackles, including 1.5 sacks. The Rebels finished with two interceptions and have now recorded a turnover in seven games this year.

It was a one-score game the whole way before Texas A&M would eventually cushion its lead to 24-14 with 2:34 left after a 22-yard touchdown run by Isaiah Spiller. But Ole Miss kept it interesting with two fourth down conversions on the next drive that led to a 35-yard Luke Logan field goal with 26 seconds to play to cut the Aggie lead to 24-17. Logan received a favorable bounce on the ensuing onside kick, but the ball was batted out of bounds, thus sealing the Texas A&M victory.

GAME NINE AUBURN 20, OLE MISS 14

Nov. 2, 2019

Attendance: 87,457 • Jordan Hare Stadium • Auburn, Ala.

AUBURN, Ala. — Ole Miss football's comeback attempt came up 35 yards short as the Rebels dropped a close Southeastern Conference battle, 20-14, at No. 11 Auburn.

Trailing 20-7 midway through the third quarter, the Rebels battled back, making it a one-score game on a 1-yard rushing touchdown by Snoop Conner with 5:45 left in the game. The Rebel defense came up with a big stop, forcing a missed field goal to get the ball back with 1:14 to play.

John Rhys Plumlee led the game's final drive with a 17-yard completion to Braylon Sanders followed by a 20-yard rush to enter Auburn territory. The Rebels made it as far as the Tiger 35-yard line, but facing 4th-and-3 with less than 20 seconds on the clock, Plumlee scrambled and was intercepted by Christian Tutt as time ran out.

After a scoreless first quarter, Auburn scored the first 10 points of the game with a field goal and one-yard TD run by D.J. Williams.

The Rebel defense came up with a key stop late in the first half, and Ole Miss made the most of it. Elijah Moore broke free for a 55-yard punt return down to the Auburn 23-yard line. Three plays later, Plumlee raced around the edge for a 4-yard touchdown to make it 10-7 at halftime.

Auburn started the second half with outstanding field position thanks to a 49-yard kickoff return by Noah Igbinooghene. The Tiger offense quickly capitalized on the return, relying heavily on the ground game en route to a 1-yard rushing score by Nix to make it a 17-7 game.

The following Auburn drive resulted in three points for the Tigers as Carlson connected on a 38-yard field goal to make it 20-7.

Pinned back on its own 9-yard line, the Rebel offense responded. The Rebels converted two fourth downs on the drive, one on an 8-yard scramble by Plumlee, and the other on a gutsy 4-yard rush by Jerrion Ealy, which set up a 1-yard rushing score by Conner.

Auburn was able to melt 4:30 off the clock on its final drive before the Landshark defense held, forcing another missed field goal attempt.

Plumlee turned around and found Sanders again on similar play for 17 yards down the sideline. The freshman quarterback followed that with a 20-yard rush to push the Rebels into Tiger territory. Back-to-back completions to Tylan Knight, followed by a missed connection with Moore, set up a 4th-and-2 with time winding down. Plumlee dropped back and scrambled in the face of heavy pressure, but the Tiger pass rush caught up to him, forcing a desperation heave, which was intercepted by Tutt to end the comeback try.

GAME TEN OLE MISS 41, NEW MEXICO STATE 3

Nov. 9, 2019

Attendance: 45,973 • Vaught-Hemingway Stadium • Oxford, Miss.

OXFORD, Miss. — A record-breaking rushing performance led by freshman quarterback John Rhys Plumlee powered the Ole Miss football team past New Mexico State, 41-3, in the Rebels' Military Appreciation Game inside Vaught-Hemingway Stadium on Saturday.

Ole Miss (4-6, 2-4 SEC) rushed for 447 yards on the ground, the most since 1962, while Plumlee ran for two scores. They were the sixth and seventh rushing scores of the season for Plumlee, breaking Joe Gunn's 1998 freshman rushing touchdown record.

The Rebels scored five times and ran for the fifth-most rushing yards in school history at 447 yards. Snoop Conner (109 yards, 2 TDs) and Jerrion Ealy (71 yards, 1 TD) also had huge days on the ground.

The Landshark Defense made its presence known throughout the game, holding New Mexico State (0-9) to only 193 total yards and three points, both the fewest for the Rebels since the 2015 season against Texas A&M.

Plumlee entered the afternoon 13 yards shy of the Rebel freshman rushing record, and he got that out of the way quickly, darting for 14 yards on the first play of the day to pass Mico McSwain's previous mark of 612 yards set in 2005.

The Rebels continued to roll offensively on the following drive as a 21-yard connection between Plumlee and Octavious Cooley set up a brilliant 30-yard touchdown run by Conner. The freshman running back saw his first hole close up on the run but bounced it to the outside, following a block by Plumlee to the edge to make it a 10-0 Rebel lead.

When Ole Miss got the ball back, Plumlee exploded for a 75-yard run down to the five and Ealy did the rest, diving across the goal line for a touchdown to make it a 17-0 lead.

New Mexico State got on the board with a field goal, but the Rebels then used the ground game to chip their way down the field and drain the clock, culminating in a 2-yard rushing score by Plumlee with just 0:40 left on the clock, making the score 24-3 at the half.

The second half was more of the same as Ole Miss outscored New Mexico State 7-0 in the third quarter and 10-0 in the fourth to win the game 41-3.
