CLEMSON HEADS TO NEW ORLEANS IN SEARCH OF SECOND STRAIGHT NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

The Clemson Tigers will attempt to earn their second straight title and their third championship in four years on Monday, Jan. 13, when they face the LSU Tigers in the College Football Playoff National Championship. Kickoff at Mercedes-Benz Superdome is set for 8 p.m. ET.

Another Clemson championship would be Clemson's fourth football title in school history, joining the 1981, 2016 and 2018 squads.

Clemson enters the contest coming off of a thrilling semifinal performance in which the Tigers overcame a 16-0 first-half deficit to earn a 29-23 victory against No. 2 Ohio State in the Fiesta Bowl. The victory was Clemson's fifth-largest comeback in school history, the second-largest under Head Coach Dabo Swinney and its largest in postseason play.

Ohio State outgained Clemson by 99 yards, snapping a streak of 28 consecutive games in which Clemson had outgained its opponent. The 28-game streak was Clemson's longest on record, far surpassing a 16-game streak across the 1959-60 seasons. The victory was Clemson's first in a game in which it was outgained since 2017 in a 38-31 victory against NC State in which Clemson was outgained by 76 yards.

Quarterback Trevor Lawrence led the way, accounting for 259 passing yards and two passing touchdowns in addition to posting team and career highs in rushing attempts (16) and rushing yards (107). The victory improved Lawrence to 25-0 in his career as a starter. A victory in the College Football Playoff National Championship would be his 26th consecutive win to open his career, which would match Florida State's Jameis Winston (26 in 2013-14) for the most consecutive victories to start a career by a starting quarterback in ACC history.

While the quarterback led Clemson in rushing, it was running back Travis Etienne that led the Tigers in receiving yards, recording three catches for 98 yards and two receiving touchdowns, including the 34-yard gamewinner with 1:49 remaining in the game.

The upcoming game in Louisiana against LSU could bear witness to one of the state's native sons becoming the most prolific running back in Clemson history. Etienne, a native of Jennings, La., enters the contest with 3,960 career rushing yards, seven shy of breaking the school record of 3,966 set by Raymond Priester from 1994-97. Etienne is only 40 rushing yards away from becoming the ninth 4.000-yard rusher in ACC history.

WHAT TO WATCH FOR THIS WEEK

- Clemson attempting to win its fourth football national championship in school history, joining the 1981, 2016 and 2018 squads.
- Clemson attempting to become the first repeat national champions in the College Football Playoff era.

- Clemson attempting to become the first team to win back-to-back national championships since Alabama in 2011-12.
- Clemson attempting to become the first team to win back-to-back national championships with a perfect record since 1994-95, when Nebraska won championships with records of 13-0 and 12-0 respectively. The only other schools to do so in the AP Poll era were Oklahoma (1955-56), Army (1944-45) and Minnesota (1940-41).
- Clemson attempting to become the third team in the NCAA's list of consensus national champions since 1950 to win three national championships in four years, joining 2009-12 Alabama and 1994-97 Nebraska. Clemson would be the fourth team in the AP Poll era (since 1936) to do so, a list that also includes 1946-49 Notre Dame.
- Clemson attempting to become the first school to win four national titles as members of the ACC. Pitt, Miami and Georgia Tech have won at least four national championships, but all of Pitt and Miami's titles predated the schools joining the ACC, as did three of Georgia Tech's four titles.
- Clemson attempting to become the first team to win three national championships in the College Football Playoff era.
- Clemson attempting to become only the third team since 2000 to win a national championship after entering the season ranked No. 1 in the AP Poll. Clemson would be the 12th team to accomplish the feat since 1950 (1951 Tennessee, 1952 Michigan State, 1956 Oklahoma, 1974 Oklahoma, 1975 Oklahoma, 1978 Alabama, 1985 Oklahoma, 1993 Florida State, 1999 Florida State, 2004 USC and 2017 Alabama).
- Clemson attempting to earn a victory against the AP No. 1 team for the third time in school history to tie for the 14th-most wins against a top-ranked team in the poll's history. Both of Clemson's previous wins against the AP No. 1 came in College Football Playoff National Championships against Alabama (2016 and 2018).
- Clemson attempting to defeat the top two teams in the AP Poll in consecutive games for the second time in four seasons, joining the 2016 season in which Clemson defeated No. 2-ranked (but third-seeded) Ohio State in the Fiesta Bowl before beating an undefeated No. 1 seed out of the SEC West in the National Championship Game.
- Two undefeated teams playing each other for the fourth time in College Football Playoff history. Clemson has been involved in and won all three previous matchups, including games last year in which 13-0 Clemson faced 12-0 Notre Dame in the Cotton Bowl and 14-0 Clemson faced 14-0 Alabama in the College Football Playoff National Championship, as well as 13-0 Clemson's win against 13-0 Ohio State in this year's Fiesta Bowl.
- Clemson playing the latest game in a season in school history. Previously, the latest Clemson had played in school history was on Jan. 11, 2016, in the College Football Playoff to conclude the 2015 season. Clemson also played the earliest game in school history this year,

- opening the season against Georgia Tech on Aug. 29, and the 137 elapsed days from the season opener to the season finale will represent the longest season in Clemson history.
- Head Coach Dabo Swinney attempting to join College Football Hall of Famers Amos Alonzo Stagg (Chicago, 1896 and 1899) and George Woodruff (Penn, 1892 and 1897) as the only coaches in major college football history with multiple 15-win seasons to their credit. Swinney would become the first coach in major college football history to win 15 games in back-to-back seasons.
- Clemson attempting to finish its seventh undefeated season (1900, 1906, 1948, 1950, 1981, 2018) and fifth perfect season (1900, 1948, 1981, 2018) in school history.
- Clemson entering the game as the No. 3 seed behind top-seeded LSU. Lower-ranked seeds are 5-0 all-time in the College Football Playoff National Championship, including victories by No. 4 Ohio State (vs. No. 2 Oregon) in 2014, No. 2 Alabama (vs. No. 1 Clemson) in 2015, No. 2 Clemson (vs. No. 1 Alabama) in 2016, No. 4 Alabama (vs. No. 3 Georgia) in 2017 and No. 2 Clemson (vs. No. 1 Alabama) in 2018.
- The No. 1 or No. 3 seed earning the College Football Playoff National Championship for the first time in the Playoff era. All five previous championships in the CFP era have been captured by the No. 2 (three times) or No. 4 (twice) seeds.
- Clemson attempting to improve to 7-2 all-time in College Football Playoff games. Clemson's seven all-time wins in the playoff would pass Alabama (six) for the most in CFP history. No school other than Clemson and Alabama has more than two.
- Clemson attempting to win its fourth consecutive College Football Playoff game to break the longest CFP winning streak all-time (three by Alabama, twice, 2015-16 and 2017-18, ended each time by Clemson).
- Clemson attempting to improve to 26-20 all-time in bowl contests.
- Clemson attempting to win a fourth consecutive bowl game to produce the third bowl winning streak of four games or more in program history (five from 1986-90, four from 2012-15).
- Head Coach Dabo Swinney attempting to push his bowl record to 11-5 to tie Bobby Bowden (11-7) for the most bowl victories as an ACC coach. Bowden was 21-10-1 all-time in bowls (with one vacated win), with Florida State being part of the ACC's membership for the final 18 of those contests.
 - Clemson attempting to improve to 3-1 all-time in College Football Playoff National Championships. This will be Clemson's first College Football Playoff National Championship Game against an opponent other than Alabama (2015, 2016 and 2018 seasons).

- Clemson attempting to earn its first win in the state of Louisiana since 1981. Clemson is 3-8 all-time in Louisiana (and 3-7 in New Orleans), with all three victories coming in road regular season games against Tulane (1938, 1945 and 1981). A win would be Clemson's first bowl win in Louisiana, as the Tigers are 0-3 in the state in postseason play all-time in two Sugar Bowl appearances and one Independence Bowl appearance.
- Clemson attempting to even its all-time record against LSU at 2-2.
- Clemson entering the game 10-1 against SEC competition since 2016, including a 6-1 record against SEC West squads in that span.
- Clemson seeking its sixth consecutive victory against an SEC opponent, dating to the start of the 2018 season. A sixth consecutive victory against an SEC team would represent Clemson's longest winning streak against SEC foes all-time.
- Clemson attempting to improve to 23-0 against undefeated opponents since the start of the 2015 season.

- Clemson attempting to win its 13th game all-time against a team that entered the game with 10 or more wins. One of the 12 previous victories came in Clemson's most recent meeting with LSU, a 25-24 win in the 2012 Chick-fil-A Bowl against the 10-2 Bayou Bengals.

- Clemson tying a school and FBS modern era record with 15 wins this season, matching the 15 by Clemson's 2018 squad.
- The 2019 Clemson seniors attempting to win their 56th game to pass the 2018 Clemson and Alabama seniors for sole possession of the most victories in a four-year span in FBS history.
- Clemson attempting to win its 30th consecutive game, dating to the start of the 2018 season, to take sole possession of the longest winning streak in ACC history by surpassing the 29 consecutive wins posted by the 2012-14 Florida State Seminoles.
- Clemson attempting to post a 30-game winning streak to match the 1968-70 Texas Longhorns for the 11th-longest streak in FBS history. It would represent the first NCAA-recognized 30-game streak by an FBS team since Miami's 34-game streak across the 2000-03 seasons. (Note: USC won 34 consecutive games from 2003-05, but the NCAA does not recognize the streak after 14 of the victories were vacated.)
- Clemson (29) attempting to add to the longest winning streak in school history in any sport. The next closest streaks in the history of Clemson Athletics were 26-game/match streaks posted by baseball (1977) and men's tennis (1968-70).
- Clemson attempting to improve its record in night games since 2015 to 33-3.
- Clemson entering the game as the only team in the country with 12 wins against Power Five opponents this season. Clemson's 2018 team was the only team since 2000 to earn 13 wins against Power Five teams (including Notre Dame), a feat Clemson's 2019 team can match with another win.
- Clemson entering the game with a 33.8-point scoring margin this season, 1.5 points shy of the school record established in John Heisman's first season at Clemson in 1900 (+35.3).
- Clemson attempting to earn its 23rd victory in its last 25 games against top-25 teams since the start of the 2015 season. Clemson is presently 10-2 against AP Top 10 opponents since 2015, including victories in seven of the last eight games against AP Top 10 teams.
- Clemson entering the game 10-1 against teams in the final College Football Playoff Top 25 rankings since 2017. During Clemson's run of five consecutive seasons with a College Football Playoff berth, Clemson is 21-2 against teams in the final CFP Top 25 rankings.

- Clemson entering the game having turned the ball over zero times in six out of its last seven games. A fourth consecutive turnover-free game would be a first for Clemson under Dabo Swinney. Clemson's six games with zero giveaways this season are a school record, surpassing the five turnover-free games in 1988, 1994, 2007 and 2018.
- Clemson entering the game with 14 turnovers lost on the season, the seventh-fewest in a season in school history and two fewer than the 2017 squad (16) for the fewest under Head Coach Dabo Swinney. Clemson's 1.00 giveaways-per-game average is the third-lowest in school held by Jameis Winston across his first two seasons at Florida State (65).

- Lawrence (36) needing one passing touchdown to pass Tajh Boyd (36 in 2012) for sole possession for second on the school leaderboard for touchdown passes in a single season. Deshaun Watson holds the singleseason Clemson record with 41 in 2016.
- Lawrence entering the game responsible for 44 touchdowns this season (36 passing, eight rushing), tied for the sixth-most in a season in ACC history. Deshaun Watson holds the Clemson single-season record with 50 in 2016, the second-most in a season
- Lawrence (3,431) needing 69 passing yards to post only the seventh 3,500-yard passing season in school
- Lawrence (3,945) needing only 55 combined rushing and passing yards to post the sixth 4,000-yard season of total offense in school history. He would be only the third Clemson quarterback to do so, joining Deshaun Watson (twice, 2015-16) and Tajh Boyd (three times, 2011-13).

- Lawrence (seven) attempting to join Tajh Boyd (18), Deshaun Watson (13) and Charlie Whitehurst (eight) as the only players in school history to record at least eight career 300-yard passing games. His next 300-yard game would tie him with Whitehurst for third in school history.
- Lawrence entering the contest having thrown 202 consecutive pass attempts without an interception, already Clemson's single-season and multi-season record. It is presently tied for the ninth-longest streak in ACC history.
- Safety Tanner Muse (four) needing two more interceptions to tie for fifth in school history in interceptions in a season.
- Kicker B.T. Potter attempting to convert a third field goal of 50 yards or more to tie Richard Jackson's school record for 50-yard field goals in a single season from 2009. Potter recorded a field goal of 51 yards against both Georgia Tech and Louisville.
- Potter (77) needing three PATs to join Roberto Aguayo (94 in 2013) as the only players in ACC history to record 80 PATs in a single season.
- Potter (84-for-84 for his career) entering the game four extra points shy of tying or five extra points shy of breaking Clemson's all-time record for consecutive extra points made (88 by Mark Buchholz from 2007-08).
- Linebacker Isaiah Simmons and safety Nolan Turner each attempting to record an interception in a third straight game. The last time a Clemson player recorded a pick in three straight contests was 2009, when both DeAndre McDaniel (first three games of the season) and Rashard Hall (four straight contests across games 5-8) accomplished the feat. Both McDaniel (Defensive Analyst) and Hall (Director of Career & Professional Development) are now on the Clemson staff.
- Safeties K'Von Wallace and Tanner Muse (58 each) each appearing in their 59th career game to tie defensive tackle Christian Wilkins and tight end Cannon Smith (59 each from 2015-18) for most career games in school history.

SEEKING 15 WINS

With Clemson and LSU each reaching the 14-win mark this season, there have now been 15 seasons of 14 or more wins since the NCAA split Division I in 1978. Clemson accounts for four of those 14-win seasons, matching Alabama for the most 14-win seasons in that span.

Clemson remains the only program in that time frame to win 15 games in a season, a feat it can match (and preclude LSU from reaching) with one more victory.

Clemson	2016	14-1
Alabama	2018	14-1
Clemson	2019	14-0
LSU	2019	14-0

Note: Since NCAA split Division I in 1978

The 2019 Tigers are just the fifth ACC team in history to record at least 14 wins in a season. Clemson accounts for four of those five 14-win seasons.

Clemson has posted the ACC's four most-recent 14-win seasons, recording a 14-1 record during both the 2015 and 2016 campaigns and a 15-0 record in 2018.

Clemson's 1981 National Championship team was the first ACC team to win 12 games in a season. Florida State accomplished the feat five times between 1993 and 2014, including a streak of three seasons with at least 12 wins from 2012-14. They won a then-record 14 games (14-0) in 2013, a mark tied by Clemson in 2015 and 2016 before being broken in 2018.

SENIOR CLASS SUPERLATIVES

Entering its final game, Clemson's 2019 senior class...

- ... holds a 55-3 overall record in the last four years, tying the all-time FBS record for victories by a senior class (55, held jointly by the 2018 Clemson and Alabama seniors). The 2019 Clemson seniors would stand alone if they were to earn their 56th victory in this upcoming game.
- ... is the only active senior class in the country to make four consecutive College Football Playoff berths and is Clemson's second straight senior class to earn four consecutive CFP bids.
- ... has won 47 games against Power Five conference opponents since 2016, the most in the country.
- \dots will attempt to finish 6-1 in College Football Playoff games.
- ... was the second senior class in conference history to play in four consecutive ACC Championship games and became the second class in conference history to win four ACC titles outright, joining Clemson's 2018 class.
- \dots has been ranked in the AP Top 10 in every poll of their careers, one of only two senior classes in the country able to make that claim. That includes a streak of 38 consecutive appearances in the Top 5 since 2017, the longest streak in school history.
- \dots finished 27-1 in Death Valley, tying the 2017 and 2018 Clemson seniors for the most career wins at Memorial Stadium.
- ... produced a 30-2 record in ACC regular season play and a 34-2 overall record against ACC opponents. The 30th ACC regular season win tied the school record and concluded the seniors' regular season ACC careers one win shy of the all-time conference record of 31.

This senior class earned a win against every conference opponent, becoming the first class since the ACC's move to 14 teams to accomplish the feat.

- ... finished 23-1 in ACC Atlantic Division play. The class posted 4-0 marks against five of its six Atlantic division foes (Boston College, Florida State, Louisville, NC State and Wake Forest).
- ... was the 14th Clemson senior class to post a perfect 4-0 record against South Carolina.

CLEMSON VS. SEC OPPONENTS

Clemson has enjoyed a recent run of success against opponents from the Southeastern Conference. While the Tigers are 18-9 against SEC foes under the guidance of Head Coach Dabo Swinney, Clemson's success against the SEC has been particularly pronounced as of late, as the Tigers are 12-3 against the conference in the College Football Playoff era, including a 10-1 mark in regular season play during that time frame.

Clemson has won 10 of its last 11 against the SEC since the start of the 2016 season, including a 6-1 mark against the SEC West in that span.

Clemson's 10 wins against SEC opponents since 2016 exceed the SEC win totals of three of the conference's active members. Clemson's 10 wins against the SEC outpace the totals of Ole Miss (eight), Vanderbilt (eight) and Arkansas (four) in that time frame.

Swinney's 18 wins against SEC opponents date back to his final game as an interim coach, when he defeated South Carolina and Steve Spurrier, 31-14, at Clemson. That victory led to his hiring as Clemson's full-time coach the Monday after that victory.

SWINNEY IN NFL STADIUMS

The College Football Playoff National Championship at Mercedes-Benz Superdome, home of the New Orleans Saints, will be Clemson's 14th game in an NFL stadium in the last five years. Clemson has won 14 of its last 16 games in NFL stadiums, including three last season (an ACC Championship victory at the home of the Panthers, a Cotton Bowl victory at the home of the Cowboys, and a National Championship Game at the home of the 49ers) as well as two this season (an ACC Championship victory at the home of the Panthers and a Fiesta Bowl victory at the home of the Cardinals). Clemson has a 17-6 record in NFL stadiums under Head Coach Dabo Swinney.

Clemson has posted a 10-5 bowl record under Head Coach Dabo Swinney, including a 9-2 mark in its last 11 bowl games dating back to the 2012 season.

Clemson's nine bowl wins since 2012 have not come against run-of-the-mill opponents. Until defeating Ohio State's Ryan Day in the Fiesta Bowl, Swinney's eight most recent bowl victories came against head coaches with national championships to their credit at various levels of NCAA play, including two wins each against Nick Sabari, Urban Meyer and Bob Stoops, as well as single victories against Les Miles and Brian Kelly. Four of the five coaches defeated in bowls from 2012-18 won FBS titles, while Kelly was a two-time champion at the Division II level.

ACC LEADS NATION WITH 10 BOWL TEAMS

No conference produced more bowl teams in 2019 than the ACC, which placed 10 of its 14 members in bowl games this postseason.

With the selection of 10 teams this year, the ACC has now had 42 bowl teams in the last four years, including double-digit selections all four years (11 in 2016, 10 in 2017, 11 in 2018 and 10 in 2019).

The ACC and SEC are the only conferences in the country to place a team in the College Football Playoff or the BCS Championship in each of the last seven years. The ACC leads all conferences in national championships in that span with three.

CLEMSON NATIONAL TITLE HISTORY

Clemson has won six national championships in its athletic history. In addition to three football titles, Clemson has won two in men's soccer (1984 and 1987) and one in men's golf (2003).

The first football title came at the Orange Bowl against Nebraska at the end of the 1981 season, a 22-15 victory under Head Coach Danny Ford. That was the first title in any sport in school history. Clemson then won a second title at the end of the 2016 season against Alabama in a game played in Tampa. Clemson's third football title came last season when the Tigers culminated a perfect 15-0 campaign with a 28-point win against Alabama in Santa Clara, Calif.

The 1984 soccer title was a 2-1 win over Indiana in the Kingdome in Seattle. Three years later, Clemson won the title with a 3-1 win over San Diego State. That year, the soccer Final Four was awarded to one of the participants and Clemson won the bid, so Clemson had the rare opportunity to win an NCAA title in its home facility.

Clemson's won its first spring sport title in 2003 when Clemson won the NCAA Men's Golf championship at Oklahoma's State's home course in Stillwater, Okla., beating the home-standing Cowboys by two shots.

SERIES HISTORY VS. LSU

The College Football Playoff National Championship will represent the fourth all-time meeting between Clemson and LSU, with all four appearances coming in postseason play. A Clemson victory would even the all-time series at 2-2.

This year's meeting between top-ranked LSU and third-seeded Clemson will mark the first time the programs have met with both teams in the AP Top 10. It will represent Clemson's second time facing a top-ranked LSU squad, which entered the teams' first meeting in 1958 as the AP No. 1 team.

1959 SUGAR BOWL VS. LSU

Clemson, champion of the ACC at 8-2, was invited to play the nation's No. 1 team, LSU, in the 25th Sugar Bowl to conclude the 1958 season.

LSU drove deep into Clemson territory three times in the first half, but two fumbles and a thwarted fake field goal killed the drives. Clemson could do no better, though, as none of its first six drives went past midfield.

Clemson moved to the LSU 27-yard line on its first drive of the second half, but a fumble gave the ball back to the other set of Tigers. On Clemson's next possession, LSU got the break it had been looking for. On fourth down, the ball slipped out of snapper Paul Snyder's hands and hit up-man Doug Cline in the leg, and Duane Leopard recovered for LSU at the Clemson 11.

LSU picked up two yards on its first three tries, but on fourth down, halfback Billy Cannon hit tight end Mickey Mangham in the corner of the end zone for the only score of the game. Cannon kicked the extra point and LSU led 7-0.

Clemson had one last chance late in the fourth quarter. The Tigers started at their 17 and 17 plays later were on the LSU 28, but Harvey White's fourth-down pass to George Usry was incomplete. LSU took over on downs and ran out the clock.

In his usual relaxed way, Coach Frank Howard of Clemson said he was pleased with his team.

"Hell! I think we'd have beat them if that boy had held onto that little screen pass," Howard said. "I was going for those two points and beat them. I didn't think we would hold them to one touchdown, but I didn't think they would shut us out, either.

"Louisiana State has a good team, they rate the No. 1 spot in the nation. Cannon is quite a boy. Deserves his All-American rating."

"It was a wonderful victory. They're just as fine when you win 'em 7-0 as 30-0. I'm very happy that we won," said LSU Coach Paul Dietzel, who won the national championship at age 34.

"Clemson proved tougher than most people figured. But we knew we would have to play at our top peak to beat them. They were a good team."

1996 PEACH BOWL VS. LSU

Raymond Priester set a Clemson bowl record for rushing yardage with 151 yards during the 1996 Peach Bowl. On the defensive side of the ball, defensive lineman Trevor Pryce had three tackles for loss and one sack in addition to a caused fumble. However, Clemson still fell to the LSU Tigers by a three-point margin, 10-7, at the Georgia Dome in Atlanta, Ga.

Nealon Greene opened the scoring for Clemson on a three-yard run. In addition to Priester's outstanding game, contributions to the running attack were also made by Emory Smith, who had nine carries for 40 yards. Smith, brother of NFL star Emmitt Smith, was playing in his second Peach Bowl, as he was vital in Clemson's victory against Kentucky in the 1993 Peach Bowl.

Clemson's sole touchdown drive lasted 1:29 and consisted of only three runs. The outstanding field position was achieved on a fumble recovery by Harold Means following a sack and caused fumble by Trevor Pryce.

Defensively, Clemson had five players contribute to a combined nine tackles for losses. These tackles for losses combined for a total loss of 53 yards.

LSU scored its only touchdown of the game during the second quarter when Kevin Faulk ran three yards for a touchdown to tie the game 7-7. LSU scored again during the quarter with a 22-yard field goal gave LSU the lead for good. Neither team scored in the second half, as both defenses dominated.

Clemson got the ball back with 2:29 remaining, but a 52-yard field goal attempt by Matt Padgett with 1:02 remaining in the game was blocked by Adam Roman and LSU hung on for its second bowl victory over Clemson.

2012 CHICK-FIL-A BOWL VS. LSU

Trailing 24-13 to LSU entering the fourth quarter, Clemson came off the mat to score three times in the final stanza against one of the nation's staunchest defenses. Chandler Catanzaro's 37-yard field goal as time expired lifted Clemson to a 25-24 win in the Chick-fil-A Bowl in the Georgia Dome.

After Clemson pulled within two points with 2:47 left on a 12-yard touchdown strike from Tajh Boyd to DeAndre Hopkins, it was unable to pull even when Boyd's pass on the two-point attempt fell incomplete.

But the Clemson defense quickly got the ball back to its offense by forcing a three-and-out with 1:39 remaining, and Boyd, who was named Chick-fil-A Bowl Offensive Most Outstanding Player, engineered a drive that covered 60 yards in 10 plays and culminated in Catanzaro's game-winner.

LSU's Jeremy Hill burst off tackle and cruised into the end zone for a 17-yard touchdown run and a 7-0 lead. Making matters worse, Sammy Watkins was lost for the night after suffering an injury during the contest.

With things potentially looking bleak, Clemson mustered a big-time response against the LSU defense, marching 75 yards in 11 plays and finding the end zone on an 11-yard run by Boyd to tie the score.

LSU jumped back on top early in the second quarter, as it capped a 65-yard drive with a six-yard touchdown pass from Zach Mettenberger to Jarvis Landry.

Later in the quarter, Clemson drove 70 yards and found the end zone on an 11-yard touchdown pass from Boyd to Hopkins to make the score 14-13 before Catanzaro's PAT was blocked.

Michael Ford returned the second-half kickoff 43 yards, and on the next play, Hill ran 57 yards to pay dirt and a 21-13 lead just 17 seconds after halftime.

Clemson's defense continued to do its part and got the ball right back to its offense, as Malliciah Goodman and Grady Jarrett combined for Clemson's sixth sack of the game on third down.

The offense took advantage of the opportunity, as Boyd engineered a 77-yard drive and hit Hopkins in the back of the end zone for a 12-yard touchdown pass to make the score 24-22 with 2:47 left in the game.

The two-point try failed, but Clemson's defense once again did its job by forcing a quick three-and-out. A touchback on the ensuing punt gave Clemson the ball at its own 20 with 1:39 left in the game.

At that point, Boyd worked his magic, hitting Hopkins for a 26-yard strike on fourth-and-16 to get the drive rolling. He completed his last five passes of the game to set up Catanzaro's game-winning kick.

INSIDE THE NUMBERS: 2012 CHICK-FIL-A BOWL

- With the victory, Clemson became the first ACC team to defeat LSU since 1955. Maryland, ranked No. 1 in the nation at the time, defeated LSU that year at College Park, 13-0. LSU had won 19 straight over ACC teams (in the league at the time of the game) entering the 2012 Chick-fil-A Bowl.
- LSU was 9-1 in the Georgia Dome entering the Clemson game, including 5-0 in the Chick-fil-A Bowl.
- LSU was 36-1 in non-conference games under Les Miles (since 2005) entering the game against Clemson. The only loss was a 19-17 loss to Penn State in the 2010 Capital One Bowl. Thirty of the 36 LSU wins were by double digits. They had won 29 straight against teams ranked 12th or worse in the AP Poll (or unranked).
- LSU was 39-2 when scoring 20 points or more since the 2009 season. The only losses were to Mississippi (25-23 in 2009) and Arkansas (31-23 in 2010).
- LSU was 31-3 when a running back reached at least 100 yards under Les Miles. Jeremy Hill gained 124 yards in 12 carries against Clemson, but the Tigers still won the game.
- LSU had a 44-5 record under Les Miles when winning the turnover margin. LSU won the turnover margin against Clemson, 2-1, but the Tigers won the game 25-24.
- LSU had won 29 straight games when leading heading into the fourth quarter and was 101-8 when leading entering the fourth period in the previous 11 years. But, Clemson outscored LSU 12-0 in the final period to win 25-24.
- LSU was 50-3 under Les Miles, including 36-0 the previous six years, when holding the opposition under 100 yards rushing. Clemson had 99 against LSU, yet won the game.
- LSU had a 29-10 record in games decided by seven points or less under Les Miles, including 12-3 over the previous three years. But, Clemson won the game by a point. It was LSU's first loss by one point since a 31-30 loss at Arkansas in 2008.
- LSU had the second-longest streak of consecutive weeks in the AP Poll entering the Chick-fil-A Bowl with 63 in a row.
- Clemson trailed by a 24-13 score entering the fourth quarter, but came back to win, 25-24. It was the first time Clemson won a bowl game that the Tigers trailed entering the fourth period since the 1959 Bluebonnet Bowl. Clemson trailed TCU, 7-3, entering the fourth period of that game, but scored 20 straight points in the fourth to win 23-7. Like LSU, that TCU squad was ranked seventh in the nation entering the game.
- Clemson's victory over (USA Today) seventh-ranked LSU was the highest-ranked SEC team in either poll $\,$ that an ACC team defeated in any game since the 2003 season when Clemson defeated sixth-ranked Tennessee in the Chick-fil-A Bowl, 27-14.

- Clemson's defense held LSU to eight three-andouts in 15 possessions, the most against LSU that year and the highest percentage of three-and-outs (53.3 percent) by an opposing defense. Clemson's defense also had six sacks, the most sacks against LSU's offense in 2012.
- Clemson overcame an 11-point deficit entering the fourth quarter to win by one point, 25-24. It was the largest fourth quarter deficit overcome to gain victory since the 2006 Wake Forest game when Clemson trailed by 14 points (17-3) entering the final period, then won the game, 27-17.
- It was the first game in Clemson history in which Clemson scored twice within the last three minutes to win a game by seven points or less. The closest occurrence was the 1980 Virginia game when Clemson scored a touchdown and a field goal with less than four minutes left to win, 27-24.
 - Clemson never led until the final whistle.

CLEMSON-LSU CONNECTIONS

Beyond both schools claiming the Tigers as their mascots and claiming Death Valley as their homes, the two programs have a number of historical connections:

- LSU Offensive Coordinator Steve Ensminger was Clemson's offensive coordinator in 1997-98. Clemson finished 7-5 in 1997, losing in the Peach Bowl to Auburn, and 3-8 in 1998. He served under Clemson Head Coach Tommy West.
- Nelson Stokley, Clemson's quarterbacks coach for the 1981 National Championship team, was a 1968 LSU graduate and former LSU quarterback.
- Thielen Smith played for LSU from 1974-77 and was Clemson's defensive line coach from 1999-2004 under Tommy Bowden.
- Curley Hallman, the defensive backs coach on Clemson's 1981 National Championship team, went on to be the head coach at LSU from 1991-94.
- The first time Clemson faced the nation's No. 1 team was in the 1959 Sugar Bowl against LSU. LSU won that game, 7-0.
- Clemson Director of Athletics Dan Radakovich served as a senior associate athletic director at LSU from 2001-06.

CLEMSON'S DEATH VALLEY

With both schools referring to their home venues as "Death Valley," included below are facts on Clemson's Memorial Stadium:

- Memorial Stadium opened Sept. 19, 1942 with a 32-13 victory over Presbyterian.
- Clemson became known as Death Valley in the mid-1940s because of how Presbyterian Coach Lonnie McMillian referred to it during preseason interviews leading up to the Clemson vs. Presbyterian season openers. He nicknamed it Death Valley because Clemson annually whipped Presbyterian in the season opener, usually during hot conditions in a stadium located in a valley. Clemson Head Coach Frank Howard started calling it that regularly as well in the 1940s, and the name stuck.
- Clemson has won its last 22 home games, a school-record streak, and has an overall mark of 316-102-7 in the facility, a .752 winning percentage for its 78 seasons of play.
- Clemson has ranked in the top 20 in the nation in average home attendance for 39 consecutive years. Clemson averaged 80,868 for its seven home games this year.

- Visiting defending National Champions are 0-3 alltime in the venue
- Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney is 73-7 at home in his 12 seasons as Clemson head coach, including a 41-1 record the last six years. The only loss in that span was a 43-42 loss to Pittsburgh on the last play of the game in 2016. Swinney has had a perfect 7-0 record at home in five of the last six years.

CLEMSON IN LOUISIANA

Clemson has a 3-8 record in the state of Louisiana and a 3-7 record in the city of New Orleans dating to a 1937 regular season loss to Tulane. The Tigers went to New Orleans to face Tulane four consecutive years from 1937-40. The 1938 and 1939 games were battles between teams that finished the year in the AP Top 20. In 1939, Tulane finished fifth and Clemson was 12th, as Tulane handed Clemson its only loss, a 7-6 final score in the second game of the year.

Clemson faced Tulane in New Orleans eight times. Clemson won its last meeting with Tulane in 1981 in the Superdome, a 13-5 victory, en route to the national championship.

Clemson is 0-3 in the postseason in the state of Louisiana, including 0-2 in New Orleans. Clemson lost in the 1958 season finale (Sugar Bowl vs. LSU), 1985 season finale (Independence Bowl vs. Minnesota) and 2017 season finale (Sugar Bowl vs. Alabama).

ANOTHER NEW ORLEANS NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP BERTH FOR SWINNEY

While the College Football Playoff National Championship will be Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney's first time coaching the Tigers in a national championship game in the Mercedes-Benz Superdome in New Orleans, it will not be the first time he has competed for a national title in that city or in that yenue.

On Jan. 1, 1993, Swinney and his second-ranked Alabama Crimson Tide faced the No. 1 Miami Hurricanes in the Sugar Bowl to determine the national championship for the 1992 season. Swinney was a senior letterman at receiver on that squad, which dominated Miami, 34-13, at the Superdome in New Orleans, upsetting the nation's top-ranked team that featured a Heisman Trophy winner at quarterback (Gino Torretta).

-- NOTES FROM LAST GAME --

FIESTA BOWL POSTGAME NOTES

- Clemson overcame a 16-0 first-half deficit to earn the victory. The 16-point comeback was Clemson's fifth-largest comeback in school history, trailing a 28-point comeback against Virginia (1992), an 18-point comeback against Maryland (2011), and 17-point comebacks against Virginia (1966) and North Carolina (2000).
- The comeback was Clemson's second-largest under Dabo Swinney, trailing the 18-point comeback against Maryland in 2011.
 - Clemson trailed 16-14 at halftime and earned its first victory when trailing after two quarters since Sept. 29, 2018 vs. Syracuse. That game also represented the most recent time Clemson had won a game after trailing in the fourth quarter.

- The victory was Clemson's second one-possession victory of the season. Clemson is now 26-4 in one-score games since 2011. Clemson (.862) and Ohio State (.735) entered the game as the top two teams in the country in winning percentage in one-score games since 2011. (Note: Winning percentages listed indicate percentages prior to Saturday.)
- Clemson won the turnover margin, 2-0, and has now won the turnover margin in nine consecutive games for the first time under Head Coach Dabo Swinney.
- Both Clemson takeaways came on interceptions of Ohio State quarterback Justin Fields, who entered the game with only one interception on the season.
- Clemson won the turnover margin for an 11th time this season, adding to the most such games in a season under Head Coach Dabo Swinney.
- Clemson did not turn the ball over and has now turned the ball over zero times in six out of its last seven games, with two three-game giveaway-free streaks on each side of a one-giveaway game against Wake Forest.
- The game marked Clemson's second Fiesta Bowl appearance in program history, joining a 31-0 shutout of Ohio State in a College Football Playoff National Semifinal in 2016.
- Clemson's participation in the game pushed the school's program-record streak of consecutive seasons with bowl appearances to 15 years. The streak is the eighth-longest in the country and the second-longest in the ACC. Though Clemson did not make a bowl appearance in 2004, Clemson has been bowl eligible in 21 consecutive seasons, dating back to a 1999 appearance in the Peach Bowl.
- Both teams entered the game at 13-0. Clemson has been played in and won all three showdowns of undefeated teams in College Football Playoff history, including games last year in which 13-0 Clemson faced 12-0 Notre Dame in the Cotton Bowl and 14-0 Clemson faced 14-0 Alabama in the College Football Playoff National Championship.
- The game was Clemson's fourth all-time meeting with Ohio State. Every meeting between the two programs has come with both squads ranked the top 20 in the AP Poll, with the 2019 contest representing the second straight time that the teams met with both squads in the top three.
- The game featured a matchup of the teams with the nation's two longest active winning streaks entering the game (Clemson, 28; Ohio State, 19).
- The contest was Head Coach Dabo Swinney's 15th bowl game as a head coach. This game against Ohio State Head Coach Ryan Day snapped a streak of nine consecutive bowl games since 2012 in which Swinney has faced head coaches with at least one national championship at various NCAA levels to their credit (Les Miles, Bob Stoops, Urban Meyer, Nick Saban and Brian Kelly).
- With its first first down of the game, Clemson (370) secured the fourth season with 350 first downs in school history (2015, 2016 and 2018).
- Clemson (4,091) has now produced the sixth 4,000-yard passing season in school history.
- With its 10th completion of the game, Clemson (308) posted the ninth 300-completion season in school history.
- By virtue of another multi-touchdown game on the ground, Clemson has now rushed for multiple touchdowns in 15 consecutive games for the first time since the 2016-17 seasons.

- Clemson averaged 6.7 yards per play and exceeded 6.0 yards per play for a ninth game in a row, the program's longest since a nine-game streak in 2015.
- Quarterback Trevor Lawrence completed 18-of-33 passes for 259 yards and two passing touchdowns and recorded career highs in rushing attempts (16) and rushing yards (107) with one rushing touchdown. He earned Offensive MVP honors for his performance.
- Lawrence recorded career highs in rushing attempts (16) and rushing yards (107) while adding one rushing touchdown
- Lawrence's 107 rushing yards marked the first 100-yard rushing performance by a Clemson quarterback since Kelly Bryant's 106-yard rushing game against Boston College in 2016.
- Lawrence became the second Clemson quarterback to post a career high in rushing in a bowl game against Ohio State. Tajh Boyd rushed for a career-high 127 yards against Ohio State in the 2014 Orange Bowl.
- Lawrence recorded a career-long 67-yard touchdown run in the second quarter, shattering his career-long rush of 32 yards.
- Lawrence's 67-yard touchdown run was the longest touchdown rush by a Clemson quarterback since Woodrow Dantzler's 75-yard touchdown run at Virginia in 2000.
- The rushing touchdown was Lawrence's eighth of the season, adding to his single-season career high.
- During the game, Lawrence (3,431) broke his single-season career high (3,280) in passing yards set last season.
- Lawrence posted the first fourth-quarter comeback of his career, hitting running back Travis Etienne for game-winning 34-yard touchdown pass to culminate a four-play, 94-yard drive with 1:49 remaining. The 94-yard drive was the exact same length of the drive Clemson engineered in its most recent fourth-quarter comeback win against Syracuse in 2018 when Chase Brice led the game-winning drive in Lawrence's absence.
- Lawrence's game-winning passing touchdown was the 66th of his career, breaking Jameis Winston's ACC record (65) for career passing touchdowns through a sophomore season.
- Lawrence (36) is now tied with Tajh Boyd (36 in 2012) for second on the school leaderboard for touchdown passes in a single season. Deshaun Watson holds the single-season Clemson record with 41 in 2016.
- Lawrence has now thrown a touchdown pass in 24 consecutive games. His current 24-game streak is the longest active streak in the country. (Note: UCF's McKenzie Milton had a 24-game streak prior to suffering an injury in November 2018 that precluded him from playing in 2019).
- During the contest, Lawrence broke both single-season and multi-season school records for consecutive pass attempts without an interception, a mark that now stands at 202. He broke his own single-season school record of 169 set last season and broke Tajh Boyd's multi-season record of 187 from 2012-13.
- With three combined passing and rushing touchdowns, Lawrence (75) joined Tajh Boyd (133) and Deshaun Watson (116) as only the third player in Clemson history to be responsible for 75 career touchdowns.
- Lawrence's ninth completion of the game was his 500th career completion at Clemson. He became the fifth player in school history to complete 500 career passes.
- Running back Travis Etienne caught three passes for a career-high and team-leading 98 yards with two touchdowns. He also rushed 10 times for 36 yards with a rushing touchdown.

- Etienne became the first Clemson running back with two receiving touchdowns since Jamie Harper on Sept. 18, 2010 at Auburn. His 98 receiving yards were the most by a Clemson running back since C.J. Spiller's 104-yard performance through the air at Miami (Fla.) on Oct. 24, 2009.
- Etienne rushed for a touchdown in an eighth straight game to break his career-long streak set across the first seven games of the 2018 season. It tied Wayne Gallman's eight-game streak in 2016 for the fourth-longest in school history.
- Etienne (1,536) passed Wayne Gallman (1,527 in 2015) for second on Clemson's single-season rushing yardage leaderboard.
- With his 18th rushing touchdown of the season, Etienne took sole possession of the second-most rushing touchdowns in a season in school history. Lester Brown (1978), James Davis (2006) and Wayne Gallman (2016) all had 17 each, trailing only Etienne's record 24 rushing touchdowns in 2018.
- Etienne (22) became the first Clemson player with 20 total touchdowns in multiple seasons. Etienne's 2018 campaign (26) and C.J. Spiller's 2009 season (21) had previously represented the only seasons of 20-plus touchdowns by individuals in school history.
- Etienne (22 in 2019, 26 in 2018) is now the only player in ACC history to reach 22 total touchdowns in multiple seasons in a career.
- Etienne scored on a 53-yard receiving touchdown from Lawrence in the third quarter.
- The 53-yard reception was the longest of Etienne's career, surpassing a 27-yard catch earlier this season. On that single reception, he recorded more receiving yards than he had totaled in any of his previous 41 career games.
- The 53-yard reception by Etienne was the culmination of a school-record-tying 99-yard drive. It marked the third 99-yard drive in school history, joining drives against Florida State in 1988 and against Duke in 1998.
- The receiving touchdown was Etienne's career-high third of the season and the fifth of his career.
- The first receiving touchdown was Etienne's 60th total touchdown of his career, making him the 24th FBS player since 1970 to score 60 career touchdowns.
- Etienne added his career-high second receiving touchdown of the game on his 34-yard touchdown reception with 1:49 remaining to punctuate Clemson's game-winning 94-yard drive.
- With 150 all-purpose yards in the game, Etienne (4,978) passed Derrick Hamilton (4,839) for third on Clemson's leaderboard for career all-purpose yards.
- Etienne (2,030) has now posted only the third 2,000-yard all-purpose season in school history (2,680 by C.J. Spiller in 2009, and 2,288 by Sammy Watkins in 2011).
- Etienne (366) entered the game as the highestscoring non-kicker in ACC history and has now entered the Top 10 in conference history for career scoring among all players including kickers.
- Etienne's seventh carry of the game was his 500th career carry at Clemson.
- Lawrence led Clemson in rushing (107) and Travis Etienne led Clemson in receiving (98). It was just the third time since 2000 that a quarterback led Clemson in rushing and a running back led the Tigers in receiving in the same game. The only other times it has happened were in 2017 (Kelly Bryant, 94 rushing and Tavien Feaster 63 receiving) against Virginia Tech and in 2000 (Woody Dantzler, 166 rushing, and Travis Zachery, 86 receiving) against Wake Forest.
 - Clemson was held scoreless in the first quarter after - having previously scored in 33 consecutive quarters. Prior to the first quarter of the Fiesta Bowl, Clemson was last held without a point in a quarter in the third quarter of its Sept. 28 game at North Carolina. The previous long under Head Coach Dabo Swinney had been 24 straight quarters in games 4-10 of the 2015 season.

- Isaiah Simmons recorded the game's first takeaway, intercepting Ohio State quarterback Justin Fields in the third quarter. It was only the second interception thrown by Fields in his first 336 pass attempts of the season and his first in 170 attempts.
- With Simmons' interception, Clemson has produced a takeaway in nine consecutive games and 17 times in its last 18 games, dating to 2018.
- Including an interception against Virginia in the ACC Championship Game, Simmons has now recorded an interception in back-to-back games for the first time in his career.
- Linebacker James Skalski and defensive end Justin Foster split a sack in the first quarter. Both of them have single-season career highs with 3.5 sacks in 2019.

- Safety K'Von Wallace added a sack in the contest, his second of the season and of his career.
- Clemson recorded four sacks to Ohio State's three sacks. Ohio State entered bowl season leading the country with 51.0 sacks this season.
- Safety Nolan Turner sealed the victory by recording his career-high second interception of the season the third interception of his career on Ohio State's final drive. It marks the second straight year that Turner has recorded an interception in a College Football Playoff semifinal, joining his interception against Notre Dame in last year's Cotton Bowl.
- Fifth-year linebacker Chad Smith led Clemson with a career-high 12 tackles, earning Defensive MVP.
- Clemson allowed Ohio State to enter the red zone three times and held the Buckeyes to a field goal on all three red zone drives. Ohio State entered the game having scored touchdowns on 81.94 percent of red zone possessions this season, the third-highest percentage in the country.
- Punter Will Spiers punted seven times for an average of 44.9 yards per punt with five punts downed inside the 20 and three punts of 50 yards or more.
- Spiers' tied his career high for 50-yard punts in a game with three, set most recently against Duke in 2018
- Spiers' five punts downed inside the 20 were a career high, surpassing his four against Auburn in 2017
- With his third PAT of the game, his 77th of the season, kicker B.T. Potter (77) broke the single-season school record held by Greg Huegel, who made 76 PATs in 2018.
- Offensive lineman Tremayne Anchrum, offensive lineman Gage Cervenka, safety Tanner Muse, wide receiver Diondre Overton, offensive lineman John Simpson, linebacker Isaiah Simmons and safety K'Von Wallace represented Clemson as the team's postseason captains.
- Wallace and Muse each appeared in their 58th career game to tie offensive tackle Mitch Hyatt and tight end Milan Richard (58 each from 2015-18) for third-most career games in school history.

MOST WINS SINCE 2015, SECOND-MOST SINCE 2011

Clemson has a 111-15 record since starting its current stretch of 10-win seasons in 2011. Only Alabama (114-12) has more wins since 2011. The Tigers also have the second-highest winning percentage (.881) in that time frame.

10-WIN SEASONS

Clemson entered 2019 riding a streak of eight consecutive seasons with 10+ wins. The program's eighth consecutive 10-win season in 2018 tied the Tigers with the 1985-92 Miami Hurricanes and the 2004-11 Virginia Tech Hokies for the fourth-longest streak in FBS history and made Clemson one of only six programs to accomplish the feat.

By earning its 10th win of the 2019 season, Clemson became only the fourth program in FBS history to record at least nine consecutive 10-win seasons, tying the 2001-09 Texas Longhorns for the third-longest streak on record.

The record for consecutive 10-win seasons is 14, set by Florida State (1987-2000). Alabama is the only other program with an active streak of at least nine straight 10-win seasons.

The Tigers now have 16 10-win seasons in school history, with more than half coming in the last nine years under head coach Dabo Swinney. The 2019 season is Clemson's sixth with at least 12 wins, with Swinney sitting at the helm for five of them.

A CENTURY MARK FOR THE DECADE

Head Coach Dabo Swinney can vividly recall the looks he received when he said Clemson was on the cusp of the winningest decade in program history following a 2010 campaign in which the Tigers finished 6-7. In 2017, that vision became a reality with two seasons to spare when Clemson collected its 88th win of the decade in the ACC Championship Game against Miami (Fla.) to surpass the Tigers of the 1980s (87) for most wins in any decade in school history.

With a rivalry win against South Carolina to close the 2018 regular season, Clemson reached triple digits in wins in a decade for the first time in program history. Included below are the schools that have accomplished that feat

100 WINS BY DECADE

Note: FBS programs; wins credited to seasons (e.g.: a victory in the 2020 College Football Playoff National Championship would be credited to the 2019 season in the 2010s.)

Clemson has a 117-22 record in the decade of the 2010s. That computes to an .841 winning percentage, the best for any decade in school history and the first time Clemson has won more than 80 percent in a single decade.

In the 1980s, Clemson had a .767 winning percentage (87-25-4), the nation's fifth-best winning percentage. Clemson did not have a losing season in any year in the 1980s under Danny Ford, who coached every game in that decade. Dabo Swinney has coached every game in the decade of the 2010s, and with Clemson clinching another winning season in 2019, will finish the decade with nine winning seasons and one losing season (6-7 in 2010).

SENIORS CHASING HISTORY

The 2018 Clemson seniors left their legacy not only in program history but also in the annals of the sport, recording 55 wins to tie for the most wins by any senior class in FBS history.

Throughout the 2018 season, Head Coach Dabo Swinney reminded his players that anything Clemson had done once, they'd done again. The 2019 senior class seized the opportunity for that maxim to once again ring true.

The 2019 Clemson seniors are 55-3 since 2016, tying the 2018 Clemson seniors for the best four-year mark in school, conference and Football Bowl Subdivision history, a national record shared with the 2018 Alabama seniors. Clemson's 2019 group can hold the mark outright if the team were to win the College Football Playoff National Championship.

The 2019 seniors are the second Clemson class and one of only three classes all-time to reach 55 career wins in a four-year span. Clemson's 2019 group did so in 58 games, tying the 2018 Alabama seniors as the quickest to that mark.

FIVE LEAGUE TITLES IN A ROW

Clemson won its fifth straight ACC championship in 2019, as the Tigers and the Oklahoma Sooners both became the first programs in an active FBS conference since the 1971-75 Alabama Crimson Tide to win five consecutive outright titles.

Clemson had already been the first ACC school to win four outright titles in a row prior to extending the streak to five in 2019. Florida State was a champion or co-champion nine years in a row from 1992-00, but never won more than three outright in a row.

Clemson's victory in the 2018 ACC Championship Game made Clemson only the second Power Five Conference school since the inception of league championship games in 1992 to win four straight conference championship games, joining the Florida Gators, who won four straight SEC Championship Games in a row from 1993-96. Clemson became the first school to win five straight with a victory in the 2019 ACC Championship Game.

POWER OVER THE POWER FIVE

Early in his head coaching tenure, Dabo Swinney laid out his belief to then-Clemson athletic director Terry Don Phillips that the Tigers needed to add tough non-conference challenges on top of their tests in ACC play to serve as a foundation for the program's growth.

"I had a conversation with Terry Don and said, 'Terry Don, I know we are not very good right now, but we need to play people because that is going to help me teach and help me develop the culture and the mindset that you have to have to win at the highest level," recounted Swinney. "I didn't think we had that, and that's what we committed to. That's what we've done."

That scheduling philosophy and culture change has resonated in the Clemson program, and since 2013, no team can claim more wins against Power Five Conference opponents than the Tigers.

ESTEEMED COMPANY

Head Coach Dabo Swinney's run of excellence in his decade-plus at Clemson has placed him in the company of college football legends.

Swinney enters this week with a winning percentage of .813, sitting as one of only 13 head coaches in history with at least 10 seasons of FBS head coaching experience to post a mark of .800 or better. That list presently includes Knute Rockne (.881), Frank Leahy (.864), Urban Meyer (.854), George Woodruff (.846), Barry Switzer (.837), Tom Osborne (.836), Fielding Yost (.833), Percy Haughton (.832), Bob Neyland (.826), Bud Wilkinson (.826), Jock Sutherland (.812), and Bob Devaney (.806).

Among the legends Swinney has already passed are College Football Hall of Famers Bo Schembechler (.775), Bear Bryant (.780) and Henry Williams (.785), as well as Nick Saban (.792 prior to NCAA adjustment), whose Crimson Tide were defeated by Swinney and the Tigers in the most recent College Football Playoff National Championship.

Against Florida State earlier this year, Swinney passed the career total of Danny Ford, who won 121 combined games at Clemson (96) and Arkansas (25).

With a win against Wofford in early November, Swinney recorded his 125th win in his 155th career game. Per records available via Sports Reference, he became the 10th-fastest coach to reach 125 career wins in terms of games coached.

FIVE "FINAL FOURS" FOR SWINNEY

While the term "Final Four" may still be the linguistic property of the men's basketball tournament, since the advent of the four-team College Football Playoff six years ago, Head Coach Dabo Swinney has had Clemson among the sport's final four teams in each of the last five seasons, joining Alabama Head Coach Nick Saban (2014-18 seasons) as the only coaches to make the College Football Playoff five consecutive years. Oklahoma has qualified for four College Football Playoffs in the last five years, one under Bob Stoops and three in a row under current coach Lincoln Riley.

The men's college basketball tournament dates to 1939. In the history of that tournament, only John Wooden of UCLA (nine from 1967-75) and Mike Krzyzewski of Duke (five from 1988-92) coached teams to five consecutive Final Fours.

During Wooden's streak of nine straight Final Fours, he recorded eight championships and a semifinal loss. Coach K's Blue Devils had two championships, a second-place finish and two semifinal losses in their run. Saban's run produced two championships, two runner-up finishes and a semifinal loss in his run from 2014-18, while Swinney so far has two championships, one runner-up finish and a semifinal loss from 2015-18 with the 2019 result still pending.

Swinney is 6-2 in College Football Playoff games and that .750 percentage is the best among coaches who have been in at least two games. When compared to basketball coaches who have been in the Final Four, only three have a better winning percentage than Swinney with a minimum of eight games coached: John Wooden (21-3, .875), Adolph Rupp (9-2, .818) and Bob Knight (7-2, .778).

In the 150-year anniversary season of college football, Head Coach Dabo Swinney coached his 150th game as leader of the Clemson program in the fourth game of the season against Charlotte. He became just the second Clemson coach to reach 150 career games, joining Hall of Famer Frank Howard, who coached 295 games as Clemson's head coach from 1940-69.

Only eight coaches have coached at least 150 games at schools presently in the Football Bowl Subdivision while achieving an .800 or better mark. Interestingly, Clemson holds a 4-0 combined all-time record against the top three coaches on the list.

With Clemson's ACC regular season slate now concluded, Swinney's all-time record in those games now stands at 77-16 (.828).

EXCEEDING EXPECTATIONS

Clemson has equaled or exceeded its postseason AP and USA Today rankings in comparison to its preseason rankings each of the last eight years. That included quite an accomplishment in both 2016 and 2018, as it finished No. 1 by winning the national championship to exceed the school's No. 2 preseason ranking both times

Clemson exceeded its preseason ranking each of the last eight years in the coaches poll, a streak that will come to an end in 2019 by simple virtue of Clemson opening the season atop the 2019 poll.

With regard to Associated Press voting, Clemson has exceeded its preseason ranking in the AP poll in seven of the last eight years. The lone exception came in 2013, when Clemson was picked No. 8 in the AP preseason poll and finished No. 8.

Clemson is likely assured of a top four finish in the AP Poll for a fifth consecutive year. Clemson would record the eighth streak of at least five consecutive Top 5 finishes in the AP Poll, becoming the seventh different program to accomplish the feat (Oklahoma did so twice from 1952-58 and 1971-76). The Sooners could reach the mark again this year if they finish in the top five in the final AP Poll.

ACC rival Florida State has the longest streak of Top 5 AP finishes with 14 from 1987-2000. The first 13 years of that streak were top four finishes.

CHAMPIONSHIP HERITAGE

After being named Clemson's full-time coach in December of 2008, Head Coach Dabo Swinney set about securing his first signing class in 2009.

His first class, which he tabbed the "Dandy Dozen," brought home Clemson's first ACC title since 1991 during their junior campaign in 2011. All 11 of Clemson's signing classes under Swinney have at least one ACC title to their credit in their four years at Clemson. Every signing class since 2013 has won at least one national title, which exception of the true freshmen from Clemson's 2019 class, which can add that accolade with a win this week.

PLAYOFF STREAK

With five consecutive College Football Playoff appearances, entering the bowl season, Clemson's active playoff streak was as long or longer than:

- 31 of 32 NFL teams
- 29 of 30 MLB teams
- 30 of 31 NHL teams
- 25 of 30 NBA teams

So, despite only four teams making the College Football Playoff each year, Clemson's playoff streak is as long or longer than 115 of the 123 teams in the four major professional sports.

Included below is a look at the only eight teams in the four major professional leagues with active playoff streaks exceeding Clemson's five:

29 AND COUNTING

Clemson enters this week riding a 29-game winning streak dating to the 2018 season opener. Last game, Clemson ended what had been the nation's second-longest winning streak, stopping a 19-game stretch of victories by Ohio State.

ACTIVE WINNING STREAKS (FBS)

Clemson's current 29-game winning streak marks the program's 10th all-time winning streak of at least 10 games and the longest streak in team history. Clemson surpassed its previous record 17-game winning streak from 2014-15 for sole possession of the longest streak in school history with a 41-6 win against Syracuse on Sept. 14.

The current streak marks the third time Dabo Swinney has had a winning streak of at least 10 games. Danny Ford had three separate streaks of at least 10 games, including a 13-game streak from 1980 through the last game of the 1981 season.

Frank Howard had a 15-game winning streak from 1947-49 and was part of a 13-game streak from 1939-40. The school's first 10-game winning streak took place under Walter Riggs and John Heisman from 1899 to 1901.

20-POINT WINS & 14-POINT WINS

Clemson's 2019 squad extended two historically profound victory margin streaks early in the 2019 season.

Observers will often point to Clemson's 27-23 come-from-behind victory against Syracuse in late September of 2018 as a turning point in the team's 15-0 national championship season. Following that win, in which redshirt freshman Chase Brice led the team to victory after starting the week as the squad's third-team quarterback, Clemson won 11 straight games by at least 20 points. Per ESPN Stats & Info, Clemson's 11-game streak of 20-point wins across the 2018-19 seasons was one game shy of the 2018 Alabama Crimson Tide for the longest streak of 20-point wins in the AP Poll era (since 1936).

Boise State	2002	10

Nebraska	1971	10

That streak was broken in the second week of the 2019

season when Texas A&M scored a touchdown with only six seconds remaining to cut Clemson's margin of victory from 21 to 14.

A one-point victory against North Carolina in the final weekend in September brought Clemson's streak of 14 consecutive 14-point wins to a close. The streak tied for the third-longest in the AP Poll era, per ESPN Stats & Info.

Since the streak was snapped in a one-point win at North Carolina in September, Clemson has responded with seven wins of 14 or more points, meaning the Tigers have won 21 of their last 23 contests by a margin of at least 14 points. Clemson has won 20 of those 23 contests by 20 or more.

ROAD WARRIORS

With a road win against South Carolina in its regular season finale, Clemson has now won 24 of its last 25 true road games. Wins in the ACC Championship and Fiesta Bowl also gave the Tigers victories in 39 of their last 42 games away from home overall.

Clemson posted a 5-0 record on the road this year, with four road wins in ACC play plus a road victory against an SEC opponent. At Louisville on Oct. 19, Clemson won its 10th straight true road game, which marked only the second streak of 10 consecutive true road victories in the program's illustrious history. Clemson earned its 12th consecutive road victory on Nov. 30 at South Carolina, tying for the longest road winning streak in school history.

SATURDAYS ARE FOR THE TIGERS

With Clemson's only remaining game being contested on a Monday, Clemson concluded its 2019 slate of Saturday games having won each of its last 43 Saturday games. Clemson went 12-2 during the 2017 campaign, with its only losses coming on a Friday at Syracuse and a Monday on New Year's Day in the Sugar Bowl.

You have to travel back to Nov. 12, 2016, a total of 1,141 days prior to Clemson's most recent game in the Fiesta Bowl, for Clemson's most recent loss on a Saturday.

Clemson's 43-game Saturday winning streak is the longest active streak in the FBS. The Tigers' current streak started following a 2016 loss to Pitt that was preceded by a 21-game Saturday winning streak across the 2014-16 seasons, previously the longest such streak in program history.

UNBEATEN

Clemson entered the bowl season as one of three undefeated FBS teams. The 2019 season marked the second straight year that three Power Five programs entered the bowl season undefeated, as Clemson, Alabama and Notre Dame entered the 2018 bowl season unscathed. Prior to 2018, that had most recently been accomplished by three Power Five teams in 2004 (USC, Oklahoma and Auburn).

With Clemson ending Ohio State's undefeated season in the Fiesta Bowl, Clemson will try to repeat the feat it accomplished in 2018, when it beat two undefeated squads in the College Football Playoff to win the national championship.

PLAYING TO A STANDARD

While many attempted to center discussion of Clemson's play in 2019 on the quality of its opponents, under Head Coach Dabo Swinney, Clemson has subscribed to a philosophy of "it's not who you play, it's how you play." Inside the team's Allen N. Reeves Football Complex, a visual representation of the team's schedule includes a Clemson logo for every game in lieu of opponents' logos, not as a sign of disrespect, but rather as a visual reminder that every week Clemson is playing against its own standard as well.

The Clemson standard has been on display in the majority of the team's performances this season. SportSource Analytics tracks Relative Points and Relative Yards Per Game, described as the following:

"Sorts all FBS teams by the average percentage of points and yards they accumulated per game with respect to the opponents' normal points and yards averages. For example, if a team scores 21 points against a team that only gives up (on average) 14 points, they get a 150 percent for that game offensively. For offense, over 100 percent is considered good, and for defense under 100 percent is considered good."

The measure allows a window of insight into how Clemson has dominated its opponents relative to their typical performance, rather than leaning on the opponents' record.

RELATIVE POINTS AND YARDS PER GAME (CLEMSON, 2019)

Category	Nat'l Rank	Pct.
Offensive Points Pct./Game	4	160.0
Offensive Yards Pct./Game	4	132.7
Defensive Points Pct./Game	1	38.9
Defensive Yards Pct./Game	1	64.6
*Note: FBS opponents only

Effectively, the numbers communicate that Clemson scores 160.0 percent of the points and gains 132.7 percent of the yards typically allowed by its opponents on average, while limiting opponents to only 38.9 percent of the points and 64.6 percent of the yards it typically accrues.

In addition, Clemson ranks among the nation's best in game control, a measurement of what percentage of snaps teams have spent with various leads. Clemson has led for 81 percent of all plays this season, including holding a lead of at least 21 points for almost half of all plays and at least 35 points or more for a quarter of all plays.

FINAL RIDE FOR ELLIOTT-SCOTT DUO

The College Football Playoff National Championship against LSU will be the final game at Clemson for co-offensive coordinator Jeff Scott, who will leave to become head coach at South Florida. It means it will also be the final game for Scott and Tony Elliott as co-coordinators of the Clemson offense.

The Elliott-Scott co-coordinator system began at the 2014 Russell Athletic Bowl when Cole Stoudt, subbing for an injured Deshaun Watson, led the Tigers to a 40-6 victory. The Tigers have a 70-4 record with Scott and Elliott running the offense, including five ACC Championships, five College Football Playoff appearances, four national championship berths, six College Football Playoff victories and two national championships.

In the 74 games they have been at the helm of the offense, Clemson has averaged 40.1 points per game and 501.6 yards per game (287.5 passing and 214.1 rushing). Clemson has also averaged 6.58 yards per play in the duo's 74 games; prior to 2014, Clemson had never recorded a season averaging at least 6.51 yards per play.

ANOTHER CHAMPIONSHIP GAME FOR VENABLES

No one at Clemson has more National Championship game experience than Clemson defensive coordinator Brent Venables, who will coach in his eighth career national championship game this year. He coached in four BCS National Championship Games between 2000 and 2008 at Oklahoma, and this will represent his fourth since 2015 as Clemson defensive coordinator. The only other coordinators with four or more appearances in BCS and CFP National Championships are Kirby Smart (four at Alabama and also earned one as head coach at Georgia) and fellow Clemson coordinators Tony Elliott and Jeff Scott (four, including this game).

Venables has been on the winning side in three of his previous seven National Championship games. His Oklahoma Sooners beat Florida State, 13-2, in 2000. He has been on two Clemson championship staffs, the 2016 team that beat Alabama, 35-31, and last year's team that beat the Crimson Tide, 44-16.

This season marks the 20th time in his 24 years as a full-time assistant coach that Venables' team has won at least 10 games. This is the 11th time he has been on a staff that has won at least 12 games. He has been the defensive coordinator of all four Clemson teams that have won at least 14 games.

Clemson has compiled a 101-11 (.902) record in Venables' eight years with the Tigers.

600-YARD GAMES

Clemson produced its fourth 600-yard game of the season in the team's ninth game of 2019, breaking a school record set previously during the 2012, 2017 and 2018 campaigns. The Tigers then extended that record with a 619-yard performance in the ACC Championship Game against Virginia.

Clemson's third 600-yard game of the season came in a 674-yard effort against Boston College on Oct. 26. Clemson outgained the Eagles, 674-177, in the game. The 497-yard differential was Clemson's biggest since a 545-yard advantage against Kent State on Sept. 2, 2017 and was Clemson's largest yardage differential against an ACC opponent since the conference's founding in 1953, surpassing a 464-yard advantage against Wake Forest in 2000.

Clemson added another dominant performance one week later with a 446-yard margin against Wofford.

OFFENSIVE BALANCE

During Clemson's active 29-game win streak, the Tigers have featured remarkable offensive balance. Prior to last year's College Football Playoff National Championship Game that dropped Clemson to 248.2 rushing yards per game for the season, Clemson's 2018 squad had been the first team in Clemson history to average at least 250 yards per game rushing and passing. Only three Clemson teams in history have averaged at least 200 yards per game of each in the same season (2000, 2015 and 2018).

Clemson is once again above the 200/200 mark rushing and passing and is just shy of averaging 250 yards in each category. Clemson is presently averaging 246.1 rushing yards and 292.2 passing yards per game, one of two teams this season to average at least 245 yards per game in each category, along with recently vanquished foe Ohio State. Clemson has broken the 3,000-yard mark both rushing and passing this season, making the 2019 campaign only the third 3,000/3,000 season in school history (2015 and 2018).

Clemson has exceeded both 200 passing yards and 200 rushing yards in 51 games under Dabo Swinney, posting a perfect record in those contests. Clemson's 17 such games since the start of the 2018 season are the most in the country.

STRONG OUT OF THE GATES

"Some start fast, some start slow, but the thoroughbred is great at the final pole."

Dabo Swinney has used that horse-racing analogy with his team in 2019 to encourage his team to "run its own race" this season. As far as individual games have been concerned, Clemson has not had to worry about starting slow.

Clemson has outscored opponents by a 170-27 margin (+143) in the first quarter. Entering the national championship, only 26 teams in the country (including Clemson) had a plus-143 or better point differential in entire games this season.

Even despite trailing 10-0 after the first quarter of the Fiesta Bowl, Clemson's 10.23-point average scoring differential in the first quarter is the second-largest in the country this season, contributing significantly to Clemson's top rank in overall scoring differential this season.

In a division-clinching win against NC State on Nov. 9, Clemson finished the first quarter with a 28-0 lead. In doing so, Clemson tied its school record for firstquarter points, matching the 28 points scored against Duke in the first quarter on Nov. 3, 2012. The 28-point first quarter tied for the fourth most in any quarter in school history and was Clemson's 23rd quarter of 28 points or more all-time.

YARDS PER PLAY

Clemson shattered its school record for yards per play in 2018 at 7.35, the program's first time exceeding seven yards per play in a season. Clemson enters the College Football Playoff National Championship ahead of that pace by averaging 7.46 yards per play in 2019.

Justyn Ross led Clemson with six such touchdowns, followed by four from Travis Etienne, three each from Lyn-J Dixon and Amari Rodgers, and one each by now-departed running backs Adam Choice and Tavien Feaster.

Clemson has recorded 12 touchdowns of 50 yards or more in 2019, including seven passing, four rushing and one via interception return. The 12 50-plus-yard touchdowns are the fifth-most in a season for Clemson since 1950.

Clemson opened the 2019 season with an explosive performance in a 52-14 win against Georgia Tech. The Tigers racked up 632 yards of offense on only 79 plays, averaging 8.0 yards per play even despite a methodical 11-play, 42-yard clock-killing drive to conclude the game. Clemson amassed 411 of those yards on 49 carries, a rushing average of 8.4 yards. Against Louisville, Clemson exceeded the 8.0-yard mark again, rushing for 298 yards on 37 carries for an 8.1-yard average. Clemson posted its third 8.0-plus-yard effort of the season against Wofford, averaging 11.3 yards per carry by accruing 419 yards on 37 attempts.

Including the three such games this season, Clemson's six games with an 8.0 or better yards per carry average since 2018 are the most in the FBS, and have helped Clemson rank first in the country in yards per carry (6.41) in 2019.

Clemson has produced a touchdown run of 90 yards (Travis Etienne vs. Georgia Tech), a touchdown pass of 87 yards (Trevor Lawrence to Amari Rodgers at Syracuse) and a touchdown run of 86 yards (Etienne vs. Wofford) in 2019. The 2019 Tigers joined the 2013 Clemson squad as the only teams in the program's 124-year history to post multiple touchdowns from scrimmage of 85 yards or more in a single season. This year's squad is the first to produce plays of 85 or more yards both on the ground and through the air.

The approach to creating functional depth and rewarding players ready to play has been a key philosophy for Head Coach Dabo Swinney, whose own collegiate playing career was hatched as a walk-on fighting for playing time in Alabama's receiving corps.

"We're fully committed to playing guys who deserve to play," Swinney said. "You commit to a guy early in the season, and even if a guy's only played 10 percent of the snaps, when you get to game eight or nine, they've got some good experience."

That philosophy was on display in record fashion in Clemson's Sept. 21 contest against Charlotte. In that game, Clemson played a school-record 111 players. Clemson later played 105 players against Wofford in early November.

YOUTH MOVEMENT

One year after Clemson returned a school-record 61 lettermen for the 2018 season, Clemson entered the 2019 campaign with a roster that included 80 freshmen and sophomores.

However, despite the roster featuring the largest freshman class in Dabo Swinney's tenure at Clemson, the Tigers' youth is not devoid of experience. Last season, the first year of new redshirt regulations allowed Clemson to play a then-school-record 20 true freshmen in 2018. Clemson immediately shattered that record in its 2019 season opener, with 27 true freshmen making their collegiate debuts in that contest. An additional eight players made their debuts three weeks later against Charlotte.

First-year freshmen to play for Clemson this year include Davis Allen, LaVonta Bentley, Kaleb Boateng, Andrew Booth Jr., Joseph Charleston, David Cote, Mac Cranford, Tyler Davis, Michel Dukes, Hampton Earle, Hamp Greene, Chase Guynup, Tye Herbstreit, Jake Herbstreit, Tayquon Johnson, Sheridan Jones, Frank Ladson Jr., Jaelyn Lay, Zac McIntosh, Matt McMahan, Chez Mellusi, Joseph Ngata, Ruke Orhorhoro, Kane Patterson, Jalyn Phillips, Taisun Phommachanh, Will Putnam, Hunter Rayburn, Etinosa Reuben, Brannon Spector, Aidan Swanson, Ray Thornton III, Mason Trotter, Jonathan Weitz, Greg Williams and Lannden

The only true freshmen not to see game action for Clemson this year are injured linebackers Bryton Constantin and Matthew Maloney.

DOMINANT DEFENSE

Since the advent of the College Football Playoff in 2014, Clemson has routinely produced one of the nation's elite defenses.

Clemson has ranked in the Top 10 in the country in total defense in each of the last five seasons and has ranked among the Top 10 in scoring defense in three of those campaigns.

DEFENSE: 2018 VS. 2019

Clemson's 2018 defense became the first in school history to lead the nation in scoring defense, limiting teams to 13.1 points per game en route to a 15-0 season and a national championship. Clemson can repeat as the nation's top scoring defense by allowing 27 or fewer points in the national championship.

A comparison of numbers between the 2018 and 2019 Clemson defenses shows that this year's unit is matching or exceeding the output of the 2018 group that included seven players (including two reserves) that made NFL rosters this season (Christian Wilkins, Clelin Ferrell, Dexter Lawrence, Austin Bryant, Mark Fields, Trayvon Mullen and Albert Huggins).

Below is a look at 13 key defensive categories. The 2019 group is ahead of the 2018 team's season averages in eight of the 13, including scoring defense, pass defense and total defense.

It was Clemson's most since recording 15 tackles for loss vs. Utah State on Oct. 16, 2004.

Among those 15 tackles for loss were eight sacks, tied for the eighth-most sacks in a game in school history.

MULTI-SACK GAMES

Prior to being held without a sack against optionheavy Wofford on Nov. 2, Clemson had recorded multiple sacks in each of its previous 16 games, dating to last season. Clemson has posted 26 multiple-sack games since 2018, the most in the FBS.

NO FLY ZONE

While outside observers focused on the loss of four NFL Draft picks (plus an additional undrafted free agent signing) from Clemson's defensive line after 2018, Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney spent the offseason telling anyone who would listen that the Tigers were returning the best back seven he's had in his tenure at Clemson.

Clemson's pass defense has rewarded Swinney's faith, ranking among the nation's best in nearly every key statistical pass defense category.

POINTS OFF TURNOVERS

Since the start of the 2018 postseason, Clemson's offense and defense have both been dominant in possessions starting following turnovers. Since the 2018 ACC Championship Game, the Tigers hold a 179-21 advantage against opponents in points off turnovers.

Clemson recorded a 7-0 margin in points off turnovers against Syracuse on Sept. 14, a particularly impressive stat when accounting for the degree of difficulty. In that contest, Clemson's two giveaways resulted in Syracuse starting resulting drives at the Clemson nine-yard line and Clemson three-yard line. Those two drives ended in an interception and a turnover on downs, respectively.

CLOSE-GAME SUCCESS

Though Clemson has not played a large number of one-possession games in recent times, the Tigers have proven very adept at winning such contests since 2011. In that span, the Tigers have played 30 games with a final margin of eight points or less, and Clemson's .867 winning percentage in those one-possession contests is the best in the country in that time frame.

Clemson's win against Ohio State in the Fiesta Bowl pitted the nation's top two teams in one-score games since 2011 against one another in a win-or-go-home one-possession game. With the six-point win, Clemson improved to 26-4 in one-score games in that span, reaching the mark against a Buckeye squad that entered the game with a .735 winning percentage since 2011 in one-score games.

OWNING THE "MIDDLE EIGHT"

During its current run of four consecutive College Football Playoff appearances dating to 2015, Clemson has frequently won one of the hidden "games within the game."

SportSource Analytics tracks the "Middle Fight," the section of the game defined as the final four minutes of the first half and the first four minutes of the second half. Clemson has outscored opponents in that time window 47 times since 2015, posting a 46-1 record

Clemson was historically strong in that category in 2018, outscoring opponents 132-10 in the middle eight, an average margin of +8.1 points per game. That per-game differential was the largest by any program in the country since 2013.

One striking example of the importance of the middle eight came in the 2018 Cotton Bowl, as Clemson and Notre Dame played a tightly contested first half that saw Clemson holding only a 9-3 advantage with four minutes left in the first half. A touchdown with 1:44 remaining pushed Clemson's lead to 16-3, and Head Coach Dabo Swinney's decision to attack on a drive originating from Clemson's 20-yard line with 48 seconds remaining resulted in another score with two seconds to play in the second quarter, giving Clemson a 23-3 lead at the break.

The importance was also on display at Florida State in 2018, as after a scoreless first quarter. Clemson held only a 14-0 lead entering the final four minutes of the first half. Clemson scored two quick touchdowns in the final four minutes of the second quarter and opened the second half with another touchdown 58 seconds into the third quarter, giving the Tigers a commanding 35-0 lead in an eventual 59-10 win.

Clemson recorded a critical middle performance in its 2019 Fiesta Bowl win against Ohio State. Trailing 16-0 prior to the final four minutes of the first half, Clemson scored 14 points in the half's waning minutes to pull the halftime deficit to two. The 14-point momentum swing in that span helped Clemson to victory in the fifth-largest comeback in school history.

Clemson's 16 selections tied for the third-most in school history, trailing the program's 18 selections in 2018 and 17 selections in 2015.

Clemson produced eight first-team selections, including quarterback Trevor Lawrence, running back Travis Etienne, wide receiver Tee Higgins, offensive tackle Tremayne Anchrum, offensive guard John Simpson, linebacker Isaiah Simmons, cornerback A.J. Terrell and safety Tanner Muse

Clemson produced four players each on both the second and third teams. Offensive lineman Gage

Cervenka, center Sean Pollard, defensive tackle Tyler Davis and cornerback Derion Kendrick all earned second-team honors, while offensive tackle Jackson Carman, defensive end Xavier Thomas, defensive tackle Nyles Pinckney and safety K'Von Wallace all collected third-team selections.

ESTABLISHED FIREPOWER

Clemson's eye-popping, record-setting offensive campaign in 2018 was authored at the skill positions in large part by underclassmen. The group was led in passing by true freshman Trevor Lawrence (3,280 yards), in rushing by sophomore Travis Etienne (1,658) and in receiving by sophomore Tee Higgins (59 receptions, 12 touchdowns) and freshman Justyn Ross (1,000 receiving yards).

Clemson was one of only three FBS programs to produce a 3,000-yard passer, 1,500-yard rusher and 1,000-yard receiver in 2018 and one of only 20 teams (including only nine Power Five teams) to accomplish the feat this decade. By virtue of Lawrence, Etienne and Tee Higgins each reaching their respective thresholds this season. Clemson became the first program this decade to produce a player in all three categories in back-to-back seasons.

Clemson was the only school to produce a 3,000/1,500/1,000-yard passing/rushing/receiving trio in 2019.

As noted by ESPN, the 2019 Tigers were the first team to return its leading passer, rusher and receiver from a national championship squad since 2010, when Alabama returned leading passer Greg McElroy, leading rusher Mark Ingram and leading receiver Julio Jones from its 2009 championship squad.

200-YARD RUSHING GAMES

Travis Etienne wasted no time rewriting history in 2019. He recorded a then-career-high 205 yards in the season opener against Georgia Tech, the 17th 200-yard rushing game in Clemson history. At the time, it was Etienne's second career 200-yard day, tying him with Ray Yauger, Terrence Flagler, Raymond Priester and Andre Ellington for the most in school history.

Etienne then went on a record-grabbing spree on Nov.

2 against Wofford. He posted a career-high 212 yards on only nine carries, becoming the first Clemson player to post three career 200-yard games and joining Terrence Flagler as the only players with multiple 200-yard games in a single season. Etienne set those marks in the same contest in which he rushed for his 48th career touchdown to break James Davis' career record at Clemson.

Etienne's 12 carries against Georgia Tech had been the fewest by any Clemson player in the midst of a 200-yard performance. He undercut that mark with his nine-carry performance against Wofford, becoming only the third FBS player since 2000 to rush for 200 yards on single-digit carries.

10.0+ PER CARRY

Etienne's explosive 2019 season opener resulted in an average of 17.1 yards per carry against Georgia Tech, which at the time was the second-best single-game average of his career (19.1 vs. Louisville in 2018). Against Louisville in mid-October, he ripped off 192 yards on 14 carries for a 13.7-yard average, and in early November, he posted a career-best 23.6-yard average on nine carries for 212 yards against Wofford.

The games marked the 10th, 11th and 12th times in Etienne's career that he averaged at least 10 yards per carry in a game with at least five rushing attempts. His 12 qualifying games passed Colin Kaepernick for the most by any FBS player since 2000.

Presently, Etienne ranks fifth according to conference thresholds in which players qualify by reaching 1,000 career rushing yards. Etienne's average is the best in conference history by any player with at least 200 career carries.

ETN1K

Etienne reached 1,000 rushing yards on the 2019 season in Clemson's ninth game despite averaging 13.7 carries per game through the team's first nine contests. In reaching the 1,000-yard mark in that game against Wofford, he tied the mark for the fastest any Clemson player has rushed for 1,000 yards in a season and became only the second Clemson player to reach 1,000 rushing yards in single-digit games.

HISTORY OF EXPLOSIVENESS

Nine of Etienne's 55 career rushing touchdowns have covered at least 50 yards. His nine rushing touchdowns of 50-plus yards are the most by a Clemson player in records back to 1950, and his 10 total touchdowns covering that length (including a 53-yard touchdown reception in the Fiesta Bowl) are the third-most in that time frame.

Including a 90-yard touchdown run in the season opener against Georgia Tech and an 86-yard touchdown run against Wofford, Etienne has two touchdown runs of 85-plus yards this season. Since 1950, he is the first Clemson player to record two touchdown runs of 85-plus yards. Etienne has three runs of 80 or more yards in his career, surpassing the previous school record held by Derrick Witherspoon and C.J. Spiller (two each).

TOUCHDOWN STREAKS

Etienne accounts for three of the nine-longest streaks of consecutive games with a rushing touchdown in school history. He enters this game having rushed for a touchdown in eight straight games and can tie the longest streak in school history by scoring on the ground against LSU.

AIR ETIENNE

Etienne had a career-high 98 receiving yards on three receptions and two touchdowns in Clemson's Fiesta Bowl win. The 98 receiving yards were the most by a Clemson running back since C.J. Spiller recorded 104 receiving yards at Miami in 2009 in a 40-37 overtime win. It marked the first time a Clemson running back had two receiving touchdowns in a game since 2010 when Jamie Harper scored two at Auburn.

After entering the year with 17 career receptions for 135 yards and two touchdowns, Etienne has been much more involved in the passing game in 2019, recording 32 receptions for 396 yards and four touchdowns. The 396 receiving yards rank as the fourth-most in a season for a running back in Clemson history. Clemson legend C.J. Spiller still holds the program record with 503 in 2009.

TEAM PRODUCTION

Clemson's 29-23 Fiesta Bowl win against Ohio State represented quarterback Trevor Lawrence's 25th career start in his 29th career game. Clemson is 29-0 in Lawrence's time at Clemson, including a 25-0 record in his starts

Lawrence is credited with 1,540 career offensive snaps at Clemson. It was not until he surpassed 1,500 career offensive snaps that he took a snap while Clemson was trailing in the second half, as Clemson opened the third quarter of the 2019 Fiesta Bowl with a 16-14 deficit. Prior to the Fiesta Bowl, the only game in which Clemson had trailed in the fourth quarter in Lawrence's tenure was in 2018 against Syracuse, a game Lawrence exited in the first half with an injury.

As a team, Clemson has averaged 45.4 points in Lawrence's 25 career starts, the second-highest average for any team in the country whose quarterback has recorded 20 career starts.

Lawrence threw an interception on his 13th pass attempt of the season opener against Georgia Tech, ending a streak of 182 consecutive pass attempts without an interception. Lawrence's streak ended five attempts shy of the school record held by Tajh Boyd (187, 2012-13).

Lawrence has gone on to shatter both records down the stretch in 2019. Entering the College Football Playoff National Championship Game, Lawrence has thrown a school-record 202 pass attempts without an interception, tied for the ninth-longest in ACC history.

Against South Carolina, Lawrence set a school record for consecutive completions in a single game, completing 18 consecutive passes to break the mark held by Cullen Harper (15 vs. Central Michigan in 2007) and Kelly Bryant (15 vs. Miami in 2017). His 18 consecutive completions tied ACC single-game records held by Virginia's Michael Rocco (vs. Miami in 2012) and North Carolina's Mitch Trubisky (vs. James Madison in 2016).

300-YARD GAMES

Clemson's balance and its willingness to take what defenses offer on the ground or through the air sometimes limits opportunities for Lawrence to accrue some of the passing numbers put up around the country. But even playing in an offense that values balance and for a coach who values spreading playing time throughout the roster, Lawrence has still been able to light up defenses in his young career.

Lawrence posted five 300-yard games in his freshman campaign in 2018, including 300-yard efforts in both College Football Playoff games. He posted his sixth career 300-yard game in Week 3 of the 2019 season, throwing for a career-high 395 yards in a win at Syracuse, and then added his seventh 300-yard game with an ACC Championship Game-record 302 yards vs. Virginia.

LAWRENCE'S LEGS

Lawrence had a Clemson team-high and career-best 107 rushing yards on 16 carries and scored on a career-long 67-yard run in Clemson's 29-23 win against Ohio State in the PlayStation Fiesta Bowl. The 67-yard run was the longest by a Clemson quarterback since Woody Dantzler had a 75-yard scoring run at Virginia in 2000.

Lawrence now has 514 rushing yards on 93 carries this year, an average of 5.5 yards per rush. That rushing average is the best in history for a Clemson quarterback since transitioning away from single-wing formations in 1953

Oddly, Tajh Boyd recorded identical rushing yardage for the Tigers in 2012, but did so with exactly twice as many rushing attempts. That season was coincidentally also the last time Clemson faced LSU.

UNPRECEDENTED DEBUT

In a June article examining the statistical context of Lawrence's freshman campaign a year ago, 247Sports' Chris Hummer noted, "there is no historical comparison for what Lawrence accomplished as a freshman."

In 2018, despite not starting four games, Lawrence posted the 10th season of 3,000 passing yards, 30-plus passing touchdowns, five or fewer interceptions and a 65.0 or better completion percentage by an FBS quarterback since 2000. It was only the fifth such season by a Power Five quarterback in the time frame, and the first by a freshman.

-- NO. 3 WR AMARI RODGERS --

COMEBACK KID

Since his arrival at Clemson in 2017, Amari Rodgers has been hailed by coaches and teammates as one of the program's hardest workers. The work ahead of Rodgers was substantial on March 25 this season, when the junior wide receiver from Knoxville, Tenn., tore his ACL during spring practice.

Rodgers attacked his rehab with his trademark work ethic, returning to action 166 days later in Clemson's Week 2 game against Texas A&M, receiving a thunderous roar from Death Valley following his first reception.

A week later, Rodgers re-announced his presence nationally, catching four passes for 121 yards with two receiving touchdowns in a 41-6 prime-time win at Syracuse. His performance included touchdown receptions of 16 and 87 yards, the latter of which tied for the fourth-longest pass play in program history.

Rodgers' performance at Syracuse came with an odd historical parallel. The game was the first sellout at Syracuse since 1998, when Rodgers' father, Tee Martin, quarterbacked Tennessee to a win at Syracuse at the beginning of a national championship season.

-- NO. 5 WR TEE HIGGINS --

PRODUCING TEE-Ds

While teammate Justyn Ross led Clemson with 1,000 receiving yards in 2018, no Clemson receiver found the end zone last season more than Tee Higgins. The Tennessee native recorded 12 receiving touchdowns, tied at the time with two different seasons by Sammy Watkins for the second-most in a single season in school history.

Higgins has followed his impressive 2018 campaign with an All-America caliber performance in 2019, accounting for 56 catches and team highs in receiving yards (1,115) and receiving touchdowns (13).

Higgins' performance has placed him in the company of some of the all-time greats presently populating Clemson's career leaderboard for receiving touchdowns. In the ACC Championship he scored three touchdowns against Virginia, tying a school record and surging into a tie for the most career receiving touchdowns in Clemson history.

Higgins entered the Fiesta Bowl having scored at least one receiving touchdown in five straight games. Higgins' five-game touchdown streak tied the longest of his career and the second-longest in school history.

-- NO. 11 LB ISAIAH SIMMONS --

MR. VERSATILITY

A track star turned safety turned linebacker turned free-ranging weapon, Clemson's Isaiah Simmons rapidly emerged as one of college football's most versatile players in 2019

"He was like a young giraffe running around out there. He was elbows and knees," Head Coach Dabo Swinney described of Simmons' arrival on campus. "Quickly, the one thing that showed up early was his physicality. He likes it. That showed up quick [as did] just his pure athleticism."

In addition to being one of Clemson's most-prolific tacklers, Simmons leads Clemson this season in sacks (7.0) and tackles for loss (14.0) while also contributing seven pass breakups, three interceptions, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery. Simmons was one of only three FBS players — and one of only two in the Power Five — credited with at least 90 tackles, 10 tackles for loss, 5 sacks and multiple interceptions this season.

Simmons was already the fourth Clemson player since 2000 to record at least 65 tackles, 11.5 tackles for loss and 6.0 sacks in a season. The other three to accomplish the feat are some of Clemson's most decorated defenders of the last decade (and, notably, all defensive linemen).

"He's what everybody's looking for because he's that hybrid guy," Swinney said of Simmons. "He's long. He can cover. He can play first, second and third down. He legitimately could go play safety. He's a guy that could probably make all-conference for us at probably three different positions if you played him there."

ACC'S TOP DEFENSIVE PLAYER IS AMERICA'S BEST LINEBACKER

The Butkus Foundation announced on Dec. 8 that Simmons had won the 2019 Butkus Award, presented annually to the nation's top linebacker. Matt Butkus, son of Pro Football and College Football Hall of Famer and award namesake Dick Butkus, surprised Simmons with the honor at the Allen N. Reeves Football Complex during the team's College Football Playoff Selection Show watch party

Simmons becamethe first Clemson player to earn the honor in the award's 35-year history. He garnered 29 percent of the weighted vote and 35 percent of first place votes from the selection committee, earning the honor over an esteemed group of finalists that included Wisconsin's Zack Baun, Texas Tech's Jordyn Brooks, Penn State's Micah Parsons, Cal's Evan Weaver and Wyoming's Logan Wilson.

Simmons was the first ACC player to collect the award since Boston College's Luke Kuechly in 2011.

"We've made a lot of history this year, and one of those things is having our first ever Butkus Award winner," Head Coach Dabo Swinney said. "We've had some great players come through, but I'm so happy for Isaiah. He's so deserving and I'm so happy for his family. What an unbelievable job by Coach V [Brent Venables] in developing him into a Butkus Award winner. It's a special moment for our team and for Isaiah."

Also present for the surprise were Denise Simmons, Isaiah's mother, and Mario Simmons, Isaiah's brother. During the presentation, Simmons spoke by phone with Dick Butkus, who congratulated him on the honor and encouraged him to use his platform to give back.

The week before, Simmons was named ACC Defensive Player of the Year, giving Clemson back-to-back ACC Defensive Player of the Year honors after eventual No. 4 overall NFL Draft pick Clelin Ferrell collected the award in 2018. Though three Clemson defensive ends had won ACC Defensive Player of the Year in the previous 13 years, Simmons became the first Clemson linebacker to win it since Leroy Hill in 2004.

"Simmons is one of the most versatile athletes to play the linebacker position," the Butkus Award selection committee said in a statement. "He's an exceptional athlete with unique length and makes plays at all three levels, with terrific rush ability, blitz timing, cover skill and tackling range. He's a modern-day linebacker with special match-up skills. For as good of a football player as he is, he's a better person and will represent the Butkus Award with class."

-- OFFENSIVE LINE --

SACKS ALLOWED

Clemson is powered up front in 2019 by one of the most senior-laden offensive lines in school history. Alongside sophomore left tackle Jackson Carman, Clemson's line includes four senior starters in left guard John Simpson, center Sean Pollard, right guard Gage Cervenka and right tackle Tremayne Anchrum, a group of five that was named as a Joe Moore Award semifinalist.

In the season opener, Clemson started four senior offensive linemen in a game for the first time since the 2011 South Carolina game, when Phillip Price, David Smith, Antoine McClain and Landon Walker started alongside junior Dalton Freeman. The last time Clemson had four senior starters on the offensive line for the majority of a season was 2007, when sophomore Thomas Austin was joined by seniors Barry Richardson, Chris McDuffie, Brandon Pilgrim and Christian Capote.

Dating to last season, Clemson's offense has allowed only 21 total sacks in its last 22 games, including holding teams to zero sacks in nine of those 22 contests.

Clemson's protection for quarterback Trevor Lawrence has taken on an almost-mythical quality, according to Syracuse Head Coach Dino Babers, whose own prolific defensive line was held without a sack against Clemson in 2019.

"[It's like] Game of Thrones. He's got a castle, he's got a moat, he's got some dragons. That dude's protected." Babers said.

Clemson's offensive line was named as a Joe Moore Award semifinalist, and its metrics compare favorably to the four lines that went on to be named as finalists, including the LSU squad that earned the award and helped the Bayou Bengals earn a national championship game berth

SACK DIFFERENTIAL

Clemson's domination in its current winning streak has been powered in part at the line of scrimmage, where

Clemson holds an 96-33 edge over opponents in sacks in that time frame. Clemson's +63 margin in sacks since 2018 is by far the top differential in the country, as no other program can boast a sack differential greater than +55 since 2018.

300 OR FEWER YARDS

Clemson opened the season by keeping each of their first 12 opponents to fewer than 300 yards, marking the first time in ESPN Stats & Info searchable data going back to 1996 that a team had held the first 12 opponents of a season under that mark. ACC Coastal Division champion Virginia became the first team to hit the 300-yard plateau on Clemson, accounting for 387 in the ACC Championship Game.

Included below is a look at the most games holding opponents under 300 yards to open a season since 2000.

20 OR FEWER POINTS

Prior to surrendering 23 points in the Fiesta Bowl, Clemson had not surrendered more than 20 points since the 2018 regular season finale and had held 16 consecutive opponents to 20 or fewer points. A defensive streak of that length had not occurred at Clemson in 79 years, when Hall of Fame coaches Jess Neely and Frank Howard combined for a 31-game streak across the 1937-40 seasons.

Prior to the 16-game streak in 2018-19, there had been only four streaks of 15 or more such games in Clemson history. All four came in a vastly different era not just for college football, but for Clemson University as well. At the time of all four previous streaks, Clemson was an all-male, military institution still operating as Clemson Agricultural College before becoming known as Clemson University in 1964.

STOPPING THE RUN

Clemson held Texas A&M to 2.0 yards per carry on 27 carries in Week 2, the lowest yards-per-carry average allowed by Clemson since holding Boston College to 0.3 yards per carry on Nov. 10, 2018. A week after the Texas A&M game, Clemson then held Syracuse to 0.4 yards per carry in prime time.

In November, Clemson held Wake Forest to 1.7 yards per carry, marking the 20th time since 2014 that Clemson has held an opponent to 2.0 or fewer yards per carry, fourth-most in the country. Clemson is 19-1 in those contests.

Clemson's three 100-yard rushers allowed since 2018 are the third-fewest in the country.

Since Brent Venables joined Clemson as defensive coordinator prior to the 2012 season, Clemson has allowed only 1.13 points per possession against FBS opponents, the second-fewest in the country in that span. No program has given up fewer points per possession against FBS opponents since 2018, as Clemson's 0.79 points allowed per possession since the start of last season makes Clemson the only program in the country to allow fewer than a full point per drive to opponents.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

In addition to Clemson's elite on-field performance in 2018, the squad simultaneously posted one of the best academic semesters in the program's history. The squad posted team records in average GPA and number of players earning a 3.0 or better, all while collecting the AFCA Academic Achievement Award for the first time in Clemson history.

In November 2019, the AFCA announced that Clemson had repeated as Academic Achievement Award winners, making Clemson the only school in the country to earn the award across both of the 2018-19 seasons

Clemson set a program record with a 992 APR for the 2017-18 academic year, third-best in the FBS, earning NCAA recognition for the eighth time in the last nine years.

Clemson is one of only 34 of the 130 FBS programs to earn at least one APR recognition since the 2009-10 academic year, one of only 28 to earn it multiple times, and one of only three programs to earn the award eight-plus times in that span.

ACC: WE DO THIS

Arguments about conference strength were once again en vogue during the 2019 offseason, with various pundits and commentators offering opinions on the state of the ACC and the national landscape.

Head Coach Dabo Swinney has repeatedly contended that the quality of Clemson's conference competition has been central to its postseason success.

"This league doesn't take a back seat to anyone. It's a very competitive league," Swinney said at ACC Kickoff in July. "At the end of the day, I think the credit goes to this conference; I think that's why we've been so successful in the postseason."

Entering the 2019 season, the ACC:

- Had won more football national titles than any other conference since 2013 (three of the last six).
- Had a team in either the College Football Playoff or the BCS National Championship Game in each of the past six years.
- Matched its league record with 11 bowl teams in 2018, including Boston College, Clemson, Duke, Georgia Tech, Miami, NC State, Pitt, Syracuse, Virginia, Virginia Tech and Wake Forest. The 11 bowl teams tied for the most among any conference.
- Was the only conference to send every team to at least one bowl game from 2016-18. In addition, the ACC was tied for the most bowl teams (32) among all conferences in that span (11 in 2016, 10 in 2017, 11 in 2018).
- Had produced 19 postseason wins since the 2016 season, the most of any conference.

Those facts aren't lost on Swinney, who has actively contested narratives questioning the ACC's strength.

"The rhetoric used to be, 'Well, an ACC team's never going to win the national championship because they don't play anybody. So when they get to the postseason and they've gotta play the big bad boys, they can't beat them,'" Swinney said. "Well, now we win, and [they say] the only reason we win is because we don't play anybody. So you can't have it both ways."

AME	CLEMSON	24
GA	SEPT. 7, 2019 Memorial Stadium • Cle

CLEMSON, S.C. – No. 1/1 Clemson extended its winning streak to 17 games, tying the school record set across the 2014-15 seasons, as the Tigers defeated the No. 12/11 Texas A&M Aggies inside a sold-out Memorial Stadium, 24-10.

Quarterback Trevor Lawrence completed 24-of-35 passes for 268 passing yards and one passing touchdown along with his second rushing touchdown of the season. Lyn-J Dixon led the ground attack, posting 79 yards on 11 attempts and one touchdown.

One year after Clemson's top-ranked scoring defense allowed 501 yards at Texas A&M, Clemson held Texas A&M to 289 total yards on Saturday. It included holding quarterback Kellen Mond to 236 passing yards (97 through three quarters) after Mond accounted for 430 yards in the teams' meeting in 2018.

After a scoreless first quarter, Texas A&M opened the scoring on a 16-play drive that ended with a 32-yard field goal. But Clemson responded with three scoring drives to end the half. Lawrence connected with Justyn Ross for a 30-yard touchdown in the second quarter. After a 29-yard field goal by B.T. Potter, Lawrence rushed for his second touchdown of the season with 33 seconds remaining in the second quarter to push the lead to 14 at the break

Dixon added a rushing touchdown in the second half to bring Clemson's point total to 24. Texas A&M's lone touchdown of the day came on a Jalen Wydermyer touchdown reception with only six seconds remaining, snapping a streak of 11 consecutive wins by 20 points or more, one shy of the most by any team in the AP Poll era (since 1936).

ME	SYRACUSE	6
GA	SEPT. 14, 2019 THE DOME • SYRACUS

SYRACUSE, N.Y. — No. 1/1 Clemson set a new school record with its 18th consecutive victory, defeating the Syracuse Orange, 41-6, at The Dome in Clemson's first road test of the season. It was a charged atmosphere, representing the third-largest crowd in facility history and Syracuse's first home sellout since Quarterback Trevor Lawrence completed 22-of-39 passes for a career-high 395 yards with three passing touchdowns. His 395 passing yards represented the 11th-highest single game total in school history.

Clemson had two receivers post 100-yard games. Tee Higgins recorded 150 yards on seven receptions, all in the first half, the most by a Tiger in a half since Sammy Watkins' school-record 177-yard first half against Wake Forest in 2012. Amari Rodgers added 121 yards on four catches, including touchdown receptions of 16 and 87 yards.

Clemson led throughout, with Rodgers opening the scoring. Twice, Clemson gifted Syracuse the ball inside Clemson's own 10-yard line following turnovers, but Clemson forced an interception and turnover on downs on the resulting possessions.

Despite the gaudy offensive numbers, the story of the game was Clemson's stout defense, which held Syracuse out of the end zone and helped Clemson outgain Syracuse, 612-187. Clemson finished with 15 tackles for loss, its most in the Dabo Swinney era, including eight sacks, tied for the eighth-most in a game in school history.

CLEMSON 21
NORTH CAROLINA 20

SEPT. 28, 2019
KENAN MEMORIAL STADIUM • CHAPEL HILL, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. - No. 1 Clemson stopped North Carolina on a two-point conversion attempt with less than two minutes remaining to defeat the Tar Heels, 21-20, at Kenan Memorial Stadium. The game marked the first time in nine years that the Tigers traveled to Chapel Hill, N.C., and represented the first time since 2002 that Clemson beat the Tar Heels in Chapel Hill.

North Carolina opened the game with a four-play touchdown drive capped by a 40-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Sam Howell to Dyami Brown. Running back Travis Etienne eventually responded for Clemson with a 13-yard touchdown in the second quarter.

After Howell produced a second passing touchdown for North Carolina, quarterback Trevor Lawrence found the end zone for his fourth rushing touchdown of the season to tie the game at 14 with less than a minute to go before halftime.

The teams traded scoreless possessions throughout the third quarter, but in the fourth quarter, Lawrence connected with Tee Higgins on a 38-yard touchdown to give the Tigers their first lead of the game with 9:54 remaining. Lawrence finished the contest having completed 18-of-30 passes for 206 yards and a career-best 45 rushing yards. Higgins finished with game highs in receptions (six) and receiving yards (129).

Trailing 21-14, North Carolina engineered a 16-play, 75-yard touchdown drive to pull within one point with 1:17 remaining. North Carolina Head Coach Mack Brown opted to try a two-point conversion attempt, be the Tiger defense stood tall, as Xavier Thomas, James Skalski and Nolan Turner combined to tackle quarterback Sam Howell to preserve the lead. A Clemson recovery on an ensuing onside kick sealed the victory.

Clemson warmed up in its traditional white pants but switched to its championship "orange britches" right before kickoff upon being informed of Wake Forest's loss to Virginia Tech. Clemson then used a record-tying 28-point first quarter to run out to a 28-0 lead.

Running back Travis Etienne added three total touchdowns to bring his career total to 54, breaking C.J. Spiller's record for career touchdowns (51). Etienne finished the game with 112 rushing yards on 14 attempts, and hauled in three receptions for 31 yards.

Quarterback Trevor Lawrence completed 20-of-27 passes for 276 yards and three touchdowns, becoming the first Clemson quarterback to pass for three touchdowns in five consecutive games. The sophomore also rushed for a career-high 59 yards on eight attempts and found the end zone once on the ground.

Justyn Ross and Tee Higgins each recorded 33-yard touchdown receptions. Offensive lineman John Simpson scored his first career touchdown, scoring on a onevard handoff.

Clemson forced four NC State turnovers, all fumbles, as Xavier Thomas, Chad Smith, Tyler Davis and Jack Maddox all recorded fumble recoveries. The defense allowed 290 total yards, its 10th straight opponent to accrue fewer than 300 yards to open the season.

GAM	NOV. 16, 2019 MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMS	SON, S.C.

CLEMSON, S.C. - No. 3/3 Clemson downed Wake Forest, 52-3, on Senior Day, setting a school record with its 22nd consecutive home victory. The 49-point victory was an ACC-record sixth straight by 30 or more.

The Tigers scored on a Trevor Lawrence pass to Tee Higgins on their opening drive, then closed out the half with back-to-back scores from Lawrence to Higgins in just 29 seconds of game clock. The half's final touchdown was set up by an A.J. Terrell interception and gave the Tigers a 31-3 halftime lead. Clemson added touchdowns from Joseph Ngata, Frank Ladson Jr. and Lyn-J Dixon in the second half.

Lawrence recorded a career-high tying four touchdown passes and connected on 21-of-27 passing for 272 yards. Tee Higgins caught three touchdown passes, marking the Tigers' eighth three-touchdown receiving performance in school history and the second such performance this season. Etienne turned in 16 carries for 121 yards and a touchdown, while also catching three passes for 37 yards and took sole possession of the school record for consecutive 100-yard rushing games by reaching the mark in a sixth straight game.

Safety Tanner Muse recorded four tackles (two for loss) a sack and an interception, as the Tiger defense held Wake Forest to 105 total yards of offense (41 passing, 64 rushing). Clemson's defense forced seven three-and-outs while limiting Wake Forest to only five first downs. With the win, Clemson joined 1944 Army and 1972 Nebraska as the only teams in the AP Poll era to win four consecutive games by 45 or more points.

Justyn Ross also added a 16-yard touchdown reception in the second quarter amidst his career-high nine receptions for 111 yards to give the Tigers a 21-3 first-half lead.

14	CLEMSON	29
ME	OHIO STATE	23
GAI	DEC. 28, 2019 STATE FARM STADIUM • GLENDALE, ARIZ.

GLENDALE, Ariz. — Clemson overcame a 16-point deficit and recorded the fifth-largest comeback in school history when the third-seeded Tigers defeated second-seeded Ohio State in the College Football Playoff semifinal at the 2019 Fiesta Bowl.

In the first matchup of 13-0 teams in CFP history, Ohio State ran out to a 16-0 first-half lead, but Clemson minimized the damage by holding the Buckeyes to field goals on all three red zone trips. Three Blake Haubeil field goals and a 68-vard run by J.K. Dobbins provided the 16-point margin with 7:20 remaining in the second

The game turned on a targeting penalty on Ohio State's Shaun Wade that negated a third-down stop to extend a Clemson drive. Clemson scored on the drive on an eight-yard touchdown run by running back Travis Etienne, and quarterback Trevor Lawrence cut the halftime score to 16-14 with a career-long 67-yard scoring run on the following drive.

Clemson took its first lead on a 53-yard touchdown reception by Etienne in the third quarter. The Buckeyes reclaimed the lead on a 23-vard touchdown pass to Chris Olave on fourth down in the fourth quarter. Trailing 23-21, Clemson took the ball at its own six, and Lawrence guided the Tigers 94 yards in four plays for a go-ahead touchdown pass to Etienne with 1:49 to play. Ohio State then drove to the Clemson 23, but Clemson's second interception of the game, a pick by safety Nolan Turner, sealed the victory to send the Tigers to the national championship game.

With the win, Clemson improved to 4-0 all-time against Ohio State.
