A South Carolina win over LSU would...

- ◆ Snap a six-game losing streak and a seven-game winless streak against the Tigers. South Carolina's last win over LSU came in 1994. They are 0-6-1 since that '94 win against the Bayou Bengals.
- ◆ Give the Gamecocks three-consecutive SEC wins. The last time that happened was in 2017 when the Gamecocks defeated Arkansas, Tennessee and Vanderbilt in consecutive games.

QUICKLY: The South Carolina Gamecocks (2-2) are back on the road this week as they travel to the Bayou to face the defending national champion LSU Tigers (1-2) on Saturday, Oct. 24. Game time is set for 7 pm ET (6 pm in Baton Rouge) and the contest will be televised nationally on ESPN.

OVER THE AIRWAVES: Bob Wischusen will serve as the play-by-play voice for ESPN with Dan Orlovsky providing the analysis. Quint Kessenich will handle the sideline reporting. The familiar voices of Gamecock Greats Todd Ellis and Tommy Suggs handle the call for the Gamecock Radio Network.

A LITTLE HISTORY: 2020 marks the 127th season of intercollegiate football at the University of South Carolina, dating back to 1892. It is the 114th-consecutive year in which South Carolina has competed on the gridiron. The University did not field a team in either 1893 or 1906. Carolina owns an all-time record of 614-589-44 (.510).

IT JUST MEANS MORE: The 2020 season marks South Carolina's 29th year in the Southeastern Conference. South Carolina and Arkansas joined the league prior to the 1992 campaign. The Gamecocks earned the SEC Eastern Division title in the 2010 season. The Gamecocks are 99-128-1 (.436) all-time in SEC regular-season play, but are 44-40 (.524) in conference action since the start of the 2010 season.

HAPPY ANNIVERSARY: The 2020 season marks the 10th anniversary of the 2010 squad that captured the SEC Eastern Division title and went on to appear in the SEC Championship game in Atlanta against eventual national champion Auburn. It's the Gamecocks only division title since joining the Southeastern Conference.

ABOUT LAST WEEK: The Gamecocks forced three Bo Nix interceptions, including the first two of Jaycee Horn's career, as Carolina upset the No. 15/14 Auburn Tigers, 30-22, in Columbia last Saturday afternoon. Auburn dominated the team statistics, rolling up 481 on 83 plays compared to just 297 yards on 67 plays for the Gamecocks, but the three picks and being plus-2 in the turnover battle, along with solid red zone defense, helped Carolina rally from an early 9-0 deficit.

IT HAD BEEN AWHILE: The Gamecocks knocked off Auburn for their first win over the Tigers since 1933. The win snapped an eight-game losing streak in the all-time series.

SOUNDS FAMILIAR: The Gamecocks defeated Auburn by a 30-22 score for its first win over the Tigers since 1933. In 2005, South Carolina topped Florida by the same 30-22 margin, which marked the Gamecocks' first win over the Gators since 1939. Those are the only two 30-22 wins in school history.

BACK-TO-BACK: The Gamecocks have posted back-to-back SEC wins for the first time since knocking off Kentucky and Georgia in consecutive weeks last year (Sept. 28 and Oct. 12). The last time the Gamecocks won three SEC games in a row was in 2017 when they defeated Arkansas, Tennessee and Vanderbilt in consecutive games.

BEATING THE WEST: After defeating Auburn last week, the Gamecocks have a chance this week to record a second win over an SEC Western Division team. Carolina has not posted a pair of wins over Western Division foes since the 2013 season when it defeated Arkansas and Mississippi State.

30 FOR 30: The Gamecocks tallied 41 points at Vanderbilt before scoring 30 against Auburn. It's the first time that Carolina has scored 30 or more points in back-to-back SEC games since 2018 when they scored 48 at Ole Miss before tallying 31 at Florida. They haven't put up 30 or more in three-consecutive SEC games since the 2014 season when they scored 38 at Kentucky, 35 at Auburn and 42 vs. Tennessee, ironically all losses.

CAROLINA PICKERS: The Gamecocks intercepted Auburn's Bo Nix three times, with all three leading to touchdowns. Jaycee Horn had the first pick at the Auburn 29 and five plays later, Kevin Harris reached paydirt on the three-yard run. After a Horn deflection led to a Jaylin Dickerson's first career interception at the Auburn 49, the Gamecocks needed 11 plays to score, with Collin Hill pushing it in from the 1. Horn's second pick was returned 34 yards to the Auburn eight, where Kevin Harris needed just one play to reach the end zone.

WALTER CAMP NOTICED: Junior cornerback Jaycee Horn was selected as the National Defensive Player of the Week by the Walter Camp Football Foundation. Horn had two interceptions and deflected another which led to a pick, in the win over Auburn. In addition to the two interceptions, Horn was credited with four pass break ups and three tackles. Horn is the fifth South Carolina player to earn Walter Camp National FBS Player of the Week honors since 2004, and the first since Israel Mukuamu in 2019. The others were quarterback Stephen Garcia (2010), linebacker Melvin Ingram (2011) and safety D.J. Swearingin (2012).

GET OFF MY LAWN: The Gamecocks have held their opponents to just 13-of-47 on third-down conversions this season (27.7 percent), including 1-of-11 against both Tennessee and Vanderbilt. It was a point of emphasis for Carolina, as they allowed opponents to convert 38 percent of third-down opportunities last season. The Gamecocks lead the SEC and are eighth in the nation in third-down percentage defense. In addition, South Carolina has stopped all five of its opponents 4th-down attempts this year.

SEEING RED: The Gamecocks have been very effective in the red zone this season, scoring on 13 of 14 trips into the red zone (92.9 percent), second in the SEC and tied for 18th in the country. More importantly, the Gamecocks have scored touchdowns in 11 of their 14 trips (78.6 percent).

SEEING RED - THE SEQUEL: The Gamecock defense has been stingy in the red zone. Opponents have scored on 12-of-16 trips into the red zone (75.0 percent), but Carolina has surrendered a touchdown on just eight of those trips (50.0 percent).

HOLD ON TO WHAT WE GOT: The Gamecocks have dominated the time of possession in each of their first four games. They held the ball for 34:40 against Tennessee, then logged 36:23 of possession time at Florida, the second-highest mark of a Will Muschamp-led Carolina team. They held it for 31:27 at Vanderbilt and for 31:17 vs. Auburn. Last season, Carolina averaged just 27:01 in TOP. The 36:23 at Florida marked the high mark for a Gamecock team since they notched 37:36 in TOP against Missouri in 2017. The Gamecocks rank ninth in the nation in time of possession at 33:29:

FOURTH QUARTER IS OUR QUARTER: The Gamecocks have outscored their opponents by a 30-10 margin in the fourth quarter this season, easily its best quarter. Last year, Carolina was outscored by a 107-64 margin in the fourth quarter, easily its worst quarter.

FIRST START: Nine players have made their first career starts this season, including four in the season opener against Tennessee. The quartet included quarterback Collin Hill (who made 11 starts at Colorado State), wide receiver Dakereon Joyner, running back Kevin Harris and safety Shilo Sanders. Senior linebacker Damani Staley made his first career start at Florida. Sophomore defensive tackle Zacch Pickens and freshman offensive tackle Vershon Lee both made their first career starts at Vanderbilt. JUCO transfer offensive tackle Jaz-ton Turnetine and freshman defensive end Tonka Hemingway made their first starts against Auburn.

THAT'S MY COACH:

Will Muschamp is in his fifth season at Carolina. He has a 28-27 record as the Gamecocks' head coach. The 28 wins ranks in a tie for eighth on the school's all-time list with Warren Giese, five behind Lou Holtz, while his 55 games coached ranks in a tie for ninth in school history with Sparky Woods, one behind Brad Scott. Overall, Coach Muschamp is in his ninth season as a head coach, logging a 56-48 record, a .538 winning percentage, including a four-year stint at Florida (28-21, .571).

UP NEXT: Carolina will enjoy its lone scheduled bye week next week. The Gamecocks will return to action on Saturday, Nov. 7, when they host the Texas A&M Aggies. Game time is set for 7:30 pm ET from Williams-Brice Stadium in Columbia.

Offense

BOBO DIALS IT UP: Mike Bobo, who spent the past five years as the head coach at Colorado State, serves as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at South Carolina. Bobo is well-versed with the SEC, as he spent 14 years as an assistant at Georgia, his alma mater. A 2012 Broyles Award finalist, he has coached on five SEC East and two SEC championship teams.

QB1: Collin Hill, a graduate transfer who played for Mike Bobo at Colorado State University, edged out sophomore incumbent Ryan Hilinski for the starting nod at quarterback. The 6-4, 222-pounder from Moore, S.C., appeared in 18 games including 11 starts at Colorado State while battling through three ACL injuries. While playing quarterback for the Rams, he completed 263-of-433 passes (60.7 pct.) for 3,323 yards with 23 touchdowns and 11 interceptions, including five career 300-yard passing games.

MORE ON HILL: Collin Hill logged a 3-8 record as a starter at CSU. He was 2-2 in four starts as a true freshman in 2016; was redshirted in 2017; was winless in four starts in 2018; and 1-2 in three starts in 2019. His last appearance came in a start against Arkansas on Sept. 14, 2019. All three of his seasons ended prematurely with an ACL injury.

HILL AS GAMECOCK: Collin Hill, who grew up in Moore, S.C. and prepped at Dorman High School, made his first collegiate start in the Palmetto State in the season opener against Tennessee. He responded with a 25-for-39, 290-yard effort with one touchdown and one interception. He had another solid outing at Florida completing 28-of-47 passes for 212 yards with a pair of touchdowns and no interceptions. He notched his first win as a Gamecock at Vandy when he completed 16-of-24 passes for 196 yards, and scored two rushing touchdowns, the first Carolina QB to do that since Jake Bentley in 2017. He was 15-of-24 for 144 yards with a touchdown and an interception against Auburn. For the season, Hill is 2-2 as a starter, connecting on 84-of-134 passes (62.7 percent) for 842 yards with four touchdowns and two picks. He also has four rushing touchdowns.

QB2: For the second year in a row, sophomore Ryan Hilinski opened the season as the Gamecocks' backup quarterback. Hilinski was forced into a starting role in the second game of the 2019 season following a season-ending injury to starter Jake Bentley, and started the final 11 games of the campaign. He is 4-7 as a starting signal-caller. He set school freshmen records for pass completions and attempts in 2019, and set a school record with 180 consecutive passes without an interception. He saw his first action this season in mop-up duty at Vanderbilt, but did not throw a pass.

HOP ON THE BUS: The Gamecocks opened the season with a "running back by committee" approach after losing highly-touted freshman running back MarShawn Lloyd, who suffered an ACL injury early in fall camp. However, true sophomore Kevin Harris quickly turned it into primarily a one-man band. Known by his teammates as "The Bus," Harris had 13 carries for 55 yards and a touchdown against Tennessee, then went for 100 yards on 22 carries with a touchdown at Florida before putting up the best game of his career, a 21-carry, 171-yard outing at Vanderbilt, including an 88-yard run. He toted the pigskin a career-high 25 times for 83 yards and two scores in the win over Auburn. For the season, he is third in the SEC and 17th in the country with 102.2 rushing yards per game. After just four games he is over 60 percent of the way to Tavien Feaster's team-high 672 yards rushing for the 2019 season. Harris has also scored seven of the Gamecocks' 15 touchdowns and ranks fifth in the SEC with 10.5 points per game. He has scored in all four games this season.

HURRAH FOR HARRIS: Sophomore running back Kevin Harris reached the 100-yard rushing mark in back-to-back weeks, rushing for 100 yards at Florida before carrying 21 times for a career-high 171 yards and two touchdowns in the win over Vandy. He became the first Gamecock to reach the 100-yard rushing plateau in back-to-back games since Rico Dowdle accomplished the feat in 2016 versus Tennessee and Missouri.

THE LONG RUN: Kevin Harris burst up the middle and raced 88 yards untouched to paydirt in the win over Vandy. It tied for the fourth-longest run from scrimmage in school history and is the longest run in FBS play this season. Harris also has a 75-yard run in his career, accounting for two of the 17 runs of 75-yards or longer in school history. Harris and Mike Davis (2013) are the only two players with two 75+ yard runs as a Gamecock.

NEXT MAN UP: Redshirt sophomore Deshaun Fenwick is the "veteran" in the running backs' room. He is a bigger back who logged a pair of 100-yard games despite playing in just seven games and carrying the pigskin in just four contests in his first two seasons for the Garnet & Black. He is second on the squad with 159 yards on 29 carries this season, and is averaging 5.5 yards per carry.

CHECK DOWN: The Gamecock running back duo of Kevin Harris and Deshaun Fenwick has proved to be capable receivers this season as well. Harris and Fenwick rank third and fourth on the squad with 11 and nine catches, respectively.

HE'S SHI, BUT KNOW HIS NAME: Senior wide receiver Shi Smith is the No. 1 receiver for the Gamecocks after working in the shadows of Deebo Samuel and Bryan Edwards over the past three seasons and is the team's top playmaker. He stepped up in the opener with a 10-catch, 140-yard performance against Tennessee and followed that up with a

He is third in the SEC with 32 receptions (8.5 per game) and is eighth with 86.8 receiving yards per game). He has 151 career receptions for 1,918 yards. He is eighth on the school's all-time list of receptions.

SHI LIGHTS - HAVE YOU SEEN HIM?: Senior wide receiver Shi Smith is off to a great start this season. In the season opener against Tennessee, the senior wide out caught 10 passes for 140 yards and a touchdown. It matched the second-best season opener for a Gamecock wide receiver and was the best effort in an opener since 1984. He followed that up with a career-best 12 receptions for 85 yards and a score at Florida. He became the first player in South Carolina history to record back-to-back games with double figures in pass receptions.

BACK-TO-BACK: Shi Smith recorded 22 receptions in the season's first two games, the second-highest two-game total in school history.

THE X FACTOR: Sophomore Xavier Legette is considered the Gamecocks' second-best wide receiver. He has seven catches for 113 yards this season, a team-leading 16.1-yards per catch. Legette was a quarterback in his school and is still learning the nuances of the position, but is athletic and has a high ceiling.

THROW IT TO THE TIGHT END: Senior Nick Muse, the latest in a long line of standout Gamecock tight ends, is second on the team with 13 receptions for 185 yards, an average of 14.2 yards per catch. Muse, who was named to the preseason John Mackey Award watch list which recognizes the nation's top tight end, joined the Gamecocks at the start of fall camp in 2019 following a transfer from William & Mary.

A TALE OF ONE CITY: Tight end Nick Muse has had the best of times and the worst of times in his two games against Vanderbilt. In 2019, Muse suffered a season-ending ACL injury against the Commodores. This year, the senior had his best game as a Gamecock, catching five passes for 85 yards.

IN THE TRENCHES: The Gamecocks have probably their deepest and most experienced offensive line under head coach Will Muschamp. Four players - Sadarius Hutcherson, Eric Douglas, Jovaughn Gwyn and Dylan Wonnum have started each of the four games.

Fifth-year senior Sadarius Hutcherson, a preseason all-league selection and a member of the Outland Trophy Watch List, leads the unit. He has returned to his more natural guard position after playing left tackle last season. He has made 33 career starts, most on the squad, including 30-consecutive starts. He was recognized as the SEC's Offensive Lineman of the Week for his efforts at Vanderbilt when he graded out at 88 percent with seven knockdowns and no missed assignments.

Dylan Wonnum, a Freshman All-American two years ago, returns to man a tackle position after being hampered by an ankle injury for much of the 2019 campaign. He started each of the first three games at left tackle, but returned to right tackle against Auburn, his primary position over the past two years. A Freshman All-American in 2018, he is on the Wuerffel Trophy Watch List and a member of SAAC.

Junior Eric Douglas has earned the starting nod at center this season. He has appeared in 25 games during his career.

Redshirt sophomore Jovaughn Gwyn, who is considered one of the strongest players on the squad, starts at right guard. He has started 15-consecutive games.

The final spot, a tackle position, has been in flux. Redshirt freshman Jakai Moore earned the start in each of the first two contests at right tackle. He played in three games last season, making a pair of starts. True freshman Vershon Lee made the start at right tackle at Vanderbilt. JUCO transfer Jazston Turnetine earned the start at left tackle against Auburn, his first career start. Sophomore Jaylen Nichols and junior Jordan Rhodes have also been starters in their Carolina careers.

Defense

THE VETERANS UP FRONT: The Gamecock defensive line features three seniors and a junior in the starting lineup. Keir Thomas and Jabari Ellis work in the middle, while preseason All-SEC pick Aaron Sterling plays defensive end and junior Kingsley (JJ) Enagbare works at the BUCK. Sterling has logged the best numbers, entering the 2020 season with 16.0 tackles for loss and 9.0 sacks.

KINGSLEY HAS BEEN DY-NO-MITE: Regarded as the Gamecocks' top pass rusher, Kingsley "JJ" Enagbare has gotten off to an excellent start this season. In the opener against Tennessee, he recorded a career-high nine tackles, including a pair of sacks, and forced a fumble while making his debut at the BUCK position. He also notched sacks at Vanderbilt and versus Auburn. After four games he leads the SEC with 4.0 sacks. His 1.0 sacks per game is tied for 15th in the nation. His 4.5 tackles for loss rank sixth in the league.

NO DOUBTING THOMAS: Fifth-year senior Keir Thomas is putting together an excellent season. He is fourth on the team with 16 tackles, despite only playing in three games, and has 3.0 sacks, tying Enagbare for first in the SEC and 15th in the country at 1.0 sacks per game.

TALENT BEHIND THEM: The Gamecocks have a trio of highly-touted players right behind that veteran quartet up front. Sophomore Zacch Pickens is becoming a force in the middle of the line, Jordan Burch is a freshman BUCK who is the second-highest ranked recruit to sign with Carolina behind only Jadeveon Clowney, and freshman defensive end Tonka Hemingway earned his first start in the win over Auburn. Pickens, who made his first start at Vanderbilt, has recorded eight tackles this season, Burch has 10 stops, including 2.0 tackles for loss and a fumble recovery, and Hemingway has a pair of pass breakups, a quarterback hurry and a forced fumble on his resume.

KEEPING UP WITH JONESES: Junior linebacker Ernest Jones is the vocal leader of the defense from the MIKE position. A preseason All-SEC selection, Jones led the team in tackles as a sophomore with 97 stops, 20 more than anyone else on the squad. He ranked fourth in the SEC with 8.1 tackles per game a year ago. He was the team leader again in the season opener against Tennessee with 11 stops and had five stops at Florida before matching his career high with 13 tackles at Vanderbilt, including a career-best 3.0 tackles for loss. He leads the team with 36 tackles, an average of 9.0 per game, 10th in the SEC, and is tied for 10th in the league with 3.5 tackles for loss.

GETTING IN THE SACK: The Gamecocks have recorded 10 sacks (2.5 per game) through four games. Kingsley Enagbare leads the team with 4.0, including a pair against Tennessee. Keir Thomas had 2.0 sacks against Auburn and is also averaging 1.0 per game. Carolina averaged 2.0 sacks per game a season ago. Here are the individual numbers:

Jabari Ellis	0.5	1.5
Rick Sandidge	1.0	1.5
R.J. Roderick	0.0	1.0
Sherron Greene	0.0	0.5

TOOTING YOUR OWN HORN: Jaycee Horn is considered the best cover corner on the team. The junior rarely gets balls thrown his way, but Auburn challenged him last week and he was up to the task, intercepting two passes and breaking up four others, earning Walter Camp National Player of the Week and SEC Defensive Player of the Week honors. He is tied for second in the nation with 2.0 pass breakups per game.

DON'T PICK ON MUK: Israel Mukuamu has received his share of accolades after bursting on the national scene with a three-interception performance in the upset win at Georgia last season. At 6-4, Mukuamu has spent most of his time at cornerback, but started at safety at Florida. The junior preseason All-SEC defensive back owns six career interceptions, including one off Kyle Trask at Florida, and was listed on both the Thorpe and Lott IMPACT Trophy watch lists. He suffered a groin injury in the season opener against Tennessee and has been limited since then. He did not play last week against Auburn.

HERE'S TO YOU, JAMMIE ROBINSON: Sophomore Jammie Robinson is one of the hardest hitters on the team. He is second on the team with 25 tackles, including 18 solo stops after four games. Robinson earned Freshman All-SEC and second-team Freshman All-America honors in 2019.

SHILO WAS PRIME TIME: Redshirt freshman Shilo Sanders came up big against Auburn. Making his second career start, Sanders recorded a team-high 10 tackles, including nine solo stops. He is third on the team with 20 tackles.

PICK THIS: The Gamecocks have five interceptions through four games this season after picking off a dozen passes a season ago, led by Israel Mukuamu's four. Izzy got the team's first one at Florida and Cam Smith recorded his first career pick at Vanderbilt. The Gamecocks picked off Auburn's Bo Nix three times last week, including the first two of Jaycee Horn's career. Here are the numbers:

INTERCEPTIONS	2020	CAREER
Israel Mukuamu	1	6
Jaycee Horn	2	2
Ernest Jones	0	2

Special Teams

WHITE ON THE MONEY: Senior placekicker Parker White has worked his way into being a very consistent and productive placekicker for the Gamecocks. He has converted 51-of-70 field goals in his career, 72.9 percent, including 34-of-37 (91.9 pct.) from inside 40 yards. His 51 field goals made and 70 field goals attempted both rank third on the school's all-time list. He also ranks third on the school's all-time scoring list with 263 points. White owns a career long of 50 yards and has five fourth-quarter or overtime game-winning field goals in his career. He is 6-for-7 in field goal attempts this season, with his only miss coming from 53-yards out, which snapped a string of 14-consecutive field goals made, one shy of the school record of 15, set by Collin Mackie from 1987-88.

WELL THAT BITES: Parker White fell one shy of matching the school record for consecutive field goals made when his 53-yard attempt in the rainy conditions at Vandy missed wide left. The 53-yarder would have been a career long. He had connected on 14-straight prior to that miss, one shy of the school record of 15, set by Collin Mackie from 1987-88. He has connected on 16 of his last 17 attempts and ranks sixth among FBS kickers with 51 career field goals made.

KICKING WITH KROEGER: True freshman punter Kai Kroeger has punted 17 times this season for a 42.2-yard average with five inside the 20 and a long of 53 yards. After punting six times for just 211 yards, a 35.2-yard average in his debut against Tennessee, he has punted 11 times over the past three games for 506 yards, a 46.0-yard average.

SEC HONORS: Freshman punter Kai Kroeger was recognized as the SEC Special Teams Player of the Week for his performance against Auburn. He punted five times for a 48.4-yard average, including a career-best 53-yarder. Three of his five punts were downed inside the 20, at the 2, 7 and 19-yard lines. He had a net punting average of 44.4 yards in the contest after entering the game with just a net of 33.1 yards per punt this season.

#7/5 LSU 45

South Carolina 24

October 10, 2015
Tiger Stadium
Baton Rouge, La.

BATON ROUGE, LA.— Few fans of Carolina football could have imagined they would call LSU's Tiger Stadium home, but after a tumultuous week in Columbia the Gamecocks went west to take on the seventh-ranked Tigers.

On the field, the Gamecocks faced one of the most potent offenses in the country and Heisman candidate Leonard Fournette. A relentless and physical ground game would be the difference for LSU, though, who won 45-24 behind 54 rushes for 396 yards. The Tigers are now 5-0 (3-0 SEC), the Gamecocks move back to 2-4 (0-4).

Perry Orth finished with 200 yards passing and a pair of touchdown throws. One would go to Pharoah Cooper, who hauled in seven passes for 105 yards. On defense, Marquavius Lewis had his best game in the Garnet and Black, with nine tackles and a sack.

The Gamecocks would open the scoring on their very first drive, using a big third-down conversion to set up a field goal. On their own 45, the Gamecocks faced a third and 11. Orth hooked up with Cooper for a 42 yard passing play to get the ball into the red zone, setting up Elliott Fry's 21-yard field goal.

LSU would immediately counter that score with a 13 play, 75-yard touchdown drive that was capped by a four-yard run by Darrel Williams. It would score again on its first drive of the second quarter to go ahead 14-3, but the Gamecocks would not run and hide from the early adversity. Instead, it would come up with their most explosive play of the day to ignite a small but passionate fanbase in the stadium.

After LSU's touchdown, freshman Rashad Fenton took the ensuing kickoff 96 yards to score on his first kick return ever for the team. It snapped a 13-year stretch without a kickoff return for the program, with the last coming from Matthew Thomas at Virginia in 2002.

LSU added a field goal as the half expired to take a 17-10 lead into intermission.

Through the first two quarters, the defense held Fournette to just 49 yards (3.3 per carry), but Harris responded to the run-focused Gamecock defense with 135 yards on 13 completions.

Fournette would nearly double his first-half rushing total on one carry. The sophomore went for an 87-yard touchdown run on his second touch of the third quarter and the Tigers would extend the lead to 24-10. After a three-and-out for Carolina, LSU went for another big play to make it 31-10. Facing a third-and-24 at its own 38, Harris appeared to overthrow his intended receiver, but a streaking Travin Dural caught the pass on the fly and went untouched for a 62-yard score.

Needing a quick answer, South Carolina got just that as it went 60 yards in just 90 seconds to score. Staring at fourth-and-eight and just out of field goal range at the 36, Perry Orth would hit Jerell Adams over the middle. The senior tight end broke an ankle tackle and went in for his second touchdown of the season on his longest reception of the season.

The third quarter would end with dueling touchdown drives, starting with LSU going 75 yards on just six plays right after Adams' touchdown that made it 38-17. Carolina responded through the air with a three-play drive that would also result in a touchdown. Orth started things off with a 15-yard strike to Matrick Belton, then hit Cooper on a slant and let the playmaker take it 43 yards for the score.

It appeared that the Gamecocks caught a break on the ensuing kickoff, as Landon Ard recovered his own onside kick, but the referees ruled that D.J. Smith was offside on the kick. The Tigers would field the re-kick.

LSU's ground game continued to grind on the Gamecock defense, keeping the score at an arm's length with a touchdown on its fourth consecutive drive to begin the fourth quarter. This time it would be Derrius Guice, diving in from four yards out for the final score of a 45-24 game. Carolina would gain just 33 yards in the fourth, as the Tigers dominated possession through the run game.

WILL MUSCHAMP

Head Coach

Fifth Year at South Carolina

Will Muschamp is in his fifth season directing the Gamecocks' football program in 2020. Muschamp was introduced as the University of South Carolina's 34th head football coach on December 7, 2015.

Coach Muschamp owns a 28-27 mark since taking over in Columbia. He recorded more wins in his first three seasons (22) than any coach in school history, and trailed only Steve Spurrier (28) after four seasons at the helm. He is also the only coach to take the Gamecocks to bowl games in each of his first three seasons. His 28 wins ranks tied for eighth in school history and his 55 games coached at South Carolina is tied for ninth in school history.

Now in his ninth season as a college head coach, all in the Southeastern Conference, Coach Muschamp owns a 56-48 record, a .538 winning percentage.

In his first season in Columbia, Muschamp guided the Gamecocks to a 6-7 mark and a spot in the Birmingham Bowl. The Gamecocks doubled their win total from the previous season while increasing their SEC wins from one to three. The Gamecocks started as many true freshman (7) as any school in the country, and were the only Division I school to have true freshmen lead the team in both passing (Jake Bentley) and rushing (Rico Dowdle). Seventy-six of the Gamecocks' 113-man Birmingham Bowl roster (67.3 percent) were either freshmen or sophomores in his first campaign.

His second season brought more success, as the team won nine games for just the seventh time in school history, was the only Power 5 school to have a multiple win total increase in 2016 and 2017, finished second in the SEC East and earned a second-straight bowl appearance. The season culminated with an Outback Bowl victory over Michigan on New Year's Day.

Muschamp's third squad posted a 7-6 campaign and a third-straight bowl appearance despite being decimated by injuries on the defensive side of the ball. The return of Deebo Samuel, who earned All-America recognition, sparked an offense that logged five games of 500 or more yards.

In his fourth year, the Gamecocks slipped to 4-8, but the season was highlighted by an overtime win over third-ranked Georgia, the eventual SEC Eastern Division champion. Javon Kinlaw earned first-team All-America honors and Bryan Edwards became the school's all-time leading receiver.

Regarded as an outstanding defensive mind, Muschamp is a 25-year coaching veteran, including 17 years in the Southeastern Conference.

His previous head coaching experience came at the University of Florida where he posted a 28-21 record from 2011-14. He led the Gators to three bowl games in his four seasons in Gainesville and was recognized as the SEC Coach of the Year in 2012 after guiding Florida to an 11-2 record and a Top-10 finish.

As an assistant coach, the Rome, Ga., native has worked in two national championship games (2003 and 2009), winning with LSU in 2003, and coached in a pair of BCS bowl games following the 2008 and 2012 seasons. He has coached in and won three conference championship games, twice in the SEC and once in the Big 12. He was a finalist for the 2007 Broyles Award, presented to the nation's top assistant coach.

Prior to his arrival in Columbia, Muschamp most recently served as the defensive coordinator at Auburn University in 2015, his third stint as an SEC defensive coordinator. He also held that title at Auburn from 2006-07 and at LSU from 2002-04. In his six seasons as an SEC defensive coordinator, Muschamp's units ranked among the nation's Top-10 in total defense and in scoring defense five times.

Muschamp's first full-time coaching experience in the SEC came at LSU under Nick Saban. He was the Tigers' linebacker coach for one season before being elevated to defensive coordinator from 2002-04. His 2003 defense helped the Tigers to the national championship by leading the nation both in scoring defense (11.0 ppg) and total defense (252.0 ypg), while finishing second nationally in pass efficiency defense (89.8) and third in rushing defense (67.0 ypg).

Prior to taking the reins at Florida, Muschamp served as the defensive coordinator at Texas from 2008-10. Under his guidance, the Longhorn defense ranked No. 1 in the nation with 119 sacks and ranked in the Top-10 nationally allowing 2.9 yards per rushing attempt (third), 96.7 rushing yards per game (fourth) and 297.4 yards per game (seventh), all Big 12 bests during that span. In 2009, Texas played in the BCS National Championship game. Under Muschamp's tutelage, Brian Orakpo won the 2008 Rotary Lombardi, Bronko Nagurski and Ted Hendricks awards. In the 2009 and 2010 NFL Drafts, Muschamp had a combined eight players drafted, seven in the first four rounds, including first-rounders Brian Orakpo and Earl Thomas.

In four of his nine seasons as an FBS defensive coordinator, his teams allowed less than 100 rushing yards per game and twice led the nation in rushing defense. His 2003 LSU defense led the country by allowing 67 yards per game on the ground, the best mark by an SEC team in the 2000s, while Texas gave up just 73.1 yards on the ground in 2009 to pace the nation.

A 1994 Georgia graduate, Muschamp moved immediately into coaching, working as a GA at Auburn from 1995-96, while earning his master's degree. He served as a secondary coach at West Georgia (1998) and Eastern Kentucky (1999) before moving into his first defensive coordinator position at Valdosta State for the 2000 season, where he helped the Blazers to a 10-2 record and the Gulf South title.

Muschamp also logged a stint in the NFL, working as the Miami Dolphins Assistant Head Coach for Defense in 2005 under Nick Saban.

During his playing career at Georgia, Muschamp earned his way from walk-on to scholarship player by the spring of his redshirt freshman season and eventually was named co-captain as a senior. A safety on the gridiron, he earned a spot on the SEC Academic Honor Roll in 1993.

Born August 3, 1971, Muschamp and his wife, the former Carol Davis, have two sons, Jackson and Whit. Jackson is a walk-on freshman quarterback at Georgia.

COLUMBIA, S.C. (AP) — Tennessee quarterback Jarrett Guarantano expected a difficult time at South Carolina. He also expected the 16th-ranked Vols to come out on top, no matter how hard things got.

The Vols squandered a two-touchdown lead in the second half and held on to defeat the Gamecocks 31-27 for their seventh straight victory.

The game wasn't decided until a Tennessee punt touched South Carolina's Cam Smith and the Vols' Jimmy Holiday recovered with 1:24 to go.

"When you go on the road in the SEC, nothing comes easy," Guarantano said. "You saw some of that today."

There was also plenty of Guarantano to see, as well. The fifth-year passer threw the tie-breaking touchdown to Josh Palmer with 9:35 left in the game, then stayed poised enough down the stretch to keep South Carolina at bay.

Tennessee looked to have the Southeastern Conference and season opener in hand when they went ahead 21-7 on Eric Gray's 12-yard scoring run on their opening drive of the third quarter.

But South Carolina rallied behind first-time starter quarterback Collin Hill with two touchdowns and a field goal to tie it at 24-all in the fourth quarter.

That's when Guarantano struck with back-to-back big plays for the deciding score.

Guarantano was heavily pressured when he got the ball to an all-alone Brandon Johnson for 33 yards inside South Carolina territory. The next play, Guarantano threw a picture perfect pass to Palmer for a 32-yard touchdown.

Palmer was grateful Guarantano trusted him with the play. "But it was just a traditional go route, beat the defender and caught it over the shoulder," he said.

South Carolina looked like it had a final chance when it forced a Tennessee punt with 90 seconds left. But the punt touched Cam Smith after it hit the ground, Holiday recovered and the Vols ran out the clock for the win.

Guarantano finished 19 of 31 for 259 yards. He also rushed for Tennessee's first touchdown.

South Carolina, with a new offensive coordinator in ex-Colorado State coach Mike Bobo and new quarterback in grad transfer Hill, showed some spark as it took the opening drive 75 yards for a touchdown on Kevin Harris' 3-yard run.

Linebacker Henry To'o To'o had a 32-yard interception return for a touchdown, catching the ball after it bounced off receiver Shi Smith's hands and tip-toeing down the sideline for the score.

Hill finished 25 of 39 passing for 290 yards and a touchdown. Smith had 10 catches for 140 yards for the Gamecocks.

Hill blamed himself for the interception, throwing the ball behind Smith where To'o To'o could make the defensive play.

"The play that sticks out to me is the pick six," Hill said. "You just can't turn the ball over."

GAME CHANGER

South Carolina was looking to get the ball back with a chance to win the game with a successful two-minute drill, but a fumble on a punt return gave the Volunteers the ball and clinched a 31-27 victory over the Gamecocks in both team's season opener.

KEY STAT

140 — Shi Smith had his second consecutive 100-yard game in a contest against Tennessee as he caught 10 passes for 140 yards and a touchdown in the 31-27 loss. Smith had 156 yards receiving against Tennessee last year, which is a career high.

#3/3 Florida 38

South Carolina 24

October 3, 2020

GAINESVILLE, FLA. (AP) — Kyle Trask and Kyle Pitts hooked up for two more touchdowns, continuing their hot start and leading No. 3 Florida to a 38-24 victory over South Carolina on Saturday.

Trask completed 21 of 29 passes for 268 yards, with four touchdowns and an interception. His second-quarter fumble kept the Gamecocks (0-2) in the game early.

Pitts finished with four receptions for 57 yards, commanding extra attention and beating South Carolina's top defenders. He nearly made a one-handed catch in the third quarter, but the ball slipped off his left fingertips.

The K2K connection now has six touchdowns in two games, one more than it notched in 2019. The next performance comes at Kyle Field, where Texas A&M will try to become the first Southeastern Conference opponent to slow down Trask and Pitts in 2020.

Some thought former Florida coach Will Muschamp and his Gamecocks would find a way. But the Gators (2-0) had their way with South Carolina for three quarters in front of 15,120 socially distant fans in the Swamp. They finished with 347 yards and punted twice.

Kadarius Toney put an exclamation point on the victory with a 57-yard touchdown catch late in the third. He somehow broke through three defenders, turning a 7-yard catch into Florida's biggest gain.

He ended with six receptions for 86 yards and a touchdown to go along with 42 yards on two punt returns.

Kevin Harris was one of the few bright spots for South Carolina, which flubbed a chance to make it a one-score game in the final minute. The sophomore ran 22 times for 100 yards and a score.

Collin Hill completed 28 of 47 passes for 212 yards and two touchdowns. He was sacked four times. He threw behind Shi Smith in the end zone on Carolina's final play, which ended an 18-play, 7-plus minute drive without any points.

GAME CHANGER

Kyle Trask connected with Kadarius Toney for a 57-yard touchdown reception that gave Florida a 38-14 lead with 4:44 left in the third quarter. The Gamecocks scored the final 10 points and had an 18-play drive on their final possession but did not score to fall by a pair of touchdowns.

KEY STAT

100 — Kevin Harris had 100 yards on the ground on 22 carries for the Gamecocks, his second 100-yard rushing performance in his career. He had a touchdown on the ground and in the air as his nine-yard touchdown pass from Collin Hill in the fourth quarter made it 38-24.

South Carolina 41 Vanderbilt 7

October 10, 2020
Vanderbilt Stadium
Nashville, Tenn.
1,288

NASHVILLE, TENN. (AP) — The South Carolina Gamecocks ran the ball so well on a rainy, sloppy day that quarterback Collin Hill would not have minded if he never threw the ball.

Hill ran for two touchdowns and Kevin Harris ran for two TDs and a career-high 171 yards as the South Carolina Gamecocks beat Vanderbilt 41-7 Saturday for their first victory of the season.

"I just like winning," Hill said.

The Gamecocks (1-2, 1-2 SEC) won their 12th straight in this series by dominating Vanderbilt 486-249 in total offense and three sacks on a rainy day. South Carolina had more yards rushing (290) than the Commodores had total yards.

Harris, the sophomore running back limited last season by an injured groin, had himself a day. He ran for a 25-yard TD early in the third, and he added a career-long 88-yarder early in the fourth. South Carolina coach Will Muschamp said Harris gets better as the game goes on.

"You get tired of hitting him, and there's nothing really soft on his body," Muschamp said. "He's got a short stature but he's a very muscular guy. He runs with high knees, he gets behind his pads and when you take him on there's nothing there that's soft to hit. He's a guy that wears on people as the game continues to go."

Vanderbilt (0-3, 0-3) remains winless after having 56 scholarship players available for this game, just three above the limit set by the Southeastern Conference for a team to play a game. The Commodores already had six players opt out of this season.

Vanderbilt coach Derek Mason said he learned Thursday that his numbers would be limited by injuries and contact tracing during a pandemic.

"These are challenging times, and I think in challenging times what you've got to do is just take it one day at a time ..." Mason said.

Parker White kicked a pair of field goals, including a 43-yarder that gave the Gamecocks the lead for good in the first quarter.

Vanderbilt had its chances early to either tie or take a lead. Pierson Cooke missed a 29-yard field goal wide right for Vanderbilt and is now 1 of 4 this season.

In the second quarter, the Commodores went for it on fourth-and-2 at the South Carolina 3. Freshman Ken Seals rolled right and wound up being tackled, missing the chance to throw to a receiver in the end zone when open or run himself.

"We had a chip on our shoulder because we were 0-2," Gamecocks linebacker Ernest Jones said.

Hill hit Nick Muse with a 32-yard pass, starting a 12-play, 96-yard drive that the South Carolina quarterback capped himself for a 14-point swing. Hill went over the top for a 1-yard touchdown and a 10-0 lead with 2:09 left in the first half.

South Carolina scored the final 24 points. Hill ran for a 10-yard TD in the third, and Harris broke loose for his 88-yarder and Dakereon Joyner had a 47-yard TD, both in the fourth.

GAME CHANGER

Carolina scored the final 24 points of the game, starting with a 10-yard Collin Hill touchdown run with 4:22 left in the third quarter. Kevin Harris sealed the win with an 88-yard touchdown run with 13:07 left in the fourth, the longest run by a Carolina back since 2006.

KEY STAT

171 – Harris has back-to-back 100-yard rushing performances after his 171 yards on 21 carries on the ground in the Vandy win. It was part of 289 rushing yards for the Gamecocks in the victory.

South Carolina 30 #15/14 Auburn 22

October 17, 2020
Williams-Brice Stadium
Columbia, S.C.
15,766

COLUMBIA, S.C. (AP) — South Carolina's Jaycee Horn was tired of hearing he didn't have the ball skills to be a truly exceptional cornerback.

His play against No. 15 Auburn proved he did — and led the Gamecocks to a breakthrough win over the Tigers on Saturday.

Horn had the first two interceptions of his career and his pass break up led to a third — all which South Carolina turned into touchdowns — for a 30-22 victory that was its first win over Auburn in 87 years.

Horn is a junior who's been a lockdown corner most of his career.

"If a team throws at him like that every game, he'll have a game like that every game," Gamecocks receiver Shi Smith said of Horn.

Horn was assigned to Auburn receiver Seth Williams, one of the best receivers in the Southeastern Conference, averaging 18 yards a catch. Williams finished with four catches for 74 yards, but no scores.

"I heard a lot of people saying I (don't) have any ball skills, which is crazy to me," Horn said. "I just knew the day would come when I'd have a lot of opportunities to make plays."

South Carolina made plenty of them throughout to beat Auburn for the first time in 87 years.

Kevin Harris ran for two touchdowns, Smith added a 10-yard TD catch and Horn and the defense did enough to stop Bo Nix and the Tigers' attack.

Auburn (2-2) had won eight straight in the series and jumped out to a 9-0 lead in the opening 10 minutes. But Nix, the sophomore quarterback, threw three picks and the Gamecocks (2-2) cashed in each time to win consecutive games for the first time in more than a year.

Smith had eight catches including his score midway through the third quarter that put South Carolina ahead for good, 20-19.

Auburn was driving on its following series when Nix threw his third interception — and second to c Horn who brought the ball down the left sidelines to the Tigers' 8. Harris was in the end zone a play later for a 27-19 lead and Auburn could not recover.

The Tigers closed to 30-22 on Anders Carlson's 22 yard field goal with 6:39 left. Auburn got the ball back once more with 2:15 left and drove to the South Carolina 13. Nix, though, was called for intentional grounding trying to avoid a sack and the Gamecocks held on to beat the Tigers for the first time since 1933.

Auburn coach Gus Malzahn said his team will have to get past this quickly. "We're just going to have to be big boys and we're going to have to man up and put it behind us and go into next week and find a way to win," he said.

South Carolina had not won back-to-back games since defeating Kentucky and then-No. 3 Georgia last season. That win over the Bulldogs was the last time the Gamecocks had beaten a ranked opponent.

Auburn's offense looked unstoppable the first half and doubled up South Carolina in yardage (243-119) the first 30 minutes — except when Nix put the ball in danger.

Nix had 272 yards passing and was sacked three times.

Bigsby, the Auburn freshman, had 111 yards rushing and went past the century mark for a second straight game.

GAME CHANGER

Leading 30-22 with 2:15 left in the contest, Auburn took the ball and its own 32 and ran 11 plays to the 12-yard line with nine seconds left. Bo Nix tried to rush for the touchdown but Ernest Jones tackled him at the nine. Auburn had a hands to the face penalty on the play, ending the game.

KEY STAT

3 — The Gamecocks intercepted Nix three times on the day, leading to three touchdowns. Jaycee Horn had two picks, the first two of his career while Jaylin Dickerson added one.
