- ▶ The teams have split the last 10 meetings in Gainesville. The average margin of victory in the last five games between the teams in Gainesville is 5.

When it comes to building a championship football program, there's none better than LSU head coach Ed Orgeron. A driven leader with a vision on how to achieve success, Orgeron needed only three years to fulfill a pledge he made at his introductory press conference on Nov. 26, 2016 when he vowed to "build a championship program at LSU."

Orgeron did just that in 2019, earning numerous National Coach of the Year honors on his way to leading LSU to the most dominant season in college football history with a 15-0 record and the CFP National Championship.

But Orgeron's definition of a championship program goes much farther than winning championships on the football field. It's also about developing young men, both on and off the field; it's about fielding a team of high-character players that are determined to compete at the highest level on the field, while pursuing an education off the field; it's about players focused on the success of the team, not individual awards; it's about players doing the right thing, all of the time. It's known as the LSU Standard of Performance, not just on Saturday nights during the fall, but year-round.

And with that mentality, which starts at the top with Orgeron – a coach who never takes credit for his team's success, but instead praises his staff and his players – LSU stormed its way to the 2019 national title, winning 12 of 15 games by double-figures and beating seven Top 10 opponents along the way. LSU had five wins over teams that finished the 2019 season ranked in the Top 10.

Since taking over the Tigers four games into the 2016 season, Orgeron has guided LSU to a 43-14 mark. He had 40 wins in his first 50 games which is second for the most wins by any coach in school history during the first 50 games of their career. He's also led the Tigers to five postseason victories – one in the SEC Championship Game, two bowl games and two in the College Football Playoffs.

Of LSU's 43 wins under Orgeron, 33 have come by double-figures and 12 have been over Top 10 teams. The 12 Top 10 wins rank as the second-most for any coach in LSU history, trailing only Les Miles who won 16 games over Top 10 opponents in 12 years.

LSU has a 27-12 record under Orgeron against SEC teams, which includes a 37-10 win over fourth-ranked Georgia in the 2019 SEC Championship Game.

Under Orgeron, the Tiger program has produced 11 first team All-Americans, four national award winners, including the 2019 Heisman Trophy winner in quarterback Joe Burrow, and 32 NFL Draft picks, which includes nine in the first round. In the 2020 NFL Draft, LSU set an SEC record with five first round picks and tied the all-time mark with 14 players selected during the seven-round event. Quarterback Burrow went No. 1 overall and LSU became the first school in the history of the NFL Draft to have a quarterback, running back (Clyde Edwards-Helaire) and wide receiver (Justin Jefferson) picked in the first round.

When it comes to recruiting, there's none better than Orgeron and his staff who continue to assemble the best roster in college football with a focus that includes keeping the best players in Louisiana at home, while also attracting the top talent from coast to coast.

Now entering its fourth full season under Orgeron, LSU has used the "One Team, One Heartbeat" philosophy along with the ability to "block out the noise" to become the premier program in college football.

In 2019, Orgeron was consensus National Coach of the Year earning the honor from the Associated Press, Walter Camp, Eddie Robinson, Home Depot, George Munger and the AFCA. He was also named the SEC Coach of the Year.

Orgeron guided the Tigers to the most dominant regular season in school history with the Tigers posting a 13-0 mark and outscoring opponents, 621-275. LSU blew through the College Football Playoffs, beating No. 4 Oklahoma, 63-28, and then claimed the school's fourth national title with a 42-25 win over No. 2 Clemson in the national championship game to finish with the first 15-0 record in the history of the SEC.

LSU went 8-0 in SEC play during the regular-season, winning six of the eight games by at least two touchdowns. LSU racked up 46 points and 559 total yards in a 46-41 win over Alabama in Tuscaloosa and then followed that with 714 total yards in a win over Ole Miss in Oxford. LSU closed out the regular-season with a 50-7 win over Texas A&M in Tiger Stadium. LSU captured its 12th SEC title with a 37-10 win over No. 3 Georgia in the SEC Championship Game in Atlanta.

LSU trailed in only six games all season, just twice in the second half and never in the fourth quarter. The biggest deficit the Tigers faced all season was 17-7 against Clemson in the second quarter of the national championship game. LSU responded by scoring 21 unanswered points to take the lead for good at 28-17 just before halftime.

Overall, LSU went into the Clemson game riding a streak of 21 straight quarters without trailing an opponent, a streak that dated back to the Auburn game on Oct. 26.

LSU's offensive success in 2019 was a product of the Tigers going to the spread offense and the play-calling of coordinator Steve Ensminger. During the 2019 offseason, Orgeron hired Joe Brady as LSU's passing game coordinator, who installed the spread and the results followed. Burrow set nearly ever LSU and SEC single-season passing record as the Tigers led the nation in points per game (48.4) and yards per game (568.4) – both school records. LSU scored at least 40 points in 12 games and the Tigers went over the 50-point mark seven times and eclipsed 60 points three times.

Defensively, the Tigers allowed only 21.9 points per game and allowed a combined one passing touchdown in wins over Georgia, Oklahoma and Clemson.

In addition to Burrow's sweep of National Player of the Year Awards and the Heisman Trophy, LSU produced the winner of the Biletnikoff Award (Ja'Marr Chase) and the Jim Thorpe Award (Grant Delpit). LSU set a school-record with five first team All-America selections in 2019 (Burrow, Chase, Delpit, Damien Lewis, and Derek Stingley Jr.).

The Tigers capped the 2019 season by setting an SEC record with first players selected in the first round of the 2020 NFL Draft, led by Burrow who was picked No. 1 overall by the Bengals.

THE COACH O WAY

A native of LaRose, Louisiana, Orgeron developed a passion for the Tigers at an early age, becoming a fan of some of the all-time LSU greats in the 1970s. Players like Bert Jones, Ronnie Estay, Tommy Casanova, Charles Alexander and of course, coach Charles McClendon, ignited a purple and gold fire under Orgeron that still burns today.

Orgeron has reunited the current roster with former players, making them an integral part of the program and he's leveraged his passion and love for LSU into a determination and drive that sees him spend nearly every waking moment focused on LSU football and his vision for the program.

With the "One Team. One Heartbeat" motto, the Tigers seemingly became a different team overnight when Orgeron was elevated to interim head coach on Sept. 25, 2016 and the results that LSU sought soon followed.

As the head coach of the Tigers, Orgeron said he was going to “flip the script” and he assigned a theme for the daily practices. The purpose of the descriptive practice themes for each day during the week is one of the ways that Orgeron and his staff hold the players accountable and focused both prior to and during the workout. The daily practice nicknames are as follows: Tell the Truth Monday, Competition Tuesday, Turnover/No Turnover Wednesday, No Repeat Thursday, and Focus Friday.

Orgeron has also opened the doors for former LSU players to come back and be active in the program. Having former players actively involved is a way for the current Tigers to get a better understanding of who helped build the foundation for the program, while also letting them see first-hand what it means to be a LSU Tiger and the responsibility that goes along with it. Orgeron routinely has former Tigers speak to the team, attend practices and be involved with the organization.

ORGERON COACHING HISTORY

Orgeron, who has also served as head coach at Ole Miss and Southern Cal, is 43-14 at LSU. His career mark as a collegiate head coach is 69-41, however he’s 49-16 over his last 64 games. Orgeron went 6-2 as Southern Cal’s interim head coach in 2013, taking over a USC team that stumbled to a 3-2 mark over the first five games of the year. Orgeron rallied the Trojans as USC closed out the regular season with wins in six of its final eight games.

Orgeron originally joined the Tiger staff in 2015 as defensive line coach, before adding the title of recruiting coordinator in the spring of 2016.

Prior to joining the LSU staff, Orgeron’s last coaching stop came at Southern Cal where he served as recruiting coordinator and defensive line coach for the Trojans for four years (2010-13). Orgeron was elevated to interim head coach at USC for the final eight games of the 2013 season.

Orgeron served two stints at Southern Cal, the first as the Trojans’ defensive line coach from 1998 to 2004. Orgeron coached under Paul Hackett at USC for three years from 1998 to 2000 and was one of just a handful of coaches retained by Pete Carroll when he took over as the Trojans’ head coach in 2001.

Orgeron left USC in 2005 to become the head coach at Ole Miss, where he went 10-25 in three years with Rebels from 2005-07.

Orgeron spent the 2008 season coaching the defensive line for the New Orleans Saints and then joined Tennessee as defensive line coach and recruiting coordinator in 2009. He returned to Southern Cal following the 2009 season.

Orgeron made a name for himself as a top defensive line coach at the University of Miami from 1988-92, where he coached eight All-Americans, including NFL first-rounders Cortez Kennedy, Russell Maryland and Warren Sapp. In 1988, he was a graduate assistant at Miami, working with the defensive line.

Orgeron also was a graduate assistant at Northwestern (La.) State, his alma mater, in 1984 and McNeese State in 1985, working with the defensive line at both schools, then was an assistant strength coach at Arkansas for two years (1986-87).

ORGERON’S LOUISIANA ROOTS

Born July 27, 1961, he has three sons, Tyler, and twins Parker and Cody. Tyler is a member of the LSU football coaching staff, while Cody is the starting quarterback at McNeese State. Cody, who still have one year of eligibility remaining, earned his undergraduate degree from McNeese in May. Parker was a two-year starter at wide receiver for McNeese and is currently one semester shy of earning his degree from LSU.

Away from the field, Coach O has taken up the sport of boxing and trains three times a week at a local gym. He also teamed with Louisiana Governor John Bel Edwards to educate and inform the citizens of Louisiana during the Covid-19 pandemic. Coach O appeared on commercials and other mediums to support the wearing of masks during the pandemic.

He’s also been heavily involved in many community service efforts in the Baton Rouge area, including “Basket of Hope”, which has the mission of giving hope to children diagnosed with cancer or other serious illness through the delivery of a Basket of Hope filled with toys, games, craft items, stuffed animals, gift cards, and other items. Coach O makes several trips to local hospitals each year to hand deliver these baskets and to spend time with the children and their families.

Another LSU Game Impacted Due to Weather

▶ For the fifth time since 2015, LSU had a football game impacted by weather as last Saturday's game was moved to Columbia, Mo., due to Hurricane Delta. LSU and Missouri were scheduled to play at 8 p.m. CT on ESPN before Hurricane Delta forced the contest to be moved to Missouri.

▶ It was the LSU's first-ever game at Missouri in football and the first time the Tigers played in the state of Missouri.

▶ In 2017, LSU's season-opener against BYU was moved from Houston and NRG Stadium to the Louisiana Superdome due to flooding following Hurricane Harvey.

▶ In 2016, LSU's game against Florida was moved from Gainesville to Baton Rouge due to Hurricane Matthew. The 2016 Florida game, originally scheduled for October 8 was postponed indefinitely, before an agreement was reached by both schools to move the contest to Baton Rouge on November 19.

▶ This time, Hurricane Matthew forced the postponement of the game, as the agreement meant that LSU's opponent that day (South Alabama) and Florida's opponent (Presbyterian) were bought out to allow the game to happen.

▶ In 2015, LSU's home-opener against McNeese State was canceled just four minutes into the contest because of lightning. Then, in week 5, horrific flooding in the state of South Carolina forced LSU to host the Gamecocks in Tiger Stadium in a contest that was originally scheduled to be played in Columbia.

- ▶ The following is a look at some other notable weather-impacted LSU games through the years:

THE LAST MEETING

Florida 28

LSU 42

October 12, 2019 • Tiger Stadium • Baton Rouge, Louisiana

Death Valley Comes Alive, as No. 5 LSU Tops No. 7 Florida

LSU quarterback Joe Burrow tossed three touchdowns and running back Clyde Edwards-Helaire ran for two more, as the fifth-ranked LSU Football team shutout No. 7 Florida in the final 25 minutes of a 42-28 victory. The Tigers defense stepped up its game for the duration, while its offense continued to operate like a surgeon - slicing Florida to the tune of 10.6 yards per play, third-most in school history and most against an SEC opponent. LSU ran only 48 plays against the Gators and scored 42 points while facing third down only four times, the fewest on record by a Tigers team (records since 1978). Edwards-Helaire and freshman running back Tyrion Davis-Price added third-quarter touchdowns of 5 and 33 yards to give LSU a lead it wouldn't relinquish with 3:15 remaining in the third quarter. Leading by a touchdown midway through the fourth quarter, Burrow connected on a 54-yard touchdown pass to Ja'Marr Chase that gave LSU an insurmountable two-score advantage. Burrow and the Tigers offense were a model of efficiency against the Gators. The LSU signal caller completed 21-of-24 passes for 293 yards with two touchdown passes to Chase and another to Justin Jefferson, who led LSU with 10 catches for 123 yards. Chase had a team-high 127 yards on seven receptions. Edwards-Helaire had 134 net rushing yards, while Burrow added 43 on six carries without being sacked. Davis-Price made the most of his three carries, totaling 40 yards. The Tigers defense overcame a frustrating first half - which included a dropped interception in the end zone which resulted in a Florida touchdown - to shutout the Gators with the game in the balance.

Costello Leads State Past LSU in Opener, 44-34

Though LSU overcame a 10-point fourth-quarter deficit, Mississippi State senior quarterback K.J. Costello led the Bulldogs to the game's final 10 points to earn the victory, 44-34, on Saturday at Tiger Stadium. Trailing 34-24 early in the fourth quarter, LSU's defense forced turnovers on consecutive possessions - an interception by freshman cornerback Elias Ricks and a strip-sack by senior linebacker JaCoby Stevens - to quickly get back in the game. The Tigers responded with a 33-yard touchdown reception by Terrace Marshall Jr. and a 40-yard Cade York field goal to tie the game at 34-34 with 9:37 to play. Starting his first game for LSU, junior quarterback Myles Brennan finished 27-of-45 passing for 345 yards and three touchdowns. He was intercepted twice including the game's final play. LSU, which had only 3 of its 22 starters from the 2019 national championship team in today's starting lineup, was outgained 632-425. Costello finished 36-of-60 passing for 623 yards and five touchdowns. State attempted only 16 rushing attempts for nine net yards, including five sacks of Costello for minus-38 yards. Due to COVID-19 capacity limitations, Tiger Stadium's capacity was reduced to 25 percent. Attendance was announced as 21,124.

LSU Bounces Back with 41-7 Victory at Vanderbilt

LSU quarterback Myles Brennan threw for 337 yards with four touchdowns, as the Tigers rebounded from a season-opening loss with an emphatic 41-7 victory over Vanderbilt on Saturday at Vanderbilt Stadium. LSU (1-1, 1-1 SEC) pitched a second-half shutout, allowing only 63 yards to Vanderbilt (0-2, 0-2 SEC) in the final 30 minutes. The Tigers finished with 498 yards of total offense, including a career-best 103 yards on 12 carries by sophomore running back John Emery Jr., who scored from 12 yards in the fourth quarter. LSU improved in all three phases of the game, with the defense allowing 133 passing yards a week after giving up an SEC record 623. With the return of All-American Derek Stingley Jr., LSU totaled more than 100 punt return yards for the second time since the 2014 season. Without being sacked, Brennan finished 23-of-37 passing for 337 yards with a pair of touchdown passes to wide receivers Terrace Marshall Jr. and Jontre Kirklin. Marshall caught TD passes of 16 and 51 yards, while Kirklin's first career touchdowns came from 28 and 29 yards. LSU built a 21-7 halftime lead and never allowed Vanderbilt to get back into the game in the second half. The Tigers gained 28 first downs while averaging 5.0 yards per rush. Defensively, senior safety JaCoby Stevens had 10 of his team-high 11 tackles in the first half, while linebacker Jabril Cox added seven tackles. Stingley, who missed the season opener against Mississippi State, returned with six tackles and three punt returns for 92 yards with a long of 48. Vanderbilt freshman quarterback Ken Seals completed 11-of-25 passes for 113 yards with a second-quarter touchdown to Ben Bresnahan which followed Brennan's only interception of the contest. He was intercepted twice in the fourth quarter by LSU safety Todd Harris Jr. and freshman cornerback Eli Ricks, who has registered interceptions in his first two games as a Tiger.

Quarterback Myles Brennan continued his impressive start the 2020 season for LSU, completing 29-of-48 passes for 430 yards with four touchdowns. He wasn't intercepted. Wide receiver Terrace Marshall Jr., who was targeted on the final two plays of the contest, had 11 catches for 235 yards and three touchdowns. His yardage was fourth-most in LSU football history. Freshman tight end Arik Gilbert caught six passes for 97 yards with a touchdown, but missed a significant portion of the game with an injury. Missouri quarterback Connor Bazelak was nearly perfect, completing 29-of-34 passes for 406 yards with four touchdowns including the game winner from 5 yards to Niko Hea with 5:18 remaining in the game. Running back Larry Rountree rushed for 119 yards on 18 carries while Tyler Badie and Jalen Knox each scored for Missouri. Missouri outgained LSU, 586-479, and won despite three fumbles which led to 17 LSU points.

Finley, Defense Spark LSU Past South Carolina, 52-24

True freshman quarterback TJ Finley threw for 265 yards and two touchdowns while running back Tyrion Davis-Price added 135 yards to lead LSU past South Carolina, 52-24. Playing at home for the first time since the season opener four weeks prior, LSU (2-2) scored on the ground, through the air, on defense and on special teams to roll past South Carolina (2-3). After the Gamecocks cut LSU's 31-10 halftime advantage to two scores, LSU's Trey Palmer scored on a 93-yard kickoff return that broke a 39-year span between such touchdowns by LSU in Tiger Stadium. The most recent was by Eric Martin, 100 yards against Kentucky on Oct. 17, 1981. Finley, who became the eighth true freshman quarterback to start for LSU since World War II, completed 17-of-21 passes for 265 yards with an interception and two touchdowns to wide receiver Terrace Marshall Jr. Finley also ran for LSU's first touchdown - a 1-yarder midway through the first quarter. Marshall finished with six catches for 88 yards, while tying the program record for consecutive games with a receiving touchdown at seven. In addition to Davis-Price's career night, John Emery Jr. started and ran 18 times for 88 yards with a fourth-quarter 3-yard touchdown. Defensively, LSU true freshman cornerback Eli Ricks intercepted a pass for the third time in his four games as a Tiger, this time returning the pickoff 45 yards for a touchdown that put LSU ahead 31-10 just before halftime. Another true freshman, LSU defensive end BJ Ojulari, had three of LSU's five sacks, while seniors JaCoby Stevens and Jabril Cox led the Tigers with seven tackles each. The Tigers defense stiffened in its half of the field. LSU forced four field goal attempts - three were missed from the 37, 17 and 23-yard lines - and another turnover on downs at the LSU 41.

Johnson entered in the third quarter and finished the game 15-of-24 passing for 172 yards with a 43-yard touchdown pass to freshman wide receiver Kayshon Boutte in the fourth quarter. LSU struggled to run the ball, managing only 32 net yards on 27 carries. Auburn (4-2) was led by quarterback Bo Nix, who was 18-for-24 passing for 300 yards with three touchdowns including a 91-yard touchdown pass in the fourth quarter when the game was in-hand. Nix led Auburn with 81 rushing yards on 11 carries with a 5-yard scoring run in the third quarter. Anthony Schwartz had a game-high 123 yards including the long score, while Eli Stove had five catches for 64 yards with a touchdown. Late TD, Blocked FG Setup LSU Victory at Arkansas, 27-24

LSU freshman quarterback TJ Finley connected with Jaray Jenkins for a 13-yard touchdown with less than four minutes to play, and Jay Ward blocked a potential game-tying field goal with 84 seconds to play to give the Tigers a 27-24 victory over Arkansas on a rainy Saturday in Fayetteville, Ark. Finley, who started for the third-straight game in place of an injured Myles Brennan, finished 27-of-42 passing for 271 yards with two touchdowns and no interception. LSU running back Tyrion Davis-Price ran a career-high 24 times for 104 yards and with a 1-yard touchdown run that was setup by linebacker Jabril Cox' 36-yard interception return in the second quarter. Head coach Ed Orgeron improved to 5-0 against Arkansas and 13-0 in games following a loss at LSU. His defense forced seven drives of three-or-fewer plays, while the Tigers offense dominated time of possession at 41:43. LSU converted 12-of-23 third downs while Arkansas was 0-for-10. Eight LSU receivers caught passes led by Terrace Marshall Jr.'s seven catches for 57 yards. Racey McMath had three catches for 48 yards including a 30-yard touchdown reception, while Jenkins finished with three grabs for 43 yards and the game-winning score. Arkansas (3-5) took a 21-20 lead late in the third quarter. However, an LSU defense playing the final quarter without starting cornerbacks Derek Stingley Jr. (injury) and Eli Ricks (targeting ejection) gave the Tigers a chance for their first fourth-quarter comeback victory since Cole Tracy's walk-off field goal at Auburn in 2018. Ward, a reserve cornerback who saw extensive action after Ricks' ejection, recorded LSU's first blocked field goal since Austin Deculus against Miami in 2018. Razorbacks' quarterback Feleipe Franks used big gains to amass 339 passing yards on 17-of-26 passing with a touchdown and an interception. Mike Woods led the way with four catches for 140 yards, while Treyton Burks added five receptions, 90 yards and a 65-yard touchdown. Franks was the Hogs leading rusher with 43 net yards on 14 carries including a 10-yard touchdown run just before halftime.

No. 5 Aggies Win Defensive Tussle, 20-7

Defense and special teams carried fifth-ranked Texas A&M Saturday night to a 20-7 victory over LSU on a rainy evening at Kyle Field. The LSU defense was exceptional as well in the rugged contest, allowing the Aggies to convert just 2-of-16 opportunities on third down – including 0-for-6 in the second half – while holding Texas A&M to only 105 yards passing. The Aggies improved to 2-7 against LSU since Texas A&M joined the SEC prior to the 2012 season. Texas A&M held the Tigers to 267 yards in total offense, including 36 yards rushing. Field position was a significant factor in the Aggies' defensive effort, as punter Nik Constantinou pinned the Tigers' inside the 20-yard line on six occasions. The Aggies' offense managed only 267 total yards against the inspired LSU defense, which forced Texas A&M to punt 12 times. The Aggies' offense was paced by running back Isaiah Spiller, who rushed 27 times for 141 yards and one touchdown. LSU wide receiver Terrace Marshall Jr. caught 10 passes for 134 yards and one TD. Texas A&M opened the scoring with a field goal at the 9:10 mark of the first quarter, as Seth Small connected on a 41-yard attempt. The Aggies moved 41 yards in seven plays to take the 3-0 lead. Texas A&M extended the advantage to 10-0 with 16 seconds remaining in the first quarter, when Spiller dashed 52 yards to the end zone, capping a two-play, 54-yard march. With 9:37 left in the second period, LSU forced Texas A&M quarterback Kellen Mond to fumble on a fourth-and-one at the LSU 5, and the Tigers took over at their own 15-yard line. The fumble was the seventh created by the LSU defense this season. LSU quarterback TJ Finley then hit wide receiver Terrace Marshall Jr. with a 54-yard pass to the Aggies' 31, before Finley connected with wide receiver Kayshon Boutte on what appeared to be a 31-yard touchdown reception. However, the score was overturned after replay review, and on the next play, a tipped Finley pass was intercepted by Jaylon Jones at the Texas A&M 21. The Aggies' offense went three-and-out on the ensuing possession, and after a punt, the Tigers drove 29 yards to the Texas A&M 16, but Cade York missed a 34-yard field goal try. Small nailed a 40-yard field goal on the final play of the first half, capping an eight-play, 44-yard drive and giving the Aggies a 13-0 halftime lead. LSU took over on its own eight-yard line, but on the second play of the possession, Texas A&M linebacker Buddy Johnson intercepted a Finley pass and returned it 15 yards for a touchdown, increasing the Tigers' deficit to 20-0 with 4:36 remaining in the third quarter. LSU got on the scoreboard with 38 seconds remaining in the game when quarterback Max Johnson fired a three-yard scoring pass to Marshall Jr., capping a 14-play, 81-yard march.

Alabama Scores 55-17 Victory Over LSU

Top-ranked Alabama opened a 21-0 lead in the opening quarter to defeat LSU on Saturday night in Tiger Stadium, 55-17. Alabama improved to 9-0. After being stopped on a fourth-down try on its first drive, the Tigers scored two second-quarter touchdowns on a 44-yard reception by freshman wide receiver Kayshon Boutte - though he dropped the ball short of the end zone. The ball rolled over the line where LSU's Jontre Kirklín picked it up and was credited with the touchdown. Less than three minutes later, running back John Emery Jr. ran a career-long 54 yards for a touchdown. Big plays by Alabama's DeVonta Smith were too much for the Tigers to overcome, as the senior wide receiver caught eight passes for 231 yards including touchdowns of 65, 61 and 20 yards. Offensively, both true freshman quarterbacks saw action for LSU. TJ Finley started and completed 14-of-28 passes for 144 yards including the touchdown pass to Boutte, who caught eight passes for 111 yards. Max Johnson entered in the third quarter and completed 11-of-17 passes for 110 yards. Emery's big run helped him lead LSU with 79 yards on seven carries. Cade York improved to 8-of-10 in his career on field goals beyond 50 yards, as he made a 52-yarder in the third quarter. Defensively, linebacker Damone Clark led LSU with 13 tackles, while Jabril Cox added nine and safety JaCoby Stevens had eight.
