NEWS & NOTES

- McNeese posted a 19-7, 3-0 Southland Conference record before the season was canceled

- will play five teams ranked in the NFCA Preseason Top 25 Poll this season, four of which are ranked in the Top 10 (#5 LSU, #6 Texas, #7 Florida, #9 UL-Lafayette, and #21 Central Florida)

-fifth year head coach James Landreneau, the 2017 SLC's Coach of the Year picked up his 100th career win in the second game of the SLC series at Houston Baptist on March 29, 2019. Landreneau has won over 40 games two of his three seasons as head coach (43 wins in 2017 & 41 in 2018).

- Lake Charles and McNeese were hit by hurricanes (Laura and Delta) in August/September. McNeese's campus suffered nearly $200 million in damages from the two storms - Hurricane Laura being a Category 4 hurricane at landfall with sustained winds of 130+ mph for over three hours straight in August. Five weeks later, Hurricane Delta made landfall just 13 miles from Laura's landfall, as a Category 2 storm. Lake Charles took the brunt of both storms, staying in the eye wall of both for several hours.

-Prior to the hurricanes, softball was in the process of facility upgrades. The upgrades are still going on an coach Landreneau hopes a new dressing room, dugouts and pressbox expansion will be completed for the first home game. Grandstand seating with chairback seating is completed.

SOUTHLAND CONFERENCE NOTES

- have won two of the last four and four of the last seven Southland Conference regular season titles
- McNeese have won three of the last four Southland Conference Tournament titles and a conference high six tournament titles including three of the last four. McNeese is the first team to three-peat as tournament champions.

POSTSEASON NOTES

- have advanced to the post season six times (5 NCAA, 1 NISC)
-have advanced to the NCAA Regional Tournament three of the last four years
- coming off a NISC appearance where the Cowgirls loss 4-3 to UT-Arlington in 10 innings in the championship game of the Nacogdoches, Texas Region.

McNeese Recovering From Two Hurricanes

McNeese's campus suffered nearly $200 million in damages from the two storms - Hurricane Laura being a Category 4 hurricane at landfall with sustained winds of 130+ mph for over three hours straight in August. Five weeks later, Hurricane Delta made landfall just 13 miles from Laura's landfall, as a Category 2 storm. Lake Charles took the brunt of both storms, staying in the eye wall of both for several hours.

Cowgirls To Play Six Teams Ranked In NFCA Preseason Poll

Head coach James Landreneau has assembled one of if not the toughest schedule in program history. The Cowgirls will play five teams ranked in the NFCA Preseason Poll (No. 5 LSU, No. 6 Texas, No. 7 Florida, No. 9 UL-Lafayette, and No. 21 Central Florida, this season.

Cowgirls Break Single Game Records Against Detroit Mercy

The 21 runs scored and 16 walks against Detroit Mercy on March 22, 2020 at the Mardi Gras Mambo were both McNeese single game school records. The Cowgirls run-ruled the Titans 21-1 in five innings.

McNeese Produced Another 30-Win Season in 2019

McNeese, under the direction of fifth year head coach James Landreneau, produced its third straight 30-win season in 2019, posting a 33-32 Under Landreneau, McNeese won 40 or more games in 2017, 2018 and 2019.

McNeese Picked To Finish Second In Southland Conference Preseason Poll

McNeese has been picked to finish second in the Southland Conference behind Stephen F. Austin in the 2021 Southland Conference Preseason Poll. The Cowgirls are coming off 19-7 overall record and 3-0 conference record last season before it was canceled.

Landreneau Picks Up 100th Career Win Against HBU

Fourth year head coach James Landreneau, the 2017 SLC's Coach of the Year in 2017 picked up his 100th career win with a 1-0 win in the second game of the SLC series at HBU on March 29, 2019. Landreneau entered the 2019 season with an 84-39 overall record and has won over 40 games each of his two seasons as head coach (43 wins in 2017 & 41 in 2018).

Field Dedication

McNeese dedicated its softball field to Joe Miller on April 6, 2018 to a man who has been instrumental in many improvements for both the softball and baseball programs. Most recently, Mr. Miller was responsible for providing the funds for the softball field turf which was installed in February.

Other improvements around Joe Miller Field in 2018 was a new scoreboard donated by Carl and Carla Vincent and a new padded outfield wall.

McNeese Retires Erika Piancastelli's #16 Jersey

McNeese retired the #16 jersey of former Cowgirl All-American and a 2020 Italian Olympic team member Erika Piancastelli on May 11, 2019.

She completed her playing career in 2018 with a combined 19 records (both McNeese and SLC) including 12 career records and seven single season records.

In her senior season alone, she broke four Southland Conference records and tied the McNeese single season homerun record of 22.

If you were at Cowgirl Diamond on May 11th of 2018, you will remember her record tying 22nd bomb that came in the top of the 7th inning of the SLC Tournament Championship game to tie the game against Nicholls.

She ranks 7th in the NCAA in career slugging percent, 8th walks in walks, 14th in home runs, and 25th in total bases.

McNeese Has Won A League Best Six Regular Season Titles and Six SLC Regular Season Titles

UL-Monroe on March 11, the season was canceled.

In 2019, Landreneau guided McNeese to its first NISC South Regional Tournament appearance where the Cowgirls fell 4-3 in 10 innings to Texas-Arlington in the championship game. Earlier in the day, the Cowgirls defeated UTA 6-1 to force the "If Necessary" game. McNeese picked up its first NISC Tournament win with a 7-3 victory over Middle Tennessee State University. The Cowgirls then fell 5-3 to UTA before bouncing back with a 3-1 win over Stephen F. Austin to advance to the championship games against UTA.

The Cowgirls ended the regular season (33-32) and finished in third place in the Southland Conference race with a 19-8 record. McNeese advanced to its 24th overall SLC Tournament, and fourth straight postseason tournament. After dropping its first game of the tournament, McNeese fought their way back but fell one game short of reaching the tournament championship game.

The 30-win season is the third straight under Landreneau who reached a coaching milestone during the 2019 season when he picked up his 100th career victory with a 1-0 win at Houston Baptist in the second game of the SLC series on March 29, 2019.

Landreneau continued the winning tradition in 2018 and posted his second consecutive 40-win season with a 41-21 overall record along with winning the Southland Conference Tournament and earned the NCAA automatic bid for the second straight year under his leadership. The Cowgirls finished the regular season in a three-way tie for second place with an 18-9 conference record.

In 2018, McNeese broke into a major poll (USA Today/NFCA Top 25) for the first time in school history following the first week of the season that saw the Cowgirls go 4-0 with wins over Virginia and preseason No. 20 Tulsa. The Cowgirls ranked 24th in the USA Today/NFCA poll and 23rd in the FPN (Fastpitch News) Poll.

McNeese also picked up a 6-1 win at Florida State, the 2018 National Champions who was ranked 9th at the time and opened the NCAA Regional Tournament at Texas A&M with an 11-10 win over No. 18 Baylor.

As a team, the Cowgirls broke five school records and Erika Piancastelli completed her stellar career by breaking a combined 20 records (McNeese and SLC) including 13 career records.

The Cowgirls offense continued to produce in 2018, leading the Southland Conference in 13 offensive categories (wins-41, slugging percent-.463, on base percent-.407, runs scored-361, RBI-319, home runs-59, total bases-734, total plate appearances-1,967, at bats-1,585, walks-283, sacrifice flies-27, innings pitched-413.1, and putouts-1,237). McNeese was second in the league with a .291 batting average, 461 hits, and 283 stolen bases while ranking third in doubles with 76.

In 2017, Landreneau guided McNeese to a school record 24 conference wins, tied the school record with 43 (43-18) wins, the 2017 Southland Conference regular season title, the SLC Tournament title and an NCAA Regional appearance as well as being named the league's Coach of the Year in his first season as head coach.

Landreneau, a key component on the McNeese Cowgirls' softball coaching staff the previous four years, continued the Cowgirl success in 2017.

The Cowgirls broke a combined nine records (8 McNeese, 1 SLC) and tied six school records and led the SLC in 15 statistical categories including 11 offensive categories in 2017. The Cowgirls broke the McNeese single season RBI (320), runs scored (361) and walks (216) records while leading the SLC with a .296 batting average, .460 slugging percent, .399 on base percent, 368 runs scored, 471 hits, 325 RBI, 85 doubles, 52 homeruns and 229 walks. His pitching staff ranked third in the league with a 2.58 ERA and fourth in strikeouts with 229.

Under Landreneau's leadership, he coached the 2017 & 2018 SLC Player and Hitter of the Year (Erika Piancastelli) along with the 2017 Southland Conference Pitcher of the Year (Rachel Smith).

After starting the 2017 season with a 5-9 record, Landreneau guided the Cowgirls to a 38-9 record the rest of the way including a 12-game winning streak and won 13 of their last 15 games.

In his previous four years at McNeese, the Cowgirls compiled a 157-66 overall record and an 83-20 mark in Southland Conference play was apart of three conference championships (2013, 2014, 2016) while coaching three league player of the year recipients.

In 2016, Landreneau coached an offense that was led by two-time NFCA All-American catcher and Southland Conference Player and Hitter of the Year Erika Piancastelli as the Cowgirls won the league regular season and tournament championships while playing in the NCAA Baton Rouge Regionals where they beat former national champion Arizona State in the opening round.

The Cowgirls, who won a school record 43 games, led the league in hitting (.305), slugging (.460), on-base percentage (.409), runs scored (350), hits (466), runs batted in (292), doubles (88), total bases (702) and hit by pitches (81).

In addition to the record number of victories, the Cowgirls also set school records in runs scored, RBI, batters hit, walks (201) and on-base percentage.

In 2015, Landreneau's offense broke or tied four single season records while Piancastelli became the first player in Southland Conference history to be voted as the league's Player, Hitter and Freshman of the Year in the same season.

McNeese posted a .968 fielding percentage that season to rank 36th in the nation. The Cowgirls finished the season ranked fourth in the league with 61 doubles that year as they finished with a 38-15 overall record and a conference championship mark of 19-5.

In 2014, the Cowgirls repeated as conference champions with a 20-6 league record and 40-17 mark overall.

McNeese led the league in stolen bases three consecutive years and ranked in the top 10 in the nation for two seasons while he was an assistant.

In 2014, the Cowgirls topped the conference and ranked 19th in the nation with 86 doubles and led the league with a .435 slugging percentage while setting single-season school records in runs scored and on-base percentage while tying records in triples and hit-by-pitches.

Landreneau coached and developed Alanna DiVittorio who broke a combined nine McNeese and Southland Conference records her senior season and was named the league's player and hitter of the year for 2014.

DiVittorio also earned CoSIDA Academic All-America honors that season to become just the second softball player in school history to earn the prestigious award.

The native of Mamou, La. resides in Lake Charles with his two children, Aubrey and Jaxon.
