2021 LSU BEACH VOLLEYBALL MATCH NOTES

The Nation's No. 1 Team

- For the first time in program history, LSU enters the season as the nation's No. 1 team which is the same spot it finished the 2020 season when it ended early. LSU has been featured as AVCA's No. 1 team for three straight polls and in the Top-3 for five straight polls.
- LSU has been in the AVCA Top-10 for 41 straight polls

Heading Into the 2021 Season

- Every player is back from last year's team that was ranked No. 1 when the season ended prematurely
- Going back to last season, LSU has won 11 matches in a row and will look to extend that streak
- The Tigers have not lost a match in over a year. No. 5 Hawaii defeated LSU on February 22, 2020 on the opening day of the season in Honolulu. The Tigers went on to win the remainder of their matches prior to the season's sudden conclusion

Together

- LSU's mantra for the 2021 season is "Together."
- Together signifies the trust that the team must have in each other and the work the must put in every day to make each other better in order for the team to reach its ultimate goals.
- The word takes on more significance, relating to the idea of the team being able to compete again after being seperated throughout the pandemic.

LSU Beach Volleyball Stadium

- LSU Beach Volleyball Stadium is closed to the general public throughout the 2021 season due to its limited capacity. In order to attend a LSU Beach Volleyball Match, fans must be on a player and coaches pass list. Seating is limited to the stands on the south side.
- When full capacity is allowed, LSU Beach Volleyball Stadium is home to the best home court advantage in all of college beach volleyball.
- 2,407 fans packed LSU Beach Volleyball Stadium Februar 29, 2019 to watch No. 2 LSU defeat No. 1 UCLA, an attendance record for college beach volleyball
- "That's an unbelievable home court advantage that does not exist, maybe anywhere else in the planet for beach volleyball – for sure for collegiate beach volleyball." LSU Head Coach Russell Brock

Head Coach Russell Brock

- Russell Brock has solidified LSU as a national beach powerhouse as the nation's top team heading into the 2021 season.
- Brock has been with the program since its innagural 2014 season. He was the associate head coach before being named the full head coach prior to the 2017 season. In his first three seasons as head coach, Brock led the Tigers to the NCAA Championship Tournament in Gulf Shores. LSU was on pace to ake it back in 2020 before the season was ended prematurely.
- Since being promoted to full-time head coach, Brock is an impressive 97-32 (.751).

Head Coach Russell Brock (97-32)

Russell Brock (97-32) has led the Tigers to national prominence since being promoted to full-time head coach prior to the 2017 season after serving as the program's associate head coach for its first three seasons. LSU has been in the AVCA Top-10 every poll that Brock has been head coach and the Tigers took over the top spot after week two of 2020. Year seven, 2020, was the year he envisioned his team competing for a national championship and the Tigers were on track before the Covid-19 pandemic abruptly ended its campaign. The Tigers have everybody back in 2021 though and are poised to compete as one of the top teams again.

LSU Rankings History

After LSU defeated No. 1 UCLA in two consecutive weeks, the Tigers leaped the Bruins and took the top spot in the AVCA Poll for the first time in program history. LSU finished the 2020 season as the No. 1 team when it was ended early due to Covid-19. The Tigers enter the 2021 season in the same spot at the top of the poll, marking the first time LSU Beach Volleyball will head into a season ranked No. 1.

The Tigers have been featured in the AVCA Top-10 for 41 consecutive polls and in the Top-3 for the past six polls.
