The Breakdown

Tigers Playing Best Soccer of the Season

Winners of four of its last six matches, the LSU soccer team (10-6-1, 4-4-1 SEC) will travel to Starkville, Miss., to close out its regular season slate with a match against Mississippi State on Thursday night at 7 p.m. CT.

Series History - Mississippi State

The Tigers have absolutely dominated this series since it began in 1995. LSU has won 19 of the 23 matches between the two schools; the Bulldogs have won twice and there has also been two draws. The last meeting between the two came in 2017 and the teams battled to a 2-2 draw; Alex Thomas scored twice in that game. Prior to that draw in 2017, LSU had won the previous 12 matches against the Bulldogs.

Brockmeier in the Books

Caroline Brockmeier is having a career year in the net during her senior campaign. She owns career bests in goals against average (1.01 avg.), save percentage (.802), wins (10) and shutouts (8). Her eight shutouts in 2018 rank 22nd nationally and her career total is now up to 22 which gives her the second most shutouts in program history. She has racked up 73 saves this season to bring her career total to 251 which is also the second most in school history.

Attacking Adrienne

Sophomore forward Adrienne Richardson has added a dynamic skillset to LSU's attacking front in 2018. A transfer from Florida State, Richardson arrived in Baton Rouge in January and has immediately stepped right in and helped bolster LSU's offense. The Oakdale, Minn., native has scored a team-high six goals and 13 points in 2018. Her first breakout came on Aug. 26 against Texas State. She scored goals in the 21st in 71st minutes of the match against Texas State to lead LSU to a 2-0 win. Nine days later as LSU traveled to Lamar for a showdown on Sept. 4, she recorded another multi-goal performance with scores in the 38th and 55th minutes. Her third multi-goal game of the season came on Sept. 27 against Alabama. Her two goals propelled LSU to its first SEC win of the season. Having scored multiple goals in three games this season, Richardson became the first Tiger to score multiple games in at least three games since Jorian Baucom did so in 2016.

Fab Freshmen

LSU has received quality minutes from five freshmen in 2018. Abbey Newton headlines the class with four goals scored to go along with two assists for a total of 10 points. Molly Thompson added her second goal of the season against Missouri, and Shannon Cooke (2) and Reese Moffatt (1) have added in some assists. Meghan Johnson has appeared in five total games, three of which were conference matches. Cooke and Moffatt have contributed heavily to LSU's eight shutouts this season.

RPI Undate

LSU enters the week with its highest Ratings Percentage Index ranking of the season in the No. 38 spot. Thursday night's match against Mississippi State (No. 15 RPI) presents another opportunity for a quality win.

Last Time Out

Lucy Parker scored two of the best goals of her career in a 17-minute span to lead LSU to an epic comeback win over then-No. 8 South Carolina on Sunday. Trailing 1-0 with a little over a minute to play, Parker received a deep ball from Shannon Cooke into the right side of the box and she chested it down before ripping a volley to the far left post to even the match up in the 89th minute. She scored the game winner just over five minutes into the second overtime period with a curling shot from 30 yards out after receiving a pass from Alex Thomas. It was the first multi-goal game of Parker's collegiate career.

Youthful Resurgence

Six of LSU's top eight scorers in 2018 are underclassmen. Adrienne Richardson, a sophomore transfer from Florida State, leads the way with 13 points (6g & 1a) and is followed by freshman Abbey Newton who has accounted for 10 points (4g & 2a) in her debut season. Lindsey Eaton and Lucy Parker, both sophomores, have three goals apiece, and Tinaya Alexander (five points) and Molly Thompson (four points) have made their presence felt. The Tigers have played up to as many as eight underclassmen on the field at once this season.

The Winning Streak

LSU reeled off six straight wins after dropping the season opener to Villanova 2-1 in overtime before dropping its SEC opener to Texas A&M (Sept. 14). The Tigers outscored their opponents in the six-game stretch by a tally of 11-0. It was the seventh time in program history that LSU has registered a win streak of at least six games during a season. It's the second time in program history that the Tigers have registered at least a five-game winning streak in back-to-back seasons. LSU won seven in a row to start the 2017 campaign to go along with six straight this year, and the other occasion came in 2002 (nine in a row/school record) and 2003 (five in a row).

Cutura Clicking

Marlena Cutura is having the best season of her collegiate career in 2018. The junior has career highs in goals scored (3), assists (4) and total points (10) as a stable in LSU's midfield. Two of her three goals this year have been game winners for the Tigers squad that is 6-0-0 when she scores a goal or assists on one in 2018. She registered the first multi-assist game of her career earlier this season with a matchup against Stetson (Sept. 6). The first came off a corner and the second was a delicately delivered lead ball sent in to Thompson. She scored seven points (2 goals & 3 assists) in a four-game stretch from Aug. 30 to Sept. 9.

SEC Defensive Player of the Week

Sophomore Lucy Parker was named the SEC Defensive Player of the Week a little over a month ago (Sept. 10). It was the first time in her career that she has earned this award. Parker played all 270 minutes in LSU's three-win week that included three shutout wins over Lamar, Stetson and Samford.

International Flavor

LSU has seven student-athletes on the roster that hail from outside of the United States. The foursome of Tinaya Alexander, Shannon Cooke, Lucy Parker and Chiara Ritchie-Williams all came across the pond from England. Reese Moffatt and Jade Clarke came to Baton Rouge via British Columbia, and Caitie Cantrill arrived in the states from Australia. Cooke, Ritchie-Williams, Parker and Alexander are all products of the England and Arsenal youth systems back home.

Ranked Wins - LSU History

LSU has won 12 matches against nationally-ranked opponents in its history. The Tigers have won 12 and drawn 11 matches against nationally-ranked opponents in their history with 11 of those wins and all 11 draws coming during the Brian Lee era. Below is a listing of LSU's wins over nationally-ranked opponents in the program's history.

Roster Breakdown

LSU has 32 athletes on the roster for the 2018 season. Caroline Brockmeier, Alex Thomas and Chrissy Pitre are the only three seniors on the roster for 2018. Thomas, Pitre and Brockmeier headline the senior class that will look to take the Tigers back to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2015. The Tigers have a total of 25 underclassmen on the roster (13 freshmen, 12 sophomores) to go along with four juniors and three seniors.

Assisting Alexander

Tinaya Alexander owns the team lead with five assists. Three of her five dimes have come in the last six games assisting Adrienne Richardson's goal against Alabama, Marlena Cutura's goal against Missouri and Alex Thomas' goal against Tennessee. She also had a multi-assist game earlier this season against Texas State on Aug. 26. Alexander's .34 assists per game over her career have her ranked sixth in the LSU record book for assists per game.

Timely Thomas

Senior all-around performer Alex Thomas has come on as of late and scored a point in the last six games for LSU leading the squad to a 4-2-0 record in that stretch. The six-match streak in which she has registered a point is a career long; she has chipped in three goals and three assists during this stretch to account for nine points and her 1.00 points per game rank eighth in league play. Thomas has done it all this season playing a mix of rightback and forward for the Tigers. She just recently moved into seventh place in the LSU record book for most minutes played in a career with 6,653 minutes of on field time. The New Orleans native has also cashed in four penalty kicks over the last two seasons; that total of four ranks as the third-most penalty kicks made in a career at LSU.
