HEAD COACH FRANK WILSON

SECOND SEASON AT MCNEESE (3-5), 6TH SEASON OVERALL (22-34)

Frank Wilson became McNeese's 17th head coach in program history back in January of 2020 as the first African-American head football coach in school history and the second in the history of the Southland Conference.

The New Orleans native, who is widely considered one of the top recruiters in college football, spent four seasons as the head coach at UTSA before arriving on the McNeese campus.

Wilson, arguably, had his most difficult season of coaching in 2020-21 after McNeese and Southwest Louisiana took a direct hit from Hurricane Laura, a Category 4 storm with sustained winds of over 150 mph, then six weeks later, was hit with Category 2 storm Hurricane Delta. Wilson's leadership as a coach, father-figure and community leader was on full display as he helped rally the team, school and community both mentally and physically and just six months later while facilities and homes were still ravaged, he led the Cowboys onto the field for his first time on Feb. 13 in what was one of the most remarkable comeback wins in Cowboy history when McNeese rallied to defeat Tarleton State 40-37 in double-OT.

The spring season saw McNeese overcome obstacles and adversity from all angles and played its best football of the season late, winning two of its last three games while two of the losses on the season were by a combined six points.

Wilson's debut campaign at UTSA made history as he led the Roadrunners to six wins and the 2016 Gildan New Mexico Bowl to match the NCAA modern startup program record by reaching a bowl game in just their sixth season.

Wilson guided UTSA to bowl eligibility for the second straight season in 2017. The Roadrunners pulled off another program first when they defeated Baylor, 17-10, in the season opener in Waco for UTSA's first victory against a team from a Power 5 Conference.

During his four years at UTSA, 26 players garnered All-Conference USA, two were named All-Americans, a league Defensive Player of the Year, two Freshman of the Year selections, a semifinalist for the Lou Groza Award and the prestigious William V. Campbell Trophy.

Prior to being named head coach at UTSA, Wilson served a six-year stint as the running backs coach and recruiting coordinator at LSU from 2010-15, where he also served as associate head coach for his final four seasons with the Tigers. He also has been an assistant coach at Tennessee (2009), Southern Miss (2008) and Mississippi (2005-07).

While at LSU, he was recognized as the nation's top assistant coach at his position in 2011. Wilson also was named the 2011 Recruiter of the Year by Rivals.com, the 2014 NFL.com Top Recruiter in College Football and the 2015 Scout.com SEC Recruiter of the Year.

As the recruiting coordinator at LSU, Wilson led the Tigers to back-to-back top-five recruiting classes in 2014-15 among five total groups that ranked among the top 10 nationally. He served as the lead recruiter for a long list of prominent players, including Odell Beckham Jr., La'el Collins, Jeremy Hill, Jarvis Landry, Tyrann Mathieu, Zach Mettenberger and the nation's No. 1 overall recruit in 2014 in Leonard Fournette, a 2014 Freshman All-SEC honoree and consensus first team All-American a year later.

Overall, Wilson has coached or recruited 40 individuals who have made it to the NFL. That list includes Davenport, Jordan Moore, Kevin Strong Jr., Dalton Sturm, Josiah Tauaefa and Jarveon Williams from UTSA, Beckham Jr., Collins, Fournette, Hill, Landry, Mathieu and Mettenberger along with Lamin Barrow, Kendell Beckwith, Alfred Blue, Will Clapp, Malachi Dupre, Ego Ferguson, Russell Gage, BenJarvus Green-Ellis, Derrius Guice, Jerald Hawkins, Kenny Hilliard, Anthony Johnson, Deion Jones, Arden Key, Kendrick Lewis, Terrance Magee, Ronald Martin, Dexter McCluster, Denarius Moore, Eric Reid, Stevan Ridley, Duke Riley, Trai Turner, Mike Wallace, Spencer Ware and James Wright.

In six seasons at LSU, Wilson developed seven running backs that were selected in the NFL Draft, including first-team All-SEC performers in Fournette, Guice, Hill and Ridley. During his tenure, the Tigers posted a 61-17 overall record, captured the 2011 SEC Championship and appeared in the National Championship Game that same season.

Under his guidance, LSU rushed for at least 200 yards 39 times, including 12 300-yard games. The Tigers also recorded 45 100-yard individual rushing performances and four 1,000-yard individual rushers.

Wilson joined the LSU staff after spending the 2009 season at Tennessee, where he coached the wide receivers under Lane Kiffin.

Prior to joining the Tennessee staff, Wilson spent the 2008 season as the running backs coach/recruiting coordinator at Southern Miss under Larry Fedora.

From 2005-07, Wilson served as the running backs/assistant special teams coach at Mississippi, where he recruited prominent future NFL stars Kendrick Lewis and Mike Wallace. He also developed a first-team all-conference running back in Green-Ellis.

Wilson joined the Rebels' staff after serving one year as director of athletics for the New Orleans Public School System after spending three-and-a-half seasons as head football coach and offensive coordinator at O. Perry Walker High School.

Wilson led O. Perry Walker to two District 10-4A championships and the Louisiana Class 4A State Championship game in 2002. He was honored by the NFL as the 2002 Louisiana Coach of the Year and was voted by his peers as the Louisiana Class 4A Coach of the Year. Wilson also was a finalist for the 2002 Nike National Coach of the Year.

During his head coaching stint at O. Perry Walker, Wilson developed 22 players who earned Division I scholarships, including 11 in 2002 to rank as the nation's largest high school class of D-I signees. The 2002 team defeated national-power John Curtis Christian School, 20-0, during the regular season, which snapped a 136-game district winning streak for John Curtis and marked the first time that team had failed to score in 303 consecutive games, a national record.

Wilson spent three years as an assistant coach at Edna Karr High School, also in New Orleans, from 1997-2000. He served as offensive coordinator at Edna Karr during the 1999 season in which the team reached the Class 3A state finals and recorded its best statistical season on offense in the program's history.

Wilson got his start in coaching as a student assistant at his alma mater, Nicholls State University, working with the running backs while he finished his degree. While in Thibodaux, Wilson helped coach the first 1,000-yard rusher in school history and was part of the biggest turnaround in NCAA history at the time for the Colonels, who improved from 0-10 in 1995 to 8-2 in 1996.

A three-year letterman at Nicholls, Wilson earned honorable mention all-conference honors as a running back his sophomore year.

Wilson attended Geneva University in Beaver Falls, Pa., his freshman season, earning conference Freshman of the Year honors as a running back and kick returner. He also earned first team all-conference honors and was an honorable mention NAIA Division II All-American.

Wilson received his bachelor of arts degree in general education from Nicholls State in 1997.

Wilson and his wife, Tiffany, have three children: Alaina, Sabree and Frank IV, who is a redshirt freshman defensive back for the Cowboys this fall.

What They're Saying About Coach Wilson

"Frank is a great Louisiana man. He was one of the best assistant coaches in LSU history and he will do a great job for McNeese."

- Ed Orgeron, LSU head coach.

"Coach Frank Wilson changed my life. He gave a young kid from New Orleans a chance to compete and learn on a higher level. He opened the doors for so many of us Louisiana athletes and I'm just happy to see him making strides and becoming all that he can be.

He is a true inspiration."

- Tyrann Mathieu, former LSU defensive back and Heisman Trophy finalist and currently with the Kansas City Chiefs.

"Be a pro. Coach Wilson made it a real possibility not with just the amount of work we put in, but with the culture he brought to the program. He gave us respect and responsibility and we thrived. I'm happy to see Coach Wilson help others turn dreams into reality."

- Marcus Davenport, former UTSA player and first round draft pick by the New Orleans Saints.

"One of the most loving and caring coaches outside of football. The love I have for him will last a lifetime. Anyone that gets him as a coach will love him not as a coach but also as a father figure. Also he's a God fearing man."

- Leonard Fournette, former LSU running back and current running back for the Super Bowl Champion Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

"Coaches and players gravitate to Frank Wilson. He was a part of my staff at Tennessee and I can tell you firsthand that he develops players as well as anyone in college football. People talk about how great of a recruiter he is, but he is just as strong of a leader."

- Lane Kiffin, Ole Miss head coach who hired Frank Wilson at Tennessee.

"I had the honor to play for and be recruited by a man who was so unselfish in his work and in his life that people were drawn to his efforts and commitment, which helped them become a man foremost and then a player. I speak firsthand for how he's stayed in contact with players even after they have left his reach. They don't make many like him."

- Jarvis Landry, Cleveland Browns wide receiver.

SERIES VS. LSU

- Saturday will officially be the second meeting between McNeese and LSU, but the third scheduled matchup in the school's history.
- LSU leads the all-time series 1-0 (32-10 win on Oct. 16, 2010).
- A scheduled game on Sept. 2, 2015, was halted due to severe weather following a 3 hour, 57 minute delay.
- Each team put together an offensive series before the delay began with LSU running six plays and had one first down while the Cowboys went 3-and-out in their series.

POKES VS. THE FBS

- McNeese has had some success against teams from the FBS level.
- Overall, the Cowboys have posted an 14-30-2 record against the upper division teams but is 2-3 in the last five outings, including a near shocker over Nebraska in 2014 when the Cornhuskers scored in the final minute to pull out a 31-24 win.
- The Cowboys do have a win over a major conference team when in 2013, routed South Florida 53-21 in Tampa. At the time, South Florida was a BCS conference member. That win was the largest by an FCS opponent over a BCS team in college football history.
- Three of the games came in Independence Bowl matchups - 1976 (beat Tulsa 20-16 in very first Independence Bowl game; lost 31-7 to Syracuse in 1979 game; lost 16-14 to Southern Mississippi in 1980 game.

COWBOYS VS. THE SEC

- Saturday's game against LSU will mark the second meeting between the two schools and the fourth against a member of the SEC.
- The Cowboys fell 32-10 to the Tigers in 2010. Also that year, McNeese dropped a 50-6 game at Missouri, who was a member of the Big 12 Conference at the time.
- In 2001, the Cowboys put a scare into Texas A&M before falling 38-24. The Aggies were also a member of the Big 12 Conference when they met to open up the season.
- In upcoming schedules, the Cowboys are scheduled to play at the Florida Gators (Sept. 9, 2023) and at Texas A&M (Sept. 7, 2024).

UTILIZING THE TRANSFER PORTAL

- Over the past two years, McNeese has lost quality players to the transfer portal, but in return, has done a nice job of filling the holes by acquiring players from the portal.
- Since 2020, McNeese has signed 28 transfers to the roster.
- DE Isaiah Chambers (Univ. of Houston), was a consensus All-American for the spring season and SLC and Louisiana Defensive Player of the Year. He's a three-time preseason All-American.
- RB Stephon Huderson earned 2nd team All-AAC honors at Tulane for 2020.

POKES PICKED 4TH IN POLL

- McNeese has been predicted for a 4th place finish in the Southland Conference preseason poll.
- Southeastern Louisiana, the 2013 and 2014 league champion, has been tabbed to win it in 2021 followed by Nicholls, the 2018 and 2019 champion.
- The league is down to six members after five teams - Lamar, Sam Houston, Stephen F. Austin, Abilene Christian and Central Arkansas, left to join other leagues. UCA joined the Atlantic Sun while the other four teams were added to the WAC.

THIS DAY IN HISTORY • SEPTEMBER 11

- 1993 - In week 2 of the season, the Cowboys defeated Eastern Illinois 49-7 as the defense held EIU to just 142 total offensive yards. McNeese's Bryan Foster rushed for 167 yards and Henry Fields added 120. The win improved the Cowboys record to 2-0 on the season and lifted them to No. 2 in the national polls.
- 1976 - In the season opener, McNeese blanked Southern Illinois 38-0. The Blue Wall defense held Southern Illinois to just 64 yards of total offense, 33 rushing and 31 passing. Mike McArthur rushed for 123 yards and two TDs while Terry McFarland completed 6 of 10 passes for 122 yards and a TD. The Cowboys would go on to finish 10-2 that season, capping the year with a 20-16 win over Tulsa in the very first Independence Bowl game.

SON VS. POP: ORGERON VS. ORGERON

- Saturday will mark a rare occurrence with a father and son facing off against each other on the gridiron when McNeese QB Cody Orgeron goes up against his dad and LSU head coach Ed Orgeron.
- It's believed to be just the second father-son combo to compete against each other in college football. The other was John Elway (Stanford) and his father Jack Elway (San Jose State) in 1979-82. The younger Elway won the first two matchups but Pop got bragging rights by winning in 1981 and 1982.

WHAT TO WATCH FOR IN 2021

- The 2021 season will mark McNeese's 50th year as a member in the Southland Conference.
- McNeese already holds the Southland Conference record for most titles won (14) and FCS playoff appearances (16) and will be looking to add to those totals this season.
- The Cowboys are looking to expand on its FCS-leading winning season streak of 15 consecutive years. (McNeese posted a 3-4 mark in spring 2021 in an abbreviated season that did not include a full slate of games).
- Looking to become the first team in the Southland Conference, present or past, to win 200 league games. The Cowboys enter the season with a 198-105-7 all-time league mark.
- Looking to return to the FCS playoffs for the first time since 2015, a drought of five years without a postseason appearance to mark the longest span away from the playoffs since making its first appearance in 1991.
- A total of 38 new faces on the sideline that will suit up for the first time in the blue and gold this fall, and add in first-timers for a fall season, that number jumps to 59 new players that were not on the roster prior to the 2021 spring season.
- Univ. of Houston DE transfer Isaiah Chambers earned consensus All-American honors and finished fourth in voting for the Buck Buchanan Award following the spring season and enters the fall as a preseason All-American and on the Buchanan Award and Senior Bowl watch list.
- 6th-year quarterback Cody Orgeron enters the season ranked in the top 10 in four categories in the McNeese career record book - TD passes (35, tied for 6th), completions (371, 8th), passing yards (4,336, 9th), and pass attempts (632, 9th).

- Orgeron will enter Saturday's game with 139 consecutive pass attempts without throwing an interception, just three off the school record is 142 consecutive attempts which is held by Cody Stroud (Sept. 21, 2013 - Nov. 2, 2013).
- Tulane transfer RB Stephon Huderson led the Green Wave in rushing in 2020 with 773 yards to go along with four touchdowns and earned second team All-American Athletic Conference postseason honors for his efforts.
- Louisiana Tech WR transfer CeeJay Powell caught 37 passes for 271 yards for the Bulldogs in 2020 and earned All-Conference USA Honorable Mention honors in the process.
- Powell reunites with former Bulldog teammate Josh Matthews who led the Cowboys in receiving in the spring with 32 catches for 458 yards and four TDs and earned all-conference honors for his work.
- DE Isaiah Chambers, DE Mason Kinsey and FS Andre Sam are preseason 1st team All-SLC selections; WR John Matthew, CB Chris Joyce and PR Mason Pierce are 2nd team selections.
- McNeese has produced the SLC Defensive Player of the Year in the last three seasons (Chambers in spring 2021, Chris Livings 2019, B.J. Blunt 2018), and four out of the last six years (Wallace Scott in 2015).
- Saturday's game against LSU will mark the third straight contest against a recent national champion. McNeese dropped the spring finale to Sam Houston who went on to win the FCS title. West Florida won the 2019 Division II national championship and LSU captured the 2019 College Football Playoff national title. Never has one team ever faced a string of that nature.
- The Cowboy defense has recorded at least one sack in 48 of the last 52 games including six straight contests heading into Saturday's contest.
- Saturday's home noon kickoffs will mark the earliest start for home games in Cowboy Stadium.
