NATIONAL CHAMPION

When it comes to building a championship football program, there's none better than LSU head coach Ed Orgeron. A driven leader with a vision on how to achieve success, Orgeron needed only three years to fulfill a pledge he made at his introductory press conference on Nov. 26, 2016 when he vowed to "build a championship program at LSU."

Orgeron did just that in 2019, earning numerous National Coach of the Year honors on his way to leading LSU to the most dominant season in college football history with a 15-0 record and the CFP National Championship.

But Orgeron's definition of a championship program goes much farther than winning championships on the football field. It's also about developing young men, both on and off the field; it's about fielding a team of high-character players that are determined to compete at the highest level on the field, while pursuing an education off the field; it's about players focused on the success of the team, not individual awards; it's about players doing the right thing, all of the time. It's known as the LSU Standard of Performance, not just on Saturday nights during the fall, but year-round.

And with that mentality, which starts at the top with Orgeron — a coach who never takes credit for his team's success, but instead praises his staff and his players — LSU stormed its way to the 2019 national title, winning 12 of 15 games by double-figures and beating seven Top 10 opponents along the way. LSU had five wins over teams that finished the 2019 season ranked in the Top 10.

Since taking over the Tigers four games into the 2016 season, Orgeron has guided LSU to a 45-14 mark. He's also led the Tigers to five postseason victories — one in the SEC Championship Game, two bowl games and two in the College Football Playoffs.

Of LSU's 45 wins under Orgeron, 33 have come by double-figures and 13 have been over Top 10 teams. The 13 Top 10 wins rank as the second-most for any coach in LSU history, trailing only Les Miles who won 16 games over Top 10 opponents in 12 years.

LSU has a 29-12 record under Orgeron against SEC teams, which includes a 37-10 win over fourth-ranked Georgia in the 2019 SEC Championship Game. Under Orgeron, the Tiger program has produced 12 first team All-Americas, four national award winners, including the 2019 Heisman Trophy winner in quarterback Joe Burrow, and 39 NFL Draft picks, which includes 10 in the first round. In the 2020 NFL Draft, LSU set an SEC record with five first round picks and tied the all-time mark with 14 players selected during the seven-round event. Quarterback Burrow went No. 1 overall and LSU became the first school in the history of the NFL Draft to have a quarterback, running back (Clyde Edwards-Helaire) and wide receiver (Justin Jefferson) picked in the first round.

In the 2021 NFL Draft, the Tigers saw another seven players selected, including the No. 5 overall pick in wide receiver Ja'Marr Chase. LSU's two-year draft total from 2020-21 stands at 21, the most for any school in college football over that span in the history of the NFL Draft.

When it comes to recruiting, there's none better than Orgeron and his staff who continue to assemble the best roster in college football with a focus that includes keeping the best players in Louisiana at home, while also attracting the top talent from coast to coast.

Now entering its fifth full season under Orgeron, LSU has used the "One Team, One Heartbeat" philosophy along with the ability to "block out the noise" to become the premier program in college football.

2019

In 2019, Orgeron was consensus National Coach of the Year earning the honor from the Associated Press, Walter Camp, Eddie Robinson, Home Depot, George Munger and the AFCA. He was also named the SEC Coach of the Year.

Orgeron guided the Tigers to the most dominant regular season in school history with the Tigers posting a 13-0 mark and outscoring opponents, 621-275. LSU blew through the College Football Playoffs, beating No. 4 Oklahoma, 63-28, and then claimed the school's fourth national title with a 42-25 win over No. 2 Clemson in the national championship game to finish with the first 15-0 record in the history of the SEC.

LSU went 8-0 in SEC play during the regular-season, winning six of the eight games by at least two touchdowns. LSU racked up 46 points and 559 total yards in a 46-41 win over Alabama in Tuscaloosa and then followed that with 714 total yards in a win over Ole Miss in Oxford. LSU closed out the regular-season with a 50-7 win over Texas A&M in Tiger Stadium. LSU captured its 12th SEC title with a 37-10 win over No. 3 Georgia in the SEC Championship Game in Atlanta.

LSU trailed in only six games all season, just twice in the second half and never in the fourth quarter. The biggest deficit the Tigers faced all season was 17-7 against Clemson in the second quarter of the national championship game. LSU responded by scoring 21 unanswered points to take the lead for good at 28-17 just before halftime.

Overall, LSU went into the Clemson game riding a streak of 21 straight quarters without trailing an opponent, a streak that dated back to the Auburn game on Oct. 26.

LSU's offensive success in 2019 was a product of the Tigers going to the spread offense and the play-calling of coordinator Steve Ensminger. During the 2019 offseason, Orgeron hired Joe Brady as LSU's passing game coordinator, who installed the spread and the results followed. Burrow set nearly ever LSU and SEC single-season passing record as the Tigers led the nation in points per game (48.4) and yards per game (568.4) — both school records. LSU scored at least 40 points in 12 games and the Tigers went over the 50-point mark seven times and eclipsed 60 points three times.

Defensively, the Tigers allowed only 21.9 points per game and allowed a combined one passing touchdown in wins over Georgia, Oklahoma and Clemson.

Head Coach

In addition to Burrow's sweep of National Player of the Year Awards and the Heisman Trophy, LSU produced the winner of the Biletnikoff Award (Ja'Marr Chase) and the Jim Thorpe Award (Grant Delpit). LSU set a school-record with five first team All-America selections in 2019 (Burrow, Chase, Delpit, Damien Lewis, and Derek Stingley Jr.).

The Tigers capped the 2019 season by setting an SEC record with first players selected in the first round of the 2020 NFL Draft, led by Burrow who was picked No. 1 overall by the Bengals.

2018

In 2018, Orgeron guided a young and inexperienced LSU team to a 10-3 overall mark and a final ranking of No. 6 nationally. It marked LSU's first 10-win season since 2013 and the highest final ranking for the Tigers since 2011. The Tigers capped the year with a 40-32 victory over No. 7 ranked Central Florida in the Fiesta Bowl, LSU's first New Year's Six Bowl victory since the new format was put in place in 2014.

For the first time in school history, Orgeron directed the Tigers to four wins over Top-10 teams beginning with a season-opening victory over No. 8 Miami. LSU followed that with a road victory over No. 7 Auburn, a home win over No. 3 Georgia and the bowl win over No. 7 UCF. Overall, LSU had five wins over Top 25 teams, which also included a victory over No. 22 Mississippi State.

Individually, Orgeron's 2018 team produced the school's first Butkus Award winner in Devin White along with three first-team all-Americas in White, cornerback Greedy Williams, and safety Grant Delpit. Delpit became only the ninth unanimous All-America in school history in 2018. White was later picked with the No. 5 overall selection in the 2019 NFL Draft by Tampa Bay. Overall, LSU had three players selected in the 2019 NFL Draft (CB Greedy Williams in second round by the Browns and TE Foster Moreau in the fourth round by the Raiders).

2017

In his first full season as LSU's head coach, Orgeron led the Tigers to a 9-4 overall mark, a second straight appearance in the Citrus Bowl and a No. 18 final national ranking. While LSU came up just short in claiming a 10-win season, Orgeron and the Tigers gave plenty of reasons to show that the program is on the rise. A total of 20 true freshmen – the second-highest figure nationally – saw playing time for the Tigers in 2017 and the group of rookies combined for 44 starts.

After opening 3-2 through the first five games of the season, the Tigers won six of their last seven games to finish the regular-season 9-3 overall and 6-2 in league play.

LSU's 2017 season saw the Tigers beat No. 21 Florida, 17-16, in Gainesville to open the month of October followed by one of the biggest comebacks in school history when the Tigers rallied from a 20-0 first half deficit to beat 10th-ranked Auburn, 27-23, in Tiger Stadium. LSU beat Ole Miss, 40-24 at week later for its third straight victory. Following a hard-fought loss to Alabama, the Tigers closed out the regular season with double-digit wins over Arkansas (33-10), Tennessee (30-10) and Texas A&M (45-21).

Following the 2017 season, LSU had seven players selected in the NFL Draft, including three second round picks in defensive back Donte Jackson (Carolina), running back Derrius Guice (Washington) and wide receiver DJ Chark (Jacksonville).

2016

In his first game as LSU's permanent head coach, Orgeron guided the Tigers to a 29-9 win over No. 13 Louisville and its Heisman Trophy quarterback Lamar Jackson in the Buffalo Wild Wings Citrus Bowl. The win over Louisville capped a remarkable turnaround for the Tigers under Orgeron, who assumed the role as interim coach of the Tigers a day after a disappointing 18-13 setback at Auburn. The loss to Auburn dropped LSU, a preseason favorite to contend for the national title, to 2-2 overall and out of the Top 25.

Orgeron's first duty as interim head coach was to appoint veteran assistant and former LSU quarterback Steve Ensminger from tight ends coach to offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. The move paid immediate dividends as Ensminger injected life into the Tigers offense by diversifying the play calling and brought a culture of inclusion to the offensive staff room.

Before Ensminger took over play-calling duties, LSU's offense had scored only nine touchdowns and was averaging a paltry 18 points and 339.5 total yards per game.

In eight games under Orgeron and Ensminger, LSU improved drastically in every offensive category as the Tigers averaged 32 points and 464.9 total yards per contest during that span. LSU scored 38 or more points five times with Ensminger calling the plays, including 54 in a win over Texas A&M and 38 against both Arkansas and Ole Miss. The Tigers averaged 7.1 yards per play and converted 46-of-102 third-down opportunities during that eight-game stretch.

In his LSU debut, Orgeron led the Tigers to a 42-7 win over Missouri, a game that saw the LSU Tigers set the school record for yards in an SEC game (634) as well as time of possession (42:33). The 35-point margin of victory ranked as the second-largest for a LSU head coach in his Tigers debut.

In a 38-21 win over Ole Miss, Leonard Fournette shattered the school's single-game rushing mark with 284 yards.

LSU concluded the regular season in record fashion, racking up 54 points in the Thanksgiving Night win over Texas A&M. In the win over the Aggies, running back Derrius Guice broke the LSU single-game rushing mark with 285 yards and four TD's on 37 carries as the Tigers accumulated 622 total yards (298 rushing, 324 passing) in the win.

In eight games under Orgeron, LSU set offensive records for most yards in a SEC game (634 vs. Missouri), longest scoring play from scrimmage (Derrius Guice 96-yard TD run vs. Arkansas), and twice set the school single-game rushing record (Leonard Fournette 284 yards vs. Ole Miss, Derrius Guice 285 yards vs. Texas A&M).

Defensively, LSU held opponents scoreless for 15 of 32 quarters under Orgeron and limited the opposition to an average of 15.3 points per game over the eight contests. In 12 games, LSU allowed only 16 touchdowns all season, which led the nation. The Tigers also gave up just 1.3 TD's a contest, also first nationally.

Overall, LSU's defense finished in the top two in the SEC in points allowed (15.3) and rushing yards per game (117.2) and were No. 3 in the league in total defense (314.4) and pass defense (197.2).

LSU's 2016 team featured four first team All-Americans in defensive back Jamal Adams, center Ethan Pocic, defensive back Tre'Davious White and running back Derrius Guice.

LSU had eight players from its 2016 team selected in the NFL Draft, including three first round picks in Fournette (No. 4 overall by Jacksonville), Adams (No. 6 overall by the New York Jets) and White (No. 27 overall by Buffalo).

THE COACH O WAY

A native of LaRose, Louisiana, Orgeron developed a passion for the Tigers at an early age, becoming a fan of some of the all-time LSU greats in the 1970s. Players like Bert Jones, Ronnie Estay, Tommy Casanova, Charles Alexander and of course, coach Charles McClendon, ignited a purple and gold fire under Orgeron that still burns today.

Orgeron has reunited the current roster with former players, making them an integral part of the program and he's leveraged his passion and love for LSU into a determination and drive that sees him spend nearly every waking moment focused on LSU football and his vision for the program.

With the "One Team. One Heartbeat" motto, the Tigers seemingly became a different team overnight when Orgeron was elevated to interim head coach on Sept. 25, 2016 and the results that LSU sought soon followed.

As the head coach of the Tigers, Orgeron said he was going to "flip the script" and he assigned a theme for the daily practices. The purpose of the descriptive practice themes for each day during the week is one of the ways that Orgeron and his staff hold the players accountable and focused both prior to and during the workout. The daily practice nicknames are as follows: Tell the Truth Monday, Competition Tuesday, Turnover/No Turnover Wednesday, No Repeat Thursday, and Focus Friday.

Orgeron has also opened the doors for former LSU players to come back and be active in the program. Having former players actively involved is a way for the current

Once a Tiger, Always a Tiger

Tigers to get a better understanding of who helped build the foundation for the program, while also letting them see first-hand what it means to be a LSU Tiger and the responsibility that goes along with it. Orgeron routinely has former Tigers speak to the team, attend practices and be involved with the organization.

ORGERON COACHING HISTORY

Orgeron, who has also served as head coach at Ole Miss and Southern Cal, is 45-14 at LSU. His career mark as a collegiate head coach is 61-41, however he's 51-16 over his last 67 games. Orgeron went 6-2 as Southern Cal's interim head coach in 2013, taking over a USC team that stumbled to a 3-2 mark over the first five games of the year. Orgeron rallied the Trojans as USC closed out the regular season with wins in six of its final eight games.

Orgeron originally joined the Tiger staff in 2015 as defensive line coach, before adding the title of recruiting coordinator in the spring of 2016.

Prior to joining the LSU staff, Orgeron's last coaching stop came at Southern Cal where he served as recruiting coordinator and defensive line coach for the Trojans for four years (2010-13). Orgeron was elevated to interim head coach at USC for the final eight games of the 2013 season.

Orgeron served two stints at Southern Cal, the first as the Trojans' defensive line coach from 1998 to 2004. Orgeron coached under Paul Hackett at USC for three years from 1998 to 2000 and was one of just a handful of coaches retained by Pete Carroll when he took over as the Trojans' head coach in 2001.

Orgeron left USC in 2005 to become the head coach at Ole Miss, where he went 10-25 in three years with Rebels from 2005-07.

Orgeron spent the 2008 season coaching the defensive line for the New Orleans Saints and then joined Tennessee as defensive line coach and recruiting coordinator in 2009. He returned to Southern Cal following the 2009 season.

Orgeron made a name for himself as a top defensive line coach at the University of Miami from 1988-92, where he coached eight All-Americans, including NFL first-rounders Cortez Kennedy, Russell Maryland and Warren Sapp. In 1988, he was a graduate assistant at Miami, working with the defensive line.

Orgeron also was a graduate assistant at Northwestern (La.) State, his alma mater, in 1984 and McNeese State in 1985, working with the defensive line at both schools, then was an assistant strength coach at Arkansas for two years (1986-87).

ORGERON'S LOUISIANA ROOTS

Born July 27, 1961, he has three sons - Tyler, twins Parker and Cody - and one grandson, Emmett. Tyler is a member of the LSU football coaching staff, while Cody is the starting quarterback at McNeese State. Cody, who still have one year of eligibility remaining, earned his undergraduate degree from McNeese in May. Parker was a two-year starter at wide receiver for McNeese and is currently one semester shy of earning his degree from LSU.

Away from the field, Coach O has taken up the sport of boxing and trains three times a week at a local gym. He also teamed with Louisiana Governor John Bel Edwards to educate and inform the citizens of Louisiana during the Covid-19 pandemic. Coach O appeared on commercials and other mediums to support the wearing of masks during the pandemic.

He's also been heavily involved in many community service efforts in the Baton Rouge area, including "Basket of Hope", which has the mission of giving hope to children diagnosed with cancer or other serious illness through the delivery of a Basket of Hope filled with toys, games, craft items, stuffed animals, gift cards, and other items. Coach O makes several trips to local hospitals each year to hand deliver these baskets and to spend time with the children and their families.

Blake Baker

Linebackers

@CoachBlakeBaker

Blake Baker, who for the past two years has served as the defensive coordinator for the Miami Hurricanes, enters his first season on the LSU staff as linebackers coach in 2021. Baker joined the Tiger coaching staff in January of 2021.

Baker comes to LSU with six years of experience as a defensive coordinator – two a Miami and four at Louisiana Tech. In addition to his coordinator duties with Miami and Louisiana Tech, Baker also coached the linebackers at both schools.

He joined the Hurricanes in January of 2019 and in his first year, he oversaw a Miami defense that ranked No. 13 nationally in total defense and 12th in the nation in yards allowed per play. The 2019 Hurricane defense also ranked among the Top 20 in the nation in rush defense (No. 10), redzone defense (No. 16) and pass defense (No. 18).

Two linebackers – Michael Pinckney and Shaq Quarterman – from Baker's 2019 defense earned All-ACC recognition. Quarterman was selected in the fourth round of the 2020 NFL Draft. His 2020 defense featured first team All-America defensive end Jaelan Phillips, who went to be selected in the first round of the 2021 NFL Draft with the 18th overall pick.

Prior to arriving in Coral Gables, Baker spent four seasons (2015-18) as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Louisiana Tech where the Bulldogs had one of the nation's top defenses when it came to impact plays. In 2018, Louisiana Tech ranked No. 4 in the nation in sacks per game, No. 12 in tackles for loss and No. 33 in turnovers gained.

Baker's star defender at Louisiana Tech was All-America Jaylon Ferguson, who led the nation in sacks (17.5) and ranked No. 2 nationally in tackles for loss with 26.5 in 2018. Ferguson was a third round pick in 2019.

As a unit, Louisiana Tech led Conference USA in rush defense in 2015 and finished second in the league in total defense that year. The Bulldogs were third in C-USA in rush defense in 2016.

Prior to being elevated to defensive coordinator at Louisiana Tech, Baker coached the safeties for the Bulldogs in 2014.

In his five years at Louisiana Tech, the Bulldogs won the Conference USA Western Division title twice (2014 and 2016) and played in five bowl games. The Bulldogs won all five of their bowl appearances with Baker on staff, four of which came while he was defensive coordinator – Arkansas State (2015 New Orleans Bowl), Navy (2016 Armed Forces Bowl), SMU (2017 Frisco Bowl) and Hawaii (2018 Hawaii Bowl).

The Bulldogs won 42 games with Baker on staff, including nine victories in three consecutive years from 2014-16.

He spent the 2013 season as the safeties coach at Arkansas State where he helped the Red Wolves to the Sun Belt Conference co-championship and a win over Ball State in the GoDaddy Bowl. That year, Arkansas State ranked No. 3 in the Sun Belt in both scoring defense (26.2 points per game) and pass defense (232.9 yards per game).

Baker got his start in collegiate coaching at Texas, where he was a graduate assistant for the Longhorns from 2010-12. At Texas, Baker worked with the linebackers and defensive backs, two position groups that featured eight All-Big 12 selections over that span. He also coached All-America linebacker and Lott Trophy finalist Emmanuel Acho and 2011 Big 12 Defensive Freshman of the Year Quandre Diggs.

Prior to joining the Texas staff, Baker spent the 2009 season as a wide receivers coach at Clear Springs High School in Houston, Texas, before taking over duties as linebackers coach the following spring.

The Houston native was a four-year letterman and three-year starter at linebacker for Tulane from 2000-04. In 42 career games, he racked up 145 tackles, 14 tackles for loss and six sacks. He helped lead the Green Wave to a win in the 2002 Hawaii Bowl. He earned his bachelor's degree from Tulane in 2008.

Baker is married to the former Roslyn Jones of Mandeville, La., and the couple has a daughter, Anderson, and two sons, Byron and Brady. His wife is a former All-SEC soccer player for LSU.

Andre Carter

Defensive Line

@mr_carter93

Andre Carter, a former NFL first round draft pick who spent 13 years as a dominant defensive lineman in the league, joined the LSU coaching staff as the Tiger defensive line coach last January.

In his first season with the Tigers, Carter inherits an LSU defensive line that returns all four starters as well as several key backups from the 2020 roster. Carter will also oversee the development of the nation's top prep defensive lineman from the 2020 high school season in Maason Smith.

Carter comes to LSU after spending the past four years coaching in the NFL, most recently serving as the defensive line coach for the New York Jets in 2019 and 2020. Prior to that Carter was the assistant defensive line coach for the Miami Dolphins for two years.

In 2020, Carter's top defensive lineman for the Jets was that of second-year pro Quinnen Williams, who recorded 55 tackles to go with seven sacks. In 2019, Carter's defensive line helped the Jets rank No. 2 in the NFL in run defense, allowing only 3.34 yards a carry. That unit also forced 117 opponent carries of zero or negative yards, the most in the NFL.

Before joining the Jets, Carter spent two seasons in Miami as the assistant defensive line coach. In his two seasons there, defensive end Cameron Wake produced 16.5 sacks and 44 quarterback hits, both top 10 totals among AFC defensive linemen. Between 2017-18, Carter's group produced 140 quarterback hits, the seventh-best total in the NFL, including seasons of 10 or more by four different players. Additionally, Dolphin defensive linemen accounted for 86 tackles for loss, tied for the ninth-most in the league.

Prior to his time in Miami, Carter was a Bill Walsh NFL Diversity Coaching Fellowship participant with San Francisco in 2016. He began his coaching career in 2015 as a graduate student assistant at his alma mater, California.

A native of Denver, Colorado, Carter was a unanimous All-America defensive end for California in 2000 and a two-time first team All-Pac 10 performer in 1999 and 2000. He was picked No. 7 overall in the 2001 NFL Draft by the 49ers.

In 13 years in the NFL, Carter played in 184 games (147 starts) and recorded 517 tackles, 80.5 sacks and forced 18 fumbles. He was named to the Pro Bowl in 2011.

At Cal, Carter was a unanimous All-American selection as a senior in 2000 and earned first-team All-Pac-10 honors twice (1999-2000) and won the Morris Trophy in 2000, awarded to the Pac-10's top defensive lineman.

Carter earned his bachelor's degree from Cal in American studies. His father, Rubin Carter, played at the University of Miami and had a 12-year NFL career as a defensive lineman with Denver (1975-86) before spending 28 seasons as a coach in high school, college and the NFL, including three seasons as a defensive line coach for the Jets (2001-03).

Carter and his wife, Bethany, have two children, Aysha and Quincy.

Brad Davis

Offensive Line

@coachbraddavis

Brad Davis, a Baton Rouge native and member of Oklahoma's 2000 national championship team, enters his first year as LSU's offensive line coach in 2021. Davis joined the Tiger staff in June.

Davis returns to his hometown after spending the past four seasons coaching offensive lines in the Southeastern Conference. Davis coached at Florida in 2017, followed by two years at Missouri. Last year, he served as the offensive line coach at Arkansas.

During his coaching career, Davis has had 14 of his offensive linemen earn all-conference honors.

Davis coached at Arkansas in 2020 after two years on the staff at Missouri where he developed Tre'Vour Wallace-Sims into a first team All-SEC offensive lineman. Davis' Missouri offensive line helped pave the way for an offense that rushed for 151.7 yards per game in 2019. The 2018 Missouri offense ranked No. 13 in the nation with 481.8 yards per game and were No. 18 nationally in scoring with 36.6 points a contest.

Prior to joining the Florida staff in 2017, Davis coached the offensive lines at North Texas (2016), East Carolina (2015) and James Madison (2014). At James Madison, Davis also served as the co-offensive coordinator for a Dukes team that finished 9-4 and earned a spot in the FCS Playoffs.

As co-offensive coordinator at James Madison in 2014, Davis helped the Dukes rank among the nation's best in offensive output. James Madison ranked No. 10 nationally in total offense with a 484.6 yards-per-game average and stood at No. 17 in scoring with 35.7 points a contest.

Behind the play of Associated Press third team All-America quarterback Vad Lee, the Dukes established numerous school records, including passing completions, attempts, yards and touchdowns. In addition to Lee and receiver Daniel Brown, Davis also had a direct impact on the development of another All-CAA performer, offensive lineman Mitchell Kirsch.

In five years as the offensive line coach and run game coordinator at Portland State (2009-13), Davis helped the Vikings set numerous school records including total yards (6,486) and yards rushing (3,330), rushing yards per game (277.7), rushing touchdowns (36) and total yards per game (540.5).

At Portland State, Davis coached All-America and All-Big Sky offensive lineman Mitchell Van Dyk. He also developed future FCS Rimington Award (nation's top center) winner Cornelius Edison, who won honor in 2014.

In his last two seasons as the offensive line coach at Portland State, the Vikings surrendered only a combined 19 sacks to finish among the top five in the nation each year.

Following his graduation from Oklahoma in 2003, Davis got his start in coaching at Southern Lab in Baton Rouge, where he coached the offensive line and was co-offensive coordinator. He then spent time at Wayne State as a graduate assistant and Doane College as the offensive line coach and run game coordinator.

Davis served as a graduate assistant at Texas A&M for two years (2006-07) before coaching as an offensive line graduate assistant at North Carolina in 2008.

In addition to his college coaching experience, Davis was part of the NFL's summer internship program, working with the Jacksonville Jaguars in 2011 and the Seattle Seahawks in 2012.

The Baton Rouge native prepped at Belaire High School and later went on to an outstanding playing career at Oklahoma. A 2003 graduate of Oklahoma. Davis was part of two Big 12 championship teams and the 2000 national championship team. He was named the team's Most Valuable Offensive Lineman in 2002.

Davis and his wife, Anecia, have two sons, Bradley and Brayden.

Kevin Faulk

Running Backs

@feezy_k

SUPER BOWL CHAMPION NATIONAL CHAMPION

Kevin Faulk, LSU's all-time rushing leader and three-time Super Bowl Champion, enters his second season as running backs coach for the Tigers after being promoted to that position in February of 2020.

Faulk, who played his entire NFL career under legendary coach Bill Belichick in New England, spent 2018 and 2019 on the LSU staff as Director of Player Development. In that role, Faulk worked with LSU student-athletes on their academic direction, social development and overall quality of life.

Faulk joins cornerbacks coach Corey Raymond as former LSU players who have on-field coaching duties for the Tigers. Faulk

In his first year as LSU's running backs coach in 2020, Faulk managed a backfield that saw four players start at least one game, led by Ty Davis-Price who paced the team with 446 yards and three TDs in nine appearances. LSU returns the bulk of its running back production from a year ago in 2021 as Davis-Price will be joined in the backfield by John Emery (378 rushing yards, 3 TDs) and Josh Williams (88 rushing yards).

Faulk, who remains LSU's all-time leader in rushing yards (4,557) and rushing TDs (46), starred in the backfield for the Tigers from 1995-98, helping LSU to three bowl appearances over that span. Faulk earned All-America honors from the Associated Press in 1996 as well as being a three-time All-SEC selection.

Faulk capped his record-setting LSU career as the SEC's all-time leader in all-purpose yards with 6,833. He still ranks third in SEC history in rushing yards and rushing TDs.

Prior to joining the Tigers in 1995, Faulk was one of the nation's most sought after recruits, earning All-America honors from Parada Magazine and USA Today. An option-quarterback in high school, Faulk capped his career with 4,877 rushing yards and 62 TDs and added another 986 passing yards with 11 TDs. He finished his prep career with 7,612 all-purpose yards and 89 touchdowns.

He was twice named twice named the Louisiana's Most Valuable Player for 5A (highest classification) and led Carencro to the 5A state title as a sophomore in 1992. He was the centerpiece for then head coach Gerry DiNardo's first signing class at LSU in 1995.

Drafted in the second round of the 1999 NFL Draft by the New England Patriots, Faulk spent his entire 13-year NFL career with that franchise. Faulk appeared in five Super Bowls with the Patriots, winning the title three times, playing in the same backfield as Tom Brady.

Faulk scored 33 touchdowns (16 rushing, 15 receiving, 2 kickoff returns) during his career with the Patriots and he holds the franchise record for all-purpose yards (12,349) and kickoff return yards (4,098).

A native of Carencro, Louisiana, Faulk retired from the NFL on October 9, 2012, and was elected into the Patriots Hall of Fame on May 18, 2016. Faulk is a member of the Patriots All-Decade Team for the 2000s and was named to the franchise's 50th Anniversary team as a return specialist.

Faulk is also a member of the LSU Athletic Hall of Fame as well as the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame. He is currently on the ballot for the prestigious National Football Foundation's College Football Hall of Fame.

Faulk graduated from LSU in 1998 with a kinesiology degree. He served as an assistant football coach at Carencro, his high school alma mater, following his retirement from the NFL from 2013-2017.

Faulk and his wife LaTisha have three children – Tanasha, Kevin III and Kevione.

Daronte Jones

Defensive Coordinator

@DaronteJones

LSU reached into the NFL for its defensive coordinator as Daronte Jones was named to the position in January of 2021. Jones brings five years of NFL experience to the LSU coaching staff.

In his first spring with the Tigers, Jones had an immediate impact on the defensive unit, using his strength coaching defensive backs improve LSU's on-field communication while getting players to play fast. Jones' defense will mainly work from a 4-2-5 scheme with the nickel back serving as a primary player on the defensive side of the ball and with the Tigers using two linebackers.

Jones is joined on the defensive side of the ball by LSU coaching veteran Corey Raymond (cornerbacks) along with first-year coaches in Andre Carter (defensive line) and Blake Baker (linebackers).

Jones, who coached with former LSU defensive coordinator Dave Aranda for one season at Wisconsin in 2015, spent the past five years in the NFL, most recently as the defensive backs coach for the Minnesota Vikings. His other NFL stops have come with the Cincinnati Bengals and the Miami Dolphins.

Jones joined the Vikings after two years coaching the secondary for the Cincinnati Bengals (2018-19) and two years as assistant defensive backs coach with the Miami Dolphins (2016-17).

In his one season with the Vikings, Minnesota ranked among the top 10 in the NFL in interceptions with 15. Safety Harrison Smith led the Vikings and ranked No. 5 in the NFL in interceptions with a career-best five. In his two years with the Bengals, he was instrumental in the development of cornerback Darius Phillips, who led Cincinnati with four interceptions in 2019 in only eight games.

As assistant defensive backs coach with the Dolphins from 2016-17, Jones worked with safety Reshad Jones, who led the Dolphins in tackles with 122 and earned a spot in the Pro Bowl in 2017. In his first year with the Dolphins in 2016, the Miami defense ranked No. 3 in the NFL in interceptions with 16 and the franchise finished fourth in the league in third-down defense, allowing opponents to convert only 36.1 percent of its attempts.

Prior to the NFL, Jones served as defensive backs coach for Aranda's defense at the University of Wisconsin in 2015, as the Badgers led the nation with just seven passing touchdowns allowed. Wisconsin's passing defense ranked second in the Big Ten and seventh nationally, allowing 173.2 pass yards per game.

From 2012-14, Jones served as the secondary coach at the University of Hawaii, adding the title of assistant head coach in 2014. Jones helped improve Hawaii's passing defense by 62 yards per game, as the Rainbow Warriors went from 85th nationally in 2011 to the nation's 11th-best pass defense in 2012.

A native of Capital Heights, Maryland, Jones has earlier coaching stops with the Montreal Alouettes of the Canadian Football League in 2011 as the defensive backs coach and with UCLA in 2010 as the cornerbacks coach. Jones was named assistant head coach/defensive coordinator at Bowie State from 2005-09 where his defenses finished among the top five in the nation three times.

Prior to his time at Bowie State, Jones served as defensive coordinator at two Louisiana high schools — Jeanerette (2004) and Franklin (2003). He also spent the 2002 season coaching safeties at Nicholls State after beginning his coaching career in 2001 as a graduate assistant at Lenoir-Rhyne University in North Carolina. Jones played four seasons as a defensive back at Morgan State before earning his bachelor's degree in 2001.

Mickey Joseph

Assistant Head Coach/Wide Receivers

@daboot02

NATIONAL CHAMPION

Mickey Joseph, a Louisiana high school football legend with strong ties to New Orleans, enters his fifth season as LSU's wide receivers coach in 2021. Joseph also serves as assistant head coach for the Tigers, a position he was elevated to in February of 2020.

Joseph has over 20 years of coaching experience as well as four years as a quarterback at Nebraska under Tom Osborne.

It's hard to argue the impact Joseph has had on the LSU offense as his position group has produced five NFL Draft picks in four years, including a pair of first rounders in Ja'Marr Chase (No. 5 overall in 2021) and Justin Jefferson (No. 22 overall in 2020). His other NFL Draft picks at LSU include Terrace Marshall (second round, 2021), DJ Chark (second round, 2018) and Russell Gage (sixth round, 2018).

Jefferson set the NFL record for most receiving yards as a rookie in 2020 with 1,400 on 88 receptions. He also was one of only two rookies named to the 2021 Pro Bowl and the Sporting News named him the NFL Rookie of the Year.

In 2020, depleted of veterans at the position late in the year, true freshman Kayshon Boutte stepped to the front and put his name in the SEC Record Book with 14 receptions for a league record 308 yards and three TDs in the win over Ole Miss in the season-finale. Boutte earned Freshman All-SEC honors and goes into 2021 as a candidate for the Biletnikoff Award as the nation's top receiver. Boutte capped the year with 45 receptions for 735 yards and five touchdowns.

During LSU's national championship season in 2019, Joseph was responsible for putting the best group of receivers in SEC history on the field as the three Tiger starters – Chase, Jefferson and Marshall – combined for 241 receptions for 3,991 yards and 51 touchdowns. Overall, LSU's offense set numerous SEC records in 2019, including passing yards (6,024), passing TDs (61) and total offense (568.4).

The 2019 LSU team also became the first school in the history of the NFL Draft to have its starting quarterback (Joe Burrow), running back (Clyde Edwards-Helaire) and a wide receiver (Jefferson) all picked in the first round of the same draft.

Chase, just a sophomore, won the Biletnikoff Award as the nation's top receiver as well as being a unanimous All-America selection after setting SEC records for receiving yards (1,780) and TDs (20). Jefferson set the LSU record with 111 receptions to go with 1,540 yards and 18 TDs, while Marshall caught 46 passes for 671 yards and 13 scores.

In 2018, Joseph took a young and unproven group of receivers at the beginning of the year and developed them into a dependable, playmaking unit by seasons end. Jefferson, who had never caught a collegiate pass prior to 2018, led the Tigers with 54 catches for 875 yards and six TDs. Jefferson ranked in the top 10 in the SEC in receiving yards (No. 6 at 875), yards per game (No. 8 at 67.3), and receptions (No. 10 at 54).

LSU's 2018 wide receiver corps featured Jefferson, three juniors who have previously combined for only 13 starts prior to last year, and two talented true freshmen in Chase and Marshall.

In his first year at LSU, Joseph helped groom wide receiver Chark into an explosive playmaker as he ranked among the leaders in the SEC in yards per catch (21.9) and yards per game (67.2). Chark earned second team All-SEC honors after hauling in 40 passes for 874 yards and three scores. He doubled as a threat in the punt return game, leading the SEC in punt return TDs (2) and finishing second in the league in punt return yards (190) and average (10.6). His 75-yard punt return for a TD against Auburn helped the Tigers overcome a 20-point first half deficit to win, 27-23, in what was the largest SEC comeback for LSU in Tiger Stadium history.

Another of Joseph's LSU products was that of Gage, a seldom-used wide receiver until Orgeron took over the squad in September of 2016. Under Orgeron and Joseph, Gage flourished as a dynamic playmaker in both the passing and running game as well as making an impact on special teams. Gage developed so much under Joseph that he was drafted in the sixth round of the 2018 NFL Draft by the Atlanta Falcons.

Joseph joined the LSU staff after serving as running backs coach at Louisiana Tech in 2016. In his one year in Ruston, Joseph helped the Bulldogs to a 9-5 overall mark and a 48-45 win over 25th-ranked Navy in the Armed Forces Bowl.

The Bulldogs ranked No. 2 in the nation in scoring in 2016, averaging 44.3 points per game. Tech averaged 514.9 total yards game, which included 363.4 passing and 151.6 on the ground.

Prior to Louisiana Tech, Joseph helped turn around a Grambling State team that went 1-11 prior to his arrival to winning 16 games over the next two years. The Tigers posted a 7-5 mark in 2014 and followed that with a 9-3 overall mark and an appearance in the SWAC Championship Game. In 2015, Joseph's receivers totaled 2,250 receiving yards and 25 touchdowns as Grambling's scoring offense ranked fourth and passing offense ranked 21st among all FCS programs nationally.

Joseph was special teams coordinator and wide receivers coach at Alcorn State in 2013, helping the Braves to a 9-3 overall mark, the most wins for the school in 30 years. While at Alcorn, Joseph guided a receiving corps that caught for 2,728 yards and 23 touchdowns with an average gain of 13.0 yards per reception.

Joseph spent six years at Langston University from 2008-13, which included two years as the head coach. Joseph led Langston to a 7-3 mark in his first season as head coach in 2011. He went 13-7 overall as the head coach at Langston.

Joseph got his first collegiate coaching job at Wayne State College in Nebraska in 1997, which he followed with a season at his high school alma mater Archbishop Shaw High School in New Orleans in 1998. From there, Joseph served as a graduate assistant at Tulane in 1999 and then coached receivers at Alabama State in 2000.

He coached quarterbacks at Nicholls State for three years (2001-03) and then spent two seasons as the running backs coach at Central Oklahoma (2004-05).

Before his tenure at Langston, Joseph served as the head football coach and Director of Athletics for Desire Street Academy, a private school in the New Orleans' Ninth Ward area. His main goal was to help get young kids out of the underprivileged area to improve their overall quality of life through sports. At the time of Hurricane Katrina, Joseph was responsible of moving the private school to Florida along with relocating the student-athletes. That year, the team had a record of 1-3, however, in 2008 Joseph turned the team around to a 10-3 record. Seven out of 25 players were able to sign with NCAA Division I programs.

During the summer of 2012 he also spent time with Houston Texans as part of an NFL minority internship. While in Houston, Joseph worked with the running backs and all aspects of the special teams units.

Joseph played quarterback at Nebraska from 1988-91. As a junior Joseph led the Cornhuskers to a 9-3 overall mark, accounting for 21 touchdowns (11 rushing, 10 passing). In his four years at Nebraska, the Cornhuskers posted a 39-9-1 overall mark and appeared in the Orange Bowl twice, the Citrus Bowl and the Fiesta Bowl.

In four years with the Cornhuskers, Joseph played in 34 regular season games and accounted for 30 touchdowns (16 rushing, 14 passing). His best season came as a junior in 1990 when he played in all 12 games, throwing for 624 yards and 11 touchdowns to go along with 554 rushing yards and 10 TDs.

Joseph was the top recruit coming out of Archbishop Shaw High School in Marrero when he was recruited to the University of Nebraska. In 1987, he was awarded Gatorade Player of the Year and First-Team Parade All-American. The standout football player was also a two-time All-State MVP and three-time All-District MVP.

Joseph, who is married to Priscilla Arzaga, has six children – Jacob, Zachary, Makiyah, Maya, Malania, and Mickey Reign.

DJ Mangas

Passing Game Coordinator

@Coach_DJMangas

NATIONAL CHAMPION

After one season in the NFL as an offensive assistant with the Carolina Panthers in 2020, DJ Mangas returned to LSU last January as the passing game coordinator for the Tigers.

Mangas first joined LSU in 2019, coming to the coaching staff as an offensive analyst after two years as the offensive coordinator at William & Mary.

In his original stint with the Tigers, Mangas worked with former offensive coordinator Joe Brady as LSU put together the most prolific offense in SEC history, averaging 48.4 points and 568.4 total yards per game in 2019. That year, LSU won the national championship, scoring 50 or more points seven times and winning all but two games by double-digits.

That 2019 LSU squad also featured Heisman Trophy quarterback Joe Burrow and Biletnikoff Award winner Ja'Marr Chase. LSU's 2019 squad also became the first in the history of the NFL Draft to have its starting quarterback, running back (Clyde Edwards-Helaire), and wide receiver (Justin Jefferson) all pick in the first round of the draft. The following year, Chase was picked No. 5 overall by the Bengals.

Following the 2019 season, Mangas followed Brady to the Carolina Panthers, where he served as offensive assistant in 2020. Mangas worked alongside both Brady and new LSU offensive coordinator Jake Peetz, who was the quarterbacks coach for the Panthers, in Carolina.

In 2020, Mangas was part of a Carolina offensive coaching staff that produced four players with over 1,000 scrimmage yards in a season as the Panthers become only the fifth team in the Super Bowl era to accomplish such a feat.

Mangas served five years on the William & Mary coaching staff from 2014-18. He coached running backs for three seasons and then was elevated to offensive coordinator for his final two years with the Tribe. At the time of his promotion in 2017, Mangas was the second-youngest offensive coordinator in Division I football.

Mangas, a former wide receiver for the Tribe, had four players earn all-conference honors during his first year as offensive coordinator. Two of his former players – offensive linemen Chris Durant and Connor Hilland – signed free agent NFL contracts.

Under Mangas' direction as a running backs coach for William & Mary, both Mikal Abdul-Saboor (3,108) and Kendell Anderson (3,082) etched their names in the Tribe's record books and finished their illustrious careers as two of the most productive running backs in school history, ranking fourth and fifth, respectively, on the program's all-time rushing list.

The duo was especially prolific during the 2014 season in which it helped W&M average 195.2 rushing yards per game and total 27 rushing touchdowns. Anderson accounted for much of that production was honored as a STATS FCS Offensive Player of the Year Finalist after recording 1,418 rushing yards and 16 touchdowns – figures that both rank second on W&M's single-season lists.

Mangas, a 2012 graduate of William & Mary, returned to his alma mater in 2014 after a pair of one-year stints at Georgetown and Hampden-Sydney College. As the running backs coach with the Hoyas in 2013, he helped the squad's starting running back finish among the program's single-season top-10 list in every major statistical category.

Prior to joining Georgetown's staff, Mangas spent a season as the quarterbacks coach at Hampden-Sydney where the Tigers' starting signal caller was a unanimous first-team all-conference selection after leading the league in passing yards, passing touchdowns and total offense per game.

Mangas began his coaching career at W&M as a student assistant immediately following his playing career, as he worked with the Tribe's running backs and quarterbacks in addition to assisting with the management of winter workouts and spring practice and development of daily spring practice plan materials.

A four-year letterwinner at W&M, Mangas led the Tribe in receptions (45), receiving yards (591) and touchdown catches (5) during his senior season in 2011. Additionally, he earned the team's 2011 Inspirational Award, which is given to the player who exemplifies great leadership.

Greg McMahon

Special Teams Coordinator

SUPER BOWL CHAMPION | NATIONAL CHAMPION

Greg McMahon – a NFL coaching veteran with unmatched expertise in special teams play - enters his fourth season as LSU's special teams coordinator in 2021. McMahon, who won a Super Bowl with the New Orleans Saints, joined the LSU staff as an analyst in 2017 before taking over as special teams coordinator a year later.

McMahon joins Kevin Faulk as coaches on the LSU staff to win both a Super Bowl and a college football national championship.

The play of LSU's special teams since McMahon took over that unit has gone a long way in the Tigers posting a 33-8 overall mark and claiming both the SEC and CFP National titles during that three-year span. LSU led the SEC in points by kicking in both 2018 and 2019 and finished No. 3 in the league last year. LSU specials teams has featured an All-America placekicker two out of the last three years.

McMahon's unit returns All-America placekicker Cade York along with three-year starting kickoff specialist Avery Atkins in 2021. York goes into his junior season as the LSU record holder for career 50-yard field goals (10) and ranks No. 5 in school history in career field goals (45). Atkins, arguably the best kickoff specialist in school history, has had 227 of his 270 kickoffs go for touchbacks with only two balls kicked out of bounds.

A year ago, LSU's roster featured a pair of All-SEC selections in York and punter Zach Von Rosenberg, who capped his career as one of the best to ever play the position for the Tigers. Von Rosenberg, a four-year starter, ranks No. 2 in LSU history in punting yards (8,484) and punts (193) and is No. 3 in career average (44.0).

York kicked his way into the LSU record books in the win over Florida when he delivered a 57-yard field goal (in the fog) and with 23 seconds left in the 37-34 victory over the No. 6 ranked Gators in Gainesville in December of 2020. York set the LSU single-season record with six 50-yard field goals last year and finished his sophomore campaign going 18-of-21 on field goals.

Other standout special teams performances for LSU in 2020 include: Jay Ward blocking a potential game-tying field goal against Arkansas with 1:24 remaining in the contest; and Trey Palmer returning a kickoff 93 yards for a touchdown in the win over South Carolina (the first by an LSU player in Tiger Stadium since Eric Martin did it against Kentucky in 1981).

As a true freshman during LSU's national championship season in 2019, York led the SEC and ranked No. 2 nationally in points by a kicker with 152, while Atkins led the nation in touchbacks (110) and finished No. 3 in touchback percentage (83.9).

York, who earned second team All-SEC honors as well as being a Freshman All-SEC selection, became the first player in LSU history with two 50-yard field goals in a game, doing so in the win over Texas A&M. He finished his rookie season by connecting on 21-of-27 field goals and going 89-of-93 on extra-point attempts.

LSU also accounted for two special teams touchdowns – one punt return and one return of a blocked punt, in 2019.

McMahon's impact on LSU's special teams was nothing short of remarkable in 2018 as the Tigers rode the leg of record-setting kicker Cole Tracy, along with the punting of Von Rosenberg and kickoff ability of Atkins to a 10-3 record and a Fiesta Bowl victory.

In his first full season in charge of LSU special teams, McMahon's unit set or tied seven school-records, including field goals in a game (5 vs. Georgia), field goals in a season (29), longest field goal (54 yards by Tracy vs. Miami) and points by kicking in a game (18 by Tracy vs. Georgia).

The Tigers led the SEC in points scored by kicking (129) and field goals made (29), finished second in the league in kickoff returns (24.7) and were third in net punting (41.0).

Individually, graduate transfer Tracy, who kicked a 42-yard walk-off field goal to beat Auburn, 22-21, in September, earned second team All-America honors and was a finalist for the Lou Groza Award in his only season with the Tigers. Tracy capped his collegiate career with more field goals (97) and points kicking (502) than any player in college football history, no matter the division.

Tracy led the SEC and ranked No. 2 in the nation in field goals (29) and field goals per game (2.23). He also paced the league in scoring (129), which ranked No. 7 nationally.

Von Rosenberg earned second team All-SEC honors after finishing No. 2 in the league in punting with a 45.7 average, which ranks as the third-best single-season total in school history.

Prior to his arrival as an analyst for the Tigers in the fall of 2017, McMahon spent 11 years with the New Orleans Saints, the first two as assistant special teams coordinator followed by nine seasons as special teams coordinator. During his 11 years with the Saints, special teams play under McMahon was defined by solid performances in the kicking game, coverage units and by the return specialists.

Under McMahon's watch, the Saints recovered 15 fumbles on special teams, scored 12 touchdowns – including seven on punt returns – and blocked three punts, five field goals and three extra points. With McMahon on staff, the Saints made five playoff appearances, won the NFC South three times and claimed the franchise's first Super Bowl championship with a 31-17 win over the Colts in Super Bowl XLIV.

As the special teams coordinator for the Saints, McMahon was responsible for some of the best special teams play in franchise history. In the biggest win in Saints history – the Super Bowl victory over the Colts – New Orleans became the first team to successfully execute an onside kick prior to the fourth quarter of a Super Bowl. Called "Ambush", the Saints shifted the momentum of the game in their favor with the onside kick to open the second half, going from down 10-6 at halftime to taking a 13-10 advantage following the onside kick.

Saints kicker Garrett Hartley also became the first player in Super Bowl history to kick three field goals of 40-yards or more in the same game.

In 2014, New Orleans' punt coverage units ranked first in the NFL in opponent punt return average (4.1), setting a club record. Punter Thomas Morstead, who evolved into one of the best in the league at his position, ranked No. 2 in the NFL in net punting in 2014 with a 42.9 average.

In 2013, Morstead finished third in the league in net punting (42.3) and the Saints won three games, including one in the postseason, on field goals at the end of regulation. Morstead earned a spot in the Pro Bowl and was named second team All-Pro by the Associated Press in 2012 after he set club records for both gross (50.1) punting average and net (43.2) punting average. His 42.3 ranked second in NFL history at the time.

McMahon had perhaps his best year with the Saints in 2011 as the club finished eighth in the Dallas Morning News special teams rankings. Morstead finished second in the NFC and fourth in the NFL with a 48.3 gross punting average and second in the league with a 43.1 net average. Morstead also ranked first in the league with an NFL-record 68 touchbacks. Kicker John Kasay ranked second in the NFL in scoring among kickers and set a team record with 147 points.

Darren Sproles made an immediate impact on the return units, handling both punt and kickoff return duties as part of a season where he set an NFL record with 2,696 all-purpose yards. He averaged 10.2 yards on punt returns with one touchdown and ranked third in the NFC and sixth in the league on kickoff returns. McMahon's coverage units ranked fifth in the NFL in opponent punt return average, allowing only 6.2 yards per return.

In McMahon's first season as coordinator in 2008, New Orleans finished as one of only four teams to rank in the top 10 in both punt return average (fourth) and kickoff return average (eighth). Reggie Bush scored on two punt returns against Minnesota to tie an NFL record.

McMahon served as assistant special teams coach for his first two years in New Orleans, following a one-year stint as tight ends/special teams coach at East Carolina. In 2005, the Pirates finished in the top 20 in the nation in field goal accuracy. McMahon also coached tight ends as part of a staff that directed ECU to the fourth-highest passing total in school history.

McMahon, a graduate of Eastern Illinois, served on the coaching staff at Illinois for 13 years before transitioning to the NFL. At Illinois, McMahon coached wide receivers for five years and then spent eight years coaching special teams and the tight ends. McMahon was part of the 2001 Illinois staff that won the Big 10 and faced LSU in the Sugar Bowl.

In his 13 years with the Illini (1992-2004), McMahon coached wide receivers from 1992-96 and then spent the rest of his time from 1997-2004 as special teams coordinator and tight ends coach.

Based on the records his units established, the play of the special teams during McMahon's years at Illinois are unmatched in school history. Illinois blocked 16 kicks from 2001-04 and accounted for nine touchdowns. Players under his direction included the school leaders in career punting average, single-season scoring and all-time punt return yardage.

McMahon joined Illinois in 1992 from Nevada-Las Vegas where he spent two years as special teams coordinator as well as coaching offensive tackles and tight ends. He has also had stints with Valdosta (Ga.) State, Southern Illinois, North Alabama, Minnesota and his alma mater Eastern Illinois.

As a defensive back at Eastern Illinois, he was a member of two teams that played for the NCAA Division II National Championship. The Panthers won the title in 1978 and again went to the championship game two years later. McMahon earned a degree in psychology from EIU in 1982. McMahon and his wife Linda have three children and two grandchildren.

Jake Peetz

Offensive Coordinator

@PeetzJake

Jake Peetz, who spent the 2020 season working alongside former LSU offensive coordinator Joe Brady on the Carolina Panthers coaching staff, enters his first year as offensive coordinator for the Tigers in 2021. He was named to the position in January.

A native of O'Neill, Nebraska, Peetz's offense will feature the spread concept and will be much like that of LSU's 2019 offense that set numerous NCAA, SEC and LSU records during the national championship season. Peetz will also coach the LSU quarterbacks.

Peetz comes to LSU with 10 years of NFL experience, most recently holding the position of quarterbacks coach for the Panthers. Some of the quarterbacks Peetz has coached at the NFL level include Teddy Bridgewater (Panthers), Derek Carr (Raiders), Kirk Cousins (Redskins), Chad Henne (Jaguars) and Blaine Gabbert (Jaguars).

Peetz spent two years with Carolina, coaching the running backs in 2019 when Christian McCaffrey put together a record-breaking season for the Panthers. In 2019, McCaffrey led the NFL in scrimmage yards (2,392) and became just the third player in NFL history with over 1,000 rushing yards and 1,000 receiving yards in the same season. He also set the NFL record for receptions by a running back with 116 in 2019, becoming only the second player in league history with 1,000 rushing yard and 100 receptions in the same season.

In 2020, Peetz helped Carolina produce four players with over 1,000 scrimmage yards in a season as the Panthers become only the fifth team in the Super Bowl era to accomplish such a feat. Bridgewater completed 69.2 percent of his passes and threw for 3,733 yards and 15 TDs for the Panthers in 2020. The Panther offense also produced a pair of 1,000-yard receivers in 2020 with Robby Anderson and D.J. Moore both eclipsing the mark.

Other NFL stops for Peetz include the Oakland Raiders (2015-17), Washington Redskins (2014) and Jacksonville Jaguars (2012). Peetz spent the 2013 and 2018 seasons as an offensive analyst with Alabama. He also coached at Santa Barbara City College in 2006 and at UCLA in 2007. He was a scout for the Jacksonville Jaguars from 2008-11 before moving to an on-field coaching position with the franchise in 2012.

Peetz coached quarterbacks in his final two seasons in Oakland (2016-17), serving as assistant quarterback coach in 2016 and quarterbacks coach in 2017. Raiders quarterback Derek Carr earned two of his three consecutive Pro Bowl selections working with Peetz. Peetz originally joined the team as a senior offensive assistant in 2015, working primarily with the running backs. He helped Latavious Murray earn Pro Bowl honors after rushing for 1,066 yards and six touchdowns, the first 1,000-yard rushing season by a Raider since 2010.

Peetz spent one year with Washington as the offensive quality control/assistant wide receivers coach in 2014. In his one season working with Peetz, Washington wide receiver DeSean Jackson led the NFL with an average of 20.9 yards per reception and led the team with 1,169 receiving yards.

Peetz played defensive back and was a long snapper at Nebraska from 2003-05. While at Nebraska, he was twice named to the Brook Berringer Citizenship Team for his extensive community outreach work. He graduated from Nebraska in exercise since in December of 2005.

Peetz and his wife Maggie have six children - Gianna, Julia, John Robert, Emma, William, and George.

Corey Raymond

Cornerbacks/Recruiting Coordinator

@LSUCoachRaymond

NATIONAL CHAMPION

Corey Raymond, a former LSU standout who spent six years playing in the NFL, enters his 10th season with the Tigers in 2021. Raymond coaches the LSU cornerbacks, while also serving as the recruiting coordinator, a position he added in February of 2020.

Raymond, who is the longest standing active on-field coach on the LSU staff, has long been praised for his development of LSU's defensive backs as the Tiger secondary has consistently been one of the strengths of the team thus enhancing the school's claim of being "DBU."

Raymond's secondary has produced seven first team All-Americans during his time at LSU, a list that includes Eric Reid (2012), Jalen Mills (2015), Jamal Adams (2016), Tre'Davious White (2016), Greedy Williams (2018), Grant Delpit (2018 and 2019) and Derek Stingley Jr. (2019, 2020).

In addition, Delpit claimed the 2019 Jim Thorpe Award as the nation's top defensive back.

Under Raymond, LSU's secondary has sent 14 players to the NFL Draft, including three first rounders - Adams and White (2017), and Eric Reid (2013), along with five second round picks that include Grant Delpit (2020), Kristen Fulton (2020), Donte Jackson (2019), Williams (2018) and Jalen Collins (2015).

Other LSU NFL Draft picks under Raymond's watch include: cornerback Tyrann Mathieu (third round in 2013), cornerback Tharold Simon (fifth round in 2013), safety Jalen Collins (second round in 2015), cornerback Rashard Robinson (third round in 2016), safety Jalen Mills (seventh round in 2016), Donte Jackson (second round in 2018), and Greedy Williams (second round in 2019).

Most recently, defensive backs JaCoby Stevens (sixth round) and Kary Vincent Jr. (seventh round) both added their names to NFL rosters in the 2021 draft.

Of the 14 players that have been drafted under Raymond's watch, 10 have started games in the NFL and four have appeared in the Pro Bowl.

Raymond's primary focus for the past three years has been that of the cornerbacks and that unit has thrived under his watch. In 2020, LSU ranked No. 2 in the SEC in interceptions with 13 with true freshman Eli Ricks ranking No. 2 in the conference with four to his credit.

During LSU's national championship season in 2019, Stingley Jr. led the SEC in interceptions with six and earned SEC Newcomer of the Year honors to go with his first team All-America awards. Stingley Jr. and Ricks are both preseason All-Americas in 2021 and the duo forms what is being called the best set of cornerbacks in college football.

In 2019, the Tigers, for the second straight season, led the SEC in interceptions with 17 and LSU ranked No. 2 in the league in pass efficiency defense, allowing opponents to complete just 50.7 percent of its passes – the best percentage in the league.

In 2018, Raymond continued the development of Williams, who earned first team All-America honors and was a finalist for the Thorpe Award. Raymond's impact was also evident with the emergence of Fulton into one of the top cornerbacks in college football after sitting out the previous two years.

LSU led the SEC interceptions with 17 and ranked second in the league in pass defense efficiency in 2018. LSU was the only team in the SEC to hold opponents to less than 50 percent completion percentage for the season.

In 2017, LSU's secondary featured a pair of second team All-Americans in Williams and Jackson. Williams had a breakout year with the Tigers in 2017, leading the SEC in interceptions (6) and finishing No. 2 in the conference in passes defended (17). As a unit, LSU allowed only 11 passing touchdowns, which was the second-lowest total in the SEC, and the Tigers were No. 2 in the league in pass efficiency defense.

In 2016, Raymond's secondary allowed only nine passing touchdowns all season and ranked No. 3 in the Southeastern Conference in yards per game at 197.2. White, who ranked No. 2 in the conference in passes defended with 16, along with Adams were both named first team All-SEC. For the second-straight year, Adams led all LSU defensive backs with 76 tackles.

LSU's 2015 secondary featured Mills, a first team All-America selection despite missing the first five games of the season with a broken ankle. Mills was joined in the secondary by White and Adams, who were both second team All-SEC selections. Adams led all Tiger defensive backs with 67 tackles and four interceptions.

In 2014, LSU's secondary featured another young, but talented group as the starting lineup included a true freshman, one sophomore, two juniors and a senior. The play of LSU's secondary was prominent in the Tigers leading the SEC in total defense (316.8 yards per game), pass defense (164.2 yards per game) and pass efficiency defense (101.6 rating). LSU allowed an SEC-best 10 passing touchdowns in 2014 and the Tigers were the only team in the league to hold teams to fewer than 200 completions.

LSU ranked No. 4 in the SEC in pass defense in 2013, allowing 197.5 yards per game. The Tigers limited opponents to 15 touchdown passes and ranked second in the league in yards allowed per attempt (6.4) and third in the conference in completion percentage at 56.0 percent.

In his first year back with the Tigers in 2012, Raymond coached safety Reid to first team All-America honors. Reid was later chosen No. 18 overall in the NFL Draft by the San Francisco 49ers. Starting cornerback Tharold Simon was picked in the fifth round by the Seattle Seahawks.

As a unit in 2012, LSU's secondary, despite using a pair of first-time starters, combined for 15 interceptions and helped the Tigers rank No. 11 nationally in pass efficiency defense.

Raymond returned to LSU after spending the 2011 season as the secondary coach at Nebraska. In his one season with the Cornhuskers, Raymond coached a Nebraska secondary that featured the 2011 Big Ten Defensive Back of the Year in Alfonzo Dennard. Despite inheriting a group that lost four starters from the season before, including three NFL Draft picks, Raymond's secondary helped Nebraska rank No. 18 in the nation in pass defense in 2011.

Prior to his one-year stay in Lincoln, Raymond served as the cornerbacks coach for two seasons at Utah State. Raymond's top pupil at Utah State was that of Curtis Marsh, who earned All-WAC honors and later went on to become a third-round pick in the NFL Draft. Raymond served on the LSU staff for three years from 2006-08 before taking the job at Utah State.

During his three years on the LSU staff from 2006-08, Raymond was part of two BCS bowl victories, including a 38-24 win over Ohio State in the BCS National Championship. LSU's defense ranked No. 3 nationally in both 2006 and 2007 as the Tigers combined to post a 23-4 record during that span.

Prior to joining the LSU staff in 2006, Raymond coached at the high school level for three years in his hometown of New Iberia. Raymond was the defensive coordinator at New Iberia High School in 2003 and then held the same position at Westgate High School in 2004-05.

Raymond was a three-year starter in the secondary for the Tigers from 1989-91. He capped his LSU career with 185 tackles and eight interceptions. Following his career with the Tigers, Raymond spent six seasons in the NFL – three with the New York Giants and three with the Detroit Lions. In 90 games in the NFL, Raymond started 60 times and intercepted 11 passes to go with 258 tackles.

Raymond, who earned his undergraduate degree from LSU in 1993, has four children – Cody, Ariel, Christopher and Madison.

York Kicks Himself into Record Books

Cade York was one of the best kickers in the nation during the 2020 season, earning Second Team All-America honors (AP, FWAA) and First Team All-SEC honors as voted on by the league's coaches. He kicked his way into the LSU record books and lore in the Tigers' victory at Florida on December, 12 when he booted a game-winning and LSU record 57-yard field goal through a dense fog to upset the Gators in the Swamp. York kicked a record six field goals of 50 yards or longer during the 2020 season. He finished the season with eight consecutive made field goals and was a perfect 3-of-3 in Gainesville before going 4-of-4 during LSU's season finale victory over Ole Miss. York did not miss a field goal in Tiger Stadium during 2020, going a perfect 8-of-8. In all, the sophomore kicker made 18 field goals to lead the SEC.

Boutte Emerges as Receiving Threat

In the final game of his freshman campaign in which he led the Tigers in receiving yards, Kayshon Boutte broke out and showed his potential to become a true No. 1 receiver. LSU faced Ole Miss in Tiger Stadium for the season finale where the Tigers outlasted the Rebels, 53-48. Boutte put his skills as a receiver on full display with 14 receptions and a SEC record 308 yards on his way to three touchdowns. His final touchdown With the Tigers trailing 28-46 with under two minutes to play, Boutte was on the received a pass from Max Johnson on the 33-yard line and sprinted to rest of the distance to the end zone down the left sideline of Tiger Stadium that gave LSU its final margin of victory and the record to Boutte. In each of the final three games of the season, the New Iberia, Louisiana native surpassed 100 yards and emerged as a go-to target in the Tigers' passing attack.

Stingley Jr. Earns All-America Honors Again

Derek Stingley Jr. earned first team All-America honors for the second straight year in 2020 as the sophomore was named to the American Football Coaches Association All-America team. Stingley, the top cover cornerback in college football, had 27 tackles, 2.5 tackles for loss and broke up five passes in 2020 in a season that rarely saw a ball thrown in his direction. Stingley becomes the first player in LSU history to earn first team All-America honors as a freshman and sophomore and looks to join Tommy Casanova (1969-70-71) as the only three-time first team All-Americas in school history.

Youth Movement at LSU in 2020

LSU's 2020 season saw a host of freshmen and sophomores play prominent roles for the Tigers. Overall, nine true freshmen in 2020 started at least one game, including a pair of quarterbacks in Max Johnson and TJ Finley. In LSU's win over No. 6 Florida, three true freshmen scored touchdowns (CB Elias Ricks, RB Tre Bradford, and WR Kayshon Boutte) in the 37-34 win over the Gators in Gainesville. Of the 48 players that saw action in the win over Florida, 26 were either freshmen or sophomores.

29 Players With At Least One Start In 2020 Return For 2021

LSU's 2021 roster features 29 players who started at least one game for the Tigers in 2020. The list of returning starters is bolstered by an offensive line that returns five players who combined for 44 of a possible 50 starts in 2020. That unit is led by four seniors in center Liam Shanahan (10 starts in 2020), right guard Chasen Hines (9 starts in 2020), left guard Ed Ingram (23 career starts) and right tackle Austin Deculus (34 career starts). On the defensive line, the Tigers return five players who combined to make all but one start among that position group in 2020. LSU's defensive line in 2021 will be led by All-SEC senior defensive Ali Gaye, who had 32 tackles, 9.5 tackles for loss and a pair of sacks in his first year at LSU. Gaye is joined by a trio of seniors in defensive tackles Glen Logan and Neil Farrell Jr., and defensive end Andre Anthony to give the Tigers one of the most returning experienced defensive lines in school history.

Costello Leads State Past LSU in Opener, 44-34

Though LSU overcame a 10-point fourth-quarter deficit, Mississippi State senior quarterback K.J. Costello led the Bulldogs to the game's final 10 points to earn the victory, 44-34, on Saturday at Tiger Stadium. Trailing 34-24 early in the fourth quarter, LSU's defense forced turnovers on consecutive possessions - an interception by freshman cornerback Elias Ricks and a strip-sack by senior linebacker JaCoby Stevens - to quickly get back in the game. The Tigers responded with a 33-yard touchdown reception by Terrace Marshall Jr. and a 40-yard Cade York field goal to tie the game at 34-34 with 9:37 to play. Starting his first game for LSU, junior quarterback Myles Brennan finished 27-of-45 passing for 345 yards and three touchdowns. He was intercepted twice including the game's final play. LSU, which had only 3 of its 22 starters from the 2019 national championship team in today's starting lineup, was outgained 632-425. Costello finished 36-of-60 passing 623 yards and five touchdowns. State attempted only 16 rushing attempts for nine net yards, including five sacks of Costello for minus-38 yards. Due to COVID-19 capacity limitations, Tiger Stadium's capacity was reduced to 25 percent. Attendance was announced as 21,124

LSU Bounces Back with 41-7 Victory at Vanderbilt

LSU quarterback Myles Brennan threw for 337 yards with four touchdowns, as the Tigers rebounded from a season-opening loss with an emphatic 41-7 victory over Vanderbilt on Saturday at Vanderbilt Stadium. LSU (1-1, 1-1 SEC) pitched a second-half shutout, allowing only 63 yards to Vanderbilt (0-2, 0-2 SEC) in the final 30 minutes. The Tigers finished with 498 yards of total offense, including a career-best 103 yards on 12 carries by sophomore running back John Emery Jr., who scored from 12 yards in the fourth quarter. LSU improved in all three phases of the game, with the defense allowing 133 passing yards a week after giving up an SEC record 623. With the return of All-American Derek Stingley Jr., LSU totaled more than 100 punt return yards for the second time since the 2014 season. Without being sacked, Brennan finished 23-of-37 passing for 337 yards with a pair of touchdown passes to wide receivers Terrace Marshall Jr. and Jontre Kirlin. Marshall caught TD passes of 16 and 51 yards, while Kirklin's first career touchdowns came from 28 and 29 yards. LSU built a 21-7 halftime lead and never allowed Vanderbilt to get back into the game in the second half. The Tigers gained 28 first downs while averaging 5.0 yards per rush. Defensively, senior safety JaCoby Stevens had 10 of his team-high 11 tackles in the first half, while linebacker Jabril Cox added seven tackles. Stingley, who missed the season opener against Mississippi State, returned with six tackles and three punt returns for 92 yards with a long of 48. Missouri's Stand Leads to 45-41 Loss in Relocated Contest

In a game moved from Baton Rouge to Columbia 74 hours before kickoff, Missouri's goal-line stand in the final minute gave the homestanding Tigers a 45-41 victory over the LSU Football team on Saturday. LSU (1-2), which was scheduled to play host to Missouri before Hurricane Delta forced the relocation, had four tries from the Missouri 1-yard line in the final minute of the game but was unable to push the ball across the line. Quarterback Myles Brennan continued his impressive start the 2020 season for LSU, completing 29-of-48 passes for 430 yards with four touchdowns. He wasn't intercepted. Wide receiver Terrace Marshall Jr., who was targeted on the final two plays of the contest, had 11 catches for 235 yards and three touchdowns. His yardage was fourth-most in LSU football history. Freshman tight end Arik Gilbert caught six passes for 97 yards with a touchdown, but missed a significant portion of the game with an injury. Missouri quarterback Connor Bazelak was nearly perfect, completing 29-of-34 passes for 406 yards with four touchdowns including the game winner from 5 yards to Niko Hea with 5:18 remaining in the game. Running back Larry Roundtree rushed for 119 yards on 18 carries while Tyler Badie and Jalen Knox each scored for Missouri. Missouri outgained LSU, 586-479, and won despite three fumbles which led to 17 LSU points.

Finley, Defense Spark LSU Past South Carolina, 52-24

True freshman quarterback TJ Finley threw for 265 yards and two touchdowns while running back Tyrion Davis-Price added 135 yards to lead LSU past South Carolina, 52-24. Playing at home for the first time since the season opener four weeks prior, LSU (2-2) scored on the ground, through the air, on defense and on special teams to roll past South Carolina (2-3). After the Gamecocks cut LSU's 31-10 halftime advantage to two scores, LSU's Trey Palmer scored on a 93-yard kickoff return that broke a 39-year span between such touchdowns by LSU in Tiger Stadium. The most recent was by Eric Martin, 100 yards against Kentucky on Oct. 17, 1981. Finley, who became the eighth true freshman quarterback to start for LSU since World War II, completed 17-of-21 passes for 265 yards with an interception and two touchdowns to wide receiver Terrace Marshall Jr. Finley also ran for LSU's first touchdown - a 1-yarder midway through the first quarter. Marshall finished with six catches for 88 yards, while tying the program record for consecutive games with a receiving touchdown at seven. In addition to Davis-Price's career night, John Emery Jr. started and ran 18 times for 88 yards with a fourth-quarter 3-yard touchdown. Defensively, LSU true freshman cornerback Eli Ricks intercepted a pass for the third time in his four games as a Tiger, this time returning the pickoff 45 yards for a touchdown that put LSU ahead 31-10 just before halftime. Another true freshman, LSU defensive end BJ Ojulari, had three of LSU's five sacks, while seniors JaCoby Stevens and Jabril Cox led the Tigers with seven tackles each. The Tigers defense stiffened in its half of the field. LSU forced four field goal attempts - three were missed from the 37, 17 and 23-yard lines - and another turnover on downs at the LSU 41.

Late TD, Blocked FG Setup LSU Victory at Arkansas, 27-24

LSU freshman quarterback TJ Finley connected with Jaray Jenkins for a 13-yard touchdown with less than four minutes to play, and Jay Ward blocked a potential game-tying field goal with 84 second to play to give the Tigers a 27-24 victory over Arkansas on a rainy Saturday in Fayetteville, Ark. Finley, who started for the third-straight game in place of an injured Myles Brennan, finished 27-of-42 passing for 271 yards with two touchdowns and no interception. LSU running back Tyrion Davis-Price ran a career-high 24 times for 104 yards and with a 1-yard touchdown run that was setup by linebacker Jabril Cox' 36-yard interception return in the second quarter. Head coach Ed Orgeron improved to 5-0 against Arkansas and 13-0 in games following a loss at LSU. His defense forced seven drives of three-or-fewer plays, while the Tigers offense dominated time of possession at 41:43. LSU converted 12-of-23 third downs while Arkansas was 0-for-10. Eight LSU receivers caught passes led by Terrace Marshall Jr.'s seven catches for 57 yards. Racey McMath had three catches for 48 yards including a 30-yard touchdown reception, while Jenkins finished with three grabs for 43 yards and the game-winning score. Arkansas (3-5) took a 21-20 lead late in the third quarter. However, an LSU defense playing the final quarter without starting cornerbacks Derek Stingley Jr. (injury) and Eli Ricks (targeting ejection) gave the Tigers a chance for their first fourth-quarter comeback victory since Cole Tracy's walk-off field goal at Auburn in 2018. Ward, a reserve cornerback who saw extensive action after Ricks' ejection, recorded LSU's first blocked field goal since Austin Deculus against Miami in 2018. Razorbacks' quarterback Feleipe Franks used big gains to amass 339 passing yards on 17-of-26 passing with a touchdown and an interception. Mike Woods led the way with four catches for 140 yards, while Treylon Burks added five receptions, 90 yards and a 65-yard touchdown. Franks was the Hogs leading rusher with 43 net yards on 14 carries including a 10-yard touchdown run just before halftime.

No. 5 Aggies Win Defensive Tussle, 20-7

Defense and special teams carried fifth-ranked Texas A&M Saturday night to a 20-7 victory over LSU on a rainy evening at Kyle Field. The LSU defense was exceptional as well in the rugged contest, allowing the Aggies to convert just 2-of-16 opportunities on third down – including 0-for-6 in the second half – while holding Texas A&M to only 105 yards passing. The Aggies improved to 2-7 against LSU since Texas A&M joined the SEC prior to the 2012 season. Texas A&M held the Tigers to 267 yards in total offense, including 36 yards rushing. Field position was a significant factor in the Aggies' defensive effort, as punter Nik Constantinou pinned the Tigers' inside the 20-yard line on six occasions. The Aggies' offense managed only 267 total yards against the inspired LSU defense, which forced Texas A&M to punt 12 times. The Aggies' offense was paced by running back Isaiah Spiller, who rushed 27 times for 141 yards and one touchdown. LSU wide receiver Terrace Marshall Jr. caught 10 passes for 134 yards and one TD. Texas A&M opened the scoring with a field goal at the 9:10 mark of the first quarter, as Seth Small connected on a 41-yard attempt. The Aggies moved 41 yards in seven plays to take the 3-0 lead. Texas A&M extended the advantage to 10-0 with 16 seconds remaining in the first quarter, when Spiller dashed 52 yards to the end zone, capping a two-play, 54-yard march. With 9:37 left in the second period, LSU forced Texas A&M quarterback Kellen Mond to fumble on a fourth-and-one at the LSU 5, and the Tigers took over at their own 15-yard line. The fumble was the seventh created by the LSU defense this season. LSU quarterback TJ Finley then hit wide receiver Terrace Marshall Jr. with a 54-yard pass to the Aggies' 31, before Finley connected with wide receiver Kayshon Boutte on what appeared to be a 31-yard touchdown reception. However, the score was overturned after replay review, and on the next play, a tipped Finley pass was intercepted by Jaylon Jones at the Texas A&M 21. The Aggies' offense went three-and-out on the ensuing possession, and after a punt, the Tigers drove 29 yards to the Texas A&M 16, but Cade York missed a 34-yard field goal try. Small nailed a 40-yard field goal on the final play of the first half, capping an eight-play, 44-yard drive and giving the Aggies a 13-0 halftime lead. LSU took over on its own eight-yard line, but on the second play of the possession, Texas A&M linebacker Buddy Johnson intercepted a Finley pass and returned it 15 yards for a touchdown, increasing the Tigers' deficit to 20-0 with 4:36 remaining in the third quarter. LSU got on the scoreboard with 38 seconds remaining in the game when quarterback Max Johnson fired a three-yard scoring pass to Marshall Jr., capping a 14-play, 81-yard march.

Alabama Scores 55-17 Victory Over LSU

Top-ranked Alabama opened a 21-0 lead in the opening quarter to defeat LSU on Saturday night in Tiger Stadium, 55-17. Alabama improved to 9-0. After being stopped on a fourth-down try on its first drive, the Tigers scored two second-quarter touchdowns on a 44-yard reception by freshman wide receiver Kayshon Boutte - though he dropped the ball short of the end zone. The ball rolled over the line where LSU's Jontre Kirklin picked it up and was credited with the touchdown. Less than three minutes later, running back John Emery Jr. ran a career-long 54 yards for a touchdown. Big plays by Alabama's DeVonta Smith were too much for the Tigers to overcome, as the senior wide receiver caught eight passes for 231 yards including touchdowns of 65, 61 and 20 yards. Offensively, both true freshman quarterbacks saw action for LSU. TJ Finley started and completed 14-of-28 passes for 144 yards including the touchdown pass to Boutte, who caught eight passes for 111 yards. Max Johnson entered in the third quarter and completed 11-of-17 passes for 110 yards. Emery's big run helped him lead LSU with 79 yards on seven carries. Cade York improved to 8-of-10 in his career on field goals beyond 50 yards, as he made a 52-yarder in the third quarter. Defensively, linebacker Damone Clark led LSU with 13 tackles, while Jabril Cox added nine and safety JaCoby Stevens had eight.

York's Record Kick Boots LSU Past Florida in Road Thriller, 37-34

Cade York's 57-yard field goal with 23 seconds left gave the Tigers a 37-34 win on the road, in a contest that saw six lead changes, over 1,000 yards of offense, and a blanket of fog thick enough to force the broadcast to change camera angles. Thick as it was, it couldn't stop York's field goal from splitting the uprights to seal the win. Nor could it stop freshman quarterback Max Johnson, who became the first LSU quarterback to throw three touchdowns in The Swamp, completing 21-of-36 passes for 239 yards in the win. His favorite target on the night, Kayshon Boutte, caught five passes for 108 yards and a touchdown, while Chris Curry tallied 64 yards on 17 carries. Johnson added 52 yards on the ground, as well. The LSU defense, tasked with stopping the SEC's top offense and Heisman frontrunner Kyle Trask, also forced three turnovers and scored a touchdown to lead the way to the win. The victory pushes LSU to 4-5 on the season, while the Gators fell to 8-2.

Johnson, Boutte Set Records in Wild Win Over Ole Miss

LSU freshman quarterback Max Johnson threw for 435 yards and accounted for five touchdowns, while freshman wide receiver Kayshon Boutte set an SEC record with 308 yards as LSU defeated Ole Miss in a second-half storm, 53-48. Trailing 48-46 in the final two minutes of the contest, Boutte caught a pass from Johnson at the Ole Miss 33-yard line and sprinted along the left sideline to complete a 45-yard touchdown reception that gave LSU its final margin with 94 seconds to play. With less than a minute left and Ole Miss nearing the LSU red zone, LSU's Ali Gaye jarred the ball from Ole Miss quarterback Matt Corral. LSU's JaCoby Stevens jumped on the loose ball at the 27 to give LSU the victory. The Tigers defense forced six turnovers including four first-half interceptions, the first of which was returned 31 yards for a touchdown by LSU cornerback Jay Ward. Boutte had 14 receptions for 308 yards, breaking Josh Reed's LSU receiving yards record (292 at Alabama in 2001) and the SEC record held by Arkansas's Cobi Hamilton (303 vs. Rutgers in 2012). Boutte caught touchdown passes of 32, 18 and 45 yards. Wide receiver Koy Moore added six catches for 63 yards, while running back Josh Williams (55) and Tre Bradford (53) led the Tigers in rushing yards.

Ed Orgeron

Head Coach

2019 NATIONAL COACH OF THE YEAR

In 2019, Orgeron was consensus National Coach of the Year earning the honor from the Associated Press, Walter Camp, Eddie Robinson, Home Depot, George Munger and the AFCA. He was also named the SEC Coach of the Year.

Orgeron guided the Tigers to the most dominant regular season in school history with the Tigers posting a 13-0 mark and outscoring opponents, 621-275. LSU blew through the College Football Playoffs, beating No. 4 Oklahoma, 63-28, and then claimed the school's fourth national title with a 42-25 win over No. 2 Clemson in the national championship game to finish with the first 15-0 record in the history of the SEC.

LSU went 8-0 in SEC play during the regular-season, winning six of the eight games by at least two touchdowns. LSU racked up 46 points and 559 total yards in a 46-41 win over Alabama in Tuscaloosa and then followed that with 714 total yards in a win over Ole Miss in Oxford. LSU closed out the regular-season with a 50-7 win over Texas A&M in Tiger Stadium. LSU captured its 12th SEC title with a 37-10 win over No. 3 Georgia in the SEC Championship Game in Atlanta.

LSU trailed in only six games all season, just twice in the second half and never in the fourth quarter. The biggest deficit the Tigers faced all season was 17-7 against Clemson in the second quarter of the national championship game. LSU responded by scoring 21 unanswered points to take the lead for good at 28-17 just before halftime.

Overall, LSU went into the Clemson game riding a streak of 21 straight quarters without trailing an opponent, a streak that dated back to the Auburn game on Oct. 26.

LSU's offensive success in 2019 was a product of the Tigers going to the spread offense and the play-calling of coordinator Steve Ensminger. During the 2019 offseason, Orgeron hired Joe Brady as LSU's passing game coordinator, who installed the spread and the results followed. Burrow set nearly ever LSU and SEC single-season passing record as the Tigers led the nation in points per game (48.4) and yards per game (568.4) – both school records. LSU scored at least 40 points in 12 games and the Tigers went over the 50-point mark seven times and eclipsed 60 points three times.

Defensively, the Tigers allowed only 21.9 points per game and allowed a combined one passing touchdown in wins over Georgia, Oklahoma and Clemson.

In addition to Burrow's sweep of National Player of the Year Awards and the Heisman Trophy, LSU produced the winner of the Biletnikoff Award (Ja'Marr Chase) and the Jim Thorpe Award (Grant Delpit). 2019 JOE MOORE AWARD - THE MOST OUTSTANDING OFFENSIVE LINE UNIT IN COLLEGE FOOTBALL

LSU's offensive line, anchored by junior Lloyd Cushenberry and senior Damien Lewis and coached by James Cregg, was named the winner of the 2019 Joe Moore Award as the most outstanding offensive line unit in college football.

Aaron Taylor, co-founder of the award and CBS Sports analyst, along with SEC Network analyst Cole Cubelic presented the trophy to the Tigers prior to the CFP Semifinal game against Oklahoma.

LSU was the second team from the Southeastern Conference to win the award since its inception in 2015.

The Joe Moore Award trophy, crafted by award winning sports sculptor Jerry McKenna, is the largest trophy in college football, standing at a height of almost seven feet and weighing in at over 800 pounds.

LSU's O-line unit paved the way for the most productive offensive season in school history, establishing school records for points (726), points per game (48.4), total offense (8,526), passing yards (6,024), 50-point games (7), and games with at least 40 points (12).

LSU's offensive line featured eight different starters and only had two players that started all fifteen games at the same position all season.

LSU's starting line featured senior tackle Badara Traore (3 starts), junior tackle Saahdiq Charles (9 starts), freshman tackle Dare Rosenthal (3 starts), junior tackle Austin Deculus (13 starts), senior guard Adrian Magee (15 starts), sophomore guard Ed Ingram (2 starts), senior right guard Lewis (15 starts), and senior center Lloyd Cushenberry III (15 starts).

Burrow set nearly ever LSU and SEC single-season passing record as the Tigers led the nation in points per game (48.4) and yards per game (568.4) – both school records. LSU scored at least 40 points in 12 games and the Tigers went over the 50-point mark seven times and eclipsed 60 points three times.

The trio of Ja'Marr Chase, Justin Jefferson and Clyde Edwards-Helaire teamed up with Burrow to become the first team in SEC history with a 1,0000 yard rusher and two 1,000 yard receivers int he same season.

7 Grant Delpit

DB

2019 THORPE AWARD WINNER

Grant Delpit continued LSU's legacy as DBU by winning the 2019 Thorpe Award, becoming the first Tiger to win the award since Mo Claiborne in 2011.

Delpit was a consensus All-America in 2019 after starting at safety for the Tigers in 14 of 15 games. The DB became the first LSU player to be named first team Walter Camp All-America in consecutive seasons since running back Charles Alexander in 1777-78.

He was awarded the prestigious No. 7 after a consensus All-America season in 2018, Delpit followed that up by leading the Tigers to a 15-0 record and CFP Championship win over Clemson in his hometown.

After playing through an ankle injury throughout most of the year, Delpit finally got 100 percent late in the season and was a big reason for LSU defense playing its best football down the stretch.

He recorded 65 tackles, 4.5 tackles for loss, two interceptions and two sacks in 14 games. He had six tackles and a sack for a 10-yard loss against Clemson. His forced fumble on Trevor Lawrence in the fourth quarter sealed the victory for the Tigers.

He was selected with the 44th overall pick in the 2020 NFL Draft by the Cleveland Browns.

17 Morris Claiborne

CB

2011 THORPE AWARD WINNER

Morris Claiborne cemented his legacy as one of the top cornerbacks in LSU history after he wrapped up a stellar career in 2011. As a junior, Claiborne took home the prestigious Jim Thorpe Award that annually goes to the nation's top defensive back, becoming the second straight LSU player to earn the award after Patrick Peterson claimed the honor in 2010.

Widely recognized as one of the top defensive players in the nation as a junior, the Shreveport, La., native earned unanimous consensus All-America honors when he led LSU to a 13-1 record, SEC title and a spot in the national championship game. Claiborne led the nation in interception return yards with 173 on six interceptions, and he showed his athleticism and playmaking ability by scoring two touchdowns in 2011 – one on a pivotal 99-yard kickoff return at West Virginia and one on a 45-yard INT return that cemented LSU's SEC championship game victory over Georgia.

In addition to earning All-America honors, Claiborne was named the SEC Defensive Player of the Year by the SEC coaches in 2011, and he also earned First-Team All-SEC recognition and finished as a Nagurski Award finalist. Following his outstanding junior season, Claiborne was chosen with the sixth overall selection in the 2012 NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys.

An outstanding player with tremendous heart and talent, Tyrann Mathieu collected the 2011 Bednarik Award, an honor given annually to the nation's top defensive player. In 2011, Mathieu helped LSU finish with a 13-1 record, an SEC title and a berth in the national championship game as he led the team with 76 total tackles, led the nation with five fumble recoveries and finished fourth nationally in punt return average at 15.6 yards per return.

Mathieu was a consensus All-American as a sophomore at cornerback and return specialist. He finished his career accumulating 133 total tackles, 16 tackles for loss, 16 pass breakups, 11 forced fumbles, eight fumble recoveries, six sacks, four interceptions and four touchdowns – two on punt returns and two on fumble returns. Josh Reed
WR

2001 BILETNIKOFF AWARD WINNER

When one thinks of some of the finest players in the history of the Southeastern Conference, Josh Reed's name is included on that list. Reed, who is one of the most decorated players in school history, virtually re-wrote both the LSU and SEC receiving record books despite playing only 28 games at wide receiver.

Originally signed out of Rayne (La.) High School as a tailback, Reed moved to wide receiver in week 9 of the 1999 season out of a necessity. The results were immediate as he caught five passes for 100 yards against Houston in just his second game at the position.

A year later, in 2000, Reed earned first-team All-SEC honors after catching 65 passes for 1,127 yards and 10 touchdowns for the 8-4 Tigers. His 102.5 yards receiving a contest led the SEC, and he ranked second in the league with just under six catches a game.

Reed put together the finest year for a receiver in SEC history in 2001 as he shattered the league's single-season yardage mark with 1,740 yards on a school-record 94 catches. Reed set a pair of league marks in a 35-21 road victory over Alabama as he hauled in 19 passes for 293 yards and a touchdown. He capped his record-setting career in grand fashion, setting a pair of Sugar Bowl records with 14 receptions for 239 yards and two touchdowns in leading the Tigers to a 47-34 victory over Illinois.

At the conclusion of his junior season, Reed was named the winner of the Biletnikoff Award, which is presented annually to the nation's top collegiate receiver. Reed was drafted with the fourth pick of the second round of the 2002 NFL Draft by the Buffalo Bills.

Billy Cannon

HB

1959 HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER

Even by today's standards Billy Cannon was a rare athlete, combining sprinter speed with brute strength. Cannon could consistently run a 9.5 in the 100-yard dash and, at 6-1, 210 pounds, he had the size to overpower his opponents as well as outrun them. In 1957, he was an immediate standout as a sophomore, offensively and defensively.

As a junior, Cannon was the driving force behind the Fighting Tigers as they carved out a perfect season and captured the 1958 national championship. He passed for a touchdown and kicked the extra point in LSU's 7-0 win over Clemson in the Sugar Bowl and earned MVP honors.

Cannon's most memorable performance came in 1959 against Ole Miss. Top-ranked LSU trailed the third-ranked Rebels 3-0 early in the fourth quarter, when Cannon fielded a punt at the LSU 11-yard-line and broke seven tackles on his way to paydirt. LSU won the contest 7-3. Considered one of the best collegiate backs of his era, Cannon was awarded the Heisman Trophy at the conclusion of the 1959 season. In 2008, the legendary Cannon was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame.

Billy Cannon was presented with the 1959 Heisman Trophy by then Vice President Richard Nixon.

KEVIN FAULK
1996
Wendell Davis, Kevin Faulk and Josh Reed all impacted the SEC record books during their careers. Reed holds the league record for single-season receiving yards per game (145.0), while Davis ranks sixth in SEC annals in that category (113.1). Faulk remains the SEC's all-time leader in career all-purpose yards (6,833).

In 2011, Tyrann Mathieu and Morris Claiborne became the first cornerback tandem from the same team to earn Associated Press All-America honors in the same season.

LSU All-Americans

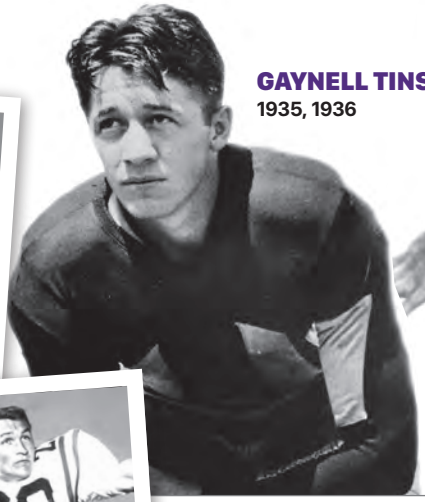

LSU has been the home of some of college football's greatest players. A total of 78 LSU players have earned the distinction of first-team All-America in the history of the program. Gaynell Tinsley was the first All-American in school history after earning the recognition as an end in 1935. Tommy Casanova, arguably the most versatile player in school history, is LSU's only three-time first-team All-American.

BILLY CANNON

GAYNELL TINSLEY

Jimmy Taylor and Billy Cannon were the faces of LSU's successful teams of the 1950s. Taylor, who went on to a legendary pro career with the Green Bay Packers, was the first fullback in LSU history to earn All-America honors. Cannon, now a member of the National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame, was the national player of the year in 1958 and 1959.

Gaynell (Gus) Tinsley
End - 1935, 1936
Associated Press
The Tigers' first consensus All-American, Gaynell (Gus) Tinsley was a unanimous selection in both 1935 and 1936. He played both ways as an end and led LSU to two SEC titles and three Sugar Bowl appearances. After earning three letters with the Tigers from 1934-36, he went on to a successful NFL career where he was twice named an All-Pro selection while playing for the Chicago Cardinals. Tinsley later returned to LSU where he served as the Tigers' head coach from 1948-54. During the 1949 season he led LSU to an 8-2-0 season that included wins over the Southern, Southeastern and Southwest Conference champions and a Sugar Bowl tilt versus Oklahoma. He was a charter member of the LSU Athletics Hall of Fame.

Marvin (Moose) Stewart
Center - 1935, 1936
Helms Foundation
A three-year letterwinner for the Tigers (1934-36), Marvin (Moose) Stewart was selected to the Helms Foundation All-American team in 1935. Later named an All-SEC selection by the Associated Press in 1936, he helped the Tigers to back-to-back SEC titles in 1935 and 1936. Stewart was a charter member of the LSU Athletics Hall of Fame.

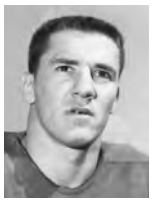

Ken Kavanaugh, Sr.
End - 1939
Associated Press
A standout receiver for the Tigers from 1937-39, Ken Kavanaugh, Sr., was selected as an All-American by the Associated Press and finished seventh in the Heisman balloting during his senior season. A two-time AP first-team All-SEC selection (1938-39), Kavanaugh was known for scoring all four touchdowns in the Tigers' 28-7 victory over Holy Cross in 1939. He went on to an outstanding professional career with the New York Giants, where he continued with the organization as a scout after his playing career. A superb athlete, Kavanaugh also enjoyed a brief stint in baseball's professional ranks after lettering on the diamond at LSU. His son, Ken. Jr., lettered at LSU from 1969-71 as a receiver on the football team.

George Tarasovic
Center - 1951
National Editorial Alliance
George Tarasovic was a junior college transfer who, although playing and lettering only one year at LSU, was named both an All-America and All-SEC selection that season. An all-around athlete in high school, Tarasovic's college career was abbreviated because of military service during the Korean War. However, after returning from the service Tarasovic resumed his playing career at the professional level where he saw over a dozen years of action in the NFL and AFL.

Sid Fournet
Tackle - 1954
Associated Press, UPI, Look, Football Writers Association of America, National Editorial Alliance, Williamson, INS
An extremely durable performer, Sid Fournet played guard and tackle on both sides of the ball. Earning All-America distinction in 1954, Fournet was credited with seeing action in 83 percent of the Tigers' total plays that season. Also a two-time first-team All-SEC selection, he was honored by both AP and UPI in 1953 and 1954.

Jimmy Taylor
Fullback - 1957
Football Writers Association of America-Look
Viewed as one of the most complete football players to have ever played the game, Jimmy Taylor was named a All-American by the Football Writers Association of America-Look in 1957. Voted the MVP of the 1958 Senior Bowl, he went on to a legendary pro career with the Green Bay Packers (1958-66) and New Orleans Saints (1967) and was later inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1976. Taylor is also a member of the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame and the LSU Athletics Hall of Fame.

Billy Cannon
Halfback - 1958, 1959
1959 Heisman Trophy, Associated Press (1958-59), UPI (1958-59), National Editorial Alliance (1958-59), Central Press (1958-59), American Football Coaches Association (1958-59), The Sporting News (1958-59), Football Writers Association of America-Look (1958-59), New York Daily News (1958-59), NBC (1958-59), Time (1958), Leahy (1958), Hearst (1959).
The greatest football player ever to don the Purple and Gold, Billy Cannon was awarded the Heisman Trophy in 1959. He was given virtually every honor that could be bestowed on an individual, including All-America accolades in 1958 and 1959. Cannon was considered almost as valuable on defense as he was on offense. His 89-yard punt return in 1959 against Ole Miss has become a gridiron legend, but few remember that he and Warren Rabb stuffed Ole Miss at the goal line of a fourth and inches to preserve the dramatic 7-3 victory. A three-year letterwinner for the Tigers (1957-59), he was also a two-time first-team All-SEC selection (1958-59).

Max Fugler
Center - 1958
Football Writers Association of America-Look, NBC
A bulwark for the White Team, Max Fugler was instrumental in the Tigers' 1958 national championship run. Named an All-American by the Football Writers Association of America-Look and NBC that same year, he was heralded as an outstanding blocker on offense and incomparable down lineman on defense. His defensive work was exemplified by the number of goal line and fourth down stands the Tigers had during the glory years of 1958 and 1959. He was also named a first-team All-SEC selection by UPI in 1958.

Roy (Moonie) Winston
Guard - 1961
Associated Press, UPI, National Editorial Alliance, Central Press, Football Writers Association of America Look, Kodak/ American Football Coaches Association, New York Daily News, The Sporting News, Time
A 1961 All-America selection at guard, Roy (Moonie) Winston excelled on defense with a strong initial charge, plus speed and agility. Soft-spoken, Winston was a born leader that was elected by his teammates as the Tigers' team captain in 1961. Winston also earned first-team All-SEC honors from the AP and UPI that same year. In addition, he played on LSU's SEC champion baseball team in the early 1960's before enjoying a brilliant NFL career in Minnesota.

LSU All-Americans

Fred Miller

Tackle - 1962

Football Writers Association of America

A stellar lineman for the great LSU teams of the early 1960s, Fred Miller originally signed with Tulane after finishing at Homer High School, but he found out he was one English credit short, so he was bound for Texas A&M until Paul Dietzel sold his family on LSU. He played alongside Moonie Winston in 1961 and was a blocker for Heisman runner-up Jerry Stovall in 1962. In his three seasons, LSU played in two bowls, the Orange (25-7 over Colorado) and Cotton (13-0 over Texas). He was drafted by the Colts and later earned All-Pro honors. He is a member of LSU's Modern Day Team of the Century.

Jerry Stovall

Halfback - 1962

Associated Press, UPI, National Editorial Alliance, Central Press, Football Writers Association of America, Kodak/American Football Coaches Association, New York Daily News, The Sporting News, Time, CBS

Ironically, Jerry Stovall was the last recruit signed by LSU after he graduated from high school. Once with the Tigers he earned All-America accolades and finished second in the 1962 Heisman Trophy balloting. Also a two-time All-SEC selection, Stovall went on to play nine seasons with the St. Louis Cardinals before becoming an assistant coach at South Carolina. He later returned to LSU as assistant coach and was named head coach after the tragic death of Bo Rein in 1980. He took LSU to the 1983 Orange Bowl and was named National Coach of the Year by the Walter Camp Football Foundation after the 1982 season.

Billy Truax

End - 1963

Football News

Billy Truax was an excellent blocker, but LSU's offense in that era was geared towards the run and, consequently, his talents as a pass receiver were never exploited. Football News honored him as an All-American in 1963, the same year the UPI recognized him as a first-team all-conference honoree. Truax's son, Chris, was an offensive lineman at LSU from 1988-91.

Remi Prudhomme

Tackle - 1964

National Editorial Alliance, New York Daily News, Football News

A stalwart of the Chinese Bandits, Remi Prudhomme was an unusually strong player. His size and weight made him unique and his aggressive temperament was ideal for the role in which he was cast. Named a 1964 All-American by the National Editorial Alliance, the New York Daily News and the Football News, he also garnered all-conference honors from the UPI. Prudhomme went on to a brilliant pro career with the Buffalo Bills, Kansas City Chiefs and New Orleans Saints.

Doug Moreau

Split End - 1965

Football News

Doug Moreau's pass-catching ability was heralded, but his place kicking had to be recognized. In his junior season, his talented toe was responsible for the first two victories of the year, a 9-6 win over the Texas Aggies and 3-0 victory against Rice. The AP named him a first-team All-SEC pick in 1964 before he earned All-America honors from the Football News in 1965. Moreau went on to play professional ball with the Miami Dolphins, earned a law degree and served as a district judge in Baton Rouge. He currently serves as the color analyst for the LSU Sports Radio Network.

George Rice

Tackle - 1965

Time, The Sporting News

A local lad, George Rice's prowess in high school overlapped three sports: football, basketball and track. Extremely powerful, his specialty in track was the shot put. On the gridiron he was a devastating blocker and tackler who played in three bowl games during his career. Rice was named a first-team All-SEC selection by UPI in 1964 and an All-American by Time and The Sporting News a year later. He participated in the Hula Bowl and went on to a long, successful career in the NFL before returning to LSU as a graduate assistant.

John Garlington

End - 1967

Kodak/American Football Coaches Association

An incredible athlete whose talents typified his play and teamwork, John Garlington had excellent speed and lateral pursuit. Opponents were timid when it came to attacking his side of the defensive line. Even with his size, he was a speed merchant. In the 1966 Rice encounter, Garlington picked off an errant pass and returned it 42 yards for a touchdown. A 1967 Kodak/AFCA All-American, he was also a two-time first-team All-SEC selection (1966 and 1967).

George Bevan

Linebacker - 1969

Football Writers Association of America-Look, Kodak/American Football Coaches Association

Possibly the finest all-around linebacker ever to play at LSU, George Bevan's size had absolutely nothing to do with his desire, competitiveness, leadership and commitment. In the first game of his junior year, he injured his Achilles tendon to such an extent that he underwent several surgeries and spent 32 months on crutches. There was little hope he would ever play football again, but by the summer of 1969, his determination had earned him a starting role. Although Bevan had many notable moments, his blocked extra point against Auburn in the classic 21-20 victory by LSU had to be his crowning achievement. He was named both an All-America and All-SEC (AP and UPI) selection in 1969. Bevan earned his law degree from LSU.

Tommy Casanova

Cornerback - 1969, 1970, 1971

Associated Press (1969-70), Kodak/American Football Coaches Association (1969-70), UPI (1971), Central Press (1971), Football Writers Association of America (1971), Walter Camp (1971), Football News (1971), Time (1971)

Versatility personified might be the best description of the myriad talents of Tommy Casanova. During his three-year LSU career, he played offense and defense, returned punts and kickoffs, and did everything except handle the water cart. A fearless competitor, he led the team by example through three brilliant seasons and entered immortality as a result of his actions, both on and off the field. A three-time All-American, Casanova is one of just six three-time All-SEC performers in LSU history (1969-70-71). Following his collegiate career, Casanova played several seasons with the Cincinnati Bengals while pursuing his medical degree. He is now is an ophthalmologist in his hometown of Crowley, La.

Mike Anderson

Linebacker - 1970

Associated Press, UPI, Central Press, Football Writers Association of America-Look, Kodak/American Football Coaches Association, Football News, Time

Mike Anderson started every game during his three years as a linebacker at LSU. In fact, he was the second of three straight All-America linebackers produced by the Tigers: George Bevan in 1969; Anderson in 1970; and Warren Capone in 1973. Anderson was noted for one great play -- at Auburn in 1970, LSU was leading 17-9, the Plainsmen had the ball, fourth and one inch and 6-2, 225-pound fullback Wallace Clark drove for the TD. Anderson met him head-on short of pay dirt and his feat became that of which legends are made. Named an All-American in 1970, he was also recognized as a first-team All-SEC pick by the AP and UPI that same year.

Ronnie Estay

Tackle - 1971

Kodak/American Football Coaches Association

One of the quickest defensive linemen ever to play at LSU, Ronnie Estay, a true Cajun, anchored a defense that allowed the fewest yards in the nation. During his junior year, he tackled both quarterbacks Pat Sullivan of Auburn and Archie Manning of Ole Miss for safeties. In 1971, he was recognized as a Kodak/AFCA All-American as well as a first-team All-SEC selection by the AP and UPI.

Bert Jones

Quarterback - 1972

UPI, National Editorial Alliance, Kodak/American Football Coaches Association, Time, The Sporting News

National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete Award

In 1959, The National Football Foundation unveiled an entirely new concept in college football -- it's National Scholar-Athlete program. In the history of American sports, this was the first time an organization honored football players, not only for their athletic ability, but also for their academic and civic leadership. The Foundation's National Scholar-Athlete Awards program consists of graduate fellowships that are awarded on an annual basis to a select group of college football players in their senior year of eligibility who have demonstrated outstanding academic success, exemplary community leadership and superior football performance. LSU has had eight players named as a National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete, including Rudy Niswanger, who claimed the 2005 William V. Campbell Trophy, which goes to college football's most outstanding student-athlete.

OVERALL RECORD: 9-2 • SEC RECORD: 5-0
COACH: BERNIE MOORE

The start of the season proved to be tough for LSU as Rice came to Baton Rouge and handed the Tigers a 10-7 defeat.

But led by the exploits of a freshman end named Gaynell Tinsley, the Tigers would not lose again in the regular season. It started with an 18-6 win over Texas in which the Tigers scored two fourth-quarter touchdowns for the victory, then continued all the way to New York City with a 32-0 rout of Manhattan, then to Shreveport for a win over Arkansas and on to Nashville with a 7-2 victory over Vanderbilt in the SEC opener.

Auburn would fall in a 6-0 tussle in Death Valley, but no opponent the rest of the way would be that close. The Tigers then disposed of Mississippi State and Georgia before crushing Southwestern Louisiana 56-0 and Tulane 41-0 to end the season 9-1 and send SEC champion LSU to its first bowl game ever, a Sugar Bowl date with Sammy Baugh's TCU Horned Frogs.

With heavy rains turning the Tulane Stadium field to slop, the expected passing matchup between Baugh and LSU's Abe Mickal never developed. Baugh threw an incomplete pass in the endzone for a safety that gave LSU a 2-0 lead, but the Frogs drove for a game-winning field goal and 3-2 triumph in front of an overflow crowd of 35,000.

OVERALL RECORD: 9-1-1 • SEC RECORD: 6-0
COACH: BERNIE MOORE

LSU started off in fine fashion against a pair of SWC powers, defeating Rice, 20-7, at home then tying Texas at Austin, 6-6, before destroying Georgia in the SEC opener, 47-7, and shutting out Ole Miss, 13-0.

The Tigers beat border rival Arkansas in Shreveport, 19-7, blanked Vanderbilt in Music City and Mississippi State in Birmingham, then returned home to down Auburn 19-6 and Southwestern Louisiana 93-0.

LSU finished the regular season by whitewashing rival Tulane, 33-0, leaving the Tigers as the nation's highest scoring team with 281 points. The Tigers finished runner-up in the AP poll to Minnesota, but took national championship honors in the Williamson poll. The Tigers' season went sour again in the Sugar Bowl, though, as coach Buck Shaw's Santa Clara club shocked LSU, 21-14.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONS • OVERALL RECORD: 11-0 SEC RECORD: 6-0
COACH: PAUL DIETZEL

In the modern era of college football, many coaches, especially in the hyper-competitive world of the SEC, would not survive seasons of 3-5-2, 3-7 and 5-5, but LSU athletic director Jim Corbett showed patience with the Tigers' young innovator, 35-year-old Paul Dietzel, and for his fourth season in Baton Rouge, Dietzel would come up with the innovation that would revolutionize college football, and football on the bayou would never be the same.

Dietzel unveiled his three units--the White Team, the Go Team and the Chinese Bandits--in impressive road victories over Rice and Alabama (in its first game under Bear Bryant), before LSU returned home to defeat Hardin-Simmons.

After crushing Miami and Kentucky, LSU moved to third in the polls for a homecoming showdown against Florida in front of the first sellout crowd in Tiger Stadium history. The 67,500 in attendance weren't disappointed, as the Tigers won 10-7 to move to No. 1 in the Associated Press poll, and LSU then backed up that ranking with a 14-0 shutout of sixth-ranked Ole Miss.

A 50-18 victory over Duke moved LSU up to the top spot in the UPI coaches' poll, but the Tigers nearly lost it all the next week against Mississippi State in Jackson, falling behind 6-0 at halftime before a touchdown in the third quarter and Tommy Davis' extra point gave LSU a 7-6 triumph, leaving only nemesis Tulane standing between the Tigers and the brass ring.

The Green Wave held sway in the first half, limiting the Tigers to two field goals and a 6-0 lead at intermission, but in the second half the Wave was swallowed up, as the Tigers scored an incredible 56 points, including 35 in the fourth quarter, to win 62-0 and leave no doubt as to who was No. 1.

LSU then took its victory lap in the Sugar Bowl against Clemson with a 7-0 victory and the perfect ending to the first perfect season at LSU in exactly 50 years.

OVERALL RECORD: 10-1 • SEC RECORD: 5-0
COACH: PAUL DIETZEL

Coming off a 5-4-1 campaign in 1960, LSU wanted to get its 1961 campaign off to a flying start, but a 16-3 loss to Rice in the season opener signaled the beginning of what could have been a very difficult season. As it turned out, the loss to the Owls meant little.

Over the final nine games of the season, LSU would allow a measly 30 points, with 14 of those scored by Kentucky in a 24-14 Tiger triumph in the fifth game of the year. The Tigers blanked Florida, 23-0, then took a 10-7 win over Ole Miss to leave them needing only a win over archrival Tulane to win a share of the league title.

For the second time in four years, Andy Pilney and his Green Wave suffered a 62-0 humiliation at the hands of the Bayou Bengals, and SEC champion LSU was on to the Orange Bowl to face Big Eight champion Colorado.

In what was Paul Dietzel's final game at LSU, the Tigers had little trouble in silencing the Buffaloes, 25-7.

1970

OVERALL RECORD: 9-3 • SEC RECORD: 5-0
COACH: CHARLES MCCLENDON

Archie Manning and Ole Miss left LSU three points shy of a perfect season and the chance to play Texas in the Cotton Bowl for the national championship in 1969. After refusing a bowl berth following a 9-1 season, LSU was determined to remedy this failure in 1970.

The Tigers' hopes took a serious hit on opening night, as Texas A&M came to town and pulled off a 20-18 upset. The loss left the Tigers bloodied but unbowed, as LSU then rattled off seven consecutive victories, including a 17-9 victory at Auburn over future Heisman Trophy winner Pat Sullivan, then a 14-9 triumph in Birmingham over Alabama, the Tigers' second straight over Bear Bryant's Crimson Tide.

LSU would have two big non-conference games before its December 5 showdown with Archie Manning's Ole Miss Rebels for the SEC championship. First was a visit to South Bend and second-ranked Notre Dame, where LSU limited Ara Parseghian's powerful offense led by Joe Theismann to under 250 yards, but the Tigers missed several chances to win the game and fell, 3-0. The Tigers now needed two wins to lock up an Orange Bowl berth opposite Big Eight champion Nebraska, and got the first at Tulane Stadium over a pesky Green Wave squad, 26-14, setting up the title match with the Rebels.

Manning would return to Death Valley with a cast on his left arm that severely limited his throwing motion. The way LSU played that warm December night, Manning could have been Superman himself and it probably wouldn't have mattered. Tommy Casanova and Craig Burns combined to return three punts for touchdowns, and Ronnie Estay nailed Manning for a safety as LSU brought Christmas to Tiger Stadium early with a 61-17 rout of the Rebels to send the Tigers to Miami.

In the Orange Bowl against a Nebraska team looking to win a share of the national championship, LSU held a 12-10 lead after three quarters before wilting under the charge of the powerful Cornhuskers, 17-12.

LSU's SEC Championship Teams

1986

OVERALL RECORD: 9-3 • SEC RECORD: 5-1
COACH: BILL ARNSPARGER

The Tommy Hodson era began at LSU in 1986 in Bill Arnsparger's third and final season in Tigertown, which got off to a flying start with a 35-17 upset of Texas A&M.

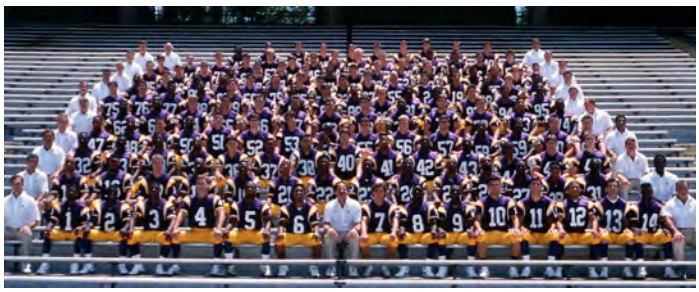

The Tigers then dropped a shocking 21-12 decision to Arnsparger's alma mater, Miami of Ohio the following week.

The loss to Miami was only a temporary setback. The Tigers began to roll behind their new leader, defeating Florida 28-17 in Gainesville, then coming home for a 23-14 win over Georgia. The Tigers rolled to victories over Kentucky and North Carolina before Ole Miss came to Death Valley and won for the first time in Baton Rouge since Archie Manning's sophomore season of 1968, knocking the Tigers out of first place in the SEC.

Now came a trip to league leader Alabama in Birmingham. In a white-knuckle struggle, LSU prevailed 14-10, leaving the Tigers needing only to defeat Mississippi State the next week to win the Tigers' first league crown since 1970.

In front of a pro-LSU crowd in Jackson, the Tigers left little doubt as to who would be kings of the SEC, as they mauled the Bulldogs 47-0 to win at least a share of the league crown. LSU defeated Notre Dame and Tulane to close out the season, then Auburn upended Alabama in the Iron Bowl to give the Tigers the title all to themselves and secure the school's second Sugar Bowl berth in three years.

Arnsparger, who accepted the position of athletic director prior to LSU's game with Tulane, coached LSU for the final time on New Year's Day in a 30-15 loss to Nebraska in the Sugar Bowl.

1988

OVERALL RECORD: 8-4 • SEC RECORD: 6-1
COACH: MIKE ARCHER

LSU looked to win its second SEC title in three years in 1988, and after a 10-1-1 season in 1987 under first-year coach Mike Archer, the Tigers looked the part of champions in their first two games, thrashing Texas A&M 27-0 in Death Valley, then taking the school's first win ever in Knoxville with a 34-9 rout of Tennessee.

LSU would quickly find itself 2-2, though, as it squandered a 13-point lead in the final five minutes of a 36-33 loss at Ohio State, then dropped a 19-6 decision at Florida before heading into a critical showdown with fourth-ranked Auburn.

In a classic defensive battle, two Auburn field goals gave the Tigers of the Plains a 6-0 lead late in the fourth quarter before Tommy Hodson hit Eddie Fuller in the endzone with less than one minute to play, tying the game and causing such a tremor that it was felt on a seismograph in the LSU Geology Department. David Browndyke then kicked the extra point to give the Bayou Bengals a 7-6 triumph in what will forever be known as the "Earthquake Game."

Tough home victories over Kentucky and Ole Miss followed, then came a trip to Alabama where LSU fell behind 15-0 late in the first half before the Tigers rallied and took a 19-18 victory on Browndyke's field goal in the waning seconds. The Tigers won the SEC title the following week with a 20-3 win over Mississippi State.

LSU split its final two regular season games, losing to Miami and defeating Tulane, before a loss to Syracuse in the Hall of Fame Bowl ended the Tigers' season at 8-4.

2001

OVERALL RECORD: 10-3 • SEC RECORD: 5-3
COACH: NICK SABAN

Following a strong 8-4 2000 season under first-year coach Nick Saban, the 2001 Fighting Tigers were widely expected to capture the SEC Western Division championship and play in the school's first SEC Championship Game.

The Tigers got off to a flying start with home victories over Tulane and Utah State before the terrorist attacks of September 11 postponed LSU's SEC opener against Auburn until December 1.

Instead, the Tigers opened SEC play at Tennessee's Neyland Stadium in front of more than 107,000, the largest crowd ever to see LSU play, where the Volunteers got revenge for 2000 with a 26-18 victory, before LSU returned home and fell to 0-2 in the SEC with a 44-15 loss to Florida.

LSU then defeated Kentucky and Mississippi State on the road, but those wins were erased by a 35-24 home loss to Ole Miss that seemingly finished the Tigers' title hopes off, dropping LSU to 2-3 in the SEC.

But instead of folding, the Tigers fought back. First, Rohan Davey threw for 528 yards and Josh Reed caught 19 passes for 293 yards as the Tigers bombed Alabama in Tuscaloosa, 35-21. Home wins over Middle Tennessee and Arkansas closed November and set up the Western division title showdown with Auburn.

The showdown was no contest. LSU rolled to a 21-7 halftime lead and cruised home to a 27-14 victory, sending the Tigers to their first SEC Championship game against a Tennessee squad that would look to punch its ticket to the Rose Bowl and a national championship date with Miami with a second victory over LSU.

Most teams would have wilted under the pressure, especially after losing their starting running back (LaBrandon Toefield) and quarterback (Davey), but LSU didn't just survive; it thrived. Led by the steady play of backup Matt Mauck, the Tigers stunned the college football world by upending the Big Orange, 31-20, sending LSU to its first Sugar Bowl since 1986.

The Tigers capped off this glorious season with a 47-34 pasting of Illinois in the Sugar Bowl, as Davey earned MVP honors by throwing for a bowl record 444 yards and three touchdowns, while Reed caught 14 passes for 239 yards in front of a partisan LSU crowd of more than 77,000, leaving LSU in the top 10 for the first time since 1987.

2003

NATIONAL CHAMPIONS • OVERALL RECORD: 13-1 • SEC RECORD: 7-1
COACH: NICK SABAN

LSU stormed to its second Southeastern Conference title under Nick Saban in three years as the Tigers blew through the conference slate with a 7-1 record, which included five league wins of 21 points or better.

Behind a suffocating defense and a balanced offensive attack, the Tigers earned a spot in the league's championship game for the second time under Saban with a 55-24 win over Arkansas in the regular-season finale in Baton Rouge.

LSU then followed that with a 34-13 trouncing of Georgia in the SEC title game, a contest that saw the Tigers pile up 293 yards rushing against the fifth-ranked Bulldogs with freshman Justin Vincent accounting for an SEC Championship Game record 201 of those yards.

The victory over Georgia propelled the Tigers in the BCS National Championship contest against Oklahoma, a game that LSU won by a 21-14 count to claim the school's second national title in football.

2007

NATIONAL CHAMPIONS • OVERALL RECORD: 12-2 • SEC RECORD: 6-2
COACH: LES MILES

LSU fans across the world had to wait 45 years between the Tigers' first and second National Championships. They only had to wait four between the second and third, but the victory tasted just as sweet.

With a crushing 38-24 win over Ohio State in the Bowl Championship Series Championship Game, LSU left little doubt in the minds of those in the college football universe who the best team was during the 2007 season.

The Tigers (12-2) became the first two-time winner of the BCS Championship by dominating most of the game and outscoring the Buckeyes 31-0 over a 24-minute stretch.

Head coach Les Miles, in his third season at LSU, lifted the $30,000 Waterford Crystal football-shaped trophy amid a cloud of purple and gold ticker tape.

As dominant as LSU's national championship game performance was, it matched how the Tigers opened the 2007 season.

LSU, ranked No. 2 in the preseason, lived up to the lofty ranking with a 45-0 whitewashing of Mississippi State in Starkville in the season opener, followed by a 48-7 pounding of No. 9 Virginia Tech in Tiger Stadium the following week.

The Tigers throttled Middle Tennessee (44-0), No. 12 South Carolina (28-16) and Tulane (34-9) in consecutive weeks, lifting the Bayou Bengals to No. 1 in the Associated Press rankings heading into a Top-10 matchup with defending national champion Florida.

In what has become one of the most memorable games in Tiger Stadium History, top-ranked LSU dueled all night by the Tim Tebow-led ninth-ranked Gators. Trailing 24-14 entering the fourth quarter, LSU outscored Florida 14-0 in the final frame to take a dramatic 28-24 victory. In fact, the Tigers converted 5-of-5 fourth down attempts, including two on a nine-minute drive late in the game that resulted in Jacob Hester's two-yard touchdown plunge. The Tigers batted down a last-second Hail Mary pass from Tebow that dropped harmlessly to the Tiger Stadium turf to seal the epic victory.

Still feeling the effects of the physical clash with the Gators, LSU stumbled the following week, falling 43-37 in three overtimes at No. 17 Kentucky.

Despite the heartbreaking defeat at the hands of the Wildcats, there was no rest for the weary as the Tigers returned to Baton Rouge to square off against No. 18 Auburn in a game that would come down to the final second.

After a slow start against the Tigers from the Plains, LSU roared back with 17 points in the fourth quarter, but it was the ending that stunned the nation. With the Tigers marching down to the Auburn 22-yard line and time running out, head coach Les Miles elected not to call timeout or kick a potential game-winning field goal. Instead, quarterback Matt Flynn lobbed a perfectly-thrown pass to a well-guarded Demetrius Byrd who slid in the endzone to make the touchdown grab with exactly one second on the clock. Tiger Stadium erupted as LSU claimed a 30-24 victory over Auburn.

The Tigers posted another dramatic victory with a 41-34 triumph over Alabama in Tuscaloosa before rattling off a 58-10 win over Louisiana Tech and a 41-24 triumph at Ole Miss.

The top-ranked Tigers had sewn up the SEC Western Division title heading into the regular-season finale against Arkansas, but the upset-minded Razorbacks came into Tiger Stadium and escaped with a 50-48 victory in three overtimes, seemingly sinking the Tigers' hopes of playing for a national championship.

Under the leadership of Miles, LSU rallied the following week in the SEC Championship Game against No. 14 Tennessee. Even with starting QB Matt Flynn unavailable for the game with an injury, LSU turned to backup Ryan Perrilloux who earned game MVP honors by throwing for 243 yards and one touchdown while also adding a two-point conversion late in the game to seal the Tigers' 21-14 victory and give LSU its 10th SEC Championship in school history.

When the BCS pairings were announced, LSU had a date with destiny against Ohio State in the BCS National Championship Game in New Orleans, and the Tigers would return home with a third national championship in school history.

OVERALL RECORD: 13-1 • SEC RECORD: 8-0
COACH: LES MILES

For the first time since 1958, LSU football completed a perfect regular season with a 12-0 mark before going on to claim its 11th SEC Championship with a 42-10 dominating win over No. 12 Georgia in the SEC title game in Atlanta.

It was a season of records for the 2011 team, posting a 13-0 mark for the first time in school history and spending 11 straight weeks as the nation's No. 1 team, the longest stretch in school history. The Tigers won 12 of their 13 games by double-digits, representing the most in LSU single-season history.

Led by Heisman Trophy finalist and Bednarik Award winner Tyrann Mathieu, LSU held opponents without a touchdown in 44 quarters. The Tigers set an NCAA record with eight victories over Top 25 teams during the season, with five of those wins coming away from Tiger Stadium.

LSU opened the year in the nation's most anticipated non-conference matchup of the season, rolling over No. 3 Oregon, 40-27, in front of 87,711 fans in the new, state-of-the-art Cowboys Stadium on Sept. 3. Mathieu's Heisman campaign began with a roaring start as he forced a fumble and recovered it for a touchdown in the second quarter, which gave LSU a 10-6 advantage. The Tigers scored 24 unanswered points against the Ducks and opened the season with a win over a top-five ranked non-conference squad for the first time in school history.

LSU made its Tiger Stadium season debut on Sept. 10 with another brilliant defensive outing, holding Northwestern State to six first downs and 95 total yards in a 49-3 win. A week later, facing a short week, the Tigers posted a 19-6 win over No. 25 Mississippi State in a rare Thursday night tilt in Starkville on Sept. 15. It marked the second straight week LSU did not allow a touchdown.

The eyes of the nation were once again focused on the Tigers on Sept. 24 in Morgantown, W.V. With ESPN "College GameDay" on hand for the second time this season, LSU throttled No. 16 West Virginia, 47-21, in a primetime game. LSU's farthest trip to the Northeast since 1947 saw All-American Morris Claiborne race 99 yards on a kickoff return for a touchdown in the third quarter that sealed the victory.

Following a 35-7 win over Kentucky on Oct. 1, the Tigers posted their largest margin of victory over Florida since 1971 with a 41-11 thumping of the No. 17 Gators on Oct. 8 in Tiger Stadium. LSU's defense did the job again a week later at Tennessee on Oct. 15, pitching a second-half shutout in a 38-7 win in Knoxville.

Quarterback Jarrett Lee threw for a pair of touchdowns in a 45-10 romp of No. 19 Auburn on Oct. 22 in Tiger Stadium, setting the stage for the "Game of the Century" two weeks later. Four quarters were not enough to decide a winner as the nation's top-two ranked teams battled on Nov. 5 in Tuscaloosa, Ala. Safety Eric Reid saved a score with an acrobatic interception and Drew Alleman's 25-yard field goal in overtime lifted No. 1 LSU past No. 2 Alabama, 9-6. The six points were the fewest total for the Tide in the Nick Saban era.

On Nov. 25, the Tigers put a punctuation on an unblemished regular season with a 41-17 win over No. 3 Arkansas in Tiger Stadium. After trailing 14-0, Mathieu sparked LSU with a spectacular 92-yard punt return touchdown in the second quarter. The Tigers posted 17 unanswered points in the fourth quarter highlighted by a 48-yard touchdown run from quarterback Jordan Jefferson.

For the second straight week, LSU had to recover from a double-digit deficit, but did so when it counted most to claim its fourth SEC Championship game victory. The Tigers trailed 10-0 to No. 12 Georgia and went the entire first half without a first down. In the second half, LSU pummeled the Bulldogs with 35 unanswered points to win 42-10 in the Georgia Dome.

Once again, it was Mathieu who provided the momentum. Mathieu scampered 62 yards for a punt return touchdown in the second quarter, while his electrifying 47-yard return weaving through defenders in the second half set up another score. Kenny Hilliard recorded three touchdowns and Alfred Blue raced 48 yards for a touchdown in the fourth quarter as the coronation was complete. For the second time in the Les Miles era, the LSU Tigers were the undisputed SEC champions.

LSU went on to face Alabama in the 2012 BCS National Championship Game at the Superdome in New Orleans.

LSU's SEC Championship Teams

2019

NATIONAL CHAMPIONS • OVERALL RECORD: 15-0 • SEC RECORD: 8-0
COACH: ED ORGERON

The 2019 LSU football team cemented itself as "The Best Ever" with a 15-0 record, wins over seven Top-25 teams and a sweep of the major awards.

Top-ranked LSU claimed its fourth national title and completed the most dominant season in college football history with a 42-25 win over No. 2 Clemson in the CFP National Championship Game in New Orleans.

Led by quarterback Joe Burrow's four touchdown passes, top-ranked LSU on December 7 won the 2019 SEC Championship, 37-10, over No. 4 Georgia at Mercedes-Benz Stadium in Atlanta. Burrow finished 28-for-38 for 349 yards. Burrow set the SEC record for touchdown passes in a season. In head coach Ed Orgeron's third full season in Baton Rouge, LSU improved to 13-0 and solidified its No. 1 ranking in the College Football Playoffs.

In their march to the SEC title, the Tigers beat five Top 10 teams and brought the league's trophy back to Baton Rouge for the first time since 2011. Burrow was named the SEC Championship Game's Most Valuable Player after completing 28-of-38 passes for 349 yards and four touchdowns. Defensively, the Tigers kept Georgia's offense off the field by allowing only 3-of-13 third down conversions, while holding the Bulldogs to their lowest rushing total (61 yards) since 2017.

The 2019 season began with a 55-3 win over Georgia Southern, as Burrow tied a school record with five touchdown passes — all in the first half — as sixth-ranked LSU scored on its first five possessions to batter the Eagles. Fourteen different Tigers caught passes in the contest, and Georgia Southern converted only one of 12 third downs against a fast and furious LSU defense.

In Week 2, the No. 6 Tigers earned their first non-conference road victory over a top-10 team, trailing the No. 9 Longhorns only in the first quarter. On a hot and humid evening the teams combined for 56 points in the last 30 minutes of LSU's 45-38 victory. Burrow threw for 471 yards and four touchdowns; for the first time, three LSU receivers recorded 100 yards or more in one game.

LSU returned home the next Saturday for a 65-14 win over Northwestern State, as the Tigers passed for 300-plus yards for the fourth-straight game, scored 48 unanswered points, and allowed no second-half scores. In vanquishing the Demons, No. 4 LSU became the 12th program in NCAA Division I to win 800 games.

The No. 4 Tigers torched Vanderbilt in Nashville, 66-38, scoring LSU's most points in regulation against a conference opponent in school history. Burrow threw a school-record six touchdowns and set LSU records for passing yards in a first half (357) and for consecutive 350-yard passing games, with three.

After a bye week, LSU rolled to a 42-6 triumph over Utah State in a Tiger Stadium day game. The Tigers defended their No. 5 ranking by dominating the Aggies, allowing only one of 12 third downs to be converted, recording 10 tackles for loss and snagging three interceptions.

Florida came to Death Valley in Week 6, and for the first time in 2019, No. 5 LSU trailed in the second half, 28-21, when Florida scored with just under 11 minutes remaining in the third quarter. But it was all Tigers the rest of the way, as the defense shut out the No. 7 Gators for the final 25 minutes in a 42-28 win. The offense ran only 48 plays, but with surgical precision, for an astounding 10.6 yards per play — LSU's most ever versus an SEC opponent.

The Tigers then traveled to Starkville, Miss., and rolled to a 36-13 victory over Mississippi State. In just the seventh game of the year, Burrow broke two LSU single-season records to vault the No. 2 Tigers over the Bulldogs. Burrow set the school mark for single-season touchdown passes (28) and single-season TD responsibility (28 throwing, 2 rushing). Meanwhile, the defense forced three turnovers from the overmatched Bulldogs.

On a Tiger Stadium turf slick from heavy rain a day earlier, No. 2 LSU compiled more than 500 yards of total offense and overcame a pair of turnovers to defeat No. 9 Auburn, 23-20. Burrow posted career highs in both completions and attempts, going 32-for-42, and the defense held the other Tigers to just 287 yards. LSU earned its third top 10 victory of the season.

After their second open date, the now top-ranked Tigers journeyed to Tuscaloosa, Ala., and posted an epic 46-41 win over No. 2 Alabama. Burrow had 393 yards passing with three touchdowns and junior running back Clyde Edwards-Helaire scored four times to help LSU snap the Tide's 31-game home winning streak. LSU, which never trailed, built a 33-13 halftime lead and then held off the Crimson Tide with unrelenting offensive efficiency. The Tigers improved to 5-0 in the SEC and 9-0 overall for the fifth time in school history, tying a school record with four top-10 victories in one season.

Burrow tossed five touchdowns to set LSU's single-season passing record, staking the top-ranked Tigers to a 31-7 halftime lead in a 58-37 victory versus Ole Miss in Oxford. In just the 10th game of the season, Burrow's career-best 489 yards broke Rohan Davey's 2001 school yardage record (3,347). The 714 yards of offense LSU accumulated against the Rebels was its second-most in program history and the most ever against an SEC opponent.

Back in Death Valley, the No. 1 Tigers scored 49 unanswered points, overwhelming Arkansas, 56-20, to secure a berth in the SEC Championship Game. Clyde Edwards-Helaire gained 188 yards on just six carries, becoming the 14th Tiger to rush for 1,000 yards in a season. LSU moved to 11-0 for the third time in school history.

In the 2019 regular-season finale, Burrow took his final bow on Senior Night in Tiger Stadium, as No. 1 LSU overwhelmed Texas A&M, 50-7. Burrow set SEC records for passing yards with 4,366 and for passing touchdowns with 44. In preserving their undefeated regular season, the No. 2 Tigers defense held the Aggies to 169 total yards and just 2-of-13 on third down while recording a safety and six sacks.

Great Moments in LSU History

CANNON'S HALLOWEEN RUN
TIGER STADIUM • OCT. 31, 1959

Billy Cannon's 89-yard punt return for a touchdown against third-ranked Ole Miss is not only one of the most memorable plays in LSU football history, but it also ranks among the most memorable in college football. Trailing 3-0 late in the game, Cannon, the 1959 Heisman Trophy winner, fielded the punt at the Tiger 11-yard line and began his run into immortality. He eluded seven would-be tacklers down the east sideline and crossed the goal line of Tiger Stadium for the only touchdown of the game, giving the top-ranked LSU Tigers the 7-3 victory.

1966 COTTON BOWL
COTTON BOWL • JAN. 1, 1966

LSU entered the 1966 Cotton Bowl as a heavy underdog to the second-ranked Arkansas Razorbacks, but the Tigers knew they had nothing to lose and a lot of respect to gain. Arkansas, which entered the game riding a 22-game win streak and knew a victory over LSU meant a possible national title, struck first, but LSU's Joe Labruzzo reached the endzone twice in the second quarter to give the Tigers a 14-7 lead that would stand and foil the Razorbacks' hopes of a title.

JONES TO DAVIS
TIGER STADIUM • NOV. 4, 1972

"You are now entering Louisiana. Set your clocks back four seconds," read a sign put up on the Louisiana-Mississippi state line after this game. With undefeated and No. 6 LSU on the ropes, and four seconds remaining in the contest, Bert Jones' pass to Jimmy LeDoux fell incomplete in the endzone sending the Ole Miss sidelines into a celebration. But somehow, the game clock still showed :01 remaining. Following an Ole Miss timeout, Jones hit Brad Davis, who bobbled the football, and then dove into the endzone tying the game at 16-16. Rusty Jackson's extra-point provided the winning margin in what was one of the most improbable wins in school history.

THE EARTHQUAKE GAME
TIGER STADIUM • OCT. 8, 1988

With time winding down and LSU saddled with fourth-and-10 at the Auburn 11-yard line, quarterback Tommy Hodson found running back Eddie Fuller in the back of the endzone for the game-winning touchdown as LSU stunned fourth-ranked Auburn, 7-6, in Tiger Stadium. In what is now known as the "Earthquake Game", Hodson's touchdown pass to Fuller with 1:41 left in the contest caused such a thunderous explosion from the 79,341 fans in Tiger Stadium, the LSU Department of Geology registered vibrations on a seismograph machine at the exact moment the TD was scored.

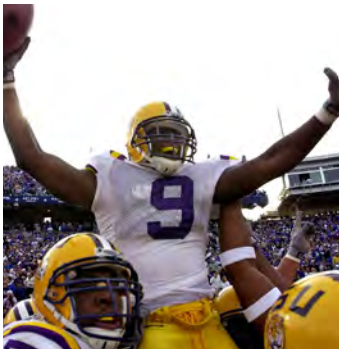

NO. 1 FALLS!
TIGER STADIUM • OCT. 11, 1997

Oct. 11, 1997, marked the first time LSU defeated the No. 1 ranked team in the nation when the Tigers upended top-ranked Florida, 28-21, in Tiger Stadium. LSU jumped out to an early lead, but the Gators would score a touchdown with 6:44 remaining in the fourth quarter to cut the lead to single digits. LSU's defense sealed the victory when Raion Hill intercepted a Florida pass with less than three minutes to play, and the Tigers ran out the clock to set off one of the greatest celebrations in Tiger Stadium history.

SEC CHAMPIONS!
GEORGIA DOME • DEC. 8, 2001

LSU, playing in its first SEC Championship Game, shocked No. 2 Tennessee to win its first SEC title since 1986 by a score of 31-20. Tiger starting QB Rohan Davey went down to injury and was spelled by redshirt freshman Matt Mauck, who scored two rushing touchdowns to claim MVP honors. The game was dedicated to the memory of former coach Charles McClendon, who passed away a day earlier while the Tigers were en route to Atlanta. The win secured LSU's first Sugar Bowl appearance since 1987.

BLUEGRASS MIRACLE
COMMONWEALTH STADIUM • NOV. 9, 2002

Trailing 30-27 to Kentucky with 11 seconds to play in the game, LSU mounted a two-play 87-yard drive that will forever be known as, "The Bluegrass Miracle." QB Marcus Randall connected with WR Devery Henderson on the game-winning 75-yard pass as time expired to give the Tigers a 33-30 victory.

LET THE VALLEY SHAKE!
TIGER STADIUM • SEPT. 20, 2003

QB Matt Mauck rolled to his left, fired to the endzone and found wide receiver Skyler Green for an over-the-shoulder 34-yard touchdown with 3:03 remaining as No. 11 LSU outlasted No. 7 Georgia, 17-10, in an early SEC thriller at a raucous Tiger Stadium. All-American Corey Webster sealed the victory with an interception in the final minute. With ESPN College GameDay on hand for the first time since 1997, the win catapulted the Tigers onto the national scene where they would eventually go on to claim their first national title since 1958.

2003 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS
LOUISIANA SUPERDOME • JAN. 4, 2004

LSU, the No. 2 team in the Bowl Championship Series rankings, beat No. 1 BCS ranked Oklahoma in the Nokia Sugar Bowl to win the 2003 National Championship, the Tigers' first title since 1958. Freshman RB Justin Vincent, named the game's MVP after totaling 117 yards, scampered 64 yards on the first play of the game to set the tone as LSU never trailed, winning 21-14. The LSU defense, ranked No. 1 in the nation, stifled the Sooner's top-ranked offense, holding Oklahoma to 154 yards and sacking Heisman winning QB Jason White five times.

PRIMETIME DRAMA
TIGER STADIUM • OCT. 6, 2007

In one of the most exciting games ever played in LSU's storied Tiger Stadium, No. 1-ranked LSU overcame a 10-point fourth-quarter deficit to beat defending national champion and ninth-ranked Florida, 28-24, in front of 92,910 emotionally spent fans. TB Jacob Hester plunged into the endzone from 1-yard out that gave LSU its first lead of the game and sent Tiger Stadium into pandemonium with 1:06 to go in the fourth quarter. It marked LSU's first national primetime game on CBS since 1981.

2007 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS
LOUISIANA SUPERDOME • JAN. 7, 2008

LSU became the first school in the nation to win multiple BCS national titles as the second-ranked Tigers downed top-ranked Ohio State, 38-24, in the 2008 BCS National Championship Game. LSU trailed 10-0 in the first quarter but rallied for 31 unanswered points on a school-record tying four TD passes from QB Matt Flynn to claim the third national title in program history. DT Ricky Jean-Francois garnered defensive Most Outstanding Player honors chiefly for blocking a second-quarter, 38-yard field goal attempt that kept the game tied at 10-10 and swung the momentum completely in LSU's favor the remainder of the game.

GAME OF THE CENTURY
BRYANT-DENNY STADIUM • NOV. 5, 2011

Billed as the "Game of the Century" after weeks of media hype, Drew Alleman's 25-yard field goal in overtime propelled No. 1 LSU past No. 2 Alabama, 9-6, in Bryant-Denny Stadium. With rosters featuring future NFL players, neither team was able to score a touchdown. With the Tide driving in the fourth quarter, S Eric Reid made arguably the biggest play of the entire college football regular season, when he grabbed an acrobatic, diving interception at the 1-yard line that prevented an Alabama score.

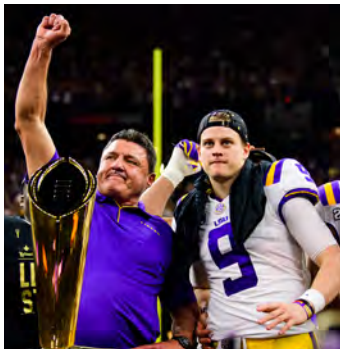

3RD-AND-17
DARRELL K. ROYAL-TEXAS MEMORIAL STADIUM • SEPT. 7, 2019

Clinging to a 37-31 lead at No. 9 Texas, LSU faced a 3rd-and-17 at its own 39-yard line with 2:27 left in the game. Quarterback Joe Burrow eluded a fierce Longhorns rush, stepped up in the pocket, and connected with wide receiver Justin Jefferson on a 61-yard touchdown reception that proved to be game-winning score in a 45-38 triumph. The victory was No. 6 LSU's first-ever non-conference road win over a Top-10 team. Burrow threw for 471 yards and four touchdowns; for the first time in school history, three LSU receivers recorded 100 yards or more in one game.

ROLL CLYDE
BRYANT-DENNY STADIUM • NOV. 9, 2019

The top-ranked Tigers journeyed to Tuscaloosa, Ala., and posted an epic 46-41 win over No. 2 Alabama to snap the Tide's 31-game home winning streak. Running back Clyde Edwards-Helaire had 180 yards of total offense, with three rushing touchdowns and 103 yards, along with nine catches for 77 and a score. Quarterback Joe Burrow threw for 393 with three touchdowns, and the Tigers rolled up 559 yards of total offense. LSU, which never trailed in the contest, built a 33-13 halftime lead and then held off the Crimson Tide with unrelenting offensive efficiency.

2019 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS – THE BEST EVER
MERCEDES-BENZ SUPERDOME • JAN. 13, 2020

Led by Heisman Trophy-winning quarterback Joe Burrow's six-touchdown performance, top-ranked LSU earned the title 2019 National Champions and arguably The Best Team Ever. LSU (15-0) proved its dominant season by ending Clemson's 29-game winning streak in a 42-25 victory over the defending champs. The Tigers recorded their seventh win of the season over a Top 10 team. Burrow was 31-of-49 passing for 463 yards with five touchdown passes, while adding another 58 rushing yards and one TD. He set NCAA single-season marks for passing touchdowns (60) and total touchdowns (65).

LSU Football Traditions from A to Z

The rich history of LSU football is impossible to portray in only a few pages. However, below are tidbits from the Tiger Football annals that have contributed to the story that is 127 seasons of LSU Football. These items are presented as background material with the hope that they will encourage a better understanding of the many traditions that are associated with Tiger football and LSU Athletics.

ALMA MATER

Since 2005, LSU has followed a win by singing the alma mater on the field. Ed Orgeron has carried on the tradition following a victory. Orgeron and the team gather in front of the student section and join the student body in a rendition of the alma mater.

Where stately oaks and broad magnolias shade inspiring halls,
There stands our dear Old Alma Mater who to us recalls
Fond memories that waken in our hearts a tender glow,
And make us happy for the love that we have learned to know.

All hail to thee our Alma Mater, molder of mankind,
May greater glory, love unending be forever thine.
Our worth in life will be thy worth we pray to keep it true,
And may thy spirit live in us, forever L-S-U.

JOE "BURREAUX"

Quarterback Joe Burrow cemented his place in LSU lore by winning the Heisman Trophy and leading a Tigers squad many considered "The Best Ever" in college football to the 2019 national championship. "Burreaux," an homage to LSU worn by the graduate transfer during his Senior Tribute in Tiger Stadium, set countless single-season records including NCAA marks for touchdowns and SEC records for completions, attempts, passing yards, passing TD's, total TD's, completion percentage, total yards, total yards per game and total plays. Burrow, who earned his masters degree in 2019, was 25-3 in two seasons at LSU, including 11 victories over top-10 ranked opponents. In his final game as a Tiger, Burrow threw for 463 yards and accounted for all six of LSU's TD's in the 42-25 CFP National Championship game victory over Clemson. Three months later, the Cincinnati Bengals made Burrow the No. 1 overall selection in the 2020 NFL Draft.

BILLY CANNON, NO. 20

The great Billy Cannon, two-time All-American and Heisman Trophy winner, played at LSU from 1957-59. He led the Tigers to the 1958 National Championship and is best known for his 89-yard punt return to beat Ole Miss in 1959. In his career, Cannon rushed for 1,867 yards on 359 carries, an average of 5.2 yards per carry and scored 19 rushing touchdowns. He also scored two touchdowns by receiving and one each by punt return, kickoff return and interception return. LSU went 24-7 during Cannon's stay on the Baton Rouge campus, including 19-straight victories from the end of the 1957 season to the eighth game of the 1959 campaign. Following that 1959 season, Cannon's jersey was retired into the LSU Athletics Hall of Fame. A sign honoring Cannon was unveiled in the southeast corner of Tiger Stadium during LSU's game against Ole Miss on Nov. 22, 2008. Cannon was enshrined into the College Football Hall of Fame in the summer of 2009. Cannon passed away on May 20, 2018, at the age of 80.

BILLY CANNON STATUE

Billy Cannon became the third LSU Tiger to have a statute unveiled on campus. The statue, located on the Champions Plaza on the southwest corner of Tiger Stadium, commemorates the accomplishments of the most heralded football player in LSU Football history. Cannon led LSU to the 1958 national championship and the following year won the 1959 Heisman Trophy as the top player in college football. His No. 20 jersey was retired by the University in 1959 and he was inducted into the LSU Hall of Fame in 1975.

CHEERLEADERS

Cheerleaders have long been a part of college football tradition, and the LSU Varsity Cheerleaders are no exception in their role in Tiger gridiron lore. The cheerleaders traditionally lead the Tigers onto the field before and after halftime of every game. The 1989 Tiger cheerleaders captured the National Championship in the annual Universal Cheerleading Association competition.

Special thanks to Peter Finney of the New Orleans Times-Picayune who has documented the history of LSU football in his book "Fighting Tigers", the late Marty Mule' of the New Orleans Times-Picayune who penned "Eye of the Tiger" in celebration of LSU's football centennial in 1993, and to the late historian H. Warren Taylor whose relentless pursuit of accurate information and record-keeping in the early years of LSU athletics has kept alive the accomplishments of Tiger athletes in football, basketball, track and boxing dating back to the late 1800s.

CUBA: TIGERS ON FOREIGN SOIL

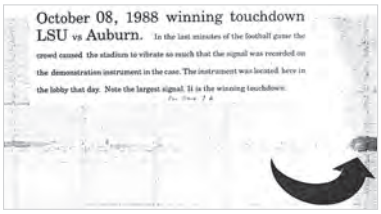

LSU was the first college team to play on foreign soil when, in 1907, coach Edgar R. Wingard took his Tigers to Havana for an international gridiron bout. The University of Havana team had dominated every American service team it had played, but had never encountered football collegiate style. The finesse of the Tigers took the big Cuban team by surprise on Christmas Day at Almendares Park and LSU walked away with a convincing 56-0 victory before 10,000 fans.

DORMITORIES

Tiger Stadium once housed some 1,500 dorm rooms, home to many LSU students over the years. The concept was introduced in 1928 by T.P. "Skipper" Heard, who learned that LSU president James Smith proposed to use $250,000 to build new dormitories on the LSU campus. Heard sold Smith on the idea of raising the stands on both the East and West sides of the stadium and extending them to the end zones, then constructing the dorms inside the stadium. Thus the University got its dorms and Tiger Stadium's capacity increased by 10,000 seats in 1931. Today, the dorms are used for storage.

EARTHQUAKE GAME (1988)

October 08, 1988 winning touchdown LSU vs Auburn. In the last minutes of the football game the crowd caused the stadium to vibrate so much that the signal was recorded on the demonstration instrument in the case. The instrument was located here in the lobby that day. Note the largest signal. It is the winning touchdown.

With time winding down and LSU saddled with fourth-and-10 at the Auburn 11-yard line, quarterback Tommy Hodson found running back Eddie Fuller in the back of the endzone for the game-winning touchdown as LSU stunned fourth-ranked Auburn, 7-6, in Tiger Stadium. In what is now known as the "Earthquake Game", Hodson's touchdown pass to Fuller with 1:41 left in the contest caused such a thunderous explosion from the 79,341 fans in Tiger Stadium, the LSU Department of Geology registered vibrations on a seismograph machine at the exact moment the TD was scored.

FIGHTING TIGERS

In the fall of 1896, coach A.W. Jeardeau's LSU football team posted a perfect 6-0-0 record, and it was in that pigskin campaign that LSU first adopted its nickname, Tigers. "Tigers" seemed a logical choice since most collegiate teams in that year bore the names of ferocious animals, but the underlying reason why LSU chose "Tigers" dates back to the Civil War. During the "War Between the States," a battalion of Confederate soldiers comprised of New Orleans Zouaves and Donaldsonville Cannoneers distinguished themselves at the Battle of Shenandoah. These Louisiana rebels had been known by their contemporaries as the fighting band of Louisiana Tigers. Thus, when LSU football teams entered the gridiron battlefields in their fourth year of intercollegiate competition, they tagged themselves as the "Tigers." The 1955 LSU "fourth-quarter ball club" helped the moniker "Tigers" grow into the nickname, "Fighting Tigers."

THE GOLDEN BAND FROM TIGERLAND

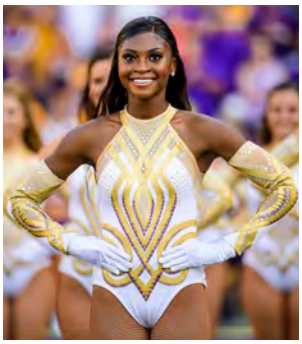

The grandest band in all the land, the Golden Band from Tigerland, is as much a part of Saturday nights in Tiger Stadium as the team itself. Among the many favorites of LSU fans is the band's traditional pregame march down North Stadium Drive from the Band Hall to the tune of "Hold That Tiger." That tradition is a carry-over from the old pregame parades through downtown Baton Rouge. Castro Carazo was the man handpicked by Louisiana Governor Huey Long in 1935 to revamp the Tiger band. Carazo and Long together wrote fan favorite "Touchdown for LSU," and two years later, Carazo also penned the official LSU fight song, "Fight For LSU." The tradition of the LSU Tiger Marching Band continues today. The LSU Tiger Marching Band is made up of some 325 musicians, Golden Girls and Colorguard members. In 1997, the band was selected as the top band in the Southeastern Conference by SEC band directors. In December 2001, the band was awarded the Sudler Trophy, the highest honor a collegiate marching band can receive. The award has been called "the Heisman Trophy of marching bands," according to Frank Wickes, director of LSU bands from 1980-2010 who passed away in 2020. A state-of-the-art, 17,640 square foot band hall opened its doors on April 26, 2012.

THE GOLDEN BOOT

The Golden Boot is a trophy awarded each year to the winner of the Battle for the Golden Boot football matchup between LSU and SEC rival Arkansas. The trophy was introduced to the series prior to the 1996 season. Molded from 24-karat gold in the shape of the states of Arkansas and Louisiana, the trophy stands four feet in height, weighs nearly 200 pounds and is valued at $10,000. It is believed to be the heaviest trophy awarded in a college football rivalry. After a win in the series, the victorious team keeps the trophy until the following year's matchup.

THE GOLDEN GIRLS

Taking the field with the Tiger Band at LSU for the first time in 1959, the prestigious LSU Golden Girls represent the oldest and most established danceline on the LSU campus. The line consists of a very talented group of young ladies who are chosen each spring by a special audition. The Golden Girls are one of the feature units with the LSU Tiger Band and perform for all home LSU football games and selected campus events, as well as, away games with the full Tiger Band. The 2019 season represented the 60th anniversary of the group's foundation.

HALL OF FAMERS

Fourteen members of the LSU football community have the distinction of being inductees into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame that was established in 1947. In 1956, former end Gaynell Tinsley was enshrined in South Bend, Ind., as LSU's first Hall of Famer. Ken Kavanaugh (1963), Abe Mickal (1967), Doc Fenton (1971), Tommy Casanova (1995), Billy Cannon (2009) Jerry Stovall (2010), Charles Alexander (2012) and Bert Jones (2016) all have been inducted into the event that is annually held in New York City in December. Glenn Dorsey became the newest College Football Hall of Famer from LSU when he was inducted in December 2020. Five LSU coaches are members of the NFF Hall of Fame, a list that includes the legendary Charles McClendon. Five former LSU players have earned the highest honor of being inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio, with Johnny Robinson and Kevin Mawae joining the ranks in 2019. Steve Van Buren was the first in 1965. Y.A. Tittle, who went on to become one of the greatest quarterbacks in history, was inducted in 1971 after a storied career with the Baltimore Colts, San Francisco 49ers and New York Giants. Four-time NFL championship winner and 1962 NFL MVP Jimmy Taylor was enshrined in 1976. Thirty-two LSU football players are also members of the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame with Max Fugler as the most recent inductee in the summer of 2019.

LSU Football Traditions from A to Z

H-STYLE GOALPOSTS

Unknown to many Tiger fans, the LSU football team still runs onto the field under the same crossbar that stood as part of the north end zone goalpost in Tiger Stadium as early as 1955. It had long been a tradition that the LSU football team entered the field by running between the goalposts when the new "T-style" goalposts came into vogue. By virtue of tradition, the old "H-style" posts stood on the field of Death Valley until they were removed in 1984. Part of the crossbar, however, was kept and mounted above the door of the Tiger Den through which the Tigers run onto the field each game. In 1993, in celebration of the centennial of LSU football, the "H-style" goalposts were returned to the end zones of Tiger Stadium. Today, Tiger Stadium is one of only three college stadiums in the nation who still use the "H-style" goalposts. Doak Campbell Stadium at Florida State and Martin Stadium at Washington State are the others.

HALLOWEEN NIGHT

Drama on Halloween is as traditional as pumpkins and goblins for LSU and Ole Miss. These schools have met seven times on Oct. 31 with the series tied at 3-3-1. The most notable game on All Hallow's Eve was the 1959 thriller that saw Billy Cannon return a punt 89 yards to spur a 7-3 Tiger victory. The Tigers and Rebels next met on Halloween in 1964. Ole Miss led 10-3 late in the fourth quarter in Death Valley when LSU scored a touchdown to make it 10-9. Quarterback Billy Ezell then threw to Doug Moreau in the front corner of the endzone on the two-point conversion, at nearly the exact point where Cannon had crossed the goal line five years earlier for an 11-10 win. There was a 17-year span before the teams played on Oct. 31 again, this time at Jackson in 1981. A seesaw battle ended with a 46-yard field goal off the foot of LSU's David Johnston as time expired for a 27-27 tie. In the most recent meeting, the teams engaged in the first overtime game in LSU history at Oxford in 1998, but Ole Miss emerged with a 37-31 win. LSU is 8-6-1 all-time on Halloween night, including a 42-0 shutout of Tulane in Tiger Stadium in 2009.

HALLOWEEN RUN

There have been longer scoring plays in LSU football history, but Billy Cannon's 89-yard punt return against Ole Miss in 1959 is simply, and undeniably, the most famous play in Tiger gridiron records. In fact, some consider it one of the most memorable in college football history. It was an eerie, misty and humid Halloween night, and the Rebels of Mississippi took a 3-0 lead into the final quarter, threatening to end an 18-game LSU win streak. On third and 17 from the Ole Miss 42, the Rebels' Jake Gibbs punted 47 yards to the Tiger 11 where Cannon hauled it in on the bounce. Cannon careened off seven tacklers down the east sideline and darted 89 yards to immortality. Some say it may have been that run that assured Cannon of the Heisman Trophy he received at season's end. LSU celebrated the 50-year anniversary of the legendary play in 2009 as Cannon was recognized on the field during the Tigers' game with Tulane on Halloween night.

ICE BOWL (1946)

The Tigers of 1946, though not one of Bernie Moore's two SEC Championship teams, was surely one of Moore's finest squads. Only a 26-7 loss at the hands of SEC foe Georgia Tech spoiled the season and the Y.A. Tittle-led Bayou Bengals landed in the Cotton Bowl against Arkansas and star Razorback Smackover Scott. But ice, sleet and snow pelted Dallas on that Jan. 1 as LSU filled oil drums with charcoal and started fires for makeshift heaters on the field. Fans built fires in the stands and watched the Tigers roll to 271-54 advantage in total yardage and a 15-1 lead in first downs. Those numbers, however, didn't equate on the scoreboard that showed 0-0 at game's end. The Tigers finished the season with a 9-1-1 record in Moore's penultimate season as head coach.

JERSEY 18

Jersey No. 18 was an LSU tradition born in 2003 when quarterback Matt Mauck guided the Tigers to their first national championship since 1958. His number became synonymous with success – both on and off the field – as well as a selfless attitude that has become the epitome of being an LSU football player. After his final year with the Tigers, Mauck passed jersey No. 18 down to running back Jacob Hester, who then helped LSU to another national title in 2007. Each season, a Tiger player is voted to wear the No. 18 and is announced prior to the start of training camp in August.

JERSEY 7

A new LSU tradition began in 2011 when one of the most dynamic playmakers in LSU history turned over his No. 7 jersey to the next player up as a force to be reckoned with. NFL Pro Bowler Patrick Peterson's three seasons wearing No. 7 made it a coveted number for future Tigers to wear. The jersey moved to the offensive side of the ball as RB Leonard Fournette inherited the number from Peterson. Fournette had this to say about wearing No. 7, "I know the history behind the number. No. 7 is the number at LSU for big-time playmakers like myself, Patrick Peterson and Tyrann Mathieu. That number changes the program and there's a lot to come from players wearing that number." Two-time All-America Derek Stingley Jr. is the latest player to be awarded the No. 7 jersey for the 2021 season.

HELMETS

LSU's helmet is a striking tradition that has seen its share of changes since the program's inception. From 1947-55, a dark gold helmet was used by the Tigers. Then in 1956, head coach Paul Dietzel entered his second season by introducing a new helmet design. The helmet was changed to a yellow gold, similar to that of the Green Bay Packers, that featured a white one-inch center stripe and purple three-quarter-inch flanking stripes. It is a look that has become synonymous and identified with LSU football since its unveiling. The 1957 Tigers had the addition of black two-inch "NCAA style" identifying numerals placed on each side of the helmet and that size expanded to three inches in 1958, the year of LSU's first national title. In 1972, a logo first appeared on the helmet. In 1977, the logo was modified, and that look remained until 2013. In 2014, the Tiger head logo was updated with a fresh look and is now utilized by several LSU Athletics programs.

THE KINGFISH

No single person can be credited for building LSU football into the entity it is today, but one of the men who most influenced the popularity of Tiger football was neither a player nor a coach. The "Kingfish," Louisiana Governor Huey P. Long, never shied from using his political influence to aid the cause of LSU football. Two examples: In 1934, athletic director T.P. Heard reported low advance sales for the LSU-SMU game because of a circus coming to town the night of the game. Long contacted the proper Barnum and Bailey representatives and informed them of a near-forgotten animal-dipping law. The show was canceled and LSU-SMU ticket sales took off. Later that same year, Long used his influence to "entice" passenger agents of the Illinois Central Railroad to lower fares for LSU students traveling to a road football game. When Long threatened to reassess the value of railroad bridges in the state from $100,000 to $4 million, the railroad generously agreed to give LSU students a $6 roundtrip fare for the Vanderbilt game that season.

NIGHT GAMES IN TIGER STADIUM

The tradition of playing night games in Tiger Stadium began on Oct. 3, 1931, when LSU downed Spring Hill, 35-0, under the lights. The idea of night football was introduced by T.P. "Skipper" Heard, then graduate manager of athletics and later athletics director. Several reasons were cited for playing LSU games at night, including avoiding the heat and humidity of afternoon games, avoiding scheduling conflicts with Tulane and Loyola, and giving more fans the opportunity to see the Tigers play. An immediate increase in attendance was noted, and night football soon became ingrained in LSU football lore. LSU has also traditionally played better at night than in the light of day. LSU is 339-109-13 (.749) under the lights of Tiger Stadium and 94-45-5 (.675) during the day at home.

ONE TEAM, ONE HEARTBEAT

When he was hired as LSU's football coach in 2016, Ed Orgeron established "One Team, One Hearbeat" as the slogan by which his program thrives. Orgeron has leveraged his passion and love for LSU into a determination and drive that sees him spend nearly every waking moment focused on LSU Football and his vision for the organization. With the "One Team, One Heartbeat" motto, the players have bought into the Orgeron system both on and off the field, and the results are unmistakable. Through his first four seasons, Orgeron has guided the Tigers to a 39-9 overall mark in his 48 games as the LSU head coach, including the 2019 CFP National Championship. Of his 39 victories, 17 have come against teams ranked in the Top 25, including 11 over Top 10 opponents. Furthermore, of those 39 wins, 24 have come against SEC foes and 30 have come by double-digits.

NUMBERING SYSTEM

LSU, in 1952, introduced a unique - and short-lived - jersey numbering system. The idea of coach Gaynell "Gus" Tinsley and publicity director Jim Corbett, the system utilized an abbreviation of the player's position on his jersey. Thus, ends, guards and tackles wore the letters "E", "G" and "T" followed by a single-digit number. The right side of the line wore even numbers, the left side odd numbers. In similar fashion the centers, quarterbacks, left halfbacks, right halfbacks and fullbacks wore"C", "Q", "L", "R" and "F", respectively, followed by single-digit numerals. The 1953 LSU yearbook, the Gumbo, boldly predicted that the new system "may revolutionize the football jersey manufacturing industry." It didn't.

PURPLE & GOLD

There is some discrepancy in the origin of Royal Purple and Old Gold as LSU's official colors. It is believed that those colors were worn for the first time by an LSU team in the spring of 1893 when the LSU baseball squad beat Tulane in the first intercollegiate contest played in any sport by Louisiana State University. Team captain E.B. Young reportedly hand-picked those colors for the LSU squad. Later that year, the first football game was played. On Nov. 25, 1893, football coach/chemistry professor Dr. Charles Coates and some of his players went into town to purchase ribbon to adorn their gray jerseys as they prepared to play the first LSU gridiron game. Stores were stocking ribbons in the colors of Mardi Gras - purple, gold, and green - for the coming Carnival season. However, none of the green had yet arrived at Reymond's Store at the corner of Third and Main streets. Coates and quarterback Ruffin Pleasant bought up all of the purple and gold stock and made it into rosettes and badges.

OLE WAR SKULE

LSU began in 1860 as the Louisiana State Seminary of Learning and Military Academy, shortly before the beginning of the Civil War. In fact, LSU's first superintendent was Civil War commander William Tecumseh Sherman. "Ole War Skule" was formerly a popular reference to LSU, as was the term "Old Lou."

THE RAG

The Rag was the traditional spoils of victory in the LSU-Tulane rivalry for many years. This flag, decorated half in LSU's colors of purple and gold and the other half adorned in the green and white of Tulane, was held for one year by the victorious school until the game the following season. The whereabouts of the original flag are unknown; however, a new version of The Rag was awarded to the LSU squad after the Tigers defeated the Greenies, 48-17, in the 2001 season opener in Death Valley.

LSU Football Traditions from A to Z

PERFECT SEASONS

LSU has had seven unblemished seasons in its history. The Tigers first went undefeated and untied in 1895 under head coach A. P. Simmons with a 3-0 record, but the first truly great LSU team is considered to be the 1908 squad led by one of the most legendary players to wear the Purple and Gold - Doc Fenton. That 1908 team, coached by Edgar R. Wingard, soared through a 10-game schedule without a loss or tie as Fenton scored an incredible 125 points on the year. It was 50 years before LSU would post another perfect season, winning the national championship in 1958 with an 11-0 mark. In 2019, the Tigers surged to the SEC and CFP titles with a perfect 15-0 record in a season regarded as "The Best Ever" by most college football historians.

SOUTH END ZONE

Whether it be the 1959 goal line stand that sealed victory for the Tigers against Ole Miss on the "Billy Cannon Run" night or Bert Jones' pass to Brad Davis as time expired to beat the Rebels in 1972, the south end zone of Tiger Stadium has become somewhat of an enigma for the sometimes strange and often memorable plays in LSU football. The Tiger defenders have put together numerous goal line stands at the south end zone, including the following games: 1985 Colorado State, 1985 Florida, 1986 North Carolina, 1986 Notre Dame, 1988 Texas A&M, 1991 Florida State, 1992 Miss. State and 1996 Vanderbilt. In 1988, the Tigers stymied the Texas A&M Aggies at the LSU 2-yard line despite the distraction of a bank of lights going dark midway through A&M's series of plays. For that series, LSU's defense was nicknamed the "Lights Out Defense." The first great goal line stand at that end of the field may have been in that 1959 game when Warren Rabb and Billy Cannon halted Ole Miss' Doug Elmore at the one-yard line for the 7-3 victory. Then, in 1971, the first and most memorable of LSU's three goal line stands against Notre Dame was at the 1-yard line at the South end of the field as Louis Cascio and Ronnie Estay hit the Irish's Andy Huff at the goal en route to a 28-8 Tiger victory.

Billy Cannon and Warren Rabb make a stop at the South End Zone.

TAILGATING

It has often been pondered whether the attraction of night football is because of the excitement of the atmosphere created by a game under the lights, the more pleasant weather of an evening after the sun has set, or because it allows more time for tailgating. If it is not football that people of south Louisiana crave, then it is food. Tiger fans arrive as early as Thursday evening for Saturday games, set up their motor homes and kick back for a weekend of cooking and enjoyment for two days until kickoff. A stroll across the LSU campus and through the parking lots is a veritable connoisseur's treat. Common entrees include crawfish, boiled shrimp, and jambalaya and, on occasion, one will run across a cochon-de-lait (pig roast). In 2008, ESPN.com ranked LSU as the top tailgating destination in America. In 2010, Sporting News, proclaimed "Saturday Night in Death Valley" and Tiger tailgating as the top traditions in all of college football. LSU's legendary tailgating experience was recently named No. 1 by the Associated Press in a September 2010 poll and by CNN in the network's November 2010 survey.

VICTORY HILL

A pregame ritual for many Tiger fans is to line North Stadium Drive in the hours before kickoff to see the Tiger Marching Band in its walk from the band hall. The band pauses each game on the hill next to the Journalism Building to play "Tiger Rag," to the delight of the LSU throngs. Former head coach Curley Hallman began the tradition in the early 1990s of leading the team by foot down Victory Hill from Broussard Hall two hours before the game. That practice became so popular that Gerry DiNardo, Nick Saban, Les Miles and Ed Orgeron have continued the tradition, even though the team began to stay in a hotel the night before home games. The team buses drive from the on-campus Lod Cook Hotel to the top of Victory Hill between the Academic Center and Journalism Building in order for the players to make their traditional walk down. Orgeron also began inviting L-Club members (former football lettermen) to join the team on the walk down Victory Hill, affirming the bond between past and present Tigers.

WHITE JERSEYS

LSU is one of the few college football teams that traditionally wear white jerseys for home games. The tradition originated when LSU won its first national championship in 1958. Head coach Paul Dietzel had a habit of tinkering with the uniform every year. In 1958, he chose to wear white jerseys for LSU's home games, and the Tigers subsequently won the national championship. A superstitious man, Dietzel didn't change the uniform after that season. LSU continued to wear white jerseys for home games throughout the Charlie McClendon Era. When Jerry Stovall took over as head coach in 1980, he said the Tigers would occasionally wear purple jerseys so that home fans could see a different color. In 1982, the NCAA changed its jersey rule, requiring teams to wear dark colored jerseys for home games. The Tigers wore purple jerseys for all home games from 1983 to 1994. When Gerry DiNardo became head coach in 1995, he vowed to change the NCAA jersey rule. After petitioning the rules committee of the American Football Coaches Association, he personally met with each member of the NCAA Football Rules Committee. DiNardo's efforts were successful and the Tigers were allowed to wear white jerseys again beginning in 1995. A stipulation of the new rule was that the visiting team would have to give the home team permission to wear the white jerseys. The first team to deny LSU's request was DiNardo's former team, Vanderbilt. Instead of going back to purple jerseys, the Tigers took to the field in new gold jerseys. The SEC later adopted a league rule stipulating that the home team has sole discretion in determining its jersey color. Nick Saban became LSU's head coach in 2000 and continued the white jersey tradition, but with a twist. Saban decided that LSU would wear purple jerseys for all non-SEC games, except the home opener. That tradition continues today.

The Tigers celebrated the 2007 national title on the South Lawn of the White House.

"I'm so honored and proud to welcome the LSU Tigers here as the national champs. God bless you. God bless LSU, and God bless America."

- President George W. Bush, April 7, 2008

THE WHITE HOUSE

Winning national championships carries the privilege of visiting Washington D.C., and touring the White House. The Tigers have traveled to the Nation's Capital following each of their three national championships in the 21st Century. Head coaches Nick Saban (2003 BCS title) and Les Miles (2007 BCS title) and their teams had the chance to meet President George W. Bush at the White House. Coach Ed Orgeron (2019 CFP title) and his squad were welcomed to the White House by President Donald Trump. The Tigers arrived in Washington D.C. on January 16, 2020, and took part in a national championship dinner at the Kennedy Center with the Louisiana Congressional Delegation. On the next day, the Tigers were granted a tour of the National Museum of African American History and Culture, which was followed by a tour of the White House and a meeting with President Trump. The Tigers then took a team photo on the steps of the United States Capitol and were welcomed to the floor of the Capitol.

VOICE OF THE TIGERS

For more than 40 years, John Ferguson was known as the "Voice of the Tigers." Ferguson's distinctive baritone voice could be heard nationwide as few teams played night games during his tenure, which began in 1946. The most famous call of all plays, though, belongs to J.C. Politz who was the "Voice of the Tigers" in 1959 when Billy Cannon made his legendary 89-yard Halloween run. Ferguson later returned to the broadcast booth doing television for TigerVision broadcasts beginning in 1984. At that time, Jim Hawthorne took over the radio duties as the football, men's basketball and baseball "Voice of the Tigers." Hawthorne has called some of the greatest moments in LSU history, including play-by-play for the Tigers' 2003 and 2007 national championship seasons. After 32 seasons as "Voice of the Tigers," Hawthorne retired at the conclusion of the 2015-16 basketball season. Chris Blair took over as the "Voice of the Tigers" in February 2016. Blair described all of the scintillating moments of the Tigers' drive to the 2019 CFP National Championship.

"Billy Cannon watches it bounce, he takes it at his own 11, he comes back upfield to the 15, stumbles momentarily, he's at the 20, running hard at the 25, gets away from one man at the 30, still runs at the (inaudible) ...at the 35, at the 45... he's on the 50, he's in the clear on the 45, the 40 (inaudible due to crowd noise)...the 15, the 10, the 5 he scores!

"Billy Cannon raced some 89 yards for a touchdown. Listen to the cheers for Billy Cannon as he comes off the field...great All-American!"

THE PRESERVATION OF TIGER STADIUM

In August 2010, the LSU Athletic Department and the Tiger Athletic Foundation launched a campaign to preserve and restore the look of Tiger Stadium. The highly-successful campaign has enhanced the atmosphere in and around the iconic venue. With the expansion of the South End Zone in 2014, Tiger Stadium's capacity is 102,321. All of the projects were privately funded by TAF.

WEST & NORTH STADIUM PLAZAS

Prior to the start of the 2012 season, construction was completed on the first part of the west side plaza that included new gates, the All-American and Hall of Fame plazas, and the National Championship plaza that showcases the past, present and future of LSU football. Construction on the north plaza of Tiger Stadium was completed prior to the 2013 season. This update maintained the great look and feel of Tiger Stadium while preserving the facility in a way that allows it to continue to function for years to come.

SOUTH END ZONE PROJECT

The south end zone expansion was completed before the 2014 season. The expansion included 66 suites, approximately 3,000 club seats and 1,400 general public seats above the south end zone bowl. The addition also features two HD corner scoreboards that are among the best in the SEC.

TIGER STADIUM WINDOWS

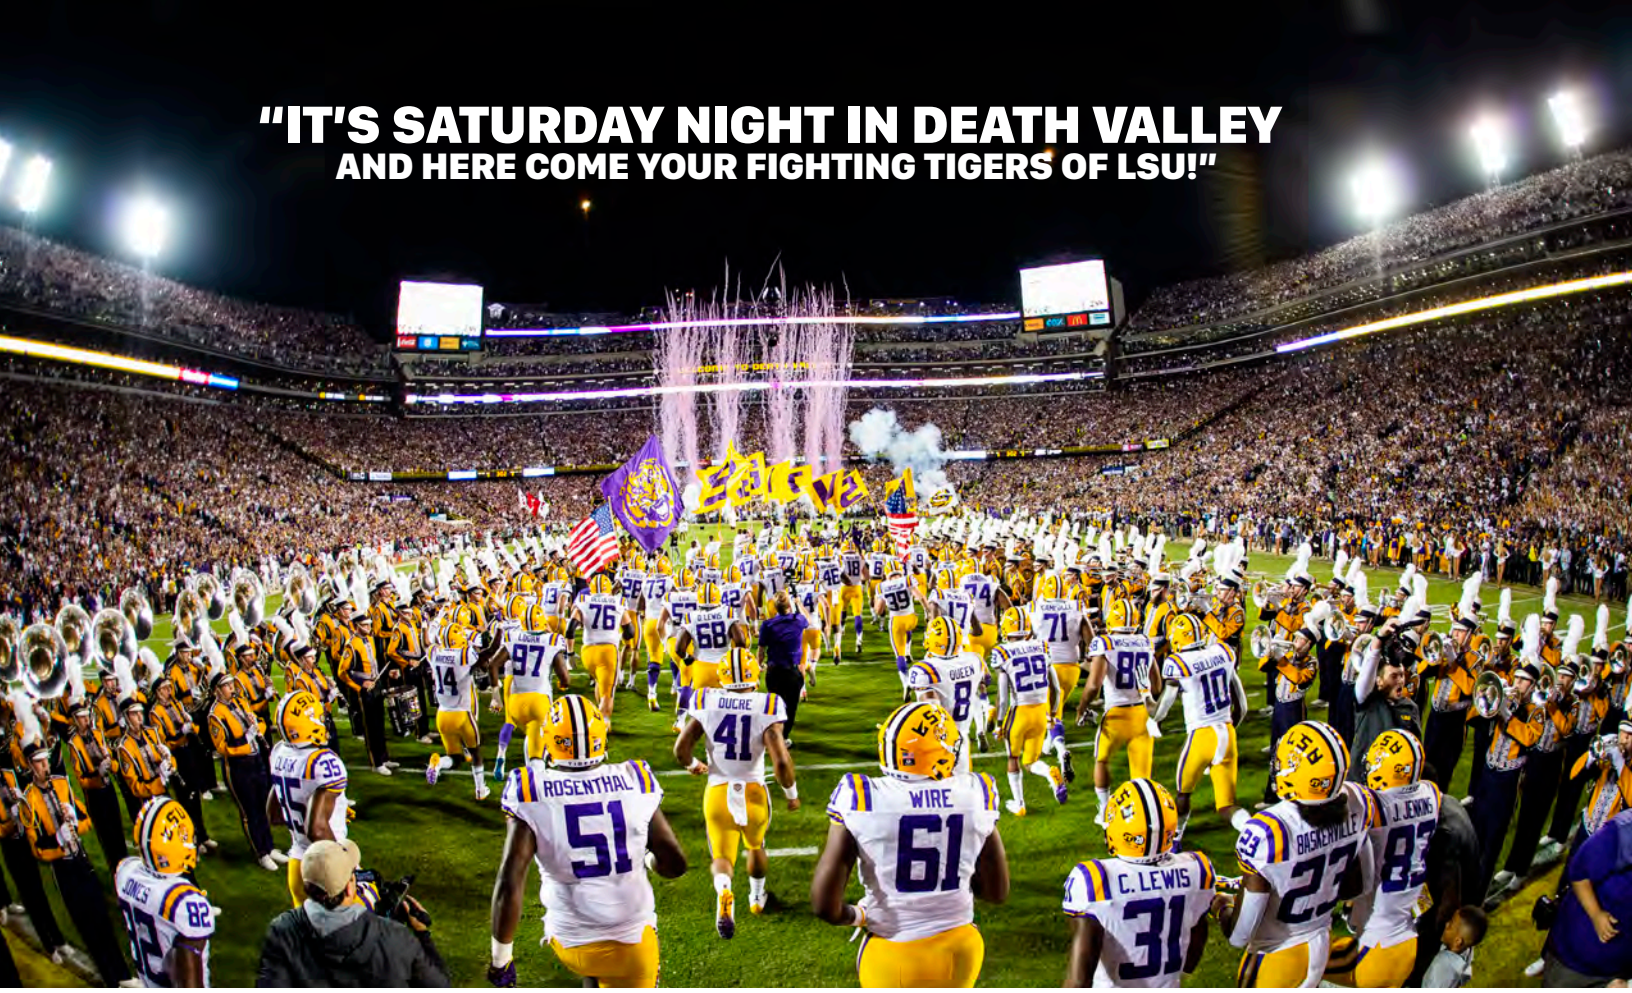

On Nov. 1, 2012, all 428 windows on the North side of Tiger Stadium were replaced, marking the initial phase in the Preservation of Death Valley. The 300 remaining windows on the east and west sides of Tiger Stadium were also sponsored and replaced after the 2013 season. The new windows restore the original look of the stadium on the outside and provide interior protection from the elements.

BRIGHT LIGHTS

A state-of-the-art lighting system was installed prior to the 2012 season that turns the upper archways of the north end of the stadium purple and gold and lights the iconic "LSU" on the stadium's north scoreboard. The visually outstanding system perpetuates the legend of the stadium's night games. Following an LSU win, the north end of the stadium lights up in "victory gold."

"IT'S SATURDAY NIGHT IN DEATH VALLEY AND HERE COME YOUR FIGHTING TIGERS OF LSU!"

Hearing those words from public address announcer Dan Borne' as the Tigers enter the stadium brings chills to even the casual LSU football fan and sends shivers to those on the opposing sideline. On football gamedays, Tiger Stadium becomes the fifth largest city in the state of Louisiana as over 100,000 fans pack the cathedral of college football to watch the Tigers play.

For LSU fans, there's nothing better than spending a night in Tiger Stadium. LSU home football games are events talked about year-round and happenings in Tiger Stadium are passed down from generation to generation.

For opponents, however, it's another story, as Tiger Stadium is an intimidating venue that has been called one of the most dreaded road playing sites in all of college football. Seating over 100,000 fans and nicknamed "Death Valley," poll after poll has proclaimed Tiger Stadium as one of the greatest sites anywhere for a football game -- college or professional.

No Place Like Home

LSU enters the 2021 season having won 123 of its 144 games in Tiger Stadium over the past 21 seasons. That stretch dates back to the start of the 2000 season and includes wins over 30 Top 25 teams. The Tigers established the school record for consecutive home victories with 22 from Oct. 24, 2009, to Oct. 13, 2012.

LSU is 123-21 at home since the 2000 season -- including perfect home records of 7-0 in 2004, 8-0 in 2006, 7-0 in 2010 , 6-0 in 2011, 7-0 in 2013 and 7-0 in 2019. Only five times since 2000 have the Tigers lost more than one home game.

The Tigers played just four home games in 2020 due to the COVID-19 pandemic, and Tiger Stadium's capacity was limited to 25 percent in an effort to prevent the spread of the deadly virus.

LSU in 2019 outscored its home opponents by an average margin of 48-14. The Tigers' unblemished 2019 home record featured a victory over No. 7 Florida before a sold-out Saturday night crowd of 102,321. Just two weeks later, the Tigers posted a 23-20 win over No. 9 Auburn in a Death Valley afternoon contest with 102,160 in attendance.

In 2018, LSU beat No. 2 Georgia in one of three sold-out games that included a Top-5 showdown with top-ranked Alabama. The season also started with the opening of Tiger Stadium's latest premium area, The Chute. The Chute gives fans the opportunity to purchase beer and food while watching the game and highlights on a giant-screen HD video board and numerous HD televisions.

In 2017, LSU recorded a home win over No. 10 Auburn before 101,601 fans. The 2016 Tigers defeated No. 23 Ole Miss in Tiger Stadium and played top-ranked Alabama before a sell-out crowd of 102,321.

The Tigers in 2015 posted victories before three sell-out home crowds in excess of 102,000, including wins over 18th-ranked Auburn and eighth-ranked Florida.

The 2015 home schedule was marked by a pair of unusual occurrences. The season opener versus McNeese State was stopped in the first quarter due to severe lightning and eventually canceled when the lightning persisted throughout the evening. And, LSU in 2015 held an impromptu home game against South Carolina in Tiger Stadium after severe flooding in Columbia, S.C., the week prior to the game forced the contest to be moved to Baton Rouge.

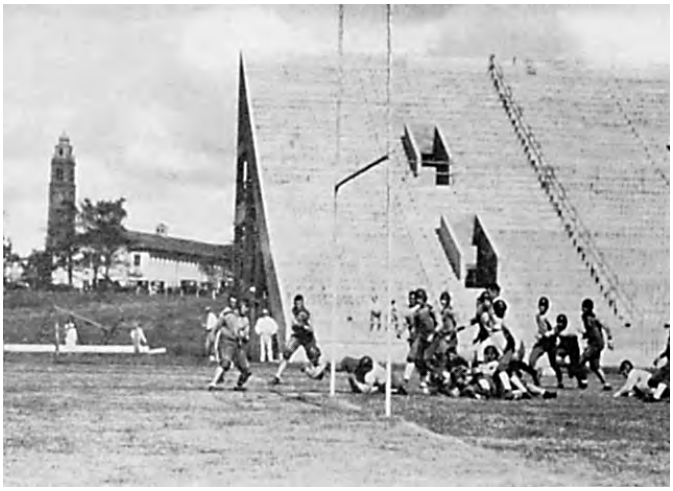

The 2014 season featured the opening of the South End Zone Expansion, increasing Tiger Stadium's seating capacity to 102,321. LSU averaged a school-record 101,723 fans for seven home games, recording sold-out attendance figures of 102,321 for its home games against Mississippi State, Ole Miss and Alabama.

LSU in 2013 was undefeated (7-0) at home for the fourth time in nine seasons. The home schedule was highlighted by wins over No. 17 Florida and No. 9 Texas A&M.

The 2012 season saw the Tigers shatter the school total attendance record, packing in a combined 741,005 fans for eight games. The Tigers knocked off third-ranked South Carolina, 23-21,with a spectacular fourth quarter on October 13. The win was LSU's 22nd consecutive home triumph, representing a school record.

One of the most anticipated games in Tiger Stadium history occurred on November 3, 2012, against top-ranked Alabama. After weeks of buildup, a then school-record 93,374 fans and nearly 1,000 credentialed media saw the Tide escape with a 21-17 victory.

However, the atmosphere that evening left an indelible image for many. ESPN personality Scott Van Pelt, attending his first LSU home

"DRACULA AND LSU FOOTBALL ARE AT THEIR BEST AFTER THE SUN GOES DOWN."

-Beano Cook, ESPN

game, said this two days later on his radio show: "There is nothing I would put ahead of that, that I've ever seen in any sport. When you're there, you don't want to miss anything."

Fans and media came from across the globe to attend the event. Alex Ferguson of Sky Sports UK wrote, "This has been one of the greatest experiences of my life, and any self-respecting sports fan has to go to a game in Tiger Stadium."

In 2011, the Tigers capped a perfect 12-0 regular season with a 41-17 victory over No. 3 Arkansas. A crowd of 93,108 -- at the time the third-largest in the stadium's history -- watched LSU erase a 14-0 deficit by outscoring the Razorbacks 41-3 the rest of the way. In six home games during its SEC Championship run, LSU outscored its opponents by a combined 253-57.

On November 8, 2008, LSU eclipsed the 93,000-fan mark for the first time in school history when 93,039 spectators welcomed back former coach Nick Saban and top-ranked Alabama. LSU fell to the Crimson Tide, 27-21 in overtime, in what was then the most to ever see a game in Tiger Stadium. That mark was surpassed in 2009 when once again the nation's top-ranked team, the Florida Gators, played under the lights on October 10. A then school-record 93,129 fans watched Florida defeat LSU, 13-3.

The Tigers posted a 6-1 home mark during their 2007 national championship season, including a thrilling 28-24 victory on October 6 over Florida that was played before a crowd of 92,910 and a national primetime audience on CBS. Legendary CBS Sports announcer Verne Lundquist to this day says it is the loudest he has ever heard a stadium during a broadcast.

The 2005 season saw Tiger Stadium play host to its first Monday night game as LSU dropped an overtime thriller to Tennessee after the game was postponed two days due to Hurricane Rita. The LSU-Tennessee contest was the most-watched college football game in the history of ESPN2 as 2.77 million homes tuned in.

Due to the devastation to New Orleans and the Louisiana Superdome by Hurricane Katrina, Tiger Stadium served as the playing site for four New Orleans Saints games in 2005, as well as hosting the Tulane-Southeastern Louisiana contest. In all, 11 games (seven NCAA and four NFL) were played in Tiger Stadium during the 2005 season.

Part of the lore of Tiger Stadium is the tradition of playing games at night, an idea that was introduced in 1931 versus Spring Hill (a 35-0 LSU victory). Since that first night game in 1931, LSU has played the majority of its games at night and the Tigers have fared better under the lights than during the day. Since 1960, LSU is 254-67-4 (.788) at night in Tiger Stadium compared to a 36-28-3 (.560) record during the day over that span. Since 2000, LSU is 93-12 in Saturday night games in Death Valley.

CBSSports.com's Dennis Dodd wrote in October 2009 of LSU's fabled night history, "It has turned the knees of All-Americans to goo. It has caused coaches to lose their coaching minds. It only happens at a special space at a special time. LSU can be up, LSU can be down, but LSU's best weapon remains ... sunset."

LSU has averaged 75,502 spectators for its 420 contests in Tiger Stadium since the NCAA began compiling official attendance figures in 1957. Since the start of the NCAA's attendance compilations, LSU has finished in the nation's top 10 in average attendance in 56 of the past 63 seasons. (The NCAA did not keep official attendance records in 2020 due to the COVID-19 pandemic). The Tigers have drawn 31,711,214 fans since 1957. LSU passed the 30,000,000-mark in all-time attendance in 2016.

Tiger Stadium

Tiger Stadium first opened its gates to fans in the fall of 1924 as LSU hosted Tulane in the season finale. Beginning with that first game in Tiger Stadium, LSU has posted a 433-153-18 (.732) mark in Death Valley. LSU's overall home record since the start of football in 1893 is 516-173-20 (.742).

Testimonials

Tiger Stadium tradition has seen its share of national publicity as one of the most talked about venues in all of sports.

In 1998, Sport Magazine named Tiger Stadium "the most feared road playing site in America," and in 1996, ESPN named LSU's pre-game party the best in all of America. Those surveys supported the previous polls by Gannett News Service in 1995, The Sporting News in 1989 and the College Football Association in 1987, that depict Tiger Stadium as the most difficult place for a visiting team to play.

Sports Illustrated's Rick Reilly, in a column comparing college football to professional football, penned that "College football is LSU's Tiger Stadium at night." ESPN's Chris Fowler called LSU his favorite gameday experience in the Sports Illustrated's On Campus issue in 2003.

In 2002, after a 33-10 non-conference win over Miami (Ohio), UM coach Terry Hoeppner said of Tiger Stadium, "That's as exciting an environment as you can have. I thought the crowd was a factor for us because we had communication problems we haven't had at Michigan and Ohio State."

After a victory before a national television audience on ESPN in 2001, ESPN sideline reporter Adrian Karsten said, "Death Valley in Baton Rouge is the loudest stadium I've ever been in. There are very few stadiums in America worth a touchdown, but the Bayou Bengals certainly have that advantage in Tiger Stadium."

In 2007, the acclaim continued when The Bleacher Report ranked "Death Valley" as the third toughest venue in the world to play in. LSU's run to a national title and record crowds led ESPN.com to proclaim Tiger Stadium as "The Scariest Place to Play in America" for an opposing team in a list of stadium rankings.

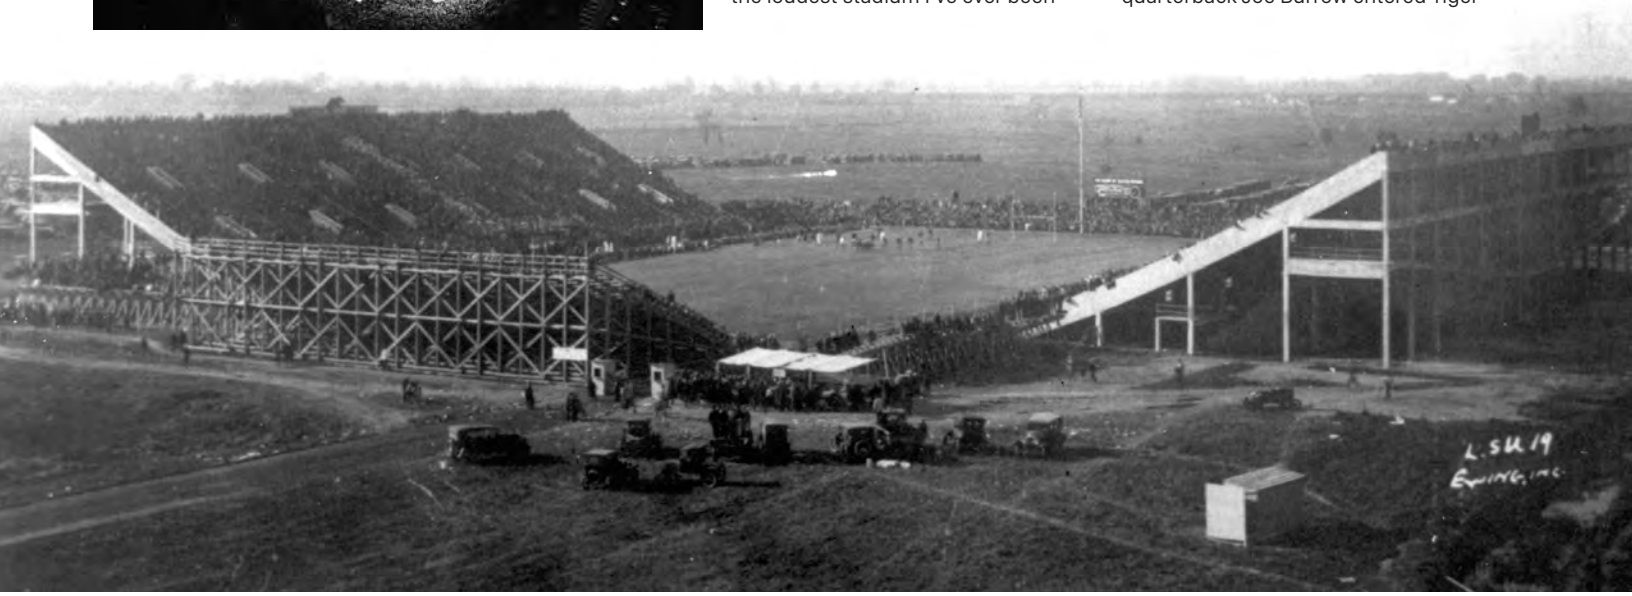

Wright Thompson of ESPN.com wrote in 2008, "It was electric. When Death Valley is rocking, it seems as if it might actually take flight. On Saturday, I went back to Baton Rouge to see Alabama barely beat LSU, and was, once again, reminded that Tiger Stadium is the best place in the world to watch a sporting event."

The stadium's sheer noise and tradition has carried into a new decade. In 2010, The Sporting News proclaimed Tiger tailgating and "Saturday Night in Death Valley" as the top gameday tradition in all of college football. That same year, the Associated Press named Tiger Stadium as the top place to tailgate in college football.

Following the 2012 season, Athlon Sports wrote, "Be it the vast and unique tailgating menu or Richter Scale-inducing fans, few places in the nation can send chills down your spine like a game at Tiger Stadium. As one of the loudest and most rabid atmospheres in the nation, LSU boasts one of the most daunting home-field advantages in college football — especially at night."

Great Moments

The home schedule of the 2019 national championship season was capped by the Senior Tribute prior to the Texas A&M game, when quarterback Joe Burrow entered Tiger

Stadium wearing a "Burreaux" nameplate on the back of his jersey. "Burreaux" was an homage by the eventual Heisman Trophy winner to LSU and to the people of Louisiana.

The 2007 national championship season featured some of Tiger Stadium's most exciting moments, including a 28-24 win over Florida on Oct. 6. Top-ranked LSU overcame a 10-point fourth-quarter deficit to beat the ninth-ranked Gators in front of 92,910 fans – then the largest crowd in stadium history – and a primetime CBS national television audience. Just two weeks later, Matt Flynn connected with Demetrius Byrd on a 22-yard TD pass with one second remaining to give LSU a 30-24 victory over Auburn in a game televised by ESPN. LSU rallied from deficits of 17-7 at halftime and 24-23 with three minutes left in the contest to capture the electrifying win.

Though already considered one of the most raucous stadiums in all of college football, the 2003 season saw Tiger Stadium take it to another level during LSU's national title run, as the team, along with the fans, captivated the national media almost on a weekly basis. CBS televised Matt Mauck's last-minute game-winning pass to Skyler Green against Georgia before a crowd of 92,251, while ESPN was on hand for a dominating 31-7 victory over Auburn. The Tigers closed out the 2003 home slate with a 55-24 win over Arkansas before what was then the second-largest crowd in school history (92,213).

In 2001, the Tigers clinched a berth in their first SEC Championship Game with a 27-14 victory over Auburn in the season finale in Tiger Stadium. After the contest, thousands of Tiger fans spilled onto the stadium floor to celebrate the victory. The Auburn game was traditionally played earlier in the season, but the attacks of September 11 postponed the contest until the final week of the regular season.

In 2000, the goal posts came down twice. Immediately after the Tigers upset then-No. 11 ranked Tennessee 38-31 in overtime, the capacity crowd of 91,682 flowed onto the field of Tiger Stadium to celebrate the victory. Hundreds of students lined the sidelines and the back of the north end zone as the Tigers held the Vols scoreless in overtime for the victory.

The goal posts came down again in the final home game of the 2000 season as the Tigers posted a 30-28 win over Alabama, their first victory over the Crimson Tide in Tiger Stadium since 1969.

The goal posts fell for the first time in 1997 as all of America witnessed one of the most explosive nights in the history of the grand stadium when the Tigers upended No. 1-ranked Florida before a national television audience. A sea of Tiger fans swamped the floor of Deathy Valley as both goal posts came crashing down -- a scene that was replayed countless times on college football highlight shows.

One of the most famous moments in Death Valley history took place on "The Night The Tigers Moved the Earth," Oct. 8, 1988. When Tiger quarterback Tommy Hodson threw to Eddie Fuller for a winning touchdown against Auburn, the explosion of the crowd was so thunderous that it caused an earth tremor that registered on a seismograph meter in LSU's Geology Department across campus.

Then there was the night the Tigers nearly upset No. 1-ranked Southern California before a sellout crowd on September 28, 1979. The Tigers came up short, but the crowd roared from kickoff to final gun in a game many ardent LSU followers rank as the loudest in stadium history.

And, of course, there was Halloween night 1959, when Billy Cannon made his famous 89-yard punt return to lead No. 1 LSU past No. 3 Ole Miss. Legend has it that families living near the campus lakes came running out of their homes in fear of the noise erupting around them.

Those are the highlights, some of which have shaped the character of this great stadium. But week in and week out each fall, a new chapter unfolds in the history of Death Valley.

Aside from football, Tiger Stadium served as a concert venue from 2010-16, and again in 2019. Death Valley played host to "Bayou Country Superfest," a three-day country music festival that featured the likes of Taylor Swift, Blake Shelton, Kenny Chesney, Tim McGraw, Zac Brown Band, Rascal Flatts, Keith Urban, Carrie Underwood, Jason Aldean and Luke Bryan.

History

The home of one of football's proudest traditions, Tiger Stadium once served as a dormitory for approximately 1,500 students, and while Broussard Hall, then LSU's athletics dormitory, was being renovated during the fall of 1986, the LSU football players lived in Tiger Stadium.

The original phase of construction was completed in 1924. This first phase included the east and west stands, which seated about 12,000. Seven years later (1931), the sides were extended upward to accommodate an additional 10,000 fans, raising the capacity to 22,000. In 1936, the stadium seating capacity was increased to 46,000, with the addition of 24,000 seats in the north end, making Tiger Stadium into a horseshoe configuration.

The next phase of construction took place in 1953 when the stadium's south end was closed to turn the horseshoe into a bowl, increasing the seating capacity to 67,720.

The original upper deck atop the west stands was completed in 1978, and it added 8,000 seats to the stadium's capacity. More seating in two club level sections, which flanked the existing press box, brought the total addition to approximately 10,000 seats and raised the stadium's capacity to approximately 78,000.

Refurbishing began on the stadium in the summer of 1985, when the east and west stands were waterproofed, and 25,000 chair back seats were added to replace the older "bench" type seats. Another phase of improvements was completed in 1987 when the north and south stands were waterproofed and newer bleachers were again installed to replace the older ones.

The playing field was moved 11 feet south in 1986 to provide more room between the back line of the North End Zone and the curvature of the stadium fence that surrounds the field. It also put the playing area in the exact center of the arena's grassy surface.

Prior to the 1987 season, more seats were installed at the upper portion of the west lower stands in Tiger Stadium. Also, the stadium's seating arrangement was renumbered to make all seats a uniform size. The addition of bleacher seating in 1988 brought the capacity to 80,150, but the elimination of some bleacher seating after the 1994 season dropped the capacity to 80,000.

Now the sixth-largest on-campus stadium, Tiger Stadium continues to provide fans with the ultimate college football experience. Prior to the 2000 season, 11,600 seats were added with the installation of the east upper deck, bringing the capacity to nearly 92,000. In addition to the new east upper deck, 70 skyboxes, called "Tiger Dens," were built, giving Tiger fans luxury accommodations. The addition of the 11,600 seats in 2000 marked the first expansion to Tiger Stadium since 1978, when the original west upper deck was completed.

The distinctive environment of Tiger Stadium became even more pronounced in 2005 as the ambitious West Upper Deck project was virtually completed. Construction on the project -- which began immediately after LSU's home finale against Ole Miss in November of 2004 - carried a $60 million price tag and rebuilt over 3,200 special amenity seats as a well as a state-of-the-art press box. The west side renovation, which included the removal and rebuilding of the upper deck to mirror the east side upper deck, was completely finished during the 2006 season.

In 2009, major technological advances were made when Tiger Stadium added an 80-foot wide high-definition video board to the north end zone of the facility. Called one of the largest video boards in all of college athletics, the HD board measures 27-feet high and 80-feet wide.

In August 2010, the Department of Athletics and the Tiger Athletic Foundation launched a campaign to preserve and restore the look of Tiger Stadium. The 428 windows on the north side of the stadium were completely refurbished. The 300 remaining windows on the east and west sides of the stadium were completed for the 2013 season.

Prior to the 2012 season, construction was completed on the first part of the west side plaza that included new gates, All-American and Hall of Fame plazas

Construction on the north plaza of Tiger Stadium was completed prior to the 2013 season.

The 2012 season saw a new tradition established at Tiger Stadium. Following an LSU victory, the north end of the stadium lights up in "victory gold." The unique look is a part of a state-of-the-art lighting system that was installed prior to the season that turns the upper archways of the north end of the stadium to purple and gold. Also prior to the 2012 campaign, letters spelling out "Tiger Stadium" were installed on the west side.

In April 2012, a new era of Tiger Stadium was unveiled, as plans were announced for the South End Zone Expansion. Construction was completed prior to the 2014 season for 66 suites, approximately 3,000 club seats above the existing south end zone seats, and 1,400 general public seats above the new suite and club seating. The project, privately funded by Tiger Athletic Foundation, brought the capacity of Tiger Stadium to 102,321, making it the sixth-largest stadium in the nation.

William Tate IV

President, LSU

LSU

During the May 2021 LSU Board of Supervisors meeting, the Board named William F. Tate IV as the next LSU president.

Tate has served as Executive Vice President for Academic Affairs and Provost at the University of South Carolina since July 2020.

Prior to that, he served as dean of the Graduate School & Vice Provost for Graduate Education at Washington University in St. Louis from 2002 to 2020. Tate also spent time at Texas Christian University and University of Wisconsin-Madison.

He oversaw the 13 schools and colleges on the University of South Carolina Columbia campus, U of SC School of Medicine Columbia, and the Uof SC School of Medicine Greenville, as well as being responsible for the overall leadership of academic affairs of the university, including curriculum development, program assessment, establishment of academic standards and university accreditation.

During his time at South Carolina, Tate launched Carolina Online as the university's comprehensive effort to deliver degree programs and professional credentials online; established the Provost's Postdoctoral Fellowship program, which offers postdoctoral fellowships with the specific aim of increasing faculty diversity and research productivity on campus; and guided in collaboration with the Faculty Senate the development of a "Founding Documents" course for incoming freshmen.

Tate received his Ph.D. in mathematics education from the University of Maryland, Master of Arts in Teaching from the University of Texas at Dallas, Master of Psychiatric Epidemiology from Washington University School of Medicine, and Bachelor of Science in economics from Northern Illinois University.

The Office of the President provides overall leadership, vision and direction for all of the LSU campuses across Louisiana. LSU is dedicated to providing a positive learning environment that enables students to achieve their full potential. It includes LSU at Baton Rouge (the premier flagship university for the state); campus units at Alexandria, Eunice, and Shreveport; Health Science Centers in New Orleans and Shreveport; LSU AgCenter; and Pennington Biomedical Research Center in Baton Rouge.

As the chief executive and academic officer of both LSU statewide and the flagship campus in Baton Rouge, the LSU president provides strategic and collaborative leadership in developing and advancing aspirational goals and plans to achieve LSU's mission of fostering first-class learning, innovation, and the development of Louisiana's human capital by applying research and scholarship in advancing intellectual, personal, and professional growth.

LSU has more than 35,000 undergraduate students and more than 12,000 graduate students; it also has 2,000 professional students in the Health Centers. There are 3,000 full-time-equivalent faculty members, including 1,340 tenured or tenure-track. LSU has an endowment with a market value larger than $900M, about $350M in annual research expenditures, and more than 200 active licenses.

As part of his obligation to student-athletes, he forms vital relationships across the university community and with the Tiger Athletic Foundation, which raises funds for scholarships, programs and facilities on behalf of the Athletics Department.

Woodward's expertise in promoting the best interests of student-athletes is especially critical at this time in our country's history, as he guides LSU Athletics during a period of significant social change and an unprecedented public health crisis.

Woodward places a priority on making sure students-athletes earn a degree and develop real life skills that will help them throughout their professional careers. He has instituted the LSU Tiger Life program, which serves student-athletes through designing and implementing programming in the areas of career preparation, civic engagement, diversity and inclusion and character development.

Woodward has solidified LSU's reputation as a national-championship contender in every sport, with his most visible impact coming in the hiring of championship-quality coaches, including Hall of Fame women's basketball coach Kim Mulkey, who took the helm of the Tigers' program in April 2021.

Embodying Woodward's sincere commitment to scholarship, LSU's Graduation Success Rate reached an overall score of 89 for the third straight year, just one point shy of the school's all-time high of 90 in 2017. LSU is one of only five SEC schools to score an 89 or higher in each of the past four years.

LSU's 2020-21 athletics season was highlighted by a national championship in men's outdoor track & field, and eight Tiger programs finished ranked among the Top 20 in the country. LSU placed 15th in the annual Director's Cup national standings that measure overall athletics excellence.

LSU student-athletes excelled in the classroom in 2019-20, as 96 Tigers received their degrees. The academic achievements were mirrored by tremendous athletic success under Woodward's leadership, as the Tiger football team captured the 2019 CFP National Championship with "The Best Ever" season in college gridiron history. LSU posted a 15-0 record - which included seven wins over Top 10 teams - and quarterback Joe Burrow became the first Tiger to win the Heisman Trophy since 1959.

Though the winter and spring portions of LSU's 2020 athletic schedules were interrupted by the COVID-19 pandemic, the Tigers recorded several elite performances. The men's track & field team, the women's track & field team, and the beach volleyball squad each finished their seasons ranked No. 1 in the nation.

During Woodward's tenure at Texas A&M, every sports program participated in postseason play and the Aggies won nine SEC titles. He also spearheaded the construction of a world-class track & field stadium, as well as a state-of-the-art softball stadium, in addition to renovations of the basketball locker rooms and planned redesign of the swimming and diving facility, nutrition areas and a weight room.

Texas A&M competed at an elite level under Woodward, ranking 10th nationally among more than 300 schools in the 2017-18 Learfield Directors Cup All-Sport Standings, third-best among SEC schools. He worked to increase the number of career placement opportunities for student-athletes through engagement initiatives.

Woodward served as the Vice President of External Affairs at the University of Washington prior to being named Director of Athletics in 2008. During Woodward's time leading the Husky athletic programs, UW captured seven national championships and multiple conference titles.

As Director of Athletics at Washington from 2008 through 2015, Woodward supervised a department with revenue exceeding $100 million per year and a staff of more than 200. The Husky football program returned to the postseason in 2010 for the first time since

I BELIEVE

WRITTEN MAY 6, 2019

Dear LSU Family,

Today is my first official day in service to our university, a place that transformed my life many years ago and so many others before and since. Serving as your Director of Athletics is truly humbling. This is home and my alma mater but I chose LSU because I believe.

I believe in who we are. We share a passion for LSU that cannot be measured. Like every one of you, I treasure the accomplishments, traditions and great moments of the past, and I anxiously await to see what we accomplish together in the years ahead.

I believe in LSU. There is no place in America that embodies a people, a culture and a place like LSU in the great state of Louisiana. There is no institution more important to this state and its people than LSU and we will do our part to elevate this university, while graduating our student-athletes and preparing them for their lives after college.

I believe we will win championships. We have some of the best student-athletes in the world right here in Louisiana. We will support them with the best coaches, staff, facilities and academic support in college athletics. And we will win SEC and NCAA championships while building a world-class experience for our student-athletes.

I believe that we can surpass our own high expectations if we do it together. Every single one of you is important to our mission. I know what this place means to you, because it means the same to me. It's difficult to put it into words, but we all feel it when we are together, heading in the same direction with the same passion, joy and determination that makes the LSU family so special. Yes, there are current challenges we must meet and there will surely be new ones ahead but nothing we can't overcome together.

Thank you for your warm welcome back to Baton Rouge. It's good to be home.

Geaux Tigers!

2001 and made five-straight bowl appearances.

Woodward garnered wide acclaim in 2013 for hiring head football coach Chris Peterson, who led the UW football team to a College Football Playoff in 2016. The men's basketball program won the 2012 Pac-12 regular season championship, 2011 and 2010 Pac-10 Conference Tournament Championships and reached the NCAA's Sweet Sixteen in 2010.

Washington ranked fourth in the Pac-12 Conference in student-athlete graduation rates and ranked second over a 10-year average. Fundraising set all-time records under Woodward, and he secured multiple high-figure corporate sponsorships. He also led a $280 million renovation of Husky Stadium, completed in 2013, and facility enhancements for baseball.

In recognition of his accomplishments at Washington, Woodward was nominated by the Sports Business Journal for the prestigious Athletic Director of the Year Award in March of 2014.

As LSU's Director of External Affairs from 2000-2004, Woodward acted as the liaison between the university and government and corporate officials, and he advised then-Chancellor Mark Emmert on policy and government appropriations. As with his tenure in External Affairs at Washington, Woodward helped lead LSU to unprecedented economic growth, paving the way for the University's move from a Tier II to Tier I research institution.

At LSU, Woodward also served as the Chancellor's representative to the athletics department. During his time with the Tigers, the institution's intercollegiate athletic teams won 10 NCAA championships, including one in football in 2003.

Prior to working in higher education, Woodward co-owned a government and public relations firm in Baton Rouge and provided strategic policy direction to Fortune 500 corporations, including clients in the education, insurance and oil industries. He also worked on behalf of the Louisiana Nature Conservancy and the New Orleans Center for Creative Arts, and served on the Board of Directors of the Baton Rouge Food Bank.

Woodward earned a bachelor's degree in political science from LSU in 1985. He is married to Nanette Dicharry and has two adult sons, Michael and Josh Evans.

During her senior season, Andrews batted leadoff for the Tigers and did not disappoint. She led the team in batting average at .365, hits with 70, runs with 46, stolen bases with 27 and an on base percentage of .419. She earned many awards, including being named to the NFCA All-America second team.

ON THE PROWL
Mike the Tiger was ranked by ESPN as the best mascot in the SEC. Mike's habitat is one of the most visited attractions in the state of Louisiana, located in the shadows of the north endzone of Tiger Stadium.

MIKE THE TIGER

HISTORY OF MIKE

Few mascots in the country are as admired as Mike the Tiger. LSU's Bengal mascot serves as the graphic image of all LSU athletic teams. The school has had seven mascots, with the most recent, Mike VII, taking over the reign in August 2017.

The Bengal/Siberian mix, formerly known as "Harvey" was donated to LSU by Wild at Heart Wildlife Center of Okeechobee, Fla. On the first day of the fall semester at LSU, Mike VII officially began his reign on Monday, Aug. 21, 2017. The 11-month-old, Siberian-Bengal, male tiger acclimated well to his new surrounds and was deemed ready to become Mike VII.

For more than 50 years, Mike rode through Tiger Stadium in a travel trailer topped by the LSU cheerleaders before home games. Before the field parade, Mike's trailer was parked next to the opponent's locker room in the southeast corner of the stadium. Opposing players were forced to pass Mike's trailer to reach their locker room.

In the mid-1980s, pranksters cut the locks on Mike IV's cage and freed him in the early-morning hours just days before the annual LSU-Tulane clash. Mike roamed free, playfully knocking down several small pine trees in the area, before being trapped in the Bernie Moore Track Stadium where police used tranquilizer guns to capture and return the Bengal Tiger to his home.

The incident was reminiscent of a kidnapping of Mike I many years ago by Tulane students before a Tiger-Green Wave battle.

Trainer and namesake Mike Chambers with Mike I housed in City Park Zoo.

SNEAUX DAYS
On Dec. 11, 2008 and Dec. 11 2017, winter storms blanketed Baton Rouge that hadn't been seen in decades. The early white Christmas gave Mike VI (2008) and Mike VII (2017), LSU's live Bengal/Siberian tigers, a chance to relax and play in nearly two inches of accumulation.

MIKE'S HABITAT
In 2005, a new environment (above) was created for Mike that is 15,000 square feet. The backdrop of Mike's Habitat features an Italianate tower - a campanile - that creates a visual bridge to the architectural vernacular that is the underpinning of the entire LSU campus. This spectacular habitat allows for state-of-the-art technologies, research, conservation and husbandry programs, as well as educational, interpretive and recreational activities. It is, in essence, one of the largest and finest Tiger habitats in the United States. In preparation for the arrival of Mike VII in the summer of 2017, several enhancements were made to the habitat. The enhancements include a comfort rock, rockwork tree, improved water features, and resurfacing of the pool. The comfort rock is a naturalistic element within the habitat that provides a heated or cooled surface for ultimate relaxation in Mike's Habitat. The rockwork tree imitates a tiger's natural habitat and serves to soften the impact of the steel column supporting the overhead mesh canopy. The pool and stream system will help keep Mike cool in the summer months and foster health activity.

1936-1956
MIKE I
The original Mike was purchased from the Little Rock Zoo in 1936 for $750, with money contributed by the student body. Originally known as "Sheik" at the time of his purchase, his name was changed to Mike to honor Mike Chambers who served as LSU's athletic trainer when the first mascot was purchased. The first Mike was housed in the Baton Rouge Zoo for one year before a permanent home was constructed near Tiger Stadium. Mike I reigned for 20 years before dying of pneumonia.

1956-1958
MIKE II
The second Mike served a brief reign, lasting only through the 1957 season before dying of pneumonia in the spring of 1958. He was born at the Audubon Zoo in New Orleans and came to LSU on Sept. 28, 1956. The young tiger was held overnight in Tiger Stadium and unveiled Sept. 29, the opening day of the football season.

1958-1976
MIKE III
Just in time for the 1958 national championship season, Mike III was purchased from the Woodland Park Zoo in Seattle, Wash., following a "national search" by then-athletic director Jim Corbett. The student body contributed $1,500 for the purchase of the tiger. Mike III served as mascot for 18 seasons, dying after the only losing season of his reign, as LSU posted a 5-6 record in 1975.

1976-1990
MIKE IV
Mike IV reigned over Tiger athletics for 14 years after being donated to the school by August A. Busch III from the Dark Continent Amusement Park in Tampa, Fla, on Aug. 29, 1976. Born on May 15, 1974, Mike's age and health were determining factors in his retirement to the Baton Rouge Zoo in 1990. Mike IV died of old age in March of 1995 at the age of 21.

1990-2007
MIKE V
Mike V was donated by Dr. Thomas and Caroline Atchison of the Animal House Zoological Park in Moulton, Ala. Dr. Sheldon Bivin of the LSU School of Veterinary Medicine traveled to Alabama and brought the baby tiger back to Baton Rouge. Born Oct. 18, 1989, the new tiger was introduced to LSU fans at a basketball game against Alabama in February of 1990. He officially began his reign on April 30, 1990, when he was moved into the tiger habitat across from Tiger Stadium. Mike V died on May 18, 2007, at the age of 17.

2007-2016
MIKE VI
Mike VI arrived on Aug. 25, 2007, thanks to the donation by Great Cats of Indiana. He was designated as the successor to Mike V on Sept. 8, when LSU played Virginia Tech. On Sept. 14, 2007, a ceremony was held to honor Mike V and dedicate the habitat to Mike VI. The Bengal/Siberian mix, formerly known as "Roscoe," reigned over a football national title in his first year and a 2011 SEC championship and perfect regular season. Mike VI was diagnosed with a rare form of cancer in May 2016 and underwent first-of-its-kind radiation treatment He was humanely euthanized on Oct. 11, 2016 at the age of 11 after a four-month battle with cancer.

2017-Present
MIKE VII
On the first day of the fall semester at LSU, Mike VII officially began his reign on Monday, Aug. 21, 2017. "Harvey" of Wild at Heart Wildlife Center of Okeechobee, Florida, arrived on campus on Aug. 15 and was housed in the night house of the tiger habitat. The 11-month-old, Siberian-Bengal, male tiger acclimated well to his new surroundings and was deemed ready to become Mike VII. The start of his reign ended a 314-day span without the live mascot on the LSU campus, the longest in school history.

LSU
RETIRED JERSEYS

The following 14 individuals are the only student-athletes to have their jerseys retired by LSU. Augustus became the first woman in LSU Athletics history to have her jersey retired in January 2010. Mahmoud Abdul-Rauf is the newest member of the legacy class, as his retirement was showcased on February 29, 2020..

Beginning on January 1, 2007, a provision of the LSU jersey retirement bylaws that says the retirement of an athlete's jersey in a particular sport does not preclude a current student-athlete in that sport from wearing the jersey number in that or any other sport, subject to the discretion of the head coach. Numbers worn by Maravich, Pettit, O'Neal, Cannon and Bertman may never again be worn by future student-athletes in their respective sports.

To have a jersey retired at LSU, an athlete must have completed intercollegiate competition for LSU a minimum of five years prior to nomination. Athletes must have demonstrated truly unusual and outstanding accomplishments, exceeding and in addition to all criteria used for Hall of Fame selection. Nominees must have a unanimous vote of support from the Hall of Fame committee.

The LSU Football Operations and Performance Nutrition Center was unveiled the week of July 21, 2019.

FOOTBALL OPERATIONS CENTER

Phillips-Bordelon Locker Room
After walking past a display of the history of LSU uniforms and gear, players will enter the LSU Phillips-Bordelon Locker Room, the everyday hub of activity for the Tigers. Over 150 state-of-the-art, proprietary pod-style lockers will be used for storing personal items and practice gear, as well as serving as personal space for rest and recovery. The lower portion of the pods has the feel of an international, first-class flight with a fold-out bed and features charging stations for electronics and an iPad mount for watching film, doing school work, or recreational viewing. A mud room was added to serve as a drying and cleaning area for shoulder pads and shoes, and will have separate ventilation to keep odors outside of the main locker room. Bacteria-resistant phenolic surfaces will ensure that equipment lasts longer, stays cleaner, and performs better. More than 60 lockers have been designated for former LSU Tigers currently playing in the NFL to use while training on-site during the off-season or during a bye week.

Tyrann Mathieu Player's Lounge
The Tyrann Mathieu Player's Lounge is designed as a comfortable space for players to relax and unwind between classes, practices, and workouts. The room offers a stunning view of Tiger Stadium and features virtual reality racing games, video game consoles, theater seating with HD television, refreshment stations, and a ping pong table. Former LSU Tiger Tyrann Mathieu funded the room through a $1 million donation.

Walk-Through Room
The LSU Walk-Through Room features a state-of-the-art projection system for the players to participate in a virtual walk-through of game simulations. Formations will be projected on a 20-foot wall and players can set up defensive or offensive plays on the purple turf to learn adjustments based on motion, formation and personnel.

Experience Room
The LSU Experience Room showcases a 4D video experience that allows viewers to experience the feeling of running out into Tiger Stadium on Game Day. The screen is shaped like the viewer is sitting inside of the player's helmet, while the seating adds to the experience of motion entering the stadium.

PERFORMANCE NUTRITION CENTER

The LSU Football Operations and Performance Nutrition Center is open to all LSU student-athletes for their nutritional needs throughout off-season training and competition seasons.

Hank Anderson Family Dining Area
The Hank Anderson Family Dining Area seats up to 180 student-athletes, while the Doss & Sally Bourgeois Serving Area includes a brick over for pizzas, and food stations that rival a Las Vegas buffet. Staff dietitians will track trends and adjust a student-athlete's diet based on data collected through the use of a DEXA scanner.

"I think what we've done placing the performance nutrition center and the locker room set up together in such a way that they don't want to leave, has afforded our student-athletes more time to rest, more recovery, more access to our medical facility, more access to their coaches and has made it an inviting place to be."

- Shelly Mullenix
Senior Associate AD/Health and Wellness

Executive Chef Michael Johnson
The restaurant-style menu is overseen by Executive Chef Michael Johnson, who joined the LSU staff after three years with the Seattle Seahawks. "For me its about what you put into your body, and I believe in that," Johnson said. "Fresh ingredients is everything. Fresh vegetables is the name of the game."

LSU BROADCAST CENTER

SEC Network/Live Productions

Located on the fifth floor of the LSU Athletic Administration Building is the epicenter of LSU live sports productions. Five state-of-the-art broadcast control rooms enable LSU Athletics to annually produce more than 100 live broadcast productions each year which air on the various ESPN family of networks (SEC Network, SEC Network+, ESPN, ESPN2, ESPNU, ESPN News). In addition, more than 140 videoboard shows for football, men's and women's basketball, volleyball, gymnastics, baseball and softball originate from LSU's control rooms each year. Those productions are managed by four in-house staff members who employ over 100 student and professional freelance technicians.

The SEC Network has proven to be one of the most successful launches by a network in all of cable television. Today, it has brought Southeastern Conference sports to over 70 million subscribers.

That was the vision when the SEC and ESPN signed a 20-year agreement through 2034 to create and operate a multi-platform network which launched on August 14, 2014. The network and its accompanying digital platform carries SEC contest 24/7 including some 1,500 events each year.

Besides the volume of over the air events, thanks to commitment by athletic departments like LSU, all 14 schools built state-of-the-art control rooms and purchased HD camera equipment to provide the same quality coverage for events that viewers were used to for years on ESPN family of network events.

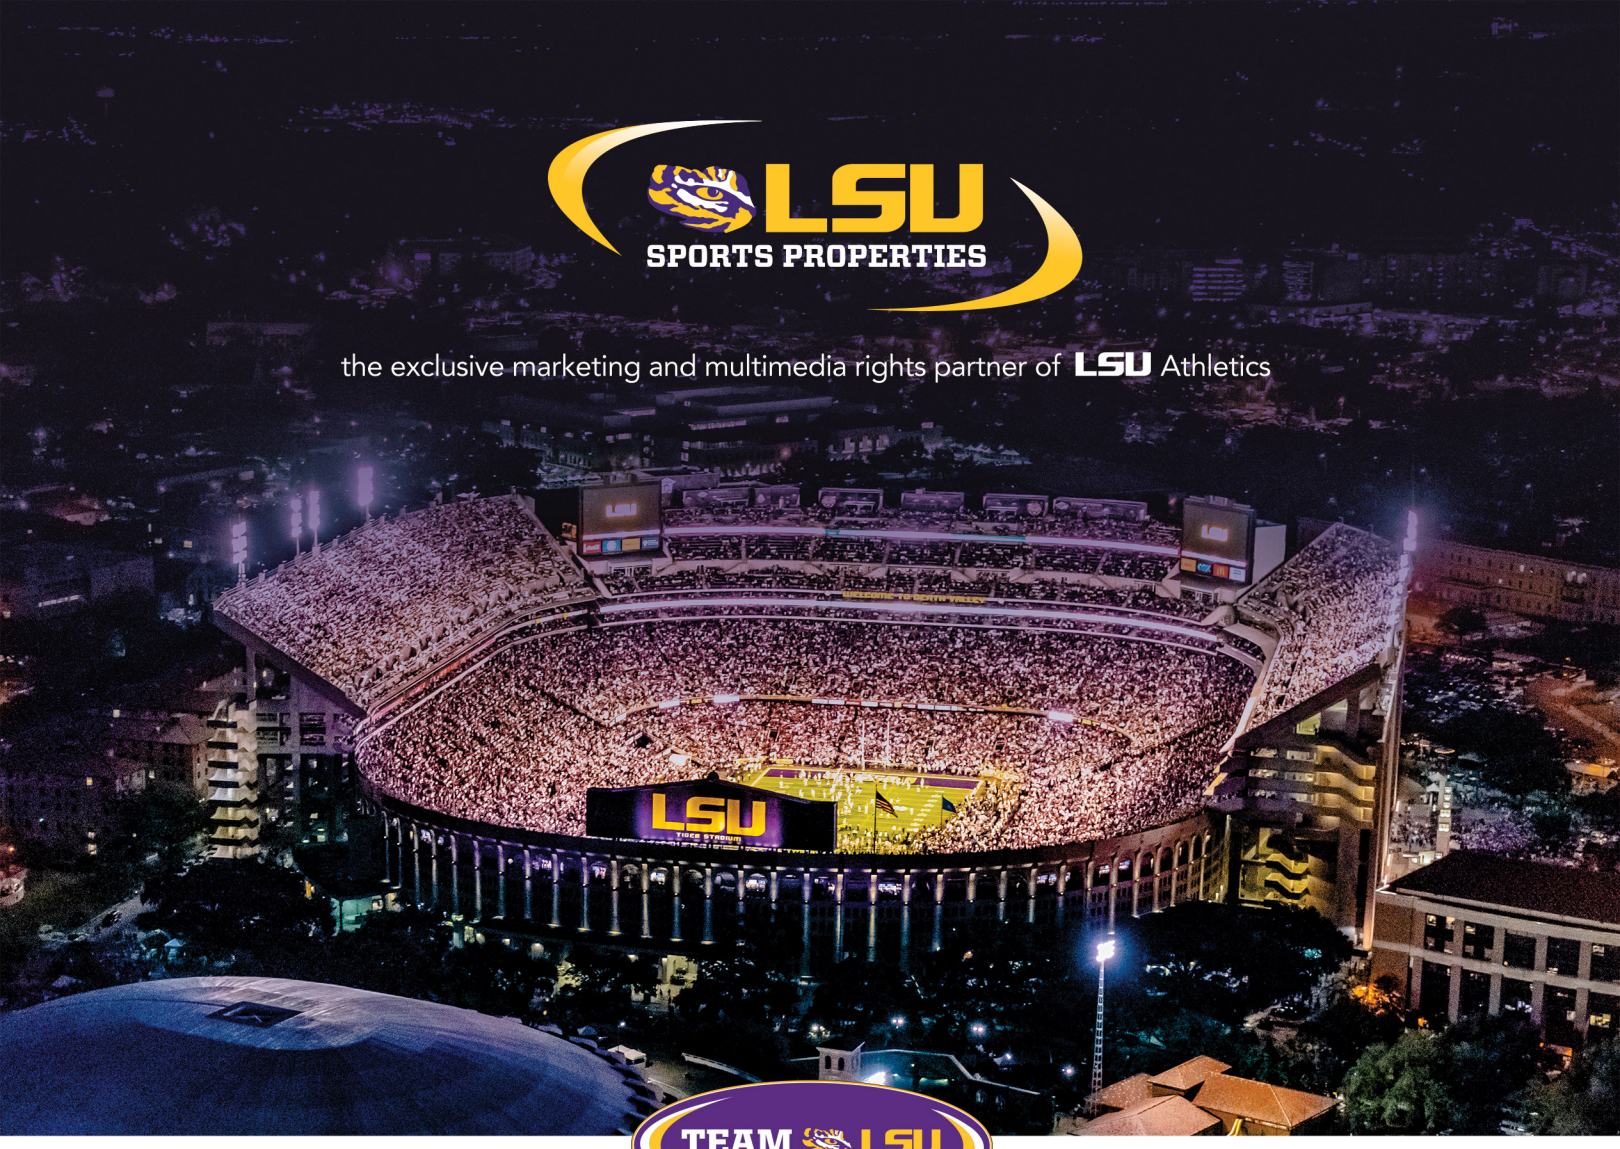

These events are broadcast exclusively through the ESPN app as part of SEC Network+ on computers, phones, tablets and smart TVs, allowing fans anywhere and almost anytime to watch their favorite teams play their favorite sports.

The SEC Network has also become known for its studio show "SEC Now" and its traveling weekly football pregame show "SEC Nation" besides its weekly coverage morning to night of Saturday SEC college football.
