TIGER TALES

Taylor Bannister is Eyeing the Rafters

"Setting high goals and high standards is the approach each season. Our joke with each other [teammates] is that we're trying to retire a jersey," said outside hitter Taylor Bannister.

Bannister, who is now the program's all-time kill leader, is still focused on a goal that was set back years ago. To have a volleyball jersey in the rafters.

Ella Larkin Steps Up in Adverse Times

Larkin emerged as a steady force for a team that battled through many early-season injuries. Since the return of Bannister, Flickinger and Brister, she has settled into her new role for a resurgent team that still entertains thoughts of reaching the NCAA tournament.

"Ella has continued to grow and learn and adapt into the role," Flory said. "I believe despite injuries, she's our starting setter at this point. It's a tribute to the work she's put in and the understanding she's had."
