ALABAMA IN THE AP POLL: Alabama's No. 3 ranking in the most recent Associated Press Poll on Oct. 31 marked the 223rd consecutive week that the Crimson Tide has appeared in the poll. That streak is the longest active streak in college football. The 223 weeks more than triples second-place Georgia with the Bulldogs appearing in the poll for 76 consecutive weeks. Clemson previously held the second-longest streak behind the Crimson Tide with 107 straight appearances but did not appear in the Week 6 iteration of the 2021 poll. Before that, Ohio State held the second-longest streak with 132 straight weeks but did not appear in the Week 2 iteration of the 2020 poll. Alabama's 223 straight weeks tops the Crimson Tide's previous program-long streak of 71 straight weeks under head coach Gene Stallings in the mid-1990s.

ALABAMA IN THE AP SINCE 2008: Alabama began the 2008 season at No. 24 in the Associated Press Preseason Poll. The Crimson Tide opened the year with a dominant 34-10 win over then-No. 9 Clemson in Atlanta, and since that win over the Tigers, UA has not been ranked lower than No. 17 in 219 polls that have followed. According to College Poll Archive, the Tide has now spent 96.5 percent of the 12-plus years ranked in the top 10. A whopping 87.4 percent of that time Alabama has been ranked in the top five. The Crimson Tide has also been ranked No. 1 a total of 105 times since 2008. Only 13 other teams have earned the No. 1 ranking over that time, with the second-most appearances coming from Clemson at 23.

ONE AND ONLY: Since the start of the College Football Playoff era in 2014, Alabama has only lost one game by 13-plus points. The Crimson Tide's lone loss by 13-plus points or more in that time period came in the Crimson Tide's 44-16 loss to Clemson in the College Football Playoff National Championship on Jan. 7, 2019. To compare, Clemson and Oklahoma have four losses by 13-plus points in the same time span while Ohio State has six.

23 OF 42: The Dec. 20 release of the College Football Playoff Rankings had the Crimson Tide as the nation's top-ranked team. That No. 1 ranking marked the 23rd week in the 42-week history of the CFP Rankings that Alabama has been the nation's top team, according to the CFP committee. Those 23 weeks at No. 1 are more than every other team combined in CFP history. The Crimson Tide finished the season as national champions making Alabama the only No. 1 seed in the initial rankings to go on and win it all in the history of the Playoff.

ALABAMA HAS THE MOST WINS SINCE 2008: Dating back to the start of the 2008 season, Alabama has won 170 games, which is the most in the Football Bowl Subdivision. Ohio State is second with 151 wins followed closely by Clemson at 147. Oklahoma is fourth with 146 victories, while Boise State is fifth with 141 wins.

NON-OFFENSIVE TOUCHDOWNS IN THE SABAN ERA: Alabama recorded its 85th non-offensive touchdown in the Nick Saban era on Oct. 16, after Jordan Battle returned a 40-yard interception for a score at Mississippi State. It marked his first touchdown of the season and the second pick-six of his career. It also marked the Crimson Tide's fifth non-offensive touchdown of the season through only seven games at the time, tying last season's total (13 games). Since Saban's arrival in 2007, no team in college football has totaled more non-offensive scores than the Crimson Tide. During Saban's tenure, Alabama recorded a single-season record 15 in 2016, which led the Football Bowl Subdivision and was the most in a season by any FBS team in the last 20 years. The Crimson Tide also scored a non-offensive touchdown in 10 consecutive games dating from to the CFP Semifinal against Michigan State on Dec. 31, 2015 to the Texas A&M game on Oct. 22, 2016 for 14 non-offensive touchdowns in that span – four interceptions, four punt returns, five fumble recoveries and a kickoff return.

ALABAMA IN THE CFP POLL

The College Football Playoff was introduced during the 2014 season with the first ever rankings being released on Oct. 28, 2014. The selection committee members meet weekly on Mondays and Tuesdays to produce rankings. The committee's rankings are announced on ESPN each Tuesday evening for the final six weeks of the season. Alabama holds the record for the most games played (11) and wins (8) in the history of the CFP. The Crimson Tide is also one of only two teams to have appeared in five of the six College Football Playoffs along with Clemson. Alabama has been ranked in 834 of the 1,195 Associated Press college football polls since 1936, according to the AP Poll Archive. The Crimson Tide owns a 512-133-8 (.790) all-time record in games when ranked in the Associated Press college football poll, including a 153-21 (.879) mark under head coach Nick Saban. Alabama is also ranked in the AP poll for the 223rd consecutive week, topping its previous streak set in the mid-1990s when UA was ranked for 71 straight weeks under head coach Gene Stallings. The 223 consecutive weeks is the second-longest stretch by any program in the poll's history, trailing only Nebraska's all-time mark of 348 consecutive weeks. Alabama has started eight seasons at No. 1 (2021, 2018, 2017, 2016, 2013, 2010, 1978, 1966).

Butkus Award Semifinalist

Alabama linebacker Christian Harris was named a semifinalist for the Butkus Award, the Butkus Foundation announced Nov. 1. Harris is one of 12 collegiate semifinalists for the award which honors the nation's best linebackers at the collegiate and high school levels. Four Crimson Tide linebackers have claimed the Butkus previously with Reuben Foster taking home the hardware most recently in 2016. Joining Foster on the list of Alabama players to capture the award are C.J. Mosley (2013), Rolando McClain (2009) and NFL Hall of Famer Derrick Thomas (1988). Selection for the season's honor is handled by a panel of 51 coaches, recruiters, scouts and journalists who vote separately and confidentially. Finalists for the Butkus will be announced on Nov. 22 with winners being notified by Dec. 7 through a surprise event on their campus.

Midseason All-America Honors

Will Anderson Jr., Evan Neal and Bryce Young all earned midseason All-America recognition from various outlets between Oct. 19-20. Anderson Jr. and Neal were named to the midseason lists by the Associated Press, CBS Sports and The Sporting News, while Young earned a spot on the AP's midseason team.

Rotary Lombardi Award Semifinalists

Will Anderson Jr., Christian Harris and Evan Neal were selected as semifinalists for the Rotary Lombardi Award, the Rotary Club of Houston announced on Oct. 13. The trio of Crimson Tide student-athletes are part of a group of 12 semifinalists up for the award. Alabama has had two Lombardi winners in program history including Cornelius Bennett (1986) and Jonathan Allen (2016). The Rotary Lombardi Award has been presented annually since 1970 to the college football offensive or defensive lineman, who in addition to outstanding performance and ability, best exemplifies the character and discipline of NFL Hall of Famer Vince Lombardi. Finalists for the Lombardi Award will be announced on Nov. 9 with the 2022 winner being named on Dec. 8 in Houston, Texas.

Joe Moore Award Midseason Honor Roll

Alabama's offense was named to the Joe Moore Award Midseason Honor Roll on Oct. 19. The Crimson Tide offensive line has opened holes and provided time for one of the nation's top scoring and pass efficiency offenses this season. Alabama won the inaugural trophy in 2015 and reclaimed the honors again in 2020.

William V. Campbell Trophy Semifinalist

Alabama football offensive lineman Chris Owens was selected as one of 176 semifinalists for the 2021 William V. Campbell Trophy, it was announced by the National Football Foundation & College Hall of Fame on Sept. 29. The Campbell Trophy recognizes an individual for his combined academic success, football performance and exemplary leadership. Former Crimson Tide offensive lineman Barrett Jones won the Campbell Trophy in 2012. The National Football Foundation will announce 12-14 finalists on Oct. 27, and each of them will receive an $18,000 postgraduate scholarship. The finalists will travel to the ARIA Resort & Casino Las Vegas for the 63rd NFF Annual Awards Dinner Presented by Las Vegas on Dec. 7, where one member of the class will be declared as the winner of the 32nd Campbell Trophy and have his postgraduate scholarship increased to $25,000.

OFFENSIVE NOTES

30-OR-MORE IN 34 STRAIGHT: Alabama is the all-time FBS leader for scoring at least 30 points in consecutive games with 34 following the Tide's 52-24 win against Tennessee on Oct. 23. UCF previously held the record of scoring 30-or-more points in 31 straight games from 2017-19.

40-OR-MORE SINCE 2018: Alabama has scored 40-or-more points on 37 occasions in the last 49 games. Thirty-seven leads the nation for scoring 40-or-more points since the start of the 2018 season. Ohio State has the second-most instances of scoring 40-or-more points in that time frame (29 of 45), while Oklahoma follows in third (29 of 48).

OPENING DRIVE TOUCHDOWNS: The Crimson Tide has won 47 of its last 48 games when scoring a touchdown on the first offensive possession of the game, thanks to Brian Robinson Jr.'s eight-yard touchdown rushing against Tennessee on Oct. 23. The Tide's lone loss when scoring on the opening drive during that stretch came at Texas A&M on Oct. 9.

SCORING STREAK CONTINUES: Alabama extended its school record for consecutive games with a score to 276 against Tennessee on Oct. 23, thanks to Brian Robinson Jr.'s eight-yard touchdown run on the opening drive. The Tide was last held off the scoreboard in a 9-0 loss to Auburn on Nov. 18, 2000. Alabama owns a 220-56 (.797) record over the course of the current streak.

BIG POINTS vs. THE SEC: Last season, Alabama defeated Kentucky by a 60-point margin with a final score of 63-3 on Nov. 21, 2020. The win against the Wildcats was the Crimson Tide's seventh 50-plus point victory over a Southeastern Conference opponent under head coach Nick Saban. For perspective, since Saban's arrival in 2007, the rest of the SEC has only combined for seven 50-point victories in league play over that span.

600+ YARDS OF TOTAL OFFENSE: Alabama eclipsed the 600-plus yard marker for the 12th time in program history by rolling up 606 yards of total offense against Southern Miss on Sept. 25. The Crimson Tide reached the 600-yard plateau four times last season. During the 2020 campaign, the Tide first rolled up 723 yards at Ole Miss on Oct. 10 before producing 650 at LSU on Dec. 5. Two weeks later, the Crimson Tide posted 605 yards of total offense against Florida in the SEC Championship Game on Dec. 19 before pairing with Ohio State on Jan. 11.

500+ YARDS OF TOTAL OFFENSE: Alabama recorded 574 yards of total offense against Tennessee on Oct. 23, marking the 45th time in the last 93 games (dating to the start of the 2015 season) that the Crimson Tide has eclipsed the 500-yard mark, and the fourth instance this season. Alabama went over the 500-yard marker in eight of 13 games during the 2020 national championship run and nine of 13 total contests in 2019. The 2018 season saw UA set the Alabama single-season record with 500 or more yards in 12 of 15 games.

400+ YARDS OF TOTAL OFFENSE: Alabama has gained 400-plus yards of total offense in 47 of its last 49 games, a stretch that began on Sept. 1, 2018 in the season opener against Louisville. The only two instances in which the Crimson Tide did not eclipse the 400-plus yards of total offense mark during that span was against Tennessee on Oct. 19, 2019 (373) and at then-No. 11/9 Florida on Sept. 18, 2021 (331).

BALL PROTECTION: In the last 186 games, dating back to the start of the 2008 season, Alabama has turned the ball over only 200 times (110 fumbles, 90 interceptions) for 1.07 turnovers per game. Since 2009, the Tide has turned the ball over only 182 times in 174 games (1.05/game). The 182 turnovers since 2009 includes 72 interceptions in 4,552 attempts (1 INT every 63.2 attempts) by UA starting quarterbacks and 31 lost fumbles in 4,649 carries (one fumble lost every 148.4 carries) by the Tide's top two running backs.

FIRST SEVEN STARTS AT QB: Bryce Young is off to a hot start as the Crimson Tide's starting quarterback in 2021. Young is completing 70.0 percent of his passes (187-267) for 2,453 yards with 26 touchdowns and just three interceptions. After his performance against Tennessee on Oct. 23, he ranked third nationally in passing touchdowns (26), while ranking fourth in points responsible for (170) and passing efficiency (177.1). Through Week 8, he also led the conference in passing touchdowns and points responsible for. Through the first eight starts of his career, his numbers rank right alongside the Tide's past three signal-callers in their first eight starts for the Crimson Tide. All three are now starting in the NFL.

MOST PASSING TOUCHDOWNS IN STARTING DEBUT: Bryce Young's four touchdown passes against then-No. 14/16 Miami on Sept. 4 was the most touchdown passes by any Alabama quarterback in their debut as a starter. He passed Mac Jones and Joe Namath, who recorded three touchdown passes in 2019 and 1962, respectively. Moreover, with his four touchdown passes, Young tied Tua Tagovailoa (2019 – vs. Duke) and Bo Wallace (Ole Miss – 2014 vs. Boise State) for the Chick-fil-A Kickoff Game record for most touchdown passes in a game.

ALABAMA IN THE COACHES POLL

The Crimson Tide has enjoyed much success in the coaches' rankings over the past half century. The United Press International debuted the coaches poll in 1950 and ran the poll through the 1990 season. USA TODAY has administered the poll for the past 31 seasons (1991-2021) with the AFCA coming on the title sponsor of the poll at the start of the 2021 season. Alabama was ranked No. 1 in the 2010 preseason coaches poll after starting out the 2009 preseason poll at No. 5. Alabama remained in the top five the entire season, reaching No. 1 after defeating Florida in the SEC Championship and holding the position to claim the national championship after defeating Texas in Pasadena. The Tide then claimed the No. 1 spot to close out the 2011, 2012, 2015, 2017 and 2020 seasons. The Tide has compiled four UPI (1961, 1964, 1973 and 1979) and seven USA TODAY (1992, 2009, 2011, 2012, 2015, 2017 and 2020) coaches poll national titles.

RECORDS ON RECORDS FOR YOUNG: Bryce Young became the only player in Alabama history to record seven touchdown passes in his first two career starts, completing four touchdown passes against then-No. 14/16 Miami on Sept. 4 and three touchdown passes against Mercer on Sept. 11. The sophomore became just the second player in Alabama history to throw 10 touchdown passes through his first three career starts, tacking on three touchdown passes at then-No. 11/9 Florida on Sept. 18 to join Mac Jones. Against Southern Miss on Sept. 25, Young set a school record for the best completion percentage in a single game (minimum of 20 completions), completing 20-of-22 (.909) passes against the Golden Eagles. In that same matchup, he tied for the second-most touchdown passes in a single game in school history with five. Young completed 7-of-7 passing attempts in the first quarter against then-No. 12/12 Ole Miss on Oct. 2, the second straight season a Crimson Tide quarterback completed all passes against the Rebels in the opening frame. Against Tennessee on Oct. 23, Young became the first quarterback in Alabama history to throw for 350-plus yards, while also scoring two touchdowns rushing.

BETTER ON 3RD DOWN: Alabama sophomore quarterback Bryce Young has been fantastic on third down in his first season as the Crimson Tide's starting quarterback. He is completing 74.6 percent of his third down pass attempts (53-71) for 860 yards and eight touchdowns. He has converted first downs on 42 of those 71 third-down tries (59.2 percent). He boasts a passer efficiency rating of 213.58 (NCAA) and 152.32 (NFL) on third down. In all, Young has guided the Alabama offense to the No. 1 third-down conversion percentage in the nation (58.3 percent) after defeating Tennessee on Oct. 23.

94-YARD TOUCHDOWN: Bryce Young's 94-yard touchdown pass to Jameson Williams against then-No. 14/16 Miami on Sept. 4 tied for the second-longest touchdown pass in program history. The Young pass matched Freddie Kitchens' pass to Michael Vaughn against Florida on Dec. 7, 1996, and Mac Jones' connection with Jaylen Waddle against Louisiana on Sept. 29, 2018. The longest touchdown pass in program history is AJ McCarron's throw to Amari Cooper at Auburn on Nov. 30, 2013 (99 yards). Heading into Week 10 against LSU, Young's 94-yard touchdown pass remains the longest in the Southeastern Conference this season.

WILLIAMS, GO LONG: Jameson Williams has been a consistent and explosive threat for the Crimson Tide. He leads the team in receiving yards (710) and receiving touchdowns (6). After his performance against Tennessee on Oct. 23, he ranked 12th nationally, and second in the SEC, in yards per reception (20.29). Williams caught his third reception of at least 75 yards this season with his 75-yard touchdown grab in the third quarter at Mississippi State on Oct. 16. It followed Williams' 94-yard touchdown pass against then-No. 14/16 Miami on Sept. 4 and his 81-yard reception against Southern Miss on Sept. 25. He is the first Alabama receiver since Amari Cooper in 2014 with at least three 70-plus yard receptions in a single season.

B-ROB COMING ON: Alabama senior running back Brian Robinson Jr. has waited patiently for his opportunity to be the Crimson Tide's "RB1" and in his fifth year that is exactly what he has become. Robinson Jr. has 723 yards through seven games (100.9 yards per game/5.0 yards per carry) this season, while recording 11 touchdowns, including three against Tennessee on Oct. 23. Those numbers are even better in conference action, over the last four games and against top 25 teams. He is averaging 115.2 ypg with 10 touchdowns and 4.8 yards per carry in league play, while averaging 124.5 yards per game over the last four contests with nine touchdowns. He has 309 yards and five touchdowns in three games against ranked teams, including a 171-yard performance against then-No. 12/12 Ole Miss. Robinson Jr. has recorded 706 rushing yards this season, totaling 2,067 rushing yards in his career, which ranks 20th on the career rushing yards top 20.

19.	Siran Stacy	1989-91	2,105
20.	BRIAN ROBINSON JR.	2017-Present	2,067

A TRIO FOR MCCLELLAN: Jase McClellan recorded a single-game, career-best three touchdowns in the home opener against Mercer on Sept. 11, scoring in different ways each time (rushing, receiving, blocked punt returned for touchdown). He became the first Alabama player to score three different ways in a single game since Christion Jones did it against Virginia Tech on Aug. 31, 2013 (receiving, punt returned for touchdown, kick returned for touchdown).

DEFENSIVE NOTES

TURNOVERS, TURNOVERS, TURNOVERS: Alabama has forced at least one turnover in 86 of the last 93 contests dating back to the start of the 2015 season. During the current run, Alabama has forced 155 turnovers (102 interceptions, 53 fumbles) and returned 35 of those miscues for touchdowns. The Crimson Tide is tied for 24th nationally and second in the Southeastern Conference in turnovers gained with 13 this season. UA also is tied for 15th nationally in turnover margin at plus .88.

HOLDING OPPONENTS UNDER 200: Arkansas' 188 yards of total offense on Dec. 12, 2020 marked the 53rd time in the last 188 games under Nick Saban (since the start of the 2008 season) that the Crimson Tide defense has held the opposition to fewer than 200 yards of total offense.

Ranking second in shutouts during that time is Ohio State with 14.

TOUGH SLEDDING ON THE GROUND: Alabama's defense has been a force in the run game since head coach Nick Saban's arrival on campus. More recently, the Crimson Tide has given up just 63 rushing scores in the last 93 games, dating to the start of the 2015 season. The Crimson Tide allowed 11 rushing touchdowns in 2018 after allowing only nine rushing touchdowns in 2017. The Tide defense led the nation in 2016 with five rushing touchdowns allowed, one year after giving up just seven rushing scores through 15 games in 2015, the second-lowest total in the country. Since Saban arrived in 2007, the Crimson Tide has allowed 121 rushing touchdowns. Iowa is No. 2 in that category, giving up 160 since 2007, followed by Ohio State at 176, and Utah, who ranks fourth, at 177. TCU (198) rounds out the group at No. 5.

Since that first season in Tuscaloosa, Saban-coached defenses have held the Crimson Tide's opponents to 10 points or less on 95 occasions. Dating back to the start of the 2015 season, UA's defense has limited the opposition to 10 or fewer points 39 times across 93 total contests.

MORE THAN SACKS: Alabama head coach Nick Saban talks more about "affecting the quarterback" than he does sacks, and even though Will Anderson Jr. has nine sacks this season, those sacks are only a small portion of his impact. Anderson Jr. leads the nation in tackles for loss with 17 (-75 yards).

WILL ANDERSON JR. KEEPS GETTING BETTER: Linebacker Will Anderson Jr. ranks first in the nation with 17 tackles for loss (-75 yards) through eight games. He recorded at least one tackle for loss in his first five contests in 2021, while posting a career-high four (-35 yards) at Mississippi State on Oct. 16. Dating back to last season, the sophomore has recorded 26.5 tackles for loss (-123 yards) over his last 15 games and has totaled 1.5-or-more tackles for loss in 10 of those matchups. For perspective, Anderson Jr. began his career with only 4.5 tackles for loss (-25 yards) across his first eight collegiate games. In addition to his 17 tackles for loss (-75 yards) this season, Anderson Jr. is fifth in the nation and first in the SEC in sacks with nine. He made four of those nine sacks at Mississippi State on Oct. 16, becoming the first Alabama player to record as many sacks in a game since 1988 when Derrick Thomas did it and just the third player to record four-or-more sacks in a game in school history.

SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES

UP AND GOOD: Placekicker Will Reichard has made 24 of his last 26 field goals. During that stretch, he recorded a nation-leading 19 straight field-goal makes, a streak that began at South Carolina on Sept. 14, 2019 and ended against Mercer on Sept. 11, 2021. The junior is 10-of-12 on field goals this year, including 4-for-5 from beyond 40 yards.

REICHARD FROM 50-PLUS: Will Reichard connected on a 51-yard field goal in the second quarter against then-No. 14/16 Miami on Sept. 4, helping Alabama to a 20-0 lead. It marked the second-longest field goal in his career, only behind his 52-yard field goal made against then-No. 3/3 Georgia on Oct. 17, 2020. With Reichard's 51-yard field goal in the 2021 season opener, he owns the Crimson Tide's only two 50-or-more yard field goals since Adam Griffith connected from 50 yards against Auburn on Nov. 28, 2015.

SCOOP AND SCORE: Alabama recorded its 84th non-offensive touchdown in the Nick Saban era against Texas A&M on Oct. 9, when King Mwikuta recovered a blocked punt in the Aggies end zone, thanks to Ja'Corey Brooks' block. It marked Mwikuta's first career touchdown and the Crimson Tide's second blocked punt return for a touchdown in 2021. Jase McClellan scored the season's first on a 33-yard blocked punt by linebacker Chris Braswell in the home opener against Mercer on Sept. 11.

TWO FOR NO. 1: Jameson Williams recorded two touchdowns off a pair of kickoff returns against Southern Miss on Sept. 25, marking the first time any Alabama player has ever scored on two kickoff returns in a single game. Williams' first kickoff return for a touchdown, which happened on the game's opening kickoff, went for 100 yards to mark the eighth 100-yard kickoff return in program history. Tyrone Prothro was the latest Crimson Tide player to record a 100-yard kickoff return (at Kentucky on Oct. 9, 2004), while Gary Martin was the last Alabama player to record a 100-yard kickoff return for a touchdown on the opening drive (at Miami on Dec. 7, 1963). Williams' two kickoff returns marked Alabama's 27th and 28th kickoff returns for touchdown in school history. Jaylen Waddle was the last Alabama player to record a kickoff return for a touchdown when he did so at Auburn on Nov. 20, 2019 (98 yards). Williams' couple of scores marked the seventh and eighth kickoff returns for a touchdown under Saban.

SERIES NOTES

THE ALABAMA-LSU SERIES: Alabama and LSU will meet for the 86th time in series history when the two SEC West rivals square off on Saturday night. The Crimson Tide maintains a 54-26-5 (.665) all-time advantage in a series that dates back to the 1895 season. Since 2005, the LSU-Alabama games have been true battles, with eight of those games being decided by seven points or less. During head coach Nick Saban's tenure in Tuscaloosa, seven of the 15 duels between the two teams have been decided by that same narrow margin, with three of those games going into overtime. Alabama went 16-2 (.889) against LSU from 1964-81, including a series-best 11-game winning streak from 1971-81. Alabama snapped a five-game series skid with the 27-21 overtime win in Baton Rouge in 2008 and followed that with a 24-15 win in Tuscaloosa in 2009. In 2011, the Tide fell to the Tigers 9-6 in overtime in the regular-season contest before meeting for the BCS National Championship, where Alabama came out on top, 21-0. Alabama then produced one of the more memorable victories with a come-from-behind 21-17 victory at Tiger Stadium in 2012 as AJ McCarron found T.J. Yeldon on a screen pass for a 28-yard touchdown with 51 seconds remaining in the game. Alabama pulled away in the second half for a convincing 38-17 win in 2013. In 2014, a stunning last-minute drive in the fourth quarter by Blake Sims produced a game-tying field goal to send the 2014 matchup into overtime. The Crimson Tide would secure the win, 20-13, as Sims found DeAndrew White in the corner of the end zone for a six-yard score to push UA ahead for the win in Baton Rouge. In 2015, Derrick Henry rushed for three touchdowns and the Tide defense limited LSU to just 182 yards in a 30-16 Alabama win. During the 2016 matchup, Jalen Hurts engineered two fourth-quarter scoring drives to break open a scoreless tie as No. 1-ranked Alabama downed the 15th-ranked Tigers, 10-0, at Tiger Stadium. Hurts followed that up one year later by leading the Crimson Tide to a 24-10 win at home against the 19th-ranked Tigers. The Tide last traveled to Baton Rouge in 2018, with the Alabama defense suffocating LSU's offense into a 29-0 shutout win. The 2020 matchup was a shootout between No. 1 and No. 2 as the Tigers came out victorious, 46-41, on the way to becoming the eventual national champions. Alabama responded with a 55-17 triumph over LSU in Baton Rouge last season on Dec. 5.

ALABAMA-LSU AT VARIOUS SITES: The Alabama-LSU series has been played at six different sites since the initial meeting in 1895. The city of Baton Rouge has hosted the most games in the series (40), with Alabama posting a 29-9-2 record on the LSU campus. New Orleans is the only other Louisiana city to host the series, with Alabama and LSU playing to a 7-7 tie in New Orleans in 1921 and the Crimson Tide claiming the 2011 national championship inside the Superdome, 21-0, over the Tigers. Four Alabama cities have played host to this rivalry, including Tuscaloosa (13-8), Mobile (1-2-1), Montgomery (2-0) and Birmingham (8-7-1).

ALABAMA-LSU SERIES IS A LONG ONE: The LSU series is tied for the third-longest series in school history. The two teams first met on Nov. 23, 1895, the 15th game in Crimson Tide history, and the 2021 game marks the 86th meeting between the two teams. Only Tennessee (104) and Mississippi State (106) have played Alabama more than LSU. Auburn and LSU have both played the Tide 85 times. The series with the Bayou Bengals is also the fourth-oldest in UA history with a current SEC member, trailing only Auburn (1892), Ole Miss (1894) and Georgia, which played Alabama for the first time on Nov. 2, 1895, three weeks before the Tide's first game with LSU.

UA is also 141-4 (.972) when leading by seven or more points at the break during the Saban era. The Crimson Tide has held the lead in 74 of its last 93 games dating back to the start of the 2015 season.

ALABAMA'S TV RECORD: Alabama's matchup against Tennessee on Oct. 23 was the Tide's 452nd televised game. Alabama has compiled a 311-137-4 (.693) all-time record in televised games (not including pay-per-view, tape-delayed or closed-circuit telecasts).

172 NATIONAL TV APPEARANCES IN 187 GAMES: Alabama's matchup against LSU on Saturday, Nov. 6 will be its 172nd nationally televised game since the start of the 2008 season, including every contest since the start of 2014.

RETURNING SUCCESS: The Alabama Crimson Tide welcomes back 13 starters and 50 lettermen for the 2021 season. On offense, 23 letterwinners and three starters return, while the defense will have 23 lettermen and nine starters back on the field, with one starting specialist returning. On defense, the Tide welcomes back nine starters from a unit that was playing its best football at the end of the year, while adding one impact transfer. Linebacker Christian Harris returns to anchor the middle of the defense with Tennessee transfer Henry To'oTo'o entering the fray at the other middle linebacker position. At outside linebacker, Alabama welcomes back Shaun Alexander National Freshman of the Year Will Anderson Jr. and redshirt senior Christopher Allen. The outside linebacker group will be bolstered by sophomores Chris Braswell and Drew Sanders to mix with some of nation's top recruits at the position. The defensive front will be led by redshirt seniors Phidarian Mathis and LaBryan Ray. Joining them are juniors Byron Young and Justin Eboigbe. The Tide's secondary will be anchored by senior Josh Jobe at cornerback and junior Jordan Battle at safety. The star position features both sophomores Malachi Moore and Brian Branch. DeMarcco Hellams and Daniel Wright bring a wealth of starting experience back to the second safety spot and Marcus Banks leads a contingent at the second cornerback position that includes incoming freshman Kool-Aid McKinstry. The offensive side of the football will feature a mostly new cast for the 2021 season. The Crimson Tide returns only three starters from last year's record-breaking squad – wide receiver John Metchie III and offensive linemen Evan Neal and Emil Ekiyor Jr. Metchie III will take the lead as the Tide's primary wide receiver in 2021 after the departure of four first round NFL Draft picks over the past two seasons at the position. Alabama landed transfer Jameson Williams from Ohio State to bolster the position with a bevy of young talent already in place, including Javon Baker, Traeshon Holden, Thaiu Jones-Bell, Agiye Hall, Ja'Corey Brooks, Christian Leary and JoJo Earle. At running back, Brian Robinson Jr. returns for his fifth year. Trey Sanders, Jase McClellan and Roydell Williams join Robinson Jr. to make up one of the deepest backfields in college football. Bryce Young, Paul Tyson and Jalen Milroe competed all spring for the starting quarterback job. Ekiyor Jr. and Neal return to anchor the offensive front. Jahleel Billingsley, Cameron Latu and Major Tennison return at tight end. Returner Will Reichard was a perfect 98-of-98 on kicks last season, including 14-of-14 on field goals.

NEW HIRES: Saban's 2021 coaching staff features five new faces in Bill O'Brien (offensive coordinator/quarterbacks), Drew Svoboda (special teams coordinator/tight ends), Doug Marrone (offensive line), Robert Gillespie (running backs) and Jay Valai (cornerbacks).

A DOZEN OF YOUR BEST: For the 12 seasons from 2009-20, Alabama won 151 games and lost 15, which is a .910 winning percentage. That's the best success rate across a dozen seasons for any major-college football program since 1900, passing Oklahoma's .909 mark from 1947-58, a span that included the Sooners' record 47-game winning streak.

SIX RINGS IN 12 SEASONS: The Crimson Tide's win in the 2021 College Football Playoff National Championship Game helped Alabama claim its sixth national title in the last 12 seasons, making UA the first team in the Associated Press Poll era (since 1936) to win six championships over a 12-season span. The only other team in college football history to win six titles in a quarter of a century or less was also Alabama, coming across a 19-season stretch from 1961-79.

THREE DECADES OF SABAN: Alabama head coach Nick Saban has claimed six national titles during his time with the Crimson Tide and seven across his collegiate head coaching career. With Alabama's win in the 2021 College Football Playoff National Championship Game, Saban became the first head coach to win an Associated Press/Coaches Poll National Championship in three different decades - the 2000s, the 2010s and the 2020s. Saban's first national championship came in 2003 at LSU, six seasons before he came to Tuscaloosa and captured the crown in 2009. The 2010s saw Saban win national titles in 2011, 2012, 2015 and 2017, while his most recent one came last season on Jan. 11, 2021.

SIGN WITH THE TIDE, LEAVE WITH A RING: Since Nick Saban's arrival at Alabama in 2007, members of each one of his recruiting classes have won at least one national championship. The 2009 class tops the list with three to their name while the 2008, 2010, 2011, 2012, 2014, 2015 and 2017 classes each achieved two national titles during their time in Tuscaloosa. The 2007, 2013, 2016, 2018, 2019 and 2020 classes can each claim one national title with the latter group still having time to add to that number.

TWO UNDEFEATED TITLES: Alabama completed the perfect season, finishing 2020 with a 13-0 record. The 13-0 mark was the Crimson Tide's second undefeated national championship season during the BCS/CFP era, joining the 2009 edition of the Tide that went 14-0. The two undefeated national titles paired UA with Florida State (1999 and 2013) as the only programs to produce multiple undefeated seasons during the BCS/CFP era. Alabama was also the 52nd undefeated national champion during the Associated Press Poll era.

ALABAMA WINS 28th SEC CHAMPIONSHIP: With its 52-46 win over then-No. 7/11/11 Florida in the 2020 Southeastern Conference Championship Game on Dec. 19, Alabama captured its 28th SEC title. The Crimson Tide has won six of the last eight league crowns (2012, 2014, 2015, 2016, 2018, 2020) and is unbeaten in its last seven SEC Championship Game appearances (2009, 2012, 2014, 2015, 2016, 2018, 2020).

MAKING IT TO 13: Alabama's dominant 52-24 win over then-No. 3/3/3 Ohio State in the 2021 College Football Playoff National Championship capped off a perfect 13-0 season for the Crimson Tide. In what proved to be one of the most challenging campaigns in recent memory, UA was able to reach the 13-win milestone for the eighth time in school history. The eight seasons of at least 13 wins are the most by any school in Football Bowl Subdivision records. Alabama finished 14-0 in 2009; 13-1 in 2012 and 2017; 14-1 in 2015, 2016 and 2018; and wrapped up the 2020 campaign at 13-0 to match the 1992 squad.

THE 12-WIN CLUB: With the win against No. 4/4/4 Notre Dame in the College Football Playoff Semifinal at the Rose Bowl on Jan. 1, 2021, Alabama reached the 12-win mark for the 10th time in the last 13 seasons under head coach Nick Saban. The Crimson Tide also reached the 12-win plateau in 2008 (12), 2009 (14), 2011 (12), 2012 (13), 2014 (12), 2015 (14), 2016 (14), 2017 (13), 2018 (14) and 2020. Across those 10 seasons with 12-or-more wins, Alabama has won six Southeastern Conference titles and six national championships, including three College Football Playoff national titles in 2015, 2017 and 2020.

SEC RECORD FOR 10-WIN SEASONS: Alabama extended its record for most consecutive 10-win seasons in SEC history to 13 when it defeated Arkansas on Dec. 12, 2020, in Fayetteville. The Crimson Tide finished the 2020 regular season at a perfect 10-0 mark against an all-SEC schedule, making Alabama the only team in league history to win 10 conference games in a season. It also marked the Crimson Tide's fifth undefeated regular season (excluding conference championship games) under head coach Nick Saban, joining 2008, 2009, 2016 and 2018. In the Tide's previous 10-plus win seasons, UA finished with a 12-2 record in 2008 and 2014; 14-0 in 2009; 10-3 in 2010; 12-1 in 2011; 13-1 in 2012 and 2017; 11-2 in 2013 and 2019; 14-1 in 2015, 2016 and 2018; and a perfect 13-0 in 2020.

SEC WESTERN DIVISION TITLE: Alabama's 55-17 win at LSU on Dec. 5, 2021 clinched the program's 15th SEC Western Division title (13th outright). The Crimson Tide went on to represent the Western Division against SEC Eastern Division champion Florida in the SEC Championship Game on Dec. 19, 2021 at Mercedes-Benz Stadium in Atlanta. The appearance in ATL was Alabama's 13th in the SEC Championship with the Crimson Tide holding a record of 9-4 across that stretch.

TOUGH TO GET SABAN'S TIDE TWICE: During his tenure at Alabama, head coach Nick Saban has suffered 24 total losses. Of those 24 losses, the Crimson Tide and Saban have had the opportunity to face the team that beat them at a later date on 21 occasions. In those 21 rematches, Alabama owns an 19-2 mark when avenging its previous loss. The only two times the Crimson Tide has fallen in back-to-back games against the same opponent is LSU (2010-11) and Ole Miss (2014-15). Alabama has not yet had the opportunity to bounce back from a loss against Clemson (2018), Utah (2009) and Texas A&M (2021). The 2020 season saw Alabama avenge three of its previous losses, first with Auburn. The Crimson Tide fell to the Tigers in 2019 but bounced back with a dominant 41-13 win on Nov. 28, 2020. Alabama then followed that up with an even more impressive win one week later at LSU by a score of 55-17 to pay back the Tigers for a 2019 loss in Bryant-Denny Stadium. The revenge tour wrapped up in the 2021 College Football Playoff National Championship Game as the Crimson Tide was pitted against Ohio State, who defeated UA in the 2014 College Football Playoff Semifinal at the Sugar Bowl. Alabama came out on top this time, cruising past the Buckeyes, 52-24, for the Tide's 18th national championship.

LONGEST TOP-FIVE STREAK: The Crimson Tide's Nov. 24, 2019, ranking at No. 5 in the Associated Press Top 25 marked the 68th consecutive AP poll in which Alabama had been ranked in the top-five. That stretch of top-five rankings was the longest streak in the poll's history, surpassing the previous record of 54 straight weeks set by Miami (Fla.) from Oct. 8, 2000 through Oct. 26, 2003. Alabama's run in the top-five began on Nov. 8, 2015, following a dominant 30-16 victory by the seventh-ranked Tide over then-No. 4 LSU at Bryant-Denny Stadium and concluded in a 45-48 loss at then No. 16 Auburn on Nov. 30, 2019. During that span, the Crimson Tide maintained a 57-5 (.919) record and claimed two national championships to go with three Southeastern Conference titles.

THE 2010s WERE THE TIDE'S DECADE: Alabama won 124 games during the 2010s to lead all NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision teams and tie for college football's all-time mark. Ohio State was second on the wins list during the last decade with 116. Alabama has been the wins leader in two other decades in program history, including the 1960s (85 wins) and 1970s (103 wins). Predating the creation of the NCAA, Penn won 124 games and Harvard won 116 as major college football powers in the 1890s.

SABAN IN HIS FIRST 20-YEARS: Alabama's 45-40 win over Clemson in the 2016 College Football Playoff Championship Game was head coach Nick Saban's 191st victory in his first 20 years as a college head coach. That total is the second-most in FBS history for a coach in the first 20 seasons of his career. Former Nebraska head coach Tom Osborne won 195 games in the opening two decades of his tenure in Lincoln. Long-time Penn State head coach Joe Paterno ranks third with 187. Saban's five national championships in 20 seasons tops both Osborne (none) and Paterno (one).

10-YEAR RUN: Nick Saban entered the 2021 season with a 127-12 (.914) record over his previous 10 seasons in Tuscaloosa (2011-20), which is the best of any major college school over a 10-year span since Bud Wilkinson and Oklahoma in the late 1940s through the late 1950s. UA's 127 wins over that decade are the most for any FBS school during a 10-year span in the Associated Press poll era (since 1936).

ALABAMA vs. NO. 1: Alabama is tied with Miami (Fla.) for the most wins all-time against the Associated Press Poll's No. 1 team since the poll was introduced in 1936. The Crimson Tide has compiled nine wins against the AP's top-ranked team in program history, most recently against No. 1 Clemson in the 2017 College Football Playoff Semifinal at the Allstate Sugar Bowl. Six of those nine wins have come during the Nick Saban era with the first being Alabama's victory over defending national champion Florida in the 2009 SEC Championship Game to send the Crimson Tide to the BCS National Championship Game against Texas. Three of the next four occurred in national title games, including LSU (2011), Notre Dame (2012) and Clemson (2015). The sixth win during the Saban era came when the Crimson Tide took down top-ranked Mississippi State inside Bryant-Denny Stadium on Nov. 15, 2014.

LEADING THE WAY TO THE NFL: Alabama has had more draft picks over the last 13 drafts (106) than any other program in the nation. An impressive 39 of those picks have been first-round selections. The list of 106 features nine Super Bowl champions, 22 Pro Bowl selections, nine First Team All-Pro members and one Offensive Rookie of the Year. The 2021 Draft featured 10 former Alabama standouts that heard their name called across the three-day event. Following the 2021 edition, the Crimson Tide has now had 51 players taken in the last five NFL Drafts, marking five consecutive years that Alabama has had nine or more players drafted.

2021 NFL DRAFT: The Crimson Tide saw 10 former players selected in the 2021 NFL Draft, including six first-round picks in wide receiver Jaylen Waddle (No. 6, Miami Dolphins), defensive back Patrick Surtain II (No. 9 Denver Broncos), wide receiver DeVonta Smith (No. 10, Philadelphia Eagles), quarterback Mac Jones (No. 15, New England Patriots), offensive lineman Alex Leatherwood (No. 17, Las Vegas Raiders) and running back Najee Harris (No. 24, Pittsburgh Steelers). Offensive lineman Landon Dickerson (No. 37, Philadelphia Eagles) and defensive lineman Christian Barmore (No. 38, New England Patriots) followed in round two. Offensive lineman Deonte Brown was selected as the 193rd overall pick, while long snapper Thomas Fletcher was selected as the 222nd overall pick, both going in the sixth round to the Carolina Panthers. Alabama has now had at least nine players selected in five consecutive drafts and has produced multiple first-round picks in 10 of the last 13 NFL Drafts with single first-round selections in 2009, 2015 and 2016.

SABAN AND FIRST ROUND NFL DRAFT PICKS: Since the advent of the NFL Draft, Alabama head coach Nick Saban has produced the most first rounders of any NCAA Division I head coach with 44 players chosen in the opening round of the draft, including 39 while at Alabama. The Crimson Tide's six first-round selections in the 2021 NFL Draft extended Saban's all-time mark, producing 11 more first-rounders than second-place Joe Paterno (33). After the 2021 NFL Draft, Alabama became the first school in the modern draft era to have four wide receivers drafted in the first round in a two-year span (2020 – Henry Ruggs III, Jerry Jeudy; 2021 – DeVonta Smith, Jaylen Waddle) and one of just two schools (Oklahoma) to have quarterbacks selected in the first round in back-to-back years (2020 – Tua Tagovailoa; 2021 – Mac Jones). With the first-round selection of Tagovailoa in the 2020 NFL Draft, Saban has produced at least one first-rounder at every starting position on offense and defense during his illustrious collegiate head coaching career.

OFF-THE-FIELD NOTES

ALABAMA DEGREES: Alabama's success on the field over the past 14 seasons under Nick Saban has coincided with the Tide's success in the classroom. The 2021 squad is no exception as Alabama enters the season with 11 players who already have degrees in hand. The list of 11 includes: Christopher Allen, Slade Bolden, Tommy Brown, Phidarian Mathis, Chris Owens, Kendall Randolph, LaBryan Ray, Brian Robinson Jr., Major Tension, Daniel Wright and Stephon Wynn Jr. In fact, Owens earned his bachelor's and master's degrees prior to the start of last season. Since 2013, Alabama has seen 208 degrees earned (graduate and undergraduate) by players who were still suiting up for the Crimson Tide after having graduated. Since the 2010 season, Alabama has seen an impressive 27 players earn a master's degree before stepping foot on the field for the final time.

GRADUATING WITH THE BEST: The Alabama football team has not only been dominant on the field, but also in the classroom. The Crimson Tide posted a program record of 990 in the latest Academic Progress Rate (APR) figures released by the NCAA, which bettered the national average for Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) teams by 22 points and earning public recognition from the NCAA for their APR score figuring in the top-10 percentile nationally among all football teams. The Tide also moved up to an 85 in the most recent Graduation Success Rate (GSR) figures. Alabama's 85 ranked third amongst Southeastern Conference football programs, marking the 11th year in a row that the Tide football squad has ranked in the top four in the SEC by GSR.

ACADEMIC PROWESS: The Tide has been a model of success on the football field, but the team has generated plenty of accolades in the classroom as well. Below are some of the academic highlights under Nick Saban.

- Mac Jones was indicative of Alabama's athletic and academic success in 2020-21. The quarterback of Alabama's 2020 CFP National and SEC Championship squad and a first-round pick by the New England Patriots, he was named the CoSIDA Academic All-American of the Year, an honor that recognizes the top scholar-athlete in all of NCAA Division I regardless of sport or gender.
- Jones is the fourth Crimson Tide student-athlete to earn the prestigious accolade, giving Alabama the most honorees in the award's history, joining Brooke Pancake (women's golf/2012), Barrett Jones (football/2013) and Kim Jacob (gymnastics/2014).
- Mac Jones and Landon Dickerson both earned First Team Football Academic All-America honor following the 2020 season.
- Following Mac Jones and Landon Dickerson in 2020, a total of 25 Alabama football players have now earned Academic All-America recognition 30 times with Barrett Jones, Johnny Musson and Randy Hall all earning multiple honors
- A total of 11 UA players will took the field with their degrees in hand for the season opener against.
- The Tide's continual success on the football field over the past dozen years has coincided with its success in the classroom. The Tide's last six national title teams (2009, 2011, 2012, 2015, 2017, 2020) included 139 players who had earned their degrees prior to game time.
- The 2020 squad was no exception as Alabama led the nation in terms of graduates on its roster with 25 entering bowl season. The Tide also led the nation in graduates on its roster during postseason play in 2015 (29), 2014 (22) and 2013 (28).

- Including Mac Jones following the 2020 season, Alabama student-athletes have been voted the SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year for their respective sports a conference-record 62 times spanning 13 different teams since the honor's inception in 2003, tallying more than a dozen better than the next closest school. That total includes a league-record eight honorees last academic year.

CRIMSON TIDE IN THE COMMUNITY: Alabama football continues give back to Tuscaloosa and the surrounding areas in terms of community service projects, including taking part in 18 Habitat for Humanity builds (one for each Alabama football national championship) as part of Habitat's partnership with the Nick's Kids Foundation. Additionally, team members volunteer their time across numerous activities, including in schools, hospitals, local food banks, retirement homes and on campus.

ALABAMA ATHLETICS AS A WHOLE: The University of Alabama has built a total program, winning championships on the field while bringing home numerous academic accolades in the classroom.

- Since 2008, Crimson Tide athletics teams have won 12 national championships in five different sports and 31 SEC championships in nine different sports. Overall, Tuscaloosa is home to 28 national and 112 SEC team titles in its program's history.
- In addition to team championships, Alabama student-athletes have won a total of 107 individual titles in nine different sports.
- Academically, UA's more than 600 student-athletes averaged over a 3.3 grade point average during 2020-21. All 17 programs earned better than a 2.8 GPA with 15 earning better than a 3.0. A total of 10 Tide teams earned over a 3.5 GPA for the year, marking the 11th year in a row that at least five teams have met that standard.
- As impressive as those numbers are, perhaps nowhere has Alabama Athletics' continued academic prowess been on better display as when it comes to the CoSIDA Academic All-America program. The Tide was once again among the national leaders when it comes to Academic All-Americans, totaling a school-record 18 during the 2020-21 academic year. That total makes Alabama the only school to earn double-digit honors the last eight years in a row.
- With its 2020-21 tally, Alabama has earned Academic All-America honors 174 times since 2000 and 96 times over the past eight years. Overall, Alabama leads the Southeastern Conference with a total of 210 Academic All-American honors and is ranked fifth all-time among NCAA Division I schools after breaking into the exclusive 200-plus club this past year.
- The Crimson Tide also added to its list of CoSIDA Academic All-Americans of the Year in 2020-21, when Mac Jones was recognized as the premiere scholar-athlete regardless of sport or gender. Jones' honors are the fourth for Alabama, giving the Tide the most in the award's history.
- On the conference level, Tide student-athletes have been voted SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year for their respective sports a league-record 62 times since the honor's inception in 2003, tallying more than a dozen better than the next closest school over that span. Alabama's total includes a single-season, conference-record eight honors during the 2019-20 academic year.

TOTAL:	[283-83-1, .773] 278-83-1 (.769)

• Saban has compiled a 268-66-1 (.802) record as a college head coach. He has seven national championships – six at Alabama – 10 conference championships and 21 of his teams have played in postseason bowl games, including a trip to the BCS National Championship Game following the 2003, 2009, 2011 and 2012 seasons and the College Football Playoff Semifinals in six of the last seven seasons including five of the last six CFP National Championship Games.

• Saban is the only coach to win four BCS national championships, the only coach to win back-to-back BCS national championships and the only coach to win three CFP National Championships. He has won seven titles in his last 16 years coaching college football, most recently capturing the CFP National Championship following the 2020 season. Saban is one of three college coaches in the poll era (since 1936) to win three national championships in four years (2009, 2011-12). His title in 2020 moved him past Paul “Bear” Bryant for the most national championships in the poll era with seven.

• In 2009, Saban produced Alabama’s first national championship in 17 years by guiding the Crimson Tide to a 14-0 season with dominant wins over Florida in the SEC championship and Texas in the Citi BCS National Championship Game. He then followed that up with his second BCS championship in three years with a 21-0 shutout of LSU following the 2011 season at the Allstate BCS National Championship Game. Saban made it back-to-back BCS national championships in 2012 with a 42-14 win over Notre Dame in the Discover BCS National Championship Game. He took down Clemson, 45-40, to capture title No. 5 following the 2015 season in the CFP National Championship Game and took home his sixth national championship - and fifth at Alabama - in 2017 with a 26-23 overtime win over Georgia in the 2018 CFP National Championship Game. Saban’s most recent title came in dominating fashion as the Crimson Tide defeated Ohio State, 52-24, in the 2021 CFP National Championship Game in Miami Gardens, Fla.

• In addition to the on-field success, the 2011 team was also recognized with the Disney Spirit Award, which was presented to snapper Carson Tinker, for the team’s response to the community following the tornado that devastated Tuscaloosa on April 27, 2011. The Tide also had extensive success in the classroom that year with 38 SEC Academic Honor Roll selections, a league record, and produced an Academic All-American in Barrett Jones.

• A five-season run at LSU (2000-04) produced a record of 48-16 (.750), one national championship (2003), two Southeastern Conference championships and three SEC West Division championships. The Tigers constructed a 28-12 (.700) record against SEC opponents under Saban’s guidance. He was named the 2003 National Coach of the Year by the Associated Press and earned both the Paul W. “Bear” Bryant National Coach of the Year Award and the Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award by the Football Writers Association of America.

• Saban served as head coach at Michigan State from 1995-99, his second stint at the East Lansing school as he also spent 1983-87 as the Spartans’ defensive coordinator/secondary coach. Saban led MSU to a 34-24-1 (.585) record as head coach, including four postseason appearances. In 1999, Saban led his final Spartans team to a No. 7 national ranking as MSU finished in a tie for second in the Big Ten. The Spartans defeated Notre Dame, Michigan, Ohio State and Penn State in the same year for the first time since 1965 and recorded six wins at home for the first time since the 1912 season.

• Saban’s first head coaching position came at the University of Toledo in 1990, as he guided the Rockets to a record of 9-2 that year, finishing as co-champions of the Mid-American Conference. The Rockets ranked among the NCAA leaders in both total defense (12th at 284.8 yards) and scoring defense (16th at 16.2 points) and missed posting an undefeated record by a mere five points.

• A native of Fairmont, W.Va., Saban is a 1973 graduate of Kent State University where he earned a bachelor’s degree in business. He earned a master’s degree in sports administration from Kent State in 1975. Born October 31, 1951, Saban and his wife, the former Terry Constable, have two children, Nicholas and Kristen. They have one granddaughter, Amélie, and one grandson, James.

• At Michigan State, the Sabans started the Nick’s Kids Foundation, which is dedicated to raising awareness for deserving organizations throughout the state of Alabama and the southeast. Thanks to the generosity of the donors and the efforts of Nick and Terry Saban, the Nick’s Kids Foundation has donated over $10 million dollars to many deserving organizations and causes since arriving in Tuscaloosa.

• Personally, Nick and Terry have given over $1 million dollars to their First Generation Scholarship at The University of Alabama and have pledged $1 million dollars to The Crimson Standard Initiative. They have also made major contributions to their church, St. Francis Catholic Church, to build the Saban Catholic Student Center that was completed in August of 2016. Their most recent project is the Saban Center.

2021 RECAPS AND BOX SCORES

1/1	ALABAMA (1-0)	44
14/16	MIAMI (1-0)	13

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 4 • MERCEDES-BENZ STADIUM • ATLANTA, GA.
ATTENDANCE: 71,829 • TV: ABC

ATLANTA – The top-ranked Alabama football team scored on its first five possessions en route to a 44-13 decision over No. 14/16 Miami in the 2021 Chick-fil-A Kickoff Game on Saturday afternoon in Mercedes-Benz Stadium. With the win, the Crimson Tide claimed victory in its 15th straight season opener under head coach Nick Saban.

On offense, quarterback Bryce Young went 27-of-38 for 344 yards and four touchdowns in his first start for Alabama. The four touchdown passes set a new Alabama record for passing scores by a Tide quarterback in his starting debut, passing the previous record of three set by Joe Namath and Mac Jones. Two of his touchdowns went to Cameron Latu, while John Metchie III and Jameson Williams accounted for one each. Williams finished the game with four catches for a team-high 126 yards. On the ground, Brian Robinson Jr. carried 12 times for 60 yards, while Trey Sanders added another 41 yards on eight carries, one of which went for a touchdown.

Defensively, Will Anderson Jr. led the way with nine tackles, including one sack. Christopher Allen forced a first-half fumble, which was recovered by Phidarian Mathis, while Malachi Moore and Jaylen Moody each grabbed interceptions in the contest as the Tide forced three turnovers on the day.

Placekicker Will Reichard extended his streak of made field goals to 18 with successful attempts from 38, 51 and 40 yards out. He also tacked on five made extra points in as many chances.
