On The Break

Celebrating The Small Things

- Coach Mulkey has placed an emphasis on celebrating the small things as she looks to build LSU Women's Basketball
- One example that Coach Mulkey has used is improving on last season's win total. The Tigers won nine games last year.
- "I'm going to celebrate little things. I'm going to celebrate when we win 10 ball games because that's one more than the team previously won. I'm going to celebrate when we win enough and we don't have a losing season. I'm going to celebrate when we beat that first ranked opponent. You must celebrate those things because, what happens is, when you build a program, those things tend to be taken for granted." - Coach Mulkey

Respect The Past. Embrace The Future.

- In her first season leading the Tigers, Coach Mulkey is using the phrase, "Respect the past. Embrace the future."
- Coach Mulkey has brought new life to the program's alumni who are all excited about what the future of the program looks like under Coach Mulkey.
- Multiple former Tigers, including the Washington Mystics' Theresa Plaisance, attended Wednesday's practice. Other former players that were at practice included Shanece McKinney, Quianna Chaney, Rakell Spencer, Ayana Mitchell, Bonita Johnson, Lisa Brewer and Cornelia Gayden.
- Former Tiger Marie Ferdinand spoke to the team at a practice where she challenged every player on the team to be a great teammate.
- Elaine Powell. LSU's first player to be drafted to the WNBA, returned to the PMAC when LSU hosted Langston for an exhibition game. Powell is Langston's head coach.
- Coach Mulkey and her staff have sent out custom LSU Women's Basketball boxes filled with team apparel to former players around the country.

Senior Leadership

- Faustine Aifuwa, Jailin Cherry and Khayla Pointer are all back to use their additional year of eligibility and have provided great leadership under Coach Mulkey.
- Pointer was named to the Preseason All-SEC Team by both the league's coaches and media
- With 188 blocks in her career, Aifuwa is No. 2 on LSU's all-time blocks list. Only Sylvia Fowles (321) has more career blocks in a LSU uniform. Aifuwa has had three seven-block games.
- Pointer is No. 21 on LSU's all-time scoring list with 1,306 points in 110 games.
- The experience the three of them bring into the 2021-22 season together includes 320 games played, 207 starts and 2,719 points
- It is Coach Mulkey's goal for all three of them to have their best season of their LSU careers.

Receiving Votes Polls

- When the Preseason AP Poll was released on October 19, the Tigers were receiving votes. LSU is also receiving votes in the Coaches' Poll released last week
- LSU received enough votes to be considered the No. 31 team in the rankings
- The last time LSU was inside the AP Top-25 it was ranked No. 25 on December 2, 2019. November 4, 2014 is the last time LSU was inside the Coaches Top-25.

Kim Mulkey Is Home

After three national championships as a head coach, two as a player, and one as an assistant coach, Kim Mulkey is home.

Mulkey, the most successful player-turned-coach in college basketball history, has been named head coach of the LSU women's basketball team, Director of Athletics Scott Woodward announced on Sunday, April 25, 2021.

A native of Tickfaw, La., Mulkey comes to Baton Rouge as the most accomplished head coaching hire in LSU history. She returns to Louisiana as a six-time national champion and nine-time Hall of Famer who is set for induction into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in May.

Mulkey, who also won an Olympic Gold Medal in 1984, is the only person in college basketball history – men's or women's – to win national championships as a head coach, assistant coach and a player. She's one of just three coaches (Bobby Knight and Dean Smith) in college basketball history to win national titles as a player and a coach.

In taking over for the Tigers, Mulkey becomes the eighth head coach in LSU women's basketball history. Mulkey, who became the fastest coach in Division I history to reach 600 wins (needing only 700 games) in 2020, brings an overall head coaching mark of 632-104 to LSU. Her 600 wins in 700 games bettered the previous mark held by Adolph Rupp of Kentucky, who needed 704 games.

In 21 years as the head coach at Baylor, Mulkey led the Lady Bears to four Final Fours, winning three national titles. Her teams reached the Elite Eight six times and the Sweet 16 on five other occasions. In all, she led Baylor to an NCAA Tournament appearance 19 times in 20 years. She led Baylor to the Women's NIT championship game in her third year in Waco.

In conference play, Mulkey guided Baylor to a combined 23 Big 12 regular-season and tournament titles.

A member of the 2020 Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame Class, Mulkey built Baylor into a national power, as they became just the third program in NCAA history to have at least three national titles to its credit when the Lady Bears beat Notre Dame, 82-81, on April 7, 2019. Mulkey's other national championships at Baylor came in 2005 and 2012. Baylor's NCAA title in 2005 was the first for a women's sport in school history, and in 2012, she directed her team to the first 40-0 mark in NCAA history, capped off by a victory over Notre Dame in the championship game.

Mulkey has been named National Coach of the Year eight times from various entities, and she was selected as the Big 12 Coach of the Year eight times. She's taken home the New York Athletic Club's Winged Foot Award after each national championship as a head coach.

Individually, Mulkey has developed and produced some of the top players in women's basketball history. At Baylor, she coached 19 different All-Americans to 85 honors by various entities, and eight players under her watch earned first-team All-America status by either the Associated Press, USBWA, WBCA or John Wooden selections.
