Now, we get to go get on the podium, which is great any time that we can do it before the postseason. Getting that experience is important as we get further down the line. # JAY CLARK

HEAD COACH • 5th Season

In only his fourth season as head coach, Jay Clark and the LSU Tigers made history in 2024 as the first team to bring a national championship home to Baton Rouge. The Tigers claimed their first national title on April 20, 2024 with their score of 198.225 in the NCAA Championship Finals to defeat California (197.850), Utah (197.800) and Florida (197.4375).

With the win, LSU became just the eighth program in NCAA history to win the women's gymnastics championship, thanks to the leadership of Clark, who owns over 30 years of experience in college gymnastics.

A native of Roswell, Georgia, Clark was tabbed as the third head coach in program history in August 2021 following the retirement of former coach D-D Breaux. A 33-year veteran of the sport, he continues to lead the LSU Gymnastics program to new heights. He enters his fifth season as the head coach and 14th season overall at LSU in 2025. This past season, he and the Tigers marked multiple milestones, including a program record score (198.475), the program's highest National Qualifying Score (NQS) (198.215), and their second consecutive Final Four appearance under his tenure. Earlier this year, Clark was named the SEC Co-Head Coach of the Year after winning the program's fifth SEC Championship and the Region One Head Coach of the Year after winning the Fayetteville Regional and bringing home the program's 14th NCAA regional title. He was also named the Top Collegiate Coach in Louisiana by Allstate Sugar Bowl, but his accolades don't end there. Clark owns multiple Central Region coaching honors, including National Assistant Coach of the Year in 2006, 2014, 2016 and 2017. He is also a member of the USA Gymnastics Region Eight Hall of Fame.

In 2024, the program saw record attendance numbers thanks to Clark's efforts. The Tigers earned an undefeated home record and welcomed three sold-out crowds, the most in a single season in program history. To top it off, LSU finished the regular season No. 1 in attendance nationally, averaging over 12,500 fans per meet and marking the highest average in school history. A total of over 75,000 Tiger fans showed out to the PMAC across six home meets in 2024.

Clark has seen much success in his career, both in the gym and on the recruiting trail. As the Tigers' associate head coach for eight seasons and co-head coach for one, Clark's leadership and expertise has helped bring unprecedented success on the recruiting trail and in the gym for LSU. In her senior season, he coached one of the most decorated gymnasts in LSU Gymnastics history in Haleigh Bryant, who was the 2024 SEC Gymnast of the Year, NCAA All-Around Champion, AAI Award Winner and Honda Sport Award Winner. He's regarded as one of the best recruiters in the sport, as highlighted by ESPN and ESPN The Magazine when he was named the ninth-best recruiter in college athletics in 2011.

As a coach, LSU has earned some of their best performances in school history since Clark's arrival, including eight appearances in the NCAA Championship Finals, numerous school records, 10 NCAA individual national champions, and four SEC Championships. Under his leadership, he led the Tigers to their first Final Four appearance under his tenure in 2023 before becoming the first gymnastics coach to bring home a national title.

His work with the Fighting Tigers of LSU has not gone unnoticed. Clark has been named the Central Region Co-Assistant Coach of the Year along with former LSU assistant Bob Moore five times.

Clark also earned the 2014 and 2017 National Co-Assistant Coach of the Year award with Moore. It marked the third time in his distinguished coaching career he has garnered the nation's top award. He was inducted into the USA Gymnastics Region 8 Hall of Fame in 2018.

In the gym, Clark is viewed as the top bars coach in collegiate gymnastics history. Under his supervision, LSU has seen 42 All-America honors on bars, four of the five highest bars team scores in school history and the top two bars champions in LSU history. LSU's bars lineup has finished in the top-10 in the nation 11 times, including the No. 1 team in 2018.

Clark tutored Sarah Finnegan, who ended her career in April 2019 as one of the greatest gymnasts in LSU history. Finnegan became the first NCAA bars champion in school history in 2017 and earned the title once again in 2019. Finnegan and Lexie Priessman won SEC bars champions in 2019 and 2017 respectively, scored perfect scores in 2019 and led the squad that finished fourth in the nation.

The 2018 season on bars under Clark marked the best lineup in LSU history and one of the best in the history of the NCAA. The group posted a school record score of 49.725 and once again went on to break the record against Arizona with a 49.750 for the second-highest in all of NCAA Gymnastics since 1988. The lineup, anchored by Finnegan, led the nation on bars for the first time in school history. Finnegan became the first gymnast in school history to finish the season ranked No. 1 on the event and joined Sharene Mamby (2001) and Syreeta Barnett (1997) as the only gymnasts at LSU to score a perfect 10.0 on the event.

In 2017, Clark coached Finnegan to the first NCAA Uneven Bars Championship in school history. Clark set the record for the most individual national champions on the event in NCAA gymnastics history.

The Tigers have posted a Top-10 national ranking on Clark's event for the last 11 consecutive years, including a seven year stretch in the top-5 from 2014-2020, and No. 1 finish in 2018.

In his first season with the Tigers, Clark coached Morrison and Wyrick to First-Team All-America honors on bars, and it marked the first season LSU produced at least two All-Americans on bars since 2010.

Before Clark joined LSU after he spent 20 seasons at the University of Georgia where he helped guide the Gym Dogs to seven NCAA National Titles and 14 Southeastern Conference Championships.

Clark primarily coached bars at Georgia, and he coached the Gym Dogs to 64 All-America honors and seven NCAA individual national titles on bars, including two-time champions Courtney Kupets and Kat Ding.

From 2009-12, Clark served as the head coach at Georgia, and during that time the Gym Dogs captured three NCAA individual national championships, won the 2012 NCAA Auburn Regional, and produced 23 All-America honors. In 2012, his Georgia team won the Bulldog Cup, which recognizes the UGA team that excels academically, supports their peers in athletics and consistently serves the community.

Prior to his stint as head coach, Clark was the recruiting coordinator at Georgia from 1999-2009 while serving as assistant coach from 1999-2004 and associate head coach from 2005-09 when Georgia won an NCAA record five-straight national titles.

Clark also coached at the club level for 13 years from 1992-2005 as the founder, owner and head coach of Classic City Gymnastics in Athens, Georgia. He coached several Classic City gymnasts to state, regional, national championships and to the Junior Olympic National Team, and eight gymnasts went on to compete collegiately at the NCAA Division I level.

A native of Roswell, Georgia, Clark earned his undergraduate degree in exercise science from Georgia.

Clark has two children – a son, Cole, and a daughter, Kinsey.

Finnegan and Chio Win Week One SEC Gymnastics Awards

- Senior Aleah Finnegan and freshman Kailin Chio took home two out of three of the week one SEC Gymnastics Awards.
- Finnegan was named the SEC Gymnast of the Week while Chio was named the SEC Freshman of the Week for their performances in the all-around in the Tigers season opener last Friday.
- A native of Lee's Summit, Missouri, Finnegan scored a 39.725 in her first all-around appearance since March 15th, 2024, marking the highest all-around score by an LSU Gymnast on opening night. She posted scores of 9.950 on vault, 9.900 on bars, 9.925 on beam and 9.950 on floor to win the titles on all four events and the all-around on the night.
- It was the first time an LSU Gymnast swept every event title since Haleigh Bryant in the Podium Challenge on March 8th last season. Finnegan shared the bars and beam titles with Chio, who claimed the first event victories of her young career.
- Chio was the first LSU freshman to compete in the all-around since Kiya Johnson in 2020 and recorded the school's highest all-around debut score by a freshman with her 39.575. A native of Henderson, Nevada, the freshman posted scores of 9.825 on vault, 9.900 on bars, 9.925 on beam and 9.925 on floor in her collegiate debut.
- They both enter week two ranked amongst the top gymnasts in the nation following their performances on Friday night. Finnegan is ranked first on vault, seventh on bars, fourth on beam, first on floor and first in the all-around while Chio ranks seventh on bars, fourth on beam, second on floor and fourth in the all-around.
