TRACKING THE TIGERS

LSU is the No. 11 seed in the 2025 Allstate SEC Volleyball Tournament. The potential path ahead for the Tigers will be against No. 14 Ole Miss, No. 6 Missouri and No. 3 Texas.

LSU is 60-24 all-time against Ole Miss, including a five-set win earlier this month. The Tigers are 4-0 all-time against the Rebels in the SEC Tournament.

Head coach Tonya Johnson is in her fourth season leading the program and has tallied two winning seasons, including the 2022 team that went to the NCAA Tournament. Johnson is the sixth head coach for the LSU Tigers volleyball program.

Johnson played for the Tigers from 1987-90 and helped the program reach its first Final Four Appearance in 1990. She was also an assistant coach under predecessor and AVCA Hall of Fame coach Fran Flory.

Coach Johnson won an SEC Tournament title in 1990, and Associate Head Coach Jill [Lytle] Wilson was part of the 2000 team, which is the last team to reach the SEC Tournament Final.

The SEC Volleyball Tournament will return for the first time since 2005. On Nov. 21-25, 2025, all 16 teams will compete in Savannah, Ga., for an automatic bid to the 2025 NCAA Tournament.

The SEC has four teams in the latest AVCA Top 25 rankings, including three in the Top 10.

LSU will return 11 student-athletes from the 2024 roster (one redshirt freshman) and will have eight newcomers, highlighted by four transfers.

Outside hitter Jurnee Robinson has been selected to the 2025 All-SEC First Team, marking her second consecutive first-team appearance.

Robinson, a two-time AVCA All-Region honoree and three-time All-SEC selection, became the 24th LSU Tiger to reach 1,000 career kills and the 12th to do so in the rally scoring era versus No. 19 USC (Sept. 18). Robinson leads the SEC with with 5.41 points per set, 546.5 total points, 4.90 kills per set and 495 total kills.

Outside hitter Nia Washington averages 3.84 points and 3.40 kills per set this season. She has recorded 29 blocks and a team-high 24 aces this season. She is 50 kills shy of reaching 1,000 career kills.

Washington is coming off a breakout season at Ole Miss, where she was named to the 2024 AVCA All-American Honorable Mention Team and the 2024 All-SEC First Team selection.

Middle blocker Jessica Jones has been consistent for the Tigers. She leads the team with 1.05 blocks per set (106 total blocks) and a .320 hitting percentage behind 149 kills. Middle blocker Angelina Lee is second on the team with 0.82 blocks per set (75 total) and adds 128 kills.

Setter Lauren Brooker leads the club with 6.33 assists per set (627 total) and reached 1,000 career assists at Missouri (Oct. 19).

Brooker has four matches with 40 or more assists, including three in the last four matches. Brooker logged a career-high 56 assists against Ole Miss (Nov. 2).

Freshman setter Takyla Brown is coming off a season-high 35 assists and two blocks, and averages 4.70 assists per set (395 total) with four double-doubles this season.

DS/libero Aly Kirkhoff's 191 digs (2.17/set) leads the position group. Kirkhoff has recorded double-digit digs in five consecutive matches, including a season-high 20 digs at Georgia (Nov. 12), and turned in her first career double-double with 15 digs and 11 assists versus Auburn (Nov. 14).

AVCA, RPI AND SOS RANKINGS

The SEC has four teams ranked in the latest AVCA Top 25 poll, including three teams in the Top 10: No. 2 Kentucky, No. 3 Texas, No. 6 Texas A&M and No. 18 Tennessee.

LSU, who received votes in three consecutive weeks in the AVCA poll earlier this season, has a No. 79 RPI ranking and has the No. 52 toughest schedule in the nation.

TALK TOURNEY TO ME

LSU is the No. 11 seed in the 2025 Allstate SEC Volleyball Tournament, which will be held at Enmarket Arena in Savannah, Ga., on Nov. 21-25.

LSU has four SEC Tournament Championship titles (1986, 1989, 1990, 1991) and has an overall record standing at 27-29.

The Tigers are looking to snap a six-match losing streak in the SEC Tournament dating back to 2000. LSU made its last finals appearance in 2000 and are 4-4 in the SEC Tournament Championship match. LSU is tied with Arkansas and Tennessee for the second-most finals appearance in the conference history. Florida leads with 16 appearances.

MORE CHANGES TO THE SEC

A year after adding Oklahoma and Texas to the league, the SEC welcomed Vanderbilt in 2025, pushing the league to 16 teams.

Also, 2025 will see the return of the SEC Volleyball Tournament for the first time since 2005. The championship event will be held at Enmarket Arena in Savannah, Ga. from 2025-2027. All conference teams will participate in the tournament.

THE SERIES

LSU 60-24 all-time against Ole Miss, including a thrilling five-set victory earlier this month in Baton Rouge. The win snapped a three-match losing streak for the Tigers against the Rebels. The two clubs have went five sets in seven of the last 11 matches played. LSU has a 7-3 record against Ole Miss in neutral site locations, including a 4-0 mark in the SEC Tournament.

STATE OF THE PROGRAM

LSU enters the SEC Tournament on a bit of a heater, winning three of its last four matches. LSU got over the hump earlier this season, picking up its first win over a nationally ranked program since 2022 when it defeated No. 23 Florida on Oct. 5.

TOP TRENDS

Heading into the tournament, LSU has some interesting trends. LSU is 6-2 in five-set matches this season and has won four consecutive five setters. The Fighting Tigers are also 7-1 when hitting .250 or better, and 8-3 when they win the first set.

COMING TO SEE THE TIGERS

The trend continues as 2,632 and 2,114 fans filed into the PMAC to watch LSU take on No. 2 Texas and No. 9 Texas A&M, ranking No. 3 and No. 10 on the all-time attendance list, respectively.

Including the two matches above, LSU has four attendance marks this season alone that have joined the programs Top 10 list. LSU had 2,404 fans at the match versus No. 20 Tennessee (Oct. 3; No. 4), and 2,118 fans against No. 23 Florida (Oct. 5, No. 9). Marks of 2,073 against Southeastern La. (Sept.14) and 2,072 fans in the season opener versus No. 10 SMU (Aug. 29) were figures this season that spent some time in the Top 10.

LSU set an attendance record against No. 8 Texas on Sept. 29, 2024, when 3,885 fans came out to the PMAC, representing the largest crowd in the state of Louisiana for a collegiate volleyball match.

Since the current regime has arrived in Baton Rouge in 2022, attendance has tripled and the program has eight top 10 crowds in that time span, all coming over the past two season.

LAST TIME OUT

LSU concluded the final weekend of the regular season with a split. After falling in four sets at Georgia (Nov. 12), the Fighting Tigers rallied from a 2-1 deficit to knock off Auburn in five sets (Nov. 14).

Jurnee Robinson turned in back-to-back 20-kill performances, averaging 5.33 kills per set (48 total kills) and added five blocks,, two aces and 19 digs. Nia Washington followed with 4.00 kills per set (36 total kills) and had two aces, two blocks and 17 digs.

Setters Takyla Brown and Lauren Brooker had a solid weekend, directing the offense to 8.75 and 8.50 assists per set, respectively, and libero Aly Kirkhoff continued her hot streak in leading the back row with 3.89 digs per set (35 total digs). Middle blocker Angelina Lee led LSU at the net with 1.33 blocks per set behind 12 total blocks, including three solo blocks.

TIGER TOUGH

LSU ranks No. 10 in the SEC with 2.21 blocks per set behind 223 total blocks and has nine matches this season with double-digit blocks, including a season-high 17 blocks twice.

This season LSU averages 13.36 digs per set to help hold opposing teams to a .220 hitting percentage (No. 10 in the SEC). LSU has held opponents under a .200 hitting percentage nine times this year.

The Tigers recorded a season-high in digs for the second time in the last four matches. Against Auburn, LSU had 84 digs with five players recording 10 or more digs. That has not been done since Oct. 30, 2022.

TIGERS ON THE PROWL

The Bayou Bengals are hitting .218 on the season and enters the weekend averaging 12.89 kills and 12.16 assists per set, ranking No. 10 and No. 9 in the SEC, respectively. LSU ranks No. 2 in the conference with 1,302 total kills, 1,228 total assists and 1,349 total digs.

LSU has 96 aces this season, and has registered eight matches with five or more aces this season, including a season-best 11 aces at Vanderbilt (Oct. 17).

ALL-SEC HONORS

Outside hitter Jurnee Robinson has been selected to the 2025 All-SEC First Team, marking the second consecutive season she has been honored to the first team. She is the fourth to garner multiple All-SEC First Team selections and the first since Brittnee Cooper in 2008-2009.

Pin hitter AC Froehlich received her first SEC postseason award by being named to the 2025 SEC Volleyball Community Service Team.

EMBRACING THE JURNEE

Robinson's report card is impressive. Last season, Robinson set program single-season rally scoring era records with 5.49 points and 4.92 kills per set. This season, she is 13 kills shy of setting the single-season record in total kills in the rally scoring era.

JFR (JURNEE FREAKIN' ROBINSON)

Robinson, who was placed on the 2025 AVCA Division I Player of the Year Watchlist, leads the SEC with 546.5 total points, 5.41 points per set, 495 kills and 4.90 kills per set. Robinson ranks No. 5 in the nation in total kills, No. 8 in kills per set, No. 9 points per set and No. 10 in total points.

Robinson has turned in 12 double-doubles this season and leads the team with 2.61 digs per set (264 total), and has 16 aces and 62 blocks.

THE ROAD TO 1K: COMPLETED

Robinson reached 1,000-career kills on Sept. 18 at No. 19 USC. She is the 24th LSU Tiger to reach 1,000 career kills and the 12th to do so in the rally scoring era.

Aside from her 1,344 kills, which ranks No. 12 all-time and No. 4 in the rally scoring era, Robinson is currently the program's all-time leader with 5.11 points per set and 4.56 kills per set. She has 29 career double-doubles, including 20 20-kill double-doubles, highlighted by two 30-kill double-doubles.

ALL-AMERICAN ADDITION

Washington is coming off a breakout season at Ole Miss, where she was named to the 2024 AVCA All-American Honorable Mention Team and the 2024 All-SEC First Team. Last season, Washington recorded career-highs of 4.34 points and 3.84 kills per set, 49 total blocks (10 solo blocks) and 29 service aces.

Washington was one of 10 athletes from the SEC, and 30 players overall, on the initial 2025 AVCA Division I Player of the Year Watch List.

BACK IN THE BOOT

Washington, who is from New Orleans, La., spent two seasons at Ole Miss (2023-2024) and played her freshman year at Iowa (2022) before returning to her home state.

Washington is 50 kills shy of reaching 1,000 career kills. She enters the tournament with 950 career kills (3.01 per set), 110 blocks and 53 aces - good for 1,069.0 career points (3.38 per set).

DOUBLE TROUBLE

The dynamic duo of Jurnee Robinson and Nia Washington is heating up late in the season.

For the second time this season, Robinson and Washington teamed up for 20-kill double-doubles against Auburn (Nov. 14). The first time was against Ole Miss (Nov. 2).

Both players had back-to-back double-doubles against Mississippi State (Oct. 31) and Ole Miss.

HITTER TURNED SETTER

In the final weekend of the regular season, Jeffery recorded a season-high nine kills on a .278 hitting percentage at Georgia (Nov. 12) and a season-best nine digs to go along with seven kills and three blocks versus Auburn (Nov. 14).

In her home state of South Carolina, Jeffery made her fourth career start and finished with four kills and two blocks against the Gamecocks (Nov. 7).

Jeffery first showed a glimpse of her abilities after logging five kills and a team-high four blocks in the sweep over Houston on Sept. 6. Jeffery followed with another four-block performance at Notre Dame (Sept. 9).

GLUE GIRL

Deemed a glue girl for the team, defensive specialist/libero Ella Hemmings was given a scholarship early in the season after earning it with her hard work and production.

Hemmings is having her most productive season in her career with 114 digs, 39 assists and 12 aces in 75 sets played.

Hemmings is coming off a career-high 15 digs against Auburn (Nov. 14) and served a career-best three aces versus No. 9 Texas A&M (Oct. 24).

Donaie turned in eight blocks and five kills on a .308 hitting percentage in her first collegiate career start at Arkansas (Sept. 28).

SNEAKY PICKUP

JOURNEY TO THE AMERICAN DREAM

Tevdoradze's journey from Georgia to America is nothing short of remarkable. Faced with challenges like borrowing gear to play, Ana and her family took a leap, moving to Florida with hopes of her playing NCAA Division I Volleyball. Initially told she wasn't ready, mainly due to a language barrier.

Ana didn't give up. Instead, she tackled a significant hurdle—learning English—by immersing herself in classes and YouTube. Her hard work paid off at Miami Dade College, where she led her team to back-to-back NJCAA Championship matches.

Now, in Division I, Ana is determined to succeed and make her mark as a professional. Reflecting on her journey, Ana says, "The opportunities I have here are incredible. I won't take them for granted and will work tirelessly to succeed."

INTERNATIONAL TEAM EXPERIENCE

Tevdoradze has played with the Georgian National Team for six years, including in the European Championship Qualifier against Portugal on August 17, 2024. In that match, Tevdoradze was second on the team with nine kills, two blocks and 11 points.

Tevdoradze was the captain of the Georgian National Team's 16, 17, and 18U teams.

FROM THE DIRT TO THE COURT

Defensive specialist/libero Emilee Prochaska appeared in her first collegiate volleyball match at Alabama on Oct. 10, and made her first start against No. 3 Kentucky on Oct. 12.

Prochaska landed in Baton Rouge after playing softball last season at Houston. This season is her first collegiate season playing volleyball.

Clearly a high-level athlete, Prochaska was an infielder that made five starts and appeared in 13 games, registering a .333 batting average behind four hits in 12 at-bats and scored two runs.

PROCHASKA'S PATH BACK TO VOLLEYBALL

Prochaska grew up playing multiple sports, but softball and volleyball stood out. Though she explored opportunities to be a dual-sport athlete, she ultimately chose to play softball at the University of Houston.

After her freshman year, she entered the transfer portal with the goal of continuing in softball. However, encouraged by her mother, she also began to reconsider volleyball. She reached out to former recruiter Jill Wilson to ask if returning to volleyball after a two-year break was even possible. That conversation led her to LSU—one of the first programs that had recruited her in high school.

Now at LSU, Prochaska has rediscovered her passion for volleyball. She's focused on regaining her court skills and making an impact however she can—whether on the floor or as a supportive teammate.

TURN UP THE AC

Pin hitter AC Froehlich turned in a career-best 121 kills, 19 aces and had 24 blocks last season.

Froehlich logged her first collegiate double-double with a season-high 15 kills and added 14 digs with three aces against Florida International (Sept. 6, 2024).

AC also recorded four matches with three or more aces in 2024, including a career-high five aces at Auburn (Oct. 25, 2024).

LAINEE P

During her freshman season outside hitter Laine Pyles tallied 163 kills (2.09/set), 29 blocks, a team-high 24 aces and 69 digs last season.

Pyles registered seven matches with 10 or more kills, seven matches hitting over .300, including four over .400, and six multi-ace matches, including a season-high five aces versus Arkansas (Nov. 17, 2024).

TEAMMATES FOR LIFE

Jessica Jones, Laine Pyles, redshirt freshman Bri Watson and Emilee Prochaska, were teammates at some point before donning the Purple and Gold.

Jones and Watson were club teammates on Drive Nation in 2023. Jones and Prochaska played on the Frisco Flyers, and grew up playing multiple sports together, including soccer and softball.

Watson was also a teammate of Pyles in the Madfrog Volleyball Club, where they won the 2022 National Championship in the USA Volleyball All-Star Tournament.

Johnson was a four-year letterwinner for the Tigers (1987-1990) who helped the program reach its first NCAA Final Four appearance in 1990 and won a combined four SEC championships, including two regular-season titles and SEC tournament titles (1989, 1990). Johnson is the sixth head coach in LSU volleyball history.

Since returning to Baton Rouge to lead the program, Johnson has developed five AVCA All-Region selections, including two-time honoree Jurnee Robinson, who is the third LSU Tiger to earn the AVCA South Region Freshman of the Year Award (2023).

Academics are also a top priority for Johnson. In her tenure, she has coached seven College Sports Communicators Academic All-District honorees, and the team has earned the U.S. Marines Corp./AVCA Team Academic award in each of her seasons. While at Georgia Tech, Johnson was named the co-head coach of the 2012 U.S. Volleyball National A2 Team that earned the silver medal.

Johnson served as an assistant coach at LSU from 1998-2002 under Fran Flory, the program's all-time wins leader, and was responsible for most of the Tigers' recruiting efforts. Johnson began her coaching career as an assistant under Flory at Kentucky in 1995.
