JAY CLARK

HEAD COACH • 6th Season

Jay Clark and the LSU Tigers made history in 2024 as the first team to bring a national championship home to Baton Rouge. The Tigers claimed their first national title on April 20, 2024 with their score of 198.225 in the NCAA Championship Finals to defeat California (197.850), Utah (197.800) and Florida (197.4375). With the win, LSU became just the eighth program in NCAA history to win the women's gymnastics championship, thanks to the leadership of Clark, who owns over 30 years of experience in college gymnastics.

A native of Roswell, Georgia, Clark was tabbed as the third head coach in program history in August 2021 following the retirement of former coach D-D Breaux. A 33-year veteran of the sport, he continues to lead the LSU Gymnastics program to new heights. He enters his sixth season as the head coach and 15th season overall at LSU in 2026.

During his time at the helm, Clark and the Tigers have marked multiple milestones together, including one national title, back-to-back SEC Championships, two regional titles, three straight appearances in the NCAA Championships and more. The Tigers even set a school record score (198.475) in 2024 and earned their first ever No. 1 seed in the postseason in 2025.

Clark was named the 2024 SEC Co-Head Coach of the Year after winning the program's fifth SEC Championship and the Region One Head Coach of the Year after winning the Fayetteville Regional. He was also named the Top Collegiate Coach in Louisiana by Allstate Sugar Bowl, but his accolades don't end there. Clark owns multiple Central Region coaching honors, including National Assistant Coach of the Year in 2006, 2014, 2016 and 2017. He is also a member of the USA Gymnastics Region Eight Hall of Fame.

Over the last two years, the program has also seen record attendance numbers thanks to Clark's efforts. The Tigers have gone undefeated at home in the past two seasons, with a current 15-0 unbeaten streak, and haven't lost in the PMAC since January 16, 2023. In 2024 and 2025 combined, the program welcomed seven sold-out crowds. LSU finished the regular season No. 1 in attendance nationally the past two years, averaging over 13,000 fans per meet and marking the highest average in school history in 2025. A total of over 65,700 Tiger fans showed out to the PMAC across five home meets in 2025.

Clark has seen much success in his career, both in the gym and on the recruiting trail. As the Tigers' associate head coach for eight seasons and co-head coach for one, Clark's leadership and expertise has helped bring unprecedented success on the recruiting trail and in the gym for LSU. In her senior season, he coached one of the most decorated gymnasts in LSU Gymnastics history in Haleigh Bryant, who was the 2024 SEC Gymnast of the Year, NCAA All-Around Champion, AAI Award Winner and Honda Sport Award Winner. He's regarded as one of the best recruiters in the sport, as highlighted by ESPN and ESPN The Magazine when he was named the ninth-best recruiter in college athletics in 2011.

As a coach, LSU has earned some of their best performances in school history since Clark's arrival, including eight appearances in the NCAA Championship Finals, numerous school records, 11 NCAA individual national champions, and five SEC Championships. Under his leadership, he led the Tigers to their first Final Four appearance under his tenure in 2023 before becoming the first gymnastics coach to bring home a national title.

His work with the Fighting Tigers of LSU has not gone unnoticed. Clark has been named the Central Region Co-Assistant Coach of the Year along with former LSU assistant Bob Moore five times.

Clark also earned the 2014 and 2017 National Co-Assistant Coach of the Year award with Moore. It marked the third time in his distinguished coaching career he has garnered the nation's top award.

He was inducted into the USA Gymnastics Region 8 Hall of Fame in 2018.

In the gym, Clark is viewed as the top bars coach in collegiate gymnastics history. Under his supervision, LSU has seen 45 All-America honors on bars, four of the five highest bars team scores in school history and the top two bars champions in LSU history. LSU's bars lineup has finished in the top-10 in the nation 12 times, including the No. 1 team in 2018.

Clark tutored Sarah Finnegan, who ended her career in April 2019 as one of the greatest gymnasts in LSU history. Finnegan became the first NCAA bars champion in school history in 2017 and earned the title once again in 2019. Finnegan and Lexie Priessman won SEC bars champions in 2019 and 2017 respectively, scored perfect scores in 2019 and led the squad that finished fourth in the nation.

The 2018 season on bars under Clark marked the best lineup in LSU history and one of the best in the history of the NCAA. The group posted a school record score of 49.725 and once again went on to break the record against Arizona with a 49.750 for the second-highest in all of NCAA Gymnastics since 1988. The lineup, anchored by Finnegan, led the nation on bars for the first time in school history. Finnegan became the first gymnast in school history to finish the season ranked No. 1 on the event and joined Sharene Mamby (2001) and Syreeta Barnett (1997) as the only gymnasts at LSU to score a perfect 10.0 on the event.

In 2017, Clark coached Finnegan to the first NCAA Uneven Bars Championship in school history. Clark set the record for the most individual national champions on the event in NCAA gymnastics history.

The Tigers have posted a Top-10 national ranking on Clark's event for the last 11 consecutive years, including a seven year stretch in the top-5 from 2014-2020, and No. 1 finish in 2018.

In his first season with the Tigers, Clark coached Morrison and Wyrick to First-Team All-America honors on bars, and it marked the first season LSU produced at least two All-Americans on bars since 2010.

Before Clark joined LSU after he spent 20 seasons at the University of Georgia where he helped guide the Gym Dogs to seven NCAA National Titles and 14 SEC Championships.

Clark primarily coached bars at Georgia, and he coached the Gym Dogs to 64 All-America honors and seven NCAA individual national titles on bars, including two-time champions Courtney Kupets and Kat Ding.

From 2009-12, Clark served as the head coach at Georgia, and during that time the Gym Dogs captured three NCAA individual national championships, won the 2012 NCAA Auburn Regional, and produced 23 All-America honors. In 2012, his Georgia team won the Bulldog Cup, which recognizes the UGA team that excels academically, supports their peers in athletics and consistently serves the community.

Prior to his stint as head coach, Clark was the recruiting coordinator at Georgia from 1999-2009 while serving as assistant coach from 1999-2004 and associate head coach from 2005-09 when Georgia won an NCAA record five-straight national titles.

Clark also coached at the club level for 13 years from 1992-2005 as the founder, owner and head coach of Classic City Gymnastics in Athens, Georgia. He coached several Classic City gymnasts to state, regional, national championships and to the Junior Olympic National Team, and eight gymnasts went on to compete collegiately at the NCAA Division I level.

A native of Roswell, Georgia, Clark earned his undergraduate degree in exercise science from Georgia. He has two children – a son, Cole, and a daughter, Kinsey.
