Quickly...

The No. 7 University of Hawai'i Rainbow Wahine volleyball team (25-6) defeated Boise State, Nevada and Utah State in the WAC Tournament to win the automatic birth into the NCAA Tournament.

Despite being seeded seventh in the bracket, UH will be one of three seeded teams that will not host the first and second rounds. Instead they head to Austin, Texas, where they will face Texas State in the first round on Dec. 2. Also in Austin are Louisiana State and host Texas, who is tied with Hawai'i at No. 7 in the coaches poll, but were left unseeded in the NCAA Tournament.

Rainbow Wahine in the NCAA Tournament

Hawai'i is making their 24th appearance in the NCAA Tournament, as they have missed only one in the 25 years of the tournament's existence. UH has now made 13-consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances.

The Rainbow Wahine are 56-20 (.737) in the NCAA Tournament all-time. They are 17-2 (.895) all-time in first round matches (UH had a bye in the first round four times), but are just 5-2 in first round matches away from home. UH is 11-0 in second round matches since the tournament was expanded past 32 teams in 1993 (prior to that, the second match of the tournament was in a regional).

Hawai'i has advanced to eight NCAA Championships and 21 NCAA Regionals, including the last seven.

Prince Earns WAC Tournament MVP, Player of the Week

Victoria Prince came up big this past week, earning WAC Tournament MVP and WAC Player of the Week honors. She started off with 13 kills, six blocks and a .360 hitting percentage vs. Boise St. (11/24). She then hit .469 with 18 kills vs. Nevada (11/25) and hit .476 while posting 11 kills and five blocks vs. Utah St. (11/26). This past week, she was also honored by being named first-team all-WAC.

The senior remains UH's top scorer, leading the team in all scoring categories (319 kills, 41 aces, 150 blocks, 441.5 points).

She ranks in the top 20 nationally in both hitting (.399) and blocking (1.55), while averaging 3.29 kills per game and 0.70 digs per game.

The Washington State transfer had a big week on the road at Nevada and Fresno State, hitting .537 with 4.80 kills per game, 2.60 blocks per game and two aces.

The middle hitter had a great weekend in the Waikiki Beach Marriott Volleyball Challenge, hitting .444 with 3.00 kills per game, 1.22 blocks per game and 1.11 digs per game while recording two aces, garnering her both most outstanding player and WAC Player of the Week honors.

The Kennewick, Wash., native averaged 1.50 blocks per game, 3.50 kills per game and 0.33 aces per game while hitting .410 in the HAL Wahine Classic, earning all-tournament honors.

Prince was a bright spot in a tough AVCA/NACWAA Showcase for the Rainbow Wahine, hitting .465 with 3.67 kills per game and 1.00 blocks per game, garnering her all-tournament honors.

Preseason Player of the Year:

Kanoe Kamana'o, Hawai'i

Kamana'o Breaks School Career Assists Record

Kanoe Kamana'o broke the school career assists record vs. Boise State (11/24), passing UH great Martina Cincerova with more than a season left in her career. She is also the career leader in assists per game at 13.71.

The junior now has 4,742 assists, placing her seventh all-time in the Western Athletic Conference. She is only 1,131 behind Analisa Saylor of Colorado State (5,873 from 1994-97) for the WAC record and trails the NCAA mark by 1,892 (Tammy Roberson, UAB, 6,650 from 1989-92).

Houston Figuring It Out

Jamie Houston had an outstanding WAC Tournament, posting 4.11 kills and .078 blocks per game to receive all-tournament honors. The week prior, she put away a career-high 25 kills while hitting .294 in the five-game win vs. New Mexico State (11/17). She was also named a second team all-WAC honoree.

On the season, she is hitting .269 with 3.41 kills per game and 0.55 blocks per game.

The Huntsville, Ala., native again was forced to step in as a left-side hitter after Sarah Mason went down with an ankle injury this past week. Houston responded to the call, finishing the Utah State match (11/9) with 21 kills, three blocks, two aces and a .389 hitting percentage to lead UH in their five-game win.

She stepped up her play in the Waikiki Beach Marriott Volleyball Challenge, hitting .309 with 4.75 kills per game, including a 12-kill, .632 hitting percentage night vs. CS Northridge (9/9) and a 17-kill match vs. UCLA (9/10).

The freshman averaged 4.58 kills per game in the Hawaiian Airlines Wahine Volleyball Classic, including two-straight 20-kill matches, putting up 23 with a .281 hitting percentage vs. Penn State (9/2) and 22 while hitting an amazing .405 vs. Western Michigan (9/4).

Hittle Heating Up at the Right Time

Tara Hittle has been getting progressively better through the season, as she's now averaging 1.99 kills per game and 2.97 digs per game. She is one of the primary passers for UH, and averages just 0.10 reception errors per game. She was named to the all-WAC second team.

At the WAC Tournament, Hittle posted 16 kills and eight digs vs. Boise State (11/24), 10 kills, eight digs and two aces vs. Nevada (11/25) and 10 kills and 15 digs vs. Utah State (11/26), earning all-tournament honors.

In the weeks prior, she hit .385 with 17 kills and 15 digs vs. New Mexico State (11/17). She also put up 13 kills and 17 digs in the win at Utah State (11/9), then had a team-high 15 kills and a .467 hitting percentage at San Jose State (11/12).

The sophomore hit .417 with 12 kills and eight digs at Louisiana Tech (9/29). She then posted 11 kills and 11 digs at New Mexico State (10/1).

After spraining her ankle before the season started, Hittle finally made her way back to the front row, putting up nine kills, three blocks and 13 digs vs. Washington (9/17).

In the Waikiki Beach Marriott Volleyball Challenge, the Colorado Springs, Colo., native posted two double-digit dig matches as the libero, putting up 10 digs vs. Cincinnati (9/8) and 12 vs. UCLA (9/10).

Watanabe Primed To Break Single-Season Digs Record

Ashley Watanabe has a good chance to break the UH single-season digs record, as she has 433 digs, just four shy of Tee Williams' 437 in 1988. The first team all-WAC honoree is averaging 4.12 digs per game with just 0.10 reception errors per game and 23 service aces. She has reached double-figures in digs in 25 matches this season.

This past week, Watanabe posted 11 and 14 digs vs. Boise State (11/24) and Nevada (11/25), respectively, then had 18 digs and two aces vs. Utah State (11/26).

The Aiea, Oahu, native had two good matches vs. Utah State and San Jose State at home, averaging 6.17 digs per game. She started with 13 digs vs. Utah State (10/20), then posted 24 digs vs. San Jose State (10/22).

The senior had a huge week vs. Boise State and LMU, starting with 16 digs and two aces vs. Boise State (9/22). Watanabe then had a career-high 31 digs and three aces vs. Loyola Marymount (9/23) and 22 digs in just three games vs. Loyola Marymount (9/24).

Kamana'o Has No Match, Nationally

Kanoe Kamana'o is again showing to be one of the best all-around setters in the country, averaging 13.83 assists per game, 2.66 digs per game and 1.04 blocks per game with 16 aces. She is the only player in the country averaging over 13.5 assists, 2.5 digs and one block per game. She has 13 double-doubles in assists and digs thus far this season.

The junior was named the Western Athletic Conference Player of the Year while being named a first team all-WAC honoree.

This past week, the Iolani graduate averaged 14.90 assists per game and 1.20 blocks per game, garnering all-WAC Tournament honors.

The Honolulu native averaged 15.00 assists per game, 2.70 digs per game and 0.70 blocks per game while recording three aces in the Waikiki Beach Marriott Volleyball Challenge, good enough to earn all-tournament honors.

Kamana'o had two double-doubles in the HAL Wahine Classic, putting up 61 assists, 14 digs and seven blocks vs. Penn St. (9/2) and 66 assists and 15 digs vs. Western Michigan (9/4). For her efforts, she was named to the all-tournament team.

Sanders Having Breakout Season

Juliana Sanders is having a great season in the middle, hitting .365 with 2.58 kills per game and 1.31 blocks per game.

She was named a first team all-WAC honoree.

The Kaneohe, Oahu, native had seven kills and nine blocks, including three that scored the last three points of the match, vs. New Mexico State (11/17), then had six kills on six swings in just one game vs. Louisiana Tech (11/18).

The sophomore earned WAC Player of the Week honors on Nov. 14. She opened the week with a 12-kill, seven-block, .476 hitting percentage match in the five-game victory at Utah State (11/9). She then hit a blistering .800 with 12 kills and six blocks at San Jose State (11/12).

Sanders earned WAC Player of the Week honors on Oct. 24, posting 10 kills, four blocks and a .500 hitting percentage vs. Utah State (10/20), then had a career-high eight blocks with 13 kills and a .400 hitting percentage vs. San Jose State (10/22).

The middle hitter has also played well on the road. She had 14 kills and a .550 hitting percentage at Idaho (10/13). At New Mexico State (10/1), she hit .360 with 12 kills and six blocks.

Sanders had her coming out party in the Waikiki Beach Marriott Volleyball Challenge as she hit .444 with 3.11 kills per game and 1.56 blocks per game, earning all-tournament honors for the first time in her career.

Against Cal State Northridge (9/9), the Kaneohe, Oahu, native hit .667 with 11 kills and four blocks, after starting off the match with 10 kills on her first 11 attempts. She again played well against UCLA (9/10), hitting .400 with 12 kills and seven blocks.

Mason Returns to the Court

Sarah Mason returned from the ankle injury she suffered at Utah State (11/9), playing in all three matches in the WAC Tournament, scoring seven kills vs. Boise State (11/24) and seven kills with a .538 hitting percentage and four digs vs. Nevada (11/25).

Mason is hitting .275 with 3.84 kills per game, 1.62 digs per game and 0.67 blocks per game on the season.

The Hilo native was named a first team all-WAC honoree.

The Oregon transfer posted 15 kills and a .324 hitting percentage vs. Utah State (10/20), before hitting a blazing .727 (eight kills, no errors, 11 attempts) with five blocks and five digs in less than a game and a half played vs. San Jose State (10/22).

The junior came up big for the Rainbow Wahine on the first WAC road trip, posting 11 kills, six digs and a .474 hitting percentage at Louisiana Tech (9/29) and 19 kills, four blocks and a .378 hitting percentage at New Mexico State (10/1), to earn WAC Player of the Week honors.

Mason came off the bench to hit .526 with 11 kills and five digs vs. Boise State (9/22), then had 26 kills and 15 digs in UH's loss to LMU (9/23).

Boogaard Doing It All in Her Last Season

Susie Boogaard continues to produce for UH, averaging 1.97 kills per game, 2.67 digs per game and 0.75 blocks per game, while recording 14 aces and 61 assists. Boogaard is also one of UH's primary passers, averaging only 0.16 reception errors per game.

Boogaard earned second team all-WAC honors for the second-straight season.

This past week, she posted 13 digs vs. Boise State (11/24) and eight kills and 17 digs vs. Nevada (11/25).

The senior had 14 digs and eight blocks, including combining for the final three points of the match, vs. New Mexico State (11/17).

The Bellflower, Calif., native came up big for UH in the match vs. Cincinnati (9/8), posting 15 kills, 13 digs and a .371 hitting percentage.

Boogaard had two double-doubles in the Hawaiian Airlines Wahine Classic, putting up 17 kills and 16 digs vs. Penn State and 17 kills and 11 digs vs. Western Michigan.

Hawaiian Streakers

Although UH's 205-match winning streak against non-ranked opponents was ended vs. Loyola Marymount (9/23) and their home match winning streak came to a close at 39 matches vs. Penn State (9/2), the Rainbow Wahine still have some noteworthy streaks they are still currently on.

Hawai'i Continues WAC Domination

The Rainbow Wahine won their 10th consecutive Western Athletic Conference regular season championship. It's also their 11th-straight conference title overall, as UH won their last year in the Big West.

Hawai'i is currently riding a 107-match winning streak in WAC play and have a 141-1 record (.993) overall.

UH's last lost in conference play came to Brigham Young on Oct. 10, 1998. Since then, the Rainbow Wahine have also won all six WAC tournaments that have been played (1998, 2001-'05), running their overall streak against teams in the WAC to 125 matches won.

Shoji and Collins Named to NCAA 25th Anniversary Team

Dave Shoji and former All-American Deitre Collins have been named to the NCAA 25th Anniversary Women's Volleyball Team, celebrating the 25th year of the NCAA Tournament in women's volleyball.

Shoji was voted as the coach of the team. He coached three NCAA championship teams, two runners up, and three others that advanced to the semifinals.

Collins was a three-time AVCA All-American that won the Honda Broderick Cup as the National Athlete of the Year in 1982-83. She was also the volleyball nominee in 1983-84. Collins was on two national championship teams, named to two NCAA All-Tournament teams and still holds the record for solo blocks in a single NCAA Tournament (15). Collins is currently the head coach at Cornell.

The other players named to the anniversary team were Elaina Oden of Pacific, Logan Tom and Kerri Walsh of Stanford, Danielle Scott of Long Beach State and Natalie Williams of UCLA.

'Bows Avoid the Blocks at San Jose

The Rainbow Wahine pulled off two impressive feats in the match at San Jose State (11/12), hitting over .516 as a team and going throughout the match without getting blocked.

It was only the third time since the advent of rally scoring, in 2001, that UH was able to hit over .500, and marked the first time UH went a whole match without getting blocked since Oct. 16, 2000, vs. Tulsa.

How They Do Against the Best

Hawai'i has faced the No. 1 team in the AVCA Coaches Poll 18 times since the poll's inception in 1982, carrying a record of 7-11 against top-ranked squads after their season-opening loss to Nebraska in the AVCA/NACWAA Volleyball Showcase.

UH's has lost their last four matches to teams ranked No. 1. Their last win against a team that was No. 1 in the poll came against UCLA on Sept. 4, 2000.

Overall, Hawai'i has a 93-77 record against teams ranked in the top 10, including a 2-5 record thus far this season.

It's Been a While Since...

The Rainbow Wahine have gone a long time between these occurrences.

Last loss to a WAC teamOct. 10, 1998

Last conference home lossNov. 10, 1994

Last loss on opposition's home courtNov. 24, 2001

Lions Kill Impressive UH Streak

The Rainbow Wahine's loss to Loyola Marymount ended their streak of 205 wins against teams that were not ranked in the CSTV/AVCA Coaches Poll. UH's last loss to an unranked opponent came on Sept. 12, 1997, at the hands of Pepperdine (who jumped into the top 25 poll the following week).

Six Or More Losses for the Rainbow Wahine

With Hawai'i's loss to Loyola Marymount on Sept. 23, the Rainbow Wahine clinched the worst start in school history, going 6-6. This is just the 10th time in program history that UH has reached six losses in a year.

This season's total of six losses is already more than any of the players have lost in the rest of their careers at Hawai'i (UH lost two in 2002, two in 2003 and one in 2004).

After Further Review, Still a Good Serving Streak

UH defensive specialist Raeceen Woolford served 14-straight points against Boise State (9/22), which was believed to be the school record.

But, after some research, the record is actually 15-straight points served by Carolyn Kootnekoff on Nov. 6, 1984, at Air Force. Kootnekoff served all 15 points, which is the longest for any match before the advent of rally scoring in 2001.

Since the NCAA took on the rally-scoring format, UH has had eight streaks of at least 10 points served. Woolford's 14 actually ties the school record with Lily Kahumoku, who served 14-straight points vs. San Diego State on Sept. 6, 2002.

Here is a list of all the streaks of 10-plus points served since 2001:

Kanoe Kamana'o was named to the ESPN The Magazine COSIDA Academic All-District Third Team this past week, making an all-district team for the second-straight year. The junior was named to the second team in 2004.

This Week in Rainbow Wahine History

In the 30+ years of Rainbow Wahine volleyball, many big events have occurred. Here are a couple of events that happened this week in UH women's volleyball history.

Dec. 4, 1946 - Dave Shoji was born. Shoji has been UH's head coach for 31 years, taking over the program in 1975.

Dec. 1, 1984 - Hawai'i falls to Oregon in the first round of the NCAA Tournament for the first time ever, coming just after winning two consecutive NCAA titles.

Nov. 29-Dec. 1, 1985 - Hawai'i plays in their first conference tournament, in the PCAA Tournament in Stockton, Calif. After defeating San Diego State in five and Cal Poly in four, the Rainbow Wahine fall to host Pacific in the championship match in four games.

Nov. 30, 1996 - Hawai'i concludes their first WAC season with a five-game loss to BYU at the WAC Tournament. The Rainbow Wahine would go on to get revenge in the NCAA Regional finals, sweeping the Cougars on the way to their fifth NCAA Championships.

Dec. 2-3, 1999 - Hawai'i faces Prairie View A&M and Utah in the first and second rounds of the NCAA Tournament, sweeping A&M 15-3, 15-0 and 15-3, then beating the Utes 15-11, 15-6 and 15-4. UH bowed out in the next round to Texas A&M in an upset in the regionals.

Dec. 2-3, 2004 - Despite sporting the only undefeated regular season in the country and the tournament's No. 3 seed, UH gets sent away for the NCAA Tournament First and Second rounds, where they defeated Colorado and Purdue to advance to their seventh-consecutive NCAA Regional.

Scouting the Bobcats

The Texas State Bobcats come into the NCAA Tournament with a 17-14 record overall, going 12-6 in Southland conference play.

TSU got into the tournament with an automatic bid after sweeping UT-San Antonio in the Southland Tournament. The Bobcats were a surprise in the tournament, winning as a No. 4 seed after stumbling into the tournament on a four-match losing streak. The upset top-seeded Stephen F. Austin in the semifinals 30-22, 33-31 and 30-18 before sweeping UTSA 30-20, 30-25 and 30-27.

The Bobcats are led by Elizabeth Nwoke, who averages 3.79 kills per game and 1.94 digs per game. Lawrencia Brown averages 3.44 kpg and 2.53 dpg while libero Amy Ramirez averages 4.31 digs per game. Brandy St. Francis is the top TSU blocker, averaging 1.13 blocks per game and 2.43 kills per game.

Erin Hickman is the Bobcat setter, averaging 12.33 assists per game, 2.40 digs per game and 0.70 blocks per game.

The Rainbow Wahine met the Bobcats once, when they were still called Southwest Texas State, sweeping them in the 1991 NCAA First Round.

Scouting the Longhorns

The Texas Longhorns come into the NCAA Tournament with a 23-4 record, going 17-3 in Big 12 play to finish second in the conference. The Longhorns are currently tied with UH at No. 7 in the AVCA Coaches Poll.

Texas is coming off an emotional high, defeating top-ranked Nebraska last Saturday, handing the Cornhuskers their only loss of the season.

Texas is a perfect 10-0 in Gregory Gym this season and have won 16-straight matches there.

The Longhorns are led by their two middles, Leticia Armstrong and Brandy Magee. Armstrong averages 3.27 kills per game and 1.40 blocks per game while hitting .377. Magee is hitting .368 with 3.20 kpg and 1.11 bpg. Dariam Acevedo leads the team with 3.75 kills per game and 2.25 blocks per game. Michelle Moriarty runs the UT offense, averaging 13.42 assists per game. Alyson Jennings is the Texas libero, averaging 3.61 digs per game.

Hawai'i leads the all-time series between the two teams 9-1. UH's last win over the Longhorns came in the 1996 NCAA Regional in Honolulu. Texas' lone win over the Rainbow Wahine was in the 1988 NCAA Championship match.

Scouting the Tigers

The Louisiana State Tigers come into the NCAA Tournament with a 12-7 record overall, finishing 11-5 in the Southeastern Conference, to win their first ever SEC Western Division championship. The Tigers fell to Alabama in the opening round of the SEC Tournament last week.

LSU started off the season on fire, winning 12 of their first 13 matches, including wins over the tournament's No. 6 seed Notre Dame and the tournament's No. 15 seed Tennessee.

The Tigers are led by Jelena Mijatovic, who is averaging 4.07 kills per game and 2.51 digs per game. Ivana Kuzmic averages 2.30 kills per game and 1.72 blocks per game while hitting .343. Marina Skender averaged 2.80 kills per game and 0.91 blocks per game to garner SEC Freshman of the Year honors. Kyna Washington also plays a big role, averaging 3.17 kpg.

LSU has used two setters in Daniela Romero and Heather Fierce, who average 9.02 and 7.76 assists per game, respectively. Romero has been the starter lately.

UH has won all three meetings between the two teams, including a sweep at the Maravich Center in 2003.

Last Week's Recaps

No. 8 Hawai'i Advances In WAC Tournament While Kamana`o Breaks Assists Record

RENO, Nev. - Kanoë Kamana`o broke the UH career assists record while the No. 8 University of Hawai'i Rainbow Wahine volleyball team (23-6) swept through the Boise State Broncos (8-18) 30-21, 30-22 and 30-26 in the quarterfinals of the Western Athletic Conference Tournament at the Lawlor Events Center Thursday.

Kamana`o ended the night with six blocks, eight digs and 49 assists, pushing her career assists mark to 4,642, passing Martina Cincerova, who had 4,637. Tara Hittle led with 16 kills, eight digs and a .394 hitting percentage while Victoria Prince had 13 kills and six blocks while hitting .360. Jamie Houston added eight kills and three blocks in just two games. Susie Boogaard led UH with 13 digs while Ashley Watanabe had 11.

After trading points at the start of the first game, UH went on a four-point run to take a 6-2 edge. They later put together a 5-0 run, capped by a block by Kamana`o and Prince, to go up 12-5. Boise State responded with a 4-0 run of their own, cutting it back to 12-9. But the Rainbow Wahine picked it back up, finishing the Broncos off at 30-21. Kamana`o ended the game with 19 assists and four blocks while setting the team to a .475 hitting percentage.

Sarah Mason started the second game, seeing her first action since reinjuring her right ankle at Utah State on Nov. 9. She took advantage of the opportunity, putting away six kills in the game. Hawai'i had a big 8-2 run in the middle of the game that got their lead to 20-12. They kept pushing, eventually taking the game 30-22 on a block by Mason and Prince.

Hawai'i got out to a 11-6 lead after a five-point run early. They continued to lead by five points when Hittle put away a kill that made it 20-15 and gave Kamana`o her 4,637th assist, tying the record. After a BSU kill, Kamana`o again set up Hittle to break the record on a point that got it to 21-16. The Rainbow Wahine took their lead to 28-22 before a Bronco ace capped a 4-0 run that cut it to 28-26. But UH regained their composure, scoring the final two points to take game three 30-26.

No. 8 UH Gets Past Nevada, Advancing To WAC Championship

RENO, Nev. - The No. 8 University of Hawai'i Rainbow Wahine volleyball team (24-6) won a tough match over the Nevada Wolf Pack (18-12) 30-19, 22-30, 30-28 and 33-31 in the semifinals of the Western Athletic Conference Tournament at the Lawlor Events Center Friday.

Victoria Prince led UH, hitting .469 with 18 kills. Sarah Mason came off the bench to hit .538 with seven kills, four digs and two blocks. Jamie Houston ended the night with 12 kills while Tara Hittle added 10 kills and eight digs. Juliana Sanders had eight kills and eight blocks and Susie Boogaard added eight kills, 17 digs and three blocks.

Kanoë Kamana`o ended the match with 59 assists, adding to her UH career leading total. Ashley Watanabe had 14 digs, pushing her season total to 415, just 22 shy of the UH single-season record.

Nevada held their own at the start of game one, holding a 10-9 edge on a dump by Tristen Johnson. But a quick 6-0 run by the Rainbow Wahine on the serve of Kamana`o gave Hawai'i a 15-10 lead. A kill by Sanders got it to 17-12, only to see the Wolf Pack go on a four-point run and cut it back to 17-16 and force a timeout by Dave Shoji. UH responded out of the timeout, going on a 10-1 run that made it 27-17. From there, it wouldn't take long as Kamana`o served up an ace to close it 30-19.

The Pack got out to a 7-4 lead to start the second game. The teams proceeded to trade small runs with Nevada holding a 15-13 lead on a kill by Salaia Salave`a heading into the media timeout. UH used a three-point run to get the lead back at 18-17 before Nevada opened it up with a 7-1 run that gave them a 24-19 advantage. Nevada just continued to roll, closing the game at 30-22 on a Salave`a's seventh kill of the game.

Hawai'i again found themselves behind at the start of the third game, 5-2, but a big four-point run, capped by a block by Prince and Kamana`o, put UH up 10-9. After trading points for a while, the Rainbow Wahine put up a 5-0 run to push their lead to 20-14. The teams again traded sideouts for a while with Hawai'i getting to game point at 29-25. But Karly Sipherd responded, putting away three-straight kills to pull within one at 29-28, forcing a Shoji timeout. UH went back to Houston out of the break, as she pounded one through the block, giving the Rainbow Wahine the 30-28 game three victory.

After a couple of kills by Houston got Hawai'i ahead 2-1 in the fourth, Nevada reeled off eight-straight points, putting them ahead 9-2. The Rainbow Wahine whittled away at it, getting it down to 14-11 and then 17-15 on an ace by Hittle. From there it was a battle. Hawai'i got within a point on a few occasions, finally tying the score at 27-27 on two blocks by Sanders and Mason. A kill by Allison Hernandez gave UN their first game point at 29-28. But Hittle put away a big kill to fight it off. In all, UH fought off three game points before Prince put the team on her shoulders, getting a block and a kill that ended game four 33-31.

No. 8 Hawai'i Wins Sixth-Straight WAC Tournament Title

RENO, Nev. - The No. 8 University of Hawai'i Rainbow Wahine volleyball team (25-6) swept the second-seeded Utah State Aggies (21-12) 30-25, 30-27 and 30-25 in the championship match of the Western Athletic Conference Tournament at the Lawlor Events Center Saturday, winning their sixth-consecutive WAC Tournament title.

Jamie Houston led the way for the Rainbow Wahine, hitting .368 with 17 kills. Victoria Prince hit .476 with 11 kills and five blocks while Tara Hittle added 10 kills and 15 digs while Ashley Watanabe led all players with 18 digs. Kanoë Kamana`o ended the night with 41 assists and four blocks.

Utah State got up early in the first game with a four-point run, giving the Aggies a 4-1 advantage. UH tied it at four after consecutive blocks by Sanders, and then finally took the lead at 13-12 on an ace by Houston. Kamana`o put away an overpass kill to push their edge to 19-16 before a quick three-point run by the Aggies cut it back to 22-21. But UH had too much as two aces by Susie Boogaard highlighted a 6-1 run late that led the Rainbow Wahine to a 30-25 game one victory.

Hawai'i got out quickly in the second game as four kills by Hittle were part of a 5-0 run that put the Rainbow Wahine up 11-4. UH got it up to 16-9 before USU caught fire, scoring the next seven points to tie it at 16. After trading a couple runs, Hawai'i put up four-straight points to hold a 26-23 lead, before eventually taking it 30-27.

The Rainbow Wahine jumped on the Aggies early in the third game, as Watanabe served two-straight aces to put UH up 9-3. USU was able to pull within a couple points at 15-13 and 19-16, but Kamana`o then got hot with two blocks before setting up two kills to push UH's advantage back to 23-16. Hawai'i got to match point at 29-22, but had to wait three more points before a kill by Sarah Mason put it away, 30-25. Prince was named the tournament's MVP with Kamana`o, Hittle and Houston also being named to the all-tournament team.

Head Coach Dave Shoji

Dave Shoji's 30th year as the head coach of the Rainbow Wahine program may have been one of the most memorable.

He opened the season with little expectations of what was his youngest team ever. But the young Rainbow Wahine had a surprise in store for Shoji, along with the rest of the state.

Hawai'i scratched and clawed its way to the program's second undefeated regular season, winning 30 matches before suffering its first loss at the hands of Wisconsin in the NCAA Regional.

Shoji coached his 1,000th collegiate match on Sept. 25, 2004, against Pepperdine, collected his 850th win on the same night, and guided his Rainbow Wahine to an unexpected seventh-straight regional. He also earned WAC and AVCA Region Coach of the Year honors, the eighth of each in his career.

Shoji then received another honor in February 2005 as he was inducted into the Hawai'i Sports Hall of Fame.

In 1975, a young Shoji took over the reins of the University of Hawai'i women's volleyball program. He was just 28 years old with no clue that he would turn a one-year-old program into a national powerhouse for the next three decades.

The team was coming off a 9-1 campaign in 1974 that ended with the Rainbow Wahine falling to UCLA in the national title match at the AIAW Championship.

In Shoji's first four years at the helm of the program, he would take the team to two more national title matches before it finally broke through to take the title in 1979 with a five-game victory over Utah State in the AIAW finals.

It was the school's first-ever team national championship and a sign of great things to come for the young program.

In 1981, Shoji became the first full-time coach for a women's program at UH. He led the team to another national title, this time in the new NCAA Tournament in 1982, beating the USC Women of Troy in a come-from-behind, five-game thriller.

Shoji would lead the team to another title in 1983 with a straight-set win over UCLA, becoming the first school to win back-to-back national championships.

The Rainbow Wahine again returned to the national championship match in 1987, capping a 37-2 season with a sweep of Stanford for the program's fourth national title and third NCAA title.

The team lost to Texas in the 1988 national championship match and again to Stanford in 1996. They have yet to reach the pinnacle of a national title since.

Under Shoji, UH volleyball finished in the Top 10 in 19 of the 23 final AVCA polls, and ranked in the top five 14 times. They have made it to the postseason in all but one year, finishing with a winning record in all 30 seasons.

Shoji was a three-sport athlete at Upland High School in California, playing football, basketball and baseball. He then moved on to UC Santa Barbara, where he played baseball for a year, along with three years of volleyball. He earned All-America honors as a volleyball player in 1968 and '69. He earned his bachelor's degree in physical education in 1969.

After spending two years in the U.S. Army, Shoji returned to Hawai'i to coach the Kalani High School girls' and boys' volleyball teams. He then took an assistant coaching job at Punahou School.

Shoji and his wife, the former Mary Tennefos, reside in Manoa. They have three children. Cobey, 26, works at Stanford University; Kawika, 17, is a senior at Iolani School; and Erik, 16, is a sophomore at Punahou School.
