The rebuilding of the LSU program is nearing completion under John Brady. Now the task is to sustain the success and plan for the future of the program under the coach in his eighth season at the helm of the Tigers.

Unfortunate circumstances cost the Tigers a chance to shine in the post-season last year. After starting 17-4, the Tiger squad found itself having to play three, four and at times five freshmen on the floor against SEC squads much more experienced. But through it all, some hard lessons were learned and the freshmen are now experienced sophomores ready to blend with a couple of veteran seniors who have seen just about everything in their three years. Throw in another highly talented and anticipated recruiting class and some changes made in the coaching staff and Brady is ready to take the next step in sustaining the winning cycle that is building at LSU.

It's all be part of Brady's plan of rebuilding the LSU program since he came to Baton Rouge. He didn't come here with a plan that just looked good on paper. It was a practical and sensible plan that gave the LSU program the direction to go and the chance to shine again.

When Brady arrived on campus in March 1997 and was given the job of rebuilding the program, he knew he would have the chance to mold the program from the ground up and build a foundation based on responsibility and accountability. There were dreams of building a program where the players would take responsibility for their actions and make people proud of what they were trying to accomplish, both on and off the floor.

Brady's plan isn't just taking place on a hard wood floor in the Maravich Center. He has worked hard to show the public that the athletic and academic pursuits of the LSU players should be challenged to the fullest. All the while, he was also making sure the players understood that the methods and rules of the program would make them not only better, but better students able to adapt to the outside world once school was completed.

That's part of the reason that LSU basketball is not only a success on the court, but in the classroom as well. Last spring, every scholarship players passed every course hour taken and the team GPA was just over 3.0, the highest in years. Three student-athletes made the Dean's List, six had 3.0 averages or above and the five members of the freshman class averaged 35 hours and completed their first year with an average GPA of 2.87.

In his first seven seasons, besides the 20 players who have qualified for the SEC Academic Honor Roll and the 11 graduates, Brady has coached the SEC Player of the Year (Stromile Swift-2000), two SEC Freshmen of the Year (Torris Bright - 2000; Brandon Bass - 2004), plus 10 selections on the All-SEC teams.

All that has been a part of the foundation of LSU basketball under John Brady. The 50-year-old Brady enters his eighth season having taken the Tigers a long way both on and off the court.

What has been the result? The Tigers program is solid both athletically and academically. The top athletes in the country are seriously putting LSU at the top of their lists and Brady is earning the respect of his peers in the league. The plan to bring back the success of the LSU program has now shifted to the future of keeping the program at the top of the SEC for years to come.

Prior to becoming the head coach at LSU, Brady served six years as the head coach at Samford. He also served as assistant coach at Mississippi State and UNO prior to taking the head position at the Birmingham school.

LSU Chosen Among Top 100 Greatest Hoops Programs of All-Time

LSU has been recognized by Street & Smith's Specialty Publications as one of the 100 greatest college basketball programs of all time. The rankings are published in a 160-page commemorative keepsake, Street & Smith's 100 Greatest College Basketball Programs of All Time, which hit newsstands earlier this week.

Along with LSU's No. 50 all-time rating, other SEC schools making Street & Smith's Top 100 list include: Kentucky (1), Arkansas (8), Alabama (54), Tennessee (77), Florida (96) and Mississippi State (99).

The programs were graded on the basis of NCAA Tournament success, NIT success, national championships, conference regular season and tournament titles, all-time win-loss percentage, graduation rate, NCAA infractions, NBA first-round draft picks and mascot ferocity.

Bass SEC, Louisiana Sports Writers Player of the Week

LSU sophomore forward Brandon Bass was named the Southeastern Conference men's basketball player of the week for his efforts this past week in LSU wins over Ole Miss and Mississippi State. The conference office in Birmingham announced the award on Monday ... This is Bass' first player of the week honor and the first one for LSU since Dec. 29, 2003 when Jaime Lloreda won the honor. It marks the ninth time an LSU player has received this honor over the last 10 seasons.

Bass was also selected as the Louisiana Sports Writers Association Player of the Week for the same time period.

The Baton Rouge product led an LSU rally from 10 down in the second half for a 70-60 win over Ole Miss. He totaled 14 points, 11 rebounds and five blocks in that game. Bass scored a team-high 26 points with 11 more rebounds and five blocks against Mississippi State in LSU's 69-62 win over #24 Mississippi State on Saturday. He helped hold Lawrence Roberts of Mississippi State to just 3-of-11 shooting on the defensive end.

Davis Joins Impressive List of Freshman Early Game Performances

After Glen Davis had his 28 points-14 rebound performance against South Carolina (1-12), the LSU Sports Information Office staff was shipped to the archives to try to find other strong performances from the last 30 years in a freshman's first half of the season. Now with the 26-point, 18-rebound performance added in from the Arkansas game (1/19), here's a list of some strong early season freshman performances:

Kenny Higgs -- 12-20-74 -- vs. Duke (5th game) -- 44 pts, 10 rebs., 6 assts.

Durand "Rudy" Macklin -- 11-26-76 -- vs. Tulane (1st game) -- 13 pts, school record 32 rebs.

The Pete Maravich Center -- Under New Management

On July 1, 2004, the management of the Maravich Center came under the direction of the LSU Athletics Department as the building's control was transferred from the University. The building, now hosting its 34th season of men's basketball, is undergoing a multi-year refurbishing to continue it as one of the great basketball venues in the South.

It's a renovation that began two years ago with new television lights that can be turned on and off to allow more freedom with player introductions and special ceremonies.

It continued last season with a brand new roof surface that will serve for many years in the future. Also, the outside concourse windows of the building now feature the Tiger mascot running around the building that can be seen for miles as people enter the city on the Mississippi River Bridge.

This year, basketball fans will see a completely redesigned concourse with video and graphic displays, renovated concession stands and video kiosks showcasing the best of the sports that play in the building - men's and women's basketball, volleyball and gymnastics.

The concourse is designed into four quadrants -- Pete Maravich Pass, The Walk of Champions, Heroes Hall and Midway of Memories.

There is still more to come. At the close of the basketball season, the seats in the arena will be replaced, the acoustical paneling around the top of the arena will be replaced and handicap accessible seating is added at new locations. Also planned are upgraded restroom facilities and updates to the heating and air conditioning systems.

The Tigers, who played their 500th game in the building last season, are 381-133 (.741) in the building, 10-1 this year, and LSU has won at least 12 games five of the last six seasons ... In SEC games, the Tigers are 184-106 (63.4 percent) in the building ... LSU is 4-0 this year in league games after going 5-3 last year in league games, 6-2 in 2003 and 4-4 in 2002.

More Number Crunching

The 95 points LSU scored Wednesday at Georgia is the first time LSU has scored 90 in an SEC game since Feb. 26, 2003 when LSU beat Auburn in the Maravich Center, 94-63 ... The last time LSU scored more in an SEC game was Feb. 16, 2000 when LSU won at Ole Miss, 97-53 ... LSU is 4-1 this year when opponents score in the 70s, but the Georgia win was only the 14th in 43 games when opponents score in the 70s in the John Brady era ... The eight turnovers at Georgia (2/2) marked the sixth time this year the Tigers have had single-digit turnovers ... Mississippi State (1/29) is the only team in the last seven games to out rebound the Tigers ... The plus totals in the other six games for LSU -- +11 vs. South Carolina, +20 vs. Ohio State, +13 vs. Arkansas, +5 at. Kentucky, +5 vs. Ole Miss, +9 at Georgia ...

The win by LSU when being out shot from the floor by Mississippi State (1/29) marked the 21st time in 96 games in the Brady era that LSU has won when out shot from the field ... LSU's rally when trailing at the 10-minute mark against Ole Miss (1/26), marked just the 22nd time in 102 games that LSU has won when behind at that point in the second half ... LSU was still trailing at the five minute mark of the game and the win marked just the 16th time in 98 games (but the second this year) that LSU has won when behind at that point ... The six assists vs. Ole Miss (1/26) marked the first time this year the Tigers did not have double digit assists ... The 30 free throw attempts versus Ole Miss (1/26) marked the fourth time this year LSU has gotten to the free throw line at least 30 times ... The loss to Kentucky by 31 points (89-58) was the worst by LSU since losing at Florida, 102-70, in Jan. 2002 ... The Tigers 58.8 percent shooting against South Carolina (1/12) was LSU's best effort in an SEC game from the field since the Feb. 4, 2004 game against Tennessee in Baton Rouge when LSU shot 60.4 percent from the floor ... Ironically, the two games are fairly similar in that LSU was 30-51 against South Carolina and 29-of-48 against Tennessee ... LSU has shot 50 percent or better from the floor seven times this season ... The losses to Southern Miss (12/18) and Houston (12/21) marked the first time LSU had lost consecutive non-conference games in the Brady era ... LSU scored 50 in the first half and 45 in the second half at Georgia (2/2), giving LSU 15 halves in which they have scored 40 points or more this season.

Home Wins

The Tigers are 10-1 this season at home and has 38 wins in the last two-plus seasons dating back to the start of the 2002-03 season. That is the best in the SEC entering the weekend:

LSU 38
 Vanderbilt 36
 Florida 35

South Carolina 35
Tennessee 33
Kentucky 32
Georgia 31
Auburn 31
Alabama 31
Mississippi State 31
Arkansas 28
Ole Miss 27

Combined Home Wins

The court at the Pete Maravich Center has been a good one for both the men's and women's teams this year at LSU ... The Tiger teams are a combined 19-1 on the home floor this season ... LSU has a current home winning streak of seven games, while the No. 1 ranked Lady Tigers has a winning streak in the building of 13 games dating back to last season ... There are only five Division I programs in the country (Northwestern State, Gonzaga, North Carolina, Michigan and Western Kentucky, entering the week) who had booth undefeated at home men's and women's basketball teams.

Road Games

The win at Georgia stopped LSU's road losing string this season at four, making LSU 1-4 on the year on opponent's courts ... LSU's road losses came at Houston (81-72, Dec. 21), Jan. 3 at Utah (69-55), Jan. 8 at Alabama (73-58) and Jan. 15 at Kentucky (89-58) ... John Brady is 19-35 over the last five years on the road ... LSU's loss stopped a five game SEC road losing streak dating back to last year.

LSU Scoring Often, Giving Up Points Early In The Year

LSU made a decision this season to play a more up-tempo offense. But in return, this season, opponents have also scored more points and players seem to be consistently having big games scoring against the Tigers.

In the six games prior to the Florida State game on Dec. 30, the opponents were shooting over 40 percent from three-point range, 40-of-95 (42.1 percent) ... In that period, two players scored over 30 points and five others this season posted at least 22 points ... Last season in 29 games, no player scored over 30 and only three scored as much as 24 points on LSU.

Against Florida State (12/30), the LSU up-tempo offense took on a new look -- call it the "patient" up-tempo offense as LSU looked to go hard in transition, but the Tigers weren't afraid to pull it up and work the ball around in the offense, finding several holes in the Florida State Seminoles in a 67-50 win for the Tigers ... The Tigers held Florida State in both halves under 30 points ... LSU also out rebounded the Seminoles, 42-30, holding FSU to 10 less offensive rebounds than Houston had against the Tigers the week before.

Against Utah And Alabama, the Tigers were able to stay with the opposition through the first 20 minutes, trailing by just one point ... But in both games, the opponents dominated the Tigers in the second half ... Against Utah (1/3), Andrew Bogut became the eighth opponent player to score at least 22 points against LSU this year and helped the Utes dominate the Tigers on the boards ... Alabama had the big scoring run after LSU took a one-point lead that saw LSU fall down by 15 by the time LSU scored another field goal.

South Carolina and Ohio State

Against South Carolina (1/12), it was the Tigers who took advantage and had the two major runs which made the difference in LSU's first conference win ... In the first half, with South Carolina up 18-17, it was a 14-3 run which gave LSU a 10-point lead (31-21) which they carried into the half at 39-29 ... The second half saw Carolina cut the game down to seven points, at 47-40, when LSU went on 16-0 run that put LSU up 23 points, 63-40, and that was more than the Gamecocks could overcome as they got no closer than the 15-point final margin.

Against Ohio State (1/15), the Tiger offense had to be on the go from start to finish as the game turned into an offensive showcase in which the Tigers shot over 50 percent from the floor and made 29-of-31 free throws ... It was the Tigers which forced the first overtime with a three-pointer in the final eight seconds of regulation and Ohio State which forced the second overtime with a three in the final seconds ... LSU's five starters scored all 113 points in the game.

Two Weeks Ago vs. Arkansas and at Kentucky

Although the Tigers were 1-1 for that week, they did not have the best of it from the field in the win at home against Arkansas or the Kentucky loss ... For the two games, LSU was 41-of-117 from the field (35.0 percent) and 10-of-42 (23.8 percent) from the three-point arc ... The Tigers did out rebound both teams, Arkansas by 13 and Kentucky by 5, but had more turnovers than assists in both games, a combined 21 assists to 33 turnovers.

In the two games, the LSU perimeter was 20-of-72 (27.8 percent), compared to 43.5 percent for the first 13 games of the season ... The frontcourt in the two games was 21-of-44 (47.7 percent) ... However, against Arkansas, Brandon Bass had 15 points and a double-double of 14 points, 10 rebounds against Kentucky. Glen Davis had 26 points and a career high 18 rebounds against Arkansas and nine points against Kentucky with 12 rebounds.

Tigers Down Mississippi Foes At Home

LSU continued to show its muscle at home and its determination coming from 10 down in the second half to defeat Ole Miss, 70-60 (1/22/05), and then defeat its first ranked team in almost a year when it beat 24th-ranked Mississippi State, 69-62 (1/29/05).

The Tigers shot about the same thing in both games (44 percent) -- 22-of-50 against Ole Miss, 25-of-56 against Mississippi State ... However, outside the arc, after hitting just 3-of-13 against Ole Miss, the Tigers were 7-of-19 against State. The big key against Ole Miss was the ability to get to the line 30 times and more importantly the ability to make 23 or 76.7 percent of the attempts ... All five starters were in double figures scoring for LSU while Brandon Bass and Glen Davis doubled up with Davis getting his fifth straight rebounding game in double figures ... Bass and Mitchell would combine for 46 points against State, while Bass doubled up for the third straight game ... Bass also had five blocks in each of the games.

The Points Against Turnovers

LSU has had a bad trend going of giving up lots of points off turnovers, including 50 in two recent games, with Kentucky (1/22) getting 29 off 18 turnovers and 21 points off 14 Arkansas turnovers (1/19) ... It just added to some of the previous totals from other games this season as Alabama (1/8) got 19 points off LSU's 18 turnovers ... Other opponent points off turnover numbers of note -- Florida State (12/30) got 20 points off turnovers, Houston (12/21) 20, Southern Miss (12/18) 13, McNeese (12/23) getting 20 (many of them in their late comeback that fell just short), Northwestern State (12/11) 19 and West Virginia (11/27) 24.

In its last three wins, Ole Miss (1/26) got 14 points off turnovers, Mississippi State (1/29) 13 points off LSU and Georgia (2/2) 13 points.

The Stats -- Breaking Down The Wins and Losses

There is a definite difference in what has been happening to LSU in regard to the games won and the games lost -- here how it breaks down with a caveat that in the McNeese win, the stats are skewed for the opponents in that particular game after LSU had to hang on with a 21-point lead to win and includes the 36 percent shooting in the Arkansas win (1-19):

Wins -- FG%-48.1%; 3FG%-38.4; FT-77.4%; Assists to turnovers: 198-162; Rebounds-37.6; Points-82.1; Scoring Margin -- +12.3; Rebound Margin -- +7.5.

Losses -- FG%-43.5%; 3FG%-36.2%; FT-71.9%; Assists to turnovers: 70-71; Rebounds: 31.6; Points -- 67.6 ppg; Scoring Margin -- -11.4; Rebound Margin -- -3.4.

Breaking Down Home and Away

So far this season, here are the numbers for LSU in home games and those games played away from the Maravich Center --

Home -- FG%-47.5%; 3FG%-37.4; FT-77.2%; Assists to turnovers: 179-156; Rebounds-37.2; Points -- 81.1; Scoring Margin -- +9.0; Rebound Margin -- +7.3.

Away -- FG%-43.8%; 3FG%-35.8; FT-73.7%; Assists to turnovers: 99-95; Rebounds-33.9; Points--69.9; Scoring Margin -- -5.7; Rebound Margin -- -0.2.

Brandon Bass shoots 60.9 percent in the Assembly Center, compared to 50.0 percent on the road, but Bass is 5-of-7 from three-point range on the road and averages 8.9 rebounds away from home, compared to 8.5 rebounds at home ... Glen Davis is averaging a double double in the Assembly Center, 13.9 ppg and 10.4 rpg.

Free Throws

In the beginning of the season, the Tigers were red-hot at the free throw line, making nearly 78 percent at the stripe in the first five games:

Tulane (W, 83-58) -- 23-of-30 -- 76.7 percent
UL Lafayette (W, 83-69) -- 18-of-24 -- 75.0 percent
New Orleans (W, 95-79) -- 14-of-17 -- 82.4 percent
West Virginia (L, 69-84) -- 16-of-19 -- 84.2 percent
Northwestern State (W, 83-74) -- 30-of-40 -- 75.0 percent

But then in the next three games, the Tigers were struggling to hit 2/3 of the attempts in the next three games:

McNeese State (W, 82-79) -- 15-of-26 -- 57.7 percent
Southern Miss (L, 84-88 ot) -- 16-of-24 -- 66.7 percent
Houston (L, 72-81) -- 16-of-26 -- 61.5 percent

Now the Tigers are again hitting free throws with a touch not seen in recent years, and while the Tigers struggled in the late December/early January period to get to the free throw line, they did not have a game below 75 percent at the line for eight games, a streak ended against Mississippi State (1/29) when LSU shot 66.7 percent at the stripe (12-of-18) ... But the Tigers took their shooting touch back on the road Wednesday at Georgia (2/2), hitting 26-of-32 free throw attempts or 81.3 percent ... For the season, LSU is shooting 76.1 percent (305-of-401) ... That percentage presently would be the second best in school history for a season, topped only by the 77.0 percent school record set by the 1988-89 team (which had ace freshman free throw shooter, Chris Jackson) ... LSU leads the league in free throw percentage and in the seven league games is shooting 77.4 percent, 113-of-146.

Last year, LSU got to the line 678 times, 23.4 a game, and the Tigers average is rapidly gaining to 22.3 attempts a game ... The best percentage season at the line for a Brady team prior to this year was the 2000-01 team that made 69.2 percent of its attempts.

The Tigers have four starters making at least 74 percent of their attempts -- Brandon Bass 83.9 percent (78-of-93); Darrel Mitchell 85.7 percent (48-of-56), Glen Davis 75.2 percent (79-of-105) and Tack Minor 74.1 percent (43-of-58).

To compare that to the 1988-89 team which holds the school record of 77 percent for a whole season, Chris Jackson was 81.5 percent, Ricky Blanton 79.4 percent, Wayne Sims 75.0 percent, Vernel Singleton 78.0 percent and Lyle Mouton 78.0 percent for the starters on that team.

Three-Point Field Goals

In looking back at last year's effort at the three-point arc, one has to go back to the first year of the John Brady era to find a year when the Tigers had less success at making three-pointers in regard to total and percentage. Last year, LSU made 168 treys, down 47 from the 2002-03 season with a percentage of 33.6 percent for the 2003-04 year, compared to 37.7 percent for 2002-03.

So far this year, LSU's three-point abilities have improved, already making 132-of-359 attempts or 36.8 percent. The Tigers are averaging 7.3 treys a game, compared with just 5.8 a game last year ... The Tigers are on pace to make close to 200 three-pointers this season, something done by only two LSU teams ... Even better for the Tigers is the fact that they were able to go on the road at Georgia Wednesday (2/2) and make 9-of-20 three point attempts (45.0 percent) after shooting just 20-of-74 (27.0 percent) from the arc in the four previous games against Arkansas, Kentucky, Ole Miss and Mississippi State.

Antonio Hudson is still the team leader among the regulars, hitting 41.1 percent (39-of-95) from the arc. The senior's best previous year had been his freshman year when in 34 games he made 43-of-111 three-point attempts for 38.7 percent ... Hudson is third in the league in three-point percentage while Darrel Mitchell is sixth at a good 38.5 percent (45-of-117).

The Tigers enter the game having made at least one three pointer in every game of the John Brady era, 230 games ... The streak actually runs back seven more games of the 1996-97 season to Feb. 7, 1997, a total of 237 games where LSU has made at least one three-pointer ... Seven times in the 237 games, LSU has kept the streak alive by making just one three pointer in the game ... The closest streak-buster came last year in the March 3 Ole Miss game when it took 34 minutes for LSU to make a three-pointer.

"Assisted" Baskets

The term first came to attention when Coach Brady noted it during the end of the 2002-03 season when LSU had back-to-back games against Auburn and Tennessee in which the number of assists to the number of made field goals was in close proximity ... That year, LSU had 26 assists to 32 baskets against Auburn and in the very next game at Tennessee, the Tigers has 27 assisted baskets out of 30 potential field goals made (90 percent of the LSU field goals were assisted). In those two games, LSU had 53 assisted baskets out of possible 62 field goals made (85 percent).

LSU had four games last year with an assisted basket percentage of 80 percent or better ... Against Northwestern State (12/11), the Tigers had 19 assisted baskets out of a potential 22 made field goals (86 percent) ... There have been 12 such games in which the "assisted" basket percentage is 80 percent or better since 1985 ... LSU was just under 80 percent at 79.2 percent against Florida State (12/30) with 19 assists of a possible 24 baskets.

Field Goal Percentage

The Tigers loss to Southern Miss (12/18) marked a rare occasion when LSU shot 50 percent from the field but couldn't win the contest ... LSU has won 119 of its last 137 games in which it has shot 50 percent or more from the field and the Southern Miss game was only the 11th time in 75 games in which LSU has lost in the Brady era when shooting 50 percent ... LSU is now 111-23 in the Brady era when out shooting its opponents ... LSU is 8-2 this season when out shooting the opponent from the field, however the Florida State game (12/30) stopped a two-game streak of LSU shooting better, but losing ... Last year, LSU was 17-3 when out shooting the opponents ... LSU has out shot 10 of the 18 opponents this year.

The Tigers are 4-4 when shooting less than the opponent this season, and the Mississippi State (1/29) game marked the 21st time in 96 games that LSU has won in the Brady era when being out shot from the field.

Brandon Bass

2004 Pre-Season Coaches All-SEC First Team

2004-05 Naismith Award Pre-Season Candidate

LSU Louisiana Classic MVP (11/21)

SEC, LSWA Player of the Week (1/31)

In earning SEC Player of the Week and Louisiana Sports Writers Association Player of the Week honors (1/31), Bass recorded his second and third consecutive double doubles, giving him a total of seven for the season ... Against Ole Miss (1/26), his strong second half play resulted in 14 points, 11 rebounds and five blocked shots ... He followed that up with his 26 point, 11 rebound, five block performance against Mississippi State (1/29) ... There was no POW jinx in the first game after the award as he made 7-of-14 shots and 7-of-8 free throws for 21 points in 34 minutes ... It was the second time this year he has recorded back-to-back 20-plus point games ... He has continually moved up the ranks in the CBS Sportsline Productivity Ratings and presently is listed as the fifth best forward in the nation. Here are the numbers as of Thursday:

The rankings are a total player-rating system based on various offensive and defensive stations. Players increase their scores with every contribution they make to the game.

Bass enters the game averaging 17.4 points per game, 8.7 rebounds per game, shooting 57.9 percent from the field, 83.9 percent at the free throw line, while averaging 1.8 blocks per game.

In the SEC rankings, Bass is near the top in several categories: Scoring -- 5th; Rebounding -- 4th; Field Goal Percentage -- 1st; Free Throw Percentage -- 5th; Blocked Shots -- 4th; Offensive Rebounds -- 4th; Defensive Rebounds -- 4th.

The last LSU player to win the SEC field goal percentage title was Stromile Swift in 2000, when he shot right at 61 percent from the field. Bass has led the category most of the season, before falling back to second for a couple of weeks before returning to the top after shooting 11-of-14 from the field against Mississippi State (1/29).

Bass' double double against Mississippi State was the 14th of his LSU career ... Here are the seven from this season:

Northwestern State (12/11) -- 6-10 FG, 10-11 FTs, 1 ast, 2 blk, 22 pts, 14 rebounds

Southern Miss (12/18) -- 6-7 FG, 1-2 FT, 4 ast, 1 blk, 13 pts, 11 rebounds

Houston (12/21) -- 8-13 FG, 5-7 FT, 2 ast, 6 blk, 22 pts, 15 rebounds (career high boards)

Ohio State (1/15) -- 12-22 FG, 0-2 3FG, 5-5 FT, 1 blk, 1 stl, 29 pts, 10 rebounds.

Kentucky (1/22) -- 4-9 FG, 1-1 3 FG, 5-7 FT, 1 ast., 1 blk, 14 pts, 10 rebounds

Ole Miss (1/26) -- 3-10 FG, 8-11 FT, 5 blks, 1 stl, 14 pts, 11 rebounds

Miss. State (1/29) -- 11-14 FG, 1-2 3 FG, 3-5 FT, 1 asts, 5 blks, 2 stls, 26 pts, 11 rebounds

Bass' best scoring game came in the second game of the year ... The only shot Brandon Bass took that didn't go in the basket in the championship game of the LSU Louisiana Classic (11/21) against UL-Lafayette came with 1:37 to go in the first half. Other than that, he was perfect, hitting 11-of-12 from the field and eight-of-eight at the free throw line in a 30-point performance that helped him solidify Most Valuable Player honors in the tournament.

For Bass, it appeared to complete his return after he underwent arthroscopic left knee surgery Oct. 1 to repair a lateral meniscus tear. The surgery was performed following an MRI on the knee after Bass disclosed discomfort in the knee.

Bass was the SEC Freshman of the Year after the 2003-04 season in which he averaged 12.8 points and 7.4 rebounds a game. He was also on the Collegeinsider.com All-Freshman team, a second team Freshman All-America pick by Rivals.com and the 2004 Dick Vitale SEC Diaper Dandy. The Baton Rouge product also had good success in the classroom, earning a spot on the SEC Freshman Academic Honor Roll.

Bass has a great chance to advance his position from the league freshman honor roll to the overall SEC academic honors list and possibly beyond after making 4A's and 1B in his 15 hours of class work over the fall semester.

The Georgia game (2/2) marked the ninth 20-point game of Bass' career:

1. 30 -- vs. UL-Lafayette, 11/21/04

2. 29 -- vs. Ohio State, 1/15/05

3. 27 -- vs. McNeese State, 12/13/04

4. 26 -- vs. Mississippi State, 1/29/05

5. 22 -- at Houston, 12/21/04

5. 22 -- vs. Northwestern State, 12/11/04

5. 22 -- vs. UAB, 12/27/03

8. 21 -- at Georgia, 2/2/05

9. 20 -- at Arkansas, 1/6/04

Bass continues to be one of the best big men in the league in free throw shooting. Last season, Bass hit 78.3 of his attempts and made his first 22 attempts this year before missing and ending a streak of 24 straight dating back to last year ... He had his latest streak of 20 stopped in the Kentucky game (1/22).

Bass also moved into sixth in the school's top 10 career shot block list (88) ... Bass has been in double figures in 16 of the 18 games (including the last nine straight), failing to get double figures in the two games in which he got into early foul trouble against Tulane (11/19) and Florida State (12/30).

Glen Davis

*Dick Vitale Diaper Dandy of the Week, 1/18

Having tried to learn the ins and outs of college basketball through the months of October, November and December, the start of conference play mark a good start for the Baton Rouge freshman, even in an LSU loss ... Against Alabama (1-8) in Tuscaloosa, Davis had 13 points, seven rebounds, two blocks and three steals in what Coach John Brady said at the time was his most overall complete effort in his short Tiger career.

Returning home, Davis was the catalyst to help the Tigers to three straight wins, getting a career high in points (28) against South Carolina (1/12) and was an overwhelming presence for LSU in getting the win over Arkansas (1/19) with a career high 18 rebounds.

While the numbers for Davis showed he only took five recorded shots against Kentucky last Saturday, he did get to the foul line for 10 attempts. He failed to hit double figures with nine points, but recorded his fourth straight game in double figure rebounds with 12, including seven offensive boards.

The South Carolina and Ohio State games earned him recognition from Dick Vitale and ESPN as the Diaper Dandy of the Week for Jan. 18.

Against Ole Miss (1/22), he again doubled up for the fourth time in five games, with 13 points and 10 boards on 5-of-8 shooting. It was his fifth straight game in double figure rebounds, a mark equaling a run of Jaime Lloreda last year. The longest such streak of double figure rebound games in recent memory is 10 straight by Shaquille O'Neal.

Against Georgia (2/2), he recorded his sixth double double of the season with 12 points and 11 rebounds, making three-of-six field goals aided by again his strong play at the free throw line, making six-of-seven.

Davis enters Saturday's game averaging 13.0 points per game, 8.8 rebounds and 1.2 blocks per game ... Since the Utah game (1/3) when Davis had just one rebound, the freshman has seen his rebound average go up two points from 6.8 after the Utah game to its present 8.8 average.

Davis is 17th in the league in scoring and up to 2nd in rebounding ... In league games, he is tied for eighth in the league in scoring at 14.9 points per game and leads the league in rebounding in SEC games at 11.4 boards a contest. He is third in the league in SEC game field goal percentage at 53.0 percent a game ... He is one of three players in the league averaging double figures in boards in SEC games only.

For the second straight year, a Baton Rouge freshman opened his career at LSU with a double-double ... Last year, it was Brandon Bass who opened his career with 15 points and 11 rebounds in a win over Southern University ... This year, Davis came off the bench early against Tulane (11-19) and played 24 minutes, scoring 16 points with 13 rebounds ... Davis was 4-of-6 from the field and 8-of-11 from the free throw line to help the LSU percentage of 76.7 percent for the evening.

Davis has started every game since the first one and has had 11 total games in double figures ... Against Southern Miss, Davis hit 9-of-19 field goal attempts and 9-of-11 free throw attempts in that 27-point effort ... Among just freshman in the SEC, Davis is second in scoring and rebounding overall and in the league games, he is tied for the league lead in scoring, while having a big lead as the league's top freshman rebounder.

Darrel Mitchell

*LSU Louisiana Classic All-Tournament

*Louisiana Sports Writers Association Player of the Week, 1-18-05

Mitchell had his career scoring high of 32 points as he played 46 minutes in the double overtime game against Ohio State (1/15) ... Mitchell hit 8-of-13 field goals, 4-of-7 treys (including the overtime forcer with eight seconds to play) and 12-of-13 free throws to go with three assists and three steals.

It capped off a great week for the junior from St. Martinville, La., who raised his average two points after scoring 50 points in the two games ... Mitchell, for the week, was 14-of-24 from the field, 9-of-15 from the arc and 13-of-15 from the free throw line ... It earned him the Louisiana Sports Writers Association choice as the Player of the Week.

Just as good as that week was, Mitchell found himself struggling offensively the next week against Arkansas (1/19) and Kentucky (1/26), hitting just 7-of-23 shots and 3-of-14 from the arc which scoring a combined 17 points.

Against the Mississippi schools the first time around, Mitchell totaled 36 points -- 18 vs. Ole Miss (1/26) and 20 against Mississippi State (1/29) after making 11-of-22 field goals, 4-of-11 three-point shots and 10-of-10 free throws ... The junior made it four straight games in double figures with 17 points at Georgia (2/2) as for the second straight game he hit 6-of-12 field goals and three treys ... Mitchell also went to the free throw line for the first time away from the Maravich Center, making 2-of-3 against Georgia.

The St. Martinville product in his first two years was one of the most consistent three-point shooters in the game ... As a freshman in 2003, Mitchell was 42-of-99 for 42.4 percent and last year, Mitchell upped the makes and attempts, hitting 67-of-160 for a very consistent 41.9 percent ... This year, Mitchell is 45-of-117, at 38.5 percent ... He is 154-of-376 or 41.0 percent for his career, good enough for fifth on LSU's career three-point percentage makes list.

His 154 career treys puts him seventh on the LSU makes list and three back of Maurice Carter in sixth place.

Mitchell has scored at least 20 points four times this year and his 32-points against Ohio State marks the second 30 point game for an LSU player this year (Bass the other vs. UL-Lafayette) and he was the 34th LSU player since 1967 to score at least 30 in a game ... Mitchell is averaging 13.9 points per game, 2.3 rebounds per game and 3.0 assists per game ... The Alabama game (1/8) was the only game he did not have an assist this season ... He is also 48-of-56 at the free throw line (85.7 percent), fourth best in the league.

Mitchell is sixth in the league in 3-point field goal percentage and fifth in three-pointers per game at 2.50 ... He is sixth in steals average at 1.89.

Tack Minor

For the first time since Torris Bright did it against Houston in January 2003, an LSU player dished out assists in double figures as Tack Minor had 10 assists against UNO (11/24) ... Minor also had 10 points in the game to record his first college double-double.

Minor equaled that success in the Ohio State game with 10 assists and 17 points in the Ohio State victory, his second double double.

Minor has started every game this season and has 99 assists (5.5 avg.) and 69 turnovers (3.8 avg.) ... Minor has had more assists than turnovers in 10 games ... The Alabama game (1/8), was his first with more turnovers than assists since the second game of the season against Louisiana-Lafayette (11/21) ... He has been in double figures in 10 games, including against Florida State (12/30), when he scored a career high of 23 points on 8-of-18 shooting, including 5-of-9 from three point range ... Minor has dished out at least five assists in 10 of the games so far ... This year, Minor is averaging 28.7 minutes a game and 11.0 points ... Minor, after the Ohio State (1/15) game, moved into the lead in the league in assists and remains there going into Saturday's game ... Minor took a step back in the right direction after going 1-of-16 from the arc in the last four games, hitting 4-of-6 field goal attempts and 2-of-4 three-pointers at Georgia (2/2).

Antonio Hudson

*LSU Louisiana Classic All-Tournament

The Georgia game (2/2) Wednesday was the night all seniors would love to have, especially a senior trying to help his team get a first league road win of the season.

Hudson played 33 minutes, hit 8-of-13 field goal attempts, including 4-of-7 from the three-point arc and tossed in 6-of-7 free throws to finish with a career high 26 points, one point better than the previous best of 25 against South Carolina in the 2004 SEC Tournament.

Consistency has been the word for the senior from Grambling, La., this season as he has been able to put together back-to-back games of substance and rebound from sluggish games and the 26 at Georgia was a perfect example after he scored just three against Mississippi State (1/29) ... In the opener against Tulane (11/19), he scored 11 points and then in the championship game of the LSU-Louisiana Classic against UL-Lafayette, Hudson was a perfect 6-of-6 from three-point range as he recorded his seventh career 20-plus point game with 22 against the Cajuns to earn all-tournament honors. It was the jump-start to his season that propelled him on to better things.

The 26 points was his fourth 20-point game of the year:

26 -- at Georgia (2/2/05)
22 -- vs. Louisiana Lafayette (11/21/04)
20 -- at Houston (12/21/04)
20 -- vs. Ohio State (1/15/05)

Speaking of Hudson's 6-of-6 perfect night at the three-point line early in the year, he became just the fourth LSU player to be perfect outside the arc when taking at least five attempts:

Torris Bright, at Arizona (5-of-5), 12/20/00
Collis Temple, vs. Nicholls State (5-of-5), 12/22/00
Darrel Mitchell, vs. Auburn (5-of-5), 2/26/03
Antonio Hudson, vs. UL Lafayette (6-of-6), 11/21/04

For the season, Hudson is averaging 13.3 points per game, 3.3 rebounds and 1.9 assists while averaging a team-high 36.2 minutes a game ... For Hudson, trying to find the consistency that he has been striving for his entire career, the 15 games of 18 in double figures is more than any of his other years at this point of the season.

Another sign of the consistency has been Hudson's strong play on the arc. Hudson opened the season by hitting 19-of-36 outside the line and is 39-of-95 for the year, 41.1 percent.

Against Florida State (12/30) he became the 34th player in LSU history to score 1,000 career points ... He now has 1,116 points and he is now 26th on LSU's career scoring list ... Hudson is 16th in the league in scoring, fifth in the league in three-point percentage and 8th in threes per game (2.17).

Ross Neltner

Neltner continues to earn more playing time and continues to make the most of it for the Tigers ... In the last four games against Kentucky (1/22), Ole Miss (1/26), Mississippi State (1/29) and Georgia (2/2), Neltner has played 57 minutes, made 5-of-10 field goal attempts, including 4-of-4 treys, 4-of-6 FTs, with 13 rebounds, three steals and 18 points ... For the season, Ross is averaging 13.1 minutes per game, 2.7 points and 3.2 rebounds a game.

Neltner returned to his home state for the first time against Kentucky (1/22) and played 13 strong minutes and equaled his career high of seven points for the third time this season ... Neltner hit 2-of-3 field goal attempts, including a three-pointer and two free throws against the Wildcats ... The first seven point effort came in the season opener against Tulane when Neltner made his first LSU start and the sophomore played 20 minutes, hitting 3-of-6 field goals with five rebounds ... Neltner also had seven points in the Dec. 13 game against McNeese State.

Neltner was a big factor in the Florida State game (12/30), coming off the bench with foul trouble looming for LSU's starting forwards and played 30 solid minutes, hitting both field goal attempts and both free throw attempts to go with two assists and two blocked shots ... Against Mississippi State (1/29), Neltner hit both three-point attempts as he had six points in the game ... Neltner has made 17-of-37 field goal attempts (45.9 percent) and 6-of-11 from outside the arc.

Xavier Whipple

The senior point guard has been a steady influence coming off the bench to average 17.9 minutes a game ... That's what he has become known for in the last 1 1/2 years when he was the starting point guard for the Tigers ... That influence is more and more apparent as he has accepted his role to help the team ... Whipple had a strong game off the bench play-making against McNeese State (12/13), with six assists and just one turnover ... Whipple had his second scoring high of eight points against Houston (12/21), playing 28 minutes, hitting 3-of-5 field goals, including a trey, while dishing out four assists to just one turnover ... Whipple has an assist-to-turnover ratio of 2.4 with 33 assists and just 14 turnovers so far this season ... Against Alabama (1/8), Whipple played a season high 30 minutes, hitting two-of-five field goal attempts for four points with five assists and two turnovers ... He came back against South Carolina and though he played just 14 minutes he had four assists and no turnovers.

Whipple doesn't shoot often, but this season he is 7-of-19 from three-point range, giving him 25 career three-point makes, his last coming in the Arkansas game (1/19) ... Whipple was three-for-three from the field against Mississippi State (1/29) ... Whipple is averaging 2.4 points per game and 1.6 rebounds per game to go with 1.8 assists.

Darnell Lazare

In 17 games, he is averaging 2.0 points per game and 1.4 rebounds, averaging 7.1 minutes of playing time per game ... Lazare hit 2-of-3 field goal attempts at Georgia (2/2) in the first half in a tight portion of the game, to help the Tigers keep momentum against the Bulldogs ... Lazare has hit 13-of-23 field goal attempts and 8-of-11 free throws ... His best scoring and rebounding game came against UNO with nine points (the fourth highest scoring game of his career) and seven rebounds ... Lazare started eight games a year ago at forward for the Tigers ... Lazare basket against Mississippi State (1/29) was his first points since the Southern Miss game on 12/18.

Paul Wolfert

The son of a former Tiger, the junior has seen action in four of the last five games ... He is on scholarship this season after walking on to the program four years ago ... Wolfert has played in eight games, a total of 12 minutes, but has played seven combined in the games against Kentucky (1/22), Mississippi State (1/29) and Georgia (2/2).

Overtime

The back-to-back overtime games against Ohio State (1/15) and Arkansas (1/19), marked the first time LSU has played back-to-back overtime games since February 1984 when LSU defeated Georgia on Feb. 4, 1984, 69-68, and Tennessee on Feb. 6, 1984, 61-59 ... Ironically, both of those games were also at the Maravich Center.

LSU has now played three overtime games this year, the first time since the 1989-90 season when LSU went to overtime against Mississippi State, Georgia and Loyola Marymount.

LSU's first overtime game came in December against Southern Miss (12/18) and at that time it was the first LSU game to go to overtime since Feb. 13 2002, when LSU rallied to force overtime against Mississippi State and won, 68-65 ... LSU lost to Southern Miss in that game in Biloxi, 88-84 ... The Ohio State double overtime marked LSU's last multiple overtime game since the 1999 season, when LSU lost a three-overtime tilt at Alabama, 72-71 ... The last multiple overtime game in Baton Rouge was the double-overtime win over Purdue in the first round of the 1986 NCAA Tournament ... LSU is now 27-41 in overtime games and 18-16 in Baton Rouge overtimes ... The Tigers are 5-4 in the John Brady era in overtime games.

With the two overtime games back-to-back, the Tiger starters racked up some minutes, most notably: Darrel Mitchell 46 minutes against Ohio State, Tack Minor 42 against Ohio State, Brandon Bass 86 minutes in the two games, Glen Davis 42 minutes against Arkansas and Antonio Hudson 86 minutes in the two games.

Some 100 Point Notes

The last time the Tigers scored 100 points prior to the Jan. 15, 2005 Ohio State game, ironically, was Jan. 15, 2003, when LSU beat Centenary, 112-65 ... The last time LSU was involved in a game that both teams scored 100 was Nov. 29, 1995, when LSU beat Southern University, 109-100 ... The LSU-Ohio State game marked the 24th time LSU had been involved in a game where both teams scored in double figures and LSU has a record of 15-9 ... The Tigers have won 10 straight games when scoring 100, dating back to the end of the 1993-94 season when LSU lost to Arkansas in overtime, 108-105, at the Maravich Center ... That loss is the only one in the last 34 when LSU has scored 100 points or more, winning 33 of the last 34 games in which the Tigers score 100 ... Overall, LSU is 95-8 when scoring 100 points or more.

Assists and Turnover Numbers

The Tigers assists and steals were down last year, with 346 assists and 176 steals compared to 2003 -- 515 assists, 255 steals; 2002 -- 467 assists, 280 steals; 2000 -- 503 assists, 313 steals.

Last year, LSU averaged 11.9 assists and 6.1 steals a game ... This year, the Tigers numbers in assists are up, averaging 15.4 a game, with the steal number up slightly to 7.1 a game. Ironically against Ole Miss (1/26), the assist number of six was the lowest of the season, while LSU was in double figures in steals (12), for just the third time this season.

LSU has kept the assist to turnover ratio positive so far with 278 assists to 251 turnovers with more assists than turnovers in 11 games. For the last five years, LSU's primary point guards have had a positive assist-to-turnover ratio ... So far this year, Tack Minor has 99 assists to 69 turnovers and Xavier Whipple has 33 assists to 14 turnovers ... While the point guards over the years have kept the numbers positive, the 2002-03 team is the only LSU team under John Brady to finish with more assists than turnovers for the season ... LSU opponents have dished out 212 assists to 278 for LSU, while the Tigers have forced 229 turnovers.

LSU's other two guards, Antonio Hudson and Darrel Mitchell also have good assist and turnover numbers with Hudson having 35 assists and 27 turnovers, while Mitchell is at 54 assists and 40 turnovers.

LSU was 10-8 on television last year, the first winning record on TV since the 1999-2000 season when LSU recorded a 13-4 mark ... LSU is 7-3 on TV this year with the Tigers next on FSN Saturday at Tennessee.

The Louisiana Streak Still Alive For Another Season

The McNeese game, as close and as crazy as it was at the end, kept alive for the Tigers their 16-year win streak over Louisiana schools, now at 52 games ... The last time a Louisiana school beat the Tigers in the Maravich Center was when Louisiana Tech beat LSU, 111-109, in overtime (Dec. 6, 1988). The present streak started two nights later as LSU was able to sneak out a two-point win over McNeese State on Dec. 8, 1988 ... LSU was 5-0 this year against Louisiana schools.

Non-Conference Streak Busted, But Started Again For Next Year

The West Virginia loss (11/27) was only the 27th in 225 non-conference games in the 30-plus year history of the building and it was the first loss in a regular season non-conference home game since Dec. 1, 1987 against Lamar, a span of 56 games ... The Tigers are 61-4 in the John Brady era in home non-conference games ... That streak includes two wins over Arizona, including a win when the Wildcats were No. 1, last year's win over Utah and now the double-overtime win over Ohio State ... Since the West Virginia game, LSU won non-conference games against Northwestern State, McNeese State and Ohio State.

LSU Fails to Win When Scoring 80

The number 80 had been a good one for the Tigers in John Brady's eight seasons as the Tigers coach as they entered the Dec. 18 game with Southern Miss, 48-0, in the Brady era when scoring at least 80 points, including 5-0 this season ... But when Southern Miss prevailed in an 88-84 win, it marked the first time in the Brady era the Tigers were not the winners when scoring 80 points or more ... With LSU's 95 points against Georgia, the Tigers are 49-1 when scoring 80 or more and 20-0 in the Brady era when scoring 90-plus in a game.

97 and Counting

Over one-third of LSU's basketball seasons have been played in the Maravich Center as men's basketball goes into its 97th season ... LSU's record entering the season is 1,294-981 on court, needing just six wins to become the 55th school in Division I to win 1,300 games in its history.

Another Diploma On the Mantle

When LSU player Charles Thompson graduated last May, it gave Coach John Brady his 11th player to graduate since he took over the LSU program. The list of LSU graduates during John Brady's coaching tenure at LSU:

Fathers and Sons

For the second time in recent LSU history, the Tiger roster includes three players whose fathers played basketball also for the Purple and Gold.

Of course, junior Josh Maravich is the son of the greatest scorer in the history of college basketball Pistol Pete Maravich, who played varsity ball from 1967-68 through the 1969-70 season ... Also junior Paul Wolfert's Dad Rick Wolfert played at LSU 1972-73 and freshman (being redshirted this season) Garrett Temple's dad, Collis, Jr., played at LSU from 1971-74 ... Garrett's older brother, Collis III, was a member of the Tiger squad under John Brady from 1999-03.

LSU in Tournaments

The win by LSU in the championship game of the LSU Louisiana Classic tournament marked the 11th time LSU has won a regular season tournament in school history ... This was the fourth time LSU has opened up the season with an LSU hosted tournament since the 1975-76 season and LSU has a perfect 8-0 record in those events ... LSU's overall regular season tournament record is 58-50 with these tournament titles:

1952 Sugar Bowl Classic (New Orleans); 1958 Gator Bowl Tournament (Jacksonville, Fla.)
1968 All-College Tournament (Oklahoma City, Okla.); 1975 Louisiana Classic (Baton Rouge)
1985 LSU Invitational (Baton Rouge); 1986 Seaside Classic (Laie, Hawaii)
1987 LSU Invitational (Baton Rouge); 1988 Chaminade Classic (Honolulu, Hawaii)

25 Years of Hawthorne

LSU Sports Network play-by-play voice Jim Hawthorne is in his 25th year as the voice of the LSU men's basketball team ... Hawthorne began calling the LSU games at the start of the 1979-80 season, traveling from Shreveport where he then worked at KWKH Radio in Shreveport. At that time he was the voice of the Centenary Gents and had become known for his work with the Gents on the 50,000-watt clear-channel station at a time when future star Robert Parish played for Centenary.

Hawthorne called the games through the NCAA Final Four season of 1980-81, missing the 1981-82 season, before the rights holder at the time brought Jim back to the microphone and when the 1982-83 season began, Hawthorne was now a Baton Rouge resident. He was later hired from the affiliate by the LSU Athletic Department in 1986 and today serves as Assistant Athletic Director in charge of radio.

LSU shot 57.1 percent from the field, including 64.3 percent in the second half ... Game 4 -- West Virginia 84, LSU 69 (11-27-04, Maravich Center)

Leading scorers: Tack Minor 17, Brandon Bass 15, Darrel Mitchell 14; Leading rebounder: Brandon Bass 9; Leading Assists: Tack Minor 6

The Tigers' 56-game regular season non-conference home winning streak came to an end with the loss to West Virginia ... The Mountaineers shot 60 percent from the field (33-of-55) and made 11 three-pointers to get the win ... After trading the lead back and forth, West Virginia took the lead for good at 19-17 with 11:52 to play in the first half and led by as much as 13 in the second half, before LSU rallied to cut it to four with 7:40 left ... But the Tigers could get no closer ... LSU out rebounded West Virginia, 36-25, shooting 38.6 percent from the floor ... LSU's free throw percentage continued to be good, making 16-of-19.

Game 5 -- LSU 83, Northwestern St. 74 (12-11, Maravich Center)

Leading scorers: Brandon Bass 22, Darrel Mitchell 20, Tack Minor 12, Antonio Hudson 12, Glen Davis 10; Leading rebounder: Bass 14; Leading Assists: Minor 8

LSU jumped out to 5-0 lead and led eight at the intermission after giving up the lead twice in the final 10 minutes of the first half ... But the Demons couldn't be put away, cutting the lead to two in the final seven minutes ... All five starters were in double figures for the Tigers with Bass getting his first double-double of the year with a career high 14 rebounds ... Ross Neltner had a career rebound night (6) and three players equaled or bettered career marks at the free throw line ... LSU was out shot from the field, 44.0 to 46.0 percent, but out rebounded the Demons, 40-32 ... The Tigers had 19 assists for the 22 made baskets, 86 percent.

Game 6 - LSU 82, McNeese St. 79 (12-13, Maravich Center)

Leading scorers: Brandon Bass 27, Glen Davis 15, Antonio Hudson 13; Leading rebounder: Brandon Bass 7, Glen Davis 7; Leading Assists: Xavier Whipple 6

A game of stark contrast as LSU apparently broke the game open, holding McNeese scoreless during the final 3:30 of the first half and the first five minutes of the second half to go from one point down to up 20, 55-35 ... LSU would have a 22-point lead, 65-43, with 10:12 to play only to see the whole thing evaporate and McNeese have two three-point attempts in the final 13 seconds to tie ... Brandon Bass had the second highest scoring game of the season and his LSU career and while LSU did shot 50 percent from the field, the Tigers were out rebounded, 42-33, and shot from 26 percent (5-19) from the arc ... Also after five strong games at the free throw line, the Tigers hit just 57.7 percent (15-26) from the free throw line.

Game 7 - Southern Miss 88, LSU 84 (OT) (12-18, Biloxi, Miss.)

Leading scorers: Glen Davis 27, Tack Minor 17, Darrel Mitchell 14, Brandon Bass 13; Leading rebounder: Brandon Bass 11; Leading Assists: Tack Minor 5

For the second straight game, the Tigers were full of ebbs and flows as an offense and a defense against the Golden Eagles, falling behind 16 points in the first half (down 11 at the half) to going up by seven points three times in the final nine minutes, the last at 71-64 with 3:07 to play ... But the Tigers were unable to hold the lead, and a Southern Miss bucket with 1.1 to play tied the game at 77-77 forcing overtime ... The Tigers made just 2-of-10 shots in OT and lost for the second time this season and for the first time in the Brady era when scoring 80 or more points ... LSU shot 50.8 percent from the field, but was out rebounded by the Golden Eagles, 38-33.

Game 8 - Houston 81, LSU 72 (12-21, Houston, Texas)

Leading scorers: Brandon Bass 22, Antonio Hudson 20; Leading rebounder: Brandon Bass 15; Leading Assists: Tack Minor 5

Except for an early spurt with the lead, the Tigers were in trouble on a couple of fronts, most notably defensively, giving up at least 79 points for the third straight game ... LSU led, 14-7, with six minutes gone in the first half, but the Cougars came back through the rest of a see-saw first half to lead, 37-35, at the intermission ... In the second half, the Cougars were able to drive past the LSU defense for easy goals, opening up as much as a 19-point advantage ... LSU shot 46.4 percent from the field, but only 23 percent from three-point range ... The Tigers were out rebounded, 42-39, but Houston had 17 offensive rebounds ... Brandon Bass had his second-straight double-double, including a career high 15 rebounds and a career equaling best six blocks as LSU lost two-straight games against non-SEC teams for the first time in the John Brady era.

Game 9 - LSU 67, Florida State 50 (12-30, New Orleans, La)

Leading scorers: Tack Minor 23, Antonio Hudson 18; Leading rebounder: Antonio Hudson 8. Leading Assists: Tack Minor 9

In the Nokia Sugar Bowl Classic, Tigers spurted early in the game and then used a "patient" up-tempo style of play on offense and increased attention to rebounding and defense to give the SEC a sweep of the doubleheader against the ACC ... Tigers jumped out to an 18-5 lead in the first five minutes and led by as much as 19, 31-12, in the first half before going to the dressing room up 35-27 ... The closest Florida State got was five with 6:26 to play, 49-49, but Antonio Hudson (twice) and Tack Minor hit threes to up the margin back to 58-44 with 4:53 to play ... The 23 points was a career high for Minor and Hudson became the 34th LSU player to go over 1,000 career points ... Tigers perimeter responded in the wake of foul trouble which saw Brandon Bass foul out and Glen Davis and Ross Neltner play with four fouls each.

Game 10 -- Utah 69, LSU 55 (1-3, Salt Lake City, Utah)

Leading scorers: Brandon Bass 17, Tack Minor 12, Antonio Hudson 11; Leading rebounder: Brandon Bass 9; Leading Assists: Darrel Mitchell 4, Tack Minor 4

Tigers were able to stay with the Utes Monday at the Huntsman Center for a half, but the dominance of Andrew Bogut (24-17) proved too much for LSU to overcome in the second half ... LSU was forced to shoot 31 threes over the defense of the Utes and made 11 with Brandon Bass making all three -of-his attempts ... LSU shot 38 percent for the game (19-50) and 35.5 percent from the three-point arc (11-of-31) ... LSU shot over 80 percent again from the line (6-of-7), but for the second straight game didn't get to the line very much ... LSU was out rebounded, 39-21 ... The Tigers had 13 assists and just six turnovers.

Game 11 -- Alabama 73, LSU 58 (1-8, Tuscaloosa, Ala.)

Leading Scorers: Glen Davis 13, Darrel Mitchell & Antonio Hudson 11, Brandon Bass 10; Leading Rebounder: Glen Davis 7; Leading Assists: Tack Minor, Xavier Whipple 5

For the second straight game, the Tigers were able to stay with an opponent for a half before the inability to stop the Tide's run and muster any offense of its own proved too much to overcome. LSU was down one, 35-34, at the half and LSU had a 40-39 lead with 18:21 to play on a Hudson field goal that would be LSU's last until the 7:35 mark which by then Alabama had a 60-45 lead ... The Tigers shot 42.6 percent from the field (20-47), while Alabama posted a 44.6 field goal percentage (25-56). LSU shot 50 percent from the three-point arc, 8-of-16, compared to 3-of-16 for Alabama ... The Tigers were out rebounded, 31-29, and had 18 turnovers compared to nine for Alabama.

Game 12 -- LSU 79, South Carolina 64 (1-12, Baton Rouge, La.)

Leading scorers: Glen Davis 28, Darrel Mitchell 18, Brandon Bass 12, Antonio Hudson 11; Leading rebounder: Glen Davis 14; Leading Assist: Tack Minor 6

The Tigers played probably its best overall game of the season in defeating the Gamecocks in the first LSU home game in a month and the SEC home opener ... The Tigers used a 14-3 run late in the first half to go to the dressing room up 10, 39-29, after shooting 60 percent from the floor and then used a 16-0 run after South Carolina had cut the game to seven points to put things away ... Glen Davis had a career night in points and rebounds and LSU shot 58.8 percent for the game (30-of-51), 47.4 percent from the arc (9-of-19) ... South Carolina hit 50 percent from the floor, but LSU out rebounded the Gamecocks, 30-19.

Game 13 -- LSU 113, Ohio St. 101 (2ot) (1-15, Baton Rouge, La.)

Leading scorers: D. Mitchell 32, B. Bass 29, A. Hudson 20, T. Minor 17, G. Davis 15; Leading rebounder: Glen Davis 11, Brandon Bass 10; Leading Assist: Tack Minor 10

Some of the numbers from an offensive showcase against the Buckeyes -- between the two teams 11 players were in double figures scoring and three LSU players posted double doubles ... Mitchell's point total was a career high and the Tigers made 93.5 percent from the free-throw line, 29-of-31 ... LSU shot over 50 percent for the second straight game (38-73), winning while being out shot from the floor by Ohio State ... The Tigers tied the game with eight seconds in regulation on a Mitchell trey to force the overtime and Bass had 14 of his 29 points in overtime as LSU played double overtime in Baton Rouge for the first time since the 1986 NCAA Tournament win over Purdue.

Game 14 -- LSU 66, Arkansas 63 (ot) (1-19, Baton Rouge, La.)

Leading scorers: Glen Davis 26, Brandon Bass 15; Leading rebounder: Glen Davis 18. Leading Assist: Tack Minor 6

The Tigers go to overtime for the second straight game and end of the victory ... It was the first time LSU had played back-to-back overtime since February 1984 ... The Tigers had a four-point lead, but struggled in the second half, falling behind by five points, 54-49 with 4:34 to play ... LSU rallied to tie the game at 54-54 and 56-56, before taking a 58-56 lead with 10 seconds left on a lay up by Antonio Hudson ... Arkansas would make a top of the key shot with 1.8 seconds to play and after time expired, the officials reviewed the video tape and call it a two, forcing the overtime ... There was only one field goal by the two teams in the extra session, but it was by LSU's Davis and the Tigers were 6-of-7 at the free throw line to get the win ... LSU shot just 36.7 percent from the field to 44 percent for the Razorbacks, but LSU made 17-of-20 free throws and out rebounded Arkansas, 42-29.

Game 15 -- Kentucky 89, LSU 58 (1-22, Lexington, Ky.)

Leading scorers: Brandon Bass 14, Antonio Hudson 11, Darrel Mitchell 10; Leading rebounder: Glen Davis 12, Brandon Bass 10. Leading assists: Darrel Mitchell 4.

The Tigers struggled to make shots from the field while Kentucky was hitting shots from all over, making 32-of-59 for the game and 11-of-20 from three-point range, while the Tigers were 19-of-57 overall and 5-of-22 from the arc ... The Tigers out rebounded Kentucky, 37-32, but the Tigers had just 10 assists and 18 turnovers ... Tigers shot just 7-of-31 in the second half ... Tigers lost for the fifth straight time in the SEC on the road.

Game 16 -- LSU 70, Ole Miss 60 (1/26/05, Baton Rouge, La.)

Leading scorers: Darrel Mitchell 16, Brandon Bass 14, Glen Davis 13, Tack Minor 12, Antonio Hudson 10; Leading rebounder: Bass 11, Davis 10. Leading Assists: Tack Minor 2.

The Tigers looked ready to come out strong at home again, building an early lead on the Rebels, before Ole Miss hit some key buckets in the final four minutes of the half and went to the dressing room, up 36-34 ... The Rebels expanded the lead to 10 in the first seven minutes of the second half and led 55-46 with 10:44 left when LSU went on a 15-0 run that took the lead to 61-55 with 3:03 to play ... Ole Miss' next score came with 2:51 to play, cutting the game to three, but the Tigers finished the game at the line to go 9-1 at home this season.

Game 17 -- LSU 69, Miss. State 62 (1/29/05, Baton Rouge, La.)

Leading scorers: Brandon Bass 26, Darrel Mitchell 20; Leading rebounder: Brandon Bass 11; Leading Assists: Darrel Mitchell 7

But LSU would answer back each time to get the win, going to 10-1 at home this season ... Bass had five blocks for the second straight game and double-doubled for the third straight game ... LSU shot 44.6 percent (25-56) to 45.5 percent (25-55) for Mississippi State ... The Tigers had 18 assists and 13 turnovers.
