2005 CHICK-FIL-A PEACH BOWL

The No. 9 Miami Hurricanes will play in their second Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl in as many years and will go for their third Peach Bowl win in as many attempts when they take on the 10th-ranked Louisiana State Tigers at 7:30 p.m. Friday, December 30 in Atlanta's Georgia Dome. Miami (9-3), which defeated Florida 27-10 in last year's Peach Bowl, will look to reach the 10-win mark for the fifth time in the last six years and become the first team to win the Peach Bowl in back-to-back years.

This is the first matchup of two top-10 teams in the history of the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl and one of only three matchups to feature two top-10 teams on the 28-bowl slate for 2005-06. In addition to having solid 2005 seasons, both Miami and LSU have a rich Peach Bowl history with a combined 5-0 record (UM is 2-0 and LSU is 3-0).

Miami is making its 32nd bowl appearance, dating back to the 1933 Palm Festival (which later became the Orange Bowl). UM has an 18-13 all-time record in bowl games, including last year's win against Florida. Since Miami's win in the 1981 Peach Bowl, the team has won five national championships (1983, 1987, 1989, 1991 and 2001) and has compiled a 14-7 record (.667) in bowl games. The 2005 Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl features two of the past four Bowl Championship Series national champions. LSU won the BCS title in 2003, and Miami captured its fifth national crown in 2001.

Defense is the specialty of both teams, with Miami being the No. 3 team nationally in total defense (252.09 yards per game) and LSU ranking No. 5 (276.33). Miami is No. 2 in scoring defense (11.91 points per game) and LSU is No. 8 (15.17). Junior All-America safety Brandon Meriweather (102 tackles, three interceptions) and All-ACC cornerback Kelly Jennings (16 passes defensed, three interceptions) lead Miami's top-ranked pass defense (148.2 yards per game) and have been key in holding opponents to a nation-best 84.57 pass efficiency rating.

Miami's offense is led by sophomore quarterback Kyle Wright and senior All-America left tackle Eric Winston. Wright ranked second in the ACC with a 140.68 pass efficiency rating, completing 170 of 286 passes for 2,303 yards and 18 touchdowns, with only 10 interceptions in his first year as the Hurricanes' starter. Senior wide receiver Sinorice Moss (35 receptions, 604 yards and six TDs) is Wright's favorite target, with junior tight end Greg Olsen (31 receptions, 451 yards and four TDs) not far behind. Sophomore Charlie Jones has produced a majority of his 457 rushing yards and all of his five touchdowns since taking over the ball-carrying duties after Tyrone Moss went down with a season-ending knee injury against Virginia Tech on Nov. 5.

THE OPPONENT: Louisiana State is coming off a disappointing 34-14 loss to Georgia in the SEC Championship game on Dec. 3 in the Georgia Dome. Les Miles has led the Tigers to a 7-1 mark in the SEC this season and is looking for win No. 11 in his first year as LSU's head coach. The Tigers are led by strong-armed junior quarterback JaMarcus Russell, who suffered a shoulder injury in the SEC Championship game against Georgia. Russell, who has thrown for 2,443 yards and 15 touchdowns this season, is complemented by the strong backfield tandem of Joseph Addai (781 yards, eight TDs) and Justin Vincent (457 yards, five TDs). Dwayne Bowe has pulled in a team-best 38 receptions for 659 yards and nine TDs. All-purpose man Skyler Green leads the the Tigers in punt returns (13.6 average, one TD) and kickoff returns (357 yards, 19.7 average) and is second on the team in receiving (32 receptions) and fourth on the team in rushing (111 yards). The stingy Tigers defense is anchored by All-SEC defensive lineman Claude Wroten (9.5 tackles for loss) and Melvin Oliver's team-best 8.0 sacks. Defensive back LaRon Landry also took home All-SEC honors with a team-best three interceptions and 65 tackles.

THE SERIES: This is the 12th meeting between the schools, but the first since 1988. LSU holds an 8-3 edge in the series, but Miami has won three of the past four, including a 44-3 victory in Baton Rouge in 1988. The last time the team's met, more than 17 years ago, was the only meeting between the schools during the lifespan of anyone playing in this year's game. Prior to the 1988 game, the two teams met 10 times between 1946 and 1969.

HURRICANES DOING FINE WITH NINE

With a win against LSU, Miami would earn its 10th win of the season for the fifth time in the last six years and for the 14th time in the last 23 seasons. Miami is one of only two teams in NCAA Division I to have at least nine wins in each season since 2000. Only Texas joins Miami as having recorded at least nine wins in each of the last six seasons (including 2005). Miami is the nation's winningest team since the 2000 season (by percentage).

MIAMI LEADS NCAA IN GRADUATES

At the start of this season, the Miami Hurricanes roster included 11 players who had already received their undergraduate degrees, which was the highest total in the NCAA this year.

1.	Miami	11
2.	Auburn	9
	Boston College	9
4.	Louisiana State	8
	Virginia Tech	8

Since then, 10 more Hurricanes graduated in December: DT Baraka Atkins, DT Orien Harris, WR Ryan Moore, WR Sinorice Moss, DE Javon Nanton, PK Jon Peattie, C Alex Pou, S Greg Threat, LB Leon Williams and C Anthony Wollschlager.

Miami's graduates prior to this season were: OT Rashad Butler, DE Thomas Carroll, WR Tanard Davis, PK Mark Gent, FB Quadtrine Hill, CB Kelly Jennings, CB Marcus Maxey, LB Rocky McIntosh, TE Buck Ortega, G Tony Tella and OT Eric Winston.

2005 Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl

SAVING THEIR BEST FOR LAST

The Peach Bowl will be the last game for 18 UM seniors. While a great final game would be a fitting sendoff, several UM seniors on both sides of the ball have already posted career-best performances this season. Below is a look at some Hurricanes upperclassmen who have already posted career highs in 2005:

DL Orien Harris - Career-high 64 tackles.

FB Quadtrine Hill - Has rushed for a career-best 138 yards on 19 carries this season and has amassed a career-high 354 yards rushing and receiving. Had a career-long rush of 38 yards and career-high 55 yards on four carries vs. Colorado; career-long reception of 55 yards at Temple.

DB Kelly Jennings - His career-high 16 passes defended led the ACC and was third in the nation. He leads the team with three forced fumbles and is tied for the team lead with a career-high three interceptions. He recorded the first two-interception game of his career against Virginia Tech.

DB Marcus Maxey - Got his first career interception vs. Florida State and has two interceptions this season and a career-high 35 tackles.

LB Rocky McIntosh - Has registered a career-high 58 solo tackles and has tied a career mark with four sacks this season.

WR Sinorice Moss - Has a career-best 604 yards receiving in 11 games, had a career-long 92-yard reception against Temple, and leads the team with a career-high six touchdown receptions. Also had a career-high six receptions vs. Georgia Tech.

DE Javon Nanton - Leads the team with 7.0 sacks.

TE Buck Ortega - Had a career-high 43 yards receiving vs. Colorado and has a career-best 100 yards receiving.

LB Leon Williams - Had a career-long 51 yard fumble return vs. Colorado (took a lateral from Kareem Brown)

Offensive Line - LT Eric Winston, LG Tyler McMeans and RT Rashad Butler started all 11 games, while RG Tony Tella's only missed start was due to injury at Florida State in the season opener.

AWARDS CONFIRM SUCCESSFUL COMEBACK FOR WINSTON

Senior left tackle Eric Winston, who missed the final eight games of the 2004 season with a torn ligaments in his knee, has progressively improved throughout 2005 to regain his status as one of college football's top linemen. He was named to the Walter Camp All-America team and was awarded The Jacobs Blocking Trophy, awarded annually since 1953 to the player voted the most outstanding blocker in the ACC by a poll of the league's defensive coordinators. He has been named to almost every All-America team so far.

ALL-AMERICAN MERIWEATHER CLOSING IN ON RECORD

Junior safety Brandon Meriweather has been an invaluable asset to UM's defense, in the stats and as a team leader. Meriweather is leading the team in tackles (102), solo tackles (67), tackles for loss (12) and is tied for the team lead with three interceptions. Those numbers have already earned him a spot on the 2005 ABC Sports/Cingular All-America team as voted by the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA), and he was named to Sports Illustrated's midseason All-America team. Meriweather is also closing in on a school record. He needs two more solo tackles to set the UM record for solo tackles by a safety in one season, a mark that has stood for nearly 35 years. Daryl Reeh holds the record with 68 in the 1971 season. Meriweather currently has 113 solo tackles in his UM career, putting him within striking distance of Bennie's Blades' career record of 155 solo tackles by a safety next season.

MOSS MAN AND THE LONG BALL

Senior wide receiver Sinorice Moss entered the 2005 season with 492 career yards receiving and surpassed that this season with a team-leading 604 yards through 11 games. He also leads the Hurricanes with six touchdown receptions this season, also a career high. While those numbers by themselves aren't gaudy, the way he has gotten them is. He has caught three touchdown passes of 50 yards or more (53 vs. Colorado, 92 at Temple and 64 at Wake Forest), and is averaging 45.2 yards on his six TD catches this year. The Moss Man has played a major role in Miami having the most 50-plus-yard passing touchdowns since the 1998 season. In addition to Moss' catches, Lance Leggett hauled in a 76-yard TD against Wake Forest to give Miami four 50-plus TD passes this season, one fewer than the 1998 team. Sinorice is also the first Hurricane to have three TD receptions of 50 yards or more since the 1998 season when his older brother, Santana, also had three touchdown passes of 50 yards or more.

JENNINGS BREAKING UP THE ACC AND THE NCAA

Senior cornerback Kelly Jennings, Miami's most experienced starter on defense, was touted by head coach Larry Coker as being one of the most consistent performers on the team in the preseason. That translated to the regular season, in which Jennings broke up a career-high 13 passes and intercepted three balls to lead the ACC with 16 passes defended this season. Jennings also ranked third in the NCAA in passes defended. He knocked down three passes against Florida State and had two against Clemson, including a near-interception that preceded Kenny Phillips' game-sealing pick in overtime. Jennings added one apiece against Colorado and Duke, and posted the first two-interception game of his career against Virginia Tech. He followed that performance with an interception against Wake Forest to set a career high with three interceptions this season.

JONES ANSWERS THE CALL IN FIRST START

When junior starting running back Tyrone Moss went down with a season-ending knee injury in the first quarter against Virginia Tech, sophomore backup Charlie Jones was more than up to the task of taking over the ball-carrying duties. In that game, Jones rushed for a career-high 97 yards on 24 carries with a touchdown. "I think Charlie was ready to play," head coach Larry Coker said. "When he had the opportunity, he really stepped up." That is nothing new at Miami. UM's recent slew of talented running backs have made the most of their opportunities when the starters go down. Jones' 90-yard, two-touchdown performance against Wake Forest one week later carried on the tradition of Miami backs stepping up when they have to step into the spotlight.

Year	Injured Starter	Replacement	Att	Yds	Avg	TD
1997	Dyral McMillan	Edgerrin James, Soph.	16	71	4.4	1
1997	Edgerrin James	James Jackson, Soph.	16	67	4.2	1
1999	James Jackson	Clinton Portis, Fr.	27	139	5.1	0
2002	Frank Gore (preseason)	Willis McGahee, Soph.	6	60	10.0	1
2003	Frank Gore	Jarrett Payton, Sr.	26	97	3.7	0
2005	Tyrone Moss	Charlie Jones, Soph.	17	90	5.3	2

Jones took over for Moss midway through the second quarter at Virginia Tech, and he sat out most of the second half at Wake Forest. He is second on the team in rushing this season with 457 yards rushing on 115 carries and five touchdowns.

THE WRIGHT STUFF

Kyle Wright knows how to keep his receivers happy. The sophomore Miami quarterback tied a school record with five touchdown passes against Wake Forest to equal the feat performed by Bernie Kosar in 1984, Steve Walsh in 1988, Ken Dorsey in 2000 and Brock Berlin in 2004. But only Walsh and Wright were able to connect with five different receivers for those touchdowns. Wright and his slew of receivers scored Miami's last five touchdowns of the game against the Demon Deacons to complete a 17-of-27, 319-yard performance for the sophomore. His scoring passes went to Sinorice Moss (64 yards), Darnell Jenkins (11), Ryan Moore (15), Lance Leggett (76) and Greg Olsen (10). Wright threw 18 touchdown passes and only 10 interceptions in his first season calling the signals for the Hurricanes.

Miami vs. Louisiana State

2005 DEFENSE RANKS AMONG MIAMI'S BEST EVER

The 2005 Miami defense is allowing an average of only 252.1 yards per game, which is the third-lowest in school history. The lowest total in UM history is 216.45 per game and 2,381 yards allowed that was set by the 1989 national champion Hurricanes. Here's how the 2005 defense compares to the five UM national championship defenses.

Year	Yards/game	Total yards	NCAA Rank
2005	252.09	*2,773	3rd
2001	269.92	3,239	6th
1991	288.72	3,176	14th
1989	216.45	2,381	1st
1987	244.00	2,684	6th
1983	259.36	2,853	4th

TOUGH TO SCORE ON

Miami finished second in the NCAA in scoring defense, allowing a paltry 11.9 points per game. The team also ranked second for the fewest touchdowns allowed on defense, following the trend it has set since 1999. The Hurricanes yielded 15 touchdowns this season and have given up an NCAA-low 139 TDs over the last seven seasons.

MIAMI DEFENSE RANKED THIRD IN NCAA

Through 11 games, the Miami defense leads the NCAA in three categories, including yards per play (3.7), pass defense (148.2 yards/game) and pass efficiency defense (84.57). The Hurricanes are also second in the NCAA in scoring defense (11.9), behind only Alabama (10.7). In addition, Miami's third down defense ranks second in the country with a 27.7 percent success rate.

HALFTIME ADJUSTMENTS

The Miami defense came out of intermission with a different attitude against North Carolina on Oct. 29 after a subpar first half. UM held the Tar Heels to minus-13 yards of offense on 15 plays after allowing 170 yards on 36 plays in the first half. The effort helped key victory for Miami, but it shouldn't surprise anybody. Miami's defense has been at its best right after halftime this season and has allowed just 14 points, 32 first downs and 550 yards of total offense on 169 plays (3.3 avg.) in 11 third quarters, nearly the equivalent of three games. Here is a breakdown of what Miami's defense has done in the third quarter in its 11 games this season:

GROUNDING THE AIR ATTACK

A big part of Miami's success on the defensive side of the ball has been the way it plays the pass. The Hurricanes lead the nation in pass defense (148.2 yds/game) and pass efficiency defense (84.57) and have enjoyed the program's stingiest stints against the pass in the last 20 years. This season, UM held five consecutive opponents to fewer than 100 yards passing and has held six opponents under 100 yards passing. Miami held Florida State (74), South Florida (69), Duke (8), Temple (96), North Carolina (86) and Virginia Tech (90) to fewer than 100 yards passing, losing only to FSU. The Hurricanes have held opponents to 100 yards or less passing 61 times in the last 20 seasons and are 54-7 (.885) in those instances. The defensive backfield has proved to be one of the best in the country this season, but also compares well to some of the best secondaries ever at UM.

• UM's secondary is holding opponents to a 45.8 completion percentage. Only the 2001 (43.9) and 1986 (44.7) secondaries finished the season with a lower completion percentage allowed since 1983.

• The Hurricanes lead the country in pass efficiency defense and pass defense, thanks in large part to the most stingy performances over a five-game stretch in the last 20 seasons. Miami held South Florida (69), Duke (8), Temple (96), North Carolina (86) and Virginia Tech (90) to a combined 349 yards passing before yielding 236 yards to Wake Forest.

• Members of the secondary have provided 18 of the team's 28 take-aways (14 interceptions, four recoveries).

• The team's leading tackler is junior All-American safety Brandon Meriweather (102 tackles), and senior cornerback Kelly Jennings led the ACC in passes defended per game with 1.45 (16)

• Three defensive backs are tied for the team lead with three interceptions: Jennings, Meriweather and redshirt freshman S Lovon Ponder.

• The Hurricanes' secondary almost shut out Duke completely, allowing only four completions on 17 attempts for eight yards, the lowest total since the Hurricanes won their first national title in 1983.

• By holding Virginia Tech to 90 yards passing, the Hurricanes secondary and defense held five straight opponents under 100 yards pass-ing.

• UM held the ACC's leader and NCAA's second-most efficient quarterback, Virginia Tech's Marcus Vick, to 8-of-22 passing for 90 yards and two interceptions for a 52.55 rating, far below the 167.2 passer rating he had heading into the game.

• Miami's three interceptions against Wake Forest ran its season total to 14, one more than the 13 picks the team had in the 2004 season.

'D' MAKING A GOOD THING EVEN BETTER

The Miami defense entered the 2005 season with 181 combined career starts, making it the most experienced defense in the Larry Coker era. The experience paid off, with the defense holding opponents to 10 points or less in six games and spawned the nation's third-ranked defense (252.1/game), as well as the top pass efficiency defense (84.57) and the best passing yards defense (148.2/game). It is also the second-best scoring defense (11.9) and No. 3 third-down defense (27.7 percent). Here are some of the highlights for the Hurricanes defense this season:

• UM held Florida State to 170 yards of total offense and limited Clemson to 90 yards rushing (65 of them on one play, a quarterback run) in its next game, a triple-overtime win.

• Miami held Colorado, a team averaging more than 30 points a game, to a solitary 58-yard field goal in a 23-3 win and forced three turnovers.

• UM held Duke to four completions for eight yards passing and 120 total yards, 81 of which came on one play.

• Limited Temple to less than 100 yards rushing (84) and passing (96), despite being on the field for nearly 35 minutes.

• Bounced back from an uncharacteristic first half against North Carolina (170 yards of total offense on 36 plays) and held the Tar Heels to just 18 yards on 33 plays in the second half.

• Forced six turnovers victories at Virginia Tech and Wake Forest.

The performances have led to an improvement from the defense that allowed an uncharacteristic 155.0 rushing yards per game in 2004, but still ranked in the nation's top 20 in several other categories.

KEEPING 'EM IN THE ONES' COLUMN

The Miami defense has been stingy to say the least this season. UM's defense held six of its 11 opponents to 10 points or less and held five of its last 10 opponents to a solitary score. It marked the first time since the 2001 season that a Miami defense had held four consecutive opponents to a single score: Colorado (FG), South Florida (TD), Duke (TD) and Temple (FG). The 2001 team held five consecutive opponents to a single score or less. UM's 2005 defense has also put itself in exclusive company by becoming only the fourth Miami team in the last 45 years to not allow more than 20 points in a single game during regulation, joining the 1961, 1981 and 1991 teams. Miami allowed a season-high 30 points against Clemson, but allowed just 20 of those points during regulation of the triple-overtime contest.

2005 Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl

I'LL TAKE A MOSS FOR 100

In the first seven games of this season, either by air or land this season, a Miami Moss had a 100-yard-plus day in each game. Junior running back Tyrone Moss opened the season with back-to-back 100-yard games against Florida State and Clemson, making him one of the focal points for the Colorado defense the next week. The Buffaloes contained Tyrone Moss to 39 yards on the ground, but they couldn't hold down senior wide receiver Sinorice Moss (no relation), who beat the Colorado defense for a career-high five receptions for 111 yards and a 53-yard TD, all in the first half. Tyrone didn't eclipse the century mark against South Florida on the ground (89 yards), despite scoring three touchdowns, but he did go over 100 total yards by adding a 17-yard reception to ensure another Moss 100-yard game. Sinorice found a way to keep the Moss streak alive against Duke with 74 yards receiving, 23 yards rushing and eight yards on a kickoff return for a total of 105 yards. He followed that up with 122 yards on three receptions at Temple. Tyrone responded with a 195-yard effort against North Carolina for another Moss 100-yard day. The Moss offensive locomotive slowed a bit at Virginia Tech after Sinorice was held to 27 yards on four receptions, and Tyrone left the game due to injury in the first half after accumulating 26 yards on six carries. Sinorice stepped up the next week against Wake Forest, recording 65 yards receiving and 64 yards on kickoff returns.

2005 Moss 100 Production

Game 1 at FSU: Tyrone Moss - 23 carries, 102 yards
 Game 2 at Clemson: Tyrone Moss - 31 carries, 139 yards, 3 TDs
 Game 3 vs. Colorado: Sinorice Moss - 5 receptions, 111 yards, 1 TD
 Game 4 vs. South Florida: Tyrone Moss - 22 carries, 89 yards, 3 TDs; 1 reception, 17 yards (106 total)
 Game 5 vs. Duke: Sinorice Moss - 4 receptions, 74 yards, 1 TD; 2 carries, 23 yards; 8-yard kickoff return

 Game 9 at Wake Forest: Sinorice Moss - 2 receptions, 65 yards, 1 TD; 3 kickoff returns, 64 yards. 129 all-purpose yards.

HESTER A TRIPLE THREAT

Miami junior Devin Hester is one of college football's most dangerous players, and he plays in all three phases of the game — offense, defense and special teams. In 2004, Hester scored six touchdowns — three on punt returns, one on a kickoff return, one on an 11-yard run and one on a blocked field goal. Here is a look at Hester's production so far in 2005:

LIGHTNING STRIKES

More than half of Miami's 36 offensive touchdowns in regulation this season have eaten up less than two minutes on the game clock. The Hurricanes have totaled 19 scoring drives of two minutes or less and 12 scoring drives in a minute or less. Those scores came on three one-play drives, three two-play drives, five three-play drives, seven four-play drives and one five-play drive. A large chunk of these quick-scoring drives came on a combined eight touchdowns in the first halves against Duke and Temple. Five of Miami's seven touchdowns against Wake Forest came on scoring drives of less than two minutes.

The following is a breakdown of all of Miami's touchdown drives of two minutes or less this season:

FRESH FACES IN THE SECONDARY

College football can be a tough place for a freshman and it can be really tough for a freshman defensive back. Thankfully Miami has three first-year players who are up to the task this season and have helped compose the nation's best secondary.

- Freshman safety Kenny Phillips, the USA Today High School National Defensive Player of the Year in 2004, earned his first career start in the Hurricanes' 36-30 triple-overtime win at Clemson in Week Two and was clutch with a game-ending interception in overtime to ensure UM's first win of the season. Phillips made a team-high 13 tackles in his first career start. For the season, Phillips has 84 tackles (third on the team).
- Freshman cornerback Randy Phillips (no relation) played in six games and is now the team's nickel back. He has 10 total tackles.
- Freshman cornerback Bruce Johnson played in eight games and has seven tackles and a fumble recovery.

101 STRAGHT WEEKS IN THE AP POLL

Miami is the longest-tenured team in the Associated Press Top 25 at 101 consecutive weeks. The Hurricanes were behind Michigan before a loss to Wisconsin on Sept. 24 sent the Wolverines out of the Top 25 for the first time since Oct. 18, 1998, a span of 114 weeks. UM's current streak in the poll began on Nov. 28, 1999, when it re-entered the polls at No. 23 after a 45-13 win against Syracuse.

Miami vs. Louisiana State

HURRICANES AND BIG PLAYS

Miami's offense has proven over the years it can strike quickly, making the big play (a run of 15-plus yards or a pass of 25-plus yards) a key factor in its success. With the exception of the Virginia Tech, Georgia Tech and Virginia games, at least one Miami big play went for a touchdown in each game. Kyle Wright connected with Ryan Moore for a 34-yard TD pass against Florida State. Tyrone Moss scored the game-winning touchdown on a 25-yard run in overtime to defeat Clemson, Wright hit Sinorice Moss for a 53-yard score against Colorado, and Tyrone Moss had a 19-yard TD run against South Florida. Seven different Hurricanes had big plays against Duke, including touchdowns by Lance Leggett and Sinorice Moss. Miami's longest pass play in 14 years occurred when Wright and Sinorice Moss hooked up for a 92-yard catch-and-run TD at Temple, and Tyrone Moss also scored on a 15-yard run the next week vs. UNC. Miami scored three touchdowns via the "big play" against Wake Forest.

OLSEN'S PERFORMANCE ONE FOR THE AGES

Sophomore tight end Greg Olsen had a profound impact in the season opener against FSU with a game-leading eight receptions for 137 yards, including four third-down receptions for 64 yards on Miami's last drive of the game. Olsen was rewarded for his efforts with the John Mackey Tight End of the Week Award from the John Mackey Foundation. It was also the best performance by a UM tight end in nearly 20 years. Not since Willie Smith had 140 yards receiving against Maryland in 1985 has a Hurricanes tight end produced so many yards in a game. Here are the top 10 100-yard performances by Hurricane tight ends over the last 21 seasons.

PEATTIE ON PACE AND ON POINT

Jon Peattie has steadily ascended UM's all-time career kicking and scoring lists in 2005. He already owns the school record for field goals in a season (22 in 2003) and in a game (5 vs. West Virginia in 2003) and ranks in the top 10 twice for points scored kicking in a season (fourth with 103 points in 2003, and eighth with 90 points in 2004. In three seasons, Peattie has made 51 field goals (third all time), scored 269 points (sixth all time among kickers). He is one of just three Hurricanes kickers to convert 10 or more consecutive field goal attempts (Dane Prewitt, 13; Huerta 11). Peattie's 24-yard field goal against Virginia Tech moved him past Greg Cox for third on the all-time list, and his nine points against the Hokies moved him ahead Danny Miller for sixth on the UM scoring list with 253 points. How Peattie stacks up to UM's best kickers and scorers is listed below.

PEATTIE LEADING AN ACTIVE SCORING LIFE

Jon Peattie is also among the NCAA's active leading scorers and kickers. Peattie is 11th among active scorers with 269 career points and ranks second among NCAA juniors and first among junior kickers. Only one junior ranks ahead of Peattie, USC running back LenDale White, who is seventh among the NCAA's active scorers with 306 career points. Peattie is the ACC's third-active leading scorer behind a pair of Virginia seniors, kicker Connor Hughes (fifth, 322 points) and running back Wali Lundy (eighth, 300 points).

MIAMI LEADS THE NATION IN SCORES BY RETURN SINCE 1999

Since 1999, Miami has scored more touchdowns on various returns than any other team in the nation.

MIAMI'S RECORD ACCORDING TO ASSOCIATED PRESS RANK

UM is 245-59-2 all time in games while holding an Associated Press national ranking. Miami is 169-30-1 as a top 10 team and 130-17 as a top five team. The Hurricanes are 43-6 as the nation's No.1-ranked team. Miami has won 32 of its last 34 games when ranked No. 1.

MIAMI VS. ASSOCIATED PRESS-RANKED TEAMS

- Miami has won 22 of its last 27 games against ranked teams, dating back to the 2000 season.
- Miami is 83-103-1 vs. AP-ranked teams since its first game against a ranked opponent in No. 18 Alabama in 1941.
- Miami is 39-54 vs. AP top-10 teams since playing No. 6 Alabama in 1947.
- Miami is 22-32 against AP top-5 teams since playing No. 3 Maryland in 1953.
- Miami's victory over No. 1 Florida State on Oct. 7, 2000, extended UM's record to 10-7 against No. 1-ranked teams. Of those 16 meetings with No. 1, six of the past eight were against FSU.

MIAMI VS. RANKED & UNRANKED OPPONENTS SINCE 1990

Since 1990, Miami has registered a 43-26 mark against Associated Press ranked teams and a 111-10 record against unranked opponents. Miami's loss to North Carolina last season marked the first loss to an unranked team since losing to East Carolina in 1999, a span of 65 games.

2005 Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl

FOURTH-QUARTER DOMINANCE

Over the last 20 seasons, Miami has been almost unbeatable when leading after three quarters. Since 1985, Miami has won 187 of 190 regular-season games in which it entered the fourth quarter with a lead. The three losses in this span occurred last year against Clemson (2004), East Carolina (1999) and West Virginia (1997). Prior to those three losses, UM's last loss when leading after three quarters was in 1984 against Maryland (42-40), after leading 34-21 heading into the fourth quarter.

THE HURRICANES WHEN SCORING 30 OR 31 POINTS ...

- Miami has won 127 consecutive games when scoring 30 or more points since a 31-30 loss at Notre Dame in 1988.
- Miami has won 148 consecutive games when scoring 31 or more points since falling 39-37 to UCLA in the 1985 Fiesta Bowl.
- Excluding bowl games, Miami has won 143 consecutive regular-season games when scoring more than 31 since a 47-45 loss to Boston College in 1984.

IF MIAMI SCORES FIRST ...

Beginning with the 1983 season, the Hurricanes have gone 183-16 when scoring first. The last exception was last season's loss to Clemson, in which Miami followed its habit of jumping to an early lead when Frank Gore ran for a 23-yard touchdown at the 12:56 mark of the first quarter (Miami lost 24-17 in overtime). Miami has scored first in seven of its 11 games this season.

MIAMI REMAINS NO. 1 IN THE NFL DRAFT

During the last 20 years, National Football League teams have turned to the University of Miami more than any other college or university when it comes to premium picks in the annual draft. The following chart illustrates college programs that have produced the most players selected in the first three rounds from 1984 to 2005. In addition, the University of Miami has had at least one player drafted in the first round in 11 consecutive drafts, the longest streak in NFL history (the second-longest streak was Florida from 1983-1991). CB Antrel Rolle was selected by the Arizona Cardinals in the first round of the 2005 draft.

THE BEST SINCE 1983

Since 1983, Miami has the nation's best record (by winning percentage) of all NCAA Division 1-A football schools. Miami has played six of the top 10 winningest schools in the Larry Coker era (Nebraska, Florida State, Tennessee, Florida, Ohio State and Penn State).

Head Coach Larry Coker leads the Miami Hurricanes onto the field at the Orange Bowl

Head Coach

Larry Coker

In the 25 years that the University of Miami has been a dominant force in college football, no Hurricanes head coach has won more games in his first five seasons than Larry Coker. Presiding over one of the most successful five-year stretches in Miami football history, Coker quickly earned a reputation as one of college football's top coaches. He is in his fifth season as head football coach at the University of Miami.

Coker has led the Hurricanes to one national championship, two Bowl Championship Series title game appearances, three BCS bowl game appearances, three consecutive Big East Conference championships, and a remarkable 53-8 record in five seasons as the Hurricanes head coach. Simply put, Coker has met the challenge of exceedingly high expectations.

The Hurricanes have built a 53-8 record in five seasons with Coker at the helm, one of the most successful starts of any coach in the history of college football. Along the way, Miami notched its fifth football national title in 2001 and made it back to the championship game in 2002, in addition to making its fourth consecutive BCS bowl appearance in 2003. In 2004, with a young team overcoming the loss of a record six first-round draft choices to the NFL, Coker led the Hurricanes in their inaugural season in the Atlantic Coast Conference to a 9-3 record and a bowl game victory. Included in those nine victories were wins over state-rivals Florida State and Florida.

Coker has distinguished himself by bringing his own brand of class, dignity and integrity to the Miami football program. All the while, his Hurricanes have continued to win at the highest level while displaying a grace and comportment that any college program would be proud of.

In 2001, Coker not only took the Hurricanes all the way to an undefeated season and a national championship, he led the team to the most dominant season in Miami's rich football history. His 2002 team went unbeaten until a controversial and dramatic loss in the Fiesta Bowl. Coker's 2003 Hurricanes racked up a fourth straight Big East Conference crown and became college football's first team to make appearances in all four BCS bowl games in successive years.

More than his on-field success, it's the way Coker's teams have handled the trials and tribulations of college football that made obvious what he and his players always knew: Coker not only was the right man for the job, he was the only man for the job. Popular with his players, with fans and with the media, Coker also has the toughness to lead the Miami football program.

Miami's success over the last five years not only earned Miami players and coaches numerous honors and awards, it earned Coker The 2001 Paul "Bear" Bryant National Coach of the Year Award, the 2001 AFCA Coach of the Year Award (shared with Maryland's Ralph Friedgen), the 2002 National Coach of the Year honor by American Football Monthly and numerous other honors.

Coker's proudest memory of his tenure to this point may have come at the end of the 2002 Rose Bowl, when a game official told him: "It was so enjoyable to work with your players. They're a class act. They're really national champions."

"That carries over to a lot more in life than just winning a championship," Coker said later. Coker's brand of leadership speaks to the kind of man he is: calm, easy going and secure in who he is and what he is doing. True to his beliefs. Consistent. Perhaps that approach was best summed up by Coker himself to a reporter just a few days before Miami's 2002 Rose Bowl victory over Nebraska. When asked what his pregame pep talk would consist of, he answered: "Just let's be who we are. Don't try and play outside the lines. Let's be as good as we can be. But don't try to be more than we are."

No longer college football's "nouveau riche", the University of Miami football program is now an established power whose players and coaches expect excellence and find little need to boast about it. Coker has been the right man at the right time for Miami.

Coker is proud of his team's successes on the field, but he is equally proud of how well his players have fared academically. The 2005 team includes 21 players who have already graduated, more than any other college in the country. The Hurricanes' 2004 graduation rate was 84 percent, far higher than the national average of 58 percent. In addition, Miami has received recognition by the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) as one of an elite group of schools to exceed a 70 percent graduation rate among its football student-athletes in nine of the past 13 years.

Miami's quest for supremacy in college football was put in the able hands of one of the nation's most accomplished assistant coaches when Coker was named the school's 19th head football coach on February 3, 2001. Coker's hiring marked the first time in 25 years that the University of Miami looked to one of its own when finding a football coach.

Coker's hiring also signaled how far the Miami program had come. The values of the program reflect Coker's values. Integrity. Consistency. Hard work. Poise. Class. Dignity. Those are values instilled in Coker at a young age. They're values he still lives by. And they're values he instills in his players and expects his coaches and staff to live by.

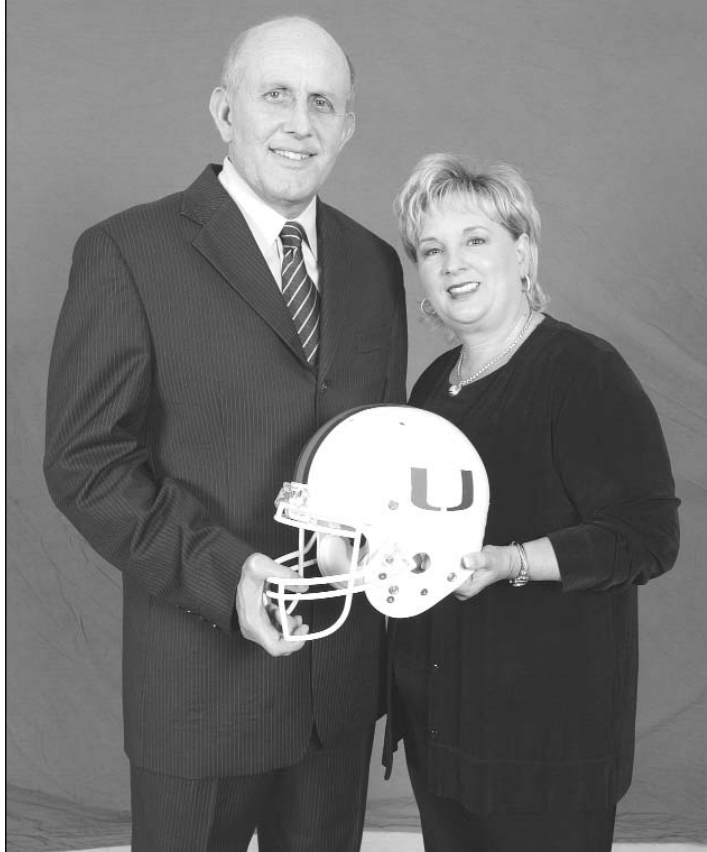

Coker and the Hurricanes want to set a new standard of football excellence for a program that has produced a phenomenal level of success over the past 20-plus years. After a debut season in which he led the Hurricanes to the top of the college football world, Coker was not satisfied to rest on those accomplishments. His second edition of Hurricanes achieved another perfect regular season before falling just short of a second straight national title.

Coker's easy-going personality belies a strong competitive drive. He instills that drive in his team. For Coker, it's about the journey, not just the destination. It's not just winning, but winning the right way. Coker wants his Hurricanes to be remembered by their accomplishments as well as by their classy demeanor.

Coker understands the meaning of being true to yourself. That's why, along the dizzying journey to a national title, he didn't try to change who he was. He didn't put on a new "persona" when he was named head coach. And he didn't try out a new "presence" once he had led Miami to another national championship.

His ascension to the head coaching job at Miami has been described as "an overnight success story 30 years in the making." Because of that, Coker truly knows the value of the journey, as well as how to appreciate reaching the destination.

"We're excited and motivated about continuing to build on the tradition we represent and always striving to reach new heights," Coker said. "We always preach that the journey is the thing - not just the destination. We want our student-athletes to appreciate the process, not just the reward. It's easy to say that when you've just won a national championship, but it's true.

"When we look back on accomplishments many years from now, it's not just the moment of victory that we remember, but the struggles and triumphs along the way that will stay with us. The relationships, the camaraderie formed along the way - that's what makes football great, and that's what is exciting about coming back to try to win again."

Coker's highly successful stint at UM is his most recent stop in a 33-year coaching career, including 22 seasons as an assistant at the collegiate level. He's found success at every stop along the way.

Prior to becoming Miami's head football coach, Coker served under Butch Davis as the Hurricanes' offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach since Davis' first season at UM in 1995. While the offensive coordinator from 1995-2000, UM went 51-20 overall and 33-9 in conference play. With Coker as the offensive coordinator, UM was 27-9 at the historic Orange Bowl and 19-11 on the road. Additionally, the Hurricanes won all four bowl games during that six-season span.

Prior to his arrival at the University of Miami in 1995, Coker spent two seasons at Ohio State (1993-94) coaching the defensive backfield. The Buckeyes participated in two bowl games during his tenure and were Big Ten co-champions in 1993. From 1990-92, Coker was offensive coordinator at Oklahoma, assisting the Sooners to two bowl victories. Before heading to Norman, Coker spent seven seasons as offensive coordinator at Oklahoma State in Stillwater. In his seven seasons with the Cowboys he coached 1988 Heisman Trophy winner Barry Sanders, while the team went on to win four bowl games. Coker first made the jump to Division I with Tulsa from 1979-82 as the offensive backfield coach. Tulsa won three Missouri Valley Conference championships during his four seasons.

Wherever Coker has gone in his coaching career, success has been sure to follow. The Okemah, Okla., native has been on college teams that have made 16 bowl appearances, and Coker's teams have been victorious in 13 of those 16 games, including a 4-0 mark as an assistant at Miami and a 3-1 record as a head coach.

Coker and his wife, Dianna, live in Coral Gables. They are the parents of a daughter, Lara, and the grandparents of twin boys Daniel and Dillon Goldmann (4).

COKER'S FIRST 61 GAMES AS HEAD COACH

Now in his fifth season as Miami's head coach, Larry Coker has a record of 53-8, which is tied for the fifth-winningest start through 61 games in the history of college football. Coker set a modern NCAA record for victories by a first-year head coach in 2001 with 12 wins. His 24-1 two-year start ranked as one of the finest by a head coach in the history of college football in terms of winning percentage. In terms of victories through two seasons as a head coach, Coker's 24 victories ranked third all-time, the most in 110 years. Coker's 35-3 three-year start was third all-time behind only Walter Camp and Barry Switzer. Coker's 31-1 record through 32 games tied Camp as the best start by a head football coach in the history of the sport through that span of games, edging out Switzer.

President Dr. Donna E. Shalala

Donna E. Shalala became the fifth President of the University of Miami on June 1, 2001. President Shalala is an accomplished scholar, teacher, and administrator whose career has been marked by a variety of leadership positions reflecting her interest in young people. She also is a big sports fan!

Shalala was influenced by her mother, Edna, a former nationally ranked tennis player, while growing up in Cleveland, Ohio. While attending college, she played tennis and still plays a competitive game of doubles. She also enjoys golf, skiing and other outdoor activities. "Sports gave me discipline," she said. "During the course of a year, I try to attend all of our sports, and I wish I could watch more of the games."

At a typical Hurricanes football game, Shalala spends the first quarter in the stands talking with students, and then she sits in her outdoor seats for a quarter. The rest of the time is spent in the boxes on what she calls business. "I'm talking to donors, I'm trying to raise money," she said. "I look forward to the day where I can sit down and watch an entire game from beginning to end. I can usually do that only at a bowl game."

In 1987 President Shalala, a distinguished political scientist, became the first woman chancellor of a Big Ten university, the University of Wisconsin-Madison. She led what was then the nation's largest public research university. In 1992 Business Week magazine named her one of the top five managers in higher education.

President Shalala's success at Wisconsin was reflected in athletics as well. She hired a new football coach, recruiting Barry Alvarez from Notre Dame. Four years later, Wisconsin won the Big Ten football championship and represented its conference in the Rose Bowl for the first time in 30 years. President Shalala served on the first Knight Commission, a committee to review college athletics, and has served on the board of the National Collegiate Athletic Association Foundation.

In 1993, Shalala was named U.S. Secretary for Health and Human Services (HHS) and served for eight years, becoming the nation's longest-serving HHS Secretary.

In 1999 she spearheaded the United Way campaign for federal employees that raised a record $44 million for local and national charities. In 2000 she led the official U.S. delegation to the Olympics in Sydney, Australia. At the end of her tenure as HHS Secretary, The Washington Post described her as "one of the most successful government managers of modern times."

As President of the University of Miami, President Shalala presides over one of the most successful college athletic programs in the country. The Hurricanes football program consistently ranks in the top of the polls. In 2001 the baseball team won its fourth College World Series and the football team won its fifth national championship. In 2003 the men and women's basketball teams began play in a new, on-campus facility, the Convocation Center. Other Hurricane sports—from golf to tennis—have also earned national recognition.

As to the future of UM athletics, Shalala said, "We have to make sure that we have first-class facilities and coaches. We need substantial fan support for all of our sports to be able to maintain them at the highest competitive levels. All of our sports deserve strong support. We have to make sure we have enough opportunities for young women and men. Compliance will always demand our attention. We have people of great integrity. I believe our biggest challenge is not getting complacent about our programs, and investing in women's sports at the same level as men's sports."

For a sports fan like President Shalala, there is no better place to call home than the University of Miami.

Director of Athletics Paul Dee

Paul Dee has served as Director of Athletics since 1993. Prior to his appointment, Dee had served the University as its Vice President and General Counsel beginning in 1981.

During his tenure as Director of Athletics, Dee has focused the efforts of the Athletic Department on four major points of emphasis: 1) the success of its programs; 2) the development of its student-athletes, both athletically and academically; 3) the quality of its staff; and 4) the improvement of facilities. The department has achieved success in each of these areas.

Program Success

During Dee's tenure as Director of Athletics, the University of Miami has won three team national championships (baseball in 1999 and 2001, football in 2001).

Prior to joining the Atlantic Coast Conference on July 1, 2004, Miami was a dominant program in the Big East Conference, winning 34 league titles between 1993 and 2004. Included in those league championships were eight football titles, eight women's tennis titles, seven men's tennis titles, six Big East women's outdoor track and field championships, two women's indoor track, and one title in men's basketball, women's basketball and men's swimming and diving. In their inaugural year in the Atlantic Coast Conference, UM teams won conference championships in women's indoor and outdoor track, and the women's tennis and volleyball teams finished in second place. The football team finished in third place, and the men's basketball program had a resurgence under new head coach Frank Haith.

Under Dee's supervision, the University of Miami athletic department has added full scholarship programs in women's soccer, women's volleyball and women's rowing, and the university will begin playing women's lacrosse in 2007.

Student-Athlete Success

University of Miami student-athletes have continued to achieve academically. UM student-athletes have shown consistent improvement in grade-point average and graduation rates over the last decade.

Perhaps the most successful scholar-athlete of the last decade at UM was football offensive tackle Joaquin Gonzalez, who earned the 2001 HealthSouth Draddy Award (the "Academic Heisman"), in addition to earning first-team All-America honors on the field in 2000 and 2001.

Quality of Staff

Miami coaches have been widely recognized by their peers as some of the nation's best. The current UM coaching staff has earned a combined 18 National Coach of the Year honors, including nine by diving coach Randy Ableman, four by baseball coach Jim Morris, three by football coach Larry Coker, and two by women's golf coach Lela Cannon.

Improvement and Expansion of Facilities

Since 1993, the University of Miami athletic program has seen an almost complete makeover of its athletic facilities. During that period, Dee has overseen the following facility projects:

- Construction of a new football field at Greentree Fields
- Construction of Cobb Stadium (track and soccer)
- Renovation of football locker and equipment rooms
- Renovation of the athletic training room
- Renovation of the athletic department offices
- Construction of the academic study hall facility
- Construction of the weight training facility
- Construction of the football meeting rooms
- Construction of locker rooms for track, soccer and volleyball
- Construction of the Convocation Center for basketball
- The start of construction in 2005 of Alex Rodriguez Park for baseball

A Commitment To A Well-Rounded Program

Dee believes intensified fundraising efforts and developing stronger interest in women's sports are vital to ensuring the future success of the Hurricanes' program.

National Influence

During his 12 years as Director of Athletics, Dee has been active in professional activities. Dee has served on several NCAA committees, including the Committee on Certification and the Management Council. He is currently a member of the Committee on Infractions.

Before Miami

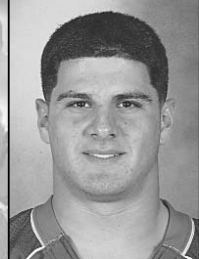

Before joining the University of Miami, Dee was with the Miami law firm of Mershon, Sawyer, Johnston, Dunwoody & Cole and was a law clerk for Chief U.S. District Judge Charles Fulton in Miami. He received his bachelor of arts degree from the University of Florida in 1970 and his master's of education and juris doctor degrees with honors from the University of Miami in 1973 and 1977, respectively.

Dee has a son, Terrance, who practices law in Miami.

2 JON BEASON

Linebacker

6-0, 225, Sophomore-1L

Miramar, Florida

Chaminade-Madonna Prep

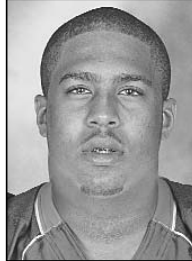

CAREER: Talented, intelligent athlete who switched to linebacker in 2004 after spending the 2003 season as a redshirt fullback. Can play any of the three linebacker positions. Has deceptive strength for a player his size. Was a fullback at the start of the 2003 season before suffering a season-ending shoulder injury. Has the potential to become a top college linebacker.

2005 (SOPHOMORE): Starting weakside linebacker for the entire season. Played in all 11 games, making nine starts (he didn't start two games in nickel and dime defenses). Ranked fifth on the team with 56 tackles (36 solo), adding four tackles for loss, one pass breakup and four QB pressures. Added 11 tackles on special teams. 9/5 at Florida State: Started at weakside linebacker and played 32 plays. Made 11 tackles (six solo), including two tackles for loss. 9/17 at Clemson: Started at weakside linebacker and saw action on 57 plays, making four tackles (three solo). 9/24 vs. Colorado: Started at weakside linebacker and saw action on 47 snaps, making five tackles (three solo) and one QB pressure. 10/1 vs. South Florida: Did not start as team opened in dime defense. Played sparingly, as USF used multiple wide receivers most of the game. Tallied one solo tackle and one assist. 10/8 vs. Duke: Started at weakside linebacker and saw action on 35 plays, making two assisted tackles and two QB pressures. 10/15 at Temple: Did not start in a nickel defense but played on 11 snaps, making two solo tackles and one tackle for loss. 10/29 vs. North Carolina: Started at weakside linebacker and played on 39 snaps, making seven tackles (three solo). 11/5 at Virginia Tech: Started at weakside linebacker and played on 31 plays, making two solo tackles, two assists and one QB pressure. 11/12 at Wake Forest: Started at weakside linebacker and played on 56 snaps, tallying nine tackles (eight solo). 11/19 vs. Georgia Tech: Started at weakside linebacker and saw action on 35 snaps, making three tackles (two solo). 11/26 vs. Virginia: Started at weakside linebacker and played on 42 plays, registering six tackles (five solo), including one tackle for loss.

TAVARES GOODEN

Linebacker

6-2, 220, Junior-2L

Fort Lauderdale, Florida

St. Thomas Aquinas HS

CAREER: Talented athlete who started at weakside linebacker most of the 2004 season and at strongside linebacker for the 2005 season opener before being injured. Made a name for himself as one of the team's top special teams performers in 2003. Has excellent speed and is an instinctive player. A high school track star who is one of team's most athletic players.

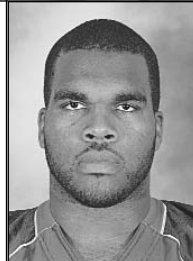

2005 (JUNIOR): Started the season at strongside linebacker but was injured in the first game and missed the remainder of the year. 9/5 at Florida State: Started at strongside linebacker and saw action on 15 plays before suffering a dislocated left shoulder. For the game, made three tackles (one solo). Underwent surgery on October 3.

ORIEN HARRIS

Defensive Tackle

6-4, 302, Senior-3L

Newark, Delaware

Newark HS

CAREER: One of the top defensive tackles in college football and has been a stalwart in the middle for Miami the last two seasons. Tough, durable and athletic, and is annually among the team's leaders in tackles. Has shown versatility as a pass rusher or a run stopper. In four seasons, has started 33 of 47 games played after moving into the playing rotation as a redshirt freshman in 2002.

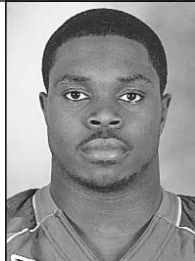

2005 (SENIOR): Starting defensive tackle as a senior was one of only two players on defense to start all 11 games. Named second-team All-America by Associated Press and chosen as honorable mention All-ACC. Finished fourth on the team with a career-high 64 tackles (28 solo), adding seven tackles for loss, three sacks and nine QB pressures. Voted by his teammates as one of four team captains. 9/5 at Florida State: Started at right defensive tackle and played majority of game (54 of 59 plays), making four tackles (three solo), including one tackle for loss and one QB pressure. 9/17 at Clemson: Started at right defensive tackle for 69 of 77 plays, making five tackles (one solo) and two QB pressures. 9/24 vs. Colorado: Started at right tackle and played 49 snaps. Made five assisted tackles and one QB pressure. 10/1 vs. South Florida: Started at right tackle on 30 plays, making five tackles (two solo) and two QB pressures. 10/8 vs. Duke: Started at right tackle and played into third quarter of 52-7 rout (24 plays), making nine tackles (four solo). 10/15 at Temple: Started and played on 39 snaps, registering seven tackles (three solo) and notching his first sack of the season. 10/29 vs. North Carolina: Started at right defensive tackle and played 44 snaps, with seven tackles (four solo) and his second sack of the year. 11/5 at Virginia Tech: Started at right tackle and saw action on 43 plays, registering five tackles (two solo), including one tackle for loss. 11/12 at Wake Forest: Started at right defensive tackle and saw action on 35 snaps, tallying six tackles (two solo) and one QB pressure. 11/19 vs. Georgia Tech: Started and played 54 downs, tying his season high with nine tackles (six solo), adding two tackles for loss and one QB pressure. 11/26 vs. Virginia: Started at right defensive tackle, playing 51 plays. Registered three tackles (two solo), with one sack for minus-one yard and one QB pressure.

DWAYNE HENDRICKS

Defensive Lineman

6-4, 270, Freshman-SR

Millville, New Jersey

Millville HS

CAREER: Talented young defensive lineman who is being groomed as a defensive tackle. Rangy player has good mobility and footwork and is quick and powerful. Skilled pass rusher who should see valuable playing time as a reserve in 2005.

2005 (FRESHMAN): Played as a backup defensive tackle as a redshirt freshman. Worked into the rotation at defensive tackle and saw action in five games before being injured. Finished the regular season with six tackles (two solo) and one pass breakup. 9/5 at Florida State: Did not play. 9/17 at Clemson: Played in his first game as a Hurricane, seeing action as a reserve defensive tackle on seven plays (no tackles). 9/24 vs. Colorado: Played as a reserve defensive tackle on seven plays, making one solo tackle. 10/1 vs. South Florida: Saw significant time as a reserve on 29 plays. Made one assisted tackle and one pass breakup. 10/8 vs. Duke: Saw considerable playing time as a backup again (20 plays), tallying three tackles (one solo). 10/15 at Temple: Was to have seen considerable playing time, but suffered a dislocated right elbow and left the game. Played on 16 snaps, making one assisted tackle. 10/29 vs. North Carolina: Did not play (elbow). 11/5 at Virginia Tech: Did not play (elbow). 11/12 at Wake Forest: Did not play (elbow). 11/19 vs. Georgia Tech: Did not play (elbow). 11/26 vs. Virginia: Did not play (elbow).

DEVIN HESTER

Cornerback / Kick Returner

5-11, 186, Junior-2L

Riviera Beach, Florida

Suncoast HS

CAREER: One of the nation's most exciting and explosive all-purpose players. Three-way threat on offense, defense and special teams who can score anytime he touches the ball. Named preseason 2005 Playboy All-America as a kick returner. As a sophomore in 2004, started games at tailback, fullback, cornerback and nickelback, and also played wide receiver, returned punts and kickoffs and was on all of the special teams coverage and kick-blocking units. Played wide receiver as a freshman in 2003, then switched to cornerback in 2004. Led UM with four interceptions in 2004, despite starting just one game on defense. One of the Hurricanes' fastest players. Has already returned six kicks for touchdowns (two kickoffs, four punts).

2005 (JUNIOR): Multi-talented player who admittedly had a subpar junior season. Still played on offense, defense and special teams, and finished the season with an increased role on offense. On special teams, ranked second in the ACC and 13th in the country with a 14.2-yard punt return average (22 for 312 yards and one touchdown), earning All-ACC honors for the second straight season. On defense, tallied 12 tackles (10 solo), one sack, one tackle for loss, one interception and two pass breakups. On offense, rushed eight times for 70 yards (8.8-yard average) and caught three passes for 15 yards. Returned four kickoffs for 74 yards, as opposing teams kicked away from him. For the season, played in nine games with one start. 9/5 at Florida State: Played as the nickel back on defense, saw some action on offense and played on all special teams. As a kick returner, returned one punt for three yards and two kickoffs for 31 yards. On defense, made two solo tackles. On offense, ran for five yards on his only carry. 9/17 at Clemson: Did not start on defense, but saw action on 53 plays, making three solo tackles and one pass breakup. Also returned one kickoff for 33 yards and one punt for eight yards. On offense, rushed one time for 36 yards. Moved into sixth place on school's career list for kickoff return yards, passing Chuck Foreman. 9/24 vs. Colorado: Did not start on defense, but played on 38 snaps, making two solo tackles and one pass breakup. On offense, rushed one time for four yards. As a kick returner, ran back two punts for 20 yards. 10/1 vs. South Florida: Made his first start of the season at right cornerback in place of injured Marcus Maxey. Played 54 downs, registering three tackles (one solo) and intercepting a pass and returning it 29 yards. Also returned one kickoff for 28 yards, but was replaced as team's punt returner for the first time since he was playing so much defense. 10/8 vs. Duke: Did not play on defense, but had his best game as a returner, taking four punts for 101 yards, including 42- and 43-yarders. Named the ACC Special Teams Player of the Week. Moved into seventh place on school's career list for punt return yards, passing four former Hurricanes (Frank Smith, William Steiner, Phillip Buchanon and Wesley Carroll). 10/15 at Temple: Saw action for 20 snaps on defense, making two solo tackles (one for loss) and a pass breakup. Returned four punts for 65 yards, including a 48-yarder for his only touchdown of the season. 10/29 vs. North Carolina: Played three snaps on defense. On offense, rushed two times for 12 yards and caught one pass for three yards. On special teams, returned three punts for 19 yards. 11/5 at Virginia Tech: Did not play on defense and returned one punt for nine yards. Suffered a hamstring injury while on kickoff coverage in the second quarter and left the game. 11/12 at Wake Forest: Did not play (hamstring). 11/19 vs. Georgia Tech: Did not play (hamstring). 11/26 vs. Virginia: Returned to the lineup and saw considerable playing time on offense as a tailback and wide receiver. Rushed three times for 13 yards and caught two passes for 12 yards. On special teams, returned five punts for 59 yards (23 long) and one kickoff for 10 yards.

QUADTRINE HILL

Running Back / Fullback
6-2, 228, Senior-3L
Sunrise, Florida
Piper HS

CAREER: Veteran player who is the team's starting fullback. Was the team's backup fullback and No. 3 running back in 2004, serving as the primary third-down back most of the season. Split starting duties at fullback in 2003 after holding the job for most of the 2002 season. Straight-line runner with surprising speed who excels as a receiver out of the backfield. Effective blitz stopper as a blocker in pass protection. Also a key member of the special teams.

2005 (SENIOR): Team's starting fullback and a senior leader. Paved the way for tailbacks Tyrone Moss and Charlie Jones, who combined for more than 1,000 yards rushing. Started eight of 11 games played. Rushed 19 times for a career-high 138 yards, a 7.3-yard average. Also caught 25 passes for 216 yards (8.6 average) and one touchdown. 9/5 at Florida State: Started at fullback and rushed one time for minus-one yard. Also caught two passes for four yards. 9/17 at Clemson: Started at fullback and rushed one time for three yards and tied for team lead with four receptions for 30 yards, scoring his first touchdown of the season, an eight-yard pass from Kyle Wright in the third quarter. 9/24 vs. Colorado: Started at fullback and led the team with 55 yards rushing on four carries, including a career-long 38-yarder. 10/1 vs. South Florida: Started at fullback and rushed one time for five yards and caught two passes for 17 yards. 10/8 vs. Duke: Started at fullback and caught one pass for two yards. 10/15 at Temple: Started at fullback and caught one pass for 55 yards, the longest of his career. Did not carry from scrimmage. 10/29 vs. North Carolina: Did not start in two-tight end formation but played as primary fullback, catching two passes for 14 yards. Also blocked a punt in the third quarter that he recovered in the end zone for a touchdown to give UM a 20-16 lead. Was the lead blocker for Tyrone Moss, who rushed for 195 yards and four touchdowns. 11/5 at Virginia Tech: Did not start. Rushed six times for 32 yards and tied for the team lead with four receptions for a team-best 35 yards. 11/12 at Wake Forest: Started at fullback and rushed three times for 33 yards (23 long) and caught one pass for four yards. 11/19 vs. Georgia Tech: Started and rushed two times for six yards and caught one pass for 13 yards. 11/26 vs. Virginia: Did not start in a two-tight end formation but played as the primary fullback. Caught a career-high seven passes for 42 yards to lead the team. Also rushed one time for five yards.

KELLY JENNINGS

Cornerback

6-0, 177, Senior-3L

Live Oak, Florida

Suwannee HS

CAREER: Most experienced member of the secondary and a team leader. Team's shutdown cornerback who has manned the left cornerback position the last two seasons. Starter at cornerback in 2002, then split time with now-Chicago Bear Al Marshall in 2003 while starting in nickel packages. Has great coverage abilities, and is an accomplished athlete who has the tools to excel at cornerback.

2005 (SENIOR): Named All-America by Sports Illustrated and second-team All-America by Associated Press. All-ACC selection who was third in the country with 16 pass breakups. Team's nominee for the Draddy Award, the "Academic Heisman." One of only two defenders who started all 11 games. Ranked ninth on the team with 41 tackles (28 solo), two tackles for loss, one sack and two forced fumbles. Posted 16 pass breakups, which ranked third in the country and first in the ACC. Tied for the team lead with three interceptions. BRANDON MERIWEATHER

Safety

6-0, 188, Junior-2L

Apopka, Florida

Apopka HS

CAREER: Hard-hitting defensive back who won a starting role at strong safety in the spring. Team leader who started most of the 2004 season at free safety. In three seasons has played in 39 games, making 18 starts. Has a compact frame but can lay a lick on opposing receivers. His athletic ability and cover skills helped him develop into a top safety. Has exceptional closing speed.

2005 (JUNIOR): Star safety who was named to the ABC Sports/Cingular All-America team as voted by the Football Writers of America (FWAA). Selected second-team All-ACC by the conference sportswriters. Named to Sports Illustrated's midseason All-America team. Started the final 10 games of the season and played in all 11 games. Led the team with a career-high 102 tackles (67 solo), adding 12 tackles for loss, seven pass breakups, three QB pressures, one fumble recovery and one forced fumble. Tied for the team lead with three interceptions. Made nine or more tackles in five games. 9/5 at Florida State: Did not start because of a preseason hamstring injury, but played much of the game after an injury to Anthony Reddick. Tallied seven tackles (four solo), one fumble recovery, two QB pressures, and two pass breakups. 9/17 at Clemson: Moved to strong safety after an injury sidelined Anthony Reddick. For the game, played on 85 snaps, making 11 tackles (nine solo), including one tackle for loss. 9/24 vs. Colorado: Started at strong safety and played on 76 snaps, making 16 tackles (12 solo), including three tackles for loss. Also made his first interception of the year (that led to a field goal) and one pass breakup. Received ACC Defensive Back of the Week honors. 10/1 vs. South Florida: Started at strong safety in a dime defense and played 68 snaps. Made six tackles (two solo), adding one tackle for loss and his second interception of the year (in back-to-back games). 10/8 vs. Duke: Started at strong safety and notched 11 tackles (seven solo), with two tackles for loss. 10/15 at Temple: Started at strong safety and played on 45 plays. Made nine tackles (four solo), with one tackle for loss, one forced fumble and one pass breakup. 10/29 vs. North Carolina: Started at strong safety and played on 61 plays, making 12 tackles (seven solo), adding two QB pressures. 11/5 at Virginia Tech: Started at strong safety and played on 60 snaps, tallying 10 tackles (seven solo), with one tackle for loss. 11/12 at Wake Forest: Started at strong safety, playing 50 snaps. Made seven tackles (five solo), with one tackle for loss and getting his third interception of the season. 11/19 vs. Georgia Tech: Started and saw action on 77 plays, making eight tackles (seven solo), with one tackle for loss and one QB pressure. 11/26 vs. Virginia: Started at strong safety and made nine tackles (five solo).

BRIAN MONROE

Punter

6-1, 208, Junior-2L

Palm Beach Gardens, Florida

Palm Beach Gardens HS

CAREER: One of the most underrated punters in college football. Doesn't boom kicks for a big average, but keeps opposing returners from gaining much yardage. In three seasons, has only 12 touchbacks. As a true freshman in 2003, weathered an up-and-down first season as the Hurricanes' punter, then showed consistency in 2004, with a turn-around that surprised observers. Tremendous athlete with great potential who could compete for the Ray Guy Award as college football's best punter.

2005 (JUNIOR): Handled the team's punting duties for the third straight year. Averaged 39.4 yards on 56 punts. Had just two touchbacks (none in the last nine games), a career low and the fewest for a UM punter since that statistic has been kept starting in 1998. Also had a career-high 23 punts inside the 20. His season long was 57 yards. Opponents returned 25 punts for only 104 yards, an average of 4.2 yards per return. Also was the holder for Jon Peattie's placekicks all season and handled the team's kickoffs all year, making 21 touchbacks on 63 kickoffs. UM opponents averaged only 17.9 yards on Monroe's kickoffs. 9/5 at Florida State: Punted seven times for a 38.4-yard average (47 long), with two kicks inside the 20 and one touchback. Had three punts returned for 49 yards and two touchbacks, and one punt blocked. Also handled kickoffs and held for placekicks. 9/17 at Clemson: Punted seven times for 42.9 average, with three In20, one touchback and 52 long. Had three punts returned for eight yards. Also handled kickoffs and held for placekicks. 9/24 vs. Colorado: Punted five times for a 34.0-yard average, with a 45 long, one In20 and no touchbacks. Had two punts returned for five yards. 10/1 vs. South Florida: Punted five times for a 39.8 average, with a 52 long, three In20 and no touchbacks. Had three punts returned for 12 yards. 10/8 vs. Duke: Had a great game, with five touchbacks on kickoffs. Punted three times for a 39.0 yard average, with a 46 long, one In20 and no touchbacks. Had two punts returned for 24 yards. 10/15 at Temple: Punted three times for a 39.0 average, with a 41 long, two In20 and no touchbacks. Had no punts returned. 10/29 vs. North Carolina: Punted two times for a 37.5-yard average, with a 52 long, two In20 and no touchbacks. Had no punts returned for the second straight game. 11/5 at Virginia Tech: Punted four times for a 45.2-yard average, with a 53 long, two In20 and no touchbacks. Had four punts returned for 28 yards. Also had two touchbacks on kickoffs. 11/12 at Wake Forest: Punted six times for a 39.5 average, with a season-best long of 57 yards, two In20 and no touchbacks. Had three punts returned for just one yard. Kicked off eight times, with four more touchbacks. 11/19 vs. Georgia Tech: Punted a season-high 10 times, tying his career high. Averaged 38.2 yards, with a 49 long, a season-best four kicks inside the 20, and no touchbacks. Had five punts returned for minus-23 yards. 11/26 vs. Virginia: Punted four times for a 39.5-yard average, with a 46 long, one In20 and no touchbacks. Had no punts returned and finished the regular season with three more touchbacks on kick-offs.

RYAN MOORE

Wide Receiver

6-3, 215, Junior-2L

Orlando, Florida

Dr. Phillips HS

CAREER: Miami's starting split end in his redshirt freshman season of 2003 who went through an injury-marred sophomore season in 2004, missing six games. Came back to start in 2005. One of the Hurricanes' most consistent threats. For his career, has played in 32 career games, making 24 starts. Has caught at least one pass in every game in 29 of his last 30 games. Rangy receiver with the build and athletic talents to be an excellent player. Was one of the nation's top recruits in the 2002 recruiting class. First freshman to lead the team in receiving yards since Reggie Wayne in 1997.

2005 (JUNIOR): Played in all 11 games, making nine starts. Ranked third on the team with 28 receptions for 464 yards, a career-high 16.6-yard average. Scored four touchdowns. Also returned three punts for 12 yards. 9/5 at Florida State: Started at wide receiver and caught three passes for 69 yards, including a 34-yard touchdown reception for the team's only score. 9/17 at Clemson: Started at wide receiver and caught four passes for 54 yards, both teams highs. 9/24 vs. Colorado: Started at wide receiver and caught two passes for five yards. 10/1 vs. South Florida: Started and caught one pass for five yards. 10/8 vs. Duke: Was the only wide receiver who started in a two-tight end formation. Led the team with seven receptions (equaling his career high) for 87 yards and one touchdown. 10/15 at Temple: Did not start in a two-tight end formation, but caught one pass, a 20-yarder for a touchdown. Played only into the second quarter of a 34-3 rout and extended his streak to 26 consecutive games with a reception. 10/29 vs. North Carolina: Started at wide receiver but did not catch any passes, snapping his streak of 26 consecutive games with a reception. 11/5 at Virginia Tech: Did not start in a two-tight end formation, but caught one pass for 20 yards. 11/12 at Wake Forest: Started and had one of his best games of the season, making four receptions for 88 yards and one touchdown, a 15-yarder from Kyle Wright. 11/19 vs. Georgia Tech: Started and caught three passes for a team-high 77 yards (37 long). 11/26 vs. Virginia: Started and had two receptions for 39 yards (27 long).

SINORICE MOSS

Wide Receiver

5-8, 185, Senior-3L

Miami, Florida

Carol City HS

CAREER: Speedy receiver who has a knack for making big plays. Brother of former UM star and current Washington Redskin Santana Moss. Has played in 47 games over four seasons, with 13 starts. Earned a role on special teams coverage and receiving units in 2002 as a true freshman, and has played larger roles since then.

2005 (SENIOR): Emerged as the team's go-to receiver during the season. Honorable mention All-ACC selection. Started nine of the 11 games, not starting only when the team opened in two-tight end formations. Led the team with 35 receptions for 604 yards, with a 17.3-yard average and six touchdowns. Also rushed seven times for 55 yards and returned five kickoffs for 88 yards. Became a big-play threat, with half of his team-leading six touchdown receptions were for longer than 50 yards. Voted by his teammates as one of four team captains. 9/5 at Florida State: Started at wide receiver and caught two passes for 13 yards. Also rushed one time for 10 yards. 9/17 at Clemson: Started and caught three passes for 47 yards. Also had two rushes for one yard. 9/24 vs. Colorado: Started and led the team with five receptions for a career-high 111 yards, including a 53-yard TD from Kyle Wright. Marked the second 100-yard game of his career. 10/1 vs. South Florida: Started and caught one pass for 12 yards. 10/8 vs. Duke: Did not start in a two-tight end formation, but caught four passes for 74 yards, with a 26-yard touchdown reception. Ran two times for 23 yards. 10/15 at Temple: Started and caught three passes for a team-high 122 yards, including a 92-yard pass from Wright that is the second-longest in school history (record: 99 yards from Gino Torretta to Horace Copeland in 1991). 10/29 vs. North Carolina: Started and caught two passes for 20 yards. 11/5 at Virginia Tech: Started and had four receptions for 27 yards. 11/12 at Wake Forest: Did not start in a two-tight end formation, but played most of the game and caught two passes for 65 yards, including a 64-yard touchdown pass from Wright for his fourth touchdown of the season. Marked his third touchdown of the season of longer than 50 yards, the most for a Miami receiver since his brother, Santana, in 1998. 11/19 vs. Georgia Tech: Started and led the team with a career-high six receptions for 62 yards. Caught a 19-yard touchdown pass in the second quarter that put UM up 10-7. Also had a 10-yard run on an end around. 11/26 vs. Virginia: Started and caught three passes for 50 yards, including a 17-yard touchdown pass from Wright. Also rushed one time for 11 yards from out of the backfield.

TYRONE MOSS

Running Back

5-9, 220, Junior-2L

Pompano Beach

Ely HS

CAREER: Impressive junior running back who broke onto the national scene with a strong 2005 season before being injured in the eighth game. Developed into a key player over the final three games of the 2003 season, then served as team's No. 2 running back in 2004, backing up Frank Gore. Has six career 100-yard games...Played extensively as a true freshman in 2003. Low-to-the-ground runner who is surprisingly powerful for a player his size and is able to change direction without losing speed. Has exceptional peripheral vision and is particularly effective running between the tackles and near the goal line.

2005 (JUNIOR): Star tailback who turned into one of UM's most productive runners ever before suffering a season-ending knee injury in the eighth game at Virginia Tech. Named to the All-ACC first team along with conference MVP Chris Barclay. Led the team with 701 yards rushing on 137 carries, a 5.1-yard average and 12 touchdowns. Also caught one pass for 17 yards. Led the ACC in touchdowns and was seventh in rushing despite missing the final three games. His 12 rushing TDs was the most by a UM back since Willis McGahee in 2002. 9/5 at Florida State: Started at tailback and rushed 23 times for 102 yards (4.4 average). Marked his third career 100-yard game. Also surpassed the 1,000-yard mark for his career, becoming the 33rd UM back to do so. 9/17 at Clemson: Started at tailback and scored three touchdowns in leading the team to a 36-30 win in three overtimes. Rushed a career-high 31 times for 139 yards, averaging 4.5 yards per carry, with a long of 25. Scored on a one-yard run in the fourth quarter, then added TD runs of six yards and 25 yards in overtime, the latter score for the game-winner. Named the ACC Offensive Back of the Week for his performance. 9/24 vs. Colorado: Started at tailback and rushed 14 times for 44 yards. 10/1 vs. South Florida: Started at tailback and led the team with 89 yards on 22 carries. Scored three touchdowns for the second time in three weeks. Had scoring runs of one, 19 and one yard. Had a 17-yard reception for only the second catch of his career and a personal long, and his 36-yard run in the third quarter was a career long. 10/8 vs. Duke: Started at tailback and rushed 12 times for 82 yards (6.8 average). Scored two touchdowns on runs of seven and one yard. Moved into eighth place on school's career list with 19 rushing touchdowns. 10/15 at Temple: Started and played only into the second quarter with UM leading 34-0. Still led the team with 29 yards rushing on six carries. 10/29 vs. North Carolina: Started and rushed for a career-high 195 yards on 24 carries (8.1-yard average) and scored a career-high four touchdowns. The yardage total is the seventh-highest in school history, and he became the fourth Hurricanes player to score four touchdowns in one game. Named the ACC Offensive Back of the Week for the second time this year. Marked his third 100-yard game of the season and sixth of his career. Set a personal best for rushing yards in a season (675), surpassing the 511 yards he had as a freshman in 2003. He moved up to 14th on UM's all-time rushing list and seventh on the career touchdowns list with 23, passing Clinton Portis (21). 11/5 at Virginia Tech: Started and rushed six times for 26 yards but suffered a torn ACL in his left knee in the second quarter and was lost for the season. Moved into 13th place on the school's all-time rushing list, passing Don Bosseler (1,642 yards). Underwent surgery on November 10.

JAVON NANTON

Defensive End

6-3, 241, Senior-2L

Miami Springs, Florida

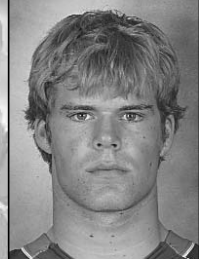

Miami Springs HS

CAREER: Pass-rushing specialist who led UM in sacks as a sophomore in 2003 and as a senior in 2005. Excellent athlete who can create havoc for opposing offensive tackles. Former walk-on track athlete who was awarded a scholarship at the end of 2003 spring practice. Speed-rush end impressed coaches with his work on the scout team as a football walk-on. Has an explosive first step and the strength to work past opposing tackles.

2005 (SENIOR): Played in all 11 games, making two starts at left defensive end. Led the team with seven sacks for minus-59 yards. Totaled 18 tackles (14 solo), with nine tackles for loss, two QB pressures and one forced fumble. 9/5 at Florida State: Played as a reserve defensive end on five plays, making one assist. 9/17 at Clemson: Saw action as a backup on 17 snaps, making one sack for minus-12 yards, along with one QB pressure. 9/24 vs. Colorado: Played as a reserve defensive end on 22 snaps, making two solo tackles (one for a loss). 10/1 vs. South Florida: Played as a reserve for 14 snaps, making one solo tackle and one QB pressure. 10/8 vs. Duke: Played as a reserve defensive end on 18 downs, registering one sack for the third consecutive game (minus seven yards). 10/15 at Temple: Saw action as a backup on 23 snaps, making one solo tackle and one QB pressure. 10/29 vs. North Carolina: Had his best game of the season. Played as a reserve defensive end on 23 downs, making a season-best three sacks for minus 22 yards. The three sacks gave him five for the year, taking over the team lead. 11/5 at Virginia Tech: Played as a reserve on 19 downs, notching another sack (minus-five yards). The sack was his sixth in the last five games. 11/12 at Wake Forest: Made his first start of the season at left defensive end in placed of an injured Bryan Pata and played on 32 downs. Tallied three tackles (two solo), including one for loss) 11/19 vs. Georgia Tech: Started for the second straight game. Played on 39 plays, registering two assisted tackles. 11/26 vs. Virginia: Moved back into a reserve role, seeing action on 22 downs but making no tackles.

GREG OLSEN

Tight End

6-5, 252, Sophomore-1L

Wayne, New Jersey

Wayne HS

CAREER: Superbly talented player who could be the best tight end in UM history. Coaches say he could be better than Jeremy Shockey, Kellen Winslow Jr. or Bubba Franks. Took over as the starter as a sophomore in 2005. As a freshman in 2004, served as the team's No. 2 tight end behind Kevin Everett, the Buffalo Bills' third-round draft choice. Highly recruited player and Parade All-American in 2002 who transferred to Miami after a short stint at Notre Dame. As a high school senior, was one of three finalists for the Gatorade National Player of the Year, along with UM teammate Kyle Wright. Spent the 2003 season on the Hurricanes scout team before suffering a shoulder injury.

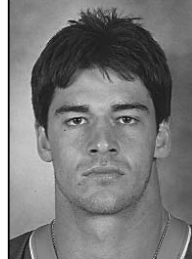

2005 (SOPHOMORE): Honorable mention All-ACC selection. Second on the team with 31 receptions for 451 yards (14.5-yard average), with four touchdowns and a long of 57 yards. Caught at least one pass in 10 of 11 games. Was one of six offensive players who started every game. 9/5 at Florida State: Started at tight end and had a career game, catching a game-high eight passes for 137 yards, including four straight receptions on third down on the final drive of the game (for 64 yards) to keep UM's chances alive. Marked the best performance by a UM tight end in nearly 20 years. Earned John Mackey Tight End of the Week honors. 9/17 at Clemson: Started at tight end and was marked by defenders, being held to two receptions for nine yards. 9/24 vs. Colorado: Started and caught three passes for 25 yards (14 long). 10/1 vs. South Florida: Started and had two receptions for a team-high 72 yards. Had a 57-yarder over the middle that should have been a touchdown, but he was stripped of the ball at the six-yard line. 10/8 vs. Duke: Started and caught three passes for 31 yards (18 long). 10/15 at Temple: Started in a two-tight end formation and tied for the team lead with three receptions for 38 yards, catching TD passes of 21 and 8 yards. 10/29 vs. North Carolina: Started in a two-tight end formation and tied for the team lead again with three catches for 36 yards (14 long). 11/5 at Virginia Tech: Started in a two-tight end formation and had two catches for 23 yards (17 long). 11/12 at Wake Forest: Started in a two-tight end formation and caught two passes for 25 yards, including a 10-yard touchdown pass for his fourth score of the season. 11/19 vs. Georgia Tech: Started but was held without a reception for the only time all season. 11/26 vs. Virginia: Started and caught three passes for 55 yards (30 long).

JON PEATTIE

Placekicker

6-3, 206, Junior-2L

Clearwater, Florida

Countryside HS

CAREER: Team's placekicker the last three seasons, scoring 269 points in that time and is the sixth-leading scorer among placekickers in school history. Is the NCAA's 11th leading active scorer. Could threaten Carlos Huerta's all-time scoring record. Has the fourth-most field goals in UM history. Has been successful on 51 of 71 field goals (72 percent) in three seasons. Was successful on 10 consecutive field goal attempts as a rookie, the third-longest streak in UM history. One of Miami's most significant contributors as a true freshman in 2003, when he was one of 12 semifinalists for the Lou Groza Award honoring college football's finest placekicker. That year he provided the winning points in three games and turning one of the team's most questionable areas into a team strength. Also named first-team All-Big East honoree by the coaches in 2003. Scored 103 points as a freshman, which ranks fifth on UM's single-season scoring list and fourth for kicking points in a season. Was hampered by a groin injury most of the 2004 season but still managed 90 points.

2005 (JUNIOR): Led the team in scoring with 76 points. Connected on 14 of 19 field goal attempts (73.7 percent) and 34 of 39 extra points. Missed the first extra points attempts of his UM career. Scored 10 or more points in three games. Started the season in seventh place in scoring among UM placekickers all time, and moved up to sixth place with 262 career points by the end of the regular season. Trails only Carlos Huerta (397), Todd Sievers (310), Greg Cox (302), Andy Crosland (292) and Dane Prewitt (272). 9/5 at Florida State: Kicked one extra point and missed two field goals (47, 39 yards). Was not able to attempt a game-tying field goal on the final play because of a bad snap and hold. 9/17 at Clemson: Scored 12 points on three field goals and three extra points. Was 3 for 3 on field goals, hitting from 37, 37 and 19 yards, the last kick in the second overtime to tie the game again. Became ninth player in school history to score 200 points for his career. 9/24 vs. Colorado: Scored in double digits for the second straight week, this time with 11 points. Kicked three field goals in five attempts, hitting from 34, 20 and 33 yards but missing from 37 and 43 yards. Also kicked two extra points. With 217 career points, moved into seventh place on school's all-time list, ahead of Edgerrin James. Also moved into sixth place on UM's career field goal list with 42, passing Dane Prewitt. 10/1 vs. South Florida: Scored nine points, with two field goals (33 and 49 yards) and three extra points. Did not miss any kicks. With 45 career field goals, moved into a tie for fourth place on the all-time field goal list with Todd Sievers. His 49-yarder tied for the second longest of his career. 10/8 vs. Duke: Scored 10 points in a 52-7 victory, tying his career high with seven extra points and hitting his only field goal, a 21-yarder. His 46th career field goal moved him past Sievers into fourth place on the school's career list. 10/15 at Temple: Scored just four points (all extra points) and missed his PAT attempt, snapping a streak of 99 consecutive extra points made. Also ended the team's NCAA-leading streak of 131 straight extra points. Missed a 43-yard field goal. 10/29 vs. North Carolina: Scored four points again, all extra points, and did not attempt any field goals. Also punted for his only time of the season out of field goal formation, for 23 yards (downed at the 10-yard line). 11/5 at Virginia Tech: Scored nine points in team's upset victory. Opened the game's scoring with a 27-yard field goal in the first quarter and later added a 24-yarder as well as three extra points. With two field goals, he moved into third place on the school's career list with 48, passing Greg Cox. Also, with nine points, moved into sixth place on UM's all-time scoring list, passing Danny Miller. 11/12 at Wake Forest: Kicked five points, but missed two other PAT attempts. Did not attempt any field goals. 11/19 vs. Georgia Tech: Scored four points, with a 43-yard field goal and one extra point. 11/26 vs. Virginia: Scored seven points in the regular-season finale. Connected on field goals of 40 and 30 yards. Missed his first two extra point attempts, then hit his third. Tied Todd Sievers for fourth place on the all-time list with 51 career field goals.

KENNY PHILLIPS

Cornerback
6-2, 200, Freshman
Miami, Florida
Carol City HS

CAREER: True freshman who has been named to every All-Freshman team named so far. Nation's top safety prospect and USA Today High School Defensive Player of the Year in 2004. Made an immediate impact this year in the secondary. UM coaches say he has "the body of Sean Taylor and the knowledge and speed of Ed Reed."

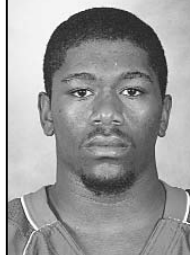

2005 (FRESHMAN): Named to All-Freshman teams so far by The Sporting News, Rivals.com and CollegeFootballNews.com. Started the final 10 games of the year at free safety, replacing an injured Anthony Reddick. Ranked third on the team with 84 tackles (55 solo), with three tackles for loss, one interception, four pass breakups, two QB pressures and one fumble recovery. Had five games with nine or more tackles. 9/5 at Florida State: Did not start but took over at free safety in the second quarter after Anthony Reddick was injured. For the game, played 18 plays, making one assisted tackle and one QB pressure. 9/17 at Clemson: Made his first start and played on 80 snaps. Named ACC Defensive Back of the Week and was the team's defensive player of the game after leading the team with 13 tackles (nine solo). Intercepted a pass in the third overtime to end the game and give Miami the victory. 9/24 vs. Colorado: Started at free safety and played on 58 plays, making seven tackles (five solo) and one pass breakup. 10/1 vs. South Florida: Started at free safety and saw action on 71 plays, making seven tackles (three solo). 10/8 vs. Duke: Started at free safety and played on 46 snaps, making nine tackles (five solo), one tackle for loss and one QB pressure. Played into the third quarter, then gave way to reserves in a 52-7 win. 10/15 at Temple: Started at free safety, playing on 34 plays, making seven tackles (three solo) and one pass breakup. 10/29 vs. North Carolina: Started at free safety and saw action on 61 snaps, registering nine tackles (six solo). 11/5 at Virginia Tech: Started at free safety and saw action on 38 plays before leaving the game with a groin injury. Made three tackles (one solo). 11/12 at Wake Forest: Started at free safety and sat out the second half of a 47-17 victory. Played on only 34 snaps and still led the team with 11 tackles (nine solo) and one tackle for loss. 11/19 vs. Georgia Tech: Started at free safety and made seven tackles (six solo), with one tackle for a loss. 11/26 vs. Virginia: Started his 10th consecutive game and tallied 10 tackles (eight solo), with one pass breakup.

ERIC WINSTON

Offensive Tackle

6-7, 312, Senior-3L

Midland, Texas

Lee HS

CAREER: Recovered from a 2004 knee injury and reclaimed his position as one of the best offensive tackles in college football. Won the ACC's Jacobs Trophy as the best offensive lineman in the conference, as voted by the coaches. All-American candidate in 2004 whose season was cut short by a torn anterior cruciate ligament in his left knee in the fourth game. Started his college career as a tight end, then moved to tackle in 2003. A dominating presence in the line who matured into the team's most vocal leader. Has the size, athletic ability, intelligence and work ethic needed to be the top tackle in college football. Position coach Art Kehoe compares him to Bryant McKinnie and Leon Searcy as the three best offensive tackles in UM history. Winner of the 2003 Offensive Lineman of the Year for the Hurricanes (voted by the coaching staff)...Moved to tackle from tight end in spring 2003 and quickly earned the starting job at left tackle.

2005 (SENIOR): Voted All-America by Walter Camp, American Football Coaches Association (AFCA), Sports Illustrated and Rivals.com. Selected second-team All-America by Associated Press. Named to the All-ACC team. Started all 11 games at left tackle. One of six offensive players who started every game. Often lines up alongside fellow offensive tackle Rashad Butler in an overbalanced line (and sometimes alongside two other tackles). Also played as motion tight end in different formations, showing his versatility. 9/5 at Florida State: Started at left tackle, returning to the lineup 11 months after suffering an ACL injury. Played the entire game and allowed only a half sack. Made one metrorail. 9/17 at Clemson: Started at left tackle and played the entire game, including all three overtime periods. For the first time played in a tackle overset alongside OT Rashad Butler, occasionally going into motion. For the game, made four pancakes and three metrorails. 9/24 vs. Colorado: Started at left tackle and played the entire game. Turned in one pancake and one metrorail. 10/1 vs. South Florida: Started at left tackle and played the entire game. Made one pancake and two metrorails. 10/8 vs. Duke: Started at left tackle and played the entire game. Named ACC Offensive Lineman of the Week after grading out the highest among the offensive linemen and helping the team gain a season-high 557 yards on offense. Graded out at 96 percent for performance and 98 percent for technique. Had three pancake blocks and five metrorails, and did not allow any sacks or quarterback pressures. 10/15 at Temple: Started and played only into the second quarter in a 34-3 rout. Made one metrorail block. 10/29 vs. North Carolina: Started at left tackle and played all but the final drive of the game. Earned ACC Offensive Lineman of the Week honors after he played with flu, fever and dehydration, once leaving the game to throw up on the sidelines. Graded out at 91 percent for the game, with four pancake blocks and three metrorails. 11/5 at Virginia Tech: Started and played the entire game. Made four pancakes and six metrorails, and held VT's Darryl Tapp to no sacks and no QB pressures. 11/12 at Wake Forest: Started at left tackle and played into the fourth quarter before giving way to backup Reggie Youngblood. For the game, tallied six metrorails. 11/19 vs. Georgia Tech: Started and played the entire game. ANTHONY WOLLSCHLAGER

Center

6-4, 281, Junior-2L

Fort Lauderdale, Florida

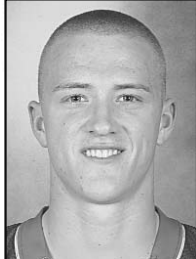

St. Thomas Aquinas HS

CAREER: Overachiever who won the starting center in training camp and surprised his teammates with his tenacity and work ethic. Talented and experienced lineman who overcame injuries to work his way into a key reserve role in 2003 and 2004. Tenacious run blocker who has a large frame to build upon and has tremendous upside potential.

2005 (JUNIOR): Starting center and one of six offensive players who started every game. Handled every snap until games were won and he gave way to backup Alex Pou. Led the team with 30 pancake blocks and 49 metrorail blocks (staying with his defender through the play). 9/5 at Florida State: Made his first collegiate start and played the entire game. Made one pancake block and did not allow any sacks. 9/17 at Clemson: Started and played the entire game, including all three overtime periods. Made one pancake and four metrorails. Allowed 2.5 sacks. 9/24 vs. Colorado: Started and played into the fourth quarter. Had two pancakes and two metrorails. 10/1 vs. South Florida: Started at center and played the entire game. Made four pancakes and a team-high five metrorails. 10/8 vs. Duke: Started and played into the fourth quarter. Tallied three pancakes and four metrorail blocks. 10/15 at Temple: Started and played only into the second quarter in a 34-3 rout. 10/29 vs. North Carolina: Started and played all but the final drive. For the game, had four pancakes and five metrorails. 11/5 at Virginia Tech: Started and played the entire game. Made eight pancakes and 14 metrorails, both personal bests and season highs for the team. Was named the ACC Offensive Lineman of the Week. Allowed one sack. 11/12 at Wake Forest: Started and played into the third quarter. Totalled five pancakes and eight more metrorails. 11/19 vs. Georgia Tech: Started and played the entire game. Made three metrorail blocks and allowed a sack. 11/26 vs. Virginia: Started at center and played the entire game. Made two pancakes and four metrorails.

KYLE WRIGHT

Quarterback

6-4, 220, Sophomore-1L

Danville, California

Monte Vista HS

CAREER: Starting quarterback who is one of the most talented young passers in college football. Highly regarded quarterback had been groomed as team's quarterback of the future and is ready to be the next great passer at Miami. Beat out Kirby Freeman for the starting job in spring practice. Nation's most highly recruited quarterback coming out of high school in 2003. Enrolled at UM in spring 2003 after graduating early from high school. Impressed the coaching staff with his play on the scout team in 2003 and competed for the starting job in spring 2004. Was a backup quarterback in 2004, but missed much of the second half of the season with a sprained ankle.

2005 (SOPHOMORE): Honorable mention All-ACC selection at quarterback. Started all 11 games. Completed 170 of 286 passes (59.4 percent) for 2,303 yards, with 18 touchdowns and only 10 interceptions. Led the ACC with 18 touchdowns passes, ranked fifth in passing yards per game, eighth in total offense and second in passing efficiency. Ranked 25th in the NCAA in passing (140.9 efficiency). Threw for 200 or more yards in six of 11 games. Also rushed for minus-81 yards on 57 attempts. One of six offensive players who started every game. 9/5 at Florida State: Made his first start and completed 16 of 28 passes (57.1 percent) for 232 yards, one touchdown and two interceptions. Was sacked a school-record nine times and had rushing totals of 13 for minus-36 yards. 9/17 at Clemson: Started and led the team to a 36-30 victory in three overtimes. Completed 16 of 26 passes (61.5 percent) for 152 yards, one touchdown and no interceptions. Was sacked five times, with rushing totals of six for minus-33 yards. Threw an eight-yard TD pass to Quadtrine Hill in the third quarter. Led the team to scores in all three overtime periods, with two touchdowns and one field goal. 9/24 vs. Colorado: Started and led team to 23-3 victory. Completed 20 of 39 passes (51.2%) for 264 yards, one touchdown and no interceptions. Threw a 53-yard TD pass to Sinorice Moss. Rushed four times for six yards, including a two-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter for his first collegiate score. 10/1 vs. South Florida: Started and led team to 27-7 win. Completed 13 of 26 passes for 173 yards and one interception. Marked his first game as a starter without a TD pass. Was sacked three times and ended up with rushing totals of eight attempts for minus-two yards. 10/8 vs. Duke: Started and led team to 52-7 victory. Completed 18 of 31 passes (58.1 percent) for 255 yards, with three touchdowns (all in the first half) and no interceptions. Hooked up on TD passes of 29 yards to Lance Leggett, 18 yards to Greg Olsen and 26 yards to Sinorice Moss. Left the game in the third quarter. Rushed two times for six yards. 10/15 at Temple: Started and led team to a 34-3 win, leaving the game late in the second quarter. Completed 9 of 10 passes for 196 yards, four touchdowns and no interceptions. Threw TD passes of 92 yards to Sinorice Moss, 21 and 8 yards to Greg Olsen, and 20 yards to Ryan Moore. The 92-yarder is the second-longest in school history (record: 99 yards from Gino Torretta to Horace Copeland in 1992). Had rushing totals of four attempts for minus-23 yards. Suffered an injury to his right thumb on the second of two sacks when the backup offensive line was in the game. 10/29 vs. North Carolina: Started and played into the fourth quarter, leading the team to a 34-16 win. Completed 11 of 16 passes (68.8 percent) for 111 yards, no touchdowns and three interceptions (all in the first half). Was sacked one time and finished with four rushes for 18 yards. 11/5 at Virginia Tech: Started and let team to a 27-7 upset victory over then-No. 3 ranked VT. Completed 13 of 22 passes (59.1 percent) for 146 yards, one touchdown, one interception and one sack (two yards). Left the game in the second quarter after being hit late, but returned in the third quarter. Threw a nine-yard TD pass to Darnell Jenkins. 11/12 at Wake Forest: Started and had a career game, throwing for 319 yards and five touchdown passes. Completed 17 of 27 passes (63.0 percent) and was not intercepted. His five TD passes tied the school record held by Bernie Kosar (1984), Steve Walsh (1988), Ken Dorsey (2000) and Brock Berlin (2004). And his 319 yards passing broke his personal best set vs. Colorado. Also rushed two times for minus-eight yards. Earned ACC Offensive Back of the Week honors. 11/19 vs. Georgia Tech: Started and completed 14 of 31 passes (45.2 percent) for 207 yards, one touchdown and one interception. Was sacked seven times, the most since the season opener, and ended up with eight rushes for minus-35 yards. Connected with Sinorice Moss on a 19-yard touchdown pass in the second quarter to put UM up 10-7. He threw an interception at the three-yard line after driving the team 62 yards in the final two minutes. 11/26 vs. Virginia: Started his 11th consecutive game and hit on 23 of 30 passes for a season-best 76.7 completion percentage. Threw for 248 yards and one touchdown, with no interceptions and was sacked just one time. Rushed five times for 31 yards, including a 31-yard scramble for his longest run of the year (he was tackled a foot short of the goal line).

REGGIE YOUNGBLOOD

Offensive Tackle

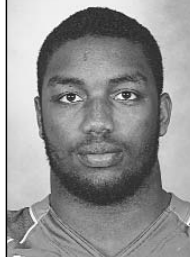

6-5, 310, Freshman

Houston, Texas

Booker T. Washington HS

CAREER: Promising young offensive tackle is slated to take over for Eric Winston at left tackle in 2006. Nation's mostly highly sought-after recruit in 2005. Has all the tools to be one of the top left tackles in college football in another year.

2005 (FRESHMAN): True freshman who gained valuable experience by playing in seven games. Backed up Eric Winston at left tackle, and often played alongside Winston and Rashad Butler, with three tackles on the same side of an overbalanced line. Also played on the placekicking units late in the season to get more playing time. 9/5 at Florida State: Did not play. 9/17 at Clemson: Did not play. 9/24 vs. Colorado: Did not play. 10/1 vs. South Florida: Did not play. 10/8 vs. Duke: Played in his first collegiate game, seeing reserve action at left tackle after Eric Winston left the game. Made one metrorail. 10/15 at Temple: Entered the game in the second quarter and played the rest of the way in a 34-3 rout, making one metrorail. 10/29 vs. North Carolina: Played the final series at left tackle. Played one down in the second quarter when Eric Winston was sick, and saw action as the third tackle in an overbalanced line throughout the game. 11/5 at Virginia Tech: Played as the third tackle in an overbalanced offensive line during the game. 11/12 at Wake Forest: Played much of the second half at left tackle after Eric Winston left the game. Also played as a third tackle in a tackle overset throughout the game. Made two pancake blocks and one metrorail. 11/19 vs. Georgia Tech: Played in the overbalanced line as a third offensive tackle, and also played on the placekicking units for the first time. 11/26 vs. Virginia: Played in the overbalanced line as a third offensive tackle, and played on the placekicking units.

CHRIS ZELLNER

Tight End

6-2, 227, Freshman-RS

Sarasota, Florida

Booker HS

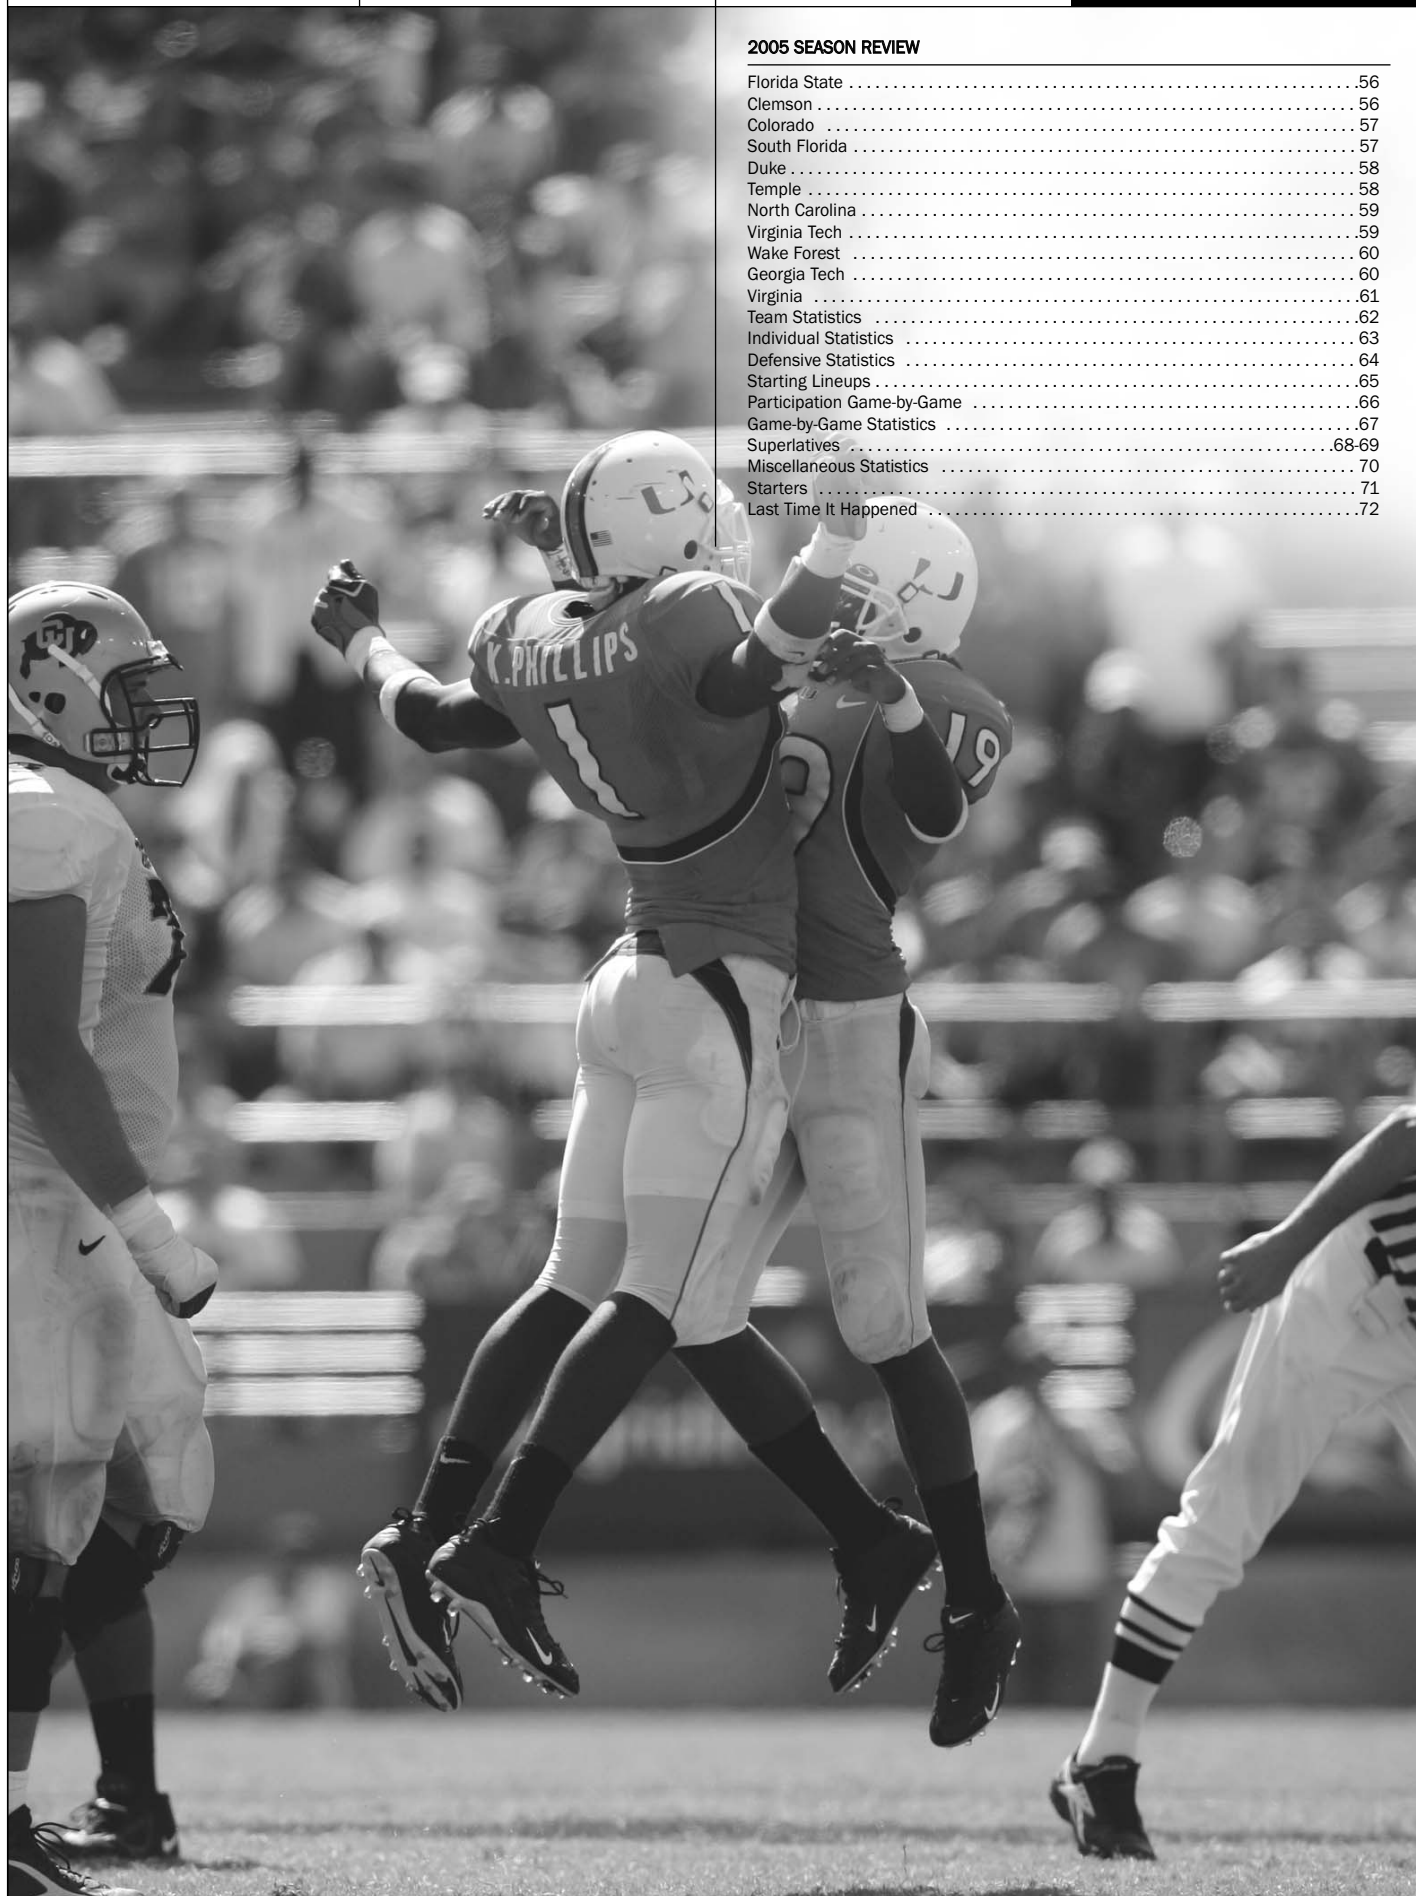

CAREER: Talented redshirt freshman who was moved to tight end during spring practice after starting his UM career as a defensive end. Noted more as a blocker at tight end but also possesses the ability to catch the ball.

2005 (FRESHMAN): Redshirt freshman who played as the No. 3 tight end most of the season, moving into the backup role for two games. Played in 10 games, starting one time in a two-tight end formation. 9/5 at Florida State: Played in his first game as a Hurricane in two-tight end formations. 9/17 at Clemson: Did not play. 9/24 vs. Colorado: Played as a blocker in two-tight end formations. 10/1 vs. South Florida: Played as the backup tight end with Buck Ortega injured. 10/8 vs. Duke: Made his first start in a two-tight end formation in place of injured Buck Ortega. Also made his first reception, catching a nine-yard pass from Kirby Freeman for a touchdown. 10/15 at Temple: Played as a reserve tight end most of the second half. 10/29 vs. North Carolina: Played as a blocking tight end. 11/5 at Virginia Tech: Played as a blocking tight end and on special teams. 11/12 at Wake Forest: Played as a backup tight end and on special teams. 11/19 vs. Georgia Tech: Played on special teams. 11/26 vs. Virginia: Played as a reserve tight end and on special teams.

Kenny Phillips and Brandon Meriweather celebrate the 23-3 home-opening win against Colorado.

GAME 1 - (10) FLORIDA STATE 10, (9) MIAMI 7
MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 5, 2005 - DOAK CAMPBELL STADIUM

After six straight years of frustrating finishes, the Seminoles found some good fortune against their rivals when the Hurricanes botched that potential tying kick to give Florida State a 10-7 victory Monday night. Jon Peattie lined up for the 28-yarder with about 2:30 left, but holder Brian Monroe dropped a low snap that bounced off his hands and rolled back into the pile, never giving Peattie a chance to try the kick.

With No. 9 Miami out of timeouts, No. 14 Florida State simply needed to run out the clock to secure its first victory over the Hurricanes since 1999 and maybe take some of the sting out of all those wide rights and lefts, some that might have cost Florida State national titles.

Florida State overcame its own inept offense (170 total yards) with a defense that registered nine sacks by seven players and some solid special teams plays. Both Florida State's Drew Weatherford and Miami's Kyle Wright were making their first collegiate starts at quarterback and, at times, neither looked ready to lead a team to victory in one of college football's fiercest rivalries.

Weatherford went 7-for-24 for 67 yards with an interception. He was pulled early in the fourth, but fellow redshirt freshman Xavier Lee had no luck moving the 'Noles, either. Wright completed six passes and converted three third downs to put the Hurricanes in position on Miami's final drive of the game to beat the Noles' for the seventh straight time.

Wright hooked up with tight end Greg Olsen four times in the 19-play drive that started on the Miami 3 and got the Hurricanes to the Florida State 3. But the Seminoles' ninth sack pushed Miami back and forced the Hurricanes to settle for the field goal attempt. Wright finished 16-for-28 for 232 yards and a touchdown pass. Olsen caught eight passes for 137 yards.

GAME 2 - (13) MIAMI 36, (20) CLEMSON 30 (3 OT)
SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 17, 2005 - CLEMSON MEMORIAL STADIUM

Tyrone Moss' 25-yard touchdown run in the third overtime lifted No. 13 Miami to a 36-30 victory over No. 20 Clemson Saturday.

Moss bounced out to the right side for his scoring run and safety Kenny Phillips intercepted Charlie Whitehurst when the Tigers (2-1, 1-1 Atlantic Coast Conference) got their chance in the third extra period. Phillips' play ended the game and gave the Hurricanes (1-1, 1-1) a reason to forget their 10-7 loss at Florida State nearly two weeks ago.

Moss finished with 139 yards rushing and three touchdowns, two in overtime. His 1-yard touchdown in the fourth quarter put Miami up 20-10, while his 3-yard scoring run gave the Hurricanes a brief 27-20 lead in the first overtime.

Miami seemed like it would have its Death Valley revenge after Moss' first score with 14:20 left in the game. But the Tigers (2-1, 1-1), who have already rallied in the fourth quarter to beat Texas A&M and Maryland this season, did it again to force overtime. Whitehurst had a 1-yard quarterback sneak touchdown to cut the lead to three points with 2:58 to go. After forcing the Hurricanes to punt, Whitehurst led a 46-yard drive that ended with Jad Dean's tying field goal from 27-yards out.

Trailing 10-6 in the third quarter, Moss carried six times on a 47-yard drive that ended with Wright's 8-yard touchdown pass to Quadtrine Hill. On the next series, Kyle Wright let loose with his longest pass of the game, a 40-yard strike to Sinorice Moss that moved Miami to Clemson's 6. Two plays later, Tyrone Moss finished the drive with his 1-yard score to give Miami its 10-point, fourth-quarter lead.

GAME 3 - (12) MIAMI 23, COLORADO 3 SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 24, 2005 - ORANGE BOWL

Kyle Wright threw for 264 yards and a touchdown, plus ran for another, and No. 12 Miami's defense frustrated Colorado all afternoon in the Hurricanes' 23-3 win Saturday. Only Mason Crosby's 58-yard field goal with 11:57 left kept the Buffaloes (2-1) from being shut out for the first time in nearly two decades.

Sinorice Moss had 111 yards receiving, including a 53-yard touchdown catch, for the Hurricanes (2-1) who got three field goals from Jon Peattie, then a 2-yard scoring run by Wright with 8:44 left. Quadrtrine Hill and Tyrone Moss combined for 99 yards rushing for Miami, which got 12 tackles and an interception from safety Brandon Meriweather, plus another interception from Marcus Maxey. The Hurricanes nearly added a defensive touchdown with 1:30 left when Kareem Brown recovered a fumble and lateraled to Leon Williams for a score - but the play was called back by a penalty.

Joel Klatt completed 25 of 42 passes for 228 yards for Colorado, which got 82 yards rushing from Hugh Charles. The Buffaloes were 5-for-18 on third-down chances, collected a good chunk of their 331 yards in the fourth quarter with many Miami starters resting, and were penalized 16 times for 104 yards.

Peattie opened the scoring with a 34-yard field goal midway through the first quarter, and Maxey's interception helped double the lead; it set up a 20-yard field goal by Peattie 11:12 before halftime. Colorado went three-and-out on its next possession, and Miami pounced shortly afterward when Wright hit Sinorice Moss with a long scoring strike down the right sideline.

Wright never was sacked, after 14 sacks in Miami's first two games. He completed 20 of 39 passes before being replaced late by Kirby Freeman.

GAME 4 - (9) MIAMI 27, SOUTH FLORIDA 7 SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 2005 - ORANGE BOWL

Tyrone Moss matched a career-high with three touchdowns and No. 9 Miami ended South Florida's hopes of springing a second straight upset with a 27-7 win on Saturday. Moss ran for 89 yards and had scoring runs of 1 and 19 yards in the first quarter, when Miami (3-1) took advantage of three South Florida turnovers to build an early 17-0 lead.

Miami scored on four of its first five possessions, then didn't add to the total until Moss' 1-yard, fourth-down plunge with 8:25 left. South Florida avoided the shutout - which would have been the first in its 93-game history - with 5:56 left, when Johnny Peyton caught a 14-yard touchdown pass from Pat Julmiste.

The teams combined for nine turnovers, with South Florida having all five of its giveaways before halftime.

USF (3-2) finished with a season-low 174 total yards, more than half of them in the fourth quarter with the outcome long decided. Andre Hall, who came in averaging 117 yards per game managed 53 yards on 19 carries.

Kyle Wright completed 13 of 26 for 173 yards for the Hurricanes. Lovon Ponder had two of Miami's four interceptions, with Devin Hester and Brandon Meriweather each picking off a pass. Julmiste completed 8 of 25 passes for 47 yards and three interceptions for South Florida.

The entire first quarter - sans four Miami kickoffs and Ponder's first interception near the midfield stripe - was played in South Florida territory. The Bulls never penetrated their own 40, and fumbled the ball away on the one play they had taking them that far.

South Florida crossed midfield for the first time with 2:48 left in the half. By then, the margin was 20-0 - and could easily have been worse, if not for two Miami turnovers.

GAME 5 - (9) MIAMI 52, DUKE 7
SATURDAY, OCTOBER 8, 2005 - ORANGE BOWL

Kyle Wright threw for three touchdowns in a 5-minute span of the second quarter, helping No. 9 Miami shake off a slow start and overwhelm Duke 52-7 on Saturday. Tyrone Moss ran for 82 yards and a pair of touchdowns - his third multi-score game in four weeks - for Miami, which established season-highs for points and yards. Ryan Moore made a career-high seven catches for 87 yards and a touchdown for Miami (4-1, 2-1 Atlantic Coast Conference), winners of four straight.

Wright completed 18 of 31 passes for 255 yards, with three touchdowns and two interceptions before being replaced midway through the third quarter by Kirby Freeman, who threw for 47 yards and the first two touchdowns of his career.

Ronnie Drummer had an 81-yard touchdown run early in the third quarter for Duke (1-5, 0-3), which was outgained 557-128. Freshman quarterback Zack Asack was 4-of-15 for eight yards passing, and he carried the ball 16 times for 6 yards. Chris Davis made two interceptions, one on a deep pass ending the first half, for Duke - which managed only five first downs, the fewest yielded by Miami since 1999.

The Hurricanes built a 31-0 halftime lead, their four touchdown drives totaling eight plays. Tyrone Moss' 7-yard run opened the scoring one play after Kelly Jennings caused a fumble deep in Duke territory. Lance Leggett's 29-yard touchdown catch was three plays after Willie Williams tackled Duke's Marcus Jones on a fake-punt try, and Devin Hester had two big punt returns to set up a pair of two-play touchdown drives - Greg Olsen and Sinorice Moss making those catches.

Leggett's touchdown catch came 6:37 before halftime; in the next 4:23, Olsen and Sinorice Moss also made touchdown catches, eliminating all doubt.

Hester returned four punts for 101 yards for Miami, but did not play in the second half due to cramps.

GAME 6 - (7) MIAMI 34, TEMPLE 3
SATURDAY, OCTOBER 15, 2005 - LINCOLN FINANCIAL FIELD

Kyle Wright threw four touchdown passes in the first 19 minutes, leading No. 7 Miami to a 34-3 victory against Temple on Saturday. The Hurricanes (5-1) completely outclassed Temple (0-7), jumping out to a 27-0 lead in the first quarter.

Wright completed 9-of-10 passes for 196 yards, before giving way to Kirby Freeman late in the second quarter. Sinorice Moss had three catches for 122 yards, including a 92-yard TD pass on Miami's second offensive play. Devin Hester returned a punt 48 yards for a TD.

Since surviving a triple-overtime test at Clemson in the season's second week, the Hurricanes have won their last four games by a combined 136-20 margin.

The Hurricanes went ahead 7-0 after Moss caught a swing pass from Wright and sprinted down the left sideline for a 92-yard score, the second-longest touchdown pass in school history. Gino Torretta threw a 99-yard TD pass to Horace Copeland in a game against Arkansas in 1991.

After a 5-yard punt by Mike McLaughlin gave Miami the ball at Temple's 34, Wright connected with Greg Olsen on a 21-yard TD pass to make it 13-0. Jon Peattie missed the extra point, snapping a string of 131 successful conversions for Miami dating to 2002.

McLaughlin's next punt traveled 31 yards, but Hester took it 48 yards to the end zone for his fourth career punt return for a TD. Hester caught the ball and started to his right, stopped and went back to his left, eluded a tackler, turned around and sprinted down the right sideline. Wright threw an 8-yard TD pass to Olsen and a 20-yard scoring strike to Ryan Moore to put Miami ahead 34-0.

Ryan Lux missed a 53-yard field goal wide right for Temple, but connected on a 40-yarder minutes later for the Owls' only score with 1:01 left in the first half. The announced crowd of 23,129 for homecoming was Temple's largest of the season, though there were more orange shirts than cherry and white ones at Lincoln Financial Field - home of the Philadelphia Eagles.

GAME 7 - (6) MIAMI 34, NORTH CAROLINA 16 SATURDAY, OCTOBER 29, 2005 - ORANGE BOWL

Tyrone Moss rushed for career highs of 195 yards and four touchdowns, three scores after halftime as No. 6 Miami pulled away to beat North Carolina 34-16 on Saturday.

The Hurricanes trailed 16-7 at intermission, then scored three touchdowns in an eight-minute span of the third quarter to take control, setting up a showdown with unbeaten Virginia Tech next Saturday for control of the Atlantic Coast Conference's Coastal Division.

Moss scored on a 1-yard run in the first quarter, then added second-half scoring runs of 1, 4 and 15 yards to ensure Miami (6-1, 3-1) wouldn't be upset by North Carolina for the second straight year. Quadtrine Hill recovered a punt he blocked in the end zone for the go-ahead score for Miami, which won its sixth straight. Miami's defense, which entered ranked No. 1 nationally but yielded 170 first-half yards, kept the Tar Heels to 18 total yards on 33 plays after halftime - 14 of those yards coming in the final minute.

Ronnie McGill rushed for 66 yards - he had 67 at halftime - and both touchdowns for North Carolina (3-4, 2-2). Trimane Goddard had two interceptions for North Carolina, which held Wright to 111 yards on 11-of-16 passing.

The Hurricanes wore circa-1967, Kelly green-and-gold throwback uniforms. In the first half, literally and figuratively, they looked nothing like their usual selves. North Carolina ran for 117 yards by halftime, with McGill opening the scoring on a 1-yard run. Moss' 1-yard run tied the score at 7, but Carolina reclaimed the lead on a bizarre play.

Facing a third-and-5 from the Miami 35, Hurricanes center Anthony Wollschlager snapped the ball over Wright's head. It squirmed back inside the 5 and was intentionally kicked out of the end zone by Miami left tackle Eric Winston - potentially saving a touchdown, but giving the Tar Heels a safety and a 9-7 lead. The Heels eventually got their touchdown anyhow. On the ensuing drive, McGill scored from 7 yards, ending an easy eight-play, 50-yard drive to give his team a 16-7 advantage.

But from there, it was all Miami, which played its first home game since Hurricane Wilma struck, and storm reminders were everywhere at the Orange Bowl. Miami's ring of honor, bolted to the steel-faced second deck on the north side, was loosened by wind and removed. Some light towers had bulbs blown away, a few sections were cordoned off because of damage, and the scoreboard screen showing the visitors' total was gone. Plus, the upper deck was emptied in the second quarter, with a few thousand fans moved to the lower bowl as a precaution because of gusty winds.

GAME 8 - (5) MIAMI 27, (3) VIRGINIA TECH 7 SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 2005 - LANE STADIUM

Miami swaggered into Virginia Tech as underdogs and took a huge bite out of the Hokies' national title hopes. The fifth-ranked Hurricanes put the clamps on Marcus Vick, forcing him into six turnovers, and blew the Hokies right out of the national title picture with a stunning 27-7 victory on Saturday night.

Virginia Tech was in third place behind Southern California and Texas in the BCS standings, with designs on making a late-season run to the Rose Bowl. Instead, Miami (7-1, 4-1) helped clear the clutter at the top of the BCS and ensure that Virginia Tech won't be this season's Auburn - perfect but left out of the national title game.

"We played with a chip on our shoulder," said Miami quarterback Kyle Wright, who passed for 146 yards and a touchdown, despite being shaken up in the first half and missing most of the second quarter. "I've been saying it for the whole week down there, if we come out and play they way we should, I didn't think they could play with us."

Rocky McIntosh led the charge for Miami's defense with 10 tackles, two sacks and a fumble recovery. Pinned deep in their own territory late in the third quarter, the Hokies couldn't hold out the Miami rush and Vick was swarmed under by Javon Nanton and company. The ball squirted loose and Kareem Brown jumped on it in the end zone to give Miami a 27-0 lead.

Vick finished 8-for-22 for 90 yards against the top-ranked defense in the country. Vick ran for a 2-yard TD in the fourth quarter, to keep the Hokies from being shut out for the first time since 1995. Miami allowed 167 total yards, the fifth straight game the 'Canes have held an opponent under 200, and had four sacks.

Offensively, Wright and Miami efficient and opportunistic. Wright was 13-for-22 with an interception and a 9-yard TD pass to Darnell Jenkins in the third quarter after the Hurricanes recovered a fumbled snap by Vick. Charlie Jones ran for 97 yards and a touchdown and the Hurricanes put up more points against the No. 1 scoring defense in the country than the last three ACC opponents combined.

The 'Canes took the crowd out of it early Saturday night with the type of defensive plays Virginia Tech usually relies on to overwhelm opponents. The first strike came from Thomas Carroll, who came off the blind side to strip the ball from Vick in the first quarter and Miami recovered at the Virginia Tech 29. The Hokies limited the damage to a 27-yard field goal by Jon Peattie. Miami made it 10-0 in the second quarter, putting together a 17-play, 82-yard drive that was aided by a personal foul called on Hokies defensive end Darryl Tapp, and capped off when Jones blasted into the end zone on a fourth-and-goal from the 1.

The Hurricanes lost leading rusher Tyrone Moss for the game to a sprained knee on the drive and Wright was also knocked out of action on the helmet-to-helmet hit by Tapp. Wright played the entire second half and the first-year starter helped Miami snap Virginia Tech's 11-game ACC winning streak and 16-game streak in regular-season games.

GAME 9 - (3) MIAMI 47, WAKE FOREST 17
SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 2005 - GROVES STADIUM

Kyle Wright tied a school record with five touchdown passes, Charlie Jones ran for two more scores and No. 3 Miami stayed on track for a spot in the first Atlantic Coast Conference championship game by beating Wake Forest 47-17 Saturday.

A week after a victory at Virginia Tech, the Hurricanes (8-1, 5-1 ACC) used a quick-strike offense to avoid a letdown in their first visit to Groves Stadium since 1971. Miami piled up 515 yards of offense.

Wright finished 17-for-27 for 319 yards and Jones rushed for 90 more, but it wasn't quite as easy as the final margin indicated. The Demon Deacons (4-7, 3-5) completed their third straight losing season with an inspired effort, taking a 17-14 lead late in the second quarter on a 7-yard run by Chris Barclay.

Wright responded on the third play of the ensuing possession with his first TD toss, waiting patiently in the pocket for Sinorice Moss to break open in the middle of Wake Forest's zone. The pass led Moss perfectly and he outran the secondary untouched for a 64-yard score to give the Hurricanes the lead for good, even though Jon Peattie's extra-point bounced off the left upright. An interception by Kelly Jennings - the first of six turnovers for the Deacons - set up Miami again, and Wright needed four plays to drive his team 28 yards. A wide receiver screen to Darnell Jenkins covered the final 11 and made it 27-17.

Barclay fumbled on the first play following the kickoff and Wright connected with Ryan Moore for a 15-yard touchdown to complete the scoring binge, giving the Hurricanes a 34-17 halftime lead. Each of those three scoring drives took less than 60 seconds.

The third quarter was more of the same. Wright completely fooled Wake Forest by faking a screen to Jenkins, and Lance Leggett got behind the defense to haul in another beautiful pass for a 76-yard score. Wright got his fifth TD pass with a 10-yarder to tight end Greg Olsen, tying the mark set by Ken Dorsey, Steve Walsh, Bernie Kosar and Brock Berlin.

GAME 10 - GEORGIA TECH 14, (3) MIAMI 10
SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 19, 2005 - ORANGE BOWL

Georgia Tech sacked Kyle Wright seven times, took advantage of key penalties on two touchdown drives and made a pair of late defensive stands to upset the third-ranked Miami Hurricanes 14-10 Saturday night.

The Yellow Jackets blitzed on virtually every play to stymie Wright. After throwing touchdown passes to five receivers a week ago against Wake Forest, he managed only one scoring pass and went 14-for-31 for 207 yards.

KaMichael Hall sacked Wright twice and made a fourth-down stop to end a Miami threat midway through the fourth quarter. Wright moved the Hurricanes 62 yards to the Georgia Tech 27 with 1:46 left before he was intercepted by Dennis Davis, and the Yellow Jackets ran out the clock.

The Hurricanes (8-2, 5-2 Atlantic Coast Conference) lost for the first time since their season opener at Florida State.

Georgia Tech mounted touchdown marches of 68 and 61 yards against the nation's No. 1-ranked defense, and Miami penalties contributed to both drives.

Interference on Marcus Maxey negated an interception in the end zone three plays before Tashard Choice scored the game's first points on a 2-yard touchdown run. A penalty for excessive celebration led to the Yellow Jackets' other score on a 16-yard keeper by Reggie Ball.

GAME 11 - (10) MIAMI 25, VIRGINIA 17 SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 26, 2005 - ORANGE BOWL

Kyle Wright threw for 248 yards and the go-ahead score, then scampered a career-long 31 yards to set up the final touchdown as No. 10 Miami beat Virginia 25-17 on Saturday.

Charlie Jones ran for 88 yards and two touchdowns for Miami and Wright completed 23 of 30 passes, including a 17-yard touchdown to Sinorice Moss that put the Hurricanes (9-2, 6-2) ahead for good. His long run on third-and-2 with 1:58 left set up Jones' 1-yard run that sealed Miami's fifth regular season with at least nine wins in the past six years.

Deyon Williams had a pair of touchdown catches for Virginia (6-5, 3-5), including a 6-yarder from Marques Hagans with 27 seconds remaining. Williams also caught a 90-yard scoring pass from wide receiver Emmanuel Byers in the first quarter - the longest pass allowed in Miami history.

Quadtrine Hill caught a career-high seven passes for 43 yards for Miami.

Trailing by eight late in the fourth quarter, Virginia drove 59 yards with Hagans completing five of his first six passes. But facing a fourth-and-6 and with 4:04 left, Hagans' pass was too high for Williams - and Miami took over on downs. That set up Jones' second touchdown, and ensured that Miami's seniors would leave the Orange Bowl winners in their final home game.

Jon Peattie's 40-yard field goal opened the scoring midway through the first quarter, but Virginia's trickery silenced the half-full Orange Bowl. Byers took a handoff from Hagans, sprinted right - and threw to Williams, who outran Miami cornerback Marcus Maxey to the end zone. The Cavaliers forced a punt on Miami's next possession, then went up 10-3 with 13:26 left in the half on Connor Hughes' 24-yard field goal.

But the Hurricanes rallied and led 15-10 at halftime. Wright was 4-for-5 for 56 yards on a drive where Jones ran in from 4 yards out to get Miami within 10-9.

After Devin Hester's 23-yard punt return gave Miami the ball at Virginia's 37 with 1:52 left in the half, Moss - one of 18 Miami seniors playing their home finales - took a short pass from Wright, broke a tackle and went 17 yards for his team-leading sixth touchdown catch of the year and a 15-10 lead.

2004 CHICK-FILA PEACH BOWL, DECEMBER 31, 2004
MIAMI 27, FLORIDA 10

ATLANTA – The Miami Hurricanes were eliminated from the national championship early in the season and missed out on the conference championship late. They settled for the state title in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl. Devin Hester returned a blocked field goal 78 yards for a touchdown, Roscoe Parrish returned a punt 72 yards for a score and the 14th-ranked Hurricanes beat No. 20 Florida 27-10 at the Georgia Dome.

UM earned a third consecutive "state title" by beating Florida and Florida State in the same season and extended its winning streak against the Gators to six games. Brock Berlin finished 13 of 23 for 171 yards. He had a 20-yard touchdown pass to Ryan Moore in the third quarter that made it 24-3 and ended his career 5-0 as a starter against Miami's two biggest rivals - Florida and Florida State.

Although Berlin stayed perfect against in-state competition, Miami's special teams and defense did the most damage on New Year's Eve. Just four plays after a blocked punt gave the Gators great field position, defensive lineman Thomas Carroll blocked Matt Leach's 32-yard field goal attempt. Hester picked up the loose ball and sprinted the other way for a score. The momentum swing set the tone for the Hurricanes, who sacked Chris Leak on the next two plays and intercepted a pass late in the second quarter. Miami put constant pressure on Leak and finished with five sacks.

Leak overthrew O.J. Small one play after Frank Gore fumbled in Florida territory. Hester picked off the pass and snaked his way 28 yards across the field to put Miami back in field goal range. Jon Peattie nailed a 47-yarder to give the Canes a 10-3 lead. Miami forced Florida to punt on the ensuing possession, and Parrish caught the line-drive kick and ran untouched up the seam for a 72-yard score.

The Florida Cup trophy would remain in Coker's office, where it has been the last two years.

2003 TOSTITOS FIESTA BOWL, JANUARY 3, 2003
OHIO STATE 31, MIAMI 24 (2 OT)

TEMPE, Ariz. – Miami's incredible 34-game winning streak came to an end in dramatic fashion as Ohio State defeated the Hurricanes 31-24 in double overtime to win the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl and the National Championship.

Maurice Clarett scored his second touchdown on a five-yard run in the second overtime and Ohio State forced an incomplete pass by a rushed Ken Dorsey on the final play. Quarterback Craig Krenzel had a pair of touchdown runs for the Buckeyes (14-0), who ended Miami's winning streak - the sixth-longest in college football history - in a game of high drama that was prolonged by a controversial pass interference call. It was the first-ever overtime in a BCS title game, and Miami somehow managed to get to an extra session despite turning the ball over five times and losing star running back Willis McGahee to a knee injury in the fourth quarter.

Miami (12-1) sent the game into overtime on the final play of regulation when Todd Sievers kicked a 40-yard field goal to tie it at 17-17. The Hurricanes had the ball first in overtime and Kellen Winslow Jr. caught a seven-yard TD pass from Dorsey. A controversial pass interference penalty allowed Ohio State to tie the game at 24-24. On 4th-and-goal from the 5, Glenn Sharpe batted away a pass intended for Chris Gamble. The Miami fans began their celebration and the bench began to empty, but Sharpe was flagged and then Krenzel scored on a one-yard run.

The Buckeyes had the ball first in the second overtime and scored on a five-yard touchdown run by Clarett, who carried 23 times for just 47 yards. Miami had one last chance and kept its season alive on a seven-yard pass from Dorsey to Winslow on 4th-and-3. A pass interference gave the Hurricanes a first down inside the 5, but that was as far as they would get.

2004 FED EX ORANGE BOWL, JANUARY 2, 2004
MIAMI 16, FLORIDA STATE 14

MIAMI – Ninth-ranked Miami used all its energy to take a tense 16-14 victory over eighth-ranked Florida State in the FedEx Orange Bowl Classic at Pro Player Stadium, riding big performances by Jarrett Payton and Jon Peattie and a big play by D.J. Williams.

The Hurricanes (11-2) defeated the Seminoles (10-3) for the fifth straight time, benefiting from a crucial missed field goal for the fifth time in the scintillating series since 1991. Xavier Beitia, who was wide left on a potential game-winning 43-yard field goal in last year's loss at Miami, was wide right on a 39-yarder with 5 1/2 minutes to go. Florida State's defense held, but in punt formation on 4th-and-1 from its 31, Miami snapped the ball to blocker Williams, who rumbled 31 yards for a key first down that helped take two more minutes off the clock.

Peattie, who kicked three field goals and replaced Brian Monroe as punter, had a 45-yarder blocked with 2:18 left. Florida State moved into Miami territory before a succession of penalties and incompletions sealed its fate.

Payton, the son of the late Walter Payton, victimized FSU for 97 yards and a touchdown catch in a win in October and ran for 131 on 22 carries in his final college game and to earn Most Valuable Player honors.

Peattie's career-best 51-yard field goal early in the third quarter was the only scoring in a grueling second half. Beitia's miss came after FSU's seventh straight three-and-out possession. Miami's Brock Berlin had fumbled trying to sneak for a first down on 3rd-and-1.

2002 ROSE BOWL, JANUARY 3, 2002
MIAMI 37, NEBRASKA 14

PASADENA, Calif. – The Miami Hurricanes lowered the boom on the Nebraska Cornhuskers in a decisive 37-14 victory in the 88th Rose Bowl game for the National Championship. Just four years removed from a losing season, Miami claimed its fifth national title in football and returned to the top of the college football world with an impressive performance worthy of the Hurricanes' championship heritage that placed this 2001 team as perhaps the school's best ever.

Miami's 12-0 season was capped by a performance indicative of much of the Hurricanes' season, as UM piled up a huge halftime lead and cruised to the victory. The top-ranked Hurricanes used three touchdown passes by Ken Dorsey to build a big early lead. Andre Johnson caught seven passes for 199 yards and two scores for the Hurricanes, who laid claim to their first national title since 1991 in Larry Coker's first season as head coach.

Dorsey and Johnson shared Most Valuable Player honors and were helped by Clinton Portis, who carried 20 times for 104 yards and a score. Miami forced an NCAA-high 45 turnovers this season and three in the first half alone, including a pivotal interception by James Lewis, to roar to a 34-0 halftime lead and hand Nebraska a second straight humbling defeat. Dorsey completed 22-of-35 passes for 362 yards, including 258 in the first half.

MIAMI 37, FLORIDA 20

NEW ORLEANS, La. – Second-ranked Miami defeated No. 7 Florida, 37-20, in the Nokia Sugar Bowl to wrap up the Hurricanes' best season since 1994 at 11-1 and second in the national rankings.

The Hurricanes led, 27-20, with 12:50 remaining when UM turned to running back Clinton Portis who sparked a 10-play march that culminated in a 29-yard field goal by Todd Sievers. Portis carried six times for 49 yards on the drive, including a 35-yard scamper to the 11-yard line. Portis finished with 97 yards on 18 carries.

On the first play of the ensuing possession, cornerback Phillip Buchanon picked off Rex Grossman to set up a three-yard touchdown run by Najeh Davenport that gave Miami control. Quarterback Ken Dorsey was named the game's Most Valuable Player, completing 22-of-40 passes for 270 yards and three TDs. His two-yard scoring toss to Davenport gave the Hurricanes a 27-17 lead late in the third quarter.

MIAMI 28, GEORGIA TECH 13

JACKSONVILLE – The 23rd-ranked Hurricanes routed No. 15 Georgia Tech, 28-13, behind a dominating defensive performance that held the Yellow Jackets offense (ranked No. 1 nationally and second in scoring with an average of 40.7 points a game) to a season-low 13 points. The Hurricanes struck on their opening possession with an eight-yard James Jackson touchdown run. Miami then took a 14-point lead early in the second quarter when sophomore quarterback Kenny Kelly capped a 73-yard drive with a 15-yard touchdown strike to Andre King. Following a Tech score, freshman All-America tailback Clinton Portis set a UM bowl record with a 73-yard touchdown run to give the 'Canes a 21-7 half-time lead. Georgia Tech could only muster a pair of second half field goals as the UM defense, behind the play of Gator Bowl MVP Nate Webster, shut down the Tech attack.

MIAMI – The Hurricanes won the 1996 Carquest Bowl in entertaining fashion with a 31-21 triumph over the University of Virginia. Defensive standout Tremain Mack provided the fireworks with a pair of Miami touchdowns. Mack, who was a unanimous choice for game MVP, returned a UVA fumble 79 yards for a touchdown to give UM a 14-0 first quarter lead. Mack then gave the 'Canes an insurmountable 24-7 lead when he picked off Cavalier quarterback Tim Sherman in the second quarter and raced 42 yards to paydirt. Mack continued his heroics in the third quarter by blocking a Rafael Garcia 29-yard field goal attempt, the first of two blocked FGs by the 'Canes. Ryan Clement ignited the Hurricane offense throwing for a career-best 274 yards and one touchdown on 16-of-26 passing.

NEBRASKA 24, MIAMI 17

MIAMI – The third-ranked Hurricanes' dream of a fifth national title was dashed in front of a record crowd of 81,753 as the top-ranked Nebraska Cornhuskers overcame a 17-9 deficit with two fourth quarter touchdowns to propel them to a 24-17 victory and the 1994 national championship. Nebraska's defense took control after halftime by putting relentless pressure on UM quarterback Frank Costa and sacking him four times in the half (five times in the game), including one for a safety early in the third quarter. Miami's defense came up big, forcing two Nebraska turnovers. But Nebraska and its bruising offensive line controlled the final quarter of play. Nebraska starting quarterback, Tommie Frazier, returned from injury in the fourth quarter to lead the Huskers' punishing rushing attack to two late touchdowns and the victory.

TEMPE, Ariz. – The No. 10-ranked Hurricanes fell victim to the 16th-ranked Arizona Wildcats, 29-0, in the 23rd annual IBM OS/2 Fiesta Bowl before a sellout crowd of 72,260 and a national television audience. The Wildcats used a strong ground attack and stifling defense to hand the 'Canes their first shutout since 1979, a span of 168 games. It was also the first time that Miami had been shutout in a bowl game since a 26-0 loss to Bucknell in the 1935 Orange Bowl. The only bright spot for the 'Canes was receiver Chris T. Jones, who had six receptions for 98 yards. The loss dropped Miami out of the Associated Press top 10 for the first time since September of 1985, as the 'Canes finished 15th in both the AP and CNN/USA Today polls.

1993 SUGAR BOWL, JANUARY 1, 1993
ALABAMA 34, MIAMI 13

NEW ORLEANS, La. – The No. 1-ranked Hurricanes’ dream of a second consecutive national championship and an unprecedented fifth title in 10 years ended with a 34-13 defeat at the hands of No. 2-ranked Alabama. A national-television audience (the most watched college football game of the year with an 18.2 Nielsen rating) and a raucous Louisiana Superdome crowd of 76,789 saw the two teams with the longest current win streaks (Miami 29, Alabama 22) in college football do battle. Gino Torretta set a UM bowl record with 56 pass attempts, throwing for 278 yards on 24-of-56 passing, but had no TDs and three interceptions. A bright spot in the second half for Miami was Kevin Williams’ Sugar Bowl-record 78-yard punt return for a touchdown in the fourth quarter.

1992 ORANGE BOWL, JANUARY 1, 1992
MIAMI 22, NEBRASKA 0

MIAMI – The No. 1-ranked Hurricanes capped a 12-0 season and claimed their fourth national championship in nine years by dominating the Big Eight Champion Nebraska Cornhuskers, 22-0, in front of an Orange Bowl crowd of 77,747 and a national television audience. Miami used the running of freshman Larry Jones, who responded with a career-high 144 yards rushing (earning him MVP honors) and a dominating defense to roll to victory. Miami played with the knowledge that earlier that day the No. 2-ranked Washington Huskies had soundly defeated the Michigan Wolverines in the Rose Bowl, and would ultimately claim a co-national championship with the Hurricanes. The Miami defense held Nebraska to a single yard of offense in the first quarter and 62 total in the first half en route to its second shutout of the year, and the first suffered by a Nebraska team since 1973. For the game, the UM defense recorded two interceptions, two fumble recoveries and five sacks, four by sophomore Rusty Medearis.

1989 ORANGE BOWL, JANUARY 2, 1989
MIAMI 23, NEBRASKA 3

MIAMI – For the first time in four years, Miami was not playing for the national title in its New Year’s bowl game. Moments before kickoff of the 55th annual Orange Bowl Classic vs. Nebraska, the ‘Canes learned that the No. 1 ranked team, Notre Dame, had defeated West Virginia in the Fiesta Bowl. As the nation tuned in to the Orange Bowl, many felt the University of Miami would come out flat, knowing that all possibility of a repeat national title had been lost. The Hurricanes showed their true mettle, dominating the Big Eight Champions on offense, defense, and special teams from the opening kickoff. The statistics backed up the scoreboard as the ‘Canes held a 212-29 advantage in total yards and an 11-2 edge in first downs.

1988 ORANGE BOWL, JANUARY 1, 1988
MIAMI 20, OKLAHOMA 14

MIAMI – For the second time in five years, the University of Miami Hurricanes were champions of the college football world. Just as they had done in 1983, the ‘87 ‘Canes knocked off the nation’s No.1-ranked team in the New Year’s Day Orange Bowl Classic. The second-ranked Hurricanes capped the school’s second straight undefeated regular season with a 20-14 victory over Oklahoma. Sophomore quarterback Steve Walsh hit on 18 of 30 passing attempts for 209 yards and two touchdowns. Senior fullback Melvin Bratton nearly broke a UM single game receiving mark by hauling in nine catches for 102 yards before leaving the game with a knee injury. Bernard Clark stepped into the spotlight at middle linebacker and walked away with the game’s MVP award after recording 12 unassisted tackles and 14 overall stops, while the entire defensive unit limited the Sooners to just 255 yards in total offense.

1987 FIESTA BOWL, JANUARY 2, 1987
PENN STATE 14, MIAMI 10

TEMPE, Ariz. – A national television audience watched the “Battle For No. 1” one day following the completion of all other bowl games. While the nation nervously watched, the Hurricanes found themselves 77-yards from the national championship with just over three minutes remaining to play. Vinny Testaverde went to work and engineered a thrilling drive that included a 31-yard strike to Brian Blades on a fourth-and-six play from Miami’s own 27. The pass to Blades was the first of six consecutive completions by Testaverde that brought Miami to Penn State’s 6-yard line. However, with 18 seconds remaining, Pete Giftopoulos ended UM’s drive for the national title by intercepting a Testaverde pass at the goal line. The Hurricanes finished with 445 total yards and 22 first downs while holding Penn State to Fiesta Bowl records of 162 yards and just eight first downs. But seven turnovers tripped the ‘Canes on the road to the national title and Miami settled for a final ranking of second in both AP and UPI polls.

1986 SUGAR BOWL, JANUARY 1, 1986
TENNESSEE 35, MIAMI 7

NEW ORLEANS, La. – Amid the revelry of New Orleans’ Bourbon Street, the 1986 Sugar Bowl had it all. Miami, with one of the most dominant offenses in college football, was shooting for the national championship. The Volunteers, an underrated team who rolled into New Orleans with a hard-fought Southeastern Conference title, were looking for the national respect they felt had eluded them. The week prior to the game, UM Coach Jimmy Johnson constantly stressed that the Volunteers were better than their No. 8 national ranking. Much to his chagrin, Johnson proved to be a prophet, as Tennessee used a solid offense and an opportunistic defense to down the second-ranked Hurricanes, 35-7. Despite constant pressure, Vinny Testaverde threw for 217 yards on 20 of 36 passing. Tennessee QB Daryl Dickey, who earned MVP honors, finished with 131 yards on 15 of 25 passes.

1985 FIESTA BOWL, JANUARY 1, 1985
UCLA 39, MIAMI 37

TEMPE, Ariz. – The Hurricanes were dealt a narrow 39-37 defeat by the UCLA Bruins in the Fiesta Bowl to cap the 1984 season. The lead changed hands seven times before the Bruins’ John Lee kicked the deciding field goal with 51 seconds remaining. Melvin Bratton had put Miami ahead on a 3-yard TD pass from Bernie Kosar with 2:58 left, giving UM a 37-36 advantage. The Bruins used eight plays to move 61 yards to the Hurricane seven, setting up Lee’s heroics.

1984 ORANGE BOWL, JANUARY 2, 1984
MIAMI 31, NEBRASKA 30

MIAMI – In what many called the most exciting college football game ever played, UM ended a story-book climb to the national title by dealing Nebraska a 31-30 defeat. UM quarterback Bernie Kosar earned MVP honors by throwing for an Orange Bowl-record 300 yards. Linebacker Jack Fernandez was named Defensive MVP as the Hurricanes contained a Nebraska offense that had set numerous NCAA records. Late in the game, Jeff Smith set Nebraska up to claim the national championship with a 24-yard touchdown run to pull the Huskers to within one. Then, Nebraska lined up for a two-point conversion attempt. Turner Gill rolled right under pressure and lofted a pass toward Smith. But UM strong safety Ken Calhoun batted the pass away to seal the Miami win.

1981 PEACH BOWL, JANUARY 2, 1981
MIAMI 20, VIRGINIA TECH 10

ATLANTA, Ga. – The Hurricanes embarked on their first post-season bowl appearance since 1967, squaring off against Virginia Tech on a clear Georgia day at Fulton County Stadium. Howard Schnellenberger’s troops set the pace early with two long scoring drives that proved to be the winning margin. UM took the opening kickoff 68 yards to paydirt, with QB Jim Kelly hitting Larry Brodsky on a 15-yard strike to culminate the nine-play drive. On Miami’s third possession, Kelly connected through the air three times to spark a 10-play, 99-yard drive. Chris Hobbs did the honors with a 12-yard scamper up the middle to cap the drive. The Hokies closed the gap to 14-10 early in the second half, but two field goals by Danny Miller assured Miami of its first bowl victory since 1966. Kelly was selected the game’s outstanding player on offense, while UM middle guard Jim Burt was named defensive MVP.

1967 BLUEBONNET BOWL, DECEMBER 23, 1967
COLORADO 31, MIAMI 21

HOUSTON – In a wild scoring spectacle, Colorado won 31-21 after the lead had changed hands five times at Rice Stadium. In the first quarter, CU’s Larry Plantz tallied from seven yards out while Miami came back to deadlock the count on Joe Mira’s score from the two. UM moved ahead moments later as Jimmy Dye stole a pass from Dan Kelly and ran 77 yards. A 31-yard field goal by John Farler just before halftime, followed by an 80-yard TD march with the second half kickoff, sent the Buffs roaring ahead, 17-14. Miami regained the lead 21-17 in the final period on an 85-yard drive sparked by Bill Miller’s four pass completions to Jerry Daanen, the last one for nine yards and the score. With six minutes left, CU surged ahead for the third time on a 38-yard run by Bob Anderson.

BOWL GAMES

1966 LIBERTY BOWL, DECEMBER 10, 1966
MIAMI 14, VIRGINIA TECH 7

MEMPHIS, Tenn. – Playing in frigid 36-degree weather in Memphis, Miami found itself on the trailing end of a 7-0 score at half-time, but in the end proved to be too powerful for Virginia Tech. Tech's only score of the game came early in the opening quarter after Jim Richard blocked Bobby Stokes' punt deep in UM territory. It took the Virginians five plays to go 21 yards for the TD. Miami tied the game in the third period on a 53-yard drive, highlighted by Bill Miller's passing and the running of Joe Mira. Miller threw seven yards to Mira and Ray Harris made good on his conversion try. A 7-yard march in the final quarter brought UM its winning TD. On the drive, Miller completed three passes to end Jimmy Cox (12,11, and 38 yards), and Doug McGee barreled over from the one on fourth down with 8:05 left in the game. Miami's potent defense was led by All-American Ted Hendricks.

1961 LIBERTY BOWL, DECEMBER 16, 1961
SYRACUSE 15, MIAMI 14

PHILADELPHIA – Miami broke away to a 14-0 lead at halftime but Syracuse, led by Heisman Trophy winner Ernie Davis, came back in the game's waning minutes to win, 15-14. Jim Vollenweider ran 12 yards for Miami's first TD in the opening quarter, while the other came on a 60-yard punt return by Nick Spinelli seconds before the half ended. Davis put Syracuse back in it with a score in the third period. Dave Sarette passed to Easterly for a two point conversion. Syracuse's other tally came on a final period pass, Sarette to Easterly. The winning point was kicked by Ken Erickson.

1952 GATOR BOWL, JANUARY 2, 1952
MIAMI 14, CLEMSON 0

JACKSONVILLE – When injuries cost Miami its backfield ace Frank Smith and several linemen prior to the game, Clemson became a heavy favorite. UM coach Andy Gustafson even had to start freshmen. One of them, end Frank McDonald, caught a pass to set up a touchdown. Ed Lutes caught a 46-yard aerial to set up another. Harry Mallios made both TDs, the first on a pitchout from Jack Hackett in the first quarter, the other on a short leap in the second period. Elmer Tremont converted after both scores and contributed much towards frustrating Clemson's scoring ambitions with his punting. He booted nine times for an average of 44.5 yards per kick. Miami's defensive standout was Jim Dooley, the MVP. He intercepted four passes to set a Gator Bowl record.

CLEMSON 15, MIAMI 14

MIAMI – After being run over in the first half, Miami caught fire in the third period and moved ahead 14-13. Harry Mallios took a pitchout from Bob Schneiderbach five yards for Miami's first TD. Frank Smith tallied the other on a 14-yard pass from Jack Hackett. Gordon Watson kicked both extra points. Heading for another score, UM drew three successive 15-yard penalties. One nullified a score, the others negated good runs. Another penalty sent UM back to its one, then a safety gave Clemson a 15-14 victory.

1946 ORANGE BOWL, JANUARY 1, 1946
MIAMI 13, HOLY CROSS 6

MIAMI – This was a tense, thrilling struggle with each club scoring once in the opening half and missing the extra point. Joe Krull tallied for UM on a reverse and Walter Brennan scored for Holy Cross on a pass from Stan Kozlowski. Seconds before the end of the game, the Crusaders tried a long, desperation pass attempt thrown by halfback Gene DeFilippo. Holy Cross end Frank Parker, open downfield, reached for it but the ball bounced off his hands into the waiting left hand of Hurricane halfback Al Hudson. Hudson juggled the ball momentarily, and then the former Miami Edison High track star was on his way down the sideline on an 89-yard sprint to fame. The game ended as galloping Hudson shot past the 35-yard line, but he kept on going. Harry Ghaul's extra point was anticlimactic, but the final count read UM 13, Holy Cross 6.

DUQUESNE 33, MIAMI 7

MIAMI – The Hurricanes met a Duquesne 11 ranked among the nation's best and coached by Elmer Layden, one of the famed Four Horsemen of Notre Dame. Duquesne used three units, and Miami, which scarcely had any reserve talent, was worn down as DU ran wild in the fourth quarter to win big. UM was down 12-7 when DU started its final surge. George Reichgott scored UM's lone TD on a pass from Johnny Ott, and Pete Petrowski booted the extra point. The game was played at Moore Park.

1933 PALM FESTIVAL, JANUARY 1, 1933
MIAMI 7, MANHATTAN 0

MIAMI – In this first Festival of the Palms Classic, Miami was matched against Coach Chick Meehan's colorful military stepping Manhattan College team of New York City, which was rated best of the eastern small colleges and was favored to win by a wide margin. Bob Zuppke, then Illinois coach, offered to help his ex-pupil Tom McCann prep the Hurricanes and did a masterful job. A fired-up defense stopped the favored New Yorkers, once holding three inches from a goal, while the Hurricanes cut loose on a series of wild spread formations to earn a thrilling 7-0 victory. This game was actually the forerunner to the Orange Bowl Classic. A crowd 3,500 observed the upset.
