

THE LSU GOLF HOUSE The LSU Golf House

It has proven to be everything it was hoped to be. The men's and women's golf teams at LSU now have the home they've always wanted right at their home course, the University Club. LSU's Golf House offers the year-round ability to concentrate on improving the play of LSU's student-athletes.

An $850,000 facility funded by the Tiger Athletic Foundation, the LSU Golf House functions primarily as a golf-learning center for the LSU men's and women's teams.

Head coach Karen Bahnsen said the building, opened in 2003, is a great benefit to the LSU programs.

It is helping the program's recruiting efforts, since many of LSU's competitors either have similar facilities or are in the process of building a similar facility.

"Our practice area is tremendous, but having a building to go with it is great," Bahnsen said. "We have a place where we can do club repairs and where we can store our teaching aids. We have two indoor hitting bays and a room we can use for video analysis, as well as meeting spaces. So, as far as helping their game, we're just basically giving them everything in the world they need to be competitive in the NCAA arena."

Bahnsen said LSU's golf teams are already well equipped for practice at University Club, with a 100-yard-long tee box and 10,000-square-foot putting green that has bunkers around it.

TAF CEO General Ron Richard echoed Bahnsen's sentiment, saying that the building ensures the continued success of LSU's golf programs.

"University Club has been a great asset for TAF in promoting the golf teams and securing financial resources for LSU," Richard said. "This clubhouse is helping to put the golf teams at their pinnacle for years to come."

In all, the Golf House also contains locker rooms for the men and women, an office for each coach, a kitchen and indoor and outdoor storage.

THE UNIVERSITY CLUB

The University Club

The Tiger Athletic Foundation had a goal of bringing a championship golf course to the LSU community. The LSU golf programs wanted a place to call its official home.

Both dreams have become reality. The University Club has given the LSU teams a place to call home with first-class practice facilities and the U-Club has proven to be the championship course it was designed to be.

For seven years, the course has hosted the women's LSU/Cleveland Golf Classic and this year's NCAA East Regional will mark the third major post-season women's collegiate event the course has hosted.

The 300-acre course was built in 1998 on land donated to the Tiger Athletic Foundation (TAF) and subsequently leased to University Club. The original vision that drove University Club's development was of a premier course that would provide a place for TAF members to convene and play, as well as a home for the men's and women's golf teams of LSU.

The latest transaction in April 2002 when a group of local investors allowed the Club to maintain its prosperity and rise to a new level.

"I'm pleased that local people with LSU ties are making University Club a place LSU alumni and TAF members can be proud of," said TAF CEO General Ron Richard.

The course opened for members on Oct. 22, 1998. The swimming and tennis facility adjacent to the course, opened in the summer of 2000. The surrounding housing development continues to grow as homes continue to spring up adding to the beauty of the area around the golf course.

Membership in The University Club was offered first to members of the TAF and then extended to the general public, who first must become members of the TAF. Memberships are available not only in local categories, but state, regional and national categories as well.

More than anything, The University Club has given the men's and women's golf programs the practice facilities they need to be successful.

"It's been a great help to our programs," said Karen Bahnsen. "We have the facilities and the space to take advantage of the opportunities to work for extended periods on certain parts of a players game that may need some help. It's wonderful to have a facility like this that we can call our own."

The par - 72 layout can play to several different distances, offering golfers of all talents a test they will enjoy from the 7,274 Tiger tees to the 5,433-yard Bengal tees.

The Tiger Athletic Foundation is a private, non-profit corporation which serves as the fund-raising and development arm of the LSU athletics department. Each year, the TAF underwrites scholarship and academics awards, as well as capital development projects for LSU athletics.

Amenities

- 54,000 square feet of working space
- 75 computer workstations
- 14 private computer rooms in a state-of-the-art computer lab
- Additional study rooms and classrooms for private or group study
- Electronic scheduling of tutoring sessions
- A 1,000-seat auditorium for classes and lectures

Paramount to the success of the “student” half of the term student-athlete is providing LSU athletes with the best possible resources to excel in the classroom.

For more than 20 years, the LSU Academic Center for Student-Athletes has helped to build well-rounded student-athletes. But as times change and technology advances, the need for further improvements still exists. As a result, the Cox Communications Academic Center for Student-Athletes opened its doors in November of 2002. A $15 million renovation to the Gym Armory not only made it among the nation’s premier centers, but put it at the forefront. Improvements to the existing center give LSU student-athletes the best opportunity for success by providing access to the latest technology, as well as an array of expanded services.

Computer Stations

Throughout the Academic Center are 75 computer stations, providing student-athletes with a quiet working environment for research, writing and studying.

Bo Campbell Auditorium

The 1,000-seat auditorium is used throughout the year as a classroom and lecture hall. Each seat in the auditorium has space for a laptop and a modem hookup, providing each student unlimited learning opportunities. The auditorium also contains a movie theatre size screen to aid professors with lectures and classroom activities.

The Library

The library provides a perfect setting for individual study, or with a tutor as group.

Study Area

Included in the 54,000 square feet of the Academic Center are individual study areas as well as 14 private computer rooms for student-athletes to work one-on-one with tutors or by themselves.

The SKIP BERTMAN Legacy

Bertman's unyielding desire to succeed drove him to the pinnacle of his profession, and his astute knowledge of the game -- obtained from over 40 years of coaching -- combined with his steadfast determination and irrepressible enthusiasm transformed LSU Baseball into the nation's premier program.

Already a Louisiana Legend and one of the greatest college baseball coaches of all time, J. Stanley "Skip" Bertman has made the seamless transition into the athletics director's chair with the same enthusiasm, vision and demand for excellence that were trademarks of his stellar coaching career.

In just four years as LSU's director of athletics, Bertman has already added to his impressive list of on-the-field achievements. Under his direction, LSU enjoyed arguably the greatest athletics years in the history of the institution. In 2003-04 three teams won national championships, nine teams finished in the nation's top ten, and fourteen teams ranked in the top 25 and in 2004-05 14 teams advanced to the post-season. LSU teams also enjoyed improved grade point averages across the board, making the LSU student-athlete experience a success on and off the fields of competition.

While supervising the Tigers' progress on the playing fields, he has begun to implement measures necessary to realize his vision of building the LSU athletics department into the best in the country. Bertman's bold and innovative plans promise to keep the Tigers among the nation's elite in all phases of collegiate athletics.

Bertman is now in the midst of upgrading LSU's athletics complex. Working hand in hand with the Tiger Athletic Foundation, Bertman has already overseen the completion of the Cox Communications Academic Center for Student-Athletes while renovating Tiger Stadium and the Pete Maravich Assembly Center, and constructing the Football Operations Center.

It was also Bertman who took the bold but essential move to implement a seat contribution program in Tiger Stadium to fund facility improvements and ensure the financial stability of the LSU Athletics Department for the next decade.

Bertman was named LSU's athletics director on January 19, 2001. With Bertman, LSU gained an athletics director who provides the leadership and experience necessary to manage the Tigers' $52 million budget.

Bertman guided LSU to five NCAA baseball titles, and his teams drew huge crowds to venerable Alex Box Stadium, as the Tigers led the nation in attendance in each of his final six seasons (1996-2001).

He also served as head coach of the 1996 U.S. Olympic team which captured the bronze medal in Atlanta.

Bertman continues to be honored for his remarkable coaching tenure, as he was inducted in June, 2002, into the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame. He was inducted into the American Baseball Coaches Association Hall of Fame in January, 2003.

In a Baseball America poll published in 1999, Bertman was voted the second greatest college baseball coach of the 20th century, trailing only Rod Dedeaux of Southern California. Bertman and Dedeaux are the only coaches to win five CWS titles.

He had previously earned recognition as one of the nation's brightest assistant coaches while at the University of Miami (Fla.) for eight seasons (1976-83). Before working at Miami, Bertman was renowned for his coaching excellence. In 11 seasons at Miami Beach High School, he directed the Hi-Tides to a state championship and two runners-up finishes and he was named Florida's Coach of the Year on three occasions.

In 1975, Bertman coached at Miami-Dade Downtown, leaving after one season to join legendary head coach Ron Fraser at Miami. The move was a homecoming of sorts, as Bertman spent his collegiate playing days with the Hurricanes as an outfielder and catcher from 1958-60. He earned his B.A. in health and physical education from Miami in 1961 and received his master's degree from UM in 1964.

Bertman and his wife Sandy are the parents of four daughters -Jan, Jodi, Lisa and Lori. The Bertman's have three grandchildren - Sophie Faith and Isaac Stanley, the children of Emile and Lori Bertman Guirard, and Samuel Aaron, the son of Drew and Lisa Pate.

Maj. Gen. R. G. Richard,
USMC (Ret.)
Chief Executive Officer

The Tiger Athletic Foundation (TAF) is a private, nonprofit foundation dedicated to supporting LSU and its Athletic Program. The Foundation is administered by its own board of directors, comprised of TAF donors, which meets quarterly. Officers of the corporation are elected bi-annually.

Louisiana State University has a proud athletic tradition, highlighted by scores of Southeastern Conference and NCAA championships in more than 20 men's and women's varsity sports. Thanks to generous private-sector contributions, the Tiger Athletic Foundation continues to play an integral role in sustaining that outstanding tradition. As the central fund-raising organization in support of LSU athletics, TAF's mission is clear - to lead the university in building a comprehensively superior athletic program.

Unrestricted contributions to the Tiger Athletic Foundation benefit every athlete and team at LSU through scholarship and academic awards, as well as through the construction and maintenance of athletic facilities. These projects, large and small, chart the unmistakable course to excellence. And it is the shared vision of alumni and friends of LSU that are making them a reality.

	<h2 style="text-align: center;">WHO IS TAF?</h2>	<h3 style="text-align: center;">A donation to the Tiger Athletic Foundation assists in its programs of support for LSU Athletics.</h3>

$1 MILLION-PLUS PROJECTS

Eastside Expansion of Tiger Stadium - $50 Million

The TAF financed an eastside expansion that added over 11,000 seats to Tiger Stadium and moved it up among the five largest on-campus stadiums in America. The eastside expansion not only created 70 Tiger Den suites to the stadium, it has provided over 300,000 more fans the opportunity to see LSU football since the expansion was opened in 2000.

Cox Communications Academic Center for Student-Athletes - $12 Million

The TAF provided LSU with unquestionably the most advanced academic facility in America for its student-athletes. By renovating LSU's old Gym Armory, the TAF allowed LSU to make the emphatic statement that the academic welfare of its student-athletes is its foremost priority. Opened in 2002.

Scoreboards in Tiger Stadium, Assembly Center, Outdoor Track - $5.2 Million

The TAF added to fan enjoyment in LSU's major athletics facilities by purchasing state-of-the-art video scoreboards in 1998.

Lawton Squad Room - $1.2 Million

The TAF funded the construction of a squad meeting room attached to Tiger Stadium for use by LSU's athletics teams. Prior to the construction of the Lawton Squad Room, there was no one place in LSU's athletics complex where the entire football team could meet and view instructional and motivational video presentations. Opened in 1997.

Football Operations Center - $15 Million

The TAF built a stand-alone Football Operations Center in which all facets of the national champion Tiger football program will be under one roof. The building will include locker rooms, meeting rooms, coaches offices, video operations, a training room and strength facility. Scheduled to open in the fall of 2005.

Mike the Tiger's Habitat - $3 Million

LSU's legendary live mascot is now in a new home, thanks to the TAF. This new habitat will provide Mike with a new 15,000-square foot environment with lush planting, a landmark size Live Oak tree, a beautiful waterfall and a stream evolving from a rocky backdrop overflowing with plants and trees. It will be one of the finest live tiger habitats in America. Scheduled to open in the fall of 2005.

Westside Renovation of Tiger Stadium - $60 Million

The TAF renovated the Westside of Tiger Stadium in order to provide 3,200 new club seats and a new press box. The new club seats will provide additional revenue for the athletics program to invest in future facility projects. Scheduled to open in September of 2005.
