A TAMPA BAY TREASURE

The Outback Bowl has been a Tampa Bay treasure now for thirty-three years. The Tampa Bay Bowl Association will host its 33rd game on January 1st as it features teams from the two most successful and popular conferences in college football — the SEC and Big Ten. As such, this bowl has played host to some of the sports best players and most respected coaches for more than three decades.

Steve Jacobson

No less than 908 players from this bowl have gone on to the NFL, including 148 currently on rosters this season. And over 100 have been first round draft picks.

Over the years the Outback Bowl has provided life-long memories to more than 6,400 players, 96,000 halftime show performers, and 1.8 million college football fans. Eleven of the games have been decided by five points or less, including four overtime thrillers.

The bowl ranks as one of the most popular of 40 post-season games and has become a marquee New Year's Day game. And Tampa-based Outback Steakhouse enters its 24th year as the bowl's title sponsor, the longest title sponsorship of any college bowl.

Over our history one of the most notable successes of the Outback Bowl has been its contribution to educational universities. With this year's game, the nonprofit bowl will have contributed more than $148 million to participating teams and their conference members.

Steve Jacobson

In addition, the Outback Bowl creates a tremendous economic impact for the Tampa Bay region each year and, indeed, the game has created an estimated $1 billion impact since its beginning. It has also generated tens-of-millions of dollars each year in national and international exposure for the Tampa Bay community. And the bowl has contributed $500,000 to dozens of local charities.

Finally, the Outback Bowl is more than a football game for the fans and the teams, as they enjoy the many events and amenities during bowl week throughout the picturesque Tampa, St. Petersburg and Clearwater area. Whether it is a pep rally on the beaches of Clearwater, a day with the teams at Busch Gardens theme park or our New Year's Eve parade in historic Ybor City, hundreds of volunteers join the bowls full-time staff in providing a truly memorable experience for all of these individuals.

Wes Wilson

We are proud to host this Tampa Bay Treasure and the best of college football! We hope you will join us in Tampa Bay for memories that will last a lifetime!

SECURITY POLICIES

Safety and security for our guests, employees, entertainers and players have always been our number one concern. The Outback Bowl and Tampa Sports Authority will implement and reinforce several security measures for the game. Numerous measures will be obvious to fans while some other measures will not be made public in order to maintain their effectiveness.

For major events such as the Outback Bowl the stadium security deployment includes personnel representing the Hillsborough County Sheriff Dept., Tampa Police Dept., Florida Highway Patrol and private security.

Everyone and everything is subject to inspection and search (this includes players, coaches, media, entertainers, employees and fans — no exceptions!).

If you SEE something, SAY something. Report suspicious activity. Call 1-855-FLA-SAFE (1-855-352-7233).

Guests who are subjected to or witness violations of stadium policies can text their issue and location to 33607 or call the stadium hotline at 813-350-6501. Fans may also report the issue to event staff or visit a Guest Services booth.
