The rebuilding of the LSU program is nearing completion under John Brady. Now the task is to sustain the success and plan for the future of the program under the coach in his eighth season at the helm of the Tigers.

Unfortunate circumstances cost the Tigers a chance to shine in the post-season last year. After starting 17-4, the Tiger squad found itself having to play three, four and at times five freshmen on the floor against SEC squads much more experienced. But through it all, some hard lessons were learned and the freshmen are now experienced sophomores ready to blend with a couple of veteran seniors who have seen just about everything in their three years. Throw in another highly talented and anticipated recruiting class and some changes made in the coaching staff and Brady is ready to take the next step in sustaining the winning cycle that is building at LSU.

It's all be part of Brady's plan of rebuilding the LSU program since he came to Baton Rouge. He didn't come here with a plan that just looked good on paper. It was a practical and sensible plan that gave the LSU program the direction to go and the chance to shine again.

When Brady arrived on campus in March 1997 and was given the job of rebuilding the program, he knew he would have the chance to mold the program from the ground up and build a foundation based on responsibility and accountability. There were dreams of building a program where the players would take responsibility for their actions and make people proud of what they were trying to accomplish, both on and off the floor.

Brady's plan isn't just taking place on a hard wood floor in the Maravich Center. He has worked hard to show the public that the athletic and academic pursuits of the LSU players should be challenged to the fullest. All the while, he was also making sure the players understood that the methods and rules of the program would make them not only better, but better students able to adapt to the outside world once school was completed.

That's part of the reason that LSU basketball is not only a success on the court, but in the classroom as well. Last spring, every scholarship players passed every course hour taken and the team GPA was just over 3.0, the highest in years. Three student-athletes made the Dean's List, six had 3.0 averages or above and the five members of the freshman class averaged 35 hours and completed their first year with an average GPA of 2.87.

In his first seven seasons, besides the 20 players who have qualified for the SEC Academic Honor Roll and the 11 graduates, Brady has coached the SEC Player of the Year (Stromile Swift-2000), two SEC Freshmen of the Year (Torrin Bright - 2000; Brandon Bass - 2004), plus 10 selections on the All-SEC teams.

All that has been a part of the foundation of LSU basketball under John Brady. The 50-year-old Brady enters his eighth season having taken the Tigers a long way both on and off the court.

What has been the result? The Tigers program is solid both athletically and academically. The top athletes in the country are seriously putting LSU at the top of their lists and Brady is earning the respect of his peers in the league. The plan to bring back the success of the LSU program has now shifted to the future of keeping the program at the top of the SEC for years to come.

Prior to becoming the head coach at LSU, Brady served six years as the head coach at Samford. He also served as assistant coach at Mississippi State and UNO prior to taking the head position at the Birmingham school.

Some 100 Point Notes

The last time the Tigers scored 100 points prior to the Jan. 15, 2005 Ohio State game, ironically, was Jan. 15, 2003 when LSU beat Centenary, 112-65 ... The last time LSU was involved in a game that both teams scored 100 was Nov. 29, 1995 when LSU beat Southern University, 109-100 ... The LSU-Ohio State game marked the 24th time LSU had been involved in a game where both teams scored in double figures and LSU has a record of 15-9 ... The Tigers have won 10 straight games when scoring 100, dating back to the end of the 1993-94 season when LSU lost to Arkansas in overtime, 108-105, at the Maravich Center ... That loss is the only in the last 34 when LSU has scored 100 points or more, winning 33 of the last 34 games in which the Tigers score 100 ... Overall, LSU is 95-8 when scoring 100 points or more.

Davis Joins Impressive List of Freshman Early Game Performances

After Glen Davis had his 28 points-14 rebound performance against South Carolina (1-12), the LSU Sports Information Office staff was shipped to the archives to try to find other strong performances from the last 30 years in a freshman's first 12 games. Here's some of what was found:

Kenny Higgs -- 12-20-74 -- vs. Duke (5th game) -- 44 pts, 10 rebs., 6 assts.

Durand "Rudy" Macklin -- 11-26-76 -- vs. Tulane (1st game) -- 13 pts, school record 32 rebs.

Jordy Hultberg -- 11-26-76 -- vs. Tulane (1st game) -- 28 pts.

DeWayne Scales -- 1-7-77 -- vs. Georgia (12th game) -- 20 pts, 13 rebs.

Howard Carter -- 1-12-80 -- vs. Georgia (12th game) -- 24 pts, 7 rebs.

Derrick Taylor -- 12-23-81 -- vs. UCLA (4th game) -- 23 pts, 3 rebs., 4 assts.

Chris Jackson -- 12-6-88 -- vs. La. Tech (3rd game) -- 48 pts, 5 rebs., 4 assts.

Chris Jackson -- 12-10-88 -- vs. Florida (5th game) -- 53 pts., 3 rebs.

Shaquille O'Neal -- 12-4-89 -- vs. Lamar (5th game) -- 26 pts., 17 rebs., 6 blks.

Shaquille O'Neal -- 1-2-90 -- vs. Texas (8th game) -- 16 pts, 19 rebs., 10 blks.

Ronnie Henderson -- 12-21-93 -- vs. Southeastern La. (6th game) -- 27 pts., 8 rebs., 5 assts

Randy Livingston -- 12-3-94 -- vs. Georgia Mason (3rd game) -- 28 pts, 4 rebs., 18 assts.

Randy Livingston -- 12-6-94 -- vs. Troy State (4th game) -- 23 pts, 6 rebs., 15 assts.

Lester Earl -- 11-22-96 -- vs. Troy State (1st game) -- 25 pts., 7 rebs., 3 assts.

Brandon Bass -- 12-27-03 -- vs. UAB (8th game) -- 22 pts, 10 rebs.

Glen Davis -- 1-12-05 -- vs. S. Carolina (12th game) -- 28 pts, 14 reb.

The Pete Maravich Center -- Under New Management

On July 1, 2004, the management of the Maravich Center came under the direction of the LSU Athletics Department as the building's control was transferred from the University. The building, now hosting its 34th season of men's basketball, is undergoing a multi-year refurbishing to continue it as one of the great basketball venues in the South.

It's a renovation that began two years ago with new television lights that can be turned on and off to allow more freedom with player introductions and special ceremonies.

It continued last season with a brand new roof surface that will serve for many years in the future. Also, the outside concourse windows of the building now feature the Tiger mascot running around the building that can be seen for miles as people enter the city on the Mississippi River Bridge.

This year, basketball fans will see a completely redesigned concourse with video and graphic displays, renovated concession stands and video kiosks showcasing the best of the sports that play in the building - men's and women's basketball, volleyball and gymnastics.

The concourse is designed into four quadrants -- Pete Maravich Pass, The Walk of Champions, Heroes Hall and Midway of Memories.

There is still more to come. At the close of the basketball season, the seats in the arena will be replaced, the acoustical paneling around the top of the arena will be replaced and handicap accessible seating is added at new locations. Also planned are upgraded restroom facilities and updates to the heating and air conditioning systems.

The Tigers, who played their 500th game in the building last season, are 379-133 (.739) in the building, 7-1 this year, and LSU has won at least 12 games five of the last six seasons ... In SEC games, the Tigers are 181-106 (62.9 percent) in the building ... LSU was 5-3 last year in league games, 6-2 in 2003 and 4-4 in 2002.

Non-Conference Streak Busted, But Has Started Again

The West Virginia loss (11-27) was only the 27th in 225 non-conference games in the 30-plus year history of the building and it was the first loss in a regular season non-conference home game since Dec. 1, 1987 against Lamar, a span of 56 games ... The Tigers are 61-4 in the John Brady era in home non-conference games ... That streak includes two wins over Arizona, including a win when the Wildcats were No. 1, last year's win over Utah and now the double-overtime win over Ohio State ... Since the West Virginia game, LSU won non-conference games against Northwestern State, McNeese State and Ohio State.

More Number Crunching

The Tigers 58.8 percent shooting against South Carolina was LSU's best effort in an SEC game from the field since the Feb. 4, 2004 game against Tennessee in Baton Rouge when SLU shot 60.4 percent from the floor ... Ironically, the two games are fairly similar in that LSU was 30-51 against South Carolina and 29-of-48 against Tennessee ... LSU in the last two games has shot 68-of-124 from the floor (30-51 against SC and 38-73 against Ohio St.) ... LSU has shot 50 percent or better from the floor six times this season ... The win by LSU when being out shot from the floor by Ohio State marked the 19th time in 92 games in the Brady era that LSU has won when out shot from the field ... The losses to Southern Miss (12-18) and Houston (12-21) marked the first time LSU had lost consecutive non-conference games in the Brady era ... LSU scored 45 points in the first half against Ohio State, giving LSU 13 halves in which they have scored 40 points or more this season.

Home Wins

The Tigers are 7-1 this season at home and has 35 wins in the last two-plus seasons dating back to the start of the 2002-03 season. That is the best in the SEC entering the week:

LSU 35
Vanderbilt 34
Florida 33
South Carolina 33
Tennessee 33
Kentucky 31
Georgia 30
Auburn 30
Alabama 30
Mississippi State 29
Arkansas 27
Ole Miss 26

Road Games

The Tigers are 0-3 on the road this season, having lost on opponent's courts at Houston (81-72, Dec. 21), Jan. 3 at Utah (69-55) and Jan. 8 at Alabama (73-58) ... John Brady is 18-34 over the last five years on the road ... LSU has now lost four straight SEC road games dating back to last year ... Last year, the SEC road teams won just 32 of 96 contests.

LSU Fails to Win When Scoring 80

The number 80 had been a good one for the Tigers in John Brady's eight seasons as the Tigers coach as they entered the Dec. 18 game with Southern Miss, 48-0, in the Brady era when scoring at least 80 points, including 5-0 this season ... But when Southern Miss prevailed in an 88-84 win, it marked the first time in the Brady era the Tigers were not the winners when scoring 80 points or more.

LSU Scoring Early, Giving Up Points

LSU made a decision this season to play a more up-tempo offense. But in return, this season, opponents have also scored more points and players seem to be consistently having big games scoring against the Tigers.

In the six games prior to the Florida State game on Dec. 30, the opponents were shooting over 40 percent from three-point range, 40-of-95 (42.1 percent) ... In that period, two players scored over 30 points and five others this season posted at least 22 points ... Last season in 29 games, no player scored over 30 and only three scored as much as 24 points on LSU.

But Things Changed Against Florida State

Against Florida State (Dec. 30), the LSU up-tempo offense took on a new look -- call it the "patient" up-tempo offense as LSU looked to go hard in transition, but the Tigers weren't afraid to pull it up and work the ball around in the offense, finding several holes in the Florida State Seminoles in a 67-50 win for the Tigers.

The decision to play a more patient style was part of a decision by the LSU coaching staff to develop a renewed emphasis on rebounding and defending by the Tigers, something that has long been a staple of the John Brady era at LSU.

The Tigers held Florida State in both halves under 30 points and held an opponent to 60 points or less for the 77th time in the Brady era and LSU has a 66-11 record in those games ... LSU also out rebounded the Seminoles, 42-30, holding FSU to 10 less offensive rebounds than Houston had against the Tigers the week before.

Against Utah And Alabama

In both games, the Tigers were able to stay with the opposition through the first 20 minutes, trailing by just one point ... But in both games, the opponents dominated the Tigers in the second half ... Against Utah (1-3), Andrew Bogut became the eighth opponent player to score at least 22 points against LSU this year and helped the Utes dominate the Tigers on the boards ... Alabama had the big scoring run after LSU took a one-point lead that saw LSU fall down by 15 by the time LSU scored another field goal.

Now Most Recently

Against South Carolina (1-12), it was the Tigers who took advantage and had the two major runs which made the difference in LSU's first conference win ... In the first half, with South Carolina up 18-17, it was a 14-3 run which gave LSU a 10-point lead (31-21) which they carried into the half at 39-29 ... The second half saw Carolina cut the game down to seven points, at 47-40, when LSU went on 16-0 run that put LSU up 23 points, 63-40, and that was more than the Gamecocks could overcome as they got no closer than the 15-point final margin.

Against Ohio State (1-15), the Tiger offense had to be on the go from start to finish as the game turned into an offensive showcase in which the Tigers shot over 50 percent from the floor and made 29-of-31 free throws ... It was the Tigers which forced the first overtime with a three-pointer in the final eight seconds of regulation and Ohio State which forced the second overtime with a three in the final seconds ... LSU's five starters scored all 113 points in the game.

The Points Against Turnovers

Alabama (1-8) had another good night converting the LSU turnovers into points as the Tide got 19 points off LSU's 18 turnovers. It just added to some of the previous totals from earlier this season as Florida State (12-30) got 20 points off turnovers, Houston (12-21) 20, Southern Miss (12-18) 13, McNeese (12-23) getting 20 (many of them in their late comeback that fell just short), Northwestern State (12-11) 19 and West Virginia (11-27) 24.

The Stats -- Breaking Down The Wins and Losses

There is a definite difference in what has been happening to LSU in regard to the games won and the games lost -- here how it breaks down with a caveat that in the McNeese win, the stats are skewed for the

Overtime

The Ohio State game marked the second time the Tigers had gone to overtime this season ... The game against Southern Miss (12-18) was the first LSU game to go to overtime since Feb. 13 2002, when LSU rallied to force overtime against Mississippi State and won, 68-65 ... LSU's last multiple overtime game was during the 1999 season, when LSU lost a three-overtime tilt at Alabama, 72-71 ... The last multiple overtime game in Baton Rouge was the double-overtime win over Purdue in the first round of the 1986 NCAA Tournament ... LSU is now 26-41 in overtime games and 17-16 in Baton Rouge ... The Tigers are 4-4 in the John Brady era in overtime games.

Darrel Mitchell, who played all 45 minutes in the overtime game against Southern Miss, played 46 minutes against Ohio State ... Brandon Bass and Tack Minor each played 40 minutes against Southern Miss with Bass playing 45 minutes in the Ohio State win, Minor 42 ... Antonio Hudson played 44 minutes against OSU.

Paid Attendance

The Tigers average paid attendance for the first eight home games is 70,159 or 8,770 ... The total remains ahead of the total for the first seven games of the 2003-04 season (66,518), an increase of 5.2 percent at the box office.

Also up this season is the actual attendance numbers through the first seven games ... This season, the actual crowd total is 40,667 for the eight games, compared to 39,918 for the first eight games of the 2003-04 season, an increase of 1.8 percent for the season.

The Tigers have record an upswing in paid attendance at the Pete Maravich Center the last three seasons, averaging 9,355 at the end of last season ... That represents an increase of 15.4 percent since the 2000-01 season when LSU's paid average was 8,106. LSU's paid average was 8,534 in 2002 and 8,687 in 2003 ... The 9,355 is the second best average of the John Brady era behind the 10,549 average paid crowd during the 2000 NCAA Sweet 16 season.

Free Throws

In the beginning of the season, the Tigers were red-hot at the free throw line, making nearly 78 percent at the stripe in the first five games:

Tulane (W, 83-58) -- 23-of-30 -- 76.7 percent
UL Lafayette (W, 83-69) -- 18-of-24 -- 75.0 percent
New Orleans (W, 95-79) -- 14-of-17 -- 82.4 percent
West Virginia (L, 69-84) -- 16-of-19 -- 84.2 percent
Northwestern State (W, 83-74) -- 30-of-40 -- 75.0 percent

But then in the next three games, the Tigers were struggling to hit 2/3 of the attempts in the next three games:

McNeese State (W, 82-79) -- 15-of-26 -- 57.7 percent
Southern Miss (L, 84-88 ot) -- 16-of-24 -- 66.7 percent
Houston (L, 72-81) -- 16-of-26 -- 61.5 percent

Now the Tigers are again hitting free throws with a touch not seen in recent years, although until the Ohio State game, the Tigers were struggling to get to the free throw line, averaging just 11 attempts a game in the four contests prior to the Ohio State game:

Florida State (W, 67-50) -- 9-of-11 -- 81.8 percent
Utah (L, 55-69) -- 6-of-7 -- 85.7 percent
Alabama (L, 58-73) -- 10-of-13 -- 76.9 percent
South Carolina (W, 79-64) -- 10-of-13 -- 76.9 percent
Ohio State (W, 113-101) -- 29-of-31 -- 93.5 percent

In the last five games, LSU is 64-of-75 at the line (85.3 percent).

For the season, LSU is shooting one of its strongest percentages in years, 75.4 percent (212-of-281) ... That percentage presently would be the second best in school history for a season, topped only by the 77.0 percent school record set by the 1988-89 team (which had ace free throw shooter, Chris Jackson) ... LSU leads the league in

Last year, LSU got to the line 678 times, 23.4 a game, compared to the present average of 21.6 attempts a game ... The best percentage season at the line for a Brady team prior to this year was the 2000-01 team that made 69.2 percent of its attempts.

The Tigers have four starters making at least 73 percent of their attempts -- Brandon Bass 88.3 percent (53-of-60); Darrel Mitchell 83.7 percent (36-of-43), Glen Davis 73.2 percent (52-of-71) and Tack Minor 73.9 percent (34-of-46).

Brandon Bass is third in the league in free throw percentage and Darrel Mitchell is fifth.

Three-Point Field Goals

In looking back at last year's effort at the three-point arc, one has to go back to the first year of the John Brady era to find a year when the Tigers had less success at making three-pointers in regard to total and percentage. Last year, LSU made 168 treys, down 47 from the 2002-03 season with a percentage of 33.6 percent for the 2003-04 year, compared to 37.7 percent for 2002-03.

So far in 13 games this year, LSU's three-point abilities have improved, making 103-of-265 attempts or 38.9 percent. The Tigers are averaging 7.9 treys a game, compared with just 5.8 a game last year ... The Tigers are on pace to make over 200 three-pointers this season, something done by only two LSU teams ... Antonio Hudson continued his strong play outside the arc, making 32-of-73 or 43.8 percent, while Darrel Mitchell (12-of-20) in the last three games, has his percentage back over 40 percent (35-of-84, 41.7 percent).

Five different players made threes against Utah (1-3) when LSU had 11 treys, one of two games the Tigers have made double figure threes ... In the last five games, the Tigers are 46-of-111 from the arc, or 41.4 percent.

Assists and Turnover Numbers

The Tigers assists and steals were down last year, with 346 assists and 176 steals compared to 2003 - 515 assists, 255 steals; 2002 -- 467 assists, 280 steals; 2000 -- 503 assists, 313 steals.

Last year, LSU averaged 11.9 assists and 6.1 steals a game ... Through the first 13 games, the Tigers numbers in assists are up, averaging 16.8 a game, but LSU struggles to get steals from the opponents, averaging just 7.0 a game.

LSU has kept the assist to turnover ratio positive so far with 218 assists to 181 turnovers with more assists than turnovers in nine games. For the last five years, LSU's primary point guards have had a positive assist-to-turnover ratio ... Through the first 13 games this year, Tack Minor has 78 assists to 53 turnovers and Xavier Whipple has 30 assists to 10 turnovers ... LSU opponents have dished out 147 assists to 218 for LSU, while the Tigers have forced 166 turnovers.

LSU's other two guards, Antonio Hudson and Darrel Mitchell also have good assist and turnover numbers with Hudson having 27 assists and 21 turnovers, while Mitchell is at 38 assists and 25 turnovers.

"Assisted" Baskets

The term first came to attention when Coach Brady noted it during the end of the 2002-03 season when LSU had back-to-back games against Auburn and Tennessee in which the number of assists to the number of made field goals was in close proximity ... That year, LSU had 26 assists to 32 baskets against Auburn and in the very next game at Tennessee, the Tigers has 27 assisted baskets out of 30 potential field goals made (90 percent of the LSU field goals were assisted). In those two games, LSU had 53 assisted baskets out of possible 62 field goals made (85 percent).

LSU had four games last year with an assisted basket percentage of 80 percent or better ... Against Northwestern State (12-11), the Tigers had 19 assisted baskets out of a potential 22 made field goals (86 percent) ... There have been 12 such games in which the "assisted" basket percentage is 80 percent or better since 1985 ... LSU was just under 80 percent at 79.2 percent against Florida State (Dec. 30) with 19 assists of a possible 24 baskets.

Field Goal Percentage

The Tigers loss to Southern Miss (12-18) marked a rare occasion when LSU shot 50 percent from the field but couldn't win the contest ... LSU has won 118 of its last 136 games in which it has shot 50 percent or more from the field and the Southern Miss game was only the 11th time in 74 games in which LSU has lost in the Brady era when shooting 50 percent ... LSU is now 109-23 in the Brady era when out shooting its opponents ... LSU is 6-2 this season when out shooting the opponent from the field, however the Florida State game (Dec. 30) stopped a two-game streak of LSU shooting better, but losing ... Last year, LSU was 17-3 when out shooting the opponents ... LSU has out shot eight of the 13 opponents this year.

The Tigers are 2-3 when shooting less than the opponent this season.

Brandon Bass

2004 Pre-Season Coaches All-SEC First Team

2004-05 Naismith Award Pre-Season Candidate

LSU Louisiana Classic MVP

Brandon Bass made a tremendous impact in Saturday's Ohio State game, scoring 14 points of his 29 in the two overtime periods as LSU pulled away to the win. Those numbers help him in the CBS Sportsline Player Productivity Ratings where Bass is listed as the 10th best forward in the country and tied for the 12th best player in the nation when all positions are accounted for. The rankings are a total player-rating system based on various offensive and defensive statistics. Players increase their scores with every contribution they make to the game.

Bass enters the week averaging 17.2 points per game, 8.5 rebounds per game, shooting 60.6 percent from the field, 88.3 percent at the free throw line (having made 15 of 15 in the last four games), while averaging 1.3 blocks a game.

In the SEC rankings, Bass is near the top in several categories: Scoring -- 4th; Rebounding -- 3rd; Field Goal Percentage -- 1st; Free Throw Percentage -- 3rd; Blocked Shots -- 8th; Offensive Rebounds -- 4th; Defensive Rebounds -- 4th.

The last LSU player to win the SEC field goal percentage title was Stromile Swift in 2000, when he shot right at 61 percent from the field ... Bass' 60.7 percent field goal percentage presently represents the eighth best single season field goal percentage in LSU history.

Bass' double double against Ohio State was his fourth of the season:

Northwestern State (12-11) -- 6-10 FG, 10-11 FTs, 1 ast, 2 blk, 22 pts, 14 rebounds

Southern Miss (12-18) -- 6-7 FG, 1-2 FT, 4 ast, 1 blk, 13 pts, 11 rebounds

Houston (12-21) -- 8-13 FG, 5-7 FT, 2 ast, 6 blk, 22 pts, 15 rebounds (career high boards)

Ohio State (1-15) -- 12-22 FG, 0-2 3FG, 5-5 FT, 1 blk, 1 stl, 29 pts, 10 rebounds.

The sophomore now has 11 double-doubles in his LSU career... Bass' best scoring game came in the second game of the year ... The only shot Brandon Bass took that didn't go in the basket in the championship game of the LSU Louisiana Classic (11-21) against UL-Lafayette came with 1:37 to go in the first half. Other than that, he was perfect, hitting 11-of-12 from the field and eight-of-eight at the free throw line in a 30-point performance that helped him solidify Most Valuable Player honors in the tournament.

Ironically, it was in the same game (second of the season) a year ago that an LSU player last hit the 30-point barrier as Jaime Lloreda had 30 against McNeese State in the second game of the 2003-04 campaign.

For Bass, it appeared to complete his return after he underwent arthroscopic left knee surgery Oct. 1 to repair a lateral meniscus tear. The surgery was performed following an MRI on the knee after Bass disclosed discomfort in the knee.

Bass was the SEC Freshman of the Year after the 2003-04 season in which he averaged 12.8 points and 7.4 rebounds a game. He was also on the Collegeinsider.com All-Freshman team, a second team Freshman All-America pick by Rivals.com and the 2004 Dick Vitale SEC Diaper Dandy. The Baton Rouge product also had good success in the classroom, earning a spot on the SEC Freshman Academic Honor Roll.

Bass has a great chance to advance his position from the league freshman honor roll to the overall SEC academic honors list and possibly beyond after making 4A's and 1B in his 15 hours of class work over the fall semester.

The Houston game marked the sixth 20-point game of Bass' career:

1. 30 -- vs. UL-Lafayette, 11-21-04

2. 29 -- vs. Ohio State, 1-15-05

2. 27 -- vs. McNeese State, 12-13-04

4. 22 -- at Houston, 12-21-04

4. 22 -- vs. Northwestern State, 12-11-04

4. 22 -- vs. UAB, 12-27-03

7. 20 -- at Arkansas, 1-6-04

Bass continues to be one of the best big men in the league in free throw shooting. Last season, Bass hit 78.3 of his attempts and made his first 22 attempts this year before missing and ending a streak of 24 straight dating back to last year ... He now is on a streak of 15.

Bass also moved into eighth in the school's top 10 career shot block list (73) and his present career shooting percentage of 54.1 percent (204-of-377), presently is just outside the school's career top 10 list.

Bass has been in double figures in 11 of the 13 games, failing to get double figures in the two games in which he got into early foul trouble.

Darrel Mitchell

LSU Louisiana Classic All-Tournament

Mitchell had his career scoring high Saturday of 32 points as he played 46 minutes in the double overtime game against Ohio State ... Mitchell his 8-of-13 field goals, 4-of-7 treys (including the overtime forcer with eight seconds to play) and 12-of-13 free throws to go with three assists and three steals.

It capped off a great week for the junior from St. Martinville, La., who raised his average two points after scoring 50 points in the two games ... Mitchell, for the week, was 14-of-24 from the field, 9-of-15 from the arc and 13-of-15 from the free throw line.

The junior from St. Martinville in his first two years was one of the most consistent three-point shooters in the game ... As a freshman in 2003, Mitchell was 42-of-99 for 42.4 percent and last year, Mitchell upped the makes and attempts, hitting 67-of-160 for a very consistent 41.9 percent ... After going through a four-game spell when his shot wasn't falling with the regularity Tiger fans were accustomed to, he put in 3-of-5 against Alabama and then 5-of-8 against South Carolina to go back over 40 percent for the season and with the 4-of-7 added in he is now 35-of-84 for the season (41.7 percent) and 144-of-343 at the arc for his career or 42.0 percent, good enough for fourth on LSU's career three-point percentage makes list.

His 144 career treys puts him seventh on the LSU makes list.

Mitchell has scored at least 20 points three times this year and his 32-points against Ohio State marks the second 30 point game for an LSU player this year (Bass the other vs. UL-Lafayette) and he becomes the 34th LSU player since 1967 to score at least 30 in a game ... Mitchell is averaging 13.9 points per game, 2.1 rebounds per game and 2.9 assists per game ... The Alabama game (1-8) was the only game he did not have an assist this season ... He is also 36-of-43 at the free throw line, although he did not go to the line in any of the games that the Tigers were on the road.

Mitchell is fifth in the league in 3-point field goal percentage at 41.7 percent and fourth in three-pointers per game at 2.69 ... He is seventh in steals average at 1.92.

Tack Minor

For the first time since Torris Bright did it against Houston in January 2003, an LSU player dished out assists in double figures as Tack Minor had 10 assists against UNO (11-24) ... Minor also had 10 points in the game to record his first college double-double.

Minor equaled that success in the Ohio State game with 10 assists and 17 points in the Ohio State victory, his second double double.

Minor has started every game this season and has 78 assists (6.0 avg.) and 53 turnovers (4.1 avg.) ... Minor has had more assists than turnovers in eight games ... The Alabama game (1-8), was his first with more turnovers than assists since the second game of the season against Louisiana-Lafayette (11-21) ... He has been in double figures in eight games, including against Florida State (12-30), when he scored a career high of 23 points on 8-of-18 shooting, including 5-of-9 from three point range ... Minor has dished out at least five assists in eight of the games so far ... This year, Minor is averaging 29.0 minutes a game and 12.5 points ... Minor, after the Ohio State game, moved into the lead in the league in assists with his 6.00 average just ahead of Gary Ervin of Mississippi State, at 5.94 assists per game.

Antonio Hudson

*LSU Louisiana Classic All-Tournament

Consistency was a word the senior from Grambling, La., struggled with during his first three years of LSU, being unable to put together strings of games in double figures without disappearing for long stretches ... Now in his senior season, Hudson has put together the longest string of consecutive double figure games in his career.

The Grambling native, ended last season by hitting a career-high 25 versus South Carolina in the SEC Tournament and 16 at Oklahoma in the NIT to get his final average back to double figures (10.2 ppg) ... In the opener against Tulane (11-19), he scored 11 points and then in the championship game against UL-Lafayette, Hudson was a perfect 6-of-6 from three-point range as he recorded his seventh career 20-plus point game with 22 against the Cajuns. Against UNO on 11/24, he was 8-of-15 from the field with two treys in an 18-point effort.

In the present double figure streak, Hudson has scored 20 at Houston (12-21), 18 against Florida State (12-30) and 11 at Utah, at Alabama and South Carolina before scoring 20 against Ohio State.

Speaking of Hudson's 6-of-6 perfect night at the three-point line early in the year, he became just the fourth LSU player to be perfect outside the arc when taking at least five attempts:

Torris Bright, at Arizona (5-of-5), 12-20-00
Collis Temple, vs. Nicholls State (5-of-5), 12-22-00
Darrel Mitchell, vs. Auburn (5-of-5), 2-26-03
Antonio Hudson, vs. UL Lafayette (6-of-6), 11-21-04

For the 13 games, Hudson is averaging 13.9 points per game, 3.3 rebounds (after a career tying nine boards against Ohio State) and 2.1 assists while averaging a team-high 35.7 minutes a game ... For Hudson, trying to find the consistency that he has been striving for his entire career, the 11 games in double figures is more than any of his other years at this point of the season.

Another sign of the consistency has been Hudson's strong play on the arc. Hudson opened the season by hitting 19-of-36 outside the line and he has come back after hitting just 2-of-10 combined against Southern

#10 - David Fleshman

Two-sport HS star before football injury cut short senior year.

#11 - Josh Maravich

Son of the game's all-time leading scorer, Pete Maravich.

#22 - Xavier Whipple

Solid PG who started 26 games a year ago ... Averaging 18 minutes a game.

#30 - Brandon Bass

SEC Freshman of Year 2004 ... Freshman academic All-SEC (4 A's, 1 B in fall semester this year) ... MVP of La. Classic ... Leads SEC in FG%.

32 - Paul Wolfert

Son of a former Tiger player, given a scholarship for the 2003-04 season.

#34 - Glen Davis

Mr. Basketball in Louisiana, Parade and McDonald's All-America ... Career high 28 pts, 14 reb., vs. S. Carolina (1-12) ... 3rd in scoring, 1st in rebounding among league freshman ... Three straight double figure scoring games.

#35 - Darnell Lazare

Solid forward who got valuable time last year, starting eight games.

#41 - Ross Neltner

A Kentucky Mr. Basketball, made first start vs. Tulane (11-19) ... Twice had career scoring high of seven.

#42 - Antonio Hudson

Senior hit 6-of-6 treys in all-tourney effort against La. Lafayette (11-21) ... Against Fla. St. (12-27) became 34th player at LSU to go over 1,000 career points ... One of league leaders in 3-point FG percentage.

Miss (12-18) and Houston (12-21) to nail 15-of-32 in the last four games ... Against Florida State, Hudson was 4-of-8, 3-of-7 at Utah, 3-of-4 at Alabama, 2-of-6 versus South Carolina and 3-of-7 versus Ohio State.

Against Florida State (12-30) he became the 34th player in LSU history to score 1,000 career points ... He now has 1,057 points and he is now 32nd on LSU's career scoring list as he begins to move past other players ... For example, once he hits 1,100 points, he will have moved up to 27th place on the school list.

Hudson is 15th in the league in scoring, third in the league in three-point percentage (43.8 percent) and sixth in threes per game (2.46).

Glen Davis

Davis certainly opened SEC play with one of his most complete efforts at Alabama (1-8) and then went off the charts against South Carolina (1-12). The most important thing was the way he followed with a third consecutive sound game against Ohio State ... The numbers for Davis in the last three games:

At Alabama -- 5-11 FG, 3-5 FT, 1 ast, 2 blocks, 3 steals, 13 pts, 7 reb.

South Carolina -- 12-17 FG, 1-1 3FG, 3-4 FT, 1 steal, 28 pts, 14 rebounds (8 offensive)

Ohio State -- 7-16 FG, 0-2 3FG, 1-1 FT, 3 asts, 2 blks, 1 stl, 15 pts, 11 reb.

Last 3 games -- 24-44 FG, 1-4 3 FB, 7-10 FT, 4 asts, 4 blocks, 5 steals, 56 points, 32 reb.

Davis enters Wednesday's game averaging 13.2 points per game, 7.7 rebounds and 1.1 blocks per game.

For the second straight year, a Baton Rouge freshman opened his career at LSU with a double-double ... Last year, it was Brandon Bass who opened his career with 15 points and 11 rebounds in a win over Southern University ... This year, Davis came off the bench early against Tulane (11-19) and played 24 minutes, scoring 16 points with 13 rebounds ... Davis was 4-of-6 from the field and 8-of-11 from the free throw line to help the LSU percentage of 76.7 percent for the evening.

Davis has started the last 12 games and has had eight total games in double figures ... Against Southern Miss, Davis hit 9-of-19 field goal attempts and 9-of-11 free throw attempts in that 27-point effort ... Davis is fifth overall in rebound average (7.7 rpg) and among just freshman, Davis' 13.2 average is second and he is the league's leading freshman rebounder.

Ross Neltner

LSU sophomore Ross Neltner made his first career start in the season opener against Tulane and played 20 minutes with a career high of seven points on 3-of-6 shooting and five rebounds ... Neltner's playing time as a freshman grew as the season wound down, gaining more and more confidence scoring his previous career high of five points against Kentucky and Ole Miss in back-to-back games.

Neltner was a big factor in the Florida State game (12-30), coming off the bench with foul trouble looming for LSU's starting forwards and played 30 solid minutes, hitting both field goal attempts and both free throw attempts to go with two assists and two blocked shots ... Twice he has had seven points, his career high and he is averaging 2.1 points and 3.3 rebounds a game, while averaging 14 minutes a contest ... Neltner hit a three-point attempt and had four rebounds in 11 minutes against South Carolina.

Xavier Whipple

The senior point guard has been a steady influence coming off the bench to average 17.8 minutes a game ... That's what he has become known for in the last 1 1/2 years when he was the starting point guard for the Tigers ... Whipple had a strong game off the bench play-making against McNeese State (12-13), with six assists and just one turnover ... Whipple had his second scoring high of eight points against Houston (12-21), playing 28 minutes, hitting 3-of-5 field goals, including a trey, while dishing out four assists to just one turnover ... Whipple has an assist-to-turnover ratio of 3.0 with 30 assists and just 10 turnovers so far this season ... Against Alabama (1-8), Whipple played a season high 30 minutes, hitting two-of-five field goal attempts for four points with five assists and two turnovers ... He came back against South Carolina and though he played just 14 minutes he had four assists and no turnovers.

Whipple doesn't shoot often, but this season he is 5-of-12 from three-point range, giving him 23 career three-point makes ... Whipple is averaging 2.1 points per game and 1.6 rebounds per game to go with 2.3 assists.

Darnell Lazare

In 13 games, he is averaging 2.2 points per game and 1.7 rebounds, averaging 7.2 minutes of playing time per game ... Lazare has hit 10-of-17 field goal attempts and an equally strong 8-of-11 free throws ... His best scoring and rebounding game came against UNO with nine points (the fourth highest scoring game of his career) and seven rebounds ... Lazare started eight games a year ago at forward for the Tigers ... Lazare is looking for his first points since the Dec. 18 Southern Miss game.

More on Three-Pointers

The Tigers enter the game having made at least one three pointer in every game of the John Brady era, 225 games ... The streak actually runs back seven more games of the 1996-97 season to Feb. 7, 1997, a total of 232 games where LSU has made at least one three-pointer ... Seven times in the 231 games, LSU has kept the streak alive by making just one three pointer in the game ... The closest streak-buster came last year in the March 3 Ole Miss game when it took 34 minutes for LSU to make a three-pointer.

Smile To Those TV Cameras

LSU was 10-8 on television last year, the first winning record on TV since the 1999-2000 season when LSU recorded a 13-4 mark ... LSU opened up 5-2 on TV this year with the Tigers on Cox Sports Television Wednesday against Arkansas.

The Louisiana Streak Still Alive For Another Season

The McNeese game, as close and as crazy as it was at the end, kept alive for the Tigers their 16-year win streak over Louisiana schools, now at 52 games ... The last time a Louisiana school beat the Tigers in the Maravich Center was when Louisiana Tech beat LSU, 111-109, in overtime (Dec. 6, 1988). The present streak started two nights later as LSU was able to sneak out a two-point win over McNeese State on Dec. 8, 1988 ... LSU was 5-0 this year against Louisiana schools.

97 and Counting

Over one-third of LSU's basketball seasons have been played in the Maravich Center as men's basketball goes into its 97th season ... LSU's record entering the season is 1,290-981 on court, needing just 10 wins to become the 55th school in Division I to win 1,300 games in its history.

Another Diploma On the Mantle

Fathers and Sons

For the second time in recent LSU history, the Tiger roster includes three players whose fathers played basketball also for the Purple and Gold.

Of course, junior Josh Maravich is the son of the greatest scorer in the history of college basketball Pistol Pete Maravich, who played varsity ball from 1967-68 through the 1969-70 season ... Also junior Paul Wolfert's Dad Rick Wolfert played at LSU 1972-73 and freshman (being redshirted this season) Garrett Temple's dad, Collis, Jr., played at LSU from 1971-74 ... Garrett's older brother, Collis III, was a member of the Tiger squad under John Brady from 1999-03.

LSU in Tournaments

The win by LSU in the championship game of the LSU Louisiana Classic tournament marked the 11th time LSU has won a regular season tournament in school history ... This was the fourth time LSU has opened up the season with an LSU hosted tournament since the 1975-76 season and LSU has a perfect 8-0 record in those events ... LSU's overall regular season tournament record is 58-50 with these tournament titles:

1952 Sugar Bowl Classic (New Orleans); 1958 Gator Bowl Tournament (Jacksonville, Fla.)
1968 All-College Tournament (Oklahoma City, Okla.); 1975 Louisiana Classic (Baton Rouge)
1985 LSU Invitational (Baton Rouge); 1986 Seaside Classic (Laie, Hawaii)
1987 LSU Invitational (Baton Rouge); 1988 Chaminade Classic (Honolulu, Hawaii)
1999 Hawaii Pacific Classic (Honolulu, Hawaii); 2002 Hispanic College Funds Classic (Baton Rouge)
2004 LSU Louisiana Classic (Baton Rouge)

25 Years of Hawthorne

LSU Sports Network play-by-play voice Jim Hawthorne is in his 25th year as the voice of the LSU men's basketball team ... Hawthorne began calling the LSU games at the start of the 1979-80 season, traveling from Shreveport where he then worked at KWKH Radio in Shreveport. At that time he was the voice of the Centenary Gents and had become known for his work with the Gents on the 50,000-watt clear-channel station at a time when future star Robert Parish played for Centenary.

Hawthorne called the games through the NCAA Final Four season of 1980-81, missing the 1981-82 season, before the rights holder at the time brought Jim back to the microphone and when the 1982-83 season began, Hawthorne was now a Baton Rouge resident. He was later hired from the affiliate by the LSU Athletic Department in 1986 and today serves as Assistant Athletic Director in charge of radio.

Previous Game Results and Notes

Game 1 -- LSU 83, Tulane 58 (11-19-04, Maravich Center)

Leading scorers: Glen Davis 16, Tack Minor 13, Antonio Hudson 11, Regis Koundjia 10; Leading rebounder: Glen Davis 13; Leading assist: Antonio Hudson 6

The Tigers posted an easy win Friday night in the semifinals of The LSU Louisiana Classic to advance to the championship game ... The Tigers pushed the lead to 34-21 at the half and then outscored Tulane 12-1 to open the second half and eventually opened as much as a 37-point lead ... Tigers shot 43.5 percent from the field (27-of-62), 6-of-18 from three-point range and a very strong 23-of-30 at the free throw line (76.7 percent) ... The Tigers out rebounded Tulane, 45-30, and had 16 assists to 12 turnovers.

Game 2 -- LSU 83, Louisiana-Lafayette 69 (11-21-04, Maravich Center)

Leading scorers: Brandon Bass 30, Antonio Hudson 22, Darrel Mitchell 12; Leading rebounder: Glen Davis 13; Leading assist: Darrel Mitchell, Xavier Whipple 4

The Tigers won the LSU Louisiana Classic, pulling away in the second half to defeat Louisiana-Lafayette at the Maravich Center ... Brandon Bass had a career-high 30 points, hitting 11-of-12 field goal attempts to earn tournament MVP honors ... In Hudson's 22-point effort, he hit 6-of-6 three-pointers and the senior joined Darrel Mitchell on the all-tournament team ... LSU shot 50.9 percent from the field (28-of-55), 9-of-18 from three-point range.

Game 3 -- LSU 95, UNO 79 (11-24-04, Maravich Center)

Leading scorers: Darrel Mitchell 20, Antonio Hudson 18, Glen Davis 16, Brandon Bass 15, Tack Minor 10; Leading rebounder: Darnell Lazare 7; Leading assist: Minor 10

The Tigers won the game against the University of New Orleans with a strong offensive performance in the first 16 minutes that gave LSU a 27-point lead ... Tack Minor had his first career double-double with 10 points and 10 assists as one of five LSU players to score in double figures ... LSU shot 57.1 percent from the field, including 64.3 percent in the second half ... The Tigers shot 45 percent from the arc (9-20) and again had another strong night at the free throw line, making 14-of-17.

Game 4 -- West Virginia 84, LSU 69 (11-27-04, Maravich Center)

Leading scorers: Tack Minor 17, Brandon Bass 15, Darrel Mitchell 14; Leading rebounder: Brandon Bass 9; Leading Assists: Tack Minor 6

The Tigers' 56-game regular season non-conference home winning streak came to an end with the loss to West Virginia ... The Mountaineers shot 60 percent from the field (33-of-55) and made 11 three-pointers to get the win ... After trading the lead back and forth, West Virginia took the lead for good at 19-17 with 11:52 to play in the first half and led by as much as 13 in the second half, before LSU rallied to cut it to four with 7:40 left ... But the Tigers could get no closer ... LSU out rebounded West Virginia, 36-25, shooting 38.6 percent from the floor ... LSU's free throw percentage continued to be good, making 16-of-19.

Game 5 -- LSU 83, Northwestern St. 74 (12-11, Maravich Center)

Leading scorers: Brandon Bass 22, Darrel Mitchell 20, Tack Minor 12, Antonio Hudson 12, Glen Davis 10; Leading rebounder: Bass 14; Leading Assists: Minor 8

The Tigers continued their win streak against Louisiana schools, extending it to 51 games ... The Tigers broke a one-game losing streak with the win that came after a two-week break for dead week and final exams on the campus ... LSU jumped out to 5-0 lead and led eight at the intermission after giving up the lead twice in the final 10 minutes of the first half ... But the Demons couldn't be put away, cutting the lead to two in the final seven minutes ... All five starters were in double figures for the Tigers with Bass getting his first double-double of the year with a career high 14 rebounds ... Ross Neltner had a career rebound night (6) and three players equaled or bettered career marks at the free throw line ... LSU was out shot from the field, 44.0 to 46.0 percent, but out rebounded the Demons, 40-32 ... The Tigers had 19 assists for the 22 made baskets, 86 percent.

Game 6 - LSU 82, McNeese St. 79 (12-13, Maravich Center)

Leading scorers: Brandon Bass 27, Glen Davis 15, Antonio Hudson 13; Leading rebounder: Brandon Bass 7, Glen Davis 7; Leading Assists: Xavier Whipple 6

A game of stark contrast as LSU apparently broke the game open, holding McNeese scoreless during the final 3:30 of the first half and the first five minutes of the second half to go from one point down to up 20, 55-35 ... LSU would have a 22-point lead, 65-43, with 10:12 to play only to see the whole thing evaporate and McNeese have two three-point attempts in the final 13 seconds to tie ... Brandon Bass had the second highest scoring game of the season and his LSU career and while LSU did shot 50 percent from the field, the Tigers were out rebounded, 42-33, and shot from 26 percent (5-19) from the arc ... Also after five strong games at the free throw line, the Tigers hit just 57.7 percent (15-26) from the free throw line.

Game 7 - Southern Miss 88, LSU 84 (OT) (12-18, Biloxi, Miss.)

Leading scorers: Glen Davis 27, Tack Minor 17, Darrel Mitchell 14, Brandon Bass 13; Leading rebounder: Brandon Bass 11; Leading Assists: Tack Minor 5

For the second straight game, the Tigers were full of ebbs and flows as an offense and a defense against the Golden Eagles, falling behind 16 points in the first half (down 11 at the half) to going up by seven points three times in the final nine minutes, the last at 71-64 with 3:07 to play ... But the Tigers were unable to hold the lead, and a Southern Miss bucket with 1.1 to play tied the game at 77-77 forcing overtime ... The Tigers made just 2-of-10 shots in OT and lost for the second time this season and for the first time in the Brady era when scoring 80 or more points ... LSU shot 50.8 percent from the field, but was out rebounded by the Golden Eagles, 38-33.

Game 8 - Houston 81, LSU 72 (12-21, Houston, Texas)

Leading scorers: Brandon Bass 22, Antonio Hudson 20; Leading rebounder: Brandon Bass 15; Leading Assists: Tack Minor 5

Except for an early spurt with the lead, the Tigers were in trouble on a couple of fronts, most notably defensively, giving up at least 79 points for the third straight game ... LSU led, 14-7, with six minutes gone in the first half, but the Cougars came back through the rest of a see-saw first half to lead, 37-35, at the intermission ... In the second half, the Cougars were able to drive past the LSU defense for easy goals, opening up as much as a 19-point advantage ... LSU shot 46.4 percent from the field, but only 23 percent from three-point range ... The Tigers were out rebounded, 42-39, but Houston had 17 offensive rebounds ... Brandon Bass had his second-straight double-double, including a career high 15 rebounds and a career equalling best six blocks as LSU lost two-straight games against non-SEC teams for the first time in the John Brady era.

Game 9 - LSU 67, Florida State 50 (12-30, New Orleans, La)

Leading scorers: Tack Minor 23, Antonio Hudson 18; Leading rebounder: Antonio Hudson 8. Leading Assists: Tack Minor 9

In the Nokia Sugar Bowl Classic, Tigers spurted early in the game and then used a "patient" up-tempo style of play on offense and increased attention to rebounding and defense to give the SEC a sweep of the doubleheader against the ACC ... Tigers jumped out to an 18-5 lead in the first five minutes and led by as much as 19, 31-12, in the first half before going to the dressing room up 35-27 ... The closest Florida State got was five with 6:26 to play, 49-49, but Antonio Hudson (twice) and Tack Minor hit threes to up the margin back to 58-44 with 4:53 to play ... The 23 points was a career high for Minor and Hudson became the 34th LSU player to go over 1,000 career points ... Tigers perimeter responded in the wake of foul trouble which saw Brandon Bass foul out and Glen Davis and Ross Neltner play with four fouls each.

Game 10 -- Utah 69, LSU 55 (1-3, Salt Lake City, Utah)

Leading scorers: Brandon Bass 17, Tack Minor 12, Antonio Hudson 11

Leading rebounder: Brandon Bass 9; Leading Assists: Darrel Mitchell 4, Tack Minor 4

Tigers were able to stay with the Utes Monday at the Huntsman Center for a half, but the dominance of Andrew Bogut (24-17) proved too much for LSU to overcome in the second half ... LSU was forced to shoot 31 threes over the defense of the Utes and made 11 with Brandon Bass making all three -of-his attempts ... LSU shot 38 percent for the game (19-50) and 35.5 percent from the three-point arc (11-of-31) ... LSU shot over 80 percent again from the line (6-of-7), but for the second straight game didn't get to the line very much ... LSU was out rebounded, 39-21 ... The Tigers had 13 assists and just six turnovers.

Game 11 -- Alabama 73, LSU 58 (1-8, Tuscaloosa, Ala.)

Leading Scorers: Glen Davis 13, Darrel Mitchell & Antonio Hudson 11, Brandon Bass 10; Leading Rebounder: Glen Davis 7; Leading Assists: Tack Minor, Xavier Whipple 5

For the second straight game, the Tigers were able to stay with an opponent for a half before the inability to stop the Tide's run and muster any offense of its own proved too much to overcome. LSU was down one, 35-34, at the half and LSU had a 40-39 lead with 18:21 to play on a Hudson field goal that would be LSU's last until the 7:35 mark which by then Alabama had a 60-45 lead ... The Tigers shot 42.6 percent from the field (20-47), while Alabama posted a 44.6 field goal percentage (25-56). LSU shot 50 percent from the three-point arc, 8-of-16, compared to 3-of-16 for Alabama ... The Tigers were out rebounded, 31-29, and had 18 turnovers compared to nine for Alabama.

Game 12 -- LSU 79, South Carolina 64 (1-12, Baton Rouge, La.)

Leading scorers: Glen Davis 28, Darrel Mitchell 18, Brandon Bass 12, Antonio Hudson 11; Leading rebounder: Glen Davis 14; Leading Assist: Tack Minor 6

The Tigers played probably its best overall game of the season in defeating the Gamecocks in the first LSU home game in a month and the SEC home opener ... The Tigers used a 14-3 run late in the first half to go to the dressing room up 10, 39-29, after shooting 60 percent from the floor and then used a 16-0 run after South Carolina had cut the game to seven points to put things away ... Glen Davis had a career night in points and rebounds and LSU shot 58.8 percent for the game (30-of-51), 47.4 percent from the arc (9-of-19) ... South Carolina hit 50 percent from the floor, but LSU out rebounded the Gamecocks, 30-19.
