

Postseason Ticket Information

During the course of the 2006 football season, LSU football season ticket holders will receive information by mail regarding the opportunity to apply for tickets to any postseason games in which the Tigers may participate. At that time, a deadline will be established for applying for tickets.

Possible postseason games include the SEC Football Championship Game and a holiday bowl game.

If the demand for tickets exceeds the supply available to LSU for any particular game, a distribution system utilizing the LSU Priority Point System will be used to determine ticket distribution.

Tickets for any postseason games involving LSU will be allocated first to players, coaches, LSU students and athletic department staff. Next, an allotment of tickets will be distributed through the LSU Priority Point System, based on points accumulated for contributions to LSU Athletics, the Tiger Athletic Foundation, LSU Foundation and LSU Alumni Association. To be eligible to purchase tickets based on the LSU Priority Point System, the applicant must be a season ticket holder.

The number of ticket requests from football season ticket holders will be measured against the number of available tickets to determine if any limits must be imposed. LSU will make every effort to accommodate as many of its fans as possible. If ticket requests exceed the available supply of tickets, only then will a limited lottery be used to distribute a portion of the tickets.

Ticket orders and seat locations are not accepted nor assigned on a first-come, first-served basis.

NEW IN 2006!

LSU PRIORITY POINT SYSTEM

For the first time in 2006, points will be awarded for contributions to the

LSU Tradition Fund and for academic giving to the University. For the Tradition Fund, points are awarded based on 1 point per $1,000 in contributions. For academic giving, points are awarded based on 1 point per $4,000 in contributions. Donations to TAF remain the same as in past years, with 1 point awarded per $1,000 in contributions for ticket purchases and 2 points per $1,000 in philanthropic donations. Contact the TAF for information on obtaining bonus points for various levels of giving at (225) 578-4823, or log on to www.lsutaf.org.

Method of Purchasing

- 1 Come in person to the LSU Athletics Ticket Office
- 2 Order by mail with order form (to be mailed during the season)
- 3 Use the official web site of LSU Athletics, www.LSUsports.net

NO FAX, PHONE ORDERS
OR CHECKS WILL BE ACCEPTED.

Availability/Limitations/Priority System

There is no limit on the number of tickets that may be ordered for the SEC Championship Game and each postseason bowl game, however, LSU is limited in the number of tickets received for those games. Consequently, the requests for postseason game tickets are sometimes much greater than the number of tickets received.

Should the demand for tickets exceed the supply available to LSU, limits will be imposed based on the chart below in order to accommodate requests from as many football season ticket holders as possible.

Should the number of tickets you request be reduced, you will be notified by e-mail.

Motor Home Parking

Reserved Lots

Reserved motor home parking is located in two areas on the LSU campus: LOT C/A at the corner of South Stadium Drive and Nicholson Drive, and TOUCHDOWN VILLAGE on Nicholson Extension across from the CEBA Building and near Highland Road. Individual game parking permits will not be sold for these lots.

Individual Game Lots

Motor home operators desiring to park in areas other than those designated as reserved lots for motor home parking will be directed to park in the Vet Med parking lot across from the School of Veterinary Medicine on Skip Bertman Drive (see map). This lot will open after 7 a.m. on Friday of each home football game, and the parking will be $100. Passes to this lot are available online at LSUsports.net under "Ticketing" and at the LSU Athletic Ticket Office.

Additional Parking

Because motor home lots on the LSU campus sometimes fill, LSU recommends Farr Park, located approximately two miles south of campus on River Road. Farr Park can be contacted at (225) 769-7805.

Motor Home Parking Rules and Regulations

When does RV Parking Open?

Parking for motor homes in Lot C/A and Touchdown Village will be available anytime after 5 p.m. on Friday of a home football game. As these spaces are individually reserved, it is requested that the motor homes not arrive until after 5 p.m. Motor homes must vacate the LSU campus by noon on Sunday following games (time subject to change).

Motorhome Exhaust Extensions

All motor homes require exhaust extensions that reach the top of the motor home. For the safety of everyone, motor homes without an extension should not operate a generator. This also applies to generators used by fifth-wheelers.

Motor Homes Only

Motor home spaces may only be used for motor homes. Spaces may not be used for automobiles, tents, port-o-lets, etc. Also, trailers, golf carts, ATVs, and go carts may not be used in motor home lots for safety reasons.

Trash and Trash Bags

Help us keep your campus clean by bagging your trash and using recycling containers. LSU's Facility Services Department distributes trash bags throughout campus on game days for your convenience. If you need more trash bags on game day, call (225) 578-3186.

"Fight For LSU" (LSU Fight Song)

Like Knights of old, Let's fight to hold
The glory of the Purple Gold.
Let's carry through, Let's die or do
To win the game for dear old LSU.
Keep trying for that high score;
Come on and fight,
We want some more, some more.
Come on you Tigers, Fight! Fight! Fight!
for dear old L-S-U.
RAH!

"Tiger Rag" (Hold That Tiger)

Long ago, way down in the jungle
Someone got an inspiration for a tune,
And that jingle brought from the jungle
Became famous mighty soon.
Thrills and chills it sends thru you!
Hot! so hot, it burns you too!
Tho' it's just the growl of the tiger
It was written in a syncopated way,
More and more they howl for the 'Tiger'
Ev'ry where you go today
They're shoutin'
Where's that Tiger! Where's that Tiger!
Where's that Tiger! Where's that Tiger!
Hold that Tiger! Hold that Tiger!
Hold that Tiger!

"Touchdown for LSU"

Tigers! Tigers! They've come to town,
They fight! They fight! Call a first down,
Just look them over, and how they can go,
Smashing the line with runs and passes
high and low.
Touchdown! Touchdown! It's Tigers' score.
Give them hell and a little bit more.
Come on you Tigers, Fight them, you Tigers,
Touchdown for LSU.
Rah! U. Rah!

LSU Alma Mater

Where stately oaks and broad magnolias
shade inspiring halls,
There stands our dear Alma Mater
who to us recalls
Fond memories that waken in our hearts
a tender glow,
And make us happy for the love
that we have learned to know.

All hail to thee our Alma Mater,
molder of mankind,
May greater glory, love unending
be forever thine.
Our worth in life will be thy worth
we pray to keep it true,
And thy spirit dwell in us forever...L-S-U.

"Hey Fighting Tiger"

Hey, Fightin' Tigers, Fight all the way
Play Fightin' Tigers, win the game today.
You've got the know how,
you're doing fine,
Hang on to the ball as you hit the wall
And smash right through the line
You've got to go for a touchdown
Run up the score.
Make Mike the Tiger stand right up and roar.
ROAR!
Give it all of your might as you fight tonight
and keep the goal in view.
Victory for L-S-U!

SEC Championship Game Appearance
(First for a First-Year SEC Coach)

It was nothing short of remarkable what LSU coach Les Miles accomplished during his inaugural season with the Tigers in 2005. Consider that Miles led the Tigers to only the third 11-win season in school history, to a top five national ranking and a berth in the Southeastern Conference Championship Game despite numerous distractions that covered most of the months of September and October.

Then, with starting quarterback JaMarcus Russell out with an injury, Miles, along with backup quarterback Matt Flynn, guided the Tigers to the most impressive bowl win in school history, a 40-3 thrashing of ninth-ranked Miami in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl. The win over the Hurricanes in the Peach Bowl capped a season that saw the Tigers post an 11-2 overall mark and finish ranked No. 5 in the final USA Today/Coaches Poll and a No. 6 ranking in the Associated Press poll.

To appreciate just how adverse the conditions that Miles and the Tigers had to overcome in 2005, you have to go back to late August and Hurricane Katrina, the first of two storms to devastate the state of Louisiana during the fall.

Days before LSU's originally scheduled season-opener against North Texas in Tiger Stadium, Hurricane Katrina blew ashore, packing tremendous winds, and turned the state, in particular New Orleans and southeastern Louisiana, upside down.

Massive flooding followed in the wake of the storm as more than 30 LSU players had their families and their homes affected by the hurricane as Miles' first game in Tiger Stadium against North Texas was postponed. With the LSU campus serving as the recovery center for those sick, homeless and displaced due to Hurricane Katrina, football seemed to be the farthest thing from most people's minds. However, Miles was able to successfully manage a delicate situation, one that saw his team and coaching staff volunteer time to those in need, while still attempting to focus on football for at least two hours a day.

After a week of trying to minimize the distractions for a football team that had their apartments and dorms rooms filled with displaced family members and friends due to the storm, it appeared that the Tigers would finally get to play a home game, this time against 15th-ranked Arizona State.

However, just as the Tigers began to prepare for the Sun Devils and the season-opener in Tiger Stadium, it was learned that the devastation to New Orleans is much greater than originally thought. With the Maravich Assembly Center on the LSU campus serving as what would become the largest field triage unit in United States history, it was mutually decided to move the LSU-Arizona State game to Tempe.

Still, with many in Louisiana under the distress of Hurricane Katrina, the Tigers were going to have to take to the desert to face a powerful offense in their first game of the season.

These were certainly trying times for everyone in the state of Louisiana, but even more so for a football coach who now had his team carrying the banner for a state in need of a diversion. LSU football had become a release for those consumed with the hurricane. LSU even re-stated its team goals, putting playing for the state of Louisiana at the top of the list.

The Tigers didn't disappoint as Miles and his LSU team used a 28-point fourth quarter rally to come back to beat Arizona State, 35-31, in Tempe.

Now with the Arizona State game behind them, it looked as if things for the LSU football team would gradually get back to normal as the Tigers now had a week off before facing Tennessee in Tiger Stadium on Sept. 24.

Then, the unthinkable happened. Another storm, this one named Rita, hit Southwest Louisiana, causing severe damage to more homes, leaving thousands without electricity and displacing even more Louisianans. The combination of Hurricanes Katrina and Rita forced LSU to again shuffle its schedule. Instead of playing Tennessee on a Saturday night in Tiger Stadium, the Tigers would now be forced to face the Volunteers on a Monday night. An emotionally drained LSU team saw a 21-0 halftime lead evaporate into a 30-27 overtime loss against the Vols.

There was no coaching handbook for Miles to refer to when it came to dealing with the hurricanes and preparing a team for competition during extreme adverse conditions. Miles was on his own, forced to navigate his LSU team through a treacherous stretch of games, while also being sympathetic to those still under the influence of the natural disasters.

With just five days between the Tennessee loss and the Mississippi State game, Miles and the Tigers were obviously dealt an unfair hand, however, he asked his team to respond and they did. The Mississippi State contest was the starting point for a stretch of games for the Tigers that saw LSU win nine straight. The 37-7 win over the Bulldogs was followed by a 34-6 road victory over Vanderbilt as the Tigers had re-established themselves as one of the nation's elite on the football field. During what would be 11-consecutive weeks of play, the Tigers would post a win over Florida along with overtime victories against Auburn and Alabama. In all, the Tigers beat four teams ranked among the top 15 in the nation, a school record for regular season victories over ranked opponents.

After 10 straight weeks of play during the regular season, the Tigers had fashioned a 7-1 conference mark and a berth in the SEC title game.

Miles became the only coach in his first year in the SEC to lead his squad to the league's title game. He also became the first coach in LSU history to beat Alabama, Auburn and Florida in the same season.

Following a loss to Georgia in the league's title game, Miles and the Tigers re-grouped, this time to beat No. 9 Miami, 40-3, in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl. The win gave the Tigers 11 victories for the year, making Miles the winningest first-year coach in school history.

Miles, the 2002 Big 12 Conference Coach of the Year and former assistant with Michigan, Colorado and the Dallas Cowboys who built Oklahoma State into a force in the Big 12, became LSU's 32nd head football coach on Jan. 3, 2005.

Born November 10, 1953, Miles earned his degree in economics from Michigan in 1976. Les and Kathy Miles have four children, Kathryn, Leslie Matthew, Benjamin and Macy Grace.
